Hail Damage Light As Heavy Rains Soak Wheat

Heavy rainfall drenched Hereford and Deaf Smith County Sunday, Monday and Tuesday nights, as harvesting of more than 150,000 acres of wheat is scheduled to begin next week. Moisture reports ranged from 2½ to 4½ inches, with no hail.

Wind took the place of hail as the crop's most aggressive enemy at the present time. The rains were late in coming for the average dryland wheat grower in this area.

The recent rains brought the moisture level for the year to 8.29 inches, as compared to 7.38 at this time last year. Moisture for June in Hereford is 3.35 inches.

Harvest of the wheat crop is scheduled to begin sometime next week, possibly about June 15 if weather permits.

Otho K. Higgins, who farms 11 miles northeast of Dawn, reported moisture at the end of the three-day period at 4½ inches, with no crop damage.

Scattered reports of tangled wheat were received at the Brand office Wednesday morning, but many farmers predicted that much of the wind-blown wheat could be harvested.

Other weather reports received included:

Carl Wimberley of Dawn, 3.82 inches, with little wind damage to wheat; Community Grain Co. in Frio, 2.75 inches, with little barley and wheat damage;

Pitman Grain Co. in Summerfield, 3.40 inches, with little damage to wheat;

Mrs. J. C. Clearman of Summerfield, 2.57 inches, some wind damage to wheat;

Roger Brumley ranch, 2.50 inches;

H. L. Hershey, eight miles northeast of Hereford, 3.01 inches with some damage to barley by wind;

Guy Walser of Summerfield, three inches, with some sagging wheat;

Westway Store, eight miles west of Hereford, 3.30 inches with no damage to crops.

Hail damage earlier this month was relatively small and scattered, but high winds toppled some of the larger stalks of wheat.

Moisture in May was .14, an all-time low in Deaf Smith County. In 1952, .77 was reported which constituted the previous record. Moisture for May, 1959, was 2.31, an unusually high amount for that month.

Spot harvesting may be put into operation on dryland farms, and no shortage of combines or employment has been predicted by Pat Patterson, local State Employment Representative.

Harvesting of barley was scheduled to begin this week. Generally, fields of barley look good.

Although dryland wheat harvest may be below par, wheat planted under irrigation should produce normal yields.

Hoing of cotton should start shortly after fields dry enough. Harvest of onions and potatoes should begin about the middle of July.

Vandals Hit 36 Stores For $10,000 In Damage

Hereford Police Tuesday night declared an around-the-clock investigation into vandalism damage of plate glass windows and doors reported by 36 business places in the city. Police estimated that the windows pocked, allegedly with BB or air guns, were valued at about $10,000.

"We fully intend to apprehend the subjects responsible for the vandalism," said Capt. L. B. Bartlett, supervisory officer in charge of Hereford Police Department, Wednesday morning.

Within two hours Wednesday morning, local insurance agencies and private individuals had collected $60 to be used as reward money for the apprehension of the vandals.

Investigation by police began Tuesday, when three local business places, McGee Furniture Store, Acme Cleaners and Knox Television Service, reported that windows had been damaged by a BB gun.

By Wednesday morning, police reported that 33 other local businesses had sustained similar damage.

Capt. Bartlett reported damage at "roughly $10,000.00"

Damage to door and window plate glass was investigated at the following locations: Harman's, Southwestern Public Service, Gunn Brothers Store, Lone Star Insurance building, First National Bank, E. B. Black Furniture, Tortilla Factory, City Drug, Western Flower Shop, Osborn Buick, Texas Employment Commission, a building at 136 W. Third, a building at 216 E. Third;

Roberts Appliance Store, a newstand, Finlan Real Estate, Del Bainum Humble Station, Case Implement Co., John Deere Implement Co., Gulf Service Station, Dub's Man's Shop, Ink Spot, Rowell and Doan Oil Co., Cement Farm Store;

Orchid Beauty Shop, Plains Creamery, International Harvester building, Hereford Implement Co., Army Surplus Store, Knox Television Service, McGee Furniture, and Acme Cleaners.

Damage to the plate glass windows at McGee Furniture Store alone was estimated at $930. Damage to a window at Acme Cleaners was estimated at $186, and two windows at Knox Television Service, $173.

Hereford City Commission in regular meeting Monday night amended a previous water ordinance raising the minimum water rate from $1.50 to $2.50 per month.

The raise in minimum rate pertains only to water service and will apply on each water meter in the city.

Due to unusual amounts of moisture during the recent winter and spring, water revenue during the past six months is down about $30,000 as a new fiscal year started May 1, City Manager Dudley Bayne said.

The additional revenue will be needed to continue a program of improving facilities of the water system in Hereford, Bayne said. He pointed out that a new overhead water tank and major extensions have been added to the system during the recent year.

Even with the raise in the minimum rate, Hereford would still have the lowest water rate of any town or city in the Panhandle," Bayne commented.

In other action, the commissioners approved hiking hanger rental for single-engine airplanes from $20 to $25 per month at Hereford Airport. Bayne pointed out that the $25 (Continued on page 2)

National Golf Day Challengers Get Ready Here

Hereford golfers this week are getting a chance to match their game against the champions as National Golf Day will be observed at the local links Saturday.

Through Saturday, local golfers will get a chance at posting their best scores against the score which wins a match between Bob Rosburg and Billy Casper, 1959 PGA and USGA Open Champions.

Rosburg and Casper will play an 18-hole medal match at the Firestone Country Club, Akron, Ohio, Saturday.

Local linksters may play as many rounds as they wish through Saturday in competing against the winner's score.

Men will be permitted to use their official handicaps and ladies who have official handicaps will be allowed an additional seven strokes.

Awards will be mailed to those who defeat the champion this year. They will be presented as soon as possible following receipt of scores and remittances. Last year, the awards were in the form of medals.

Golfers who compete will be asked to contribute a nominal entry fee, with proceeds going toward National Golf Fund, Inc.

Three Charged In Bootlegging

Three Hereford men were charged with possession and sale of alcoholic beverage in a dry area after separate arrests were made by Hereford police over the week end.

Charged were Ismail Eguie, 40, of Hereford; Andrew Luna, 33, 123 Norton St.; and John Colman Draper, 68, 205 Ave. H. Bonds for each were set at $1,000.

Eguie was arrested at 11 p. m. Saturday in the 300 block of Catalpa St. Arrest was made by Hereford police patrolman Bobby Roberts. A total of twelve quarts of beer were confiscated by police.

Luna was arrested at 11 p. m. Saturday. Arrest was made by Hereford police patrolman Don Metcalf. Confiscated were 18 quarts of beer, four pints of wine, three half-pints of whiskey and one 12-ounce container of beer.

Draper was arrested Sunday at 7:07 p. m. at 205 Avenue H. Arrest was made by patrolman Don Metcalf.

DWI Bond Set

Bond for Santos Tomar Galvan, 33, of Hereford was set at $1,500 Tuesday after he was charged with driving while intoxicated, second offense.

Galvan was arrested at 25 Mile Ave. and 13th St. at 2:37 a. m. Sunday. Arrest was made by Hereford police patrolman Bobby Roberts.

The case was turned over to county authorities Tuesday, and bond was set in the office of Justice Of The Peace C. B. Miles.

