No New Clues After Pair Are Nabbed Here Tuesday

BY DAN MUDD
BRAND STAFF REPORTER
A Fort Worth police character who last month was indicted for the burglary of Cooper's Market in Hereford again found himself in the hands of local law enforcement officers Tuesday after five empty money bags identified as having come from the market were found beside a dirt road six miles east of Hereford.

Arrested at a roadblock a mile west of Umbarger Tuesday afternoon were Garrett Milton Ramsey, 26, and his attractive companion, Elinor Mills, 27, a Sacramento, Calif., woman now of Fort Worth.

Both were released after being questioned by Hereford police and Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department officers Tuesday night. No charges were filed against the woman, and Ramsey was released on his original $10,000 bond.

The five money bags apparently were unearthed on the Walter Russell Ranch, where a number of freshly-dug holes were discovered near a dirt road.

Ramsey has been indicted in the Jan. 19 burglary of Cooper's Market, in which about $9,000 in cash and checks were taken from a floor safe.

During interrogation at the Sheriff's office Tuesday evening, Ramsey told officers: "I came here for the purpose of finding those checks. I'm interested in helping the man (Cooper) get his checks back, and that's the only reason I'm here."

Ramsey and the woman were arrested at 4:58 p.m. west of Umbarger on Highway 60 in her 1958-model convertible. They offered no resistance during the roadblock arrest.

Often tagged as the number one hoodlum in Fort Worth by authorities of that city, Ramsey smoked cigars and was calm during interrogation. He

City and school officials Monday night talked about operation of their equalization boards and decided on joint meetings during urban phases of tax equalization meetings. Three members of the Hereford Rural High School Board of trustees visited the City Commission meeting. By law, each equalization board is limited to three persons. After some discussion, the board members were named by each group.

Serving on the city's equalization board will be Dr. B. M. Wiltshire, Sam Nunnally and A. J. Schroeter. Those to serve on the school's equalization group will be Ira Scott, Charles Noland and Jim Bob Allison. Time and place of the meetings will be announced later.

A Hereford butane truck driver Tuesday afternoon reported that he saw some youngsters burying something beside a dirt road east of Hereford. The information, called in to Hereford Butane Company, was relayed to the Deaf Smith County Sheriff's office.

Jack Weaver's term expires this year on the Walcott Common School District board. Of the four posts, only one candidate has announced. A petition has been submitted to place Jim Monroe on the ballot for election to the Walcott board.

Judge Zimmerman announced that announcement of candidacy or submission of a petition bearing the names of five qualified voters must be done in the County Judge's office not later than 30 prior to the election.

Polling places for the April 1 election also were announced. Commissioner's Precinct 1 will vote in the license examination room of the courthouse and at Dawn School House; Commissioner's Precinct 2 will vote in the Commissioners' Courtroom in the courthouse; and Commissioner's Precinct 4 will vote in the Ford School House.

Wilson said the City Commission would go ahead with its plans to open bids on the proposed work. Bids have been asked and are to be opened at a special Commission meeting at 5 p.m. Monday, Feb. 27.

Voters Turn Down $220,000 Bond Proposal, 540 to 254

A $220,000 bond issue proposal for street repair and paving was turned down by Hereford voters Tuesday. The overwhelming margin was 540 against and 254 in favor.

From the total vote of 803, there were nine ballots thrown out because of irregularities. Turnout was far higher than in any other recent city election, attributed to interest in the proposal and very favorable weather.

Observers were split as to the top-heavy vote against the proposal. Some said it was because of the eight cent tax increase which would have gone into effect. Others at-

County School Post Deadline Is On March 1

Deadline for filing for a place as a candidate of any of four county school posts is Wednesday, March 1. Announcement was made of the pending elections by County Judge Don D. Zimmerman, who also is the ex officio county school superintendent.

Three posts will be up for election in the county school board and another in the Walcott School District board.

Those whose terms expire this year include Melvin May in Commissioner's Precinct 1; J. C. Morrison in Commissioner's Precinct 2 and H. M. Benson in Commissioner's Precinct 4.

At stake in Tuesday's election was widening of Third Street from Schley east to Park Avenue from 31 to 47 feet, storm drainage at the intersection of Park and Avenue K, new paving on Grand from U. S. 385 east to Avenue G and re-topping of nearly all residential streets in Hereford.

Certain other streets in Hereford also were scheduled for paving.

Estimated cost of the project was $209,869, with the remainder of the issue available for contingencies and in case the bids went higher.

MORE THAN 800 poll taxes were stamped Tuesday during the city bond election. Presiding Judge Neil Cooper had the double duty of stamping poll taxes and writing his name on the back of each ballot. The $220,000 proposal was defeated by a wide margin. (Staff Photo)

'Trojan Woman' Won't Be 'Greek' To Its Audience

Once-in-a-blue-moon playgoers often avoid attending productions based on classic Greek literature. Because the misunderstanding of any small segment of the play ruins their entire comprehension of the plot or due to just plain poor acting — they sometimes leave the theater mumbling: "I guess it's supposed to be a good play, but it was all 'Greek' to me."

But such is not the case with Hereford High School Thespians' presentation of "The Trojan Women," which will be staged in the Hereford High School auditorium Thursday and Friday nights.

As Greek poet Euripides' version of how a famous war in Greek mythology paves a path of sorrow for women and children has undergone an expert modern translation by Richmond Lattimore, the 'Greek' has become simplicity.

Curtain time is 8 p.m., and tickets will be sold at the door each night of the production.

Sharon Hill, as Queen Hecuba, and James Gentry, as Tal-thybios, take the spotlight for their dramatic interpretations of the Homeric legend. In a role which could easily be overacted, Judy Bradley does an excellent portrayal of Helen of Troy.

A play such as "The Trojan Women" is seldom tackled by high school actors, but the Thespians have come up with a fine production for their six weeks' efforts. A little nervousness shown in their first dress rehearsal Monday night should be smoothed out shortly after the curtain opens Thursday night.

John Buck, cast as Poseidon, god of the sea and patron of defeated Troy, laments the disaster brought upon his city by the goddess Athena, patron of the Greek forces, played by Audri Miller.

The play opens following the death of the last Trojan men — the day the Greeks are to take ship for their homeland.

Queen Hecuba of Troy, mother of Trojan hero Hector and of Paris, who stole Helen away, waits with the other women outside the gates of Troy — waiting word of their fate from Talthybios, the Greek diplomatic emissary.

Talthybios brings the news: Hecuba, the Trojan Queen, will go to Odysseus, most hated of the Greek kings.

Kassandra, the Queen's daughter, played by Shari Carmichael, has fallen to Agamemnon, king of Athens.

Andromache, wife of Prince Hector, played by Suzanne Langley, will go with the son of mighty Achilles.

Hubcaps And Gas Taken In Thefts

Hereford police this week are investigating the theft of six hubcaps and 50 gallons of gasoline, taken from two trucks owned by a Hereford resident over the past two weeks.

The series of thefts were reported to Hereford police Sunday evening by J. D. Tyler, 710 Knight St. Tyler said the thefts have occurred during the past two weeks, and he called police headquarters when he saw three youngsters around his trucks at 10:20 p.m. Sunday.

Investigating the report Sunday evening was Hereford police patrol officer James Neal.

Around Town

Garret Ramsey created quite a stir when he came back to the county this week. He is an affable man, with pleasing small talk and personality. He also is quite well versed in the law and speaks with authority on its limits. He chatted with officers on almost any subject, yet carefully corrected them when they tried to put words in his mouth. Although he told reporters Tuesday that his occupation was operating a used car lot in Fort Worth, he told a Hereford officer during his first arrest here, "I don't really expect to see 30 (he's now 26, but that's just one of the hazards of my profession.)"

This suit on allowing depletion deduction on irrigation water should be of vital concern to everyone in this area. Without a doubt, it will go all the way to the Supreme Court, and probably will be decided by a 5-4 vote. It would save a lot of effort if the water district could figure out which way the five would vote.

Shoplifting results in a major loss to local retailers, a loss which is reflected in prices. Some suggestions on how to prevent or curtail shoplifting losses will be offered by Hereford Police Chief Henry Aycock at a meeting of the Trade Promotion committee Thursday, Feb. 23. The meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. in the community room of the First National Bank. Coffee will be served and the (Continued on Page 2)

Elect Tannahill President Of New Key Club

Forty high school students signed up Tuesday night as charter members of a newly formed Key Club here. Charter memberships will remain open until Wednesday, March 1.

The junior service club's organization has been sponsored by the Hereford Kiwanis Club. Permanent officers were elected by the group following a covered dish meal in the Hereford High School cafeteria.

They include: Gary Tannahill, president; John Buck, vice president; Austin Hodges, secretary; and Randy Dowell, treasurer. Directors also were elected, one from each of the high school classes. Directors include David Dowell, sophomore class; Joe Schultz, junior class; and Lisle Patton, senior class.

Ken Walsler presided at the opening of the meeting as the temporary president. Among those attending were Jess Robinson, president of the Hereford Kiwanis Club, Bill Patton and Bartley Dowell, Kiwanians.

Patton explained the purpose of the club and how it should be conducted. He pointed out that Hereford is the first town in Division 7 of Kiwanis International to have a Key Club. The Division includes about 20 counties in this area, he said.

The sponsor is Robert L. Thompson, who will continue taking membership applications through Wednesday.

4-H Fun Festival Set Friday Night

Laughs galore and fun aplenty will be featured at the annual Deaf Smith County 4-H Share-the-Fun Festival scheduled Friday night at 7:30 p.m. at the Alkman Grade School auditorium.

