Hereford's first Little League will kick off its season here Monday night in a brand new ball park with a pre-game ceremony including all Little League officials and players.

The opening will climax a project started the first of March by a group of Hereford men. Not successfully effected, the opening day was postponed a week from the originally scheduled date of June 4, because necessary equipment had not arrived for the park.

There will be a freezing demonstration in the home economics department at Hereford High School Tuesday, June 12, at 10 a.m.

The First Christian Church Bible school commencement exercise is scheduled for this evening at 8 p.m.

Three Hereford Future Farmers are attending the concluding session—a training period—at 7:30 p.m. in the church sanctuary.

Survey To Set New Insurance Rate on Buildings

New insurance rates for all mercantile buildings in Hereford will result from a 30-day survey to start here tomorrow.

Five members of the Texas Board of Insurance Commissioners rating department will conduct basement-to-attic surveys of each business house in the city to establish new rates.

With Woody Wilson, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, presiding, the group pointed out that hot checks were "still a problem," and agreed that if the situation worsened, direct action on the matter would be necessary.

Hot Checks, Cancel Regular Meetings

Retail merchants met Friday morning at Hotel Jim Hill to talk over hot check problems, discuss the success of the recent give-away program and agree not to meet regularly during the summer months.

Officials reminded all merchants to report their hot checks in order that committee members might keep tab on the extent of the problem.

In other matters of discussion, merchants mulled over the Pioneer Day program and suggested various changes in procedure that they felt would facilitate its execution if the program was repeated.

Called Meetings Only Members voted to discontinue their regular Friday morning meetings during the summer months as harvest time activity meant busier working day and vacation schedules keep some businesses short-handed.

City Dads Accept Zoning Board's Reclassification

In a special session at City Hall on Thursday afternoon the city commission acted on one zoning recommendation.

They approved the appeal by Wayne Wallace and Wayne Stark to rezone property at Avenue G and Park from residential to business classification.

Zoning board recommendations to establish a new "D-2" class zone which would permit establishment of retail businesses with certain exceptions were discussed and then tabled.

Wets Seek More Signatures, Now Have Office Here

Seeking about 200 more signatures of qualified voters for the local option election petition, the Deaf Smith County wet committee has opened a downtown office here.

Located at 311 West First Street, in the old McQueary Building, the office will be open 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. through June 15.

"We would like to see the issue go to a vote. Then the voters could go to the polls, cast their secret ballot and get the matter settled—for or against local sales—once and for all," said a spokesman for the wet committee.

He reported that the petition, circulated here since May 21, has now gained about 600 of the 816 signatures required to call a local option election. The petition calls for an election on the question of legal sales of alcoholic beverages "for off-premise consumption only within the prescribed limits" of Deaf Smith County.

Owners Say Homes Would Be Ruined by Zoning Change

Is a man's home—if it is in a residential area on Park Avenue—a castle?

Sixteen homeowners Thursday night told the City of Hereford zoning commission that "no matter how humble" their homes would be ruined if a service station should be built at Avenue I and Park.

The commission was meeting to consider for the second time the appeal of James H. Bradley for rezoning property just east of the intersection of the two streets from residential to business property.

Bradley asked if the board would rezone the property on his promise not to permit construction there of a service station, washateria, drive-in cafe or restaurant, or funeral parlor.

Protesting residents had expressed disapproval of these specific types of business operations.

He was told that members of the board felt their recommendation for establishment of a new "D-2" zone should be acted on by the commission as a necessary legal step to restricting "undesirable" businesses from any future neighborhood shopping centers.

Board members indicated they will ask for a joint meeting soon with the city commission to seek action on their recommendation to set-up the proposed "D-2" type zone.

Drys Marshall Forces While Petitions Circulate

With the deadline for wets to return petitions calling for a local option election 11 days away, Hereford dries have marshalled opposition forces.

The Hereford Ministerial Alliance in a recent session took an unequivocal position opposing any move to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages in Deaf Smith County.

Meanwhile, Ralph Smith, the county clerk, said no petition had been returned to his office. In order to call for a local option election, the petition must have signatures of 816 qualified voters indicating that they favor putting the matter to vote.

Seventeen Ministerial Alliance members signed a resolution outlining their position. They declared:

"We are strenuously opposed to any move that is designed to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages in this county, or in any county, for that matter. We believe the package store and the

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
The City and County are completing the Tierra Blanca Causeway. The City has completed the north side division which required 12,000 yards of dirt. The top of the way is 38 feet from rail to rail and is 450 feet in length from the bridge to a point this side of the old railroad grade. On the south side a deep "cut" has been made. This is the work of the county. The bridge was first raised six feet and the approach on the county side is being cut to a low gradient.

The supervision of this work has been under City Marshal C. L. Sullivan who is also Street Commissioner, and he deserves the thanks of the public for the very close attention given the job and the efficient work done.

Now, there is no further grounds for complaint from the southside people and Castro farmers who want to trade at Hereford. While the bridge is admittedly too narrow, the approaches are wide and in a measure correct the defect. The causeway will be macadamized and made into a perfect street.

25 Years Ago
Restraining orders, economy measures, and train schedules notwithstanding, Hereford has been enjoying the novelty of having 10 or 12 passenger trains pass through here every 24 hours since last Saturday. This has all been caused by the heavy rains and washouts in Colorado, which forced the detouring of Santa Fe passenger trains from other branches over this line. It was reported that Rock Island trains were also using these tracks but this is incorrect, the Santa Fe alone having availed themselves of this line of rails.

In the issue of May 27, The Brand was in error in giving William Black the athletic honors that should have been given to Joe Bailey Elliston, at the New Mexico Military Institute the past year. Mr. Elliston, in the Southwestern Intercollegiate Track Meet at Roswell held May 7, made the following winnings: 100-yard dash, third; 220-yard hurdles, third; 220-yard dash, second. Joe was presented with medals for the above events.

Another tenth of an inch of rain fell in Hereford Thursday morning. Thursday afternoon reports came in of a heavy rain and hail storm to the west. It seemed to be a streak and not of general nature. Friday the sun was shining brightly, although rain clouds were still hanging about.

MAN WITH GOLDEN ARM

"The Man With the Golden Arm," a United Artists release showing Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday at the Star Theater, is a bold and courageous film, dealing as it does with an untouchable theme—"a man's fight against drug addiction," but even more important it makes for top notch movie entertainment.

Starring Frank Sinatra, Eleanor Parker and Kim Novak, in a taut movie version of Nelson Algren's challenging National Book Award novel of the same name, the picture combines sterling performances, superb direction on the part of Otto Preminger (who also produced it) and a story that mounts steadily in interest from the first frame to the last.

Frank Sinatra, who, since "From Here To Eternity" has come through with one great performance after another, achieves perfection with his interpretation of Frankie Machine, gambling and drug addict, determined to fight both, but fighting against greater odds than he ever faced at the card table. Sinatra realistically brings to the fore everything that one knows Frankie Machine would face; uncertainty, weakness, fatigue, despair—and through it all, an ever-present feeling of tenderness.

beautiful daughter Jean (Mitzi Gaynor) and their partner Gerald (Reginald Gardiner). Jean makes a play for George, hoping to soften him for the card game to come, but by the time he is ripe for plucking, she has fallen in love with him, and he with her. George proposes, but learning about Jean's shady career, he is so hurt he pretends he's been married three times. Jean is broken-hearted.

It all makes for hilarious movie entertainment showing Wednesday and Thursday at the star.

COMANCHE!

Comanches, the most warlike of Indian tribes in the American Southwest following the Civil War, are the subject of the thrilling, romantic and colorful United Artists release which plays Sunday and Monday at the Tower Drive-In. "Comanche" filmed in color by DeLuxe and CinemaScope, and starring Dana Andrews, tells in excitingly dramatic terms of the terrible conflict between red man and white that raged through United States and Mexico in the 1870's.

DOUBLE FEATURE

Walt Disney's "Lady and the Tramp" is the main feature Tuesday, Wednesday. It shows along with "Jungle Gents."

"Lady and the Tramp" is a stirring love story of two dogs, one an "outcast from society" called "the tramp" and the other a high-class beauty called "Lady." The tramp finds no end of difficulty in finally winning "Lady."

"Jungle Gents" is a hilarious movie starring the Bowry Boys. Both these movies are showing on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Tower.

HOME FROM ST. LOUIS

Eddie Gerald Skypala, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Skypala returned home Friday from a trip that made him the envy of his ball-playing friends. In company with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bradshaw of Clarendon, and their two sons, Dennis and Doug, Eddie Gerald has spent the past two weeks in St. Louis, watching the Cardinals play ball and incidentally, taking in a few other side trips of interest, too.

Summer Time Is Cookie Time

By CECILY BROWNSTONE,
Associated Press Food Editor
DOES YOUR COOKIE JAR need filling? Then try this simple but delicious recipe. Your youngsters will enjoy these cookies with glasses of cold milk for afternoon refreshment.

For both the sake of economy and crunchiness, we used ready-to-eat whole bran cereal in these sweetmeats. But not too much bran — just enough to chew on. Spices go in, too, along with applesauce. Use canned applesauce from your pantryshelf, if you like, or make your own. This is how we prepared applesauce for use in these cookies.

Peel and quarter six medium-sized McIntosh apples; core. (If you can't get McIntosh use some other variety of apple that cooks up and gets mushy quickly.) Slice the apples thin into a saucepan. Add three tablespoons of water. Cover and cook over low heat until apples are soft. Stir and mash apples a few times during the cooking. Finish mashing fine and add six tablespoons of sugar and three teaspoons of lemon juice. Continue cooking over low heat, stirring often, until applesauce has little liquid. Cool and measure the amount needed for the cookie recipe. If you have a few spoonfuls leftover, eat it!

SPICY DROP COOKIES
Ingredients: 3 cups sifted flour, 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon of ground nutmeg, 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger, 1/2 teaspoon ground cloves, 1 cup butter or margarine, 2 cups firmly-packed dark brown sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup ready-to-eat whole bran cereal, 1 cup sweetened thick applesauce, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Method: Sift together the flour, nutmeg, ginger and cloves. Now cream butter and dark brown sugar. Beat in eggs thoroughly, one at a time. Beat in bran cereal, applesauce and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients all at one time and beat gently until well mixed. Drop heaping tablespoonfuls of the cookie dough, at least two inches apart, onto buttered baking sheets. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven about 15 minutes. Remove to cooling racks with a spatula. When cold, store in tightly covered container. Makes about 5 1/2 dozen cookies, each 2 1/4 inches wide.

