Two Slightly Hurt In Wreck

A Morris, Okla., woman and her 15-year-old son were treated and released in the emergency room of Deaf Smith County Hospital after suffering minor injuries in a two-car collision at the intersection of U. S. Highways 60 and 385 at about 11 a.m. Monday.

Mrs. Mary C. Blankenship, 51, of Morris, and her son, Aubra Lee Scott, were injured when the car in which they were riding collided with an automobile driven by Francis Tyson Cheek, 39, of Dallas.

Mrs. Blankenship was treated for fractured ribs and her son was treated for shock and heat exhaustion. The boy was taken to the hospital by Kreig-Marcum ambulance shortly after the accident, and Mrs. Blankenship was taken to the hospital by car later after her injuries were discovered.

Investigating Hereford patrolmen said the Blankenship car was traveling north on U. S. 385 and the Cheek car was going east on Highway 60 at the time the accident occurred. Cheek was cited for failure to grant the right-of-way.

Patrolman Bobby Roberts said damage to Cheek's 1956 model car amounted to about $200, and damage to Mrs. Blankenship's 1955 model automobile was estimated at about $100.

TWO WERE INJURED in a two-car collision at the intersection of Highway 60 and U. S. 385 Monday morning. Driver of the car at left was Francis Tyson Cheek, 39, of Dallas, and Mrs. Mary Blankenship, 51, of Morris Okla., was the driver of the other car. Mrs. Blankenship and her son, Aubra Lee Scott, 15, were treated for minor injuries at Deaf Smith County Hospital. (Staff Photo)

Three Connected With April Pistol Burglary

Dope Charges Led To Break

Two Latin-American men being held in Del Rio on a charge of possession of marijuana have been charged here in connection with the April 19 burglary of Helton Army Surplus Store in Hereford.

A 23-year-old Hereford Latin-American Sunday was arrested here by the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department in connection with the same burglary, in which seven pistols were reported missing the morning after the break-in occurred.

Being held by custom officers in Del Rio are Victor Ortiz, 23, and Felix Salazar, 25, both formerly of Hereford.

Sheriff Charles Skelton told the Brand Tuesday that one of the men being held in Del Rio has made bond on the marijuana charge, but both were held in lieu of charges filed by officers here. Skelton went to Del Rio last weekend after he was notified of the men's arrest there.

At the time of the burglary investigation, seven pistols with an estimated total value of $480 were reported missing. Investigating Hereford police said prowlers gained entry through an unlocked window at the rear of the store on the night of April 18 or the morning of April 19.

Talent Title, Tour To Nancy Parsons

Nancy C. Parsons ... 4-H talent winner

For outstanding work as a member of the Merry Maidens 4-H Club in Hereford, Nancy Carol Parsons, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parsons, 114 Ave. J, was named the Deaf Smith County Talent Club for 1959 contest winner this week.

Miss Parsons and 15 other 4-H Club members from eight districts of the state Extension Service in Cooperation will make a seven-day tour directed by the extension service and Producers Grain Corporation during the middle of August.

The talent tour winners will attend the annual meeting of the American Institute of Cooperatives to be held on the campus of the University of Illinois at Urbana, Ill. After spending a day in Amarillo for orientation and a tour of Producers Grain facilities there, the group will leave for Illinois by chartered (Continued on page 2)

County Hospital Receives Three-Year Accreditation

By H. A. TUCK BRAND NEWS EDITOR Deaf Smith County Hospital this week was notified that it had been accredited for a three-year period. Announcement was made by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, which inspects hospitals on a voluntary basis.

Previously the hospital had had two one-year accreditations.

Oil, Tire Taken From Car, Truck

Hereford police officers are investigating the theft of nearly four gallons of oil from a parked panel truck and a missing tire and rim from a 1954 model automobile on the parking lot of Warren Brothers Motor Company in Hereford over the weekend.

Investigating officers said prowlers left the car on a hoisting jack after removing the wheel. From three to four cases of oil were taken from the truck, located near the parked automobile.

The thefts were reported to police officers Monday morning.

Three years is the longest period for accreditation granted and follows a rigid inspection of all phases of the hospital on April 21.

Accreditation is a hard-won assurance of excellent medical facilities. For example, the 1938 listing contained just 18 hospitals in the entire state of Texas, with 50 beds or less, which were accredited. The Deaf Smith County Hospital was one of this group. Accreditation, according to manager Leonard Watson, is evidence that medical and hospital people are on guard for you, assuring you that the hospital is well-run, well-organized, well-equipped and well-staffed.

All of these things are important to hospital patrons. They become even more important when you realize that someone enters an American hospital every two seconds; that's about 21 million people a year, and doesn't include an additional 73 million visits people make annually for hospital out-patient treatment.

Ask Bids On Jail, County Courthouse

A call for bids on construction of a new jail and renovation of the existing courthouse was issued during a meeting of the Deaf Smith County Commission Monday.

A single bid is being asked on the two big projects. Bids will be accepted until 7 p.m. July 15, at which time they will be opened in the Commissioners' Courtroom.

Bonds were voted for the two projects during a special election on March 7. The margin was more than two to one in favor of both issues. Last year a bond election for a new jail had been defeated at the polls.

In the last election, the county asked, and got approval for, issuance of up to $200,000 in bonds for the new jail and a maximum of $185,000 for renovation of the present courthouse.

Formal call for bid Saturday completed more than three months of weekly meetings by the Commission, as they conferred frequently with Amarillo architect John P. Work on the project.

Commissioners asked for a single bid, rather than separate quotations, feeling that two crews working so closely might slow down construction. They also felt that they would get lower bids by combining the two projects.

Chances are that when you think of the word "hospital" you think first of a building — a compact arrangement of rooms and wards, operating rooms and (Continued on page 2)

Three-Act Play, 'All My Sons,' Thurs., Friday

"All My Sons," a three act play by English playwright Arthur Miller, will be a two-night run in the Hereford High School auditorium Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Competing in the District 1-AAA one-act play contest, the Hereford students presented the second act of the drama to win top honors.

By popular demand, the play is being presented in its entirety, Carroll Hickey, high school speech instructor, said. Before and after the district contest, the second act of the Broadway drama was presented a number of times locally before civic clubs.

The Hereford Lions Club voted to underwrite cost of producing the full play. Proceeds, above the production cost, will be used to buy stage equipment (Continued on page 2)

Vegetable Outlook 'Best In 15 Years'

Hereford vegetable producers Monday announced that prospects for quality yield this year locally are the "best in 15 years" at a meeting of the High Plains Growers and Shippers in the Jim Hill Hotel.

Represented at the meeting were 34 individual growers and shipping firms in the Panhandle and three representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture. The group works in conjunction with the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Association.

It was announced at the meeting that potato harvest in Deaf Smith County should begin by July 6. Harvest of the crop already is underway at Plainview, Muleshoe and Crosbyton.

The group discussed means and methods of packing a "top product" for presentation to the consumer. The representatives also worked out inspection requirements, including needed (Continued on page 2)

Name Directors For County UF

Eight directors were named to three-year terms in the Deaf Smith County United Fund during a meeting Monday afternoon.

They are Lowell Sharp, Pio Harmon, Mark Coenig, Mrs. Ellen Carter, Mrs. W. J. Messick, Mrs. A. T. Mims, Mrs. Robbie Seed and Mrs. Howard Gault.

Another director will be named soon to take up the one-year unexpired term of Townsend Douglas, who has moved to Amarillo.

Outgoing directors include Jimmie Allred, Clint Formby, Virgil Hennen, Mrs. William Wimberley, L. L. LeGrand, M. R. Latham, Kenneth Coker and Ben Childers.

Nominating committee included directors with one year remaining. Included were Bill Stanford, chairman, Hillary Aven, Bert Boomer, Charles Hoover, Andrew Kershen, Ed Loerwald and Dub Reeves.

County UF president Ed Line also appointed chairmen for the three constitutional committees. They are Hillary Aven, campaign; Bert Boomer, budget; and Mrs. Marlin Gilliland, publicity.

The campaign director, who will have charge of the annual fall fund-drive, will be named later, Line said.

Around Town

All seven Hereford school board members are concerned with farming and the harvest situation caused them to set an unusual meeting. They agreed to hold a special meeting next Tuesday, June 30, at 6 a.m. in the C of C directors' room to talk over some pressing topics in regard to building. Architect Herb Brasher claimed the board had often finished its meetings about dawn, but this was the first time he had heard of their starting one at sunrise. The trustees said when they started cutting wheat they couldn't (Continued on page 2)

Youngsters Try Riding Contests

A group of nine Hereford youngsters interested in horseback riding activities participated in a practice contest sponsored by Hereford Riders, Inc. Sunday afternoon at Hereford Riders new arena southeast of the city.

The group of junior high school age youths last week expressed interest in participating in contests of that type, and (Continued on page 2)

A WIDE VARIETY of items were taken in a series of three burglaries reported in Hereford over the past weekend. Little Leaguers Candy Sale Set Annual Hereford Little League candy sale will be held Saturday, June 27, according to Mrs. Joel Hodges, general chairman.