Nine skits and stunts will be presented by the various 4-H clubs in the county. The winner of the junior and senior divisions will advance to district competition slated for April 29 on the campus of West Texas State College in Canyon. Skit entries in local, junior and senior divisions will compete Friday night for the best skit of the evening award.

Highlight of the evening will come as the County 4-H King and Queen are crowned. Dick Plank and Lu Anne Higgins, 1960 King and Queen, will crown this year's royalty. Each candidate was 13 years old by Jan. 1 and turned in an achievement type record book. Candidates for queen are Katherine Smith, Dortha Protwell 4-H Club; Janis Higgins and Carolyn Brumley, Willing Workers, 4-H Club; Kathryn James and Linda Loerwald, Merry Maidens 4-H Club.

Candidates for King are Larry Hill, Dawn 4-H Club; Jim Shearhart and Jim Higgins, Hereford 4-H Club.

Jim Higgins will act as master of ceremonies during the skit and stunt presentation. Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, will present the candidates for County King and Queen.

Ramsey....

(Continued from Page 1) Investigating the report, went to the home of Dub Maddox on the Russell Ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Maddox said they had previously stopped on the dirt road and talked to a man and woman who had said they were looking for a watch lost by the woman. They described the couple to McCarver, and Mrs. Maddox gave the officer a California license plate number she had jotted down when they were talking to the couple on the dirt road. Recognizing that the man's description fitted that of Ramsey, McCarver ordered a roadblock and headed for the spot where Mr. and Mrs. Maddox said the couple had been. The car had left the scene.

Another car, a brown or maroon 1955 or 1956-model vehicle, was reported to have been at the roadside that afternoon. The report was made to the Sheriff's office by an unknown person.

Mrs. Maddox said a brown car carrying a man, woman and little girl stopped in front of her home. The man inquired as to the location of the Lee Cocanougher Ranch, Mrs. Maddox told officers.

Officers were unable to find a car fitting that description in the area at the time the roadblock was staged.

McCarver found the five empty money bags at location of where the holes were dug. The bags were stacked on the shoulder of a bar ditch on the north side of the road, McCarver said.

Also found in the car driven by Ramsey were from 200-300 coin wrappers on the floorboard of the passenger side of the front seat.

Questioned on contents of the suitcase, the woman told officers the coins came from her daughter's piggy bank. Ramsey said the ashes on the floorboard of the rear seat came from an ashtray in the car.

Ramsey and his companion were arrested by Randall County Deputy Sheriff Calvin Cosley and Canyon city patrol officer George Reynolds at the roadblock.

Ramsey said he met his female companion in Fort Worth. The car is registered in her name.

The Fort Worth pair was questioned by officers for more than three hours.

Ramsey was connected with the Jan. 19 burglary of Cooper's Market when investigating officers found a wallet containing the social security card and various other papers bearing identification of Ramsey underneath a hole which has been cut in the roof of the building.

The Fort Worth man claimed that he had lost the wallet a few days before the local burglary was committed, and that he had not notified authorities that he had lost the billfold.

Ramsey, who was acquitted Aug. 20, 1958, in the slaying of Bobby Ray Foote, was charged with burglary a few hours after the burglary was discovered.

Ramsey has been free on $25,000 bond in the June, 1960.

Seven money bags reportedly were taken from the floor safe of Cooper's Market.

Officers Wednesday morning attempted to find two other money bags at the location where Ramsey and his companion reportedly had been seen.

The officers found five freshly-dug holes, two south of a fence, two around a knoll and another on the north shoulder of the dirt road.

County Gets WTCC Backing On Water Law

Directors of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce voted at a recent meeting to oppose, as a matter of policy, any form of water users fee or tax upon underground water. The resolution was presented to the Directors by Henry Sears, Deaf Smith County's representative. The need for the resolution was brought on by the fact that a study committee appointed by the Governor had made a recommendation which was interpreted to mean that all water users should be taxed to support the activities of the Texas Board of Water Engineers.

In arguing for the resolution it was pointed out that the water under the land is considered to be the property of the land owner; it was further pointed out that the property owners are already paying a tax for the use of that water through the much higher property valuations placed on irrigated land.

The Deaf Smith County delegation, made up of Sears, Chamber Manager Bill Thompson, and High Plains Water Conservation District attorney John Aikin, also supported a resolution which called for approval in principal of legislation proposed by the Texas Water Well Drillers Association. This legislation calls for licensing of well drillers and sets certain standards necessary to preserve the purity of water. Sears seconded this motion.

Sears also seconded a resolution calling for opposition to any legislation which would expand the number of state supported colleges or universities. The same resolution called for study of means to improve and upgrade the existing State schools. The meeting was held in Wichita Falls on Friday, Feb. 17, at the Holiday Inn Motel.

Here's To Better Spinning In 1961

BY HUGH MULLIGAN
It's too early to tell what the New Year has in store for the record industry, but it's never too early to wish upon a star for nice things to happen to the recording stars.

In 1961, the 12th year in the happy reign of the long playing record, an invention which probably has done as much for music as the printing press did for literature, we wish the best of everything to everyone in the music business.

But particularly we would like to see the New Year bring the following to the following:

Perry Como — Another great happy hit like "Catch a Falling Star" to add to his firmament of all-time best sellers.

Elvis Presley — A June wedding to some sweet, old-fashioned girl who will settle him down to the task of becoming the first rate singer that he proved he really is with his off-beat (for him) recording of "O Sole Mio."

Eileen Farrell — A long-time contract at the Metropolitan Opera, a big bouquet of roses from Maria Callas and a jazz album with Louis Armstrong.

Maria Callas — A fully orchestrated peace overture from Rudolph Bing, a triumphant return to the Met to match and even top her return to La Scala and a big bouquet of roses from Renata Tebaldi.

Mitch Miller — A "Sing Along at the Summit" album to charm world leaders into peace the way he has charmed the rest of us into nostalgic contentment.

Antal Dorati — Another booming, boisterous recording of the "1812 Overture," this time done with atomic cannons.

Arthur Fiedler — We got the beer mugs with that last Boston Pops album, now how about sending the beer?

Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe — Identical suits of armor to protect them from the cruel shafts of the critics while en route to the bank with royalty checks from "Camelot" albums.

Meredith Wilson — A front row seat in the reviewing stand at New York's St. Patrick's Day parade for restoring the march to its rightful place in American music.

Eddy Arnold — An album devoted to the complete works of Hank Williams, the late great country composer whom many regard as an authentic American genius.

Enoch Light — A noisy New Year, full of percussive magic and brilliant brass, to continue and increase his phenomenal skill in stereo sound.

Judy Garland — A private revolving door at the Capitol Records building in Hollywood, so she can keep making those always welcome annual comebacks.

Richard Rodgers — A happy solution to a most intriguing case, the problem of making a musical out of "Sherlock Holmes." It's far from elementary, my dear Watson.

The Kingston Trio — A fourth for bridge.

The Dennon Sisters — Identical pairs of iron toed shoes to reduce occupational hazards in doing the polka with Lawrence Welk.

Record Reviewers Everywhere — A moment of silence.

School Building Hit By Bullet

A .22 calibre bullet which shattered a window on the north side of Northwest Elementary School sometime Monday night or Tuesday morning was found encased in a cabinet door of a classroom during investigation Tuesday morning, it was reported this week by Hereford police.

The bullet, which broke a glass and went through a venetian blind, was found in the door of the cabinet on the south side of the classroom, police said.

A similar offense was reported earlier this month, when a shot hit a glass of the auditorium of St. Anthony's Church in Hereford while a service was in progress.

The shattered window at Northwest School was reported by Roy Hartman, principal. Police were continuing investigation Wednesday morning.

We would like to add our congratulations to those of many others upon the selection of 69th District Judge Harry Schultz as "Man of the Year" for 1960 in Dalhart. Judge Schultz is a leader in many fields, and acknowledged as an authority on child welfare problems.

Last Saturday night, during a legal meeting here, County Judge Don Zimmerman was presented 452 pair of eye glasses by Moore County Judge Archie McDonald. It's not that McDonald thinks Zimmerman doesn't see enough, but Zimmerman has been collecting old glasses for shipment to India. They are given to Indians who need glasses after eye surgery. Zimmerman started the project when he was governor of Lions Club District 27-1. He said if any persons here had old glasses that he would appreciate collecting them in his office in the courthouse.

Deaf Smith County farmers are being invited to an area-wide grain sorghum meeting Thursday, Feb. 23, in the Dimmitt High School auditorium.

The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. A number of grain sorghum leaders will be on hand to discuss current marketing problems.

Elmer Clement, who represented the Hereford Athletic Club boxing team, was eliminated in the semi-finals of the state Golden Gloves tournament in Fort Worth after winning his first bout by a KO. In the second bout he lost by a third round knockout. Elmer is from Canyon.

We hear that Lockwood-Graders has bought out the Oliver Iron Age line of potato diggers, slanters and forage choppers and will manufacture at least part of the machinery here in Hereford.

Wrestling starts again at the Bull Barn at 8:30 p.m. Saturday after a two-month intermission. The scraps are sponsored by the Hereford Lions Club.

Overcoats are needed one day while the next is like May. We don't know what to do: Prepare for sunburn or flu!

How Can I?

BY ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I shrink colored cottons and linens?

A. Soak in cold water for several hours. Squeeze out the water - don't wring the material. Hang on clothesline, or if you have an automatic dryer, dry it in this machine with several dry turkish towels that will buffer the fabric as it tumbles. Buy non-shrunk cottons and linens with the foreknowledge that these materials will shrink anywhere from one to three inches per yard.

