School Conference Reveals Ideas Of Patrons, Teachers

More than 225 educators and Hereford school patrons met Friday in a conference on education, covering every field from first grade reading and spelling to high school mathematics.

In leading the summary session, Dr. Morris Wallace, head of the Texas Tech department of education, pointed out that such a conference does not furnish the answers, but merely stimulates the faculty and patrons to a better awareness of current problems and probable solutions.

Cotton Growers Hear Discussion

More than 50 cotton growers in Deaf Smith County filled the County Courtroom Thursday evening to attend a discussion of two programs for 1959 cotton crop allotments.

Rotary Club To Sponsor Stunt Show

The Rotary Club will sponsor a Friday the 13th Stunt Show slated to begin at 8 p.m. of that night in the high school auditorium.

Organizations to compete for the $50 and $25 prizes for first and second place will be Lions Club, B&PW, Toastmasters, Art Guild, Rebekah Lodge No. 228, Music Club, Madre Mia Study Club, Hereford Garden Club, Jumbo Community Club, L.A. League Study Club and the Young Mothers Study Club.

So far the organizations are keeping their stunts a guarded secret. Stunts will be limited to 10 minutes each.

Tickets for the show may be purchased from any Rotary Club member or at the door. Proceeds of the show will go to Rotary's youth work, such as financing the Calf Show which is planned to be expanded.

Kenneth Coker is chairman of the show committee. Other members of the committee are Troyce Carmichael, Alex Schroter and Clyde Miller. Herb Boardman will serve as master of ceremonies.

"From such a conference," Dr. Wallace emphasized, "there is a mandate that we do something about the problems posed and the questions raised. . . . People, who respect each other, can find broader bases of understanding and cooperation after starting poles apart, if they are willing to discuss the problems."

Both groups agreed that present vocational courses should be expanded and such courses as general shop, mechanics and more Distributive Education added as demand and finances permit.

Physical education should be enlarged to include more phases, such as posture, first aid, health, recreation and encompass all students.

A current trend in education, advanced courses for superior students, was heartily endorsed, with provisions that other subjects are neglected and facilities are available.

Medical courses are feasible at a senior high level in such areas as reading, spelling and grammar, they concluded.

They agreed that foreign language is important, particularly Spanish for this area. However, both groups said that tests should be given in advance to indicate which students should take the courses and that four

Place $5000 Bond On Bridges

Bond for Forrest LeDell Bridges, 25, charged with burglary, was set at $5,000 by Justice of the Peace Berry Miles Thursday morning.

Bridges, who was charged with burglarizing Sunset Lanes bowling alley and Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall and attempting a break-in at Taylor and Sons Market earlier in the week, was transferred to county authorities and placed in Deaf Smith County Jail after arrest by Hereford police Tuesday afternoon.

The bowling alley burglary and attempt at Taylor and Sons were investigated by police officers Tuesday morning. After arrest, Bridges told officer of the VFW burglary until told of the act by Bridges.

Bridges is under a five-year probation term for a burglary last year. He pleaded guilty to the charge at a 69th District Court session in December.

The burglaries and attempt are still under investigation of the police department, Police Chief Henry Aycocock said.

LIVELY DISCUSSION characterized a one-day conference on education at Hereford Friday. Six study groups viewed education at the high school, junior high and elementary levels. Most of the decisions were tentative, but will be carefully considered by Hereford educators. More than 225 persons attended the conference. (Staff Photo)

One more will make a race. We now have candidates for mayor and two vacant city commissioner posts, as any other candidates will make a contest of the coming election.

Speaking of hats, Hereford band director Charles Bell almost broke up a study group during the education conference Friday when he donned a western hat and grinned at a Brand photographer.

We've heard only rumors about what types of stunts will be presented during the Rotary Club's Friday the 13th Show. We do know that the German Band, in spite of the protests of the other Lions, is determined to make an appearance.

Echols Services Set For Sunday

Major Larkin Echols, 85, a retired blacksmith, died at 7 a.m. Thursday in Deaf Smith County Hospital following an illness of several months.

Funeral services were slated to be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Sunday in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home with R. D. Erhard, Jehovah's Witness minister from Amarillo, officiating. Burial will be in West Park Cemetery under direction of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Echols was born May 20, 1873, in Annayston, Ala., and came to Texas in 1892 from Atlanta, Ga. He was married to Mary C. Davis on July 31, 1893, in Sherman, Tex. Mrs. Echols died Feb. 1, 1958.

He moved to Deaf Smith County from Olton in 1946 and had made his home on a farm northwest of Hereford.

He is survived by a son, Burrell Echols of Antlers, Okla.; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Ponder of Hereford, Mrs. Lillie Mitchell of Rush Springs, Okla., and Mrs. Martelia Langham of Visalve, Calif.; a brother, Claude Echols of Dallas; 20 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Hereford Girl Hurt In Wreck

Condition of Carlynn Williams, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Williams, 527 S. Main St., was reported "fairly good" at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Saturday morning.

Woman Pleads Guilty To Liquor Selling Charge

The joint efforts of the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department and Hereford Police Department resulted in the arrest and conviction of a female bootlegger this week.

Mrs. Guadalupe Perez Hernandez, 36, who lives in the 800 block of S. Main, was fined $100 and court cost and sentenced to 60 days in County Jail after pleading guilty in County Court Friday to charges of possession of a fractured leg and facial scratches when a car in which she was riding collided with a pickup truck 10 miles south of Amarillo on the Canyon Highway about 3:30 p.m. Friday.

She was a passenger in a car driven by John Walvoord, 24, Amarillo, a senior at West Texas State College, who received a possible broken pelvis, internal injuries and cuts on his face.

Walvoord underwent surgery at the hospital Friday night and was reported in "fair" condition Saturday morning.

Miss Williams and Walvoord were traveling toward the Western Bowl bowling alley in Amarillo when Walvoord's car collided with a truck owned by Rodney Wheeler, 23, of Amarillo. Wheeler suffered chest injuries and facial lacerations. All were taken to the hospital by Amarillo Ambulance Service.

Final Home Game Tuesday Matches Herd, Littlefield

Riding a crest of 13 straight victories, the Hereford Whitefaces will play their last home game Tuesday night, entertaining the Littlefield Wildcats. They beat the Wildcats, 80-38, in the first game of the Plainview tourney and 73-39 in a district game.

A win will assure the Herd of a tie for its second straight district cage crown. Littlefield was upset by Phillips Friday night, 63-53, while Dumas edged by Littlefield, 49-45.

Undeclared in their first five conference games, the Whitefaces have averaged 70.4 points per game, while their opponents have been held to 48.0 average.

H. R. Patterson Rites Pending

Funeral services for H. R. Patterson, 85, retired farmer, were pending Saturday afternoon. Mr. Patterson died at Deaf Smith County Hospital at 3:30 p.m. Saturday.

Mr. Patterson is the father of Elmer Patterson, 610 E. Fifth. He has been ill for several months and was admitted to the hospital Thursday.

Services will be conducted by Gilliland Funeral Home. Mr. Patterson is survived by his wife, several children and grandchildren.

Over the entire season, Hereford has averaged 66.22 while their opponents have averaged just 48.1.