County Wheat Support Price, Storage Rate Both Drop 3c

Around Town

Restful quiet of the countryside was shattered into bits this week with the emergence of thousands of frogs after torrential rains. Their croaking was loud enough to be heard inside a moving car, with the windows rolled up.

But such minor distractions have been welcomed by county farmers, who are beaming all over themselves.

Opening of the Youth Employment Service in Hereford is going to be delayed until Monday, June 13. Originally, the office was to have opened on Friday.

There will be a meeting of the Hereford Area Foundation on Monday, June 13, at 5 p. m. The meeting will be held in the First National Bank community room, and will be primarily devoted to committee reports.

Flower styles -- as old-fashioned as yesterday, as versatile as today and as modern as tomorrow -- will be shown at the Hereford Garden Club's mid-summer (Continued on page 2)

Hold Aggravated Assault Trial

Henry Eugene Wright, 48, 132 Ave. I, was sentenced to 30 days in jail plus court costs Tuesday in County Court after pleading guilty to charge of aggravated assault.

Wright was turned over to county authorities Tuesday morning after arrest by Hereford police. He was charged with committing the aggravated assault on his wife,

The basic minimum price support rate for 1960 crop wheat in Deaf Smith County will be $1.79 a bushel on the farm, according to County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office manager Faust Collier.

That rate is three cents below the $1.82 per bushel price last year. However, deduction for storage is down three cents, which, coincidentally, compensates for the amount.

The county rate is two cents per bushel above the national average of $1.77, provided the

Assess 30 Days, Costs For Theft

Abel Andres Gonzalez, 19, of Dimmitt was sentenced to 30 days in Deaf Smith County Jail plus court costs after entering a plea of guilty to charge of theft under $50 in County Court Monday.

Gonzalez was arrested Saturday night in Hereford. Arrest was made by Hereford police patrolmen Don Metcalf and Edward Roberson.

Gonzalez was charged with theft of an electric razor from a farm house 11 miles northeast of Hereford Saturday.

File Delinquent Charge On Boy

A 14-year-old Hereford youth was taken into custody of Hereford police Wednesday morning and charged with juvenile delinquency by burglary.

Placed in juvenile quarters of Randall County Jail in Canyon, the youth was arrested in connection with taking from a Hereford home a man's and lady's wrist watches, both valued at about $47, police said.

Complaint was filed by a local housewife, who discovered the watches missing Wednesday morning, according to police. The boy was taken into custody by Hereford police patrolman Robert Breedlove.

The youth was placed in juvenile quarters, pending further investigation of the case.

grower stays within his allocated acreage.

Loans will be available at the minimum rate early in the price support period.

As in previous years, Collier said, the price of the 1960 wheat crop will be supported through loans on farm or warehouse-stored wheat and through the purchase of what delivered by producers under purchase agreements.

Loans and purchase agreements will be available from harvest through Jan. 31, 1961. (Continued on page 2)

Two boys were believed to have drowned in a lake north of Frio a sometime Wednesday. Early in the afternoon, the bodies had not been recovered as boats and rescue equipment were being rushed to the scene. Names of the possible victims were not available at presstime.

Assault In Jail With Hose Nets Prisoner 60 Days

Nicanor Cisneros Gonzales, 18, Route 5, was sentenced to 60 days in Deaf Smith County Jail plus court costs in County Court Tuesday after pleading guilty to charge of aggravated assault.

He was charged with making the aggravated assault on another prisoner while he was incarcerated in Hereford city jail, according to police Capt. L. B. Bartlett. A rubber hose from a fixture in the jail reportedly was used in the assault, Capt. Bartlett said.

Gonzales had earlier been placed in jail on charge of possession and consumption of alcoholic beverage.

United Fund Elects Officers For Year

Robert L. Thompson ... United Fund head

Robert L. Thompson, Hereford school teacher, has been elected president of the Deaf Smith County United Fund for 1960-61 year. He heads a slate of new officers and directors elected at a meeting last week.

Other new officers include: Maurice Tannahill, vice president; Mrs. Ellen Carter, secretary; and Mark Woodall, treasurer.

New directors, elected for three-year terms, are: Tannahill, Harold Wester, Mrs. H. A. Cavness, Charles Bell, Leonard Waton, Mrs. Bill Waldrep and D. C. Kinsey. Since the election, Watson has announced he is moving to Bay City. He will be replaced on the board.

A SMALL BOY and a small frog are almost natural companions after heavy rains in this area. Six-year-old Alton Lamm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lamm, 503 Avenue J, was a little shy but extremely curious about the frogs which appear after heavy downpours. His bug-eyed little friend seemed almost as curious about Alton. (Staff Photo)

SWIMMING INSTRUCTORS Mrs. Bill Dameron, left, and Mrs. Eugene Noel packed a car Sunday morning to leave for the Red Cross Nation Aquatic School at Lake Murry, Ardmore, Okla. Both will be instructors in the swimming program sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter this summer. Also leaving on the trip were Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. J. R. Fowlkes and Miss Ann Smith, who also will be instructors. At Ardmore, they will receive 80 hours of swimming instruction, standard and advance First Aid and basic canoeing and boat safety. The trip was sponsored by the local Red Cross chapter. They will return to Hereford June 15. (Staff Photo)

Directors whose terms expire in 1961 are Mrs. Merlin Kaul, Mrs. London, Mrs. Marlin Gilliland, Dick Barnard, Al Yeager, Wayne Edwards, Bill Decker, Robert L. Thompson and James P. Brogdon. Directors with terms running until 1962 include Lowell Sharp, Pick Harman, Mark Koenig, Mrs. Ellen Carter, Mrs. W. J. Messick, Mrs. A. T. Mims, Mrs. Howard Gault and Mark Woodall. Mrs. Corinne Neeley is an ex-officio member of the board. Raymond Fletcher also was named as ex-officio board member. Next meeting will be primarily to name the 1960 campaign drive chairman. Recently, the board presented a plaque of appreciation to the 1959 drive chairman, George McLean.

The loans will mature March 31, 1961. Deductions from June 25 to July 18 last year amounted to 13 cents, as compared to 10 cents this year, provided grain is stored in a commercial elevator. From July 19 to Aug. 14 last year, deductions amounted to 12 cents, as compared to nine cents this year. In general, Collier said, the basic support rate is for No. 1 wheat. Premiums and discounts are applied to determine the rate for wheat which is of other grades or has other quality factors. Nonrecourse price support on 1960 production of wheat will be subject to a $50,000 limitation as required by a provision of the 1960 Agricultural Appropriation Act. A producer will be exempt from the limitation on nonrecourse price support if his 1960 acreage of wheat is reduced at least 20 per cent below his 1959 acreage.

