Girl Slightly Injured In Accident Thursday

A young Hereford girl apparently escaped serious injuries Thursday when she ran into the side of a moving car on East Highway 60.

Police said Janie Della Cruz suffered only slight bruises in the accident. The car was driven by Robert Curtis Alexander of Amarillo. The mishap occurred near the Roosevelt Street intersection when Janie Della ran out from behind a parked truck.

Second Large Grant Made To Boys Ranch

The second large grant in two years by trustees of the Jim Hill estate has been made to Boys' Ranch. A $35,000 check was presented to officials of the Ranch Friday by R. L. Thompson of Hereford.

Thompson said the money is to be used for a dormitory at the Ranch. He made the presentation to Cal Farley, Boys' Ranch founder and president, on behalf of J.S. Bridwell of Wichita Falls and O.L. Bybee of Hereford, who are also trustees of the Jim Hill estate.

Last year the trustees gave the Ranch a grant of $25,000 to help pay for cost of constructing the new school. The new donation brings to $60,000 the total gift to the first ranch for boys in America in a two-year period.

Thompson said that trustees of the estate felt that the money was badly needed by the Ranch for a new housing unit because of crowded living conditions.

"This is one of the finest things that ever happened to us," Farley said, in expressing his and his boys' thanks to the Jim Hill estate trustees.

Farley said a site for the new dorm has already been chosen and he said that he expected that construction will begin immediately. The building will be known as the Jim Hill unit, he said.

The late Jim Hill was always interested in youth work during his lifetime. Thompson said. His will called for a large grant to a home for boys if one was ever founded here.

Mr. Hill moved to Deaf Smith County in 1917 and moved to Hereford in 1920. He was a wheat farmer and rancher and operated an extensive real estate and insurance loan business here.

The Jim Hill Hotel is named after Mr. Hill. He also made large grants to the Christian Church here, the Hereford Cemetery and many charity organizations.

County Flood Disaster Goal Set At $290

Deaf Smith County has been assigned a "rock bottom quota" of $290 to raise for aid to flood stricken states in the east, William Decker, chapter president, said Saturday.

Decker said he was sure that the county would more than reach the goal set by the American Red Cross, which President Eisenhower has named the official relief agency for raising funds for flood victims.

A telegram received by Decker this week said that "needs continue to grow in the disaster affected areas. Estimated number of families who will register with the Red Cross for rehabilitation assistance exceeds 10,000 and continues to mount. This will require funds in excess of $8,000,000. Your chapter has been assigned a rock bottom quota of $290 and expect you will make every effort to have it substantially oversubscribed."

Any contributions can be turned over to any Red Cross worker or can be turned in at the Red Cross office in the courthouse to Mrs. Corinne Neeley.

This Tradition Won't Be Missed

A courthouse tradition was in danger this week following the purchase of two sand urns by the Commissioners Court.

The urns will replace the traditional spittoons in the courthouse if the two purchased this week work out satisfactorily.

Commissioners decided that the spittoons were one tradition the courthouse could do without. Janitors quickly agreed.

Davis To Prepare Bond Proceedings

Deaf Smith County Commissioners Friday, in a called meeting, agreed to let Bob L. Davis, of the Columbian Securities Corp., of Texas, prepare proceedings for the airport bond issue.

Davis said cost of preparing the proceedings would be $1425 if the bond issue passes and nothing if the issue fails. Commissioners also called for placing the following statement in the official minutes of the court. "Commissioners agreed that if matching funds of the federal government were not made available by the end of the (Civil Aeronautics Administration) fiscal year (June 1) Deaf Smith County would not be obligated to issue such bonds beyond said date."

Davis met with the court and read separate orders calling for the bond election and for a vote on whether or not to separate the office of tax-assessor collector from the sheriff's office. All commissioners voted in favor of calling an election to vote on the office separation issue and all but Donald Hicks voted in favor of calling the bond election.

The Court voted to re-invest $6700 in permanent school funds since government bonds the money was invested in have become mature. The money will be invested in Series K government bonds.

Commissioners also decided to invest a surplus of $40,000 in the County Road District interest and sinking fund in the Series K bonds, which mature in 12 years.

The purchase of furnishings for the women's rest room on the third floor of the courthouse was also okayed.

The Court also approved the bond of Claudia Martin, who is to begin work in the County Clerk's office on a three day basis soon.

38 Complete Red Cross Swim Classes

Thirty-eight successfully completed this summer's Red Cross Water Safety classes, Charles A. Skelton water safety chairman, said Saturday.

Four completed their senior life guard instruction, eight their junior life guard classes and 26 their beginners work.

The four completing their senior work were Betty Roberts, Texie Gyles, Pat Hall and Sammy Lesly. They are now eligible to take instructors work.

Completing junior life guard work were Denie Hudson, Kathryn Baker, Mary Lois Coker, Judith Ray Haseloff, Sharon Scott, Carroll Don Martin, Gary Wertenberger and Erin Wertenberger.

