Halloween 'Trick Or Treat' To Collect Funds For CROP

Junior high and high school students will join in a campaign Thursday to raise funds for the Christian Rural Overseas Program. In the annual "Trick or Treat" program for CROP, students will contact all Hereford residents in a door-to-door drive. Goal for this year's drive has been set at $1500, according to drive Chairman Virgil Dodson. Dodson stated there would be "A very good chance of achieving the goal this year." Last year's goal was also $1500, but it was not met. Dodson, Mrs. W. J. Messick, and Jerry Franz met at the high school recently to outline the plans for this year's campaign. Also held was the election of officers.

All teenagers in high school and junior high who would like to participate are to assemble in Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church Thursday at 7 p.m. Students will receive cards to be pinned on their jackets which will identify them as collectors for CROP. Dodson stated that all persons are asked to make sure the person collecting the money has one of the cards pinned to his coat so that the money will go only to the proper person.

Deaf Smith County United Fund campaign, launched at a kick-off breakfast Wednesday, is off to a good start, and early reports from solicitors indicates a good response throughout the county.

Sought is $28,000 for operation of eight agencies in 1964.

Fifty-two team captains and workers responded to the call for workers Wednesday morning, and immediately afterward they began calling on firms and individuals, seeking funds for United Fund.

Agencies included in the 1964 United Fund program, and the amount which each is to receive, are: Hereford Athletic club, $600; Little League, $2125; Pony League, $1000; Salvation Army, $3000; Camp Fire Girls $3426; Boy Scouts $6500; American Red Cross, Deaf Smith County Chapter, $8881, and Council on Alcoholism, $500.

VFW Launches Christmas Toy Collection Drive

Veterans of Foreign Wars are beginning a local drive here to collect reparable toys. These toys are to be reconditioned by Post members and will be distributed to needy children, at Christmas, according to Wayne Lawrence, project chairman.

Collection, repairing, and distribution of toys to needy children in the area is an annual project of the local VFW post. As part of the drive, Lawrence stated, a special show will be held at 9:30 a.m. Saturday for children. Admission is to be one toy that can be repaired.

Among the toys most needed, he pointed out are dolls. It has always been a problem to get enough for needy children. Lawrence pointed out that collection of toys for the project continues throughout the year, but a concentrated effort is made during the fall. Since the Post distributes toys to more than 600 families on the average.

Persons wishing to donate to the drive may leave toys at Whiteface Barber Shop, Lamm's Jewelry, J. P. Jones' Service Station or Lawrence Cleaners.

Hereford Treks To Perryton For Conference Try

Hereford Whitefaces, vastly improved since their early-season attempts, journey to Perryton Friday night for their second conference battle of the year, and it is expected to be just that — a battle.

Coach Jack Meredith and his assistants again this week have been brushing up on offense plays, hoping to put together a strong goal-bound outfit to meet the tough Perryton Rangers. Despite the fact that Phillips nosed the Whitefaces last Friday night by a score of 21-14 the Hereford squad played its best brand of ball of the season, ringing up more yardage and more first downs than their opponents.

The game was hard-fought throughout, and both the coaches and the fans were well pleased with the brand of ball which the Whitefaces displayed last Friday night.

The Rangers had a big night last Friday, nosing Littlefield Wildcats 19-13 with a story-book ending to a nip-and-tuck ballgame. Work of Jim Anderson and Terry Shackelford on the line was particularly outstanding in that game.

The Rangers rung up that tally with only 35 seconds left on the timeclock. David Baker made his final - and all important TD.

Here in Hereford, Big Jim Haney played an exceptional fine game for the Whitefaces, carrying the ball 26 times to gain 133 yards. The Whitefaces got into the second game with a 0-1 rating in the 1-AAA conference, while Perryton, as a result of last Friday night's victory has a perfect record in the conference series. Both teams have only conference counters on the schedule for the balance of the season.

Grain Sorghum Harvest Slow To Reach Peak

Deaf Smith County's 1963 grain sorghum harvest is "still going." Some areas to the south and east of Hereford have been completely cut while fields in the northern and western sections are slowly reaching maturity.

