56th YEAR — NO. 23

Around Town

A test blast of Hereford's storm warning siren will be sounded at 12:30 p.m. Friday if the weather is fair. The fire whistle has been altered to make a special, high-pitched sustained sound for storm warnings. It will oscillate as usual for fires. Fire marshal Clay Angelo has asked residents to call either him at 806-J or The Brand at 30 and let him know what they think of the new siren sound and whether it can be heard in various parts of town.

The $1,000 in merchandise giveaway by members of the Hereford Merchants Assn. has been postponed again. It will be held Saturday, June 22, instead of this Saturday in order to coincide with the Hereford Riders Club rodeo. Both the rodeo and drawing were rained out last week. The drawing was then postponed for a week and the rodeo rescheduled for June 20, 21 and 22.

Chamber of Commerce manager Bill Lenderman and his wife left Tuesday for New Orleans for a two-week vacation and a visit with their daughter, Mrs. William Barker.

All Little League baseball players will sell jumbo peanut patties from door to door Saturday morning to raise funds for the league. The players are allowed to take part in one fund-raising campaign per year. Players will meet at 9 a.m. and the sale starts at 9:30. The Yankees are to meet at 405 Ave. K; Dodgers at 522 Blevins; Giants at 125 Centre and Cardinals at 128 Ave. A.

All notary public commissions in Texas expired May 31 and those wishing to be approved for this year must do so this week, according to county clerk Ralph Smith. Persons applying for the first time must make application. Notaries on the approved list must take their bonds to Smith.

The City of Hereford grew by a block and a half Monday night when city commissioners approved a petition to incorporate the new Westhaven addition within city limits. The action came after the board reached agreement with contractor N. D. Bartlett on payment.

2 Youths Attend Boys, Girls State Meet in Austin

Two Hereford youths are delegates to Boys State and Girls State conventions which have as their purpose educating young people to the duties, privileges, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship.

Jim Curtsinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dub Curtsinger, left Amarillo by bus at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday to attend Boys State, June 5-11. Alternate is Wade Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Douglas.

American Legion posts sponsor delegates to Boys State, which is held each year on the campus of the University of Texas.

Monta Kay Gragg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gragg, was chosen by the American Legion auxiliary as a delegate to Girls State, June 10-19, at the State School for the Blind in Austin.

She will meet other delegates in Amarillo Sunday where the American Legion auxiliary will give them a dinner before they leave by train at 11:30 p.m.

Linda Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Phillips, is alternate delegate to Girls State.

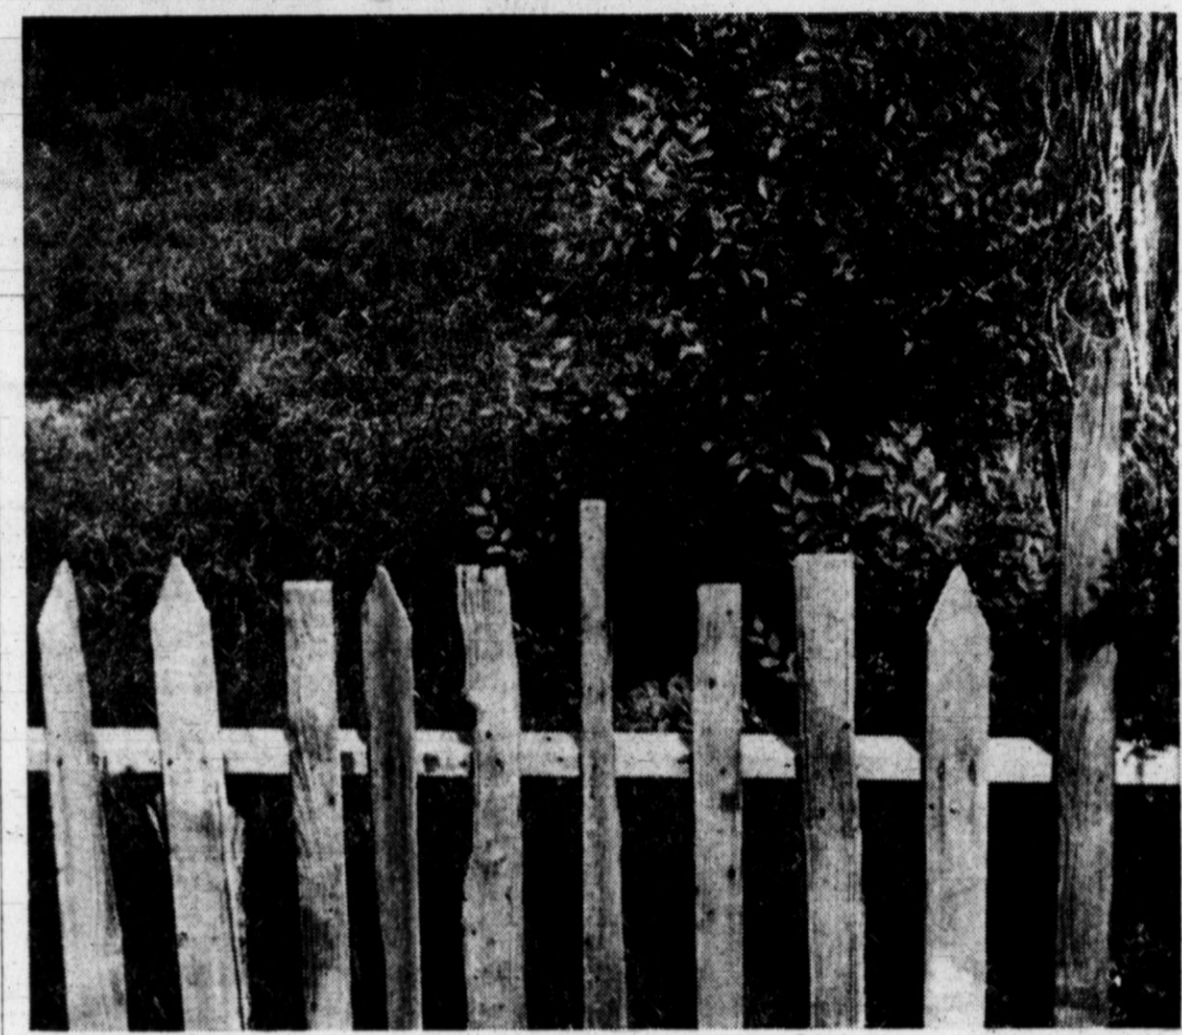

Merchants Slate Monthly Sessions

Monthly instead of weekly meetings have been scheduled by the Hereford Retail Merchants Assn. for the summer months, according to Woody Wilson, chairman.

The merchants had been meeting each Friday morning, but now will meet the first Friday of each month, beginning July 5, Wilson said.

"We may have called meetings, if a subject warrants one," Wilson added.

Tax Roll Changes Year Ahead

CLEANUP REQUESTED—City officials this week again asked property owners in Hereford to cleanup lots like the weed-choked one above, and to make sure that there are no mosquito breeding places either in vacant lots or around homes. If the request for cooperation in the anti-mosquito and fly campaign fails, City Manager Dudley Bayne said that the city ordinance requiring lots to be kept clear of debris and weeds will be enforced. RAIN HAMPERS CAMPAIGN

Okay Aerial Spray in Mosquito Fight

Airplanes may be used to spray the entire City of Hereford if the mosquito problem gets out of hand as a result of the recent heavy and regular rains. City commissioners approved the use of sprayplanes in the insect control program after discussing the problem with City Manager Dudley Bayne during their regular meeting Monday evening.

Bayne told the commissioners he feared that insect control within the city may be inadequate if only the recently acquired dust-turbine rig is used, should rains continue to wash away mosquito-killing chemicals faster than they can be applied.

The city officials have undertaken the most intensive insect-control program in the city's history in an attempt to prevent a recurrence of last year's sleeping-sickness disease outbreak. The program so far has included the use of airplanes to dust BHC insecticide over Tierra Blanca Creek and lakes just southwest of the city, and the use of a ground dusting rig within the business and residential areas.

Bayne proposed and the commissioners okayed the use of airplanes to spray DDT over the city in the event the mosquito population should suddenly get out of hand.

The city manager said that the use of low-flying airplanes is not

Postal Sales Rise Gives a Surprise to Our Postmaster

Receipts at the Hereford Post Office for the first five months of 1957 show a 12 per cent increase over the same period in 1956, according to figures released this week by Postmaster Jim Lipscomb.

Total receipts for this year are $28,929.96 as compared to $25,779.84 for last year, an increase of $3,150.12.

May of 1957 shows receipts totaling $5,959.04 as compared to $5,346.35 for the same month in 1956, a difference of $612.69.

"I was a little surprised at that large an increase," Lipscomb said. "I knew we were running ahead of last year, but didn't think it was that much," he added.

Man Hurt Slightly in Collision Here

Tom Jack Clay, 69, 109 Park Ave., was slightly injured when his car collided with a milk truck at the intersection of 4th and Witherspoon at 7:40 a.m. Tuesday.

Albert Ricketts, 20, 330 Ave. A, was driving the milk truck. Police said Clay failed to observe a stop sign and he has been charged with failure to grant right of way.

Clay was treated for head lacerations at Deaf Smith County Hospital and released. Police estimated $350 damage to Clay's car. The milk truck was not damaged.

COLD WATCH—Chilblains, not sunburn, is the personal concern of lifeguard Coby Kitchens at the municipal pool. He's been bundling-up before taking his stance above the pool each afternoon since the facility was opened last Saturday. The cool weather has kept attendance far below the first week of last year's swimming season, reports pool manager Charles Bell. (Staff Photo)

Appraiser Details Methods to Boards

Tax equalization for property owners within Deaf Smith County and the Hereford school district may be introduced by 1958. The project, designed to bring rural and city assessments into balance, has definitely been ruled out for the current year, county commissioners and school trustees agreed during a joint meeting Tuesday night.

The session, held in the high school superintendent's office, brought the two boards together for the second time to discuss joint action on revaluation of properties. J. W. McMorries of Amarillo, a member of the firm of McMorries & Associates, engineers and appraisers, attended the session at the invitation of a joint committee appointed in the earlier meeting.

McMorries' explanation of the method his firm would use in evaluating properties apparently won the approval of a majority of the members of the two boards. He stressed the fact that a thorough job would be done, with an appraiser inspecting each individual farm and structure to be included on the tax rolls.

THE VALUE of a farm, McMorries said, would be determined through the inspection, interviews with each landowner, checks against the type farm and its location in comparison with recent sales, and discussions with commissioners and trustees. "We will be prepared to back-up every evaluation we make in court," the Amarillo man declared.

He emphasized the importance of an appraiser's doing two jobs: "First, determining what's there and its actual value; second, doing a good job of public relations." And he added that in previous appraisal work in the Plainview and Dumas area he and his associates had won friends while appraising land.

The commissioners and trustees asked McMorries to meet with them again next Tuesday evening. He is expected then to quote a price for the appraisal job, and the boards' members in the meantime plan to consider the exact methods they want used — if McMorries is to be awarded the job — and other details of the project.

The appraiser said that he would not be able to begin the work in this area before September, but that the appraisal could be finished by late January or early February.

