

Stockman Conciliatory Before Budget Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democrats say President Reagan must back up budget director David A. Stockman's conciliatory comments if there is to be any bipartisan revision of Reagan's fiscal 1983 budget.

In an appearance before the House Budget Committee, Stockman indicated

Wednesday that the president may be willing to reconsider his previous refusal to raise taxes or cut the 18 percent buildup in defense spending called for in the administration's deficit-ridden $757.6 billion spending plan.

Stockman told the panel: "I believe this administration and I think this president will look very carefully at a good-faith, sincere effort on the part of the responsible leadership of Congress...to propose something different."

Rep. James R. Jones, D-Okla., the committee's chairman, welcomed Stockman's statements as "progress — progress and hope."

"I thought his testimony by itself did give running room to allow a compromise to emerge," Jones said after the hearing. But, he added, "It certainly has quite a way to go yet."

Democrat after Democrat — and even some Republicans — let Stockman know how unpalatable they found Reagan's recommendations.

Rep. Leon E. Panetta, D-Calif., told Stockman: "I don't think there's any question up here that this budget isn't going to fly as presented to the Congress. I think anybody who thinks that's the case is nuts."

Later, Panetta said in an interview that the clear message he got from Stockman's remarks "is one of conciliation. He certainly is not shutting the door."

But Panetta added: "There's no question that unless the White House is willing to back up Stockman's statements on conciliation, the budget process isn't going to go very far this year....The signals have to be much clearer from the White House...if we're going to get some real movement."

Stockman told the panel that Reagan feels the tax code "isn't chiseled in stone."

He pointed to the billions of dollars in tax breaks Congress added to the basic Reagan plan last year and invited Congress to "take a look" at revenues. But he warned against trying "to reverse the important and fundamental changes we've made" in personal and business tax reductions.

As for defense, Rep. Les Aspin, D-Wis., asked whether the president would accept a cut of $10 billion from the $221.1 billion he requested for the Pentagon. Stockman didn't reject the idea outright. Instead he said, "There may be room for savings which we haven't found or that you may want to propose."

A House Republican source, who asked not to be identified, questioned whether Stockman's testimony was "a clear signal that the gates are open."

UAW Leaders Approve Contract

CHICAGO (AP) — Ford Motor Co. is a step closer to gaining $1 billion in givebacks after leaders of the United Auto Workers' Ford locals approved a new contract, but a union dissident says he hopes to convince rank-and-filers to kill the pact.

The UAW's Ford council voted overwhelmingly Wednesday to recommend that Ford's 170,000 union workers ratify the concessions agreement, Donald Ephlin, UAW vice president and head of the Ford department, said.

Only 12 delegates at the Ford council meeting voted against rank-and-file ratification of the pact, with 132 in favor, Ephlin said. He noted only 144 of the council's 225 members, all leaders of Ford locals around the country, attended the three-hour convulse.

One of the 12 voting against the pact was Al Gardner, president of Local 600 at a Ford tool-and-die plant in Dearborn, Mich.

"These concessions are not going to save jobs or lower car prices for the consumer," Gardner said Wednesday.

"We're just giving the corporation a billion dollars... It's ludicrous," Gardner said. "I think I have a better

Chamber's Women's Division Efforts Recognized By Coffee Blood Bank

Bobby Thomas, Community Relations Director for the Coffee Memorial Blood Center in Amarillo, was in Hereford yesterday for an appreciation luncheon on behalf of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsors a blood drive here every fourth Wednesday.

Thomas presented Pat Clark, chairman of the blood drive committee, and Carolyn Canon, president of the Women's Division, with an engraved plaque which recognized the Women's Division for their hard work, devotion, and dedication to the monthly blood drive.

The first award of its kind received by the Women's Division since it began coordinating the blood drives in 1975, the plaque stated that Hereford residents had given 3,731 pints of blood between 1975 and 1981.

Thomas expressed gratitude to all Hereford residents who have donated blood, saying that the community could be proud of the fact that it more than met the needs of local residents during the past year, something very few communities are able to accomplish.

According to Thomas, less than six percent of the American population are regular blood donors. In order to encourage more people to donate blood, local volunteers will be beginning the "Quiet Hero" campaign, in which cards will be distributed around town which ask people to make a commitment to give blood at least once a year, if they are able.

In conclusion, Thomas encouraged volunteers to keep up the good work, saying that they can be proud of what this community has been able to accomplish.

Mike Carr, Executive Vice-President of the Chamber of Commerce, presented the appreciation plaque to Mrs. Canon before those gathered at the Chamber of Commerce Fun Breakfast this morning, and expressed his appreciation of the efforts which the Women's Division has made.