All Little League players are asked to wear uniforms and report to their team chairman at 9 a.m. Saturday. The annual sale will be a door-to-door affair, with proceeds going to help defray expenses of the local Little League baseball program.

There are 140 boys from 8 to 12 playing on the eight teams, with each team playing twice weekly.

Team chairmen include: major Yankees, Mrs. Willis Eddleman; minor Yankees, Mrs. Don Fudge; major Giants, Mrs. J. B. Pool; minor Giants, Mrs. T. M. Cox Jr.; major Cardinals, Mrs. B. F. Cain; minor Cardinals, Mrs. Calvin Goodin; major Dodgers, Mrs. Buddy Evans; and minor Dodgers, Mrs. G. S. Solomon.

Mrs. Hodges also announced the appointment of Mrs. M. T. Duvall and Mrs. Glen Nelson as co-chairmen for the annual Little League Mothers' ballgame. The game is slated for the night following the end of the regular Little League season.

Hold Brothers On Series Of 3 Weekend Burglaries

Bonds for two Hereford Latin-American brothers were set at $1,000 each by Justice of the Peace Berry Miles Tuesday after charges of burglary were filed against them in connection with a series of break-ins of Hereford businesses over the past weekend.

A 13-year-old Hereford Latin-American youth, also arrested in connection with the burglaries, was declared a juvenile delinquent in a juvenile hearing in County Courtroom Tuesday afternoon and was released in custody of his brother, who lives in Hereford.

Bonds were set for Armando Blanco, 19, and Gonzalo Blanco Jr., 20, after formal charges were filed against them by the Hereford Police Department Tuesday.

Burglarized over the weekend were Luke's Grocery and Market, 505 E. Grand Ave., Master Cleaners, 131 W. Second, and Plains Insurance Agency, 213 N. Main.

Attempts were made to gain entry to Hereford Hardware, 216 N. Main, and White Auto Store, 143 N. Main. Investigating officers, however, did not indicate a tie-in of the three burglaries with the two attempts.

Investigating the burglaries and attempts were Hereford patrolmen Bobby Roberts, G. L. Moomey and Sgt. C. L. Lynch. Entry to Luke's Grocery was gained through a pried-open window on the east side of the (Continued on page 2)

Best Camp Ever For Troop 50

Twenty-seven Boy Scouts from Hereford Troop 50 returned Saturday from a week-long outing at Camp Don Harrington with the best collection of merit badges in the history of the troop.

Accompanied by Scoutmaster Wayne Lawrence and Assistant Scoutmaster Otto Gilliland, the Scouts brought back badges in swimming, lifesaving, pioneering, first aid, cooking and marksmanship.

Taking badges in swimming were Mike Harvey, Royce Lee Turner, Bruce Miller, Richard Albracht, Woody Hazlewood, Tyler Thompson, Robert Higgins, Eugene Turner, Gary Roberson and Jimmy Cooper. Roberson and Harvey took badges also in lifesaving.

Merit badges in pioneering were issued to Turner and David Sellers.

Royce and Eugene Turner, Miller, Sellers, Randy Carver, and Robert Higgins were awarded first aid badges.

Cooking badges went to Carver and Sellers.

Pro-marksman badges were awarded for scoring 20 points out of a possible 50. Winners of this badge were Paul Christman, Royce Turner, Sellers, Albracht, Thompson and Austin.

For scoring 25 out of a possible 50 points, marksman awards were given to Royce Turner, Higgins, Sellers and Gayland Ward.

Marksmanship first class awards went to Sellers, Royce and Eugene Turner and Higgins while a sharpshooter badge went to Eugene Turner.

David Sellers was recognized as the outstanding camper of the week.

Woman Injured In Collision

Mrs. Bessie Chesher, 42, of Friona, Wednesday morning was reported in "good" condition at Deaf Smith County Hospital, where she was admitted after receiving laceration of the body in a two-car collision Tuesday morning on Highway 60, one mile west of Umbarger.

Drivers of the cars involved in the accident were Mrs. Chesher's son, Albert Lee Chesher, 15, of Friona, and Larry Gayle Anderson, 19, of Borger, who was driving a pickup truck owned by Clifton Corley of Hereford.

The Chesher automobile was travelling west and the pickup truck was going east on the Highway, according to Highway patrolman Charles Skinner of Hereford. Skinner and F. M. Lenz of the Highway Patrol unit in Canyon investigated the accident, which occurred at about 6 a.m. Tuesday. No tickets were issued.

Hereford Riders members sponsored the trial contest at 5 p.m. Sunday.

Harold Easley, Hereford Riders president, said future contests for youths of that age group would be held soon, and said any others interested in participating in the contests should contact a Riders member.

Youths participating in barrel races, flag races and relays at the arena Sunday included Charlotte Williams, David Hill, Ted McWhorter, David Grubbs, Robbie Lemons, Johnnie Pool, Martha Russell, Mary Russell and John Aikin.

Harold Beauchamp and Nell Spradley, Hereford Riders members, were co-chairmen in charge of the contests.

On July 12, Easley said, District II of American Association of Sheriff's Poses and Riding Clubs will hold its second district play-day at Will Rogers Range Riders arena in Amarillo.

The Hereford youths are expected to be represented in the contests. All riding clubs in the Panhandle are invited to participate in the games, which include divisions for men, women and children.

laboratories. But a hospital actually is people, the physicians, the nurses and the other staff personnel, and the governing board and the administrator who oversee hospital affairs. Many of these people you may never see, but they are working behind the scenes to provide the best possible care.

Hospitals try to do a good job of caring for patients. But they need a yardstick to measure the success of their various activities.

To provide such a measuring stick, the medical and hospital professions have developed a nationwide accreditation program. It sets up carefully-designated standards for every area of activity in an average hospital. The philosophy of this program is to look at the hospital from the patient's point of view - to safeguard the patient's life and health.

Four national medical and hospital organizations comprise the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals which grants the certificate. They are: The American College of Physicians, the American College of Surgeons, The American Hospital Association and the American Medical Association.

It is a voluntary, cooperative, non-profit public service for you. Accreditation adds work for doctors and hospitals and it costs a great deal of money. Yet this expenditure of time and money is made gladly for one purpose only - the benefit of the patient.

The accreditation program for hospitals was started in 1918 by the American College of Surgeons, but over the years it became too large for one group to handle alone. So the present organization was established in 1952.

An accredited hospital offers a number of assurances for the patient.

Among these is a "safe and sound" building, well constructed with adequate space and facilities for every patient. Maximum precautions are taken against fire and explosion and with provision for emergency lighting in case of power failure. Patients also are protected against exposure to diseases of other patients.

There are good facilities and equipment, including the latest types of machines and laboratory facilities, with skilled personnel to use them fully.

Other necessities include a special kitchen, well-stocked pharmacy and an extensive medical library for use of physicians and other hospital personnel.

One of the most important requirements, of course, is for a competent, qualified medical staff, well-trained nursing staff and adequate hospital personnel for all functions of the complex organization.

But such an operation doesn't just happen. There must be a responsible governing body. In the case of the Deaf Smith County Hospital, the County Commission appoints members of the hospital board, both laymen and medical personnel to organize and manage it efficiently.

A trained administrator directs day-to-day hospital activities, seeing that doctors, nurses and other hospital personnel work together efficiently.

Complete medical records are maintained on each patient, while the doctors are ethically required to consult with other staff physicians in many cases. Doctors also voluntarily check on their own work through reviews and staff meetings.

Accreditation for a hospital is said to be like the "sterling" mark on silver... a mark of quality in medical and hospital service.

To the public, accreditation can mean that your recovery is speeded up, your pocketbook spared because concerted, well-organized efforts by everyone connected with the hospital are directed to helping you get well.

Chairman Bill Dameron, quite pleased, commented that the paintings were among the first of a Hereford bull that didn't make the animal look like a billy goat.

Still on the Livestock Committee: Bill Dameron announced that the group is compiling an exhaustive directory of Hereford area cattle raisers. If you are in this category and haven't been contacted, get in touch with Dameron or the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce not later than July 1 to be included.

The Sunnyside Community in Castro County will hold its annual homecoming on July 4 at the community building. All former residents and others interested are invited to attend and bring a picnic lunch. Drinks will be furnished by the community.

An Early Bird Views Adult Swimming Class

Despite light sprinkles, a good-sized group showed up Monday for the first adult swimming instruction of the summer. Meeting from 6-7 a.m., the group is divided into three classes for specialized instruction.

The adult class is just one of the many being taught this summer under county Red Cross Water Safety sponsorship. Instructors donate their time and skill to making others feel at ease in the water.

Although it is a struggle to get out of bed and into a pool so early, the class soon develops a sense of comradeship and sincerely enjoy the work. About the only disappointment came on the first morning when the group found the electricity was turned off and they couldn't make coffee.

DAWN NEWS

Rain Falls Sunday With Half To One Inch Total

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY
Rain fell here Sunday night in a narrow strip along the highway from Jowell Switch to just east of Dawn. Half an inch was reported in most of this area.