Grand Jury Meets To Study Charges Against Two Men

Among the charges to be studied by the Deaf Smith County grand jury when it meets here today will be those filed against W. C. Flack, 70, and Homer Stacy, 19.

Flack has been charged with statutory rape and Stacy is being held on counts of forgery and passing and fraudulently altering a written instrument.

Flack is free on $1,000 bond and Stacy is in jail, not being able to make his two $1,000 bonds.

The charges against the two arose from an incident involving a 15-year-old Hereford girl last March.

District Judge Harry Schultz and District Attorney Frank McCown will be here for grand jury action. District clerk Lucille Posey said the judge may hear several non-jury civil and criminal cases while he is here.

The grand jury will open its session at 9:30 a.m. today.

'Skid Row' Draws Officers' Action

City police and sheriff's officers have been conducting a concerted drive on vagrants and drunks on Hereford's "Skid Row," the 100 block of N. Main.

Acting on complaints from several merchants in that area, the officers have arrested nine men since Saturday and interviewed about 45 more, cautioning them to either go to work or leave town.

The block has been patrolled four or five times a day by each group of officers and police have been watching it until past midnight each night.

"THOSE GUYS had just been hanging around on the streets, then going up into a hotel, drink shaving lotion or bay rum and then come back to the street drunk," said deputy Charles Skelton.

"They just dissolved, though, after Monday when we talked to

COOPER'S WILL BEGIN 3-DAY GRAND OPENING

Today marks the grand opening of the new Cooper's Super Market, McKinley at Park Ave. Cooper's will give 550 prizes to customers during the celebration scheduled for today, Friday and Saturday.

The new store is the largest super market in Hereford, encompassing 12,000 square feet of floor space.

Included in the giveaway will be a Shetland pony, 10 watches, 100 baskets of groceries valued at from $10 to $15 each and $5,000 in Gunn Bros. stamps.

"We'll also give double Gunn Bros. stamps for every purchase over $2.50 during the three days," Neil Cooper, manager and co-owner said.

Featured in the quarter-million dollar store are 100 feet of frozen food space, a gift department, an enlarged drug and cosmetic section, a housewares division, a unique dairy department and expanded meat, staples and produce departments.

Cooper's opened in Hereford in June, 1952. Neil Cooper and his brothers, John and Clay, also own stores in Canyon and McLean and Tucumcari, N. M.

Clearman's car was demolished as was Mrs. Morse's auto. All six persons involved in the accident were taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital and treated and released.

Six Are Hurt in Three Car Crash Here Saturday

A three-car collision at 3:35 p.m. Saturday at the intersection of Highway 51 and Vogle resulted in minor injuries to six persons. Two of the vehicles were demolished.

According to city police, a car driven by Patricia Ann Carthel, 18, of Route 4, Hereford, was turning right off Vogle onto the highway when it collided with a car driven by Vera Bennett Morse, 31, of Pampa.

Mrs. Morse was going south on Highway 51. After the collision, her car skidded 139 feet south into a car driven by James C. Clearman, 18, of Summerfield.

Clearman was accompanied by Jack Hagar, 19, of Hereford, Ann Lookingbill, 20, of Summerfield and Roger Hagar, 13, of Hereford.

Mrs. Morse was accompanied by Gladys Mae Robinson, 28, also of Pampa.

Clearman's car was demolished as was Mrs. Morse's auto. All six persons involved in the accident were taken to Deaf Smith County Hospital and treated and released.

Miss Carthel was issued a traffic ticket for failure to grant right of way. Mrs. Morse was ticketed for speeding in a 30 mile per hour zone.

Building Starts in May Set High Mark for Current Year

Building permits issued last month in Hereford totalled $184,600, the greatest total for any month to date in 1957 and well above the total for the corresponding month during the past two years. The year's total for construction starts in the city is now $530,255.

The issuance of a permit for the new Church of Christ building, valued at $150,000, accounted for the larger part of last month's building starts. Three new homes were covered by other permits: A $9,000 permit was issued to Arthur Dean; an $8,000 permit to Ray V. Smith and a $10,000 permit to Arthur Dean.

Other permits issued covered repairs and additions to houses and office buildings.

Last month's $184,600 total compared to just $68,441 in May, 1956, and to $156,876 in May, 1955.

The building permits issued through the first five months of 1956 totalled $340,141.

STUDENTS RIOT—Angry charges of Red affiliation and counter-charges of "propaganda from the rich," flew on the campus of Juarez Agricultural College after students wrecked some $20,000 in property damage. for water and sewage lines to serve the new residential development. The commissioners also approved extension of water lines to serve the Vahising and Troutman packing sheds, business properties within the city limits.

The city commission also approved paving of the right-way between Dairy Road and the Bull Barn parking lot during their Monday night session.

Fire Chief Earl Phillips and Assistant Chief Glenn Witherspoon discussed fire insurance rates with the city dad's recently, and noted that while the population of Hereford has doubled since 1949, premium payments for fire protection have apparently fallen. Phillips noted that property owners here paid $85,000 in premiums in 1951, but only $77,950 last year. He said that something might be wrong with the state agencies records, but added that better fire protection is certainly a part of the explanation.

Wayne Stagner Receives Degree

Wayne Stagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Stagner, received his degree in industrial engineering at Texas Technological College, Lubbock Monday night. He is a graduate of Hereford High School and at Texas Tech he was a member of the National Honor Society of Industrial Engineers and served on the board of student organizations. He was also active in the Baptist Student Union work.

Mr. and Mrs. Stagner and daughter Donna Jean attended graduation exercises held in Jones Stadium Monday night. They were accompanied by Miss Elaine Waldrop of Denton, Wayne's fiancée, who has been a guest in the Stagner home. Stagner has accepted a position with the Dupont Chemical Co. in Kinston, N. C., and will report there June 24.

them to keep the men from having "shaving lotion" parties in their hotels.

Aycock said he also asked some of the owners to clean up their hotels and said injunction procedure may be started if they don't.

He added that one proprietor has asked police to check his hotel for drunks or disturbances. Police have been checking the hotel since Saturday.

Police questioned six men in that area Sunday night. "We are getting good compliance so far," Aycock said.

Both officers said they had been patrolling the area regularly but "really put the heat on Saturday."

SHOWER HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Miss Wanda Riddle, bride-elect of Charles Brown, was favored at a miscellaneous shower given recently in the home of Mrs. A. G. Martin.

A yellow and orchid theme was carried out in appointments to emphasize the honoree's chosen colors. Spring flowers were used about the house and yellow and orchid iris centered the refreshment table which was laid with a lace cloth over blue.

Receiving the guests were Mrs. Martin, the honoree and her mother, Mrs. C. W. Riddle, and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. A. H. Brown.

Mrs. Troys Riddle and Mrs. W. F. Gillis presided at the table and Virginia Brown served at the guest register. Assisting hostesses were Mes-

Beauty At Home

Q. Is it true that white, such as a collar, worn close to the face is always youthful and flattering?

A. Not always! The light reflected by white puts an unkind emphasis on a too-wide jaw or a heavy chin. If you have a heavy face, pastel or dark clothing is better for you. If you must wear white, put plenty of skin area—preferably a V-line—between the glare of the white and your lower face. You'll note that many men appear to have a double chin, when actually it is only the unkind glare created by their white collars.

Q. How can I "fix" the color after a coloring job on my hair?

A. By giving your hair a thorough brushing. Waving lotion is apt to affect the hue if applied when the hair is wet. As a general rule, it is better to let the hair dry, at least partially, before waving or curling.

Q. What is a safe and easy way to bleach the hair on my upper lip?

A. Applications of lemon juice should help to do this.

Q. Please tell me what I can do about pimples on my face.

A. Usually, these are caused by rich foods, poor elimination, fatigue, failure to cleanse the face properly, and infection of blackheads. Tend to these things. Also, refrain from picking at a pimple, which might cause infection and spreading. Keep the area around it absolutely clean, and apply calamine lotion to it, which will dry it out. Another method is to apply a compress of a piece of cotton soaked with a solution of hot water and epsom salts.

Q. What precautions does the wise woman take regarding her proximity to a table-lamp in the evening?

A. She will always try to sit beside—on a level—with a lamp, and NEVER UNDER the light. The lighting from a lamp on her eye-level will wash out lines in her face, while overhead lighting will emphasize them.

should determine and report on actual value of property, regardless of its location, and that it should be up to the tax officials then to determine the percentage level on which property should be assessed.

Attending the meeting were Tom Robinson, school board president, who presided; trustees Dub Hair, Bert Boomer, B. F. Cain, Wilburn Axe and Ralph Hastings; County Judge Homer Henslee and commissioners Otto Massie, J. T. Guinn, Charlie Sowell and Don Hicks; Baird and Ramey, of the tax offices; Fred Cunningham, superintendent of schools, and McMorries.

Right Training Means Safe Junior Driving

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D. AP Newsfeatures

When American youngsters approach 16 they itch to drive a car. Many itch pretty badly before this age.

However, the newspapers are full of stories of bad car accidents attributed to wild youth and families hesitate to let their young sons or daughters take out the family car. Yet some of the very best drivers on the road are in their late teens.

It's a basic principle in education that when an individual has the zest to learn, that's the best time to teach him. For Americans, driving has become a stage of development almost as basic as walking. Every child learns to walk when he is old enough to do so. He has a terrific urge to walk, and he practices and practices until all the power and joy of going places under his own steam is truly his.

So, almost, is the case of driving in our American society. Every boy and girl wants to drive and the vast majority do. It gives them power and mobility and the sense of being grown up.

BUT DRIVING a car involves a lot more hazards than walking. We adults who stand on the side lines must see to it that our children take this step in maturity well equipped with all the attributes of a good driver. The bad drivers whether they be young or old enough to know better, are those who lack the responsibility and judgment necessary to have the power of a modern automobile in their hands.

A child who looks forward to the time when the law says he is old enough to drive with the sure knowledge that he will be given the opportunity is not too likely to jump the gun and experiment with the family's car or someone else's.

In some areas schools have taken over the job of teaching driving. They teach not only how to handle a car, but what is under the hood and how it works. The American Automobile Assn. has classes for young drivers.

If you can get your soon-to-be 16 child enrolled in one of these classes, be sure to do so.

Once a child has learned how to manipulate a car comes the real job of making him a good safe driver.

HE MUST get his reflexes to the point where they are absolutely automatic, so he acts without having to stop and think which foot or hand he uses in which way to make the car do what he wants. This means hours and hours of practice.

Near our house is a big parking lot that empties out at 5 p.m. I have spent a great many hours with each of my three children as they approached 16—in that lot, safely off the highway. The youngsters took the car around the turns, backed it, parked it, stopped and started until their reflexes were quick on the trigger.

Once this stage is reached the youngster is ready for a license. Most states are very strict with the first license for a teen-ager as well they should be.

But owning a license is not the last stage in making a good driver. The last and by far the most difficult lesson is that of responsibility.

ONE STEP in this direction is that of insurance. The insurance on the family car will go up when a teen-ager is among those permitted to drive. This increased cost may well be something the child himself can pay out of his allowance or his earnings.

