Game Regulations Meeting Slated Monday Night

Landowners and sportsmen of Deaf Smith County are invited to attend the annual game regulation meeting scheduled Monday at 8 p.m. in the County Court House. State Game Warden Cal Lovelace of Vega has invited anyone interested in hunting, fishing or wildlife to attend the meeting. At this time discussions will center around desired or proposed regulations for the 1956-57 hunting season.

The State Game and Fish Commission, which has regulatory authority involving seasons, bag limits, methods and means of taking same uses this method to get the sportsman's and landowner's viewpoints on such matters before mandatory regulations are actually established. Lovelace points out that in 1954 the annual meeting was well attended but last year few people indicated an interest in proceedings. "We especially invite everyone interested to attend Monday night. It gives them a chance to express their opinion when it will still do some good instead of just griping about regulations they don't like after they are already decreed, he pointed out.

Last Rites Slated For Mrs. Sessum

A woman is dead and her husband, hospitalized and reported to be in serious condition, as the result of a car accident Saturday night on a farm to market road west of Hereford. Mrs. Elmer Sessum, of Route Four, Hereford, died Tuesday from injuries received in the accident. Her husband is being treated in Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona. Funeral services for Mrs. Sessum will be conducted at 2 p.m. today at the First Christian Church with the Rev. Don Root officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Sessum had lived in the area less than a year. The accident occurred as the couple were turning off a farm to market road west of town. Their vehicle collided with a car going west on Highway 60. Valma Vada Sessum was born in Wise County in 1908. Survivors include her husband, three children: Richard Sessum of Charleston, Va., Marie Moore of Oklahoma City, Okla., Bobby Sessum of Route 4, Hereford; two sisters, Mrs. James Parnell of Mansville, Okla., Mrs. Johnny White; three brothers; Ray Dameron of Tulsa, Okla., Cecil Dameron of Arlington, A. L. Dameron of Oregon and her husband, Elmer Sessum.

Earliest Harvest In Years Starts Here Tuesday

The earliest harvest of recent years is foreseen by many wheat growers and observers in the Hereford area. Prospects are low normal, with a nearly complete dryland crop failure, but the total yield may exceed that of 1955, most observers agree. The first delivery of 1956 crop

SWEETHEART of the Hereford Future Farmers chapter, Genevieve Benson, 18, grazes a wind-torn field of Kiowa wheat on the farm of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Benson, in the Frio community. The lovely lass, like her neighbors, has high hopes that the skies will now smile on the grain until harvest-time is over. (Staff Photo)

Senator Price Daniel To Meet With Grain Sorghum Producers

Sen. Price Daniel will meet with members of the Grain Sorghum Producers Assn. Thursday night in Amarillo. Future needs for legislation regarding the feed grain will be discussed. "We've got to start looking to the future of our grain sorghum prices right now," declares R. G. Peeler of Hereford, association president. Peeler, who arranged the meeting with the Texas Senator, points up the fact that the new farm bill's provisions drop supports for milo from 76 percent for 1956, back to 70 percent of parity in 1957. He invites all persons interested in the crop to attend the meeting. It will start at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Shamrock Room of the First National Bank in Amarillo. To Review Regulations Sen. Daniel is expected to review highlights of the battle in Congress to improve government regulations affecting grain sorghum. Secretary of Agriculture tion for their crop, the Texas delegation in Congress waged a long battle to increase supports. Grain Sorghums and Corn Sen. Daniel, aided in the upper-

Wilburn Axe Delivers First Load Of Wheat For 1956

The first Hereford area wheat of the season was delivered at 1:15 p.m. Tuesday by Wilburn P. Axe to Pitman Grain Co. Two weeks earlier than the normal first delivery, Axe's 60-bushel load weighed 56.2 pounds per bushel, tested 15.8 per cent moisture. "I cut just one grain bin, stopped because the air seemed damp but will go right back to the field as soon as the air's humidity drops," said Axe. Bert Boomer, manager at Pitman's, said the first load would receive a premium payment. He reported two other deliveries were made later Tuesday. Dobbins Rich and Clarence Belzen arrived with '56 season wheat about 4 p.m. Axe cut his wheat in a field of irrigated Kiowa nine miles southeast of the city. "It was the earliest I ever cut wheat," he said. "In fact, the past two years, I'll cut it for me. Last year, I cut 90 bushels in 1954, nothing," he added. "This would have given Hereford area producers a loan rate of less than $1.60 per hundred as was the case last year. The new farm law, however, provides this year—a 17 cent per hundred boost for milo—a price of about $1.67 to $1.75 for this area. Spurred by the members of the newly organized Grain Sorghum Producers, who had prepared a strong case for remedial legislawheat, by Wilburn P. Axe to Pitman Grain Co., on Tuesday was 11 days earlier than last season's early delivery—about two weeks before the average first delivery. Two other deliveries were made Tuesday.

County Agent Hugh Clearman said a good many farmers expect to start combining next week. "It won't be in full swing before July 30." Harvest ordinarily doesn't reach its peak before July 5-10.

Only 75,000 to 80,000 acres are expected to be harvested—practically all of it irrigated—Clearman said.

An estimated 250,000 acres were seeded in Deaf Smith County. Farmers had hoped for moisture to mature the crop after seedling grain on dryland fields that were generally wet on top last fall but "bone dry" in the sub-soil root zone. Rains came too late.

But recent moisture is seen as a boon for irrigated wheat and is expected to aid greatly in maturing the grain.

The county's wheat acreage allotment was 219,000 acres, said Faust Collier, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office manager. Harvest of 75,000 acres would mean that just over a third of the crop survived the onslaught of dry weather and insects.

Greenbugs and spider mites did heavy damage in some irrigated fields, despite aerial spraying for control on many acres.

The extent of the insect damage and of last week's big hail—which cut a lot of wheat in a five by 12 mile area centered around Westway—won't be fully realized until harvest gets underway.

Bert Boomer, Pitman Grain Co. manager, estimates a 750,000-bushel wheat harvest for the immediate Hereford area, compared to a half-million bushels last year. Alton T. Fraser of Fraser Elevators also foresees more wheat than in 1955.

Henry Sears at Sears Grain Co., however, forecasts a total yield no better than last year's.

But many farmers are hoping for yields in the 40-50-bushel bracket, with a few fields expected to do even better.

"Faith and patience are what we need most from planting until harvest," according to Julian W. Johnson of the Frio community, eight miles south of Hereford. Hard showers that brought the ominous prospect of hail had him on edge early this week, he admitted, however. He expected then that his small field of very good wheat would be ready for combining by next week end.

Robert Campbell of the Brand staff reports several excellent fields of wheat can be seen near the south city limits just off Main Street.

Collier said that his ASC office has not yet received any information regarding government loan rates for this season. President Eisenhower has set the national average support price at $2 per bushel.

"I'll cut it for me. Last year, I cut 90 bushels in 1954, nothing," he added. "This would have given Hereford area producers a loan rate of less than $1.60 per hundred as was the case last year. The new farm law, however, provides this year—a 17 cent per hundred boost for milo—a price of about $1.67 to $1.75 for this area. Spurred by the members of the newly organized Grain Sorghum Producers, who had prepared a strong case for remedial legislalery, the Axe-grown grain came from an irrigated field of Kiowa wheat. He sold the wheat at a cash premium. Government loan rates for this season's grain have not yet been announced. (Staff Photo)

Commissioners Defer Zoning Board Action

Meeting in the absence of Mayor Henry Sears, city commissioners Monday night deferred action on several zoning board recommendations. Raylan Evans, as acting mayor, agreed with Commissioner Neil Cooper that approval of the controversial matters should be postponed until all three commissioners could discuss the matter.

Homeowners Appeared Mrs. W. E. Dameron appeared before Evans and Cooper and Dudley Bayne, new city manager, to request that careful consideration be given any recommendation or request for zoning changes on Park Avenue and other residential streets.

He asked the commissioners to let progress become a hard thing, a cruel machine. She said that she felt Hereford was so big that home owners will be crowded out on Park Avenue by businesses. Evans emphasized in his remarks to Mrs. Dameron that the commission is aware of their responsibility, pointing out that the commission's request for setting up a five-man, rather than a man-board, has just been approved. This larger board was deemed as necessary to insure all types of Hereford citizens better representation.

Review Board's Approval The application approved by the zoning board last week which would permit Wayne Wallace and the bank to build an "all-in-one" drive-in dry cleaning plant on Avenue G and Park was not acted on by the commissioners. After Wallace entered a strong protest for immediate action, Evans announced that a special session of the commission would be called next week.

Action was also tabled on zoning recommendations to establish a new "D-2" classification which would specifically cover cafes and restaurants, gasoline stations and washateria's. Included in "D-2" are all types of all business zones, and to change photographic studios from "D-1" class.

Approve Budget The commissioners approved the budget statement of expenditures for May, to closing unopened Leland Street and an alley on the building site of the new First Christian Church on Harrison Highway. A plat previously filed will provide for a new Emma Street, just 55 feet west of the closed street. Payment of three weeks' vacation pay due Cecil Massey, who resigned effective June 1 from the city manager's office, was approved. Chief of Police Leo Box received tentative approval to continue his plans for an auxiliary police force. The force, as proposed, (Continued on Page 2)

Patterson Buys 1st National Stock

Ownership of the First National Bank of Hereford changed hands Tuesday afternoon, when V. P. Patterson, Amarillo banker and associate, purchased the stock of E. B. Hedrick, president of the local bank since 1943.

The Hedrick stock, representing controlling interest in the bank, was sold, as Mr. Hedrick puts it, "because of poor health." "No changes are planned in the operation of the bank," said Mr. Patterson. "I feel that Mr. Hedrick has done a wonderful job in operating the bank here, and hope that we can do as well. I have always kept up with Hereford and I think it is as fine a town as there is to be found in the Panhandle. I am glad to be associated in the bank here."