In the beginning classes were Clea Kay Rutter, James Boever, David Talley, Janice Hagans, Joe Bob Johnson, Jimmie Cooper, Linda Kay Johnson, Patti Nobles, Catherine Gilbreay, Merle Carnit, chael, Donnie Kemp, Phillip Cain, Bobby Gilbert, Wynn Alex Buck, Carol Robins, Terry Gerhardt, Barbara Willis, Gary Royal, James Buttrill, Francill Buttrill, Peggy Little, Kent Mobley, Jan Rayburn, Donna Cole, Jana Cole and Sue Cole.

Skelton praised J. B. Wills, water safety instructor, and his aides for the "fine work" they did with the five Red Cross swim classes. Other members of Skelton's committee are Dr. H. A. Cavness and Mrs. J. A. McWhorter.

All said plans were already underway for next year's classes.

Final Rites For S. L. Smith Held Friday Afternoon

Funeral services for S. L. Smith of Hereford were held Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Avenue Baptist Church. Mr. Smith died Aug. 24 at the age of 62 after a short illness in the Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Born Aug. 26, 1892 in Texas, he married Josie Johnson in 1924 at Crosbyton. They came to Deaf Smith County to farm in 1938 from Florida.

Mr. Smith was a member of the Baptist Church.

Services were conducted by Rev. William Fox of Amarillo and interment was held in West Park Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Elmer Combs, Burk Green, Bill Nafziger, Floyd R. Stives, Johnie Bradford and Charles Stayton.

Smith is survived by his wife, Mrs. Josie Smith; one son, Morris Smith; four daughters, Mrs. Lester Snow of Brownfield, Mrs. Billy Jo Wilson of San Antonio, Don Samahan of Las Vegas and Mrs. Carl Jones of Hereford; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith of Brownfield; eight grandchildren; two brothers, W. B. Smith of Spur and John R. Smith of Seminole and two sisters, Mrs. V. E. George and Mrs. E. A. McBroom of Brownfield.

He Knew There Was Something

"Where's the baby?" A simple enough question, but one which put Marlin Pierce, a Westway farmer, so far back in the dog house this week that he is still trying to scratch his way out.

Pierce, accompanied by his seven-year-old and one-year-old drove up the road to visit the Clarence Sauleys. After a few minutes, Pierce and the older daughter returned home to be confronted with Mrs. Pierce's question, "Where's the baby?"

In panic, he rushed out, jumped into the car and backed toward the Sauley residence, where he repeated his wife's question. Mrs. Sauley also denied knowledge of the baby, adding to the confusion. A few minutes' search revealed, however, the one-year-old had toddled into another room. She greeted her dad with a little shout of glee and every one was happy until Marlin got back home.

Mrs. Pierce still insists she can't see how Marlin could go off and forget the baby, but Pierce insists he can do even better than that. He'd like to forget the whole incident.

School Trustee Still Un-Named

Hereford School Board trustees will meet Tuesday night to name a replacement for Ira Scott, who resigned last week. Supt. George Graham said Saturday.

A meeting was called for Wednesday afternoon to name Scott's replacement, but all members of the Board were not present and those present decided to wait until Tuesday to make the decision.

Scott resigned so that a member of his family could be considered for a teaching position.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy U. Botsford and family of Midland spent the weekend in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Botsford.

Blue Jacket Added To List Of Undesirable Varieties

Another wheat variety has been added to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's "undesirable list," Faust Collier, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office manager, said Saturday.

Collier said the Department has announced that the 20 cents per bushel discount will be applied to other hard red winter varieties already listed.

The eight varieties now "black-balled" that have been previously grown in this area are blue jacket, red chief, red jacket, kanking, chierkan, early blackhull, new chief and yogo.

Collier said that while seed for recommended wheat varieties could not be termed "plentiful," there seems to be "enough available."

County Agent Hugh Clearman has named five varieties which he considers excellent for planting. They are tenmarq, comanche, concho, west star and standard blackhull. He said that pawnee, triumph, wichita and kiowa could all be classified as acceptable.

Collier said some farmers had told him that they still plan to plant some of the varieties listed as unacceptable despite the penalty. Most growers were buying the preferred seed, however, he said.

PRETTY, BUT DEADLY Bindweed Can Ruin High Priced Land In A Few Days

City folks often comment on the beauty of the wild morning glories that grow in the fields and along the highway right-of-ways in Deaf Smith and surrounding counties—but not the farmers, who have another name for vines with the little pink and white flowers.

To the man who makes his living from the soil, the plant is better known as possession vines or bindweed. Called by either name, the plant is a definite menace to the farmer.

Bindweed has caused more than one good field of land to lay idle. The plant, which has deep growing roots, is almost impossible to kill. If left alone, however, it will continue to spread until there is no place left to go.

On dryland the weed makes it impossible to grow anything. It causes even irrigated crops to have a poor yield.

S. J. Glenn, who farms 12 1/2 miles southeast of Hereford in Castro County, has been fighting the plant for seven years on his farm. He has used some commercial poison to fight the bindweed, but says he cannot afford to use much of it for two reasons—the cost of the poison and the loss of the soil for several years because of sterilization. His first reason—the cost of the poison—will be double next year. The government has announced that they will discontinue their program of paying half the cost of the poison next year.

Glenn says that he has found that if he can plant early enough to get a head start on the weed, he can raise a halfway decent crop in spite of it. He proves this point with his maize crop, although the vines have grown up the stalks of his crop and in some places killed it out completely.