H. V. McCabe, three miles east of Dawn, reported only a sprinkle. An inch or more was reported south of Dawn. A terrific electrical storm accompanied the rain. The electricity was off in some areas for a while.

Linda and Jerry Stewart underwent tonsilectomies Thursday at the hospital in Canyon. They were brought home Friday.

Dion Miller had his tonsils removed Friday at the Canyon hospital. He was taken to Miss Vera Crawford's at 5 p.m., then brought home about 8 p.m. All the children are reported to be getting along fine. Jerry and Dion will start school in September and Linda will be in the fourth grade this fall.

Visitors last weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Polan were his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Polan of Dumas and Miss Pansy Polan, of Espanola, N. M.

Wayne Polan went home with his grandparents for a visit. Mrs. Herschel Miller Sr. entered the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford last week for minor surgery and medical treatment.

The Miller children have been staying with their grandmother, Mrs. Herschel Miller Sr., in Hereford while their mother is in the hospital.

Mrs. Herschel Miller Sr. recently moved into her new home on Star St.

Mrs. Fred Frye and Audni Miller visited with Mrs. Richard Frye at Summerfield last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dutton and sons of La Junta, Colo., recently came by to visit Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson. Mrs. Dutton and Mrs. Johnson attended high school and college together.

The Johnson children had the measles so the Dutton family did not stay as their sons had not had the disease.

The Johnson family visited Sunday at Muleshoe with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson.

Mrs. Frank Belger, Mrs. C. P. Heap, Debbie and Connie Bieker of Royal Oak, Mich., arrived Wednesday for an extended visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Galley.

Mrs. Belger is Mrs. Galley's mother. Mrs. Heap is her grandmother. Debbie and Connie are her brother's daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lemons received word Saturday afternoon that her father, J. M. Waller of Morton, had died following a heart attack.

Mr. Waller had suffered with heart trouble for a number of years and had spent quite some time in the Veterans' Hospital in Amarillo the past few years, but had been able to be at home the past several months.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Miller Wednesday evening were Mrs. Inez Wedel and son, Karl, of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Hill and daughters of Amarillo called in the afternoon.

The Miller home Thursday evening.

Mrs. P. L. Carmichael and Mrs. H. H. Miller were among the hostesses at a bridal shower Saturday afternoon for Earlene Plank in the home of Mrs. Wayne Edwards in Hereford.

Shari Carmichael and Audni Miller were among those who presided at the guest register at the shower.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Smith were dinner guests Sunday in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Smith, in Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Smith of Washington, D. C., were visiting his parents in Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Miller and family called in the O. G. Smith home in the afternoon.

Supper guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stewart Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamblin of Way-side.

Visitors at the evening services of the Dawn Baptist Church Sunday were the Rev. and Mrs. Paul McClung and children of Overton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth DeHart, Mr. and Mrs. Corder of Hereford and Mr. and Mrs. Finis Wright of Amarillo.

The McClung family visited Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Miller. He was pastor of the Dawn Church before going to Overton last July. They are on vacation now.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Peek and family of Amarillo were visitors at the Sunday morning worship services and were dinner guests in the home of their daughter, the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Oglesby of Mobeetie visited with Mr. and Mrs. Reecé Stewart Saturday night.

Mrs. J. B. Caraway Monday afternoon was elected one of the county delegates to attend the Texas Home Demonstration Clubs Convention in Galveston in September.

Mrs. Vincent Price of Vega left Monday for home after a few days of visiting here with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frye.

Donnie Frye went home with his aunt.

Mrs. H. V. McCabe and her grandchildren, Carla, Kent and Keith McCabe of Borger went to Black Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carthel.

Visiting Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gentry were his uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gentry and Capt. and Mrs. Rhodes of Amarillo, Capt. Rhodes is stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base.

Mrs. Mollie Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. Albin Hallway and sons of Tulsa, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Barlow of Amarillo spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Lemons.

The visitors from Tulsa were on their way to Earth to visit relatives there and in that vicinity.

Mrs. Goodman is Mrs. Lemons' aunt and Hallway is her cousin.

Guests at a birthday dinner Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Strain were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Baker Womble, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest May. The occasion was in honor of Mrs. Strain's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Vinton and daughter of Hereford spent Father's Day here with Mr. and Mrs. Leon Vinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Vinton visited early Sunday morning with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Val Mathis, and with Mrs. Rose Brownlow at the Deaf Smith County Hospital.

Mrs. George Ralphs and daughters, Jeannette and Jeanie, of Happy visited Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Airhart.

Household Scrapbook

Paper Labels
Sometimes it is difficult to remove the paper labels from new pillow cases, sheets, etc. If the goods is pulled on the bias around the label several times, the paper will usually lift off very readily.

Whipped Cream
An egg white beaten in for each cup of whipped cream will make it go farther. Beat the cream separately and combine both when ready to serve.

Care of Chamois
The softness of a chamois skin can be retained if one will make a habit of washing it after each time used in warm water to which a pinch of soda has been added.

The Gums
If the teeth are so sensitive that the time spent in a dentist's chair practically exhausts one, try rinsing the mouth with baking soda and water several times before going to the dentist, and it will be found that this treatment will help very much.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our appreciation for the many kind words and deeds extended us during our recent bereavement. We thank our friends and neighbors for the flowers, food, visitations and many words of sympathy.
The J. D. Bruner family.

Rain, Hail, Strong Winds Leave Path Of Destruction

By MRS. HAROLD RUDD
As the official first day of summer drew to a close, a bad storm left a path of destruction in spots through part of the community.

Among those receiving hail damage to their crops were Harold Rudd, Herbert Owens, C. A. Sauley, Joe Wagoner, Howard Beasley, George Turrentine, John Kalka, J. C. Morrison on his farm north of the Westway Store, and the O. G. Hill Six Mile Place.

Very strong winds moved four granaries of their foundations on the Hill place. They received 2.4 inches of rain. Morrison, Turrentine, Flood, Kalka and Joe Reinauer all received more than three inches of rain.

HANDY ADVICE
SOUTH PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — A rudimentary course in obstetrics is part of the in-service training program for South Portland's 24 police patrolmen. Since patrolmen frequently have to aid the stork, particularly when he arrives sooner than expected, the Portland chapter, American Red Cross, added some simple obstetrical instructions to its first-aid training of the city police.

In Buffalo City Court Justice Hath No Sting

By BOB POWELL

BUFFALO, N. Y. — "But, officer, you gotta arrest me, I gotta see that good lookin' judge again."

After enough pounding on the precinct desk, the sergeant obliged by placing the man in a cell to await the opening of City Court the next morning.

The man got his wish. He saw "that good lookin' judge." Miss Ann T. Mikoll, 29, the youngest City Court jurist ever elected to the office in Buffalo.

The preceding day, Ann recalled, the man had been sent away with a dismissal on a public disturbance charge.

This time Ann sent the man to Meyer Memorial Hospital for observation.

told the desk sergeant I thought he must need mental attention," she laughed.

Ann was elected for a 10-year term on the bench in November 1957 on the Democratic ticket. Previous to that, she had served as an assistant corporation council for two years.

The city court post pays $14,000 a year.

When the black robes of office aren't hiding her trim figure, Ann spends a great deal of her spare time with youngsters. She teaches folk dancing at the Polish Home to about 45 girls, for toddlers to teens.

"More than just being a healthy activity, this dancing teaches a youngster poise," she said.

Occasionally, Ann takes her pupils to neighboring cities and communities to perform. Last year, the pupils were given an added treat when Ann arranged to have a group compete in the National Folk Dancing competitions at Chicago.

She very boastfully reports that none of her pupils ever appeared before her in court.

"Oh, they come around to watch the proceedings, or just to say hello, but they never come in as defendants."

As far as her political aspirations of the future are concerned, Ann said, "Things have been coming too fast for me to make any decision at the moment."

"But working in City Court certainly gives one a terrific insight to the problems of the community. I enjoy this public service immensely."

Beauty At Home

Q. How can I impart a narrower effect to a too-large mouth?

A. Leave the corners of the mouth free of color, and just barely reach the outer line of the upper and lower lips. Before applying lipstick, cover the lips with a tinted foundation. Then paint over it only as much as you desire. The tint will keep the unpainted area of the lips covered.

Q. How can I remove ink stains from a ballpoint pen from one of my dresses?

A. By use of some carbon tetrachloride, followed at once with a warm-suds washing.

Q. What is a good formula for a "homemade" hand cream?

A. Mix two-thirds cup mutton tallow, one-third cup mineral oil, one teaspoon borax, and three tablespoons water. You can also add a nice aroma to this with some oil of geranium.

Q. How can I minimize the appearance of laugh-lines on my face, those deep crevices running from the side of the nose to the corner of the mouth?

A. Use a highlighting foundation base on these (one about two shades lighter than your over-all base). This has a way of adding a more youthful appearance to this part of face.

Q. What technique of make-up will help to offset a rather weak-looking chin?

Some department stores use dogs for patrol and security duty.

Brass Hats Take A Stab At Pillorying Cartoonists

AP Newsfeatures
A handful of public officials in Washington frequently the butt of political cartoons - took up pens recently to defend themselves.