Same Officers Remain Mr. Patterson said, however, that he will continue to remain in Amarillo, where he served as president of the First National Bank in that city since 1945. He said that he expects to retain the same officers in the bank, naming V. O. Hennen as Executive Vice-President, along with C. C. Acker, Miles Roberson and Roy Phillips as Vice Presidents.

"I will merely own Mr. Hedrick's stock," he said, "and, although I am now president of the bank, I expect to remain inactive." At the same meeting in which Patterson was named president, the four vice presidents were announced, all former directors were re-elected to the board, including James W. Witherspoon, J. A. Pitman, V. O. Hennen, C. C. Acker and Mr. Patterson. No other change in stockholders of the organization was anticipated.

Miss Della Stagner, coordinator for Hereford Public Schools, will be in charge of the program in which a minimum of 10 students are necessary for each teacher. Reports late this week indicated that about 24 parents had shown an interest in the project for their children, most of which were in the three lower grades. Officials have said that three teachers would be available, if necessary, to conduct the classes for which minimum enrollment is 10 and maximum enrollment per class is 15.

By press time Wednesday, no candidates had registered with County Clerk Theima Jersig for the two newly-created posts of city at the next meeting of the commission. On the request of Wayne Wallace, Evans and Cooper passed a resolution outlining the commission's intention to develop a neighborhood park at the north end of Avenue I on Block 1, North Park Addition. Wallace said that since selling the land to the city for development of a park, residents of adjoining areas have expressed concern that the area might become a permanent Little League field or be put to other use.

Members of the Optimist Club initiated Roy Boyer into membership Tuesday at their regular dinner meeting at the Western Wheel Inn. Bill Phipps, president, conducted the initiation rites and Marvin Coffey read the club creed before presenting it to Boyer. The president also gave the initiate his pen and dinner button.

grain sorghum supports to the basic feed grain, corn. This would have meant supports for milo at 95 percent of the rate for corn grown under allotments, and probably acreage allotments for milo. The Plainview Plan, sponsored by Grain Sorghum Producers in the early stages of the farm bill's debate this year in Washington proposed a trade-out; milo growers would voluntarily cut their acreage to prevent surplus production, in exchange for supports at 90 percent of parity.

The need for remedial legislation which would lift grain sorghum supports off the 70 percent parity floor decreed by administration officials gained considerable support among lawmakers. No Soil Bank Provisions One bill passed by the House of Representatives would have set support prices for milo at about $2.25 per hundred and provided for acreage allotments and participation in the acreage reserve part of the soil bank. Present regulations, as written into the new bill, provide for 76 percent of parity supports in 1956 and no participation by milo growers in the acreage reserve — annual rental — soil fertility bank. Supports next year are to drop to 70 percent of parity unless the administration again boosts supports for corn grown outside allotments.

Spring spent the weekend in Hereford with relatives. They accompanied his mother, Mrs. D. H. Bryant, home after a visit with relatives in Texas points.

Milton C. Adams Presented 25 Year Scouting Award

Presentation of a 25 year service award to Dr. Milton C. Adams highlighted a district scouters' meeting here Tuesday noon. In making the presentation, W. J. Hiatt of Amarillo, Llano Estacado Council scout executive, commended Dr. Adams on his long record of service with the Boy Scouts.

During the meeting at Jim Hill Hotel, W. M. Teague, district executive, reported that 45 Hereford scouts will register Sunday for the first summer camp session at Camp Don Harrington near Amarillo. The session, with a total of 136 boys to attend, will eclipse by 20 the previous record of attendance at the camp.

C. L. Truly of Black reported that 20 scouts of Friona Troop 56 will register at the camp for the week of June 17-23. Friona Cub Scouts plan a camp-out with their dads on July 7.

The next scout court of honor in Hereford will be held Sept. 10 in the First Baptist Church. Bert Boomer, district chairman, said that leadership training sessions for scoutmasters will be resumed in the fall.

Johnnie Northcutt Is Injured When Knocked Unconscious By Plow

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT Johnnie Northcutt was hurt by a plow last week when he was hit in the face. He was knocked out for a short time and was taken to a doctor and had X-rays made. He is doing fine now.

The rains have been nice and many of the farmers have begun to plant row crops in a few days. Bootleg Corner received 3.3 inches Sunday night. Walcott 4.4 inches at P. B. Sowell's. N. A. Brown received better than one-half inch on the B. Shaward place.

Wins Groceries Mrs. Henry Irlbeck was lucky. She drew a $10 basket of groceries at Taylor and Sons Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Guseman were in Hereford Friday and enjoyed the parade.

There were a number of people from Garcia in town Friday. Among the ones I saw were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith, Cliff Johnson and family, I. T. Guinn, Mrs. Floyd and Eldred Brown, Tommie Timberlake, the Borner boys, Mrs. Roy Fruit and girls, the Weavers, Bill and Wayne Johnson and Tommie Timberlake rode in the parade. That Tommie was a sight for sore eyes. He will never be any prouder and bigger than he was Friday.

Attend Funeral Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown attended the funeral of Alex Thompson Sunday afternoon. After the vival at Sterling, Colo., beginning June 3 and continuing for 10 days. Eugene Sooford of Amarillo filled the pulpit Sunday during the absence of Rev. Lomax. Sooford has been preaching since he was 12 years old and is just now 30 years of age. Rev. Sooford had dinner with the M. W. Blankenship family Sunday.

Mrs. J. E. Rous visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wyle Friday morning.

S. N. Thweatt visited with Cecil Boss Saturday afternoon. He reported them getting two inches of rain Friday night, the first they had gotten.

J. D. Neill (Jim)

Candidate for Sheriff

My name is J. D. (Jim) Neill. I am not a politician and I am making this race on my own. I have lived in Deaf Smith County for twelve years. I am a farmer. I am 54 years of age.

I will thoroughly investigate all matters that come to my attention and cooperate with the city officers and all other law enforcement agencies and the people generally.

I am limited both in my personal funds available to make this race and in the time I will have to contact you personally and I trust you will not hold it against me if I am not able to contact you before the primary, although I will do my best. I will sincerely appreciate any word my friends may speak in my behalf and anything you can do to further my candidacy.

Realizing that some of you may not connect me with my name, I trust that you will not think I am vain in having my picture printed in connection with this, my personal solicitation of your support.

Yours for a well administered law enforcement office, I sincerely request your consideration.

The Hallmark of Circulation Value

In the same way that a diamond on silver signifies a standard of known value, so is the A.B.C. emblem a symbol of integrity for the circulation of newspapers and periodicals. It means that circulation so identified is measured according to the rules and standards of the AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATION, a non-profit, non-partisan, cooperative and non-political organization of publishers, advertisers and advertising agencies. Organized in 1914, these buyers and sellers of advertising brought order out of advertising chaos by setting up standards for paid circulation and establishing rules and methods for measuring, auditing and reporting circulations. Therefore, the work of the A.B.C., of which this newspaper is proud to be a member, provides you with a direct and valuable service. You can buy advertising as you would make any other sound business investment — on the basis of well known standards, known values. At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. The results of this exacting audit show you just how much circulation we have; where our circulation goes; how it was obtained; and many other facts that you need in order to know just what you get for your advertising dollars. This audited information is published by the Bureau in easy-to-read A.B.C. reports which are available to our advertisers on request. Ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

Carla Sue Crosthwait Leaves For JRC Camp

Carla Sue Crosthwait, this year's delegate to the Junior Red Cross training school, will leave Friday for a two week camping session at Petit Jean Camp, 15 miles outside Morrilton, Ark.

She will leave from Amarillo by train, joining four other delegates, two from Pampa and two from Amarillo. They will arrive in the camp on Saturday evening and camp opens Sunday morning.

Five different courses will be taught including Red Cross philosophy and organization, Junior Red Cross local programs, Red Cross health and safety, Junior Red Cross international programs and leadership training. Two swimming sessions will be conducted each day, one on water safety and one "just for fun."

Other types of outdoor recreation offered are baseball and volleyball, hikes and badminton.

camp will be open.

This year's delegate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Y. Crosthwait, is the fifth student to be sent to camp by the local Junior Red Cross. Last year Johnny Latham was the delegate, and two years ago, it was Dorothy Faye Danfel. The first year two delegates were sent, David Self and Betty Buse.

Nona Marie Strange, who is left supporter to the president of Texas Theta Rho Clubs, and Carolyn Inman, Hereford Club Deputy, are among the 13 members of the Carnation Theta Rho Club of Hereford attending the annual Theta Rho State Meeting in Dallas June 7-8-9.

They left this morning at 5 a.m. by chartered bus, and will return to Hereford Sunday. During their stay in Dallas, the group will be at the Statler-Hilton Hotel. Friday evening is the designated time for the teams to present their drill-work for the trophy awarded to a team each year.

Members of the team are Nona Marie Strange, Carolyn Inman, Rosie Strange, Wyndolyn Shepard, Maxie Wiseman, Maxine Ware, Carroll Sparks, Janice Jacobs, Barbara Jacobs, Melba Gay Lawrence, Judy Hoff, Linda Renfro, and Patsy Ford. Mrs. Roy Calvert is the group advisor.

Larry Kaul also went with the group as a delegate from the Junior IOOF Lodge.

Accompanying the club were Mr. and Mrs. John Hacker and Mrs. Merilyn Kaul.

Research Studies Involving High Plains Tabulated in New Publication

Two recently released Texas Agricultural Experiment Station publications deal with research studies on subjects vital to farmers and ranchmen on the High and Rolling Plains of Texas.

