

Not even the most conscientious observers of holidays (we won't mention any names) gave more than a passing glance at the calendar Tuesday ... not a flag was raised nor a door locked in celebration ... but March 4 was nevertheless an important national birthday. It was on March 4, 1789, just 158 years ago, that the first United States Congress convened under the new Constitution. Maybe the reason for the lack of enthusiasm is that the date is simply a little too close to March 15 ... when several million American citizens, sweating over income tax returns, would, if they gave the matter any thought at all, fervently wish that the Congress had never been born at all.

Liquor Violators Get Heavy Fines In Local Courts

Seven liquor violations have been charged in local courts in the last three weeks, Sheriff J. C. Reese reports. Fines ranging from $250 to $500, plus costs, have been assessed on convictions, and two cases are still pending. Arnold Wall was assessed $300 and costs in a charge of sale of intoxicating liquor. Jess Barrett, convicted of transporting liquor in dry territory was fined $250 plus costs. John de las Santos, convicted of transporting liquor, drew a $500 fine, and was nicker for another $100 plus costs on a charge of driving without lights. Santos led Sheriff Reese, Deputy Sheriff Neal Young, and City Marshall Bruce Wooddell a merry chase before he was finally stopped. In addition to the fines, he lost a pair of tires when Young and Wooddell were forced to open fire and shoot two rear tires off his truck before he finally stopped and submitted to arrest. R. L. Ballard is facing charges on three counts: sale, transportation, and possession of untaxed liquor; and another violation, a Mexican, has also been charged with sale of liquor. Reese said local bootleggers were charging from eight to twelve dollars a fifth for low grade whiskey.

Over 1,000 Acres Pledged by Sugar Beet Growers

More than 1,000 acres of land have already been contracted for growing of sugar beets in this area this year, and growers are still signing contracts at the county agent's office in Hereford. Don Heizer, field man for the American Crystal Sugar Company of Rocky Ford, Colo., was in Hereford last week-end supervising the signing of contracts for the 1947 crop, and has left a supply of contracts at the county agent's office to be signed. The company has agreed to handle whatever acreage local growers want to plant this year. No deadline on contracts has been set, but Heizer is urging growers to sign up as soon as possible. The 1947 price is set at $14.50 per ton top this year, a dollar higher than in 1946. Under the contracts, the company agrees to furnish seed at 45 cents per pound (sheared) or 19 cents (unsheared), and will pay half the freight on all beets shipped to Rocky Ford. Growers are contracting to plant their pledged acreage before May 20. Two loading dumps will be set up in this area, Heizer said. One will be in Hereford, and the other will probably be located either at Summerfield or Dawn, depending on where the acreage is greatest. A field man will be stationed in Hereford during the growing and harvest season.

Red Cross Drive Goes Over Quota

The Deaf Smith County Red Cross Chapter, despite the fact that its quota was reached two days before the Annual Red Cross Membership Drive officially got under way, was the third county chapter in the state to report its goal reached. The Red Cross membership drive in this county went over the top Thursday afternoon after a three-day whirlwind campaign, and E. C. Eubanks, county chapter chairman, wired State Red Cross Headquarters Thursday night that this county had reached its quota of $4,500. The annual membership drive officially opened Saturday morning, March 1, throughout the nation. State headquarters advised local chapter officers that the Deaf Smith chapter was the first in its class to complete the drive, but said that two other chapters had previously reported quotas completed. The early-bird chapters were not named. County chapter chairmen (Continued on Page 8)

No Rush for '47 License Tags ... Yet

Don't be in any rush to buy your 1947 auto license plates, folks. There's a big stock still on hand at the Sheriff's office, and at the present rate of sale, there'll be lots of them left on March 31, which is the deadline. So don't worry about waiting till the last day ... you can probably find a place in line somewhere in the neighborhood of the First National bank ... unless you're an early bird ... and if you've waited till the deadline, chances are you won't be. Of course, if you're one of those people who don't like standing in line, you can buy tags any day now, and avoid the rush.