Q. How can I stop a persistent drainpipe leak?

A. Try the "plumber's poultice." Wrap layers of cloth and wet plaster around the leak, use some strong string to tie the "bandage" into place, and then let it dry hard before using the drain.

Q. How can I remove blood stains from silk?

A. Moisten a few inches of white sewing silk on the tongue, roll into a ball and then rub on the stain gently.

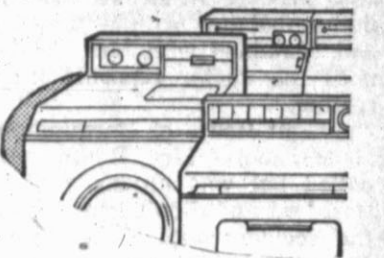

Q. How can I remove fingerprints from furniture?

A. Use a cloth saturated in olive oil. When applying wax polish, use as little as possible, and rub until the surface is free of film. If you do this, your furniture will increase in attractiveness.

Trojan....

wife and son of Hector are brought forth to be carried away.

But Talhycios brings worse news than he has brought before - Odysseus demands that the boy, the last surviving male Trojan, be thrown from the battlements of Troy, and that the city of Troy may be forever dead. Astynax is taken away.

At this point, Judy Bradley as Helen, hits her zenith, when Menelaos, portrayed by Jim Pavlicek, comes to take Helen away. Menelaos has come to execute his errand wife, but Helen argues her case at Menelaos' feet and is spared.

Talhycios brings his last order: Troy is to be put to the torch.

As Troy burns at her back, Hecuba prepares her grandson for burial. Then the women are led away to their masters. Gentry, in his role of Talhycios, showed just the right amount of weariness each time he brought the bad news, and especially when he took the last surviving male Trojan from the arms of his mother.

The Trojan women, who often had to speak as a chorus, made few flaws - and any voice was not in unison with the others was quite noticeable.

Perhaps Pavlicek should strengthen his characterization of Menelaos, but the role is a difficult one - Menelaos has to show outbursts of anger as well as soft feelings of sympathy for Helen in hot - and - cold-water fashion. It is one of the three most difficult roles in the play.

Lighting of the set was good, especially when Troy was put to the torch. Flickering lights designate the fire which swept through the city.

An unusual addition for this production is the original music composed for the play. Drums and trumpets behind the sets provide an extra air of realism for the audience.

All in all, the production should provide entertainment for everybody, whether they care for Homer or not. Director Burney McClurkan and the Thespians are to be commended on taking a stab at a play of this type - and making the stab wound deep enough to show quality of production which would be difficult for a college drama group to equal.

County Farmers Watch Depletion Suit On Water

Deaf Smith County irrigation farmers will be watching with great interest a test case which has been filed to allow depletion deductions for water usage.

The suit was filed this week by a Floyd County farmer, Marvin Shurbet of Peterburg, and was sponsored by the High Plains Undergruond Water Conservation District. The District includes Deaf Smith County and maintains an office in Hereford.

Since 1954, the District has been seeking a cost-depletion allowance for this area.

Suit was filed in U. S. District Court in Lubbock Monday by attorneys George W. McCleskey of Lubbock, J. Chryso-Dogherly of Austin and Edwin L. Kahn of Washington, D. C. The suit is expected to be taken to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Sponsors of the action explain that underground water in the area is being depleted as a natural deposit just as oil, gas, gold or any other natural deposit and, as such, should come under the federal law allowing an income-tax deduction for depletion of other resources.

Although a favorable decision in Shurbet's case, filed for the tax year 1959, would mean a return of only $300, it would mean millions of dollars to irrigation water users in the area.

Beauty At Home

Q. Please list some good "cosmetic" foods, good for my skin.

A. Since your skin can reflect your general state of health, I first recommend Vitamin B to pep you up - found in wheat germs, fish, peas. For roughness, large pores, more Vitamin A in your diet - found in carrots, escarole, apricots, kale, and unbleached celery. For loose skin, general tendency to infections, add more Vitamin C - found in citrus fruits, tomatoes. It's always wise, of course, to have your doctor check your overall diet to make sure it contains the proper nutrients.

Q. My teen-aged daughter insists on wearing a very dark lipstick. I keep telling her this is all wrong for her. Will you back me up?

A. I will indeed! Your daughter will be accentuating that refreshing and precious youthfulness of hers to a much greater degree if she'll throw away that dark lipstick and use one with a party-pink shade.

Q. Will you please give me some tips on effective shampooing of the hair?

A. Shampooing is easiest under the shower. The cream shampoos are very good, because they're easy to rinse out. Sham-

Residents Aid Wreck Victim

BY MRS. S. N. THWEATT
Mrs. J. E. Rouse is in the Parmer County Hospital in Friona. Mrs. Rouse was found early Thursday afternoon by Harold Bass and Alton Monroe, four miles north and one mile west of Bootleg where her car had overturned. Mrs. Rouse was still in the car; the ambulance was called and she was rushed to the hospital. Reports were that she had suffered a concussion and five broken ribs. Mrs. N. A. Brown rode in the ambulance to the hospital and remained with Mrs. Rouse until the doctor reported her resting.

Dwight Rouse of Farmington, N. M., son of Mrs. Rouse, was called but was on his way to Hereford and didn't learn about the accident until he reached Hereford Friday at noon. Dwight has been with his mother every since he arrived.

Saturday, Mrs. Rouse was reported as improving. Mr. and Mrs. Arneal Scott and daughter, Pam, of Hereford were guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown and son, Tommy.

Mr. and Mrs. James Coleman and family made a trip to Oklahoma City, Feb. 11 and 12, where they visited relatives of Mrs. Coleman's. It was learned the Colemans have bought an interest in an airplane.

Dale Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith, entered the Parmer County Hospital Thursday morning, suffering from a "strep" throat.

Visitors in the Virgil Watson home Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Whitehead and family of Amarillo.

Helping with the meeting were Don Newman, Thomas E. Braddy and Luther Lesley, all of Hereford.

Coy Phillips says he may not be the smartest cookie in the world, but he is willing to admit his mistakes when he makes them. In the face of all my warnings, Coy says that he let a friend borrow his overcoat, and he spent most of this week shivering.

"It's my own fault," says Coy. "I read your warning and just didn't think you knew what you were talking about — but you did."

Actually, he was lucky. The snow, wind and blizzard which hit Lovington, Loveland, Brownfield and Lubbock was what I really had in mind. We merely got in the fringe area. It's about 50-50 now, whether we will have a storm of this type, but play it safe. Keep your overcoat handy. You may not need it, but it sure will feel nice if you do.

Dr. B. M. Wiltshire was telling me that he has not owned an overcoat in more than 10 years, and says that he never expects to own another one. However, I later saw him wearing one of those "car coats" which, in my opinion, is an abbreviated overcoat; I'd say Doc is getting by on a technicality.

The Russians just will not be outdone. I notice where Nikolai Ladnov was given 10 years in a Soviet prison because he had 521 girl friends. They said that he had an elaborate filing system for keeping track of his women and even went so far as to designate them with serial numbers which rated and classified them. In this country he could take a following of this magnitude and get elected to office. You always hear a lot about "free enterprise," and I guess this proves that it won't work in Russia.

It looks to me as if the Lions Club members are going to work whether they like it or not. Tuesday morning R. C. McGilvary was in to say that wrestling would start again Saturday, and Ross Latham wanted a plug on the pancake Supper March 2; Charley Bell is working on a Negro Minstrel, which is slated in a week or so. One thing for sure, it will be a very astute member who evades all three of these activities and still manages to stay in town.

The only thing that makes a youngster thirstier than going to bed is the knowledge that his mother and dad have also gone to bed.

HIGH SCHOOL THESPIANS Sharon Hill and James Gentry are shown in a scene from "The Trojan Women", which will be presented in the Hereford High auditorium Thursday and Friday. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Miss Hill, who appears as Queen Hecuba, last year won first place in "Girls' Declaration at the District I-AAA contest in Canyon, placed second in regional competition at Odessa, worked backstage in the one-act contest play and appeared as Mrs. Webb in this year's All-School Play, "Our Town". Gentry, who characterizes Talhybios in "The Trojan Women", appeared as Jonathan in "Arsenic and Old Lace," a past production by the Thespian Society, and took first in district and third in region in Boys' Extemporaneous Speech last year. Thespians Present Ancient Greek Play Thursday, Friday

BY WAIN MILLER
Do you like horror movies? Are you a boy or girl? Are you blood-thirsty? Do you like drama — especially classical drama? Do you have friends or relatives in the Thespian Club? Do you like to do something different once in a while? Do you like music?

If the answer to any of the above questions is yes (obviously it must be to at least one of them) then you should be on hand in the Hereford High School auditorium on the nights of Feb. 23-24 at 8:00 p.m. when the curtain rises on something new to Hereford, exciting, and different.

Different, exciting, weird, unique, and dramatic all describe the Thespian production of "Trojan Women."

Stage Band Has First Appearance

Hereford High School's Stageband, the "Lamplighters," has now made its first public appearance under the direction of Mr. Ben R. Gollehon. Playing its first formal engagement Wednesday night, the "Lamplighters" entertained at the First Methodist Church sweetheart banquet. At stageband contests held recently at Canyon, the "Lamplighters" earned a "Superior" rating. The 15-member band showed outstanding improvement over last year's edition, according to the judges. Hereford's "Lamplighters" furnished the music at the annual F.H.A.-F.F.A. "Sweetheart and Beau" banquet at Olton Saturday night. The "Lamplighters" were invited to perform as a result of the good impression they made on the audience at the Canyon contest. Anyone desiring to have the "Lamplighters" perform at a party or banquet should contact band director. There is no charge for engagements played in Hereford. School policy prohibits the band from playing at dances. Other than that, the Lamplighters will gladly appear without charge when asked.

girls who were left behind, is the dramatic episode chosen as the Thespian production slated for Feb. 23-24. As in past Thespian productions such as "Arsenic and Old Lace," the Thespian presentation of "Trojan Women" is destined to be another success. Actually not "new" at all, "Trojan Women" was written by the Greek tragedian Euripides in 415 B.C.; however, a Greek tragedy might be considered as "new" to most Hereford residents.