Leading the team in both season and conference scoring is Bobby Shelton, who has poured in 443 points, for an average of 16.4. His conference average is 17.6. His high game for the season was a memorable 38 points against Brownfield. He has been below double figures just four times during the season.

Steve Slagle is second high for the season and third in conference. He has hit 390 points for an average of 14.6. His loop average is 13. His high is 24 points against Phillips and he has been out of double figures five times.

Running third for the season and second in conference is Ken Clearman, who is averaging 13.2 for the entire route and 15.8 in district. His top was 26 points against Canyon. He has been below double figures six times.

Donnie Renfro is the fourth Whiteface whose season average is in double figures — exactly 10 points per game. His conference average is 7.6. He has been in double figures 13 times, with a high of 25 against Brownfield.

Ranking fifth for the season and sixth in district play is Milner Duvall, whose average is six points in both rankings. His high is 13 against Canyon.

Paul Higgins ranks sixth for the season and fifth in district competition. His average is 4.3 for the distance and 8.2 since conference play started. His high is 12 against Phillips.

All six seniors are experienced. Steve Slagle is the only senior who has missed playing a game this year. He was ill and did not suit up against Brownfield, when the Cubs play-

Hereford will finish its district competition with two games on the road, both against potentially tough teams. On Friday, Feb. 13, the Whitefaces will be in Levelland. Their last game will be Tuesday, Feb. 17, at Dumas.

Gid E. Brown . . . seeks office

Brown Files For Commission

Gid E. Brown, 241 Star, filed application for candidacy for Place Two, Hereford City Commission, at City Hall Saturday morning.

Brown, who owns Brown Sheet Metal, 128-W. First, will seek election to one of two city commissioner posts in the general city election scheduled for April 7. Commissioner Don Little filed application for re-election to Place One on the Commission last week.

Brown told the Brand Saturday morning that he felt it was his duty to file application for the post and felt that the City Commission was a "smooth-running" group of which he would like to be a member.

Brown, who formerly lived in Lubbock, has been a resident of Hereford for nearly six years. He has been a member of the board of directors of the Hereford Lions Club and is active in Boy Scout work.

The commission post is presently held by Neil Cooper. To date, Cooper has not filed application for re-election. (Continued on page 4)

Five Go Into GG Finals

Five Hereford boxers were scheduled in the finals of the regional Golden Gloves Tournament in Amarillo Saturday night, a surprisingly large representation for the two-year-old Hereford squad.

Local coaches themselves were amazed with their fighters, since just seven had been entered in the three-day affair.

Just two of four boxers from Hereford won their fights Wednesday, in the opening round, but the team made a clean sweep in the semi-finals Friday night as they took all four fights. These four, plus one who already had been placed in the finals gave Hereford representatives in one-third of the 16 scheduled bouts. The winners were Donny Lesly, 118 pound high school; R. C. Welty, 135 high school; Don Romar, 147 high school; Jeff Gomez, 170 high school; and Richard Hodge, 147 open division.

Wednesday, 160-lb Donny Lesly pounded out a convincing decision over Johnny Ramirez of the ABC team. Amarillo, while southpaw R. C. Welty outpointed Carlos Cueller, ABC, Amarillo.

Robert Welty lost a close decision in a 147-pound high school fight with Clinton Gibbs of Wellington and John Cordero, Hereford, 156-pound open boxer, lost another close battle with Charles Coffee of Pampa. Friday night, Lesly opened up for Hereford with a decision over tough Charles Moore of Borger and R. C. Welty used his hard left to outpoint Melvin Wilkinson of Borger.

In a Cinderella story, Hereford's Don Romar knocked out Ross Bond of Canyon in 1:48 of the first round. Romar had been sick and in bed for three days but came to Amarillo determined to fight. Carrying a record of one win and three defeats, Romar quickly slammed a hard right to Bond's head. After a clinch, Romar crashed another right to Bond's jaw and the years of foreign language should be taught for advanced students. It was pointed out a foreign language is not required for graduation in Hereford.

Strongly urged for Hereford was a stronger counseling program, with two full-time counselors, although the teachers' role in guidance was also underlined. In other areas, those present urged that all teachers stress reading and English. Some felt that "the pendulum has swung too far in the direction of math and science" although the courses being offered locally were more than adequate.

JUNIOR HIGH
At the junior high level, it generally agreed that all seventh grade students should be required to take English, reading, literature, arithmetic, social studies and physical education. Opportunities for exploration in choir, band, music arts and literature should be made available, but not in homemaking or shop, they said.

Foreign languages should be taught in all three junior high grades, as the school can afford to teach them.

In general, it was felt that superior students in junior high should be allowed to take exploratory courses rather than subjects in the next higher grade.

One of the sharpest discussions came on the question of whether classroom driver education should be taught in junior high. The majority felt that such instruction was needed, but that it could be taught as part of the physical education safety classes, rather than as a separate study.

ELEMENTARY
Discussion in the elementary work groups showed that Hereford schools do not teach phonics in the reading program; except in conjunction with the meaning of what the child is reading.

Children, they learned, are drilled in manuscript (printing) writing until the latter part of the second grade. The group felt it might be good if the manuscript was continued until the third grade.

Everyone seemed to be in agreement with the present methods of integrating social studies, mathematics and science in the primary grades and separating them in the higher grades. Almost all of the conferees enthusiastically endorsed the suggestion that foreign languages be taught in the elementary grades. They did admit, however, that this might be difficult to do because of a shortage of both money and teachers.

During the summary session, Hereford school superintendent Fred Cunningham told the audience that he and his faculty would use the suggestions in their plans for a three-year junior high school and for improvements throughout the local educational system.

Bureau, this week received a report which indicates that grain sorghum prices in 1959 will be supported at about $1.90 per hundred.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson is expected to announce the 1959 price supports in the next few weeks.

Bill Wedemeyer, state director of research and promotion for the Farm Bureau, made the estimate, along with reasons to support this forecast.

Wedemeyer pointed out that corn prices, upon which the grain sorghum supports are pegged, should be $1.10 to $1.12 per bushel during 1959. With the 74 cents differential between corn and grain sorghum last year, that would put milo prices about $1.86. However, he said that the Secretary of Agriculture has already stated that he would support corn at $1.12 to $1.15 and that the margin between the price support of grain sorghum and corn would be smaller in 1959 than last year.

of intoxicating beverages for sale in a dry area and contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Deputy Sheriff L. R. Cherryhomes, one of the arresting officers, said that the woman's 12-year-old daughter assisted in the sale of alcoholic beverages in the family home.

Arrest of Mrs. Hernandez resulted after a Hereford Police officer, Ed Hill, posing as a laborer, purchased a pint of whiskey from the woman's young daughter Thursday at the family home. Cherryhomes said Hill was asked to make the purchase as he was new on the police department and would not probably be recognized as a police officer.

After purchasing the whiskey, Hill notified the Sheriff's department. Officers found 19 pints and four half-pints of whiskey and 1 1/2 cases of beer in the home.

Mrs. Hernandez was in Amarillo City Jail at the time charges were filed here. She was arrested for drunk and disturbance in Amarillo Thursday.

The Hernandez' children, ranging in age from two to 12, were left alone in the family home. They have been placed in custody of Deaf Smith County Welfare office.

