Bond Issues Will Provide Funds To Match Expansion

Eligible voters in the City of Hereford will go to the polls on Tuesday, Oct. 22, to decide three bond issues called by the City Commission for water, sewer, and street improvements.

The three issues would provide, if approved, $160,000 in revenue bonds for updating of the sewer system and disposal plant; $340,000 worth of revenue bonds for Water Department improvements, and $150,000 in tax bonds for street improvements.

City commissioners called the bond election on the three issues due to the rapid growth of Hereford especially in the northwestern section.

At the present time, according to Dudley Bayne, developers have on deposit with the city approximately $92,000 for new water and sewer lines.

"As these areas are built up," he pointed out, "the money will have to be paid back. And, at the rate of present building, the money will have to be paid back shortly."

"At the present time, Bayne added, "the city simply does not have the funds to repay developers for water and sewer line deposits."

In commenting on the rate of growth experienced by

Hereford during the past nine months, the city manager commented: "When what we have now in the city is compared with what was expected and anticipated, we have had five years of growth in less than a year."

As an example, he pointed to figures on building permits for the past nine months. Total permits issued placed the estimated value of construction at $3,281,000.

Of this figure, total estimated values of 335 living units is $2,785,500.

"This alone, represents an estimated increase in the city's population of 1000 persons," Bayne commented.

Commercial construction, he added, only accounts for $227,000 while church construction represents $268,700 of the total figure.

"To me it looks as if the city will have a bigger year for construction in 1964" the city manager predicted. "This will be due to commercial expansion trying to keep up with residential growth."

In the proposed revenue bond issue for water department improvements, a total of $211,960 is earmarked for much needed expansion of facilities.

Improvements for the sewer department called for the expenditure of $118,558 of the revenue bond money.

Bonds for the water department would provide the needed capital to drill three new wells this winter. Anticipated cost of each including pumps, pipes, fitting and other accessories would range between $16,000 and $22,000 each.

Also planned is construction of an additional one million gallon underground storage tank and booster station to serve the northwestern portion of the city.

Cost of the storage tank has been estimated at $57,000 with an additional $57,000 earmarked for constructing and equipping the new station.

Also provided for in the proposed revenue bond issue are funds to drill two additional wells at a future date if further growth of the city demands the additional water supply.

Three major projects are listed under the bond proposal for the city's sewer department. Included in the project is construction of a 12-inch sewer line from Benefield Corner to the sewer disposal plant.

A second line is to be laid from Benefield Corner northward to Aikman School if the bond issue is approved. This eight-inch line will serve the northern portion of the city.

If the bond issue is approved, funds will also be provided for enlarging and modernizing the city's sewage treatment plant. Bonds are to be repaid with revenue from the increased water rate, according to Bayne.

"Increased water rates are expected to bring in an additional $7,000 in revenue next year," the city manager explained. "Total average principle and interest for the first five years are expected to be $31,000 a year."

Under the proposed tax bond issue for street improvements are listed three storm sewer projects and widening of Harrison Highway and construction

Grain sorghum is rolling to the elevators in Deaf Smith County with a yield ranging from 6,000 to 8,000 pounds to the acre and bringing an average price of $1.75 per cwt.

Elevator men here estimate that about half of the crop has been harvested, but the real peak probably won't be reached until next week or possibly the last week in October.

Humidity, which shot up to 80 percent Friday night, has resulted in a higher moisture content. One elevator man, however, said "some of the 'wet' grain which we are getting is the last of the crop for a particular farmer; he has harvested his more mature grain earlier and now is eager to get the job over with so is cutting his late crop a mite green."

Yield is better than average throughout the area which makes up for a poor wheat yield this year, one elevator man said. "The sorghum situation is bright, and it is possible that it will set a record when the final figures are in," he added.

While many farmers have completed their harvest, there are still fields which have not seen the combine. One elevator man explained that some farmers prefer to wait until after frost to cut their grain. Average date for frost, incidentally, is October 20 for Deaf Smith County.

One elevator man said "The situation, I believe, is brighter than most people realize since I doubt seriously that half of the grain has been gathered. This will mean a higher overall turnout than many grainmen realize. We probably are approaching the half-way mark, but I doubt that 50 percent of the crop already has been harvested. Already elevators are pretty well filled and considerable grain being piled outside."

A farmer in the Black area said he had completed harvesting of 100 acres, and yield is from 7,000 to 8,000 pounds to the acre. He pointed out, however, that his turnout this year has been "exceptionally good," and moisture content was low for his particular grain. He had planted grain sorghum early and was one of the first farmers in his area to complete his harvest. Elevator men here said the average yield is between 6,000 and 7,000 pounds to the acre.

Therese Albracht Wins In Weekly Football Contest

Winner in last week's gridiron contest was Therese Albracht, with Larry Lomas and Steven Leasure taking second and third places.

Therese correctly guessed the outcome of 16 football games, and Lomas and Leasure predicted 15 correctly. Lomas and Leasure both had identical scores on the tie-breaker, but after a thorough discussion it was decided who was to take second and third place. The boys live next door to one another.

Eight weeks remain in the football contest, with four already gone.

Zimmerman To Moderate PEP Public Forum

Don Zimmerman will be moderator of a public forum of "Operation PEP" Thursday, Oct. 17, in the Community Center, and Clint Formby, chairman, will keynote the meeting, it was announced Saturday.

"Operation PEP" stands for "Planning and Evaluating for Progress," when Hereford and Deaf Smith county will take a long look at the future. Thursday night's meeting has for its purpose "the airing of individuals' views on what this area needs and what it should plan for the future," says Formby.

The committee will meet Monday to make final plans for the public session when "ground rules" will be established, the chairman says. The public is invited to attend this kick-off meeting Thursday. "We hope to get some good, workable ideas out of the forum," Formby says, "that we can put into use in our long-range program. Of course, some of the ideas will be for projects in the immediate future while others will take several years to develop."

MEETING CALLED

District I-AAA Adds 3 Schools

Three Panhandle schools were added to District I-AAA and three others were dropped, one to AA status, as the Interscholastic League revised conferences in the state.

An Interscholastic League announcement received Friday changed up the alignment of schools in District I-AAA, according to Paul Stevens, Hereford school superintendent and district chairman.

In revising the district, Muleshoe, Canyon, and Tulia were given AAA status while Phillips was moved down to District 2-AA. Levelland and Littlefield retained their AAA rating, but was shifted to another district.

District I-AAA beginning with the 1964 football season will consist of Hereford, Dumas, Perryton, Muleshoe, Tulia, and Canyon. Stevens stated. The change will not effect preset schedules already set for basketball and baseball, he added.

A meeting of the new district has been called for 9:30 a.m. Tuesday here, stated Stevens.

Purpose of the meeting, he added, will be to draw up new schedules and elect a chairman to represent the district.

Stevens pointed out that all games are set on two year contracts to coincide with Interscholastic League change periods.

Since these contracts are expiring, officials of the new district are meeting now to set up the scheduled conference games and allow schools ample time to set non-conference games.

These new schedules, he pointed out, will not effect sports events during the remainder of the 1963-64 school year.

They will, however, be in effect for both the 1964-65 and the 1965-66 school years, he concluded.

Home Destroyed By Fire Friday; Loss Is Heavy

Fire destroyed the Don Crooks home Friday with damages placed on the dwelling and its contents at approximately $10,000, according to Clay Angelo, Hereford fire marshal.

According to Angelo, the fire was discovered about 11:10 a.m. by neighbors of the Crooks. However, they were unable to enter the home in order to save the family's belongings due to smoke.

When Hereford Volunteer Fire Department arrived, he continued, fire had broken through the roof of the dwelling and was out of control.

By the time firemen were able to control the blaze, he stated, the home had been destroyed.

Neighbors of the family reported that the Crooks had gone to Plainview and had left Thursday.

A miscellaneous shower for the family will be held at the Frio Baptist Church 2-4 p.m. following a church dinner.