The youth who can take pride in being a good driver, one who never takes a chance, who stays within the speed limit is the mature driver we all want in our children.

Our attitude of trust and confidence in the youngster in this area as well as in all others is what builds his responsibility. Prohibitions won't work—our

SOUNDS SUSPICIOUS
TULSA, Okla. (AP)—A Tulsa firm distributed several hundred keys throughout the city and offered to install a storm door free to the person whose key unlocked the door.
It was won by Mrs. Earl Nichols. Her husband is a locksmith.

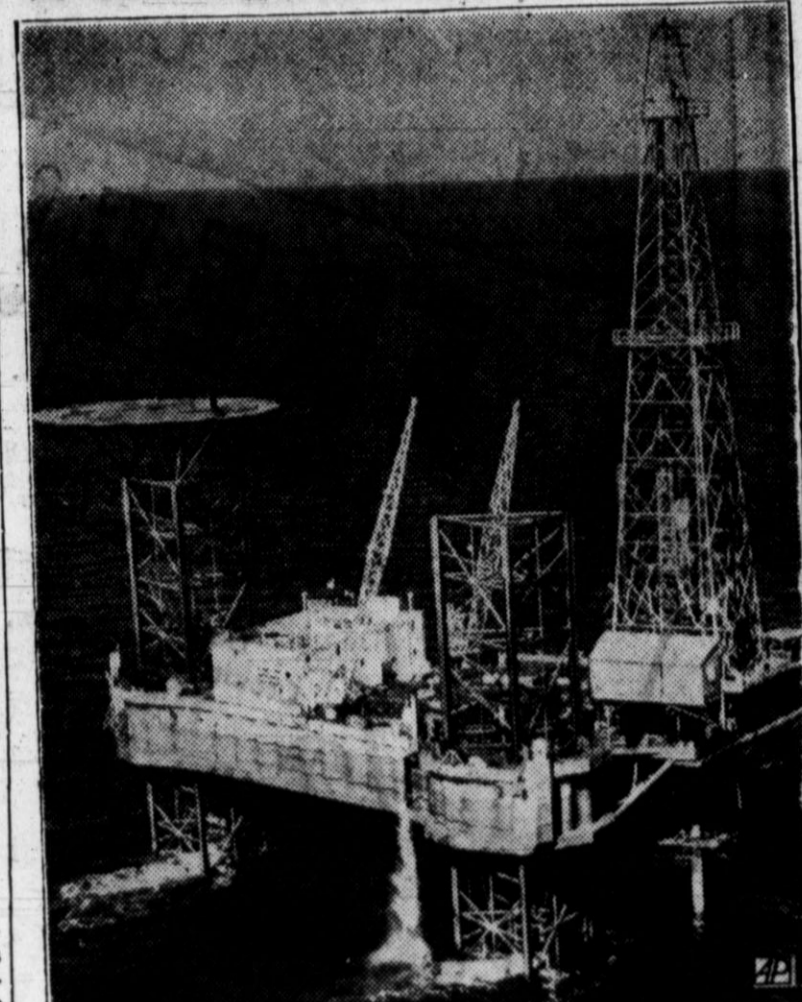

CONDITIONED REFLEX
TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The Tulsa Police Department received through the mail a dollar with what looked like a parking ticket.
Closer inspection showed that the motorist, eager to keep on the good side of the law, had mistaken a Junior Chamber of commerce promotion card under the windshield wiper for a ticket.
Police decided to turn the money over to the Jaycees.

TORNADO PROOF
ANN ARBOR, MICH. (AP)—A University of Michigan researcher says tornado-proof houses can be built for between $50 and $350 above initial construction costs.
George W. Reynolds of the University's engineering research institute has been studying tornado scenes since 1949.
"Houses can be built to survive most, if not all, such storms," he said. "I have yet to see a single case in which a house bolted to its foundation was destroyed. This is not conclusive proof, of course, but it is suggestive."
Reynolds said adequate internal bracing and proper air vents also would cut down damage.

MAIL CALL
RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Postmaster Fergus McRee reports his mail carriers have faithfully followed his advice to be kind to dogs—even to feed them dog candy—to keep from being bitten. And what happens?
Folks are complaining their dogs like the mail men so much they're following them around and getting lost.
"And people along one man's route," said McRee, "are complaining about the friendly dogs following him and running through their yards."

PORT WASHINGTON, Wis. (AP)—Beleaguered by the trend toward use of paper milk cartons, the city council has voted to spend about $12,000 to repair and enlarge the city incinerator.
Street commissioner Walter Ohm says the influx of thousands of milk cartons every day, plus a slight growth in population, has taxed the incinerator to the limit.

A skylark eats about six pounds of food a year. Keeps its figure.

FIRST ON-LOCATION PHOTO—This offshore drilling rig called the "Vinegaroon" is shown on location 12 miles offshore from Cameron La., in the Gulf of Mexico. The unit built by the R. G. LeTourneau, Inc., of Longview, for the Zapata Offshore Co. of Houston at a cost of $3,250,000 is capable of drilling to depths in excess of 20,000 feet, in waters up to 100 feet deep. The drilling platform is self-elevating. Note heliport on stand at left. (AP Wirephoto)

THIS IS PROGRESS?
 NEWBERRY, S. C. — Willie L. Mills, who recently retired as a rural mail carrier, estimates he traveled 400,000 miles in his 36-year delivery career.
 Mills began with a horse and buggy on a 24-mile route, ended up with an automobile and a 50-mile circuit.

UNIFORMLY SLOW
 SUFFOLK, Va. — The six uniform coveralls H. T. Holloman ordered to wear at his filling station arrived in time to fit his son, Billy, who was 7 at the time the order was placed. The package was mailed C. O. D. from Danville, Va. Jan. 3, 1946.
 Holloman said he didn't mind the 11-year-delay. The cost was only about half the present cost of such uniforms and, besides, they fit 17-year-old Billy fine.

LITTLE LEAGUE

Yankees Win Again; 3 Tilts Rained Out

Both the major and minor league Yankees continued their winning ways Tuesday night as they both topped the Cardinals in the only Little League games played since May 30.

The major Yanks downed the Cardinals 7-5 behind the four-hit pitching of Bill Overall and Drew Kershner.

The younger Yankees outslugged the little Cards, 17-15. Shortstop Jimmy Barnett got two of the senior Cardinals' hits, both singles. Overall also led the Yankee attack, getting three hits in three trips. S. D. Baize, Yankee third baseman, clouted a bases-empty homer to lead off the second inning.

The Giants-Dodgers game was postponed Monday night because of wet grounds.

Last Thursday the minor league Yankees-Giants game was called in the fourth inning because of rain with the Yanks leading 11-5. They got credit for the win.

The major league Giants-Yankees contest was also called Thursday as were both games between the Cardinals and Dodgers Friday night.

League officials haven't decided just how to make up the washed-out contests and may just drop them unless they will figure in the championship or unless more games are rained out.

Lad Is Calm During Storm

By ARGEN DRAPER
There have been lots of tornado stories, testimonies, rededications, etc., but one of the best was from a grandmother about her eight-year-old grandson. It seems everyone in the family was real excited but this boy; after the storm had passed someone commented to him about being so calm and he replied, "I just said a prayer that we wouldn't be hurt and I knew God wouldn't let me down."

Laura V. Hamner's program Sunday morning featured Roberta Campbell and her farming. It was amusing to me when Miss Hamner told of the milk cow stepping on Roberta's toe. Roberta went into the house, pulled off her shoe and stocking and shook the stocking expecting a toe to fall out.

I've seen everything now—a butane cigarette lighter. The fillers are miniature butane bottles.

Henry Browning had to pull the family car with the tractor four miles to get Mrs. Browning, Peggy and Nancy to the pavement so they could get to town to the 4-H Bake Show. I can imagine how many times Henry and Alpha asked themselves and each other if it were worth it.

Nancy won the award as County Baking Queen of Deaf Smith County. Had you seen her face with both surprise and pleasure when she was given the award you would have known any effort was worth it. Nancy will represent the County in the District Baking Contest in Amarillo during the Tri State Fair.

Susie Farris tells me that she and Albert have an eight-year-old parrot named Percy. Percy is quite gabby at times and says a lot of amusing things. He sometimes even talks baby talk. My vote goes to the Farris for the family having the most hobbies—birds, pigeons, dogs, cats and the best of all is Susie's painting.

This week I have enjoyed a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Estes. They have many lovely paintings and my business up there was to see about some picture frames. Mrs. Estes orders some of the beautiful frames come from that I see over town. Rush to Knight Street to see the Albert Stenge yard and the gorgeous climbing roses. They live at 613.

Monday night we attended the Commencement Exercises at Texas Tech. Never dreamed of so many changes. One term during the Dark Ages when we attended Tech there were only 1,900 students enrolled. Couldn't help remembering that the campus was in wheat stubble, there were no dormitories, only six buildings and the Gym. Was glad to have a student for a guide so I could get around over the campus. Yes, there's been a lot of changes, at Texas Tech since Depression Days.

Boy Breaks Arms in Fall

By MRS. R. L. PINNELL

Dale Gruhekey, eight-year-old son of the Slick Gruhekeys, fell from the top of a 15-foot barn ceiling of the Earl Browns' Saturday afternoon. Dale and Clinton Earl were exploring when Dale's foot became entangled. He held tight while Clinton went for help. In the meantime his arms tumbled and he fell to the floor of the barn. His fall was padded by a broken bale of hay on the floor but he broke both arms above the wrists. He was taken to an Amarillo doctor and is in duplicate casts. Gall, his twin sister, says he's fine with dressing himself except that she has to "pull up his socks and shoes."

Grudge Match Heads Saturday Wrestling Card

A double main event, featuring girl wrestlers and a grudge match, fills the bill for Hereford wrestling fans Saturday night at the Bull Bar.

Dory Funk will tangle with Bulldog Don Plechas in an effort to settle a misunderstanding brought about last Saturday. The bout is set for two out of three falls with an hour time limit.

Princes Moolah and Bonita Whitecloud are to meet in the first main event, also slated for two out of three falls or one-hour.

The Funk-Plechas bout is a rematch of last week. Geigel and Plechas split the first two falls. On the third one, Plechas was disqualified for failing to break his hold on Geigel.

Funk leaped into the ring and knocked Plechas loose and out of the ring. Plechas went to his dressing room.

Funk pulled off his shirt and challenged Plechas to a match right then. Plechas stayed in the dressing room.

Amarillo promoter Doc Sarpolis switched schedules and arranged for Funk and Plechas to meet here Saturday.

In the other event, Funk whipped Iron Mike DiBiase by taking two of three falls.

Princess Moolah, formerly known as Slave Girl, holds the world's championship in women's wrestling as well as the Maryland state title.

No information on her opponent is available.

The county 4-H girls will have charge of the Bull Barn concession stands Saturday.

Traveling FHA Girls Stop Here

FHA members are learning more these days than just keeping house—they're also finding out how to take a maximum of vacationing with a minimum of funds.