In the Dawn and Easter areas, producers are reaching the "finishing up" stages of the harvest. However, producers in other sections have yet to start combining or are in the slow process of combining a field at a time as grain ripens.

In the Easter area, a grain elevator manager reported that for all practical purposes harvest would be over Thursday or Friday.

However, a Hereford elevator employee commented that in the northern and western sections of the area there is "no big rush."

The crop, for the most part, is still damp and slow in reaching maturity, he pointed out. Grain is cut a field at a time as it becomes ripe enough.

Severe weather in the latter part of June could be a factor as many producers had to replant their crops several times, the elevator employee noted.

"But, this doesn't explain why grain sorghum planted in May is not ready for harvest in October," he pointed out.

"There are never two years that are just alike as far as harvests are concerned."

Last year's milo harvest was completed in a matter of weeks with the bulk of the crop cut as ideal conditions prevailed. Conditions, so far this year, have been ideal, but milo is slow in reaching maturity.

Yields on irrigated acreage are averaging between 5500 and 6000 pounds. On dryland, grain sorghum is producing from 1000 to 3500 pounds per acre, grain men reported.

Commissioners Have 'Informal' Court Session

Deaf Smith County commissioners held an "informal" session this week, dealing with policies, personnel and insurance items. County Judge H. C. Williams said Wednesday.

"We didn't make many minutes of the meeting," the Judge said, "since it was such an informal session. We had matters which we needed to discuss, and that's just what we did at this week's session."

Only actual items listed on the official minutes was a request from John Douglas Pittman to close a road in Precinct 2. Although never officially opened, the strip had been dedicated for that purpose, it was explained, necessitating the official action to close the road. Pittman plans to build in that area, it was said.

Spooks, Ghosts, And Goblins To March In Annual Parade

More than 300 pre-school and grade school children dressed as ghosts, goblins, witches, and ghouls are expected to march down Main Street today in the second annual Halloween parade sponsored by the Trade Promotions Committee of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce.

Rules for the event this year follow closely those of last year's parade with the exception that judging will be completed before the children begin their march.

Youngsters marching in the annual event are to assemble at the First Baptist Church at 10:30 a.m. and will march to the downtown show to feature '64 Farm Equipment at 4:30 p.m. Parents are urged to have their children at the site promptly in order that judging may be completed before parade time, said Clete Corlis, parade chairman.

Eleven farm implement dealers will present their 1964 models at an all-day show Saturday, Nov. 2, on the Hereford State Bank parking lot, sponsored by the bank and the dealers. Refreshments will be served.

Entrants are to assemble at the parking lot of the First Baptist Church, Sixth and Main Streets at 4:30 p.m. Parents are urged to have their children at the site promptly in order that judging may be completed before parade time, said Clete Corlis, parade chairman.

For an area far removed from persimmons, an o'possum paid a surprise visit to a farm home two miles east of Hereford this week. Brendan Gallagher drove into the family garage the other night and found an o'possum curled up in one corner of the garage, taking his usual 'possum nap. Despite the lack of persimmons, Brendan said the animal was fat and sleek.

That's the opinion of Loyan H. Walker, manager of the Agriculture and Livestock Department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

United Church Women of Hereford will observe the 90th anniversary of World Community Day Nov. 1 at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist Church. Speaker will be Ernest Langley who will speak on the subject, "Nation Building: A Challenge to Peace."

That's the opinion of Loyan H. Walker, manager of the Agriculture and Livestock Department of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Around Town

Deaf Smith County 4-H clubs will stage their annual achievement dinner in Hereford Senior high cafeteria November 11. More than 300 persons are expected to attend the dinner when 4-H members will be honored for their achievements during the year.

A chartered bus again will be available to transport fans to Friday night's Perryton-Hereford football game. Round trip fare is $6, and 10 seats were still available Wednesday. Debo Knox is in charge of bus ticket sales. Tickets to the ball game, however, had not arrived here Wednesday.