Mrs. Hernandez pleaded guilty to the charges before County Judge Homer Henslee at 5:30 p.m. Friday.

Everyone likes a winner and Hereford really has a pair of winners now on the sports scene. The Whiteface cage team, with an outstanding 24-3 record, will do battle for the last time on the home court Tuesday night, hosting Littlefield. Hereford boxers have been covering themselves in shiny glory this winter, too. In just two years, the local fighters have earned respect, and trophies, in one of the toughest fight districts in the state. Getting five boxers into the regional Golden Gloves finals is a tribute to the ability of the coaches and the desire of the boys.

According to Texas Highway Patrolmen, Walvoord's 1955 model car, traveling north, skidded broadside into the southbound pickup driven by Wheeler. The car had just rounded a construction detour.

A witness said Miss Williams was thrown out of the car, which flipped on its top after impact.

Wheeler told officers he had just started around the underpass where the detour is when he saw the car coming at him broadside. Walvoord's car was demolished and extensive damage was reported on the pickup by officers.

Wheeler's condition was considered as satisfactory by attending physician.

HEREFORD BULL

A lot of things depend on a fellow's point of view. For instance, the ripe age of 25 does not seem near so old to a man who is 30 as it did back when he was only 15. The same is true in politics, courts of law, fishing and buying a new automobile; it exists between nations as well as people.

Bob and Mrs. Lamm are planning their annual winter vacation. This year it will be Mexico City and, having been to Jaurez one time, I was giving them all of the inside dope. I mentioned something about fresh milk being difficult to secure in some places, whereupon Bob informed me that he has never drunk a glass of milk since the day he was weaned. I thought he was kidding, but Mrs. Lamm says it is the gospel truth. His parents report that he even knocked the milk glass off his high chair as fast as his mother put it on. I insisted that he doesn't even know how milk tastes under those conditions, but Bob assured me that he doesn't care.

office assure me that the fault lies not in Hereford, but it does seem that mail service is on the downgrade. Downstate newspapers which used to get here on Sunday afternoon now make it on Monday — sometimes Tuesday. We get more mail afternoon than before noon, which used to be the reverse. The only thing, in fact, that seems to come through better than ever before are the monthly statements. I am beginning to wonder if Mr. Summerfield sent out a general directive to sidetrack everything else until the statements were delivered. I am sure they have a good reason for the slower service, but if that is what we get by paying 4 cents for a stamp, I am just about ready to go back to the old 3 cent-rate. It suited me fine. Besides, if the new stamps are one bit larger than the economy 3 cent-size, I can't tell it.

They are paving the back part of their parking lot, though; and if Slim Wester will quit drinking so much coffee, it should be finished soon. This should make it easier for me to find a parking spot along 4th Street, and that is good. It is getting so I have to park so far away that I might as well walk to town in the first place.

There was a large crowd for the community education study panels at school Friday, and most of those who attended felt that some good was accomplished. Discussions ranged from reading and writing right on through high school subjects, graduation requirements, and even threw in a few remarks on extra-curricular activities. All in all, this sounds like a good deal. A lot of parents express their ideas, which should be a help to the schools; other parents find out why some of the subjects are taught. One visiting instructor said, for instance, that the children which most need physical education are usually the ones whose parents protest their taking the exercise. Through honest, sincere evaluations and discussions such as these, a generally better understanding is bound to result.

This is highly important, too, because if more people do not take greater interest in the public schools they are definitely going to come under federal control. Congress is already considering more federal grants, which is the first step in the direction of federal control.

With a lot of people thinking about income taxes these days, it seems a good time to recall Earl Wilson's dedication of his book, "Let 'Em Eat Cheese-cake". The dedication read: "To the one who, by repeated urgings, drove me on, shared with me for richer or poorer, and to whom I shall always, as long as I live, owe a great deal — the Collector of Internal Revenue."

'Music Personalities' Is Theme Of Bay View Study Club Meet

"Music Personalities" was the theme of the Bay View Study Club Thursday afternoon at a meeting held in the educational building of the First Baptist Church. Mrs. J.M. Gillentine served as hostess. Mrs. Will S. Kerr, president, conducted a short business session preceding the program, which was directed by Mrs. J. C. McCracken, leader. Mrs. Phillip Barkley reviewed the book, "My Lord What A Morning," autobiography of Marian Anderson, which expresses the author's warm and reverent approach to living and to music. "It is an intimate glimpse of Marian Anderson's life from a child and the development of her wonderful talent as a singer. The inescapable appeal of the book is in its unconscious portrayal of a Great Lady of two worlds, the world of music and the world of plain living," she commented.

Mrs. McCracken gave an intimate picture of Mozart's life, showing the film "Mozart and His Music," which depicted the traditional life of the 18th Century. She called attention to the fact that Mozart has been called the greatest musical genius of all time. As an example of Mozart's music, Mrs. McCracken and Mrs. Howard Scott played "Double Concerto in E-Flat," a two-piano selection. Concluding the program, Mrs. McCracken and Mrs. Scott played "Holiday" by Ponce, in contrasting 20th Century music. Members present were Mesdames D. H. Alexander, Phillip Barkley, H. L. Benefield, Colby Conkright, W. J. Gilliland, E. W. Harrison, A. M. Jones, Will S. Kerr, J. W. Kirby, Paul Mathers, J. C. McCracken, Ansel McDowell, John McLean, R. B. Miller, Eugene Naugle, Carl Perrin, J. P. Slaton, J. W. Fisher, J. W. Spradley and the hostess.

New Grand Jury Call Wednesday

Tractor Course For 4-H Leaders

A sub-district Tractor Maintenance School will be held in the Bull Barn Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 10 and 11.

Adult 4-H Club leaders from Deaf Smith and surrounding counties will attend the training course. County Agent Lefty Thomas said about 16 leaders from Farmer County alone had made plans to attend the school.

Purpose of the course is to train the 4-H leaders as instructors for their boys in their clubs. These boys, Thomas pointed out, are taking the responsibility for driving and maintaining tractors and need to know proper procedures.

The school will be conducted from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. each day. First day's instruction will cover lectures and laboratory sessions on tractor safety, operators' manuals, general lubrication and engine oil and hydraulic systems.

Including in the second day's program will be air cleaners, fuels and fuel system, ignition system, cooling system and orientation for the 4-H tractor operator's contest.

Thomas stated that about 75 per cent of tractor repair can be attributed directly to poor maintenance and that the investment in farm machinery can be decreased by proper operating and maintenance methods.

In charge of the instruction will be Dr. Willie Ullieh, agricultural engineer for the Texas Extension Service and a representative from Humble Oil and Refining Company.

Rowland's Pig Wins Reserve At Fort Worth

A 10-month-old pig, owned by H. H. Rowland, was named reserve champion in the Landrace division of the swine show at the Ft. Worth Livestock Exposition this week.

This year's show in Ft. Worth was the first year that the Landrace division has been offered to swine breeders.

Rowland was elected president of the Texas Association of the American Landrace Breeders Association at a meeting held Wednesday in Ft. Worth.

Rowland entered 10 swine in other divisions, and nine entries placed.

