Two Negroes Charged Attempted Rape, Burglary

Two young Negroes are in Deaf Smith County Jail today in lieu of $1,000 bond, awaiting indictment by the Grand Jury on charges of burglary with attempt to rape.

Charged are Willie Lee Price, 18, of 129 Ave. H, and Samuel Douglas Dotson, 19, Lorenzo, Tex.

According to Sgt. Leon Atchley of the City Police Dept., Price and Dotson allegedly entered the home of a neighboring family and attempted an attack on a 23-year-old Spanish-American woman who was asleep in the living room.

The pair apparently became fearful of being caught after one had clamped his hand over the young woman's mouth and the other held her by her arms, the policeman said, because she was told they would leave if she would not call for help. She said she agreed.

According to the signed confessions, Price ran from the house upon releasing the woman, but Dotson remained. The woman said she detected his presence, told him to "get out," but he stayed until she got out of bed and turned on a light, getting a good look at her attempting attacker. He ran when the light was turned on.

The pair said in their confessions they had made sure the young woman's mother was asleep in the home's bedroom before entering the living room, where they had seen the daughter asleep.

Arrest of the pair was made within an hour of the incident, with positive identification being made by the young woman following. Both men were taken to Amarillo where they submitted to a lie detector test, after which they both confessed. Charges were officially filed Friday morning.

Humble Well at 4,800 Feet Friday

Drilling at the Humble Oil and Refining Co. well was at 4800 feet Friday evening and in the anhydrite and shale formations, according to Joe Reinauer.

The well, located 35 miles west of Hereford near the New Mexico state line, is on the Reinauer Bros. property.

Drilling was temporarily halted Wednesday evening when a drill pipe twisted. It took about eight hours to make the repair. A loose formation, in the section between 3200 and 4000 feet, was penetrated earlier in the week and speeded up drilling considerably.

Drilling is now averaging about 300 feet per day, and geologists report formations are running higher than expected. They also report that they hope to find something favorable at about 6,000 feet. Drilling is being done at a normal rate for the depth.

Reinauer said several circulation tests have been run, and formations are being tested every two feet.

Hereford To Become National Figure In Russet Production

Not only is Hereford well on its way to becoming one of the major vegetable producing centers of the southwest and nation during the regular harvesting season - it is also to become a leader in producing winter vegetables.

The information was announced this week by Austin Anson, executive vice president and general manager of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers, who has been in Hereford the past two weeks assisting in the marketing of the potato harvest now in progress.

Anson was speaking of a variety of potatoes called russets. "The russet potato segment of the industry is right on the threshold of revealing information that is going to be more gratifying to people of Hereford than anything else since potatoes were started in this section," he said.

He said the grade of russet potato being grown here here "will keep, grade out and cook as well as any winter potato that the housewife has been accustomed to buying for many a year."

"This is a very bright spot in the future picture for Hereford, as many closely affiliated industries will be drawn to the town, when the potato is fully developed. The potential is unlimited," Anson stated.

Russet potatoes are harvested before the hard freeze, usually in the months of October and November. They are harvested, stored and finally shipped - all in an orderly manner, and never in need of a rush such as the present type of potato is handled.

"We can see where a lot of people will grow a late variety of onion," he said. "Two crops like this go hand in hand."

Concluding, he said the new potato, along with onions, carrots, cabbage and many other products will, and can, be worked and handled here in storage and shipped out during good market times. This would, he said, promote year-around payrolls in the industry, which is always welcomed in an agricultural community.

known until about two years from now.

Potato Carload Shipping Mounts From Hereford

Approximately 1,100 carloads of potatoes have been shipped from the potato-producing area of the Panhandle, according to a survey made by Austin Anson yesterday morning. Of this amount, between 465 and 500 carloads were from Hereford.

Anson said the count he received by telephone Friday evening, from over the area, was 947 carloads, and the balance was probably to be shipped Saturday.

"There has been a definite interest shown in Texas potatoes on the market because of maturity, color and pack (good grade)," he said, "and the far-sighted grower who held up his loading for good merchandise is now reaping the benefit for his care and judgment."

"Baring some unforeseen conditions such as weather, rolling unsold merchandise, or shipment of poor-quality, I can't see how this area can have anything but a good deal from here on," he continued. Anson, who left with his wife for Ruidoso, N. M., on vacation yesterday afternoon, has been working with the potato shippers of the area as a central information center, which aids in marketing the produce. He is executive vice president and general manager of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers.

Around Town

Tuesday is the final day for absentee voting for the July 26th Democratic Primary.

A Store Front Clinic will be held Aug. 7 in Hotel Jim Hill ball room, starting at 9 a.m., according to co-chairman Ben Childers. The entire day will be taken by exhibits and filmed demonstrations. Merchants from surrounding towns will also be invited.

Official opening of the Hereford Municipal Airport has been set for Sept. 6-7. Bands and flying groups from both Amarillo and Cannon Air Force Bases have been committed to appear, as well as a passenger plane from Braniff Air Lines. Several hundred pilots from all over the state will be on hand for a fly-in breakfast on Sunday morning of the two-day event. Also, a barbecue is scheduled for Saturday.

WTCC Members Urged To Be More Expressive of Views

Local members of the regional Chamber of Commerce were urged to become more expressive in their views of legislative matters by Fred H. Husbands of Abilene, West Texas Chamber of Commerce executive vice-president, in a "report to Members" meeting Thursday afternoon in the Hotel Jim Hill ballroom.

On matters directly affecting local businessmen and farmers, Husbands said Mexican braceros (migrant labor) offer the best supply of labor available to agricultural farmers in the West Texas area.

"Each year," he said, "150,000 braceros work in the West Texas area. Agriculture in West Texas depends on it."

He expressed the viewpoint that farmers did not use enough feed grains for their livestock in the West Texas area.

"In a seven-year study conducted by the late Dr. Sidney Miller, economist at the University of Pittsburgh, the most significant phase we found was that the feeding of grain sorghum to livestock was not used to the best economical advantage by area farmers."

Husbands said industrial development is one of the best ways of building communities, and that an increasing amount of industries has come into Texas towns in the last 10 years as result of market orientation. Market, he said, is the greatest factor in the influx of new business.

"But in the past," he said, "current economic data in most West Texas cities has not been adequate enough to draw in new business."

"The West Texas Bureau of Research," Husbands said, "was formed last fall by our industrial committee to better the situation of inadequate reports on West Texas data. Monthly reports are now made on West Texas agriculture by the 'West Texas Business Report,' published by the bureau. It is an effective tool for building industry."

Local Man Hurt In Fall Thursday

Joe Pitts, 49, of 317 Ave. H, was seriously injured when he fell Thursday from a ladder while working on a steam pipe in the Hereford Creamery.

Pitts' injuries include a break in the small bone in his lower left leg and a shattered right heel bone.

The employee of the creamery for more than 21 years actually jumped backward when he started falling, and landed on his feet. He was standing about five feet high on the ladder at the time, disconnecting a team pipe.

After X-rays were taken at Deaf Smith County Hospital, Pitts was transferred to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo for care by a bone specialist.

World's Medically Best-Known Set of Twins Visit Hereford

By DAN MUDD Two years ago, almost to the exact day, a chill of fear hung heavily above the heads of a young California married couple. They were awaiting a crisis that few families in the world will ever have to experience.

By Dr. LeRoy E. McDowell, obstetrician at the birth.

After the birth of the twins, which was not by Caesarean section, Mrs. Hutchens was told that the twins were connected together at the spine. She said it left her in kind of an empty shock for weeks to come.

The father was told of the birth by telephone while laying pipeline in a tunnel. He, too, was told of the "connection."

SEEIN' DOUBLE—Lary and Gary Hutchens, now-separated Siamese twins, stayed overnight in a Hereford hotel Wednesday with their parents and two older brothers on a trip from LaMesa, Calif. One of the few Siamese twins ever to be separated successfully, and the only ones known to be still living, they were connected at the bases of their spines. They were separated when only 17 days old and are two years old now. (Staff Photo)

FOR LITTLE LEAGUE ALL-STARS

Plea Issued for Funds To Pay Team Expenses

A desperate plea for donations to the Little League fund was issued this week by treasurer Joel Hodges, who reported only $28 has been turned to him.

"We need more money if we are going to take these boys to the tournament at Pampa Tuesday. It takes a lot of money to feed them and take care of all the other smaller expenses," he stated.

"I don't know what we are going to do if the team wins at Pampa and goes on to the higher tournaments where the boys will have to stay through the entire event," he continued.

Any donations are requested to be turned over to Hodges. Dr. John Channer, president of the league organization, or coaches of any Little League team.

The All-Stars held their next to last practice session yesterday in preparation for their opening game against Canyon. Manager Joe Smith has not yet decided on a starting lineup. He has been juggling the boys around, playing and getting them used to every position on the diamond.

Hitting the ball very solidly were Charles Moreno, Steve Conaway, Van Smith, E. D. Baise and Frank Cain. Alternate, Jim Higgins, playing like a starter, robbed Cain of an extra base hit by making a sliding stop.

Board Studies Plans For School Buildings

Members of the Hereford Rural High School board of trustees Thursday evening sold three homes, two of which were recently acquired in a land-purchase; studied architect's drawings for proposed building construction; hired a field tax assessor; and voted to purchase cafeteria tables for Central School.

Sealed bids were submitted by three persons on three houses of the school district had for sale. Thomas A. Boyd was high bidder for the Eberly Estate house at 125 Ave. G with $655. Wayne Phillips' bid of $825 was high on the Charley Hayes house at 123 Ave. G, and the Jay Shaw bid of $826.56 was high on a house behind Stanton Junior High.

All bids were accepted by the school board and the buyers have until August to remove the houses from the property.

Proposed plans for construction of new buildings were submitted by architect Herbert Brasher of Lubbock, who was also officially hired on a basis of five per cent of cost. The plans on building a kitchen for Central School, 20' x 50', were accepted by the board, and believed possible to be built by school starting time.

Plans, though not detailed, were also studied for construction of the new elementary school in northwest Hereford, a new building behind Stanton Junior High, and the combination cafeteria (for both Stanton and senior high) and administration building to be built across the street from the high school auditorium.

Folding bench-tables were voted to be purchased for the new elementary school cafeteria. To be purchased from Sharr and Co. of Austin, 10 tables 14 feet long with a capacity of 28 places and costing $349 each will be the only furniture in the cafeteria.

Superintendent of Schools Fred Cunningham told the board that the portable bleachers which have been used by the school for the past two years have been sold, and are needed to be replaced. Southern Bleacher Construction Co. of Graham

County Agencies Observing 'National Farm Safety Week'

ATTENTION to one of the nation's most serious domestic problems - the mounting toll of deaths and serious injuries resulting from farm accidents - has been urged by heads of government, both state and national, in official proclamations issued recently.

This week, July 20-26, has been designated "National Farm Safety Week" by President Eisenhower and "Farm Safety Week in Texas" by Gov. Daniel to focus public attention on the farm accident problem.

County agent Lefty Thomas and home demonstration agent Argen Draper have been working on the local level in talks and demonstrations with various farm-connected organizations. Thomas has been showing a 25-minute film on farm tractor safety.

Interested groups, including National and State Safety Councils, the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, and the Texas Farm Bureau Dept. of Farm Bureau safety director, said the Safety Week will conduct a week-long educational campaign to acquaint farmers and ranchers with the urgency of safety observance. Theme of the safety week campaign is "When You Work for Safety - Safety Works for You."

Vernon Gayle, Texas Farm special week should have particular significance to Texans due to the fact that Texas leads all other states in the number of accidental drownings and fire-arm incidents occurring in rural areas. He said that Texas must claim more than its share of the national toll of nearly 13,000 deaths and over a million injuries sustained annually on farms and ranches. Gayle stated that more lives are lost in farm accidents each year than in any other major industry.

A USDA survey shows the following statistics on Texas fatal farm accidents, occurring on the land and in and around the service buildings, and the percentages: Machinery, 22.4; Drownings, (Continued On Page 8)

• Bracero Labor

Out-of-state labor bosses, in their efforts to unionize farm labor are contributing to the current critical shortage of farm workers, he said.

"It has been proven", he added, "that domestic labor surpluses are not interested, for the most part, in agricultural work. Therefore the bracero program is a necessity for Texas farmers, and it should not be hamstrung by red tape."

• Politics

"If you know what a man believes—and who is behind him—then you can pretty well know—if he or someone else is calling the signals—and what he will do under certain circumstances."

"I am unwilling to be classified according to somebody else's definition. But I will say what I believe:

"I believe that the American form of constitutional government is the best in the world.

"I believe in the American system of free enterprise—I believe in 'front-yard government'—close to the people.

"I believe in the sovereignty of the 48 separate states, which together make America the greatest Nation under the sun.

"I believe that every American should have the right to earn the liberties and freedom guaranteed him by the United States Constitution."

"If these are the beliefs of a conservative, then I am a conservative. If they be the beliefs of a liberal, then I am a liberal."

—Wm. A. Blakley
October 30, 1957

• Farm Program

"My position with relation to the farm situation has been, is, and always will be this: People on the land are the basic integral part of the development of our society. Our rights and freedoms are linked with the land and the people who live on the land.

"Our government is morally obligated to the farmer—the producer of food and fiber for our people as well as the rest of the world—to protect his purchasing power and thereby give him a chance to earn a decent living without government control.