The WHITEFACE

Hereford, Texas, Thursday, February 23, 1961

Any high school group that even attempts to stage a play of this sort can well be proud. The main ingredient in the success of "Trojan Women" is work. Under the direction of Mr. Burney McClurkin, the Thespians are adding plenty of this important ingredient, by all means. Such scenes as Audni Miller and John Buck shouting lines at each other from one corner of the auditorium to the other is commonplace during rehearsals. Saws and hammers banging, actors shouting and going through all sorts of exaggerated motions, trumpets trumpeting, and children crying are all part of rehearsals for the Thursday and Friday production. Dress rehearsals for Trojan Women started Saturday. Speaking of dresses, the ones worn by members of the cast are sights to behold. Lisa has charge of costumes and make-up for the play. By the way, the make-up alone in "Trojan Women" makes the play something to be remembered for a lifetime. It seems the ancient is formed the habit of wearing masks in productions; hence, the faces of characters in "Trojan Women" can best be described as weird. (Continued on page 3)

News And Events Around H. H. S.

"What's that foul odor which has been finding its way through the corridors of HHS lately?" Oh, not foul — it's fishy! A shark found itself being dissected by the hands of Mr. Stone's biology students. Up-turned noses have been the frequent sight, especially on the second floor. It's a good thing it won't last all year.

Erik Okseter, have you learned the meaning of "discuss" yet? It seems that Erik didn't quite get the meaning at first in Mr. Phillips' economics class. The students were discussing middlemen and Mr. Phillips remarked that middlemen had always been "cussed and discussed."

The basketball boys were presented with boxes of Valentine candy in pep rally Tuesday, Feb. 14. From the reactions of several of the boys, it makes a person wonder if that were the only box of candy they ever received.

"Get out of my way," seems to be the only thing Craig Griffith can say anymore. It's not that he is impolite. He just can't get to his locker. Could it be because of all the confusion in front of his locker? Several of Hereford High's loveliest young co-eds were seen flashing especially-wide smiles. Was it because of those special Valentines, huh? You have to hand it to Jerry Curtisinger. He hasn't much education, but he can pick out the fastest check-out line in the cafeteria three times out of four.

Rumor has it that Karen Daniels went on a diet of bananas and coconuts a few weeks ago. Somebody was quizzing Ronnie Botkin about it, and he said she had only lost a few pounds but she surely could climb a tree.

Robert Thompson's seventh period American history class is studying the Civil War. One day Mr. Thompson stated that in some ways the war is still being fought. Dickey Mas on, looking very puzzled, asked, "Aw, really? Where?" Joe Hershey is truly muscle- (Continued on page 3)

TEACHER OF THE WEEK

Mrs. Voyles Has Strange Pastime

"I would like to get everything done without having to put any of it off until tomorrow," says Mrs. Harlon Voyles, the teacher of the week. She was graduated from Dumas High School and then went to West Texas State College. Mrs. Voyles is now teaching Physical Education at Hereford High School. She has one son who is 17-months-old. His name is Matt and her favorite pastime is changing his diapers. When asked about her teaching profession she replied, "teaching, like any other vocation, has its own important responsibilities; and to enjoy any responsibility you have to know you are doing the best you can, regardless of whether you do as well or better than the next person Amyway! that's how I look at it." Mrs. Voyles says her biggest (Continued on page 3)

List Tuition And Fees Coming Events For Colleges In Texas

BY CHARLES THOMAS
Most graduating seniors plan to attend college and many would like to know what the tuition costs of some of the colleges are. So listed below are the tuition and fees of some of the area colleges. The tuition of all state schools in Texas is $100. The last session of the Texas Legislature passed a law that allows schools to impose fees. These fees vary from $35 to $40 in the state schools. The tuition at some of the other schools in Texas is as follows: Abilene Christian Col- (Continued on page 3)

Blue 'Texan' Is Familiar Sight

BY CAROLYN HAMMETT
A familiar sight around Hereford High School is a little blue car known as the "Texan." The "Texan" is owned by Richard Culp, a junior. This 1931 Ford Galaxie is one of the choice cars seen in the Hereford High parking lot. Richard bought the "Texan" about two years ago from a cousin at Friona. New upholstery and carpet were added to give the "Texan" a new glow. It has a 40-horsepower motor and will run 60 miles an hour. The "Texan" certainly has a personality. It took Richard to Buffalo Lake one day when he should have been attending school. Unfortunately Richard had to answer for it and the "Texan" got off scott-free. The "Texan" does have some bad points. It doesn't have a heater and so it doesn't do a very good job of keeping Richard warm in the winter. The Texan is seen every- (Continued on page 3)

American College Testing Gives Needed Information

BY WAIN MILLER
High school seniors — it is time to decide what you are going to do after graduation. Those forming any plans of attending college should act soon about ACT. The American College Testing program (ACT) is an admissions, scholarship, guidance and placement test battery designed to provide helpful information and service to colleges, to high schools, and to you, the student, at a time when it will be most useful. ACT tests are given and recognized in all 50 states.

In Texas, 53 colleges and universities recommended that their prospective students take the ACT battery of tests and have their scores submitted to them before entrance. Although these tests are not absolutely required by many colleges, they are a big help to the student and the college in determining the ability of the student. Scores on ACT tests are reported to the participating colleges which students name as those they are most likely to attend. These colleges may use your name and your scores in a number of different ways:

1. To help colleges decide if enrollment of the student should be encouraged;
2. To help decide if the student should be granted a scholarship, a student loan, or any special award or help;
3. To communicate with the student to help make arrangements for admission and registration;
4. To help determine in which sections of freshman English and mathematics the student should enroll;
5. To help advise about educational goals, about the courses to take, and how heavy a load to carry.

Not all colleges use this information for all of these purposes, but all colleges requesting the scores use them in at least one of these ways. All of the colleges are, therefore, anxious for students to take these tests if they are considering the possibility of attending. The basic test battery consists of four tests averaging 45 minutes in length each, representing the fields of En- (Continued on page 3)

Whew! Sharks Are Stinking

PHEW!! The worm never smelled like the sharks the biology classes dissected last Monday. The shark is the first of the vertebrate that members of the classes will dissect. It is the largest vertebrate to be dissected without using micro-techniques. This is the first organism students will study that shows the complex nervous system. There were two smelly creatures approximately 30 inches long being operated on. The veins, arteries, and the hypotonic system had been dyed so they could be detected more easily. Mr. Loy Stone, biology teacher, said biology students were to dissect the frog next. Everyone hopes the smell won't be as strong as with the sharks.

30 Out During First Baseball Practice Of '61

The baseball season started Wed., Feb. 15. There was a large turnout for the first workout. Approximately 30 boys attended. The coaches of baseball this year are Mr. Kitchens and Mr. Voyles. The baseball team should be very strong this year since only one player was lost last year because of graduation. Last year the team won the district but lost to Ector of Odessa in bi-district. This year they are expected to go far in their playing. The two coaches will be working hard and so will the boys, to achieve their goals. The first game will be in Hereford on March 7 with Plainview.

THE HEAP OF THE WEEK for this week belongs to Richard Culp. It is a 1931 Ford and Richard says he's mighty proud of it. Its name is the "Texan." (Brand Staff Photo)

Question Of The Week

What do you think of the odors that have been coming from the biology lab?

Judy Rowland — It could stay in the sea for all I care.
Donna Rogers — It's worse right over it.
Cecelia Wilhelm — It makes for a fishy school.
Don Warrick — Doesn't bother me as long as I am far enough away that I can't smell it.
Virgil Kuykendell — "I like it."
Sandy Wester — "Shoo-wee"
Gary Duggan — I think the school should furnish deodorant to every class that asks for it.
Barbara Pulliam — It smells better in the biology room than in the hall, because we have spray deodorant.
James Vines — Huh! I don't like them. They stink, that's all.
Carolyn Kuper — I don't know. I hadn't noticed — is it that shark?
Gayle Woolbright — It smells like they're trying to keep up with the chemistry lab.
Sharon Bezner — Ugh!

LOOK WHAT I FOUND! This is the phrase heard in the biology lab this week. The dissection of sharks has been the main project. Hard at work are Fred Martin and Judy Schulte in Mrs. Buck's biology class. (Brand Staff Photo)

Senior Class Personalities

(By Whiteface Staff)

"My biggest disappointment was when I found out that the people in Texas didn't wear ten gallon hats or ride horses all the time," says Heidi Rutishauser. She was born on Oct. 17, 1942, and is 18 years old. Her American parents are Mr. and Mrs. Don Moore. When she graduates, she plans to go to teacher's college, teach school for a few years, travel, and then get married. Her pet peeve is people who ask her what her pet peeve is. She said that she thinks H.H.S. is a pretty good school and the kids are just great, but sometimes the teachers are too strict on the students.

Her most embarrassing moment was when she went to school with her house shoes on. The best advice she has ever received was to not argue about everything, to know when to shut up, and not to worry about everything. The person she admires most is her mother. Her secret ambition is to go to India and get to know the people. Her favorites are: pastime, playing the piano; food, hamburgers; color, blue; movie, "Room At The Top"; book, "Giant"; hobby, collecting butterflies; song, "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes."