Ford Club Hears Memory Program

A program on Why I Want To Improve My Memory was given by Mrs. Otto Olson Thursday to the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. A. A. Hare. Mrs. Olson read an article by John C. Rodenburg entitled, Master Your Memory. The article stated that a good memory is not Nature's gift and must be worked for. It must be trained and developed by the individual. Since a good memory is not a birthright it must be acquired the same as one would acquire mastery in English and mathematics or any other subject. Memory is teachable and can be taught to acquire a dependable memory.

Mrs. Olson gave the council report and read recommendations which were discussed and voted on. Mrs. Wilma Bryan was recreation leader of a Valentine cross word puzzle game. Refreshments of salad, cookies and coffee were served.

Members attending were Mesdames Otto Olson, C. L. Whitehead, A. E. Hodges, O. L. Williams, Wilma Bryan, Fred Barrett, O. C. Williams, Martin Wagner, Mary Botkin, R. A. Fullwood, Nelson Reiger and Miss Roberta Campbell. The next meeting will be held Feb. 19 in the home of Mrs. Martin Wagner.

Couldn't Happen To A Nicer State IT'S: HER POINT OF VIEW

By BETTY BABIONE For the first time in a good long while the dust is settling on the road to the bootleggers over Oklahoma way, and the natives are beginning to get a taste of how it is to live in a dry state what am really dry.

It looks as if Governor Edmondson meant what he said in his claim to enforce Oklahoma's prohibition laws. And by golly, he and his army of highway patrolmen are out to battle the bootleggers as they've never been battled before (and don't be surprised if your vehicle gets stopped for inspection at the state line).

It's pretty clear that the next prohibition vote in the land of the Redman will be simply a contest between wets and dries instead of the usual lineup of wets versus dries and bootleggers. And whatever the outcome be, it couldn't happen to a nicer State! (but then I'm prejudiced).

Meanwhile, back in the Lone Star State...

Did you see the picture of Mrs. Gladys Nobles on the front page of the Women's Section, last Sunday's Amarillo paper?

The wedding will be held in March in the home of the bride's parents. Miss Harrell graduated from Gladewater High School in 1957 and attended Abilene Christian College.

Her fiancé graduated from Hereford High School and also attended Abilene Christian College, majoring in agriculture. He is presently employed in Abilene.

These days you see as many menfolk as you see women shopping for groceries. Usually it's a case of the little women asking hubby to stop by for milk and bread on his way home from work, but not always. It isn't at all unusual to find a man at the market stocking up for a whole week's supply of edibles for his household (maybe the head of the house has decided he can cut the food budget by doing the shopping himself, or perhaps he's just helping out the wife who's hectic schedule grows ever more hectic — could be lots of reasons I suppose).

Whatever the reason, I spied Russell Wingert, Glenn Williams, Harold Beauchamp and Foy Huff at a local checkout counter and three out of the four of them had filled their grocery carts.

Take care to place your derby high on a hook if you should be visiting the home of Mary Frances and Robert Lemons — their pet pooch has a hearty appetite when it comes to men's hats!

Pat and Bill Hampton had unexpected difficulties during their trip to New Mexico last week. Ah, the lovely white snow did fall and Bill was stranded in one town and Pat in another. They did, however, finally get together and returned to Hereford safe and sound.

She missed a day at her job, Pat did make it back in time to bowl with her team Monday night — the rest of the team would have been pretty worried... but they didn't even know... about the snow... in New Mexico. Oh, to be a poet — perhaps I've missed my calling.

Speaking of New Mexico makes me think of Reba and Tommy Zorns, who have certainly been missed around these parts since they moved to Clovis a couple of months ago. For those who are wondering, the Zorns' mailing address is still General Delivery, and will be until they can get a post office box or the city mail routes include the new section of town where Tommy and Reba make their home.

And speaking of bowling, I heard by the grapevine (but a very reliable grapevine) that B. E. Roberson has hired the bowling pro, Chuck Inman, to assist at the lanes for about six months. Time again for the day of hearts and flowers — sure no problem to find a theme in which to decorate for parties and such this month.

Right now Catharine Moore is about as busy as anyone I know, and it mainly has to do with decorating the hall for the big Beta Sigma Phi Valentine Ball this weekend.

They don't have to worry about decorating, because the teachers and students have already taken care of that, but many mamas are busily engaged otherwise in preparations for school parties and the consequent exchange of valentines on the part of the small fry. And you're an old fogey if you don't reminisce the time when exchanging Valentines was important to YOU!

Nominations are coming in for the selection of best dressed women. Don't forget to let me know if you have a name or few to go on the list. And do remember that this contest will be decided by public opinion, not by sweets truly.

Have a sweet Valentine every body. See ya next week.

After hearing charges for three days, the 5 man People's Court convicted the Cardinal of treason and trying to overthrow the government. He was sentenced to life imprisonment. The trial evoked a storm of protest. President Truman called it a "kangaroo court." Diplomats of 33 nations united to protest the mock trial as "an offense to religious, personal and political liberty." No one believed Cardinal Mindszenty's plea of guilty. To the free world he became a hero, a symbol of Red tyranny.

The trial began in February that year, when Josef Cardinal Mindszenty was accused by the Hungarians of treason and espionage. Imprisoned for more than a month, undergoing pressures that were to shock the world, Cardinal Mindszenty had previously declared that any confession would be null and void. Now he pleaded guilty.

THE CALL OF LENT

One of the most frequently quoted statements of Christ is his well-known invitation: "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." The rest which Christ offers in these words is, of course, not the instant release from all the cares and trials of life. Ours is an adverse world, and in our passage through it, we shall have to encounter many trying and painful experiences. It is not a rest from trial which Christ offers but a rest in trial.

It is the rest and peace which come from the certain knowledge of sins forgiven; that deeper rest and peace which come from knowing that we are God's children, forgiven through the life and death of Christ. The man who has found pardon for his sins through faith in Christ has found a peace and rest which are beyond the grasp of the unbeliever. There is nothing in life that can harm him. Sickness, loss of wealth, dire calamity — none of these can disturb the undercurrent of perfect rest which flows from the sure conviction, "I am at peace with God."

Valentine Day Recipes From The Little Red Cook Book

February is the party month for St. Valentine's Day, Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays. The dates provide three delightful themes for decoration. Valentine Day heads the list for sentimental reasons, for hearts are young and gay on that day regardless of age.

In answer to several requests for some of the recipes used in the little red cook book, "Let's Cook Something", published by the Hereford Brand, we are reprinting some recipes suitable for February parties or little courtesies given to express admiration and friendship.

Here they are:

CHERRY NUT CAKES
 2 cups sifted flour
 2 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 1/3 cups sugar
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/4 cup maraschino cherry juice
 16 maraschino cherries (cut in eighths)
 1/2 cup milk
 4 unbeaten egg whites
 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Add shortening, cherry juice, cherries and milk. Beat vigorously. Add egg whites and beat two minutes and fold in nut meats. Pour onto greased cookie sheet and bake in moderate oven (350)

30 to 35 minutes. Cut with heart-shaped cookie cutter and frost with pink icing.