"This can best be accomplished through price supports until such time as the government can set up a system whereby farmers can be offered adequate financing to set up production and marketing corporations of their own, controlled solely by them, thereby producing and marketing their products in a manner conducive to good business principles.—Amarillo Daily News, July 18, 1958

• Right to Work

The right to work—and the right to educate your children—without restraint, regulation or interference—from government, or private associations and organizations—must be re-established, protected and maintained—if this Nation is to continue to be the land of the free.

I will always advocate that the right to work should never be subject to the whim of a labor boss or to membership in any organization. I continue to believe that uncontrolled monopoly—in any form—is an evil thing—whether of capital or labor.

• Survival Of Our People

Should not the first consideration be the survival of our own people and their standard of living? We should be—we must be—permitted to support ourselves before we are asked to carry the rest of the world on our shoulders. Should we be forced to absorb the products of other countries and destroy our own economy—in the name of free trade?

Let me say right here—that we should—and we must continue in every way—to care for the disabled, the indigent and the aged who, through no self-imposed conditions, are unable to care for themselves. But we owe it to them—as well as to the general welfare of all our people—to make it possible for them to become useful and independent.

The respective powers of the three branches of government—legislative, executive, judicial—must be clearly and properly adhered to. It must be re-established that the authority to pass legislation is granted by the Constitution only to the Congress and new law is not to be made under the guise of new and purposeful interpretations—by the Court or otherwise.

It should require no great legal mind to alert everyone to the fact that we are now standing in the twilight of state sovereignty—and the lengthening shadows of a centralized, national government are threatening to erase the last essential elements of our constitutional system.

Five Attend Furniture Meet

Three local furniture companies were represented by five persons recently at the Southwest Furniture Market meeting in Dallas, which was attended by nearly 7,000 buyers and other retail executives.

Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hall of H and H Furniture Co., Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fish of Buy-Rite Furniture Co., and Dick Barnard of E. B. Black and Co.

The four-day market, open only to retail furniture store buyers and officials, opened July 14 and closed July 17.

More than 300 manufacturers of all types and styles of furniture exhibited their new lines in more than 165,000 square feet of display space in three buildings on the grounds of the State Fair of Texas. This new merchandise, they say, will be available in the Southwest's retail stores next month.

ABILENE VISITORS

Police to War On Traffic Accidents

A crack-down on loud mufflers was included in a warning issued to drivers Saturday by Sgt. Leon Atchley of the Hereford Police Department. He said anyone having a noisy muffler on his car is subject to a fine as prescribed by law.

He also warned drivers about failure to stop at designated signs and yielding right-of-way. Due to the increase of traffic in Hereford the last two months, he said, there has been an increase in accidents, especially at intersections.

"The only way we know how to decrease these accidents is to have more strict traffic law enforcement," he added.

Indians Regain League's Lead

A Red Sox rally in the top of the seventh, which featured a solo four-bagger by right fielder Gary Smith, fell one run short as the Indians beat the Red Sox, 12-11, Friday night and climbed back into first place.

With a comfortable lead going into the seventh frame, the Indians felt sure of a win. However, the Red Sox finally came alive and scored three big runs before pitcher Bill Steele cooled them off and took home a close one.

Gary Kendrick, all-star right-hander, went the distance for the losers and gave up only seven hits. It was the ten bobbles by his teammates that kept him behind. The loss dropped the Red Sox into second place.

The White Sox and Tigers had a swinging affair in Thursday night's action with the White Sox winning out, 18-10.

Both teams racked out 23 base hits between them, the Sox getting 13 and the Tigers ten. Joe Guerro, the White Sox hurler, led the attack by dumping out four singles in five trips to the plate. He scored three runs.

The White Sox led in the game most of the way, building their lead early in the game. They had thirteen runs by the third inning.

Pony League games will be discontinued until tournament play has been completed, July 24.

 ing a sensation over-the-shoulder catch during the intra-squad game yesterday to take fielding honors.
 Smith plans to hold one more practice Monday morning. "We'll have one more practice Monday morning and then leave for Pampa early Tuesday. We plan to return here as soon as we have seen all the games," he said.

The team will leave in cars Tuesday morning and play their game against Canyon at 11 a.m. Low funds have made it impossible for the team to remain in Pampa overnight.

Should the stars win their first game they will play the winner of the Dumas-Canadian tilt, and if they win that game will move on to Canyon for a two-game tournament.

One of Busiest Summers Ever

IT'S: HER POINT OF VIEW

By BETTY BABIONE

I have yet to hear of anyone saying they didn't have a thing to do this summer. You surely can't say things are dull around Hereford this year. In fact it seems to be one of the busiest summers ever. If you know of anybody who is bored for lack of activity, I wish you'd tell me. That would be bigger news than anything else I can think of at this time.

The possible exception might be among the teenage girls. Most of the boys are working at vacation time jobs or involved in some recreation program. Apparently, unless they are working too, the girls feel at loose ends during the summertime. Just exactly what can be done to help the situation, I don't know. Maybe somebody has a solution to suggest. Or maybe there's nothing wrong with teenage girls' being at loose ends in the summertime. Just for fun, I'd like to hear some opinions about it.

As the local baseball season comes to a close, our fair city finds itself as host to the area Pony League tournament.

The event is scheduled for three days starting July 21 (that's this Monday!) at our Pony League stadium in Veterans' Park. Competing with our Hereford boys will be All-Star teams from Pampa, Borger and Littlefield, and the games should be well worth the little bit of money and the little bit of effort it will take for local people to attend.

And the best of luck to managers Glenn Nelson and Rocky Lee and their eager proteges on the diamond.

It doth seem that our Little League All-Stars need more than luck if they are to have a fair chance in the area competition at Pampa — they need money to help finance the trip for the team.

There are some parents who are willing and able to help defray the expense of sending the players to the tournament. I'll revise that and say that all are willing and WISH they were able. But a few can't be made responsible for financing the whole team, and they shouldn't have to be. Then again, every of an award for extraordinary dramatic acting).

 I don't think Dean Johnson will mind my telling how she made her busy hubby sit at the breakfast table one morning long enough to explain the Lebanon-Iraq crisis to her.

Dean was interested in what was going on in those far-away places upon which the attention of the whole world is focused, but like so many of us, she hadn't studied the situation enough to form an opinion.

To be sure, there is a great deal of puzzlement among the average citizenry as to the reason for, and the significance of, the happenings in Iraq and Lebanon. The puzzlement came with the stirring of real public interest, but said interest wasn't really stirred until the Marines landed.

And speaking of interest, it's time for it to be applied to politics along about now. County elections are coming up and things are humming on the state level, too. The Blakley-Yarborough contest is causing considerable local activity, and it looks as if the pending precinct meetings will draw good crowds again this year.

Some time ago it was announced that there have been more weddings in the past three months than ever before for any equal period in the history of Hereford — at least there has been a record of write-ups and announcements to run in The Brand. And the record is still climbing. Me thinks that the wedding and wedding-related activities have contributed in a big way to both busyness and business this summer.

Bradley Smith says she enjoys weddings but rarely gets to attend them — she usually finds herself with a job as chief cook or bottle washer and winds up in the church kitchen instead of the sanctuary. Well Bradley, there are more than a few in your boat, and less than a few who are as sporting about it as you are.

Will close today's philosophsingle-boy has earned his place on the team and deserves to go. So what's to be done?

 A call for individual contributions has become more of a permanent solution than a temporary one, but surely it isn't the best nor only answer to the problem. It seems to me that there ought to be some organizations or business firms that would be interested in sponsoring the team's tournament trips each year. Or perhaps the Chamber of Commerce could have a special committee to produce a whiz-bang idea on how to send our Little Leaguers on their out-of-town jaunts with more fanfare in addition to ample carfare, foodfare and other kinds of fare. Certainly the youngsters go as representatives of Hereford, wherever they play.

I think the whole town would get enthusiastic over a money raising campaign should our team ever make it to national competition, the Little World Series, but there isn't a general response to the matter of the preliminary games. And who has a chance to earn a spot in the finals if they can't even make it to the play-offs? Of course, I'm thinking pretty far ahead, but you never can tell.

Well, the world won't come to an end if the situation rambles along as is, but it does seem kind of a shame that our Little League is plagued by lack of finances when it is such a wonderfully successful program otherwise.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch: any persons interested in chipping in to help send the boys to the forthcoming tournament at Pampa are urged to do so. Ansel McDowell at McDowell Pharmacy and Joel Hodges at the Hereford State Bank are the men to see.

Congratulations to the local Toastmasters for the garlands received via a recent article in their national magazine. And here again we have a case of good publicity for Hereford.

Do think though, that there should have been some mention of the sterling acting performances given by the members on their Sunday morning radio show and how Kenneth Coker was almost nominated for an Oscar (or something in the way team's fielding would be their main drawback. "We have some good hitters and fine pitchers, and a powerful bench, only our fielding is going to hurt us."

According to Lee, the other positions will see Randy Dowell on first base, John Buck, second base, Joe Mack Hale, third base, Ron Greenway, left field, Tommy Coffman, center field, and Gary Smith, right field.

On the mound will probably be big Jim Haney, although the Red Sox hurler Gary Kendrick is making Lee take notice.

AROUND 300 tickets for the three-day tournament between Hereford, Borger, Pampa and Littlefield have been sold and Lee feels that between five hundred and six hundred will be sold before the first game Monday night.

Starting time for games is 6:15 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. Tickets are 25 cents, for students and 50 cents for adults. Adults can also purchase a series ticket for $1.25.

Selling the tickets are Rogers Drug, McDowell Drug, City Drug, Dubs' Man Shop, Perry Bros., The Hereford Brand, members of the Kiwanis Club and managers of the four Hereford Pony League ball clubs.

Roy Boyer was appointed as chairman of the Optimist Club annual Christmas Tree Sales project at a recent board meeting of the organization. The money is used in boy's work.

The Hereford Creamery is currently undergoing a complete remodeling of the milk processing department and new painting of the exterior.

A Youth Revival Week will be conducted here July 20-27 at the First Methodist Church by Rev. James Glasscock, presently a second-year student at Perkins School of Theology, SMU, Dallas. A breakfast will be held at 6:45 a.m. daily for the youth. Morning church services will be held daily at 7:30 a.m., and evening services at 8 p.m., and are open to the public, according to Rev. Alby Cockrell.

School tax equalization board will meet Tuesday starting at 9 a.m. in the school tax office in the court house. Members of the board are Chester Wiggins, Robert E. Thompson and A. L. Yeager.

A. H. Ruff announced this week the purchase of Plains Motel on West Highway 60. Mr. and Mrs. Ruff have operated motels in Joplin, Mo. and Carthage, Tex., from where they recently arrived.

A meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Hereford State Bank friendship room of all interested persons of the Dale Carnegie school.

TULIA VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. W. Featherston of Tulia arrived Saturday to visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Culpepper. They returned Sunday. Returning with them was their daughter who had been visiting with her grandparents.

Twins...

"After I hung up," he said, "I was sick. I knew that one or both of the babies would probably die."

Their fears were lightened, they said, when they were told by Dr. McDowell that the babies were independent and normally developed in every way except for the connection.

"Our happiest moment came when Dr. McDowell told us 'they're fine,'" the father said. "They told us everything would be all right, but we couldn't help feeling low and blue."

"When those doctors came out of the operating room and we really knew both babies would be all right, why, I just flipped over inside," he said.

"About my happiest moment came," Mrs. Hutchens said, "when I was told a week later the twins would require nothing more than their mother's care."

When the twins were born, their combined weight was 11 lbs., one oz. "Each weigh about 30 lbs., now," the parents said.

The only evidence of the operation are small scars at the base of each twin's spine, where they once had once been joined. The boys have never showed any ill effects of the operation, according to the parents.

"We were subjected to an excessive amount of publicity after the boys were separated," the father said. "I was still working at my job, and the telephone rang 24 hours a day."

"People were always wanting to come in our house to see the twins, and for no other reason but curiosity," the mother said.

THE TWINS have a lot in common, Mrs. Hutchens said. "When we buy something for one, we have to buy for the other, too."

"And," the father added proudly, "when one of their older brother's tease one of the twins, the other does his best to defend his twin brother."

Though medical records are somewhat incomplete, the parents have been told that Lary and Gary are the sixth pair to have been separated successfully, and the first pair to have been separated at the spine. They have also been told that a Siamese birth happens only once in about 5,000,000 births. About 350 cases of Siamese births have been known to have happened.

under consideration by the House of Representative Ways and Means committee, provides for increased social security payments and hospital and medical care. He urged members at the meeting to write to their Congressmen to oppose the bill.

"A bill now ready for consideration by the House, the Community Facilities Bill," he said, "provides unlimited construction of community facilities on a 50-year loan. That could also raise taxes to an unlimited extent."

He said another bill under consideration is on federal aid to science scholarships.

"That bill," he said, "is estimated to eventually cost the taxpayers $1,000,000,000 a year, and the bill could lead to eventual federal control of education. It is an unnecessary bill because communities can take care of their own schools."

The meeting was one of a series being held throughout the 132-county region served by the West Texas Chamber. Similar meetings have been held in Fort Worth, Lubbock, Amarillo and other cities in the area.

The WTCC's Work in national affairs recently won a national award from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States "for outstanding achievement in stimulating informed and effective congressional action." Only two other state or regional chambers were so honored.

placed them here without obligation of purchase to the school, and they are now sold. Friona picked up four this week, he said.

The board decided to investigate the possibility and expense of having new ones built locally. Those which have been used are priced at $500 each. James Garner was hired by the board for summer-time work as a field tax assessor, a position he has filled without contract for two weeks. He has been assessing newly constructed residents, business buildings and personal property. Garner will be paid $75 per week, and will use his own car.