COOKIE KNOWHOW

with chocolate shot. Bake a pan of rich chocolate brownies and cut in squares while still warm. Top at once with scoops of vanilla ice cream and serve with chocolate-peppermint sauce. Put a blob of frosting in the center of a graham cracker; stand a tiny animal cracker in the frosting. Make lots of these; small fry love them. As a matter of fact, the younger generation will enjoy preparing these themselves and the task is a good answer to that ever-present question, "What can I do?"

Sliced dates, cooked with orange rind, orange juice and sugar to taste makes a fine filling with which to sandwich bought or homemade oatmeal cookies together.

Store all cookies — soft or crisp in tightly-covered containers to retain original texture.

Use your decorating tube and mark big cookies with initials. The cookies will make place cards for youngsters' parties.

Rev. Dunnam has served on the conference board of evangelism while here. His family has been active in both church and civic work in Hereford. Mrs. Dunnam has been church organist, a Sunday School teacher, piano and organ teacher and active in music circles in the city. Their son Harral, 22, has been Harral is a graduate of Texas Wesleyan and has completed his first year of seminary work for the ministry. With Rev. Dunnam, he has done service work and conducted revivals in the Westway community.

The Dunnams have two other children: Rev. S. M. Dunnam Jr., pastor of the Parkhurst Methodist Church in Houston; Eleanor Ruth, who was educational director of the Bellaire Methodist Church before her recent marriage to D. T. Amos of Houston.

Mrs. Dunnam served for the last two years as vice president and program chairman for the conference WSCS.

Student Designers Go Casual

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—If you're looking for a new fashion trend, visit the college girls. This is a policy that has been followed for some years by St. Louis dress manufacturers, who in consequence have built up the St. Louis industry as a center of junior fashions. Working closely with students at Washington University's School of Costume Design, manufacturers keep in constant touch with campus fads and fap-ties and turn out the kind of clothes young people like to wear. This year the casual look is having a boom around the campus, and the year's work of student designers shows a strong tendency toward lounging pajamas and dormitory outfits. Typical of the general trend are three outfits designed by students for casual evenings at home or around the dormitory. Joyce Verderber of St. Louis designed and made a simple but flattering pajama ensemble of striped and plain cotton, topped by a sleeveless mandarin coat.

Bob Yarbrough, Washington U. senior, designed a striking lounge outfit consisting of pajamas in striped cotton with a flared coat trimmed with cape collar and pleated fluting of white pique.

For several years this area has undergone extensive residential growth, while business expansion remained comparatively dormant.

Friday morning workmen started digging foundation ditches on the vacant lot between the Triple E Cafe and the Phillips Service Station on Main Street.

This new building indicates a possible rejuvenation of the first block on Main. It might result in a trend. When it came to Hereford in 1937, this block was by far the busiest in town.

There is also considerable small talk to the effect that Sears and Monkey-Wood are interested in Hereford. They did make some surveys, but have signed no leases.

they just don't play. So far, they aren't playing.

Bruce Miller says The Brand recently dealt him a low blow. Last week Bruce took his son and went back to attend the Silver Anniversary meeting of his school class at Culver Military Institute.

There are a few professions which draw individual people like a magnet. Some folks say that they "get into your blood."

Teaching has improved sharply as a profession, due to salary increases in recent years. The teachers gripe and complain a lot, but when you break it down to the days they actually teach (187 in Texas), most of them get paid on the basis of around $20 a day, or more, for the time they actually turn in on the job.

There is also considerable small talk to the effect that Sears and Monkey-Wood are interested in Hereford. They did make some surveys, but have signed no leases.

this modern education is too efficient. Not long ago I was riding in the car with my 10-year-old son and he started jabbering about how the age of dogs was "7-to-1" compared with human beings.

"How old is granddad?" I told him 74 years. He was silent a few minutes, then popped out: "You know, if granddad was a dog, he'd be more than 500 years old!"

Had a nice letter from Mrs. R. C. Childers. She says that they like Coleman, Texas, and the tourist court business fine, and that she especially liked the graduation edition of the paper. She probably wouldn't ever admit it, but I think she is maybe a little bit homesick for Hereford.

And ditto for Jim Robinson out in Colorado Springs. I had a nice letter from Jim a while back. He enclosed a clipping about a game and fish meeting, where the land owners were urged to discourage those "greedy Texans."

What makes all of the fishermen anyway? I can understand a fellow who starts bulging out around the middle and takes up golf. There's some rhyme, if little reason, to bridge players, camera enthusiasts and "hot rod" racing—but what makes a fisherman? Take Abe Martin, for instance: Abe wrote this column last year and really told a lot of truth about camping and fishing.

I am trying to get him to do another column, but he says he is too tired. How about some help? If we twist his arm long enough maybe he will come through. And if he does, then maybe I can get off to go fishing myself.

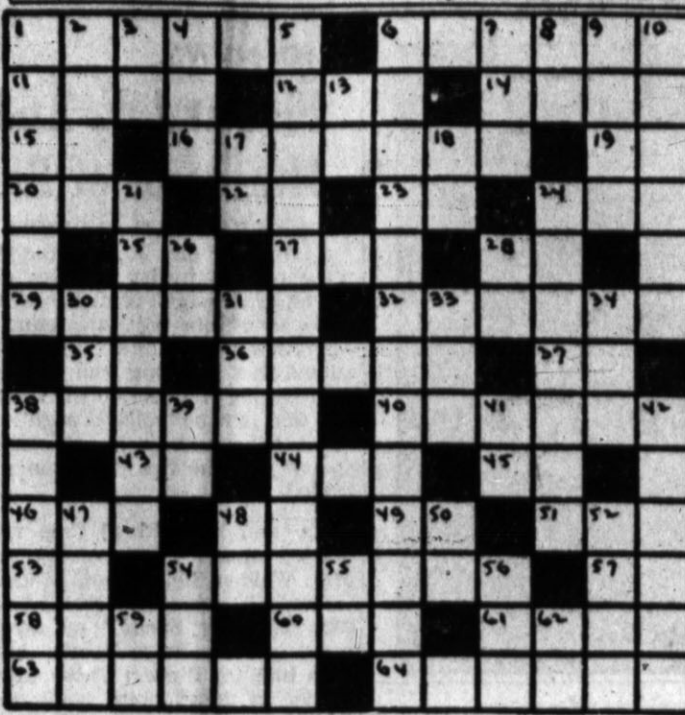

Bethany Class Is Entertained

Mrs. J. T. Richardson entertained members of the Bethany Class of the First Baptist Church in the regular business and social meeting Friday afternoon.

Mrs. H. G. Conkright gave the opening prayer and the Bible program on "Women of Destiny" was presented by Mrs. C. R. Walsler and Mrs. Wirt Phillips.

Beauty At Home

Q Can you suggest a good preventive for sunburn?
 A Vinegar mixed with water and applied to the face, neck and arms before going out to the garden or playground will halt "old man sun."

Q What is a good facial beauty treatment I can give myself at home?
 A Apply a heavy cream to a clean skin, starting at collar bones, working upward along the jawline, up over the cheeks. After spreading the emollient over your brow, start doing rotary movements. Use the first and second fingers, do circles from temple to temple. Then place the fingertips of both hands, each group facing each other, in the middle of the forehead. When one group slides upward, the other group goes down and, all the time, both groups are moving left or right. This is one of the favorite movements of experienced facial operators.

Q How can I bleach the darkened skin on my elbows and backs of my heels?
 A Rub these areas with a cut lemon.
 Q What exercise will encourage slimmer ankles?
 A Lie on back, one leg raised straight up. Holding leg stiff, circle foot outward 20 times, then inward 20 times, keeping leg stiff all the time. Repeat with other leg.

Q How can I eradicate blackheads and whiteheads from my back?
 A By scrubbing frequently and vigorously with a stiff brush and soap after the back has been soaked for a half-hour in cream or oil.
 Q How can I help prevent breath odor after eating onions?
 A Drink a glass of milk, or suck a slice of lemon, then drink a glass of cold water. Another method is to chew on some sprigs of parsley dipped in vinegar or salt.

Q Is there any internal remedy for a dry and itching scalp?
 A One old one is to take a teaspoon of codliver oil daily for 30 days or more. This will tone up the skin of the entire body.
 Q What colors can a brunette wear most successfully?
 A Rich, warm colors: American beauty red, deep reds, russet reds and pinks, raspberry, fuchsia, burgundy, magentas, warm shades of brown, orange, quiet tones of yellow. Also, some of the cooler colors: Dark blue, powder blue, cornflower blue, tropical greens, and gray-beige. At night, brunettes look particularly well in white (unless their skin is too olive), emerald green and ruby red. They should avoid pastels, some browns and some beiges.

Q What is a bleaching solution I can use for freckles on my arms and hands?
 A You can try this: With a small sponge or a bit of cotton, apply a solution of 1/2 dram borax, 1 dram sugar, and one ounce of lemon juice.
 Q What is really the best way to brush the hair?
 A From the roots to the tips. Any tangled locks should be gently loosened, never yanked or pulled. Brush firmly so that the bristles reach through the hair without scratching the scalp or pulling out the hair. Daily brushing morning and night for three to five minutes is an excellent hygienic practice.

Q How can I mix myself a good "homemade" hand lotion?
 A One-third glycerine and one-third rose water, and one-third lemon juice.

MICKEY MANTLE

Mickey Watches Game Too!

Mickey Mantle, major league baseball's top performer, will be watching with interest the outcome of Monday night's Little League baseball game here.

The 24-year old centerfield star of the New York Yankees indicated this with a letter to the Hereford Little League wishing them good luck in their first year. Mantle leads the majors in batting, home runs, and runs batted in. He is hitting .403 and has 21 homers.

The letter is as follows:

June 4, 1956

Little League Baseball Club
Hereford, Texas
Dear Little Leaguers:

I have just heard of your plans for your first season of LITTLE LEAGUE baseball, and all of us sincerely hope that you have a fine first season.

All of us had to start playing baseball somewhere, and there is no better program than the LITTLE LEAGUE. Major leaguers of the future are going to come from LITTLE LEAGUE ball. Best wishes to all of you and kindest regards.

Very truly yours,

Model For Tomorrow

K NOX'S KNOTHINGS

By BILL KNOX

With the opening of Little League Baseball here comes a new era of sports recreation for young boys.

Little League Baseball offers a rare opportunity to the neighborhood or the local community to build a sound native American program that is beneficial to the boys, the family and the welfare of the community.

The character of an activity such as Little League must hold to the highest standards attainable. There never can be commercial taint attached to Little League. Its principal objective is for the good of the boys between 8 and 12 who play baseball on Little League teams.