This was the first major fire of the year in either the city or the county, Angelo commented.

The home was located approximately three and a half miles east and two south of Hereford. The dwelling contained five rooms, a bath, and partial basement.

Fine, Sentence Latin American On DWI Charge

A 20-year-old Latin American pleading guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated, first offense, was sentenced to 15 days in jail and fined $200 plus court costs in Deaf Smith County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding.

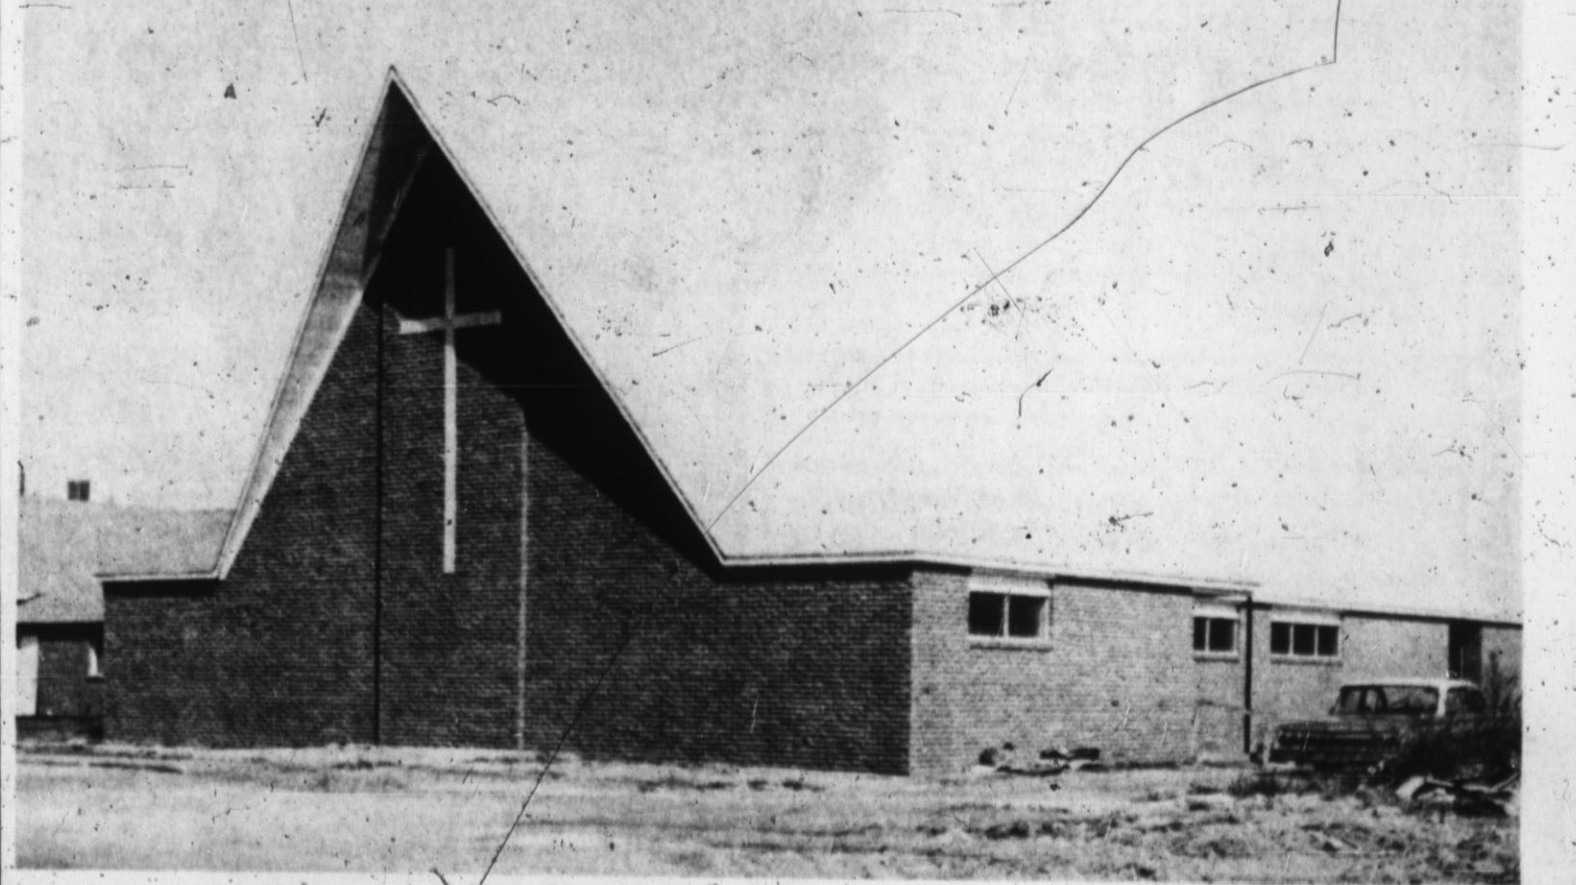

Charged with the offense was Juan Martinez, of the Labor Camp. He was tried here Tuesday. Martinez had been arrested by Texas Highway Patrol following an accident at the Labor Camp on Sunday.

Churches Ready To Take Quick Census Today

Religious nose-counting is due today when the churches of Hereford will stage a two-hour census, sponsored by the Ministerial Alliance. Folk who attend morning worship services at all churches will be given census cards which they are requested to fill out and place in their front doors for the canvassers to pick up this afternoon.

"We hope to make the census both quick and accurate," census chairman, the Rev. B. L. Davis said. "If people who receive cards this morning will have them filled out and ready, we can get the nose-counting done in record time," he added.

Canvassers from all churches are to meet at the First Baptist Church at 2 o'clock to receive

Lamesa Stomps Whitefaces 27-6 in Second-Half Rally

Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes, wobbly and wild during the first half of the game, got going Friday night in the third period to another Hereford Whitefaces 27-6 before a 3,000-person Homecoming crowd.

Fumbles, passes that went wild or fell into enemy hands, and plays that failed to net yardage, marked the entire first half for both outfits, although Hereford managed to capitalize on a Lamesa fumble and ring up a six-pointer in the second quarter.

That touchdown came about after a fairly well-sustained Whiteface drive had pushed the ball to the Lamesa 15 where the Golden Tors took over on downs. Lamesa, with Kirby Hodnett driving most of the balloting, fumbled on its own 17 and Hereford recovered. Jim Haney, Jim Higgins and Frank Cain each picked up small yardages, and Walter Williams was the lad who skirted right end to make the touchdown. Try for the extra point was wide.

ford, meantime, had been able to gain little yardage, two fumbles in a row aiding the Tors.

The second Lamesa touchdown came about after Hereford, unable to get going, had punted. Lamesa took the ball at almost mid-stripe, and Anderson wiggled through for a neat 32-yard pickup which pushed the oval down to the 'Faces' 18. Berry, on a keeper, wiped out 11 yards and two plays later, Hodnett scooted around left end for the touchdown, and again Anderson's kick was good to put the score at 14-6.

Hereford attempted to take to the air, but things didn't work out as planned; Russell intercepted one of the Hereford aerials, and Lamesa took over on the Hereford 40, but the drive got nowhere after a 15-yard penalty had set the Tors back into punting territory. Hereford took over on their own 15. Time was getting short, so the 'Faces' took to the air unsuccessfully. Lee Lindsey, a Tor end, snagged one of Hereford's passes to give Lamesa the ball on Hereford's 16. On the very next play, a pass, Dick Robert to, Kent Clark was good for the Tors' third TD, and Anderson kicked the extra point.

With the time clock running out, Hereford again took to the air after recieving the ball on its own 20. This time it was Jim Newton who nabbed a Hereford pass, and he trotted over for the six-pointer. Anderson again kicked the extra point to bring the score to 27-6, the final mark.

Lamesa gathered 16 first downs to 5 for Hereford and the Tors picked up 178 yards on the ground to Hereford's 56. Lamesa completed 7 out of 16 passes for 95 yards, and Hereford completed one pass out of 8 tries for 4 yards.

of a storm sewer on West U. S. Highway 60.