Special Election Ordered March 25 By County Board

Voters of Summerfield County Line School District have petitioned the County Board of Trustees to order an election for the purpose of voting on the admission of the Summerfield School district to the newly created Hereford Rural High School district, County Judge Leonard Foster announced yesterday. The election in which voters of both the Summerfield district and the Hereford Rural High School district must ballot, will be held on Tuesday, March 25, Judge Foster said. Admission of the Summerfield district into the consolidation must be approved by a majority of voters in both the Summerfield district and in the Rural High School district. If the proposal fails to carry in either district, the election is voided. The County Board received a petition signed by 20 taxpayers in the Summerfield district requesting that the election be called, and at their request, a petition was prepared and signed by the required number of voters in the Rural High school district supporting the request for a special election. Polling places, and election officials, for the March 25 election, as announced by Judge Foster yesterday, will be: Hereford, at the courthouse, W. E. Dunlap, election judge. Dawn, at Dawn schoolhouse, A. T. Frye, election judge. Wyche, at Wyche school house, Mrs. N. G. Elliston, election judge. Progressive, at Progressive school, V. C. Dodson, election judge. ### Up To 100 Blocks May Be Paved

Plans for an extensive city paving program are getting under way rapidly now, Mayor W. E. Dameron has announced. The City Commission has employed the firm of Parkhill, Smith and Cooper, consulting engineers, of Lubbock, to make a survey and draw up plans for the paving program and other city projects which will be announced soon, Mayor Dameron said. As much as 100 blocks of street paving may be required in Hereford, city officials believe. The Lubbock engineering firm is working now on a survey of the city to lay out plans for needed paving, and should have a definite outline of the project within a short time. The project has been inaugurated by the City Commission in response to a petition presented two months ago by local citizens, requesting action on a street paving program. Definite figures regarding the proposed paving, and the costs of construction, including curb and gutter, will be available in a few days, Mayor Dameron said. City property owners will probably stand the major portion of the cost of the street paving, the city has indicated. Tentative plans call for the property owners to divide the cost of paving streets in front of their lots, with the city paying for intersections and blocks. The number of blocks of streets to be paved has not been definitely determined, and the actual extent of initial paving (Continued on Page 8)

Honeymooners In Crack-up Here Saturday

A honeymoon ended in traffic court after barely by-passing the hospital here last Saturday afternoon. The honeymooners were Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Weaver of Star Route, Lubbock. Weaver, driving a 1940 Buick sedan, was en route from Clovis, N. M., with his bride of a few hours and two other members of the wedding party when he tangled with another car ... and the law ... in Hereford. The other car in the picture was a 1940 Ford Coach driven by Richard Kopp of Harvey's Cafe, Kopp, east-bound on the highway, had signalled a left turn in front of the cafe. Weaver, two cars back in the line of traffic, was in a bit of a hurry and cut around the cars ahead just in time to smash into Kopp's Ford. Both cars were damaged, but luckily no one was injured. Weaver, however, was hauled into justice court and fined when he failed to produce an operator's license and admitted that he might have been exceeding the speed limit.

Robbery Suspects Are Held in Hereford and Borger Jails

Sheriff J. C. Reese believes that the robberies of three Hereford business firms last January may have been solved last week with the arrest of two suspects in Tucson, Ariz.

Robert Lincoln Jones and Billy Denby, both 18, and both of whom gave their addresses as Amarillo, were arrested in Tucson by Arizona police and were brought back to Borger, where police wanted them for questioning in regard to a series of robberies committed there two days after the local jobs.

One of the boys, Jones, was brought to Hereford Friday by Sheriff Reese for questioning in regard to the Hereford robberies, and is being held in Deaf Smith jail. Reese said charges would be filed.

Other Panhandle officers are reported to be interested in questioning the pair in the hope of solving a wave of robberies which occurred during a two-week period throughout this section.

While the boys were reported by Tucson officers to have made oral confessions of the Borger job, since being returned to Texas, both have refused to admit any connection with the Texas crimes. Jones told officers bringing him to Texas from Arizona that they had pulled robberies in Hereford, Reese said, but has since refused to talk.

Kemp Lumber Company, Benefield Motor Company, and Kester Jewelry Store in Hereford were all entered and robbed on the night of January 24. The robbers wore gloves, and no fingerprints were secured, local officers reported.

