

Douglas Finds Mexico City Tour Is A Dollar - Wise Buy By Train

Herefordites have been coming and going in every direction the past week!

next two weeks or so. They left Friday with friends from Amarillo, the E. G. Powells, for a vacation and sightseeing tour from Hereford to Mexico City. The group will drive to Laredo and proceed from there by train. They're really proud of the fact that it's only going to cost them in the neighborhood of 306 pesos for a round trip on the train—and with a compartment, too! That's only about $33 dollars in American money, so money-conscious Townsend, who is president of the Hereford State Bank, thinks the transportation cost is about the best part of the trip.

The group plans to journey in Mexico until Sept. 1, when they will return to Hereford. Mrs. Lola Blankenship certainly has been having fun! She returned home recently from a trip to southern California. There she visited her son, Charles, and family. Mrs. Blankenship attended the Queen for a Day program, and also had the opportunity to visit Hollywood. "But I didn't see the beauty and glamour I expected, and I was disappointed," says Mrs. Blankenship.

The Campfire girls also had lots of fun in beautiful Colorado last week. On their annual trip, the 19 girls and three counselors stayed at Camp Crockett for five days. More "adventuresome" souls ventured to go on an all-day horseback ride, and viewed the Colorado scenery from atop a horse.

The other half of the girls were scheduled to go on the all-day ride but their horse-wrangler guide was thrown from his mount, and the excitement of an ambulance—and possibly thoughts that horses throw people all the time—kept them from going, and they had other activities in the camp that day instead.

The first group wasn't quite so lucky after all; it rained on them! But the entire group reported a wonderful time.

Homer H. Hershey of Hereford has been named a distinguished student for the spring semester 1956 at Texas A. & M., it was reported from College Station recently.

Many Herefordites remember Cliett Suddeth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Suddeth. She and her husband, Maj. Henry Kight, who was project officer in the maintenance directorate at Hill A. F. B., Utah, has transferred to Columbus, Ohio. There he will take charge of the 213th USAF recruiting detachment. They have been at Hill AFB since 1953. His first position was chief of maintenance's production control division and later he was named project officer for Strategic Air Command support activities. Maj. Kight is credited with 186 combat missions accumulated while flying the "Hump" from India to China over the Himalaya Mountains.

Kight and Cliett and their four children, Jane, 8; Henry, 7; John, 5; and Mary Lou, 1; will all be in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Thompson and daughter, Ann, are now visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. Ada Brunson. They have been in Kodiak, Alaska, for the past two years, where Wade was stationed with the Navy.

After the first of September, the Thompsons will be stationed for a year in Corpus Christi. Mrs. Thompson is the former Kathaleen Brunson.

Visiting in the J. W. McIver home recently . . . Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Jenkins of Amarillo and their grandchildren, Suzanne and Stevie Rogers of Dallas . . . Mrs. Lloyd Jenkins and children, Vinced and Clay of Lubbock, Sunday; Lloyd Jenkins visited in the McIver home, and the family returned home Sunday afternoon.

An informal coffee was held in the home of R. W. Sparks after the Little League Mothers' game! It really was informal, too! The mothers were running around with dusty jeans and flapping shirts after their strenuous game, while the "dads" took life easy and visited in the living room. There was quite a conversation as to which side should have won the game, since members of both the "Red" and "White" teams were present at the coffee.

Irving Willoughby said he enjoyed the game so much because "it was just like old times—getting to boo the umpire!" Mrs. Sparks, who was batboy—or rather, bat-girl—declared she ran as much after the bats as the players did around the bases.

Attending the informal gathering were the Harold Mudrocks, Glenn Nelsons, Buck Hales, Irving Willoughbys, and R. W. Sparks.

Children Jackie, Jerry, and Joe Mudrock, Olen and Glenn Nelson Jr., Joe Mack Hale, Doris, Johnnie, and Donnie Willoughby, and Warren Sparks had a Coke party on the lawn and played games.

Mrs. Edwin Goodall and daughter Deborah left Thursday for their home in Breckenridge. They have been visiting the past ten days in the home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coneway.

The B. L. Wests have had their share of company too . . . visiting in the home during the past week have been the G. P. Baileys and children, Jim and Ronnie of Odessa; the T. U. Baileys of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Bailey and children, Terry, Rodney and Paula of Amarillo.

Mrs. Dora Inman was honored on her 80th birthday with a supper in the home of Woodrow Inman. Tuesday evening. She had a cake with 80 candles.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Inman and children, Robert, Larry, and Teresa, of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Inman and children, Sharon, Shiela and Tommy; Burke Inman and Linda, Sandra, and Burke Jr.; and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fields and Sandra Lynn, and Coelita Shelton.

Back from Colorado . . . Jackie Allison and Karl Hutchesen. They traveled through New Mexico and Colorado for five days, going over the Royal Gorge, the highest suspension bridge in the world; over Loveland Pass, which is 11,650 feet high, and they also drove over the "million dollar highway" in Durango, Colo. Jackie and Karl stayed Sunday night and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Matthews, of Denver, a brother of L. J. Matthews.

Off to Ruidoso for several days: Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Slagle and son Steven, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sims and daughter Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Bloek; Mrs. Gaylord Newell and daughters, Carol Ann and Marilyn; Mrs. Johnny Sims and son Taylor; and Mrs. Jack Bradley and daughter, Judy.

Jack Bradley and sons, Bob and Jim, are now in New Mexico and will join the group there. Gaylord Newell and Johnny Sims will join them Sunday at Ruidoso. The entire group of 20 people will be together until Tuesday when they return to Hereford.

Seems like we made a "boo-boo" in the column last week. The birth of a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noland was announced. Instead, it was the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newell. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Riggs are the parents of a new son, William Kevin, born July 26, in Oklahoma City, and the Charles Newells are maternal grandparents to William Kevin.

Our apologies, Mr. and Mrs. Newell, and Mr. and Mrs. Noland. We just can't seem to read our own handwriting!

Among those from Hereford attending the Greenbelt Game at Childress Friday night: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Renfro, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Merritt Sr. and son, G. C.; Billy Don Combs, Bill Knox, Wanda Moll, Gene Waits, and Walter Kaul. The reason! Wayne Smith, star HHS football player! He graduated this spring and plans to attend Oklahoma A. & M. College.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Hammons were visiting friends in Hereford Thursday evening. The Hammons now live in Lubbock, where he is employed by the Associated Grocers Inc. grocery chain. They movstudent's use. The office phones are for school messages, not personal, calls.

If Janie needs to talk to Mary to see what Sally is planning to wear to the party, she'll have to wait until after school hours. No students will be called to the phone during class except in emergencies. Students receiving messages during class will be contacted at the end of the period.

Parents should note that excuses for absence must be presented at the office on the day of return to class. The excuse must be dated, giving the reason for absence.

Truancy may be punished by more than deduction from grades. The student may be suspended from school for not more than three days and may be sent to a make-up period after school hours. A tornado drill will be introduced to the students this year, and fire drills will be held from time to time without warning.

Several minor changes have been made in the high school schedule for this year, and are explained thoroughly in the handbook.

Helpful information Also found in the handbook will be Hereford High School's code of ethics, student organizations and activities, and course offerings.

The book may seem to be dictatorial to several people, but it simply states the regulations of the school as they now stand.

The Handbook and Guide for Hereford Senior High School is merely a book of helpful information for students and parents, not a book of do's and don'ts!

Dr. and Mrs. Clyde Rush and children of San Angelo stopped here for a brief visit with friends Friday. They were enroute home from a vacation trip to Colorado points. Dr. and Mrs. Rush are former Hereford residents.

change was enacted by the 54th Texas Legislature in 1955 through passage of House Joint Resolution 11. The amendment would require "competent medical or psychiatric testimony" in determining the commitment of persons to mental hospitals.

Manford, a former member of the legislature and Speaker of the House, said the present commitment law is the only civil procedure in the state in which the persons involved cannot waive a jury trial.

"This has inflicted needless embarrassment and suffering on families of patients as well as individuals needing treatment," Manford said.

Passage of the amendment should relieve some of the anguish mental illness imposes, but will by no means deny a jury trial to any person requesting it, the hospital board chairman said.

tion far above earlier estimates of needs.

Morris Easley, president of the West Deaf Smith co-op, said he didn't expect the group to file any charges for damages. "We were so happy to get the water again that nobody thought anything about it."

Easley said he missed five days of pumping before switching his irrigation pump engine to butane.

He would not estimate how badly his crops were damaged but pointed out that "with lack of rain, we can't water fast enough, and when you miss three or four days of pumping it hurts your crop badly."

Ira Scott declared he for one isn't taking any more chances of gas line pressure failure. He had switched his wells to butane and said, "They will stay that way until I'm sure we'll have plenty of gas."

Scott said he missed two days of pumping and estimates damage to his crops as minor.