After 24-Hour Siege

Quarrel Over Dogs Leaves 3 Dead, 1 Wounded

By NORM CLARKE
Associated Press Writer
CHULA VISTA, Calif. (AP) — A quarrel over neighborhood dogs apparently provoked a four-hour sniper siege at a trailer park that ended with three people dead and a police officer seriously wounded, police say.

Police, firing a barrage of tear gas, stormed a mobile home Wednesday evening and found a 57-year-old retiree lying in a back bedroom, uninjured but semi-conscious and clutching a cocked pistol, authorities said.

Alys E. McNair, described by a neighbor as "a loner who never gave anyone any problems," was rushed to a hospital Wednesday night and listed in poor condition, officials said. He was thought to be suffering from a heart condition.

At the same hospital lay an officer who was struck in the neck by a bullet in the shooting spree, which also left another resident injured at the Mountain View Trailer Lodge.

"I heard a couple of shots," said Janet Andrews, 25, who suffered arm wounds from shattered glass. "I looked out the window and saw two people lying on the ground, and then shots hit the car and one hit the window and hit my arm. I'm not hurt real bad."

McNair was captured after authorities fired about 20 tear gas canisters into his trailer, said San Diego County sheriff's spokesman Capt. Jack Drown. There were no negotiations.

In McNair's trailer, homicide officers found a .33-caliber hunting rifle, a .22 rifle and .38 and .22-caliber pistols along with ammunition, said Sheriff John Duffy.

"It looks like it was a neighborhood quarrel that's been brewing about six months," said sheriff's spokesman Bert Moorehead. He said the squabble apparently centered on dogs owned by one of the victims.

A witness also told police that there had been past troubles between neighbors about noisy dogs.

The dead were identified as Monique Gerard, 23, shot in the chest while moving her belongings out of the trailer park; Cesar Escutia, 36, a bookkeeper in nearby National City; and Escutia's mother, Gloria DeCastro, 62, who lived alone in the trailer next to McNair.

A witness said Escutia, one of his mother's two chihuahuas cradled in his arms, was shot dead as he walked to his car from his mother's trailer. His mother was killed as she ran to his side. Both were hit in the neck.

"He (Escutia) opened the car door, and boom!" said William Melvin, 56, who watched from an adjacent

Fox Sets Record Straight On County Coop Taxes

By BOB NIGH
Managing Editor
While confirming a report that Deaf Smith County's tax base for 1982 will be down almost $70 million from 1981, county tax appraisal district Chief Appraiser Fred Fox is attempting to clear up a misconception included in a story about the county's woes printed in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal last Monday.

Farm machinery will be $47 million and $11 million respectively, "not counting the losses of inventory from the closing of the Armour plant and the sale of a large grain elevator to a tax-exempt cooperative."

Fox said that the sentence is misleading in that it implies that the coop mentioned does not pay any taxes at all, which is definitely not true.

"I've already gotten one call about it, and I thought I'd better get the record straight before I get more," Fox said Wednesday. "It is not true that the cooperative does not pay any taxes; in fact cooperatives as a unit are among the top 20 taxpayers in the county," Fox said.

Cooperatives paid $65,000 in taxes last year Fox said, adding that they pay taxes on all real property, buildings and machinery and vehicles.

"Their grain inventory is tax exempt," Fox explained. "But, only because the grain they hold is considered to be in the hands of the farmer because the coop is acting as an agent for the farmer."

With the producer-owned cattle and farm machinery exemptions as approved by the Legislature last session, Deaf Smith County does stand to lose greatly in tax revenues.

"We are looking at a healthy tax increase in the

Kidnappers Release Hostages Unharm

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Shiite Moslem gunmen described as disgruntled job applicants kidnapped a U.S. oil executive and two Lebanese on the coastal highway in southern Lebanon today, but co-workers said all three were released unharm about seven hours later.

American Embassy spokesman John Reid said he too had been told by their employer the three had been freed and would soon be brought to the Lebanese capital. He had no other details.

Dr. Samira Ali Ahmed, wife of Ghaleb Ali Ahmed, the Lebanese general manager of the American-owned Mediterranean Refinery Company (Medreco), said friends called her from southern Lebanon to report that her kidnapped husband, his U.S. employer, Thomas E. Anderson, and their Lebanese driver were freed.

Burdett Receives Bull Chip Award

By BOB NIGH
Managing Editor
The immediate past president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce was recognized for his efforts during the past year, and a local woman missed out on $100 at the chamber's initial Fun Breakfast of 1982 at the Community Center this morning.

