Voters Decide Fate Of Tax Office And Airport Tuesday

Bond Issue Overshadows Vote On Split Of Office

Deaf Smith County voters go to the polls Tuesday to make their decision on two important issues: whether or not to separate the office of tax assessor-collector from the sheriff's department and whether or not to approve a $150,000 airport bond issue.

Of the two issues, the airport has overshadowed the office separation. There has been no open opposition to creating a separate tax office, and until recently opponents of the bond issue had kept quiet. In the last week, however, they have openly voiced their opposition.

Budget Hearing Set For Monday

The annual Deaf Smith County budget hearing will be held Monday at 11 a. m. in the commissioners courtroom.

Commissioners will study the budget for the coming year at that time. The budget is prepared by County Judge Homer Henslee. Judge Henslee said that the public was invited to attend the public hearing and make any suggestions they would like to.

The Eastern Star went to Canyon for the Canyon Friendship night. Those from Hereford were Mr. and Mrs. John Patton, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Sanders, Mrs. M. Culpepper, Mrs. Hattie Kester, Juanita Hershey, Bell Hromas and Earnie Peppers.

The County Commissioners Court called the two elections after receiving a petition bearing 204 names, asking that the airport bond election be held. Both issues will appear on one ballot.

A vote on creating a tax office has been expected ever since voters amended the State constitution last year allowing counties under 10,000 population to separate the sheriff's office from that of the office of tax assessor-collector.

County Judge Homer Henslee said that the election was called at the present time so that there may be candidates for the office at the next election. If voters approve the separation, the first elected tax assessor-collector will take office Jan. 1, 1957.

Eligible voters for both elections will be those residents who have taxable property listed on the tax rolls who have their present poll tax receipt. Both issues need only a simple majority.

The airport issue is without doubt the most closely contested of the two decisions voters must make. Backers of the issue point out that the county has the chance to get an airport "at the cost of only 35 cents on a dollar."

They say that since the Civil Aeronautics Administration will contribute 50 cents on the dollar, the county tax roll is paid by non-residents, local residents would be out only 35 cents on a dollar.

Backers of the issue claim that the cost to the average home owner in the city as a result of increased county taxes, including interest, would be approximately $2.68 per year or a 15-year total cost of only $40.20. The cost to the average owner of a half section of land, they say, would only be $2.82 a year, or $42.30 over the 15-year period.

To continue to progress, the county "must have an airport."

YIELD RIGHT OF WAY — Chris Strain, Hereford High School senior, adds a lot of emphasis to his "Yield Right of Way" sign. The city has installed several of the signs recently on a trial basis. Motorists don't have to come to a complete halt, but can just slow down enough to look both ways. With Chris standing by the sign, though, there's little doubt that most cars will come to a standing stop. (Staff Photo)

McLallen Injured In Crash

A Hereford man suffered a broken leg and possible other injuries Friday when the car he was driving failed to make a turn on a county road 14 miles northeast of Hereford and overturned.

Injured is Danny McLallen. He was rushed to the Deaf Smith County Hospital for treatment and later transferred to an Amarillo hospital.

Highway Patrolman J. R. Kirkwood, who investigated the accident, said McLallen was driving a 1955 Chevrolet. McLallen started around a turn and his car skidded and overturned. The late model car was badly damaged, with estimates of $1000 made by Patrolman Kirkwood.

Youth's Legs Are Run Over By Car

A 17-month-old Hereford boy was accidentally run over Friday, but suffered only "severe bruises."

Gerald Daniel McCaskill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McCaskill, 119 Beach, was rushed to the Hereford Clinic for emergency treatment after a car driven by Mrs. Irving Alexander apparently ran over both of the youngster's legs.

Dr. Roy J. Grubbs said the youth had tire marks over both legs. He said X-rays revealed no broken bones, however. Danny was released after treatment and returned home, where his mother said he was doing fine early Saturday.

Mrs. Alexander, a neighbor of the McCaskills, was backing out of her driveway. Danny was apparently playing in the drive and Mrs. Alexander did not see him. The rear tire of her car ran over both of his legs, but she stopped fast enough to avoid running over him with the front tires.

Mrs. McCaskill said, "We are all just thankful that Danny wasn't more seriously injured."

ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS

Four Held By Local Police On Burglary Charge in Oklahoma

Three men and a woman are being held in county jail here for Oklahoma officers as suspects in the burglary of a Indianhoma, Okla. general store.

The four suspects, arrested by city police on drunkenness charges, were identified as Bobby Ray Gordon, Robert L. Childs, James A. Wright and Ina Haunpo.

The foursome were arrested on Wednesday night and charged with being intoxicated in a public place. Questioned by police, each told a different story. Police found two boxes of socks in their car and began to investigate. They got a hold order from Oklahoma officers. All four of the suspects waived extradition and Oklahoma officers were expected to pick them up Saturday.

A fifth member of the party, W. R. Green, was arrested in Amarillo. Wright was also wanted by the Air Force on an absent without leave charge.

The four men and one woman are charged with burglarizing a general store in Indianhoma, taking

Navarett Is Fined $100 For Beer Sale

Manuel Navarett entered a plea of guilty in County Court Friday to a charge of selling alcoholic beverages in a dry county.

Navarett was fined $100 and costs of court by County Judge Homer Henslee.

The defendant said several of his friends asked him to sell them some beer and offered to pay him enough money to go to Amarillo to replace it. He made the sale and was arrested by Sheriff's deputies.

Four persons were injured in a two-car collision Friday night at the corner of Park Avenue and Avenue B.

Injured were W. H. Knox, Mrs. W. H. Knox, Bill Knox and Gordon Elliott. Bill Knox and Elliott were given emergency treatment and then released and Mr. and Mrs. Knox were released Saturday morning.

Mrs. Knox was the most seriously injured. She suffered bruises on face and forehead, facial cuts and a knee injury. W. H. Knox suffered a minor cut on his right arm and Bill Knox received head and ankle injuries. Elliott also suffered a head injury.

City police, who investigated the accident, said that W. H. Knox was driving a 1951 Buick north on Avenue B and Elliott a 1955 Chevrolet west on Park Avenue. The Elliott car smashed into the side of the Knox vehicle.