Most farmers in the affected area reportedly switched to butane at costs of about $300 per well unit. How many switched back immediately wasn't determined, but the price differential in the two fuels has been the reason for many spending hundreds of dollars to bring natural gas fuel to their wells.

ADRIAN NEWS

Roping Club Proves A Success

BY JUDY GRETCHEN PINNELL
 Every Tuesday and Friday night the town of Adrian becomes cluttered with horse trailers and cowboys. About sundown the lights go on, shining down on several cars lined up and down the fence of the rodeo arena. A calf is let out of the chute and instantly a horse is trailing him. The roper slings his lariat down around the head of the calf—maybe—and jumps off with his pig 'n string between his teeth to tie the calf.

But this isn't what it was like in the beginning. About four months ago, a group of rough-riding-rooting-tooting cowboys gathered out on the prairie and began to wonder if they might form a Roping Club. This would enable them to meet with other cowboys at regular dates and "rope that calf".

The prairie wind blew the news to the far corners of the county, until about every cowhand in the land was up in the air—ready for that club.

A few who had experience as such made their suggestions and the club was underway.

Name Leaders
 They met and made their selections of president, R. L. Pinnell; vice president, Skeet Fincher; secretary-treasurer, Billy Mac Briggs.

bought roping stock and feed. Arrangements were made for those other than members of the club to participate. But the members have top priority.

The arena, just east of town, was repaired and equipped with lights for night practice. After certain technicalities were taken care of, the club was organized. At the beginning, you would probably have had to stay a long time to have seen a lot of calves caught—but "practice makes perfect" and they are improving.

Accept Challenge
 This has given the boys something to gather for, and brings them a challenge.

During the past four months the club has had certain challenges from other clubs. The Adrian club has been successful; winning two match ropings against the Channing club and two matches from a group of Amarillo ropers.

A certain tribute can be given to those who have had the most to do with the organization of this roping club. Earl and Ray Brown, ropers since they were about knee high, have done much for the club by giving the boys pointers and instructions. Hats off to you, boys!

Fathers Help
 Many others, some fathers, have had experience at roping and have done a great deal to get the club on the road. A large per cent of the members are boys of high school age and, as of now, haven't done a lot of participating because it would make them ineligible to participate in school athletics.

World At Six
 Six years is the age that seems to bring the most changes to a person's life.

You no longer stay at home—you get to go to school. All excited—Carol Cullender celebrated her birthday in her home with her friends, Davey Grulhkey, Linda and Larry Pridmore, Marsha and Vicki Burns, Rita Speed; George, Dickie, Charles and Bobby Harwood; Linda Pinnell, Raymond Jones, Joyce Loveless, Mike Cullender, Dwayne Grulhkey, and Kathy Garrison.

With balloons hanging from the ceiling the children participated in "Pin the tail on the donkey". Linda Pinnell went away with the prize—a color book. An array of gifts were presented to Carol and refreshments of cake, ice cream and lemonade went to all.

Guests in the R. L. Pinnell home Wednesday and Thursday were her mother, Mrs. M. E. Wells; a sister and two children, Jo Hy Smith, Bruce and Harlan, all of Panna; and a niece, Jan Rusk, of Lubbock.

Visitors Noted
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cullender and family left Wednesday to visit his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cullender and family at Monahan, for a few days.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Grulhkey and family for the past week were her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Denny and Steve, of Los Angeles. They were on vacation and have returned home.

Announce Supper
 The Simms Family Supper will be held Aug. 26 at the community house. Everyone is invited. Bring sandwiches, cake, and coffee for your family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Pinnell and Linda have just returned from a vacation to the mountains of New Mexico. "Caught some fish!"

Bible Study
 The Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met Wednesday afternoon at the church. The Bible study was on the eighth through the 12th verses of Romans. Subjects, "What is New About a Christian?" and "The Relation of Salvation to Behavior" were conducted by Mrs. Ray Fisher and Mrs. Bob Caldwell. Those taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Bill Lewis, Mrs. Shag McGowan, and a visitor, Mrs. D. P. Doherty.

Bob Caldwell has been an instructor at the Producers Grain Co. school in Amarillo this week.

Back From Vacation
 Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Grulhkey and Davey returned from a vacation in California Monday evening.

Mrs. W. V. Tolbert from Vega visited Mrs. Bill Leslie Tuesday afternoon.

Visitors in the A. F. Roberts home this week are her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Estancia, N. M., and granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Benson of Yuma, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Cleer of King City, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Adams of Albuquerque. Mrs. Smith is in Deaf Smith County Hospital but is reported improving and expecting to be home soon.

Knights, Rocky's To Clash Today In Softball Playoffs

The Hereford Brand Sports

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By GIL CARLYLE

With the greatest football season in history just around the corner, the "grid scandal" cry has just about died out in major college ranks. The toll has been high though.

On the West coast, UCLA and USC were given heavy fines and placed on probation for "over-subsidizing" athletes. Up in the Big Ten, Ohio State has been declared ineligible to compete for the conference title because of "over-paying" athletes.

Down in the Southwest Conference, Texas A & M has been restored to normal after being on probation last season for illegal recruiting practices. Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant of the Aggies is to be commended. He took his punishment silently.

In the Pacific Coast and Big Ten conferences, coaches began screaming their heads off when they were detected violating conference codes. Many of the mentors yelled, "What about other schools in the conference, they're guilty too."

As a result of the West coast grid scandal, two fine All-American prospects reached different decisions after being declared ineligible for this year. UCLA's passing wizard Ronnie Knox decided to play professional football in Canada, leaving his college work unfinished. Turning down an attractive Canadian offer, USC's speedster Jon Arnett will complete his college career. Arnett was the boy who returned the opening kick-off 97 yards for a touchdown against UCLA last year. The play was called back as USC was ruled offside.

Doak Walker—three-time All-American at SMU—is still collecting awards. Although retired from the gridiron, Walker recently received the greatest honor ever bestowed upon him. He was named the outstanding college football player of the decade by Sport Magazine. Over 1,000 sports writers across the nation voted in the poll which selected the "Doaker" for the distinguished award.

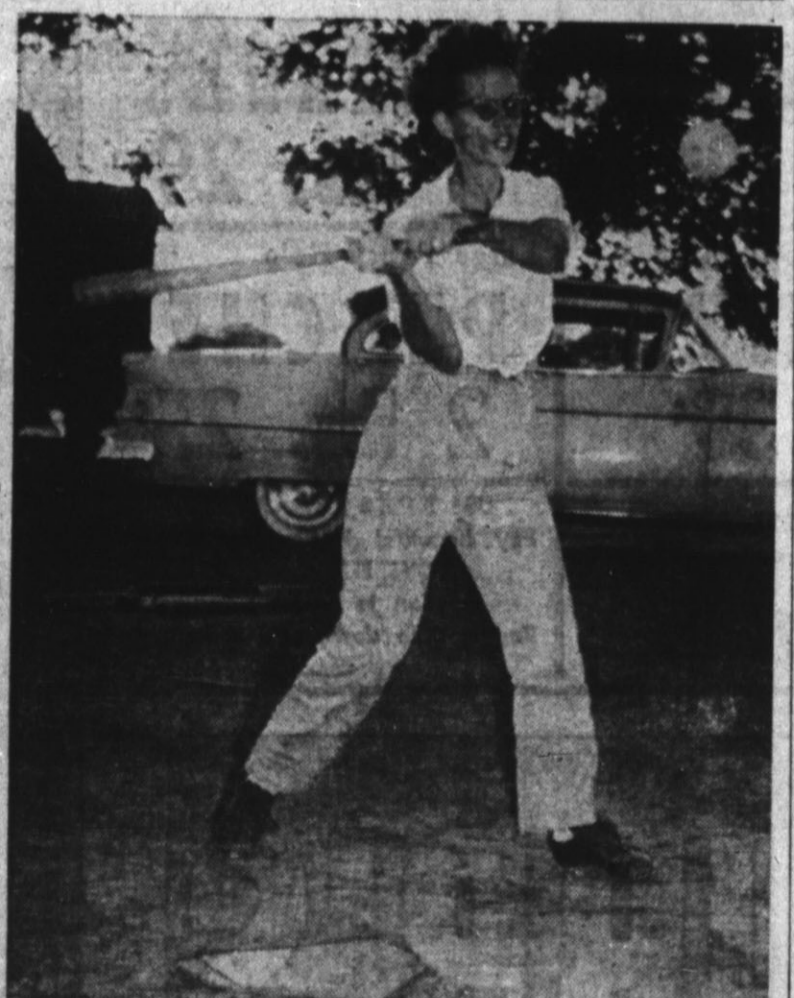

In 1950 Walker was the man professional scouts described as "being too small to play pro football." Walker proved the scouts wrong. As leading scorer for the Detroit Lions in his first season of pro football, Walker was named "rookie-of-the-year." He went on to take his place among the greatest of professional gridsters. Four of the six years he played with Detroit, Walker was named to the All-Professional team.