Some farmers say that the only way to win a war against the pretty, but vicious enemy, is with concerted effort of the farmer and the county. They say the farmer must destroy the weed on his own property, and the county must kill it out of the bar ditches. They complain that if the weed is not killed out of the ditches, it will continue to spread back onto the cultivated land.

Glenn has found that destroying the plant without hurting his soil is a hard job, however. He has tried to do the trick with alfalfa, a deep rooted plant itself, but to no avail.

Farming experts say that the extensive root system of bindweed, is what makes it so hard to control. Excavations have shown the roots sometimes reach a depth of 25 feet, with lateral roots reaching out to a distance of seven feet in a 90 day growing period, and putting up a new plant every foot or two.

Poisoning will definitely do the trick, as will salt, but both leave

Miller Is Named On Committee To Hear Grievances

Appointment of Hereford attorney to the State Bar of Texas Eighteenth Congressional District grievance committee was announced Saturday.

Bruce L. Miller was named to a three-year term by Maurice R. Bullock, state president, on recommendation of Arthur M. Teed, district State Bar director.

Bullock explained that grievance committees in congressional districts throughout the state will assure that every Texas lawyer lives up to his qualifications as an officer of the court.

The State Bar president termed the legal profession as "clean" and "honorable," but said that among the more than 12,000 Texas lawyers, "it can not be expected that every one of them will always conform to the high standards of the State Bar."

He pointed out that any citizen who believes he has been aggrieved in a legal matter by his attorney may complain to any member of the committee.

Other district committee members are Joe Harlan and Seldoh Simson of Amarillo, Robert F. Gordon of Pampa, Sam Hamilton of Memphis, T. D. Sansing of Spearman and Max W. Boyer of Pteryton.

Rites Held For Valdez Infants

Funeral services for twin infants born Aug. 24 were held Thursday morning with graveside rites at St. Anthony's Cemetery. Rev. Raymond Gillis of Hereford Labor Camp conducted the services. The infants, Marie Viola and Joe Valdez, died soon after birth at Achor Clinic. Their parents were Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Valdez.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fowler and Kenny of San Bernardino, Calif., are visiting in the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Botsford. The Fowler's daughter, Patricia, spent several weeks this summer in the Botsford home.

Honored On Birthday

Mrs. Pat Robinson was honored recently on her birthday, when friends and neighbors gathered in her home for an early morning coffee. Conversation made up the entertainment.

Those attending were Mesdames Earl DeHart, Ira Scott, J. T. Richardson, Louis Olson, Gray Parsons, Paul Corbett, Joe Story, G.W. Duncan, Art Lewis, A. Nichols and the honoree.

READ THE CLASSIFIEDS

Sometimes things happen around a newspaper office which are impossible to explain, all of which makes my heart bleed for some of the people in the following story. In addition, I would like to nominate Bob Thompson, former county clerk, as one of the best natured guys you can imagine.

So the story goes, a policeman knocked on the door and roused Bob out of bed around 2 a.m. a few mornings back—and served an arrest warrant in regards to a delinquent parking ticket. Just to complicate things, it appears that Bob had already taken care of the ticket some months before.

"The policeman was a perfect gent," said Bob. "The only trouble was that we didn't happen to agree—especially when he insisted on escorting me to the jail house."

Bob finally got Mayor Sears on the telephone, and was able to get the proceedings delayed until next day. Needless to say, there were some red faces around the City Hall. Furthermore, everyone is still trying to figure out how the old warrant got mixed up with the current papers—and why in the world they were served at 2 o'clock in the morning.

Strangely enough, Bob takes a most liberal outlook on the whole matter, which is probably more than most people would be able to do.

John McLean dropped in this week with good news. John just received a weather forecast release which predicts a "wet September." He says it shows around three inches of moisture in the Amarillo territory and some four inches in the Lubbock area. Looks like Lubbock is just bound to stay ahead of Amarillo, despite the Chamber of Commerce and Wesley Zzard.

Meanwhile, I haven't had time to compare notes with Jim Lipscomb—and am in no position to issue an authentic local forecast. However,

I do have the feeling that John has the straight dope this time. My forecasts are strictly on "hunches," whereas Jim uses statistics and the weather department uses scientific instruments. If we all three ever agree you can look for a flash flood. Anyway, until we hear from Jim you can expect a "wet September." Maybe even five or six inches. That's my hunch on the subject. Besides, the weather department was bound to be right some of these days. How about it, Mr. Jim? What does your adding machine have to say on the subject?

Dr. R. H. Cagle, former pastor of the First Baptist Church here, has announced his resignation as pastor of the Ballinger church, effective Aug. 28. Dick will assume pastorage of the Bellevue Baptist Church in Colorado Springs Sept. 11. Although small in comparison with membership in Hereford and Ballinger, the Colorado Springs Church is one of the largest Southern Baptist Churches in the territory (94 members)—and Dick will go into Colorado more or less as a pioneer from an area where his denomination is already well established. The First Church in Hereford has, in fact, sponsored two churches in Colorado. The Cagles left Hereford in March of 1952, and have been at Ballinger until the current move.

It looks as if Colorado is really making inroads on Hereford's census figures. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robinson left Thursday morning for Colorado Springs, where they will make their future home, and the Tom Howards will depart in a week or so for Denver as a point of residence.

