Candidates are doing their last-minute talking, the final books of matches are being passed out, the last few cards are being handed to voters in one of the most interesting election years ever seen. Now, it's up to the voters to look over the qualifications and decide which is the best man for each office.

We believe every person in Hereford should turn out Thursday afternoon at 4 p. m. to back the Hereford High baseball team. Clean - Up Campaign For Hereford Slated May 9-14

A never-ending battle against enemies of dirt, filth and neglect will be intensified in Hereford next week. Monday marks the opening of Clean Up, Fix Up, Paint Up Week in the city. It will last through Saturday, May 13.

On Saturday, large window posters, streamers and stickers will be distributed in downtown areas as a constant reminder of the clean-up activities just ahead.

Heading the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce civic affairs committee clean-up efforts this year is Al Yeager.

Next week is the time residents are asked to band together to spruce up the city. In particular, they are urged to clean their homes of possible fire hazards, to brighten up and repair their homes and to shine up yards and alleys.

City of Hereford will cooperate in the effort by using all possible men and trucks to haul off rubbish and debris from residential and business alleys. "Don't try to put all your extra trash in regular garbage cans," city manager Dudley Bayne cautioned. "Pile it in the alley near your garbage can if it is in large pieces. Otherwise use extra boxes and containers."

Officially designating the week, Hereford Mayor Woody Wilson has proclaimed May 9-14 as "Clean Up, Fix Up, Paint Up Week in Hereford."

Mayor Wilson pointed out that the aims of the campaign aid everyone: prevention of fire, safeguarding health, promotion of safety, building the ideals of good citizenship and improvement of property.

"In asking the cooperation of every citizen, I remind you that this is the time to take stock of our community appearance. Last winter's ice storm damaged many trees, and not all this debris has been cleared off. If everyone—homeowner, retailer, industrialist, and government—puts forth an all-out effort, our community will retain and increase its reputation as a progressive city—one that is a safe, beautiful and healthy place in which to live," Wilson said.

City Approves Conference Trip

Expect Record Turn-Out For Democratic Primary May 7

A record parade of voters to the polls for the Democratic primary on Saturday, May 7, was forecast this week after absentee ballots shattered all previous marks. Polls will open at 8 A.M. and close at 7 P.M.

The County Clerk's office in Deaf Smith County received 108 absentee ballots before the deadline Tuesday evening. A representative said this was the highest number of advance votes ever cast in the county.

Set Precinct Convention And Polling Places

In addition to holding a primary, Deaf Smith County Democrats will conduct precinct conventions at 10 polling places Saturday.

Republicans in the county will hold three precinct conventions Saturday, but will hold no primary, it was announced by Kenneth Rudd, chairman of county Republicans.

Democratic conventions will be held at the following precinct voting places:

Precinct 1, Aikman School, at 8 p. m.; Precinct 2, Stanton Junior High School, 8 p. m.; Precinct 3, R. W. Mitchell residence, at 1:30 p. m.; Precinct 4, Simms Community House, at 1:30 p. m.; Precinct 5, Ford Community House, at 1:30 p. m.; Precinct 6, Dawn School House, at 1:30 p. m.; Precinct 7, Garcia Community House, at 1:30 p. m.; Precinct 8, Bippus Community House, at 1:30 p. m.; Precinct 9, Daniel School House, at 1:30 p. m.; and Precinct 11, Central School, at 8 p. m.

Republican conventions will be held at the following precincts: Precinct 1, Curtis Teague residence, 2 p. m.; Precinct 2, Hereford Community Center, 3 p. m.; and Precinct 11, First Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, 3 p. m.

Both parties will hold County Conventions on May 14. The Democrats will hold their convention at 2:30 p. m. in the Stanton Junior High School building, according to L. H. Woodford, county Democratic chairman. The Republican county convention will be held at 3 p. m. in Hereford Community Center.

Rudd said all interested persons, regardless of party affiliation, are invited to attend G. O. P. conventions.

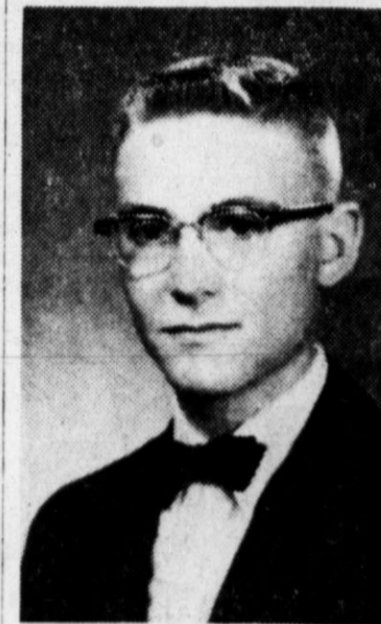

No one will be allowed to take part in a Democratic precinct convention unless he has a poll tax receipt which has been (Continued on Page 3)

While state and regional contests are drawing attention in Texas, most conversation this week locally centered on county and district races. Saturday will mark a "first" in Texas, where primary elections had always been held the last Saturday in July. A change in state law moved the first primary up more than two months.

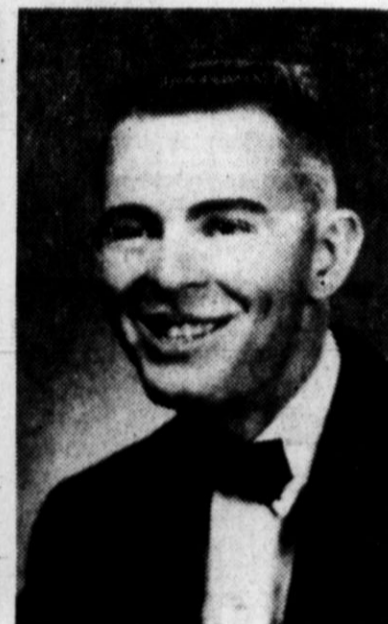

In another change, all poll taxes will be stamped "Democratic" by election judges. Presentation of the stamped poll tax is necessary to participate in the Democratic precinct and county conventions.

Due to crowded conditions at the courthouse, voting boxes for Precincts 1 and 2 will be moved to new locations. Precinct 1 will vote at Aikman Elementary School and Precinct 2 will vote at Stanton Junior High School.

In the more localized races, the most sought-after office is that of county commissioner of Precinct 1, with six candidates. They include C. C. Bowman, William S. Dameron, W. H. Andrews, F. W. Dool, A. N. Hopson and Charles R. Sowell, in (Continued on page 7)

With plans to major in engineering, Meacham will enroll in Texas Tech in Lubbock this fall. He is president of the newly-organized National Honor Society chapter of Hereford High. (Continued on page 3)

Girl Arrested After 110-mph Chase Tuesday

A 17-year-old Castro County girl was apprehended by Hereford Police Tuesday night following a 110 mile-per-hour chase east of Hereford on Highway 60.

The eight-mile chase started at the intersection of Highway 60 and Main St. at 10:32 p. m. The 1959 model automobile the girl was driving was stopped by two city squad cars, driven by Hereford Police Sgt. Luther Bartlett and patrolman Don Metcalf.

Patrolman Metcalf said he started pursuing the girl's car when the girl disregarded a stop light at the Highway 60-Main St. intersection. He estimated that the car was travelling at about 70 miles per hour at that time.

Sgt. Bartlett said he joined the chase at the Highway 60-Park Ave. intersection. The girl's car was travelling at about 80 miles per hour at the east city limits, the officers estimated.

The girl pulled over to the side of the highway when her car was boxed in between the two squad cars, one in front and the other behind, after the pursuit had reached speeds up to 110 miles per hour, Sgt. Bartlett said.

After the girl refused to answer questions during interrogation at police headquarters in Hereford, she was placed in juvenile quarters at Randall County Jail in Canyon. A wench truck towed the girl's car to Hereford as the officers felt the car was not operable, as result of excessive speeds reached. The girl reportedly is on juvenile probation in Castro County. She was cited for speeding in Hereford Monday night, Metcalf said.

Dedication Sunday For New Temple Baptist Auditorium

Patrol Sergeant Assumes Duties

Sgt. R. W. Sosebee began duties as head of the Hereford unit, Texas Highway Patrol, Sunday.

Sgt. Sosebee succeeds Sgt. Dan Duggan, head of the local unit for the past two years, who was transferred to the Conroe Highway Patrol office in Montgomery County April 15.