The occasion was a contest staged by the American Assn. of Editorial Cartoonists, who good-naturedly offered their usual targets the opportunity to strike back by displaying the amateurs' work at their annual convention.

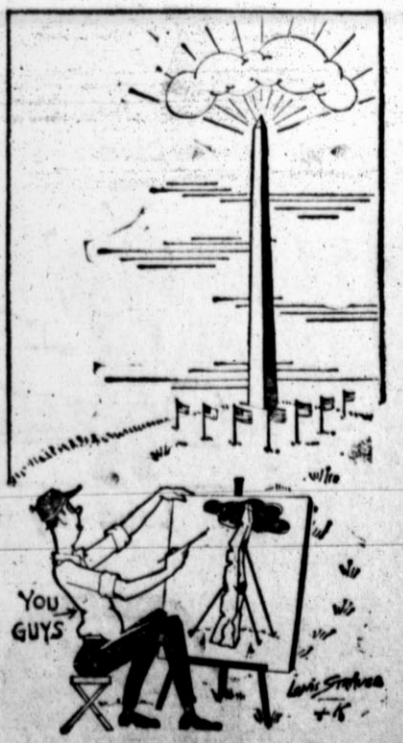

The professionals even offered a prize for the most telling lampoon of the lampoonists. Although only eight public servants of the 90 invited to participate rose to the challenge, a few got in some good licks.

First prize was awarded to Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss, who turned out a drawing entitled "Point of View" showing a cartoonist drawing the Washington Monument, shimmering in the sunlight, as a tottering, propped-up shaft under a dark cloud. The cartoonist was labeled "You guys."

Another entry, by Secretary of the Interior Fred A. Seaton, showed a group of cartoonists lazily lounging in the press club and deciding: "Today, men, let's hit the bureaucrats for loafing."

Strauss signed his entry, "Lewis Strauss plus K," indicating a collaborator. Reportedly, the collaborator merely inked in Strauss' own pencil drawing.

Adm. Arleigh Burke's cartoon, showing a naval officer ordering a submarine to dive with two cartoonists standing helplessly on the deck, was sent with a covering letter saying, "Without gentlemen such as those who comprise the membership of your association, many an American citizen would miss the full impact of many important issues and we might all take ourselves and our jobs too seriously."

Point of View

Area Receive Rain, Hail Damage Sunday

By MRS. OWEN ANDREWS

Rain in varying amounts fell in the community the first of the week. On Sunday, showers fell over most of the community, with the area along the Deaf Smith County line reporting over an inch and considerable hail damage.

On Monday night the same area received rain again with W. H. Andrews reporting eight-tenths of an inch. J. H. Brooks and Clark Andrews reported about half an inch and at the Frio Baptist Church eight-tenths of an inch was reported.

Wheat harvest is just beginning and the daily light showers have kept combines still for the past week.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Frio Baptist Church met Tuesday of last week for a program on Thailand. Mrs. Edgar Vinson had charge of the program.

Others present were Mesdames Weldon Stephan, Floyd Cole, Clark Andrews, D. C. Miller, T. L. Sparkman Jr., and B. H. Baldwin. Prizes were made to entertain the associational WMU meeting to be held at Frio on July 9.

Taking Sunday dinner with the J. E. Andrews were Mr.

RETURN FROM FORT WORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans have returned from Fort Worth where they visited their son, Wayne Evans and his family, formerly of Hereford.

They were accompanied to Fort Worth by his sister, Mrs. Arma Wait of Phoenix, Ariz.

Returning with Mr. and Mrs. Evans was their grandson, David, who will stay for two or three weeks.

Also a guest at the Evans home is Evans' sister, Mrs. K. M. Reed of Little Rock, Ark.

and Mrs. Charles King and grandchildren, David and Darlene King of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Andrews, Rocky and Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sparkman Jr., Tommy, Bonnie and Darlene, Larry Dobbs, Mrs. Elmer Jones, Mr. and Mrs. George Zetzsch and Ann.

During the afternoon they received a phone call from Andrews' sister, Mrs. Wiley Littrell of Orange, Calif., and Misses Alma and Veradelle Andrews who are guests of the Littrells. They left last week accompanying their aunt, Mrs. Allie Burkus and family of Texico, on the trip which will include points from Los Angeles northward as far as Albany, Ore. They are visiting various relatives and seeing points of interest along the way. They plan to be gone two or three weeks.

Word was received Friday of the accidental death of Thurman Warrick, brother of Bill and Elza Warrick. He was killed when a ditch machine he was operating plowed into a high voltage underground electric line. He was working in an oil field area near Odessa.

The Warrick families left Saturday for Idabel, Okla., the family home town, where the funeral and burial services were to be held. Thurman has visited his brothers here many times and worked in this community for extended periods of time. He lived most of the time with his father at Idabel.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Baldwin held a family reunion during the weekend. It was the first time in several years that all seven of their children and their families were able to be together.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dean and children, Bobby, Jimmy and Debbie, of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Earp and Norma Joy of Greeley, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Homer West of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Darold Baldwin, of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baldwin of Lubbock and Godfrey Baldwin, a sophomore student at the University of Texas, who is spending the summer here.

Ben Dean, son-in-law of the Baldwins, spoke at the Sunday morning service in the Frio Baptist Church, Mrs. Wesley Earp sang a solo as part of the evening service.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McClellan and Randy of Perryton, were visiting the J. H. Brooks and D. O. Bensons of Hereford during the weekend. McClellan is a nephew of Mrs. Benson. He spent a summer working in this community several years ago.

Visiting the Brooks and Bensons last weekend was another nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Don McClellan of Lubbock. The McClellans and Bensons went to Albuquerque and visited children of the Bensons, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Cruise and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Simpson and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harper and family of Dumas were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dobbs Sunday. The two women are sisters.

The Rev. and Mrs. B. H. Baldwin, Jana Cole and Ramona Hall visited the Thurman Mousners at Hart Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Mousner has been ill several months.

The Girls' Auxiliary of the Frio Baptist Church had a swimming party and picnic at the Hereford Park Friday. Adults attending were Mrs. Andy Axe and Mrs. B. H. Baldwin, sponsors, and Mrs. Leo Hall and Mrs. Clyde Renfro, visitors.

Girls attending were Jana Cole, Ramona and Reba Hall, Carol Robbins, Nancy, Vicki

The annual Hereford City Golf tournament is just around the corner.

Golfers not trying to qualify for medalist honors may start shooting qualifying rounds this Sunday, June 28, through Friday July 3. All golfers trying for medalist honors must qualify Friday, July 3. Both men and lady's championships will be decided over Saturday and Sunday, July 4 and 5. One match will be played Saturday, July 4 and the first consolation match will be decided the same date. Semi-finals and finals will be held Sunday, July 5.

Eight players will be placed in each men's flight and four in the lady's flights. Entry fee will be $7.50 plus green fees, and merchandise prizes will be awarded to the winners, runners-up, consolation winners and consolation runners-up in each flight.

A traveling trophy is awarded to the winner of the championships in both men's and ladies divisions. Any golfer winning the trophy three times gets permanent possession. Charles Seed has won the men's trophy twice and Juanita Sims has won the lady's trophy twice. Should either of them win a championship this year they will keep the trophy.

Max Drever is the defending men's champion, having edged Seed two and one last year in the finals. Max is playing very well and will be favored to repeat as the 1959 champion. Former champs, Charles Seed (1955 and 1957), Bob Lindsey (56) and Don Martin (52) will be held high in contention with several other good players close on their heels: John Eldridge, 1958 medalist, George Gross, Wimpy Walker, J. A. Pitman, Dale Tinnin, Joe Kerr, Earl Stagner, Waune Phillips or 1951 champ J. M. Posey could be new champs.

Juanita Sims is the defending lady's champion, having edged Hootie Gilbreath in the finals in 57. A tournament was not held in 58 due to too many other golfing activities. Other ladies held high in contention are Hootie Gilbreath, Meredith Ireland (present municipal champion), Ola Mae Trimble (recent consolation winner at Muleshoe), Lucille Posey and Rowena Posey. Ladies will play one match Saturday and one on Sunday. All matches will be matched play.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS
June 28 through July 3: Qualifying rounds for all flights (18 holes)
Friday, July 3: Qualifying for medalist honors
Friday, July 3 8 p.m.: Picnic lunch for contestants and wives
Saturday, July 4, 8:30 a.m.: First round matches in all flights
Saturday, July 4, 1:30 p.m.: First round consolation matches in all flights
Sunday, July 5, 8:30 a.m.: Second round matches in all flights. Final consolation match in all flights.

How Can I?

By Anne Ashley

Q. How can I prevent the corrosion of the metal tops of salt shakers?
A. By treating the inside of the cover with melted paraffin. Open the holes before the paraffin has set.

Q. How can I remove lead-pencil, crayon, and other such marks from the wall paper?
A. Try using an art eraser.

Q. How can I remove mildew?
A. Remove mildew by wetting the spot, soaping well, and covering thickly with finely-pulverized chalk or whiting. Or soak in sour milk, rinse, and lay in the sun.