Charges of negligent collision and leaving the scene of the accident were filed against Elliott.

HE CAN PULL SISTER ANYTIME

Story Of Youngster Who Lost Both Legs Has Happy Ending

By VIRGIL E. MOORE

"Gerry won't pull sister in little red wagon anymore," the headline read in The Sunday Brand on Sept. 7, 1952.

And few would have argued the statement that day. For Gerry Steve Stewart, who was only 3½ years-old at the time, had only three days before he lost both of his legs in one of the most tragic farm accidents ever to occur in Deaf Smith County.

Most everyone in Hereford and the surrounding area remembers the story. They can still shock themselves by recalling the facts. Gerry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Stewart, were working in the field that day. They were trying to make enough extra money to buy a cow, and Gerry was taking care of his one-year-old sister, Sandra Kay.

The 3½-year-old tot decided to pull his sister in his little red wagon. He would take her out to see mother and daddy, he decided. So with sister in the wagon, Gerry pulled until he reached the edge of the sudan field. Then he pulled his sister into the field.

"The tall sudan hid the children from sight as they crossed a field where the father was operating a row binder." The Brand story read that day. "and he walked right into the path of the machine. Gerry probably heard the noise, but was unable to see the binder coming toward him. The father failed to see the children in the tall sudan until it was too late. The first thing he knew of their presence was when he saw the baby daughter fly over the binder and heard the painful cries of Gerry, caught in the machine.

"Frantically the father dug into the feed and found Gerry badly injured. The grandmother of the two children heard the cries of the father in the field and ran to his aid; she picked up the baby daughter, who was not badly hurt, except for scratches and bruises.

"But little Gerry had both legs off just below the knee—he would pull little sister no more in the little red wagon."

Yes, Hereford people remember the story well, for it was they who made it have a happy ending.

Gerry, now a husky 6½-year-old first grade student, walked into The Brand office this week without any help from anybody. You may have thought the boy's shoes were a little tight by the way he walked, but you would have never guessed that he was walking on two artificial legs. The good-looking youngster now lives in Plainview with his family. He was in town for a short visit. After saying hellos around the office and collecting a crowd of admirers, Gerry proved his point.

Without any persuasion he climbed up on the rail around the newsroom. He walked, he ran, he climbed, he jumped—he did anything any six-year-old boy could hope to do.

How did it happen? It happened because Hereford was too big to let a crippled 3½-year-old boy go hopeless. It happened because people of this city and county—yes, even surrounding counties—pitched in with their dollars and their pennies to see that Gerry got the best of medical aid. Several thousand dollars were collected and put in a trust fund for the youth.

He was on his third set of legs when he visited the Brand. His original ones had been taken from him by the terrible accident and he had outgrown his second pair. And there will be more new legs for him, too, in the years to come.

You see, Gerry can pull his sister in his little red wagon any old time he gets ready to.

GERRY STEWART . . . he can pull sister

Pioneer Study Club Displays 1910 Deed To Mothers' Park

Pioneer Study Club held its first session of the 1955-56 club season in Mother's Park Tuesday evening. Mother's Park has held a special significance to members of the Pioneer Study Club for the past 45 years, for soon after the Mother's Club, now the Pioneer Study Club, was organized in 1909, a committee was appointed by the president, Mrs. S. B. Edwards, to procure a plot of ground for beautification as a park. Members of the committee were the late Mesdames Ralph Barnett, C. G. Witherspoon and Hattie Rutherford and Mrs. J. M. Gilliland.

The small plot chosen was owned by O. E. Thomas who gave the site for the park to the club and presented them with the deed, and the club has not only beautified the grounds but has kept up its maintenance. Many of the trees planted 45 years ago still furnish shade for the many who use the park.

As the city grew many changes were made in the surroundings, including the names of the streets. Bounding the park on the west was Dewey Ave., now Main St., Evans St., was on the north, now Park Avenue, and "B" St. on the east.

All records of the club since its organizational meeting have been kept and are now in possession of the club in book form. Much local history is to be found in its pages.

After a salad supper in the park, Mrs. Ray Johnson, president of the club, opened a short business session with a welcome to members and stressed the importance in cooperation in club work. Mrs. O. G. Hill, chairman of the year book committee, presented the new year books, and with other members of the year book committee, Mesdames A. L. Manjeot and Delmar Sigle, gave a preview of things to come.

Mrs. Rex Tynes reviewed the club history relative to obtaining Mother's Park, touching on highlights of the intervening years.

A playlet "What My Club Means to Me" was presented by Mesdames F. L. Terrell and Bess Werner.

Those attending the outdoor session were Mesdames Fred Barrett, A. G. Bell, Buri France, O. H. Herrington, O. G. Hill, Ray Johnson, F. M. Kester, A. L. Manjeot, Ralph McCullough, H. E. Miller, Mary Seigler, Delmar Sigle, F. L. Terrell, Rex Tynes, Bess Werner and a new member, Mrs. Chas. Walser.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Of course, the big issue in this $150,000 bond election is, does Hereford need an airport and will it benefit by having one? First, certainly it is progress and keep this in mind, it is the same kind of progress we went through in getting the railroads in this county. At that time there were a lot of good people very much opposed to that. Just suppose Hereford had not come up to the requirement of the railroads and the Santa Fe would have by-passed Hereford. It is very obvious what would have happened to Hereford. Who is capable of saying the same thing could not be true about an airport for Hereford? Keep this in mind, no one will dispute that air travel is the fastest growing transportation of all. Yes, progress costs money. Tractors were progress. Can you picture a farmer out here trying to farm with teams?

It is true that some of our people in the northeast part of the county are closer to Amarillo than Hereford and they probably go to Amarillo where they have better facilities to serve them, including a modern airport; but the land owners in that county are paying the taxes for those facilities and certainly it is nothing but fair for these people to pay a few extra dollars a section for the same kind of facilities in Hereford.

It is very true that taxes are plenty high and no one has a harder time paying them than I do. But I just can't see how we can afford to pass up this opportunity to get an airport for a few extra dollars a section. To me, it is just like a farmer saying I have enough money in this maize crop and stop watering when maybe one more watering would have doubled the yield.