A veteran of law enforcement work for 12 years, Sgt. Sosebee has been stationed in Abilene as a patrol sergeant for the past six years. Six years prior to that time he was stationed with the Dalhart Highway Patrol.

He is married and has three children. His family will move to Hereford later this month.

Dedication ceremonies for the new $65,000 semi-modern addition to the Temple Baptist Church will be held during an all-day program at the church Sunday. The church is located at the corner of Forrest St. and Ave. K.

General contractor for the addition was D. C. Miller of Hereford. Ground was broken at the site last June 14, according to the Rev. Robert Laecwell, pastor.

Messages during the opening day activities will be delivered by the Rev. Argus Burnett, Superintendent of missions, Amarillo Baptist Association; the Rev. Russel Pogue, First Baptist Church of Petersburg; and Wayne Evans, business manager of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth.

The new construction was annexed to the church's education unit. Included in the addition are four nursery departments, a pastor study, a young peoples' department, two junior departments, a department for young couples and an auditorium which will seat more than 400.

A portion of the addition houses the pastor study and departments for young people and young married couples. This portion measures 15 by 56 feet.

The auditorium is 52 by 73 feet, and the remaining 52 by 109 foot space in the masonry-brick building houses the other departments.

Youth Receives Minor Injuries

A 14-year-old boy, Ricky Wayne Hassell, who lives near Black Community, was released from Deaf Smith County Hospital Monday morning after receiving minor injuries when he was struck by an automobile in Hereford Sunday afternoon.

The youngster, although he received only minor abrasions and scratches, was held overnight at the hospital. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hassell, who live about six miles southeast of Black.

Investigating Hereford Police patrolman Don Metcalf said the boy was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Sherry Mitchell Reese, 22, of Amarillo, when he attempted to cross the street on W. Third, 10 feet west of Main St.

The car was headed west on Third and the boy darted out between parked cars to the north, Metcalf said. The accident was investigated at 4:47 p. m.

The Hassell boy was taken to the hospital by Marcum-Scott ambulance. Damage to the 1960 model car was estimated at $10 by the investigating officer. No ticket was issued.

Man Injured In Fight Tuesday

Condition of Rolando Longoria, 22 of Hereford was reported as "good" at Deaf Smith County Hospital Wednesday morning following an altercation which occurred outside the Tasty Drive Inn Cafe, 732 W. First St., Tuesday night.

The affray, which occurred about 11 p. m., reportedly involved two white youths and two Latin-American men, Hereford police said.

Charged in connection with the altercation early Wednesday morning were: Honer Castro, 22, of Hereford, charged with affray and disturbance; and Jimmy Billington, 19, of Elk City, Okla., and Buddy Emmert, 17, of Lubbock, both charged with affray and disturbance and investigation of aggravated assault.

Two other Latin-American youths were believed to have been involved in the incident, but had not been arrested Wednesday morning. The three youths charged were taken into custody of police early Wednesday morning.

Longoria received a possible head injury, attending physician at the hospital reported Wednesday. Longoria was taken to the hospital by Marcum-Scott ambulance.

Set $100 Fine On DWI Charge

A fine of $100 and court costs plus five days in Deaf Smith County Jail was assessed against Jose Virginio Lucero, 29, of Antunichico, N. M., Monday after he pleaded guilty to charge of driving while intoxicated, first offense, in County Court.

Lucero was arrested at 8:15 p. m. Saturday at First and Main streets. Arrest was made by Hereford Police patrolman Don Metcalf. County Judge Homer Henslee presided in court.

Herd Seeking Tie In League Finale

Definite underdogs, Hereford's Whiteface baseball team will be aiming for a tie for first place Thursday afternoon at 4 p. m.

The Levelland Lobos, undefeated in District 1-AAA diamond play, will invade Whiteface Field for the crucial game. Hereford stands at 2-1 in the conference, with two wins over Dumas and a loss to Levelland. The Lobos are 2-0, with victories at home over both Dumas and Hereford.

In the abbreviated, three-team league, Levelland finishes up this week with road games at Hereford and Saturday at Dumas. The Demons, with an 0-3 slate, are out of contention.

If Hereford can whip the Lobos, it would give them a 3-1 record for the route and a tie for the district championship, which is now owned by Levelland. In the event both Hereford and Dumas should win this weekend from the hard-hitting Lobos, Hereford would have outright possession of the loop title.

With only Thursday's game left on the regular schedule, Hereford also will be looking for a victory to close out on a winning season. Currently the Herd is 7-7 for the entire schedule.

The morning's program will begin at 9:30 with registration of guests. After 9:45 a.m. Vistors will be recognized at 11:05. The Rev. Burnett will deliver his message at 11:32 a.m., and lunch will be served at the church beginning at 12:05 p.m.

A song service will be held at 2 p.m., and a special music program will begin at 2:15. The Rev. Pogue will speak at 2:20 p.m., and committees will be recognized at 2:50 p.m. to conclude afternoon activity.

After 7 p.m. Training Union, the evening service begins at 8 p.m., with Wayne Evans as visiting speaker.

The Council on Alcoholism is Levelland. Marcontell has started and finished all three district contests this season. Last Saturday he shut-out Dumas on two hits, both singles.

Also expected to start for Hereford will be: Wes Poarch, catcher; Charlie Burrus, first base; John Buck or Greg Combs, second base; Jimmy Collier, shortstop; Edwin Thomas, third base; Charlie Thomas, Ronnie Botkin, Wakley Northcutt or Dan McDowell, outfield.

Levelland hurler is expected to be Roy Sage or Jimmy Harris. Sage handcuffed Hereford on a three-hitter to win the first meeting 7-1 at Levelland.

If Levelland can beat Hereford, the conference would end up as it did in 1959 with the Lobos in first place, Hereford in second and Dumas third.

a newly-organized educational group, and is neither 'wet' nor 'dry', Hardwick explained. "We are interested in helping those who drink and want to stop, and we feel that Aycock could direct many problem drinkers to the Hereford Alcoholics Anonymous group for help. The study meeting would give him the knowledge he would need to help the problem drinker in this way."

Hardwick told the commissioners that plans are to have Deaf Smith County as well as Hereford represented at the conference. He said the council on Alcoholism hopes to secure attendance of the county judge, county welfare coordinator and the county sheriff-elect at the meeting.

He pointed out that the Committee spent about two years compiling facts and interviewing various agencies and persons prior to the widely-publicized hearings.

"Everybody cooperated with us very well," he said. "We received splendid assistance from all law enforcement agencies in Amarillo."

He pointed out that he had never talked to any of the principle witnesses until they appeared before the Committee in hearings.

"We did not know until we walked into that room that the hearings would be televised," he pointed out.

"When we have a deficiency in our laws and enforcement, we must correct it," he advised. "Let's not sit on our

When You Cast Your Ballot for Sheriff . . . THINK OF THESE THINGS

Not so many years ago, the sheriff of a small Texas county was apt to be a likeable, easy-going man with no particular qualification for his job other than his personal popularity. He usually found it more important to be well liked than to properly enforce the law. With the increase in population and changing conditions, the office of Sheriff of Deaf Smith County is now one that demands the undivided full-time attention and efforts of a man of long experience in the handling of criminal matters; a man of proven ability with specialized training in the field of criminal investigation and detection. Friends of L. R. CHERRYHOMES submit that when you cast your vote for him in the Saturday Primary Election you will be voting for - - -

- More Than 20 Years Experience in Law Enforcement.
  - Proven Ability as A Devoted Officer.
  - Specialized Training . . . Mr. Cherryhomes is a graduate of the Institute of Applied Sciences, Chicago, Ill., in a course in the most advanced methods of Criminal Detection and Identification. His completed course of study includes, among other things, finger-printing, police photography and handwriting identification. For many years, as a police captain, chief of detectives, and later as a deputy sheriff, he has made an intensive effort, at his own expense, to keep abreast of developments in the field of law enforcement. An elaborate system of records, and the exchange of information with other enforcement agencies, is an indispensable function of the modern sheriff's department. Communications, courtroom procedure, jail security, preservation and preparation of evidence for trial presentation, service of process, an interest in juvenile matters, and an understanding of the migratory labor problems, all are important in proper enforcement. Mr. Cherryhomes, after long years of their use, is familiar with these tools.
  - He is a man who knows how to select men who are qualified in every respect for the job and how to oversee their work.
  - He is a man who enjoys the respect and cooperation of all peace officers with whom he has ever worked.
  - He is a man of good character and unquestioned integrity. Not once in his career has he ever been accused of a single unfair, unethical, or dishonest act.
  - He does not have and will not have any business or farming sidelines if you can see fit to promote him from Deputy Sheriff to Sheriff of Deaf Smith County.
- CHERRYHOMES' PROMISE TO YOU is a full-time, sincere, conscientious devotion to his job; complete cooperation with all peace enforcement agencies; economical, business-like administration of the office, and impartial enforcement of law without respect to personalities.