By providing a vehicle for healthful recreation during the summer vacation months, wherein the boys may compete with each other beneficially under capable leadership, Little League contributes to the well being of the boys and their parents. It likewise offers a means through which parents and community leaders may foster, in relation with their children, a sanguine solution to many of the current social problems of youth; thus insuring better citizens of tomorrow.

Little League is a program of contagious enthusiasm. It is based upon an appreciation and understanding of the needs of youth. It is carried on locally by adult volunteers who deserve high commendation and recognition for their unselfish efforts.

In Little League each boy learns some of the lessons of fair play, of discipline, of team work. He finds that the other boys regardless of race, creed or color, strive for the same common goals, and this kind of thinking spreads from the boys to their families and thus to the communities.

Little League Baseball is many things to many people. To the boy it is baseball adapted to his mental and physical capacities. To the adult, the neighborhood and the community, it is baseball with a purposeful character, encompassing the broad concepts of the American way of life.

Without motive and principle, Little League would be just another baseball program. From the outset, Little League has preserved an ideal that recognizes baseball under proper leadership as a character-building influence in the American boy. Complete understanding and the firm application of these principles are the essential elements that make boys' baseball, Little League.

The program was designed for boys of 12 years of age and under. It is regulation baseball tailored to meet the physical limitations of the age bracket. Notable exceptions to regulation baseball are the reduced size of the playing field, fewer innings per game and some standards of playing equipment.

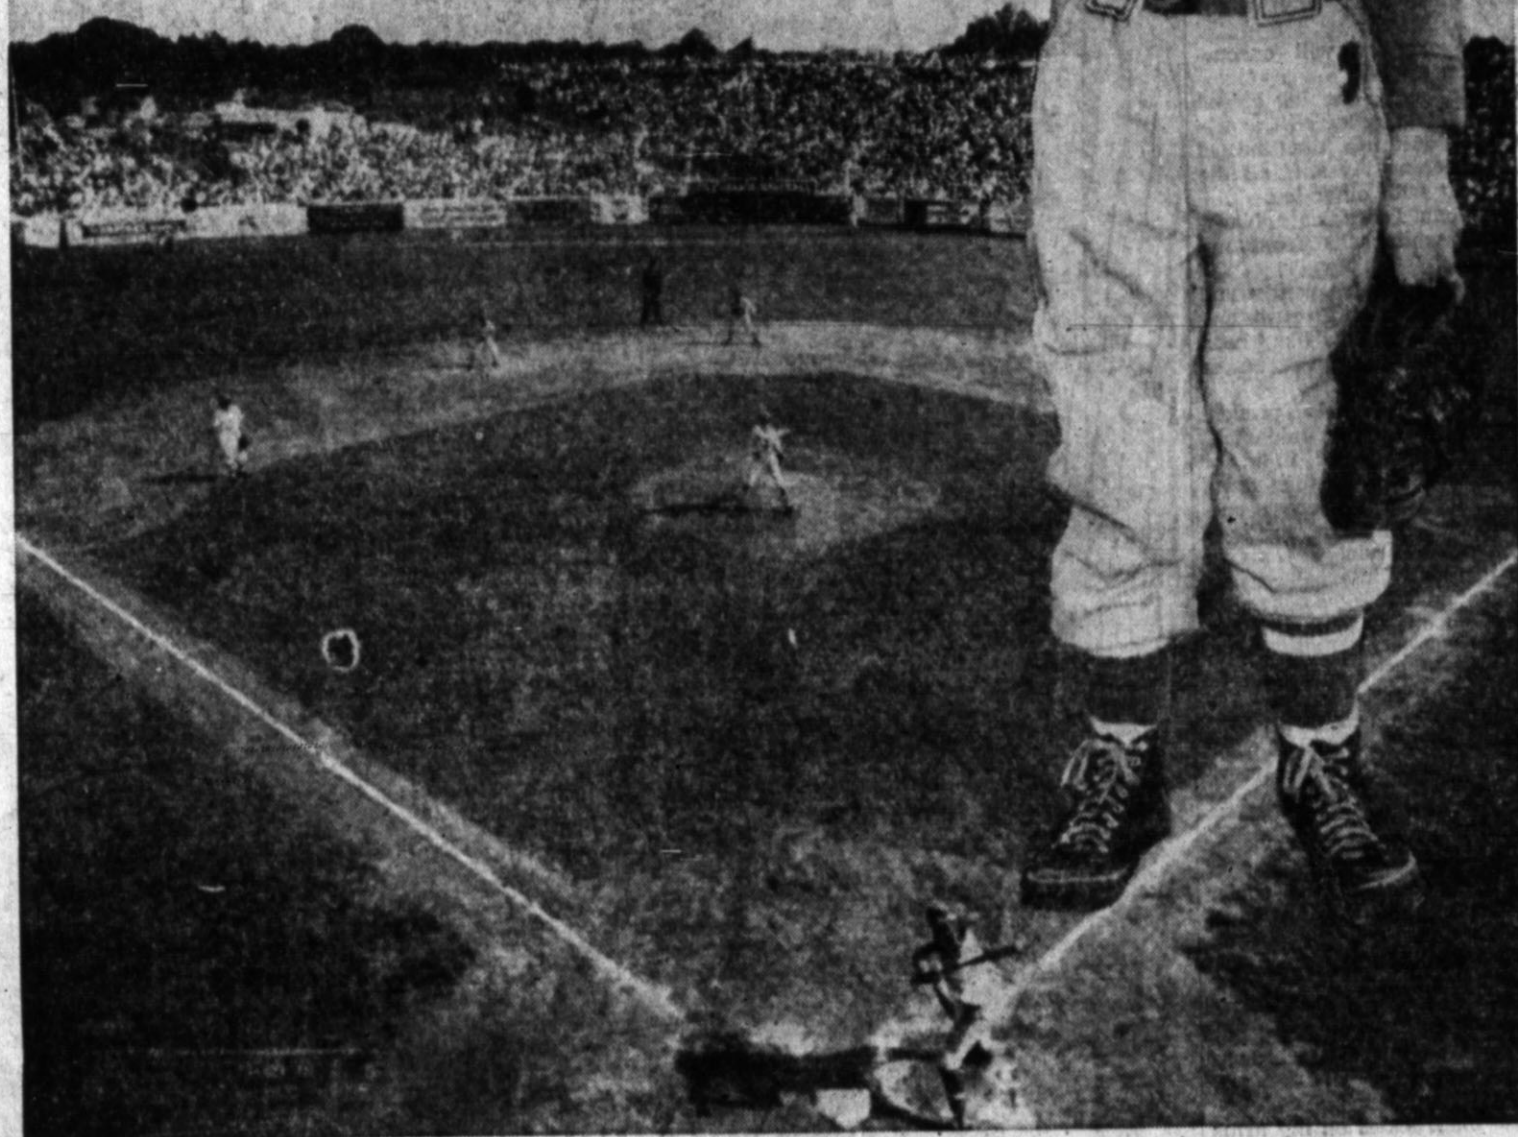

Little League Baseball was organized in 1939 in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. The first league was composed of three teams, each with 12 uniformed players. Games were played on a diamond two-thirds the size of a regulation field.

The idea was an immediate success. By 1948, Little League began to take on national stature, thanks to the financial assistance of the United States Rubber Company, as the program's first sponsor. In 1955, the program had expanded to 3,976 leagues in 48 states, Canada, Mexico and eight other foreign countries.

Indeed Hereford people should be grateful to the group of men who realized what Little League Baseball would mean to Hereford.

Seed Leads Tournament

The Club Championship Golf Tourney enters its final round today with a youngster and an old hand leading the fight for the title.

Charley Seed, 17-year-old high school student, held a one stroke lead at the midpoint, but he was followed closely by Max Drever. Seed's one over par 73 was just one stroke better than Drever's 74.

John Renner and Jeff Minton, another high school student, were lodged in a tie for third place. Renner shot a 37-39-76 and Minton fired a 36-40-76. Defending champion Robert Lindsey was far back with a 43-43-86.

Young Seed didn't take the lead until the last nine holes: Drever led by two strokes as they finished the front nine. His one under par 35 was the best round of the day. Seed had a 37 on the first round.

However, Drever, not known for hitting the long ball, fell to a three over par 39 on the last nine holes for a 74. Seed chopped one stroke off his previous round to register a 36 for a 73.

Both golfers shot a few practice rounds this week in preparation for the final rounds. Seed reported that he wasn't at all pleased with his putting and concentrated mainly on that phase of the game in practice sessions.

In first flight competition, Wimpy Walker leads with a four over par 76, but J. M. Posey is hot on his heels with a 77. In the second flight John McClesky is tops with an 84. Walter Seed is next with an 86.

In the Ladies Division Hootie Gilbreath, Lucille Posey, and Ola Mae Trimble are tied with a 96. Defending champion Helen Ann McWhorter is two strokes off the pace with a 98. Pro Bud Posey said that two women in the championship flight have not played yet.

Four Tie For Golf Prizes

The Ladies Golf Association held their monthly business meeting with a luncheon at the Jim Hill Hotel Tuesday.

Fourteen members then played golf. There was a 4-way tie between Helen Ann McWhorter, Claudia Rlythe, Revella Skypala, and Juanita Sims on the hidden score of the hidden hole. Batts were given to each of the four.

Wednesday, June 13, will be the regular meeting of the Texas-New Mexico Ladies Golf Association, which will be held at Morton.

Softball League Opens Here Mon.

The Hereford Softball League will open its season here Monday night. The announcement was made Saturday by league president Wendel Burdine.

The league will operate this year with six teams. Summerfield, Rocky's, Dimmitt, Piggy Wiggly, the Knights of Columbus and the Jr. Oddfellows will all vie for the crown.

Games this year will be played in the new Little League Baseball Park west of Shirley School. League officials obtained permission from Little League directors and the Hereford School Board.

Games will be played on the same nights the Little League plays, and no admission will be charged. The games will not start until the two Little League games are completed. Only one game per night will be played.

Burdine said a playoff will be played among the top four teams in the league at the end of the season. An all-star game is in the planning stage and is expected to be played about the middle of the season.

minor leaguer is outfitted with cap and lettered jersey.

Little League Baseball is patterned after actual major league baseball. The playing field is, in most dimensions, two-thirds the size of the regulation diamond. Regulation games have six innings.

A team roster consists of 15 players for the major leagues and 20 for the minors. A player may not be brought up from the minors on the basis of talent alone but because of necessity. Each major league team has a minor league team with the same name.