Cost of storm sewer projects on Harrison Highway are expected to total $72,800 while estimated cost of the U. S. 60 project was placed at $12,000.

"The project will close up the present open ditches," the city manager commented. "The ditches were formerly located in open fields which have now become residential areas. The low water crossing on Harrison Highway will also be eliminated."

Bayne concluded stating that money provided that city will be expressly used for the purposes set forth in each of the three bond issues.

We noticed an item in the paper recently stating that hunters from 24 states have already bought hunting permits for the coming Nebraska hunting season. The Nebraska season is the longest in the nation. Their hunting laws allow daily limits of 4 pheasant roosters and possession limits of 20.

But we're betting that our old friend Emmett Milburn doesn't have his license yet. Emmett is having troubles. He has been confronted with a problem that's just about to get him down, and that's going some. Emmett has lost his salesman, and due to the fact that he now has to work a little, he doesn't have enough time for hunting.

In fact, we were in his office not more than five minutes recently and we're sure that he mentioned this lack of hunting time at least five times.

Of course Emmett usually has a solution for every problem, but for once the man is stumped. He has even considered advertising for a substitute to do his hunting for him, but figures that some character like Luther Lesly would answer the ad and be surely couldn't hope to get his money's worth. Emmett is pretty touchy about that point. He figures it this way: If he's going to spend good money to have someone do his hunting for him, they had better be able to bring home the game.

After all, everyone wants to get full value for every dollar spent.

Which reminds us of the fellow who said the other day that he had purchased a new TV set just to watch the World Series, and now wants to sell it. "Hardly used", the man said. He, also, was complaining about not getting his "money's worth".

But then, money isn't worth what it once was!

All of which doesn't solve Emmett's problem, and we're quite sure that we don't have the answer. We left quietly with Emmett still muttering to himself.

Local Aggie fans have been taking a drubbing this week after the disastrous football game of last Saturday. Of course, the Tech Exes are riding high and take advantage of every opportunity to "rub salt in the wounds" of their Aggie friends.

Clint Formby, an old Tech Ex had the floor for only a few minutes at the Kiwanis Club meeting Thursday, but that was enough time to make all former Aggies squirm in their seats.

Clint, in all seriousness, asked for a few moments of silent prayer in memory of the Aggie team. He was adorned with a black arm band for the occasion.

Revenge was particularly sweet to Mr. Formby since it had been only a couple of weeks earlier when someone suggested that since the Kiwanis Club was now under the domination of ex-Aggies (Paul Stevens, President and Veep Wayne Phillips) the singing of the Aggie fight song should be substituted for America.

But on the other hand, we over heard a gentleman remark recently that Tech was now playing so well, they might be ready in a couple more years to tackle West Texas.

So brace-up Aggies, every group has its cross to bear.

Mrs. Avis Brown brought in a clipping about Deaf Smith County this week, and we presume that the article came from the pen of Frank X. Tolbert of the Dallas News. Mr. Tolbert is quite famous for his excursions into the far reaches of our great state, and this week he delves into the fact that H. L. Hunt, a Dallas millionaire, prefers bread made from Deaf Smith County wheat. In fact, Mr. Hunt carried his lunch to the office so that it can always include two slices of Deaf Smith County bread.

Mr. Tolbert also mentioned our slogan "The Town Without a Toothache", which has been heavily publicized in the past, but apparently has dropped by the wayside in later years.

-HB-

In regards to the slogan above, it was suggested recently by Gene Fooks, local minister that we might add a new slogan to our list of many. Gene has suggested that we refer to Hereford as the "Capitol of the Golden Spread". And perhaps he has a good idea. We already call it the "Hereford Capitol" and the "Salad Bowl of the Southwest", both of which pertain to a particular industry, so why not generalize it and call it the "Capitol of the Golden Spread".

Just for fun, why not send us your suggestions for a slogan and we'll publish the same in this column. It might be interesting to see what comes forth.

We understand that Mr. Kennedy has banned orange soda pop from the White House. Reminds him of Goldwater.

The Hi-Plains Electric Co. is probably the newest of local business houses. The operation is owned by Bill Rhoden who recently moved to Hereford from Midland. The business is located at 103 Avenue E.

Today will be the last opportunity for you to see all the 1964 model automobiles and trucks gathered together under one roof. They will be on display at the Hereford State Bank parking lot under the giant circus tent supplied by the bank. The promotion is jointly sponsored by the car dealers and the Hereford State Bank and will close at 6 p.m. today.

-HB-

We understand that J. W. Robinson has become affiliated with the NAAA. That stands for "National Association for the Advancement of Aggies."

Homeroom Officers Named

Fodder Box

Total enrollment for Stanton Junior High is now 552 students. Since this has been Fire Prevention Week, October 7-11, we have had many fire drills. With the installation of a new bell system in the school the students have no trouble hearing the bell signaling the fire drills.

There are many good and interesting displays on the bulletin board. Mrs. Wertenberger's art classes made the display for the bulletin board in the main hall. This board is changed frequently and the students enjoy the different themes used. We now have a Halloween theme on the board. The classrooms which have reading as a subject have good displays on the newspaper and newspaper reading. During the Tri-State Fair, Pamela Miller, Cindy Cavness, Candy Neal and Mary Rogers made a bulletin board about the fair.

Every Friday the homerooms present programs in their rooms. These programs are both fun and educational. Mrs. Hodges' homeroom has used the filmstrip "How to Make People Like You" and have also heard a talk from Mr. Quattlebaum about the grading system here at Stanton. Mrs. Ramey's homeroom presented a discussion on good sportsmanship and heard a report from the Red Cross. The students in Mrs. Welch's homeroom have had two panel discussions, one on how to study and the second "How to Make Stanton Junior High the Very Best School".

Many of the teachers from Stanton Junior High are enrolled in the new modern math course which is being taught in the cafeteria each Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m.

Results of an election to name Stanton Junior high homeroom officers, held late in September, have been announced. Students elected must meet certain standards before they are eligible for office. A student may have no grade lower than a C on his report card; he must have only S or above in citizenship, and he will automatically forfeit his right to continue in office should misconduct be serious enough for the student to be brought to the office.

Dogie Teams Start Wobbly, Improve

By Wesley Carter

Football season is here again. Tuesday, September 17, the Dogies took to the field for the first time this year. Both teams got off to an unfortunate start. The 8th grade team took a 16 to 6 defeat from the Muleshoe Mules. The 7th grade lost also by a score of 13-0. Clyde Evans made the only touchdown for the Dogies.

Tuesday, September 24, the Dogies journeyed to Canyon for a clash with the Eagles. The 7th grade again was defeated by a score of 12-2. The 8th grade came back strong against the Eagles by a score of 6 to 0. Gary Goodin made the touchdown for the Dogies. Late in the second quarter Clyde Evans made a touchdown for the Dogies, but was called back for a clipping penalty against the Dogies.

The Dogies played again Tuesday, October 1. This time the Friona Braves came to challenge the Dogies. The 7th grade again met defeat by a score of 20-6. Tom Lesly made the only score for the Dogies on an 80-yard punt return. The 8th grade came back by a score of 12-8. Ernie Williams made both touchdowns for the dogies.

All of the coaches have confidence in both teams and are looking forward to the first win for the 7th grade team. The remaining schedule for the Dogies is:

Oct. 15, Dimmitt, there; Oct. 22, Tulia, there; Oct. 29, Estacado, there; Nov. 5, Canyon, here.

Band Strutting At Grid Games

By Linda Brooks

Band director for the junior high this year is Clyde Wilson. He has three bands: the beginner band, which consists of the seventh grade students who have not taken band before, the intermediate band for seventh grade students who took band this summer under the direction of Wilson and Mr. Gollehon, the high school band director and the junior high band includes students who were in the beginners' band last year. This is a 90-piece band. The drum major for the Stanton Junior High band is Lynn Chisholm and twirlers are Susie Woodall, Cheryl Solomon, and Rema Coffin.