Thirteen Future Homemakers of America and their sponsor from Grantsburg, Wis., use their homemaking skills every summer to take a cross-country trip with very little expense. They take food along and cook their own meals, and beforehand they write to high schools along the road they plan to travel and get permission to spend the night in the school homemaking departments.

Supt. Fred Cunningham received a letter from this club, which is traveling through Texas this year on the way to California. He made arrangements for the girls to stay in the Hereford homemaking lab and when they arrived, he took them in a school bus on a tour of Deaf Smith County farms and showed them the different crops.

Then he took the girls to the George Paetzold home, where Hereford FHA members Dolly and Betty Paetzold entertained them with a picnic and swimming party, and also showed them through Hereford. Supt. Cunningham helped out at the picnic by cooking the hamburgers.

The group arrived in Hereford about 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, having left their home town Saturday, May 25. After seeing the sights in California—especially the beach—they plan to be back in the Dairyland State June 16.

The Grantsburg Club members, who are traveling in two cars, made a trip to Florida last summer and are planning to tour New York next year. Because they cook their own food and sleep in high schools, their only expenses on the road are gasoline and whatever each girl wants to spend. How's that for good managing?

Six boys from the Hereford High School Choir left Sunday for Portales, N. M., to attend the Eastern New Mexico 10th Annual Sunrise Music Camp, June 2-15. All of them were given scholarships to the camp. They are seniors Bill Kester, Billy Wimberly, Carrol Wiloughby and Douglas Womble, and juniors Buddy Sparks and Gwin Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott got their degrees Thursday night, May 30, from ENMU. She is the former Joan Moore, daughter of Mrs. Bess Moore. Bill received a BA degree and Joan, a BS in business and economics.

Mrs. Howard Beacham and son, Howard Jr., visited in the home of Mrs. J. F. Ward last weekend. The Beachams are from Dumas.

Mrs. Abel Ruga and daughter, Dianne, are spending the summer with Mrs. Ruga's father, C. C. Acker. They live in Dryden Valley, Alberta, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown and Jeanne spent last weekend vacationing in the Pecos Mountains and Santa Fe. They left Friday and returned Sunday night.

A group of little folks from the Wesley Methodist Church followed the "Friendship" theme of their Bible School lesson Monday by singing to Mrs. J. F. Ward at her home. They were David Watts, Peggy Summers, Jeanne Anne Gore, Linda Merrill, Donna Seay, Debbie and Ginger Gholson, Betsy and Prissy Crume, Karen Bell, Gwen Welch, Danny Boyer, Sue Buckmaster and Ronnie Matthews. Their teachers are Mrs. Kenneth Woodruff and Mrs. Nelson Reiger.

The food committee for the community supper held Saturday night at the Community House, met Saturday morning in the home of Mrs. George Turrentine, Mrs. P. B. Sowell, chairman, Mrs. T. B. Thomas and Mrs. C. A. Saucy were present. Mrs. Bess Werner looked in on the group.

The main conversation recently has been the storm that ripped across the community and touched down in several places, destroying everything in its path. The tornado picked up a barrel and a child's wagon from the Reinauer farm and deposited them in the onion field of the George Turrentines. It continued through a stock lot, whirling a wheat drill completely around, dismantling a feed trailer, taking a small metal grathery and leaving it near the home of the Floods, who live east of the Turrentines.

She has eight days before the summer session at Texas Tech. Jimmy Dale Auten is home from Texas Tech for the summer.

TAXING PROBLEM DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Questions by confused taxpayers are common this time of year, but H. S. Wagoner, Dayton internal revenue agent, admits this one stumped him.

A man entered his office, picked up two copies of Form 1040, stared at them for a moment, then said: "I don't know anything about this stuff. Can you tell me where I can get a taxidermist to fill it out?"

Shower the bride with Lifetime Gifts

Give her gifts of steel

When a special friend or relative is taking that important step from Miss to Mrs., show her your delight: Give her gifts of steel. For steel gifts are stylish gifts that last a lifetime.

When you buy them for a shower or wedding, you're giving the bride much more than just an expression of your affection. You're giving gifts that will endure as long as she needs them.

Showering the bride with gifts of steel means choosing from countless items made to give stylish service—from coffee makers to canisters, folding chairs to flatware, trays to toasters, clocks to cutlery. No matter what you choose to give, she'll appreciate your good taste and thoughtfulness.

And any bride would glow with pleasure to see the lustrous quality shining through every gift of steel. And she can be assured these good-looking items will go to work in a thousand ways to prove their lasting value. For only steel can do so many jobs so well.

So when you shower the bride, make it a Steel Shower. And when you shop for the bridal gifts, make an investment that is fashionable and practical. Look for the store displaying the Steel Shower symbol—and get the gifts that will last a lifetime.

This symbol identifies the store that's a Bridal Center, where you can get a variety of gifts styled in steel...to last a lifetime.

Wheat Crop Is Best in 10 Years

By MRS. S. N. THWEATT

The nice rain is the talk of many farmers. They say this is the most in many years. The Lister land is still under water, and on the H. W. Barton land at Walcott, it will be a week before they can get into some of the fields. No one is complaining—they are just saying this is what they have been waiting so long for. The wheat has come out and will probably make more than it ever has since 1947.

S. N. Thweatt was in Amarillo Tuesday and Friday on business. Royce Lee Pruitt is taking a course in homemaking this summer.

Mrs. Roy Pruitt is teaching a class in craft this summer. She said she thought when school was out she would have some time, but last week she was busy going places and doing things for and with her daughters, Royce Lee and Mary Kay.

The Messenger W. D. Club will meet with Mrs. J. E. Rouse Friday, June 14 at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. S. N. Thweatt and Mrs. Jack Buse will give the program.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Thweatt were out driving Sunday. They visited with Phillip Miller, who said it would be several days before he could get into his field. They drove over to see Bill Miskick's wheat. Some of the wheat is nearly shoulder high and, as the old saying does, "thick as hair on a dog's back." The earliest will be ripe about June 20. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Markman, Mrs. J. E. Higgins and son James, all of Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Sinclair of Dimmitt all visited in the home of Jack Buse Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Nash and son Tommy of McPherson, Kan., sister of Jack Buse, visited the Buses recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lady of Hereford were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Buse Tuesday night. The Ladies were married recently and have just returned from their honeymoon. Wayne had to report to camp Wednesday. Mrs. Lady will join her husband June 10. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lady, will take her to Fort Gordon, Ga., where he is stationed. The couple will be there until early October. Mrs. Lady was Betty Buse.

Z. D. Jackson of Dallas, cousin of Jack Buse, was a weekend guest of the Buses.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Potts of Rosedale, N. M., visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Brown Sunday.

Mrs. Ernest Brown went to White Deer Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. T. J. Broxson, who has a new baby girl.

India Enjoys Fashion Boom in Handlooms

By SAM JOHNSON
NEW DELHI — Elusive secrets of high fashion are touching India's mud villages as the country expands foreign sales of handloom cloth.

Sophistication is the order of the day in foreign markets, a government spokesman says. Handloom weavers and craftsmen in mud hut must keep step with ever-changing fashions of foreign countries if exports continue to grow.

Production of handloom cloth, a tourist favorite, is climbing. Foreign sales are rising. Modern handlooms are coming into use. Weavers are banding into cooperatives, virtually forced there by government money.

Much interest in handloom fabrics has been created in the American market. A team of American experts recently toured India and emphasized quality cloth.

IN THE shifting world of fashion traditional designs have had to a certain extent make room for new lines in patterns and designs, according to Indian government experts, who point out:

"The handloom weaver is unfamiliar with consumer tastes and is reluctant to experiment with new designs." The government, pushing farther into the weaving industry as it is doing in most industries, is establishing weaving centers where artists will create designs to meet changing tastes. These designs will be furnished to weavers. A center in Bombay is operating now and others will begin soon.

The government, attempting to speed up the rise of exports, is virtually forcing weavers into cooperatives. Co-op members get government help. "Private enterprise" weavers shift for themselves.

THE INDIAN government plans to spend 500 million rupees (124 million U. S. dollars) to promote handloom weaving during the second five-year plan. Only coop members will get shares of this.

Well over one million weavers are in cooperatives now, a shift of 400,000 into the program in three and one-half years. Exports to the U. S., United Kingdom, Ceylon, Malaya, and the Sudan totalled close to 60 million yards over the 1955 figure.

The exports were valued at almost 81 million rupees (17 million dollars).

George Washington named his home Mt. Vernon for British Admiral Edward Vernon. The first president's brother, Lawrence Washington, had been an aide to Admiral Vernon in 1742.

Please God, Help Us!

In every man's life there is a moment when he is inadequate to the forces he faces. At such a time only his moral integrity will sustain him.

Those who have based their lives on their own strength inevitably will face the time and the place when that strength is insufficient to the necessity of the moment. They will crumble unless they know that they are never alone... that there is a power that can and will help them, no matter how terrible the times.

The man who has learned to rely on God can draw from this source of never-failing power and with resurgent strength face his future, unafraid.

SCHOOLS OPEN

PIKEVILLE, Ky. — If pupils in mountain schools of Pike County become restless about mid-April, 1957, it will be understandable. Traditionally, in other years, rural classrooms have closed then, to save the children travel on the roads muddied by spring rains and thaws, and to enable them to help with spring farm chores. They returned to school on the nearest Monday to July 20th, while pupils in more urban areas were in the middle of their vacations. Last year, the county board decreed, all schools should open at the same time, in September, and close in late May.

The professionals have a name for it. They call it tuck pointing.

To you and me, it's the reconditioning of the joints between the bricks in your house, whether it's an all-brick dwelling, a part-brick or a wooden house with a brick chimney.

Whatever you choose to call it, it's something that any home handyman can do at very little expense. A brick wall, if properly built with good materials, should be waterproof. Once the mortar between the joints begins to crumble, there is danger of a leak. A lot of expensive damage can be averted by tuck pointing at the first sign of trouble. This sign usually is a series of hairline cracks where the mortar has pulled away from the brick. If an entire brick has come loose, it is likely that leakage already has taken place, even though it might not yet have made an appearance on an inside wall.

Thus, a periodic inspection of all brickwork around a house is a necessary part of proper home maintenance. Skill in making the repairs is not essential as long as certain simple fundamentals are followed.

Where there is a sign of trouble, all loose mortar should be removed with a cold chisel, a pick or an old screwdriver that has outlived its intended usefulness. Tap the chisel or whatever you are using with a hammer. Remember — it must be tapping, since you do not want to dislodge any of the solid mortar or damage the brick itself. Dust out or blow out all particles of loose mortar and wet the opening thoroughly.

The mortar should be one part of portland cement to two parts of fine sand, plus 10 per cent by bulk of hydrated lime. Or you can buy a mortar mix which needs only the addition of water to make it ready for use. The mortar is applied with a trowel, the kind that comes to a point. Fill the cavity flush with the brick. Work with a small amount of mortar at a time to avoid smearing the face of the brick. After a few moments, press the trowel against the joint and move it across the surface of the mortar, vertically first, then horizontally.