As to the Commissioners being under pressure, every one knows that when they are presented with a petition with enough signatures, they are duly bound by law to call an election so this one is no different than any other bond election. It is common knowledge that industry is moving to the smaller towns. It is also common knowledge that practically all executives travel by air. So what chance have we got to get industries here if they have to land 20 miles from Hereford in a grass field? One good industry would certainly pay for an airport.

If a community sits idly by and does not keep abreast of the times certainly they will have the taxes to pay by themselves. On the other hand, if we keep abreast of the times we have a much better chance of getting more people in to help pay our taxes.

Most people create their wealth by the increase in the value of their property so I can't see how a person that owns property in this community can afford to not vote for the airport bond election Sept. 20.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I have been in this county a long time and am not like the man that was again every change that was made in the past 50 years.

Many changes have been made and nearly every one has been for the betterment of the community and nearly every one has cost something. Anything worth while costs somebody something and it is nothing but right that each one stand his part of the cost in proportion to what he has.

When an issue comes up there are two principal things to consider: Is it needed? Is it worth the price? There is no doubt that an airport is needed at Hereford, and with the help that will be furnished I think that we have a real bargain offered us.

Put me down as in favor of the bond issue which will be voted on next Tuesday. The airport will be worth what it will cost me and besides I may want to get away from my wife in a hurry sometime.

Alex O. Thompson

those in favor of the issue exclaim.

Those opposed to the issue say that the $150,000 would only be the initial cost of the airport. They say that it would cost the county more and more money each year to pay the operating cost of the landing field.

County commissioners have announced that the county cannot levy any additional county tax since Deaf Smith County's tax levy of 80 cents per $100 valuation is the maximum. They say, therefore that it would be necessary to increase the county valuation in order to provide the necessary revenue to retire any such bonds. "The increase in valuation will not only apply to the county tax, but also to the State, Road District and Water district taxes as well," the Court said in a formal statement issued last week.

Answering the objections of those opposed to the issue, those favoring building the airport say that the field could be leased out to an individual, thus relieving the county of any operational expense. They also say that much of the land purchased for the field could be farmed.

Another question which has come up, is whether or not Federal funds will be available. The CAA has made no written agreement, but verbal assurance has been given. The County Commissioners Court agreed that if matching funds of the Federal government were not made available by the end of the CAA fiscal year, "Deaf Smith County would not be obligated to issue such bonds."

The decision on both the issues will come Tuesday from the voters themselves.

The Sheriff Reports

Am running a day late this week so this may not make the deadline. There are times when I don't seem to have much to do, but if some of us are out of town for a few hours we get way behind. Neal went to Huntsville yesterday and I went to Amarillo, so things piled up a little. By noon we are caught up again. Charles and Leo apprehended a bootlegger while I was gone.

The city police gathered up three boys and a girl wanted in Oklahoma for burglary. If they are guilty of all they are suspected of they will be breaking rocks at McAllister for several years.

Last week I mentioned we had not had a serious wreck in our area in some time, but before the ink got dry we had a one-car turnover west of Summerfield. Today, during the time of writing this, Danny McLallen turned over his car and broke his leg. Hope this is our quota for a spell.

Don't know if my personal car runs a lot slower or what, but many more cars pass me on the highways when driving the personal car. Can drive 45 in the county car at night and few cars pass, but a lot of them pass me in our car when driving 55 or over. It amuses me a great deal to have a car overtake me real fast and start around, then see the sign on the door and fall behind. Would you say patrol cars on the highways do not slow traffic a little?

We are starting the weekend with nine in jail. Oklahoma will probably get their four today or Saturday. Chances are good for replacements for them with a ballgame and three dances to go.

Have other things to do so this is all for this week.

Zimmermans Celebrate Fiftieth Anniversary

A family reunion with many, many relatives attending, some of whom were present at the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Zimmerman marked the golden wedding anniversary of the couple held here Sunday, Sept. 11.

Their three children who live in Hereford, were hosts at an informal open house held in their home at 112 Fuller St. They include Mrs. M. J. Noel, Mrs. Evelyn Winget and Don Zimmerman. Two sons, Howard Zimmerman of Long Beach, Calif., and E. J. Zimmerman of Pueblo, Colo., were unable to attend.

Decorative accents and appointments carried out the golden wedding theme. The flower arrangement for the refreshment table was of gold and bronze chrysanthemums in two sizes combined with daisy chrysanthemums and gold and jade leaves. Gold numerals "50" completed the center piece. Small gold colored chrysanthemums and fern encircled the punch bowl and the tiered anniversary cake was topped with tiny yellow sugar-spun roses.

Granddaughters of the couple, Mrs. Eugene Noel, Mrs. Jimmie Lawhorn and Mrs. Dale Winget of Lubbock presided at the service table and at the anniversary book of names which was bound in gold moire taffeta.

Those receiving the guests were the honorees, their three children, Mrs. Mary Eldredge, 92 year old mother of Mrs. Zimmerman, and Mrs. Phoebe Zimmerman, of Drummond, Okla., step-mother of Mr. Zimmerman. Mrs. Zimmerman wore a Cattleya orchid corsage tied with gold ribbon.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Phoebe Zimmerman of Drummond, Okla., Mrs. Rose Stull, also of Drummond, Mr. and Mrs. E. Slocum of Gentry, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Cole, Mrs. Alice Baird, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Miller and daughter Mary Lynn of Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughn and daughters of Claude, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Heckelmann of Truth or Consequence, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wright and sons of Drummond, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zimmerman of Balto, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Slocum and sons of Hooker, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Plank of Canyon.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman were born near St. Louis, Mo., and came with their parents to what is now known as Ellis County in Oklahoma in the early nineteen hundreds.

Although having lived only a short distance from each other in Missouri, it was after moving to Oklahoma in 1903 that they first met. Both attended a "sock party" or birthday celebration, and the romance developed from that first encounter.

They were married Sept. 13, 1905 in Shattuck, Okla., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eldredge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. F. Biederman, a Methodist minister.