Tom Burdett, 1981 president of the chamber, received the Bull Chip Award as presented by John Stagner at the breakfast. Burdett recently relinquished his title to new chamber head Bill Johnson.

And, in the usual drawing for Deaf Smith County bucks involving chamber members only, Diane Hoelscher missed out on the $100 prize when she was not in attendance. The drawing at the next Fun Breakfast in April will be for $150.

The breakfast was sponsored by the new Hereford Ford-Lincoln-Mercury dealership, recently purchased by K. Don and Melba Spurgin, formerly of Crosbyton. Spurgin also gave away two certificates for $25 in service work at the dealership. Winners of those prizes were Bud Eades and Steve Hodges.

In other drawings Louise Ferguson was $25 in county bucks, while Carolyn Canon was the lucky winner of $75.

Mrs. Canon was also presented with a plaque given the Women's Division of the chamber by the Coffee Memorial Blood Mobile, recognizing the work for the women's division in blood drives over the past few years. A total of 3,731 pints of blood were donated by Hereford residents from 1975-1981.

Among the usual announcements at the breakfast were the following:

- The annual Super Sports Weekend sponsored by the chamber set for the first two weekends in March.

- The HHS Key Club Chili Supper set for 5-7:30 p.m. Friday, Feb. 26 at the HHS cafeteria.

- A blood drive sponsored by the HHS Student Council on March 4 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

- The Rebekah Lodge Chili Supper set for 5:30 - 9 p.m. Saturday at the Odd Fellows Lodge on Sixth Street.

- The National Cowgirl Hall of Fame building dedication ceremony at 1:30 p.m. April 17 at the former Pitman residence.

- The HOF's Rhinestone Roundup at the new headquarters later that night, April 17.

In other announcements Dr. Duffy McBrayer and District Attorney Roland Saul briefly presented an outline of the recently formed Crimestoppers unit, Edwina Thomas announced the search for the Family of the Year as sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Lat-small islands in the city limits, said Ms. Dettman.

She visited a sheep ranch, the opera, drove in the country, and observed all kinds of sports, noting that all residents engage in at least one sport, such as lawn bowling, water skiing, boating, or surfing.

Flower gardens were very abundant and beautiful, said Ms. Dettman. Kangaroo hides and boomerangs belonging to Ms. Josserrand were shown following the talk.

In addition to Ms. Dettman, guests at the meeting were Gladys Flood, Pam Young, Nadine Chance, Chris Rowton, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Rowton.

'Texas' Auditions In Lubbock Sunday

Talented actors, singers, and dancers are invited to try-out for "Texas" in Lubbock this Sunday, or in Canyon Sunday, March 7. Auditions have already been conducted in Dallas, Austin, and Albuquerque by directors, led by Royal Brantley.

Try-outs will be from 1-4 p.m. this Sunday in Music Building No. 1 on the Texas Tech campus in Lubbock. On Sunday, March 7, tryouts will be held from 1-5 p.m. in the Northern Hall Arts Building on the West Texas State University campus.

Directors will be looking for command of the stage, a voice that can be heard outdoors, actors who understand character motivation and who can convey a variety of emotion.

If selected, they will join the 1,000 who have spent summers in the magnificent Palo Duro Canyon during the last

16 years, presenting the world renowned musical drama, "Texas."

In some summers, 98,000 people have come to see this musical romance of the Panhandle by Paul Green, and the experience of playing to these audiences for sixty nights in this magnificent canyon has been a bridge into professional theatre for many of the cast members.

Task Force To Report Issues

AUSTIN - Initial efforts to obtain public involvement and recommendations on water resources issues to be considered in amending the 1968 Texas Water Plan were launched this week by the Texas Department of Water Resources working in cooperation with the Governor's Task Force on Water Resource Use and Conservation.

The issues as identified and described by the Department and reviewed by the Govern-nor's Water Task Force are being mailed this week to several thousand Texans including water resource professionals, state and local public officials representing municipalities, industry, agriculture, education, special interest groups and organizations, and others for their consideration. Several public meetings will be held throughout the state in March to afford citizens and organizations an opportunity to discuss the issues.

Copies of the issues are available from the Department. Persons desiring a copy should telephone or write to Bobby Whitefield, P.O. Box 13067, Austin, Texas 78711, (512) 475-0223.

Issues delineated include: water resources management for population and economic growth; water laws; water quality management; flood protection; water conservation; bays, estuaries, instream flows and fish and wildlife habitat; regional water and sewerage systems and reservoir operating procedures; water importation; project priorities; research and development of new technology; and the State's role in financing water development and wastewater treatment projects.