This is called striking and will give your work a finished look as well as aiding in the shedding of rainwater. Masonry workers know kinds of joints, but you should be content with a simple one. If you have several bricks close together to work on, apply the mortar to each of them. By the time you get to the last one, the mortar in the first will be hardened just enough to go ahead with the striking.

When an entire brick is loose, it can be removed and used again if it is in good condition. If not, get another brick of the same size to take its place. Here again the cavity must be thoroughly cleaned of all mortar particles, followed by a complete wetting down. Soak the brick in water for a couple of minutes. Spread the mortar around the sides of the opening and the part of the brick that will go into the wall. Put the brick in place and pack in more mortar.

On very old houses, the brick itself may have become porous and permitting water to seep through. In that event, you can coat the entire wall with cement paint if you do not mind changing the color of the brick. Or, if you want to retain the color, use one of the new waterproofing compounds which are colorless.

YOUNG MODERNS Teen, Adult Music Blend Society Aim

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If one new project is successful, young moderns—and their parents may be getting their music out of the same bag of pipes. (And Elvis may change his tune, too.)

The newly organized "Tgen Age Society for Musical Enjoyment By Parents and Children" launched on the "Mitch Miller Show" is determined that the entire family should admire the same kind of music, instead of fighting over whether Tommy Sands, Elvis Presley, Lawrence Welk or Guy Lombardo offers the best entertainment.

Tommy Sands, now giving Elvis a run for his crown, is one of the founders of this new musical enjoyment society.

"Most of us kids have more judgement than we are given credit for," says Tommy who is about to make his first movie. "I grew up listening to hillbilly music. I wasn't aware there were other kinds. I've been listening to all types of music recently, including classical and I really dig it the most. I think this new society will be good because it will do for other kids maybe, what it did for me."

Another founder, a psychologist, thinks "young people have a surplus amount of energy that demands expression." He thinks this should be expended through legitimate outlets like music and athletics and we'd have less juvenile delinquency.

Most people believe that we follow the music pattern set for us from the toddler stage. If our parents flirted with every fad beat, we're likely to follow suit when we grow-up. Long haired music, unless one has been used to it, is likely to seem "strictly for the birds."

Family listening is the big goal of this society. It will offer memberships to parents and will enlist P-TA groups as well as pop music fan clubs. Tommy Sands hopes to recruit members from his own fan clubs, and cards will be given out.

Mitch Miller, father of three teenage daughters says:

"Parents and kids should try all kinds of music together — rock 'n' roll and what have you. They should play music — play it hot, cool, sweet, play symphonies, operas, calypso, until they reach a balanced diet of music."

No matter what the goal of the group, it does seem like somebody may be after Elvis' scalp — sideburns and all. 'Cause no matter

New Cooper's Super Market Opens Here Today

NEIL COOPER

FREE PRIZES TO HIGHLIGHT 3-DAY AFFAIR

Cooper's brand-new super market at Park Ave. and McKinley street will stage its grand opening today, Friday and Saturday. The three-day celebration begins at 8 a.m. today. Included in the event are 550 prizes, free cold drinks, special grocery prices and double Gunn Bros. stamps for each purchase over $2.50.

Featured in the new, $250,000 store are a gift department, a clothing department, an enlarged drug and cosmetic section, a housewares division, a unique dairy department and a huge frozen food section as well as expanded services in all departments.

THE STORE encompasses almost 12,000 square feet of floor space, double that of the old store at 144 W. 4th. Off-street parking for 100 cars has been provided.

Neil Cooper, manager and co-owner has invited "all the people in this area to come see our new store."

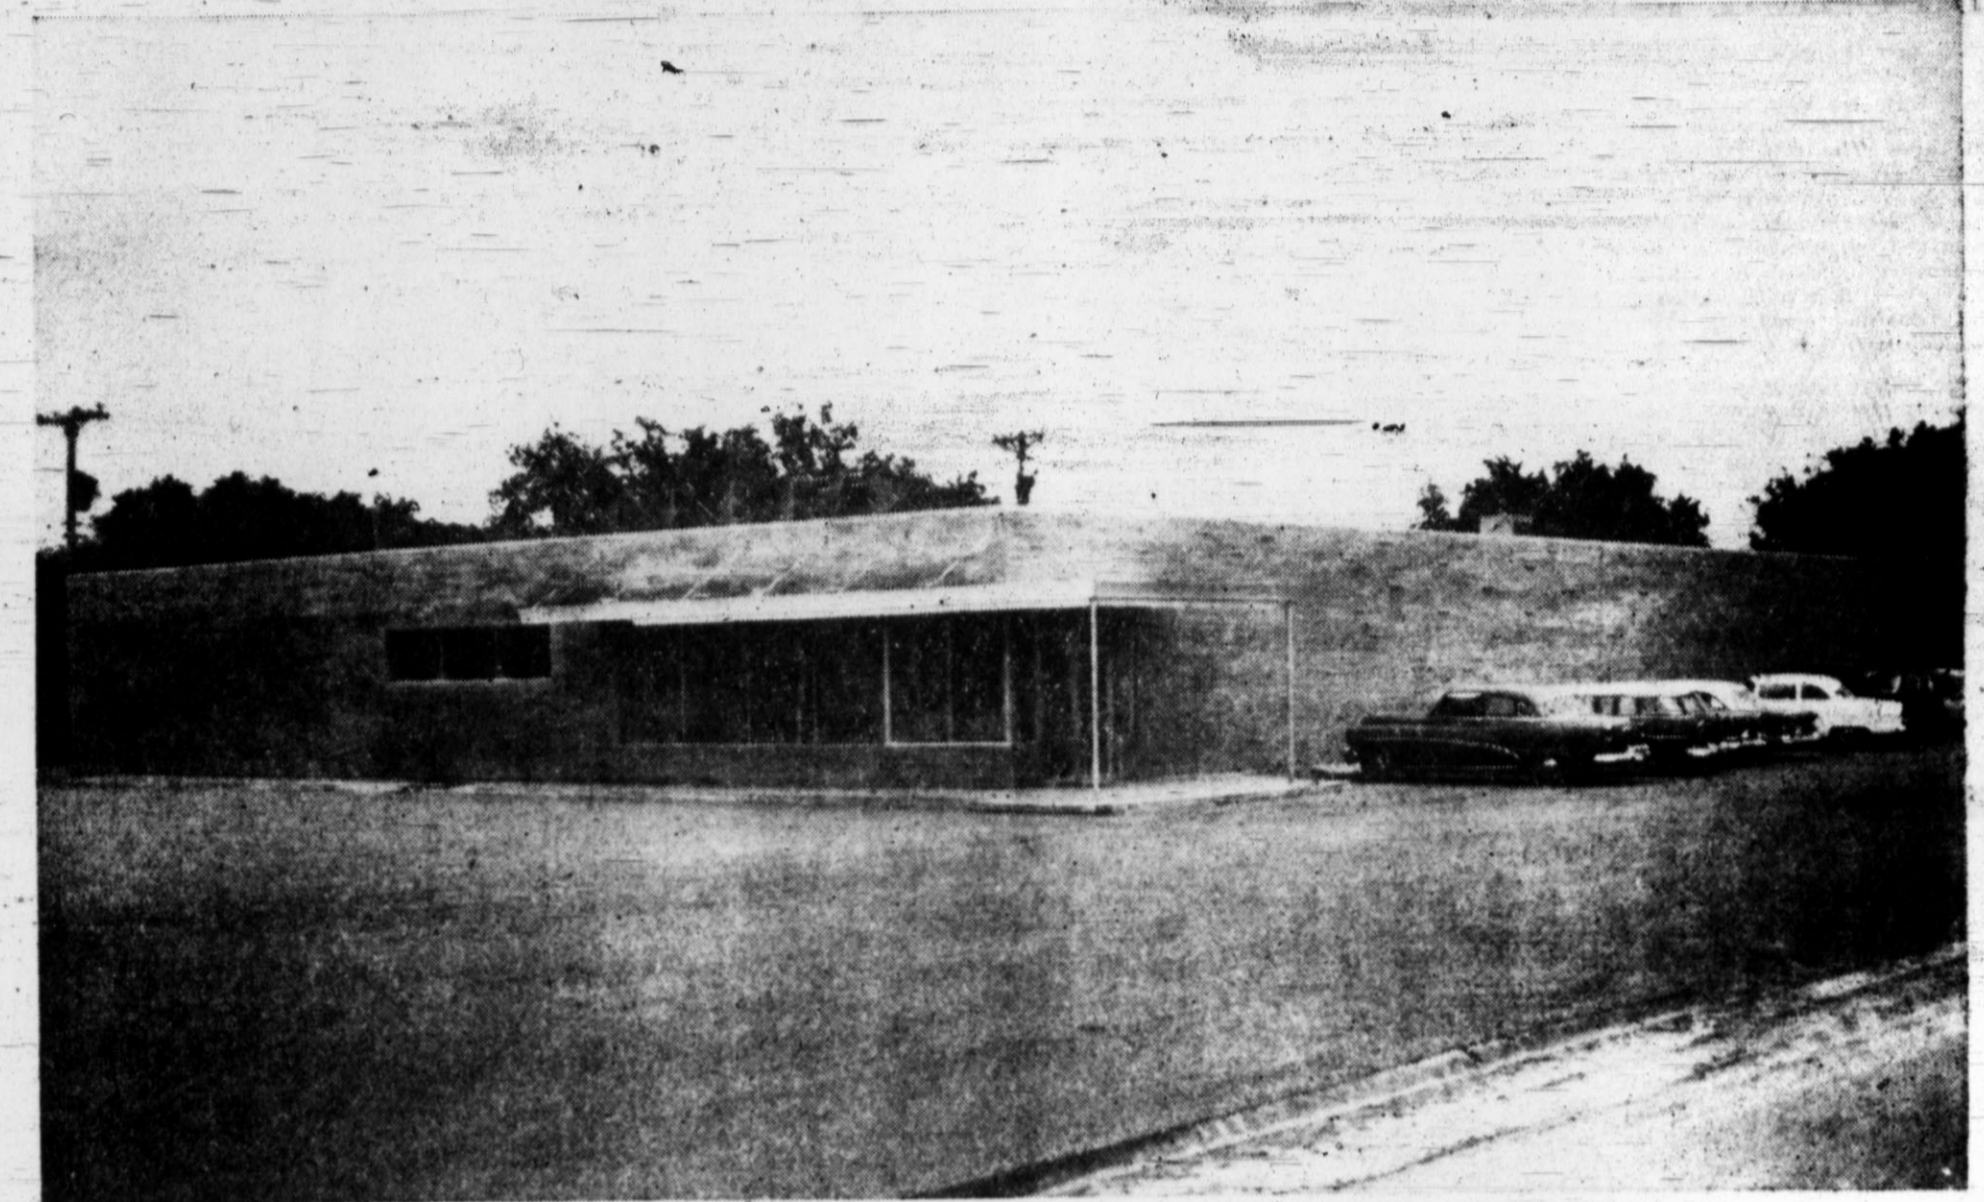

Included among the prizes to be given away during the three-day festivities are a Shetland pony, complete with saddle and bridle, 10 wrist watches, 100 baskets of groceries valued from $10 to $15 each and $5,000 in Gunn Bros. stamps.