The board set July 31 as the next special meeting date. At that time more plans are to be submitted by architect Brasher.

Vacation Time Is Fun Time

Two of the words most frequently heard around the American household at this season of the year are "vacation time". Members of the family who aren't participating in swims, picnics, trips, etc., will be planning happy occasions for others, especially the upcoming generation. When summer comes there are more ways for a boy to have fun than can be counted—especially when his dog, his favorite companion, enjoys all the fun too. It's just about the happiest time of the whole year for a boy and his dog.

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME—Mike, the boxer, knows he will get his share of that candy being passed around. He shares in everything with his five playmates, and has five times more fun than any other dog. The boys are Jerry Don, 9; Randy, 7; Kim, 2; Craig, 6 and Doug, 4—and all are sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Poarch, 410 Ave. K.

MIND YOUR MANNERS—Chuck Cogdell has more fun with Wally, he loves his parakeet, Sugar, who lives in the tall cage. An older than Chuck and should need no restraining advice. But while Chuck really TUG OF WAR—Jeffrey Deavenport thinks he can do anything better than Sandy, a Boston bull-dog. Both work hard at the games they play, and it's always a toss-up as to which will be the winner. Jeffrey is the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Deavenport, who live on the Dimmitt Highway, and when he isn't having fun with Sandy, he is teaching tricks to his dachshund pup Bobby who failed to get in the picture?

GOOD BEHAVIOR—"Look pretty, Max" long, lazy days—but he manages. They says David, 3½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cooper, and Max does his best, and Max isn't about to be left out of any of the fun or mischief that David gets into. (Staff Photos)

MISSIONARIES NEEDED

NEW YORK (AP) — There are more people in New York City without church affiliation, says Rt. Rev. Horace W. B. Donegan, Episcopal Bishop of New York, than the entire populations of Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, Montana and South Dakota combined. Right in the big city — and not out in far-away places — is where missionary work is most needed, he said.

SNAKES ALIVE!

ELIZABETH, N. M. (AP) — If you like rattlesnakes, you'll love the Union County Hiking club. It hunts them, with wooden prongs.

Led by Robert Gasser, a chemist, the club hopes to catch several snakes for mounting purposes. Last year's only rattler was caught by a teen-age boy.

SUMMERFIELD NEWS

Girls' Auxiliary Returns From Floydada Meeting

By BETTY WALSER

The intermediate Girls' auxiliary of the Summerfield Baptist Church left Monday and returned Wednesday after a three day encampment at Floydada. Girls attending the camp were Ann Lance, Dianne Clearman, Jerre Bea Noland, Patsy Campbell, Freda House, Gail Woolbright and the leaders, Mrs. Gayle Galley and Mrs. Mildred Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Curry were in Amarillo Sunday, where they visited Mrs. Curry's sister, Mrs. R. A. Baker, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Dick King and Jerry Pepsworth of Tahoka visited in the P. B. Baker home Sunday. Maxine Baker, who had been visiting with them, returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clearman and family visited with Mrs. Clearman's mother, Mrs. J. A. Stanford, in Amarillo Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walser and family of Seattle, Wash., visited in this community this weekend with relatives. They visited Monday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Waiser for a picnic supper.

Scattered rain was received in this area Saturday, Sunday and again on Wednesday evening. The moisture was only a very small amount which did not hinder the farmers from continuing their field work.

Debbie, David and Dicky Lookingbill of Amarillo spent the weekend in the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Lookingbill. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Lookingbill and Donna came Sunday. Mrs. Bradley Lookingbill and children remained until Wednesday, when they returned home with Bradley Lookingbill.

Mrs. J. M. Wright, who has been in the hospital after undergoing surgery, was dismissed last Friday and is now at home and reported to be doing very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flowers and children of Hereford visited over the weekend in the L. F. Carter home.

Mrs. Janel Hampton and baby of Lubbock are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Cook.

Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr. and Mrs. Johnny Winkler are in Glorieta at the Baptist encampment.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tiffany of Toas, N. M., visited over the weekend in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Euler.

The Rev. and Mrs. Merle Weathers and Dianne Hollmag visited in Amarillo last Thursday with the Weathers' daughter, Nelda Weathers.

Willis DeLozier returned home Monday from Lubbock, where he had been in the hospital after undergoing surgery. He returned to Lubbock Friday for a check-up.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Baker visited in the L. D. Reeves home in Cotton Center Thursday. Jamie Clearman was in Amarillo Monday on business.

Joe Struen left Thursday for the Baptist encampment at Glorieta. He will remain there for six weeks and then return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ky Lawrence were Sunday dinner guests in the home of the Rev. Merle Weathers.

Jimmy and Valerie Christie of Hereford returned home Tuesday after visiting in the L. B. Lookingbill home for several days.

Potato Harvest Underway On E. C. Reinauer Farm

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY
Potato harvest is underway on the E. C. Reinauer farm this week. W. H. Gentry expects to begin digging his potatoes next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Neal and Carrie returned home last Saturday from a week's trip to California. They attended a reunion of his buddies who were prisoners of war in Japan during World War II. About 500 were in this particular group and almost all were present, together with their wives. Letters from those absent were read at the meeting, which was held on Terminal Island at Long Beach July 8.

Later, the Neals visited in the homes of some of those who lived there and visited relatives in Anaheim. On their return trip the Neals stayed overnight with friends in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mrs. J. W. Murphy of Clarendon went with the Neals to California. Nan and Billy Neal returned home Tuesday from a trip to California with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Neal of Amarillo. They spent two days in Disneyland, one day at the beach and visited Knott Berry Farm and the ghost town there.

On the way home, the Neals stayed two days in Albuquerque and visited Sante Fe, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Parks of Progressive.

Last Thursday the Smiths made a business trip to Plainview and attended a rodeo at Earth in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clois Kemp and sons went to Carlsbad, N. M., last week and made a trip through the caverns. They visited Mrs. Kemp's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stout, at Carlsbad.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith, Pat Smith and grandson, and Mike Jones of Amarillo went to Nara Visa, N. M., Wednesday to attend a birthday dinner for Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. John Cammack, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baird. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Addison Cammack.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strain over the weekend were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Strain of Weatherford.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lemons have about completed the inside work on their new house, which was moved there several months ago. They live on the Charlie Hays ranch.

E. M. McDill left last week for Montana where he plans to visit old friends and work in the harvest until school begins. He and W. T. Beavers drive the local school busses.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Althart have received word from their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Brechtel and daughter, Frieda, that they are settled in the town of Chateauroux in France, about 100 miles from Paris.

Mrs. Brechtel and daughter sailed a few weeks ago to join Brechtel, who has been in France since in the spring. They report that the weather is nice and cool, and Mrs. Brechtel, who milled in French at West Texas State College in Canyon, says her French language is coming back to her quite rapidly. Frieda is learning the language from her playmates.

Robert and Alice Ann Caraway returned home Monday from a visit with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oglesby, at Mobeetie.

Among those who have had telephones installed this week are Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ramsey and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schmidt.

Much speculation is going on here these days concerning the effects the new highway will have on the buildings at Dawn and houses along the highway which will have to be moved.

Allen Ray Wilcox of Bovina is visiting here in the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Sisco.

The Missionary Society of the Dawn Baptist Church met Tuesday afternoon at the church. Mrs. William Wimberley was leader of the program. Mrs. H. S. Fuller Sr., president, presided over the business meeting. The members present nominated new officers for 1958-59.

Those present were Mrs. Rea Cox, Mrs. W. T. Beavers, Mrs. Roy Polan, Mrs. Carl Wimberley, Mrs. William Wimberley and Mrs. Fuller.

Marian Russell went to Durant, Okla., Tuesday, where he attended the funeral services Wednesday of his grandfather, Mr. Charlie Weibling. Russell returned home Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Owen and family returned to their home in Oklahoma City Thursday after a several days visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zed Stewart. Larry Owen, who has been here since school was out, went home with his parents.

Fat Tucker left this week with Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Cox and children of Canyon for a vacation trip to Colorado.

Jerry Day of Amarillo, who spoke at the Dawn Church last Sunday, was a dinner guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Miller. He and Bobby Miller were students at West Texas State College last year.

MEASURING A DUST STORM
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — Dust Storms can be created with winds of only 15 miles an hour, two researchers report.

Frank E. Adley and Wallace E. Gill, of the General Electric Co. in Richland, Wash., said dust counts ranged from 400,000 particles per cubic foot of air at a 2 mile an hour wind to about 24 million particles in a 16 mile an hour wind.

Results of their tests were reported to a recent meeting of the industrial health conference.

RODE A HORSE
ROANOKE, Va. — Mrs. Virginia B. Scott, Roanoke's 1958 "Business and Professional Woman of the Year," says the first year she taught school the children came in covered wagons and she rode a horse.

"I loved every minute of it," she said. But, lest she appear an ancient, she said this was only 25 years ago at Grassy Creek school in the North Carolina mountains.

MISS TONGUE TWISTER
HILO, Hawaii — Judges of a Miss Hawaii beauty contest had a tough time jotting down the name of one of the Hawaiian maidens entered in the competition.

She was a 17-year-old high school senior, Miss Une Kauwahikapuokahikiolapili Umuiwi.

50-YEAR VETERAN
NEW YORK — Viola Roache has joined the small band of Broadway performers who have been acting 50 years.

A member of the company of "My Fair Lady," Miss Roache made her debut in "The College Widow" in London in 1908 at the age of 22.

Her daughter, Philippa Bevens, appears with her in the current Broadway smash hit.

Annual Class Luncheon Honors Mrs. J. F. Ward On Birthday

By MRS. JOHN McLEAN

Mrs. J. F. Ward, who says her happiest days have been in Hereford, where she could follow her heart's desire in the work of the church, was honored Tuesday on her 86th birthday at a luncheon by members of the Win One class of the First Methodist Church at the church. She has served as teacher of the class for 26 years.

Although her birth date in July may account for her independence manifested throughout the years, that could hardly be the reason for her urgent desire to help others, both far and near, shown even as a little girl. She joined the Methodist Church when she was nine and began a life of service to her fellow man after her marriage to J. F. Ward in 1893, they worked together for a common cause.

The story of her life would fill a book. In fact, in 1954, she wrote a book of her life story and called it "Gardening for the Master." She dedicated the book to the Lord's work, and returns from the sale of the book have been conscientiously used for that purpose.

As she went about serving the church and others, she seemed to have the happy faculty of inspiring others toward a higher plane of living, and she has served as a beacon light for many, even in foreign countries.

Just recently she helped Miss Flora Foreman, retired missionary, purchase a Jeep for the African preacher to use from the sale of her books, and she placed a piano in the children's department of the local church.

Among the many projects the class has sponsored are two girls in the Methodist Home at Waco. Members now support a blind boy in Korea, and a leper girl in Africa, and provide a scholarship for a Navajo Indian boy in New Mexico.

The birthday event Tuesday differed little from the many previous occasions. The atmosphere was one of love and friendship. Individual gifts were presented and tributes of appreciation were given, but the big gift which the class has presented to the honoree each year, was missing.

Mrs. Ward had requested that the usual love-gift, to her be made in the form of a donation to the Day Center at the Hereford Labor Camp. A check for thirty dollars will be presented to the Day Center soon.

The luncheon tables were decorated with midsummer flowers, and the birthday cake, made by Mrs. H. M. Benefield, was topped with tiny sugarpun flowers.

The program was directed by Mrs. T. L. Collins, who paid tribute to Mrs. Ward's life and service. Mrs. R. P. Conaway sang "I Love to Tell the Story." Mrs. A. C. Thompson and J. E. Beyer sang a duet and Miss Naomi Hare told of her work as a missionary in Mexico.

In conclusion, Miss Eunice Vasquez, missionary at the Day Center, told of her work with migrant laborers and of the needs of the Day Center.

Members of the class attending were Mesdames Andy Thomas, G. H. Whitaker, I. H. Spratt, Clyde Coenough, W. A. Gear, Laura Thomas, Mary Woolery, C. B. Williams, A. C. Thompson, M. F. Cherry, C. F. Davis, A. C. Pierce, E. W. Harrison, H. M. Benefield, Jennie Clark, Ida Ricketts, Wm. McGehee, T. L. Collins, Ray Conaway, J. E. Beyer, Sam Lesly, A. A. Hare and Miss Lulu Botsford.

Special guest was Mrs. Bell Prickett of Wichita Falls, who is visiting her daughter. Other guests were Mrs. Alby Cockrell, Miss Ona Hammer, Miss Nancy Cockrell, Mrs. G. H. Logan, the Rev. and Mrs. E. N. Naugle, the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. King, Mrs. Mildred Furhmann, Mrs. R. A. Batson of Waco, J. E. Beyer, Dr. G. W. Heard, A. A. Hare, T. L. Collins, Naomi Hare, Eunice Vasquez, and Mrs. Cleland Meharg and daughter of Amarillo.

The refreshment table was laid in lace over Nile green, and the floral attraction was of yellow gladioli and lilies in a tiered container topped by Dan Cupid. White tapers burned in crystal holders at either side. Bands of yellow ribbon bore the inscription, "Mary Lou and Thomas - August 1".

Montie Hale, Shirley Pierce and Mrs. Marvin Knox alternated serving cake and punch, and Cynthia Knox presided at the guest book of names. Miss Hale provided organ music during calling hours.