Sheriff Reese and City Marshal Bruce Woodell have been working on the case since that

Check Forging Ring Broken by Arrest of Boys

A check-forging ring which had been operated successfully for more than six months by a group of teen-age boys covering a large section of West Texas and Eastern New Mexico was broken up last week by the arrest in Clovis of the leaders of the gang.

Allen Uxor, 17-year-old Portales boy, named eight other youngsters who had taken part, at various times since last July, with him in forging and passing checks in widespread operations which extended from San Angelo to Dalhart in West Texas and from Roswell to Fort Sumner in New Mexico.

Uxor is under bond to appear before the Grand Jury in Deaf Smith County, and another member of the gang, Allen McIntire of Santa Rosa, N. M., is now lodged in Deaf Smith county jail awaiting Grand Jury action.

Of the remaining pair of the four members who passed checks in Hereford, one has already been sentenced to two years in the penitentiary in New Mexico, and the other, a 15-year-old Portales youth, has been placed under probation to his parents, who made good the checks which he had passed.

Other members of the gang have cleared up their accounts in New Mexico and are either under suspended sentences in that state or on probation to parents and guardians.

Young McIntire, 18-year-old Seabee veteran of World War II, dictated a complete confession to Sheriff J. G. Reese here Tuesday morning. McIntire was brought to Hereford from Clovis Monday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Neal Young.

Sheriff Reese and City Marshal Bruce Woodell have been on the trail of the forgers since they made their appearance in Hereford last August, and co-operated with New Mexico officers in making arrests.

McIntire said the gang made only one visit to Hereford on August 16, and passed five checks here, ranging in amount from 24 to 30 dollars. McIntire was the penman for the gang, and in addition to writing the checks, passed one of them himself.

The boys posed as harvest workers, cashed the checks by buying small amounts of merchandise which they tossed out of the car immediately after leaving town.

Not once did any merchant ask them for any identification or question the checks which they presented, McIntire said, in spite of the fact that fictitious names were used in the signatures.

The usual procedure, he said, was for a group of four or five, travelling in Uxor's car, to come into a town and secure blank checks on a local bank. McIntire would then write the checks, and Uxor would distribute them to the boys to be cashed.

McIntire said he had participated in the racket only from August until November of last year, and had not made all the trips, but had heard the boys speak of trips to Littlefield, Levelland, Sudan, Snyder, Muleshoe, Dalhart, and Friona in Texas, and to Roswell, Fort Sumner, Melrose, Artesia, Portales and Santa Rosa in New Mexico.

He said Uxor wrote the checks when he wasn't along.

McIntire told Sheriff Reese that he had served in the Seabees during the war, serving overseas on Samar Island in the Philippines and in Japan with the Army of Occupation. He received his discharge last June.

Returning to New Mexico, he had entered Portales Junior College last fall, under the GI Bill of Rights, and was studying engineering; but found that he had not had sufficient mathematics to pass the course.

He quit the college and returned to Santa Rosa, where he got a job in a cafe and entered high school, intending to complete his two years of high school and then re-enter college for the engineering work in which he is interested.

It was last fall, while he was still enrolled in the junior college, that he became involved with Uxor and the check-forging gang, he told local officers, and he said that he quit the gang last November when he returned to high school.

Appearing genuinely regretful for his brief career in crime, the 18-year-old youngster inquired anxiously about "the judge" and hoped for a break so that he could return to school and complete his education.

His parents, he told Sheriff Reese, were living in Portales, and were elderly people whose sole income was from an old age pension. He had not lived with his parents in several years, he said, and had lived with "a lady" in Santa Rosa while he was attending high school before enlisting in the Seabees.

His employer in Santa Rosa, as well as Santa Rosa officers, have offered to make up the money to pay off his checks and give him his old job back.

DEAR DAIRY:

The weather in this locality surely makes things hard for a hardware man. The day he writes his ad it is beautiful and spring-like. He advertises garden tools and seeds and spring cleaning items and dresses his window to show the things he has advertised—then before the paper is on the street—it is winter again and the poor merchant wishes he had advertised gas heaters, and snow shovels and butchering supplies.