Q. How can I remove ink from paper?
A. Put 1/2-pound of chloride of lime to 1 quart of soft water. Shake and let stand twenty-four hours, then strain through a cotton cloth. To 1 ounce of this lime water add 1 teaspoon-match in all flights.

Sunday, July 5, 2:00 p.m.: Final matches in all flights

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

AUDITED PAID CIRCULATION ABC

There are standards for advertising, too!

What a fix we'd all be in without those standards of measurement for the goods you buy and sell. Imagine the confusion, waste and doubt in business transactions if we didn't have accepted standards of weights and measures—known values.

We believe it is just as necessary for us to tell you what you get for your advertising dollars, in terms of known circulation value, as it is for you to do business with your customers on the basis of recognized standards. That's why this newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations.

WHAT IS THE A.B.C.? The Bureau is a cooperative and nonprofit association of 3450 publishers, advertising agencies and advertisers in the United States and Canada. Organized in 1914, A.B.C. brought order out of advertising chaos by establishing a definition for paid circulation, rules and standards for measuring, auditing and reporting the circulations of newspapers and periodicals.

WHAT A.B.C. DOES FOR YOU. At regular intervals one of the Bureau's large staff of experienced circulation auditors comes to our office and makes a thorough audit of our circulation records. He has access to all of our books and records to obtain the FACTS that tell you what you get for your money when you advertise in this newspaper.

WHAT A.B.C. REPORTS TELL YOU. The circulation FACTS obtained by the A.B.C. auditor are condensed in easy to read A.B.C. reports which tell you: How much circulation we have; where the circulation goes; how it was sold and many other FACTS about the audience we provide for your sales messages. Make your advertising investments on the basis of this audited information. Ask for a copy of our A.B.C. report.

Olson, Morrilli Win Wrestling

Swede Olson and Tony Morrilli took the events in wrestling last Saturday. Olson took the first event by taking the first fall and second fall when Tommy Phelps threw Olson over the ropes. In the second event of the card, Sonny Myers and Morrilli were pitted against each other. Morrilli took two out of three falls to win the match. Myers used 14 minutes to take the first fall and the second and third falls went to Morrilli.

A charity card, sponsored by the Khiva Shrine Temple, will be staged Saturday. The proceeds of the night will go to the Shrine Crippled Children's fund.

HULA HAZARDS
CHARLOTTE, N. C. — City police say hula hoops have created a new traffic hazard. "The kids used to have to stand still to make the hoops work," says Sgt. Sam Hill. "But now they're so good they can walk and hula at the same time. And a lot of them walk across busy streets whirling their hoops and not looking for automobiles."

Bible Words for Today

II CORINTHIANS 5:20 "So we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us." (RSV)

Here is pinpointed the responsibility which rests upon every follower of Jesus Christ. We are His ambassadors to all men and nations. We are called into this high and holy service by the command of our Lord: "Go, . . . make disciples of all nations." (Matthew 28:19)

How do we go about our ambassadorial duties? By accepting our portfolio as ministers of reconciliation. Every minister in the pulpit and every layman in the pew is equally responsible for this ministry.

Through us God makes His appeal! Is there anywhere a word so humbling? Who are we that upon us God should lay such a tremendous task? We are reconciled to God through Jesus Christ. Being reconciled we witness in our thoughts, words and deeds to the love, the power and the joy which God has given us. Amazing—but true: God does make His appeal through us!

By H. A. TUCK

Goal of every career Army officer is to become a general. Charley Bronson was no exception.

One Star General by Al Morgan tells of Bronson's fight to get his star. The book is one of the newer releases in the county library.

Morgan effectively uses a flash-back technique as writer-publisher Harry Williams and Margaret Bronson wait for General Bronson to arrive at LaGuardia airport in New York for a hero's welcome.

Bronson was reared with the idea of going to West Point. He finally graduated, although it was just something he had to do. During a summer vacation from the Point he was in a car accident that killed Margaret's younger sister, to whom he was engaged.

He married Margaret instead and started his Army career, although he hated every minute of it.

Williams met Lt. Col. Bronson in Europe and became fond of him. But Bronson led his men as if he wanted to be killed. Relieved of command after losing a regiment, he was placed in charge of a replacement depot, which he ran like a little West Point.

He killed an officer at the depot, beating him to death with his fists, after the officer shot and wounded him at point-blank range.

Bronson returned to the States and became a fill-in during the peace that followed. He had all of the dirty jobs that could be given a full Colonel, and did all of them well in an effort to win his star.

Although they were still married, Bronson cared little for his wife, who was an alcoholic, with a strong yen for other men. But Bronson used everything possible in his quest for promotion. He used his friends, his wife, the West Point Protective Association.

During the Korean War, Bronson managed to get to the front, where he single-handedly held off a huge enemy force in covering an American withdrawal. For this action, he finally got his star, but still felt guilty because he had not died as a hero.

In a too-pat ending, the One Star General is reunited with his wife, with promises that they will live happily ever after. Al Morgan's story is good reading, although the ending has too much of a sugary taste to be realistic.

4-H Style Show Subject Of Meet

Dresses were modeled by the Happy Home 4-H Club at the meeting of the Wyche Home meeting Thursday, June 18. The club met at the home of Mrs. W. P. Axe.

The girls modeled dresses appropriate for the season in colors designed to become their personalities. Clothes for both dress and casual occasions were displayed.

Attending the meeting from the Wyche club were Mrs. G. L. Olson, Mrs. J. V. Pickens, Mrs. C. R. Damron, Mrs. Norman Hodges and Mrs. C. F. Newsom.

Members of the Happy Homes Club attending were Mrs. Denzil Pulliam, the sponsor, Barbara and Linda Pulliam, Louise Axe, Glenna Faye Gandy and Phillis Warrick.

Guests attending were Pam Bell, Donna Olson, Sharon Pulliam, Nancy and Robert Newsom.

A club sponsored picnic will be held in the Bull Barn the evening of July 16.

STILL BURNING

NEW STRAITSVILLE, Ohio — Some 75 years after it was first ignited, a mine fire here still plagues residents. A section of Ohio Route 261 disappeared recently when the fire ate too close to the surface.

Several stories are given of the fire's origin. Some say it's the result of an 1884 strike; others that it's from coal refuse.

WITH LADY BUGS

Farmers Fight Fire With Fire

Bugs — Millions of the crawly things are the business of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Davis of the Lady Bug Company of Hereford. The Davises raise lady bugs for sale to farmers as an anti-insect measure.

Using fire to fight fire, so to speak, the lady bug is the only anti-insect insect that can be found in quantities large enough to be of commercial value. These bugs are dug out of the ground much the same way any mineral is mined. A company in California digs these bugs out while they are in hibernation, cleans them and packs them in bags of excelsior to deliver them to customers such as the Lady Bug Company here.

These bugs are kept in cold storage and are shipped by railway express to the Lady Bug Company in Hereford. Usually, when they arrive at Hereford they are ready to go to work, but they are returned to cold storage until they are sold. When the farmer buys them at a price of nine dollars per gallon, he takes them to his fields and distributes them by dropping them by the hand full on his field.

This, Mrs. Davis points out, is somewhat of an experience because the bugs get all over the farmer as well as the fields. Davis relates that he enjoys a great deal of fun in kidding these farmers about this.

A pioneer in the field of bug selling, The Lady Bug Company receives calls from people as far away as New York for information about these bugs.

According to Mrs. Davis, the cost of planting these bugs depends on the amount of infestation of the fields. She pointed out that the cost will never run over one dollar per acre and usually the price is around 35 cents per acre. Mrs. Davis said that the lady bug will eat any other insect that it can catch or is not bigger than it is.

A farmer who uses lady bugs for insect control reported watching them work on wheat. He said he has used a magnifying glass and has seen the lady bug crawl up a stem of wheat, cleaning it of larvae much like a scoop might do it.

Believers in maintaining a natural balance, the Davises have taken a strong opposition to the control of insects by the use of insecticides. Mrs. Davis claims that a great problem is being created by the use of the insecticides. She said that insects seem to have developed an immunity to sprays that are used and that a stronger poison is having to be used. Mrs. Davis cited an example of a farmer in California that

BY TAMPERING WITH CHROMOSOMES:

Pakistanian Hikes Sorghum Size

COLLEGE STATION — A Pakistani botanist, who came to the United States to learn more about plant breeding, has made a discovery that promises to increase grain sorghum yields for Texas farmers — and provide food for millions of his own people.

A. Ghafoor Bhatti, doctoral candidate in the department of genetics, Texas A and M College, has succeeded in increasing grain size, by doubling the number of chromosomes in a plant developed from a cross between a grain sorghum and Tunis Grass.

His plant has grains 25 to 50 per cent larger than those of present-day commercial sorghums.

Prof. C. B. Godbey, head of A and M's department of genetics, says Bhatti used the drug colchicine in doubling the chromosomes count in his new sorghum. Colchicine has been used in the past in altering other plants, but Bhatti's application to use in grain sorghums is considered a major step forward toward their improvement.