They lived near Beaver, Okla., before coming to Hereford nine years ago. He is engaged in farming and still carries on his farm activities. They have the same hobby that they pursue with great interest, and just recently returned from a fishing trip to Oregon where they fished for salmon. Both caught their limit in fish.

There are 11 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

15 or 30 boys, when Canyon's Class AA enrollment draws close to 100. Also, he figures, there are a lot of other worthwhile services that such a club could accomplish in behalf of the team and the school. Maybe Ray has something. If you are interested, visit with him on he subject.

After that game with Littlefield Friday, however, I have decided that a small turnout is maybe the best thing that ever happened to Hereford. The Whitefaces sure did play a swell game. We have some fast backs. Real fast. It was the line, however, that really made my heart swell with pride. In the first place, they were facing a bunch of tough veterans on the Littlefield line, while many of our linemen are just getting their feet on the ground. Martin Reid Moore and Walter Kaul were in there on a lot of tackles. What's more, Arol Acton and Don Sigle did a job that deserves a lot of praise. Hereford's offense is apparently based largely on laterals and hand-offs. When that line doesn't hold, it's just tap city for these delayed backfield plays.

The one thing I can't figure out, though, is a use for the cobs. Maybe someone will come up with an answer but right now, it appears to me that they are going to be a total loss.

Troys Carmichael is about the unluckiest fellow I know. A few days ago the Carmichael family parakeet escaped and flew away. They hunted and searched, and Troys broke down and bought another bird. Next day The Brand came out and in the "found" column was a description of his missing parakeet, which was almost immediately claimed by Mrs. Carmichael. This left the unfortunate people with two parakeets. Troys takes it like a man, but my heart goes out to any poor fellow with two of these pests. One is bad enough, and I ought to know. We have one.

I will admit that I sort of liked the little stinker—until the kids got to exercising him in the living room. The one and only place he will ever light is on my bald head. Honestly, I don't think any of them ever learn to talk. Anyway, I never saw one which could talk—and if this particular one learns, I'll go stark raving mad! The first thing he will probably say in that high-pitch, staccato tone will be: "Why doncha get a haircut, Curly?"

Ray Cowsert is among those who are worrying about the meager turnout for Whiteface football. Ray says the town needs to form a "Touchdown" or "Quarterback" club. This, says Ray, is the only way to cure the problem. He says the club can delve into the question and find out why Hereford's Class AAA enrollment draws only out, she says, very much like any other variety. Someone in Colorado gave the Mays some seed last year and the production is tremendous on their small test plot. In addition, I would say the corn "berries" have excellent decoration possibilities.

With the type of deceptive ball handling Coach Russell is running this year, you can almost measure how far the Whitefaces will go by the efficiency with which that Hereford line operates.

Don Parsons is another boy who did a nice line job at center Friday night. However, Gene Waits went in on a substitution and there is another kid who is new, but gives every indication of going a long way on the gridiron.

Most important, though, is the fact that the 1955 Whitefaces have a desire and a "will to win." This is the first time in three or four years that Hereford has fielded a squad which appeared to give a damn whether they won or lost. In my opinion, the strategy could be improved somewhat. Passing success in the first quarter, for instance, indicated that maybe a couple more touchdowns could talk—and if this particular one learns, I'll go stark raving mad! The first thing he will probably say in that high-pitch, staccato tone will be: "Why doncha get a haircut, Curly?"

Streu's Diary Sept. 16, 1955 DEAR DIARY: It has been so long since I have written a "Diary" that I have almost forgotten how to write. Among the many new residents of Hereford, there are several new school teachers and their families—it is my pleasure to welcome these fine people to Hereford and to invite them to visit Streu's soon. Several weeks ago we placed an ad in the Brand telling you about the 1956 RCA TV's which we had just received. As an inducement to you to come in and see these outstanding sets, we offered, at a cost of only 49 cents either a Davy Crockett vest for the kiddies or a phial of perfume for the ladies—we had very few takers, indeed—now leave me tell you that these jackets are selling in the cities for as much as $1.95 and the perfume (under a famous name) sells for $2.95 and up. Through mass purchase, we can let you have them at 49 cents each. Don't give a darn if you buy a jacket or perfume or not—just want you to see some of the fifty new RCA TV's we have in stock—there is a model to fit any decor, and prices start at $159.95. See them now! This week, Sept. 18th through 24th is National Radio and Television Week. Take a look at our windows and our displays of fine RCA Victor radio, television, record players and records. Should have a large shipment of new records before this is printed. Other new items just received include: seeds of new milk glass items, new shipment of candles, lots of other new and different gift items, padlocks, wood sucker rod, bolts, sharpening stones, al-

KNOX'S KNOTHINGS

BY BILL KNOX

(Editor's Note: Substituting today for Bill Knox is News Editor Virgil Moore.)