Only one of the bands will go to marching contest this year, the Junior High Band. Wilson feels the band is a good one and he and the members have been working hard. The contest will be in Canyon in Buffalo Stadium Tuesday, October 22.

To help prepare the band for the contest they marched at the high school football game October 4 and they also took part in the half-time activities during the High School B team game October 12.

The band will play also at the junior high game October 28 and take part in the pre-game activities at the Hereford High School Homecoming.

Later this year the band will go to the concert contest.

EDITORIAL

Sportsmanship

Wanda Fuhrmann and Joyce Curtsinger

The Stanton Junior High Dogies are out for a big year. Under the direction of Mr. Geron, Mr. Simpson and Mr. Coleman the seventh and eighth grade boys want to make a big showing. On behalf of the student body, we think that we should be behind them all the way. I know that the team will really feel like working hard if we go out to the games and yell for them.

We would like to ask this question of the student body, we enjoy the pep assemblies and we yell loudly, but after these assemblies do we walk out forgetting that there ever was a pep assembly and that there will be a game where our support is needed? Think about this students, and let's do something about it!

The cheerleaders, Jan Miller, Patsy Smith, Suzanne Oglesby, Pat Hill, Margaret Phipps, and Deborah Thomas commented that the students weren't taking the games seriously. They also said the team needed the support of the students.

Besides coming to the games we need to yell while there and show the Dogie teams that we care and we want them to win. Since we do have cheerleaders, let's give them a job to do at the games besides the pep assemblies and let the coaches know also that we care about the teams.

The athletic games are not the only place to show sportsmanship and school spirit; we should show it in the halls, classrooms and on the school grounds. Sportsmanship and school spirit include being friendly, orderly and attentive in the things you do.

Be fair and industrious and always try to live up to the good name that we have made for Stanton Junior High.

Principal Named To Group Studying School Problems

Officers Named For '63-64 Red Cross Council

Red Cross Council executive committee met October 3 to organize for the 1963-64 school year. The following officers were elected: President, Edlana Vinson; vice-president, Mary Renfro, (also program chairman), secretary-treasurer, Sue Easley; and chairman of exchange program with a school in Italy, Annie Nunley. Steven Hale is the "Dogie" reporter for the Red Cross Council.

Watch for the date of our Talent Program, to be given in November. Ten homerooms will present the program which promises to be an enjoyable assembly program.

Wiley Quattlebaum has been appointed to work with an area committee which will study junior high schools.

The Executive Committee of the Texas Association of Secondary Principals is making a study of the junior high schools in Texas. The state is divided into five areas and each area will be represented by a study committee composed of five junior high principals, one superintendent, one high school principal, and one college person interested in the junior high program.

The group will meet several times during the year.

Some of the questions to be studied are the objectives of the junior high schools, the curriculum program for the below-average student, what can be done for the potential drop-outs; the curriculum program needed for the average and superior students, extra-curricular and/or co-curricular programs best suited to the junior high school, and teacher preparation requirements for the junior high school. Other areas of study will include the textbooks, examinations and the grades included in the junior high unit.

Other schools represented will include Canyon, Plainview, Lubbock, Amarillo, Borger, Pampa and Dumas. We are very proud that Mr. Quattlebaum has been chosen to represent the Hereford schools on this study program.

Garden Beautiful Club is presenting the 1963 Tour of Homes Thursday, Oct. 17, from 3-6 p. m. Featured this year are the homes of the J. W. Robinsons, Harrison Highway; the Bill Howards, 302 Westhaven; the C. P. Worthans, 205 Ranger; the Benny Wombles, 246 Ranger; and the W. H. Gentrys, 400 Sunset.

"Flower Fair" is the general theme for the show this year, announced the club president, Mrs. E. W. Young. Members of the flower show committee are Mrs. Roy V. Smith, Mrs. J. Howard Walker, Mrs. J. B. Pool, Mrs. Ray Cowser, Mrs. Will S. Kerr, and Mrs. Tom Carter.

Tickets are available from club members and will be on sale in the homes at a cost of $1 for the tour. Funds received from the project are used by the club for civic improvement. Members of the ways and means committee are Mrs. Gwynne Owen, Mrs. Tom Carter, and Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill.

"Rapsody in Flowers" will be the theme for the J. W. Robinson home. Arrangements will be "Rhythm of Bells," "Beauty and the Bird," "Autumn Symphony," and "Sweet Music." An arrangement for the living room will be provided by Bill Lookingbill.

Julia Ingram Spurlock of Panhandle will be at the Robinson home to autograph copies of her book, Pass Thy Hand for the Finishing Touch, which will be on sale.

Mrs. J. B. Pool is chairman for the Robinson home committee. Other members are Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill, Mrs. F. P. Lyons, and Mrs. Jess Robinson. The Robinsons combined the old with the new by raising the roof to gain two new bedrooms with baths. They have the home they need in a setting of established lawn, mature trees and shrubbery, and a swimming pool.

The theme for the Bill Howard home is "Design for Tomorrow." Flower arrangements will include "Small Voices," "Blast Off," "On Wings of Wind," and "The Moon-Green Cheese." On the committee with Mrs. J. Howard Walker, chairman, are Mrs. Roger Brumley, Mrs. Dorothy Noland, and Mrs. Bruce Burney.

Among the many interesting features of the Howard home are the iron entrance gates, a sunken bathtub, and the colors used throughout the home.

"Grand Prize" was selected as the theme for the C. P. Worthan home by the committee, which is composed of Mrs. Tom Carter as chairman and Mrs. Wayne Edwards, Mrs. Eva Gilliland, and Mrs. Leo Witkowski. Arrangements will be "Grand Prize," "Garden Beautiful," "Plenty on the Hearth," and "Fun at the Fair."

A spacious family room-kitchen area with a rounded fireplace are among the many interesting areas in the Worthan home. Mrs. Worthan chose formal furnishings for her living room and Early American for the family room.

The Benny Womble home will exhibit the theme, "Autumn Facets." "Bitter Sweet Season," "Autumn Bounty," "Nimrod's Fantasy," and "Summer Memories" are the titles chosen for the flower arrangements. Mrs. Will Kerr is chairman of the committee for this home. Committee members are Mrs. B. E. Robinson, Mrs. Ansel McDowell, and Mrs. Jesse Stanford.

Mrs. Womble has made many of the decorations for her home, including a mural in one of the bathrooms, a fireplace mantel in the master bedroom, and many items in plaster. She has refinished in a distinctive style many old pieces of furniture.

Arrangements titled "Witch's Broomstick," "Trick or Treat," "Enchanted Forest," and "The Cat's Whiskers" will follow the theme of "Chrysanthemum Parade of Autumn Magic" in the W. H. Gentry home. Mrs. Ray Cowser is chairman for this home, and her committee members are Mrs. Gwynne Owen, Mrs. Homer Newton, and Mrs. E. W. Young. Mrs. Pat Ferguson will provide an arrangement for the dining room.

Sliding doors open from the family room of the Gentry home onto a free-form covered porch. Other points of interest in the home are a fireplace, a large utility room, an office space, and an apartment for Mrs. Gentry's mother.

The Tour of Homes has been a major project of the Garden Beautiful Club for many years. The people of Hereford and visitors from many surrounding areas look forward to the tour as one of the highlights of each autumn.

How Creep Feeding may help your cattle profits

Lots of cattlemen in this area have found it pays to creep feed their calves. Helps the calves, and their mammas, too.

Here's proof from work with 2800 head of cattle where calves were fed Purina Creep Rations:

1. 34% more choice and good grade calves.
2. Heavier calves. Every 10 calves creep-fed Purina returned weight equal to one extra calf. (No extra cow to breed, feed and care for, either.)
3. Better cow condition. Cows suckling creep-fed calves carried 44 lbs. of extra condition.
4. This extra condition meant 16% more calves the following season.