However, it's all right, because if it was spring all the time, we would run out of anything to talk about. And then—there are ways to fool even the weather—as follows—

We now have Dearborn gas and butane heaters in several sizes—and plenty of butcher knives, skinning knives and butcher steels. So much for winter.

For Spring: Girl's Bicycle—novelty Easter candles and table decorations, mops—brooms—oils—cleaners—polishes—waxes—and everything else needed for that spring house-cleaning job.

Have one Steamomatic iron and one folding travel iron. A few of those good Case scissors left.

Coming—volley balls, bike axes, bike tires and tubes, couple of RCA table model radios, inexpensive sets of dishes, fill-in stock of wood screws, brass and nickel screws, and lots of gadgets. This shipment will give us ALMOST a complete stock of screws ranging in size from No. 2, 3-8" up to No. 16-3 inch. Another bunch of bolts has filled up our bins—we are out of only a very few odd sizes at present.

Windmill situation is worse—60 to 90 day delivery on 10 ft. No delivery date at all on 12 and 14 foot jobs. Will have a few 6 and 8's with steel towers in about 30 days.

I note a guest speaker in Hereford took exception to our city dump—how does he get that way? I think that as a dump—we have one of the finest dumps in the state!!

Sheep Raisers Urged to Cull Pregnancy Toll

Sheep raisers were urged today to cut down the enormous toll of pregnancy disease in American flocks this year by giving extra attention to the care and feeding of ewes in the next few weeks.

Pointing out that this disease is fatal in nine out of ten cases, the American Population for Animal Health offered the set of timely recommendations to help farmers to deal with the problem:

- (1) Be sure that ewes receive proper rations—including a liberal allowance of clean, bright hay. In addition, good, sound grain should be added to the diet during the last six or eight weeks of pregnancy, but overfeeding should be avoided.
- (2) Provide adequate salt, and arrange for regular feeding hours. Avoid abrupt changes in the kind or amount of food.
- (3) Require the ewes to take moderate exercise; one good way is to feed them at least a quarter of a mile away from the bedding ground or shed.
- (4) As lambing times near, watch the flock closely for signs of pregnancy disease. Symptoms include grinding of the teeth, dullness, weakness, and finally complete collapse.
- (5) If a suspected case occurs, obtain a veterinary diagnosis as early as possible. In the early stages of this disease, recovery can often be aided by medicinal treatment.

Pregnancy disease is believed to be caused by faulty metabolism, the American Foundation pointed out, and there is no evidence that infection has anything to do with the trouble.

The straw poll began as an intermittent practice of U. S. journalists in 1924. In that year the Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, sent out reporters to inquire among citizens whether they were going to vote for Henry Clay, Andrew Jackson, John

Uniform Traffic Control Bill Is Presented to Legislature

A new bill now before the house and senate of the Texas Legislature provides uniform regulations regulating highway traffic throughout the state. The bill is sponsored by the Texas Safety Association, and 58 other statewide organizations. Commenting on the proposed bill, George Clarke of the Texas Safety Association said, "Basic to all effort for safe and efficient traffic flow, both urban and rural, is uniformity in traffic regulations."

The new traffic code, which would replace all existing traffic regulations, provides for uniformity in state and local traffic laws and regulations. Various sections of Texas traffic statutes have been declared invalid by the courts, and others are obsolete for modern traffic conditions.

HAIRCUTS FOR A PENNY!

BRUSH YOUR TEETH, COMB YOUR HAIR!—These by-words your Greek War Relief Association supervisor teaches the youth of Greece. A million children eat a warm, noonday meal at CWRA feeding centers, thousands of orphans are given "foster homes," $6.60 supports an orphan one month; $2.00 feeds a school child one month. Pennies can save Greece's children today—your son's neighbor of tomorrow. Rush your pennies to Greek War Relief's 1947 Campaign, 221 West 57th Street, New York 19, N. Y.

The propose bill is modeled after the Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways, developed by the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety and recommended to all states by President Truman's Highway Safety Conference.

A summary of the bill reveals the following outstanding features: It provides for obedience to police officers, a new regulation. At present, police have no legal authority to direct highway traffic at the scene of an accident.