Louis A. Beecher Jr. of Dallas, chairman of both the Water Development Board and the Governor's Water Task Force, stated in a letter accompanying the issue papers: "We must revise the Texas Water Plan to meet the long-range needs of increasing population and economic growth in our state. To fail to provide adequate water resources and wastewater treatment facilities is to invite and virtually guarantee placing the state's well-being, growth and economic vitality in serious jeopardy."

WE CAN IMPROVE
By Bob Wear

DOING BETTER
BY BOB WEAR

Most of us may be doing better than we think we are, and, in some ways, most of us could be "doing better." Some of us seem to magnify our weaknesses and failures, minimize our strengths and successes, and underestimate our potentials. This is unfair.

We must not think more highly of ourselves than we ought to think, but we are not to think less highly of ourselves than we ought to think. Everything is going to be better for us, when we fully realize that we are "doing better" than we think we are. Of course, this does not mean that we ignore indicated need for change and improvement.

Some who think of themselves as failures are not failures. Their accomplishments may not measure up to the maximum of some material standards, but this does not mean that we are failures. We have shortcomings which may or may not be correctable, but we must not permit these to make up the whole of our life evaluation.

We can become discouraged with ourselves, and without just cause and this may be the strongest deterrent to effective living. We seem to handle all other negative influences better than we do discouragement. If we permit discouragement to prevail, it will overcome the positive, energy-producing elements of life. We can counteract the feeling of discouragement by conscientiously and persistently reminding ourselves that we are "doing better" than it seems.

This justified attitude does not prevent continuing self-improvement, and it is one of fairness and will make us more desirable, more useful, and much more effective persons. We will be able to more fully express and apply the worthwhile and desirable traits of our character and personality.

This attitude, we are "doing better" than we think we are, enables us to keep the way open for the best possible life style, both from the standpoint of personal well-being and meaningful interaction with our fellowmen. In the total life situation, we are probably "doing better" than we think we are. Regardless, we must never engage in the destructive process of constantly downgrading ourselves.

McDowell Reviews Book For La Plata Study Club

La Plata Study Club met at the Black House on Tuesday night for a special guest night program. Hostesses were Mozelle Neill, Jean Kelley, Carla Patterson, and Margaret Schroeter.

A short business meeting was conducted by President Lucy Rogers. The next regular meeting of La Plata Study Club was changed from March 16 to March 23 because of the spring school holiday.

Elizabeth McDowell gave a book review of "Sally Hemings," by Barbara Chase Riboud. This novel is based on authentic records of true facts in the life of Thomas Jefferson and Sally Hemings.

It is a story of Thomas Jefferson's forbidden love with a slave girl. She loved him more than she lived her freedom, and so, even after his death, she continued to live nearby in her slave quarters so she could visit his grave regularly, summarized Ms. McDowell.

She added that the book gives a good insight into slavery and all of the ramifications involved in the lives of the people of that day. A lovely assortment of finger sandwiches and cookies with coffee and hot punch were served by the hostesses.

Guests present were Helen Eades, Louise Banks, Dorothy Mercer, Marcia Snyder, Ruby Carmichael, Virginia Adams, Mildred Fuhrmann, Peggie Fox, Lou Ann Rounds, Donna Warrick, Ruth Turner, Mary Herring, Julie Helms, Georgia Sparks, Hilda Perales, and Patricia Weldon.

Other members attending were Sunny Brush, Sue Sims, Dorothea Prowell, Virginia Woodford, Clara Brown, Dolores McChristian, Sherry Hoover, Audine Dettman, Avis White, Lucy Rogers, Carolyn Johnson, Sarah Hazelrigg, and Betty Taylor.

Rebekahs Complete Chili Supper Plans

Twenty seven members were present at Hereford Rebekah Lodge No. 228 as they met in regular session Tuesday evening at IOOF Temple. Noble Grand Roberta Combs presided as reports were made of several members who are sick. Thirty nine visits to the sick and 34 cheer cards were reported.

Plans were completed for the chili supper to be held Saturday, Feb. 20 from 5:30-9 p.m. in the IOOF Hall, 205 East 6th Street. Ticket are on sale now from any member or will be available at the door. They are $2 for all the chili you can eat, and coffee. Pie will be extra.

Moskeski One-For-Two Against Malone

Heading To ENMU

Hereford standout Robert Gonzalez has signed to play with the Eastern New Mexico University Greyhounds next year. Gonzalez was a defensive stalwart on the Herd's 13-1 team last season.