NEW SONG, OLD SCORE
NEW YORK — Although the musical comedy, "Bells Are Ringing," has been running on Broadway more than a year, the producers have just added a new song to the score. It's title, "Better than a Dream,"

"I am sure that no two people could have had greater happiness, and we are looking forward to many more years which we hope will be filled with just that kind of happiness," she commented.

H. H. Marshalls Observe Their Golden Wedding Anniversary

Tuesday was a red letter day for Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Marshall, in what started out to be a quiet celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

By mid-morning they were showered with telephone calls, congratulatory cards and telegrams, which lasted throughout the day. From early morning until late in the evening friends, neighbors and relatives called at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall are both native Texans. Mr. Marshall was born in Archer City, and Mrs. Marshall, the former Miss Martha Dobbins, was born in Brownwood.

They met in Clyde in 1904, where he was in the hardware business and she was keeping house for a family of five brothers and sisters. Her mother had died and she had assumed family responsibility.

They were married by the Rev. Lee Johnston in her home in 1908, and they continued living in her home so she could take care of her brothers and sisters. They also reared two other children during their first twenty years of marriage.

In 1928 they moved to Hereford, where he was engaged in the plumbing business until 1954, when he retired.

From 1937 to 1954, Miss Vera Byrnes lived in the Marshall home. Miss Byrnes was married to G. T. Higgins in 1954. Mrs. Marshall is a member of the Presbyterian Church and Mr. Marshall belongs to the Baptist Church. His hobby is fishing and her hobby is music. She spends many hours listening to records.

"I suppose 'our children' were our hobbies in the early days for we both worked hard at

Shower Honors Miss McCullough

Miss Mary Lou McCullough, bride-elect of Thomas Armstrong of Fort Stockton, was honored at a shower courtesy recently in the home of Mrs. C. H. Hale. Hostesses assisting in the affair were Mesdames Dezell Pulliam, F. G. Witherspoon, Chris Clark, Elmer Patterson, Marvin Knox, Chester Wiggins, D. C. Allmon, W. F. Axe, N. D. Bartlett Jr., Floyd West, Maurice Tannahill, and Ira Page of Dimmitt.

Mrs. Hale greeted the guests, and Mrs. Ray McCullough, the honoree, and her sister, Mrs. Harold Brothers of Amarillo, formed the receiving line.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By CHARLIE SEEDS

He was just a rookie pitcher that nobody knew. Bill McKechnie, manager of the Cincinnati Reds that year, thought the young hurler was a comer and had confidence in him. Although he'd only won five games in the minors the year before, McKechnie made him a regular on his staff. His name was Johnny Vander Meer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tinnin To Observe Wedding Date Today

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tinnin in 1933

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tinnin in 1958 (Angel Photo)

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Tinnin will observe their 25th wedding anniversary with an open house this afternoon in their home at 217 Star St. from 3 to 5 p.m. Hostesses will be their daughters, Miss Sharon Tinnin and Mrs. Charles Springer.

Assisting in the reception will be Mesdames B. Y. Goshwilt, Marcus Latham, Sam Patterson, Ross Latham, Jeff Martin, Lloyd Widdifield, Bruce Wooddell of Dimmitt, W. J. Reeves and John Kelly.

The refreshment table will be laid with a white cut-work linen cloth, with a crystal candelabra holding blue tapers, arranged with white daisies as the center piece. The numberals "25," touched with silver, will tell the significance of the party, and tea dainties will hold the blue and silver theme.

Out of town guests expected to attend are Mr. Tinnin's mother, Mrs. O. M. Tinnin, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tinnin, Mr. and Mrs. Berns Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Lynch, Mrs. Hatie Calloway and Mrs. Letha Barbridge, all of Ralls.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tinnin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tinnin, Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Don Tusha of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Embry Wall of Elida, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tusha of Carlsbad, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gower of Pueblo, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Tusha of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Tusha of Long Beach, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tusha of Tucson, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baland, Mr.

and Mrs. Ted Ferguson, and Mr. and Mrs. John Whitsett, of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Tinnin of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Melniss, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rogers, all of Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Moss of Seagraves.

Mr. and Mrs. Tinnin moved to Hereford in 1945 from Amarillo, where he was employed with Smyth Auto Supply. They opened the Hereford Auto Supply Business, now located at 232 Main St., and have operated the business since that time.

They were married in Crosbyton on July 22, 1933, in the Methodist Church, with the Rev. Edward Crandall officiating.

She was Miss Grace Tusha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tusha of Elida, N. M. After their marriage, they made their home in Ralls, where he was employed with the Thomas Chevrolet Company.

NEW HONOR TO GREER

NEW YORK (AP) — Greer Garson, currently Broadway's "Auntie Mame," is also owner of a Texas oil field now.

The field that has been named for the star was recently discovered in Palo Pinto county, west of Fort Worth, by a drilling company that is co-owner of the holding. The other owner is E. E. Fogelson, Miss Garson's husband.

MONUMENT TO PAST

KENOSHA, Wis. (AP) — Wreckers clearing buildings for the new Richard Bong Air Force jet bomber base found a monument to the past.

Workers ripped the sides off an old frame building to find that the structure was really an ancient cabin made of hand-hewn oak logs.

The Kenosha County board approved a motion to preserve the cabin as a monument to the pioneer past.

Attendant Awarded $50 By 'Mystery Motorist'

Cliff Cook an employe of the Main Street "66" Service Station in Hereford, received a $50 award Friday from Phillips Petroleum Company for giving perfect driveway service to a Phillips "Mystery Motorist."

The award was made when the "Mystery Motorist" paid an unheralded visit to this Phillips 66 service station.

The program is part of a $100,000 Jackpot which Phillips Petroleum Company has established to encourage its dealers and driveway salesmen to give top driveway service to all customers.

As further recognition of driveway performance efficiency, a Jackpot certificate, was awarded the Main Street 66 Service Station for display in the station window, and an additional $50 award was presented to Harold Morton, the station dealer, by Mr. Jimmy Allred, local Phillips "66" jobber.

To win the award, Cook gave the "Mystery Motorist" the six steps of "Golden Approach" service, which included friendly approach, checking under the hood of the car, cleaning all car windows, whisk-brooming floor mats, checking tires, and thanking the customer for his purchases.

At the conclusion of these services, the customer identified himself as a Phillips "Mystery Motorist" and left a $50 certificate at the service station.

The "Mystery Motorist" is one of more than 2,000 who will this year be rewarding Phillips "66" dealers and driveway salesmen for giving customers complete driveway service. Dealers and personnel of more than 15,500 Phillips 66 service stations operating in 35 states are eligible to win an award by giving "Golden Approach" service.

KNOW YOUR SENATOR! 900 Attend Program And Tulia's Biggest Banquet

Citizens from a broad area of the High Plains produced what many termed an unprecedented show in Tulia, March 31st. The area — the fifteen county Thirtieth Senatorial District of Texas. The "Show" — an Appreciation Dinner-Program honoring State Senator Andy J. Rogers of Childress. 30 to 100 persons from each of the 15 agricultural counties turned out for the evening-long program in the cafeteria and auditorium of Tulia High School. 75 business and farm leaders from outside the district joined in the "Chorus Of Thank You's" to the Senator. A majority of the Panhandle-South Plains Representatives and Senators, also two major daily newspaper representatives were present.

Church Group Holds Meeting

Group one of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church met Wednesday morning for a coffee and social hour in the home of Mrs. Bert Brown.

Mrs. A. M. Jones was leader of the program on "Concern For Our North American Neighbors." Assisting on the program were Mesdames Bert Brown, Ira Ricketts, J. B. Elliston, W. E. Dameron and Louis Woodford, who discussed Alaska, Jamaica, Canada, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, respectively. Mrs. S. O. Wilson gave the devotional program.

Mrs. Harold Shearhart directed a short business session, in which Miss Frances Dameron was named secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Ira Ricketts, reporter.

Others attending were Mesdames H. M. Thomas, B. F. Cain, Louis Woodford, F. J. Moreman, J. B. Elliston, and special guests, Mrs. J. E. Lester of Topeka, Kan., and Marie Brogden.

'SIX - ROW POLITICAL TRACTOR' WHO THEY ARE: WHAT THEY ARE SAYING:

INDEXING

By MORRIS HIGLEY

Andy Rogers may be defeated some day. He may not run for re-election. At least he has not announced.

But win, lose or draw, Andy Rogers has something to remember that is fine and wonderful.

His most memorable moment must be the Appreciation Dinner and program given Monday night at Tulia.

I have never seen anything like it in my life. I do not think anyone who attended has ever seen anything like it.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Rogers, along with Georgia Ann and, of course, Andy must have felt wonderful Monday night. And still do.

The idea for the Appreciation Dinner did not originate in Childress. In fact, as far as I know, Childress residents did not have anything to do with it.

And when Andy heard about the proposal, he said that it could not be done.

Andy was wrong. And I imagine right now he is happy that he was wrong. I would be.

Jimmy Wilson, mayor of Floydada, in charge of Program Arrangements. Dr. Harlan Morris, Pastor First Baptist Church of Plainview. Dr. Claude Killingsworth, State VFW Surgeon. Rev. Joe Allen, First Baptist Church, Senator Rogers Pastor, Childress. L. Dean Butler, past President Swisher Farmers Union. Judge Luther Gribble, Presiding Judge of the 7th Supreme Judicial District. John Stapleton, District Attorney and Master of Ceremonies. Joe Cowan, Insurance man, State Democratic Committeeman 30th Senatorial District. Leo Purvis, President Hale County Teachers Association. Claude Wells, Owner and Publisher Memphis Democrat, Past President Panhandle Press Association. Joe Sooter, Past President Bailey County Farm Bureau. Paul Spillman, Past State Vice Commander American Legion.

A dozen leaders in the district were programmed to speak. They, typically, represented a cross-section of Plains life.

One was the Senator's pastor. He lauded the honoree for his fight against liquor, narcotics, and lewd literature. "Senator Rogers is always on the right side of every moral issue," said the churchman. "He wants and works for a high moral atmosphere to prevail."

A county teachers' association president called attention to Senator Rogers' work in behalf of public education. A Memphis-druggist related that Rogers has always had an "open ear" for the small businessman.

A district judge praised the quality of legislation introduced and supported by the Senator. A mayor and insurance man emphasized the value of Andy Rogers' fight against corruption in Austin, particularly in connection with the insurance investigations.

Said an official of one of the veterans' organizations: "Andy told us for a long time there was serious trouble in the veteran's land program. He was right. And when this was cleaned up, Andy worked hard to see that this good program was not scrapped."

A newspaper editor and publisher, a former president of the Panhandle Press Association, observed: "This is the first time I've ever heard of people traveling so far just for a state senator. But it's fitting," he added, "for Andy Rogers for a job well done."

Spokesmen for the major farm organizations expressed approval of the Senator's record on farm-to-market roads, local ownership of underground water, rural electrification, and other legislation of concern to agriculture. Said the farm spokesman who rounded out the program:

"In view of all Andy Rogers has done for agriculture, I'm amazed to hear from the other speakers here this evening that he's had time for such effective work for so many others, too." The farmer concluded:

"Andy Rogers must use a six-row political tractor!"

The Senator acknowledged the praise-filled evening with obvious humility. He spoke humbly, too, of his "close personal friend" — Lewis B. Taylor of Austin and Waco—who had been stricken with a fatal heart attack there a few minutes earlier.

To the series of "thank you's" which had been expressed during the evening, Rogers responded:

"What's been accomplished, you've done. The credit belongs to you, to my parents, and to my wife who have all supported me so strongly. I really feel like I owe you all an appreciation dinner."

PENSACOLA, Fla. — Navy Ens. Robert W. Womble, son of Mrs. Richard C. Jewell of 114 Lake St. in Hereford, recently received his designation as a naval aviator from Rear Admiral J. M. Carson, chief of Naval Air Basic Training in Pensacola, Fla. His Navy "Wings of Gold" were pinned on by Mrs. Edward Sanders of Pensacola, June 25. Womble was designated after ten weeks of advanced training and 200 hours of flight time, and is now undergoing three weeks of multi-engine training at Sherman Field in Pensacola.

Upon completion of instruction, he will enter helicopter training at Ellyson Field, near Pensacola.

Before entering the service in March 1956, he attended Hereford High School.

'Police Work Is Interesting', Says Night-Time Dispatcher

By DAVID STOKER

FROM HEREFORD they moved to Crosby County where Mrs. Logan graduated from Crosbyton High School in 1934. It was also in Crosbyton that she met and married G. H. Logan. They were married April 23, 1937.

In 1941 they moved to Hereford and the move was the first of a series of moves, back and forth from Hereford to other cities. One of the moves included San Diego, Calif., where Logan was stationed for two years during the second World War. They also made moves to Littlefield, Big Spring, Amarillo and Carlsbad, N. M. It was not until 1951 that the Logans came back to Hereford and settled for good.

"We always had liked it here," says Mrs. Logan. "We would move off and gradually it seemed like we would have to come back. It just seemed more like home here."

Her husband works with road construction as a heavy equipment operator. The Logans, who make their home at 305 Star St., are members of the American Legion Auxiliary.

They have two daughters, Martha, 18 and Geneva who is 14. Martha is married and lives with her husband in Michigan, while Geneva will be a freshman at Hereford High School this fall.

From 4 p. m. to 12 midnight every day, Mrs. Ethel Logan of the Hereford Police Department works as a radio dispatcher, telephone calls.

"I like this work because it's so interesting. In fact, I like it better than anything I've ever done," she says.