Street and Smith's Football magazine is on the newsstands. Going against most predictions, Street and Smith are picking Texas A & M to win the Southwest Conference championship. Many of the grid experts are naming power-laden TCU to repeat as champs of the SWC. Street and Smith may be right. A & M while on probation last season turned an old axiom around, "To the spoiled go the victories."

At the beginning of last season A & M was picked to finish last in the SWC standings. The Aggies finished in second place with six wins, two losses and a tie. A & M administered TCU's lone defeat of the season. The Aggies might just win 'em all this season. But in the mad-scrabbling SWC race, as usual, anything can and probably will happen.

The Hereford Softball League champion Knights of Columbus nine will clash with Rocky's Service Station team in a "sudden-death" post-season playoff game this afternoon at Veterans Memorial Park stadium, beginning at 2 p. m.

Ken Walterscheid will be on the mound for the Knights, opposed by Karl Hutchinson, ace hurler of Rocky's pitching staff. A four-year veteran of hurling in the softball league, Walterscheid was credited with eight wins during regular season play this year. Hutchinson won five contests for Rocky's.

Posting an 8-2 record, the Knights of Columbus were tied with Summerfield at the end of the regular season. In a single-game playoff, the Knights edged past a strong Summerfield team 7-4 to capture first place in the final season's standings in the Hereford Softball League.

Rocky's grabbed sole possession of the third slot in the final standings by bouncing over Piggly Wiggly 15-11 in a make-up game a week ago. Summerfield took second place in the final standings as a result of their loss to the Knights of Columbus. Piggly Wiggly copped fourth place.

A large gold victory trophy will be presented to the winner of this afternoon's affair. The game will be a seven-inning contest. Both teams are reported to be a full strength for the championship clash today.

Piggly Wiggly and Summerfield are scheduled to play for the second-place playoff trophy some night later this week.

IN TEXAS

Ducks To Storm Skies

AUSTIN, Aug. 18—Substantial duck flights will storm Texas skies again this fall, according to a symposium of Federal and State waterfowl authorities.

Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission, says that only early fall rains are needed to provide "a very good duck and goose season for Texas hunters."

J. R. Singleton, waterfowl specialist, returned from a Central Flyway Council meeting, with assurances from authorities on the nesting ground scene that "the excellent migration of last fall apparently will be repeated this year."

"The fine population that moved northward to the breeding areas last spring," reported Singleton, "has produced a satisfactory hatch when considering the outlook in its entirety."

But he said fresh water is needed to avert a repetition of recent dry years along the heavily populated upper coast when lack of rain caused most of the ducks and geese to concentrate in southern coastal regions.

Providing there are early fall rains in the Texas Panhandle, there will be good hunting in that area. An unprecedented number of waterfowl tarried on the High Plains last season.

Singleton painted a gloomy picture of present upper coast drought conditions. He said dry weather has cost Texas an estimated 80% of its native mottled duck population. Conditions now are even worse than in 1955. Singleton said as of Aug. 8, the Houston area is far drier. Last year in July, Houston received roughly ten inches of rain. For the same period this year, it got .63 inches.

"When water and food are in short supply in the upper coast where the hunting pressure is greatest," he said, "the waterfowl naturally move on southward along the coast until they find water and food in areas where the hunting pressure is comparatively light."

Water or not, field men already have recorded first migrating duck arrivals in the Panhandle. They were blue wing teal which usually arrive along the upper coast in about mid-August.

"Blue wings build up pretty fast in Texas after mid-August," said Singleton. "Much depends on the weather up north. Pintails begin migrating toward the coastal wintering grounds the first week in September."

Game Warden Tom Waddell at Eagle Lake, where a tremendous waterfowl concentration has developed in recent years, said he traditionally clocked the first blue wing arrivals "on Aug. 14". He said first geese arrivals were white-fronts.

Singleton said Canadas were the first geese to arrive in the upper coast although the average person considers the snow geese to appear first. "This," he said, "is because the snows are so easy to see."

Meanwhile, the commission awaits federal announcement late this month setting the waterfowl harvest regulations. The commission has suggested half an hour before sunrise on Nov. 2 for the season opener.

Little League Dads Will Play Benefit Game Friday

Musty softball gloves, bats and balls were dug out of closet and garage corners this week as Little League Dads began preparation for their Little League benefit game, scheduled for Friday night at the Little League baseball park.

Full-scale workouts won't get underway until Monday afternoon, but some of the fathers have already begun loosening up their throwing muscles. Official practice sessions will be held on the Avenue

I baseball diamonds, beginning Monday at 6 p. m.

Immediately after the Little League mothers' game on Tuesday night, managers of the four Little League baseball teams met with some of the Little Leaguers' dads, and proposed that the fathers play a game. Not to be outdone by the feminine class, the dads enthusiastically accepted the idea.

Two women umpires have already been selected. Ora Hale and Marty Gabbert. Managing the two "dad teams" will be Tommy Coffman for the Cardinal-Yankee father's team and Lynton Allred and Quite a situation. But Weaver wonders if he'll win any of the games, must less sweep through them all. "We're not deep enough," he comments.

But Weaver is glad "we don't jump into it right off and play them all" in speaking of the Southwest Conference. Along that line he's in a good position. The Red Raiders play three of the Southwest Conference teams this year, three next year, five in 1958, five in 1959 and the whole shebang in 1960. Tech certainly is being given enough time to get ready.

Weaver takes this view of the coming season and thinks these are the reasons he can't expect to claim those unofficial championships:

1. "Southwest Conference teams will be after us to show we shouldn't be in the conference."

2. Border Conference teams will be after us for the prestige that could come from beating a Southwest Conference team."

3. "And you know what Houston thinks."

He leaves it to your imagination about the latter. The imagination says Houston will want to beat Tech for several reasons, one because Tech got into the Southwest Conference and Houston didn't.

He's saying it in a jesting way, however. Nobody wants to do anything to make Tech look bad. It's just that in college football, where they're all amateurs, each team wants to beat the other, particularly if they are friends.

Lady All-Stars Will Collide With Dimmitt Dolls Tuesday

An outstanding array of women's softball talent will be on display Tuesday night at the Little League baseball park, when the Hereford Lady All-Stars collide with a strong feminine team from Dimmitt, the Dimmitt Dolls.

Following Tuesday night's game between the Little League mothers, a representative of the Dimmitt women's club challenged the Hereford ladies to a softball contest. The Hereford women accepted the challenge.

The Dolls are reported to be one of the strongest lady softball nines in the Panhandle. Organized in June, the Castro County team has played a regular schedule this summer.

During the season, the Dimmitt team has accumulated an impressive record of 18 victories against four setbacks in games with women's softball teams from Clovis, Childress, Farwell, Earth, Sudan and Plainview. Dimmitt's four losses were suffered at the hands of two teams, Childress and Clovis.

The Hereford team will be comprised of ten Little League mothers who played in last Tuesday's game, plus three who played on the Hereford Rambler's ladies' softball squad in 1955. Noreen Poarch has been selected to manage the all-stars.

Members of the Hereford team are Doris Hair, Mary Allred, Noreen Poarch, Lela Meharg, Nannette McMurray, Jean Baize, Monica Banner, Guy Carter, Bunny Watts, Wanda Riddle, Kathleen Paul, Evelyn Thompson and Nan West.

In preparation for Tuesday night's game, the Hereford ladies' squad held practices on the Avenue I baseball diamond on Thursday and Friday afternoons. A final workout is slated for Monday at 6 p. m.

Nan West, Noreen Poarch and Kathleen Paul were members of the Ramblers' team which was discontinued in 1952. At a tournament in Amarillo in 1951, Nan West was named to the tourney all-star team. Noreen Poarch received a place on a second all-star team at the same tournament. Kathleen Paul played on a softball team in Oklahoma City before moving to Hereford.

Tuesday night's game will start at 8 p. m. Admission will be 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. All proceeds from the gate will go to the Hereford Little League baseball fund.

Going Away Party For Mrs. Lumpkin

Mrs. Charze Burk and Mrs. J. V. Ferrin were co-hostesses at a farewell courtesy honoring Mrs. Wallace Lumpkin who, with her family, is moving soon to Whiteface.

Informal conversation centering around best wishes for the new home provided diversion. The honoree was presented with a going-away gift. Those attending were Mesdames M. A. Brown, Don Guseman, Floyd Brown, Glen Burrus, Charlie Hale, Elred Brown, Gariand Solomon, Jack Weaver, Jim Stocks, Ernest Brown, R. P. Miles, Hershel Burrus, the honoree and the hostesses.

Although it varies from year to year, Americans may have as much as 11 times as many colds in winter as in summer.

Well, the Democratic National Convention is past history and, like most people figured before it opened, the nominees are Adlai and Estes. Possibly the most notable event during the big show was the keynote address by Gov. Clement of Tennessee. A lot of people liked it, and a lot of people didn't like it—but everyone is bound to admit that the young man started people talking.