TO THE VOTERS of DEAF SMITH COUNTY

The friends of Lowell Sharp urge you to cast your vote for Lowell Sharp for the office of Sheriff on Saturday:

Lowell R. Sharp

1. We know him to be qualified.

2. He is honest. He was honest in resigning when he thought his personal business would interfere with his official business.

3. He has assured his friends that he will devote all of his time to the office of sheriff, if elected, and that his business will not require any part of his time during his tenure of office and that he will not permit it to do so and will not resign under any circumstances, if elected.

4. Lowell Sharp has been a resident and taxpayer of this county for 14 years.

Dumas Loses Pitchers' Duel 4-0

Hereford used its four hits to good advantage in shutting out Dumas 4-0 at Whiteface Field Saturday afternoon.

For the most part, it was a pitchers' duel between Donnie Marcontell and Don Cariker. Marcontell allowed just two hits in the game, both singles by Cariker, who gave up four hits, two of them doubles.

The win gave Hereford its chance for a conference tie in Thursday's game with the league-leading Levelland Lobos. The Herd stands 2-1, while Levelland is 2-0 and Dumas is out of the race with a 0-3 record.

Both pitchers had no-hit, no-run games through the first three innings. In the top of the fourth, Cariker dumped a Texas League single into short right field for the Demons' first hit. He was later picked off first base.

In the last of the fourth, Hereford scored in a wild melee. Jim Collier was safe on an error as the first baseman pulled his foot off the bag stretching for the throw. Collier went to second on a passed ball, stole third and came in on another error.

Hereford got its first hit of the game in the fifth inning, when Dan McDowell hit a sharp single into center field. Cariker got Dumas' second hit in the top of the sixth with a single past second base. But again he was erased, this time trying to steal second.

Hereford increased its narrow lead with a three-run outburst in the last of the sixth. John Buck led off with a double and was singled in by Collier. With one out, Marcontell walked. With two outs, both runners scored on a double by Charlie Burrus.

Although hampered at times by control problems, Marcontell turned in a neat two-hitter. He struck out 11 while walking five. This upped his record to 5-2 for the season.

Cariker gave up four hits, struck out nine and walked three. Catcher Bill Shaha was charged with one passed ball for Dumas. The Demons committed three errors, two by Shaha and one by shortstop Larry Tiner. Hereford had two miscues, both by Edwin Thomas.

Two sparkling plays by second baseman highlighted defensive work in the game. John Buck managed to knock down Royce Taylor's hard smash in the fourth inning. He dug the ball out of the dirt and threw to first in time to get the runner. Demon second sacker David Harjo pulled the same type play later in the game.

Joe Shreve Commended As 'Most Cooperative'

Joe Shreve, formerly of Hereford and now living at Cal Farley's nationally famous Boys Ranch near Amarillo, was recently commended as being "the most industrious and cooperative boy on the Ranch".

Snake Season Is Back Again

AUSTIN. "Beware of snakes." This is the report coming in from game wardens all over the state, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission, E. M. Sprott. With the advent of warm weather, the snake movement has begun throughout the State.

There are four kinds of poisonous snakes in Texas. They are the moccasin, copperhead, coral snake and the rattler," he said. "Naturally, the moccasins are found around water; the copperheads like cool places around old rock piles, barns and stacks of old lumber; coral snakes also are found around old tree stumps, under vines and shrubs; the rattler likely will be found most any place. Many of them are killed crossing highways.

"Because there are so many non-poisonous snakes many persons may take a chance. For instance, near Rockport recently a group of school children found a snake swimming along the beach. They stuffed it in a bag, believing it to be a harmless hogsnose. Later, however, it developed the snake was a massasauga rattler.

"Many of the harmless snakes have value as mice catchers and should not be molested." In fact, the director warns, it is best to leave all snakes alone, except to kill off the poisonous ones.

thing he does has made him one of the Ranch's outstanding young men.

"Joe is particularly fond of animals and has a protective feeling for all of them. Although his favorites among the Ranch livestock are apt to be changed from time to time, his current interest is chickens. He enjoys feeding them and gathering their eggs, and although there are only a few on the Ranch, he likes to raise baby chicks.

"The former Hereford boy also takes an active interest in the Boys Ranch non-sectarian Chapel, attending the Sunday services and mid-week Bible classes regularly.

"According to his dorm parents, Joe is a real outdoor boy and his big problem is trying to find enough spare time away from his classes and regular chores to be with the chickens or pigs.

"Joe's dorm parents say they are not sure what the boy's next interest will be but they are sure he will give it all he's got and will make a success of his undertaking.

"They are proud of Joe and so can the people of Hereford and Texas be proud of this fine young man who is becoming such an outstanding credit to his hometown and Boys Ranch".

Stilbestrol Implants For Calves Tested In Experimental Program

Balmorhea. — Choice Hereford steer calves implanted with 12 milligrams of stilbestrol when approximately three months of age averaged 19 pounds more per steer at weaning time than their non-implanted mates. Too, A. A. Melton, animal husbandman, at the Trans-Pecos Experiment Station, Balmorhea, said the implanted calves had an advantage in condition which was reflected in a slightly higher grade.

Forty-one choice Hereford steer calves were implanted in the test. The implanted calves weighed 521 pounds per head at weaning time, about Oct. 1, 1959, compared with 502 pounds for those not receiving the implant of 12 milligrams of stilbestrol, Melton said.

In continuing the comparison, one group implanted as suckling calves was reimplanted with 24 milligrams of stilbestrol on Nov. 19. This group showed a daily gain of 1.12 pounds from Nov. 19, 1959 to Feb. 24, 1960.

Another group, first implanted in November, had a gain of 1.16 pounds daily. The group implanted only as suckling calves in May had a daily gain of 1.00 pound and those not implanted at any time gained 1.03 pounds daily, Melton said.

The steers will be placed in drylot for fattening about in May and implants again used to provide comparisons between 3, 2, 1 and no implants, respectively. The steers are expected to reach slaughter weights by August or September.

OFF THE Shelf

By H. A. TUCK

A trans-Atlantic passenger ship is nothing more than a floating luxury hotel, filled with all types of people.

Leviathan by Warren Tute is the novel of such a ship. Built in England as the largest vessel afloat, it was a killer before its launching. But it also became the swankiest of ships in the frantic pre-war days of the late 1930's.

Sir Josiah Flint, chairman of the Transoceanic Steamship Company, ordered her built as a crowning touch for his struggle from the bottom to the very top of the heap.

Another death, before her maiden voyage, but bluff, bearded Captain Basil Bellerophon Banks in command. He ran the ship according to the precepts of the Bible, which was never far from his hand.

A gamble gave beautiful Susan Spicer a job on the Leviathan. In a newly-created position, she found she had only her ambition and her intelligence to guide her. Susan, through her job, escaped from the narrow world of her parents into a wide area of adventure, responsibility and romance.

There are many other memorable characters aboard and around the Leviathan: Mr. Mott the Purser, Llewellyn the steward, Johnson the bartender, officer Charles Beecher, Fabian and others.

After a good season on the North Atlantic run, the Leviathan took on an assorted group of passengers for an around-the-world cruise. It included such odd happenings as a crew rebellion, a suicide and sundry romances.

With the opening of World War II, Leviathan was stripped of her plush equipment and made into a vast troop transport. With her speed, she received no escorts through the submarines and mines that plagued shipping.

So far as possible, as Thor Tute has explained the inner workings of a mammoth ship and of her crew. Leviathan is an absorbing book, filled with the tales of a world of luxury which has all but disappeared in the post-war world of high taxes.

Hereford Student New Cadet Officer

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

To Voter: 'Speak Now Or Forever Hold Your Peace'

By VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN. — Saturday is "speak now or forever hold your peace" day in Texas.

Or, to say the least, the voter who does not express an opinion at the polls and precinct conventions this week should hold his peace about what happens in Texas during the next two years.