Mrs. Logan has been with the department since Sept. 10, 1957. Before coming to the department she worked three years with the C. R. Anthony Co. and the Hereford Shoe Store.

She heard about the job through a friend. "I was talking with this friend of mine and we began discussing what we were going to do last fall. I said I was going down town and apply for a job, since I wasn't working at the time."

"Then she told me about the police department wanting someone to work as a radio dispatcher. I told her I couldn't do that kind of work and she said that anyone could. So I went and talked with Mr. Aycock (Chief Henry Aycock) and he hired me the following day."

It is a long story as to how Mrs. Logan and her husband finally settled in Hereford, after moving away and coming back so many times.

She was born to Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fineh in Chillicothe, Hardeman County, Tex. When she was five her parents, who made their living by farming, moved to Childress, Tex. From Childress they moved to Hereford and stayed here two years.

DISPATCHING—Mrs. Ethel Logan, dispatcher of the Hereford Police Department, takes care of one of the many phone calls she receives every day. Mrs. Logan, who works from 4 p. m. to 12 midnight, takes care of all radio and telephone work during those hours and says her work is very interesting. ## Tiffany Stained Window Is Sent To Church In Alice ALICE, Tex. — A stained-glass window, designed and built by Tiffany of New York, occupies the north wall of the First Presbyterian Church here as a memorial to a pioneer South Texas minister.

He was the Rev. Hiram Chamberlain, who was born in Vermont in 1797 and died in Brownsville in 1866. Henrietta Chamberlain, the preacher's daughter, married Capt. Richard King, founder of the storied King Ranch.

Twenty-eight years after her marriage, Mrs. King built a Presbyterian church in Corpus Christi as a memorial to her late husband. Nine small and one large stained-glass windows were ordered from Tiffany to grace the new place of worship.

The large one, 12 feet wide, with the peak of its Gothic arch standing 18 feet above its base, was dedicated to the memory of her father, who was Brownsville's Presbyterian minister as far back as 1850.

The ten windows were installed in 1901, but in 1928 the Corpus Christi church was razed so a new and bigger edifice could be built.

The windows didn't fit into the new plans, and the congregation voted to give them to the Alice Presbyterian church.

"The Alice church is a natural repository for these valuable memorials," wrote Dr. George West Diehl, then pastor of the Corpus Christi church.

"It will be remembered," the pastor's letter continued, "that Alice was named for the daughter of Richard and Henrietta King, Mrs. Alice Gertrudis King Kleberg."

The Tiffany-made windows were accordingly shipped here and placed in the care of Judge Brown Fuller, a Presbyterian layman. Fuller guarded them well until the present First Presbyterian church was built in 1938.

Designed along Gothic lines, the new church was literally built around these windows. The "Chamberlain" window, the largest of the group, occupies an honored spot directly behind the pulpit.

AUXILIARY MEETS
Veteran's of Foreign Wars Auxiliary met at the VFW Hall Monday night for a social meeting. Mrs. Wayne Lawrence served as hostess.

Those attending were Mesdames Bill Craig, Perry McMinn, Sam Lindley, W. D. Tyler, Doyle Neven, Bill Massie, L. H. Lookingbill Jr., Lloyd Olson, Lewis Beckman, Dub Maddox, Arnold Wall, Leonard Davis and the hostess.

Members of the congregation say the unique memorial to a pioneer minister is most striking when viewed from inside the church on a sunny Sunday.

Then, the sunlight outside causes the colors to change as the sermon progresses.

Perk Up Summer Cottage

By VIVIAN BROWN
It's the colorful touches that make a summer cottage a thing of fun.

A mobile on a screened-in porch at a seashore place can incorporate everything from starfish to seashells. Or take a sprig of a sunbaked tree branch or driftwood and attach little beach baubles to it.

Another idea adaptable to an old veranda or new home is the use of gay panels laced to porch railings. One designer showed a fun-in-the-sun house incorporating this idea, using waterproof, fade-proof vinyl that is also washable.

He used semaphore colors — red, yellow, blue and green for porch panels. If your porch has a railing, you have the frame. If not, rails or dowels may be set between the uprights.

Choose vinyl that has color on both sides rather than fabric-backed material. The weight is about like that normally used for upholstery seats.

Panels may be cut to whatever shape or size you desire. The material is available in 54-inch widths. Grommets, made by an upholsterer, awning maker, sail maker or auto seat upholsterer, are then inserted along doubled over edges of the vinyl. Then the panels may be laced to the porch rails with plastic clothesline. A good effect may be achieved by leaving three inches for the lacing around the panels.

If your porch is the screened-in type, the vinyl panels may be placed outside it, and besides offering a pretty effect, it will be some protection against the elements. The panels may be laced behind screens also if you'd like to have color behind the screens.

Flower boxes of geraniums or petunias with variegated ivy are other ways to enhance your summer porch. Put lightweight boxes on porch rails or anchor individual pots in colorful containers to the porch uprights.

PLAYERS REPRESENT U.S. NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Students at Yale University's drama school are to represent the United States in the inter-collegiate theatrical festival to be held next summer as part of the Brussels World's Fair. Student groups from a number of countries are to take part in the project. The Yale group expects to stage a play by Archibald MacLeish, based on the Biblical story of Job.

Peter is the Greek name for "a rock."

HERE'S HOW NEW AUTO-LITE STA-FUL WITH POWER BOND ELIMINATES MECHANICAL FAILURE EVEN IN MOST SEVERE SERVICE

ONE-PIECE COVER welded to case seals liquid in, gives maximum case strength

PERMANENT SEAL prevents acid leaks and top-of-battery corrosion, protects battery life and power

POWER BOND resin anchors power plates to prevent plate-destroying vibration, a major cause of battery failure

PERMANENT INTERCELL BOND isolates each cell, prevents power leakage over connectors, maintains higher starting voltage

INTERCELL CONNECTORS permanently protected from power-robbing acid leakage and battery-killing corrosion

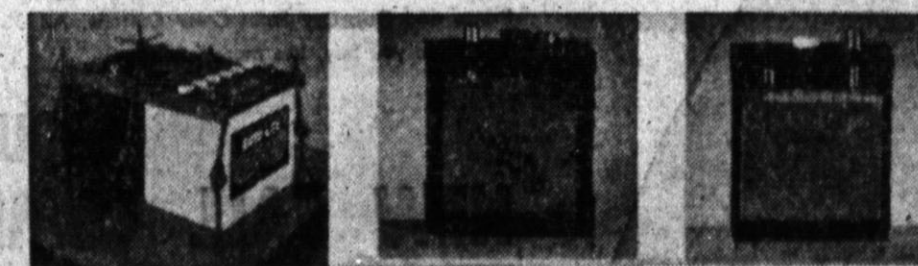

NEW POWER BOND INCORPORATES FAMOUS STA-FUL EXTRA LIQUID RESERVE... NEEDS WATER ONLY 3 TIMES A YEAR IN NORMAL CAR USE!

A bold new concept in battery engineering and merchandising that offers the greatest profit in the battery industry!

POWER BOND, an exclusive new Auto-Lite development, eliminates a major cause of battery failure... plate-destroying vibration. Power Bond construction works three ways to protect full starting power —

1. Power-producing plates, protected by fibre-glass, are firmly anchored in place by plastic bonding. Even the most severe service can't shake power-producing material loose.
2. Power Bond construction eliminates leakage points found in ordinary batteries. Permanent resin seal bonds top to battery case, fully covers and protects power-conducting intercell connectors. Leakage failures are eliminated. Battery stays sealed and powerful.
3. Rigid sealed-box construction gives maximum strength. Over-tight hold-down brackets and extreme under-hood temperatures can't distort case and cause corrosive and power-robbing leakage.

"Breakdown" Test shows how Power Bond withstands battery-killing vibration HERE'S THE TOUGHEST TEST ever made on batteries! Both Power Bond and ordinary batteries were clamped to this vibrating machine and tested for power loss at specific time intervals. See the results...

ORDINARY BATTERY has failed after only 55 hours of testing! Plates have lost vital power-producing material. Acid has leaked through sealing compound, corroding terminals and hold-downs.

POWER BOND shows no damage at all after 1,000 hours of testing! Battery is still intact and delivering full power. Power Bond seal (red) welds plates and battery case into rigid, shake-proof unit.

If you see Clint Formby going to work unusually early, don't jump to any false conclusions. It could be that he wants to get out ahead of his next door neighbor, Tommy Kemp. Wednesday afternoon Clint was improving the backyard of his new home on Star St., and decided to spray some Johnson grass. The spray, an unusually powerful variety, wouldn't come out through the nozzle of the power sprayer so Clint did the logical thing. He increased the pressure. Finally, it blew the hose off the outlet valve and sprayed Clint smack in the face. It was almost five minutes before he could see again — and by that time 2 1/2 gallons of Johnson grass spray had blown over and pretty well covered the wonderful stand of Bluegrass in the Kemp's yard.

"It really was embarrassing," says Clint. "I went over and told them — and they were real nice. However, it takes that stuff two or three days to work, and they might feel different when they see what happens about Sunday."

Curtis Roach is taking his annual vacation at Pagosa Springs, Colo. He called Cliff and the boys at the elevator Friday and, when they asked about his fishing luck, Curtis replied: "I weighed the little one I caught and the best I can figure, the trout so far are costing me at the ratio of about $250 per pound."

Politics sure started picking up, as of now, if you judge by the ads in this issue of the paper. However, you heard very little talk prior to this time. Definitely, it is different from four years back when people got so mad they quit trading with merchants who supported state candidates opposite to their own choice. All in all, it is a lot nicer when folks on opposing sides can drink coffee together and still be friends.

KIDS HAVE IT tough these days. The other night a pair of mothers got into quite an argument with their sons while attending the showing of "Dakota Incident" at the drive in. The picture featured Ward Bond and Dale Robinson. Mrs. M. C. Adams could not convince her small son, Bryan, that he was not watching "Wagon Train". And, at the same time, Mrs. Oliver Streu was trying to convince her offspring, Ray, that he really wasn't watching "Wells Fargo", despite the fact that he was seeing Robinson on the screen.

Townsend Douglas was nice enough to invite me out to hear Fred Husbands, West Texas C-C manager, Thursday at Kiwanis. Husbands made a good talk, and I was a little bit surprised to see the organization developing so deeply into controversial politics. Part of their program is based on opposition to federal control of education, opposition to socialized medicine and strong for a return of States Rights. Mr. Husbands says every citizen should get some letters off to his congressman on these subjects if he is interestfact that there is no overcharge for teenage girl drivers.

I realize that the insurance statistics are based on facts, but it does seem as if the tabulators could have charged at least a dollar or two extra for the 'teenage girls. If, for no other reason, for appearance sake. Trouble is, they probably have women tabulators.

Another thing I want to know? If women are so much better drivers, why don't they have them driving trucks and buses? I am not arguing with anybody, I just wonder why not. Meanwhile, it is fast getting to the point where the insurance is costing as much as the automobile in cases where folks are driving 1950 to 1955 models. Liability is required by law, but I am predicting that a many people will drop the collision in the months to come.

A lot of Americans this week came to the conclusion Henry Cabot Lodge is a far better man than most of them realized, thanks to the TV coverage of United Nations sessions. Lodge may not be the best orator in the world, but he seems to be a sincere, deep thinking old boy, and he pretty well thinks like most of the Americans — in this part of the country, at least.

I still don't think we are headed for World War III, chiefly because Russia isn't ready yet. The Reds want a cinch when they start, and they are still far away from that realization. On the other hand, I hesitate to make the prediction because I am usually wrong about everything but the weather — and my wife says that is just strictly luck.

MILWAUKEE — Spotty, a mongrel dog, can thank fireman Gordon Rotta's knowledge of artificial respiration for his life.

Rotta, fighting a fire in a home, found Spotty unconscious under a bed. He carried the pooch outside and applied artificial respiration. Pretty soon Spotty moved his head, rolled his eyes and began breathing naturally.

"By the time we had our hoses rolled up, Spotty was up and around, and in pretty good shape," Rotta said.

PRICE OF INCONSIDERATION

GOLDEN, Colo. — At least six Colorado School of Mines students will think twice before they stage another panty raid.

They raided the girls' quarters at Colorado Women's College.

Mines officials ordered the youths to pay $102, the replacement price set on undergarments listed as missing by the girls, and for damaged screens and broken windows.

RICHMOND, Va. — A patient in a room high up in the Medical College of Virginia Hospital told attendants he was developing nervous prostrations trying to figure out the cloverleaf on the new express way through the city. John Pershing, general manager of the turnpike, sent him a complete set of plans.

Wisconsin school officials found that children will drink more milk if it is made available more often. Lowering prices didn't seem to change the appetites of children for more or less milk.

Long Range Planning

Residential Integration Poses No. 1 Problem For Community

Hereford is fast becoming an example of de-segregation or, more commonly put, integration. From week to week Latin American and Negro families are renting and buying property in all parts of town, often to the discomfort of previous residents, and just as frequently creating a bad situation for the Negro or Latin American arrivals. Like Mark Twain said about the weather, many people talk about the situation, but no one ever does anything about it.

Zoning or segregation against any group or class is, of course, illegal and out of the question. Counties, cities or other governmental agencies could not, even if they desired, discriminate against citizens of the United States. On the other hand, it does seem a bad situation when both sides of any two groups continually make themselves unhappy.

As The Brand has pointed out before, the only apparent answer to the situation is voluntary planning through which living areas can be made so attractive that the situation will automatically solve itself. An adequate, attractive school, along with a nice city park and available housing would be the first step toward solving the problem on a long-range basis — and there seems to be no temporary solution. It would also require a planning unit, working closely with city, school and county governing bodies toward overall solution of the problem.