That's a big return for just a little outlay in creep feeding the Purina Way. Come in and let us talk over your operation. Prove to yourself Purina feeding can cost you less.

TFCW President Is Speaker At Pioneer Club Federation Tea

The president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. A. T. Carleton of Houston and Austin, was the speaker for the Federation Guest Day Tea of the Pioneer Study Club Wednesday afternoon at the Community Center.

"Don't ever let clubwork become a chore, but if you accept an office, fulfill your responsibility," Mrs. Carleton urged her audience as she began her speech.

The president is stressing libraries, library science scholarships during her first year in office. Most of her remarks concerned the contest for educational projects sponsored by Shell Oil Company, which will provide two $500 scholarships in each state, the Hallmark, Fine Arts Scholarships, the Indian Reservation library, the campaign against public school drop-outs, and scholarships provided by the penny art fund, the penny music fund, the Lola B. Mundy scholarship, and the Latin American scholarship.

Mrs. O. G. Gill, literacy chairman for the Top of Texas District, was commended by Mrs. Carleton for her work with Dr. Laubach's material. Mrs. Hill has won prizes for the past two years for her work. Pioneer Club is one of 38 clubs in the state sponsoring literacy campaigns.

Community improvement and the contest sponsored by Sears, Roebuck Company for the best improvement projects, the National Cultural Center, and "Dimes for Liberty," a fund to complete the base of the Statue of Liberty and build there an American Museum of Immigration, were other projects discussed by Mrs. Carleton.

"Be active in politics," said Mrs. Carleton, "But as individuals, not as club groups." She then urged clubwomen to support all health programs, such as cancer and tuberculosis campaigns. She also asked clubs to take full advantage of the Texas Heritage programs available.

In conclusion, Mrs. Carleton reminded her audience of various money-raising projects designed to finance the endowment fund and maintain the club headquarters in Austin.

Mrs. Carleton was introduced by Mrs. Ray Johnson, who is a member of Pioneer Club and Summerfield Study Club and its first vice-president of the Top of Texas District. Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill, president of Pioneer Study Club, welcomed the guests. Mrs. R. C. Godwin, accompanied by Mrs. Bill Lankford at the piano, sang "Texas

Our Texas" and "The Sound of Music."

Those serving for the tea were Mrs. Ralph McCullough, chairman, Mrs. W. C. Hromas, Mrs. William Wimberly, Mrs. Paul Rudd, and Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr.

All flowers used were grown by Mrs. Ray Johnson at her home in Summerfield. Mrs. Hromas arranged the roses for the tea table. Mrs. Hill made an arrangement of chrysanthemums for the speaker's table, and Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Johnson made other arrangements. Corsages presented special guests were made by Mrs. Lookingbill and Mrs. R. L. Wilson.

Guests of the Pioneer Study Club were members of Bay View Study Club, La Plata Study Club, Summerfield Study Club, and two Friona clubs. Other guests included the president of Top of Texas District, Mrs. E. H. Morris of Canadian; secretary-treasurer of the district, Mrs. Robert Bryant of Canadian; third vice-president of the district, Mrs. Emmett Orborne of Pampa, the past president, Mrs. Bob Lindsey of Borger, and Mrs. Carleton's sister, Mrs. Bernice Cunningham of Pampa.

Wesley Church Plans First Service In New Sanctuary

Wesley Methodist Church is opening its brand-new sanctuary this morning, and money to pay the $40,000 structure is being provided by some members contributing a "Lord's Hour" and others a "Lord's Acre." And then others have just plain dug down in their pockets to keep the project going.

The Lord's Hour idea simply means contributing the first hour's salary made each week, says the pastor, the Rev. Clesby Patterson. The Lord's Acre idea is not new; farmers contribute the yield off one acre of land.

But it's with funds like the "Acre" and the "Week" that will make the debt liquidation possible, the pastor explains.

Members report ways in which they earn their "Lord's Hour" funds. The reports list such things as these: "just some extra money I made," "half of my money I make selling cards," "one-tenth of my allowance," "one day's wages each two weeks," "first hour's wages each week," "one week's room rent each month," "money I made selling pot-holders," "babysitting," "first hour baby-sitting," "part of the proceeds from hauling with my truck," "proceeds from odd jobs," "part of wages from different chores," and "all barber work from 8 to 9 a.m. each Tuesday." Twenty-eight have signed up for the Wesley Methodist church is relatively new; it opened its doors for the first time June 15, 1953. Later Ward Hall and classrooms were added. The original part of the church is paid for but, no dedication of the new structure is planned now since Methodist rules require that a building must be paid for before it can be dedicated.

Today the church has 149 members, 13 of whom have joined since August 1, and several programs are in the making for the future. First of these, says Mr. Patterson, is Layman's Sunday, October 20 when L. W. Tooley will be in charge, a men's choir will sing, and Russell Payne of Lakeview Methodist church, will be the lay speaker.

Mrs. Wimberley Is Delegate To Club Convention

At the meeting of Dawn Music Club Tuesday, Mrs. Carl Wimberly was chosen by members as their delegate to the District I convention of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, which will be in Spearman Oct. 11.

The Good Housekeeping Guide to Musical Enjoyment, which is the course of study for the current year, was introduced to the club by Mrs. H. H. Miller. She stressed the idea that music should create a mood for the listener. This mood might be in accordance with, or in contrast to, the mood of the composer and the title of the composition.

Miss Bertha Frye then reviewed the life of Beethoven, the general of the musicians. All musical selections for the program were by Beethoven. These included "Farewell to the Piano," a piano solo by Mrs. Lester English; "I Love Thee," a vocal solo by Mrs. R. T. Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. Carl Wimberly, and piano solos by Mrs. Steve Bavousett, "Minuet in G" and "Fair Elise."

The vice-president, Mrs. H. V. McCabe, presided at the meeting, which was held in the home of Mrs. Lester English. Hostess with Mrs. English was Mrs. Bill Reinauer. They served refreshment to Mrs. Steve Bavousett, Mrs. Keith Duderstadt, Mrs. H. H. Miller, Mrs. H. V. McCabe, Mrs. Jim McCabe, Mrs. R. T. Stewart, Mrs. Robert Strain, Mrs. Carl Wimberly, Mrs. J. B. Caraway, and Miss Bertha Frye.

Seven Persons Are Injured In Accidents; Losses Heavy

A series of accidents which began early Saturday, Oct. 5, as a loaded truck-tractor, semi-trailer combination overturned continued through Wednesday. In seven accidents, losses will run into the thousands of dollars.

Seven persons have also been treated for injuries. The latest serious accident occurred four miles south of Hereford about mid-morning Wednesday resulting in two persons injured and the total loss of a 1961 model station wagon. Injured in the accident were a 72-year-old Plainview man and his 70-year-old wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritch. The couple's three-year-old granddaughter was not injured in the accident.

According to Texas Highway patrol, the accident occurred as the couple were trying to free the little girl from a car seat. Mrs. Ritch was attempting to get the child out of the seat and her husband turned around to help.

As he did, the car crossed to the left side of the highway, clipped several guard poles, a sign, and jumped an embankment at the intersection of a country road and the Dimmitt highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritch were both hospitalized for injuries. In an accident on Highway 60 east of Hereford about 7:25 p. m. Saturday Carl F. Luke, 65, 135 North Texas, was injured and his 1954 model pickup was a total loss as it skidded on loose grain and overturned.

Minutes before the accident, a car transport truck and trailer collided with the rear end of another semi-trailer hauling grain. As a result of the accident, the grain had spilled on the highway.

Driver of one of the highway transport vehicles was W. J. Britley, 36, of Winters. The other driver was Rufus Lee Bailey, 52, Tulsa, Okla.

Injured in a two-car collision at the intersection of South Sampson and East Second were Mrs. Thelma Scott Crisp, 43, 230 Ave. C, and Mrs. Fae Blackwood Cannon, 50, Arlington, Tex. The drivers of both vehicles involved.