Area Is Called A 'Natural' For Major Cattle Industry

This area is a "natural" for the cattle industry, all the way from raising the feed to turning out processed beef ready for the housewife's trying pan or broiler.

Walker said he based his belief in West Texas as a major cattle territory of the nation on these four points: 1. Feed is plentiful here; 2. The cattle are close at hand; 3. Climate is good the year-round; 4. Men in this area have the "know-how" to operate the entire program.

Two Men Given Maximum Jail Terms For DWI

Two men charged with driving while intoxicated, second offense, received the maximum sentence Monday as they entered pleas of guilty to charges in Deaf Smith County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding.

Sentenced to two years in jail and fined $50 plus court costs were William Othell Simmons, 47, 401 N. W. 5th Street, Dimmitt, and Pete Encinas, 45, 224 Ave. D.

The stiff penalties were assessed the two men, commented Judge Williams, due to circumstances involved in both cases.

Simmons was arrested Saturday by units of the Texas Highway Patrol and Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office on U. S. Highway 60 at North Ave.

A Highway Patrol unit arrested Encinas in the 600 block of West First on Sunday.

CATTLEMEN FROM Texas and six other states were in Hereford Tuesday on the second leg of a two-day tour to inspect feedlots in West Texas, a tour sponsored by West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Here are four of the men on the tour which included a lunch stop at the Bull Barn here. Left to right are Dr. W. L. LET'S COOK SOMETHING

Panhandle Man Is Author Of Unique Menu-Cookbook

By Dale Stevens
Brand Foods Editor

"One of the noted men in food preparation has written the cookbook most needed of all. For this is not merely a recipe book (it does have hundreds of fine recipes of all types) but is a MENU BOOK.

To the homemaker asking, "What shall I plan?" here is the complete and excellent answer."

This quotation from Alan Swallows, publisher of Sage Books, aptly describes Morning, Noon and Night Cookbook, which was written by Gerald Ramsey, currently in his fourteenth year as Food Service Director at Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

The author grew up on a ranch in the Texas Panhandle. "Even as a youngster," says Dr. John Perryman, "he was as much at home on the kitchen range as on the cattle range, as intrigued by developing a good beef stroganoff as a good beef steer."

In his high school no food preparation courses were open to boys, but Ramsey went to Texas Technological College in Lubbock and to the University of Chicago for a major in institutional management. With time out for army service, he returned to Texas to become Director of Food Service for the Hockaday School for girls in Dallas. He now is responsible for some 5000 meals a day for SMU students.

In recognition of his work in quantity food service he has been chosen as president of American School Food Service Association and the National Association of College and University Food Service Directors. For his talents in originality in food, he has been elected to membership in the International Confrerie De La Chaine Des Rotisseurs, which was founded in the year 1248.

The table of contents of the book lists chapters on Breakfasts, Morning coffees and Brunches, Lunches, Suppers, Dinners, Patio Parties, The Buffet, Afternoon Teas and Receptions, Vegetable Preparation, and Spices. Each of the chapters except the last two begins with a large number of complete menus. Then recipes for each of the menus are given in consecutive order.

Letter To The Editor

EDITOR: I would like to extend congratulations to Coach Meredith, for his fine coaching staff, the school and to your city. Your team was representative of hard preparation, well-founded in fundamentals and well prepared to take advantage of our weaknesses. You, as a city, have every right to be proud of your team and coaches.

We feel we played very well against you - we had to! We also feel very fortunate in winning. Never have I been so glad for a game to end.

Our recent column concerning the difference between a rick and cord has created more comment than we had anticipated. In checking the definition, we were using an old Winston dictionary that we keep on the desk, and the only definition that it gave for rick concerned hay and straw; not wood. However, in checking through a larger, unabridged dictionary we find that it also gives the definition of rick as a "pile of cordwood". No particular amount; just a pile.

But Rev. V. W. Marcontell dropped by to help clear up the mystery. According to the preacher, a rick of wood is equal to one-third of a cord. He explained it this way: Back in East Texas when they used the old wood burning cook-stoves, the wood had to be cut in 16 inch lengths so that it would fit the stove. Since a cord is normally considered 4 feet or 48 inches, the cord length would be cut twice, making three 16 inch stacks, or three ricks.