PIERCED HEART SALAD
 2 packages strawberry flavored gelatine
 4 cups fruit juices or water
 1/3 cup celery, diced
 1/2 cup apple, diced
 1/3 cup nutmeats, chopped
 1 package cream cheese
 Mayonnaise
 6 toasted arrows
 lettuce

Dissolve gelatine in boiling liquid and pour one-half of the mixture in a shallow square pan — approximately 8x8x1 — and allow to congeal. Add celery, apple and one-half of the nut meats to remaining gelatine mixture and pour into another 8x8x1 pan. Allow to congeal. Cut each gelatine mixture into heart-shapes with cookie cutter and place one with apples, nuts and celery on a crisp cold lettuce leaf. Spread with cream cheese, softened with mayonnaise to beating consistency and with the rest of the nuts added, and top with a clear gelatine heart spread a little mayonnaise on top of heart and place a toasted arrow on top.

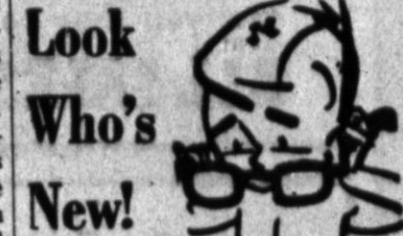

TOASTED ARROWS
 Slice white bread approximately 3/8 inches thick and cut with scissors into arrows. Place on a baking sheet and toast until a golden brown.

COCONUT CREAM COOKIES
 2 eggs
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup thick cream
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup flaked coconut
 3 cups flour
 3 tablespoons baking powder
 Beat eggs until light, add sugar gradually and blend. Add coconut, cream and flour, sifted with baking powder and salt, and chill thoroughly. Roll out to one-half inch thickness on board. Sprinkle with coconut and roll to one-fourth inch thickness. Shape with a heart-shaped cookie cutter, first dipped in flour and bake on a greased cookie sheet in moderate oven (350-F)

HOT CHEESE BISCUITS
 2 cups flour
 3 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 3/4 cup milk, scant
 1/8 teaspoon paprika
 1/4 cup margarine
 1/2 cup grated American cheese
 Mix and sift dry ingredients. Cut margarine and cheese into dry ingredients with knife. Add milk a small amount at a time and work into a soft dough. Roll to desired thickness, cut in heart shapes and place on baking sheet. Brush with melted butter or margarine and bake in 425-F oven 10 or 15 minutes. These are delicious.

OLD FASHIONED BOUQUETS
 Prepare one recipe of your favorite white cake and bake in large shallow pan. When cool cut cake in two-inch rounds (should be 3-4 inches thick), and frost circles of cake with powdered sugar frosting. Make one box of powdered sugar frosting and divide into five portions. Tint each portion a delicate pastel shade using one of the following vegetable colors; pink or red, orange, yellow, violet and blue. Cover entire top and sides of cake circles with tiny roses made with pastry tube in the various pastel colored frostings. The finished cake will resemble a bouquet of tiny flowers. When placed on a lace paper doily it makes a lovely valentine party serving.

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION for careful handling of a parcel post truck was presented to John I. McCutchen by Mrs. Curtis Traveek, postmaster, Friday morning. McCutchen also received a $25 token cash award. (Staff Photo)

John McCutchen Cited For Care Of Vehicle

A certificate of recognition signed by the Postmaster General and a token cash award of $25 has been presented to John I. McCutchen, 42, sub-carrier of the Hereford Post Office. Mrs. Curtis Traveek, postmaster, presented the awards to McCutchen Friday morning for "above average performance in the care of assigned vehicle."

McCutchen, who started working at the local post office on Feb. 15, 1950, has been the only driver to use a parcel post truck purchased in 1952. He was cited for careful and conscientious handling of the vehicle during a recent inspection by the Regional Vehicle Manager.

The certificate, signed by Regional Director George A. Gray and Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield, was given to McCutchen "in appreciation of superior achievement." The letter, signed by Gray, said, in part, "I am pleased to present to you through your postmaster this Certificate of Recognition signed by our Postmaster General and a token cash award.

"Your postmaster, through the Regional Vehicle Manager, has furnished information with respect to your sustained above average performance in the care of your assigned vehicle. I am informed that your careful and conscientious handling of your vehicle is credited with its being found during a recent inspection by the Regional Vehicle Manager to be in excellent condition. It is in recognition and appreciation of this accomplishment that this award is presented."

La Plata Club Reviews 'A Touch Of The Poet'

Mrs. Clint Formby presented the program at the La Plata Study Club meeting held in the home of Mrs. Frank Prowell Tuesday evening.

Her program on the "New York Stage" touched on stage technique in other cities as well as New York, and she cited the fact that there are 13,000 non-professional theater groups which appear over the country. She told of stage struck Texas and reviewed the book "A Touch of the Poet" by Eugene O'Neill. She named her reasons for choosing the book for review — first because it was one of two Broadway plays unanimously acclaimed by this season's critics; second that Helen Hayes, first lady of the stage was the star; and third because Kim Stanley of Texas played an important part.

She said, in part, "A Touch of the Poet was the last full-length play produced by O'Neill and was a part of a cycle he did not live to complete. The story deals with an Irishman who came to America in the 19th Century, and with the complicating web of emotion linking the father, his wife and daughter to one another and to their yankee contemporaries. The play parallels the life history with that of the author in its portrayal of a stranger in a foreign land," she concluded.

Those in attendance were Mesdames F. L. Alexander, Leroy Aven, Jack Brown, Clint Formby, Joel Hodges, J. R. Johnson, Don Little, Claude Mc-

Your potato plants can tell you but then it's...

TOO LATE FOR TOP-PROFITS

When your potato plants show a yellowing between the veins of lower leaves, they're telling you they lack available magnesium and can't produce maximum yields. Few magnesium deficiencies in potatoes are seen as easily as this one . . . but the unrecognized deficiency steals profits before you know it.

Our special SPM Premium potato fertilizer can help increase yields of U. S. No. 1 potatoes 50-80-100 bu./A. because it contains Sul-Po-Mag to supply fast-acting, water-soluble magnesium lacking in most potato soils of this area. Sul-Po-Mag does not raise soil pH or increase the danger of potato scab. Practical potato growers, and experiment stations too have proved conclusively that premium quality (low chloride) sulphate of potash from Sul-Po-Mag in our SPM Premium potato fertilizer helps grow potatoes of greater specific gravity, higher starch content, and better shipping quality. For top profits from potatoes, invest in our SPM Premium potato fertilizer.

SPM PREMIUM

We use this Seal of Approval as your guarantee that our SPM Premium fertilizer contains recommended quantities of genuine Sul-Po-Mag.

I'LL

VALENTINE

Janet Miller, age five, makes a lovely living valentine. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Miller.

Four little sisters spell out a Valentine "Love" greeting. They are, left to right: Beth, 11; Susan, 9; Amy, 4; and baby Laura, four months. They are the happy daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Labry Ballard.

Valentine Day Is A Lovely Day
For Those Whose Hearts Are Gay
To Tell Their Love To Someone
Whether Near Or Far Away.

Three-year-old Jo Anne Miller, also the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Miller, completes the love message.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Farm Message Endorses Policies Of Ezra Benson

To the people of the 18th District: The President sent the Congress last week another farm message. It was in keeping with former farm messages he has sent to the Congress in that it gave a blanket endorsement to the policies of Ezra Taft Benson, the Secretary of Agriculture.