"No purchase is required to win, all you need to do is register, and you need not be present to win," Cooper said.

Opening of the bright, modern store marks five years of business in Hereford for Cooper and his two brothers, Clay and John. They also own stores in Canyon, McLean and Tucumcari, N. M.

CONSTRUCTION of the new building was begun March 1.

The building is finished on the exterior of Color Crest brick. The asphalt tile floor is done in a pink, tan and brown basket weave pattern.

The west wall is lined with canned goods and five gondolas, separated by spacious aisles, hold the majority of staple items.

More than 100 lineal feet of frozen food cases will offer customers wide selection in that line.

The produce department has five tables for "dry" vegetables and three refrigerated cases will hold the other vegetables.

IN THE meat market, shoppers will find choice cuts of meat readily available. The market also features fresh fish of all varieties direct from the coast.

For cheese lovers, there is a separate section, and a great number of cheeses will be available.

Five check stands assure rapid, efficient handling of baskets of groceries. The old store had only three checkers.

An innovation, first of its sort in this area, is the automatic door, which opens when a customer steps on the mat. It is entirely safe and will assist package boys as well as laden shoppers.

IN-ADDITION to the free prizes,

Cooper's will furnish free Pepsi-Colas to customers and live entertainment.

As in the previous store, recorded music will play constantly. A hi-fi player is wired throughout the store and is combined with the public address system.

Central heating and cooling systems will add to the customer's comfort as she shops.

Due to the expected rush of customers, Cooper has suspended home delivery service during the grand opening.

"We want all of our customers to see our new store. It has been designed strictly with them in mind," Cooper said.

Meat Department Features Fresh Fish Direct from Coast

The new Cooper's Super Market opening today at McKinley and Park Ave. will feature the largest meat department of any store in this area. The new refrigeration cases for fresh meats and cheese will hold approximately 900 lbs. of cheese, plus more than 2,000 lbs. of fresh and cured meats, according to market manager Roy Britton. The large walk-in refrigeration unit will more than double the storage capacity of the meat department.

The cutting and wrapping room, probably one of the most modern in the Panhandle, features stainless steel fixtures for complete sanitation, and ease of cleaning. The room is also designed for more efficient working conditions of the butcher and three wrapping clerks.

"If we don't have what you want in the market line" says Britton, "we can get it in a hurry! We will carry a complete line of fresh and cured meats, and if you don't see what you want in our display cases, we'll be glad to make a special cut." Britton said the market department will be glad to prepare special cuts of steaks and other meats for parties, but urged that the market be given a little notice in order that plenty of meat will be available.

"The fresh meats sold here will carry the U.S.D.A. Stamp of quality," asserted Britton. He also pointed out that the new market will specialize in fresh sea foods in season. Among these are catfish, red snapper, speckled trout, fresh shrimp and others direct from the coast.

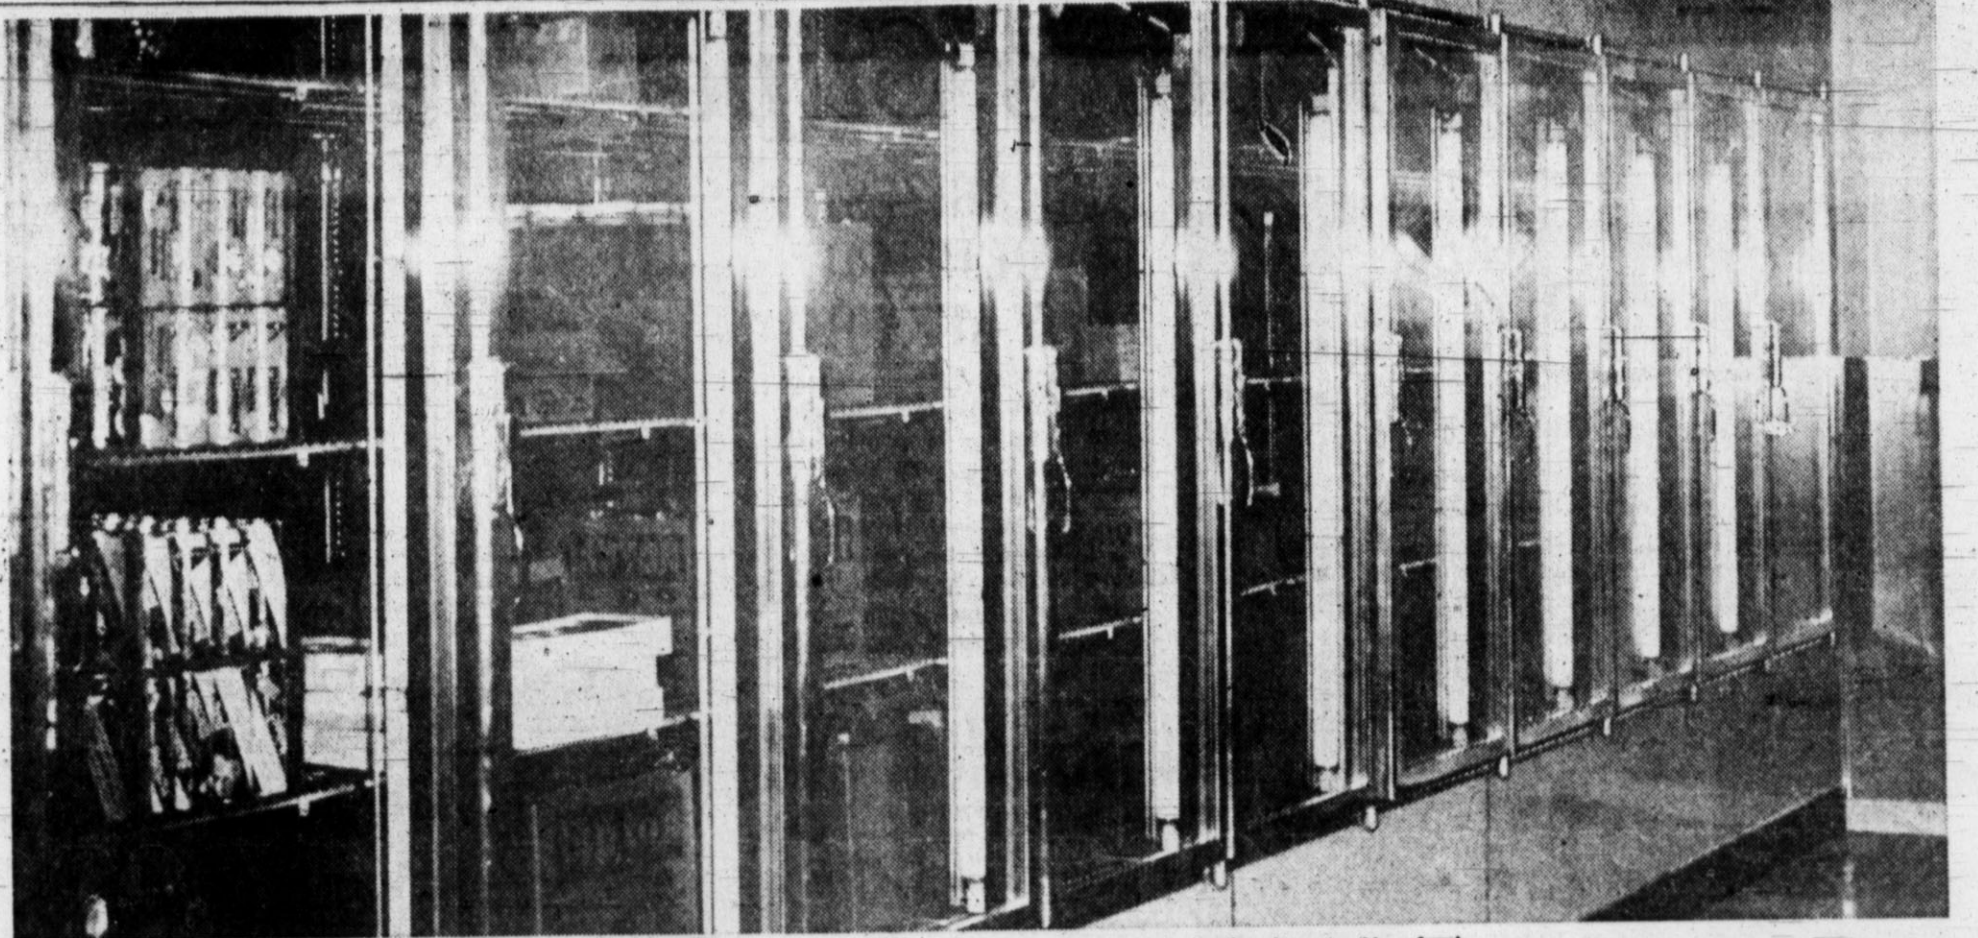

"The meat and cheese case are arranged for the better shopping convenience of our customers," said Britton, "with wide spacious aisles separating them." They are also accessible from either side.

"We feel that our new market is one of the most modern anywhere," Britton stated, "and it was definitely designed with the customer in mind. We want to extend our personal invitation to each of our friends and customers to visit the market this weekend for the Grand Opening," Britton stated, "but we don't want you to stop then. You're always welcome here, and we'll be glad to show you our work room and walk-in refrigeration box anytime you desire," he said.

GIVE THEM A CHANGE

You can't do better by a sandwich meal than to offer what the Pennsylvanians call "Seven Sweets and Sours." Set up a relish tray with a variety of pickles, gerkins, pickled vegetables, olives, tart jellies, mustard, horseradish — or what's your favorite variety? Let every one choose his own sandwich accompaniment, for happy munching. And when your jars of pickles are for frying — you'll get scrumptious to flavor salad dressings, or meat stews or sauces. It's too good to waste.

Shown here is the all new Dairy Case recently installed in the new Cooper's Super Market. It is the first in Hereford.

Five Check Stands at Cooper's Assure Fast, Efficient Service

A line of five check stands, positioned to permit grocery shoppers easy exit, plus the automatic door assure shoppers of a minimum of wasted time after completing their shopping tour throughout the store, will be supervised by Jewel May, head checker at Cooper's Super Market.

A shopping cart parking area is located at the entrance which spreads in neat rows from east to west along the north side of the sales area.

"No customer will ever have to wait for a shopping cart, and there will be little delay in checking groceries because of the large number of check stands," according to Neil Cooper, owner.

The newly installed automatic exit doors are the first to be used in Hereford, and probably one of the first in the entire Panhandle. These doors open automatically when the customer steps on a rubber mat when leaving the store.

They are completely safe and will not open when someone is standing in the way of the door on the other side.

"We don't want to rush our customers' departure," Cooper stated, "but we feel that many times customers are delayed entirely too long at checking stands, and we find that getting out the front door is a problem not only for the customer who may be carrying a small child, but for the sack boys who have both arms loaded with groceries."

"Another feature of the new store, and one which we're sure all the customers will appreciate," said Cooper, "is the fine Seeburg Hi-Fidelity background music. Our customers seem to appreciate the soft background music while shopping. This is not new with this store, since we have had it in operation at the old location for a number of years," Cooper added.