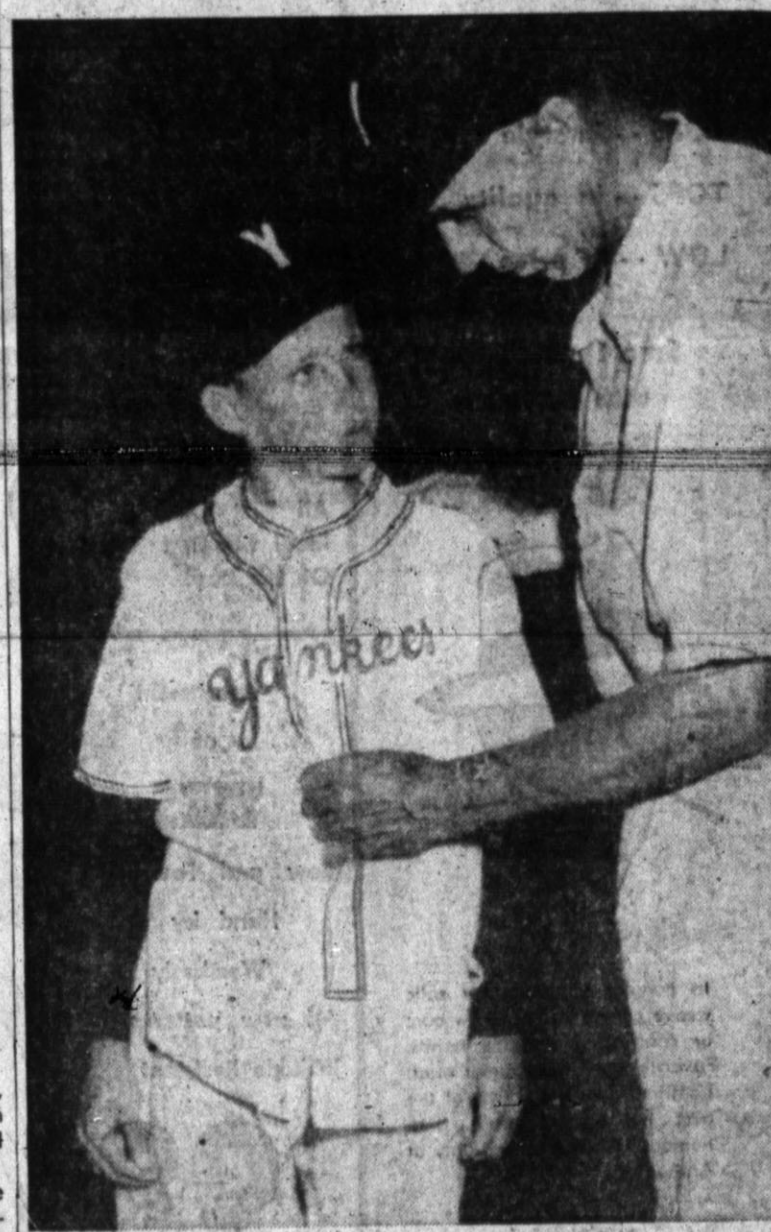

Plans Laid in March

Little League Baseball first became a reality in Hereford at a meeting at Hereford High School early in March. At this time Ray Cowser was elected president, Buck Overall, vice president, and Joel Hodges secretary. Various committees were appointed.

Later Harry Cayler was named players' agent. The four managers, Joe Smith, Don Morgan, Blue Turpin and Larry Summers, were also approved by the Board of Directors.

The players' auction, where the players were "bought" and the teams picked, was held the Friday before the teams began individual workouts. The purchasing price of each player will never be known to anyone except the four managers and the player's agent.

Cowan Dunks Hole-In-One Thursday

Kenneth Cowan dunked a hole-in-one Thursday at the Hereford Golf Course.

Cowan, playing in a foursome with Al Yeager, Jim Wood, and Cliff Arnold, canned the shot on the No. 4 hole using a five iron. He went on to shoot a round of 41.

All Cowan had to say about it was, "I sure am happy over it."

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Rutter Honored on 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Rutter were honored at a surprise domino party Saturday night in their home in observance of their silver wedding anniversary. Hosting the party were her sisters, Mrs. C. T. Ward of Levelland and Mrs. H. E. Hershey of Dimmitt.

Decorations suggestive of the 25th anniversary were carried out in the domino theme, marking appointments in flower arrangements and in refreshments.

Games of 42 and dominoes were enjoyed and gifts were presented to the honored couple.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Ward and Phil of Levelland, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hershey and Elmer of Dimmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Alexander and sons, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Morrison and daughters, Messrs and Mesdames G. P. Owen, Jim Rickets, John Robinson, Walker Freeman, Bud Newell, H. L. Hershey, John Hacker, Elmer Reynolds also Mrs. Ethel Layman, Patricia Hershey, Glenda Bearden, Nelson Lee Rutter, Sue Sparks, Cieta and Clayton Rutter and the honorees.

Married in Clovis
Mr. and Mrs. Rutter were married in Clovis, N. M. May 31, 1931. She was the former Miss Lois Clayton.

They have made their home in Hereford since that time with the exception of five years during the war. Both are active in civic affairs and in the activities of the First Baptist Church.

They have three children; Clayton a student in the University of Texas; Nelson, who graduated from Hereford High School this year, and one daughter, Cieta Kay.

Trend In Dairy Production: Fewer Cows; More Milk

Deaf Smith County is following a national trend in regard to production of dairy products.

Today there are fewer cows than in pre-war days, fewer dairy farms, but more large and specialized producers.

Nationally, for example, although there is a smaller number of dairy cows, producers last year recorded 20 percent more milk than in the pre-war era of 1935-39. This was due to improved breeding, feeding and management.

Down One-Fifth
According to the 1954 census of agriculture, Deaf Smith County has only one-fifth as many dairy farms as it did in 1950. That year the census showed 50 such producers in the county; in 1954, there were only 10.

However, the gallons of milk sold in no way reflected that tremendous decrease. In 1949, the county sold 323,883 gallons of milk while in 1954 the total had dropped only one-fourth, despite the fact that the number of farms had decreased 400 percent.

In 1954, there were 240,569 gallons of milk sold at an actual dollar value of $120,894 for dairy products in this county alone.

Per Capita Consumption Up
And although the number of cows is decreasing everywhere, the per capita consumption is increasing. Total population increases in 1955 accounted for 1.6 percent greater consumption, but the average usage of 710 pounds of milk equivalent per person in 1955 was up two percent above 1954.

Dairying locally is pretty big business, a situation which is typical of well rounded agriculture areas. Officials estimate there are probably 300 head of dairy cattle in the county, worth about $90,000. In addition special mechanical equipment, barns, etc., raises the total economic value of dairy equipment to the upper ranges.

Major producers include Denzil Pulliam, George Heard, Herbert Boardman, Homer Brumley, Wirt Albracht, C. J. Albracht and Cecil Malone in Deaf Smith County and there are also several dairymen operating in Castro County.

Dairying has made rapid progress in Texas in recent years, though the state still produces less dairy products than it consumes and there is a large importation from Wisconsin and other Northern states.

Rapid growth of urban populations has been the greatest incentive to dairying. In 1920, a few years before the establishment of the first large dairy products plant in Texas, the urban population of the state was only one and a half million. In 1950 it was almost five million.

Although the Jersey is the principal dairy cow of Texas, the Holstein seems to be the favorite breed in this county. Most local producers are members of the Randall County Dairy Herd Improvement Association, an extension service sponsored program which provides regular testing of cows and aids dairymen in selecting efficient animals.

Navy Inaugurates 'Buddy System'

By using a "buddy system" for its recruits, the U.S. Navy Recruiting Station in Amarillo hopes to enlist a special Panhandle Task Force Naval Company this month.

Jim Curtin, Navy recruiter for Hereford, explains that June volunteers can "bring a friend" and stay with him through their first nine week period of training. The system worked and drew favorable comment from Navy personnel who went through training with the last special company enlisted in this area last December.

Curtin can be contacted any Thursday from 1 to 4 p.m. at the draft board offices here.

The managers' only source of income after the season has begun is the sale of players. However, the trading and selling deadline is June 27.

Games will be played four nights a week, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. The minor league game will start at 6 p.m. and the major league game will start at 8 p.m. An 18-game schedule will be played by each team. The schedule will be divided into two halves, the winner of the first half playing the last half winner for league championship.

MR. AND MRS. MIKE JUSTICE

Burk - Justice Vows Read In Home Rites

Miss Sharon Burk became the bride of Mike Justice in a double ring ceremony solemnized by the Rev. V. W. Marcontell, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Schneider. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Justice.

Red and pink roses provided an improvised altar for the ceremony which was attended by close friends and members of the immediate families.

Miss Claudia Green, wearing a pink faille suit type dress with white carnation corsage, served as the bride's only attendant. Dean Paul was best man.

The bride wore a white embossed glazed cotton dress made with fitted bodice featuring tiny pearl buttons in front and full street length skirt. Her velvet belt was in aqua and she wore a small white hat to complete the costume. The bridal bouquet, carried on a white Bible, was of white fringed carnations.

The bride's mother wore a black chiffon dress finished at the neck with a pink collar, with a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy crepe dress with a white carnation corsage.

Reception is Held
Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the Schneider home. Claudia Green presided at the coffee service and Judy Jersig served the tiered wedding cake.

Upon their return from a short wedding trip the couple will make their home 12 miles northwest of Hereford where he is engaged in farming.

Among the out of town guests was Mrs. J. O. Justice of Friona.

Oren Jones Jr. Recovering From Gunshot Wounds

William Oren Jones Jr., 23, who was critically injured when blasted by a city marshal's gun on Oklahoma highways seven and a half weeks ago, is reported to be recovering quite satisfactorily in the Veterans Hospital in Oklahoma City.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Jones Sr., returned home about two weeks ago from Oklahoma, where they had been at the bedside of their son.

Neighbors of the Jones family, Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Sowell, reported this week that the doctors had assured the family of Jones' complete recovery barring unforeseen developments, but could give no indication of how long he would need to be hospitalized. The estimate was that he would be in bed for several weeks to come.

Jones was shot April 18 by Stratford (Oklahoma) City Marshal Jess Abney with a shot gun loaded with large number four shot.

The accident occurred when Jones, returning from a movie late at night, was mistaken for a burglar suspect. When Jones failed to halt at a simple road block Abney blasted away at him. Mr. and Mrs. Jones and Oren Jr., had been visiting relatives in Stratford at the time.