Republican reaction to his address was apparently widespread, and was summed up by the Wall Street Journal, spokesman for big business, in the following paragraph:

"CLEMENT. The boy orator surprised at least himself by not sweeping the convention off its feet and Gov. Clement into the Vice Presidency."

Dyed-in-the-wool Democrats, on the other hand, are saying that the boy wonder told the people some facts they have been needing to hear for a long time.

Due to excellent TV and radio coverage, this is the closest I have ever come to a national convention. The most amazing thing to me was the big stick wielded by the State of Tennessee. With only 32 votes, the Volunteers seemed to be on hand at every turn. Kefauver swung the deal for Stevenson; Clement made the keynote address, Gore and Kefauver are both out for vice president, and Kefauver finally cops second place. In addition, Tennessee was foremost in all of the proceedings and maneuvers; in fact, just about stole the show. At least they seem to have named both the presidential and vice-presidential nominees. Even Davy Crockett couldn't have done a more thorough job.

A GRASS ROOTS impression of national politics: The big shots and top brass seem to assume that the American people vote for the party, come hell or high water. The people, on the other hand, are voting more and more for the man. Franklin Roosevelt started and advocated this trend; it has been generally spread through mass education and improved means of communication. Maybe it is good. Maybe it is bad. At any rate, it is with us—and a few of the big guns are recognizing it. A good example was the selection of a people's choice candidate for veep. Welcome home to J. A. Loerwald, who has been in the Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo for several months. Mr. Loerwald is one of the few Spanish-American war vets who show up in the hospital. He is right happy to be back home, however, and is just about one of the finest old boys I ever knew.

Like the weather, everyone is talking about those holes which the current crop of locusts make when they emerge from the ground. I never saw anything like it. They will come up between bricks in the pavement, through thick caliche, and just about anywhere else you look. Ezra Norton and Joe Beyer killed 187 the other morning before breakfast, then gave it up as a bad job when they viewed hundreds of other locusts swarming in.

There is a rumor that these eggs were laid 17 years ago—and are just now hatching out. I know that there is a "17-year locust", but do we have the same variety? I also know that we have a goodly crop each and every year. How about it, some of you experts—and I don't mean Hugh Clearman. I'll take Jack McCracken's opinion, but anything old Clearman comes up with, I accept with two grains of salt.

Thanks to Bessie Patterson, who wrote an article some years back, and reports that the Bull Barn was dedicated Feb. 1, 1921, at the big Jones and Dameron auction. The breeders bought the "Bowe Barn" in 1919, then started tearing it down in June to be replaced with the Bull Barn, which is now being demolished. According to her report, the structure cost $18,000 when it was finished in 1921. Her information came from Mrs. L. R. Brady, and from early sale catalogs.

Meanwhile, Bill Dameron, son of the man who did much to create the building, is pretty excited over the birth of Wm. Dameron IV, who he refers to as "my new partner in the cattle business". The Dameron are making quite a production of the event with relatives from all over to help celebrate, including Dr. and Mrs. Nichols of Ft. Worth, Mrs. Carl Wallace—and Captain and Mrs. Bruce Wallace, just back from a tour in Germany.

The young man's two older sisters, Kerri 4, and Kim 2, are just as excited as the rest.

Roy Clark, Brand news editor, and his family are just back from a trip to Missouri, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Clark's mother. Roy blew out a tire in Canyon, got arrested for illegal passing in Oklahoma, and came near being demolished by a Cadillac in Illinois. He is fairly glad to get back home, it seems.

All of which goes for me, following a trip last weekend to San Angelo. It is so hot and dry down in that country that they are selling off their sheep and going more and more into the goat business. That is the truth. I did see a big road sign that was real clever, however; it read:

"Welcome Back Home! We spent many pleasant hours with your wife while you were gone." Then in smaller letters appeared the signature, "Radio Station KPEP, San Angelo, Texas."

Virgil Moore attended the same meeting. He swears he has gained one-half pound since moving back to Eastland. If true, this would be quite an accomplishment for the boy—but it just looks like another layer of padding added to the shoulders of his coat.

A reporter on the San Angelo paper told me that Billy goats were bringing up to $95 sales in the area. He said that the drouth, along with good prices on mohair, accounted for the top prices on breeding stock.

Midland was just as hot and dry. Folks down there are talking about going into the proposed Canadian River Water project, near Borger, and piping the water all of the way down there, which must be around 300 miles. They have plenty of oil, it seems, but drinking water is becoming a serious problem. One thing, though, they won't die of thirst. A fellow can always crank up one of his Cadillacs and haul in a few gallons.

Letters To The Editor

Bull Column, Hereford Brand. Dear Sirs:

I just returned from a two-week vacation to Kansas and Missouri. The only coffee between Hereford and Joplin, Mo., that was as good as Hereford put out was at Vinita, Okla., and the Corner Hotel in Joplin. How lucky the people are to have good coffee for a nickel and Free snow cones.

Rain was plentiful north of Joplin to Nevada and Eldorado Springs, Mo. The corn sure shows it around Nevada. The crops and grass show rain has been a big factor, which reminds me of a story about an old lady and her son who had their hearts set on a certain farm. They saw the real estate man, found out the price and came in the next day with a 3-gallon can. When the contents were counted, they were $300 short. The old lady said, "Son, we brought the wrong milk can."

E. R. Combs.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for publishing my letter to the voters of Deaf Smith County asking a big vote for our friend, Price Daniel. I am proud of that vote, but want to remind that it is very necessary for us to remember to vote again on the 25th. Mr. Yarborough has hired W. Lee O'Daniel's hillbilly band, hoping to get the voters to support him the next time. I am not acquainted with The Judge, but feel that we need Price Daniel "with a program rather than Yarborough with a grudge".

Very truly, F. H. Oberthier.

Dear Sir, I have steadfastly watched the procedures of the National Democratic Convention at Chicago with much interest and anticipation. However, as each day passed, issues debated and votes taken, my hopes faded into oblivion as Stevenson and Kefauver were elected into the coveted posts of President and Vice-President.

It appears to me, that out of all their great orative speeches, and all the good moral Democratic contenders the United States has, they could have elected two men in whom we the common people could place our whole-hearted trust and confidence. Instead, it turned out to be an ironic week of frustration and a Republican President for the next 4 years.

A dissatisfied Democrat, Don R. Glenn, Hereford

WARNINGS OF STORM

Two of the sounds most frequently heard around the American household at any time of the year, where there are little folks such as these, are those sounds that originate in laughter and tears. One is as spontaneous as the other, and as quickly vanished. These little tricksters are old heads at the game of tears, which is the most effective distress signal in the world. It is the first thing they do upon arrival and the last thing they are urged to stop every night thereafter. A lusty howl gets them anything they want, takes them anywhere they want to go, makes their dads and mothers frantic and turns the whole household into panic. Even a whimper can get them a meal on time, a ride in the car, or a bright new toy. When they gain their objective they turn off the faucet with ease—and smile. Then like opening a window on a bright spring day to let the sunshine pour in, the day is filled with laughter and all's well with the world.

Singing Adds to Picnic Fun

After a hearty picnic in the woods, at the lake or seashore, or a cookout at home, there is nothing that tops off the meal better than to sit around the campfire roasting marshmallows or nibbling other sweets and singing old favorite songs.

For top enjoyment, plan a simple picnic with nourishing foods that everyone enjoys. A variety of foods including hot dogs, hamburgers, cold meats or even some home fried chicken, sandwiches, salads, fruits and any number of many types of sweets for dessert can provide as balanced a meal as may be served from the dining room.

After your meal and picnic games such as croquet, baseball and horseshoe pitching you will find that young and old alike will enjoy relaxing and singing together well known songs such as Stephen Foster Melodies, Auld Lang Syne and other favorites.

Song sheets will help to make your group singing a success. You can get them for the asking by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to National Confectioners' Association, 221 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago 1, Illinois. The song sheets contain the words of over forty well known refrains.

Beauty At Home

Q. My face is showing increasing signs of dryness, and there are fine lines beginning to appear around my eyes, mouth and on my forehead. What can I do about this?

A. Buy yourself some lanolin-rich dry-skin cream, and apply this carefully every night, and leave on at least 20 minutes. Leaving a thin film underneath your makeup foundation is a very beneficial idea, too.

Q. Is there anything I can do about a mouth that droops at the corners?

A. Generally, the best corrective for this is to try to acquire the habit of smiling more often—and you can also try some facial exercises to correct that droop. This type of mouth can be turned up, too, by carefully painting your lip color upwards at the corners.

Q. What is a good after-shampoo rinse for hair that is fine-textured?

A. A stale-beer rinse is very good for fine hair, tends to give body to the hair, and leaves no odor. It should not be rinsed out of the hair—and be sure that the beer has been uncapped and allowed to

Frio Farmers Will Be Host For Tour

Two experts in the agricultural field will be speakers at a Soil Fertility meeting scheduled in the Frio Community school building on Tuesday, beginning at 10 a. m. Following the meeting, a farm tour will be conducted.

stand for at least 24 hours before using.