Bulletin 828, titled, "Changes in Investment and Irrigation Water Costs, Texas High Plains, 1950-54," contains a wealth of information on what is happening in this great agricultural producing area. The authors, W. F. Hughes, Agri. Research Service USDA, and A. C. Magee, Department of Agri. Eco. and Sociology, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, say expanded development and water use has caused a decline in regional water levels, caused pumps to be lowered and well performance to drop and thus overall materially increasing the investment and cost of irrigation water. Information on how these and other problems are being met are discussed.

The second publication is MP-154, "Farming and Ranching Risk as Influenced by Rainfall." The authors, R. J. Hildreth and Gerald W. Thomas, are members of the staffs of the Departments of Agricultural Economics and Sociology and Range and Forestry of the Texas A&M College System.

They have made a detailed study of weather records from 31 locations scattered over the High and Rolling Plains. Some of the records go back for 80 years while others are for much shorter periods. The authors believe that farmers and ranchmen can take several steps which will aid in meeting weather risks.

By studying the occurrence and range of past weather variations, they can predict better the probability of future droughts and their severity, as well as the possibility of good years, and can adjust some farm and ranch operations to fit these constantly changing conditions, say the authors.

Both publications are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

These Dolls Are Rainy Day Fun For Small Fry

AP Newsfeatures

As any mother knows, children need something to keep them busy on rainy days around the house.

Mrs. Joseph Damone of New York put her two young daughters to making little yarn doll lapel pins one day, and the results were so successful that now the girls are making them for all their friends. Here's how it's done:

LAY IN a supply of bright-colored yarn, some colored party toothpicks, fabric scraps, a box of macaroni alphabet soup letters, needles, thread and glue. Loop one hank of yarn in half, so that it is about two inches long, and tie in the middle to make the doll's waistline and divide bottom of hank in two parts, tying each near the bottom to form legs. Tie a second hank of yarn at each end and stick through body of doll to form arms. Use fabric scrap for dress.

Then glue three colored tooth-pick together, glue a tiny safety pin to the back and macaroni letters spelling out the child's name to the front.

Add eyes and mouth to doll's head with needle and thread and fasten to safety pin.

And there you have a personalized lapel pin. The children will love to make them, wear them and give them away.

CHALK THE WALLS

A popular paint in children's rooms is chalkboard paint that can transform any surface into a black board. The new coating takes chalk erasing, may be washed or scrubbed without harm to the finish. Surfaces must be clean and smooth before the paint is applied. The coating is available in green and black.

Hereford Bankers Attend Conclave

Ten Hereford bankers and many of their wives were in Amarillo Sunday and Monday to attend the Panhandle Bankers Association convention held at the Herring Hotel.

Approximately 500 bankers from throughout the area heard the president of the Texas Bankers Association, Joe A. Clarke talk on a textbook on banking being prepared by the state board of education. Clarke is vice president of the Fort Worth National Bank.

Delegates also heard A. G. McNeese Jr., president of the Bank of the Southwest National Association urge banks to adopt aggressive public relations campaigns. A humorous speech by Stutterin' Sam (Cecil Hunt) was heard and a barbecue at Tri State Fair concluded the convention.

Bankers attending from Hereford were E. B. Hedrick, V. O. Hennen, Miles Robertson, Roy Phillips, Cliff Estes, Wayne Williams, Gerald McCaskill, Joel Hodges and Townsend Douglas.

Two Drill Teams Entertain IOOF

After the regular business meeting Monday night in the IOOF Hall the Theta Rho and Rebekah drill teams put on their work for the Odd Fellows.

Mrs. Thomas Inman and daughters, Sharon and Sheila entertained with songs and Shirley Shelton and Sheila Inman sang two songs accompanied at the piano by Carol Paetz.

The Westway quartette accompanied by Mrs. B. B. Northcutt sang. After the entertainment, refreshments of pie and coffee were served by the Theta Rho girls.

A free will offering of $58.00 was taken for the girls to help defray their expenses for their State Theta Rho Assembly at Dallas. The Odd Fellows also presented the Theta Rho Club with a check for $50.00 to show their pride in the Theta Rho girls club and to wish them success in their competitive drill work at the State Assembly.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means to express our thanks to the kind people who sent their kind cards of sympathy during the illness and death of Mrs. Ruth Reeves, mother of Mrs. Thomas.

It is the terrifying story of a "cured" drug addict who returned to his old haunts and tried to stay off the stuff. THE MAN WITH THE GOLDEN ARM pulls no punches in dealing with the heretofore taboo theme of drug addiction and will at least momentarily disturb deeply all who see him. During the terrifying scene Sinatra takes the "cold turkey" cure. (He is a man and goes without dope for three days.) There may be some in the audience who won't be able to take it. Believe me this is not exaggerated. With this brutal frankness the average person's inside turns upside down. It is not a child's picture and we do not recommend that children see it. Three Church Building Campaigns Now Underway

Church building campaigns which keynote a town's progress as sharply as any other one factor, are going ahead full speed in Hereford now, with programs totalling a third of a million dollars now either in the planning stage or actually underway.

The trend is to move West, apparently, and of the three projects either in progress or contemplating starts in the near future, two are on Harrison Highway and one is on Knight Street.

Members of St. Thomas Episcopal Church are building a Mission Hall on their property just beside the city limits on Harrison Highway.

Arches for the building arrived last week and the Rev. Lester Jones indicated that contractors believed the building would be ready for occupancy the first of July.

Plan August Start
The First Christian Church plans to start construction of their new building sometime in August, according to Robert Veigel, chairman of the board. They will first build an educational building and later add their sanctuary.

Members of the Central Church of Christ, who have purchased property on Knight Street, are currently contemplating their proposed building program which will include a sanctuary and educational building, estimated at about $150,000, according to Lawrence McGee.

However, there is no definite date set at this time for the actual construction to begin.

Began in February
Construction on St. Thomas Episcopal Church was begun in February on the building which will serve as a sanctuary now and as a Mission Hall or educational building later. It also includes a north-west, rector's office, and movable partitions which permit it to be divided into classrooms.

Special Arches Designed
The red brick building was slowed down pending arrival of the three specially designed arches which are of timber construction and were manufactured on the West Coast. The arches, of laminated wood, are 21 feet tall. There are three in the present building and there will be two others added when the sanctuary is built.

E. P. Morgan is contractor of the building.

Poultry Raisers Invited to State Meeting at A&M

Deaf Smith County poultry raisers, interested in seeing their industry keep pace with the national industry, will get an opportunity to pick up the kind of information to help them do the job on June 20-22.

The three day poultry breeder and hatchery school and health clinic program will bring the latest findings from research and practical experience to those attending. The annual event is sponsored by the Texas A&M College System and all meetings will be held in the Memorial Student Center on the A&M campus.

Clearman says such topics as breeding for efficient use of feed and egg production, feeding and rearing methods for laying replacements, egg legislation and turkey selection problems will be discussed by System personnel and other state authorities. Copies of the program for the meeting have been mailed to county agents and to poultry breeders and hatcherymen who can supply details on speakers and topics and also on other questions relating to the meeting. Clearman emphasizes that all persons interested in seeing the Texas poultry industry continue its forward progress are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Stanley are the proud parents of a baby son born June 4. He is 15 inches long and weighed six pounds, seven ounces at birth. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ford Carter and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stanley, all of Levelland.

Organized in 1948 The Episcopal Church was organized in Hereford in 1948 as a mission; it was, however, not the first Episcopal Church to meet in Hereford. In 1926-27 and 28 a congregation met in the Gyles home, and according to old bank records, they still maintain a balance in the First National Bank of 73 cents.

build a new building, starting this summer. The Educational wing and fellowship hall will be constructed at this time, and will be used as a sanctuary until the latter building is completed. The educational wing will include 18 classrooms, and cost of the buildings are an estimated $150,000 according to Mr. Veigel.

The present house of worship was constructed in 1909 at the corner of Main and Sixth Street, a location that was soon to become a church center with Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and Catholic Churches, all within a two block radius. Later the Central Church of Christ was built one block east. The new building is to be a brick structure of contemporary design. Landscaping and yard improvements, paving, etc., will all be added with a view to the proposed additions to come at a later date, Veigel pointed out.

Chester, Wales, has both first and second story sidewalks along four streets.

A note from Beth Gross who was graduated from Port Lavaca High School. She used to be a member of the Mahaffey 4-H Club. Beth says that she is going to Southern University at Georgetown, a major in Home Economics. She gave me a great deal of personal satisfaction for Beth to have chosen this field.

Mrs. Jeff Roberson had some roses at the Milk Jug. The rose was perfect in form and color. The rose that she had in it was the Peaceful which is a new rose to me. It was bred by Mrs. E. B. Harris, 133 Avenue D. Mrs. Harris is a neighbor of the Robersons. She is quite interested in roses and has quite a number of plants.