Lisle Danforth Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patton, and a 17-year-old senior, says his most embarrassing moment was when he was talking about a certain person and that certain somebody was standing right behind him. He was born on May 15, 1953, in his home town, Hereford. His secret ambition is to become a fireman and his hobby is working on cars and sleeping. He says his biggest disappointment was when he found out that seniors had to have an E to be exempt.

When asked what he thought of H. H. S., he replied, "From what I hear, it ought to be nice next year." He says his pet peeve is people who put on a fake front. After graduation he plans to attend college at North Texas. The advice he gives to lower classmen is to get by as best you can.

Clyde (Swink) Whitaker's secret ambition is to be a politician. He was born on Oct. 15, 1942, and he is 18 years old. His biggest disappointment was when the football team didn't win district. He said his pet peeve is stuck up people. His opinion of H. H. S. is that he will be glad to get out. He plans to go to Eastern New Mexico University after he graduates. The best advice he has ever received was when Coach Hodges told him to keep his head up. He says that the one superstition he has is that on the night of the Phillips football game the Hereford football boys wore the lucky pennies that they received in pep rally and they won the game. His opinion of going steady is that

Ideal Boy

(By Whiteface Staff)

Whenever Jerre Noland goes looking for a boy she looks for someone who is handsome like Charles Mims, yet bashful like Joe Shultz. To her, having a smile like Lynton Allred's and eyes like Jerry Curtisinger's counts a lot. Whenever she's with them she enjoys the boys who are silly like Wayne Hastings, funny like Edward Allison, happy like David Dowell, energetic like Ronnie Castor, and always mannerly like Arnold Powell. If they are eager like Dick Plank and daring like John Willoughby, that's fine with her. She goes for boys who have a physique like Clifton Corley, nose like Dennis Hodges, walk like Thomas Coffman, mouth like Jay Boynton, and hands like Austin Hodges. To look at a boy, Jerre wants him to be neat like Mack Casler. She likes hair like Jay Boynton's, ears like Bill Boland's. She prefers to dance with someone who has feet like Joe Frank Huckert. Ken Waiser has the best personality, according to Jerre and Gary Tannahill is intelligent, and Clyde Whitaker is ambitious and these make a nice ideal boy. Jerre thinks Jim Kassahn is kind and Walker Parris is talented. She thinks Clyde Whitaker is flirtiest, but put them all together and you have best - all around, — Joe Shultz.

Freda (Frito) House, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. House, was born Jan. 7, 1942, in her home town of Panhandle, Tex. Her hobby is music and her favorite pastime is running around. Her secret ambition is to get married. Her most embarrassing moment was when she forgot her white shoes on the day the choir had a program. Her advice to underclassmen is to have fun, but study hard. She plans to get married after graduation.

The most embarrassing moment Cherry Holt can recall was when she turned the wrong way on the football field and went down the wrong line. Cherry Holt was born on Nov. 30, 1943, in Cordell, Okla.

Cherry's secret ambition is to get through college with A's. She plans to attend Oklahoma State University in the fall. She chooses this particular college because it has a pretty campus and is a good school. Cherry is head twirler for the Big Domino Band. She is a member of Tri-Hi-Y and Future Homemakers of America. She serves F. H. A. as president. Cherry also was chosen as band queen.

She leaves this advice to underclassmen: "Make good grades in school." Cherry thinks Hereford High is a good school.

Cherry would like to live to be 99 years old. Her pet peeve is people who smack their gum. Yellow is her pick of the colors, and enjoyed reading "Giant."

When asked her secret of success, she replied: "I don't have one; I'm not very successful."

The best advice Dean Jones has ever received was from his sergeant at the school he attended last year. It was "to keep his mouth shut." Dean Jones was born Dec. 6, 1942, in Amarillo. Dean's hobby is sports and guns. He has a collection of guns. After graduation, Dean plans to go into the Air Force. Dean thinks H. H. S. is a pretty good school.

The job he would like to hold is that of a Highway Patrol officer. Dean would like to live to be 65. "When I get to where I'm not any good, I'd as soon be dead."

Dean's pet peeve is people who don't mind their own business. His favorite movie is "Ten Commandments." His favorite color is blue, and the food he likes best is shrimp.

Ideal Girl

(By Whiteface Staff)

H. S. Fuller thinks his Ideal Girl would be as follows: Cutest would be Toni Parker; figure would be Judy Bradley; the best personality would be that of Pam Clay; Kay Lemons has the nicest smile, the most beautiful girl of H.H.S. would be Linda Edwards, the swiftest walk is that of Joyce West; Colleen Reeves has a real cute mouth; and Nancy Edwards has very pretty eyes. Jan Reese tops the lists for friendliest, while Karen Sue Daniels seems to be the most intelligent. Ambitious would be Joy Story, beautiful hair belongs to Linda Renfro, and Judy Fowlkes seems to have pretty ears. Linda Edwards is naturally a real cute nose. Bonnie Sparkman has very excellent manners; Carol Snead has hands that are very cute; Ginney Higgins is silly, and Nicky Nan Newton is the most athletic. Judy Kreighshouser is a real flirt sometimes, and the best all-around is Linda Edwards.

Students Do Have Wheels

(By Whiteface Staff)

In a recent survey taken by the Journalism class it was proven that the students of Hereford High are well represented in cars, if not in intelligence.

Fords and Chevrolets seem to be the most popular makes. The models range from 1961's to 1961's.

The students park their cars along the curb in front of the high school and in the parking lot behind the building. Ninety-six were counted in the parking lot and 33 in front of the building. This makes a total of 149 cars driven to school by the students of H. H. S.

Stories of Helen of Troy and the great wooden horse are familiar to all. Euripides' version of the Trojan Wars is quite unique. "Trojan Women" is not involved with war, but instead, with the women and children left in the aftermath of war. Title roles as widows and daughters of the defeated Trojan army will be played by Sharon Hill as Queen Hecuba; Shari Carmichael as Cassandra, daughter of Hecuba; and Suzanne Langley as Andromache, wife of Hector, the Trojan Hero. Last Pep Rally Very Successful

(By Whiteface Staff)

School spirit zoomed at the last pep rally of the season held Tuesday, Feb. 14, in the gymnasium at Hereford High. The gym roared with enthusiasm as the students yelled "We're from Hereford and we couldn't be prouder!"

The basketball boys were presented with boxes of Valentine candy. Coach Kitchens and Coach Brooks were also given boxes of candy in appreciation of the fine work they have done in training the basketball boys. The cheerleaders should also be commended on the fine job that they have done this year. The signs at the last pep rally were exceptionally good. More work than most students realize goes into the preparation of a pep rally.

Here's thanks to the cheerleaders and basketball boys for a job well done!

Among the 15 Texas colleges that do not participate in the ACT program are Texas Christian, Southern Methodist, Rice Institute, and the University of Texas.

Tests are recognized and given in each of the 50 states. No matter where students plan to attend college, it is important that they study the ACT Bulletin carefully to determine whether or not to take the tests.

Be sure to register before the April deadline for April 22 tests. Feb. 4 was the deadline for tests to be given Feb. 25.

ACT tests will be given at both Amarillo College in Amarillo and West Texas State in Canyon on the dates of Feb. 25 and April 22. Students may take the test at either date, depending on the preference on the registration blank.

Students should arrive at the testing center, with the ticket of admission received after registration, at 8:00 a.m. After the tests begin at 8:30 a.m., no student will be admitted. Deadline for completion of the tests is 12:00 noon.

Among the 55 colleges in Texas that urge students to take ACT tests are: Abilene Christian, Amarillo, Baylor, Hardin-Simmons, McMurry, North Texas State, Texas Tech., and West

REP. WALTER ROGERS WRITES:

World Attention Focused On The African Problem

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 18TH DISTRICT:

The recent death of Patrice Lumumba has brought into clear focus the fact that there are many, many problems associated with the continent of Africa, and that there will be many, many more not readily discernible. Africa is attempting to do in a very few years what it has taken this country since 1492 to accomplish.

In other words, the task of bringing Africa to modern day American standards is equivalent to the task that would have faced Christopher Columbus in 1492 when he stepped off his ship onto the virgin new world. This task may not be impossible to accomplish, but it is slightly improbable, even with the modern day methods, unless the people of that continent are able to face the problem involved and fully appreciate what must be done to solve it.

This is most difficult in a country that is 95 per cent completely illiterate; a country which is rich in natural resources, but wholly lacking in human knowledge; a country in which the government is primarily tribal and the chief political divisions are tribal; a continent inhabited by some 230 million people, as best estimated, who generally pursue a day-to-day existence with no understanding of modern day economies.

The continent of Africa gave birth in 1960 to some seventeen new African States, sixteen of which have become members of the United Nations with a vote equal to that of the United States. These new nations must choose between two ideologies: either freedom under the philosophies of western democracy, or a regimented and restricted existence under the communistic doctrines of the Soviet philosophies.

In order to make the proper choice, it is essential that these people have the advice and counsel of an educated and well-trained mind; preferably, an educated and well-trained mind of their own people, in whom they can place definite trust. The difficulty is that very few of their people have an education, and fewer have any training or experience at all in government matters.

There are only ten universities in tropical Africa, and some of these have just started to function, such as Lovanium University in the Congo, which graduated its first students in 1959. Only about 7,000 African students were enrolled at African institutions in 1958. Several thousand were studying in the United Kingdom, France, Italy, and other countries. There were some 1,165 Africans studying in in American institutions in 1960. But these numbers are infinitesimal when compared with the populations of the countries in Africa and the number of people who have not the slightest education of any kind, outside of nature.