The accident occurred shortly after 1 a. m. as the automobiles collided in the intersection. Damages to both vehicles were heavy.

An 11-year-old Latin-American girl was injured as the old-model car she was playing in was struck by another vehicle. The girl, Gloria Morino Vasquez, 11, was only slightly injured, according to the Highway Patrol.

In two other two-car accidents one within the city limits about noon Saturday and the second just west of the city limit sign on Highway 60, damages to the vehicles involved was heavy.

A PLAINVIEW COUPLE were seriously injured in the accident when the 1961 model station wagon they were riding in swerved off of U. S. 385, south of Hereford, traveled down a bar ditch, and jumped an embankment at the intersection of the highway and a county road. Injured in the accident were Hugh Ritch, 72, and his 70-year-old wife. The couple's three-year-old granddaughter escaped injury. The station wagon belonging to the couple was said to be a total loss according to Texas Highway Patrol. (Staff Photo)

Dawn school received a cleaning Saturday, Oct. 5, by the Dawn 4-H boys. The club cleaned the interior of the building and improved the outside appearance as a community project. Leader of the boys with this project was Gary Richardson, chairman.

Before meeting at the school, the members had been on the annual tour of the member's projects. Six projects were shown on the achievement tour, including swine, field crops, and garden projects.

Following the clean-up project, a hamburger fry was held in the school. The boys, their parents, and friends attended the supper. Recreation was led by Steven McAndrews, recreation chairman.

The club's leaders are Mrs. Earl Plank and Mrs. H. H. Miller.

Catholic Women Will Convene Here Tuesday

Registration for the 27th annual convention of the Amarillo Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will begin at St. Anthony's Church and school at 8:30 Tuesday, immediately after 8 a.m. Holy Mass. The convention will continue through Wednesday and will close after a general assembly and business session scheduled for 2 p.m.

A national organization, the Council of Catholic Women is a federation of about 20,000 affiliated groups with a total membership of about nine million women. The objectives are personal sanctification and a unified effort to carry out a program of spiritual and material undertakings as outlined by the bishops of the United States.

The Amarillo Diocese includes about 56 parishes and missions covering the "top of Texas," north from Lamesa and west from Childress. St. Anthony's Parish in Hereford has been active in DCCW since its instigation by Archbishop Lutey, now of San Antonio, more than 28 years ago.

This is the first diocesan-wide convention to be held here. A total of 200 people, including 120 voting delegates, are expected. About 250 people are expected to attend the banquet.

Highlight of the opening session at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday will be the keynote address delivered by the Very Reverend Monsignor Clarence White, general secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, which was organized at the close of World War I. The topic of his address will be the theme of the convention, "Women's Responsibility to Foster the Ecumenical Spirit."

At 10:15 a.m. there will be workshops on Catholic charities and foreign relief, the Order of Martha, public relations, and youth. A workshop for priests and a panel on Institute for the ladies, held in Lincoln, Neb., in September, are scheduled for 2 p.m. following luncheon at Raney's Restaurant. A tour of St. Joseph's Mission is planned for 4 p.m.

Main address of the banquet in the school auditorium at 7 p.m. will be delivered by Monsignor White. Monsignor Francis Smyer will make the presentation of DCCW awards. Delegates, guests, and their husbands are invited to the banquet.

Mass at 8 a.m. Wednesday will be followed by a coffee and a general session on the cancer project. At 10 a.m. workshops on confraternity of Christian doctrine, rural life, family life, parent education, libraries, and literature, spiritual development.

Mrs. Leo Witkowski will preside at the luncheon in the school cafeteria at 12:30 p.m. The national director of San Antonio Province of NCCW, Mrs. Fred Haiduk of Groom, will address the group on the topic, "Individual Responsibility Coupled with Collective Action."

At the general assembly and final business session, beginning at 2 p.m., Monsignor Smyer will give a resume of the convention. The closing tea will be given by the Order of Martha.

The convention will close at 3:45 p.m. in St. Anthony's Church with the benediction of The Most Blessed Sacrament. Mrs. Morris Hacker will be at the organ.

The president of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, Mrs. Walter Kale of Borger, will preside at the opening session. St. Mary's, Umberger, and St. Ann's, Canyon, will be hostesses for the Tuesday morning coffee. St. Ann's Parish, Bovina, and St. Teresa Mission, Friona, will be hostesses for the Wednesday morning coffee.

B. L. Davis Is Speaker For Lone Star Club

The "New Life Movement," which is sponsored by Texas Baptists, was the topic discussed by the Rev. B. L. Davis, minister of First Baptist Church, for Lone Star Study Club Tuesday.

Mr. Davis showed slides and described some of his more interesting experiences with the crusade in Japan, the Philippine Islands, and Korea. The most impressive things, he said, were the graciousness of the people, their eagerness to learn of Christ, and the success of the crusade.

"The Closed Door" was read from the bulletin of the Methodist Church of Church Creek.

Town Hall Meet Supplies Opportunity, Obligation

Despite the trite billing as "Operation PEP," we are inclined to feel that the proposed Town Hall meeting scheduled at the Community Center Oct. 17, 7:30 p. m., may well go into history as the most important session held here during the past century.

The idea, as we get it, is an open forum through which citizens can look at proposed plans, discuss ideas, and suggest or protest trends. In a nutshell, the meeting may well plan the future of Hereford and Deaf Smith county. At the minimum, it will provide an opportunity for leaders to feel the pulse of the citizenship regarding future growth and expansion in this territory.

Success of the project, without doubt, depends upon interest shown by the public. If we let John do it, the meeting will be a flop. If we turn out and contribute our thinking, it will be a tremendous success. Furthermore, should the meeting draw only a few dozen people, we will have only ourselves to blame and, like citizens of the Deep South today, most of us will live to rue our lack of interest when things begin to move in directions we do not approve.

Like most of you, we have heard various praise and criticisms centering around current expansion; we have also heard complaints about taxes, and we have listened to gripes about schools, police and roads. The meeting next Thursday provides each of us with an opportunity to help plan these things, just as it affords a chance for each of us to learn more clearly what we can expect in future growth of the territory.

How Not To Help

Judy Bauer, teen-aged editor-in-chief of the Burbank, California High School's newspaper, set herself down recently and pondered one of the troublesome questions of our times. First she raised the question: "Where is equality when a ragged man picks his way through a garbage can looking for his supper, while a debutante lavishes $3,000 on a 'coming-out' party?"

"When a family of 11 sits down to a supper of three pieces of bread in the slums of Los Angeles, does it seem right that a millionaire and his wife spend $60 for a dinner at a lush restaurant just ten blocks away?"

Needless to say, this is a chance few of us ever get. In addition to affording opportunity, it also involves responsibility. If we think enough of ourselves and our families to help plan the future, it will follow a systematic outline of progress. If we ignore the responsibility, then we have little room to complain when it grows in a haphazard, expensive fashion.

Our leaders are asking for our help. Let's turn out in droves and make Hereford and Deaf Smith county the kind of place we want to live and rear our families.

Do - It - Yourself Or Do Without

A generation or two back there was developed the expression "hidebound" which, we presume, denoted the condition whereby an animal, person, or business could not grow beyond the extent to which his hide would stretch. People these days still have the same problem except, perhaps, we might more properly be designated as "number-bound."

This condition really started back in the early days of the New Deal, when the federal government adopted the alphabet to designate various bureaus, starting with NRA. Along came RFC, ACA, SCS, and a host of other familiar initials. These things spread out on an international basis with NATO, CROP and dozens of others. The next step was into the local communities when the barber shop singers came up with an organization referred to as SPEBSQSA and finally, the fad reached a climax when it spread into the colored ranks and came out with the familiar NAACP.

Now the trend is slipping over into communications, with a few minor variations. Either the government had used up all of the alphabet combinations, or the sponsors felt that a mere 26 letters in the alphabet were insufficient to go around all of the combinations required, so they shifted into numerals. The telephone company was first, and started off with a combination of both letters and numerals when they emerged with the now familiar "area code," do-it-yourself system. Next came the post office with this new-fangled "zip code," which pinpoints each individual right down to state, town, division of town, and street.