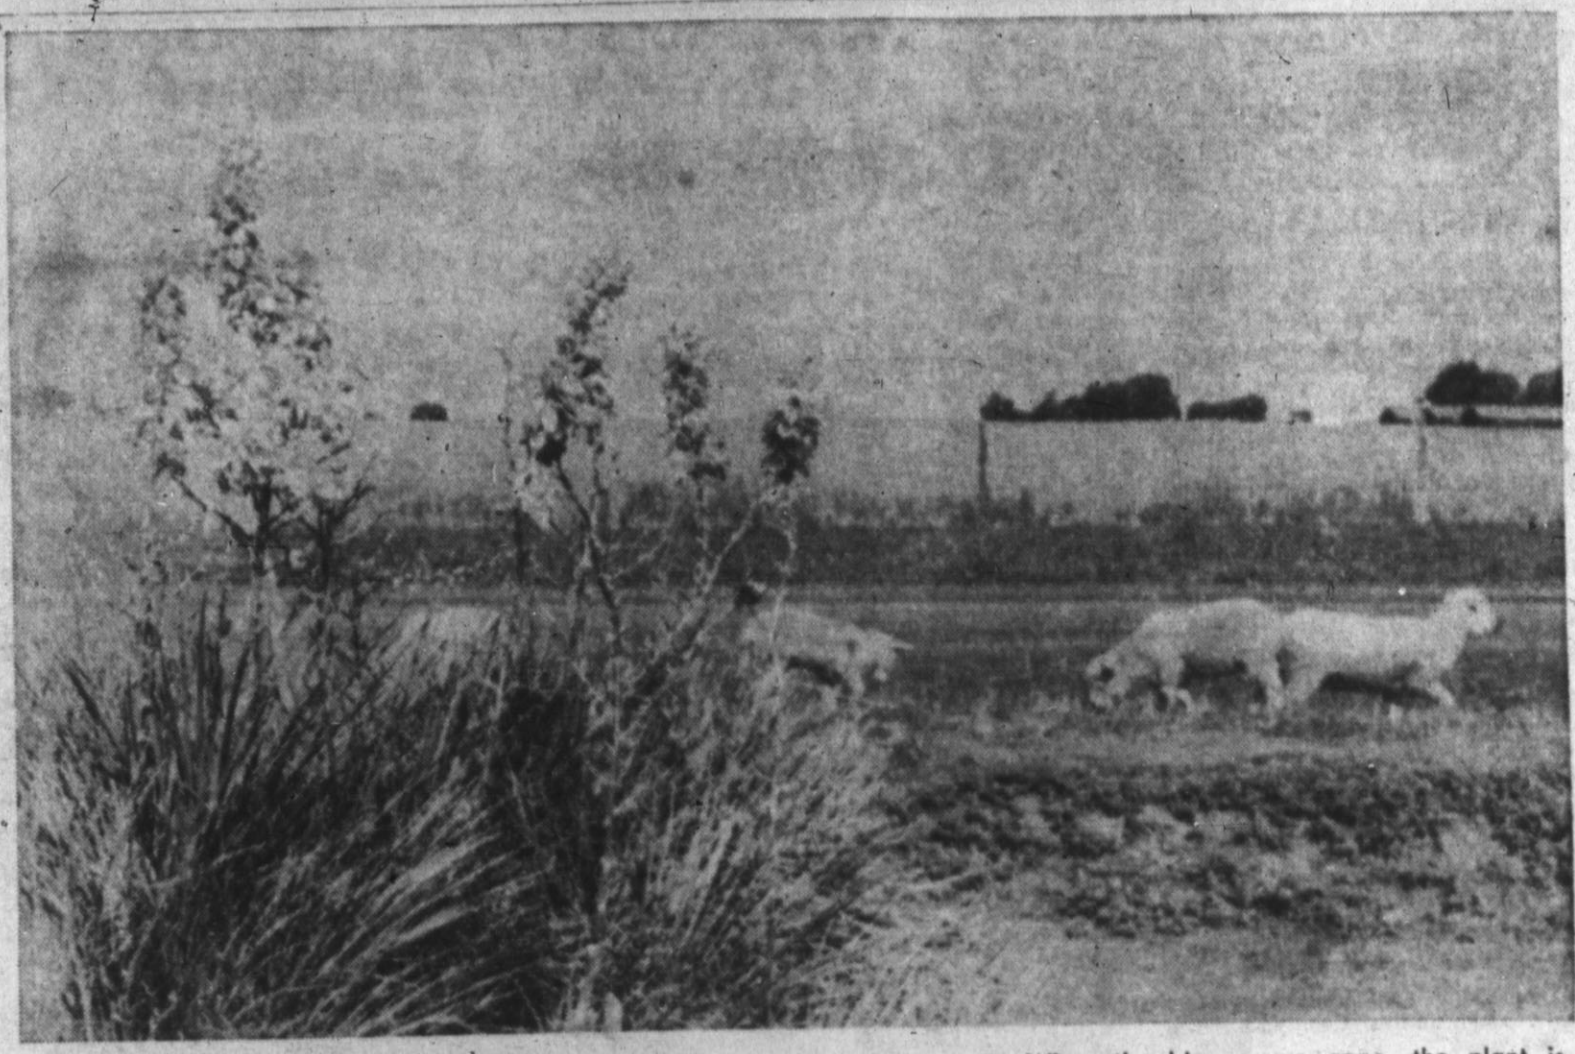

Mrs. R. C. Childers writes from Leman that they are already having a lot of hot weather. Also sent a copy of the Coleman paper so we could see the things at the home demonstration clubs doing. They like Coleman and their business has been good; however they miss their friends in Hereford.

Things are not like they used to be. Examples: (1) We received an invitation to the graduation exercises of a kindergarten. (The class graduated in caps and gowns and had a valedictorian and a salutatorian.) (2) Some trousers that weigh only eight ounces. (3) A tank so large that it took three flat cars to haul it.

The safety council reminds us to watch these danger spots:

1. A pot of boiling liquid with handle turned out so that it is easily knocked off the stove.
2. Frilly curtains hanging in reach of fire from the burners.
3. A cord to electrical equipment which can be tripped over.
4. A sharp knife left within children's reach.
5. A can of cleaning fluid, often poisonous, left where children can get at it.

Pattern Is Easy Summer Sewing For Housewives

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

SUMMERTIME should mean easy living for a busy housewife, with plenty of comfortable, easy-to-care-for clothes.

Local sewing center experts suggest you take the easiest way to a summer wardrobe by selecting a simple pattern to make up in several fabrics. Try a wrap-around dress, easy to sew, easy to slip into and easy to iron because it opens out flat. The standard pattern they selected has a wide, cool, pie-cut neckline in front which crosses over to a V in back. A generous lapover makes the five-button closing practical. The sleeves are cut in one with the dress, and there is no waistline seam. Top stitching makes the Roll call was answered with facts that the members knew or practiced in regard to care of lawns, gardens and house plants.

Most of the women were familiar with the value of fertilizers as a large percent of the farmers in the area use commercial fertilizers on their field crops.

Mrs. Wagoner told the group the shallow watering of grass has a tendency to form shallow roots and grass requires more frequent watering. A much more satisfactory plan is to water deep for a good root system. She explained how to determine the amount of water by setting a can or bucket under the sprinkler.

Recreation was in the form of a discussion of vacation plans and members. Some will be entertaining guests at home while other plan trips out of town to visit, fish or go sight-seeing.

One member plans to postpone her vacation and spend next winter in Florida.

Mrs. T. B. Thomas was elected Federated Councilor for the coming year.

Mrs. P. B. Sowell, parliamentarian, suggested that the women study the Constitution and by-laws to become more familiar with the laws governing the organization.

Announcement was made of a make-up meeting June 7, when Mrs. Sowell, living room demonstrator, will give a program on "Choosing the Background for a Living Room."

Mrs. Bess Werner, chairman of the Expansion - education committee, outlined plans for a report to Commissioners Court May 28.

Those present were Mesdames Harold Rudd, P. B. Sowell, Joe Wagoner, C. A. Sauley, Morris Easley, Paul Rudd, Joe Landers, G. C. Merritt, Bess Werner, Geo. Turrentine, Merlin Kaul and the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. G. C. Merritt June 14 for a program on Flag Etiquette. Four-H girls in the community are invited to this meeting as special guests.

WRAPAROUND STYLE—Easy to make and easy to wear is this cool wraparound cotton dress. Opens flat for ironing.

trim around the neckline.

Perfect fit is essential in such a simple dress. So pin together your pattern pieces, pinning in all darts, and try on the paper pattern before cutting out your fabric. Make necessary adjustments right on the pattern.

Then cut out a couple of dresses at once. If you'd like to check the fit before stitching the seams securely, machine baste all seams. It's quicker and stronger than hand-basting and rips out just as easily. Just set your machine for the smallest number of stitches to the inch—about six—and whiz along the seams. After one dress is adjusted to fit perfectly, you can make the same adjustments on the other without trying it on.

The buttonhole attachment for your sewing machine is a great time-saver, and makes good, sturdy buttonholes. If you have an automatic zigzagger for your sewing machine, or if you have an automatic swing-needle machine, use an automatic stitch to blind-stitch your hemline.

You'll find that it takes very little more time to make two dresses than to make one, if you use the assembly line technique.

If Temperatures Are Up, Eggs Need Special Handling

When daytime temperatures hit 90 degrees, egg quality will hit the skids unless egg producers make some changes in management practices, says Hugh Clearman, county agent.

From now until cool weather in the fall, refrigeration is a must if high egg quality is to be maintained. Clearman says that 55 degrees F. is the optimum temperature for maintaining proper egg environment. Too, eggs must be gathered more often during hot weather with three times a day gathering as a minimum.

Low quality is costly to producers selling on grade. "A" quality eggs of similar size normally bring four to six cents a dozen more than B quality eggs. Eggs can be properly cooled for as little as 10 cents a case.

Adequate cooling, points out the agent, is no substitute for frequent marketings. Even with good refrigeration, eggs should be delivered to the grading station either twice or three times a week.

Good cooling, says Clearman, means getting the animal heat out of the egg in the shortest possible time and at the lowest cost. A cooling unit containing a tray for holding wire baskets with space underneath for storing eggs in cases is the most desirable cooling equipment. Added egg income from the use of such a unit will soon retire its cost.