Q. How should bleached hair be shampooed?

A. Use great care, because this type of hair has a tendency to mat and tangle when wet. Wet with lukewarm water or tepid water, and use pure castile soap. Avoid matting by pouring the soap on very slowly, and always work with the hands under the hair, not on top in the usual way. Finish with a lemon or vinegar rinse. While the hair is still wet, apply a little lubricating dressing for greater manageability and ease in combing.

Q. What is a recipe for a sachet powder I can use in my bureau drawers?

A. A half-ounce of lavender flowers mixed with a half-teaspoon of powdered cloves.

Q. How can I make myself an oatmeal facial mask?

A. Make a paste of three ounces of oatmeal, the juice of one lemon, and some witch hazel. Apply to face and throat, and let remain for 30 minutes.

Q. What can I do if perspiration odor still clings to washable materials after they have been laundered?

A. Soak them for an hour or more in warm water containing three or four tablespoons of salt for each quart of water. Or, sponge the stained area with warm water containing a little vinegar, apply powdered pepsin, and work it into the cloth. Let it stand for an hour or two, keeping the spot moist, then brush off the pepsin and rinse by sponging with clear, warm water.

Q. How can I remove the traces of flakiness which have recently appeared on my skin?

A. Try mixing a little ordinary kitchen salt with your cleansing cream two or three times a week.

Dr. Al Pope of the Amarillo Agricultural Experiment Station will cover the subject on use of fertilizer in farming on the High Plains. Speaking on irrigation topics, George Bloch will discuss watering practices, selection of irrigation motors and pumps, well efficiency, soil water penetration and methods of determining soil, moisture amounts. Bloch is the Extension Irrigation Specialist for the High Plains.

Floyd Cole, Weldon Stephens and Jay Boston, farmers in the Frio area, will talk on their experiences in raising high yields of wheat and milo with proper fertilizer, water and good farming practice.

Castro County Agent Marvin Simms will speak on general farm management.

A free meal will be prepared and served by the ladies of Frio community in cooperation with the First State Bank of Dimmitt. All persons planning to be present for the noon meal are encouraged to be at the meeting by 10 a. m. in order that the ladies can be prepared to serve the number present.

After noon, a farm tour will start at 1:30 p. m. with the first stop at the Clark Andrews farm, two and three-quarter miles east of the Friona school. Andrews, in cooperation with the Amarillo Experiment Station, has a fertilizer demonstration including 14 different amounts and combinations of fertilizer on his milo.

Second stop of the afternoon will be at the Joe Scott farm, approximately 10 miles south of Hereford on Highway 51. On the Scott farm, a demonstration on pumping plant efficiency, water penetration and control of noxious weeds will be held. The tour will end about 4 p. m.

This farm tour is being sponsored by the Frio Community, Castro County Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service and the First State Bank of Dimmitt. All persons in Castro and adjoining counties are invited to attend the meeting.

POSTMAN NEEDS HELP
ROCK ISLAND, Ill. —Barking dogs bite postmen and Postmaster

John J. McCarthy aims to put a stop to it.

Two mail carriers were bitten by dogs and required medical treatment. This not only causes a loss of work days but is tough on uniforms.

Consulting with Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, Mc-

Carthy concluded that, despite field tests for preventing dog bites with chemical repellents, protective clothing, dog candy, water guns and hot sticks, the postman needs help.

He advised that persons should take steps to confine hungry dogs until mail is delivered.

It's a dear bargain when you carry automobile insurance in a company that isn't licensed in every state in the country and that can't serve you wherever you go.

We have a hunch you'd rather BUY FROM AN AGENT

Can Magic--Quick Fruit Platter

While we've usually plenty of fresh fruit, there are days and seasons of the year when the variety isn't all we could desire, so here's a hint from the country's biggest fruit growing area, Florida, for extending what fresh things we have on hand. Grand idea, too, for those times when company drops in and you haven't much in the fresh larder. It's a means of extending your fresh with Florida's fine canned grapefruit sections, so handy and economical.

Keep a can or two of the grapefruit sections in your freezing compartment and you can make this recipe do more than double duty. It can be salad, dessert, or first course with just the addition of a little fresh fruit in season and the turn of a can opener.

Frozen Grapefruit And Fruit Medley

1 can (1-pound) Florida grapefruit sections
Watermelon wedges
Honeydew melon slices
Cantaloupe slices
Fresh cherries, pitted and halved

Place unopened can Florida grapefruit sections in freezing compartment of refrigerator several hours or overnight. When ready to serve, prepare fresh fruit. Open can of frozen sections at both ends; remove contents in one piece. Cut into 4 slices; serve with fruit.

YIELD: 4 servings.

How Can I?

By Anne Hubby

Q. How can I prevent rugs from wrinkling?

A. Dissolve 1 part of common glue with 10 parts of warm water. Hang the rug over a pole and paint the wrong side of it with a paint brush dipped in the solution. Use the solution sparingly or it may soak through and show on the surface. Perform this outside where the rug will dry quickly.

Q. How can I paper whitewashed walls satisfactorily?

A. Wash the walls with strong vinegar before applying the paper. This will make the paper stick.

Q. How can I give handkerchiefs a faint, lasting scent of violets?

A. Break up one-fourth ounce oforris root in a muslin bag and put it in the boiler for a short time when boiling the handkerchiefs.

Q. How can I stiffen the brushes of the sweeper?

A. Take the brushes out of the sweeper, put a little common baking soda in some hot water and dip them in it several times. Let them dry in the sun.

Q. How can I keep the wires of a piano free from dampness and rust?

A. Tack a small bag of unslacked lime inside the piano, just under the cover; this will absorb all moisture.

Q. Should the oven be very hot when baking cakes?

A. In baking cakes, be careful not to have the oven too hot, or they will scorch, especially if the ingredients are rich. Rich cakes take much longer to bake than plain ones.

Q. How can I take proper care of the wash wringer?

A. When through using the wringer, take a piece of cloth and wet it with kerosene. Rub the rollers well and they will be as clean and white as when new. Repeat every week after washing.

Q. How can I loosen dirt when washing clothes?

A. On laundry day, if a tablespoonful of kerosene is added to each boiler full of clothes, it will help wonderfully in loosening the dirt and stains.

Q. How can I prevent eggs from bursting while boiling?

A. Prick one end of each egg with a needle before placing them in water. This makes an outlet for air and keeps the shells from cracking.

Q. How can I make a good cold cream?

A. Mix 2 tablespoonfuls of oatmeal, ½ tablespoonful of powdered borax, and ½ pint of rosewater. Allow this mixture to stand for two or three days, then strain and add ½ ounce of alcohol.

Q. How can I make celery tender?

A. Allow celery to lie in water for about seven or eight hours before serving and it will be very tender.

Q. What is a home remedy for proud flesh?

A. If proud flesh appears on a sore, sprinkle it twice a day with dry granulated sugar. This is a simple remedy which often cures quickly.

LEARN ALL THE FACTS, AND WE BELIEVE YOU'LL SAY:

New School Property Is Example Of Immediate And Long-Range Planning

"Everyone should serve at least one term on the School Board!"

This sentiment, generally found among persons who have done service on a school board, might well be classified as "more truth than poetry." The board member, in addition to a myriad of immediate operating problems, is also constantly faced with that of long-term planning. This dual type thinking, no doubt, is the one fact that gives the statement a ring of genuine truth.

Recent purchase of a 28-acre tract by Hereford trustees is a good example. Some people will be inclined to think that the board is over-emphasizing football but, had no arrangements been made to meet the demands of a growing system, these very same people would have been the first to criticize the board when the tax payers were forced to pay twice as much for the same tract in later years. Actually, when you look at the new school property from all angles, it appears that the school board exercised wisdom and excellent business judgment in the purchase. This is especially true in view of the fact that they plan to dispose of the Texas Avenue holdings.

THE 'HEREFORD PATTERN'

May Be Answer To Teacher Shortage

Beating the teacher shortage is a game which most superintendents are playing these days and, we are sorry to say, many of them appear to be coming out "second best."

Hereford, on the other hand, is fortunate. This is true, despite the fact that local pay scales and fringe benefits are frequently lower than other cities. The Hereford teacher list was released this week with a total of 118 instructors—and only 10 newcomers in the group.

In looking over the list, we have come to the conclusion that Hereford may have an answer to the nationwide problem, at least on a temporary basis. The answer is "Wives and Mothers," some attracted through economic need and others through a willingness to serve. In addition, it is well to note that the surface has hardly been scratched on the tremendous teacher potential possible from this source.