A number of important decisions as to office holders will be made Saturday. Once made, they're final — for two years or even four years.

At this point in the campaigns, almost all candidates and their supporters believe that if there is a big enough turnout Saturday, their side will win handily. And those who aren't pleased with the way things turn out likely will blame it on those who don't bother to show up.

Equally as important as the primaries are the precinct conventions to be held the same day. This is the only means by which the individual voter can participate in the selection of the presidential nominee.

New highway signs, bigger and more colorful than any used before, will begin appearing soon on the interstate highways in Texas.

Highway Commission has ordered the posting of route markers and guide signs on 707 miles of interstate highway now completed or under construction in the state.

Conspicuously absent in this marking system will be stop signs. Completion of the 41,000-mile system of controlled access roads will make possible coast-to-coast and border-to-border driving without a stop sign or traffic light.

Motorists soon will become familiar with the interstate marker — a red, white and blue shield. Texas Highway Department designed the shield which later was adopted for the entire national system.

All markers and guide signs will be larger than usual. Advance exit signs will be placed about two miles ahead of interchanges to give motorists plenty of time to plan their next move.

Guide signs will have white letters and symbols on a green background, and signs for rest and service areas will have green letters on a reflectorized white background. Warning and yield signs will remain in the familiar yellow and black but will grow in dimensions.

Texas leads the nation in the number of miles of interstate highways completed and under way. Texas' allotment is 3,033 miles of which 697 are finished and 259 are in some stage of progress.

Texas is spending a smaller proportion of its tax revenue on education now than it did 10 years ago.

This statement was issued by the Texas State Teachers Association in support of its drive for enactment of the Hale-Aikin program for school improvement. In 1958-59, says the report, Texas spent 29.67 cents of each tax dollar for public school education. In the last completed school year the percentage was 27.68 cents of each dollar.

During that period public school spending more than doubled — from $156,000,000 to $322,000,000 — to keep pace with a 51 per cent increase in students and 49 per cent increase in teachers. But spending for other purposes increased faster.

Gov. Price Daniel again has said that he would like to call a special session after the elections to erase the deficit and raise teachers' pay. But he also said it would depend on getting agreement from legislators.

When everything is finally cleared up, the state will come out with a profit of $50,000 — perhaps more — on land involved in the Veterans Land Board scandals.

This prediction was made by Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn who called $50,000 a "conservative figure."

He said that $1,725,000 has already been recovered from fraudulent land deals and that $1,679,000 more is outstanding but fully secured.

When the entire $3,404,000 is recovered said Allcorn, the

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Graduation Exercise Means Fine Reward

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18th DISTRICT

In only a few weeks more than 3,000 young Americans will graduate from High Schools in the 18th Congressional District. Some of them will begin careers immediately while others continue their education at college and universities all over the nation.

But whatever their future plans and ambitions, the day when these young men and women are handed their diplomas is a proud one not only for the students themselves, but also for the parents and teachers who have done so much to ensure that an education means understanding as well as knowledge.

Here in Washington, I am always reminded of our High School graduations as thousands of students from across the United States arrive for class visits. As they walk through the Capitol building and see the Congress in session, it will be only a few months until they begin to accept the responsibility for furthering the heritage which was in considerable part forged in that very building.

I trust that none of them ignores the fact that this heritage which has made America so strong and free, is not something which was completed before their time. It is true that the basic groundwork was laid almost 200 years ago and that many significant advances have been made since.

Nevertheless, the opportunities and even the necessities for building the American ideal are just as demanding in 1960 as they were in 1776. After receiving their High School diplomas, our young people will confront a world which demands the utmost in precise thinking and resolute action. While our forefathers began a nation with the powderhorn, plow, and axe, people of today and tomorrow will continue the process with tools a thousands times more complex.

This complexity should not frighten these young people, for within it lies the potential for great good. They should be aware that the potential for great harm is also there, and their efforts can be directed against that harm.

In addition to this, I hope that the prospective graduates will remember that democracy is the most difficult of all possible forms of government. There is a trend in our nation to leisure and comfort, and it makes us happy that more and more are reaping the benefits of our phenomenal advances.

The processes of our government can never become as simple and as carefree as many other facets of life. The leadership in the United States cannot summarily carry out this or that measure without taking into account the interests of millions.

This usually requires time, and even the revolution which has occurred in our communications system has not overcome the lengthy consideration which must be applied to most of our decisions. Many of us become impatient with the delays which surround much governmental action.

A smoother-running and more responsive government depends to a great extent upon a well-informed people, and I think the students who are about to graduate from high schools all over the Panhandle will play a major role in this regard.

With twelve years of a fine education behind them, these

A Hereford man was among the 80 graduates of the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary, Mill Valley, Calif., who were awarded degrees at commencement exercises April 29, according to a release from the seminary.

Jimmy Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Harrison of Hereford, received the bachelor of divinity degree from the seminary, located just across the Golden Gate Bridge from San Francisco. He plans to pursue further theological studies and Texas Supreme Court has returned to district court for re-trial a case involving a $100,000 mistake in arithmetic. An employe of an Arlington contractor made the error in submitting a bid of $534,175 instead of $634,226 to the local school board for a school building job. After the bid was accepted by the board, the contractor discovered the error and refused to carry out the contract.

Board then awarded the bid to the second low bidder and sued the first contractor for the $36,278 difference between the second low bid and the bid they had first accepted.

Supreme Court members disagreed on the case, wrote three different opinions, but all agreed it should be re-tried.

State Building Commission is awaiting an attorney general's opinion before putting in sidewalks to the new state buildings.

Reason for the precaution is that the Legislature passed a bill in 1957 stating that nothing—absolutely nothing—could be built on the Capitol grounds without specific permission from the Legislature. And the Legislature did not provide for sidewalks.

Another question under consideration by the attorney general's department is "who owns rights to the minerals under county roads."

Request for an opinion was submitted by Jack Cook, county attorney of Kleberg County.

Ultimately to be decided is whether state and local government can claim the right to mineral development of the right of way of some 228,000 miles of streets and highways in Texas.

youngsters are well prepared to grapple with the far-reaching and often confusing problems of an adult democratic society and sound government. The graduation exercises will mean a fine reward to those who have worked and studied for what to them seems so long a time. To me, however, commencement always symbolizes the constant striving of people for a better understanding of our world—a striving which is the hallmark of democratic government.

Several distinguished visitors from the Panhandle were Washington visitors last week and we appreciated seeing them.

Mrs. Henry Ford from Matador was visiting friends in the area and came by the office, as did Mr. Clay Cooper of Canyon and Mr. Russell Porter from Dalhart, who were in town on business.

The annual National 4-H Club Conference was held in the Nation's Capital last week for which the State of Texas sent four delegates. To be selected is a great honor and we were mighty proud of the fact that two of the four are from the 18th Congressional District, Miss Judy Dawson of Tulia and Mr. Pete Plank from Dawn were wonderful emissaries of the Panhandle and for Texas, and we certainly appreciated them and their outstanding records.

Mr. N. F. Renner of Spearman, Mrs. Doris Vaughn and Mr. George W. Jones from Amarillo, Mr. Emory Elkins from Tulia, Mr. Horace Smith from Miami, and Mr. Frank Weil of Hale Center were here attending the National Federation of Grain Cooperatives and thoughtfully dropped by the office for a visit.

Mr. R. B. Norman, Principal of Amarillo High School came by the office and we appreciated seeing and visiting with him.

NEW YORK (AP)—Small church-related colleges should resist the trend toward "bigness" if they are to be effective, says the Rev. Dr. David H. Bremer, chaplain of Muhlenberg College, of Allentown, Pa. He writes in the current issue of "The Lutheran," weekly of the United Lutheran church, that "in this age of big organizations and big institutions, people are, tempted to emphasize quantity at the expense of quality. 'Deaf' Smith Says

To: The Spirit of Sam Houston
From: The Spirit of Scout Erastus "Deaf" Smith
Subject: Tourist and Convention Promotion
Sam, I was right surprised at the importance of tourist traffic to a town. For instance, do you know that if 25 tourists stay in a town each night it is the equivalent of an industry with a $100,000 annual payroll?

In Hereford there are about 150 hotel and motel rooms. If, conservatively, we figure that we have an average of 60 percent occupancy throughout the year, even if we allow just one to a room, that is an average of 90 or an equivalent of nearly a half million dollar per year pay roll.