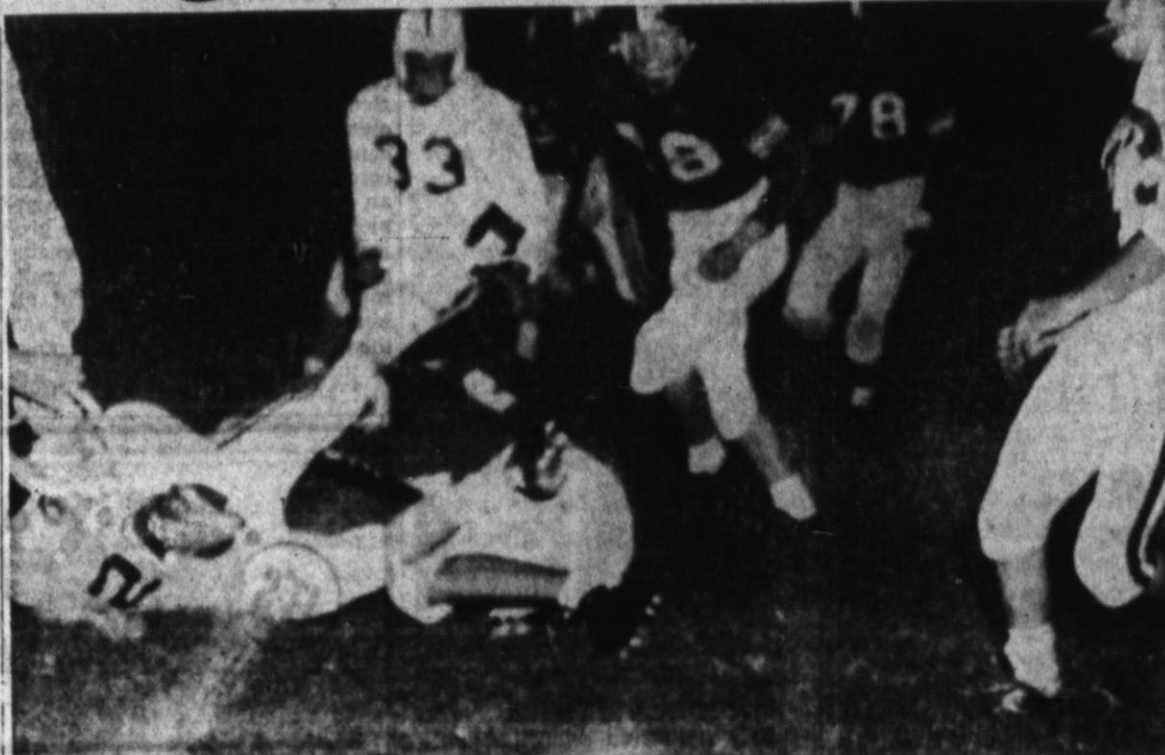

Things were happening fast as far as The Brand was concerned Friday night. Bill Knox, on his way to staff the Littlefield-Hereford football game, was involved in an automobile collision and ended up in the hospital instead of the football field.

Bill, although painfully injured, still had his mind set on going to the game, however. Only by force was he kept at the hospital. He finally did escape the nurses long enough to get to a telephone and give us a ring at home. He couldn't find us though—we were far too busy taking pictures of his wrecked automobile. Finding out that Knox was involved in the accident, we headed for the football field with six sheets of onion skin paper, an empty stomach and an unsharpened pencil. We got there just at the kickoff and headed for the press box.

As fate would have it, we got in the wrong press box, and had to listen to Littlefield fans all night. But we got our play by play account. And come to find out, so did Jimmie Gillentine. Jim, hearing about Putt's accident, grabbed up his paper and pen and ended up in the other press box. All in all The Brand ended up with two accounts of the game.

How's Putt? Fine we guess. He had enough smart this morning to stay in bed and leave this column for us to write.

Kaul's Extra Point Gives Locals Second Win In Row

Hereford's Whitefaces, plagued by penalties and blocked punts, built up a one point advantage over the Littlefield Wildcats in the first half here Friday night, and then clung to their lead desperately to down the visitors 14-13 in a non-district clash.

It was the talented toe of 180-pound Walter Kaul which spelled the final difference between the two teams. The talented tackle successfully kicked both extra points to run his point after streak to seven in a row in as many tries. Kaul outdid James Clayton, who kicked only one of Littlefield's extra point tries. It was on his first try that Clayton's kick hit the goalpost and bounced away.

Littlefield drew first blood in the game, which was played before an overflow shirtless crowd. The Wildcats ran big Clayton through the Herd line six consecutive times to go over from the 26. Clayton, running from his fullback slot, ate up the final five yard with a powerful lunge into the right side of his own line.

But the under-rated Whitefaces fought back in the initial period to take the lead they never gave up. Hereford drove 83 yards to paydirt, with Quarterback John Davis Bryant sending hard running Bill Calloway over the left side of the line from the 11 for the marker.

The touchdown jaunt got started with the Whitefaces back on their own 17 yard line, facing third and 10. Bryant, who looked good in the man-under spot all night, went to the air and hit his left halfback, Wayne Smith, on the run with a beauty. Smith gathered the ball in and raced to the 38 for a first down. A 15 yard penalty helped the local cause, moving the ball to the Littlefield 46 and then Merritt slashed across the right side on the line on a crossback to the 43. Calloway failed to gain on pitchout, but Smith had success on the same play around the opposite end, knocking off one would-be tackler and racing into the end zone. A clipping penalty nullified the play, however, and moved the Herd back to the 48.

Bryant used the airways again to shake up the visitor's defense, and End Danny Elliston pulled the ball in on the 26 for a first and 10. Merritt took it to the 24, Smith powered his way over left tackle to the 18 and then Calloway moved it to the 11. From there, Calloway smashed over his own left tackle, running high, to go over for the TD. Kaul then converted to move the Whitefaces out front 7-6.

Second Score

Only nine plays later the Herd had pushed the score to 14-6. Littlefield ran five plays, pushing the ball to the Hereford 37, but Quarterback Jimmy Prensley, a freshman sensation, fumbled the pigskin and a pile of Whitefaces got on top of it.

On first down Bryant hit Merritt with a screen pass and he raced to the Littlefield 47 behind a wall of blocking. Calloway carried it to the 37 and then Bryant recovered his own fumble on the 35. From there, Calloway stepped through a gaping hole in the right side on the line and raced over untouched.

With only minutes left in the first half, Littlefield got new life when they blocked Elliston's punt on the Whiteface 33. It took them just nine quick plays to punch it over from there, with Mike Morris ripping through the middle of the line from the six on fourth down for the tally. Clayton's kick was good this time to end scoring in the game at 14-13. Time ran out in the second half on the kickoff.

Calloway, besides scoring both Hereford touchdowns, had a great night defensively. He was a thorn in Littlefield's side all night. Marlin Reid Moore, Walter Kaul and Don Parsons also turned in good performances.

Littlefield's line, rated high in most quarters, was outplayed by the locals, although it was a close game all the way, between two evenly matched clubs. Hereford was able on occasions to open big holes in both sides on the visitor's line, however, to send HHS backs on long runs.

The Whitefaces still looked a little ragged with their pitchouts, but still gained considerable yardage with the plays around both ends.

FUMBLES HURT

Hereford 'Bees' Lose First Game Against Dalhart

The fumble-ridden Hereford High School "B" Teamers lost a close 13-7 decision to the Dalhart "B" team Thursday night.