Terry McRight's Disc Jockey Show Is 'Sensational'

A former Hereford boy, now a disc jockey with Radio Station KILL in Lubbock, is putting on a show which Lubbock critics have hailed as the latest sensation in radio.

Terry McRight, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. McRight of Hereford is on the air from 11:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. daily with songs and chatter and all sorts of promotions. It's number 1460 on the dial and when the word about Terry's daytime show got around, Hereford listeners also tuned in.

The top 100 tunes in the nation are featured and every hour a five minute devotional is held. Programs throughout the day are slanted to the collegiate listening crowd which puts Terry right at home.

A sophomore at Texas Tech last year, he is studying speech and English with emphasis upon radio work. During the school year he has been active in various campus organizations and was pledged to Kappa Sigma Chi last fall. He plans to resume his studies in the fall.

VBS Time Keeps Everybody Busy

As important an ingredient in the American Way of Life as apple pie and the right to vote, are the annual church-sponsored Vacation Bible Schools.

Compounded of equal parts, well-scrubbed children, volunteer teachers with Job-like patience, the smell of paste and wood shavings, the pledge of allegiance to the flag, Bible readings, spilled Kool-aid, skinned knees and repressed giggles, the successful school is arrived at by advance planning, grim determination and a faith that moves mountains.

But little boys and girls grow up to be big boys and girls and then, they too, contribute their time or talents in furthering an institution which they can look back on fondly, from childhood memories, and recall the sunshiny mornings when they sang their songs, played their games, learned their Bible lesson—the principles that helped them become the kind of adults they wanted to be.

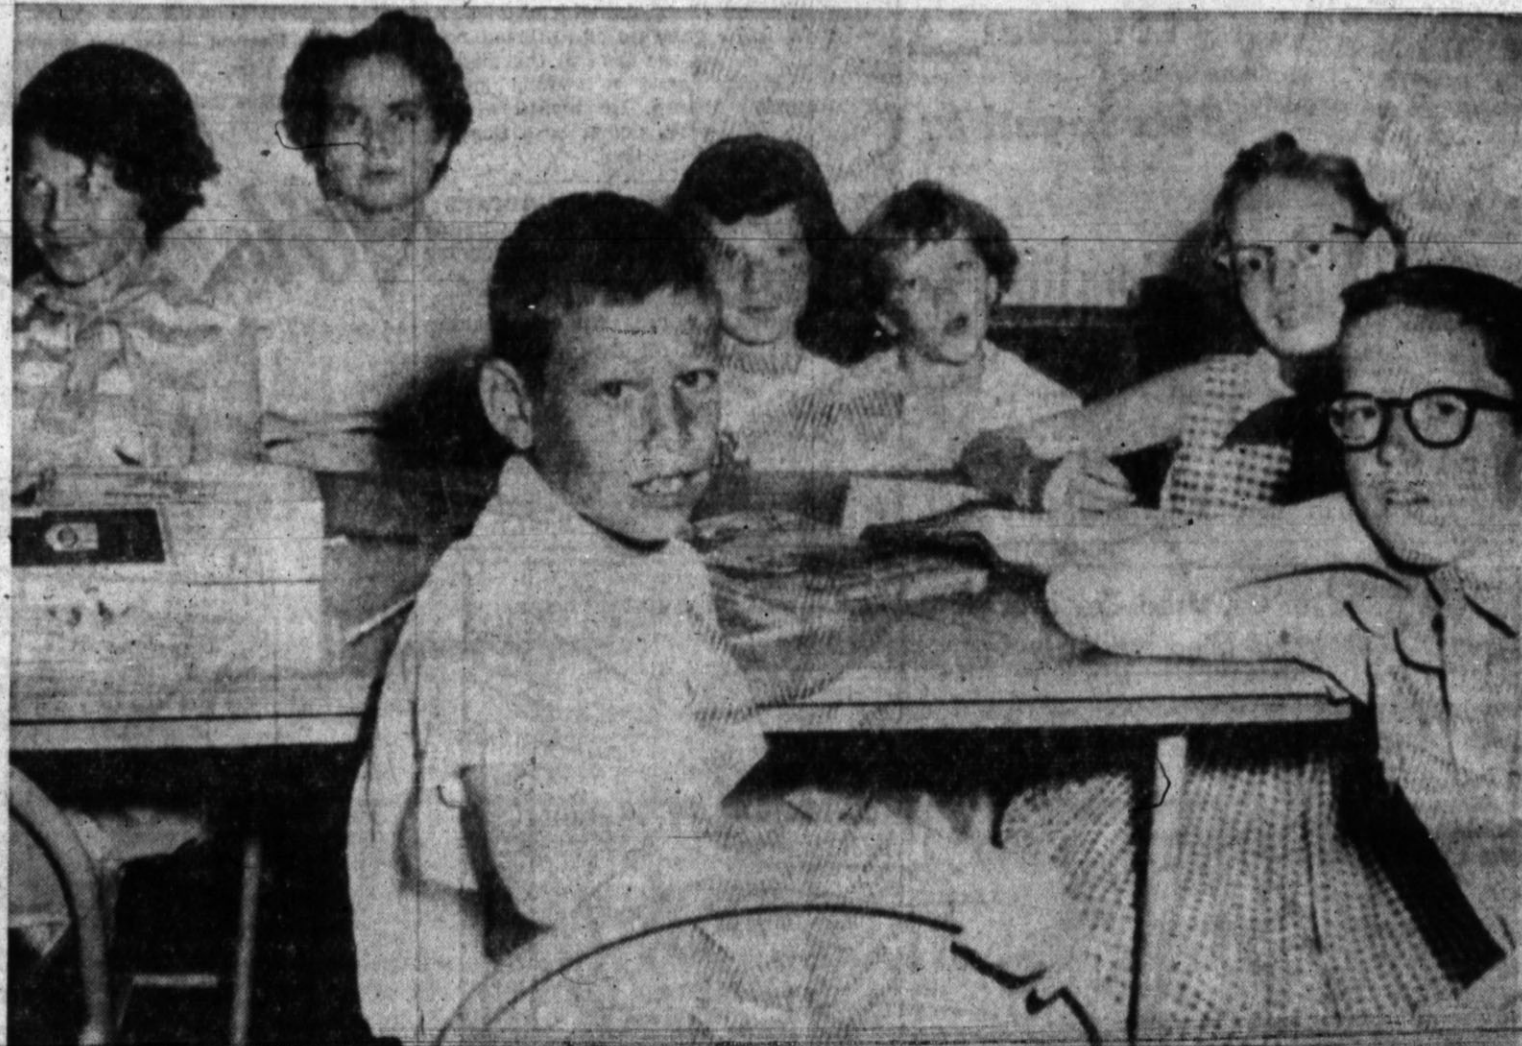

Yes, surely it was all worth while.

Cheese Is An Excellent Spur Of Moment Food

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Is Sunday supper at your house sometimes a spur-of-the-moment affair? Does the cook go into the kitchen late that lazy afternoon to prepare what she's moved to put on the table for a casual meal?

If you're a wise family planner, you'll have natural cheddar cheese on hand. The cheese makes so many good dishes when it is teamed with everyday ingredients.

Nowadays natural cheddar cheese comes packaged in vacuum-sealed transparent wrapping. The plastic bags are shrunk to fit the cheese so no air can get in; this means that the cheese may be safely refrigerated for a number of weeks.

Here are some spur-of-the-moment cheddar cheese dishes for which you do not need meticulous recipes.

Grilled Cheese Sandwiches—Our favorite way to prepare these is to grill the sandwiches in butter in an iron skillet. A large skillet will take three sandwiches—two whole ones and one cut in half. The first trick in making these sandwiches taste wonderful is to use plenty of butter—1 tablespoon for each side of each sandwich, if you're feeling extravagant and are not calorie conscious. The second trick is to grill the sandwiches slowly.

Embellish the sandwiches, if you like, by adding whatever is in the refrigerator to the cheese: Thin slices of boiled ham, a layer of chutney or sweet pickle relish, or strips of dates and sliced walnuts.

Cheese Rabbit—For this just make a medium cream sauce with plenty of grated cheese stirred in after the sauce has thickened. The rabbit is delicious served over toast or crisp crackers and topped with tomatoes.

If the tomatoes in the house are fresh, cut them in half cross-wise, sprinkle the cut surfaces with salt, pepper and dried crushed basil; then dot with butter or margarine before broiling.

If the tomatoes come out of a can from your pantry shelf, heat them carefully so as not to break them; then drain well with a large slotted kitchen spoon and use for your topping.

If you have stewed tomatoes on hand, you'll use these of course without further seasoning. If the canned tomatoes are the plain sort, you may add seasonings during the heating: salt, pepper, a dash of sugar, basil.

The juice left from the tomatoes may be refrigerated and added to a soup, a sauce or a gravy.

Cheese Fondue—Do you know this good dish? Along with the cheese, it uses milk, bread, butter or margarine, eggs, salt and dry mustard. Serve the fondue with tomato aspic (it comes in cans) on salad greens. Or serve a fresh salad of sliced tomatoes and cucumbers, lettuce and green onions. Here's the recipe for the fondue:

CHEESE FONDUE
Ingredients: 1 cup milk, 1 cup fresh bread crumbs, 4 ounces (just about 1 cup) natural cheddar cheese (chopped), 1 tablespoon of butter or margarine, 1/2 teaspoon of salt, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 3 eggs (separated).

crumbs, cheese, butter, salt and mustard in saucepan. Stir over low heat until cheese is melted and bread crumbs are blended. Remove from heat. Beat yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Slowly but vigorously stir cheese mixture in to yolks. Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Fold into cheese-yolk mixture. Pour into buttered 1-quart baking or souffle dish—bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven for 30 minutes. Fondue will stand up a little longer if left in the oven with door ajar an additional 10 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

CUBS BEING MADE OVER
CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs used five new players in their opening day lineup. They were Don Hoak at third, Walt Moryn in right, Monte Irvin in left, Gale Wade in center and Hobie Landrith behind the plate. All have been up in the majors with other teams.

BENNIE DOES ALL RIGHT
ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Under the direction of Coach Bennie Oosterbaan since 1948, Michigan football teams own the Big Ten's best defensive record. The Wolverines have been no worse than sixth, and were first five times.

CLEAN WALLS
A good cleaner for washable walls and painted woodwork is made by adding one cup of ammonia, 1/2 cup of vinegar and 1/4 cup of baking soda to one gallon of water.

USEFUL BLEACH
Liquid bleach is not only a good washing aid. It's also a good disinfectant for sanitizing shower, toilet, tub, washbowl and sink. It may combat musty odors and freshen rooms by adding to scrubbing water for floors, walls and unpainted surfaces.