It provides for uniform traffic signs, signals, and markings throughout the state.

It sets up new requirements for reporting of accidents, and authorizes any incorporated city to require accident reports to aid in discovering accident causes and determining effective remedies.

CONSTIPATION Risky in BAD COLDS

Retained undigested food becomes putrefactive, causes toxins, which overload the liver and other vital organs of the body, lessening your resistance to colds and other winter ills and interfering with their treatment. Why take this chance when you can take Calotabs? Calotabs thoroughly yet pleasantly act on every foot of your intestines, sweeping out toxin-laden putrefactive foods and virus-laden mucus, enabling you to more effectively avoid or fight a cold. Nothing acts like good old Calotabs. Use as directed. 10c and 25c at all druggists.

Hogs reached all-time highs and grains went up sharply, as most other southwest farm products sold at steady to strong prices last week, according to Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

All grain made strong advances during the past week, except oats which remained fully steady. Friday's price on wheat was $2.58-60 per bushel, bulk, for No. 1 ordinary at Fort Worth and Galveston; corn reached $1.83-84 for No. 2 white, and $1.69-70 for No. 2 yellow; and sorghums $2.68-71 per hundred.

Some feeds were higher, as bran and shorts moved up around $3 per ton over a week earlier. Good quality alfalfa advanced $2 per ton above the last quotations. Peanut meal remained about steady at $65 per ton for 43 per cent protein. Farmers stock peanuts resold at $210 to $215 per ton in the south-eastern states. Small quantities of rough rice moved to mills at ceiling prices.

Eggs held firm last week despite increased supplies. Most southwest points paid around 36 to 37 cents per dozen. Houston and Baton Rouge paid 40 cents. Fryers and broilers remained steady, but hens strengthened last week. Heavy hens were quoted 27 to 28 cents per pound at Dallas, and a few as high as 28 at Fort Worth.

Denver's wholesale market saw the season's first asparagus last week at $16 per crate. Radishes from Texas found good demand, while potatoes, onions, and beets remained dull. Cold, drizzly weather interfered with harvesting in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Light haulings of cabbage sold some stronger at $5 to $1.00 per 50 pound sack. Citrus demand improved a little. Louisiana sweet potatoes held steady at $2.70 to $2.75 for 50 pounds of best stock. Good demand for Texas spinach raised prices to $1.35 to $1.50 per bushel.

Spectacular early-week advances carried hog prices to new all-time highs at practically all markets. Southwest trading tended to level off toward the close at net advances of $1.00 to $1.50 for the week. Highest price paid at San Antonio was $26; while at Fort Worth the record price was $28; and at Denver $30.25. Friday's top at Oklahoma City was $28.50; and $28.85 at Wichita.

Cattle advanced steadily at southwest terminals last week, and closed 50 cents to $1.00 higher on most classes. Bulk of prices paid for common and medium steers were $12 to $17 at Houston; and $12.50 to $19 at Fort Worth. Medium to low good steers and yearlings moved close to $18 to $21 at San Antonio, Oklahoma City, Wichita, and Denver.

Sheep held fully steady at San Antonio and gained mostly 25 to 75 cents at other southwest points. Good and Choice spring lambs at Fort Worth realized $21.50 to $22.50; and good and choice club lambs brought $22 at San Antonio. Best truckers turned at $22 to $22.50 at Wichita; and $23 at Denver. Medium horn goats sold at $6.25 to $6.50 at San Antonio.

More selling of revalued Texas wools was reported. Mohair was contracted more actively in Texas at prices 1 to 2 cents higher per bale advance, as demand er.

Cotton netted around a dollar slackened. Nitrogen fertilizers have increased consistently the yields of rice in experiments carried on near Beaumont by Texas A. and M. College Agricultural Station No. 4.

U. S. farmers borrowed 615 million dollars in 1946 from production credit associations.

tain vehicles to stop at all grade crossings, and provides authority for designation of stop intersections and erection of stop signs. Present laws relating to stop signs have been declared invalid.

It provides standard requirements for lights, horns, brakes, flares, and other warning devices for certain vehicles, and requires safety bias in all new motor vehicles sold after January 1, 1946.