In addition to their sincere interest in doing a good job, the "Wife and Mother" teacher also offers the advantage of being more stable, more mature and thoroughly dependable. Hundreds of women hold teaching certificates, and many of them have had years of experience. A large number even report that they find themselves happier in doing a job for which they were trained.

Always, of course, the school system will have to import a few specialists, but the "Hereford pattern" in many ways affords food for thought on state and national levels. It is a by-product of mass education which, within itself, answers many a challenge heretofore hurled at the national system.

PERSONALITY PROFILES

Here's A Man Looking Ahead To Community Accomplishment

D. C. KINSEY . . . in the swing of things

Hereford's "Man of the Year", D. C. Kinsey this week was as usual, right in the swing of things. He's recovered from the surprise of receiving the Lions Club award—the presentation of which almost "floored him" during January's big Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Taking a few minutes out from his work at Kinsey-Roberson Buick, D. C. on Thursday put in a plug for a project he and many other civic leaders here see as a prime need of the community: A Youth Center.

"Either a center or some sort of building with supervised recreational facilities for youth is one of our most demanding needs," said Kinsey.

And with his record in civic work and current interests, Kinsey's support might prove the necessary stimulus to put into "concrete" form the project which is uppermost in the mind of many Hereford citizens.

The Kinseys moved to Hereford in 1942. He owned the Chevrolet house until 1954, when he and Bernard Roberson went into business together and are now co-owners of Kinsey-Roberson Buick.

Kinsey frequently takes time from his business for civic activities. He has served as city commissioner, as president of the Lions Club, president of the District Boy Scout Committee, and as a member of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

He is still a member of the Boy Scout District Committee, and is now vice president of the Llano Estacado Council.

A deacon in the First Baptist Church, Kinsey teaches a men's Bible school class. He is also a member of the Gideons International and an honorary "ranch hand" of Boy's Ranch.

This year's "Man of the Year" has served as president of the local Scottish Rite club; is a charter member of the local chapter of Texas Society of Crippled Children; past chairman of the Red Cross Chapter, and a 32nd degree Mason.

Between work, home, civic and social activities, he has little time for hobbies. "I like to hunt and fish, but I do more talking about it than the actual thing," says Kinsey.

Born in Olustee, Okla., in 1909, Kinsey was one year old when his family came to Texas. They moved to Hedley where he earned his high school diploma, the last of his formal education. Kinsey moved to Amarillo and was employed by the Plains Chevrolet Company for 13 years. He also met his future wife during this time, and they were married in June of 1937. Since moving to Hereford, he has kept a discerning eye on the community.

He likes the way the churches and schools have kept pace with the growth of the town, but would like to see more people take an active interest in both. From the commercial angle, Kinsey would like to see some type of small manufacturing companies operating in Hereford.

Along with his wife, Louise, and son Robert, now 16, Kinsey declares Hereford, "the finest place I ever saw!"

ALMOST HONORABLE

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP)—An "honor system" trial almost worked at a local ice plant but not quite.

There had been no lock on the plant's ice box for almost a year. A sign said "Serve yourself", and customers were expected to leave payment in a convenient cigar box.

Plant manager Locke M. Stuart sadly announced recently that the trial was over. He said that although about 75 per cent of the buyers left payment, more than 3,000 pounds of ice valued at about $30 slowly "melted away".

A few customers went out of their way to be honest, however. One elderly man without change left a $1 bill, then picked up his change the next day by describing how the bill was folded.

NOVEL RABBIT HUTCH

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—The Pennsylvania Game Commission reports it has found at least one way to put an old home to new uses.

Donald G. Gay, Susquehanna county game protector, reported coming upon a nest of young rabbits turned out their home by a passing plow. He secured an old snapping turtle shell, filled it with chaff and replaced the bunnies in their new hard-shell home.

Mrs. Rabbit cooperated, Gay reported. She stayed with her young until they were old enough to fend for themselves.

KEEP 'EM HAPPY

BLACKBURG, Va. (AP)—Be a friend to your hen—and get more eggs.

Agricultural officials here say there's such a thing as hurt feelings in the poultry world. So speak softly, act gently, and feed regularly. You can't expect as many eggs, they say, if you frighten the hens, handle them roughly, or feed at irregular hours.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Football Stadium Site Meets General Approval

What do you think about the new plans for relocation of the Whiteface football stadium? Do you think the new site is suitable for location of the community's next school—when the time arrives?

(Editor's note: Shortly after the announcement by the School Board of their purchase of land Northwest of the city for relocation of the Whiteface football stadium, Hereford citizens appear to be voicing unanimous approval of the new site.)

MRS. S. L. EASLEY

I think it is a reasonable idea. The congestion of traffic has been a growing problem in the last few years at the present field. You must look to the future and since football is for everybody, larger facilities must be provided. Also the new site will offer the opportunity for building a school in the West part of Hereford.

MRS. DAREL HARKINS

I think the relocation of the football stadium is a good idea. I also believe the new site will be an ideal location for a future school building.

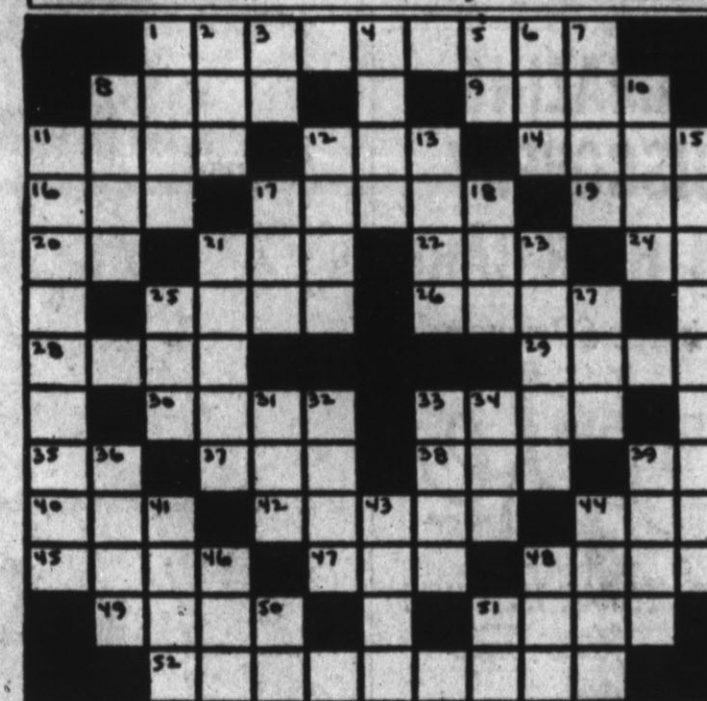

GLEN W. NELSON

I think the relocation of the football field is a good idea. Especially since the parking facilities are not adequate at the present location. I also believe attendance at football games is going to be larger since Hereford is in class triple-A now in regards to the new site as a location for a new school, I think it is a good one.

DON LITTLE

I think if ample parking space will be provided at the new location, then the football stadium should be moved. I think the new site would be a fine place for a new school building.

HALL WILL DOUBLE AS COMMUNITY CENTER

Dimmitt's American Legion voiced whole-hearted approval of a motion to begin immediate construction of its new building at a Monday night meeting. This approval committed the Legion to a $5,090 construction bill plus $375 for city property. This brings the total to $5,465, just $45 short of the entire Legion Building Fund. Additional revenue will have to be raised to bring in a total of around $8,500 to complete the building, it was estimated. The additional revenue needed is for a 20x80 feet concrete tile lean-to adjacent to the Martin steel building, and miscellaneous plumbing, fixtures, wiring, and other necessities. The building has been committed to the use of non-profit civic meetings, and for use in local youth activities. In addition to being a Legion meeting hall it will serve, in effect, as a community center.—THE CASTRO COUNTY NEWS.

AUDITORIUM HAS NEW SOUND SYSTEM

Installation of a thousand-dollar sound system for the Canadian High School auditorium has been completed, and the system will be introduced to the public on the night of Sept. 6 when the Canadian Curtain Club presents its first play of the new season, a three act comedy called "Rest Assured." The sound system is being presented to the schools by the Curtain Club, and proceeds from the September play and others to follow will be used to pay for the installation. The system consists of six high-fidelity microphones, suspended in two rows over the stage and concealed from the audience; and twelve speakers distributed around the auditorium, under the balcony and in the balcony.—THE CANADIAN RECORD.

$15,000 CITY DEFICIT LAST YEAR

The Spur City Council has released for publication this week a consolidated profit and loss statement for the city for May 1, 1955 to April 30, 1956. This statement shows the city operating at a $15,034.39 deficit during the fiscal year. Of this deficit, the hospital accounts for $10,034.45. The water fund showed the largest profit of the year, netting the city $9,724.29. The electric department showed a profit of $1,069.49, and the gas department showed a deficit of $1,835.29. Compared with the budget set up for the city last June by ex-Mayor Walter Gruben and the city council, the electric fund fell shortest in meeting expectations. The budget anticipated a profit of $18,337 on a gross revenue of $78,200. The actual gross revenue was $74,481.88. The 1954-55 consolidated statement showed a net deficit of $13,098.74.—THE TEXAS SPUR.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm has been listening to the national convention, but apparently not closely enough, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I have been following the national political conventions pretty close lately but in between major speeches and during recesses I've been keeping some newspapers handy to brush up on my mental work, and the other day while the delegates were recovering from a speech solving the farm problem and before they settled down to hearing the foreign situation taken care of, I flipped through a paper and ran into an article that said that in spite of the drought in many areas the nation's farm surplus will double in the next ten years.