All of these things, they tell us, will improve our service. The new codes are designed for rapid transit both oral and written — and dog-goned if they don't do just that. At the same time, they are said to eliminate many thousands of future employees and whittle down overall costs for the services we receive. All of these things are bound to be good, because they represent growth and progress. No doubt about that.

At the same time they are getting us a bit confused. Despite the money-saving advantages, our telephone rates and postal rates keep going up from time-to-time. We eliminate all of these working people; but we are doing it in the face of new, record high unemployment figures. We maintain more extensive and more efficient educational facilities than ever before — but systemize the jobs down to the point where anyone who can read a bunch of numbers can accomplish the task better than some previous employee with a Ph.D.

Our big complaint however, centers around the fact that we are doing all of the work. We wait on ourselves at the automat, run around getting proper change to buy cigarettes, soda pop, and even coffee. We act as our operator when we make a long distance telephone call — and now we are beginning to route our own mail. Frankly, it seems to us that grandma was a lot better off with one efficient household helper than is the modern housewife who boasts a vacuum cleaner, electric toaster, dishwasher, electric can opener and garbage disposal. Sometimes, we wonder who is kidding whom.

We do have an ever-growing respect for our forefathers though, especially the old boy who inserted into our Constitution the words: "... of the people, by the people, for the people." If he was talking about getting anything done, especially in 1963, you are going to do it yourself, or it won't get done at all.

Mail Order Land Deal Results In Indictments

Indictments are still being handed down by grand juries against persons charged with mail fraud in the sale of land, according to Bill Thompson, recent article in the Better Business Bureau service bulletin prepared especially for the manager of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

Thompson, in referring to a members of Chambers of Commerce, stated that seven men have been recently indicted on charges alleging mail fraud as the fourth major mail-order land sale persecution.

The charges against the seven men were filed in Portland, Ore.

by the Department of Justice. Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy said the 17-count indictment was sealed after its return by a federal grand jury in Portland adjourned on May 1, the local chamber manager stated.

It was opened recently, however, following the conviction in Minneapolis in another federal mail fraud case of two of the defendants named in the Portland indictment.

The defendants were charged, according to the service bulletin, with buying 6919 acres of desert wasteland in Harney County, Ore., and then seeking to sell it at $395 per acre on the basis of allegedly fraudulent claims.

The claims, according to the NBBB article were "designed to make purchasers believe they were buying choice scenic land, particularly suitable for retirement."

Kennedy said sales or prospective installments sales totaled $280,000, it was reported. The sales program, if completed, would have resulted in purchases valued at $3 million.

The case, according to the attorney general, was developed by the Postal Inspection Service following an extensive investigation.

Judges Declare Debate On Suffrage As A Draw

As announced, the much-talked-of debate between two local orators was duly and orderly pulled off at the court house last Friday night. The interest shown was evidenced by the large crowd that filled the district court room to its capacity. The subject discussed as stated was: Resolved that the women should vote; Hon. Bill Roy championing the affirmative and Hon. Elmer Dameron taking the negative. There were to be six judges, three men and three women, but only four reported. There were Mesdames W. E. Hicks, and A. C. Elliott, Messis, Hughes and J. E. Garrison. At the close of the debate, they rendered their decision; two for the affirmative and two for the negative. So this all-important question has not yet been decided. There were also a full set of jury judges, but they have not concurred in the decision. They occupied the jury boxes in the court, too and many in the house thought they were to be the regular judges. They made a very conspicuous impression and profound spectacle seated on the elevated platform, and should have been consulted at the close of this ferocious debate. For the benefit of the public their names are given: W. F. Deible, J. P. Wood, W. B. Palmer, Sam Worley, Henry Hubbert, Uncle Joe Ward, Col. E. T. Woodburn, T. M. Palmer, Uncle Sammie Higgins, John E. Ferguson, Dick Linville, W. B. Miller. It was said by those in the parque that nearly all of these were avowed candidates for some office or wanted to be; but this is rather a doubtful accusation. Supt. Ben Short acted as master of ceremonies, and referee. After announcing the subject and arranging for the judges, he introduced the first speaker for the evening and retired to safe grounds.

10 YEARS AGO

Hereford police are making an intensive effort to find the vandal — or vandals — who have ruined a number of stop signs, damaged some 50 more, and stolen 11 of the black and yellow markers. "At least $300 worth of damage has been done since a number of new signs were put up last week," according to Cecil Massey, Hereford city manager. "In all 13 signs have been carried away from the place where they had been put up, but two of those were later found," Massey said. "The damage is getting extremely expensive as well as annoying. Each of the signs cost $6 and this does not include material used for braces, poles, cement needed for setting, or the cost of labor ..."

CITY BUILDING RECORD SET

Littlefield's building boom, which reached a peak for the year in August, set a new all-time high figure during September. The total in new construction investment, as reflected by building permit figures in the city manager's office, zoomed to $1,430,200 at the end of September. With three months remaining, the building figures have already surpassed last year's record of $1,320,381. The September total was only $130,900 — far off the July and August figures, but it was enough to break the all-time high in nine months. The September 1962 total was about the same — $135,900. Six new residential starts accounted for the major portion of the September figure. A boom on new homes, along with sizeable commercial starts, helped to break the record.

HIGHWAY 86 SEAL COATING SCHEDULED

The Texas Highway Commission has approved the expenditure of $889,000 during the coming year to improve U. S. and State Highways in District Five under the 1964 State Highway Safety and Betterment Program, announced District Engineer Oscar Crain of Lubbock. The district engineer said 56.8 miles in this district will be involved. This is a part of the $20 million program during the coming year, for improvement of 2,300 miles of U. S. and State Highways over the state under the program. Only Swisher county project included is the seal coating of Highway 86 from Highway 87 in West Tulla to the east city limits of Tulla, a distance of 1.5 miles. Cost of the project will be $7,000.

AIRPORT ANNEXATION PLANNED

Steps toward annexation of the airport property to the city of Perryton were authorized at the city council meeting Tuesday evening in the city hall. Annexation of the property in order that hangers and airplanes located on the city-owned property could be placed on tax rolls was among the recommendations made in the recently approved budget. Reasoning of the councilmen was that tax revenues derived by the city will still fall short of the monies the city expends in operating the airport and that it were only right that those interested in the airport pay a larger portion of operating costs.

BOND ISSUE PASSES

Voters of the Floydada Independent School District passed an $800,000 bond issue by a 504 to 425 vote Saturday. An estimated 80 per cent of the eligible voters turned out. The issue is still clouded, however, because of civil litigation. Until this is settled, the bonds can't be sold. The bond issue provides for extensive remodeling of the schools in the district, additional cafeterias to alleviate crowded conditions, a 25-room grade school, and a science addition to the high school. Fifty-three taxpayers filed a suit earlier this month charging that personal property was not being rendered for taxes. Taxpayers in the district have until Wednesday under a restraining order blocking completion of tax rolls to render personal property. The order was signed by District Judge Victor H. Lindsey of Lubbock.

GIRLS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Lady Luck was riding in the front seat last Thursday with two Hart High School girls when their car went out of control and skidded off the highway splintering a high voltage high-line pole. Neither of the two girls was injured in the mishap which could easily have been fatal. A Southwestern Public Service Co. spokesman stated that a high voltage line carrying 22,000 volts missed hitting the car by 15 feet.

THE BOOTLEG —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Bindweed farm faces up to a difficult international problem this week.

Dear editor:

There are some international problems which I'd just as soon not have to solve.

For example, take wheat.

As I understand it, the Russians are trying to buy a lot of surplus wheat from the United States, I guess in order to get enough strength to handle the shovels they're planning on burying us with, and the offer, especially since it mentions cash in advance, is troublesome to answer.