Efforts are being made by many universities and groups in this country to afford educational opportunities to these peoples from these new nations of the world. We in this country are always willing to help our fellow man. But, it is most difficult to be helpful when those who need the help refuse to recognize the fact that independence and freedom have corresponding responsibilities. It would seem that those Africans who have been so fortunate as to be afforded educational opportunities would be trying to explain to their own people the responsibilities which must be assumed.

It would seem that those of their own race who live in this country and enjoy the benefits of western democracy would see the great opportunity to counsel with those in Africa. It is an unlimited opportunity to strike telling blows against communism.

Certainly these new nations in this world cannot make headway toward the full exercise of freedom and independence emulating the tactics which were used at the meeting of the Security Council in New York on Wednesday, February 15th and at the Belgian Embassy in Washington, D. C. on that same date. I do not know the nationality or the make-up of the groups causing the disturbance at the United Nations, but those who have moved against the Belgian Embassy in Washington were listed in the police records as natives of Nigeria, Tanganyika, Kenya, Uganda, Ethiopia, and Sierra Leone.

They were students in this country, enjoying the hospitality of this country. They attacked the property of another nation, in violation of the laws of this land and with a total disregard for diplomatic ethics. The newspapers in Washington listed the 25 students who engaged in this unlawful demonstration.

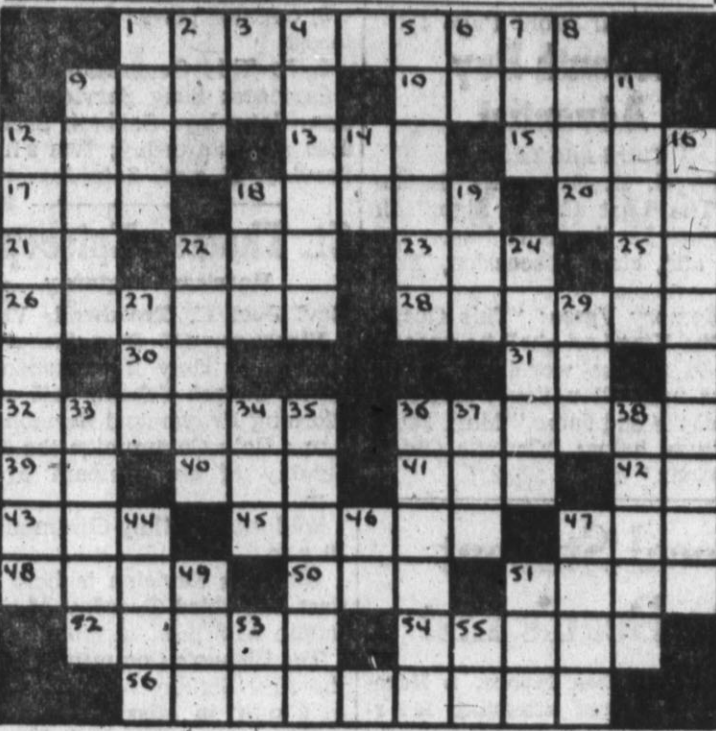

This conduct and that of the demonstrators in New York undoubtedly caused chuckles of glee to Mr. Khrushchev and other communist leaders. It would behoove all who participated in these activities to carefully analyze their behavior and ask themselves what contribution they think they have made to the future welfare of these newborn nations. It would be well for them to remember that the only reason they were not lined up against a wall and shot is because they were in a country governed by laws, not men.

Wrestling Opens Saturday Night In Bull Barn

Professional wrestling returns to Hereford Saturday night after a two-month absence.

Sponsored by the Hereford Lions Club, weekly grappling will be presented in the Bull Barn each Saturday night. First bout will start at 8:30 p.m.

For the resumption of wrestling, six outstanding performers have been lined up for three matches.

Feature bout of the evening will match The Alaskan against Dory Funk, The Alaskan is a huge, bearded grappler.

He is 6-5 and weighs about 290. Popular Dory Funk, with his ever-present bandage over one eyebrow, is from the Flying Mare Ranch at Umberger.

They will meet in a 60-minute or two out of three falls match. The semi-final bout will feature a couple of the "fairer sex." Kay Noble, who has appeared in Hereford many times, will tangle with newcomer Barbara Baker. They are scheduled for 45 minutes or two out of three falls.

Opening up the show will be burly Tokyo Joe against handsome Bobby Christy. Tokyo Joe will probably use some of his dangerous karate techniques against the smooth, scientific style presented by Christy. This bout is slated for 20 minutes or one fall.

OFF THE Shelf

BY H. A. TUCK

If you want a long, absorbing book, try A Corner on Angels by Garet Rogers. This is not particularly fast reading, nor is it the type which can be put down and left for a few days without losing the train of thought.

Ursula Martyr was shuttled from one convent to another when she was young. Soon after her father's death she was placed in an orphanage.

A rebel, she was constantly in trouble and it was rare that the sisters saw her leave. An unfortunate incident sent her to California, where she enrolled in law school.

Now called Mike or Michael, Miss Martyr was wrapped up in her studies until she met a serious young chemist, Adam Beer. They were married and quite happy until he died in an explosion.

Mike Martyr became a vindictive union worker, allied with handsome Rex Tumulty. Her fierce courtroom battles became a legend, as did her fight against company executives.

Through Mike's eyes, the reader sees how a union operates and how it can be controlled by one ruthless leader. Rex was concerned only with his own welfare and used Mike to that end.

Mike later became acquainted with a strangely different breed of people, the scientific researchers and teachers. A chance remark led her to found still a different type of union.

She was both aided and thwarted in her efforts by wealthy Dr. Klaus von Diercke, a cripple.

A large, loyal group of budding young scientists was controlled through Mike's organization. She used both brains and beauty to get where she wanted, yet found it was a painful process.

Rex turned against her and Klaus often seemed to delight in presenting obstacles for her to overcome.

Mike is a most unforgettable character. She is a lovely woman who became a powerful leader in a new field of unions.

The reader may not always like A Corner on Angels, for it is not always a pretty story. But he will have a hard time forgetting either the story, or Mike Martyr, lawyer and lady.

The book is one of the new fiction choices at Deaf Smith County Library.

Schedule Early Action On Three Controversial Bills

BY VERN SANFORD
AUSTIN — Legislature moved toward early showdowns as the House Revenue and Taxation Committee scheduled controversial bills in swift one-two-three order.

Coming up early on the committee calendar were three of the four measures in Gov. Price Daniel's special deficit-erasing program. Each renews controversies of last session. They are:

1. A new two-factor formula for figuring the franchise tax owed by interstate corporations based in Texas. At present the franchise tax is computed on the basis of receipts from sales in Texas.

"A firm which sells all its output in Texas," the governor points out, "pays at a 100 per cent rate. A Texas-based company selling all its products outside Texas pays none."

New formula would hit these interstate corporations. Governor Daniel calls it "closing a loophole." Industry spokesmen contend it would drive business from Texas.

2. A measure providing for enforcement of the escheat law. This is known as the abandoned property act, which was defeated in 1959 despite the governor's vigorous efforts. Governor Daniel says he will call a special session if the bill isn't passed in regular session.

3. A temporary increase for one year of from 7 to 10 per cent on natural gas production. Governor Daniel says this is to fill the revenue gap while the natural gas severance beneficiary tax is being thrashed out in court.

A new tax bill introduced in the House would levy a two per cent tax on all real estate transactions. It is by Rep. George Hinson of Mineola.

House members refused to take a heat-the-clock short cut toward getting a tax referendum on the ballot at the April 4 special election.

Rep. Wesley Roberts of Lamesa, sponsor of the bill, asked the House to instruct the State Affairs Committee to consider the bill immediately and report to the House.

Proposal was defeated 81-65, with the vote dividing approximately on the same line as the one by which Speaker James Thurman was elected.

Referendum would, in effect, have given the public an opportunity to say which of three possible broad-based taxes they would prefer — payroll, income or sales. Bill would have to have final passage before the end of February for the question to be printed on the ballot. Without hurry-up procedures the schedule will not be met. Now the matter is left entirely to the legislators to determine. As most ran on platforms that called for no sales or income tax, these two taxing methods doubtless can be eliminated from further consideration.

Legalized horse racing is still a live issue after a committee hearing that ran into the small hours of the morning.

Rep. V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio is sponsor of the proposed constitutional amendment that would allow race tracks and parimutuel betting on a local option basis.

Opponents, mostly ministers and lay church leaders, called gambling a parasite on the economy, and a producer of fewer jobs for the money spent than is possible in any other business.

Supporters called a clean, popular sport to which Texas climate is ideally suited. And, they declared, a painless revenue raiser.

Two congressional re-districting bills have been introduced, one of which could cause anguished howls from the neighborhood of the Potomac.

Rep. Ben Lewis of Dallas has introduced a bill which gives Dallas two congressmen and re-carves all the other districts.

McGregor's proposal is based strictly on population, with no thought to personalities or politics.

In some instances it would result in two congressmen being put in one district. Some districts would be enlarged, some reduced.

County school superintendents are a touchy subject with the Legislature. County Superintendent George Corse has come back this session to work for a bill to abolish the county superintendent's office in counties with few or no pupils in county schools.

Under this year's plan, abolishment would be on a local option vote. Supporters say it could save the state $1,500,000 to $2,000,000.

In this same atmosphere is a bill by Rep. R. A. Bartram of New Braunfels. However it would raise the salaries of assistant county superintendents. Money-hungry House members killed the bill.

Teacher pay raise advocates were disappointed when both House and Senate adopted the same rules of procedure as they used last session.