Witnessing the event today were his parents Mr. and Mrs. Ignacio Gonzalez and HHS head coach Don Cumpston. (Brand Photo by Kelly Cherry)

By The Associated Press
At 7 feet tall, Paul Mokeski is slightly taller than Moses Malone. But every time he looks up, there's Malone, too. Or so it seems.
Tuesday night, Mokeski belonged to the Detroit Pistons, who "held" Malone to 34 points in beating the Houston Rockets. Wednesday night, after being traded to the Cleveland Cavaliers, he ran into Malone again.
Malone is the hottest player in the National Basketball Association. This time, he poured in 44 points in leading the Rockets to a 110-102 triumph.
"It's funny, because last night we played Houston, too, and he had the same kind of game," said Mokeski, a backup center who actually held Malone scoreless in an eight-minute stretch of the second half. "The only thing you can do is try to block him out. The only guy I can think of that's playing better offense is maybe (George) Gervin. But Moses has all those rebounds, too."

Malone has averaged 39.1 points in Houston's last 10 games, but Wednesday night he took a back seat to San Antonio's Gervin, who scored a season-high 49 as the Spurs turned back the Pistons 126-112.
Elsewhere, the New Jersey Nets defeated the Chicago Bulls 115-105, the Golden State Warriors surprised the Boston Celtics 121-105, the Philadelphia 76ers held off the Dallas Mavericks 114-109, the Milwaukee Bucks trimmed the Indiana Pacers 104-93, the Kansas City Kings nipped the Phoenix Suns 110-107 and the Atlanta Hawks whipped the Utah Jazz 117-109.

In addition to his 44 points, Malone grabbed 16 rebounds, while the Rockets used a 14-2 closing surge to defeat Cleveland. The victory was Houston's ninth in its last 10 games, while the Cavaliers lost for the sixth straight time.
"I have to give our players credit for being mentally tough going against a team playing with emotion," said Houston Coach Del Harris.

"Our team dug in and stopped them. In the last four minutes, they had the ball 10 times and scored only once."
Spurs 126, Pistons 112
The Spurs built a 26-point lead in the third period but the Pistons got 11 fourth-quarter points each from guard Vinnie Johnson and forward Kenny Carr to close within 110-105 with five minutes left before San Antonio pulled away again.
"I wish I was as lucky as you guys," said Detroit guard Isiah Thomas, "because I would like to watch George Gervin play basketball every night."
Nets 115, Bulls 105
Ray Williams scored 32 points to lead New Jersey. The Bulls, who fired Coach Jerry Sloan earlier in the day, were handled by assistant Phil Johnson, although general manager Rod Thorn will take over for the rest of the season. The victory tied the Nets with the Washington Bullets for third place in the Atlantic Division.
"You just don't change overnight," Johnson said of the slumping Bulls. "It's a long process and it's going to take a lot of work."
Warriors 121, Celtics 105
World Free reached the 10,000-point mark in his NBA career and totaled 30 points in leading Golden State over Boston. Purvis Short, starting in place of the injured Bernard King, added 29 points and J.B. Carroll had 24. Cedric Maxwell and Robert Parish scored 19 apiece to lead the Celtics, who were plagued by 20 turnovers. In addition, All-Star forward Larry Bird scored only eight points in the Oakland Coliseum Arena, which has proven to be a trouble spot for him. In his only game in Oakland last season, Bird was scoreless for the only time in his career.

76ers 114, Mavericks 109
Julius Erving scored 26 points and triggered a third-period rally as the 76ers ran their winning streak to seven games. The teams were tied 65-65 in the third quarter when Philadelphia erupted for a 22-10 spurt, with Erving accounting for 14 points. Seven Philadelphia players scored in double figures.
Bucks 104, Pacers 93
Brian Winters scored six points in a 17-0 fourth-quarter surge that propelled Milwaukee over Indiana. Winters had 13 of his game-high 24 points in the final period and Sidney Moncrief scored none of his 22 as Milwaukee logged its 10th consecutive victory, tying Philadelphia for the longest winning streak in the NBA this season. The Bucks were down 90-87 with 4½ minutes to play when they drove to a 104-90 lead.
Kings 110, Suns 107
Ernie Grunfeld scored 10 of his 18 points in the fourth quarter. Grunfeld came off the bench to score six points during a 10-0 surge that gave Kansas City a 99-89 lead with 5:42 left to play. Kyle Macy rallied Phoenix by scoring 12 of his 31 points in the last 5½ minutes.

Garvey: Owners Not Taking Players Serious

By FRED GOODALL, AP Sports Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Negotiators for both the National Football League players and owners say they are not coming any closer to accord on a new collective-bargaining agreement in their continuing negotiations.