In fact, the President used the memorandum submitted to him by Secretary Benson as a part of his message. The message actually had two primary points — the first point being the extensive criticism by the President of the present plight in which the farmer finds himself. The second point is that the President underwrites the practices of the Department of Agriculture under Mr. Benson which have placed the American farmer in his present plight — and, incidentally have placed the government in its present position insofar as surpluses are concerned.

The President seems to forget that Mr. Benson has been in office for seven years and has had full control and operation of the Department of Agriculture. He has put over his recommendations and has refused to accept the recommendations of Congress on numerous occasions. In fact, when the Congress undertook to force the will of Congress on the Secretary of Agriculture, the President vetoed the bill.

It will be remembered that Mr. Benson set up the soil bank and took great pride in claiming to be its author; yet, like many of his recommendations, he is now trying to sever all connections between his name and the soil bank. He has had full control and operation, insofar as the administration of the Department of Agriculture has been concerned for the seven years referred to, and the President has stood by him and given him every power he sought.

Under the circumstances, it is interesting to note that under the stewardship of Ezra Taft Benson, the costs of the farm programs did increase from 306 million dollars in 1952 to one billion 936 million dollars in 1956, according to the Agricultural Statistics published by the Department of Agriculture. This publication was under the stewardship of the same Mr. Benson, so they are his figures.

The cost remained well above one billion dollars in 1957 and 1958. It is also well to note that under the stewardship of Mr. Benson, the Department of Agriculture has increased its employees between 1952 and 1959 by almost 25 per cent. In other words, Secretary of Agriculture Benson is now employing 18,500 more people on the public payroll than were employed by the Department of Agriculture when he took over to settle the farm problems.

It would seem to me that if the present Administration wanted to solve the farm problem, it would practice some of the business principles that it preaches. For instance, the operators of any business would certainly have difficulty in explaining to the board of directors why a manager should be kept on the payroll, who had increased the labor force by almost 25 per cent and multiplied the cost of a program by more than five times.

Many feel that the President is not primarily at fault, even though he is a farmer. It is beginning to be suspected that the problems of gentlemen farmers differ from those of dirt farmers. I do not question the fact that the President is a good man, but I do point out that there are thousands of farmers throughout this nation who are also good men (both dirt and gentlemen).

During the hearings on the Hawaii Statehood Bill, the committee staff received a call from a person who asked to be heard in opposition to statehood. The person identified herself as Mrs. Joseph Fair of Philadelphia, Pa. She was told by the staff when and where to appear, which she did and testified.

She was a young Negro woman about 25 years old, obviously well-educated, perfectly mannered and well-versed on her subject matter. When she concluded her testimony, I asked her what prompted her to come before the Committee and how she found out where to come. She said that she was representing only herself, and when she heard that the hearings were in session, decided to come forward and express her views as an American citizen.

She said she did not know where to go or what to do, but called the telephone operator at the Capitol and told her the problem. The telephone operator referred her to the Interior Committee, and she was, in turn, referred to the proper member of the staff who gave her the information as to when and where she could be heard.

I put this in this newsletter in order to impress upon the American people that it is not difficult to have the opportunity of voicing your opinion before the committees of Congress. Here was a woman who had no idea where to begin; yet, within a period of a very few hours after she had made known her desire to testify on a matter concerning the people of this nation, she was before one of the major committees of the Congress testifying on a vital subject. More Americans should do this.

It would be most helpful and, in many instances, most refreshing to have the grass roots views of the people delivered in person.

VISITORS: It was good to see several people from home last week here in the Nation's Capital. They included a group of Texas Farmers Union members who were: Bill Gentry, A. J.

YOUR FAMILY STORE

The Story Of Valentine Day

By MRS. JOHN McLEAN
BRAND SOCIETY EDITOR

Symbols of love and devotion will be wending their way all over the world come Saturday, Feb. 14, to delight the hearts of both old and young.

The first Valentine was sent in 270 A. D. by St. Valentine himself, on the eve of his execution for refusing to renounce Christianity. It was a note of appreciation from the young priest to his jailer's blind daughter, who had brought food and delivered messages to him, and signed "From Your Valentine".

One of the oldest Valentines is in the British museum in London. It was written by the Duke of Orleans to his wife when he was imprisoned in the Tower of London after the battle of Agincourt.

During the Puritan dictatorship in England, Cromwell suppressed the Valentine custom, but later during the reign of King Charles II, scented gloves and jeweled garters were sent as Valentine Day gifts. Valentines reached a peak of elegance in the 18th Century in France with the use of expensive Venetian lace, delicate flowers and tiny birds and cupids.

The first Valentines in America were exchanged during the Revolutionary Days. They were mostly handmade and written in beautiful, flowing script. It was in 1840 that Miss Esther Howland, a student at Mt. Holyoke College, became the first publisher of Valentines. Admiring a handmade English Valentine in her father's store, she had copies printed for her school mates. It happened to be Leap Year, and she became a successful business woman almost overnight.

Today the custom of remembering favored persons on Valentine Day has extended to valuable remembrances which have become treasured gifts. Now the field of Valentine gifts ranges from flowers or a simple message to diamonds and motor cars, motor boats or a trip abroad.

How the romantic element was introduced is not definitely known, but the most widely-accepted legend dates back to the ancient Roman feast of Lupercalia as a festival observed each Feb. 14. Birds were supposed to begin spring mating and young maidens deposited love missives in hollow trees to elude stern fathers. The missives were removed by young men, who during the ensuing year courted the maidens whose names they had drawn.

Mailbags will be loaded with Valentines Saturday, not only for sweethearts and children, but also for uncles, aunts, teachers and friends as well. Some of the most cherished kinds are those made by eager, little hands to say "I Love You" to parents or friends.

Miss Margaret Leslie Weds T. L. Landrum At Adrian

Miss Margaret Ellen Leslie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leslie of Adrian, became the bride of Thomas Lowell Landrum on Jan. 25 in the Adrian Methodist Church, with the Rev. Johnnie Williams reading the double-ring ceremony.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Landrum of Childress.

Miss Carol Heaton was maid of honor and Mrs. E. L. Pinnell of Amarillo was bridesmaid. Jackie DeWees of Vega served as flower girl.

The bride's attendants wore pale blue, crystalline dresses fashioned with fitted bodices having Sabrina necklines, and ballerina skirts. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Jimmy Landrum of Canyon assisted his brother as best man, and ushers were Billy Briggs and Jodie Mahan of Happy. Candle lighters were Ronnie DeWees of Vega and Jimmy Harris of Cactus.

Mrs. Marie Godwin, organist, and Mrs. Bill Tolbert, vocalist, both of Vega, presented the wedding music. Mrs. Tolbert's offerings were "All For You" and "At Dawning". The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride was escorted by her father down a candle-lighted aisle to the altar, where baskets of white flowers and branched candelabra holding lighted tapers provided an appropriate background for the ceremony. She wore a gown of white peau de soie and alencon lace, featuring a lace bodice coming to a deep point in front and back, and a bateau neckline.