In many ways, the time for such planning is late. However, locking the barn door after the horse is gone can, in this case, keep other horses in the stable. In addition to meeting a challenge, adequate planning can also result in happier citizens: white, brown and black. This, we feel, is definitely more important than soothing ruffled feathers for any individual or small group, especially when there is no way to do the soothing.

Lack of adequate planning has contributed greatly to the shift of local business from the first block on Main Street. Continued lack of planning and cooperation will, no doubt, achieve the same result in the residential areas of the community. Needless to say, the financial loss is considerable in both cases.

Most serious of all, though, remains the fact that all parties concerned are not happy. Americans moving into Mexico, France, Germany and other foreign countries invariably find themselves moving into "American Colonies", chiefly because their habits, customs and manners make them more readily acceptable to their neighbors. Beyond doubt, in the proper setting, Latin Americans, Frenchmen and Germans would follow the same procedures here and for the same reason.

Outside labor is imperative under our present economy. Without farm labor Hereford's agriculture would flounder and perish. Without agriculture, our business firms would follow suit in short order. Add it all up carefully, and you will come to the same conclusion: some long-range planning is definitely in order.

A town without planning, like a gun which is not aimed, can go off in any direction. What's more, it can result in terrific damage — which might easily have been prevented.

Marines Now On Foreign Soil

The United States now has Marines in Lebanon and, by the time this paper reaches the streets, it is possible that Russia may also have occupied a chunk or two of the Far East. The results could be war. It more than likely will be limited, and might also develop into a continuation of the so-called "Cold War".

Already, propagandists are spreading seeds of discontent among many Americans through criticism and by pointing out alternate routes. In many ways, the situation is reminiscent of the Korean conflict through which most of us lived a few years back.

When President Truman laid down his doctrine, he was possibly surprised at the backing he received from the Republicans. This week President Eisenhower saw the same procedure unfold, when Speaker Sam Rayburn rapped his gavel — and called down a Democrat who was about to voice criticism aimed at the Republican administration.

No American wants war; certainly, no citizen in this community. On the other hand, we believe that most of our citizens are totally fed up with the process of being pitted against interim nations such as Korea, when Russia continually creates and causes the trouble. Most Americans are about ready to put the blame where it belongs and, if absolutely necessary, to have it out.

The most encouraging signs of the day, however, center around the fact that all Americans appear willing to forget whether they are Democrats or Republicans, and to place their standing as free Americans at the head of the list. This situation is puzzling to our enemies, no doubt; nor could many of us scientifically explain the feeling ourselves.

Meanwhile, we may well rejoice and thank God that we do feel and react in such a manner in times of pressure and strife. Like a big family of brothers and sisters, we squabble and fight among ourselves but, when the chips are down, you pretty well have to whip the whole bunch if you touch a hair on any individual head.

THE GOLDEN YEARS

Courting Days Recalled By J. M. Gillilands

By MRS. R. L. CRISWELL

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gilliland were married Aug. 19, 1906, in a home wedding in the home of an uncle of Mrs. Gilliland. Mrs. Gilliland came to Hereford in 1901 and Mr. Gilliland in 1904. They met, married and have reared their family here and have made Hereford their home for 52 years. Two of their four children still call Hereford home. They are Marlin Gilliland, in business with his father, and Dr. Jack Gilliland, a veterinarian.

"We courted in an HMT," said Mr. Gilliland. "As all the young folk of that time, of course there were some parents who would not let their girls go out in the narrow-seated buggies, but the young folks had a way of getting around, whether it was in a buggy or on a horse.

"One Sunday we had been out riding and were coming home along 25 Mile Ave. I had tied the reins to the buggy whip and we were jogging along and chatting when suddenly we were passed by the banker and his wife. He had a spirited team, so he passed us at a fast clip. We thought we were ruined as I just was not supposed to tie the reins. I was to hold them and not have my hands free.

"I had been working in a Real Estate Office for $30 per month and thought I was doing right well. A short time after our marriage I went to work in the courthouse. Incidentally the courthouse was the old Catholic Church that was moved to the Labor Camp. It stood in the same place as the new courthouse, and had a Cupola in the middle of the roof, but it was moved and made into a bell tower for the church. The courthouse was fenced in by barbed wire.

"A stile of several steps was made up one side to the top of the fence and down the other, instead of a gate. A lantern was hung on either side of the stile so the people would not stumble on the steps and fall. It seems there was more than one type of stile at that time as there was another made for the ladies to mount their horses for side-saddle riding. It was about three steps up, and the lady just sat down on her horse and centered off. Very different from the trousered young lady of today who just steps into the stirrup and rides astride.

"IN THE SUMMER we had revivals, under a tent in the courthouse yard. On this particular night, it became dark early and the sky was heavy with clouds. Most folk walked to church and they came on and quite a few carried umbrellas. As the service began, it also began to rain. Not hard at first, but settling down to a steady downpour. We sat and listened to the sermon, some of the umbrellas being put up under the tent as it leaked in some places.

"By the time services were over, the whole town was practically under water. We young folk waited for the others to get over the stile, and as we were last I reached over and took the lantern from the post to show my girl the way home. Someone had already gotten one, so I just took the last one.

"We waded in mud and water all the way home, and as there were several couples, we all hooked our arms together to keep from falling. Sometimes the water was knee-deep. We all ruined our shoes wading in the mud. After we took the girls home, we boys started out. I still had the lantern, but threw it away before I got home as I did not want anyone to know I had stolen it.

"That was the most rain I have ever seen fall at one time. The creek got up over the cottonwood trees. The trees were not so tall as they are now. We had no bridge, and Tierra Blanca could not be crossed when it was high as it was and was very swift water when it was full. If you were on the south side of the creek and it got up, you just stayed there until it ran down.

"Just three weeks after we were married, my wife came down with Typhoid Fever. She was ill for at least six weeks. The doctor visited her two or three times daily over this period. When I went in to settle the bill, it was only $50. In these days that sounds like a wonderfully reasonable figure, but then, believe you me, that was a lot of money.

"I went into the funeral business in 1907 and have been in it since that time. My father and I had a funeral home and furniture business located where the Popular Store now stands. We lived where the new Gilliland Home now stands, and there was nothing between there and Main St. Marlin was a small child then and loved to visit the store in the late afternoon after he had had his nap. Mrs. Gilliland would start him out and watch until she saw him go into the store, knowing I would look after him from there on.

"MY FIRST SALE in this furniture store was to a young couple just starting house-keeping. I really went all out to sell them a complete outfit. They bought three or four cane-bottom chairs — at least three chairs, as there were two for them and always one for company. I also sold them a coal-burning cookstove, mattress, iron bedstead, dresser, and cooking utensils. The total bill was less than $15.

"We had no cement at that time, but we had a board walk. It began near the railroad, and since the street was uphill from there into the business section every so often there would be a couple of steps up. Farther on, perhaps there were three or more. This continued until the Smith Walker General Merchandise Store was reached. It had a porch and it was several steps up and one or two down, making the walk very uneven. But it was very nice when there was mud. Oh yes, Hereford has really improved. I would not ask for the old days, but they were surely happy ones.

"I was quite impressed with Mr. Gilliland when we first met." Mrs. Gilliland said, "but we courted for almost two years before we were married. My wedding dress was of white silk and made in shirtwaist style. Not the same as the shirtwaist dresses of today, but there were rows and rows of lace down the front. The skirt was gored and fitted at the waist, and flared into a full ruffle, trimmed with lace. The dress was floor-length, as all the dresses were at that time. It was a lovely dress, and I was very proud of it because of all the lace and its soft luster.

"We lived in the new house that Matt built until a few years ago, when we sold it and it was moved into the country, where it still stands.

"I remember when the children had the smallpox. The doctor quarantined us and we tried to send the laundry out, but no one would take it as they were afraid of getting the smallpox.

PIONEER'S REUNION SET

The tenth annual Lamb County Pioneer Reunion has been set for Tuesday, August 26, Sid Hopping, president of the Pioneers' Club, announced Saturday. More than 300 old-timers are expected for the event, which is scheduled here at the Community Center. Detailed program plans will be outlined in a meeting of the organization's officers and directors here August 12, Hopping said. About 300 old-timers were on hand last year, when former County Judge Otha Dent was the speaker. A speaker for this year's event will be named later, Hopping said. Folks who came to Lamb County in 1927 or earlier are invited to the reunion. Tentative plans for the reunion were made and committees were appointed in a meeting here Friday night-COUNTY-WIDE NEWS (Littlefield)

YOUTHFUL ARSONISTS SENTENCED

Arthur Jack King, 18-year-old confessed arsonist, Friday was sentenced during a 69th District Court hearing. Judge Harry H. Schultz told King the sentence was from two to five years in the state penitentiary and outlined a series of provisions under which King is to be probated for the next five years. He said the Dumas High School graduate must enter John Sealy Hospital in Galveston to begin psychiatric treatments and that he remain there until he is released by medical authorities. Second condition of probation is that the case be reconsidered during the September term of District Court in 1960, at which time the court will check on King's condition and progress and will determine whether the youth should be required to make restitution for the $42,000 fire which he admitted setting at the Furniture Mart on June 20 - MOORE COUNTY NEWS (DUMAS)

NEW CHURCH

Construction of a new building, costing approximately $100,000 will begin within the next two weeks, elders of the Dalhart Church of Christ have announced. The new building will be erected in the 1400 block of Denver Avenue across from Coon Memorial hospital. It will contain an auditorium with seating capacity of 690, 23 classrooms, office, equipment room, two nurseries, and four rest rooms. The building will contain 12,981 square feet. Of contemporary design, the building will be constructed by the Paden Construction Co. of Cleburne, which also designed the building and did the architectural work. THE DALHART TEXAN

GOLFERS WIN HONORS

John Shakkford of Shamrock was runner-up for the championship crown and won the driving contest in the annual Elk City, Okla., Fourth of July Golf Tournament Friday, Saturday and Sunday of last week. Donnie Dodgen, another Irish City golfer, won the first flight. Billy Holmes advanced to the finals in a foursome medal play for the championship. Tommy Holmes placed third in the first flight, and David McCaskill placed third in the third flight. Like the other four Irish golfers, McCaskill won his matches Friday and Saturday, and was runner-up in the third flight in the Sunday afternoon finals. - THE SHAMROCK TEXAN

The BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's Note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm has a new slant on the Alaskan problem, his letter this week reveals.

Dear Editor:

As I understand it from reading the newspapers the last few weeks, Alaska finally has won the right to become a state. Congress has passed the necessary bill, and President Eisenhower has signed it. Now all that's left is for the people of Alaska to vote to come in, and they'll be the 49th state.

However, I've been thinking about this matter pretty thoroughly and I'd like to ask: you reckon those Alaskans know what they're doing?

Understand, it's mighty nice to be a part of the United States: it's a nice to be a state, to get Federal grants, to get to send Senators and Congressmen to Washington and to vote on presidents, but has Alaska gone into the other aspects of this proposition?

For example, take debts. The United States is reputed to be a rich country, but you've got to remember in some places they measure a rich man by the amount of money he owes. I don't want to discourage those Alaskans, but one-fourth of what the United States owes may put a different light on the benefits of statehood.

Moreover, have they considered taxes? States rights is a fine theory, but have those Alaskans figured how many acres of snow and ice it'll take to produce enough tax money to build some roads, some schools, court houses, a state capital, a governor's house? Have they figured how much it costs to run a legislature, with a state supreme court, welfare office, assorted bureaus and departments, and other necessary endeavors of a state?

On the other hand, I don't see any reason for assuming those Alaskans are any better than the rest of us, and I for one say, come on in. Help tote the load. Taking in more states may be the only answer to our problems, and if anybody else say Hawaii or any unhappy portions of Canada, Old Mexico, or any place else wants in, get in line.

The way I see it is, every new state we get, that's just another endorser on our note.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Insurance Costs Still Soaring

Insurance, already a big problem with many automobile owners, bids to become an even greater problem August 1, when full comprehensive coverage in this county will jump by a margin of 33.2 percent. Worst of all is probably the fact that car owners and operators cannot pass the buck, chiefly because the rates are set by the state service office and are based on accident statistics and claims filed in this county.

The situation arises, at least in part, from the fact that many people, faced with a dent or minor windshield chip, are prone to say, "What's the difference? We've got insurance, haven't we?" Whereupon, they run down and file claims on items that would otherwise be ignored. This, of course, is strictly legal but, like other luxuries, is bound to be expensive.

Insurance, in a nutshell, is based on cost of claims, plus operating expense and a fair profit. When the claims soar, the costs are naturally bound to follow suit.

None of these things, however, can solve the problem faced by the automobile owner who, to protect his investment, will pay around $10 per month more insurance, plus liability required under present state laws. Policies with higher deductibles, substituting $100, $250 and $500 deductibles for the popular $50, at present seem to afford the only relief.

Meanwhile, accidents are growing more common and claims are becoming more frequent, along with ever-increasing repair costs. The outlook, instead of possible improvement, indicates that rates will continue to go higher and higher until some day the automobile like Frankenstein, may become the monster which destroys its own present day popularity. Certainly, no other single factor has ever contributed more to changing the American way of life, including our basic economy.

The clothes had to be washed and sterilized, and what more could you ask than a good boiling and hanging then in the bright sunshine?