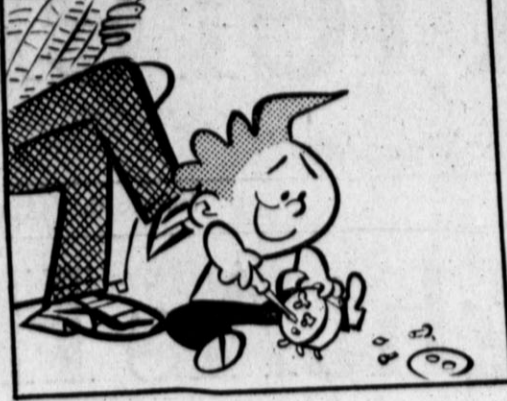

"Nonrecourse support," Collier said, "means support in the form of a loan that may be settled in full by delivery of the commodity to the Government. It also can mean support in the form of a purchase." The $50,000 limit on price support, he said, "means that the amount of nonrecourse price support that may be received by an individual producer of one of the surplus crops is limited to $50,000 unless he cuts his acreage of that crop by at least 20 per cent. The wheat acreage allotment in this county is 200,423 acres. However, Collier estimated that only 155,000 acres were planted as 45,000 acres are soil bank land, which cannot be planted in wheat.

rate would still be equal or below rental for concrete floor, metal hangars at other airports. A motion to build public rest room facilities at Dameron Park was approved. Construction of a building should begin in the near future, and Bayne expects to receive price listings on fixtures soon for further consideration. Bayne read a letter from City Attorney Earnest Langley pointing out that Mrs. J. H. Earley of Hereford had requested him to make an investigation of the legality of curfew ordinance, in order to determine whether or not such an ordinance might be advisable in Hereford. The commissioners commented that they could see no need for a curfew ordinance in Hereford as there is no indication of a youth problem requiring such restrictions here.

A. Try using some baby oil (containing lanolin), mixed with a few drops of water.
Q. I'd like only an end curl, but my hair is too long for a pin-curl permanent. How can I give myself the kind of permanent I'm seeking?
A. Use a rod-type permanent with the waving solution best suited to your hair. Before you start to wind the ends, decide how far you want curls. Applying waving lotion to that joint, and wind the curls that far plus one extra turn. Follow the timing procedure indicated in the directions.
Q. How can I prepare at home a good, cleansing, "general-purpose" facial beauty mask?
A. Apply to face and throat a mixture of three teaspoons of powdered milk and the white of an egg and, after allowing this to dry on the skin, remove with tepid water.

Eat Like Hunzukuts; Be A Youngster At 100

By VIVIAN BROWN
How would you like to live to be 120? You would suffer little pain in your lifetime, have no worries and be a happy type. This attractive set-up is within your grasp -- well, almost -- if you could just live like the Hunzukuts, a people who live high in the Himalaya mountains of Pakistan. Their existence is portrayed by Dr. Allen E. Bank, optometrist, student of geriatrics and traveler, in his new book "Hunza Land." Bank found in Hunza 90-year-old men father children, and women of 80 who looked 40. Hunzukuts rise at five in the morning, take a short nap in the afternoon and retire about nine in the evening. The men are straight, tall, broad-shouldered, deep-chested, there are no fat women in Hunza, the author says. Their soil is enriched by silt from the mountain waters and there are no commercial fertilizers used in the gardens -- it is against the law to use chemicals in a Hunza garden. Everything that can serve as food for vegetables, field crops and fruit trees goes into the ground, Bank says: "Sunken compost pits are conveniently located, and into them go ashes from cooking and heating fires, inedible parts of vegetables, pulverized animal bones, dead leaves, rotten wood and animal manure."

when they begin to sprout. Meat dishes are stews with fresh vegetables. Bank offers suggestions on how to take advantage of the Hunza lessons in nutrition. His advice will not surprise addicts of health foods or those Hollywood movie stars who pride themselves on their health-prescribed diets. He suggests buying organically grown food, even if we don't grow it; buying fresh produce and eating it soon for freshness, steaming or cooking vegetables in a minimum of water, eating liberal portions of salad, raw root vegetables, fresh fruits in season and substituting dried fruits (preferably unsulphured and sun-dried) when fresh fruits are not available. Eat germinated grain or beans and include animal organs (brain, kidney, liver) in your diet. Eat whole-grain bread, fresh-churned butter and unprocessed cheese. Drink milk, buttermilk, skimmed milk or yogurt. He suggests sunflower seeds, herb teas, apricot oil, sunflower oil, and sesame oil as further enrichment for the human body.

Beauty At Home

By LYNN CARTER
Q. Can you please suggest some sort of treatment for the wrinkles and brown spots on my hands and arms?
A. In the line of camouflage, you can use makeup foundation cream as a cover-up. As a corrective treatment, you might be able to bleach these spots somewhat with lemon juice applications. And, of course, in the line of prevention, you should avoid as much as possible the exposure of your hands and arms to Sol's rays.
Q. My jaw isn't exactly what you'd call "heavy," but it does have rather square bones. What makeup technique will help to subdue the appearance of these bones?
A. You can do much towards softening the angular appearance of these bones by applying some darker makeup base over the bone area only.

Miner's Wife Tempers Danger With Her Faith

By JACK WHITE
BISHOP, W. Va. — Va. (AP) — Each morning Anna Lee Bledsoe and her husband Howard kneel together in prayer. Then he leaves for the mine and for the next eight hours lives and works in near-darkness 300 feet underground. The couple prays again when Howard returns at night. "We never fail to thank the Lord for bringing him home safely," says the 55-year-old Mrs. Bledsoe. Howard, 55, is a machine operator at the Bishop mine of the Pocahontas Fuel Co. He has been working here since coal was brought out in wheelbarrows. Coal mining is a dangerous life, ranking No. 1 in fatalities among U. S. industries.

Perhaps nowhere is this grim fact more realized than in this 500 - resident coal town on the Virginia - West Virginia border.

Two underground explosions in the last three years have killed 59 men who worked in the Bishop mine's rich but gassy coal seam.

"I used to have a strong fear of my husband working there, until 18 years ago when I became a Christian," Mrs. Bledsoe says. "Now I know the Lord can take care of him."

Howard Bledsoe has been lucky. On the morning of the last disaster he was one of the 188 men who had just entered the mine a few minutes before the blast.

"He was supposed to have gone to the section where they had the explosion," Mrs. Bledsoe says. "But somebody gave him a little job in another part of the mine."

Bledsoe was one of the 166 who came out alive on that cold, rainy day.

The Bledsoes came here 32 years ago. "At first I didn't like it," says Mrs. Bledsoe. "I tried to talk him into going some place else to work. I thought a coal camp was terrible and I didn't want to raise my children in the coal fields."

"I actually separated myself from the people here because I had fear of them. I guess I had heard a lot more about it than there really was to worry about."

It was her husband's love for his work that caused Mrs. Bledsoe to stop her protests. Now she admits: "We've managed to raise three nice sons who still love to come back home."

All three Bledsoe boys work in Washington, D. C., where their mother would like to live after Howard's retirement on June 10, 1962. Howard, though,

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY
Q. How can I repair the plastic frames of my eyeglasses, which have broken?

A. Mend these with acetone, sold at most drugstores. Place the broken pieces together holding firmly, then dip the end of a matchstick or cotton swab in the acetone and touch to the broken sections. Repeat until the acetone has melted the plastic around the broken area. The pieces will fuse together and harden in about 30 minutes.

Q. How can I remedy gloves whose fingers are a little too tight?

A. Insert a clean, cold curling iron into each finger. Open the iron slightly to stretch gently, pulling the iron out slowly at the same time to avoid "fan"

Texas' Educational Needs Explained By Dr. Cornette

A vital and immediate need for better financing of higher education was outlined Monday by Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State College at Canyon.