The full skirt of lace terminated in a short train and the short sleeves were met by elbow-length gloves. Her veil of illusion was attached to a lace hat encrusted with seed pearls, and she carried an arm bouquet of red rosebuds.

A reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall. Assisting in the house party were Miss Erma Jordan of Amarillo and Miss Linda Landrum of Childress.

When the couple left on a short honeymoon trip, the bride was wearing an electric blue woolen suit with white accessories and a red rosebud corsage. They are now at home at 1401 Hayden St. in Amarillo, where she is attending Draughts- us Business College.

Landrum is a graduate of Texas A & M College, where he received a degree in industrial technology.

City's 'Pay - As - You - Go' Plan On Water Tower Cuts Costs By Half

Announcement of the purchase of a new $65,000 water tower by the City of Hereford is not a startling revelation, when you stop to consider the growing pains recently suffered in this area. The fact that the announcement was made without calling a bond election, however, might be well worth some speculation. To say the least, it is unusual.

As we understand it, the City had a carry-over of some $23,000 from a previous water improvements issue. The other $42,000 has apparently been saved here and there by operating under proposed annual budgets during recent years, and is now carried as surplus funds.

Since the city has little choice in erection of the water tower, chiefly because it will pay for itself in the form of insurance premiums sure to be increased if we do not complain, the present application seems ideal.

Being in a position to erect the tower without additional indebtedness, actually means a saving of $65,000 to the tax payers of Hereford. A survey of the city and school records indicate that long-range bond schedules just about double the cost of any given project in the form of interest payments. In addition, it is also possible that the city may be able to get a much better construction deal by dealing early, thus avoiding emergency status and costly construction deadlines for the contractor.

In El Paso, the school district has saved its citizens millions of dollars during the past 20 years by the same technique, which in their case was "getting one school house ahead, instead of one school behind."

Generally speaking, the only objection anyone might raise concerning the procedure of substituting cash payments for long time bonds would center around the fact that the voters do have an opportunity to express approval or disapproval of the project at the polls. However cutting the cost of an improvement exactly in half affords considerable advantage—and in the case of state required water improvements there should be little complaint. Meanwhile, our laws make it possible for government subdivisions to issue warrants without a popular vote, so there could be little objection to a cash transaction where the funds have been accrued through careful management and operation below budgeted requirements.

The voters and tax payers still have the final say on the question, because they go to the polls each year and select new officials. Dissatisfaction over the method could certainly be remedied in a brief interval.

Action of city officials this week is one of the few applications we have seen in the Panhandle of the pay-as-you-go method, and you will probably hear more about it as the years roll past. From a business standpoint, there is definitely no criticism about cutting costs 50 per cent. It will take a long time, but in the next 10 to 20 years, it will pay wonderful dividends.

Unquestionably, the process is exactly opposite from that of our state and federal governments but, small as it is, Hereford's pay-as-you-go water tower is a step in the right direction.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

THE MOUNT OF TEMPTATION

Wednesday is the first day of Lent, the start of the 40-day penitential season that commemorates Christ's fast in the wilderness.

This drawing of Christ praying in a cave is based on a sketch I made on the Mountain of Temptation in the Holy Land, where according to sacred tradition Christ was tempted three times by Satan.

A narrow trail rimming the steep cliffs led up to the cave. There was an awesome view of the Jordan Valley from the mouth of the cave, which dropped away from a high, jagged precipice. In the shadows, a wasp's nest hung from the clammy damp wall. Tracks of man-eating jackals made a frightening pattern on the floor of the cave.

The whole setting, stark and forbidding, brought home the tremendous privations that Christ endured in the wilderness. And yet he found the strength to tell his tempter: "Get thee hence Satan."

PIPELINE PROJECT BEGINS

The Brodie-Enix Company of Amarillo, which has the contract for construction of the water pipeline from the supply field 14 miles northwest of Shamrock, expects to start full scale operations next Monday. Pipe has already been strung from Shamrock to Lela, along U. S. Highway 66, and clearing of right-of-way is underway. Excavation and pipe laying will start at the Shamrock end of the line and proceed west. The contract calling for laying approximately 86,000 feet of 16-inch line from Shamrock to the Heald Community recently was on a bid of $516,813, with stipulation of a 90-day completion date. PEACE OFFICERS AID BOYS RANCH

Construction of a cottage-type dormitory at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch is the 1959 project for the United Peace Officers of America, according to Sheriff Day Thompson of Vega, president of the national association. The project was approved this week at a meeting of the board of directors of the organization. The new dormitory will be designed especially for boys in the four to eight year bracket, Thompson said. In the new building, eight of these smaller youngsters will live with a man and his wife. The housemother will prepare all the meals and the entire surroundings will be as nearly like a real home as possible and there will always be a houseparent on hand to look after the little fellows. At the present time, 17 boys below eight years of age are living in the Old Tascosa courthouse, and it has long been the aim of Ranch founder Cal Farley to be able to provide a more homelike atmosphere for them. Most of the small boys come to the Ranch along with older brothers so that the brothers would not have to be separated and also, in many cases, to remove the little fellows from unwholesome environments, Sheriff Thompson explained.—THE PANHANDLE HERALD

Social Security Bite Goes Deeper

The January 1 hike in your Social Security taxes, from $94.50 to $120 is only a mild sampling of further tax increases already scheduled over the next ten years. Between now and 1969 these taxes will increase 80 per cent.

In 1960-62 the taxes will go from $120 to $144; 1963-65, $168; 1966-68, $192; 1969, $216.

Simple arithmetic will give the answer to the need for more and more Social Security tax income. At present about five out of ten aged are drawing Social Security benefits, while nine of ten employed persons are paying the necessary taxes.

In the next 15-20 years, however, there will be nine of ten aged drawing the benefits, while the same per cent of employed are paying into the fund.

Congress has voted additional Social Security benefits in every election year, beginning in 1950, all of which tend to step up the payments made from the Social Security fund. These include payments for dependent or surviving children and spouse, lowering the age at which women can collect benefits, payments for disability.

Proposals for still more benefits are certain to be made in the new Congress. Free hospital, surgical and nursing home care for about 12 million aged is one example.

Social Security, like so many government programs, started out as a needed measure to fill a genuine need. It was conceived as a means of providing a "floor of protection" against want and destitution for the retired person. It was never intended as a complete "cradle to the grave" proposition.

Some lawyers have speculated that it will eventually take a 15 per cent bite from paychecks to finance Social Security. Add this to a 25 per cent bite for income taxes, and America has really become a welfare state, everyone working for the government—Ochiltree Co. Herald-Perryton.

New Emphasis On Low Cost Homes

For more than six months rental property has been going at a premium in Hereford. Add to this the fact that comparatively few houses are now for sale, and as you have the forerunner of a small size residential building boom for the next two years.

The time building usually gets underway is that period when rents become sufficiently high to make the construction of rent houses practical, and the condition pretty well fits in with construction of new homes. This is especially true, when they are built on a speculative "for sale" basis by promoters.

Hereford, it seems to us, is close to meeting these requirements. In addition, a more liberal program through FHA and other government agencies makes home construction and home ownership less difficult and more desirable. Since the building of new homes generally creates and pretty well controls the number of rental units in this area, an easing of that condition can be expected to follow.