Tom plans to enter law school at the University of Denver this fall, but the children will be enrolling in public school within a week or so. I asked Tom, who weighs 109 pounds wringing wet and with his clothes on, if he was coming out for football. He just grinned and said, "Sure, for Center." We will miss them all, especially Mrs. Howard (Faye) who has done yeoman service for the Hereford Schools as a third grade teacher for several years.

When it rains, it pours. Here is some more about folks moving. Stanley Phillip, Brand Shop Foreman, surprised us with his resignation a few days ago. The Phillips plan to move to Amarillo, where Stan will join the News-Globe staff next month. Friends of Jim O'Hair will be glad to know, however, that Jim is coming back to the Foreman post on The Brand. They will move here around Sept. 1, from McAllen, where Jim has held the same position with the Daily Monitor, following a brief exploration trip into the Indian Territory of Oklahoma. The O'Hairs are nice folks. Even the Irish like them.

Another "furriner" heard from recently was Jim Terry, former Hereford golf pro. Jim, it seems, was eating potatoes with his charcoal steaks at the Terry domicile in Los Alamos, "The Atomic City" of New Mexico, when he dipped into the plastic bag and pulled out a little cardboard label designating the spuds as being produced from the Howard Gault sheds in Hereford, Texas. "We still love Hereford and all the fine people there," writes Jim. "See you all next winter." Then he wrote on the back of the envelope expressing a desire to hear from some of their former friends. The address is 2436 D 45th St., Los Alamos, N. Mex.

I was doing my best to get Abe Martin on the regular staff until I went camping two weeks ago to find out first-hand. Abe did pretty well—as far as he went, but he forgot to mention about it raining every day and every night. This makes quite a difference. I did whip one of his problems, however, and that was his pet peeve about cold coffee. All you have to do is take your dog along. This pooch of ours worked out quite a system. She would stand outside of the tent and howl until everyone went to sleep from sheer exhaustion, and despite the noise. At this point she would slip inside the tent, pick out the most comfortable looking bed roll—and crawl inside to cuddle up with the occupant for a night of trouble-free rest. The final result was that after you got through spitting out the dog hair every morning, you didn't care whether the coffee was hot or cold. It's like my father-in-law said, "No matter what you do, a wet dog still smells like a wet dog."

This particular dog has also developed an appetite for fish in preference to dog food, which kept all of the campers on their toes—especially when they were cleaning their daily catch. It is pretty discouraging to work hard all day, catch two small trout—and then have a hungry dog gobble them down when you aren't looking. She provided one good service, though. When we looked in the grub box and there was nothing left but 13 cans of dog food, we knew it was time to come home.

Like Abe said, it was a lot of fun. Even when the tent collapsed that night during the rain storm. I am glad it's over for 1955, but things will probably seem different next year. Meanwhile, may the good Lord take the best of care of all Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and every single one of the Campfire Girls. Take it from me, they really need some help.

Theta Rho Girls Hold Initiation Ceremonials Here

Initiation ceremonials were held at a regular session of Theta Rho Club at the IOOF Hall Thursday evening. Rites were conducted by Wyndolyn Sheppard and Barbara Jacobs.

Rebekah mothers introduced were Mesdames John Hacker, Verne Sowell, Sanford Smith, Leonard Davis, Roy Manning, Orphe Nickerson, Catherine Sheppard, Ada Hollabaugh, Edna Draper, Lora Long, Bobby Meacham, Cora Lee Loving.

After the club session the group adjourned to the J. E. Cockerell home for a back yard party where games were directed by Betty Buse and Margie Ford.

Girls attending were Betty Buse, Margie and Patsy Ford, Carolyn Inman, Christine Strain, Linda Renfro, Janice and Barbara Jacobs, Wyndolyn Sheppard, Rosa Lee Strange, Judy Coffin and Maxie Wiseman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Bear of Oklahoma City and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stagers of Cotterville, Calif., are guests in the J. Roy Davis home.

Suzanne Spratt of Lubbock is visiting in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Spratt and Mr. and Mrs. Alston Rose this week.

Gayle Potter, Don McNeese Exchange Vows August 24

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Potter are announcing the marriage of their daughter Ruth Gayle, to Don McNeese, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McNeese.
Vows were exchanged Wednesday, Aug. 24, at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church with Rev. S. M. Dunnam, pastor, officiating.
Kenneth Rogers, vocalist, gave the wedding music accompanied by Mrs. S. M. Dunnam at the piano.
Mrs. Paul Schroeter and Bob Wilson served as attendants.
The bride wore a street length dress in aqua silk with matching sheer duster and a white lace hat. Accessories were in white and her corsage was of white French carnations.
Following the ceremony the couple left on a short trip. Upon their return they will reside at 409 Irving Street.
The bride is a junior in Hereford High School and Mr. McNeese is a graduate of Hereford High School and served 4 years in the Korean War. He is employed with the Brownlow Construction Co.