This information was reported by Fred Phelps, head of the Tourist Bureau of New Mexico, at the convention of boosters of Highway 60.

The annual meeting of the National U. S. Highway 60 Association was held in Springerville, Ariz., a community of approximately 2,000. Springerville is the first town in Arizona after leaving New Mexico and the tourist traffic coming to it on Highway 60 is a vital part of its economy.

Located in the beautiful White Mountains, this whole area including the small cities of Springerville, Show Low, Alpine McNary and Eagar are at an altitude too high for farming. There is some ranching in the area and a considerable lumbering industry; but tourists are their main industry.

Mountain lakes and streams, well stocked with trout, beckon the fisherman who likes to rough it. Hunting brings others to the area in the fall season.

As a part of the convention we were taken on a drive through a portion of the national forest south of Springerville. On this trip, which reached an elevation of over 9,000 feet, we saw wild turkey, deer, elk, and many other species of wild life.

Mountains in the area rise to over 10,000 feet and were snow-capped even this late. Area residents say that even in the middle of summer temperatures in this area remain cool.

The delegates from Hereford, Guy Lawrence and Bill Thompson, president and secretary of the Texas Division of U. S. Highway 60 Association, Sam Bell, chairman of the Tourist and Convention committee, and Ernest Kendall, active committee worker, were much impressed with the very fine tourist accommodations available in Springerville and the all-out effort made by the people of that area to be the best possible hosts to this convention.

Next time west, Sam, why don't you plan to stop in Springerville—it's just an easy one-day's drive from Hereford—over U. S. 60 of course.

Pampa, Tex. was selected as the site of next year's convention and E. O. Wedgeworth of that city was elected Secretary of the national association. Mr. Bill Huso of Show Low, Ariz., was re-elected president in a unanimous show of appreciation for his efforts in producing the first brochure of Highway 60.

This brochure carries an aerial view of Hereford and a brief paragraph about our city. The brochure will be distributed to travel agencies, Chambers of Commerce, and other tourist service businesses over the country and will be a powerful tool in the promotion of additional traffic over our highway.

The group is now studying the possibility of having a full color movie made of tourist attractions on Highway 60 for showing over television stations and to service clubs and other groups.

All in all, the Hereford delegation returned home more than ever convinced that U. S. 60 is the route to travel from Virginia Beach, Va., to Los Angeles, Calif., for the slogan "There's More to See on 60" is a true one. They returned home challenged to be as good a host to the International Parks Highway Association annual meeting which will be held in Hereford May 19-21st as was Springerville to the 60 group.

Over New York City, 80 percent of all lighting bolts travel up from the spires of tall buildings, not down, because Manhattan is super charged with electricity.

Among other reasons for the current test is that underground cells would be more resistant to enemy attack. (AP Wirephoto)

Soviet Literary Figures Ready Pasternak Answers

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Arts Editor
(ADVANCE) NEW YORK — "What about Pasternak?" If Americans don't seem to tire of asking about the author of "Doctor Zhivago," the Russians don't seem to tire of answering either.

The newest visitors, with the newest answers, are four distinguished writers, plus an interpreter and critic, now here as guests of the State Department.

Two of them have won Lenin prizes. Two are of peasant origin. One was born in a tent in a remote village in the Gengiz Mountains. One is in his early 40s; the others are older; but even the oldest, white-haired, gentle-spoken Stepan Petrovich Shchipachov, poet and head of the delegation, began to write only in the time of the Communist state, knows nothing firsthand of other kinds of society, and like most men in most societies takes his own pretty much for granted.

They have just stopped in New York in the course of a month-long itinerary which includes Washington; Fresno and Los Angeles, Calif.; Phoenix, New Orleans, and Boston.

Entertained at a P.E.N. writers' club party and in the home of novelist Elizabeth Janeway, they said variously, through their interpreter, that good writers got a living in Russia that was independent of the amount of attention was paid younger writers; that they were free to criticize; that they wished American authors could collect proper royalties on their sales in Russia — conversely, Boris Pasternak apparently pocketed little or nothing from the western world for his best-selling novel "Zhivago"; he declined the Nobel prize and accompanying cash, and no royalties seem to have reached him.

"We accept criticism in our literature," said the poet Shchipachov. "I was recently in charge of the formal, public organization of writers' criticisms of conditions in our country."

"But Pasternak's criticism of the revolutionary years was the sort of thing even you would not allow here. Take the hypothetical case," he suggested. "Suppose an American writer did a book about your Civil War, the war on which your existence depended. Suppose it gave a false picture. You wouldn't allow that work to spread among the people."

Yes, we insisted, we would, we did, but he probably was not persuaded. But there was a more cogent criticism of the Nobel award to Pasternak from Mukhtar Omarhanovich Auevov, novelist from Kazakh, holder of a Lenin prize:

"Why did the Swedes choose Pasternak? There have been great Russian writers whom the Nobel committees ignored. There could have been a Nobel for Tolstoy, but he didn't get one" — first Nobel award was in 1901, Tolstoy died in 1910.

"There could have been one for Maxim Gorki, a writer who was sympathetic to Russian Communism, and approved by our state and people. But he didn't get one. It was not right to honor Pasternak when these great men were passed over."

(This writer remembers Georgi Orvid, manager of the Bolshoi Ballet, complaining on his visit her last year that Pasternak had stuck at his ivory-tower desk during the revolution when other creative Russian souls manned the barricades.) The poet Shchipachov said he began to publish in magazines and papers. At first he wrote on political topics, but realizing he was free to venture in other fields, turned to the lyric forms for which he is now famous.

Seeing the U. S.: Four Russian authors and a critic pass through New York on an American tour sponsored by the State Department. Left to right they are Mukhtar Omarhanovich Auevov, novelist from Kazakh; Sofya Semenovna Krugerskaya, critic and translator; Leonid Maksimovich Leonov, novelist; Stepan Petrovich Shchipachov, poet and head of the delegation; and Aleksandr Terentevich Gonchar, novelist.

Novelist Leonid Maksimovich Leonov — the only one with a smattering of English — became a writer by chance; publishers heard him read a couple of short stories, asked for more, and he has been at it ever since.

The writers, whose work is little known in America, are here to return the official visit of Americans to Russia last year. They were entertained in New York by Alfred Kazin and playwright Paddy Chayevsky, two who had made the trip to Russia; the Authors' League had them at lunch; they went to Columbia University; they attended the theater.

Fourth in the group is the novelist Aleksandr Terentevich

NEW YORK (AP) — Alaskan Eskimos have chipped in to aid American missionary work in Greece, reports the Rev. Spiros Zoghates, general secretary of the American Mission to Greeks, Inc.

After seeing a film, "Men of Macedonia," regarding the Macedonian Bible Institute at Katerini, Greece, several hundred Eskimos pooled their resources to send a donation—and said in a letter they were praying for Greece.

OUT OF THE DARK

NEW YORK (AP) — The sandhog days of Warren Beatty are paying off for the determined young actor.

Beatty, who hails from Richmond, Va., paid for his studies at an acting school here by working as an underground laborer on the recently completed third tube of the Lincoln Tunnel beneath the Hudson River.

That chore completed, Beatty went auditioning for stage roles. He has been signed for a key part in the new William Inge play, "Loss of Roses."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I remove some very light burns from furniture?

A. These will sometimes disappear when rubbed with your usual polish. If not, use rottenstone or finely powdered pumice, mixed to a thin paste with raw or boiled linseed oil. Rub in the direction of the grain. Wipe with another cloth moistened with plain linseed. Repeat a number of times, if necessary, then polish.

Q. How can I make my own earrings to match a certain dress?

A. Purchase two buttons more than you need for your dress and then, with some colorless fingernail polish, fasten these buttons to the base of an old pair of earrings.

