A TENDER MOMENT during a second-act scene between Chris, played by Durward Jacobs, and his mother, portrayed by Sheryl Patterson, is just one of the highlights of "All My Sons." The hit play will be staged Thursday and Friday by popular demand. The second act of the three-act play won first place for Hereford in district competition this spring. The modernistic sets were designed by Erin Wertenberger. (Staff Photo)

'ALL MY SONS'

Complete Prize-Winning Play Slated June 25-26

All three acts of a play which took first place honors will be presented in Hereford Thursday and Friday, June 25 and 26. "All My Sons" by Arthur Miller will be staged two nights in the Hereford High School auditorium, beginning at 8 p.m. Competing in District 1-AAA one-act play contest, the Hereford students presented the second act of the remarkable Broadway drama to win top honors.

Around Town

After a late start, the harvest activities are beginning to roll around the county. Early loads of wheat indicate good to excellent yields. And more and more people are moving around the streets. We've had our lull, and the rest of the summer should be real busy for everyone.

Bill Hardwick came in about 11 a.m. Saturday, bearing, to tell us 280 persons had registered for the Red Cross swimming courses. "It's by far the biggest number we've ever had register, and they're still coming in," he reported, enthusiastically.

As expected, Ralls editor Ernest Joiner rolled 'em in the isles, and then rocked 'em back on their heels with alternate jabs of humor and hooks of forthright beliefs at Lions Club.

Humidity Slows Wheat Harvest

Rains and high humidity have delayed the ripening of wheat for harvest this week as Deaf Smith County elevators report light to heavy receipts Saturday. Most elevator operators anticipate heavy yields of high quality wheat coming in at the beginning of the week if there should be some dry hot weather to ripen the wheat. Generally the harvest seems to be beginning in the eastern part of the county and progressing westward. Elevators in the Dawn area report the harvest as just beginning. One elevator reports having received from 40 to 60 truck loads per day the latter part of the week. Curtis Roach of the Hereford (Continued on page 3) entirety. Before and after the district contest, the second act of "All My Sons" was presented a number of times locally before civic clubs. The Hereford Lions Club voted to underwrite cost of producing the full play during the summer. Proceeds, above the production cost, will be used by buy stage equipment for the high school. Appearing in the cast next week will be: David Larson as Joe Keller; Erin Wertenberger as Jim Bayless; Gary Wertenberger as Frank Lubey; Mildred Wester as Sue Bayless; Suzanne Langley as Lydia Lubey; Durward Jacobs as Chris Keller; John Buck as Bert; Sheryl Patterson as Kate Keller; Lee Blocker as Ann Deever; and Jan (Continued on page 3)

Lions To Install Ballard As Boss

Labry Ballard will be installed as president (Boss Lion) of the Hereford Lions Club at its regular meeting Wednesday in the Jim Hill Hotel. Other officers include Buddie Evans, who will be installed as secretary treasurer; Bruce Miller, first vice president; Raymond White, second vice president; and R. C. McGilvary will be the third vice president. Joel Hodges is to be installed as Lion Tamer and Oliver Streu (Continued on page 2)

Final Plans Being Made For Big 3-Day Harvest Festival

With a little less than six weeks remaining, plans are beginning to take definite shape for the huge Harvest Festival in Hereford, according to festival chairman Francis Hardwick. "With all the activities that are scheduled for July 30, 31 and Aug. 1, this Harvest Festival should be the largest event ever held in Hereford," Hardwick pointed out. A final planning session of the Harvest Festival committee will be held Thursday, June 25, during a 7 a.m. breakfast meeting in the Jim Hill Hotel. Activity will get off to an early start, as the Lions Club midway sets up on July 25 for an eight-day run near the Bull Barn. There will be commercial, agricultural and business displays inside the Bull Barn during the three days of the Festival. Livestock exhibits will be held in the nearby county implement barn. Jaycees will sponsor a Harvest Festival beauty contest, probably running on Thursday and Friday nights, July 30 and 31. The winner will reign over the many activities slated for Aug. 1. All three nights there will be rodeo performances, south of the Bull Barn. The amateur rodeo shows will be sponsored by the Hereford Riding Club, beginning at 8 p.m. each night. Final day of the Festival will be jam-packed with events and entertainment. In addition to the carnival, exhibits and rodeo, there will be a huge parade, with floats, bands, riding groups and other attractions. There will be a barbecue, sponsored by the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, with proceeds going to the Community Center. There will be a Pioneer Day observance. One of the biggest events will be the dedication of the new Hereford airport. There will be a fly-in for area aviation enthusiasts and a large number of commercial and Air Force displays during the day. Handling the parade entries is the Hereford Optimist Club. Chairman Gene King announced that he is now accepting entries for both commercial and non-commercial divisions. The parade is set for 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 1. There is no entry fee for non-commercial parade units. Fee for commercial entries is $5 for the first unit and $2.50 for each additional unit. Prize list is $50 for first, $25 for second and $15 for third in the non-commercial division. Prizes of $25, $15 and $10 will be awarded in the commercial (Continued on page 2)

UF Names New Directors Mon.

Eight new directors will be named to the Deaf Smith County United Fund organization Monday. A meeting of the county UF group will be held at 5:30 p.m. in the First National Bank's community room. An incoming directors will serve three-year terms, according to new UF president Ed Line. Serving as the nominating committee are seven outgoing directors. They are Bill Stanford, Hillary Aven, Bert Boomer, Charles Hoover, Andrew Kershen, Ed Loerwald and Dub Reeves. Stanford is serving as chairman of the group. In addition to replacements for these seven, a director will be named to take the place of Townsend Douglas, who has moved to Amarillo. New officers for the county-wide UF were named last week. They include: Line; Bill Stanford, vice president; Margaret London, secretary; and Al Yeager, treasurer.

Swimming Classes Open (Yawn) Early

The first session of swimming classes sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross will begin Monday at 6 a.m. The Adult Beginners' class will last from Monday, June 22, to July 18, with class periods set from 6 to 7 a.m. Adult Intermediate and Advanced Swimmers' courses, which will begin Monday, will conclude July 6 and will be conducted during the same hour; 6 to 7 a.m. No tests will be given on July 4. The children's courses, Beginners, Intermediate, Advanced Swimmers and Pre-School, will be taught from 9 to 12 a.m. and will conclude July 6. The second session of swimming classes in the water safety program will be held during the same hours as the first session. Second session of Adult Beginners will begin July 20 and conclude Aug. 15. Adult Intermediate and Advanced Swimmers and all children's courses will last from July 13 to July 25. In the event not enough people enroll, the second session of class will not be conducted. Special classes of the water safety program include Junior Life Saving, Senior Life Saving; Part I, W. S. I. Course (Instructor Aide); and Basic Survival Swimming. Date and time of the special classes will be announced after candidates have registered. During the second week of the daily session, the regularly scheduled classes will be used to give more attention and instruction to those who were not ready to take their tests at the end of the 12-hour course. Instructors of the Deaf Smith County's Chapter of Red Cross Water Safety Committee are Dr. H. A. Cavness, Robert Lamm and Ann Seeds. Instructors' aides for the courses will be Bill Hardwick, Lorraine Fowlkes, Ramona Noel, Ann Smith and Dean Hudson. Others who will help later in the summer are Pat Hill and Glenna Gault. Bill Hardwick is chairman and Dr. Cavness is co-chairman (Continued on page 3)

Deposits Show Big Gain Over Previous Year

One of the most reliable insights into Deaf Smith County growth and progress shows encouraging gains, as revealed by statements this week from three Hereford financial institutions. During the past 12 months, deposits have increased by nearly $2 million, compared with figures a year ago. Two of the three institutions show large gains during the past year, while the third reports a slight decrease for the same period. Total net increase in Hereford deposits is $1,847,276.26. Last June, the three firms had total deposits of $11,430,607.64, while they now total a healthy $13,277,883.90. First National Bank of Hereford reported current deposits of $8,076,422.47, an increase of $1,695,148.41 over the report of $6,381,274.06 last year. Hereford State Bank for June 1958, reported deposits of $3,778,347.38, and current deposits of $3,621,451.14, for a decrease of $156,896.24. Hereford Federal Credit Union currently has $1,580,010.29 in deposits, compared with $1, (Continued on page 3)

Yankees Overtake Cardinals To Win 10th Straight, 8-6

Overcoming a three-run deficit in the third inning, the Yankees finally edged out in front of the Cardinals to win their 10th consecutive game Friday, 8-6. Steve Hodges, who pitched and caught, was the Yankee star with two home runs, including one that tied the game in the final inning. Cardinal right fielder and pitcher Mike Ranspot more than duplicated the feat for his team, with a pair of homers, including one in the third with two mates on base. But the Cards couldn't put out the fire, as the Yankees surged from behind. The Yankees didn't waste any time as Gene Duvall singled and Hodges homered in the first. But the Cards came right back in their half of the first, as (Continued on page 3)

Mike Ranspot homered to lead off. Steve Conaway got on by error and went the route on two wild pitches and a passed ball to even the score at 2-all. The Cards blanked the Yankees in the second and then went in front as they added one run. Ranspot got on by fielder's choice and came in on singles by Jerry Mudrook and Frank (Continued on page 3)

Pee Wee League Will Organize Here On Monday

A meeting to form a baseball Pee Wee League will be held in Dameron Park Monday afternoon at 5 p.m. announced Rev. V. W. Marcontell, pastor of the Assembly of God Church. The meeting will be held on the ball diamond in the northwest corner of Dameron Park to lay groundwork for the organization of as many teams as made possible, depending on the number of boys that attend the meeting. Age limits are 8 to 12. There is equipment for the organization of six teams, Rev. Marcontell said. The plan is to divide the boys into two age groups and to have scrimmages for a time and then hold a tournament at the end (Continued on page 2)