Pigs, KC's Play In League Finals

Piggly Wiggly and the Knights of Columbus will meet in the first game of a two out of three play-off series for the Hereford Softball League championship Monday night at 8 p.m.
The Pigs earned the right to a play-off berth in the finals by defeating surprising Summerfield 3-1 Thursday night and 12-8 Friday night after being dropped 15-7 in first round play by the same team. The KC's took their series with Hotel Jim Hill in two straight games, winning 5-0 Thursday night after taking a 12-7 victory in the first game.
Jim Hill never could get going against the Knights Thursday night—the victors piled up their winning margin in the third and the fourth innings, with two and three runs respectively. Walterscheid was credited with the victory.
Piggly Wiggly won their Thursday night game 3-1 with a three run outburst in the third frame. Summerfield scored one run in the same inning, but could not get another man across the plate.
Summerfield had more luck in scoring Friday night, but the Pigs outscored them 12-8 in a hard fought game. Both teams got off to a good start with Piggly Wiggly scoring two runs in the first inning and Summerfield four. The Pigs went ahead in the second with five runs while Summerfield picked up two, and then wrapped up the game with a single run in the fourth and four runs in the fifth.
Other men across the plate.
Another slow week which we appreciate very much. When I say slow, I mean as far as criminal activity is concerned. There are always the usual drunks and an occasional D.W.I. Do not believe we have had as many drunks since the fine and costs went to $39.50. The increase in fine may not have had anything to do with it but something caused a decrease.
Mr. Solomon, our J.P. is on the sick list. We wish him a speedy recovery. The work of the J.P. has increased along with the other offices and it isn't the easiest job to be had. There are more responsibilities than most people realize. S. O. Wilson will verify that since he is acting in Mr. Solomon's place during his absence.
Have had some publicity concerning people following the fire trucks and getting in the way at fires. I will agree this is a definite handicap to the fire department. There is also another time when people get in the way and cause serious traffic hazards. I assisted slightly with the car accident south of town a few evenings ago and I don't believe I'm far off when I say that cars lined both sides of the highway for a quarter mile. In this case the Highway Patrol had help from both city and county, but had we not been there, the taking care of the injured and the investigation would have been hampered while the patrolmen worked traffic. Some of the people stop to render assistance but most of them are curious and do not stop to think of the extra danger they cause. People walk back and forth across the highway as well as up and down. Please don't rush to the scene of an accident unless you have good reason for doing so. Were fortunate someone wasn't run over at this particular accident.
Only have two in jail at this time and no prospects in sight. There are plenty on the wanted list but no apprehensions expected.

June Smith Is Honored With Shower

Miss June Marian Smith, bride-elect of Walker Freeman of Folett, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given in the home of Mrs. Gordon Slaughter Tuesday afternoon. Yellow and orchid flowers were used about the house in decoration, emphasizing the colors chosen for the wedding, and yellow tapers and yellow gladioli and roses featured table decorations. The table was laid with an orchid gandy cloth and a miniature ship with bridal couple aboard was anchored by the one word "Love."
Patsy Jackson, Wanda Sue Wimberley, Marlene and Marilyn Legg presided over punch and cake and Karen Sue Smith, sister of the bride-elect, secured names of the guests.
Receiving the guests with the honoree and her mother, Mrs. O.A. Smith, were the prospective bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Rufus Graves of Canyon, and the future bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lou Nunley of Elk City, Okla.
Hostesses making up the house party were Mesdames Slaughter, Corinne Neely, J. W. Witherspoon, Irving Willoughby, Clyde Rayburn, Tandy Legg and M. T. Rutter.

Letter To The Editor

August 25, 1955
Editor, Hereford Brand:

In the nine years I have lived in Hereford I have never seen so much in print about any single bond issue as the proposed airport has brought forth. It is good to know that people have the right to openly discuss city, county and state issues as they come about and then go to the polls and vote on them as they so desire.

I personally hope that the airport bond issue carries for I believe it will be a great asset to our city and county. We all know that we as individuals or as a community will either progress or decline and I doubt if there is anyone in Deaf Smith County that would want the latter to happen. I am sure that a fine airport such as this would be just another factor in keeping pace with modern progress in our county.

Very truly yours,

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Here are some views on the proposed airport for our county. In a rather varied field of endeavor I have been in a very awkward position too many times by saying, "You will have to land your airplane at Amarillo or Friona, as there are no airport facilities at Hereford." This has happened so often that it has caused me to become very conscious of the fact that there is no airport to serve Hereford and our county.

Who are these people who want to land in Hereford?

For the most part they are people who are interested in the industry in Hereford and Deaf Smith County. The farming industry, an industry. In fact, it is the most important industry in the world today, and our own way of life. These people are ones with money invested in our county, or have money to be invested. Money to be used to expand their own industry. Money to be spent somewhere. Money which we are all interested in, in one way or another.

You will probably ask at this point, "Do you mean that if Hereford had an airport, we would have more factories, more people, more industry and more money? The simple answer is yes."

What we all must understand is that an airport is a tangible item. Another channel of communication. Rapid transportation. To be completely mercenary another vein of money.

Now, as to cost: Sure it will cost us some money, and my answer to that is "You have to spend money to make money." Away from home on business trips

I have often used the expression, "Come to see us." Too many times I have been refused, because there is no place to land an airplane in our community. I believe the time has come when we should build a place for these people to land their airplanes at Hereford, and Deaf Smith County. Thank you.
 Larry Loerwald

COSTLY WASHING

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Irvine Raymond Lee rinsed one hand in the drinking fountain at First Precinct police station, and set off a chain of events which cost him $200 in fines and 30 days in jail.