Stories This Week Tell Tales Of Monsters, Desperadoes, Airplanes

DOUBLE FEATURE

A double shock show which equals the chilling creatures of Frankenstein, Dracula, the Wolf Man and the Mummy, at the Star Theatre Friday and Saturday. A terrifying monster in "Day The World Ended" captures Louise, the daughter of a retired sea captain, and only the brave efforts of a young engineer overpowers the hideous monster.

Lori Nelson and Richard Denning star in this movie. On the same program, "Phantom from 600 Leagues" also brings a new type monster to the screen. The phantom is responsible for plenty of action in this film, which tells how a professor creates a monster and it destroys human life and the professor, himself, is forced to kill it. Cathy Downs and Kent Taylor star in this chilling movie.

STRATEGIC AIR COMMAND. James Stewart heads a six-star cast in Paramount's vitally important "Strategic Air Command," coming Thursday and Friday at the Tower Drive In. "SAC" is not a war story; it is a keep-the-peace story, and a revealing, intimate glimpse into the lives of bomber pilot James Stewart and his wife, June Allyson. Also starring in this dramatic movie are Frank Lovejoy, Barry Sullivan, Alex Nicol, Bruce Bennett, Jay C. Flippen, and James Millikan.

BLACKJACK

DESPERADO. Howard Duff plays a role in this movie as the most dangerous gunslinger of them all. Hoping to leave his quickshooting reputation behind, he travels to Osborn to join his fiancée, Maggie Mahoney, along with Angela Stevens, as a pretty visitor from the East. When the Tellos and their professional killers move in with their immense herd to take over the already scarce grazing land, BlackJack reluctantly dons his six-shooter as the leaders of the edgy ranchers to smash the gang of professional killers.

Ten Common Errors Made In Home Decoration

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Well-meaning housewives who attempt to decorate their own homes make many mistakes, says interior designer Henry End, member of the American Institute of Decorators and designer of hotel interiors. Here are the 10 most common mistakes made by amateurs, as he lists them:

- 1. Lack of coordination.
2. Confused ideas as to requirements.
3. Selection of items individually instead of considering the final effect of the room.
4. Choice of colors by personality whims.
5. Planning an interior that does not fit the exterior — for instance, early American decor in a modern house.

6. Changing their minds in the middle of the plan.

7. Failure to consider maintenance problems in selection of fabrics.

8. Trying to impress the neighbors instead of pleasing themselves.

9. Failure to consider natural lighting conditions in planning colors.

10. Lack of confidence in their own taste.

Sometimes, it is hard to practice what you preach — and this is especially true when an official gets a traffic ticket. Mayor Henry Sears proved that he can "take it" the other day, however, after he got foot-feed happy and appeared in Justice Court on a speeding ticket issued by a highway patrolman. "That'll be a dollar a mile over 60, and costs," quoth the JP.

"Henry grinned, paid, and asked, "How'd you like to have a job handling the traffic fines for the City of Hereford?"

The JP declined the job but, as the mayor walked out, he said: "There goes the broad mindedest feller I have had in my court all day."

Young Seed Holds Margin In Club Golf Tournament

Hereford, Texas, Thursday, June 7, 1956 Section Three

KNOX'S KNOTHINGS

By BILL KNOX

The Club Championship Golf Tournament has begun here, and for all practical reasons it has developed into a two way fight for the championship at the midpoint.

This duel features youth and experience, but it's not the first time the pair has locked horns in battle.

Charles Seed leads the pack with a 73, and Max Drever is on his heels with a 74. Eighteen more holes will be played today to determine the winner.

Drever and Seed met once before in the City Golf Tourney probably the best match of the entire tournament. Indeed it produced the winner as Seed went on to win the tournament.

But Seed found himself with a handicap when he tangled with Drever, and he will again. In the 18-hole match play, the score was all even at the completion of the first nine, but then Seed took a brief lead at the start of the back nine. He led until the fourth hole when Drever took a one-up lead. He held a two-advantage leaving five, and things looked as if defeat were waiting Seed.

Thanks to a blazing putter, however, he tossed the next three holes in his bag and led, 1-up, going to the last hole. It was Seed's hole and so was the match.

Generally Drever plays a terrific first nine, but he also generally falls off on the back nine. The answer lies in the fact that Drever's drives are very accurate but he can't hit a long ball. The back nine gives him trouble because he has to tee off from back tee boxes.

Therein lies the answer to Seed's success. His drives are fine, both on the front and back line. His iron shots will rank with anybody's, but his putting is spotty. It is brilliant at times and very bad other times. Putting is usually his downfall.

So, Seed may trail Drever after the first nine holes, but on the back nine it will be a different story.

Youthful Charles Seed sprouted and withstood a stout sun to take a one stroke lead at the midpoint of the annual Club Championship Golf Tournament here Sunday.

Seed fired a one over par 73 to nose in ahead of Max Drever, who shot a 74. Seed and Drever had tied for medalist honors with par 72's, the tie being played off on the first 18 holes of the tourney.

But Seed was pressed all the way and didn't take the lead until the last nine. He finished the first round with a one over par 37, but Drever sizzled with a 35.

Seed's game showed spots of brilliancy but at other times his putter lost its accuracy. His putting trouble rested mainly on the front nine. He three putted two greens and missed a short three foot putt on the eighth hole of the first nine, therefore missing a chance for a 34.

However, Lady Luck traveled with him on the start of the last nine, and he was two under par leaving the fourth hole. On the short fourth hole his drive landed in a three-foot circle drawn around the cup. After that his iron shots and putts weren't as effective as they had been previously. He bogged five and seven with a par on six and a birdie on eight. On the ninth hole he drove into the rough to the right of the green, and his iron shot bounced in the trap and stopped short of the hole. He missed a 20-foot putt, taking a par for the hole and the round.

John Renner sank probably the longest putt of the day when he holed a 40-footer on eight.

Drever's game was steady on the front nine, but he fell from his previous 25 to a three over par 39 on the back nine. His drives fell short, keeping him in trouble.

John Renner and Jeff Minton rode in third place with 76's. Minton had a 36 on the front nine but fell to 40 on the last round. Renner had 37-39. Defending champion Bob Lindsey found no end of trouble awaiting him and was all but eliminated from the running. He recorded a pair of 43's for an 86.

AMERICA BUYS PIANOS
CHICAGO (AP)—The National Piano Manufacturers Assn. says the average American family buys pianos these days. A survey showed that almost 30 percent of piano purchasers were in the $4,000 to $5,000 income bracket, and approximately 98 percent earned less than $10,000 annually. About 49 percent of the new piano purchases were bought on the installment plan.

IDENTITY ESTABLISHED
BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—A pickpocket was captured quickly when he substituted his own wallet for that of his victim. The thief's wallet was complete with identification. It took police very little time to track him down.