Speaking at the Hereford Rotary Club meeting, Dr. Cornette explained that much of the need comes because of the continuing spiral of population and a demand for more education.

"The number of students enrolling in college is going to double within the next ten years," he said.

Private and denominational colleges and universities now are accommodating about 40 per cent of the total number enrolled, he said. But the huge increase won't be absorbed by private schools, which means that state institutions will have to be ready for the flood of students.

"We are getting to the point in our colleges where we were 20 years ago in our high school program. You remember that many of our high school students used to be educated in private and parochial schools, which were unable to grow fast enough to take care of the students."

Dr. Cornette outlined the structure of a committee which has been formed by Texas' 18 state-supported colleges and universities.

Two main facts are immediately apparent, he explained. First, higher education has increased in cost mostly because more people are going to college. Second, the increased support given our colleges has not been as great as our personal income increases.

Dr. Cornette, speaking as a private citizen, urged the immediate passage of a state sales tax. "This is the most fair and equitable tax measure available," he commented. "It also is the state's largest untapped source of revenue and would spread the tax among more people than would an income or other type of tax."

est untapped source of revenue and would spread the tax among more people than would an income or other type of tax."

Texas has three large, untapped sources of revenue, Dr. Cornette said. A general sales and gross receipts tax would immediately net the state about $247 millions, while an individual income tax would bring in $126 millions and a corporate income tax would add about $70 millions.

"Unless Texas does a better job of providing education funds, your children will be taught by people who are becoming steadily less qualified to teach," he commented.

Since Sputnik, everyone has been discussing the difference between Russian and American education, Dr. Cornette said, but most of them are unaware of the facts.

Key figures in the comparison, he said, was the percentage of the Gross National Product used for education. The United States, with a GNP of $435 billions, spent about 2.5 per cent for education. Russia, with a GNP of about $110 billions, spent more than 10 per cent, or slightly more than the U. S.

Another comparison he made was the average college instructor's salary, compared with the day wage for unskilled labor. In the U. S., the instructor is paid about 2.5 times as much as the laborer, while this soars to 16 times as much in Russia.

Dr. Cornette closed by pointing out that Texans are hurting their future industrial growth by not up - grading and adequately supporting their colleges and universities.

By JIMMIE GILLENTE

Politicians have a saying that it is impossible to please everybody, and I guess that is right. Tuesday morning, following the second rain of the week, I ran into Ralph Hastings, and he was wearing one of those king - size smiles. "It's wonderful," declared Ralph - and offered to buy coffee for the entire crowd. Some 10 paces away I encountered James Hutson, who was talking about "over two inches - and no hail." The next fellow was Red Coffin, the cabbage king, and he was wearing a frown.

"It was terrible," allowed Red. "Nothing can mess up a cabbage crop like a rain at the wrong time. I wish it would snow in the winter, then quit; that way I could put on water when it does some good."

A lot of people were also talking about the wheat on the Lee Benefield place at the southeast corner of town. I would guess around 75 per cent of that wheat is on the ground, and not from hail. The growth was so lush that it apparently fell from its own weight when the wind and rains came. They can probably pick up a lot in harvest, but the stand looked like 60 - bushel wheat. Many other farmers who fertilize and irrigate have been running into the same trouble. Looks as if we are due for some new wheat varieties, or we can expect some change in farming methods.

Jimmy Sears has the best summer deal of any youngster I know. He landed a job with a manufacturing electronics concern in Sweden for the summer, and expects to have a limited time for some European travel during the period. He also has it nice on board and room, too, with an invitation to stay in the home of the firm president during his working period. Jimmy departed for the job last week.

Bill Gentry is back in the safflower business in a big way this year. He says that no location has been determined for the proposed extracting plant, and that Hereford is still considered. It looks to me like a toss - up probably between Hereford and Amarillo.

Bill Howard says, "For goodness sake, tell everyone I wasn't the one who said that crappie weighed four pounds!" And he is right, Jack Gilliland was the guy who affixed the weight. However, Bill says the fish really did weigh two and one - half pounds - and that's a lot of crappie.

Russian Premiere Khrushchev's visit to Cuba, probably around July 26, seems to carry more weight than most of us like to realize. At the same time, it should shake loose a few of those non - communist followers now in the Castro ranks. Most of all, though, it pretty well discloses the true thinking and intent of Neighbor Castro. The Soviet boss, in addition, is expected to make a bid for Brazil in the Russian effort to win South American trade and support.

J. W. Robinson called to say that Cecil Massey, former Hereford city manager, C-C manager and Lions Club president, has been elected Lions governor in the Weatherford - Ft. Worth district. Hereford folks contributed to Massey's success during the race, too; around 12 or 15 of the boys framed a lengthy telegram extolling Massey's virtues, and concluded it: "Please elect this man. If you fail, he might come back to Hereford." They sent it to convention headquarters - collect, of course!

The consumption of sandwiches in Hereford is up around 2,000 per cent these days, thanks to the fact that most of the churches are conducting their Vacation Bible Schools. Seems like you run into one every time you turn around.

Students who had courses and assignments to complete the past year can now do the laughing. Bob was busy this week packing things for a trek to Austin, where he will attend special classes on "Management". Bob was awarded a scholarship for the purpose. He says it all boils down to Wes Izzard's phrase, "People Planners", but he is right happy at being chosen for the scholarship - and it is a nice honor for Hereford and our school system.

Clayton Jay was telling me that hindweed originally came into this country from China, when along came Abe Martin with a story about not catching a single trout more than eight inches long. I used to divide the length of Abe's fish by half to arrive at the real size - which makes his 1960 catch fairly small.

Abe insists that fishermen are changing with the times. He says, instead of making the stories big, they make them smaller. That way, no one wants to go where you went - and they can save the good spots for future trips. He might be right, too. Ross Latham probably puts more pounds of fish in his freezer each year than any other fellow in town - and Ross, no matter where he goes, will invariably tell you that fishing was "only fair". A few old timers like Wayne Edwards, Joe Bishop and Jim Lipscomb might still use an elastic measuring tape but, for the most part, these modern fishermen are pretty cagey. They really are.

Father: "Go wash your hands right now!"
Son: "Both of them?"
Father: "No, just one - I'd like to see you do it."

A Tour Of Courthouse, Jail Work

NEW COUNTY JAIL is almost completed. Ceilings are off-white while cells and walls will be light green. Jail is to be completed in about two weeks.

MAMMOTH DISTRICT COURTROOM is going to be one of the most drastically-changed when workers finish. The balconies have been walled off, ceiling lowered with acoustical tile, new windows and even a new arrangement

WITH NO CONCERN, this worker readies an opening for new aluminum windows in the district courtroom. He's working three stories up, but doesn't let that distract him . . . much.