The two sides spent much of the Wednesday session trading charges, and Ed Garvey, executive director of the National Football League Players Association, warned of a possible strike if management doesn't take the union's position seriously.

"We don't anticipate any progress until they realize the players are ready to strike," Garvey told a breakfast meeting of labor reporters in nearby Bal Harbour Wednesday, where AFL-CIO leaders are meeting. "If history is any teacher, we ought to be prepared."

But Jack Donlan, executive director of the NFL Management Association, said management couldn't respond to the union's demands because the demands are too vague. Negotiations continue today.

The current five-year agreement will expire July 15, two months before the 1982 season opens Sept. 12.

The talks got under way at the swank Diplomat Hotel here Tuesday, but were recessed until this morning after the two sides exchanged initial proposals. The discussions are aimed at averting the first NFL players strike since the ineffective 44-day preseason walkout of 1974.

Union representatives were incensed on the first day of bargaining because no owners or representatives of NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle accompanied Donlan. Union President Gene Upshaw and Garvey both said they felt the talks were more likely to progress if some owners were in attendance.

"A look at history shows that every time an agreement has been reached, it has been because certain owners have come forward to help bring about that solution," owners who have the respect of their fellow owners," Garvey said. Jimmy Cefalo, the Miami Dolphins' player representative, sat in on the first day of talks as an observer and came away with the feeling that a strike may be inevitable.

"I never knew how difficult a process this is going to be," said Cefalo. "There are so many differences, so many issues to be solved. Right now, things don't look too promising."

The union's initial proposal included most of the demands previously publicized, including a request for a greater share of the owners gross revenues for salaries. The 11-page document, however, but did not state a specific percentage the NFLPA intends to seek.

Previously, the union had said it would ask for 55 percent of the gross.
Management's initial proposal offered what Donlan called several "corrections and adjustments" to the current collective bargaining agreement that expires July 15.

Garvey countered, however, that the owners were trying to take away some of the advances the NFLPA has made over the last 14 years.

Signs Scholarship

HHS tackle Bob Hammond signed with Eastern New Mexico University on a football scholarship today as his parents Mr. and Mrs. Tim Hammond and HHS head coach Don Cumpston watched. Hammond joins teammate

Nervous Shriver Defeats 'Rookie'

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ, AP Sports Writer

HOUSTON (AP) — Top-seeded Pam Shriver, who should have been calm, was nervous and unranked neophyte Zina Garrison, who should have been nervous, was calm.

Although the emotional scale was reversed, the score came out according to the form chart Wednesday night. Shriver, the No. 6 ranked women's player in the world finally dispatched Garrison, the No. 1 ranked junior, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3 in a first round match of the $100,000 Avon Tennis Championships of Houston.

"For some reason, I was calm in the first set and didn't think I could lose," said Garrison, who had to fight her way through a rugged qualifying tournament just to earn a spot in the main draw.

"I got a lot of first serves in the first set but not in the second. I got my serve back in the third set but not when I needed it."

Shriver, who assumed the No. 1 seeding when Tracy Austin withdrew, didn't get her game together until the second set when she reeled off five straight games.

"I went out and felt a lot of pressure," Shriver said. "I didn't feel so well last week and she is the No. 1 ranked junior in the world and all of those juniors these days, gosh. She's not even on the computer (rankings) and all she has to do is go out and go for it."

Garrison, 18, showed great improvement from a year ago when she lost to Kathy Jordan in straight sets.

Garrison went for it in the first set. She broke Shriver in the first game of the match and zoomed to a 4-2 lead.

Shriver broke back in the eighth game to tie the match at 4-4 but Garrison broke back in the 10th game and served for the first set.

Shriver took command in the second set with five consecutive games and jumped to a 4-2 advantage in the final set before Garrison made one final surge.

Garrison fought back from seven deuces and four break points to hold service in the seventh game but Shriver held service and broke Garrison in the ninth game to take the match.

In the only other singles match on the program, Sabina Simmonds, Italy defeated Yvonne Vermaak of South Africa, 7-6 (9-7), 6-3.

Unflappable Lasorda Popular On Tour

By WILL GRIMSLEY, AP Special Correspondent

Tom Lasorda, never at a loss for a quip, says that when the Dodgers' rookie pitching sensation from Mexico, Fernando Valenzuela, came into the office to renegotiate his contract for 1982, he said:

"I want Texas back."

The rotund Mexican and his agent are reported asking $1 million for the upcoming season. That's an increase of $960,000 over last year's paycheck.