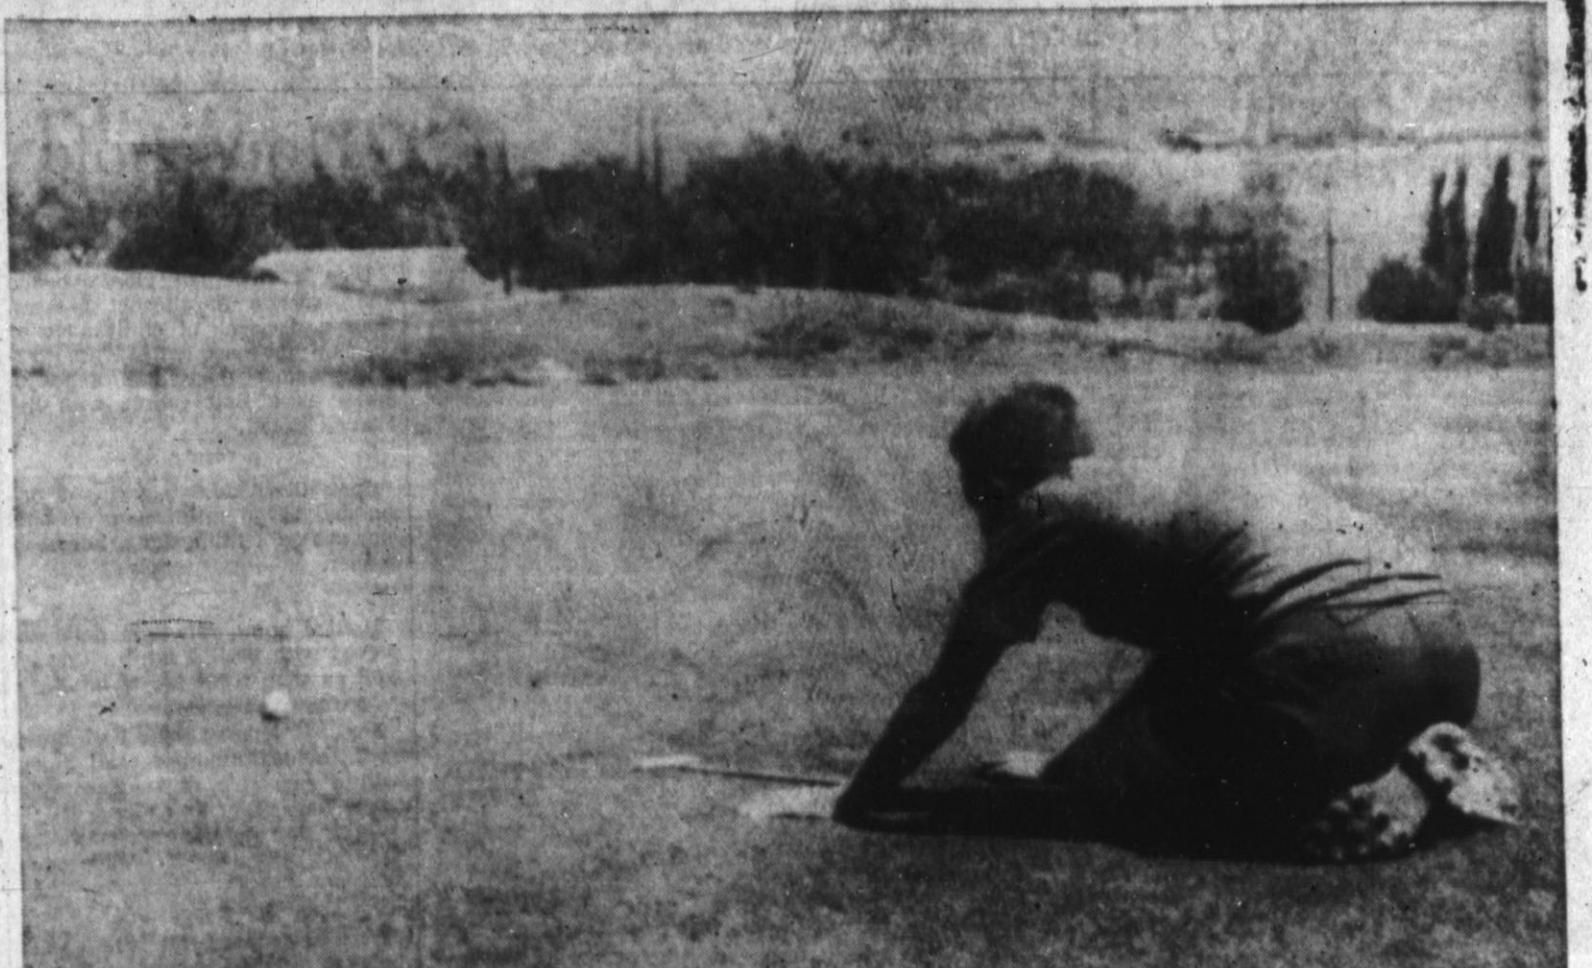

Ruan Humberto - Ray Duran Highlight Sat. Wrestling

A tag team match will highlight Saturday night wrestling here.

Ruan Humberto, unpopular but aged Mexican champion, will team with another fellow countryman, Ray Duran, to tackle Jesse Lee and Le Bell for the best of three falls or one hour time limit.

Humberto is the Mexican grappling champ, but has failed to achieve much popularity in this territory. His partner, Ray Duran, is in the same boat with him. Together they compose a rugged duo.

In preliminary bouts Humberto will oppose Jesse James for one fall or 20 minutes time limit, and Duran will tangle with Le Bell under the same conditions.

LINES UP PUTT—Charles Seed is on the ground lining up the ball before putting on the eighth hole in the Club Golf Tournament Sunday. He sank the 30-footer for a birdie four on the hole. Seed led Max Drever by one stroke at the midway point.

Yanks And Cards Favored To Take LL Championship

FROM THE LL CAMPS

Joe Smith's Yankees and Don Morgan's Cardinals were given the co-favorite role to win the Little League pennant by the four managers here Tuesday.

Each of the teams drew two votes. All four managers seem anxious to get the season underway to get a look at their players under fire. The season will open Monday when the Cardinals and Yanks clash the first thing right off the bat.

CARDINALS
Don Morgan makes no bones about predicting a first place finish for his team. Morgan concentrated mainly on infield practice in preparation for the season lid lifter with the Yankees.

"My infield is very strong," Morgan said, "and the players who aren't such good fielders are strong hitters." His outfield is deemed about average with some good hitters. Overall hitting strength is a little better than average, Morgan said.

The Cards' hitting prowess is headed by sluggers Joe Mack Hale, Tommy Coffman, and Dick Combes. His pitching is good also.

DODGERS
Manager Larry Summers said he was pleased with his team and also promptly predicted a first place for them. "My pitching is good. I have three very good pitchers," Summers reported.

"My infield is strong. At times it's downright sharp. I'd say my infield will probably be the strongest spot." His outfield also boasts some good arms and powerful sluggers.

The Dodgers' all around hitting is good also, came the report from Summers. Home run sluggers are expected to be Lynton Alfred and Jerry Curtisinger. Infield practice held the spotlight in Dodger practices this week.

YANKES
A wry grin crossed Joe Smith's face as he said, "We ought to win a few games this year." But he didn't know that the other three managers had established him as co-favorite for the pennant.

"My pitching is fair, with one very good pitcher," he said. He also used the same adjective when he described his infield as fair but coming along good. He classified his outfield in the same boat with his infield. "My hitting is just average," he said.

Infield and outfield workouts used up the bulk of workout time at the Yankee camp this week.

GIANTS
Blue Turpin wasn't overly optimistic about his Giants but predicted that any league team would find a tussle awaiting them when they encountered the Giants.

His infield looms as a bright spot with several slick fielding glove men.

Turpin said his outfield was also good, but his hitting was not very strong. "But the boys are coming along fast," he said. "My pitching is about the same as my hitting. It'll take a few games to get things straightened out," he stated.

He boasts two home run sluggers in Eugene Jennings and Larry Hair.

Practice centered mostly around batting this week.

MILITARY SAFETY
GREENVILLE, S. C. (AP)—Donaldson Air Force Base's 12th Communications Group reported a near perfect safety record on a training operation. It sent out 188 airplanes which covered 187,000 miles going to Louisiana, 307,057 in that state and 169,200 returning. Number of accidents: one, involving a civilian auto.

SCIENTIFIC CHURCH
SHREWSBURY, Mass. (AP)—The Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology, a scientific research organization, undergoes an unusual change each Sunday a.m. for two hours. It becomes a church. The Trinity Episcopal Church, whose congregation was organized 18 months ago, could find no room to hold services. The Foundation offered the use of its administration building and since then three services have been held every Sunday.

Levelland And Altus Cowboys Win Saddles

Cowboys from Amarillo, Altus, Okla., Texhoma, Post, and Melrose, N. M., walked away with top prizes in the first Hereford Riders Club Amateur Rodeo here Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

O. C. Burton won the saddle given by the First National Bank with the best average in both calf roping and double mugging. Barton is from Levelland.

However, Jack Kirkpatrick, better known for his football fame at Texas Tech, took top honors in calf roping with an average of 14.7. His time of 17.3 was also best in double mugging.

Ed Workman of Altus, Okla., won the saddle given by the Hereford State Bank for the best average in bareback and saddle bronc riding. Workman took first in the second go-round of the saddle broncs and also the ball riding. Doug Wallace of Amarillo was top man in the first go-round of the saddle-bronc riding.

Ed Harlan of Texhoma won the belt buckle given by Truly-Teague by recording the second best average in bareback and saddle bronc riding.

Jack Kirkpatrick was tops in the first go-round of the calf roping with a time of 14.9. Lloyd Davis 13.2 was best in the second go-round.

The belt buckle given by Buy-Rite Furniture Store was won by Lloyd Davis of Hart. Sue Fleniken won the belt buckle given by McCullough Motor Company for winning the barrel race. She is from Hale Center.

An estimated 5000 fans attended the three performances. The best crowd was reported Friday night when 3000 people attended.

In Friday afternoon's parade, which was also sponsored by the Hereford Riders Club, the Plainview Sheriff's Posse took first place, the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Posse from Albuquerque, N. M., took second place, and the Castro County Sheriff's Posse from Dimmitt won third.

Nevada, with a population gain of 31 percent between April 1, 1950 and July 1, 1954 had only 60,000 more people, but led the nation percentage-wise.

NEARS COMPLETION—Nearing completion is Hereford's new Little League Baseball Park. The Jaycoes, who are doing the work on the park, reported this week that it should be completed by the time the season starts Monday, June 11. The metal outfield fence will be painted green, construction workers said, to kill the glare of the sun.

SUNBATHERS—This group of boys and girls 375 people entered the pool on its opening day to give indications of a huge success for swimming on the opening day of the Hereford swimming pool last week. An estimated

Long Time Ago

45 Years Ago
City Marshal C. L. Sullivan has had in all about 50 men at work on the streets for the past several days. The whole number were not at work all the time, but a bunch each day would try their hands at the weeds and some would "fly up" and quit. The marshal himself wielded the hoe and set the pace for the gang. The weeds that were cut would make a funeral pile, and many of the citizens cut their own weeds last week when the alarm was sounded.

No town in Texas ever had such corps of prominent irrigation and soil experts as will address the Congress to be held here today and tomorrow. These men have given this territory such exhaustive study as far as water is concerned. They are experienced water experts and have been the entrusted employees of the government for a number of years.

Clubs and organizations of the community pledged each cooperation and assistance in Lake Park improvement in an inspirational program held by the Lions Club at the Wednesday luncheon, to which presidents, heads or representative officials of the local organization groups were special guests. There was unanimity of pooling resources and moral support in the play ground movement, and each visitor, speaking for her or his organization, gave brief talks for joining hands in support of the activities which are under way.

The rains which fell for several hours Friday night brought the precipitation for the week to 2 1/2 inches in Hereford, according to local rain gauges. Reports for the

Household Tips

Dice a firm but ripe avocado and arrange in sherbet glasses. Pour a dressing of chili sauce or catchup seasoned with Worcestershire sauce over the avocado. Serve as a first course with hot French bread.

Cook diced kidneys, strips of onion and sliced mushrooms in butter; use as a filling for a luncheon omelet.

Bottled mint sauce is delicious served with broiled lamb chops as well as with roast leg of lamb.

Swedish supper: your best meat balls (made miniature size) along with a casserole of scalloped potatoes and paper-thin slices of cucumber marinated in vinegar, sugar, salt and pepper. Apple pudding for dessert!

Evening supper for the gang: make-your-own sandwiches of salami and ham slices, cheese, tomatoes, onion rings.

Potato salad on the menu? You will need to cook 5 medium-sized potatoes (in their skins) to peel and dice to make about three cups.