PEACH ICE CREAM

8 eggs
4 cups sugar
3 qts whole milk
1 pt cream
Pinch of salt
3 qt. crushed fresh or frozen peaches.

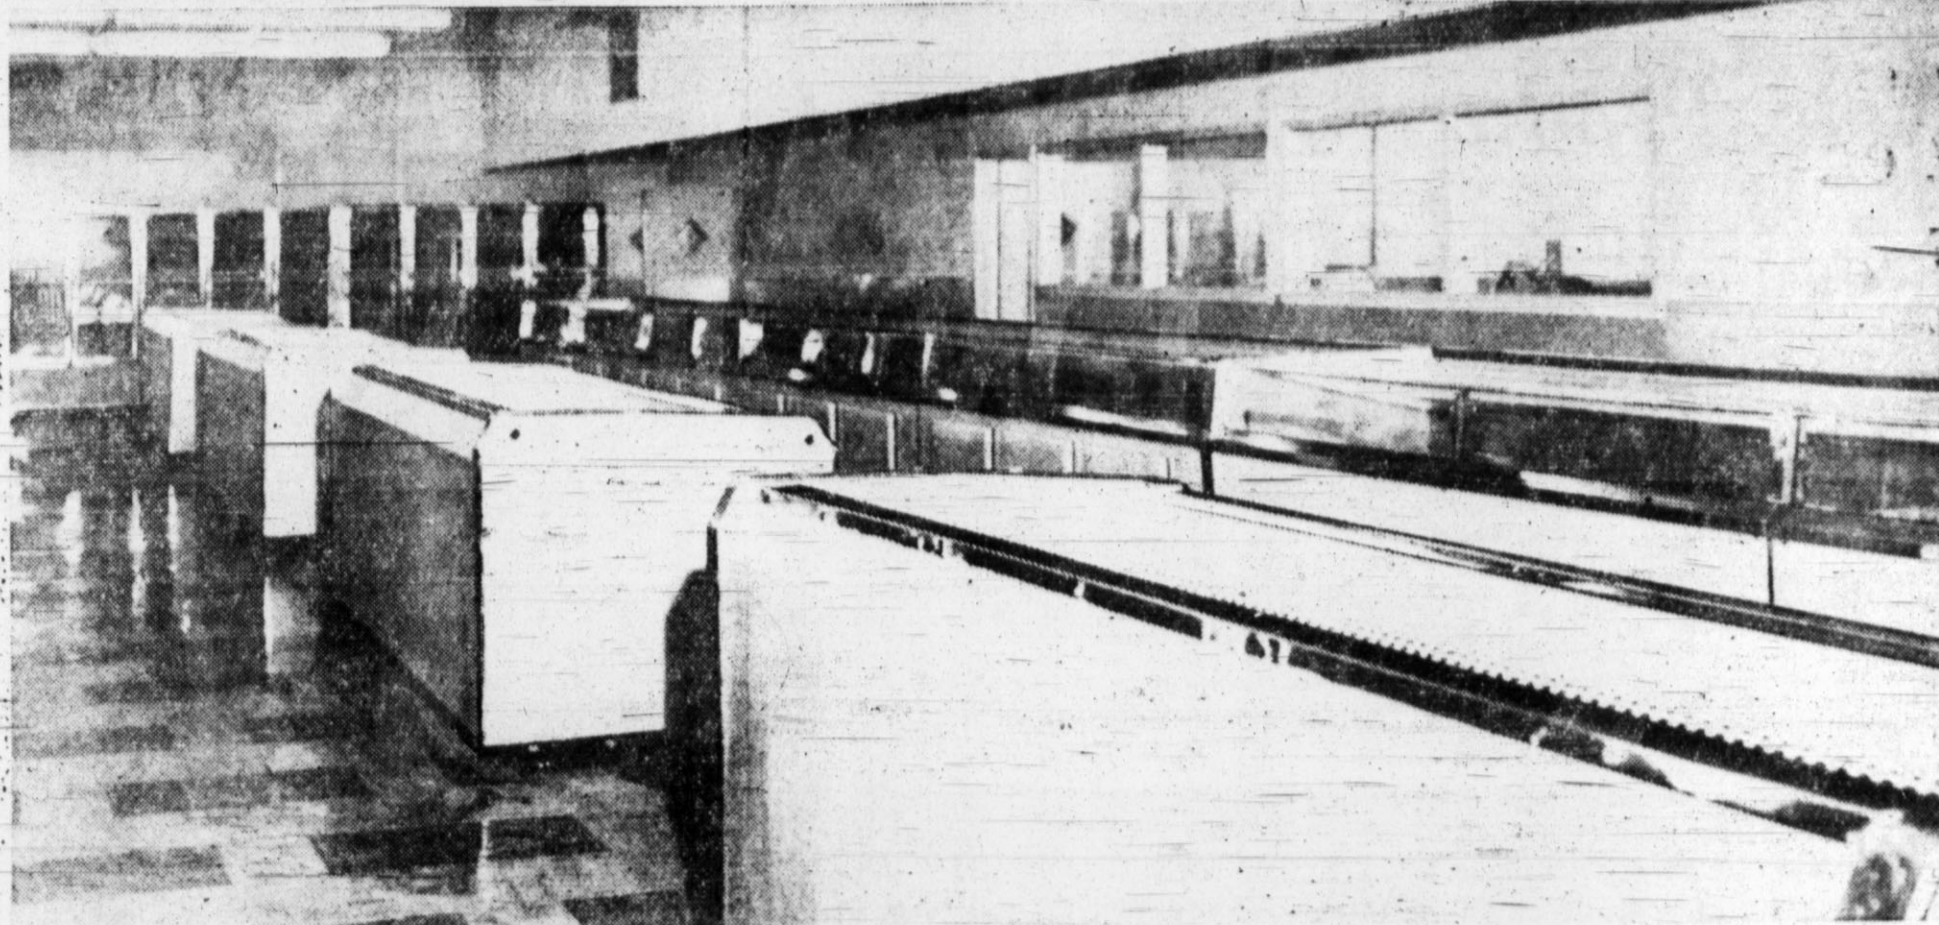

Beat eggs well, add to whole milk, sugar and salt. Place over heat and stir constantly until mixture coats the spoon. Cool. When ready to freeze, add heavy cream or top milk, and crushed peaches. Fill freezer can not more than 2 1/2 inches from top of can. (This recipe is for a 6-quart freezer.)

UNIQUE TOPPING

Here's another delicious topping for any cake. It just takes minutes and is a dream. Whip some cream, sweeten to taste and add a teaspoon of powdered instant coffee.

HERE'S A TWIST

Have you ever given a different taste to an ordinary fruit cup by adding tiny hard candies to grapefruit and orange sections? It's good, especially if some of the candies have a mint flavor.

Both special cuts of meats and pre-packaged products are available at Cooper's new Super Market. The meat cases are pictured above.

New Produce Department To Handle Large Volume

An estimated 1,500,000 pounds of produce will be provided patrons of the new Cooper's Super Market during the next 12 months, according to Tom Carroll, manager of the produce department.

"We will meet the requests of every one of our customers if it is at all possible," Carroll pledged.

Produce will be provided from Colorado, California and the Rio Grande Valley. Scores of independent suppliers have contracted to supply fruits and vegetables from all over the world. This may include papaya from Hawaii and other fruits and vegetables grown far from Hereford.

"We will always provide a ready market for produce grown in this immediate area," Carroll said.

Fresh produce, which will arrive daily, is received at the rear of the super market and taken to work tables where it is washed and prepared for display. There's a large walk-in-refrigerated box used to store perishables until they are moved to the display tables and cases. The produce department covers an area across half the east wall of the new store, plus five large tables along the east side for potatoes and other vegetables and fruits requiring no refrigeration. Along the wall are three mirror-refrigerated display cases. There are mirror reflector backs on each case. Storage space is provided beneath each case.

An extra-wide aisle separates the cases from the five produce display tables. The tables can be easily converted to special seasonal displays of other foods and merchandise.

Large scales hang at vantage points along the row of display tables for convenience of patrons.

"The new produce department has definitely been designed for shopping ease," stated Carroll. "And we plan to have a wide variety of fruits and vegetables for our customers to choose from."

"If there is anything we don't have, we'll do our best to secure it, if the customers want it," Carroll said. "We're proud of the new produce department, as well as the entire store, and we want to extend our personal invitation to all of you to come by this weekend for the Grand Opening, and to make Cooper's Super Market your food center for the years to come."

PERFECTION FROM A PACKAGE—Lemon chiffon pie served with cherry sauce.

Lemon Chiffon Pie Quick Treat

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Cooks, young and old, ask about new food products. So here's news that may be of interest: chiffon pie filling now comes in a package.

We tried the lemon-flavored variety "as is" and also with lemon rind and lemon juice added; the second method is to be recommended, in our opinion, because the fresh flavor makes a real contribution. And another point, serve this dessert shortly after it has set, because it is fluffiest then. Setting, by the way, takes only an hour or two.

We tried the lemon chiffon filling in a graham-cracker crust, using the following recipe. If you like, you may serve the dessert with a cherry sauce though our own preference is for a whipped-cream topping.

QUICK LEMON CHIFFON DESSERT

Ingredients: 1 cup finely crushed graham crackers, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/4 cup butter or margarine (melted), 1 package (3 ounces) lemon-chiffon pie filling mix, 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 cup cold water, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/3 cup sugar.

Method: Stir together graham-cracker crumbs and 2 tablespoons sugar. Add melted butter and mix well. Press onto bottom and sides of a baking pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches). Place pie filling mix in a large deep mixing bowl. Add boiling water and mix, thoroughly. Add cold water, lemon rind and juice, and beat vigorously with a rotary beater (hand or electric) until mixture is very foamy—about 1 minute. Add 1/3 cup sugar and beat until filling stands in peaks—this will take 1 to 3 minutes. Turn into pan with graham-cracker crumb mixture in it. Chill until set—1 to 2 hours. Cut into

How Can I?

Q How can I avoid getting hangnails?

A Hangnails can be avoided with the right care. Massage the cuticle about the nail gently with a cotton-wrapped orange stick dipped in olive oil. This keeps the skin about the nails soft, preventing the hardened tissues which form hangnails.

Q How can I make stainless ink for children to use?

A Use bluing mixed with a little water. If spilled, it will cause no injury to the clothing, as it can be washed out with one laundering.

Q How can I make a good substitute for starch when a garment requires just a little starching?

A The garment may be stiffened by using the water from boiled rice.

Q How can I prevent clogged sink pipes?

A If the sink is greasy, wash with hot soda water. Pour this solution down, drain pipe several times a week. It will prevent the pipe from becoming clogged.

Q How can I make the threads come out easily when hemstitching?

A When drawing threads for hemstitching, wet a small brush, rub it across a cake of soap and then over the threads to be drawn. The threads will come out easily and without breaking.

Q What is a good home remedy for toothache?

A A remedy that is often effective is to place a bag of salt, heated fairly hot, on the face.

Q What is a good method for labeling jars and cans?