A police officer offered washing facilities to Lee, who had cut his hand. Lee, police said, gave a rude reply. They took him to a hospital where he became unruly and refused treatment. He struck an officer. Then the judge had his say.

Mrs. Ada Hollabaugh left Thursday for Oakland, Calif., where she will visit in the home of a son, Raleigh Hollabaugh, and family.

Soviet Visitors Can Adapt American Farm Methods, But What Do They Gain?

Most people in this area have, at least with passive interest, followed the tour of Russian farmers who recently came to this country to compare methods.

The exchange idea is definitely a good one, resulting in some general farm improvements along with better understanding between two nations. When we view the reports in the light of information recently brought back from Russia by Marshall Formby, however, we doubt if the Russian farmers will benefit too greatly from their observations.

Formby, definitely a qualified observer, attributed the ills of Russia's agricultural system to the lack of incentive. He pointed to instances where the government took all of the farmer's crop, then even appro-riated most of his personal garden produce. The result, according to Formby, was that Soviet farmers assumed a "let George do it" attitude. Consequently, even with hundreds of times the manpower used in the United States, the Russians were definitely falling down on production and yields.

Expressions from the visiting Soviet farmers definitely supported Formby's observations. The Russians were amazed at the small number of workmen on the average quarter and half-section farm. They also found the yields next to unbelievable.

We are definitely of the opinion that the visiting Soviets are capable of doing the same thing when they return home but, always, comes the question: "Why should they?" The yields, under the Russian system, will still be confiscated for the "common good."

Maybe we are wrong, but it seems to us that the Soviet agricultural problems can be attributed to the Russian economic system, rather than to their farming methods. Such, at least, has always been the strongest argument against "Socialism" and "Communism." Furthermore, the situation today faced in Russia is exactly what the economic experts have predicted throughout the Democratic and other "profit system" nations.

The United States, on the other hand, can well observe the situation with some alarm in view of rising income taxes which, already in some instances, are reducing the profit incentive and curbing initiative. The situation exists in industrial circles on a basis which is possibly even more pronounced than that to be found in American agriculture.

Many people have shown considerable interest in the T-V program based on a "$64,000 Question." Not in the history of the program has any contestant "gone for the $64,000." The chief reason is due to the fact that taxes, after the contestant passes $32,000, are so enormous that the contestant does not realize sufficient additional funds to justify risking the $32,000 which he or she has already won.

Continued rising taxes will, without doubt, have the same result on American agriculture and industry. Despite methods, incentive must exist in some form before any nation can rise to its production potential, regardless of the commodity.

School To Buy Band Uniforms

Recent action of the school board in the purchase of band uniforms solves a problem which has been a point of contention in the community for a period of more than a quarter of a century.

During the long period band uniforms have been financed with cake walks, pie suppers, city directories, civic club assistance and outright donations. What's more, with a few exceptions, the uniforms have consistently been under par when compared with those in most other schools in our particular Interscholastic League district.

A high school band, in these days at least, is definitely a part of the school program. The band represents the school and the community and is often the one point by which others judge Hereford. It is part of the school curriculum, along with the extra-curricular activities which it may provide. For this reason we have often wondered why the school board provided football uniforms, basketball uniforms and other apparel—but invariably left the band at the mercy of community donations and drives.

School owned uniforms place the band directors in a position to maintain better discipline in operation of the organization. The situation, in addition, should contribute toward systematic cleaning, alterations and proper care of the uniforms at all times.

The plan, accompanied with systematic annual purchases of a few uniforms each year, can also make the ownership more economical and, at the same time, distribute uniform cost over the entire community.

Most important, though, is the fact that the band will at all times be presentable when it represents the school and community. All of which leads The Brand to add its approval to the unanimous vote on the part of the trustees when they decided to take over the responsibility of band uniforms in the future.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Citizens Favor Split Of Sheriff's, Tax Offices

County voters will soon decide whether or not to divide the office of tax assessor-collector and the sheriff's department. Are you in favor of such a change?

Yes, I am in favor of the split-up. It would result in more time for care for each individual office.

DUB REEVES

Yes, because the office is now too large for one person to see after. I am very much in favor of this.

MRS. H. VAUGHN

Yes, it is something that can be carried out efficiently and still give Lowell Sharp more time for his own needs.

MRS. JOHN HAMBY

Yes, I think both departments would be better if they were individualized

R. M. JENSEN

I certainly am in favor of the division of the department. One man can't do it all and two men could do the job much more efficiently.

TOMI MATHIS

Yes, because at present there is just too much work for one office.

H. A. LAMM

In all probability, it will make a good deal because of the overworked office. It will give the tax-assessor more time to accurately assess the valuation of property and also give the sheriff more time for his duties.

MRS. L. E. COOK

It would be less of a load on the sheriff's office and more efficient for the taxpayers so I believe it would be better to divide the office.