The bill grants authority to the Department of Public Safety to check vehicles for safe mechanical condition, but does not authorize compulsory motor vehicle inspection.

H. A. Girls Entertain With Annual "Sweetheart Banquet"

Informality and gaiety were the passwords to the annual Sweetheart Banquet held by the Future Homemakers of America group at the high school Thursday evening.

Theme for the party was "Key to My Heart," with red hearts and gold keys predominating in decorations. Tiny red hearts with lacy skirts made to represent the girls and larger hearts to represent their dates formed the north wall of the home economics room, where the banquet was held. Red crepe paper streamers centered the tables and red and white candles gave handlighting for the occasion.

The program opened with the entire group singing "Bless You for Being an Angel," to honor the mothers of the girls who prepared the food. Alma Faye Knox and Emmarie Turner sang "The Sweetheart Song."

Highlighting the evening's entertainment was the presentation of Ruth London and Bobby Millard as "Sweethearts of the Year."

Group singing of the F.H.A. song, "Sing Your Way Home," concluded the program.

Take Yokes Off Cattle to Raise Bigger Calf Crop

COLLEGE STATION, Feb. 28.—"Best way for a farmer to get a high calf crop and fast, growing calves is to take the yokes off his cattle."

That statement, made by M. K. Thornton, agricultural chemist of the Texas A. and M. Extension Service, may not seem to add up at first, but along with a little explanation, it means something for the Texas farmer in connection with producing high quality winter pastures.

To Thornton, yokes on cattle show that the farmer isn't furnishing his cows with good enough forage to make them want to stay on their side of the fence.

"This is the time of year," says Thornton, "when we drive down the highway and see large numbers of cattle with yokes around their necks, indicating their restlessness in trying to get the quantity and quality of feed they need. Then, as we drive on, we see contented cattle tion, which numbered twelve this year instead of the customary six.

grazing on green winter pastures—a result of using the type fertilizers that produce high quality grazing. This forces us into the belief that the best way to keep the yoked cattle from tearing down fences is to provide them with the same kind of grazing that the contented cows are getting."

Getting rid of the yokes and furnishing cows with good winter grazing is a question of building pastures with fertilizer, says Thornton. "This should not be considered an unnecessary expense; it's nothing but a profitable investment. From fertilized, well-developed winter pastures will come more calves that weigh more, are more alert and vigorous. At the same time, cows will produce more milk and stand up better under nursing and the other trials of calf bearing. Without this high quality forage, the old cow will "miss a calf once in a while, and the calf that she does produce will be small and will grow off slowly. Good winter forage will keep the cow's weight up, and she will be ready to produce a good calf every year."

The gist of the thing is, says Thornton, that now is when stockmen should begin to fertilize pastures to have good green forage next winter for their breeding stock. A sack of fertilizer on a pasture is a step toward a big crop of quality calves, and a better herd of breeding stock in general.

Eliminating yokes on cattle through pasture fertilization is eliminating yokes placed on the farmer by poor pastures.

Measurements of Water Levels Irrigation Wells Stated

Measurements of water levels in several hundred observation wells throughout the irrigation region of the High Plains, measurements have been made in the same wells about the time of the winter each year since 1937. They are made by the United States Geological Survey and the State Engineer's Office, and are reported in the monthly reports of the State Engineer's Office. The reports are made up of the water level measurements near the surface are made in 168 wells that were drilled in 1937.

Most of the pumping plants are idle during the 6 months from October through February. Therefore, a comparison of the late winter measurements from year to year gives the most accurate information regarding the rate of the water table due to rainfall, the decline caused by pumping, and additions to or losses from the underground reservoir.

This year during the work hope to contact the owner or operator of each well used for observation purposes so that complete information about the well may be obtained and, in return, so that the owner may be informed regarding the past record of water levels in the well.

This work is a part of the state-wide investigation of the ground-water resources of Texas. It is being conducted by the United States Geological Survey, in cooperation with the established studies of the ground-water resources in the High Plains region.

A copy of the report will be made available to any resident of the High Plains who will send a request by letter or postal card to the Texas State Board of Water Engineers, Austin, Texas.