Q. How can I open those small, stubborn, hard-to-grip screw-top bottle caps?

A. Keep a nutcracker handy for just such emergencies. It acts as a fine wrench for those bottle tops.

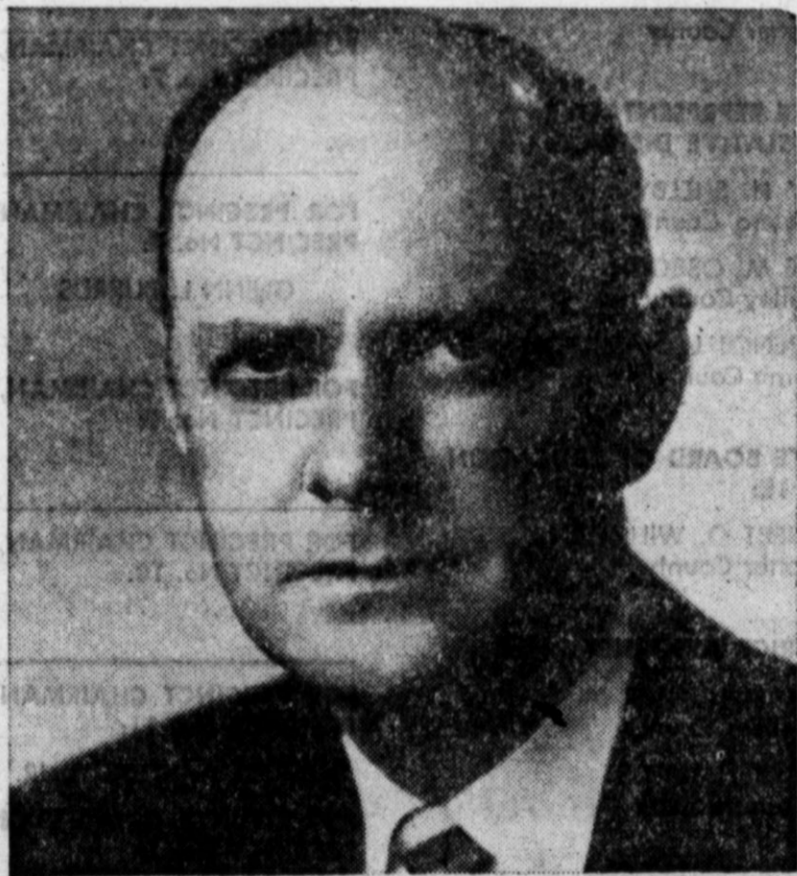

Q. How can I make a good, dead-black, non-glossy paint?

A. By thinning some lampblack with turpentine.

Beauty At Home

Q. Is there something I can do to encourage my stunted eyelashes to grow out a bit?

A. Massage will help lots. Gently rub some odorless castor oil into the roots of the lashes every night, and tug the lashes gently between the first finger and thumb, to stimulate circulation. Make a habit, too, of resting the eyes every evening by lying down with soothing eyepads over them.

Q. What is a good before-breakfast drink that will act as a milk, safe laxative and general toner - upper for the body?

A. Lemon juice, unsweetened, taken every morning in hot water is one of the best!

Q. How can I remove a scorch mark from one of my linen dresses?

A. If not too deeply burned, this treatment might work: Cut raw onion in halves, and rub the flat side of this on the discolored area, then soak the linen in cold water for several hours.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

(Texas' Highest Court In Criminal Cases)

This Court has three elected "Judges" and two "Commissioners" appointed by the Judges to sit with them, hear cases with them, and help them decide cases and write opinions. It also has a "State's Attorney" who represents the state in cases before the court.

Judge Davidson was "State's Attorney" from 1930 to 1941, "Commissioner" from 1941 to 1955, and has been "Judge" since 1955. This makes 30 years of continuous, full-time service on or before this important court.

In a recent state-wide poll of about 7,000 Judges and Lawyers, Judge Davidson was the first choice of these men who know the quality of his work and his ability as a judge.

Judge Davidson merits re-election to the Court of Criminal appeals.

Cheerleading Is Fun, Says Lois Christman

Lois is the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Christman of 114 Ave. A. She was born in Sherman, Tex., on January 5, 1942, and lived near Sherman until she was 2½ years old then she moved to Hereford.

Lois started to school when she was six years old, but she didn't become interested in cheerleading until she was in Junior High School. She was a cheerleader in the seventh grade.

The most embarrassing moment she had this year as a cheerleader was when she couldn't get over that "stupid" rail at the Littlefield basketball game. The next most embarrassing moment was when Verena and she made their grand entrance into first Pep Rally ten minutes before the other cheerleaders.

The most exciting moment for Lois was one that never ceased to be exciting — this was leading the football boys across the field. She only wishes that she could do it over.

Some clubs that she belongs to now are Tri-Hi-Y, National Honor Society, F.T.A., Student Council, and she has belonged to F. H. A. and Speech Club in the past.

The main advice she would give to the new cheerleaders is to put everything you have into it and enjoy every minute — it is over much too fast!

She would like to express again her thanks to the student body for giving her the wonderful experience of representing our school as cheerleader for this year. She has had so many good times and will never forget this year and all it has meant to her. So thanks for making it possible.

Clifford Galley Speaks On Credit Association

By BETTY WALSER
Mr. Clifford Galley of the Hereford Credit Bureau spoke to the Distributive Education classes recently. Mr. Galley told the class how his office is run, the type of information that is kept on the people who buy, how the merchants work with his firm and how he works with them in securing information.

We feel that his was a very interesting topic and something new to each of us. Many of us knew very little about this business. Many thought it was the same type of business that the Credit Union is; through Mr. Galley's talk, we have learned differently.

It is entirely an entire different type of business. We know that we should keep up our good credit record unless we want the bad rating to be placed on our file, which is kept in the Credit Bureau files.

We would like to thank Mr. Galley for his very fine talk and we hope that some of you readers will learn a little about the Credit Bureau of Hereford.

The Distributive Education

Club met in the Study Hall last Wednesday for its regular club meeting. Topic for business at the meeting was the election of the president for next year's club.

Ronnie Byers, who has served as a very fine president for the club, has proved his ability to serve the club and work hard for it and its standards, and through his fine work as our president this year, the club voted him to serve as the president next year.

We members feel that the club will have a president who will be well-acquainted with the D. E. Program and will be a very qualified person to serve the members of the D. E. Club for 1960 - 61.

Discussion for an ice cream party to be held in honor of the senior members of the D. E. Club was approved by the club. More on this will be printed later.

Mr. Hart gave the treasurer's report for the year and we are sure that next year's club will have to work hard again to earn money for their school year.

The second year students will meet with the advisory board to discuss the students who have requested to have D. E. on their schedule for next year. Bud Godwin talked to the club on the advisory board and other things that the first year students will be associated with next year.

Fellow Figures A Gal's Angle

The guy figures the gal's angle!

DEAR SAM: Once you said guys could see right through a girl. Why then can't girls see through boys and know what they're thinking? We're supposed to be the intuitive sex, yet we never know where we stand with our boy friends. KAY

DEAR KAY: I sometimes think girls prefer blindness. Why else would I receive so many letters which begin, "I know he still loves me, but why doesn't he call?" You credit me with a remark I never made. It is said there are two times a man doesn't understand a woman — before and after he married her.

DEAR SAM: My boyfriend and I have gone together for 18 months. Since he has been at college, this year, he hasn't come home week ends to see me. Am I getting a brush-off?

DEAR PAT: Nobody wants to miss all the week end fun at college. But, if he really cared for you and could afford it, he'd come home occasionally, perhaps on a once-a-month basis, or every other-week basis. Perhaps he doesn't like to be "tied down" to going steady while at college, but would like to date you when he is home — leaving you free, too.

Sticks and stones will break my bones, but —
DEAR SAM: There is a rumor going around my neighborhood which is not true. I have told the persons who told me about it that it is a lie, but they won't believe me and imply I'm trying to lie my way out of it. What can I do? NEEDING HELP

DEAR NH: Live your way out of it. Actions speak louder than rumors.

OFFICERS ELECTED
At their regular meeting recently, members of the Sadye Rigler Library Club elected officers for the 1960 - 61 school year. Officers elected include: Ada Mae Bettis, president; Curtis Crowell, vice-president; Hallie Culpepper, secretary; Glenna Faye Gandy, treasurer; Barbara Monroe, historian; and James Vines, reporter.

April Is Busy Month For Homemaking Girls

The Hereford chapter, F. H. A., observed F. H. A. Week on April 3 through 10. We had many varied projects.

On April 3 and April 10 the F. H. A. Girls attended the First Christian and First Baptist Churches, respectively. We attended with our presidents, Miss Royce Lee Pruitt and Miss Sandra Roberson.