If that's true, and despite the drought I notice the country is going to produce about as much this year as it did last year, then the problem of what to do with surplus farmers still remains.

I have seen several answers to this problem, but haven't made up my mind.

For example, one expert says farms should be taken out of politics.

Another says they should be taken out of production.

The only trouble with these two solutions is that they won't work. Trying to take the farm problem out of politics is sort of like trying to take Congress out of existence. And trying to take the farm out of production is sort of like trying to teach a cow to eat up to your property line and not step into the adjoining pasture when the fence is down. You can take nearly any given farmer out of farming and make a barber or a grocery clerk out of him, but when he quits somebody else moves in, and production stays the same, maybe improves a little if the farmer who quits is no better at producing than I am.

To tell the truth, and I don't want this to get around to the politicians as I like to see something in all platforms about the farm problem, it's sort of like seeing your own name in the newspaper, it doesn't mean anything but it reads good, but as I say, to tell you the truth, I don't think there is a solution to the farm problem. Eliminating the farm problem is about like eliminating the tax problem, or the problem of eventually needing a new car. All such problems are here to stay.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

He Put His Farm Building To Work

Nebraska farmer Dan O'Connell saved $1,000 last year just through use of the repair shop section of his Quonset.

Multi-use of his steel farm building has paid many welcome dividends to Dan O'Connell, hog and grain raiser of Holdrege, Nebraska.

Dan, who is justly proud of the fine Phelps County hams he raises, has put his 32' x 72' Quonset to work for him by taking complete advantage of the building's versatility. Here are some of the uses to which he puts his Quonset: machinery and equipment storage, farm service and repair center, hog shelter, grain-drying, grain storage, feed, seed and hay storage, paint-spraying, etc. But let Dan tell it in his own words:

"I've found my Quonset a genius for saving money. I use it chiefly for storage of my machinery and as a repair shop, but I can convert a section of it quickly and do my own grain drying.

"When I have an over-run of hog production, I can find plenty of space for extra pens. And speaking of space, when emergencies come up there's more than enough room for several loads of hay and grain.

"Because the building is so adaptable to any type of storage, it's possible for me to take advantage of better prices and delivery services on feeds and seed.

"During slack season and stormy weather I'm able to do all my machine repairs and spraying in the shop section—in that department alone last year I saved about $1,000 for myself and my neighbors."

Additionally, Dan uses the shop section of his Quonset (made by the Egan-Steel Corporation) to make many things for his home. A further economy is the money saved by giving his machinery and equipment the best protection there is—steel shelter.

DODGERS SWITCH ENTIRE OUTFIELD

BROOKLYN, N. Y. (AP)—An example of the powerful bench and the versatility of the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers came about in a 10-5 slugfest against Chicago when Jack Robinson, playing first base, twisted his neck.

Robinson was put on first base when Rocky Nelson was benched.

MIDLAND, Mich. (AP)—Whoever stole 34 flags from the greens at the municipal golf course finally returned them by mail to the city parks director.

A note signed "Your Pals" said, "Thanks for a lot of fun this year and last. Hope we didn't hurt them too much." Golf course officials said the flags had been freshly washed and ironed.

MOVIE NEWS

'Toy Tiger' and 'Anything Goes' Are Family Type Movies At Star

TOY TIGER
One of the most delightful movies of the month for adults and children alike will be "Toy Tiger," a comedy starring Jeff Chandler, Laraine Day, and Tim Hovey. Tim is a fatherless little boy sent to a boy's school by his mother, Laraine Day, who is a big wheel in an advertising agency. Tim wants a father so badly that he invents one—and then has to produce him for the benefit of some skeptics at his school. This movie showing at the Star Theatre Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday will be enjoyed by the complete family.

ANYTHING GOES
Bing Crosby and Donald O'Connor star in the laugh filled, song and dance comedy of "Anything Goes," showing Wednesday and Thursday at the Star Theatre. Bing is a popular musical star, who teams up with Donald for a fourth coming musical show. Bing is to find a lovely girl, Mitzi Gaynor, find a leading lady during his European vacation and Donald also goes abroad. Bing finds Mitzi Gaynor in England, and O'Connor signs up Jeanmarie in France, unaware that Bing has already signed up Miss Gaynor. The duplications are discovered on the boat trip home, and that's when the trouble starts! Among the laughs you'll hear: songs such as "It's De-Lovely," and "Blow, Gabriel Blow."

TO HELL AND BACK
Back again on the Hereford theatre screen is "To Hell and Back," the true-life story of Audie Murphy. The best-selling war biography traces Audie's life from a youngster on a poverty-stricken farm in Northeast Texas right up to a memorable day in June, 1945, when Murphy received the Congressional Medal of Honor. Marshall Thompson, Charles Drake, Gregg Palmer and Jack Kelly are featured in the movie. "To Hell and Back" shows Sunday and Monday at the Tower Drive In.

DOUBLE FEATURE
Doris Day and Frank Sinatra are "Yong At Heart" in the movie showing Wednesday and Thursday at the Tower. This is the story of three sisters, who are musically inclined girls, pride of their spinster Aunt Jessie (Ethel Barrymore). The girls are swept by a wave of excitement as Gig Young, famous Broadway composer, visits their little Connecticut town. Doris Day, the oldest sister, and Gig are attracted to each other, and when he leaves, he presents her with a beautiful bracelet, and they are making wedding plans. Frank Sinatra appears on the scene, and plans go astray as Doris Day falls in love with him. Also showing on the same program is "Black Pirates," starring Lon Chaney and Anthony Dexter.

Removing Kalsomine

Dampen the surface thoroughly with water and then brush off the kalsomine with a stiff brush. If the water does not soften the kalsomine sufficiently, add a very small amount of hydrochloric acid to it; but in that case, the wall must be washed afterwards with clear water to remove the acid.

Steaming Eye Glasses

Moisten the tips of the fingers and rub them over a cake of soap, then over both sides of the lenses. Follow by polishing in the usual manner, and your eye glasses will not steam.

Rust

A remedy that does not often fail to remove rust spots is lemon juice and salt rubbed on the stains

then place the article in the sun. Fruit Cake

When making fruit cake save a little of the plain batter to spread on the bottom of the pan and on the top of the fruit batter. The surface of the cake will then be smooth and there will be no fruit sticking to the pan and burning on top.

Stubborn Drawers

Drawers will not stick if floor wax is rubbed on the slides and also on the drawers. Polish well, because unless rubbed in thoroughly, the wax forms a sticky covering.

When cleaning the windows in freezing weather, use a cloth moistened with kerosene, instead of water.

Some children can not use a pen without getting a good bit of ink on their fingers. If this is the case, it would be wise to invest in

BETHANY, W. Va. (AP)—Bethany College quarterback Max Homer has been suspended for taking his car to school. The sophomore was third ranked nationally by the Athletic Director John Knight said Homer failed to keep his car off campus as required at Bethany.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

Choose A Grass To Fit Needs, Is SCS Advice

By Jim Wiman
A lot of grasses have been planted in the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation District since it first was organized and began suggesting grass as a soil conserving crop. Many who planted them, did so hoping they would find an easy solution to a grazing problem or a grass that would give a quick answer to a blow problem on a piece of land that moved with the wind. In some cases they have been disappointed because they were expecting too much. In other cases, wrong varieties were used or proper land preparation was not made.

We of the Soil Conservation Service have a feeling sometimes when we're trying to influence a farmer to plant a given grass for a given purpose, that he's afraid we're talking only what we've heard. It's real convenient at such times to be able to cite plantings locally that will tell the story we're trying to get over. Often we point to George Warner and the work he's doing with grasses. Warner is one of the best qualified men in the state on the subject of grass. His farm west of Summerfield supports a variety of grasses. He has been kind enough to permit us free access to the plots. It's—much easier to show a man what the grass looks like and how it grows than to tell him.

Warner is primarily a seed producer but he's careful to use only grasses that have high forage value. Blackwell switchgrass, Kaw big bluestem, weeping lovegrass, Indian grass and Tuscon sideoats gram are some of the grasses he grows. None of these require large amounts of water but will benefit from one or two irrigations per year even when rainfall is normal.