'Tater Peelin's

by Roberta Campbell

Mary Ann Hoffman, little two-year-old, who belongs to the Tony Hoffmans, isn't old enough to know that all the banging done in the western movies is with blank cartridges. She is convinced all those bullets must land somewhere so she tells people who comment on her well worn baby blanket that the cowboys shot it full of holes.

Because we always loved pets so much and had so much trouble persuading our mother to let us keep the stray cats we encouraged to follow us home from town, we have let Buster have just about everything that he wanted to keep around the place. However we are beginning to wonder if we shouldn't have drawn the line on a goat along with the monkey, parrot and baby elephant that he used to hope for.

Archibald waked us up the other night with such a clatter that we got up to investigate and there he was on top of the car having the time of his life teasing the dogs because they couldn't reach him. We are not sure he didn't get up on the house before the game was over.

Our only other experience with a goat was when our nephew, who is now grown, used to get down and butt heads with his pet, but when the goat's head got harder than Tibb's his mother had to give it away.

Blackeyed pea picking time is something like a reunion. A good many of the people who come out, we haven't seen since they were here a year ago and sometimes longer. Mrs. J. H. Brooks, for instance, hadn't been out since we got started to remodeling two years ago. She, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. Frank Terrell are among our most frequent customers each season.

Community Builders

By CAROLYN INMAN

"A thriving community, but in need of more schools," was the remark made by Ira Scott, well known farmer of Hereford, when asked for his opinion of the city.

Born in Happy, Dec. 31, 1914, Mr. Scott attended Canyon schools for his education. He lived in Happy until 1944 when he moved to Hereford to continue his farming. Scott was married to Leona Wallen of Amarillo in Panhandle, June 23, 1934. They now have four girls Jo Eddy, Jan, Kay and Betty.

When Scott and his family moved to Hereford in 1944, he farmed east of here, but in 1952, they moved to a new farm. This two-section farm which they now own is located 13 miles west of Hereford on Highway 51.

Scott is a member of the First Christian Church, and his favorite hobby and pastime is hunting. However, most of his time is taken by the farm.

Scott recently resigned as trustee of the Hereford Rural High School District so that his sister, Mrs. Virgil Dodson, could be considered for a teaching position in high school.

Mr. Scott had been a member of the Board of Trustees since April 1954.

Along with many other people of Hereford, Mr. Scott feels that the most remarkable improvement in Hereford in the last few years is the schools and the way they have developed.

HUMOR FROM OTHER Columnists

Appearing in the "Homer Hometown" column in The Uvalde Leader-News was this bit of wit: "Emily Post doesn't have anything about not doing it in her etiquette book, so after boarding a gift Dash Hound for a year I believe I'll return the long link specimen to the original donor. Only reason I might keep him is that it's interesting to have somebody around the house at times more stubborn than my wife."

Says S. M. Forbes in his "Here At Home" column in The Muleshoe Journal: "Some men wake up and find themselves famous—others stay up all night and become notorious."

And credit Paul Crume of The Dallas Morning News with his usual chuckle. Crume tells of the guy caught speeding on the expressway at Big D. His explanation was "It's so darn dangerous that I was hurrying to get off of it."

"Today's husband is not only expected to bring home the bacon, but to try it and serve it too," Bert West reasons in his "Rambler Around" column in The El Campo News.

Down at Mission, Joe Cook, in his "What's Cooking" column tells of the letter from a reader which related: "I had intended to let our subscription to The Times lapse, but after reading 'What's Cooking,' my heart was touched as I realized how bad you needed the funds to carry on; so here's our check. I suppose that someone has already told you that there is another angle to look at in the marriage of your daughter: You did not give away a daughter, but have gained a son."

"If dogs possessed the amount of intelligence with which they are credited they would exercise more diligence in the selection of masters," Douglas Meador says in his "Trail Dust" column in The Matador Tribune. "A stray canine should be able to understand the parsimonious traits of a man by the absence of meat left on the bones from his table," he adds.

BIRD WRECKS CAR. ADRIAN, Mich. (AP)—Arthur Kapnick's family suggested a shotgun remedy for the nuisance of a woodpecker that appeared each dawn and drummed away on a maple tree in the yard. Kapnick said "live and let live," but now he thinks maybe the family had the right idea.

Kapnick parked his new car under the maple. Down came a big dead limb, eight feet long and eight inches in diameter which did heavy damage to the car. And the spot where the limb broke was circled with hundreds of holes—the kind made by a woodpecker's beak.

MILK AND HONEY. DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The Rev. Terry Atkinson figures he preaches in a land of milk and honey; they had to cut down a bee tree to enlarge his church at Annona and cows wander in and out of the rural church's parking lot.

WHEAT SEED SCRAMBLE

A scramble for seed wheat, that will produce wheat in 1956 to meet the requirements of USDA, started this week in Floydada as a directive issued by the Secretary of Agriculture penalizes 20 cents per bushel practically every variety of wheat that is produced in Floyd County. On the black list are Red Chief, Cheifkan, Red Jacket, Kanking, Kanqueen, Prukof, Stafford, selection of 33 of Early Pawnee, Early Blackhull, New Chief, and Yogo. Not all of the varieties on the USDA black-list will be penalized in all the states it was said in Washington on the first of the week. —THE FLOYD COUNTY HESPERIAN

KLAN TALK HEARD

As the strongholds of school segregation in Texas begin to fall, rumbles of dissatisfaction can be heard in Paducah as well as over the rest of the state. Elsewhere in Texas, less mild men are reported to be attempting to reorganize the Ku Klux Klan as well as other types of less venomous protest groups. Many larger towns' school boards, including Lubbock, continue to do away with the centuries old color barrier. —THE PADUCAH POST

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

(Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher has his mind on politics this week, or it may be farming, it's hard to tell.)