One side says no, don't sell them Communists anything. The other side says why not, we got all this surplus wheat staring us in the face and costing us money to store and if Russia doesn't buy it from us she'll buy from Canada or some other country, so why not take the money and spend it on defense or apply it on the national debt if it's not unconstitutional to reduce it.

It's that cash-in-advance angle that makes this a hard problem to answer. If she wanted to borrow some wheat, or buy it on credit, any Congressman could give you the answer, but cash on the barrel head ... this is a question that requires judicious debate.

It stumps me, I don't have the answer, but I think I can tell you what we'll do. We'll sell.

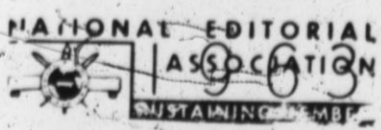

Human nature is hard to control: I've never yet seen a prohibitionist lumberman who wouldn't sell material to build a bar if he got the cash, a reactionary insurance man who wouldn't sell insurance to a liberal. Cash, like music, seems to be a universal language.

Personally, I don't have any wheat to sell, but if you hear of any country in the world wanting to buy some bindweed seed, let me know and I'll rattle with the problem.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Deedee's Doodlings

By Deedee Thomas

Since Friday night a week ago, my nerves have not been the same. I am referring to the football game played by the Whitefaces and Mules. Boys, I just knew we had drawn a blank; but we didn't. That last quarter was some hum-dinger!

With a sweetheart here and a sweetheart there, Royce Ann Gilliland has been chosen Key Sweetheart for 1963-64. She was selected Monday Sept. 30, at the club's night meeting.

A birthday party was given for Susan Ballard at the home of Dianne Springer, Wed., October 2. Those girls who went to the party after school were Jan Scott, Jan Miller, Deborah Thomas, Suzanne Hart, Mary Stoy, Jennifer Barnett, and Camille Pavleck.

I wasn't in any position to mention the complete cast of the "King and I" last week so I would like to do so at this time. Anna, Mamie Silvertooth; Ruth Ann Allison, Tuptim; Wayne Edwards, Lun Tha. The priests are Dorman Duggan, James Short, Dale Hershley; Tim Gallagher, Bill Price and Antanacio Mancillas.

The wives are Mary Betzen, Lynn Poarch, JoEllie McGee, Linda Lemons, Linda Pullum, Pegene Cox and Joann Marnell. The enrollment in high school on Oct. 14, 1955, was 587.

25 boys go to Junior Cotillion

The eighth grade students heard only good comments about the lessons. So far I have and Camille Hess of Amarillo about the class.

Lou Ann Witkowski left for Dallas Tuesday, Oct. 1. She went to compete in the state dress review: "I just went up and came back," said Lou Ann.

Pegene Cox went to Goldthwaite Saturday, Oct. 5, to attend her brother's wedding. Paul married Patsy Miller of Goldthwaite. Pegene and her parents returned to Hereford Sunday.

I would like to commend the Whiteface band on their performance at West Texas Saturday night. I didn't get to go to the game but I heard you over the radio. Your contest pieces sounded really good.

The enrollment in high school on Oct. 14, 1955, was 587.

SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pinckert was observed October 10 with an antelope dinner at the home of their son, Chuck Pinckert, Avenue K and First. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Pinckert, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Taylor, Canyon. Mrs. Taylor is a daughter. The Pinckerts were married at Pine River, Minn., Oct. 10, 1903.

Home Demonstration Clubs Study Poll Tax

By Argen Draper
The home demonstration clubs during October are studying the poll tax change proposal. Some clubs are having an outside speaker qualified to give a program on the subject while others are having a club member who has informed herself to give the program.

DOES GETTING UP NIGHTS MAKE YOU FEEL OLD

After 33 common kidney or bladder irritations often occur and may make you tense and nervous from too frequent passages both day and night. Secondly, you may lose sleep and suffer from headaches, backache and feel old, tired, depressed. In such irritation, CYSTEX usually brings fast, relaxing comfort by curbing irritating germs in strong, acid urine and by analgesic pain relief. Get CYSTEX at druggists. Feel better fast.

Also, in October clubs are studying the United Fund. It is interesting to review the state report of the club women from all over Texas. This is a report on delegates who attended the state meeting. In Texas there are 1,334 home demonstration clubs with 20,800 members. 14,156 members paid poll taxes; 13,818 voted; 10,887 studied correct way to mark ballot; 14,78 attended precinct meetings; 23,790 wrote their congressmen regarding pending legislation. 1,544 studied ideologies of socialism and communism and 1,400 studied infiltration of communism. There were special activities reported. One of the most interesting was that some clubs helped foreign born persons receive citizenship papers.

This and all the other committee reports sounded like women are really working and keeping themselves informed on current topics.

People continue to can. This week they have begun talking about kraut. Here is the recipe.

SAUERKRAUT

Late cabbage varieties are recommended for kraut. Mature, sound heads, should be selected.

To prepare the cabbage remove all damaged or dirty leaves; then quarter the heads and slice off the core portion. Remember that washing the vegetables too thoroughly removes lactic acid bacteria needed for fermentation.

Weigh out five pounds of cabbage and two ounces of salt. Shred this cabbage directly into the jar or keg without exposing it to the air, since exposing it at any time reduces the amount of vitamin C in the fermented product and causes loss of color, texture and flavor.

Sprinkle the cabbage with two ounces of salt, bearing in mind that too much salt prevents fermentation of the product, and uneven distribution may cause red streaks.

Prepare another five pounds of cabbage, weigh the two ounces of salt and continue adding similar layers until the desired amount in the container is reached. Place uneven pieces of cabbage and a few large leaves on top. Cover with cheese cloth and plate or board; then place weight on top of the cover. One pound of salt is required for 40 pounds of cabbage.

Two ounces of salt is equal to 1/4 cup. Use preservation and pickling salt. If kraut is dry; doesn't make its own juice, add a little liquid. Make a solution of two tablespoons white vinegar and one quart of boiled (let cool) water. In making pickles and kraut, a better product is obtained if water is boiled and let stand over night. The minerals settle to the bottom. This improves the texture of the pickle.

Sugar Beet Pickles
1 gallon beets (Cooked)
2 cups sugar
6 long stick cinnamon
3 1/2 cups vinegar (white)
1 tablespoon allspice
Red Food Coloring
1 1/2 cups water

Cook and skin beets; measure one gallon. Add sugar, spices, water. Simmer 15 minutes. Add beets. Boil five minutes. Pack hot beets in hot sterilized jars. Cover with boiling syrup and seal.

Vegetable pickles are made with distilled vinegar; fruit pickles are made with cider vinegar.

I was glad to meet Ray Martin, news editor for the Brand. He knows a lot about Extension and the Department of Agriculture. His father worked for Extension and had some other connections with the department. Welcome to Hereford.

There's an apple for virtually every taste and every use, points out Mrs. Gwendolyn Clay, Extension Service Consumer Marketing specialist. Some are mild, others are tart, some become smooth when cooked and others hold their shape. Get acquainted with the different varieties in order to know which are better for baking, for eating out of hand, and for making into a pie.

Select apples that are firm and free from burses, the specialist suggests. Choose size according to their intended use. Small apples are good choices for school lunches or after school snacks, and medium size apples are good choices for school lunches or after school snacks, and medium size apples are good choices for general use. Larger apples may be desired for the fruit bowl.

Apples keep best under refrigeration. Go easy with the water when cooking apples. When making sauce, add only enough water to keep apples from sticking to the pan. Cook apples only until tender to retain the creamy white flavor, the specialist emphasizes.

Children's Clothing Care Discussed By Mrs. Hunter

Mrs. Howard Hunter, illustrating her program with colored slides, discussed the care of children's clothing for members of Young Mothers Study Club. Members present were Mrs. Charles Holt, Mrs. Howard Hunter, Mrs. Bob Veigel, Mrs. Don Newman, Mrs. Ray Simpson, Mrs. Wendell Maloney, Mrs. David Brumley, Mrs. Jim Arney, and the hostesses.