Now we cannot say that he is right or wrong but

Rev. Marcontell was reared in the "Big Thicket" country of East Texas and probably knows what he's talking about. We're sure not going to dispute his word.

On the other hand, we have convinced him that "e w chips" will make a pretty hot fire when properly seasoned.

Today is the second day of the big United Fund drive, and if you haven't been contacted yet, chances are you will before the day is over. The drive is expected to be fairly well completed by Saturday noon with the probable exception of the county calls. The rural workers have so many miles to cover that it is almost impossible to complete their work with the other members.

The appeal is being made this year for a total sum of $28,000 dollars to benefit eight agencies, and the money is divided according to the request of the individual agencies, running from $500. for the Council on Alcoholism to $8,881. for the Deaf Smith County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The question has come up numerous times concerning the giving to one or all of the agencies, and we'll try in our feasible way, to enlighten everyone concerning this. If you desire to make your total contribution to one particular agency, or to exclude one of the eight agencies from your contribution, then you may do so by marking your gift card accordingly. Your contribution will then go to the agencies (proportionately) to which you desire to give. Your check however, should be made out to the United Fund and marked according to your wishes.

You may also sign a bank authorization if you would like for the organization to draw on your account. Many people do this, feeling that they can give a little each month easier than they can give all in one lump sum. Pledges may also be made, payable at a date that suits your needs.

Of course, United Fund isn't the answer to all things, but it serves a good purpose. It let's us give one time to take care of the needs of eight youth and welfare agencies. Personally, we prefer it that way.

Let's all go to work in 1963 and put this drive over the top.

Saturday, November 2 is the date for the Hereford State Bank's fall implement show. The event will last only one day, but interest is high and there should be a big crowd present all day. The show will be held on the bank's parking lot.

Students Make Application For 'Americans Abroad'

Purpose of American Field Service American Abroad program is to increase understanding and friendship among the people of the world by giving American teenagers the opportunity to live with families in another country.

Students of HHS have begun discussing the possibility of becoming students abroad. These students desiring to live abroad, who meet requirements of American Field Service, have the chance to obtain a year of schooling in a foreign country.

The first mention of the program to the student body came Friday, Oct. 18, as Robert Thompson, HHS counselor, requested that those interested contact him. These students were given an information pamphlet and an application blank. Applications were due Friday, Oct. 25. On Tuesday the local AFS committee began screening the applicants.

Aptitude Tests Are Completed By Sophomores

Hereford High sophomores completed the series of Differential Aptitude Tests on Wednesday, Oct. 30. These tests are given to tenth grade students all over the United States. Mrs. Faye Holt, student advisor, said: "These tests help

It's hard to explain how a team can try as hard and play as well as the Whitefaces did last Friday night and still lose. It just wasn't in the cards for the Herd as they lost to Phillips 21-14.

Big Jim Haney played by far the best game of his injury-riddled season. Jim gained 164 yards on 26 carries for a 6.4 average. Also making what was probably their best showing of the season were sophomore halfback Walter Williams and junior quarterback Frank Cain. Others showing up better than previously were ends Len Cook and Robert Higgins, tackle Stan Sigman, center George Muse, and guards J. Carter and John Kovacs.

Speaking for myself, I hope that last Friday night's performance by the Whitefaces convinced these self-proclaimed football "experts" who called the team "quitters" after the 27-6 loss to Lamasa.

Next in line for the Herd are the Perryton Rangers. The Whitefaces travel to Perryton for the Friday night district clash. The Rangers won their district opener over Littlefield by a score of 19-13.

Tulla scored their second win of the season over the Whitefaces "B" team Thursday, Oct. 24, by a score of 6-5. All five points for Hereford came in the first quarter on a field goal by Jimmy Gutierrez and a safety. Tulla did not score until the fourth period but the six points was enough.