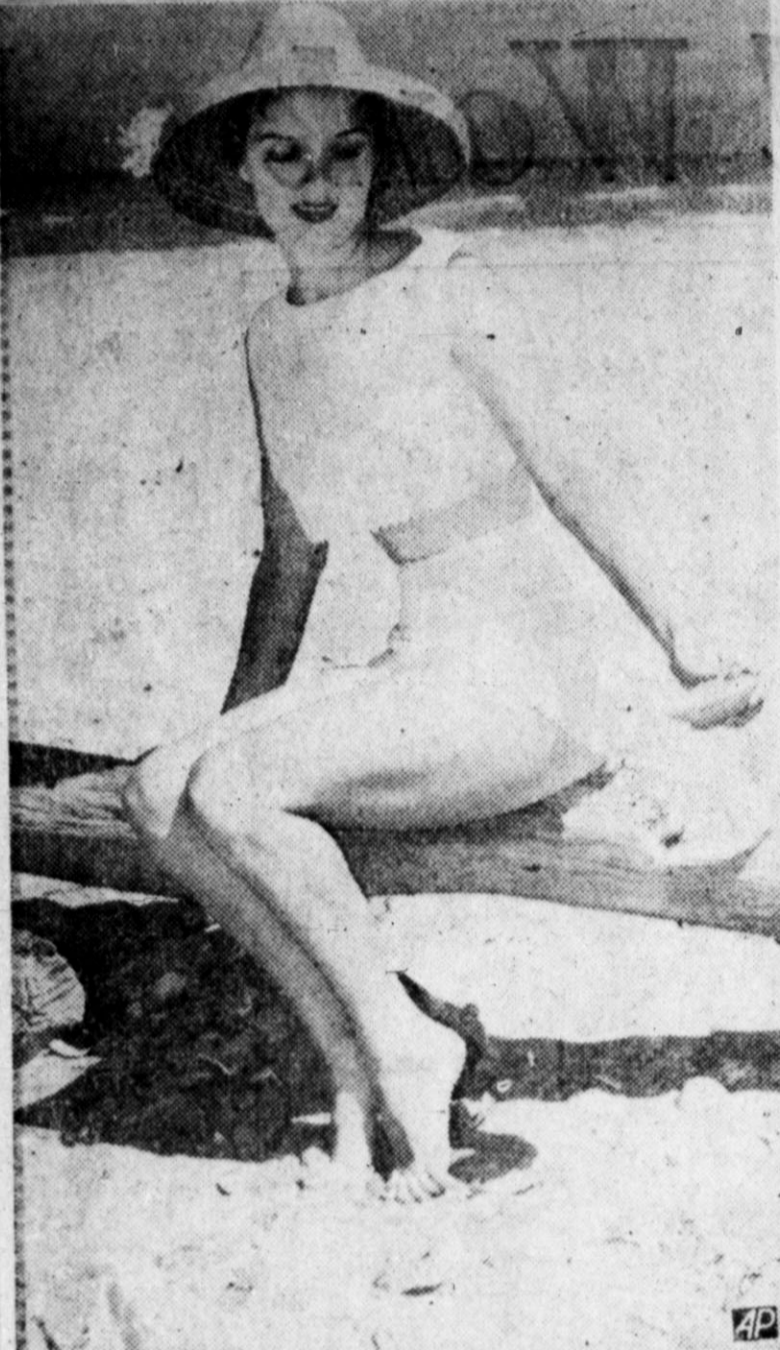

RICKETY, LEAKY SKYLIGHTS above the main stairways have been removed. Fast-starting fluorescent fixtures covered with translucent plastic screens will provide light on the stairs.

ONE OF THE MAJOR CHANGES in the acoustics at less cost. This worker is putting up the edge molding that will hold up mineral, acoustical tile, provide more efficient lighting and better

YANKS WIN SATURDAY

Cards Shut-Out The Dodgers, 2-0

Two Cardinal pitchers combined to throw a shut-out against the Dodgers Monday night, allowing just one hit. They won 2-0 in a tight defensive game.

Gary Rayne allowed just three men on base during the first four innings, but weakened in the fifth. After loading the bases, he was relieved by Ed Mims who retired the side to put out the fire. Meanwhile the Cardinals were gathering seven hits, which were well scattered.

It was a scoreless ballgame until the top of the fourth, when the Cards managed to get one run on two hits. Ed Mims singled and went to second on an error. An unsuccessful fielder's choice moved him to third. Larry Brown sacrificed to score Mims.

The Cards got another run in the sixth. Brant Knox walked and moved to second on Larry Brown's single. He advanced to third as Brown was forced at second on Phillip Cain's grounder. An error that allowed Mark Manning to reach first scored Knox.

Shortstop Bill Watts got a double in the third, the only hit for the Dodgers.

The Cards committed no errors, while the Dodgers were charged with four.

Payne struck out seven and Mims three for the Cardinals. Doug Watson pitched the entire game for the Dodgers, striking out five and walking four. Payne walked five and Mims one. Payne also hit two batters.

In a make-up game Saturday night, the Yankees dropped the Giants 11-4. David Marcontell was credited with the victory. He got relief late in the game from Felix Allbar.

Alex Guerrero started for the Giants was relieved by Andy Channer, who was charged with the loss.

Kenny Justice hit a homer for the Giants in the third inning.

There were no minor league games either night.

Cincinnati won only 19 of 75 NBA basketball games last season. Things could be better next season if Oscar Robertson turns pro after the Olympics in Rome.

Relative Of Former Resident Dies Of Injuries

Mrs. Effie Parks, sister-in-law of former Hereford resident Mrs. Jim Minor, died in a Victoria, Okla. hospital June 6 of injuries suffered in a May 5 tornado which struck Wilberton, Okla.

The tornado also killed Mrs. Minor's brother and a brother-in-law. Mrs. Parks had been seriously injured, but believed to have been improving in the hospital. She was 60 years old.

Chiang Kai-Shek, received military training as a youth while a student in Japan.

A MIAMI CAREER

MIAMI, Fla. — John Anderson, who trained here with Baltimore during the spring, is pitching for the Miami Marlins for the fifth season. Last year he had a 12-9 record with Miami. His overall mark for four previous years here was 20-20. Formerly the property of Philadelphia, Anderson is 27.

OPEN COURSE IN SHAPE

DENVER — "It's beautiful," explained Joe Dey, executive director of the United States Golf Assn., when he saw the Cherry Hills course this spring. "I don't usually expect to find a course in this fine shape until late May."

Cherry Hills will be the scene of the U. S. Open June 16-18.

STRAWBERRY MARSHMALLOW PIE

RICH LUSCIOUS WARM-WEATHER DESSERT

YOU'LL NEED:
 1 cup PET Evaporated Milk
 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
 1 1/4 cups fine graham cracker crumbs
 32 marshmallows
 1 tablesp. grated lemon rind
 1/4 cup lemon juice
 1/4 cup water
 1 quart fresh strawberries, sliced

Chill 1/2 cup PET Milk in ice tray until almost frozen around the edges. Meanwhile, press on bottom and sides of 9-in. pie pan a mixture of butter and crumbs. Chill until needed. Put 1/2 cup PET Milk and marshmallows into 1-qt. saucepan. Cook and stir over low heat until marshmallows melt. Take from heat. Stir in lemon rind, lemon juice and water. Chill until very thick, but not set. Put ice-cold milk into cold 1-qt. bowl. Using chilled beaters, whip with electric mixer at high speed or with rotary hand beater, until stiff. Fold into marshmallow mixture. Fold in strawberries. Put into crumb crust. Chill until firm, about 1 hr.