Dear editor:

I have never had any Presidential aspirations or any other kinds much and have never worried much over who was President, on the theory that the country is always bigger than its chief executive regardless of how big he is and plowing is as hard under one administration as another, but there are a lot of people not turned that way, who's President or who's gonna be President are matters that keep them in a turmoil.

The reason I bring this up is that there are a lot of people right now worrying themselves sick over whether President Eisenhower is going to run again, although it doesn't seem to be worrying the man it concerns most, President Eisenhower, himself.

Understand, I'm not entering into the discussion from a partisan standpoint, taxes have always been just as due under one administration as another, but everyone recognizes the Republicans would have a situation on their hands if Eisenhower decided he was going to farm year after next. It would be a mad scramble for the nomination. There are plenty of Republicans who know they're capable of being President, but their trouble is not enough other people know it. Consequently, the whole Republican strategy for the election is based on Eisenhower's running. Even I can see that.

And that's where my point comes in. I've noticed that from time to time Eisenhower well-wishers have been sending him presents for his farm at Gettysburg. One group sends him a new jeep, another sends him a new tractor, another sends him a few registered heifers, another some hogs, another a new fireplace, etc.

What these well-wishers don't seem to realize is that every time they make his farm more attractive, they make the White House less attractive.

The way to get Eisenhower to run again is to make farm life less appealing, not more so, but if the Republicans keep on piling up these gifts, they may be out of a candidate. In fact, I think the Democrats have already caught on, and just the other day a bunch of them presented the President with a fine Angus cow to go on his farm. You could tell from the knowing smiles on their faces in the picture I saw that they knew what they were doing.

If the Republicans are smart, they'll put a stop to this right now, and start scattering Johnson grass seed around that Gettysburg farm and half-burying a few plow-point-busting rocks in the fields and leaving a few pamphlets around the living room on the increase of crop pests and the likelihood of a new drought cycle.

Yours Faithfully

Laura Stringer Becomes Bride Of Dan McLallen

North-End Baptist Church of Beaumont was the scene Friday August 19, at 8 o'clock in the evening of the wedding of Miss Laura Stringer and Sgt. Danny McLallen who will complete his term in Army service Sept. 8.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. D. Thompson of Beaumont and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McLallen of Hereford.

Rev. J. T. DeLoach, pastor, read the double ring ceremony as the couple and their attendants stood before the altar arranged with white gladiol and fern and seven branched candelabra holding white tapers.

Mrs. Carol McLemore, organist, and H. A. Barlow, soloist, gave the wedding music with Mr. Barlow singing "Because" and "O Promise Me" preceding the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used in the processional and recessional.

Attending the bride were Miss Vivian Moon of Beaumont, maid of honor, and Miss Margaret Ann Pierce of Belton, bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of aqua crystalette made princess style having deep V necklines and full ballerina length skirts. Their mating head bands were outlined with seed pearls and they carried bouquets of pink asters.

S. B. McLallen served his son as best man and groomsman was Dennis Lyle of Belton. Ushers were Oscar Baxley and James Me-Rae of Beaumont.

The bride's uncle, Charles Clayton Blosser of Beaumont, gave her in marriage. Her gown of white brocaded taffeta was fashioned along empire lines with deep scallops forming a decollete neckline which barely capped the shoulders above the short scalloped sleeves. The full flared skirt fell to waltz length and her costume was completed by an elbow length veil of illusion which draped in soft folds from a crown of lace encrusted with seed pearls.

She wore something old, new, borrowed and blue in traditional custom and her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

The bridal bouquet was of orchids and stephanotis topping a small white Bible.

The bride's mother wore a brown silk street length dress with brown lizard accessories and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a street length dress in navy sheer with pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

Reception Is Held

Following the ceremony a reception honoring the couple was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Blosser, uncle and aunt of the bride. Assisting in the house party were Miss Vivian Horton, Mrs. Morland George and Miss Ruth Bates of Liberty.

When the couple left on a short wedding trip to points in South Texas, the bride was wearing an imported Irish linen suit with black accessories and orchids from the wedding bouquet. They are now making their home at 402 Union Avenue.

Mrs. McLallen graduated from Hemphill High School and received her B. A. degree in speech from Mary Hardin-Baylor College. She was a member of Alpha Psi Omega, Pi Kappa Delta, and Historical Society, and was active in student government, serving as vice president last year. She was also elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Mr. McLallen is a graduate of Hereford High School and received a B. S. degree in Christian Recreation and Speech from Wayland Baptist College. He has done graduate work at West Texas State College in education. He is a member of the Thespian Club, Volunteer Mission Band, Lie Service Band and was also elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The bride plans to teach in the Hereford Public School system this coming session. Mr. McLallen will be completing work on a master's degree at West Texas State.