Cut both ends from deviled-ham cans; use as rings when you are poaching eggs.

Dip sliced bread into an egg-and-milk mixture as you would for French toast; bake right at the table on your waffle iron.

Friday fare: fish-and-potato chowder with dill pickles and colé slaw.

Heat a can of stewed tomatoes and serve with meat loaf or baked macaroni and cheese.

A crown roast on the menu? Allow one rib for each portion.

Sprinkle biscuit dough with some cheese and shape jelly-roll fashion; cut off slices and bake in a hot oven. Good with creamed fish.

A cup of mayonnaise mixed with a quarter cup of French dressing plus catchup or chili sauce, horseradish and Worcestershire sauce makes a delicious sauce for a shrimp cocktail.

Add a package of cooked mixed vegetables (drained) to a tangy cheese sauce and serve over toast. Nice for lunch.

Achieve clear drip coffee with home made filters. Cut a couple of layers of face tissue into rounds the size of the bottom of the drip basket; place tissue rounds in the basket then add coffee. Pour boiling water through as usual.

A banana nut loaf can do double duty. Serve it first sandwich style with a layer of softened cream cheese; cut in strips of small squares. Then lightly toast slices of the bread under the broiler and serve with a lemon or orange sauce for a lunch or supper dessert.

When you serve pineapple rings as part of a fruit salad, you may have the syrup left over. Add a tablespoon of soy sauce to it and boil gently in a small saucepan until reduced in quantity and serve with a slice of broiled-cooked ham.

Put up a narrow stainless steel rack (with hooks on it) in your kitchen. These racks are usually sold for mixing spoons, spatulas and so forth; but an extra one (with eight hooks on it) will be fine for hanging four graduated measuring cups and four graduated measuring spoons. If you like to have two sets of the cups and spoons on hand, you can hang both sets on the hooks of the rack.

Statisticians report manufacturing employment in the Tennessee Valley up 88 percent since 1929 as compared to a U. S. average of 52 percent.

territory give a greater amount of moisture in some districts and a little less in others. Heavy deterioration was reported in the fields of the eastern side of the county, and many were planning on plowing the grain under, but the heavy downpour gives the growers more hopeful prospects and a fair yield for the affected area is predicted.

Carpet Traffic Lanes Removed

Do you have a traffic lane? It's that beat down section of your beautiful carpet that has received the heaviest wear. To preserve the "new all over" look, those traffic lanes must be eliminated, so apply Blue Luster carpet cleaner with an easy to use long handle brush. The colors will spring out fresh and bright with the nap open and fluffy to blend with the unsoiled sections of your carpet. One-half gallon of Blue Luster concentrate cleans three 9 x 12 rugs.

Stories Of Defeat, Revenge, History Are Hidden In American Words

The American language, like the American, is an amalgamation of many cultures, many races, and many countries. No other language is so difficult to learn, foreigners report, nor so essential to know. If you know it, you can travel anywhere; if you don't know it, it doesn't make any difference how many you know, according to one sad-faced refugee who arrived in the US speaking six languages, none of which was English, and was forced to wash dishes in a New York City restaurant until he learned to speak our strange tongue which is Anglo-Saxon in origin but muted and molded by the various cultures that likewise, shaped America.

ers with hearts full of hate for the machines they thought were stealing their jobs, would throw their wooden shoes into the machinery, fouling up the works—thus, sabotage.

A Word about Tantalus
Conversely, the word tantalize comes from Greek mythology, and epitomizes the plight of Tantalus who was punished by the gods for his sins. (Some say it was for serving his son as a meal to the gods.) He was sentenced to be placed in a pit with water which he bent his head for a drink, the water would recede just beyond reach. Overhead hung a luscious bunch of grapes, but whenever Tantalus reached up his hands for them, they, too were pulled just out of reach. So we get our word "tantalize" which Webster defines as "to tease or torment by continually frustrating the expectations."

And so, hidden away in many ordinary words, are stories of defeat, of revenge, of adventure. What's in a name? Plenty!

Eighth Grade Graduation May 30 Is Highlight Of Week's Activity

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS
Mrs. Chester Minyen and girls, accompanied by Mrs. O. C. Minyen, went to Maysville, Okla., last week to visit in the home of Mrs. Cora Alexander, mother of Mrs. Chester Minyen; also her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Travis and family, of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neinst and girls visited last weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Neinst of Littlefield.

Elmo Hall was hospitalized in Hereford recently. His trouble—a kidney infection.

Donna Sue Guseman had a slumber party in her home Friday night. Susie Loerwald, Marilyn Single and Linda Sue Parker, each from Hereford, were her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Douglas from Hereford were dinner guests in the A. L. Shelton home.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Aston of Westway visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Collins.

Much interest, a good crowd, and a fine spirit of play were on hand for the baseball game played last week at Walcott School.

Raymond L. Collins is home from West Texas after completing his sophomore year there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sessums had company recently. Her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Pannell, their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pannell and baby, of Mannsville, Okla. They left Wednesday for Globe, Ariz., to visit other relatives.

The Bertram Jack family attended church in San Jon recently. During the afternoon they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Porter Wylie in Tucumcari.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Jack visited Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Avritt in Hereford last week.

Many in our community received very good rains recently. Work has been halted in fields, but smiling faces can be seen as a result.

Mrs. Roy Pruitt, Merry Kay and Royce Lee, went to Hereford last Tuesday night for Rainbow installation. High water in the streets prevented their getting home until next morning. Have you heard how much rain was received at their home? It's a typical West Texas story.

Eighth grade graduation from Walcott Grade School was on Wednesday night, May 30. Mrs. A. L. Shelton played the processionals as the class members marched down the center aisle of the auditorium and took their places on either side. Each looked real nice—dressed in white cap and gown with red tassel and red rose (class flower) corsage. A good crowd was present for the occasion to congratulate our eighth graduates. Four girls—Royce Lee Pruitt, who had a grade average of 94.89; Janell Weaver, with a grade of 92.10; Mary Dufur and Margo Roubison. Four boys—Gary Guseman, grade average 92.82; Bobby Sessums, George Lockhart and Sidney Hutson.

Words which have common, everyday uses today, have fascinating origins. For example, the Exchange, a magazine issued by the New York Stock Exchange, recently gave the origins of various words connected with the world of finance. Wall Street comes from a palisade of wood built by the Dutch as a defense against Indians. Stock goes back to the Anglo-Saxon stock, meaning a tree trunk or a stick—in those times wood had to be stored for the winter, often in a tree trunk. Bond is a variation on the Middle-English word band, meaning a fastening. The issuer of a bond is "bound" to make repayment.

Fascinating Origins
Capitalist derives from the Latin caput, for head. It is linked with cattle, for in ancient times a man's wealth was numbered by the number of cattle he owned and cattle were counted by the head. And broker was an Old French word for one who broached a cask to draw off the liquid.

Bulls and Bears
Bulls and bears have a particularly picturesque origin. Long ago gamblers would sell bears' skins before the bears themselves had been trapped, in the hope that a

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Guseman, Mrs. Douglas Timberlake and sons and Mrs. Mae Engle (Gary's grandmother).

Guests in the V. K. Hutson home Wednesday were her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Miller and Arlis of Tulsa. Arlis Miller got his back broken in a truck accident in February. Since that time he has been in St. Luke's Hospital in Denver; until he flew to Amarillo Monday. Now he is able to walk on crutches, but was too tired to stay over for his nephew—Sidney Hutson's graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bradford and children of near Dumas were guests Wednesday in the Norman Minks home. Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. Minks were room mates in college. Now each have a son in the third grade (Bruce visited school with Larry Thursday), and two little girls. All this makes for nice family visiting.

Farmer, Though Living in Modern Era, Still Has Problems His Ancestors Had

Seven Steps to Insect Control
About this time each year, the farmer starts his ageless battle with a familiar enemy — crop pests, pointed out County Agent Hugh Clearman, explaining that many farmer's problems are as old as history.

Fortunately, the chemical industry can furnish effective implements in this unending war. But their real utility is no better than the way they are used.

Chemical control of insects—and weeds—can be a boon or a bust, depending upon methods and time of application. Just as irrigation can be wasteful or beneficial, so can crop spraying or dusting.

It will be to the Texas farmer's advantage to follow an organized method of crop treatment for the best insect control. The best plan will be to contact the county agent and study the seven-step program as set up by the Texas Extension Service.

Much effectiveness of spraying or dusting is nullified by poor timing. Treatment on a "guess basis" often catches harmful insects in the pupa stage when insecticides and pesticides have little or no effect. It may also do away with some of the useful type insects.

The seven-step program varies over the state but each area of Texas has a definite plan set up according to local climatic and insect conditions. This type of spraying assures the farmer of getting the most benefit out of money spent for insect control.

Although most insect infestations are expected to be approximately "normal" this year, one pest stands out as a threat in near plague proportions — the grasshopper. This spring the state and federal governments are carrying out an all-out fight against hoppers on range lands of the Panhandle and West Texas. But cultivated land is the farmer's own battlefield. Quick control of this pest can save many thousands of dollars in crops this year.

A word of caution about chemical preparations: Although the chemical industry has taken every precaution to make them safe as possible, some of them can be harmful if misused.

Read and study the manufacturers' recommended measures of use. They are printed on every container — and are meant to be followed.

Beauty At Home

Q. I have heard that pulling the hair is good for the scalp. Is this true?

A. It is recommended by many scalp specialists. Take your hair in bunches, grasping it firmly and give these handfuls of hair firm, steady pulls. Don't snatch or jerk, for it is easy to yank a hair from its roots. Give a slow, firm pull, lifting the hair away from the scalp, to stretch the scalp and stimulate circulation.