The Junior Herdsman, who worked together, only since school started, drove many times near the Dalhart goal line before the Hereford crew handed Dalhart the ball on a silver platter.

Ray Dell Fowler scored both Dalhart touchdowns, one on a short line plunge, the other coming on a fine breakaway up the middle for about 60 yards. They first broke the ice in the first quarter the first time they got their hands on the ball.

Then later in the third quarter, they made the score 13-0 on Fowler's long scamper. Hereford's only touchdown came on a 25-yard sprint by little Wayne Caster who went through the line and broke away for the score.

Hereford was badly outclassed but showed some bright spots on offense as well as defense. In the fourth quarter, with about five minutes remaining, the Hereford defense rared back on the Cubs in a bid for another touchdown and a tie—or maybe victory.

LITTLE'S OF HEREFORD

MAN, LET'S GET THIS SOFTBALL OVERWITH

Whose The Winner?
Take Your Choice!

Softball officials of the Hereford Softball League have encountered a puzzling situation. And Larry Summers, league president, says, "I just don't know what to do."
The situation arose after the KC's had already won the initial game of the playoffs, and then lost the second. But they decided to protest, and the decision of the league was that the game was to be played from the beginning. But the official softball rulebook says that the game should be played from the point of the protest with the decision corrected.
So the two managers agreed to do that. But then Debbs Knox changed his mind and said it was the league decision or nothing. Now most of the KC's have gone to college and Tommy Albracht refuses to play.

At last reports Tommy Albracht, manager of the KC's, was planning to forfeit. Officials were planning to have a meeting sometime in the near future to talk over the situation.

FANCY and PLAIN

By KENT SNARE

Ere this squib hits the pave, the initial wringing out of the 1955 footballer hassle will have rung and prospectives and actual type prospects alike, will have, in separate and sundry cases, wilted. In Sports Illustrated, Herman Hickman, in lieu of an eleven comprised of individuals, has selected an eleven consisting of that number of top football clubs. He has picked Army, Navy, Notre Dame, UCLA, Georgia Tech, Iowa, Michigan, Maryland, Ohio State, Oklahoma and Rice, and not in that order. He does not designate that all of them will come through with unsullied and unbesmirched records but selects them on overall ability, plus schedule consideration.

Most of them are old standard picks, which insure safety and continuation of his considerable stipend, by bearing out his sagacity. He fingers three Big Ten teams and if the threesome finishes in the top echelon of that league, his record is secure enough, even if they sully and smear each other a bit. Oddly enough his highest hazard is Notre Dame, ordinarily a most safe venture for any pre-season plunger, but the ever tough Irish program is likewise this lap. They could drop the first one to SMU before they can jell together, a vet 3 man backfield, with an unseasoned quarterback, Hornung, and a new line, and after jelling has set in, they could encounter difficulty climbing over the other nine. Miami in the Orange Bowl on October 7; Purdue, whose Dawson pitched them out of their own park last year; Navy, with a well Welch and an explosive, light line; Iowa, deep this year and usually devious enough at any date for ND and USC, who just might be approaching a return to the Jones tradition, a T that even Knute Rockne had trouble squaring; these five undoubtedly will occupy some of Mr. Brennan's planning moments and may even absorb some time when he wished he could have slept.

UCLA and Maryland meet this week in College Park and a positive marker, will be erected there, bearing on the National football standings, definitely one of the large type games of '55. Despite all the yakking about Colorado, Oklahoma

WE DIDN'T LOSE PHILLIPS

AAA Districts Are Announced

Whitefaces are members are: Hereford, Phillips, Dumas, Littlefield and Levelland. Levelland was already in AAA, but Littlefield was in district 2AA. Changes will be in effect starting in September of next year for AAA and AAAA. Sixteen districts have been set up in each of these classifications. The changes were made by lowering the enrollment minimum for AAAA from 1200 to 845 and lowering AAA limits from 550 to 370. Enrollment revisions in other classifications are comparatively light. Five team districts have been set up in each classification by the Interscholastic League. Fifty-five AA teams were elevated to AAA, and 25 AAA teams were moved up into AAAA.

The Hereford Whitefaces still didn't escape the Phillips Blackhawks peril, as the Hawks, along with the Dumas Demons, also members of district 1AA with the Whitefaces, moved up also. Members of district 1AAA of which the Perryton, Canyon, Dalhart and Shamrock, other present comrades of the Whitefaces in district 1AA, will all remain in the lower classification. The new district which the Herd will be a member of is one of the roughest in the state. Phillips, Dumas, and Levelland all have respected teams every year, Littlefield also producing top-notch teams. It wouldn't be hard for Hereford's Whitefaces to finish last. Brownfield, a predicted comrade of the Herd in AAA, was assigned to District 2. The Cubs last year handed the Whitefaces a 33-13 trouncing. The Breckenridge Buckaroos, the state AAA champions for the past two years, who had to be voted into AAA because of lack of enrollment, was pushed back to AA this year, but made the jump along with the other AA teams.

Visiting in the home of Lester Galley this week were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rogers of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cabot. Mr. Rogers and Mrs. Cabot are cousins of Mr. Galley, and his brother Walter of the Dawn community. Mrs. Cabot's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNabb of Midland also visited in the Galley home, on Thursday. The group were dinner guests in the Walter Galley home Thursday.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
All efforts for improvements and expansion have been met with the cry of unnecessary and expensive. The airport bond issue is an example, however about 99 percent of public projects become so essential and are utilized to such an extent that by the time of completion the expansion of these projects must be started. For example our schools, highways, railroads, and public services of all kinds are growing every day and the airport will prove to be another of the essentials. It seems that with the federal money for 50 percent of this project which may not be available again for many years it would be wise to maintain our forward look in considering this bond issue. Remember the old adage there are only two things certain in life, death and taxes, so let's not hamper our progress and success by fear of either.

On Sept. 20, let's all come out and vote so we may have a clear victory on this issue.