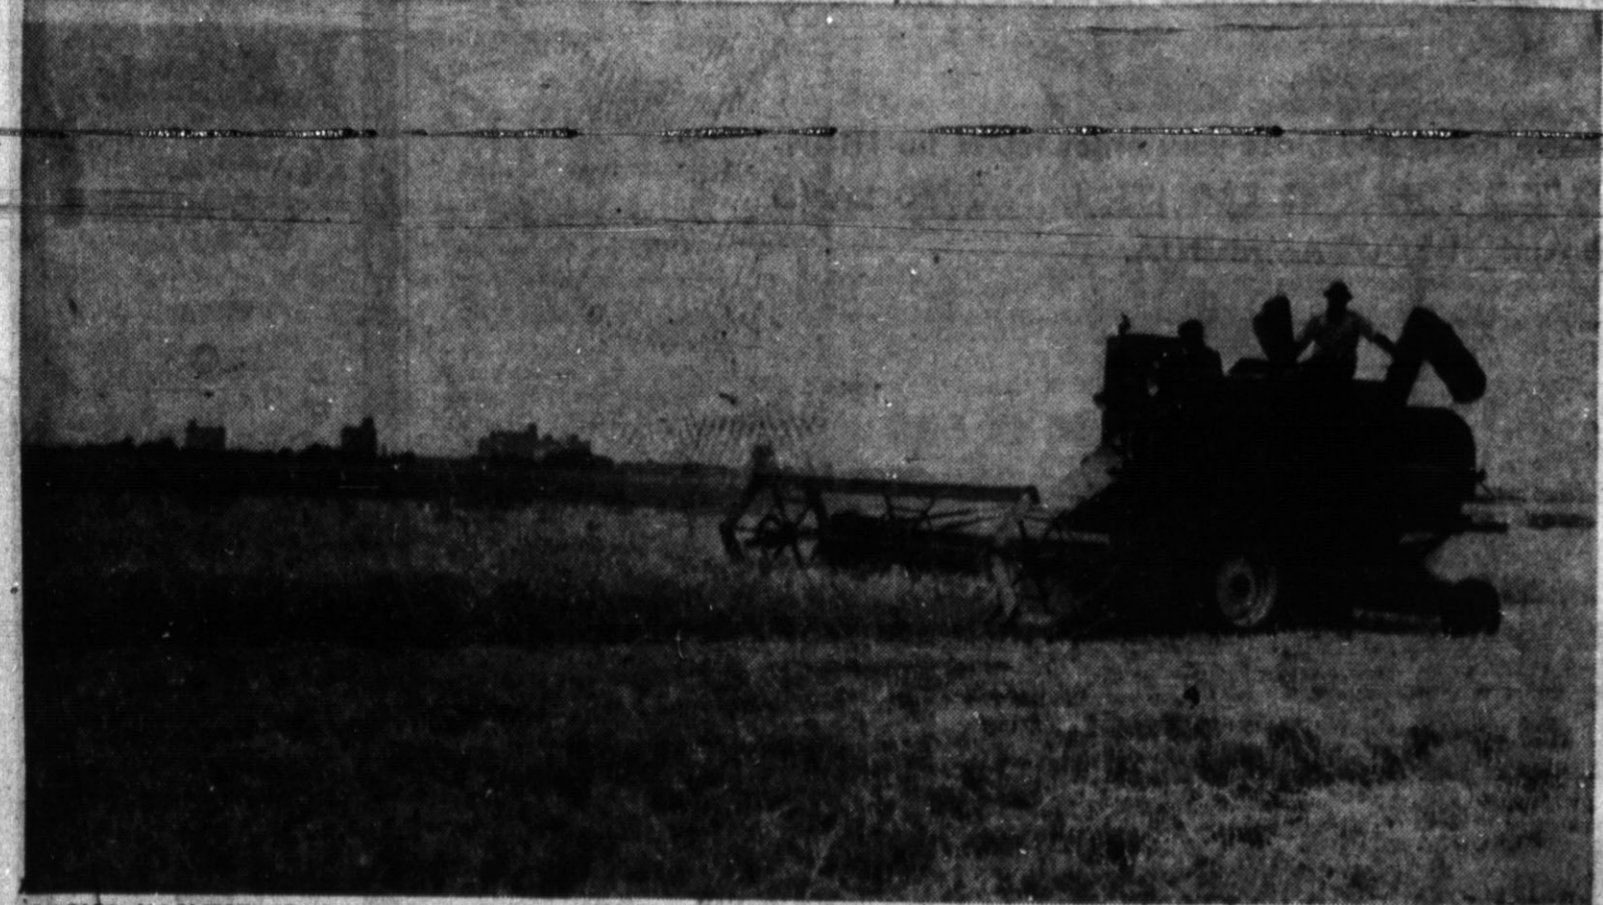

Harvest Labor Needs Changed

According to the Texas Employment Commission's Hereford office the Employment picture has made a marked change in a short time this week. As of Friday all the requests for field hands had been filled, but there was a need for combine operators. At the beginning of the week, there was quite a demand for field hands, but adverse conditions on the South Plains caused the migration of several crews to the area.

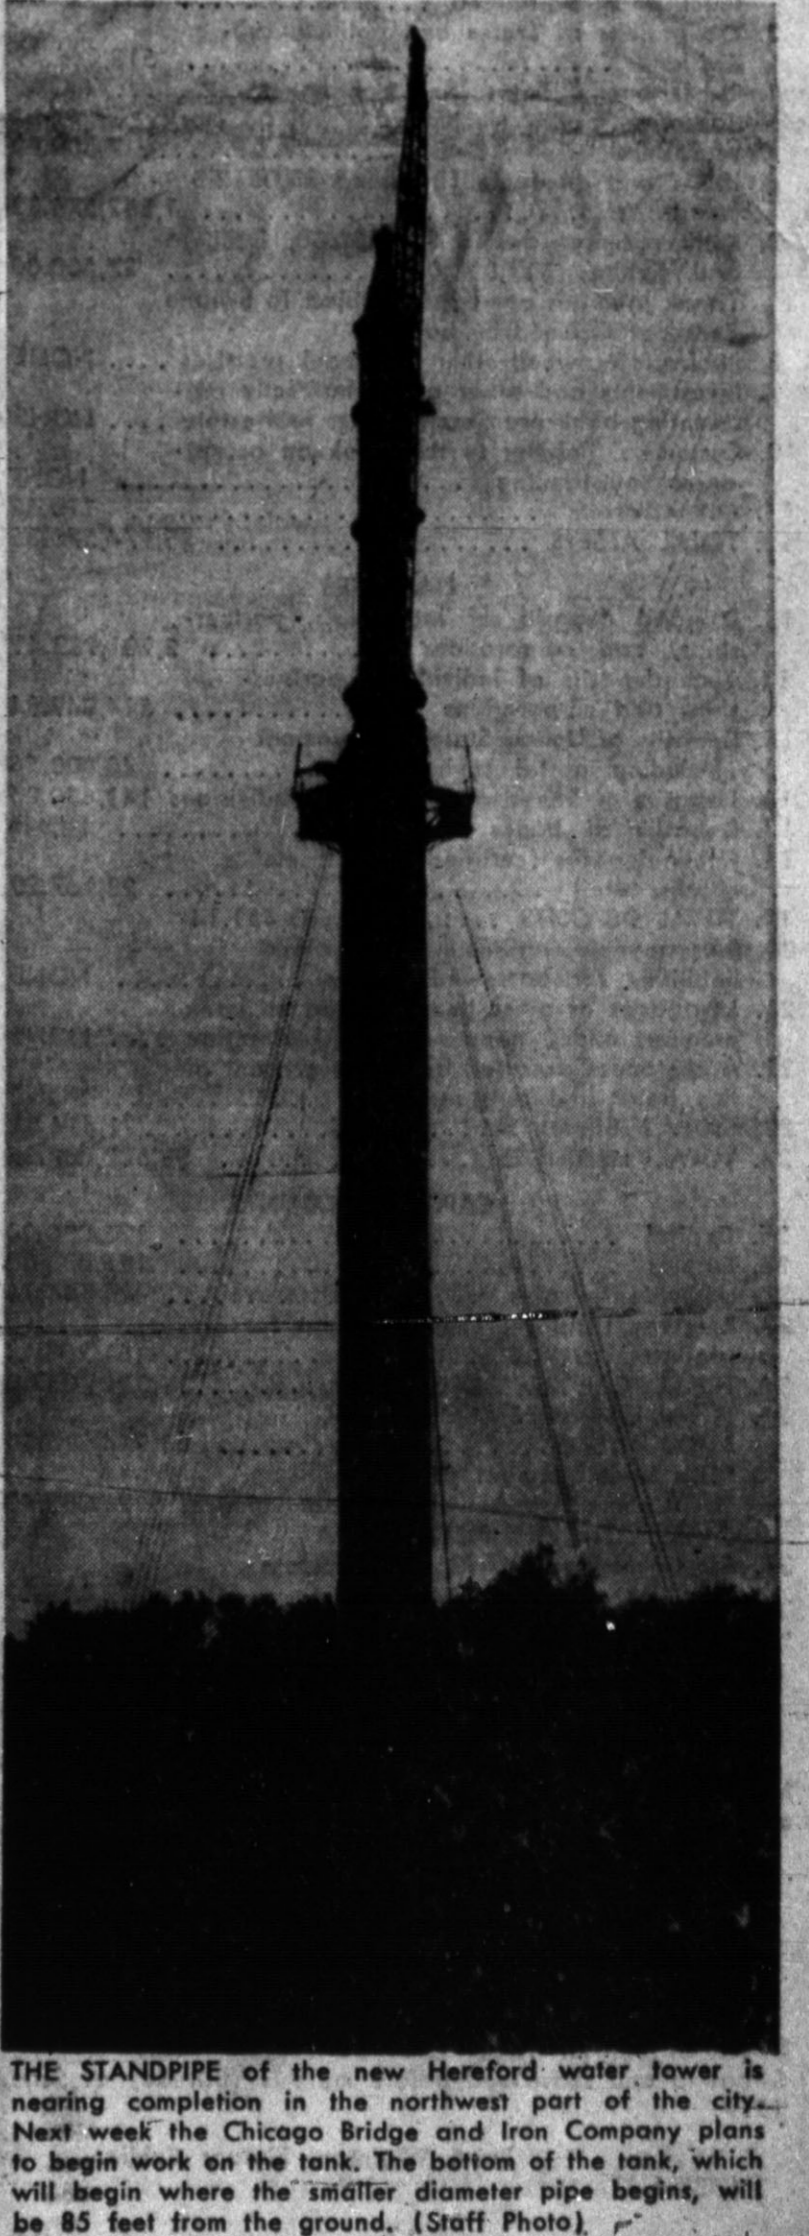

White Sox Scalped By Indians, 36 - 2

A new record for one-sided games was set Friday night in Pony League play when the Indians doused the White Sox 36-2 in a four-inning ball game. The game all belonged to the Indians, who only allowed two hits and two runs and played an almost errorless game. The Indians used 17 hits to rack up their 36 runs and batted more than their complete order each inning. The game began when Ronnie Duncan struck out and the catcher failed to catch the third strike. Stealing bases and taking advantage of a wild pitch, he made the first tally. John Willoughby took first on a catcher's error. Gene Jennings (Continued on page 2) walked, and Jim Haney doubled to account for three more scores. Bill Steele hit a double, Wayne Edwards and Ken Gray walked before the Tribe started going around again. Using errors of second base and the catcher, Duncan and Willoughby scored again in the first inning to leave the score at 9-0 for the Tribe. Short work was made of the White Sox in the first and they were retired in order. In a long second inning the Indians batted their order twice. Haney and Steele hit singles to get on the bases. Dick Slaughter loaded the bases by taking the pitcher's error and James (Continued on page 2)

Ottis helped them in when he landed on a fielder's choice. Edwards walked, Gray singled and Duncan was thrown out on first after hitting a single. Willoughby doubled and Jennings walked to complete the Indian batting order the first time.

To begin the second round for the second inning Haney hit a double. Slaughter used a single and errors to score and Ottis made his second score of the inning on errors. Edwards and Gray both scored before the final out was made.

Having made 13 runs in this inning, Indians held a 23-0 margin for the second.

One of the two scores of the game for the Sox was made in the second inning when Neal Lueb walked to score.

Seven more runs were made in the third inning of the game for the Indians.

Haney walked for the first score of the inning and Slaughter used a single. After him John Kovacs, Duncan, Willoughby and Jennings all scored. The Indians were retired with loaded bases.

The Sox had a scoreless inning in the third, but returned in the fourth for Don Payne to make the final White Sox score.

The fourth and final inning of play brought the Indians seven more runs which were made by Kovacs, Duncan, Willoughby, Jennings, Haney and Kendall to end the game 36-2 for the Indians.

Larry Hair was the defeated pitcher in the game. Sharing the pitching duties with him were Eddie Johnson and Richard Patton.

The winning pitcher for the tribe was Jim Haney who was relieved by Bill Steele. Beginning the second half of play Thursday, the Indians meet the Red Sox. Friday night the Tigers and White Sox will play. All teams will be idle Monday and Tuesday before starting the second half.

Wednesday. One of his best-received jokes concerned the man who took off from Lubbock on his first solo cross-country flight while earning his pilot's license. As expected he became lost and made a forced landing near the South Plains town of Earth. Walking up to a gas station, the pilot inquired, "Where am I?" The attendant replied, "Earth," to which the pilot snapped, "Don't get fresh, buster, I'm not that lost!"

Joiner said he was working on an article for True magazine and was being booked for a fall speaking tour.

As he climbed into his new Piper Tri-Pacer amid a small drizzle Wednesday afternoon, he commented that if he ever needed any rain or snow, depending upon the season, just to call. "No matter what the forecast, I always seem to end up flying in foul weather," he mused.