Whereas an emphasis has been seen on improvement of business construction and more costly homes in 1957 and 1958, the two coming years should see that emphasis shift to the $15,000-$20,000 average residence.

Changes On High Plains Noted By S. F. Flores

By MRS. R. L. CRISWELL. Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Flores of Tulla recently gave an estate valued at more than $2,000,000 to Wayland Baptist College of Plainview. They also gave $100,000 for the Flores Bible Building, which is now under construction.

In October, 1958, they gave 1650 acres of land located in Swisher County. Mr. and Mrs. Flores are members of the First Baptist Church of Tulla and have always taken an interest in young people and loved working with them.

They lived on the Plains for more than 60 years and have enjoyed it. The country was one vast prairie of grass, and the buffalo and antelope were grazing small herds with plenty of water near.

"The water level has gone down and down," he said. "Every buffalo wallow was full of water and the lakes too were full and each little creek had surface springs."

"It was a beautiful country indeed, and I have seen the land change from producing grass and beef to producing grain and cotton. People came from near and far to live and to make their living here. Land was cheap, some as low as 50 cents per acre. Those who bought land have seen its value change from that lowly 50 cents to many, many times over that amount."

"I borrowed money to build a house near Dimmitt and have made this part of the Plains my home for these many years. The Lord has been very good to me — He has multiplied my possessions and now I am able to give it to extend his work to other countries. We have this lovely home in which to live and I thank Him for it. It took a long time to pay for it."

Mr. Flores is 91 and his wife is 83. When asked to what he attributed his long life, he laughed and said, "you will laugh at this but I believe it. I eat two very hot peppers, five or six inches long, each morning. I do not feel old; I feel fine, but I am much slower and it takes me longer and more effort to get on my horse. I guess I have gotten lazy. I do not have a hobby — I have plenty to do but I just don't get at it," he concluded.

So accept our most cordial thanks for all that you have done for us during the past year. It is our prayer and wish for you and your entire staff that this year be one of prosperity and success in your work of editing so fine a paper.

Are Our Morals Below Average?

During the past 12 months Deaf Smith County has provided a record breaking number of rape cases in the district court. Some people shrug the matter off and attribute it to the Latin American population, but records show that the number of cases are divided right down the middle: 50 per cent whites and 50 per cent Latin Americans.

We do not pretend to have an answer for the sudden upsurge along this line, nor do we have any conclusions as to why the situation suddenly arose. Like most people, we do deplore the condition, and wish that it might be improved.

Is apprehension due to better law enforcement with no actual change in conditions, or do we honestly have more offenses? Do similar conditions exist in neighboring counties and in other areas around the state?

A lot of jokes and wise-cracks are centering around Deaf Smith County these days—at home and in other areas of the Panhandle. To most of us, the cases are a secondary situation but, should they continue, the condition will become serious in a hurry.

Anyway, it is something to think about right now.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

'Dream Jobs' Revealed By Hereford Residents

If you could change occupations, what would you like to become?

- MRS. GAYLON PATTERSON—Well, I guess I'd like to be a full-time ordinary housewife.
- GASTON BAER—I'd retire, I guess.
- MRS. JERRY MALONE—I'd rather be a full-time wife and mother than a working girl.
- PAK BROGDON—I'd want to go from being a manager to being an owner.
- REV. JOEL TREADWELL—I wouldn't change a thing.
- OLIVER STREU—I'd rather be a promoter—like uranium or stocks or something like that. But seriously, if I didn't have to have money I'd like to be a forest ranger.
- RAYMOND HOLT—I'd like to raise and train horses and bird dogs.
- MRS. H. L. NEWMAN—Well, I'd like to do archeological and historic research, and whenever I ran into anything I wanted to know more about, I'd just take off and travel to find out about it. But nobody would hire me for something like that because it would cost so much.
- MRS. VANCE CRUME—I think I'd want to be a flower arranger. I think that work would be fascinating and I'd thoroughly enjoy it.
- BILL WISDOM—I like to work with engines. I think I'd like to be a mechanic.
- PAUL SCHROETER—I'd be a retired millionaire.
- KAY SIMS—I'd be a school teacher.
- MRS. JOE STORY—I'd like to be a better home manager, a better wife, and try to be a perfect mother. I wouldn't change what I'm doing right now for anything in the world.

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm has a few remarks about space flight this week. Dear editor:

Not that I had planned on going myself, I've got things to do out here on this bindweed farm, but I was reading yesterday about the requirements for the first man to take off for outer space from the United States, and in case you missed the article I can let you know that I don't think I'd qualify and I don't think they'll be calling on you either, Mr. Gillentine.

In fact, right off, I don't know of anybody around here they're likely to call, at least nobody in this immediate vicinity.

For example, in the first place the man has to be in superb physical condition and not over 40. On one count or the other, that grounds a lot of men I can think of.

There are a lot of other requirements, like being a university graduate with a degree in the physical sciences or engineering, a graduate of a military test-pilot training school with at least 1500 hours of flying time, etc.

But that first requirement throws a lot of us out, and as I see it, it'll be a long time before outer space is cluttered up with very many people.

This suits me all right. That is, I don't care how many others take off to explore space, but I'm just not going to have time.

When a man's five years behind in his work on his own farm he doesn't have any business taking off on inter-planetary travel, and in my case it's not necessary. I'm not dependent on space scientists to escape my obligations here on this farm. I know how to escape 'em on my own.

Besides, fast flight never has appealed to me much. I've never had to leave town that fast. I read the other day where you can leave Los Angeles on the West coast at 8 a.m. and be in New York on the East coast at 12 noon by jet, thus, as the article pointed out, eating breakfast in Los Angeles and four hours later eating lunch in New York.

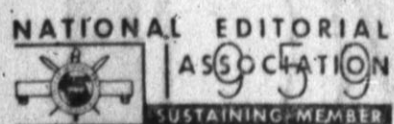

Well, I've got the same schedule out here on this farm. I mean, out here you can eat breakfast at 8 a.m. and four hours later you can eat lunch. The only difference is that out here it's easier, you don't have to take a cab to the airport, you're not bothered by the roar of a jet engine, my chair here is just as comfortable as the ones they have on those planes, and at the end of the four hours you're at home instead of being 3,000 miles way. You've also saved $300.

Science is wonderful, but most people don't know how to employ it to their own advantage.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Morning-Chevy panel hustles over causeway to St. Petersburg.

Chevy panel steps lively in Florida...runs day and night, delivers 19.3 miles per gallon!

This '59 Chevy panel is on the go, morning, noon and night; it covers as much as 587 miles a day . . . runs so constantly that its engine never cools off completely. Yet Mr. Clark Kaeber, the Tampa Tribune's circulation manager, reports that the truck is delivering 19.3 miles per gallon!

This year, the light-, medium- and heavy-duty trucks of the 1959 Chevrolet Task-Force fleet are out to whip anything that comes their way—and they've got what it takes to do it!

Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevis of all sizes are turning-to on the most challenging jobs in America. The way they're made, with tough-built truck components, they make the hardest hauls look easy!

If you have a job that puts a truck on its mettle, see your Chevrolet dealer!

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!