"During depression days of the 1930's, you could not buy a sewing machine at all. There was a lady in the country who made her living sewing, and she became ill and could not run the treadle machine that she owned. ## Bible Words for Today

PHILIPPIANS 4:13 — "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Paul, the author of the above statement, was a native of the city of Tarsus. Tarsus was one of the leading centers of Stoic philosophy. The Stoics maintained that man possesses an intrinsic force within himself—and that this force can resist and overcome all outward pressures. Paul refuted that teaching, for he believed that man by himself can do nothing, and that God for this reason sent us a Deliverer, Christ Jesus.

Paul was conscious of the inward presence of Christ. To translate the verse literally, Paul was saying, "I have strength for all things in Him who gives me inward power." This is the universal need of man, for many of our problems and perplexities have been brought upon us by our attitude of self-sufficiency.

Each of us can share in the secret of Paul, for the power which he felt was given him because he was "in Christ."

SMOKING RESTRICTIONS
NEW YORK — Smoking a cigarette means much more to a timberman in the wood camps of Ontario than to the average smoker. There are certain restrictions to be observed.

Timber workers for newsprint companies must roll their own, remain seated while smoking and use only lighters. Matches are banned.

The Newsprint Information Committee says the rules were instituted as a fire prevention method. Factory-made cigarettes, the committee said, burn longer and may revive from the tiniest spark even when stepped on and believed extinguished. Seated, the smoker has been found to pay more attention to ash and butt disposal.

KNOWS NO BORDERS
EAST LANSING, Mich. — Juvenile delinquency is as much a problem in Great Britain today as in the United States, according to George H. Hatherill, commander of criminal investigation for Scotland Yard.

In a speech at Michigan State University, Hatherill said "figures show that 75 per cent of indictable crime in England has been charged to persons under 21 years of age."

WEIGHT PROBLEM
MILWAUKEE — Hugo Wandt fumed and fussed when the automatic parking lot gates refused to open as he tried to drive his tiny foreign sedan past the barrier.

The car was too light to actuate the spring operated mechanism. He found a solution when an amused spectator suggested he back in to make use of the rear engine weight — and that of two passers by.

Streets in Baghdad are so narrow that two horsemen can scarcely ride abreast.

VANISHING ORGANIZATION
PUEBLO, Colo. — When the Colorado Police Protective Assn. held its annual convention this year, only two charter members were there to answer rollcall.

They were Robert H. Wrait, 70, retired Colorado Springs police captain, and J. Howard Carver, 64, Denver detective. The association was organized in 1924.

REDS FEAR BAPTISTS
LONDON — An article in "Komsomolskaja Pravda," an organ of the Communist youth organization received here, contains an odd complaint against Russian Baptists. It says: "They are particularly dangerous, for among them the laymen are evangelists. Every Russian Baptist tries to win at least one adherent to his faith."

CONTAGIOUS HOBBY
DUNCAN, Okla. — Kenneth Moore didn't know what he was getting into 11 years ago when he agreed to take care of a couple of his son's pigeons when he went off to college.

Moore got interested in the birds and began raising them as a hobby. He now has more than 300.

Cool Teen Styles Leave Boss Cold

By DOROTHY ROE
If you want to get that job, girls, don't apply for it wearing a sack dress, a straggly short haircut, bare legs and loafers. These are the current pet hates of bosses, as revealed by a recent survey of 206 office executives.

The girl who gets the job, employers agree, is the neat, well-groomed miss who wears a trim tailored suit (fitted, please), a small hat, clean gloves, sheer stockings, plain pumps with high or medium heels, a medium-length, well-brushed hairdo and a minimum of makeup.

As to boys, the best way not to get a job is wear an Elvis Presley haircut, a loud sports coat and slacks, pork pie hat and two-tone oxfords with rubber soles.

The bosses say that the first impression made by a young job seeker is the most important. The boy or girl who takes the trouble to be well-groomed and properly dressed when applying for a job is the one who may be expected to show initiative and responsibility after he gets it.

Employers are almost unanimous in vetoing the sack dress as office attire, and they are firm in their stand against sloppy flat-heeled shoes and bobby sox or bare legs. They have little use for the ponytail hairdo, and particularly abhor that ragged crew-cut affected by many high-school girls.

The average boss also is not impressed by the girl who shows up wearing heavy eye makeup and garish lipstick. A discreet use of "makeup" is, of course, all right, and even desirable.

The object should be to make it look natural, so that the unobserving male will think you are wearing none.

Employers in eastern cities agree that young men seeking jobs should wear suits with coats and trousers that match. Preferred is a dark suit, white shirt and quiet tie.

This attitude is somewhat relaxed in the West and Midwest, where sports clothes are more acceptable for business wear. Dark, well-shined oxfords are the approved footwear.

Girls also are warned to avoid metallic nail polish and long fingernails. Employers feel, reasonably enough, that the girl with curved talon fingernails will not be too efficient at the typewriter. They also frown on heavy perfume and an excess amount of costume jewelry for office wear.

As to mannerisms — you don't have to walk like Marilyn Monroe to land that job. Believe it or not, the average em-

YOUNG MODERNS

Actress Says Army Is Lucky To Get Presley

By VIVIAN BROWN

The Army should be mighty glad to have Elvis Presley, and that goes for generals as well as privates.

That's the opinion of a girl who should know, lovely Dolores Hart, 19, who made two pictures with the handsome heart-throb of teen-agers.

"He's a sincere, earnest type and a hard worker, and it is not true that he is shallow," says blonde Dolores. "He's a delightful person with whom to work, and he's very popular on the set, even with the electricians, the true way to size up movie popularity."

The only trouble with Elvis, says Dolores, is that he's constantly put in a position of shooting off his mouth — "and that makes him look very conceited, which he isn't," she says defensively. "Girls can get pretty silly, and it is embarrassing sometimes to watch how they throw themselves at him."

He tries to cover up some of this attention, so he doesn't look too ridiculous, but it's a hard job.

"But worse than that, Elvis never knows whom to believe — he doesn't know whether a girl is impressed by his looks and pocketbook or whether she really likes him for himself," she says.

Dolores has never dated Elvis, and wouldn't be interested in him romantically. "We are different religions, and when I settle down it will be for keeps. I want to have a family, too, when I get married, but so far I haven't met anyone who can fill the bill."

Although Dolores thinks that she and Elvis could hit it off, she says: "What's the sense of tempting fate?"

She thinks men say they dislike Elvis sometimes because they are jealous of him.

"Most men think Elvis is scatter-brained because they don't really know him. When we played in this last movie, 'King Creole,' Elvis would stay up all night making recordings and then appear on the set mentally prepared for his role, and alert in every way."

Dolores was born in Chicago and received a scholarship to Marymount College in West Los Angeles, where she enrolled as a theater arts major. While playing a bit in a show put on by Loyola, the men's university, Dolores was given a reading part by one of the Hollywood studios. The studio was impressed. She has made two movies since then, is on her way to making a third, and will play on Broadway in the fall.

She is religious, likes tailored clothing, loves animals, football, lemon pie and spaghetti. Emerald green is her favorite color.

COLD DECREE

Carl G. Irving, who married his wife while in the Air Force at New Braunfels, Tex., said she left him here because "she said she couldn't stand the weather." Probate Court Judge John V. Mahoney ruled that New England weather was no grounds for leaving a spouse. He gave Irving a divorce.

Dedication Services Scheduled At Lubbock Christian College

After one year of operation, Lubbock Christian College, one of the newest educational institutions in the Southwest, is a lusty, growing infant.

The record of its first year is one of progress and promise. Less than a year from its opening last September, the college is to dedicate its first permanent structure Aug. 16 in ceremonies, the $600,000 reinforced concrete and brick administration-library building.

The new building will house, in addition to administrative and teachers' offices, 18 modern classrooms, a library with a four-story tower which will provide space for 150,000 volumes, and an auditorium 60 x 94 feet, which will seat 800 persons. The new building will have facilities to care for as many as 1300 students if used to full capacity. It will be the nerve center of the academic life of the campus.

Lubbock Christian College began last September in converted barracks buildings set in the midst of a cotton field on the Levelland highway just west of Lubbock. The original campus of 20 acres was donated to the college by Dr. S. C. Arnett, who also gave the frame two-story house which was his father's former residence.

This building was moved to the campus and, with very little change, converted into a temporary administration building. It has served this function for more than a year.

A girls' dormitory was provided by remodeling two former barracks buildings. Other buildings of this kind were used for the men's dormitory, science and music rooms, and an officers' mess hall was moved in sections and converted into a "Cafeterium" (combination cafeteria and auditorium), as well as classrooms, bookstore, student center, and temporary library. Twelve buildings in all have been moved to the campus to provide for the physical needs of the fast-growing college.

The first faculty of seven-teen instructors, three of them with the doctor's degree, and all who teach full-time having a Master's degree, gave to the new college an academic foundation. Seven new teachers are being added this fall as the college begins teaching sophomore-level courses. Among these is a Ph.

D. In science and a graduate in agriculture.

The public is invited to the dedication day ceremonies which begin at 2 p.m., Aug. 16, with the flag-raising by a color guard from Reese Air Force Base. Local civic and educational leaders, as well as state representatives, will take part in the service.

At 4 p.m., Bobby Morrow, internationally known athlete from Abilene Christian College, and Jon Jones of Pampa will address a youth rally expected to number 5,000.

A free barbecue will be served to guests of the college at 5:30, and the final program of the day will be an address on Christian education by Pres. M. Norvel Young of Pepperdine College, who was active in the planning and early development of Lubbock Christian College.

TEXANS IN WASHINGTON

High School Students Send 'Daily Reports'

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON — Six Texas high school boys and girls who are here for six weeks, and are getting the most educational experience imaginable. They write home every day without fail.

This ideal situation — from the parents' point of view, at least — is required by Sen. Lyndon Johnson in connection with their stay in the nation's capital. They must file a carbon copy if it's typewritten, or a duplicate handwritten copy of each letter with the senator's staff.

The youngsters will all be seniors when they return to school in September. They are here, all expenses paid, for winning general achievement contests sponsored by three Texas rural electric cooperatives.

Cooperating with the co-ops, Johnson arranged for them to stay at the Carroll Arms Hotel across the street from the Senate Office Building, and set up a daily program that keeps them busy every minute.

The schedule includes a couple of hours or more work a day with the senator's staff. In between times, they are getting special tours and calls at virtually every governmental department, historic and scenic point in this entire area.

The lucky, smart and personable young people include: Marilyn Dallmeyer of Burton and Michael Simmang of Giddings, sponsored by the Lower Colorado Rural Electric Co-op; Mary Frances Slott of New Waverly and Gordon White of Cleveland, winners of the Sam Houston Electric Co-op contest; and Mary Price of Bertram and Jimmie McBride of Leander, winners of the Pedernales Electric Co-op contest.

Flying up from Texas with them as their chaperon and staying here with them is Mrs. C. H. Wallace of Gatesville. Her room is in the center of one of the long corridors of a wing in the hotel. The boys have a two-room suite at one end, the girls two rooms at the other end. In both suites, the youngsters arranged the three beds in one room and made the other into a living room, with TV and all.

Typical of the daily "report letters" home was that by Gordon dated July 1 to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. White.

The letter is a duplicate handwritten copy. It's on file with one of Johnson's staff, Juanita Roberts of Port Arthur, who makes up their daily schedules. He told her typing was at least one subject he intends to take next semester.

"This letter, starting off with 'Dear Dad,' mentioned that they had gone through the Supreme Court during the morning, getting a personally conducted tour by Associate Justice Tom Clark, a fellow Texan, who posed for pictures with them."

"Sen. Johnson has a large mailing list for his 'news letter,'" he continued. "He has addressograph plates which we have been alphabetizing and bring up to date."

During the afternoon the group had met Robert Baker, the secretary to the Democratic party members of the Senate, who had explained to them the tactical moves of both sides in the final showdown voting on admission of Alaska into the union as a state.

"He talked to us concerning party policy and strategy," wrote Gordon. "They can tell how each senator will vote by studying his past performance and background."

"As you know Alaska will become a state. It is a very rich state in undeveloped natural resources, and a good thing. Haw-all will be next but not this session."

His letter home dated June 30 had told how on the two days earlier on Saturday, the entire group had visited Gettysburg. Sunday we went to the John Wesley Methodist Episcopal Church," he added. "Their church is much more formal."

Marilyn Dallmeyer, writing her parents about the meeting with the Senate Democratic secretary, said:

"Mr. Baker told us why the bill passed and explained the qualifications of a good senator, and how he can best get bills passed."

"The key to a good senator is flexibility. He also said that Sen. Johnson was a good example of flexibility, and that's what made him a great leader."

The last two weeks of the youngster's stay, which ends with a trip to New York before going home late in July, were scheduled to be spent largely on the house side of the Capital.

Gordon was to headquarter with Rep. Jack Brooks of Beaumont, and Mary Frances Slott at Rep. John Dowdy's office. The other four were to report daily to the office of Rep. Homer Thornberry of Austin.

While the six high school boys and girls were on the go for a six-week period, receiving only their expenses, five Texas college students were working throughout the summer as regular employes on the staff of Sen. Ralph Yarborough.

They are Mildred Thompson of Richardson, a Texas Tech junior; Lee Swift of San Marcos, Diana Cain of Austin, and Marjorie Davis of Austin, all University of Texas students; David Epstein of San Antonio a Harvard law student.

SERVICE CALL

JACKSON CENTER, Ohio — An Air Force chaplain's assistant, Staff Sgt. Montie B. Slusher, has accepted the call of Ohio's only Seventh Day Baptist church. He will become pastor here after his service discharge.