As Joiner flew over Hereford Wednesday morning, he decided to land on Eud Paetzold's strip, south of town, instead of the city airport, since it would be closer. But what Joiner didn't know until he called for someone to come for him was that Boss Lion Neil Cooper and His Honor, Mayor Woody Wilson, were on hand at the city field, waiting to greet the mustachioed editor.

Charlie Owens is getting kudos as top keeper in the city league, for his top series of 702 for three games. That sounds like my golf score for three nine-hole rounds.

And in the recent women's bowling tourney at Amarillo, La Von Boyer got a trophy for third place in the Class C singles. And in the Class C doubles, Betty Young and Louella Dool placed third. There were about 100 teams of five women each in the meet.

Hereford Art Guild will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school shop building. The public is invited to attend. Mrs. Ernest McGee, chairman of the committee charged with raising funds for the Community Center, will discuss plans for the project during the meeting.

A planning meeting for the high school's home economics upholstery school will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the home-making department. All interested persons are invited to attend. The school is slated for July, but the dates have not yet been decided.

Congratulations are in order for young David Sellers, who was chosen outstanding camper at Camp Don Harrington Friday night. He received the top award on his 16th birthday. He is senior patrol leader of Troop 50 of Hereford, which concluded its week-long camp Saturday. During the week, David earned enough merit badges for the Star Scout rank. The Blue Angels Patrol of Hereford's Troop 50 won third place in the Friday night stunt competition with a skit about "Amarillo Water".

It was tied up 3-3 in the top of the third, when the Yanks got S. D. Baize on first with a walk and Charles Moreno doubled him in.
It looked like the Cards were going to wrap the game for good in the last of the third. Lynn Cook singled. Gary Payne got on by error and Ranspot pounded another one over the fence, to give the Cards a 6-3 margin.
In the first of the fourth Hodges walked and scored on a stolen base and a wild pitch. Robert Strange used an error to get on and was doubled in by Moreno.
Trailing by one run in the top of the sixth, Steve Hodges got the Yankees a tie, 6-6, with a homer. Then Strange got on by error. Baize walked and Moreno singled his mates in for the winning scores.
Baize was the winning pitcher, as he relieved Hodges for the last three innings and shut out the Cards with no runs and no hits. Ed Mims started for the Cards and was relieved by loser Mike Ranspot.

Bible Words for Today

I CORINTHIANS 15:10 "By the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain." (RSV)

The beginning of wisdom is a recognition that we are not self made men but that it is by the grace of God that we are where we are in life and have what we have. We might as easily have been born in a different country or with a different pigment in our skins but for the grace of God. This recognition will humble us for we will recognize how little we deserve his goodness and how dependent we are upon him for everything.

To the devout man there will be more, for he will want to respond to such love by seeking to measure up to God's confidence in him. Paul certainly was aware of God's conversion of his life and in response gave himself completely to the service of God. We can do no less if we become aware "that we are not our own but that we were brought with a price!"

Grain Company report: light receipts of wheat at his elevators.
According to Roach, the high humidity conditions are not conducive to the ripening of wheat. He does, however, report having received a few loads of good quality wheat running from 62 to 63 lbs. per bushel with 11 per cent moisture.
Pitman Grain elevators of Hereford report moderate to heavy grain receipts of grain.

Around Westway spotted rains have slowed the harvest considerably. It is not anticipated that the volume harvest will begin in that area until week after next, but a 50 bushel per acre yield of good quality wheat is expected then.

Christmas holidays in Mexico begin on Dec. 15 and extend until Jan. 7.

Rockport Editorialist Answers Shoals Problem

ROCKPORT, Tex. (S-B) — Residents of the coastal bend were plagued by problems of passes to the open Gulf in the 1870s as much as they are now, an editorial in the Rockport Transcript shows.

The Editorial was in the Feb. 12, 1870, issue — the 25th number of the Transcript. It was edited by C. F. Bailey, ancestor of Travis Bailey who still lives here.

The editorial says in part: "We last week made a few hurried remarks in regard to some work for the permanent improvement of Aransas Bar. It is true that Aransas bar is in fine order, in fact, more depth of water than there has been in a long time. Yet it is liable to shoal again at any time, and although it can never remain very shoal for any length of time, still the occasional detentions that happen to steamers and sailing vessels are serious inconveniences to the trade of the place, and very damaging to the reputation of the Pass."

And here Editor Bailey gets in some good licks, in a tone strangely reminiscent of a lot of today's curbstone experts here.

"Now the plan proposed by us was a dam across Corpus Christi Pass and Cedar Bayou, thereby compelling the waters of Corpus Christi Bay, San Antonio Bay, and smaller bays between San Antonio and Aransas Bays to find their sole outlet to the Gulf through Aransas Pass."

That is more or less what had to happen before Aransas Pass could be kept open for ocean traffic.

Anyone acquainted with the area would see, he says, that the volume of water forced through the pass would be doubled or trebled, and this added current would clean away the bar with little trouble, maintaining a depth of from 12 to 15 feet.

Evidently things were cheaper then, or Editor Bailey was overly optimistic, for he continues:

"We believe that $2,000 honestly expended would put a substantial dam across both passes."

"We are not an engineer," he says, in words still frequently heard, "but we do claim to be possessed of common reasoning powers, and confess that no reason presents itself to our mind why the work, once done, would not result in immense bounties to this section."

At this time, Rockport was not quite three years old, having been founded to take care of cattle exports to New Orleans. The Transcript had been published here only about six months.

It was founded at St. Mary's by Geraldo Alonzo Beeman and Bailey, and called "The Vaquero." In 1869 they moved to Rockport, where Beeman sold his interest to Bailey and the name was changed to the Rockport Transcript.

The Vaquero printing plant consisted of a press on which a single five column page could be printed at a time. About 50 pounds of type was included.

For the Transcript, a complete new outfit was purchased, including a Washington hand press, and it was published under that name for many years. Today it is the Rockport Pilot.

stakingly with soap and water. Then hold a face cloth wet with very warm water over the spot for a minute to soften the impaction. Cover your fingertips with paper tissues, and press out the contents of the pore. Bathe the skin again in warm water and soap, then touch the spot with an antiseptic or astringent lotion.

Q. How is a bran and honey facial mask prepared?
A. Mix honey with a half-cup of bran to make a smooth paste. If is too thick, add a little cologne (if your skin tends to oiliness) or a little rose water (if your skin is dry). Spread it over face, leave on for 15 minutes, then remove with a dampened cloth. Rinse first with warm water, then with cold. Douse with chilled astringent. You can repeat this twice weekly, if desired. It helps to refine the texture of the skin.

Q. What after-shampoo rinse is especially beneficial to blonde hair?
A. One level teaspoon of borax added to a gallon of water.

Q. What can I do to help tone down the freckles on my arms?
A. You can try spreading a paste on your arms of cornmeal and sour milk or butter-milk, keeping this on the arms at least 20 minutes — and repeating this every day.

Q. Please repeat your formula for concealing an ugly-looking pimple on the face.
A. Make a paste out of powder and foundation cream, pat this over the blemish, and then press some powder evenly over the offending spot.

Q. What are some shampooing tips for artificially colored hair?
A. Shampoo or soap of any kind must not be left on touched-up hair, since it may cause streaks or marks. In hard-water areas where soap is difficult to remove, follow the shampoo rinse with an egg application. Mix the yolk and white together and pour onto the scalp. Rub in lightly, then put your head under tepid water, and rinse THOROUGHLY.

Q. What sort of exercise will help me to ward off a "dowager's hump"?
A. Grasp either side of a doorway and let your body swing forward from the waist while your hands remain back on the frame for support. This will bring your shoulders together, pinching those fleshy spots, and thus encourage you to carry yourself better.

Q. Please give me a formula for a good, general-purpose facial beauty mask.
A. Add two teaspoons of evaporated milk to the white of an egg. Pat this on the face with cotton and leave until dry. Then wash off with tepid water, and finish with cold water. Follow this treatment with some nourishing face cream.

Q. What can I do about some perspiration stains on one of my unwashable dresses?
A. Sometimes these will yield only to dry cleaning. But first you can try sprinkling some cornstarch on the affected areas, then brushing it off when it has dried.

Q. How can I safely and easily bleach the hair on my upper lip?
A. Applications of lemon juice should help to do this.

QUAD FUTURITIES LISTED — YONKERS, N. Y. (S-B) — Yonkers Raceway, which this year runs from April 1 through July 31, has set its dates for the Quad Futurities. A. One level teaspoon of borax added to a gallon of water.

Q. Is it all right to squeeze blackheads from the skin?
A. When all else fails, this may be necessary — although you're always risking bruises. First wash face and hands painstakingly with soap and water. Then hold a face cloth wet with very warm water over the spot for a minute to soften the impaction. Cover your fingertips with paper tissues, and press out the contents of the pore. Rites Held For Mrs. R. Strange

Funeral services for Mrs. Rosa Belle Strange, 80, of Plainview, former resident of Hereford, were conducted Friday at 4 p.m. in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home of Hereford. Officiating were Dr. Howard Scott, pastor of the First Baptist Church, the Rev. A. C. Hamilton, pastor of the Avenue Baptist Church, and Earl Cantrell, minister of the Church of Christ at Silverton. Burial was in West Park Cemetery under direction of Gill-land Funeral Home. Mrs. Strange died at 9:45 a.m. Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. A. Fitzgerald, in Littlefield. She had been in ill health for about three years. She was born Dec. 25, 1879, in Alabama and was married to E. L. Strange on Dec. 25, 1902, in Oklahoma. The couple moved to Texas in 1906 and to Deaf Smith County in 1946 from Silverton. Survivors include two sons, Clarence of Hereford and George of Plainview; three daughters, Mrs. Luther Campbell of Plainview, Mrs. Fitzgerald of Littlefield and Mrs. Lowell Ro-

Mama Catfish Leaves Pop Holding Bag; Angers Him

ROCKPORT, Tex. — For years just about everyone along the Texas coast has considered the salt water catfish a mean, low and slinking individual, whose only business in life was to slip up on the unwary angler and spike him in odd and exceedingly painful places. But apologies are due Papa Catfish, for folks have found out what makes him that way.

He's henpecked, like many another poor male. Mama Catfish, once she's laid her eggs, rambles off to the marine ladies' sewing circle, or the catfish equivalent of a bridge party, leaving poor papa in such shape that he couldn't hurt anyone if he wanted to. She's the gal that causes all the trouble, for only she can swallow a hook during this period, and the old man can't say a thing for his mouth is too full.

Well, try picturing yourself a 12 inch fish, holding about 30 or 40 eggs the size of buckshot in your mouth, and see how gabby you are. Papa catfish does this from four to six weeks, for once his better half has deposited the embryo children, he picks them up, and from then on wanders about with a soulful look in his eyes, and a wondering, yearning expression on his face that supposedly indicates deep thought. But it merely comes from well of Optima, Okla.; 16 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

waiting for the day when he will become a parent in good standing and once more be able to eat, for all this time he is without food.

Young Drivers' Licensing Rules Are Clarified

(Editor's Note: In order to clarify some mis-conceptions which have arisen in the county recently regarding drivers' licenses, the following story is printed in the public interest.)

There are only two ways in which it is possible for a person under 16 to receive a drivers license, reports Hugh Poage of the Texas Department of Public Safety Driver's License Bureau.

Generally the only opportunity for an under-age driver to be licensed is to have had driver's training in high school, Poage said, but an exception is made in the case of extreme emergency. In this case a family emergency application is submitted to a board in Austin.

This board, Poage said, usually approves about one per cent of these applications. As a rule, the under-age person must be the only driver in the family and the automobile the only means of conveyance for the family.

A driver under 16 can receive a motor scooter license. Parents may not teach their under-age children to drive on public roads, Poage said. Any licensed driver is subject to suspension of his license if he knowingly allows an unlicensed driver to drive a vehicle. For a minor child, both the minor and the parent are responsible for the minor's driving. A licensed driver under 18 must have parental permission in an affidavit to receive a commercial license. Poage's schedule in Hereford is each Monday and Saturday morning, and the second and fourth Wednesday's of the month. He administers the written test on these days from 8 to 10 a.m. and from 1 until 2 p.m. The rest of the day is devoted to administering the driving test.