These rules prohibit passage of any new spending measure until the general appropriations bill is passed.

Last session passage of the general appropriations bill was virtually the last act before adjournment. Teacher raises and other new spending proposals died without ever coming to a vote.

ALSO RUNNING — Among other measures in the legislative churn are bills that would: exempt from state license fees farm trailers that farmers borrow from cotton gins and grain elevators; provide procedure for acquittal, and erasure of the blot of a criminal record, of persons found to have been convicted of crimes for which they were innocent; set up statewide, rather than countywide, licensing of notaries public; provide for licensing and regulation by the State Health Department of persons engaged in the exterminating business; allocate $1,800,000 more for assistance to the needy aged and blind; raise the minimum age for receiving a drivers' license from 14 to 16.

New '61 Chevy with Jet-smooth ride!

Impala 4-Door Sedan—Jet-smooth traveler that rivals the luxury cars in everything but price

The '61 Chevy loves to go because it goes so well. Purrs along pavements like a happy tabby. Takes rough roads in stride and all roads in style.

Just why does a Jet-smooth Chevy treat riders as royally as the high-priced luxury cars? It all came about through a delightful blend of Full Coil suspension, precision-balanced wheels, unique chassis cushioning, and a superb Body by Fisher insulated to hush away road sounds. All this adds up to less sway, less bounce, less dip, less dive, less tilt, less noise, less... well you name it.

Now combine this Jet-smooth ride with conveniences to pamper you and roominess to relax in. Add a full measure of quiet good looks. Voila, you've got Chevy's formula.

And the proof is in the riding. When you sample a Jet-smooth Chevy at your Chevrolet dealer's we think you'll find it just to your taste.

Six Weeks Of Practice Go Into Thespian Greek Play

More than six weeks of practice, rehearsal and hard work will culminate Thursday and Friday with two performances of a Greek Tragedy, "The Trojan Women." Members of the Thespian Troupe of Hereford High School have devoted endless hours to costuming and preparing the unusual play. The tension becomes higher during the final week, as the pieces begin to fall together, sometimes with agonizing slowness. But when the final curtain falls, the students will know they have presented a play done by few high school students and will have a rare sense of accomplishment.

One of the most time-consuming tasks is preparing the strikingly-bold make-up with each major character wearing a color that depicts his "emotion". Here costumer and set designer Lisa applies the make-up before dress rehearsal.

Director Burney McClurkan goes over last minute instructions with stage manager Eugene Baldwin. Once the play starts, Baldwin is in complete control of all that goes on behind the scenes: lighting, curtains, scenery and music.

James Gentry, as Talthybios, pleads for understanding from Andromache, portrayed by Suzanne Langley. He has the unfortunate task of sending the wives and daughters of the defeated Trojans to their new Greek masters. Andromache was the wife of the Trojan hero, Hector.

Menelaos stands aloof from Queen Hecuba, played by Sharon Hill, and the infamous Helen of Troy, his wife. As the Greek commander, he arrives in Troy to supervise the removal of the women from their home and to return his wife, whose affair started the Trojan war.

Completely absorbed in his script, stage manager, Eugene Baldwin directs the lighting cues and curtains during the final moments of a complete dress rehearsal. He uses only a tiny light on the script.

At the end of each rehearsal, actors and backstage crew gather to hear comments on the action and get suggestions on how to improve performances. This also is when the serious Greeks again become high school students and begin chewing gum again.

'Deaf' Smith Says

To: The Spirit of General Sam Houston
From: The Spirit of Erasmus 'Deaf' Smith
Subject: Scouting Report on my Chamber of Commerce

Last week I started a report on the new organizational set up of my Chamber of Commerce, Sam, and covered the Business Development Department. This week, Les Combs' Community Development Department is the subject of my report.

J. W. Robinson heads up the education committee under that Department. According to the program of work, his committee's purpose "shall be to promote better understanding between the schools and the business and agricultural community, to assist the schools in those matters of general public interest, and to serve as a forum for community problems involving the schools."

Perhaps one of the most important committees in the Chamber of Commerce structure, one whose work could have the most influence on the economy of this County they named after me, is the Water Resources committee, headed this year by J. D. Kirkland.

Mrs. Irving Alexander is already busy making plans for the Beautification Committee. This committee this year will not just be limited to staging a Clean Up-Paint Up-Fix Up week.

This shall include a study of possible zoning laws which would protect the highway approaches to the city. One project she has been considering is a practical plan for beautifying the highway with tree plantings.

Morris Easley has a direct stake in the committee he heads, Aviation is his occupation. The aviation committee is "to work with the airport management in the promotion of the Hereford Municipal Airport, to make such improvements as shall be necessary to better service the aviation industry, and to promote aviation in general.

A new committee in the Chamber's structure is the Recreation Committee. Heading this group will be Melvin Young. In the program of work it is stated that "it shall be the interest of the community, to study the overall recreational needs of the community, both youth and adult and to make such recommendations as may be developed which will lead to the filling of the recreational needs. It shall further be within the province of this committee to draw up an overall plan for the use of all city and county parks and to work with the schools in developing further use of school grounds for general recreational purposes."

That, Sam, is the Community Betterment Department. Just wanted to conclude this report with one additional item. Bill Decker is a new member of the Chamber of Commerce. He was a member previously when associated with J. W. Robinson. The Chamber of Commerce welcomes the support of Bill and wishes him success in his new venture.

REPORT

The Shat-U-Aya Campfire Club has been quite busy lately. On one day, they went to the park and enjoyed the weather after the bitter cold winter.

Mrs. Springer brought punch and a cake to one meeting and the girls had a birthday party for all the members who have had birthdays recently.

Learning the meaning of the Campfire Laws and Trail Seekers Desires took up another program.

On Feb. 14, everyone enjoyed a Valentine's party given by the members from Central School.

Ten of the members go swimming at Canyon on the first and third Thursday of each month. Mrs. O. G. Hill is helping with other parts of this program.

Mrs. Blythe and Mrs. Cawthon have taken the group to Canyon.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Bernard R. Intogna, 24, lost control of his car while driving in Tucson and before he could stop the vehicle had: Jumped a curb, roared through a parking lot, smashed a bus bench, torn down a cyclone fence at a gasoline station, destroyed 12 feet of hedge and smashed into a tree.

Valentine Parties Given By Local School Children

BY MRS. T. L. COLLINS

Valentine parties were held in each classroom of the Walcott School on Tuesday afternoon. This year the members of the classes planned their own games, while their mothers brought the refreshments.

In the first and second grades more than half of the members were absent with either the chickenpox, mumps, or both.

They decorated napkins with valentines and played different games. Refreshments were Valentine decorated cookies and cold drinks.

Present were Mrs. Bertram Jack, Mrs. Floyd Brown, Mrs. Jack Weaver, Mrs. Thurman Davis, Mrs. Tom Nance, Ronnie and Julie.

The third and fourth grades had all present to play Heel and Toe Valentine, Fan Valentines, Hot Valentines, Lifesaver Relay and a Valentine Spelling game.

Cold drinks, heart-shaped candy and party-blowers were served for refreshments.

Guests were Mrs. Eldred Brown, Mrs. Hershel Burrus and Frances Irene, Mrs. Elton Wyly, Paul, Deloris, Mrs. Ernest Brown and Dennis and Paul Timberlake.

The fifth and sixth grades probably had more fun from playing "The Belled Cat" than any of their other interesting games. Prizes were Valentine dandy. For refreshments, there were homemade cookies and cokes.

Present were Mrs. H. D. Buse, Mrs. John Avera and Mrs. A. L. Myers.

The seventh and eighth grade students were so busy playing Valentine games that they had to rush handing out their Valentines.

Each brought their "Baby" pictures to school, which were passed around to be identified. Homemade cookies and cokes were served for refreshments.

Present were Mrs. Melvin Henderson, Mrs. Glenn Burrus, Mrs. N.E. Tyler and Mrs. Norman Minks.

A Farmer's Union meeting was held in the Hereford High School Cafeteria Friday night, Feb. 10. Among the Walcott people who attended were Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Brown, Jim Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Hall, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Tyler and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Guseman. Bruce Collins made a business trip to Fort Worth. He went by bus Friday, Feb. 10 and returned on Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Nance and family went to Lockney Saturday, Feb. 11, to visit his mother, Mrs. W. D. Nance and his brother, Tommie Nance. He also visited his grandmother, while the other returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Peek and family from Plainview came Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Leland Burns and family. On Sunday morning, Chris had a case of the mumps. Ronny and Danny Peek were exposed to them before returning home that afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Townsend and family of Amarillo, visited Saturday afternoon in the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader made a business trip to Amarillo Saturday with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Payne and family from Hereford.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Cook and family moved Saturday, Feb. 11, from Lockney to the Joe Reinauer place. Frances is now enrolled in Walcott's seventh grade, Harley in the fourth, and Kathy is in the second grade.

Miss Shirley Bourquin, Miss Paula Green and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Collins attended a Deaf Smith County meeting of Texas State Teachers Association in the Hereford High School auditorium on Monday night, Feb. 13.

A surprise appreciation party was given for County Agent L. W. Thomas Friday night, Feb. 11, in Aikman School auditorium at Hereford by the families of those children who recently showed 4-H Club animals. "Unchanged Frontier" was shown to the group for entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Minks

Civil Defense Is Topic Of Program

Mrs. Mabel Vaughn presented the program on "Radioactive Fallout" and "Civil Defense" at a recent meeting of the West Home Demonstration Club, which was held in the home of Mrs. Verna Schroeder.

The meeting was opened with the reading of a poem by Mrs. Evelyn Bell.