About 105,000 Americans were born on Feb. 29.

High Fashion Gets In The Swim

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Modern Mermaids get the breaks this summer. They can look glamorous as all get-out, in swim suits that take to the water with the greatest of ease dry in a jiffy while they lie on the beach afterward, and keep their clear, bright colors all through the season.

All this again can be credited to chemistry, which has provided the new finishes, new processes and new fibers to brighten the life of the bathing beauty.

Time was when beach belles were divided into two classes—those who sat on the beach and looked pretty, and those who took their swimming seriously, and just looked awful, in practical tank suits. All this now is changed. The most fabulous bathing suits on the beach are designed for honest-to-goodness swimming, and look just as glamorous coming out of the water as going in.

The newest silhouettes of high fashion are incorporated in the sun-and-surf lineup this year, including the long-torso look, skillfully placed shirring around the hips, the sheath look and the lady-like look.

You'll see few startlingly bare suits this year. The emphasis is rather on figure-flattering lines, inside construction to keep the figure under control and fabrics that take sun and salt-water without losing their fresh new look.

This year girls who like to swim can take the plunge with no qualms whatsoever. All they have to do is read the fabric labels when they go shopping for bathing suits.

Survey Of Milk Drinking Situation Shows Children Like It - - - But Not Enough

DAIRY MAID, 1956—Miss Betty Buse samples ice cream, a perfect summertime treat that comes into its own this month—it's June, and that's dairy month. (Staff Photo)

June is Dairy Month. Deaf Smith County citizens can scarcely ignore the fact due to the concerted effort of producers, dairy associations, etc. to impress upon consumers that milk, butter, cheese, ice cream, cottage cheese, evaporated and dry milk are not only nutritious — they are delicious as well.

June was chosen for a reason. The cow, who performs the daily miracle of converting grasses and other feeds into Nature's most nearly perfect food, really turns on the milk-making power in the spring, just at the time when people, who are especially active during summer months, need increased supplies of protein, calcium and phosphorus, which milk supplies in abundance.

With Ample Reason
And, judging from a survey of local authorities on nutrition, there is ample reason for a month devoted to publicizing the benefits of dairy foods: apparently most people don't eat enough to fulfill their minimum daily requirement as established by the Department of Agriculture and its nutritionists.

Milk, which builds strong bones, sound teeth, healthy blood and repairs body tissues, is apparently most popular in the Milk Program. According to Mrs. Dorothea Prowell, assistant county home demonstration agent, a survey of Deaf Smith County Four-H girls this year showed that few of them consumed their required quart of milk a day; only about one-third drank milk — plain or chocolate flavored, — for breakfast; and few farm families milked their own cow.

did not emphasize the importance of dairy products in the diet. Mrs. Joel Hodges is instructor in child care in the Homemaking department, and she pointed out that in their experience, small children usually get their quart of milk per day as long as Mother is planning the child's entire menu. However, when the child gets to be about three or four and develops to choosing his own foods, he tends to neglect milk for other foods, establishing a trend which usually continues all his life.

About Mass Psychology
Interestingly enough, Mrs. Claude Francis, who is dietician for the Hereford Public Schools, says that there must be something to mass psychology, however. Although children may not get enough milk throughout the day, most of them who eat at the cafeteria drink plenty of milk at noon. Figures indicate that more than 90 percent of the entire school population who eat in the cafeteria, drink their half pint of milk at noon. And since the milk program was initiated last year, many of these children get two pints or more per day.

"We believe they drink their milk so well simply because it is the popular thing to do," she pointed out. "When everybody else is drinking milk at noon or during the milk break few children refuse to drink theirs." The milk program was started last year, and was a voluntary project, which local teachers heartily endorsed. It was such a success locally that school administrators from other towns came to view the program and to find out why it had worked so smoothly in Hereford.

Half Pint for Penny
Under this program children may buy a half pint of milk for a penny. Often it is provided in afternoon "milk-breaks" or they may get extra milk at noon. Lunches at high school cost 35 cents and at grade schools they cost 30 cents including one bottle of milk. Extra milk costs an extra penny. During the month of May, Mrs. Francis said, there were 23 days that lunches were served at the school. For these meals, the school purchased 35,735 half pints of milk to serve at Central, Shirley, High School and Park View cafeterias. Of this amount, 14,972 half pints were "extra milk." There are probably many reasons why the milk program has been popular. In one particular school, for example, Mrs. Francis traced the popularity of the milk program at noon to a cafeteria worker who collected the bottles.

You or the Hogs
The worker, a mother herself, would chide the children who didn't drink milk, saying such things as "Now Nancy, your daddy paid for this milk you didn't drink, and now Pete's hogs are going to get it instead of you." Before long, Nancy's daddy was paying for milk. Nancy drank and so were all the daddies. In addition to milk, dairy products are used in school lunch room programs in other fashions. Cheese is often used as a meat substitute, and dry milk is frequently used in baking breads and cookies. Nutritionists emphasize that the value of milk is not lost by cooking, and that milk in cottage cheese or ice cream, cream sauces, soups, or baked goods still provides its nutritional benefits.

SIGNS UP AGAIN
ORANGE, Va. — Released a few months ago by the Chinese Communists after 30 months imprisonment, airman John W. Thompson has signed up for a six-year hitch in the Air Force. Thompson, given a red carpet welcome by his home townsmen, has married Carole Reynolds, of Culpeper, since his return.

IMPERSONAL RETICENCE
BUFFALO, N. Y. — Assistant District Attorney Frederick M. Marshall was having a hard time cross examining the defendant. "Will you answer my questions the way you did those of your own lawyer?" he asked. "You haven't anything against me personally, have you?" "No, sir," the defendant replied "but I know your business. You're an assistant district attorney and you're aiming to convict me."

How Can I?

By James H. Hickey

Q. How can I make bottles leak-proof for taking in my luggage on a trip?

A. Any bottle can be made leak-proof, if, after the cork has been tightly fitted into it, it is dipped into melted paraffin. Then tie a piece of heavy paper over the top to make it even more secure.

Q. How can I prevent rugs from curling at the edges?

A. Make a thin starch. Dissolve a small amount of gum arabic in a little water and add to the starch — turn the rug upside down and apply the solution with a paint brush. Let it dry.

Q. How can I remove yellow spots from old lace?

A. Either wet the lace and then spread it where it will freeze, or wet it and spread in a very hot sun. Either method may require several days to bleach thoroughly, and it must be kept wet all the time.

Q. How can I remove rust from iron or steel?

A. There is nothing like a touch of kerosene, applied with powdered bath brick to give it the proper amount of roughage.

Q. How can I make easy the task of reknitting a sweater?

A. The task of reknitting a sweater can be made easier if the knicks are first taken out of the yarn. Wind the yarn in a skein, tie together firmly, and wash it in a towel and put in a warm place to dry. The knicks will be gone when the yarn has dried.

Q. How can I renew velvet?

A. Steam velvet over the spout of a tea-kettle. Place a funnel in the spout and you will be able to cover a larger area.

Q. How can I make shoes waterproof?

A. Shoes can be made waterproof and also preserved by melting a little beeswax, and adding enough sweet oil to make it pour. Then warm the shoe soles and pour on the mixture while it is hot. Hold the shoes near the fire until the mixture is absorbed into the leather.

Q. How can I remove oil spots from carpets?
A. Cover the spots with paste made of fuller's earth and water and let it remain 24 hours. If it is oil from oiled streets, scrub with benzine.
Q. How can I make the taste of olive oil more agreeable, if one considers it unpleasant?
A. A pinch of salt aids considerably.
Q. Can potatoes be boiled rapidly?
A. No; this makes them soft and broken on the outside, with hard, uncooked centers.
Q. How can I darken the color of furniture?
A. Try the following: One pint linseed oil, one ounce rose pink, one ounce alkanet root, beaten up in a metal mortar; let this mixture stand for a day or two; then pour off the oil, which will be of a rich color. Apply with a soft brush.
Q. How can I make the colors brilliant when dyeing eggs?
A. Boil the eggs hard. Then melt a little carpenter's glue in with the dye. The colors will be more brilliant and the eggs will retain their beauty indefinitely.
Q. When should cedar trees be planted?
A. Plant your young cedar and pine trees in the springtime, although the older stock can be successfully transplanted during the summer and early fall.
Q. How can I keep rubber overshoes in good condition?
A. To prevent their becoming stiff, rub them occasionally with hot castor oil. If they acquire a dingy appearance, wash with ammonia water and give them a coating of liquid shoe dressing.
Q. How can I make a linoleum substitute?
A. Stretch a worn Brussels carpet wrong side up and apply two coats of floor paint, 24 hours apart. After this, use one or two coats of waterproof varnish.

Q. How can I test the waffle iron to see if it is hot enough for the batter?
A. One way is to put a teaspoon of water into the iron, close it, and when the steam ceases coming out, the iron is ready for the batter.
Q. How can I make a good steel and nickel polish?
A. Mix 1 tablespoonful of turpentine, 1 tablespoonful of sweet oil, and enough emery powder to the consistency of cream. Apply with a sift rag, then wipe off and polish with a dry flannel cloth.

Average Man Can Income Tax Bill At Least Be Heard Would Aid Farmer

The recent outbreak of protests against changing of residential areas to business zones serves once again to emphasize the importance of city zoning regulations.

While the Zoning Commission has recently granted several applications which were protested, it is also important to remember that they have at the same time turned down approximately as many as they have granted. When you look at the situation from an overall standpoint, it indicates that business locations are being created in an orderly, systematic pattern.

This is a far cry from a few years back when anyone opened up any type business he chose on any desired location—and there was no board to even hear complaints. Today, both sides of each case are carefully heard and reviewed—and the Zoning Commission makes a recommendation in what they consider the best interests of the community.

While these decisions may create some dissatisfaction on the part of individuals, the zoning plan is the only possible way to clear up a bad situation which started a long time ago. It will take several years, of course, but within a ten-year period the pattern should begin to take shape and most of the controversy will be eliminated.

Meanwhile, discontented residents should be thankful for the chance of a "fair trial" before the commission. They should also remember that the commission has a tough job and that they cannot please both sides, which leaves them only the choice of acting in behalf of the entire community. As we said, this is the first time you ever had a chance to protest. Always, before, businesses just moved in, set up and you either liked it—or moved.

Farm Accidents On The Upgrade

Time was when we took Prevention of Farm Accidents Week with a grain of salt. Thinking back over the past 24 months, however, it appears that farm accidents in this area are becoming almost as numerous and as costly as highway accidents.