How Can I?

Q. How can I mend a leak in a vase?
A. By pouring hot paraffin into it. Tip the vase from side to side to coat not only the bottom but the sides. This can be done with a new bowl or vase just by way of safeguard.

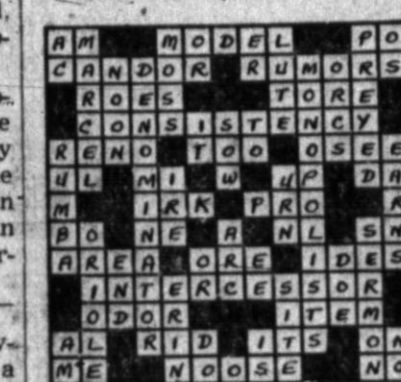

Q. How can I keep a crack in a window from leaking?
A. A coat of clear shellac over a cracked window pane will keep it from leaking until a new pane can be installed.

Q. How can I make an iron smooth so that I have better results when ironing?
A. If the iron has a roughened base rub it over some coarse salt sprinkled on a piece of paper, and the iron will acquire a gloss that will make it glide very easily over any material.

Belgium's coast line is 40 miles long.

Q. How can I test butter when in doubt as to whether I have butter or a substitute?
A. Try this test: Hold a half-teaspoon over the spout of the teakettle. Butter will form a sort of foam, while the substitute will melt.

FAMILY AFFAIR: Every day is a special day when Bill Bradley takes over the outdoor cooking. Everyone has a special job to do, even two-year-old Jeannine, in her dad's arms. They know about the stand which they are using as a table too. It was an old forge used by Bill's grandfather, the late

L. R. Bradley, Deaf Smith County pioneer cattleman. Bill's father, the late Egbert Bradley, made it into a table for Bill when he was a little boy—and the kids love it. Janet, 8, and Truitt, 6, stand in line for servings. (Staff Photo)

behind his dad, Alex takes care of the steaks and Paul supervises to see the job is well done. They practice teamwork in work as well as play. (Staff Photo)

BEHAVE, MR. DUSSELDORF: Like many other fathers, attorney Ed Line will be showered with love and attention today as he relaxes in his favorite chair. Nor is he overlooked by Mr. Dusseldorf, the Dachshund pup, who likes to show his affection too. The children, both on good behavior, are Lee Edward, 3, on his dad's lap, and pretty Terie Beth, wearing her Easter dress in honor of Dad's Day. (Staff Photo)

SUMMERFIELD NEWS

Johnson First With Wheat, Dry Land Averages 20-25

By BETTY WALSER
Ray Johnson was the first to harvest wheat in this community. He took the first load to the Summerfield Pitman elevator Monday.

Johnson's dry land wheat fields averaged 20 and 25 bushels to the acre. He received $25 for the first load of wheat in the community and completed his harvesting Wednesday.

Norman Lyttal was the first to bring barley to the elevator. He harvested his barley June 6 and 10.

Roy Euler, Clarence Behrends, J. B. Noland, D. M. Wiltshire and T. A. Boyd are harvesting wheat this week.

Carl Lee, manager of the Summerfield elevator, says the harvesting has started fairly slow and is still slow. Damp weather has cut down on the harvesting of the grain.

Light showers were received in the area Wednesday afternoon. The showers ranged from one-quarter to one-half-inch or more. Farmers are hoping for warm dry weather until the wheat harvesting is completed. The hot dry winds and hot days have helped to speed the harvesting.

Work has been going on this week to install an air conditioning system in the Summerfield Baptist Church. Jack Buse is in charge of the operation. The Rev. Merle Weathers went after the system Monday in Amarillo and work began that day.

An extension phone was also installed in the church Tuesday. The phone was a gift from Mrs. Lee Curry. Number of the phone is BR 6-4182.

Mrs. R. R. Rule and Mrs. R. B. Baker were in Lubbock Monday. Mrs. Rule visited with her brother, Josh Bristle, and Mrs. Baker visited with her aunt, Mrs. J. L. Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baldwin of Lubbock spent the weekend in the George DeLozier home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Lookingbill and family of Amarillo visited in the L. B. Lookingbill home Saturday and Sunday. The children remained with their grandparents.

Wednesday evening the L. B. Lookingbill family visited in the Bradley Lookingbill home and the children remained home, with the exception of Debbie, who returned home with her grandparents for a longer visit.

A large crowd attended the Vacation Bible School commencement services Sunday evening at the Summerfield Baptist Church. A total of 98 were present for the Training Union services and more were present for the Bible School program. The school reported a good year with 82 enrolled.

Mrs. Buster Thompson, Mrs. Tryla Boytkin and Mrs. Pat Frye have been at the bedside of their grandmother, Mrs. Bobbie Boytkin, in the St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock. Mrs. Boytkin fell last week and injured her hip.

Mrs. Tryla Boytkin returned home Tuesday and Mrs. Thompson returned home Thursday. Mrs. Frye remained with her grandmother.

Earl Behrends, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Behrends, underwent dental surgery in Amarillo last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Walsler of Hereford visited Sunday in the Guy Walsler home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Baker were in Lubbock Wednesday on business. They spent Wednesday night in the Jackie Dulin home in Tahoka. They also visited in the L. D. Reeves home in Cotton Center Thursday.

Mrs. Clarence Behrends attended a demonstration party Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Anna Holman in Hereford.

Nancy Parsons of Hereford spent Thursday evening with Betty Walsler.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. W. Lee and Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Lee and Mack of Gatesville visited last week in the home of the Y. W. Lee's son, Carl Lee.

Friday evening Wayne Walsler, Don Walsler and Jamie Clearman met the train in Amarillo for Kyle Ken Mores of Fort Worth. Morse is planning to spend the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Curry, and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walsler.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Beene and Linda of Artesia, N. M., visited in the W. C. Beene home this past week.

Helping Dianne Clearman celebrate her 15th birthday Tuesday were Nicky Nan and Linda Bradford and Patsy Lindsay of Hereford.

The Young People of the Summerfield Baptist Church were entertained with a social in the J. C. Clearman home recently. Various games were played and refreshments were served to the guests.

Attending were Paul Higgins, Linda Kay Noland, Ruby Brewton, Ken Clearman, Nancy Parsons, Dale Carter, Ann Lookingbill, Carolyn Lee, Gene Streun, Jamie Clearman, Joe Streun, Wayne Walsler, Lee DeLozier, Dianne and Netta Clearman, Don Walsler, Debbie Lookingbill, Mrs. J. C. Clearman, Mary Jo, Betty Walsler and the leader, Mrs. W. C. Beene.

Mrs. Margaret Hayes of Phoenix, Ariz., is a guest in the home of her sister, Mrs. A. O. Thompson. From here she will go to Paris, Tex., to visit her mother, Mrs. A. E. Argo.

OFF THE Shelf

By H. A. TUCK
A lightning-sharp novel with tremendous implications is one of the best fiction choices at the county library in recent months.

The Manchurian Candidate by Richard Condon has scope, depth, everything a good novel needs to please discriminating readers.

Raymond Shaw returns to the United States in 1951 after two years in Korea. As a sergeant he is idolized as a genuine hero, winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor and brave son of a public figure.

What the public doesn't know is that he has become a human time bomb, an assassination machine. Captured during a patrol, he and the other members of the group are thoroughly indoctrinated and turned loose to make their way back to friendly forces.

But during the three days, Raymond Shaw has been set with a long fuse, stretching from Manchuria to the east coast of the United States, stretching for nine years.

Shaw is the son of a scheming she-devil, who is determined to push her second husband clear into the White House. After terms as state governor and U. S. Senator, she is grooming him for the top post.

Shaw returns to his first field of journalism and becomes well-known. But through the years, the Communists have watched and waited for the time when they needed to unleash the power built into his subconscious.

Murder and violence, terror in its most deceptive forms, greed without disguise and a weird recurrent nightmare move the characters through the eastern seaboard and parts of

Club Members Host Luncheon

Members of the North Hereford Home Demonstration Club met Thursday in Dameron Park for a picnic and covered dish luncheon. The Friona Home Demonstration ladies were guests for the meeting.

After the introduction of guests the luncheon was served to approximately 50 ladies and children, followed by an hour of games.

The recreation was led by Mrs. Wilma Bryan and a baby sitter entertained the children.

Friona guests were Mrs. Cherry Mingus, Glenda and Vickie, Mrs. Mildred Mingus, Janet and Gary, Mrs. Betty Renner, Phyllis, Lana, Conrad and Mickey, Mrs. Lenny Mae Baxter and Debbie, Mrs. Mary Joyce Barnett, Cindy and David, Mrs. Erma Lee Tims, Pam and Jerry, and Mrs. Gertrude Renner and Dickey Lee.

North Hereford club members present were Mrs. C. L. Whitehead, Mrs. Otto, Massie and James Shultz, Mrs. R. A. Fullwood, Mrs. Clinton Ward, Jerry and Kay Lynn Ward, Mrs. Bell Williams and Ross, Mrs. Otto Olson, Mrs. Mary Bolkin, Mrs. June Roberts, Brenda, Roger and Pat, Mrs. R. E. Barrett and Cindy, Miss Bonnie Wagner, Miss Roberta Campbell, Mrs. Frank Brinkman, La Jean and Mary Margaret, Linda Kay Vaughn, and Mrs. Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent.

The picnic luncheon concluded the North Hereford Club meetings until September.

Europe at a breathtaking pace. Interwoven in the plot are two outstanding love stories, and a number of romances.

With its theme racing to a spectacular and logical climax, The Manchurian Candidate is a candidate for Hollywood consideration.

THE DIFFERENCE IS...
DETROIT (AP) — Sid Abel, coach of the Detroit Red Wings of the National Hockey League, has discovered the difference between playing and coaching after less than two seasons at the Red Wings' helm. "As a player," he says, "you can go out after a defeat and have a beer and a couple of guys will pat you on the back and tell you what a great fellow you are. "As a coach you are more likely to find a couple of guys ready to knife you in the back." Thomas Jefferson was the first president to be inaugurated in Washington, D. C.

CAN WE ALL SEE THE BIBLE ALIKE?

If a statement is made often enough people will come to believe it even though it is not true. A good example is that which you hear so often in religion, "We can't all see the Bible alike." The Apostle Paul disagrees with this idea.

If we can't all see alike why would Paul, the inspired apostle, tell us to do so?

WE DO SEE ALIKE IN EVERYDAY AFFAIRS

- We see alike on the point that each automobile must have a state license. Those who cannot see this are punished.
- We see that all must stop for a red light. What is your interpretation of a red light? Does it mean "stop" to one and "go" to another? It means "Stop" to all. One who will not see this endangers his life and the lives of others. He is required to pay a fine.
- We see the time of day exactly alike. Those who refuse to see like all the rest of us miss their appointments. If we should disagree on the time of day we simply go to the recognized authority and correct BOTH our watches.
- The objection may be made that we do not see alike on the kind of automobile to buy or the kind of clothes to wear. But there is NO LAW that tells us we must purchase a certain make of car or wear a certain type of clothing. Where there is a law that tells us what to do we MUST and we DO see alike in everyday matters. Where there is no law we are at liberty to do as we please. BUT THE BIBLE IS GOD'S LAW—NOT MAN'S OPINION.

CAN WE ALL SEE THE BIBLE ALIKE?
James 1:25 tells us that we are under a perfect law of liberty. We must see the commands of this LAW alike. Can we do so?