West Texas Coaches Are Banquet Guests of Hereford Ex-Students Here Thursday Night

Seventy West Texas ex-students, guests, and local grid fans attended a banquet last Thursday night at the City Hall here, the new coaching staff at West Texas State College in Canyon.

Coach Frank Kimbrough and Clark Jarrigan, and Abilene State Coach Gus Miller were guests of honor at the dinner, which was sponsored by the Dear Smith County Exes chapter.

Coach Kimbrough was the principal speaker of the evening, outlining plans for development of athletics at the college, and stressing the importance of proper attitudes toward athletics on the part of both players and spectators.

Hard work, co-operation, and scholarship were the three points stressed by Kimbrough at the foundations of his program for athletes enrolling at the college.

"In attempting to interest boys in athletics at West Texas," he told the group, "please make these three points clear to any boy with whom you may talk: Every boy must do well in his school work; he must be able to carry his weight in the athletic department; the state rules require of all athletes to be acceptable to the school and the coaching staff."

Kimbrough stressed the fact that boys who play on his team should be interested in getting a college education, as well as in making a name for themselves on the gridiron.

He announced that he would like to have contact with athletes and athletes in Hereford, and begged local fans to "pitch" and to send him their best wishes.

Miller read a letter from each of the ex-students, and spoke briefly after that, expressing appreciation to local fans and to the college for their interest in the college and extending an invitation to visit the athletic department at Canyon at any time.

Irrigation . . .

bill, should it come to the floor of the House or Senate for vote. However, the action of the State Affairs Committee in referring the bill for sub-committee action, and to the Attorney General, was believed to have effectively killed the measure, at least as far as the current session of the legislature is concerned.

The High Plains Water Association is pledged to a continuing fight against passage of any control bill which would restrict the use of irrigation waters on the High Plains.

House Bill 80, as drawn up, would impose stringent controls on the underground water supply in Texas. Although it is drawn up specifically to affect five counties in the Winter Garden district, Plains lawyers and legislators have expressed the opinion that the bill, if passed, would be state-wide in application, and would impose strict controls on the use of irrigation waters throughout the High Plains region, as well as in the rest of the state.

Plains counties organized last December, and formed the overall High Plains Water Users and Conservation Association, to fight any measure which might be introduced in the legislature.

Widows Over 65 Are Entitled to Federal Benefits

Most widows attaining the age of 65 whose husbands had died after December 31, 1939, and were fully insured under the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance system and who received a lump-sum payment may be eligible for monthly benefit checks for the rest of their lives, unless they have remarried.

Mr. J. R. Sanderson, manager of the Social Security Administration field office at Amarillo, Texas, said, "These widows must file claims, however, to receive payments and should contact the nearest Social Security Administration office for correct information."

Detailed information furnished at the time of husband's death, many widows do not understand they may receive monthly benefits when they reach age 65.

Spring chickens, the tender-fleshed commercial broilers, will continue in plenty during March, and in addition, a lot of large bon turkeys from frozen storage will be available for large family meals.

Here's the March abundant food list again: Potatoes, fresh oranges and grapefruit, canned oranges and grapefruit, jams, jellies, peanut butter, eggs and broilers.

VA Halls Contact Service As Funds Are Cut Off

In keeping with the curtailment of Federal funds, the Veterans Administration regional office at Lubbock has been directed to suspend inpatient contact service throughout the region, Robert W. Sisson, West Texas VA regional manager announced today.

Veterans in towns visited on an inpatient basis will be served only in an extreme emergency by VA contact representatives. In such instances veterans should communicate with the nearest contact office. The regular schedule of VA inpatient service will be discontinued immediately, Sisson stated.

Contact offices will remain open Monday through Saturday in Abilene, Amarillo, Big Spring, Borger, El Paso, Lubbock, Odessa and San Angelo. Peace contact offices will remain open Monday through Friday.

The VA regional office, located at Ft. Lubbock army air field, has been directed to operate on a forty-hour work week, and will not be open on Saturday. It was pointed out.

"Every effort will be made to render efficient and expeditious service to West Texas veterans suffering to victims of war-time neglect," Sisson asserted.