At least two farm fatalities occurred last year, perhaps even more. In addition there have been scores of other accidents, some serious and others of minor nature. The whole thing boils down to the fact that there are hazards where there is machinery. Increasing farm mechanization indicates that the situation will become worse rather than better.

Industry faced heavy damage and losses in past years, but with application of safety methods, caution and careful training has reduced employee accidents to a minimum. The same thing, we feel sure, will sooner or later occur on the farm. Meanwhile, untold misery and heartaches will result until the average farmer makes up his mind to do something about the situation. Each farm, after all, is an individual case and each farmer must take these steps on his own initiative.

The proposed Jenkins-Keogh bill is a phrase which you have possibly heard—and one which may have stuck in your memory. It is also a safe bet that you will hear it again from time to time.

People of this area, in fact, should thoroughly acquaint themselves with the bill and should come to a definite decision regarding its contents. The bill in substance seeks tax privileges for approximately 11 million self-employed people, who do not benefit under present laws. It asks for these privileges on the grounds that similar privileges are being granted to other classes in the form of retirement and pension plans, which are allowed tax deferrals through corporation fringe payments.

In this area the plan has been introduced and is being promoted by the doctors, acting in cooperation with the American Medical Association, which also appears as a sponsor. They carefully point out, however, that passage of the bill would provide equal privilege for other groups, especially self-employed persons, the largest of which is the American farmer.

The bill, if it became law, would give the farmer, lawyer, doctor or business man a tax exemption on 10 percent of his annual income up to $5,000. The money would be placed in a trust fund or similar agency until he either retired at age 65, or became disabled.

In addition to selfish interests of persons in the area which, incidentally, has an extremely large percentage of self-employed people, it appears to us that the bill also merits consideration on the grounds that taxes are beginning to sap initiative of many persons who fall into the self-employed class. When income taxes reach the point of 50 percent on a man's income, he definitely loses considerable financial interest in making another call, selling another article—or even in establishing a second restaurant, grocery store or beauty parlor.

Since World War II, the United States has shown a marked trend away from Capitalism or, as we commonly say, "the profit system." The result has definitely curbed service, expansion and enterprise. So far the country is still operating on a half-way profit system, but if we continue to penalize the small town worker and the self-employed man, especially when corporation employees are granted tax deferrals, it is only logical to believe that they will become fewer and fewer. Today, the socialistic trend is a dangerous thing in our country, and if business people cease to create jobs, the entire nation will suffer.

We do not hold the Jenkins-Keogh bill as a panacea for all ills. We do believe, however, that it is well worthy of careful consideration—and that it could well provide a stepping stone toward continued growth and expansion in America.

Long Time Ago

Surprisingly enough, one of the most widely read items in The Brand each issue is the "Long Time Ago" column, which deals with conditions 25 and 50 years in the past.

The items recall interesting experiences to many old timers and, in addition, often provide interesting comparisons with situations today. Twenty-five years ago, according to the Thursday paper, the area had enjoyed nice rains and the people were worrying about planting grain sorghums. Fifty years ago, the paper reported such an abundance of weeds that the city marshal formed a volunteer corps and was swinging away to eliminate the hazards.

These two very same factors face the community today. Seasonal hazards, you might say. City mowers have replaced the civilian weed cutting corps, however, which gives the average resident something for which he may well be thankful.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Little League Is Favored By Hereford Citizens

This is Hereford's first year to have an organized Little League. Are you in favor of it? If so, what benefits do you think will be derived from it?

MRS. CHARLIE CALLAWAY

I definitely am in favor of it. I have a boy in it, and he surely is thrilled. He is interested in nothing else but Little League. It will teach the boys to be good sports, keep them off the streets, and teach them how to get along with other boys and older men.

BILL STANFORD

Yes, I am in favor of it. I believe that decent young boys will learn a great deal about sportsmanship from the program. From the standpoint of the school's physical education program the boys will also have a chance to develop physically. It will keep a group of boys busy for the summer with some worthwhile activities and keep them from getting into some kind of mischief.

MRS. JOE ELLISTON

I definitely am. It will be a wonderful thing for the town. It is nice clean entertainment for young people and old people alike.

MRS. W. R. HAIR

Very much so. The little boys learn how to play ball and the daddies get better acquainted with their sons. Anyway that's what has happened in my family.

MRS. J. F. KELLY

Very much. It is something we have needed for a long time. I don't know how to put into words how enthusiastic we are about it. We have needed it for a long time. To the young boys it offers sportsmanship, an opportunity to associate with different people and better their relationship with these boys. I also think it's a feather in the cap of the Jaycees for building the park.

KENNETH COKER

I am behind it wholeheartedly. The most important benefit would be that it gives the kids something to keep them busy during the summer and it will show the boys that the adults are interested enough in what they are doing to do something for them.

Not many times have we had anything hit us as full in the face as when we walked out of Eighth Grade Graduation Exercises and Bob Wilson told us what had happened to Alex Thompson. Buster felt as bad about the news as we did.

In going back to the early history of the county in our newspaper work we have often gone to him for information and of course any time you met up with Alex Thompson you had a story.

We have chuckled many times over his narratives and his fine sense of humor but our favorite still is the time he was telling us about a trip through some of the southern states "where the trees were so tall that it took a man and a boy to see to the top of them."

The flag waving proudly at the R. P. Conway home on South Main Street on Memorial Day gave a sort of special emphasis to the day for those passing by. Motorists may not have been so much aware of those at the curb along Main Street but this was one you could not fail to observe.

Jerry and Patsy Daniel, children of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Daniel, are having a lot of fun watching their pet cocker spaniel trying to discipline a couple of frisky kittens. He wants them to stay close to him and rolls them away from the fence where another dog is staked.

We predict he will either have to abandon his mission or wind up a completely "pooped pup."

Community Builders

By ROY CLAIR

The Rev. Lester E. Jones has a busy week ahead. Not just this week, but every week.

As pastor of Episcopalian congregations in both Hereford and Canyon, he does double-duty on Sunday. On weekdays, he finds little time for relaxation.

"My pet peeve," he declares, "is the man who says, 'Jonesy, you've got it made. Just put in one or two hours on Sunday and you're through for the week.'"

But Les Jones, as he prefers to be called by his friends, is not the "peevish" sort. He is more of a "doer." And while he is busy, he smiles easily and often.

Right now, although he figures he "ministers not to a building but to people," he is in the building business — helping in a dozen ways with the construction of St. Thomas Episcopal Church on the south side of Harrison Highway at the west city limits.

New Church Building
And Les is very visibly proud of the building and of the 56 Hereford Episcopals who are financing its construction on a "pay-as-you-go" basis. The Missionary District of North Texas decrees "no easy-pay-plan" for new church buildings.

This factor has helped, perhaps, in dictating the size — if not the handsome design — of the rising church building. "With a seating capacity of 100, we'll be big enough to serve our present congregation and allow for expected future growth." When the size of the Episcopal congregation expands as Jones and members of his church feel it will, the second stage of their building plan will be implemented: The two arches will become five as the building gets a sizable addition on its southeast side.

Talking of his Hereford congregation's decision to build their own church, Jones says, "I admire them for that decision very much. It shows a lot of courage."

His admiration is apparently returned by his congregations — both the Hereford and Canyon groups have been growing since Jones became pastor in June, 1955.

Home Calls and Hospital Visits
Home calls and daily hospital visits are "musts" on Jones' schedule. "You must know and understand people in order to preach to them," he says.

A leader as well as a "good mixer," the native of Massachusetts has found a warm welcome extended by Texans. And in Hereford those Texans this year named him president of the Ministerial Alliance. He also recently became president-elect of the Optimist Club. Membership in the Toastmaster Club and Veterans of Foreign Wars rounds-out his participation in civic and social activities.

The likable Episcopalian priest was ordained as a deacon at Washington Cathedral, Washington, D. C., just prior to his assignment here. He was ordained as a priest on Dec. 18, 1955 at St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Amarillo.

A Five-Career Man
Now 36, he pursued four careers before entering the ministry.

He enlisted in the Marine Corp. in 1937. He was wounded during the Japanese attack Dec. 7, 1941, on the Pearl Harbor area. Then a platoon sergeant with a Marine detachment at Hickam Field, he was hospitalized until his discharge in January, 1942.

Jones was county police officer in Montgomery County, Mo., from 1943 until 1948. During that time he began night school studies at Washington—Junior College—continued his education later at Maryland University and the American University College of Law.

He left police work to become a court clerk in 1948, and in 1951 became judge of Peoples Court—having jurisdiction of both criminal and civil cases—in Montgomery County.

His theological training began the following year at Virginia Theological Seminary.

Visited in 1954
His first visit — and work here — was with the Canyon and Hereford churches during the summer of 1954. "We liked it so much that I asked to be assigned here after completing my studies," Jones said.

Explaining his decision to enter the ministry after a "sheekered" career, the Rev. Jones says, "I've never been quite able to explain it. But the proof of the pudding is in the eating, you know, and I'm happier in my present work than I've ever been."

The Episcopal Church here was first organized in 1948 as a mission. The congregation had met previously in a private home. Presently, services are held each Sunday at 11 a.m. in the Seventh Day Adventist Church at Third and Lawton.

Married, he lives in the Episcopal parsonage at 416 Star. Mrs. Jones is the former Selma Cregger of southwestern Virginia. They have two children, Laura Leigh, 8, and Frederick L., 4.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his farm, as might be expected, is hard at work trying to figure out the angles on the soil bank, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

Now that Congress has passed and the President has signed the Soil Bank bill, I have been giving considerable thought to how I can put it into effect this year. After all, if Congress is going to the trouble of offering me help, the least I can do is figure out a way to accept it without stalling around.

As I understand it, the Soil Bank is now in effect, for this year, if I can meet the requirements, and I aim to try, because, since I suppose it'll be in effect not only next year but several years to come, anybody who misses out on this year has just missed that portion forever, and it's not Congress' intention, or mine either, to miss out on anything as pleasant as getting paid for staying off my cultivator.

But what I can decide not to plant this year is a problem. However, I've been thinking in view of the fact it would suit Washington mighty well to get rid of some of that money this year, and since all you have to do to qualify is to decline some of the money this year, and since all you have to do to qualify is to decline to plant a given number of acres this year, I have decided not to plant any fall cotton this year. I will be glad to sign up on September 1, not to plant a stalk of that stuff this fall, and I figure if Washington is on the ball I should get my check before Christmas, maybe even before the election in November.