- The Bible tells us there is only one God. Can we all see this? The heathen in Paul's day did not think they could. Why? Simply because they would not accept what the Bible said. All who believe the Bible can see this alike.
- The Bible affirms that Jesus is the Son of God. Can we all see this? Some do not. Why? Do they not understand what the Bible says? Does it tell one man that Jesus IS the Son of God and another that He is not? Some simply will not believe the Bible.
- The Bible tells there is but one body (1 Cor. 12:20), and that body is the church (Eph. 1:22, 23). American people are as hard to convince concerning the oneness of the church as Romans and Greeks were concerning the oneness of God. Yet Eph. 4:6 says there is one God. Eph. 4:4 says there is one body. Does the word "one" have two meanings? It means ONE in both passages.
- Jesus tells us to believe in Him. John 3:16. The Bible tells us to repent, Acts 17:30. Peter commanded men to be baptized, Acts 10:48. Some will not obey. It is because they are uncertain whether God wants them to repent and be baptized? Do we have trouble seeing these commands or do men simply refuse to believe and obey God?

CONCLUSION:
Since the Apostle Paul commanded us to see the Bible alike (1 Cor. 1:10), and since Jesus prayed that all should be one (John 17:20, 21), and since God does not require of us that which is impossible, we CAN see the Bible alike.

Reds Walk Past Tigers, 20-4 In One-Sided Pony Contest

Giving up only eight hits the Red Sox beat the Tigers 20 to 4 in Pony League play Thursday night.

The Red Sox used ten hits and 14 walks to score the 20 runs in a one-sided game, while Red Sox pitcher Gary Kendrick only walked two Tigers.

The first three innings left the Tigers scoreless, while the Red Sox had a big ball throughout the game.

Butch Hoff began the scoring activities in the first inning when he got on by a walk. In rapid fire order after that Barry Gabbert hit a single, Gary Smith walked and Bill Brown singled to be stranded on second base.

The party continued in a long bottom half of the second when the Sox batted in seven tallies.

Drew Kershen used a walk as did Lynn Robbs. Other scores were made by Hoff, who was hit by a pitched ball, Gabbert, who hit a single, Smith got a double and Brown walked. Gary Kendrick was hit by the pitcher and Virgil Strange walked and got to third before he was put out.

The inning ended with Red men on first and second.

Two more scores were brought in in the third inning to make the first half of the game all for the Red Sox.

The Tigers began to make themselves noticed in the fourth inning when Carl Stapp walked and scored.

The Red Sox added four more scores to the game in the fourth when Hoff took advantage of a center field error, and Gabbert and Kershen walked. Robbs got to the promised land on a fielder's choice.

Three runs in the fifth inning were accounted for by the Tigers. Anthony Mayes singled and Randall Long and Mike Kelly went to first by courtesy of the pitcher.

Kershen singled to make the only scoring event in the fifth for the Red Sox.

The Tigers retired scoreless at the end of the sixth inning and the Red Sox brought the coup de grace to the game by bringing in three more runs. A double by Smith and a walk by Glenn Baker accounted for two of them. A short stop error put Kendrick on base to make the final score of the game.

The winning pitcher was Kendrick who was relieved at the end of the fifth inning by Kershen. The losing pitcher was Calloway, who shared pitching duties with Tom Powell and Jerry Bybee.

Dodgers Trounce LL Giants, 18-2

The Dodgers used a run-away fourth inning to trounce the Giants 18-2 Thursday night in Little League play.

In a one-sided game the Dodgers used 12 hits to score their 18 runs. Two hits were used by the Dodgers for their two runs.

Second baseman Will Watts used a single to make the first score for the Dodgers to open the game. With two on base, the Dodgers were retired.

The Giants were sent to bed without their supper in the first inning when, by heads-up fielding, they were retired scoreless with two men on base.

A single by Doug Watson accounted for one Dodger score in the second inning while again the Giants were scoreless.

Two more runs were brought in by four hits in the third, for the Dodgers, while the Giants again failed to get off the ground.

Lynn Warren used a single to score and Iley Barton got on base with a double. Two singles and a walk were responsible for pushing the two scores in.

The Dodgers only got one hit in the fourth inning, but walks and errors gave them nine runs.

Dan Loerwald started the inning with a walk. Warren followed him and used a second base error to get on base. Barton also took advantage of a second base error and David Marcontell walked around the bases.

Gary Story, Dorman Duggan and Brad Johnson came into the game to walk to scores. Doug Watson made the bases on a pitcher's error and Watts accounted for a score with a fielder's choice. The last score of the inning was made by Loerwald on a walk. Barton slugged a double to die on second base.

The fourth inning saw one of the two runs made by the Giants come in when Gray Royal hit a double.

The fifth inning accounted for two more Dodger scores when Greg Johnson used an error to get on and stole home base. A single by Gilbert Sims accounted for the other score.

Gene Drummond walked to score for the Giants and make the last score for them.

The last chapter of the game accounted for three more Dodger scores when Lynn Warren, Barton and Marcontell all scored. Warren and Barton used singles and Marcontell hit a double.

The winning pitcher for the game was Doug Watson. His relief pitcher for the Dodgers was Jerry Ross. He was relieved by Rick Miller and he had relieved Alex Guerrero.

A more eventful game took place in the minor league when the Dodgers out-ran the Giants 14-12.

MINOR STAR DUE CANADIENS ROCHESTER, N.Y., (AP) — Apparently it never rains but pours for the talent-rich Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League.

The top player in the minor American Hockey League this season is 20-year-old Billy Hicke a Montreal farmhand from the prairies of Saskatchewan.

Hicke, only a year out of junior hockey, is running away with the AHL individual scoring race as a right winger for the Rochester Americans.

Already the 5-foot-8, 165-pound Hicke has something in common with NHL superstars Maurice (Rocket) Richard of the Canadiens, Gordie Howe of Detroit and Andy Bathgate of New York.

He, too, wears No. 9 on his uniform.

Loerwald-Brorman Wedding At St. Anthony's On Wednesday

Mrs. Frank Brorman, formerly Miss Dolores Loerwald. (Angel Photo)

In a double ring ceremony conducted Wednesday at 5 p.m. in St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Miss Dolores Loerwald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund F. Loerwald, became the bride of Frank Brorman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brorman. Rev. Father Nathaniel Madden, S. A. directed the exchange of vows before a large crowd of relatives and friends.

Baskets of white gladioli and white daisies with lighted white candles gave an appropriate background for the ceremony.

Miss Dolores Brorman, cousin of the bridegroom, was organist and vocalists were Mrs. Elbert Vance and Edward Dzuik Jr. Mrs. Vance sang "Ave Maria", "O Perfect Love" and "Mother at Thy Feet is Kneeling". Mr. Dzuik's offerings were "Panis Angelicus", "On This Day O Beautiful Mother" and "A Prayer For a Perfect Life". The traditional wedding marches were played as the bridal party entered and left the church.

Miss Susie Loerwald served her sister as maid of honor and another sister, Patsy Loerwald, and Elizabeth Brorman, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids.

The maid of honor wore a pale yellow dress of silk organza over taffeta, featuring a fitted bodice with bateau neckline forming a V outline in the back.

The very full skirt was ornamented with flat bows of the material in the front. The bridesmaids' dresses were made identical to that worn by the honor maid, in mint green. Each carried a bouquet of yellow daisies.

Johnny Brorman assisted his brother as best man and groomsmen included Raymond Brorman, the bridegroom's brother, and Kenneth Loerwald, cousin of the bride. Ushers were Kenneth Walterscheid, Robert Lueb, Alphonse and Anthony Brorman. Acolytes were Daniel Loerwald and Richard Reinart, cousins of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length traditional gown of white chantilly lace and net over white slipper satin. The lace bodice was accented by a solitaire neckline and sleeves that tapered to a point at the fingers. The very full flowing net skirt was enhanced by deep bands of lace curving to a point in front and back. A queen's crown of lace outlined with pearls aglow with tiny sequins held the lace-edged veil of illusion. She wore her great grandmother's wedding ring and a pearl pendant and earrings, the gift of the bridegroom. The bridal bouquet was of lilies of the valley, white stephanotis and white carnations and her prayer book was carried by an aunt at her wedding. The bride's mother chose a sheath of toast colored lace for the wedding and she wore a yellow carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy crepe dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the wedding a buffet supper at the church honored the couple. The bride's table was laid in white linen and centered with a four tiered wedding confection topped with tiny wedding bells. Frosted candles and the bouquets used by the attendants in the wedding were added decorations. A dance followed the supper.

For traveling to points in Colorado, including Denver and Colorado Springs, the bride wore a white lace suit featuring white accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Hereford High School, finishing as honor student with the class of 1956. Before her marriage she was employed by Brown, Graham and Glover accounting firm.

Her husband has completed two years of active duty in the U. S. Army, serving 18 months in Germany. He is presently engaged in farming in the Ford Community where the couple will make their home.

Special wedding guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Schumacher of Sunray, and Mrs. J. A. Loerwald of Hereford.

Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schumacher and family of Nazareth, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schumacher and son of Sunray, Mr. and Mrs. Al Walterscheid of Muenster and Mr. and Mrs. Don Endres, also of Muenster. Miss Charlotte Schumacher of Nazareth, cousin of the bride, se-

Farmers Start Cutting As Early Yields Average High

By MRS. CARL WIMBERLEY Harvesting of wheat got underway on several farms here this week.

The moisture content was ranging from 11 to 18 per cent as reported by one local elevator manager. The quality is exceptionally good. Clarence Betzen reported a yield of 35 bushels an acre on the first field he combined; however, this was not the best he has. Most of those harvesting have not cut enough to estimate the yield per acre. Barley harvest continues in full sway. The barley is also reported to be very fine quality. Clifford Stewart completed the first cutting of his alfalfa last week. He received no rain in the process, but the strong wind Thursday night did considerable damage. Among those from here who attended funeral services for J. D. Bruner in Hereford Tuesday afternoon were Mrs. H. H. Miller, Mrs. Clarence Betzen, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Frye, Mrs. C. C. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. William Wimberley, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberley, Miss Bertha Frye, Audri Miller, Dorothea Stewart, Ted Wimberley and Buddie Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. Bruner and family: Rosemary and J. T. Cronin and Thurman Bruner moved here from Oklahoma in 1946. Mr. and Mrs. Bruner built them a home in Hereford a few years ago, but Thurman has continued to live here on the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Beavers are the parents of a son, Brett Mitchell, born Tuesday, June 15, in the Deaf Smith County Hospital in Hereford. The baby weighed seven pounds and six ounces. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Richardson and children went to Littlefield Sunday. They visited his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Richardson, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henshaw. Donna Kay Henshaw came home with the Richardson family for a visit here. Mrs. Marlon Russell and children and Mrs. Zed Stewart went to Oklahoma City Monday. On Tuesday they visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Russell at Durant, then went on to Bowie where they visited overnight.

Those from here who attended services at the Palo Duro Baptist Church Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Marl Little and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wimberley and the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Davenport. The service featured a 33-voice youth choir from Springdale, La. The choir was returning from the Glorieta Baptist Assembly in New Mexico.

PHEASANT IS PET STERLING, Ill. (AP)—A hitchhiking pheasant has become pals with bus driver George Near. One day Near saw a cock pheasant beside the road. As the bus passed, the pheasant began chasing the vehicle. Near stopped, walked up to the bird and took it in his hands. He placed the feathered friend on the rail behind the driver's seat and continued down the road. After a distance, he released his passenger. The next day Near found the pheasant waiting at the same place. He stopped the bus and picked up the pheasant again and put him on the same perch. But when he wanted to discharge the bird, it wouldn't leave the bus. Now Near has a pheasant who no longer hitchhikes but lives at the bus company office.