While doubling chromosomes often results in some form of gigantism, Godbey says, it often means sterility.

One of the most important features of Bhatti's new grain is its fertility — 93 per cent under laboratory conditions.

Bhatti says he chose to work at A and M because of the international reputation gained by A and M System scientists in production of grain sorghum hybrids. The first of these new hybrids went into production about five years ago, and they have since jumped the per-acre yields of grain by 25 to 40 per cent over former standard types. The new hybrids are grown world-wide and more than half the sorghum acreage in Texas was planted to them this year.

Impact of the new grain sorghum hybrids on Texas agriculture was shown in a spectacular manner last year, when Texas farmers produced more than 270,000,000 bushels, worth $23,000,000 more than the 1957 crop. Average for the ten-years preceding 1957, was about 90,000,000 bushels, and '57 is generally considered the year the new hybrids went into big scale production.

Bhatti is particularly interested in work done by A and M System scientists in producing grain sorghums with yellow grains. The yellow headed varieties, now in experimental production, are designed to get carotene into sorghum, in quantities comparable to corn, increasing the nutritional value of the sorghum.

The fact that grain sorghums will grow economically in vast areas of the world that are too dry for good corn production — like West Texas, or Central India, has also given impetus to Bhatti's work.

"You see, in Pakistan sorghum is the staple diet of many of the poor. It is very, very important, and if we can improve this grain, and increase the size, and get in enough carotene, we will have a food supply of good quality, important in many parts of Asia."

A graduate of Punjab University, Bhatti came to the United States two years ago under an International Cooperation Administration exchange contract between Punjab University and Washington State College. He was allowed to select Texas for research studies on sorghum, because of the outstanding record of sorghum breeders of the A and M System, and the tremendous acreage and production in the state.

Bhatti's work with colchicine has led plant breeders of the A and M System to plan incorporation of further studies along these lines into their own sorghum research.

The Pakistani scientist, characterized as an outstanding scholar and extremely hard worker, has been specifically concerned with interspecific hybrids in sorghums, a cytogenetic problem, in which field he has been advised by Dr. R. G. Reeves and Dr. John E. Endrizzi, both of the A and M College faculty, and both internationally recognized cytogeneticists.

Bhatti, who has been offered a position in the United States as a plant scientist, has declined the offer. He intends to return to his family in Rawalpindi this September. He also plans to continue his work as a grains scientist in Pakistan.

"It is where I belong, where I can help; where there is a great need for more food," he says.

Cape Received By Sue Channer

Willa Sue Channer of Hereford was one of forty-eight student nurses of the Methodist Hospital of Dallas School of Nursing to receive her cap and cape in ceremonies at First Methodist Church in Dallas June 19. The Capping Service signifies the successful completion of the students' freshman year in the School of Nursing.

The Rev. Joseph M. Connally, pastor of Munger Place Methodist Church and a member of the hospital Board of Trustees, was the speaker for the occasion. Dr. Bolton Boone, Administrator of Methodist Hospital, offered the Benediction.

Mrs. Gene Livingston, member of the School of Nursing faculty, presented the class of 1961 to Mrs. Irene Brower, director of the school. Mrs. Brower, in turn, capped each student and presented her the school cape.

Wearier Legislators Face Third Session

By VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN — At it again, for the third time this year, legislators go into the second special session Wearier, but wiser.

Midnight wind-up of the second session brought show-down votes indicating what each house will and will not accept in the way of a tax program. Next conference committee on taxes will know that the line of compromise must be more finely drawn between Senate and House thinking.

In addressing the new session, Gov. Price Daniel reminded lawmakers of the "up against it" state of things. "Every function of state government depends on enactment of an appropriation bill before Sept. 1 with a tax bill to support it," said the governor.

State's fiscal year and present appropriations run out

Aug. 31. Unless a new appropriation bill can go into effect the next day, the whole state operation — including hospitals, schools, employe salaries and pensions — will stop.

This is unthinkable, of course. No lawmaker could go home and face the voters with things in such a state.

But there's another pinching factor which the governor em-

Port Arthur Story Background Cited

Long Time Ago

25 Years Ago

Deaf Smith county and others in the designated drough area can have state parks if they can furnish suitable sites for 100 acres or more at no cost to the Texas State Parks Board.

This comes as a result of the expansion of the CCC program to embrace 35 additional camps as a relief measure. If the county can furnish a site it will be fully developed by the CCC with all labor, materials, equipment and technical supervision provided.

This information was brought to the attention of the local American Legion Post by R. O. Whitaker, chief engineer of the Texas State Parks Board.

The site and project must be accepted by the National Park Service. The program is to get under way by July 1; consequently action must be taken immediately.

County Judge C. W. Humble states there are no funds with which to purchase a site. "If Deaf Smith county is to profit from this opportunity, the site must be donated," he said.

Frank Gyles, commander of the American Legion Post, said his organization will make an effort to find a site which will be given.

A call to action against the encroachments of organized labor was sounded in the regular meeting of the Hereford Rotary Club Monday by Bill Thompson, manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce. Thompson, who told of events connected with the organization of unions in the Port Arthur area, called for the Hereford Rotarians to take action in writing congressmen to demand reforms in a labor bill.

According to Thompson, Port Arthur was grasped in a strangler's hold when the Chamber of Commerce took action in combating a tax evaluation which Thompson characterized as unfair.

A city commission, ruled by the labor faction which forms about 60 per cent of the Port Arthur population, raised tax evaluations on certain businesses that often represented 100-200 per cent increase in the previous evaluation.

Charging inequity, the Chamber of Commerce began to fight the evaluation, while the union-dominated city council promised retaliation.

This retaliation came in the form of an organization campaign by a retailers union. The union made the threat of picketing businesses unless the business agreed to organize their employees. Several of these businesses agreed to organize their picket.

Thompson related the danger to the Hereford area by reading a newspaper clipping which told of attempts that are being made to organize agricultural labor in California. He cited the opening moves to organize farm labor in Lubbock and Brownfield as proof that it could happen in Hereford.

SWIMMING PARTY HELD

Suzie Clemmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Clemmons, was honored with a birthday swimming party last Thursday. Guests present were Rickey Grubbs, Don Bill Hair, Jimmy Sheppard, Eddy Clemmons, Becky Elliott, Kathy Miller, Pamela Miller, Marsha Hardwick, Ann Braddy and Donna Hill. Out of town guests were Larie Kiker of Canyon, who visited with Suzie from Thursday until Sunday, Meri and Kerri Kirkpatrick of Dimmitt, and Tim Hill of Crosbyton.

phazied. Cost of deficit financing plus loss of potential tax income means that each day's delay costs the state an estimated $200,000. Despite this, the House took a four-day weekend and the Senate, 3½ days.

But some lawmakers seemed to feel the delays, deadlocks and head-knocking were not necessarily expensive wasted motion, but milestones along the long, hard road to democratic compromise.

"We've crossed a lot of bridges we won't have to cross again," said Rep. Don Kennard of Fort Worth.

Legislature was thrown into another session when the House rejected, 117-to-23, a conference committee tax bill that was largely based on Senate thinking.

Senate approved, 19-to-12.

Some House members were indignant that three of the five House appointees signed the conference committee report which House opponents called a "complete surrender" to Senate wishes.

House passed a tax bill that was divided about 50-50 between taxes on business and selective sales taxes. Senate pared back the business taxes to about 18 per cent, added new or heavier sales taxes to make up the difference.

Conference committee proposed a bill that would have raised $177,066,000 with essentially the same levies approved by the Senate plus a temporary hike from $1 to $2 in drivers licenses. Appropriations reportedly deadlocked and never made a report.

After the new session opened, most of the same taxing and spending bills were introduced again, including the twice-killed abandoned property bill.

House quickly re-passed the same appropriation bill it had passed before. Most bills are expected to follow the same pattern they did in the last special session — up to the point where the conference committees start working out differences.

Only major money bill to make the grade is the book-keeping bill, passed by both Houses and signed into law by the governor.

Effect of the law is to change accounting procedures so that an estimated $28,000,000 more will be credited to the state's general fund when the fiscal year runs out Aug. 31.

It means that much less that has to be raised to balance the books.

Rep. W. S. Heatley Jr. of Paducah re-introduced a bill to let colleges require students to pay up to $30 a semester for various campus services.

Bill passed the House last session, but died in the Senate on the last day. Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria was Senate sponsor.

Heatley, Fly and other supporters pointed to the crying need for new money and said college presidents were urging the bill. Opponents said there were better places to get money than from working-their-way college students who would rather do without the football tickets, parking spaces, etc., covered by the fee.

Providing public access to Gulf Coast beaches is the only non-money matter submitted by the governor to the new session.

House passed such a bill overwhelmingly last session, but it died in the Senate on the last day.

Recent State Supreme Court ruling changed the general conception of where the boundary line is between private and public ownership along the coastline. To clear up resulting confusion, the House-passed bill provided for a "public easement" of 200 feet from the low tide mark. It also prohibited fences or other obstructions.

Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston re-introduced the bill in the new session.

Texas oil production will take another tumble when the July allowable takes effect. Railroad Commission ordered production cut by 226,044 barrels a day and run on a nine-day producing pattern. Ten producing days were allowed for June which was a cut-back from May.

Oil men testified that they not only had more gasoline than they could sell, but faced the prospect of running out of storage space.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has filed an anti-trust suit against certain Houston electrical contractors and an electrical workers union.

Wilson said his office had gathered evidence indicating the Southeast Texas Chapter of the National Electrical Contractors Assn. was deciding in advance which member of the group should be allowed to make the low bid on a job. Then others, said Wilson, would put in higher bids.

Suit also charges that members of Local 716 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers aided the contractors' association by not sending enough workers to jobs of non-members.

Price-fixing conspiracies, Wilson declared, cut away the foundation of a competitive free enterprise economy.

(Editor's Note: This column was mailed June 17 in Canada, but arrived too late for publication in the Sunday edition.)

COLLINGWOOD, Canada. June 17 — We are just a day out of Toronto — and everything else is bound to be an anticlimax. It just has to be. Toronto is a city which is literally bursting at the seams. Like Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz., Toronto has enjoyed a phenomenal growth since World War II — or as they say there, "The Great War". It has an abundance of water, industry and power and, unquestionably, is the focal center of Ontario.

As government guests, they rolled out the red carpet for us in a big way. Never before have I seen such lavish buffets and foods. In the Royal York hotel, which is owned and operated by the Canadian Pacific Railway, the 30 editors on our tour were constantly amazed at the size and service of the place. Like in Texas, the people are ever ready to protest any inference that some other might be even "almost as good". The Royal Canadian is the largest hotel in the British Empire. They can feed 10,000 people at the same time and their largest dining room accommodates 1,700 guests. The hotel has 1,600 guest rooms, and employs 1,675 people.

Because the government operates the Royal Canadian Railway, the Canadian Pacific folks are constantly talking about "free enterprise" and what it can accomplish. The Canadian Pacific plays a tremendous part in Canada's economy. In addition to the railroad and several hotels, they operate the telegraph service, steam ships, air lines, cable service, trucks and an express service.

Our Toronto speakers included the mayor and Bryan L. Cathcart, Minister of travel and publicity, along with the American Consul and numerous other notaries. Several of the speakers were clever indeed. The weather turned unusually cold Friday morning. This provided ammunition for the remark of one speaker:

"The cool weather seems to have moved in as soon as hot air from the election (Thursday) cleared away."

Several speakers, like most Canadians I have contacted, were careful to stress the fact that they appreciated U. S. trade and friendship — but did not want to become part of the Union. In Toronto, like other parts of Ontario we have visited, they are busy on every hand preparing for the visit of the Queen.

At each meal they propose a toast (with water) for the Queen, then a toast to "The office of the President of the United States." Away down the line, we discovered that no one is ever, ever supposed to smoke at any meal until a toast has been proposed to the Queen. The toast to the President, of course, is in courtesy and consideration of we Americans, as guests.

Canadians seem to be most resentful about the fact that the United States "stole" the Royal mace in the war of 1812. The fact that we destroyed the parliament buildings they take for granted, but twice they have mentioned the mace and, each time, they have cited President Teddy Roosevelt as the greatest of all U. S. Presidents, because it was returned during his administration. They also say that the White House would not be white, except for their activities in the war, pointing out that it was repainted in white several times as a result of vandalism on the part of Crown soldiers. They honestly and truly do have a deep loyalty to the Crown.

Three times on the trip I have been told that I do not know how to pronounce the name of my hometown. The considerate people say that it should be pronounced "Eh-ree-furd". All three, it turned out, had been in Hereford, England, and this appears to be the English pronunciation.

Ontario, they tell us, provides 12 1/2% of the U. S. Foreign trade. This is more than any other single nation in the world.

Down Texas way, a riding means sitting on a saddle and guiding a horse. Out here, it is a political district. I am not too sure, but three of the officials told me they felt it started from the old custom of defining boundaries by the distance a man could ride in a given time. This would be much like the boundaries of Pennsylvania were determined.

In Toronto a two bedroom house (and they are most all brick) with one bath costs $18,500. The Royal Canadian Hotel runs $19.50 for two on the door of the rooms we occupied. The King Edward, where we stayed the first night, ran $16.50 on nice rooms. Motels, they tell me, run around $12.00 for two in nice rooms.

So far, we have had lots of coffee — but no tea, not even feed tea. I asked one of our hosts at Barrie about this; and he says that most Canadians do have tea around 4 p.m., plus hot tea at night. Very much like England. It was his opinion that we had been served coffee along the way chiefly because the Canadians understood that we did not go for tea in the United States.

Most of the people we meet appear to spend a lot of time in Florida. They complain about Florida's $10-a-day hotel rates, but seem to keep right on going back from year to year. Those who cannot bear the traffic have found it practical to go in the off season.

Another touchy subject is the weather. All Canadians admit that it gets cold, but hasten to add that it is a "dry cold" and, therefore, not unpleasant. They also resent an idea they have that most Americans think of Canada only as a country of snow and ice. The Minister of Travel says one couple came up in July with snowshoes and skis. This makes them most unhappy.

Actually, I think, few Americans realize how industrialized Ontario has become. In addition to the other places I have mentioned, we stopped for lunch in Barrie today. This town has a G-E plant which turns out motors. It has no Union labor and the citizens are proud of the fact. There are also several other plants. We visited the Barrie Examiner. Barrie has just turned 20,000 population and the paper has gone daily, the 91st daily paper in the Dominion.

Collingwood, too, is highly industrialized. This is the home of the Collingwood Shipbuilding firm and we inspected the construction of a 725-foot ship, approximately 25,000 long tons. It really was something. Next we toured the Georgian pottery plant which, likewise, is a remarkable operation and finally, a furniture manufacturing plant which turns out household furniture and desks. This is pretty well the story of every place we visit.

Canada's growth has naturally resulted in new schools, civic improvements, and other allied facilities. Several times we have been shown old folks homes, which seem to be the rule rather than the exception in Canada.

Everywhere people ask about and are interested in the segregation question in the States. In Coburg we saw the homes of Kathryn, Cornell and Marie Dressler. Coburg combines history and industry to present an outstanding combination.

None of the fellows on the bus knew each other before the tour started, but we are forming many friendships. The other night we got to telling jokes over the loud speaker system on

Mother Of Local Man Dies Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret L. Graves, mother of C. W. Graves of Hereford, were conducted Tuesday in the Wallace Funeral Chapel in Tulsa. Burial was in the Memphis cemetery at Memphis. Mrs. Graves, 89, died Sunday at her home in Tulsa. She was born Jan. 23, 1870, and had lived in the Panhandle since 1905. She had been a resident of Tulsa since 1941. Survivors include five sons, Cecil and Homer Graves of Tulsa; C. S. Graves of Arizona; S. L. Graves of California and C.

W. of Hereford; one daughter, Mrs. Adelle Blackman of Tulsa; 21 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren. The name Iris means "rain-bow" in Greek.

When heavy cream is whipped, it will increase two to three times in volume. Add a little nutmeg to that butter cookie dough for interesting flavor.

Visiting Parliament is a regular school function in Ontario. When possible, the students are encouraged to participate on a question-answer basis. When the house is not in session the students are allowed to sit in the seats. Here, again, we heard about the stolen mace of 1812. We never did see it, but they did display the one now in use for us to view. This second mace was secured after the first was stolen.

Breakfast just simply does not occur without marmalade and on swank occasions includes strawberry jam.

Perhaps I mentioned it before, but the Canadian speakers often use the phrase, "Our neighbors South of the Border" — and I always visualize Mexico. Across from Ottawa is the town of Hull and you often here the phrase "to Hull and back".

We were welcomed with open arms in all size towns. The Chamber of Commerce in Canada is most active and belonging appears to be an honor and a distant social privilege. All of we American editors are amazed from town to town when 75 to 100 business men, farmers, dairymen and civic officials, drop everything for several hours and bid us welcome.

This spirit of cooperation, most of us feel, accounts in a large measure for the tremendous industrial progress seen throughout the province.

Chevy heavyweight takes all the meanness out of tough hauls!

L.C.F. model 9103 maneuvers long load over rough terrain with ease.

When a truck goes to work for Lester Brothers, Inc., of Martinsville, Virginia, it's in for a life of extra-hard labor. Loads are whoppers—whole sections of Lesco prefab homes. Runs are scheduled without let up. And at the job sites the going's always tough. That's why Lester Brothers specify Chevrolet; why they're adding new ones as soon as the older models need replacing. Chevies take the meanness out of the roughest jobs. And they cost less to maintain than any other trucks Lester Brothers have owned!

A going concern like Lester Brothers, with tight delivery dates to meet every day in the week, demands maximum truck dependability and performance. And, mister, they get it—with most of their Chevrolets going at least 100,000 miles (some of them 150,000) before the engine heads even come off! With big truck V8's that hum right along on hurry-up schedules. With Chevy trucks that are easier to handle, specialists at getting in and out of congested job sites.