During the presentation of the program, Mrs. Vaughn told guests of the necessary articles to place in a bomb shelter. Among these items were clothing, adequate food and water and first aid kits.

Each member brought a Valentine to exchange with her secret pal.

Attending were Mmes. Evelyn Bell, Ida Mae Vaughn, Alice Bradley, Vida Jacobsen, Blanch Moseley, Mabel Vaughn, Mary King, Edna Anders, Vern Witherspoon, Grace Witherspoon, Jewel Awtry, Artie Frost, Edna Bove and the hostess.

Reinauer Named Publicity Head

Joe Reinauer of Hereford has been elected publicity chairman of Oklahoma State University's Flying Aggies.

Flying Aggies is a student organization aimed at the promotion of aviation education. OSU's club has won five national intercollegiate flying club championships during the past eight years.

Sadie Lee Oliver Club Holds Meet

The Sadie Lee Oliver 4-H Club met Feb. 24 in the Westway community house. Kathryn Flood presided over the meeting.

Miss Loreta Fowler was the guest speaker. She gave a program on "How to give a demonstration." She told the importance of giving the demonstration in order and be sure you have every thing you need.

Recipes that call for sherry usually have been tested with the dry or medium type wine. Some dessert recipes benefit from the use of sweet sherry.

Myers, the forwards; Elizabeth Burrus, Marilyn Tice, Sue Northcutt, Mary Ruth Weaver and Adair Melton, the guards. They played Friona's girls' basketball team. Friona won 29 to 8.

Waldron Melton was present for the game, while Mrs. Glenn Burrus and Kathryn came later.

V. Perrin, Mrs. John Hill, Mrs. Waldron Melton, Mrs. Jim Stocks and Mrs. Thurman Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Waltershied and family have recently moved from the Dameron Ranch.

Assembly of Walcott School children was held on Wednesday morning, Feb. 15. Collins read Psalm 118, calling attention to the 24th verse. He then showed two colored films produced by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission: "Canada Goose." It showed the four major flyways in the United States of these magnificent birds.

The Canada Goose usually mates for life. No bird has a keener or more suspicious eye than he. The thick coat of feathers forms an armor for this goose that makes a hunter's shells hard to penetrate his body. A bird headed for extinction until proper breeding places were provided, federal laws were passed to protect them.

Many are trapped and landed each year for study, so the Canada Goose can live for future generations to be enjoyed.

"Outlaw of the Cameron" was an excellent film on the tracking down and capture of "Tony," a mountain lion. A lot of patient effort and work is required when a wild animal like this is taken alive, so it can be placed in a zoo for all to view.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Payne and family visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rader on Wednesday night. The voices of Mr. and Mrs.

Carl Perrin, were heard over KGNC radio Thursday morning as they were playing 42 just after eating a 16-course meal, somewhere in Japan. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Perrin are now taking the "Around the World Tour" with Cotton John's group.

A meeting of dryland farmers in the Walcott area to study an evaluation of the cost and expected return from planting grain sorghum was held in Walcott School auditorium on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 16.

The group discussed the advantage of stubble mulch farming, using large sweep type implements.

Present were Eldred Brown, Glenn Burrus, S. N. Thweatt, Tommy Braddy, Allen Hoover, Fred Collet, Luther Lesley, Floyd Brown, Bertram Jack, C. R. Hoover and Ernest Brown.

Mrs. J. E. Rouse was driving to this meeting on Thursday afternoon when her car overturned near her home. Harold Bass was first to the scene of the accident. Mrs. N. A. Brown rode in the ambulance with Mrs. Rouse as she was taken to the Farmer County Hospital in Friona. She has five broken ribs and a brain concussion.

Her son from Farmington, N. M., was driving in that night to be with his mother, who lives alone here.

Farm and Ranch Club met in the home of Mrs. John Hill on Thursday, Feb. 16.

Bruce Fink

Fink Explains Functions Of Water District

Bruce Fink, Hereford representative of High Plains Underground Water Conservation District, outlines functions of the 13-county district at the noon meeting of Hereford Rotary Club Monday in the ballroom of Jim Hill Hotel.

Fink, a Rotarian, pointed out that in Texas, water districts set up its own rules and regulations as a centralized agency in the state would not be practical due to varied climatic conditions.

He explained that 13 counties or parts of counties are included in the High Plains District and that the District's reservoir is in the Ogallala formation.

The District elects five members to the board of directors and counties are divided into precincts. Each county elects five committeemen, who serve the board of directors in an advisory capacity.

Purpose of the District is for the prevention of waste and the recharging of water into the Ogallala formation, Fink commented. Attempts have been made to devise feasible methods of artificial recharge of water.

The speaker was introduced by Hereford Rotarian Don Baugous.

Future Homemaking Girls Present PTA Style Show

BY MRS. R. L. PINNELL
Members of the Adrian Future Homemakers of America presented the program Monday night for the Adrian Parent Teachers meeting in the high school gymnasium.

"The Matadors," a trio including Sidney Blankenship and Calvin Peters playing steel guitars and Sandy Ferguson playing drums, provided music during the girls' style show.

The girls and their sponsor, Mrs. Don Johnson, modeled garments made during the past six weeks. Mrs. J. R. Manning narrated the program.

Girls modeling were Gail Brown, Sue Johnson, Glenda Homfeld, Jo Heaton, Mickey Haynes, Donna Brownlee, Madeline Weidner, Kathy Kromer, Linda Gruhlkey, Sue Brownlee, Coralie Fortenberry, Phillis Peters and Paula Creitz.

The girls modeled in several divisions, including school dresses, couple outfits which were look-alikes in dresses and shirts, play clothes and sportswear. A special feature was a basic black dress with many different accessories, cheerleaders' skirts, lounging apparel and a more formal dress.

Three judges were Mrs. Melvin Sumner, 4-H club leader; Miss Loreta Fowler, assistant Deaf Smith County home demonstration agent; and Mrs. Robert Jacobson.

Winners in the school division were: Sue Johnson, senior; Glenda Homfeld, junior; Kathy Kromer, sophomore; and Phillis Peters, freshman. Linda Gruhlkey and Gail Brown won first in couples.

Paula Creitz took first in play clothes; Madeline Weidner won honors in lounging wear and Gail Brown was first in black dress.

Kathy Kromer took first in suits while Gail Brown won honors for the entire show.

Jerry Homfeld and Hubert Bronniman were boy models. David Brownlee was the "sleepy head" while his sisters, Donna and Sue, sang "Mr. Sandman" between showings. Melanie Creitz also modeled a "look-alike" dress made by her sister and Linda Primrose showed a tiny dress that matched one worn by her aunt, Sue Johnson. Sue made both garments.

At the conclusion of the program, Betty Sue Frasier was presented the Betty Crocker award for making the highest grade on a written test. She also is eligible for state and national competition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pennington of Amarillo were visitors Sunday in the Herman Sifford home on the Bridwell Ranch.

Cynthia Kromer visited here over the weekend. The F. A. Kromers met her in Amarillo Friday night at the Amarillo College-Lubbock Christian College basketball game. Last Monday night Cynthia was crowned Valentine Queen at Lubbock Christian College.

Frank De Fedi of San Francisco, Cal., arrived Sunday to look after some business on his farm south of town.

W. S. and J. S. Kromer, brothers of F. A. and Earl, and J. W. Kromer, a nephew, all of Vinson, Okla., visited Tuesday and Wednesday with their relatives and their families.

The Herman Siffords attended the monthly meeting of the Coyote Hunters' Association of the Golden Spread recently. The meeting was held in Cecil's Steak House in Amarillo. The men honored their wives with a dinner and later viewed slides taken at the recent Coyote Rodeo in Oklahoma. Films of local hunts also were shown. Seventeen members and their wives from around the Panhandle were present.

Mrs. Tuck Monk was called Wednesday to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Bob Tucker, in Farmington, N. M.

Marina Sue Spinks, her fiancée Wayne Hayes and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes of Fort Worth, were Sunday guests of the James "Red" Spinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jeffery of Rosebud, N. M., visited Sunday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Sisk and family.

Beauty At Home

BY LYNN CARTER
Q. I've been told that it doesn't look nice for a woman to sit with her legs crossed in church, nor should she use a lot of perfume. What do you say about this?
A. Plenty of perfectly nice people cross their legs in church, and in my opinion they look much more comfortable. However, heavy perfume is not a beauty asset in church, or anywhere else, for that matter.

Q. My new permanent wave is a terrible disappointment. It's so fuzzy, I can't do a thing with it. Any suggestions?
A. You hairdresser can reapply the waving lotion - about half-minute should do the trick. Or, ask about the new electric comb designed to de-kink hair with ease.

Q. What can I do about my eyelashes, which seem suddenly to have become brittle?
A. Give them some exercise whenever you think of it - by tugging gently at them. Massage them with cream. And refrain for awhile from using lash coloring on them.

Q. My teeth are rather large, and I have thin lips. How should I lipstik. I keep telling her this counteract these two features?
A. Rather than confine yourself to the natural outline of your mouth, increase the width of both upper and lower lips a bit beyond their outline - which will seem to minimize the appearance of your teeth.

Q. What is a good, stimulating, and cleansing facial beauty mask I can make at home?
A. One good one that fits your specifications is a paste made of raw oatmeal and milk.

mer, Linda Gruhlkey, Sue Brownlee, Coralie Fortenberry, Phillis Peters and Paula Creitz.

The girls modeled in several divisions, including school dresses, couple outfits which were look-alikes in dresses and shirts, play clothes and sportswear. A special feature was a basic black dress with many different accessories, cheerleaders' skirts, lounging apparel and a more formal dress.