Beyer of Amarillo were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beyer, the past week. LEVELLAND VISITORS Mrs. Jack Geffkin and two children of Levelland are visiting in the home of her mother, Mrs. W. WALCOTT NEWS

Farmers Preparing For Wheat Harvest

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS Farmers in the community are busy these days with harvest efforts. Some are getting combines and equipment ready for use in cutting wheat, while others are combining barley now. Grasshoppers and other insects are very thick and doing a great deal of damage. Walcott received showers Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ford and Johnnie are now living here and working on their ranch. Their daughter, Susan, finished Monterey High School in Lubbock this spring in fourth place scholastically in a class of 378 members. Susan Ford is now in Austin attending Girls' State as a junior counselor. Davis Ford, a son, graduated from Texas A&M College in May with a degree in civil engineering. He finished with military honors and is working this summer with the Texas Highway Department in Austin. Their older son, Frank, continues his studies in Law School at Texas University in Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ford Jr. and baby lived here at the ranch part of last summer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Hall and sons had as guests Tuesday Tom Hall from Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Henderson and sons and Glenn Burrus. The men repaired the windmill that day. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins and Bruce spent Thursday night and Friday with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Shelton at their home in Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader took time out to vacation some last week. Their daughter, Mrs. Marvin Payne, Darla and Larry, accompanied them to Littlefield Tuesday morning where they visited her mother, Mrs. J. M. Thomas. That evening they had supper with another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Davis and daughters, at Hale Center. On Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader accompanied her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Durham of Spade, and J. M. Tho-

They received word of the death of a cousin, Clifton Thomas of Raton, whose funeral service was held Thursday. Mrs. Joe Rader is attending the Lunchroom Workshop this week which is held annually at Texas Tech in Lubbock. John Avera received word Monday that his 80-year-old brother, Jeff Avera, died June 15 in a rest home at Lubbock. Funeral services were held down-state and John Avera was unable to attend. On the previous Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. John Avera and son had made a trip to Lubbock so he could visit with his brother Jeff. Mr. and Mrs. Al Myers and family visited her mother, Mrs. Bessie Peddicord, in Amarillo Sunday. Alice stayed for a longer visit with her grandmother. Mrs. Cliff Patton, Mrs. Hilton Davis and Tressa of Sumnerfield and Mrs. Elvis Davis took Mary Sue Patton to Amarillo Tuesday. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Emery Gray there. Mary Sue plans to stay with her aunt and uncle and work in Amarillo this summer. Charlie Burk attended a family reunion with about 100 members present at Decatur Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Weaver and family have his sister, Mrs. Hanley Miller, Teddy and Donny of Hayward, Calif., visiting them for a few days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stocks attended a reunion of her family at Lake McClellan near Pampa Sunday. Her mother, Mrs. Minnie Miles, and others of Pampa were present. Two aunts from San Diego, Calif., Mrs. Ollie Reaves and Mrs. Jessie Baker, and one aunt from Shamrock, Mrs. Bit Mayfield and daughter, Erma Jean, were among those attending. Mrs. Glenn Hetzler visited with Mrs. J. S. Stoeck Tuesday. Miss Glenda Hornfeld and Peggy Sifford spent Wednesday night with Janell Weaver. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Beckett of Greensburg, Kan., brought Larry, Margaret and Nancy Minka home Friday and returned Sunday. They visited here in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Minks.

REMEMBER WHEN? By CHARLIE SEEDS... Historians certainly won't record this event as the most important thing that happened that year... but it did attract more national attention, and more reams of newspaper copy, than just about anything else that happened. This was the year that a "Princess" story came true, when an American girl married one of the world's richest Princes. The girl wasn't exactly an unknown. She was a "queen" in her own right... reigning queen of Hollywood's beautiful women. Her name was Rita Hayworth. Her real name was Rita Cansino. She came from a dancing family... and she danced her way into movies and to stardom. She had been married before, to the boy genius of radio and movies, Orson Welles... but she'd never been married to a Prince. Remember the wedding when Rita married Aly Khan? It was headline news. Remember the year? There was big news in automobiles that year... the first complete model change since before the war. The cars were really new. Crowds lined up to see them... but getting one was almost like dreaming of becoming a Princess. There just weren't enough to go around! The year was 1949. There's big news today in the completely new 1959 FORD, America's NEWEST car! And there's big news in the deals we're making right now. Ralls Editor Blasts Unions, Bureaucracy At Lions Club

"The course of mismanagement in governmental affairs starts on the local level," Ernest Joiner told the Hereford Lions Club at its weekly meeting in the Jim Hill Hotel Wednesday.

Joiner, editor and publisher of the Ralls Banner, spoke on the encroachment of American liberties by the national government.

"When a town allows officers to break into a private dwelling without a warrant," Joiner continued, "the pattern is set for events on the local level."

Joiner illustrated his point by describing the situation in his own county, where several of the county officials are under indictment for various misdeeds and he expects none of them to be imprisoned for them.

One of the plagues of the nation, according to Joiner is the increased strength of unionism. He said that at the present time Jimmy Hoffa has more power than does Russia. "Hoffa," he said, "has the power with the control of two more unions to stop every wheel in America."

In the opinion of Joiner, Russia at present lacks that power.

An unwitting contribution to this stronghold by labor, Joiner said, is the exclusive practice of medicine by the American Medical Association. With this he said the bar associations have a similar closed shop in the legal profession.

One of the most dangerous encroachments on American liberty, said Joiner, was the recent decision by the Supreme Court in the Frank vs. Maryland case. Joiner called this decision a direct overthrow of the fourth amendment to the Constitution, which guarantees the citizen the security of his own home.

Joiner characterized the Frank vs. Maryland case as giving any officer the privilege of entering a private home on the most flimsy excuse. "The seriousness of the situation is increased," Joiner remarked, "when the people fail to object."

Joiner further criticized the government for the national debt. Highly critical of the "It's only money" philosophy he called the U. S. Savings Bond the poorest investment in the nation.

Joiner spoke to an almost capacity audience of Lions and guests.

Hereford Residents Need Strong Backing For Lids On Trash Cans

Although there are definitely two sides to the question, it would seem that Hereford does need covered garbage cans in its residential areas.

None will dispute that we have one of the cleanest business districts, anywhere

Strange Drivers Inhabit Hiways

With summer vacations getting into swing, motorists should be thoroughly briefed in order to recognize some drivers we could do without. Unfortunately, members of the various species are not rare, and may be seen on any road or highway.

Caution! Most of these birds are armed with deadly 300-horsepower weapons and should be considered dangerous.

Some of the easily-identifiable drivers include:

DONALD THE DAWDLER—He read somewhere that speed is the root of all driving evils. So he dawdles along at 30 miles an hour, even on the open highway. He is stubbornly oblivious to the long line of cars behind him and of the near disasters he causes as those who do not have all day to reach their destinations are forced to try to pass. The sub-species, the Sunday driver, is as bad, or worse. Both types would make the highways much safer if they would remain in their front porch rocking chairs.

CENTER-LANE CLARENCE—He drives for miles with his left wheel in the left-hand lane, straddling the center stripe and refusing to pull over despite the frantic signals from exasperated motorists behind him. He thinks it's easier that way—for him, of course. What other drivers think cannot be printed here.

HOT-ROD HAROLD—He thinks his souped-up car with its multi-barreled carburetor and roaring exhaust is faster than anything else on the road and he aims to prove it, regardless of danger to himself or others. His favorite trick is to swoop up beside another car and try to tempt the driver to race. He will usually win it, too, if the police or the undertaker don't get him first.

VIRGIL THE VISITOR—He loves to visit strange towns or unfamiliar neighborhoods. What he doesn't realize is that he is snarling traffic and endangering lives while he weaves and slows at every intersection, searching for his way. However, Virgil should not be condemned too severely, because most cities don't have very good street name and direction signs to help visitors, particularly at night.

ARTHUR THE ADONIS—In his snub-nosed cap and top-down convertible, he is convinced he and his car make an irresistible sight for women. He is a first cousin to the guy who struts around the swimming pool, ogling the girls. The only difference is that at the pool such antics don't foul-up traffic.

LOVER-BOY LOUIS—The original one-armed driver, he believes there is no better place to be cozy than behind the wheel of a moving car. With two people occupying the space of one on the driver's side, he pilots the car with one hand and half of his attention—to the deadly peril of every other car and pedestrian in the vicinity.

The list could be even longer, of course, but these are some of the most-seen problem birds on our highways and streets. Imagine how much safer and more pleasant it would . . . beep, beep . . . be if we could . . . beep, beep (Move over, Adonis!) . . . get rid of such characters.

in the country. Our refuse disposal system is acknowledged to be more than adequate.

Yet, our residential areas continue to limp along with open barrels, which attract flies, dogs, cats and mosquitos. It's about time the home-owners and private residents of the town got the same sanitation as businesses enjoy downtown.

For years the city has been selling lids for the big, 55-gallon cans that are used for garbage. But the lids haven't been too popular, and with good reason. What incentive is there to put on a lid, when no one else bothers. There was a campaign a few years ago in Hereford to get lids on all the garbage cans.

The drive was successful, but one by one the lids disappeared, vanished never to be seen again.

Now there are many, many blocks of alleys which have no lids on garbage cans. Each open can is an invitation for disease and litter.

New residents to Hereford from other towns, particularly those which are larger, are amazed at the lack of attention to this phase of sanitation. They are used to covered trash cans and look with actual revulsion upon the open ones which are most general here.

We don't feel that the city should be bound in any manner by the suggestion of a government agency. We would certainly get up-in-arms if such a group tried to dictate how our local government should run its business.

But, in this case, we agree with part of the state's suggestions. There should be lids on all garbage containers in Hereford.

This could be an excellent project for some civic club to push, as a continuing effort. In spite of every precaution, some of these lids are going to get lost, battered or blown into South Texas. These will need replacing. There will be a demand for additional lids, with the continued growth in urban population.

Residents of Hereford deserve a break on garbage sanitation as much as the downtown area. Almost without exception, they would welcome a workable plan to get lids on all garbage cans, rather than just a few.

Good Convention Boosts Hereford

Praise is due the eight Hereford folks who went to North Dakota and brought back a middlin'-sized convention for next year.

What will a two-day convention mean to Hereford?

First, and probably most important for the immediate future, it should mean a nice piece of additional income for the city, with circulation covering all phases of our economy.

Current figures show that the average convention delegate spends $15 per day. For a couple of days in Hereford, there will be at least 200 extra visitors. This adds up to a sizeable $6,000 minimum boost for Hereford.

And because of our central location along the International Parks Highway system, there is a good chance that there will be as many as 300 delegates, and possibly even more. And each person will come into town prepared to spend a few dollars.

But there are some other factors which are at least as important as $6,000. People who attend this type of convention are leaders in their own communities. They are progressive, with new ideas and big plans.

Some of them, and most likely all of them, will be impressed with the friendliness of Hereford residents. And these same people, concerned with travel, will remember Hereford and point out that it is a nice place to visit.

And many of these visitors will see the tremendous opportunities that await in the area. Some of them will see a place for a new business or service. Others will see ways to invest in land, farms, or cattle.

No matter how you figure it, a convention is a good thing for Hereford. We are capable of handling some of the smaller gatherings, with our better hotel, motels, dining and meeting facilities.

We are proud that Hereford was chosen for the 1960 convention of the International Parks Highway Association and look forward to entertaining and meeting the delegates.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

The Faith Americans Live By

A tall candle symbolizing God is bedded in a plate of salt, the earth. Small candles are ignited from the central one, symbolizing flames of good in the hearts of members. Thus, meetings of the Women's Prayer Crusade for World Order and Peace, Interfaith begin.

A grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbs, of East Aurora, N. Y., was instrumental in starting the crusade, which has inspired thousands of women around the United States to do something personal for peace. She had heard her husband remark at a party, "It looks as if it's going to be up to the women to bring peace about." Today several thousand members believe that peace is God's plan and that each person may become an instrument of that peace through right ideas, attitudes and action.

In response to the crusade the mayor of Buffalo proclaimed a moment at high noon during World Day of Prayer last year for citizens to pray for peace. The crusade sponsored radio broadcasts by clergymen of all faiths. They distributed Lenten daily prayer calendars:

"1st day, Let us pray for ourselves — that peace may be within our walls . . . 4th, Let us pray for our neighborhoods . . . 31st, Let us pray for Universal peace, that religion may be renewed in the hearts of men . . ."