It's not Lasorda's job to make his prize pupil fiscally happy. That's the problem of Los Angeles' Vice-President Al Campanis, with the buck — or bucks — stopping at the desk of Dodgers President Peter O'Malley.

A million bucks?

"What would you do if a guy who had played only a year came in asked you for $1 million?" Lasorda was asked Wednesday at New York's Tavern on the Green restaurant where he was playing mother hen to a lot of space-age Japanese baseball gadgets.

"I'd hand him a ball," Lasorda replied, "and tell him to go down to that $3 car wash on the corner. If he could throw the ball through the car wash and it came out dry, the million bucks are his."

Lasorda, who as manager of the world champion Dodgers is greatly in demand these days on the chicken-breast and cold peas circuit, was the featured guest at the third annual New York exhibition by the $500 million-a-year Mizuno Corp. of Osaka, Japan, which says it's the world's biggest sporting good manufacturer.

"We'll win the World Series again," Lasorda replied.

"Wait a minute," Tom's dinner companion cautioned, "did you know that in the last 70 years only two National League teams have repeated in the World Series? The Chicago Cubs in 1905-06 and the Cincinnati Reds in 1919-20. "Odds are 1,000 to 1 against it."

It takes a lot to faze Mr. Lasorda.

"I told him what he could do with those odds," the Dodger skipper said. "Then I told him of an incident I had heard about. There was this guy who was squeamish about taking his first airplane trip."

"He called Jimmy the Greek in Las Vegas and asked him what the odds would be that a bomb could be on that particular plane. The Greek could see the man was serious so he said he would make a survey and call back."

"The Greek called the man back and said, 'The odds are 1 million to 1 against a bomb being on the plane.'"
"The man seemed satisfied but after a while The Greek's phone rang again and it was the same guy. 'What would be the odds to two bombs on the plane?' he inquired. The Greek went to his odds board again and returned, 'Thirty million to one against two bombs,' he said.
"The nervous passenger seemed placated. He went out and bought a single bomb and took the trip — don't ask me how he got the bomb through security.
"Later, someone asked the guy why he took a bomb on the flight. 'I was just lengthening the odds,' he said.

Heels Roll Over Wake Forest; Hoyas Upset

By KEN RAPPOPORT AP Sports Writer

The North Carolina Tar Heels can put a team to sleep with their slowdown, four-corner offense.

Wednesday night, they didn't stand around too often. "We played an almost perfect game," said forward James Worthy after the nation's second-ranked college basketball team got off to a quick start and rolled past No. 14 Wake Forest, 69-51. "We knew they would get out of the blocks very fast," said Wake Forest Coach Carl Tacy. "We wanted to do the same thing. Unfortunately it worked a lot better for them than our game plan did."

Worthy led the fast-paced North Carolina attack with 23 points while Sam Perkins put in 17 to help the Tar Heels avenge an earlier defeat by the Demon Deacons. "They got us once and it gave us a little extra incentive," said Worthy. The Tar Heels' nine-point halftime lead was threatened briefly when a Scott Davis jumper pulled the Demon Deacons to within 42-34 at the 11:17 mark. But the Tar Heels then instituted a variation of their four-corner offense and broke away. Worthy slammed home two successive baskets to expand the Tar Heel edge to 46-35.

Matt Doherty then got behind the Deacon defense for another basket, while Jimmy Black also scored. Perkins added two layups and the Tar Heels found themselves in command 54-41 with 3:34 to play. Guy Morgan provided the main offense for Wake Forest with 23 points before fouling out with 2:21 left. Meanwhile, Boston College upset No. 13 Georgetown 80-71 and Oklahoma State surprised No. 18 Kansas State 72-62. In other games involving the national's ranked teams, it was No. 3 DePaul 74, Detroit 70; No. 10 Kentucky 84, Florida 78 and No. 19 Alabama 99, Georgia 85.

The Top Twenty Terry Cummings scored 22 points to lead DePaul over Detroit. The triumph improved DePaul's record to 24-1 and extended the Blue Demons' winning streak to 19 games. Matt Clark scored all of his 17 points in the second half as Oklahoma State surprised Kansas State. The Cowboys hit 24 of 28 free throws and shot 61 percent from the field in the second half. The Cowboys also outrebounded Kansas State 20-5 after intermission.

upset the Hoyas. The Eagles, shooting 71 per cent from the field for the game, took an 11-10 lead six minutes into the contest and never trailed again. Georgetown rallied behind freshman sensation Pat Ewing, who scored a career-high 23 points, but never could catch up with its Big East opponent. "We started moving around more in the second half, which freed me for more shots," Clark said. "I guess overall, the second half was my best ball game."