WIRE REMOVED FROM HEART — Nurse Sally Perry holds the piece of baling wire, left, removed from the heart of Glenn Harrison at Dallas' Baylor Medical Center. The longer wire, right, was brought to the hospital by his family to aid surgeons in the operation. The 3/4-inch tip was snipped off by Harrison's power mower and fired into his heart. A team of 12 persons including 4 surgeons removed the wire in a 6 1/2 hour open heart operation. (AP Wirephoto)

Moth Ball Container
Old, discarded nylon stockings make excellent containers for moth balls, placed in your clothes storage bag or box.

Fat Strainer
Old, discarded nylon stockings do a wonderful job of straining used fat. Cut the stockings into round pieces two inches larger than mason jars, then fasten these to the tops of the jars with rubber bands.

Stone Crocks
Stoneware crocks and jars should have cold water and a little soap placed in them, and should be filled, before being used.

Camper's Butter
The outdoor enthusiast who is en route to camp can prevent his butter from melting if he will pack it in its original carton in the inside of a sack of flour. The butter will keep there for several weeks in perfect condition, even in the warmest weather.

Broom Handle
To prevent the handle of a push-broom from working loose and cracking off the wooden threads, place an ordinary garden hose washer, on the threaded end before screwing it into the head.

Substitute Paint Remover
If you're caught short of turpentine or other paint remover, try using some cigarette lighter fluid to clean the spots off your hands.

Loose Grippers
When the grippers on children's overalls or other clothing won't stay closed, after frequent washings, take a sharp, small screwdriver or other tool and push the teeth of the gripper top (the side with the hole) together. The grippers will then snap shut and hold tightly.

The Queensboro Bridge, which opened in 1909 to connect the boroughs of Manhattan and Queens in New York City, was built at a cost of 18 million dollars.

Rotary Mower Hazards Listed

College Station—Did you know a rotary power lawn mower blade travels at speeds up to 150 miles per hour and is capable of throwing sticks, stone, or other objects at comparable speeds? Imagine what would happen if you were hit by one of these fast-flying objects.

Power lawn mowers are now in the majority both in town and among farm people. Along with their increased use has been a closely related increase in accidents involving both operators and bystanders. Most accidents have been due to carelessness or lack of knowledge on the part of the individual.

W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, offers these suggestions on how to operate your rotary power lawn mower safely and efficiently.

Always disconnect spark plug wire before working on the blade.

A clean sharp blade does a better cutting job and requires less power.

Never operate mower with safety shields removed.

Make sure all rocks and debris are removed from the area before close mowing.

Do not refill the gasoline tank when engine is hot or running.

Run mower as slow as possible to do good work.

Keep children and pets away from mowers.

Always be certain of sure footing when mowing on steep slopes.

Never leave engine running when mower is unattended.

Make sure mower is steady and under control before starting engine.

Always be aware of the hazards involved when you are using the power mower. Don't get caught napping.

C OF C SCOUT 'Deaf' Smith Says

TO: THE SPIRIT OF GENERAL SAM HOUSTON FROM: THE SPIRIT OF E-RASTUS "DEAF" SMITH SUBJECT: REPORT ON ACTIVITIES OF MY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Sam, the people in the county they named after me are beginning to look toward the future, particularly in regard to the water supply. Hereford and Deaf Smith County have grown because of the abundant supply of underground water available for agricultural irrigation. The very growth that the availability of water has spurred, though, is causing an ever increasing drain on the water supply.

Engineers still argue about the source of our water, whether it is a pool, where its source is, and whether that pool can be emptied. The facts are, though, that we are drawing water out faster than nature can replace it. It takes twenty inches of rain to raise the water table one inch. The table has been dropping much more rapidly than that and many of the shallow wells have had to be abandoned or deepened.

Is there a solution? Well, the Chamber of Commerce, along with a great many other people, are concerned about the problem. The Directors appointed Les Combs to head a special water study committee to work with existing agencies and determine possible solutions. Investigation into the possibility of damming Tierra Blanca Creek above Hereford does not look promising.

Buffalo Lake has not been filled to its capacity since the early '40's (1940, Sam, not 1840) and that lake draws its water from Tierra Blanca and would have prior water rights.

There is a possibility, but not a promising one, that water could be drawn from Buffalo Lake for municipal use, but again, with the level of the lake remaining low, the source is not very sure.

The Chamber of Commerce water committee, at this point, believes the best probable solution is to seek entry into the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority.

With agreement having been reached between Amarillo and Lubbock in recent weeks, the possibility of realizing the completion of The Canadian River Dam is much better. The committee believes that if the City of Hereford could draw its water supply from that source, even at the possible risk of paying a higher rate and losing the "Town Without A Toothache" water, that water for irrigation would be conserved.

The Water Committee is attempting to get city and county representation before the meeting of the Canadian River Authority board which was slated Monday, June 6, in Plainview to determine the necessary and desirable future course of action. The Executive Director of the Authority has also been asked to come to Hereford and discuss the question before a Chamber of Commerce luncheon meeting later this month.

In any event there is general agreement that without water for irrigation, Hereford and Deaf Smith County could not continue their growth.

Sam, that's my report for this week.

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

Game Would Die In Event Of Agreement

To the people of the 18th District:

One of the most curious pastimes to emerge in the United States during the past 15 years is a parlor game called "What's Wrong With America."

People of all ages and occupations, prompted by the compelling nature of our country's foreign and domestic affairs, indulge almost daily in this simple substitute for Canasta and Scrabble. "What's Wrong With America," which has achieved an almost universal appeal today, is one of the most unprecedented and deadly serious activities developed since World War II.

The object for each player is to outline in some detail his assessment of the "mistakes" America has made and the fearsome future she faces. Two or more players seldom agree, and even less seldom achieve any ideas for a solution. Political disagreement, of course, is as American as the Fourth of July and has lent distinction to our history for more than 180 years.

But "What's Wrong With America" is more than a political disagreement. In many respects it is strictly non-partisan. The recent debate in Congress over the so-called Civil Rights Bill was a clear-cut issue, with opponents and supporters. It was discussed almost entirely on its merits or lack of same. But when we begin playing "What's Wrong With America," much of our effort is disjointed and all but lacking in purpose.

The game dies if an agreement should be reached on "what's wrong," just as one of our television Westerns would collapse if the hero ever lost one of those Main Street duels. If anything at all is really wrong with America, it is probably the fact that for the first time in our history public opinion ranges across such a wide field as to inhibit the thoroughgoing, prompt, and effective action that has been our hallmark for so long.

This scattering of public opinion would not be unusual so long as it was directed to specific public issues. But so much of the world is out of step with itself that many who deal with "issues" discover a tremendous growth of ambiguity within the public forum since 1945. In the backwash of momentous technological, economic, diplomatic, and social strides taken since V-J Day, the "issues" have simply not been given the opportunity to settle down into any sort of sharp pattern.

As a result, the world at large has lost a number of extremely important allies. These allies not geographical entities, but are psychological concepts such as "predictability" in foreign affairs or "clarity" in domestic policies. Much of our time on the international scene is spent on the defensive simply because we are so often incapable of translating Russian action into commonly accepted terms.