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Water Safety Valuable As Drivers' Education

In view of the expanding interest in water sports in this area do you think swimming and water safety should be stressed as much as drivers' education? Why?

MRS. RAYMOND BEAN—Both drivers' education and water safety need to be stressed. Anyone needs to know how to swim as well as drive.

Mrs. C. J. CRUMP—I do think water safety is as important as drivers' education. Nearly everybody goes swimming as well as driving and you need to know the rules so you won't get out and drown.

MRS. S. F. DAVIS—Yes. I'm afraid of water and I don't even know how to swim. If I had learned to swim at an earlier age, I probably wouldn't have a fear of water. One never knows when he might be forced to be in water.

MRS. J. D. GILBERT—I sure do think water safety needs to be stressed. It's a necessity of life. At times it is necessary that a child know how to swim and protect himself in water. I've seen that my grandchildren knew how to swim and I have put them in swimming classes. I can't swim at all. This might be the reason for my stand on this issue. I think swimming is the best of all exercises. It allows all the muscles to be exercised.

MRS. GERALD HAMBY—I certainly do. I think water safety is as important as drivers' education. In swimming there could be an accident as well as in cars. People need to know what to do if an accident should happen.

Overweight Americans, who number, one in every five of the population, are being fleeced of $100,000,000 a year through the purchase of spurious reducing remedies, according to a warning issued today by Bill Thompson, manager of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

Although weight reduction is a problem for the individual concerned and his doctor, Thompson said, the local Chamber is cooperating with the National Better Business Bureau, of which it is a member, in

Thompson quoted Postmaster General Summerfield as stating that medical quackery is at its all time high and that reducing schemes are perhaps the most lucrative of today's medical frauds. The text of Thompson's warning follows:

NEW DIAL SYSTEM FOR DIMMITT

Sometime in late August West Texas Telephone Company of Dimmitt hopes to switch over to dial telephones. The changeover date is contingent entirely on the speed with which technicians can make complex changes in the company's central wiring network. So far as the private telephone user is concerned, this will be Dimmitt's biggest single telephone advancement since the company switched over from the "crank to get central" system some fifteen years ago. The new numbers will be assigned as soon as possible. Tentative plans are that each number will be prefixed with Mitchell 7. This code prefix was assigned West Texas Telephone Company so that it someday may fit the local system into a national network where long distance numbers may be dialed from a local phone. The changeover is based upon the City Commission's permitting a raise in rates by the telephone company. The new rates set are $10.50 for a one-party business; $9 for two-party business; $5.75 for one-party residence; and $4.75 for a party line. The rates would be effective after the conversion. Telephone company technicians will begin soon installing dials on telephones in Dimmitt. The same instruments can be used simply with the addition of a dial. This operation will take about a month.—CASTRO COUNTY NEWS (Dimmitt)

BABE RUTH PARK FINISHED

Turning out in mass, volunteer workers completed finishing work on Babe Ruth Park Saturday. Outfield fence was extended to 285 feet along the foul lines and 310 feet straightaway. Benches for players were erected behind protective screening. Erection of light poles was completed and workers painted the park. Plans for the work day were made during a meeting of the Babe Ruth League Friday night at the West Texas State College field house. During the meeting, resolutions were adopted, leaving the decision whether or not every boy should play in every game to the coaches, not to the public; and requesting parents and managers to refrain players from umpire baiting. Home teams will be responsible for the cleanliness of the park and area, according to another resolution. Managers will assume the responsibility for lining the bases. Dr. Dudley Moore, new president, said he thought the league could get all the money it needed and that he would assume responsibility for it.—CANYON NEWS.

GUSLER PRODUCTS BUYS TULIA PLOT

Gusler Products Co. has purchased a 10-acre tract of land one half mile north of Tulia on the west side of the Santa Fe railroad. The tract is a part of the Hulsey land. Company officials said Tuesday that bids are now being taken on a 60 by 130 foot building. Construction is expected to begin within a month, 60 days will be required to complete the building, and the company hopes to be in operation here by Sept. 15. The company manufactures a cold water hand cleaner, a wind and weather hand lotion, and a fabric softener. The 25-year-old concern is moving to Tulia from Amarillo.—TULIA HERALD

FRIONA AREA HAIL LOSS CLIMBS

Wheat farmers in the Friona area have reported a total of 69 losses to the insurance agents in Friona according to information this week. In addition to these 69 losses, there are others that have not been reported because they were not covered by insurance. These losses mentioned above are concerned with wheat losses only and do not involve loss to cotton. The hail storm that cut through the Friona area last week did an estimated $750,000 damage to the cotton crop.—FRIONA STAR

The BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm must have some bills he can't pay, his letter this week indicates.

Dear editor:
From time to time I have poked a little fun at all the excitement some people work up over exploring outer space. I've been contending that when we finally get a man out into space, he may find there's nothing out there, at least nothing half as interesting as what he already had on earth, and all that money we're spending may be in vain.

But now I wish to revise my opinion a little. After long thought and meditation, I have figured out a reason why we ought to go ahead and explore space. I thought of it the other afternoon while I was reading a newspaper I picked up a day or two before. Some people think if they don't read a newspaper the day it's published, it's not worth reading, but I've found you can wait two or three days and read it and sometimes get more out of it than you could the day it was printed, especially if you've read another one or two in the mean time and subsequent reports have corrected the earlier ones.

According to this article, nobody knows how much money the world owes. They have a pretty good idea what a given country owes, nationally, but nobody has figured up all the debts of all the states, all the counties, all the cities and towns, all the school districts, water districts, etc.

And also, nobody has figured up how much individual families owe. But everybody agrees if you added up all of it, the figure would be overwhelming, flabbergasting. In fact, some people are contending the world if it keeps going in debt will wind up bankrupt.

Now here's where exploring space comes in. I'm not a lawyer, but I understand that when a man goes bankrupt, and wants to settle his debts by pleading bankruptcy, he has to at least find a court that's solvent to hear his plea.

If we can just find a planet out in space that's solvent, to take the world's bankruptcy plea to, that's just what we're looking for.

Instead of feeling our way into space, we'd better get out there in a hurry.

Yours faithfully,

fat through some way other than eating less has been parlayed into a multi-million dollar racket over the combined opposition of the Butter Business Bureaus, the medical profession, the government, and a host of agencies concerned with the public's health and pocketbook.

"The National Better Business Bureau has for many years issued bulletins to advertising media and the public on the false advertising of a variety of alleged obesity remedies. The American Medical Association, its affiliates and members, have done and are doing a great deal to counteract the charlatans in this field through education of the public.

"Governmental agencies having control over the advertising and labeling of obesity remedies have been fighting an uphill battle against the quacks. Many promotions have been curbed through the issuance of postal fraud orders, Federal Trade Commission orders to cease and desist or Food and Drug Administration seizures.

"Others have had their false or fraudulent claims deleted through voluntary agreement with an investigating agency. Some have been banned by court decisions. But these corrective actions have not halted the persistent promoters with their never-ending stream of new products, new customers, and new bait for tempting those who have tried everything else — except eating less.

"Over the years, obesity remedies have included a wide variety of pills, potions, plans and devices. Most of them have been worthless; some of them have been dangerous to health; some have been both dangerous and worthless.

"The overweight have bought: bath salts, bath cabinets and non-porous garments to sweat fat off; soaps, pastes and creams to rub it off; garments, girdles and belts to massage it off; rubber suction cups to pound it off in desired spots; body massagers and vibrating devices to shake it off; food products to appease the appetite; purgatives and laxatives to rush food through the system; bulk producing agents to fill up the stomach and cause loss of appetite; drugs to stimulate metabolism; freak diets; drugs to depress the appetite; dehydration drugs alleged to "flush" or "melt" fat off.

"Many of the obesity remedy promoters have promised that their product or plan involved no dieting. Other typical claims have been that surplus weight can be removed in large quantities, swiftly and safely and without torture at the table.

"But since most obese persons overeat themselves into that condition, to reduce they must literally reverse the procedure and eat themselves out of it by eating fewer calories, not more, than their bodies expend. This means dieting. Medical authorities have no magic to make adipose tissue disappear in any other way.

"Of more recent vintage in the weight reducing racket is the multi-million dollar boom in the sale of massage and vibrator devices. A variety of such products in the form of hand units, cushions, chairs, tables, etc., have been selling for from $5 up to several hundred dollars.

"Among the advertising claims made for some of these devices are that they: remove surplus fat; spot reduce inches from any part of the body desired; re-proportion the figure.

"But the Food and Drug Administration which has had a drive against the misbranding of such devices has stated that "It is illegal to promote vibrator devices as weight reducers and cure-alls for disease."

"The FDA has warned that fat persons should not be taken in by promises that they can "shake it off" with vibrator devices. In recent months the FDA has seized a number of such devices for making false claims for weight reduction.

"In a public announcement on this subject, the FDA has stated:

"According to expert medical opinion, the benefits of vibrators are limited to temporary relief for minor physical conditions. They may be soothing and relaxing to the user and help to relieve minor aches and pains due to fatigue or overexertion. They should not be represented as effective to treating diseases or weight reduction."

"The most popular type of containing phenylpropanolamine hydrochloride, advertised obesity remedy today is the one containing the tongue-twisting name of phenylpropanolamine hydrochloride. Often represented in advertising as "new", it was first written up in medical journals twenty years ago. This drug, in sufficient dosage, has been recognized by the medical profession as a useful adjunct for controlling the appetite in the dietary management of obesity.

"The advertised remedies mine hydrochloride, and sometimes other drugs for good measure, have contained as little as 10 milligrams although they usually contain 25 per tablet to be taken three times a day. The medically recommended dosage to depress appetite in the treatment of obesity is 50 milligrams two or three times a day before meals, or a total of from 100 to 150 milligrams per day on a doctor's prescription.

"This is 33 1/3% to 100% more than the 75 milligram maximum dosage permitted by the Food and Drug Administration for the over-the-counter sale. NBBB has seen nothing in published medical literature, nor has any unpublished data ever been presented to us, establishing the effectiveness of this drug as an appetite depressant in the dosage permitted without a prescription.

"Obesity remedies containing phenylpropanolamine hydrochloride are generally offered as "No-Diet" drugs. And yet one of the leading brands has had this frank information in a leaflet accompanying the product:

"TO WEIGH LESS — EAT LESS. . . To reduce you must have the desire to lose fat. The rules are simple, if normally healthy, just eat less and you'll weigh less. The plan does most everything medical science can do to help you attain your goal. On the other hand it can't come into your personal life and take food away from you when you want to overeat or eat between meals. THAT ONLY YOU CAN DO!"

"The label message says, quite plainly, that over and beyond any help you may get from our plan, your ultimate success will depend upon the exercise of your own will power in not overeating, or in not eating between meals. Such information is never featured in the ads.

"The fact that phenylpropan-olamine hydrochloride may be purchased over-the-counter in 75 milligrams per day dosage is played up by promoters as evidence of its safety.

"The Food and Drug Administration requires that products containing this drug state on their labels:

"Caution — Individuals with high blood pressure, heart disease, diabetes, or thyroid disease should use only as directed by a physician.

"How many obese persons know whether they have any of these conditions? The American Diabetes Association has estimated that one million Americans suffer from diabetes without knowing it!

"In testifying before a Congressional Committee on his experience in treating 6,000 cases of obesity, a noted physician estimated that of all people who are at least 10% overweight — 72% are anemic; 18% have diabetes; 22% have heart disease; 37% have psychogenic disturbance; 7% have gall bladder disease.

"These and a host of other ailments which may exist undetected in obese persons require individual therapy directed toward the patient's total health problem. A crash weight reducing program could be precisely what the doctor would not order.