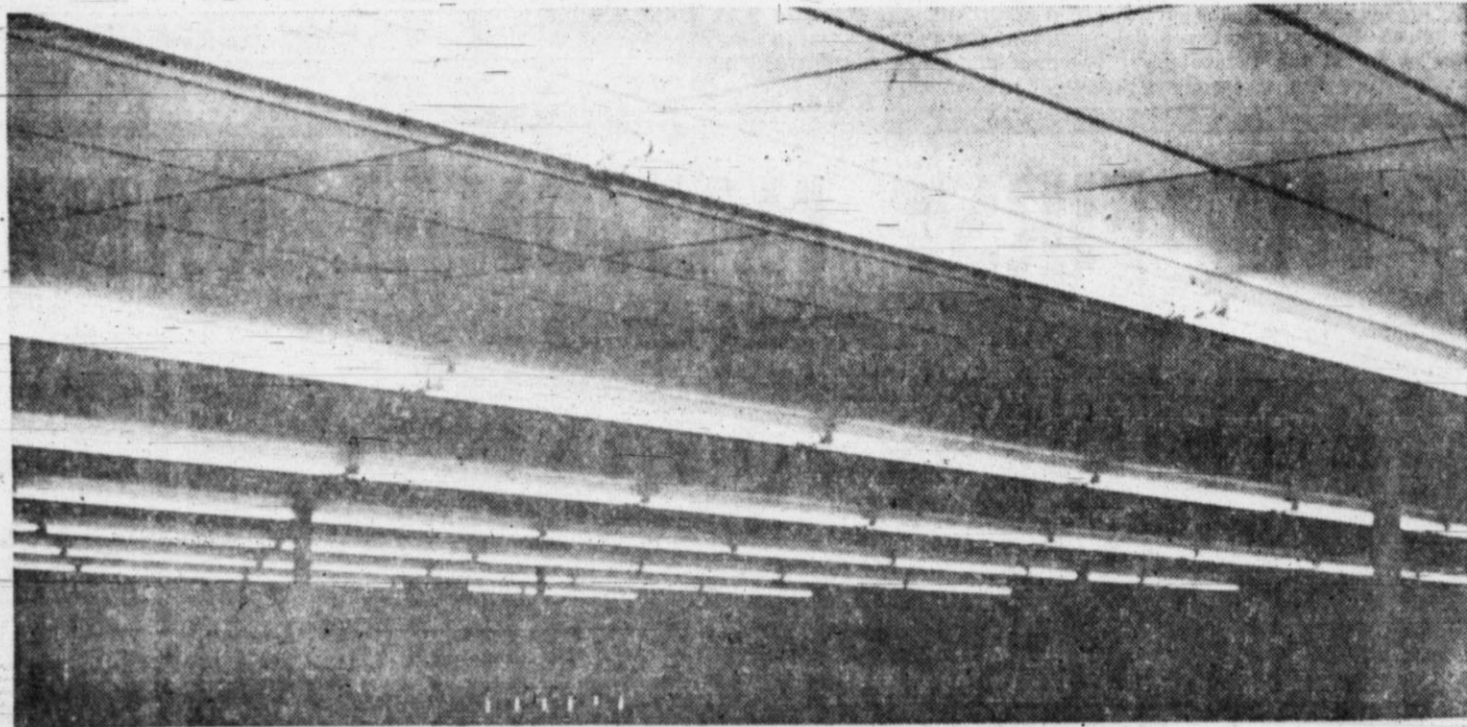

A Try using adhesive tape, cutting to the required sizes. Keep a roll of adhesive tape in the kitchen. It is also good for mending torn oilcloth, holding paper linings to drawers, and many other purposes.

Q How can I remove blackheads and avoid a greasy skin?

A Use a toilet water made by mixing two drams of powdered borax, one ounce of glycerine and 19 fluid ounces of orange-flower water. Always shake well before applying.

food coloring, one can of tenderized flaked coconut, and assorted candies — licorice strips, round brown candies, colored gumdrops and silver dragees.

In decorating the clown with frosting, use white for the face, green for the tie and pink for his round cheeks. Next comes the flaked coconut. Half of it is toasted (spread it on a cookie sheet and put in the oven until it is browned, watching it carefully). Put the toasted coconut on top for the clown's hair. Tint the un-toasted coconut yellow by mixing it with half a teaspoon of water to which a few drops of coloring has been added.

Sprinkle generously on the bow tie. Use thick black licorice strips for the large mouth and to outline the eyes. Use brown candies for eyes and place three cinnamon candies in triangle at outer edges of the eyes. Three large gumdrops held together with a toothpick form the nose. Sprinkle on silver dragees for ears.

Butter and Chocolate

If both butter and chocolate are called for in a recipe, it is a very simple matter to melt the chocolate by putting both ingredients in a pan together over a low fire. The fat from the butter will also prevent the chocolate from sticking or burning while melting.

Thrilled, They Think It's Real, Find Out It's Only Hi-Fi Trick

By AL THREN
AP Newsfeatures

A burst of applause filled the New York City concert hall as the orchestra conductor turned to his audience and the musicians put their instruments to rest.

"What you have just heard," the conductor said, refusing to bow, "was a phonograph recording."

The audience was spellbound. Throughout the evening the conductor and a group of sound engineers — using prearranged signals — switched from a live performance to a recorded one and back again. Only the most critical listener could tell the difference.

It all was part of a demonstration of advanced hi-fi or high-fidelity.

There is nothing mysterious about hi-fi. An easy and accurate definition is the reproduction of sound as faithfully as possible with the original performance. A basic hi-fi system is simple, too.

It consists of a turntable with a needle, or stylus, mounted in a cartridge in the tone arm, an amplifier, speaker and enclosure.

Is it expensive? That's mostly up to the individual. You can spend as little as a hundred dollars or up in the thousands. Music from the average radio or phonograph is stunted, sounds flat and tiny in a restricted range. It's difficult to tell one instrument from another.

The ordinary radio or phonograph in addition to a large amount of distortion is incapable of reproducing the original tonal qualities with any degree of fidelity. That is where high-fidelity comes in. It fills the gap and gives you complete, extended control for word and ordinary noises if you feel like it.

Deciding what type of record player is best for a high-fidelity system — an automatic changer or a single play professional jukebox — boils down to a matter of preference.

They should turn at all record speeds you intend to use. If you're just starting a record collection then a combination of 33 1/3 revolutions per minute with an adaptor for the large center hole 45 is usually sufficient. But you may also add the older 78 r.p.m. speed. The motor that drives the mechanism must be of top quality and free of stray hum radiation that would interfere with the music.

Mechanical imperfections must be at a minimum or a low growing noise called "rumble" becomes downright annoying. Rotation must be smooth, within a fraction of 1 per cent of the selected speed, otherwise changes of pitch called "wow" and "flutter" will produce chaotic results on record reproduction. THESE defects are present in all equipment, but to a lesser degree in some makes than in others.

Professional turntables are made to run smoother and quieter than the automatic changers. But they play only one record at a time.

Turntables most often are sold without an arm to hold the cartridge and needle. It's an item you

Holiday Sandwiches Rate Salute

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Stars and stripes sandwiches are fun to serve on July 4th. Along with a big pitcher of lemonade, a salad and dessert, they'll make a good lunch or supper snack. And you can prepare this menu ahead.

These sandwiches look mighty pretty with their creamy base of hard-cooked egg mixed with mayonnaise and seasonings, their beautiful "stripes" of boiled or baked ham and "stars" of green paprika. If you want to serve these open sandwiches with a fork, as we do, you can compensate by using attractive disposable paper plates. Use a tiny star cutter for the green pepper garnish. Our miniature cutter of this sort came along with 11 other small cutters — of different shapes — in a round tin box. We found our set in the housewares section of a large department store but these sets are also available in some gift shops. We sometimes use the tiny shapes for cutting out pimiento garnishes.

STARS AND STRIPES SANDWICHES

Ingredients: 4 hard-cooked eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, white pepper, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon finely grated onion, 1 tablespoon of lemon juice, 1/4 cup (about) mayonnaise, 6 slices white bread, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine (softened), 2 slices boiled or baked ham (about 1/4 inch thick, 1/2 medium-sized green pepper (cut into 1/4-inch stars).

Method: Mash eggs fine or put through ricer; mix with salt, pepper to taste, mustard, onion, lemon juice and mayonnaise. Trim crusts from bread; spread with butter. Spread bread with egg mixture; cut in half. Cut ham into narrow strips. Arrange ham strips on egg mixture to resemble stripes. Arrange green pepper stars in upper righthand corner. Chill. Serve with celery sticks if desired.

Note: Tiny sprigs of parsley may be substituted for the green pepper stars.

YANKEE DOODLE DANDY would have flipped his periwig over these Stars and Stripes sandwiches.

Brass Faucets

Brass faucets can be given a brilliant polish by moistening a cloth, dipping it in flour, rubbing the brass thoroughly, then polishing with another clean dry cloth.

Book Covers

To take away that rusty look from old leather books, rub them thoroughly with a cloth dipped in olive oil.

Cleaning Bricks

The bricks around a fireplace will be brightened if they are scrubbed with hot soapsuds, after which a coat of hot boiled oil is applied with a paint brush. Clean the brick tiling around a fireplace with a cloth which is saturated with vinegar, and if necessary repeat the process.

YOUNG MODERNS

Cigar Band Art Wins New Friends

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Young people have revived an art popular with their grandparents before World War I — decorating with cigar bands.

The method hasn't changed, but the items decorated are different. Grandma concentrated on ashtrays and vases. Young people today decorate items to be found in their rooms — lampshades, waste paper baskets, jars, photograph albums, picture frames and note books. Belts are decorated as well as key chains and luggage.

If you have access to cigar bands (rounding up those used by friends, neighbors and even trades people who will no doubt enjoy passing them on to you) you might try your luck at the project.

Before you begin decorating, open the cigar bands so they lie flat. Cut the back of the bands, if necessary, at the side of the joining. Spread the bands out, face up, and you will be able to choose the color and shape for any part of your design without searching. Apply with a small brush or cotton swab to the back of the band. Place the band on the article to be decorated. Press it down gently with your finger for a minute or so, allowing to set and the excess glue to escape. Remove excess glue with a damp sponge.

After the bands have been put on the object, apply a coat of white shellac to articles that may get a lot of handling, it will be easier to dust them.

This same technique may be applied for floral effects, the decoupage method that has been revived in recent years — the pasting of sketches inside glass items and then shellacking those items down.

A pretty effect may be achieved when glass is used by first lining the object with cigar bands or floral pictures, gluing down and then fitting colorful felt in behind the pictures. Red is most popular but new colorful felts in decorative colors lend themselves nicely to this scheme.

As with any fad, this one can only look chic if it is not run into the ground. Avoid willy-nilly motifs, and be sure you have a plan before you decorate even one item.

Another idea to dress up a bare wall is to paste bands or other decorations on paper plates in an interesting motif around the rim, shellacking over-all. These do not look anything like paper plates if properly done. First paint the back ground of the plate — black, yellow, red, blue or what have you. Then paste on your design. An over-all design is best and proves very eye catching when up on the wall.