At home, so much of our life is burgeoning with our efforts to get a grip on the subtle implications of this or that policy that little time remains to seek out a national purpose as a whole and act upon this purpose with dignity, determination, and vitality.

The American people, in a majority of cases, have not yet decided what, if anything, is "wrong". And obviously, very little can be done by either government or by individuals to correct the situation when we are vague and inept about basic problems and issues. Countless goals, which almost everyone wishes to pursue, have been "reached" by sweeping them under the rug with a slight change here and there. The goal is thus only put off, not actually reached, and the process strongly suggests the approach to an appealing but illusory mirage in the midst of a great desert.

We are not going to measurably reduce our serious national debt, for example, with a sporadic budgetary surplus now and then. This task will require much more in the way of a carefully planned program accepted and understood by enough citizens to keep it rolling.

A profound gap exists between the political, social, and economic postures which events have forced us to adopt on the one hand and our basic understanding of these postures on the other. This gap, more than anything else, has sparked our vague search for something "wrong". I earnestly believe that "What's Wrong With America" can be played with immense profit for each of us as well as our nation.

We can struggle to seek out and define our nation's problems with the knowledge that we eventually succeed in clarifying the forces of the 20th Century. But this must not obscure our search for the understanding which will close the gap in our knowledge and place us, once again, with God's help, on the road to confidence and vitality.

It was my great pleasure last week to meet Miss Wanda May Wood of Shamrock. Miss Wood will receive her Bachelor of Arts Degree on Monday, June 6th, here in Washington from Gallaudet College, the world's only college for the deaf, and she has been elected to the scholastic honor society of Gallaudet. Not only has she achieved membership in the Phi Alpha Pi Society of the College, but she also has received the Thomas S. Marr Award for outstanding academic achievement and scholarship, graduating with the highest average in her class.

Additionally, Wanda has recently reigned as Sweetheart of Alpha Sigma Pi Fraternity during its Annual Carnival held at Gallaudet, having been named Sweetheart in honor of her leadership, scholarship and character.

I certainly share the pride of her family, of her community, and of all the people of the Panhandle in the accomplishments and example of this wonderful young lady.

Dr. Clarence Hicks

Dr. Hicks Explains Medical Profession

Dr. Clarence Hicks of Hereford was guest speaker at the noon meeting of Hereford Kiwanis Club Thursday in I. O. O. F. hall.

Dr. Hicks, a Kiwanian, told of the education required to become a medical doctor. After high school, he said, education requirements include four years of college, four years of medical school, one year internship and from three to five years residency. Minimum age of the doctor after required education is completed is from 30 to 32 years.

Types of doctors, he said, include general practitioner, pediatrician, obstetrician, pathologist, radiologist, psychiatrist, surgeon, internist and physical therapist.

Types of clinics are: (1) a group of doctors all doing the same type of practice. Each has his own practice with some shifts in care to cover night calls, emergencies and vacation, and (2) a group of specialists with enough variety represented so that they together are a family physician. Patients are directed to a physician according to the type of illness. With group records the doctor has a lot of background information and does not have to "start over," he said.

Rabies Reported In Many Areas

COLLEGE STATION — Many reports of rabid animals—chiefly foxes and skunks—are coming in from over the State, says Edwin Cooper, extension wildlife specialist.

Since complete eradication of animals subject to carrying rabies is almost impossible, everyone should be aware of methods which lessen the possibility of contracting the disease, Cooper continues.

Contrary to popular belief, rabid animals do not have "running fits" nor "froth at the mouth." A rabid animal is usually characterized by symptoms of paralysis and loss of their usual fear of humans or natural enemies. Therefore, Cooper says children should be cautioned to avoid any animal which appears to be acting strangely.

Foxes, strange dogs and skunks especially should be avoided. Rabies also can be carried by domestic livestock, bats, squirrels and several other mammals. Rabies may occur during any season of the year, Cooper emphasizes. A "deodorized" pet skunk, for example, may be a dangerous creature to have around, in spite of the novelty and interest it may afford.

If a person is bitten by any type of wild or domestic animal, the person should immediately report to the family doctor after making every effort to capture and pen the attacking animal for observation purposes if this can be done safely. If it is a wild animal, it should be killed unless capture can be accomplished without risk of another attack. Instructions for having the animal checked for rabies can be obtained from your doctor or veterinarian. Consult your veterinarian to make certain your pets are properly vaccinated. Stray, untaged or suspicious acting domestic or wild animals should be reported immediately.

NEWMANS RETURN
Mr. and Mrs. Don Newman and son returned home Sunday after being gone for two weeks. Mrs. Newman and Mark visited with her family in Bryan. Newman, a Captain in the U. S. Army Reserve, spent two weeks training with the 45th Transportation Company at Ft. Sill, Okla.

Falcon is having the best first year any car ever had... over 250,000 already sold since introduction... going at the record rate of 10,000 every week. What makes Falcon the world's most successful new car?

Economy!

To begin with, Falcon is America's very lowest-priced 6-passenger car... $64 to $154 less than the other compacts. "Falcon delivers the best fuel economy of the three new compact cars," says Motor Trend magazine. Owner reports and fleet operator logs consistently show Falcon mileage figures of up to 30 miles per gallon with regular gas.

Falcon goes 4,000 miles between oil changes, costs less to service, less to license and in most places, less to insure.

Falcon saves you more and still gives you full room for 6 big people and all their luggage. Small wonder Falcon has become first so fast!

This Fruit

... looks like an apple from a good tree. God used this parable to teach an authoritative lesson of truth to some who were calling, "Lord, Lord." He answered, saying, "Not everyone that calls me Lord, shall get to heaven." He spoke plainly and used small words, and said, "Only those who bear good fruit will make it." See this tree loaded with fine fruit! Few of us stop to ponder its history. But every orchard expert knows well every sound tree. The good fruit is detectable from way off. The lesson is clear. Goodness all the way to the core is the kind of fruit God wants. Soundness of heart, purity of mind and integrity of character are essential if one's fruit is to please God. No one gathers grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles. Read the Sermon on the Mount; Meditate on I Corinthians; Hear what He says in Romans 8 and 12. Here one will find soil where good trees may grow and from which good fruit may be gathered.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Tidelands Ruling Is Moral Victory

By VERN SANFORD
 AUSTIN — In a period of deep gloom about state finances, Texans had to pinch themselves to believe the good news. U. S. Supreme Court ruled that Texas does indeed own its tidelands for 10½ miles out — just as Texans have been claiming for 115 years.

Financially, it's a long-range gain at best. But as a moral victory for Texas principles, it's the biggest thing since the Battle of San Jacinto.

Revenue from the publicly owned land will go into the permanent school fund. Problem of Texas' bankrupt general fund is unchanged.

How much money comes to the school fund will depend on how much oil is under the submerged lands and how good is the market. Money going into the permanent school fund — from mineral leases, royalties, bonuses, etc. — is invested, and only the income from these investments may be used for current school spending.

Thus far, the oil yield from Texas tidelands has been far from spectacular. There have been only 24 producing oil wells and 47 gas wells in 22 years. But if conditions are promising, oil men undoubtedly will keep trying. As an immediate effect, the state will get some $29,000,000 in mineral payments that accumulated while the issue of state or federal ownership was being thrashed out.