Tuesday F. H. A. directed the assembly. Participating in this program were the following: Narrator, Patsy Loerwald; Pianist, Beatrice Wilhelm; Norma Jean Warrick, Jan Reese, Judy Rowland, Avie Justice, Mar-

Gwen Lackey, Judy Fowlkes, Lu Ann Higgins, Cecilia Wilhelm, Elizabeth Brorman, Judy Bradley, Merry Kay Pruitt, Maribeth Gilliland, Suzanne Langley and Beth Lemons. Assisting backstage were Mary Riley and Royce Lee Pruitt.

During activity period Wednesday, April 6, the F. H. A. in cooperation with the Student Council, sponsored an All-School Clean-Up Campaign. Heading the committee, who worked with both F. H. A. and Student Council, was Patsy Loerwald. Helping was Linda Reed.

Have you noticed how the trophies and Trophy Case sparkle and shine? That is due to the effort of several F. H. A. girls who worked very hard during F. H. A. Week. Those cleaning the trophies and Trophy Case were Sheryl Patterson, chairman, Mary Riley, Patsy Loerwald, Barbara Monroe, Cecilia Wilhelm, Beatrice Wilhelm, Judy Rowland, Judy Bradley and Norma Jean Warrick.

On Friday, April 8, the F. H. A. held a ceremony in front of the school, where they planted several rose bushes. Participating in this ceremony were: Mar-Gwen Lackey, narrator, Royce Lee Pruitt, Patsy Loerwald, Sharon Hill, Nancy Edwards, Judy Fowlkes, Avie Justice, Jan Reese, Cherry Holt, Glenda Fuhrmann and Suzanne Langley.

May Unlucky For Marriage

May, originally the third month of the ancient Roman calendar, became the fifth month in the revised calendar.

The origin of the name is uncertain, but the theory most widely accepted is that it comes from Maia, the mother of Mercury, or Hermes. Maia Majesta, an old Italian goddess of Spring to whom the priests of Vulcan made sacrifices on the first day of May, is who the Romans identified her with.

They regarded May as an unlucky month for marriages because the festival of the unhappy dead and the festival of the goddess of chastity were celebrated. This belief survived among other races until the present, and is supposed to account for the popularity of June as the month of weddings.

Student Council Holds Assembly

The Student Council had an assembly last Thursday and it was very amusing. It was what was called the "Talent Show of the Year."

Some of the talent included: Donna Rogers, singing; Kay Lemons, singing; Frio Trio; Tommie Kay Robinson, playing the piano; Zell Crump, playing the piano; Glen Nelson, playing his cello; Virgil Kuykendall, NOTHING; and Sandra Moore, reciting "The Creation."

Ken Walser was master of Ceremonies and presented the prizes. They were, as following: Sandra Moore, first prize; Frio Trio, second prize; and Don Rogers, third prize.

We have had a lot of interesting assemblies this year and we should be very proud of the people who took the time to put them on for the Student Body.

Shun Sobbing On Mother's Shoulder

Do you cry on Mother's shoulder when you make a bad grade? Maybe you are one of the senior high students who didn't make the grade this semester. There is an answer to this: maybe you have been watching too much T. V., not studying enough, or maybe you have been staying out too late at night and letting your lessons go.

This is something to think about. Your mother and fathers can't do your work for you. You can't cry on her shoulder and blame the teachers for your bad grades and failure. There are teachers in school who would be more than glad to help you. Next to parents, teachers are the most concerned about your welfare.

If you get down to study, you won't have to cry on your Mother's shoulder or anyone else's. If it takes you until the wee hours in the morning and some midnight electricity to get your bad grades up to the passing level, you had better try it. You can't cry on your mother's shoulder forever. Good grades will take some studying and effort on your part.

sent for long periods they may leave scars and pits when the dermis or second layer of skin becomes infected. If one has skin problems it is wise to avoid highly seasoned foods, fried foods, heavy gravies. Boiled, baked and broiled meats are best if one has skin problems. Starchy and sweet foods should be curtailed.

Keep your skin clean - washing it with soap and water. Makeup should be removed thoroughly with cleansing cream to avoid annoying skin blemishes. If youthful skin is kept in good condition it will not need heavier makeups recommended for older, tired skins, and it is a mistake to use them. If you don't benefit from them, YOUR FIGURE: Perhaps the thing that causes the most frustration in the female is her figure. A too - fat girl or too - skinny type who cannot adjust to the situation or to a diet is likely to be unhappy. The decision must be made that it is less tortuous to lose weight than it is to stew about carrying it around. Fat girls are just as popular usually as those of normal build, and the security of their friends is likely to lull them into complacency about their weight problem. Then one day, regretting that she can't get into the dress of her choice, she is very likely to feel like a misfit.

Physicians can recommend good diets, permitting certain leeway in foods that appear particularly to the young set. If a diet is followed for a few weeks or months, it should be easy to shed those extra pounds. Doctors also have weight - gaining diets for girls who find it difficult to put on extra pounds. Exercise offers an ideal way to burn up calories, but it is the fat girl who usually scorns it, mainly because she feels awkward in any situation that calls attention to herself. Bicycling,

Beauty At Home

By LYNN CARTER

Q. Is there some home treatment I can try to help remove whiteheads from my skin?

A. You can try applying a thick paste of fuller's earth and witch hazel, wrapping some gauze over this to keep the mask in place. Let this remain on for several minutes, then wash it off with cool water.

Q. Will you please suggest a formula for a good, "home-made" hair dressing?

A. Cut two lemons into slices and add only enough water to cover them. Boil until the thickness of the water indicates that all the lemon juice has been extracted from the slices, then strain and use the remaining juice and water mixture as your dressing. It's a very good one.

Q. What can I do, after eating onions, to prevent breath odor?

A. Drink a glass of milk, or suck a lemon, then drink a glass of cold water. Still another antidote is to chew on some sprigs of parsley dipped into vinegar or salt.

Mud Houses Pass The Test Of Time

By JOE MCKNIGHT
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Houses built of dirt 23 years ago are still solid, occupied and — with inflation — worth many times their original value.

During construction in 1936-37 skeptics called them mud houses and predicted they would crumble in the first heavy rain. As if to prove them wrong, Mrs. Rachel H. Scisson, only original occupant still in the houses, said she recently turned down an offer of $17,500 for her three-bedroom residence. She paid $1,824 for it in 1940 after renting for three years at $12 to $17 a month.

The federal Farm Security Administration chose the Mount Olive community, 10 miles north of here, for the seven experimental rammed-earth houses. The Works Projects Administration, the depression-born WPA, provided the labor.

Earth scraped from the lot sites was hand-packed into wooden forms for outside walls and interior partitions. When it dried the forms were removed, leaving, in effect, one huge brick in the shape of a house.

Workers used nothing more than wood or iron poles to pack the earth.

Architect Thomas Hibben designed the houses and in 1942 designed some similar houses near Alexandria, Va. Earth in those houses, however, was packed with powered hammers.

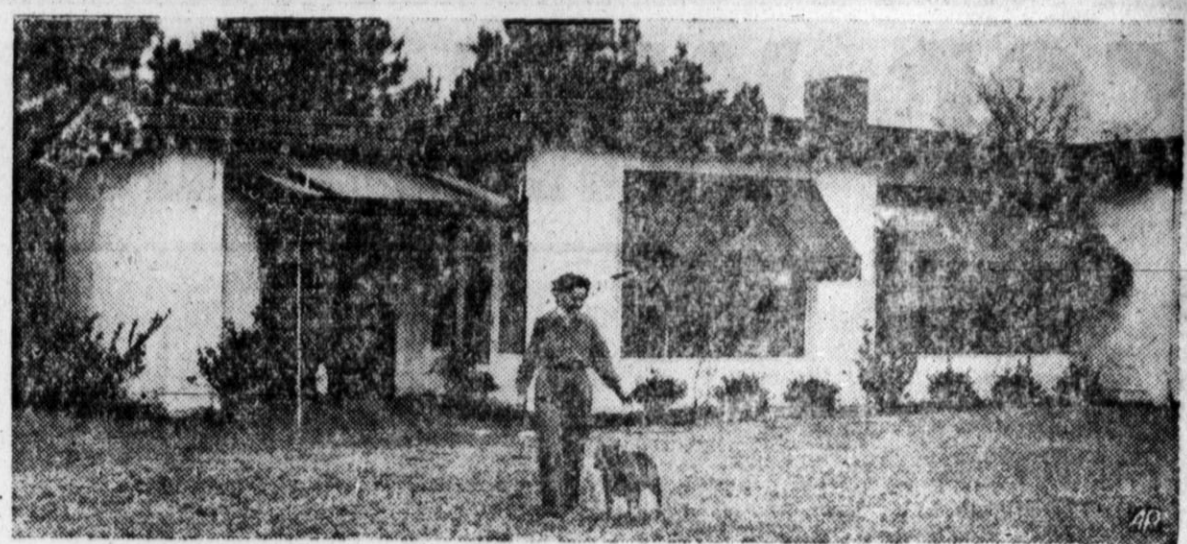

Engineers now say they don't know what there is in the soil which permits such construction.