Of course, if Washington smells a rat in this deal, I have some other crops which ain't doing so well right now, in fact they could be turned back to grass like the Soil Bank stipulates merely by throwing my hoe away, and I would like to get those acres in at least. It's true I've already been to some expense in getting the crops up, but I figure this is a give and take proposition, and I'll make a sacrifice if Washington will make a bigger one.

Another thing I'd like to find out about the program is the possibility of borrowing acres from your neighbors. Say a man has some extra energetic neighbor who doesn't want to put any of his land in the Soil Bank. Since the purpose of the bill is to reduce the surplus by reducing the acreage, could I borrow his allotment and transfer it to my farm? I figure if I could get enough borrowed acres, I could put my whole farm in the Soil Bank, and give not only my farm a rest but me and my equipment too.

After all, Washington ought to be willing to lean over backwards a little if I'm willing to sit down altogether.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Seniors See Disneyland, Catalina Island On Trip

By JUDY GRETCHEN PINNELL. Early Friday morning, May 25, three automobiles set sail on Route 66 to destination: Long Beach, Calif. In a small school such as Adriaan, perhaps the thing most looked forward to, graduation excluded, is the Senior Trip.

Reservations had all been made and a strict time table was at hand. J. R. Cullander, high school boys' coach, has sponsored the group for the past three years. In his car were Kenneth Homfeld, Freddie Harris, Finis Brown, and Julian Coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Pinnell had with them their daughter, Barbara, Doris Jewett and Daria Betts. Mrs. George Paschel piloted the remainder of the group: her daughter, Joan, June Leslie, Marylene Allen and Erna Faye Bronniman.

Overnight at Flagstaff. Flagstaff, Ariz., was to be the first night's destination. This was made in time for a sight-seeing tour before dark. The next afternoon they arrived on the sunny shores of Long Beach, Calif. Reservations had been made in advance for the party to stay in a motel at the very edge of the beach. The party stayed each night here and in the day, viewed points of interest in and around the city. Probably the most interesting side light of the trip was the venture to Catalina Island on the glass-bottomed boat. The capacity of the boat was 1500. Divers were equipped and taken under the boat where they performed for the passengers.

Tex. were on board, and he hoped they enjoyed their trip. Two hours later the boat docked. Some of the seniors merely walked around trying to clear their heads while others took in all the sights, the huge bird grove, the beautiful undersea gardens. The fifth day was spent at Knott's Berry Farms and Ghost Town. This farm is set up as a replica of an old pioneer town. This included a saloon, newspaper office, old water-wheel mill that actually grinds corn which is sold on the spot. To Disneyland. In the afternoon the group split up into two units. One went for a shopping trip in Hollywood and the other visited Disneyland. Much has been written about this mystical place, but it has to be seen to be believed. You can lose yourself in a fairland of Peter Pan, Snow White, or a trip to the Moon. That evening, the group started for home, spending the night in colorful Las Vegas. They also saw Hoover Dam, Grand Canyon and Flagstaff again on the way home. So seven days, 3000 miles later, 15 tired but happy Texans rolled into Adriaan. With this trip behind, we expect 11 new paths to open to 11 graduating seniors.

Guests From 'Faraway Places With Strange Sounding Names' Visit Hereford People

By CAROL INMAN
It's true that people will travel from those "faraway places" to visit with Herefordites!

One such instance is an event that happened in the Woody Wilson home recently. His family had visitors from Venezuela, no less. Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Cleveland of San Tome, Venezuela, were guests in the Wilson home for a short time last week.

They came to the states for an extended visit about a month ago, and are now visiting friends in Salt Lake City, Utah. Cleveland is head of the office in the production department of Gulf Oil Corporation in the Eastern Venezuela Branch.

The Wilsons became friends of the Clevelands during their five-year stay in Venezuela from '47 to '52. Woody was superintendent of schools and there he met Mrs. Wilson, who was teaching in Venezuelan schools at the time.

And Mrs. E. J. Williams had relatives from way up north and down south also. Son Bill from Loyminster, Canada, and son Hez from Chihuahua, Mexico were visiting in her home for the Pioneer days in Hereford, and also in the home of their sister, Mrs. M. C. King.

This is Bill's first visit home in four years, and when he left Hereford, he was en route to Oklahoma City to attend the graduation exercises of his son. Bill is superintendent of Huskey Oil Company in Saskatchewan. Hez, who is a rancher, manages to come to Hereford every year.

Mr. and Mrs. Colby Conkright and Jimmy returned Monday night from a weekend trip to Sherman.

Mrs. W. H. London and the Baxter Londons visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Myers of Amarillo recently.

Guests over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Reynolds were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd A. Fowler and son of Crosbyton, Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Williamson of Ralls, and Mr. and Mrs. Gwinn Dale Fowler and baby of Robstown.

Mrs. H. T. Hornbuckle and son, Tom, of Albuquerque, N. M., spent several days visiting in the homes of her sisters, Mrs. W. F. Gillis, Mrs. Riddle and Mrs. Vandiver.

W. J. Wilson of Albuquerque spent the weekend last week with the C. R. Smiths and Mrs. Nora Gillis. He was a member of the prize winning Bernalillo County Sheriff's posse that rode in the parade Friday.

And no matter how you look at it, that "bug" is catching on more than ever before! It seems that nowadays almost everyone has "fish" on the brain. Whether you have a rod and reel, fancy fishing tackle, and plenty of brightly colored lures, or the traditional cork branch, and lots of worms, the place to go is Conchas Dam. Seen around the lake last week from Hereford... J. E. Moad... Dick Hagar... Jack Hagar... Fred Cunningham... V. C. Overall... Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calvert. All came back with lots of fish, memories of a good time, a good tan... and the possibility of a few mosquito bites and maybe a light case of sniffles. But they had fun!

Urlin Streu took son Oliver back to San Francisco recently, and returned Wednesday afternoon. Urlin took his time on the way home—sightseeing, shopping, and deep sea fishing. In June after his discharge from the Navy, Oliver will fly back to Hereford to join his family.

Mrs. Bill Sayers and daughter, Cynthia of Seattle, Wash., are guests in the home of Mrs. Billye Buck.

E. S. Ireland reports that Prentice R. Sson, a former Hereford resident who used to own International Harvester Company, has regained his eyesight well enough to read books, write, etc. Quite an improvement over his eye condition last summer. And very wonderful too! Ireland visited Rosson, among several other friends, in San Angelo, recently.

Also fishing recently in Colorado were the Reuben McGilvays, both junior and senior. That's a like father, like son situation if ever there was one!

Lynn Robbins of Albuquerque, the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Culpepper is here for her annual two week visit in Hereford. Lynn comes to stay with her grandparents each summer to attend Vacation Bible School.

Captain and Mrs. Lloyd H. Manjeot and Mrs. Art L. Manjeot visited the internationally famous Belingrath Gardens last Saturday. Captain Manjeot was recently promoted to the rank of captain from lieutenant.

Mrs. Clarence Hollabaugh attended Thelma Davis' Rainbow Revue Monday night in Amarillo. Her granddaughter, Lois Jane, was in four numbers on the program.

And the Les Combes and boys are leaving today for a two week or so vacation to California. Les and Ann used to live on the West Coast but it's been seven long years, and so they are taking Gregory and Richard back to show them "things that used to be" while nearly-two-year-old Brent will be going along for the ride.

The agenda is crowded with plans for the trip, and highlights include the Mount Wilson observatory (which the boys have decided is the biggest MUST on the list) and also, of course, a tour of fabulous Disneyland. Other stops will be at Eureka, for a visit with Ann's brother and sister and their families, and then on to San Francisco, Riverside, Los Angeles, California, here they come!

And off on another dreamy sounding trip to the West are Mr. and Mrs. Grady Rogers, and Barbara Sue. They are leaving next Saturday for a two-week jaunt to

Karamu Operas Turn Up Amazing Performances

By JOHN MORGANTHALER
CLEVELAND (AP)—"The talent is amazing," says Helmut Wolfes, musical director at Karamu theater in Cleveland's famed interracial settlement house.

"Last week comes a woman in here, a Negro, and wants to sing," he said. "I listen to her and she has a beautiful voice, beautiful. I ask her how long has she been in town and she says for years.

"How come you've never been at Karamu, I ask. She says she's never even seen a performance. Yesterday comes a man. I nearly fell down when I heard his voice."

That's the way singers find Karamu, and the result is musicals and operas remarkable for their vitality, freshness and musical excellence.

The young singers don't get paid but it's probably the only theater in the country where they have the chance to do 30 or 40 performances of new operas.

Karamu's modern, red brick building houses two theaters—a proscenium theater which seats 225 and an arena theater for 114.

Wolfes says the small theaters, with no orchestra pits, prohibit big scale operas, but he likes it the way it is, with two pianos. He added a harmonium for "Three Penny Opera" recently.

Much of the talent for Karamu's shows comes from the immediate neighborhood, but its fame draws others from the far corners of the county and farther. Many singers appear in practically all the musicals and operas.

They don't do Carmen Travlati, the old repertoire Wolfes used to conduct at New Orleans, with a local chorus and big names "who arrived at the last minute from New York to sing the leads."

"You can't build an ensemble that way," he said. "Here at Karamu it's like a big family. We can actually do new things and give talented young singers a chance."

Wolfes was born in Munich, but his grandparents were American. He came to the United States in 1939 and after conducting at New Orleans, New York City Center and several colleges, came to Karamu two years ago.

He stayed to work with Benno Frank, Karamu's stage director, on everything from Lukas Foss' setting of Mark Twain's "Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County" to Wolf-Ferrari's "Pre-

Oregon where they will visit relatives and friends and also—and here's the pitch—they are going salmon fishing while up in that country of beautiful scenery, salmon waters and lots of rainfall. Also in on the trip are the T. B. Chessers of Amarillo and their daughter.

with the girl friend. We don't pay them, so we have to make it so interesting they want to come."

Next season?
"I have a whole stack of operas at home, new operas in English. But to play them for 30 performances? It's not worth the effort. We'll find something new and good," Wolfes said.

GROWING SALES
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—In an effort to rid his zoo of rapidly multiplying ducks and rabbits, Director Ivo Poglayen has offered a dozen or so "snow white baby rabbits, nice and healthy" and more than a dozen domestic ducks to the public.

But state law requires that before the city can sell anything the City Commission must authorize the sale then must advertise the sale in three consecutive weeks, the last publication at least 20 days prior to the sale.

By then Poglayen figures he probably will have twice as many pets for sale, he says.

Because Americans prefer red cedar pencils other types of cedar wood are dyed and given a cedar scent by some pencil manufacturers.