Differing from other Baptists in their observance of Saturday as the Sabbath, Seventh Day Baptists claim to have given the teaching to 10 other Protestant denominations, including Seventh Day Adventists. There are about 6,000 members nationally.

STUDENTS HELP

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — A dozen William and Mary College students are helping disturbed youngsters at Eastern State Hospital with homework, athletics and hobbies. Physicians say the youngsters are responding well to the youth treatment.

HOT BISCUIT

OGDEN, Utah — One hot biscuit caused a mess of trouble at the Don Durant residence. Durant and his wife smelled smoke, but try as they might, they couldn't locate a fire. Local firemen, however, located one charred biscuit in the kitchen oven, which had been left on by mistake.

Wintroath Pump Company, a division of the Worthington Corporation, was founded in 1929 in the state of California. Since that time it has become one of the largest pump manufacturing concerns in the entire world.

Wintroath first came to Hereford in 1946 and at that time a wholesale dealership was established. In 1950 the company moved into the building which it presently occupies.

The Hereford division of Wintroath is now under very capable management of Larry Gargan. Working with Larry are Ronald Fuhrmann, bookkeeper; Huber Bellar and O. H. Douglas, both shop men.

at Wintroath, a complete job shop service is available. Equipment for piping and fitting any size job, large or small, has been installed.

Along with wholesaling, Wintroath now does their own retailing and servicing. A complete turnkey job provides everything one needs for irrigation, including the world's finest pump — WINTROATH.

The farmer's pump is one of the most important pieces of equipment he owns, and by that reason his investment must be a sound one. Make it a Wintroath pump and you can be sure it is a good investment. Rugged dependability, high quality construction, and year after year pumping economy are important factors... and they can all be found in a Wintroath system.

Why not go out today and talk to Larry Gargan about Wintroath Pumps and let him show you how you can save on pumping costs.

Woman Doctor Prescribes Dollars As Cure For Juvenile Delinquency

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP) — "A lot of people are blaming parents for juvenile delinquency, and a lot of parents are blaming neighborhoods," says psychiatrist Marjorie Rittwagen.

know no better or can not do better. Many of them were themselves neglected or abused as children. And 10 per cent of the children reaching New York's courts have one or both parents who are so ill mentally they could be committed to institutions. About 80 per cent of delinquent children come from broken homes.

THEN WHAT?—In neighborhoods such as this, where recreation is an unsupervised sidewalk affair, juvenile delinquency takes root among youngsters who have a deep-seated desire to be noticed. The cure, says Dr. Marjorie Rittwagen, is a matter of money.

And the cure, she says, lies in dollars and cents.

In the last five years Dr. Rittwagen has talked to thousands of children whose crimes have ranged from murder to joy-riding in a "borrowed" car. And she has talked to their parents.

Staff psychiatrist in the Children's Division of New York City's Domestic Relations Court, she has written a book about some of them, calling it "Sins of Their Fathers."

"By conservative estimate, we could help better than 85 per cent of these kids," she says. "But we don't. We do not have the facilities."

Two things are clear about juvenile delinquency, she says. "A child in trouble is a child who needs help, and a child in trouble comes from an unhappy family."

"You find the most neglected and the most troubled children among the very rich and the very poor," she says. "The ones in between are the ones likely to get more love and more help from their families."

Parents are the biggest problem. "A great many parents do not want, do not guide, do not supervise, their children," says the psychiatrist.

Most of these parents are poor parents because they

"If they had remained where life was simple, many of these people could have gone through their lives without their mental states becoming worse. It is the pressures of the city."

Neighborhoods help mold delinquents: "Our worst problem children are those who have neither the good character training nor natural endowment to resist delinquency and do have the opportunity to go wrong."

"They have the mass housing projects, the mass school, and the mass recreation," she says.

"They are numbers rather than individuals; a numbered apartment in a numbered unit, off to a numbered school. And when they compete athletically, they are a number in a thousand blurred faces."

Some of these children get in trouble just to be somebody, to be noticed.

Schools, too, she says, must take part of the blame. In an effort to get rid of rigidity in education, many educators moved toward schools focusing on the interests and needs of children.

"Somewhere confusion set in," she says. "Many schools became controlled by the children rather than centered on them. In some high-delinquency-area schools it becomes physically dangerous for a school child to try to behave and learn."

Helping children who need help is a matter of larger staffs, more treatment centers, places to send children for help.

"During the past five years I must have made more than 2,500 recommendations: For probation, for foster homes, referral to a family service agency, for school or class change, for remedial reading, clinic treatment, residential school for normal children, treatment-focused schools, and schools for the emotionally ill, mentally retarded and drug addicts," she says.

"I doubt whether 20 per cent of the recommendations were followed. We do not have the facilities."

Household Scrapbook

Lipstick Stains
To remove stubborn lipstick stains from linens rub soap into the stains and let them stand for an hour or so. Then wash the garment in the usual manner. If there is still a stain remaining, sponge it with hydrogen peroxide and rinse at once in cold water.

Eye Wash
If the eyes are inflamed after a severe eye strain, wash them with warm salt water to cleanse and soothe them, using a half-teaspoon of salt to one pint of water.

Warmed Foods
Some warmed-over foods will have as good a flavor as originally if done properly. Do not bring the food in a direct contact with the heat. Instead, place it in the double boiler and steam it.

Sausages
Sausages often burst while cooking. An idea that may help prevent this is to lay the link sausages in a cold frying pan, cover and heat them. Cook for ten minutes.

Stains
Most fruit and vegetable stains can be removed from the hands by use of cornmeal and vinegar mixed together.

Cake Frosting
To bake a cake and frost it at the same time use the following method: Over the batter of a spice, chocolate or white cake after it's in the pan, spread some chopped raisins and nuts and a little crushed pineapple. When baked, the frosting is all done and very tasty.

Perfume Stains
If perfume has been spilled on furniture use either linseed oil, or camphorated oil immediately. Mop up, and apply more oil on a woolen cloth.

Rugs
To improve the color of rugs use a solution of a half-pint of vinegar and a half-pint of water. Use a large cloth wrung out of this solution and rub over the rug with wide strokes.

Leather
If leather-covered chairs are dull-looking, brighten their appearance by brushing over with the white of an egg. This is al-children most.

"The last time I was at this hospital," she said, "three teenage boys started composing a song about satellites and flying saucers. After our lesson, one of them said — 'I want to be sure nobody infringes our copyright!'"

The musical therapy programs take various forms. Group singing is popular in all hospitals, as are the rhythm lessons. In addition individual musical instruction is available to patients in member hospitals in the New York area.

"The Banjo is the most popular instrument," says Gladys. "It's easy to handle in a wheelchair, and it's wonderful for the morale of convalescent patients — keeps them busy, interested and happy."

Gladys herself started out to be a ballet dancer, came to New York, and discovered musical therapy offered a most satisfying field. Outside the New York area, she says, there is a real need for trained musicians who can teach, to take part in the hospital programs.

"All musicians seem to come to New York," says she, "so we seldom have a shortage here. But in other parts of the country, musical therapists are needed, and this might be a good career for young musicians to consider."

Music Beats Pills For Sick Children

By DOROTHY ROE
"Here come the music ladies!"

The little girl in the wheelchair turned eagerly toward the door of the children's ward at Bird S. Coler Hospital on Welfare Island, New York, as two smiling women entered, carrying marimbas and bongo drums.

"Ready for a music lesson, children?" asked small, cheerful Gladys Douglas-Longmore, in charge of the musical therapy program at this and many other hospitals throughout the country. With her musical therapist Dorothy L. Birchard, who visits the children every week and knows the favorite tunes of each one.

These children were cerebral palsy and muscular dystrophy patients, most of them mentally alert but handicapped in muscular coordination. Wheelchairs were pushed around the small piano, the small bongo drums were handed out, and the children hesitantly beat out the rhythm as Miss Birchard played "March of the Wooden Soldiers" on the piano.

"The rhythm helps in muscular coordination," explained Miss Douglas-Longmore later. "The children have to be encouraged to use their muscles, and the music often does the trick when everything else fails."

She supervises the 97 musical therapists who work for the Hospitalized Veterans

Service of the Musicians Emergency Fund, teaching music to patients in city, state and veterans' hospitals in eight states — New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Maryland.

"Musical therapy is a specialized field," says Gladys. "The people who do it best have to be dedicated, like ministers and social workers. They must be able to teach music as well as play it, and they must have a real interest in the patients and their problems."

Musical therapy first came into wide use after World War II, when it was found that in some cases, particularly those of mentally disturbed patients, music was the only means to reach them.

"The music cannot effect a cure," explains Gladys, "but it can be the major step in opening the way for other therapy."

Berkeley SUBMERSIBLE

The answer to your water supply problem

Economy of Operation
Greater capacity and pressure with minimum power consumption.

Lower Initial Cost
Because of high efficiency you can buy a lower horsepower pump to meet your capacity and pressure requirements.

Smaller Well Diameter
You can make a substantial savings on a new well because a Berkeley Submersible can be installed in wells as small as 4" diameter.

Protection from Freezing
All operating parts—pump and motor—are set deep in your well, completely safeguarded against extreme cold.

Berkeley Submersibles will pump efficiently from depths to 800 ft. Capacities range as high as 30 G.P.M.

...For Closed-Door Smokeless Broiling

Yes, lady, only with a GAS range is it advisable to do your broiling with the broiler door closed — because only a clean-burning live flame is capable of consuming cooking vapors! And closed-door broiling means no odors escaping into your kitchen... no excess heat pouring out. But this is just one of the many advantages of GAS cooking. You'll also find gas the FAST fuel... the CLEAN fuel... the FLEXIBLE fuel... the DEPENDABLE fuel! What's more, Gas Ranges cost less to buy, less to install, and less to maintain. Investigate, and you'll find that where food is finest, it's cooked with GAS! Stop in and get the complete story, then visit your gas appliance dealer.

PUT AN END TO POT-WATCHING, FOREVER
The Burner-with-a-Brain on a new gas range assures completely automatic top-burner cooking. A hyper-sensitive thermostat regulates the heat to eliminate all danger of boil-overs, scorching, or burning.

CONTROL OVEN TEMPERATURES EXACTLY
A self-starting, self-stopping gas oven keeps an eagle eye on your cooking... frees you from watching or worry while it follows the directions you've set on the dial for time and temperature.

How Can I?

By Anna Ashley

Q. How can I disinfect a room properly?

A. Paste strips of paper over the cracks of the doors and windows. Loosen the bedding and the carpets. Then burn two or three formaldehyde candles, according to directions on the box, which can be secured from any druggist. Leave the room closed for about eight hours, then open and air.

Q. How can I make a good mint salad?

A. Add some chopped mint leaves to French dressing and serve over tomatoes, lettuce, and cucumbers. It is an excellent spring salad.

Q. How can I prepare a remedy for poison ivy?

A. A little potassium permanganate and a little water is an excellent remedy for poison ivy. But have the solution prepared by a druggist.

Q. How can I remove mildew from white garments?

A. Add a teaspoonful of chloride of lime to a gallon of water, then dissolve thoroughly. Stir the garment in this solution until the mildew disappears. Rinse thoroughly. Do not use this on colors.

Q. How can I kill flies that are in a room?

A. Place around the room several dishes containing a mixture of cream, ground black pepper, and sugar.

Q. How can I make corn more appetizing and sweeter?

A. By adding a little sugar to the water while the corn is cooking.

Q. How can I make the garden hose last another season, when it has several tiny leaks in it?

A. This can often be remedied, and the hose last awhile longer at least, if the tiny leaks are painted on the outside with pliable roofing paint.

Q. How can I make a good hand lotion?

A. Use equal parts of camphor and glycerine. Rub the lotion thoroughly into the skin before retiring.

Q. How can I kill fleas?

A. Sprinkle salt about plentifully and it will kill fleas. Or, use spirits of turpentine in the water when rooms are scoured.

Q. How can I remove rust from steel?

A. By covering the spot with sweet oil, rubbing in thoroughly and allowing it to stand for a few days, then rubbing briskly with powdered unslacked lime until the spot disappears.

Q. How can I make boxes, trunks, and chests moth-proof?

A. By lining them with newspapers.

MOMENT OF FORGIVENESS

OWENSBORO, Ky. (AP) — Mayor Benjamin Hawes noticed his month's check from the City of Owensboro was missing from his billfold.

He put out a stop-payment order on it and the city issued him another check for the same amount. A few days later the original check cleared the bank. It was endorsed in Hawes' handwriting.

The red-faced mayor said he forgot all about cashing it. He promptly wrote the city a check to cover the second one.

IN CADENCE, TOOT!

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A diesel locomotive stole the show at Richmond's Armed Forces parade. The parade was crossing the Belt Line bridge when the train rounded the bend and the engineer began to sound his horn in marching time — toot — toot, toot, toot — until the train disappeared.

WEIGHT OF EVIDENCE

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — It's almost certain the thief who robbed the home of Mrs. Elsie Bobo was on the plump side. The thief ignored jewelry and other valuables, took a reducing unit Mrs. Bobo valued at $350.

METHODISTS NEED MINISTERS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Methodist Church reports it isn't turning out enough new ministers to replace those who retire, die or otherwise leave active service. Over a 12-month period, said the Rev. Dr. Gerald O. McCall, theological education director, the church lost

1,324 ministers, and graduated only 825 new ones. "This, he said, leaves a "precarious needs."