Q. What facial mask will help combat freckles?

A. Mix an egg white with the juice of a lemon, and blend with enough almond meal to make a thin paste. Spread this on the face and leave at least 20 minutes. Then rinse off with warm water.

Q. How can I mend a split fingernail easily and quickly?

A. Use a little nail cement and some facial tissue.

Q. Have you a suggestion for making a better job of lipstick application?

A. Try putting a light coating of powder on your lips before applying the lipstick, and the color should remain on longer, it will go on more smoothly, and will hold a more even line.

Q. Is alcohol good for ridding one of facial pimples?

A. Yes. It tends to dry up the pimples, and also serves as a disinfectant.

Q. There are signs of dryness on my facial skin, fine lines beginning to appear around my eyes, mouth and on my forehead. What can I do about this?

A. Buy yourself some lanolin-rich dry-skin cream, and apply this carefully every night and then leave on at least 20 minutes. Leaving a thin film underneath your makeup foundation is beneficial, too.

Q. How can I prevent the patent leather covering on the heels of my shoes from cracking?

A. Coat it with some colorless nail polish.

Q. I am 24 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, weight 139 pounds. My bust is 37 inches, waist 27 inches, and hips 37 inches. Are my measurements good?

A. Your measurements are in good proportion. However, I should suggest that you lose about five pounds in weight.

Q. What is a corrective treatment for oiliness and enlarged pores in my skin?

A. After a good cleansing, cover the face with a piece of absorbent cotton wrung out of hot water, to open the pores, patting it gently over the contours of the face. Remove when cool, and replace with another piece of cotton saturated with witch hazel. Take an ice cube in a piece of gauze and rub this gently over the cotton mask with a circular movement.

Q. What can I do about my ears, which tend to be conspicuous?

A. A touch of rouge on their lobes, and a bit of powder, will make them blend in with your face instead of stand out. Use only the small earrings. Choose a hairdo that covers the tops of your ears.

Q. Please suggest a good, simple, skin-toning beauty mask I can mix myself.

A. The white of an egg painted over face and throat, and allowed to remain for 10 minutes. Remove with warm water.

FIXIT SPECIALISTS

ASBURY PARK, N. J. — Firemen are wondering if they aren't fix-it specialists. Answering three alarms, they found a steaming car radiator to which they added water, a smoldering chimney which needed cleaning, and a gas-filled apartment which needed the unlighted stove turned off.

dieldrin seed treatment

NEWLY SEEDED FIELDS make good feeding grounds for true and false wireworms and other soil insects. If there is not enough moisture in the soil to permit quick sprouting, seeds are vulnerable to insect attack for several days. But the threat of wireworm damage should be recognized at all times.

A dieldrin preventive seed treatment is a sure way to protect small grain seeds until they sprout.

LOW-COST PROTECTION

It costs just pennies per acre to treat seed with dieldrin, but dollars per acre to feed the wireworms untreated seed! A dieldrin seed treatment prevents "spotty" stands . . . eliminates the expense of time and money for re-planting or sowing extra seed for the wireworms to feed on . . . assures you of a longer grazing period. And dieldrin does not harm plant development.

COMPATIBLE WITH FUNGICIDES

Dieldrin is compatible with fungicides . . . can be applied at the same time to save the expense and work of a double treatment. You can buy dieldrin-treated seed from your seed dealer, or treat the seed yourself. Dieldrin can be applied as a slurry, dry, or in a grain drill. A convenient method is to apply dieldrin to the seed in the grain drill as you plant. Follow directions on the label for the particular formulation you buy.

LESS WORK AT PLANTING TIME

Seed can be treated now and stored until planting time. Dieldrin eliminates the rush of treating seed and planting within a few days. Dieldrin formulations are available throughout the small grain growing area. See your local supplier.

Earl Buchholz Is Junior To Watch In 1956 Tennis

By JAMES VAN VALKENBURG

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Earl (Butch) Buchholz Jr., two-time National indoor boys tennis champion, "has all the attributes necessary for greatness," in the words of one tennis expert.

This 15-year-old son of a St. Louis tennis teaching pro has been hitting tennis balls since he was 4 years old. He played in his first tournament at 6 and began touring the tennis circuit at 10. He is ranked No. 2 in the nation behind Atlanta's Ned Neely in the boys' division by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Assn.

He whipped Neely for the Orange Bowl boys tennis title in his last tournament in that division. This year he'll face tougher competition in the junior (18 and under) division.

Modest, slender and dark-haired, Buchholz has a chance to reach stardom. Just how good is he?

Jean Bergerate, French Davis Cup player who saw Butch win his second straight indoor crown here last November, says Buchholz can be one of the top players in the country. He's among the best, if not the best youngster I've ever seen.

Mary Hardwick, former English Wightman Cup player and now a teaching pro, says, "He has all the attributes necessary for greatness — excellent strokes, a fine serve and he is always thinking on the court."

Butch himself says "I like tennis and I'd like to get somewhere with it, if I can get good enough."

Would he like to turn pro after his amateur career? Same answer — "If I get good enough."

Young Earl has the same "one thing at a time" philosophy on his choice of a college: "I have to get out of John Burroughs (in St. Louis County) first."

He listed Neely, Ron Homberg of Brooklyn, Donald Dell of Bethesda, Md., and Norman Perry and Bob Delgado of Los Angeles as among his chief foes for junior division honors this year.

Neely beat him in finals of the Nationals and in the Western finals last summer but Earl won the Orange Bowl crown in straight sets. It was the fourth straight year Butch had beaten Neely in the Orange Bowl finals, the first two in the small boys (13 and under) class.

He and Neely have teamed to win the national indoor and outdoor doubles titles two years running. They've never been beaten as a team.

If young Earl doesn't reach the tennis heights, don't be surprised if another Buchholz makes it—his 12-year-old brother Cliff.

"He's good," Butch says, "and bigger now than I was at 13."

WIRE THEFTS

Mrs. Symington: Thumbnail Sketch

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Stuart Symington, chic and talented wife of the Democratic senator from Missouri, who is rating considerable attention as a possible '56 presidential candidate, is shying clear of discussing the subject.

"How can I say I'd like being in the White House?" she asks. "I've never lived there." Then she is prompted to quip, "I've never played the violin."

The beautiful daughter of the late James W. Wadsworth, staunch New York Republican, who served first in the Senate and later in the House, grew up in Washington. In fact, for a time she lived directly across Lafayette Park from the White House, in the home of her late grandfather, John Hay, who came here from Illinois with Abraham Lincoln to serve as his assistant private secretary. Hay later was secretary of state under Presidents McKinley and Teddy Roosevelt, from 1898 until 1905, when he died.

The former Evelyn Wadsworth attended the Potomac and Holton Arms schools here and Oldfield's in nearby Maryland. She met her husband when he came here on a visit with his Yale roommate, Henri di Sibour, and they were married in 1924 in St. John's church across the street from the Hay home. They have two sons, Stuart and James.

Tea Stain Removers

The following are excellent removers of tea stains: Rub the stained area with glycerin and then wash out in warm water and soaps; or, stretch the stained section across a bowl and pour a kettle of boiling water, held two feet or so above; through it; or, sprinkle with salt and lemon juice and let garment lie in the hot sun until the stain has disappeared.

Care of the Teeth

Use salt on the tooth brush, occasionally instead of the usual tooth paste. It invigorates the gums and if used with cold water is an urb of St. Louis, returned to Washington in 1945, when he was appointed chairman of the Surplus Property Board. He later became secretary of the Air Force.

When her handsome husband ran for the Senate in 1952 Mrs. Symington helped with the campaign, but she says she never made a speech. During that campaign, Symington was dubbed a "Broadway playboy" by his opponents. He says this came about when he was seen frequenting such swank New York cafe spots as the St. Regis and Waldorf hotels, where his musical wife was billed as a "society singer." Though she was offered an increase from $2000 to $3500 a week to continue in this career, she preferred to return to her role as housewife.

excellent mouth wash or gargle.

Jelly

As soon as jelly has cooked sufficiently pour it in to the glasses. It will be cloudy if allowed to cool before pouring.

Clogged Pipes

One method of cleaning clogged pipes is to force a mixture of washing soda and salt (about a handful of each into the top of the pipe, and after leaving for half an hour, pour down a kettleful of boiling water.

Keeps Out Moths

If woollens are packed away in newspapers whose edges are all pasted together, it will prevent any possibility of moths, as they do not like printer's ink.

Perspiration on Silk

Perspiration stains on a delicate silk garment can usually be removed by rubbing gently with a soft dry cloth.

Cracks in Floors

To fill in cracks in the floor, soak some old newspapers in strong alum water until they form a soft pulp. Then press hard into the cracks. When covered with paint, the repair will hardly show.

Baking

To make a cake light in texture be sure to beat the batter continuously with an egg beater or wooden spoon for at least fifteen minutes.

Steel Knives

To clean knives with steel blades rub them vigorously with ashes dampened with water.

Poached Eggs

The egg can be prevented from spreading when poaching it if one teaspoonful of vinegar is added to the water. The vinegar will set the white of the egg.

CHASE SEQUENCE

ALBUQUERQUE, N.-M.—(AP)— City police Officer Lee Cannon had his hands full when he arrested two suspects for drunken driving. He took the driver from the car to the patrol car and started back for the other man.

When he again reached the patrol car, suspect No. 1 was running down the street. Cannon gave chase and caught him after a three block sprint. When he returned to the patrol car, suspect No. 2 was driving away in the suspect's car. Cannon tossed suspect No. 1 into the patrol car and sped after No. 2. He finally got both men to the city jail.

Since 1928 about two billion people have entered the United States most for temporary stays or returning from foreign visits.