Teams Win Four,

District 1-AA teams did all right for themselves Friday night. They took four wins, one tie and one loss.
Phillips, as usual, was the most impressive winner. The Blackhawks went wild in plastering hapless Childress 61-0. Canyon rang up a 33-6 victory over Panhandle. Dalhart dropped Gvmon, Okla., 12-0 and Hereford edged past Littlefield 14-13. The tie came in the Perryton-Canadian tilt. The two teams ended up 13-all. Shamrock was the only team to lose, falling 19-0 to Wellington.
Dumas' game was scheduled for Saturday night.
In another area game, Dimmitt was winner over Turkey 33-0.

Could you get by
if you had to pay cash

How many people could enjoy the pleasure and convenience of an automobile, home appliances, household furnishings, or family wardrobe purchases if they had to pay cash?
And could you secure the cash immediately to pay the physician or hospital for a sudden and unexpected illness... to pay the dentist... to pay the fuel dealer all at one time for the winter's supply of fuel?

Fortunately for most of us, we don't have to pay cash for everything we buy. We can take advantage of the liberal, flexible system of consumer credit which enables us to buy and enjoy the things we want, when we want them, and to pay for them later. Whether our income is large or small, we can enjoy the privilege of buying almost anything, anywhere, if our credit record is good.

And the only way to maintain a good credit record is to buy only what you know you can pay for—and pay for it on the date it is due.

called "Conversation Piece." It concerns Bud Wilkinson, coach of Oklahoma University, and is very readable and worth so doing. Although it leans on smugness in highlighting some of his philosophy in seeking players and handling them after they are in the fold. A lot of football mentors would like to have his recipe or even copy it, if their record would come out comparable to Mr. W's. By the bye, Mr. W. is repeating his double reverse. Last year, being long on centers, what with one being everybody's AA, he shifted Jerry Tubbs of Breckenridge to fullback. This time Tubbs reverts to center and Dennis Morris, rated a grade A pivot, goes to fullback. There he can be taught the line-backing and blocking trade and do a spot or two of ball lugging on the side.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor and a Billion or so other Persons whom it may concern:

This would primarily touch the problem of a local airport. However there will be lots of other problems to complicate the airport problem. Taxes are not what they used to be and if the trend continues history may easily repeat, and we can have something like Argentina now has. Do not mention religious troubles as that is only minor and not the basic cause.

The few oppress the many and trouble is certain to come. In the United States a few often raise taxes out of all reason, or get the community into debt which has the same effect. Most parts of our country cannot build school buildings and other equipment that cost a thousand dollars for each pupil attending. Their buildings are well lighted and heated, but do not have so much of what is called architectural appeal. As a point of interest I challenge anyone to look at a simple test that shows fluorescent lighting to be unsafe for our eyes when used for more than a few minutes at a time. We can easily see that our schools do not train youngsters for the future. If they did there would be training to fight against evil propaganda, evil picture books, evil in television and radio, and a host of other things. After graduating how many can give the necessary attention to the mechanical things we have in our homes? Notice how many persons are shocked or killed by electricity in our homes. Also mechanical appliances have a very short life. May our schools help to "prove all things: hold fast to that which is good."

As a family with six children, we moved here from Burkburnett, Texas, mainly because of the way schools were run and high taxes even on a small farm. That was a little over 10 years ago. They really have architecture in the school buildings there. However, conditions changed a little and then the big question they had was "What to Tax." Farms and homes had to be taxed to the limit or else—So please, those of us who do not make money in whatever big building and construction is going on, and we can open our eyes to future taxes as well as present, be glad to vote down the airport as at present proposed. Watch developments closely as how other communities get along with these things they are building and no doubt we can more intelligently plan and act than at present. Building is one thing; upkeep is another; but the payment of bonds can be the most painful thing to do. We could move again, but almost everyone will agree that moving really is painful.

We are with others to get dollar values out of tax dollars.
C. A. Rettman.

What People Buy On Credit

Almost everybody uses credit to some extent.

Gas, electric and telephone services are supplied on credit. Some families have a charge account at their favorite grocery and pay their milkman once a month. Others have retail store charge accounts, buy an automobile, piano or refrigerator on monthly payments, or pay their physician or dentist the month after he has rendered services.

Young couples starting married life find it pays to establish their credit and to maintain a good credit record. It enables them to acquire attractive home furnishings and equipment as they go along. . . to enjoy more of the good things of life than they would if they had to wait until they saved the cash. And by paying promptly and maintaining their credit record, they are also establishing a sound foundation for financial security and social standing.

Those who grant credit like to see people use it, but not abuse it. The sound use of credit stimulates business, creates employment, contributes to lower commodity prices, brings more of the good things of life within the reach of more people.

gram. As had been repeatedly brought out, if the Board had voted on everyone of these applications instead of delegating the authority to approve them to the Chairman as is provided by law, the results would have been the same.

The trouble came outside of the office and outside of the record. As we used to say in East Texas, "it happened after school was out."

When the Intangible Tax Board equalizes taxes levied against approximately 3500 corporations, individuals and partnerships and then hears their individual objections and arguments presented, the board must rely on a staggering mass of technical facts, data and figures compiled by a year-round, full-time staff. Who hires and supervises this staff? Ordinarily the board chairman hires the staff and ex-officio members have no supervisory control.

When the Banking Board considers an application for a bank charter, it must rely on the Bank Examiner. The examiner by law is hired by the Banking Commissioner who is Board Chairman; he takes his orders from the Commissioner and is responsible to him alone.

In such agencies as these where the board has a quasi-judicial function of holding hearings, and the chairman is charged by law with making certain examinations and reporting findings to the board, the other two members have to act on the information which he supplies.

One Board chairman, charged by law to make investigations and examinations and report the facts to the board, refused to investigate a matter even though the two ex-officio members desired additional information. They are having to take members of their own staff who are untrained off their regular jobs to get other facts.

Stall the Act

Like the two end men in a minstrel show, they can stall the act, but they can't give each other the cue. Ideally, since they all have to vote on these decisions, they should have equal access to the sources of information, as does the Railroad Commission.

Many state officeholders have commented sharply on the general inadvisability of placing three-or-so elected officials on a state board, like three men in a tub, all having independent status, and therefore no control over each other.