Usually when we're helping a man develop a conservation plan for his farm, we find at least a portion of a field that is too steep or too shallow to be given the same treatment as the rest of the field. Grass often is the answer. A few days ago we were visiting with Carrol Newsom, southeast of town. He had just such a problem. Steep land occurs on a relatively small area up from a lake. We suggested grass might be used. Newsom likes the idea so we're taking him to see for himself which kind he may choose to use. If he doesn't see all he wants to at Warner's, we can take him to Jack Messer's planting at the west edge of town or to Max Drever's Caucasian bluestem at Westway or Raymond Higginbotham's weeping lovegrass north of town. If he were interested in a dryland planting we could take him to see Jimmy Durham on the Eskimo Ranch east of town or Robert Wagoner or Tom Fields up towards Adrian.

In short, a man need not experiment to grow grass. It's just another crop and should be look-

Sandwich Loaf For Hot Weather

Cucumber Sour Cream Frosting is the perfect summertime topping for a sandwich loaf made with a combination of your favorite sandwich fillings. Prepared in advance and stored in your refrigerator it is easy to serve to family or friends. Garnished with cucumber rings with crispy carrot sticks and served with potato chips, dill pickles, iced tea or coffee and something sweet for dessert, a complete meal is on the table in a matter of seconds.

Preparing a sandwich loaf is simple indeed, even though when finished it looks like a picture! All you have to do is make up two or three of your favorite sandwich fillings. About 1 cup each is the right amount. Chicken salad seasoned with a dash of sage—egg salad with ripe olives and seasoned with savory—baked beans with finely chopped dill pickles are always appealing. Also, any of your favorite cheese spreads may be used. Remove crusts from 1 loaf of unsliced bread. With sharp knife slice the bread lengthwise into 4 or 5 even slices. Place bottom slice of bread on serving platter. Spread lightly with softened butter. (This prevents the filling from soaking into the bread). Cover with sandwich filling spreading it evenly over entire slice of bread. Butter second slice of bread and place it, buttered side down on filling. Repeat, using a different sandwich filling for each layer, until all slices of bread are used. Frost with cucumber sour cream frosting and store in your refrigerator until ready to serve.

Cucumber Sour Cream Frosting

- 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatine
- ¼ cup cold water
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- ½ to 1 teaspoon seasoned salt or ¼ teaspoon salt, dash of pepper
- ¼ teaspoon paprika
- 1 cup of sour cream
- ½ cup top milk
- 1 cup finely chopped cucumbers

Soak gelatine in cold water 5 minutes. Dissolve over hot water. Blend together all ingredients except cucumbers. Add dissolved gelatine. Chill until firm. Beat until light and fluffy. Fold in finely chopped cucumbers.

SWITCH GOLFER

SHARON, Miss. (S)—Switch hitters in golf are rare but 15-year-old Dick Wright is more than rare—he is in a class by himself.

He plays his woods lefty, but switches to the right side for his irons—except No. 5 and No. 9—and when he reaches the greens he putts lefty.

The Sharon Country Club caddy shoots a pretty good game too.

ed on as such, whether he grows it for its grazing value, for seed, as a soil condition crop or to cover a piece of shallow land, there's a grass that will do the job.

despite, or because of, his switch hitting.

TUB BOAT

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (M)—Rub-a-dub—a man in the tub.

That's the way Maysville tailor Walter G. Austin does his fishing. His craft is a huge tractor-tire inner tube that encircles a No. 3 washtub, just the right size for Austin.

An ardent fisherman, he devised the craft in order to get to many hard-to-reach but choice fishing spots along the Ohio River.

The American Bible Society distributed 14,918,353 volumes of scripture in 1955.

Her Point Of View

BY PARDY LINER

Did you ever notice how the stay-at-home in your block always seems to know everything that's going on? I've been a stay-at-home this summer but the news has sort of slipped me by. However, I did hear that Edna and Glenna Gault are back from Idaho.

They slipped off soon after Layle's wedding to take Edna's mother home and to spend a couple of weeks visiting friends and relatives. Gayle and her husband, incidentally, arrived in French Morocco before they were scheduled to leave the U. S. and just about the time Howard and Edna were working up to a good worry about the long trip, they received an "arrived safely" message. Texas is everywhere. One of the first couples Gayle met in French Morocco was from Lubbock.

Bessie Patterson has been having house guests this summer—brothers and sisters and nieces. Bessie has four brothers and five sisters scattered over the United States and it's been more or less a matter of course for four or five of them to gather at Bessie's. Sister Lillian Blevins has been here from California with her husband and three daughters for several weeks. Other brothers and sisters come and go. It's been a continuous houseparty.

Sun Love

We hear that David, the two-year-old son of the Wayne Thomases, has learned to undress himself. The only thing is, he is not always particular about where he sheds his clothes. He really prefers the neighbor's sidewalk. Well, David, more power to you. We think summer is too hot for clothes, too, and if we were two years old we'd shed them just as soon as we got out of Mommy's sight, too.

David is a real nice boy. Not long ago while he was playing around, he saw a puddle of water on the sidewalk. He stopped, looked serious, and muttered to himself, "ba-a-a-d" boy.

Freda Fuller had an interesting trip this spring to New York. She visited her son Varian Jay and his family. Anne, the V. J.'s four-year-old daughter, has a baby brother.

Freda was gone about eight weeks. She visited relatives in Chicago on her way up. She took in Washington, D. C., and other points of interest, including her childhood home in Virginia. Freda still likes Texas. So does Varian Jay. He'll be back in September to live in Texas. Dallas will be his home.

Barefoot Boys
Some time ago Jimmie Gillentine went to some length talking about how he had to go barefoot until he was half grown, and where were the good old days of barefoot bliss, or something like that. Someone should tell him to open his eyes. It might be interesting to him to count the bare feet running around. These days it's nothing to open a front door and fall flat over rows of empty shoes. Every chair at our house has shoes parked somewhere under or around it. Ruth Muse, Laura Milburn, La Verne Clay, Gladys Cavness, Tessie Barnett and Mary Thomas all like bare feet. Billie Slagle and Mozelle Childers do, too. Emmet Milburn and Earnest Langley think better when they have their shoes off. Jay Barnett is a barefoot boy.

Among the teenagers—well, very few of them wear shoes except to church and school. Even, or I should say, especially, when dancing they are minus shoes. Of course, this could be for safety's sake.

Sign of the Times
They tell me that Bess, Paula, and Charlotte Moore have gone to Red River for a week. Gene, Joan and Scotty will join them for the weekend. The Emmett Milburns chose Ruidoso for a few days' vacation. They were accompanied by their son Nick and Ted McWhorter... which reminds me. Did you notice your paper being delivered last week by a chauffeured Cadillac? That was Nick Milburn substituting for the regular paper boy. The chauffeur was Emmett. This trip to Ruidoso was probably to help Emmett get caught up on his sleep. Paper boys do have to rise and shine.

Wee Hours Note
Speaking of rising and shining—have you ever been to a come-as-you-are party? Now, I don't mean one of these fancy affairs where you are warned in advance that you are going to be picked up some time soon. I mean an honest-to-goodness knocking the door down at 4:30 or 5:00 o'clock in the morning affair where an arm reaches around the door and drags you to a waiting car full of just-out-of-bed people who were waked from sleep and not allowed to put anything on or take anything along except maybe dentures. Your daughter probably has been.

I know a few Mamas who have been, and believe me, a little powder and a little paint really are worth the investment. Marye Fraser, Frances Block, Dixie Bell Sims, Lois Moore and Laura Milburn will probably be sleeping with their best housecoats handy for a while.

Eula Lee Cave, Grace Easley, Marie Gunter and Edna Gault must have had their goods locked and so stalled for enough time to get themselves fixed. Imogene Wills, Catherine Benefield, Bess Moore and Margaret Witherspoon were pretty horrible sights. They wouldn't let me get my glasses, but it is just as well because I saw just about as much rumpred hair, bleary eyes and unglamorous night wear as I could stand on an empty stomach. It was fun, tho. We learned something too—It's light at five o'clock in the morning. I have learned something else

BRAND BABIES—The winnah... by a knockout! The "winnah" is Rocky Reno Sparks, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sparks. He will be two years old in September and weighs 32 pounds. The brown-eyed tyke is a true sportsman; he likes to box, be a cowboy and ride his rocking horse. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hamby, and Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Sparks of Pampa.

That is a great comfort to me. I think a great many of you will get some satisfaction out of knowing it too. For years I've had an inferiority complex about my two-fingered typing. I have just learned that the inventor of the typewriter INTENDED it to be used just as I do—with the hunt and peck system using only the index fingers. You people who are so smug about your touch system are the ones who are out of line. Say no more to me about it. I believe in doing things the way they should be done. And who should know better than the inventor?

Did you ever see such a short summer? I haven't even planted my petunias. Just last week I dug out my last summer's sun dresses and now they tell me it's time to buy fall clothes—oh, well, at least I got out of one chore. Putting last winter things away. I am now ready for fall fashions—last fall's fashions, that is.