All walls are 18 inches thick. Hardwood or tile flooring covers a cement slab foundation. All roofs are flat, covered with gravel and tar, and separated from room ceilings by an 18-inch air space. Because of the material used there is only one conventional window in each house. It is in the bathroom. Other windows are French-type doors, extending from floor to ceiling. Some residents have added partitions at the top and bottom of window areas to give the houses a more conventional appearance.

A stucco finish has been applied to the exterior of the houses. All are painted. Inside, the walls are plaster — smooth and can be painted like ordinary building materials.

All the houses are occupied and residents agree that the thick walls provide excellent insulation, keeping the interiors cool in the summer and retaining heat in the winter.

BUILT OF DIRT: Mrs. Lincoln Dowdey stands and her husband bought 12 years ago, in front of the rammed-earth house she. The house has walls 18 inches thick.

SOUTH PORTLAND, Maine — How does a congregation of 29 build a $51,000 church? It's simple — brotherly love as exemplified by brethren in two distant states — Oklahoma and Texas.

Nearing completion in South Portland is a Church of Christ that will seat 200.

Blocked by a bank's refusal of a $25,000 construction loan because the congregation was so small, Shirley L. Morgan, minister, appealed for help to the Church of Christ in his hometown, Snyder, Texas, and the church in Del City, Okla.

The Oklahoma congregation raised $23,000 by selling bonds. The church at Snyder borrowed $12,000 from a Texas bank and gave it to the struggling South Portland brethren.

My "Mom"

... and how we love her! She is a unique individual. She is personal. She is mother. It is she who tempers us to fit into a big world. She leavens the life she gave and guides its destiny. Mother is the one who is most concerned when the world may rise against us. She is an important factor in shaping the mold from which real men are made. Not one single human emotion comes nearer the divine than does a mother's love for her child. Then, respect her experience, her knowledge, her concern for your life. Listen to her pleadings. Follow her teachings. Accept her guidance... for, in few instances, will she ever be wrong. How-fitting that we give this day... the second Sunday in May... in her honor. In respect to her, and to show your deepest concern, take her to church this Mother's Day.

You In The Church
The Church In You

If we made Gladiola Flour for Porcupine, S. D...

we could lower the quality a little...

...but we make it for you

Gladiola Land (that's Texas and a little bit more) could give the rest of the country lessons in home baking. Nobody makes biscuits, pies and cakes the way the ladies make 'em here.

Nobody's so fussy about flour, either—and that's fine with us. We're fussy, too. That's why Gladiola Flour is like no other flour made. Naturally, it outsells every other brand.

As for the folks in Porcupine, S.D., what they don't know won't hurt 'em. Snow-white Gladiola Flour isn't for them—it's for you. And it costs only about 1/2¢ a day more than the cheapest brand at your store.

Eat Right And Enjoy Life, Says This Career Mother

By VIVIAN BROWN
If you want to be pretty and vivacious, and cope with this busy old world, just learn to eat for health, says lovely Julia Meade, stage, video and screen actress, housewife and mother.
Red-haired Julia is a walking example of her own advice. She radiates good health and beauty: at a willowy 143 lbs, 5 ft. 7 inches.

"It wasn't always that way with me," explains Julia.
"Years ago I was a scrawny type who lost weight easily.
But worst of all, I never had any energy. One day I picked up a book about nutrition at the house of a friend. The book stressed quality instead of quantity in foods."

Julia bought the book that she says changed her life three years ago.

"I started eating things that were good for me instead of wasting my digestion on no - vitamin foods. I began taking yeast and eating liver. I decided I should eat more Vitamin B-1 foods for my nerves, and Vitamin A, which I needed."

She learned to like foods that were good for her and learned that some foods she could like were better for her than those she ate dutifully.

"I used to force myself to eat spinach," she says. "But I

MODEL MOTHER . . . Julia Meade and daughter, Caroline found that kale and other greens offered more variety as well as vitamins and minerals."

Julia found herself visiting health food stores — inevitable, she says when you get on the health diet kick.

"But I learned to pick and choose the health foods, and didn't become a faddist buyer," she says.

Julia's morning eye - opener consists of a half - lemon in hot water and coffee. Later she drinks a mixture made in the blender — egg, orange juice, a tablespoon of brewer's yeast and wheat germ. Her lunch is likely to be yogurt, honey, wheat germ and skimmed milk. At the evening meal she eats meat or fish, broccoli or other vegetable raw salad. She doesn't eat potatoes or many starchy foods.
She says:

"We do eat rolls occasionally.
I mix up a batter with whole-wheat flour on Saturday morning and let it rise during the day. I freeze the leftover."

Julia doesn't do routine exercises, getting a workout whenever she entertains her 3 - month - old daughter, Caroline, a blonde healthy cherub; who is cared for by a nurse. She does all the cooking for the family, but has help with the cleaning.

Her husband O. Worsham Rudd, an illustrator, hasn't succumbed completely to health foods — he eats a sandwich lunch. But Julia's two cats are on the diet, and baby Caroline will be introduced to it soon.

"I gained only eight and a half pounds before Caroline came along at six pounds, and I worked all the time. I never felt better in my life. It was all due to my diet. I'm sure, I used to feel so tired, I'd throw myself in bed at night. But I

When Painting

When you use paint or enamel, remember to dip your brush only HALF the length of the bristles. Deeper dipping wastes paint and ruins the brush by letting the hardened paint accumulate in the heel. Next, lightly slap off excess paint against the side of the container, and you're ready to lay it on.

Outdoor Cooking

To prevent dripping fat from flaring up and ruining a steak or chicken while you are doing your outdoor charcoal broiling, place lettuce leaves over the hot coals.

Ink Stains

Indelible - ink stains from a ballpoint pen can be removed by sponging the spot with cotton soaked with rubbing alcohol.

Care of Eyes

It's no fun to greet your friends with strained, bleary eyes. There are many ways to avoid this look. One is to use cotton compresses soaked with witch hazel pressed over the eyes. Dashing cold water or holding cool compresses against the eyelids also will tighten the skin and refresh your eyes.

Home - Movie Trick

When one of your home movie scripts calls for a closeup of an effervescent drink, you can simulate the bubbling effect very realistically with a headache tablet. Drop it into a glass of water and begin shooting as it starts to dissolve.

Organdy Dress

If a tablespoonful of sugar is added to a gallon of water when rinsing the organdy dress, it will give body to the dress without making it too stiff.

Toaster Elements

When the wire or ribbon element of a toaster or similar electrical appliance breaks, place the broken ends together, sprinkle a little borax on them and turn on the current. The resulting electrical spark will fuse the two broken ends and the element should be restored to operation.

Sticking Drawers

Does a sticking drawer annoy you? Sand the runners down so the drawer opens easily, then spray shellac and the runners to seal them from humidity which might make them swell and stick again.

Grass Stains
To remove grass stains, rub
the garments with molasses, roll up for an hour, and then wash in warm water and soap suds.

CONVERTS IN FAR EAST
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — An evangelistic mission to Malaya and the Philippines, led by 12
American Methodist ministers during July and August, resulted in 4,040 decisions to accept Christ and join the church, the denomination reported. Additionally 9,889 persons reconsecrated their lives to the church.

We're bending over backwards right now to make Valiant an even better money-saving proposition than usual. But any day would be a great day to buy Valiant. Because Valiant happens to be a great car. And not just for looks and pinching pennies. Valiant has a hefty inclined engine that whips up 101 hp and nurses gas to boot. A ride that's as great cross-country as it is around town. Plus room for a family of six and their luggage, too (the only place Valiant packs people is into our showrooms!). Yep, Valiant's the one economy car you don't need to worry about. Unless you just can't decide between a Valiant sedan and a Valiant wagon. So you might want to buy two Valiants. You'll save lots more money—not to mention lots of arguments between the drivers in the family! Come see us, won't you?