This, in effect, was the view of

Civic Club Members Urged To Vote 'Yes'

Governor Allan Shivers, who said in his inaugural address Jan. 19, 1955:

"If the Governor is to be held accountable for the conduct of the executive branch, future governors should have direct authority over, as well as responsibility for, the performance of administrative functions which are not policy-making in character. Those officials which are, in effect, a part of each Governor's administration should be subject to his appointment and removal."

The original reasons for filling each tub with self-balancing heavyweights have long since faded, but the practice has been continued by habit to the present day and is mis-called "ex-officio" appointment.

Members of Hereford's five civic clubs were urged by speakers last week to vote for the proposed $150,000 airport bond election.

Bill Lenderman, manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, spoke to the Jaycee and Rotary Clubs, J. W. Robinson Jr., made the plea to the Lions Club, W. W. Bueck backed the issue in a talk before the Optimist Club and Dr. H. A. Cavness urged Kiwanians to vote for the issue.

All four speakers used the same reasoning.

They pointed out that the C-C Airport Committee has been negotiating with the CAA for over a year in an effort to get the airport program financed (partly by federal money).

"With the federal government putting up half of the money, and approximately 25 percent of our county tax roll being paid by non-

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

As owner of Hereford's airport for nine years, I feel as though I should speak my opinion about this new airport. I am very much in favor of an airport. I think it should be built by the city instead of the county. About 80 percent of the people who used the airport came in on city business or live in the city.

If an airport is to be built, I would like to see them buy the land for a large airport and build it up as it is needed. In this bond election coming up, they are planning to build a large airport; but there is nothing planned in it for hangers and fuel tanks.

If the ground around the runways is to be farmed, there will have to be drainage ditches with culverts and such under the runways, also irrigation underground systems have to be set up or the farming will not pay. My experience shows that either the aviation suffered or the farming suffered because of run-off water on the runways. Ditches around the runways tear up the airplanes when the pilots miss the runways. The income derived from the airport itself will not pay the interest on the money spent on this large airport or small one either; so if we're going to lose money on an airport, let's lose it in as small quantities as possible.

In the years that I ran my airport, I continually lost money; I had to work at some job in town to support my family and the airport. In nine years I showed a loss of $14,000 and I had the income from all the aviation sources of the airport including the farming. The rent on the land was $900 a year when we had 160 acres and $600 when we cut it down to 80 acres.

If we build a $700,000 airport, there will have to be a manager hired who will cost between $300 and $600 a month, plus one or two employees to do the upkeep and care of the airport, also electricity for the runway lights and other utilities. There will have to be an operator to take care of all aviation facilities either by lease or rent and buildings built for those facilities of which there is nothing mentioned in the bond issue as I understand.

This whole airport situation reminds me of a beautiful young girl horse that I didn't look in the mouth which turned out to be horribly fundered.

As long as our children have to go to school in war surplus barracks, we do not need a white elephant $300,000 plus airport.

Why not build a smaller and less expensive airport for the city of Hereford and a larger recreation center for the people and children of Deaf Smith County and Hereford?

Sincerely,
Carl V. Kropff

"Twice as much fun living ELECTRICALLY!"

says MRS. H. D. PATE
1204 RIVERSIDE DRIVE
CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO

- TWO ELECTRIC RANGES
- ELECTRIC CLOTHES WASHER
- ELECTRIC HOME FREEZER
- REMOTE CONTROL LIGHTING
- ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR
- ELECTRIC CLOTHES DRYER
- ELECTRIC WATER HEATER
- REMOTE CONTROL GARAGE DOOR

These are some of the electric appliances that make Mrs. Pate say "living is twice as much fun — electrically."

"Two electric ranges make a wonderful combination. Two of us can cook and bake at the same time. I have extra surface units with the two 24 inch ranges, and, as you can see, the two ranges, with a work space between, are ideal. And even with two electric ranges, my kitchen stays cool all the time."

There's just no limit to the pleasure of electric living. Ranges, for example, come in so many sizes and styles, including built-in custom models, that you can make any arrangement that pleases you and your budget.

Looking for more fun out of life? Try electric living for twice as much fun.

Church Roundup Time Stirs Old Texas Ranchers

SAN ANGELO, Tex. — "Gotta big roundup set next weekend," drawled the old cowboy. "We want a thousand this time."

It wasn't cattle the Texas rancher was talking about rounding up, but souls to be saved in fellowship at a unique Business Men's Bible Class held in this sheep ranching center of West Texas.

Each Sunday morning, ranchers from as far away as Ozona and Junction join local businessmen at the Cactus hotel for "Chuckwagon Coffee," a prayer, a song and a sermon.

When the class was founded 25 years ago, its members were almost all ranchers from the big sheep spreads. Now, a good percentage of the 2900 members still ranch. But some of the early members have started similar meetings in other West Texas cities.

The class has all the informality of a ranch roundup chifest. It's interdenominational and the membership comes from an area about the size of Massachusetts.

Once a year, during the rodeo here, the class holds a "Ranchman's Day." That's when the hotel adds the proper atmosphere in decorations to go with the old Wild West theme of the city. But it's 10 gallon hats and boots every Sunday for a good chunk of these Sunday school members.

Charley Poulter, who leads the class in singing, founded the Bible Class with his brother, George, and two other men. Twenty-four class presidents since 1928 have been connected with ranching. An annual Class project is a summer barbecue, and the guest speaker at this occasion has ranged from an All-America football player to a United States senator.

SUPERSTITIOUS CROWS
WINSBORO, La. (AP) — Hub Dear believes crows are superstitious. This, says Dear, makes them a cinch to keep out of watermelon patches. Just drive stakes at intervals through the patch and stretch string from stake to stake.

"Thinking the string is some kind of trap, he will not light in the patch where the string is placed," said Dear. "The crow is a smart bird but he is also very superstitious."

Dear discovered this version of the traditional scarecrow in 1917 and has used it since.

LESSON TAUGHT
ATLANTA (AP) — Alice Montgomery, 15, of Thomaston, Ga., was baby sitting and teaching her young charges the alphabet via plastic blocks. She sneezed with an A in her mouth and it lodged in her windpipe.

Doctors here retrieved it but Alice now has her doubts about combining education and baby sitting.