This particular operation sure points up Chevrolet's natural ability to handle any kind of job that could come along. It illustrates what we've been saying for a long time—that once you put a Chevy on the payroll, that tough job loses its fight, fast and settles down to a smooth-running routine. If your job demands even half as much as this one does, you've got good reason to visit your Chevrolet dealer. He's the man with specific information... the man to see before another good working day goes by.

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

See your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!

What high company! What a privilege to be held in the palm of the strong hand of God. No man dare trying to stand alone...to walk without Him. Just as surely, no man can fail when God is with him. "My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand."
John 10:29. He has everybody in His Hand. He who would be wise should step upon the strong hand of God this day and take Him at his word. He said, "My grace is sufficient for thee."
Only trust Him. Help support His cause. Attend church every week and may the Lord ever be with thee.

Lest We Forget: If trials, instead of humbling us, disquiet us; and if deliverances produce only temporary impressions, and not a lasting change in our hearts, can we be right before God? They ought to work patience, experience and hope; and by means of them faith ought to be purified, so as to tend to the praise and honor and glory of our God at the appearing of Jesus Christ. By examining this point, we may prove ourselves and ascertain, with considerable precision, our true character.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

House, Committees Having Extremely Busy Schedules

To the people of the 18th District: Although this is a weekly newsletter, which would indicate that there is plenty of time to prepare it, the deadline sometimes slips up on you. Last week was one of those times. We almost missed getting this letter out on schedule. The reason was the extreme activity in the Committees and the House. The Legislative Oversight Subcommittee of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce held hearings all week long commencing at 9:30 each morning and lasting until the House of Representatives went into session at noon or 11:00 o'clock. The measures being considered by the House of Representatives involved matters that required our constant attendance. The first day was devoted to consideration of a Conference Report on an appropriations bill, the Consent Calendar, and the Suspension Calendar. The Suspension Calendar included the highly controversial Veterans Pension Act of 1959. A two-thirds affirmative vote was necessary to pass this bill, but its passage does not indicate the controversy that took place in the House. Another bill on the Suspension Calendar was the extension of the Oil and Gas

Compact between the States, which is highly important to Texas and our section. The House then adopted a resolution authorizing the consideration of the foreign aid bill to be taken up and debated on Tuesday. A major portion of the rest of the week was consumed in bitter debate over this highly controversial measure. We also had the wheat bill that had been approved by the Senate and House Conference Committee. This was hotly debated and, incidentally, failed of adoption. As soon as the foreign aid bill had been concluded, the House considered proba-by the most expensive issue facing the country today. I refer to the proposal of the Eisenhower Administration to increase the national public debt limit. These activities meant that the day of the Congressman started earlier and lasted later than usual. I was on the move by 7:00 o'clock in the morning, and never able to get to bed before 12:00 o'clock all week. In addition to the activities outlined above, we had the usual responsibilities and obligations of the average day in the Congressional office. That is, the regular mail that must be answered promptly, the matters that must be handled with all the Federal departments, the reference work which must be done to keep one acquainted with the pending bills, as well as a thousand and one other things that are never anticipated. I am sure all newspaper, television and radio people can appreciate the deadline situation. I just wanted you to know that it goes on here too.

You get the BIG comfort dividends in your 59 FORD...

Some cars' door openings aren't shaped to fit people! So you have to squirm and wriggle... make your body conform to the car when getting in and out.

NO SQUIRM

Doors in 59 Fords are wider—up to six inches wider—and door openings are contoured to fit you! You get in and out of a Ford with greater ease and comfort. The girls really like Ford's doors... for more graceful entries and exits.

To gain a low roof line, some cars end up with higher floor "humps" and thinly padded rear seats... a combination that's mighty rough on the middleman.

NO SQUEEZE

Fords have useable seating space for six big people. The driveshaft tunnel is lower and rear seats are deeply cushioned all the way across. This means more comfort for all passengers... especially for the man in the middle.

The squeezed down, skimpily roofs of some cars aren't comfortable even for hard-headed riders. And they don't keep out excessive sunlight and glare.

NO SQUASH

See how much more head room Ford has. Even big six-footers sit up straight without touching the roof. And Ford's big roof protects all passengers, in both front and rear seats, against the discomforts of excessive glare and heat from the sun.

Greater comfort is only the beginning of the dividends you get in a Ford. You get the World's Most Beautifully Proportioned Car. You get a big dividend in Ford prices... the lowest of the best-selling three. And you get saving dividends that cut costs every mile you drive. See and Action Test a new Ford at your Ford Dealer's. See how you can go finer... with more comfort... for less... in a new Ford!

Teens 'n Jeans

By NELDA BARNETT
Teenagers seem to find some thing to do no matter what happens.

David Sellers went on a Boy Scout camp at the end of last week. But that is not all David will do in the summer. He will be a member of the club.

Boy Scout camper of the week Congratulations, David. We would like to offer our sincere sympathy to Rosalind and Nona Marie Strangle. Their grandmother passed away this past week. Her funeral was held at 4:00 at the Avenue Baptist Church this past Friday. The summer had been a new life for her. Her mother, P. L. L. Strangle. If you do not have a good summer you don't have to worry any more. For he'll be with you.

Work By Committees To Highlight Activity

By ARGEN DRAPER
The club women are finishing their regular club meetings for the summer. July and August will be spent with committee work of the County Extension Building committee, school matters, and Council Year Book committee. The Agent will be making home visits during these months. The first visit she will make will be to handsome demonstrations to check the progress of the plan being carried out.

The club I was introduced to one girl who lives near Phoenix, Ariz. This is the true spirit of Extension. Persons who are connected in any way with Extension Program are asked to share the knowledge and skills they gain with the persons whom they come in contact. This is the reason that three agents can serve a county the size of Dear Smith. Leaders are trained and persons are enrolled in various phases of the work and they proceed to teach their neighbors and families.

Before long the summer session will be in full swing. The Texas Extension Station, a part of Texas A & M System, has told us that we can add casual learning methods to our usual plans. They still say, however, that we have those duties to DON'T. First, don't let the open kitchen door be open on a canning don't use and preserve law and extension don't add canning power, pounds or antibodies.

The pressure canner method is necessary for preserving all non-acid vegetables in order to prevent possible spoilage and our botulism. Botulism cannot be detected except in extreme cases if the flavor, texture, and odor are necessarily affected. Boil all home-canned non-acid vegetables for 15 to 20 minutes in an uncovered pan before tasting.

Use either the packed or the tray and steam or the dry pack and both methods when canning vegetables. One of the factors for successful home-canned vegetables has been noted of considerable.

For example, snap beans and peas are processed at 12 pound pressure for 20 minutes for hot pack. The canning bulletin which is available at the office of the Home Canning of Fruit and Vegetables gives instructions for using the Pressure Cooker in canning. This bulletin is the best reference for the home canner. Give by the tin and pick up a copy if you don't have the latest one which was published in 1957.

Baldwin Family Holds Reunion

The Baldwin family held a reunion at the home of Mrs. J. W. Baldwin, 1101 E. 11th St., Hereford, Texas, last week. The reunion was held on the premises of the Baldwin family home. The Baldwin family has a long and distinguished history in the Hereford area. The reunion was a very successful one and was attended by many family members. The Baldwin family is well known for their hospitality and their love of family gatherings. The reunion was a great success and was a very enjoyable occasion for all who attended.

Arthur Self seems to think that he is a very busy man. He is a member of the Extension Building committee, school matters, and Council Year Book committee. He is also a member of the club. He is a very busy man and he is always looking for ways to improve himself and his family. He is a very successful man and he is always looking for ways to improve himself and his family. Miss J. E. Iyer, one of the leaders, was teaching and was making it so much fun that we thought that it could be a good idea to have a clothing fashion show. Miss Iyer was teaching several girls who were visiting with members of the club. She probably will before the summer is over anyway. Carle and Terry Smith and their family did make a California. They have a home there and they are spending most of the summer out there. Sounds like a nice vacation. Don't you? Do you know how to really tell if summer is here? One very good way is to look at the girls' hair styles. Even Pat Skyrud decided to be cool. She has cut her hair off and now has a shikid. At least it will be cool, won't it, Pat? As you can see, just because school is out doesn't mean that teenagers slow down and rest. They are just as busy as they are during school.

2.25-Bale Cotton

James B. Cox, successful young Swisher County farmer, says: "By side dressing my cotton with 80 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia the latter part of June, we picked an average of 2 1/4 bales of lint per acre."

"I also averaged 5200 pounds per acre of maize grain, after applying 130 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia. I am putting down 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia on my cotton this year, and 140 pounds on my maize."

Other successful Southwestern farmers have discovered that they make more profit per acre, using Phillips 66 Ammonia. They get more cotton that classes higher at the gin... yields of sorghum grain or ensilage are increased... profits on wheat and small grains are increased through higher grain yields and improved forage... more marketable vegetables are harvested.

Phillips 66 Ammonia can be easily applied either by you or your distributor. See us today about Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia... it gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.