Gov. Price Daniel will spend his vacation politicking for U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson. First stop will be the National Governors Conference in Montana June 26 - 29. After that, said the governor, he'll vacation and visit around with other governors where he feels he can do the Texas favorite son's cause the most good.

And after that, he will go on to National Democratic Convention in Los Angeles July 11. Daniel predicted Johnson would lead on the first ballot at the convention.

Voters who oppose the federal income tax and the United Nations will find a haven in the Constitution Party. Like the Republicans and Democrats, the Constitution Party will hold a state convention June 14 to name delegates to a national convention.

At a preliminary meeting in Austin, delegates were selected and instructed to work for a ticket headed by J. Edgar Hoover for president and Tom J. Anderson of Nashville, Tenn. for vice president.

Constitution Party also nominated candidates for all state-wide offices except governor. Gubernatorial nominee was omitted, because if he should receive 200,000 or more votes in a general election, state law would require the party to go to the expensive primary nominating route next election year.

Deficit or no deficit, the State Hospital Board says the hospital system has increased money needs that must be reckoned with.

Board has voted to ask the Legislature for a $107,000,000 appropriation for the 1961 - 63 period. This would be $34,000,000 more than the present allocation.

Part of the extra funds, about $2,000,000 a year, would go to hire extra people so present staffers could change from the present 44-hour week to a 40-hour week. Board has recommended this change to put hospital employes on equal footing with those of other state agencies.

But the main problem, says the Board, is that the hospital system is getting more and more patients and needs more money to take care of them. In addition, it has the problem of caring for many oldsters who are not really mentally ill.

Another state agency with a story of urgent need for more state support is the Texas Youth Council.

Youth Council has the responsibility for trying to stem the tide of rising juvenile delinquency and also to provide homes for children who have none of their own.

For this task in 1961 - 63 the Council is asking for a $13,695,636 appropriation — up by $3,500,000 from the present.

Some of this would be used for new construction at the Gatesville Training School for Boys, Gainesville Training School for Girls, a state home for orphaned Negro children and for additions to the Waco and Corsicana State Homes for orphans.

It also would enable the Council to set up a parole supervision staff to follow up on the rehabilitation of youngsters released from training schools.

E. W. Killian has been named by the State Hospital Board to be superintendent of a new state school at Denton which will care for 1,050 mentally retarded patients. Killian has been superintendent of the Austin State School.

Rep. Frank McGregor of Waco withdrew from the race for Speaker of the House with a prediction that Rep. Wade Spilman of McAllen would win. McGregor said his poll indicates Spilman has 67 pledges with good prospect to get the nine more needed to win.

Some of Texas' potential statesmen of the 1970's will gain early experience in practical politics when 565 senior high school boys come to Austin for a five-day Boys State meeting ending June 11. Group is divided into political "parties" and elects state officials from the governor down. American Legion sponsors the "laboratory in citizenship" for outstanding teenagers.

James N. Ludlum has left his post as first assistant attorney general to go into private law practice with Jake Jacobsen, former administrative assistant to Governor Daniel.

Texas farm prices, by mid-May, were down two per cent from a month ago and 10 per cent from a year ago. U. S. Dept. of Agriculture noted that livestock and livestock products had the biggest drop — 7 per cent from a month ago and 11 per cent from a year ago.

GAS STRETCHING ECONOMY
mountain shrinking performance
CORVAIR GIVES YOU BOTH!

The same Corvair that rolled up a whopping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run turned around to scale snow-glazed Pikes Peak earlier in the season than any other car has ever dared to try. What better proof could you ask (official United States Automobile Club observers were aboard every mile of the way) of Corvair's rare combination of light-fingered steering, sure-footed traction and tight-fisted economy? Drop down to your dealer's and see for yourself what it took to make a gallon of gas look so big and 14,110 feet of mountain look so small!

BACK TO HOSPITAL

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Mrs. Emily Ferguson, 56, injured her leg in a fall at home and went to the hospital for treatment. On the way back home she lost control of her auto, hit a fence, sideswiped a parked vehicle and rammed into a power pole. She told officers the pain in her leg forced her to drive with only one foot. She was taken back to the same hospital for treatment of injuries suffered in the crash.

OFF THE Shelf

By H. A. TUCK
The View From the Fortieth Floor by Theodore H. White is the six weeks of crisis in the life of two magazines. It is a current novel from the Deaf Smith County Library. John Ridgeley Warren is President and Chairman of the Board of General American Publishing. He was brought in two years before to minister to the ailing national magazines, Trumpet and Gentlewoman. The other three phases of the company are small, weekly trade publications, textbooks and radio stations, all of which are healthy concerns. Warren finds he has pushed Trumpet's circulation near seven million to make it the leader of the field. But advertising hasn't kept pace with the growth. Another headache is the two millions invested in a new color press. Money problems multiple and Warren walks a tightrope of bankruptcy as he tries to salvage the magazines in a town that can scent illness and business death like wolves. Warren's position also is odd, since his stock options and the health of other company phases could skyrocket stock prices and net him half a million dollars or more if he kills the two national magazines. Most of the board members look upon the two magazines, not as old publishing giants and towers of influence, but as pawns in a game of finance. Warren is torn between his board and loyalty to the staff members who have devoted years of service to the magazines. And his personal agony is increased as he finds love still smolders among the ashes of his broken marriage. White's story moves quickly and deftly through the crucial weeks after it becomes apparent the magazines must have new financial backing or be killed. The View From the Fortieth Floor is exciting reading, fast-paced and sustained in action to the final page.

HORSES ARE AUTOMATION

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP)—Gerald Wheelock and his nephew, Dean, have devised a form of automation to snake logs from the forest at their logging site near here. But they have to say "giddy-up" to get it started. They've trained a pair of horses to skid logs out of the woods along the 1,000-foot trail without benefit of reins or a driver. Gerald hooks the logs up to horse No. 1, gives him a gentle pat and off the animal goes to the loading ramp. When No. 1 arrives, Dean starts No. 2 back on the trail for another load. They say the two trained horses save the big expense of tractors and loaders to get the pulpwood logs out of the woods.

EARLY TRADITIONS
ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Veneration of the dead was an important part of Christian community life as early as the Third Century, when the shrine of St. Peter was set up on Vatican hill, Prof. Richard Krauthelmer, an authority on early Christian architecture, said in a University of Michigan lecture.

Wyoming's football team will play home games next fall against New Mexico, Denver, Air Force and Utah.

Blue Denim... Explored with dignity and insight, the problem of decent young people who start to drive get them into trouble is forcefully brought home in this worthwhile film to both parents and older boys and girls. The impact of terror when the girl finds she is pregnant, and both she and the boy are afraid to tell their parents, is shared by the audience. Even mothers and fathers whose children are small will be able to see how mutual confidence and communication must be built up over the years. Carol Lantry as the girl and Brandon de Wilde as the boy are appealing and convincing, both in their startled awakening to love and the stunned realization of its aftermath. Moreover, they are held strictly responsible, even to their own part in the failure to bridge the gap of understanding with their parents. Everyone, in fact, is given fair but uncompromising treatment. A. Excellent. Y-Excellent for mature young people. (20th C-Fox)