Mike Davis scored 18 of his 20 points in the second half, including 11 during one three-minute stretch, as Alabama crushed Georgia. The Crimson Tide, snapping a three-game losing streak, took control with less than 12 minutes remaining when it got six points off a technical foul on the Georgia bench to stretch a 56-53 lead to 62-53 with 11:11 left in the game. "We played well, better than we have in a while," said Alabama Coach Wimp Sanderson. "It's easy to lose three in a row in this league, though. When you play away from home and you don't play well, you'll lose."

Holmes-Cooney Fight Reset

NEW YORK (AP) — As expected, the Gerry Cooney-Larry Holmes World Boxing Council heavyweight championship fight, originally scheduled for March 15 at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas, Nev., has been postponed until June 11 because of torn muscle fibres in the challenger's left shoulder.

But promoter Don King said that Holmes won't sit back, waiting for Cooney's injury to heal. "He will have an interim fight," King said. "He's a fighting champion and will continue in that vein."

King mentioned Jimmy Young, Randy "Tex" Cobb or Larry Frazier as possible opponents for Holmes, who left Las Vegas Wednesday to return home to Easton, Pa.

Cobb, however, is recovering from a broken arm and is unlikely to be available for a March or April date against Holmes.

Cooney's injury was diagnosed by Dr. John Bergfeld of the Cleveland Clinic as "a partial tear and weakness in the muscle fibres in the back part of his left shoulder."

Cooney described the injury, suffered during a sparring session last month, as "very painful...a sharp pain and weakness."

The undefeated challenger said he was not concerned about the three-month delay dulling his ring skills. "I want to be in the best shape I can be on June 11 and when the final bell rings, I'll be champion," he said. "I'm very confident."

Bergfeld and Dr. Jeffrey Minkoff, Cooney's personal physician, said that the challenger could continue with his roadwork but that he would not do any vigorous sparring for the next two weeks.

Treatment for the injury will involve stretching exercises and anti-inflammatory medication, Bergfeld said.

Cooney said he was sorry that the fight, for which each fighter has been guaranteed $10 million, would not be held as originally scheduled.

The postponement was announced in a news conference at the New York University Medical Center Wednesday where Cooney underwent tests conducted by Dr. Stephen Ockner of the Cleveland Clinic, Bergfeld and Minkoff.

King said the delay would increase the value of the fight, already anticipated to be the richest in boxing history. With better weather in June, he said, more closed circuit facilities will be available and the gross value should increase from the original estimate of $50 million to between $75 and $100 million.

Buckner Signs 5-Year Contract

CHICAGO (AP) — Bill Buckner won his request to renegotiate the remaining three years of his contract with the Chicago Cubs and wound up with a five-year, $2.6-million pact.

Cubs General Manager Dallas Green announced the signing Wednesday.

"We're pleased that this modification agreement between the Chicago Cubs and Bill Buckner could be consummated before spring training," Green said. "This will allow Bill and the rest of the club to prepare physically and mentally for the 1982 season and for the future."

Buckner's previous contract was paying him about $300,000 a year.

"I am getting paid between what I probably would have gotten on the free-agent market and what I was making before they renegotiated," Buckner said. "Most important is that I got the contract extended, which means, I hope, that I can stay here."

However, Buckner noted that he gave up the no-trade provision in his contract.

"Hopefully, I'll play well enough to earn what they're paying me and they won't want to trade me. But a trade is certainly a possibility," the 32-year-old first baseman said.

Buckner led the Cubs in hitting last season, batting .311, after leading the league in hitting with a .324 average in 1980.

His 131 hits included 35 doubles, 10 homers and 75 RBIs. He led the Cubs in hits, at-bats, total bases (202), doubles, runs batted in and game-winning hits (11). He tied Leon Durham for the home run leadership.

Buckner has been with the Cubs for the past five seasons after coming over in a trade with the Los Angeles Dodgers, along with Ivan DeJesus, for Rick Monday and Mike Garman.

It's been a while since you had to walk miles and miles to the next dairy farm for fresh milk and eggs. Nowadays most of us just hop in the car, drive to the supermarket once a week and head for the dairy case—but are you sure you're getting the kind of freshness you should be getting?

If that supermarket is Furr's you can be sure. You can count on Furr's for real farmyard fresh dairy products because the freshness trucks are in early each and every morning at each and every neighborhood Furr's Super Market—with the kind of quality you used to have to walk miles for—and at 'way-back-when' prices. Now who said quality costs more?