"Although it is well known that obesity may be caused simply by over-eating, which is correctable by eating less, obesity may also be a serious disease in itself, or the result of, or a symptom of a serious disease. Whatever the cause, medical authorities agree that it is harmful to health.

"Medical authorities also agree that anyone who desires to lose more than a few pounds should do so under the supervision of a physician. The low calorie regimen prescribed by the physician will be based upon a knowledge of the patient's health and the treatment and time-table will be best suited to bring about a safe reduction of the patient's weight.

"Overweight persons who desire to lose weight can avoid victimization by an obesity quack by putting their personal health problem before the best authority available to them — a competent physician."

The American Medical Association has published a new, informative leaflet entitled "The Healthy Way to Weigh Less." This useful leaflet tells you how to determine whether you are overweight by employing the "pinch test."

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Coffin (Staff Photo)

Mr., Mrs. Leon Coffin Have 50th Anniversary

Life has seldom been a bed of roses but it has been rich in its rewards for Mr. and Mrs. Leon Coffin, who live five miles northeast of Hereford. They observed their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday at the home of a son with their children as hosts.

The couple was married June 5, 1909, sitting in a buggy in front of the home of a Baptist missionary preacher who conducted the exchange of vows. She was Miss Myrtle Grogan. The next day they were honored at an "infair dinner" in the home of his parents. He was a railroad man and from Fort Worth they were moved to Valentine the next year. In 1948 they came to the Panhandle from Dallas and purchased the farm where they now make their home.

Their sons are Harry and Bert Coffin of Hereford and Parker Coffin of Lake City, Colo. They have five grandchildren and one great-grandchild. At the reception in the Harry Coffin Home, 911 Lafayette St., the grandchildren and nieces assisted with the refreshments which were served from a table laid with a white linen cloth trimmed in gold. Gold colored carnations and the tiered anniversary cake told the anniversary story. Special guest at the reception was Mrs. Coffin's mother, 88-year-old Mrs. Martha Grogan of Albuquerque, N.M. Mr. and Mrs. Coffin are life-long members of the Baptist church and their membership is in Hereford where they attend regularly.

Living modestly in their farm home, they have retained a cheerful attitude that reflects their work together on the land. They grow produce for the markets and every year she has a large vegetable garden. She saves some room for growing beautiful flowers, however, for flowers are her hobby.

"There have been many ups and downs during our 50 years together," Mrs. Coffin said in recalling the past, "but there has been no disaster to befall us and our children and grandchildren are all alive and well. "We began our married life believing that if we would do right, the Lord would do the rest," she said, "and we still hold to that belief. We are well and happy and look forward to many more anniversaries".

'Beautification' Hereford Garden Club's Program

Hereford Garden Club held its June session in the home of Mrs. Claude McDougal with Mrs. Jennie Clark as hostess Friday afternoon.

Guest speaker was Don Newman of the Soil Conservation Extension Service, who spoke on beautification of landscapes and highways. He suggested a new coat of paint for the house and a general weeding spree, and a plan for conservation of tall water to make home places more attractive.

The Bible Plant study was presented by Mrs. G. W. Newson who used the Bible reference Matt. 13:26 in a discussion of "The Tares and Thistles".

Mrs. Emmett Hale made the arrangement for the day using tares and thistles in a line mass. Shares for the day were Mrs. R. L. Wilson and Mrs. C. D. Kelton.

During the business session members voted to deposit immediately $250 in the Community Center Fund.

Those present were Mesdames C. C. Ferguson, R. L. Criswell, Emmett Hale, W. C. Thomas, O. G. Hill, John Jacobsen Jr., Norman Moore, G. W. Newson, E. Ramey, M. T. Rutter, S. S.

Miss Sue Sowell, Keith Hodges Vows Repeated

Miss Sue Sowell and Keith Hodges exchanged wedding vows in the First Methodist Church at 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Howard Scott, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sowell, Dimmitt Highway, and Mr. Hodges is the son of Mrs. Velma Hodges and the late Mr. Hodges.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums, flanked by graduating white tapers in seven branched candelabra, were arranged at the altar of the church. Mrs. Bill Stanford, organist, played a medley of nuptial selections preceding the ceremony and accompanied Mrs. Bobby Owen, sister of the bridegroom, vocalist, who sang, "If I Could Tell You", "Because", and "The Lord's Prayer", in conclusion of the ceremony. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Jerry Malone as matron of honor, and bridesmaids Ann Smith and Mrs. Wade Crist.

They wore dresses of ice-blue crystalline, fashioned with full circular skirts attached to a midriff which ended in draped folds over the shoulders of the fitted bodice. They carried colonial bouquets of white chrysanthemums surrounded by feathered mums.

Barbara Owen, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a dress similar to the bridesmaids and carried a white basket of rose petals.

Jack Walker of Amarillo was best man and ushers were Homer Hershney and Francis Boyd.

Mr. Sowell escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her dress of chantilly lace and tulle featured a lace bodice with Sabrina neckline and long petal point sleeves. The bouffant skirt of tulle was dramatized by appliques of lace down the front length, with back interest of tulle ruffles in bustle effect.

Her scalloped veil of illusion was attached to a regal crown embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. Her only jewelry was a wrist watch, the gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a white orchid surrounded with brides' roses and tied with white satin streamers.

The bride's mother wore a blue lace dress with darker blue accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Hodges, the bridegroom's mother, chose a rose beige eyelet embroidery dress with bone white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The reception was held in Ward Hall of the Church. Members of the houseparty included the bride's sisters, Mrs. Charles Frye and Mrs. Philip Sharp of El Paso. Miss Ann Quickel presided at the guest register.

The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth over blue and the bridesmaids bouquets formed the centerpiece.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to points of interest in Colorado, the bride was wearing an all-white pique ensemble with the detached orchid from the wedding bouquet for a corsage.

Mrs. Hodges is a graduate of Hereford High School and of Draughtons Business College in Amarillo. She is now employed in the local REA offices.

Mr. Hodges, also a graduate of Hereford High School, attended Cisco Junior College for one

How Can I?

Q. How can I remove a musty smell from jars?
A. If jars and bottles that are to be used for preserving have a musty, disagreeable odor, fill them with cold water in which soda has been dissolved. This will soon freshen them. Wash in hot water and suds, rinse well, and they are ready for use.

Q. How can I keep the colors in chintzes from running?

A. An aspirin added to the water in which chintzes and cretonnes are to be laundered will prevent the colors from running, and even improve them.

Q. How can I make cleaning fluid odorless?
A. Add a few drops of oil of sassafras to each quart of fluid used in cleaning clothes. This will deodorize it and entirely remove any disagreeable odor from the garment after the cleaning.

Q. How can I get rid of moths in rugs?
A. If the rugs are sponged frequently with hot water to which a little turpentine has been added, moths will not remain long in the rugs. This treatment also brightens the colors of the rugs.

Q. How can I prevent tooth decay?
A. A pinch of baking soda used on the toothbrush as a dentifrice will act as a preventive to decay of the teeth.

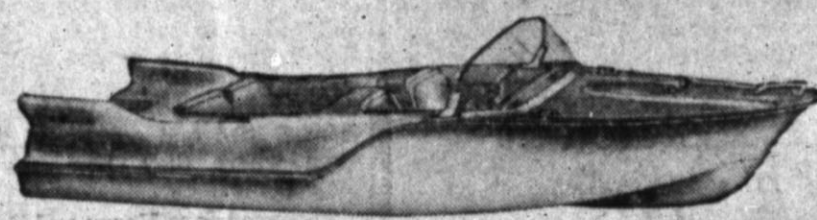

Q. How can I improve the looks of an umbrella that is beginning to look shabby?
A. Open it and wash it with a brush dipped in ammonia water. Rinse under the shower or with a hose. Open to dry.

Former Resident Reassigned As Dallas Minister

At the close of the 94th session of the North Texas Annual Conference held in Dallas recently, Bishop William C. Martin appointed Rev. Noel Bryant as pastor of the Oak Cliff Methodist Church in Dallas for the sixth consecutive time.

A native of Hereford, Rev. Bryant is the president of the Dallas Pastors Association, chairman of the board of Directors of the Methodist Student Movement, vice president of the Dallas Board of Church Extension and member of the executive committee of the Greater Dallas Council of Churches. He also holds many important posts on committees in the North Texas Conference.

Mrs. Dale Hinds

Miss Hall Weds Ptc. Dale Hinds

Miss Mary Hall became the bride of Ptc. Dale Hinds in Lawton, Okla., on Wednesday, June 10. Mr. Robert Lyles, pastor of the Lawton Church of Christ, performed the double ring ceremony, with only the attendants as guests.

The bride wore a white, accordion-pleated jersey street length dress, trimmed with rhinestone clips at the shoulders. A white net stole trimmed in lace and matching white accessories completed her attire.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hall of Pelham, N. Y. She is a graduate of Pelham High School and was employed by Consolidated Edison Electric Company in New York before her marriage.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. J. H. Hinds and the late Mrs. Hinds of Hereford. He is a graduate of Hereford High School and attended West Texas State College for two and one-half years before entering the Army. He has served about one year and is assigned to Public Relations duty.

The couple is at home at 5 South 14th Street, Lawton, Okla., while he is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla.

Veal rump, loin and shoulder are all suitable for oven roasting.

Miss Nancy Mauk United With Arvel L. English

The First Baptist Church of Dimmitt was the scene of the wedding of Miss Nancy Lee Mauk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mauk, and Arvel Leon English, son of Mrs. Otis English of Earth, on June 12.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. George Britton, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dexter, N. M., before an afch covered with huckleberry and emerald greenery, flanked by candelabra and baskets of gladioli. The bridal aisle was marked by lighted tapers.

Pat Norris, soloist, was accompanied by Miss Sandra Leeth, organist, who also played the traditional wedding music.

Mrs. Richard Bills of Sunnyside was matron of honor and Miss Aundrea Booth served as honor maid. They wore dresses of coral organza over taffeta featuring fitted waists and full skirts, and carried bouquets of white carnations. Ringbearer was Teresa Barnes and Roxane Dameron of Claude was flower girl. Candles were lighted by Lonnie English, brother of the bridegroom, and Svanie Branscum of Earth.

Richard Bills of Sunnyside was best man with Earl Branscum acting as groomsman. Ushers were Donald Renfro of Hereford and Gaylord Latham of Earth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The molded bodice featured a portrait neckline and brief sleeves complemented by matching lace gauntlets. The voluminous skirt of tulle, styled with overskirt of lace, was attached to the bodice by a midriff holding a center bow in the back. A half hat of lace and pearls held her fingertip veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony. Members of the houseparty were Verna Brown, Peggy Gilbreath, Sahmye Moore, Janie McDermitt, Karen Gray, Carole Cowser, Mrs. Keith Lowe and Mona Dell Hunter.

The bride is a graduate of Dimmitt High School and Mauk graduated from Springlake High School. They both plan to enter Draughton's Business College in September.

Following a wedding trip to Colorado Springs and other points in Colorado, the couple will reside at 2211 29th St. Lubbock.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding was Mrs. J. L. Mauk of Hereford, grandmother of the bride.

As The Cards Lie

Master point night at the Hereford Duplicate Bridge club saw eight tables of players competing for points, including pairs from Farwell and Texico. Mrs. Don Shipley and Mrs. Terry Kirby won first place. Don Shipley and Terry Kirby won second. Lucille Posey and Laura Milburn placed third.

Don and Terry won a good result with today's hand by being the only pair in a three no trump contract. With the favorable opening of the 6 of spades, five was made for a top of the board. The remainder of the field are playing the hand at five clubs, making five. In duplicate, minor suits should be avoided whenever possible. Experts in tournament play will play only about one game out of forty in a minor. Most hands that will produce 5 of a minor will also make 3 N. T. with a chance for that all-important overtrick. Many methods of super-scientific bidding could be shown, but we prefer the simplest and best — 1 N. T. — 3 N. T.