Hereford's freshmen continued their winning ways as they trounced Tulla by a margin of 32-14. The first half was all Hereford as they ran up a 20-0 lead but the second was a different story.

Congratulations to the Whiteface band on their I rating in the marching contest at Canyon last week. The band is one of the biggest supporters of Whiteface football.

An Editorial

BY SUE SMITH

This year devotionals will once more resume their proper place in the activities of Hereford High School.

Last year and the years before, devotionals were presented by the Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, and Future Homemakers of America girls each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday preceding homeroom period. They contained no denominational differences but reverence and veneration. A short, symbolic testimony was read and a hymn played. Afterwards it was closed by a scripture verse and a prayer.

Are these devotionals of little importance? Christ said in Matthew 18:20: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

This privilege is definitely a basic sign of the democratic way. Using this freedom as an example, it proves that though Communism and racial discrimination form great threats, the American youth does not forget to stop for a few moments of earnest meditation.

Using this freedom as a tool, greater school spirit and American visions are projected by the constant use of God's word.

Last week was really one of excitement. First, on Monday, the seniors finally got their senior rings. Since the rings were in on October 19 last year seniors were getting impatient by Monday, Oct. 22.

Tuesday, members of the band journeyed to Canyon, to compete in the District I-AAA Marching Contest. They received a first rating. We would on the behalf of the school, like to extend congratulations.

All day Wednesday and until sixth period Thursday, the juniors were envied by all the rest of HHS students as they were able to miss classes. But remember they had to take tests!!

Thursday night, after several postponements, the bonfire was held in Veterans Park. Special thanks go to the junior boys who furnished the windmill to contribute to the other collection of wood.

Friday at 6:30 a.m. new and old members of Tri-Hi-Y gathered at the Community Center to enjoy an early breakfast, which began the day of the little sister's initiation.

At school Friday the air was full of excitement as at 8:00 a.m. the pep rally began. The attendees for football queen Becky Higgins, Mandi Moore, Brenda Shelton, and Linda Hart were presented. Then the homecoming queen, Connie Renfro, was crowned.

The Annual Queen Supper was held from 5 to 8 p. m. Friday. Thanks are to be extended to all of the students who sold tickets, made pies and cakes, and served at the supper.

Friday night was topped by the clash between the Phillips Blackhaws and the Hereford Whitefaces and a homecoming dance at the community center.

Hi-Y Club Begins Year's Activities

Hi-Y club has started its activities for the year with the officers elected last spring formally beginning their duties. Officers of the club are Steve Conway, president; David Block vice president; Frank Cain, secretary, and Earl Jackson, chaplain.

In the past, new members had to be voted in by the club. The policy was changed this year, and all senior, junior and sophomore boys may join.

However, membership in Hi-Y is limited to 40 students, with

The annual radio program sponsored by the Distributive Education Club will be presented on Nov. 11 over KPAN.

Participating in the program will be D. E. students and other high school and junior high school clubs and groups.

The program will consist of piano and song solos, group singing, band music and also the outlining of programs of various organizations.

This radio program is a money-making project and the proceeds will go to D. E. Club for expenses throughout the year.

Whitefaces Edged By 21-14 Score

Beaten everywhere but on the score board Phillips Blackhaws downed the Whitefaces in the district opener for both teams by a score of 21-14.

Friday the Herd will try to even their district mark as they travel to Perryton. The Rangers won their first district outing, beating Littlefield 19-13.

Hereford's offense clicked for the first time this year as they rolled up 24 first downs to 17 for the Blackhaws. The Herd gained 280 yards on the ground and 48 in the air while the 'Hawks got 248 yards on the ground and 63 through the air. This offense was led by the powerful running of senior halfback Jim Haney and sophomore halfback Walter Williams, and the field generalship of quarterback Frank Cain. Haney gained 164 yards in 26 carries, nearly 6 1/2 yards a carry.

Neither team could score in the first period but Phillips posed a serious threat as they drove to the Whitefaces 2-yard line only to fumble. The Herd then drove 96 yards in 21 plays to go ahead 6-0. Walter Williams scored on a nine yard run. The conversion try was wide.

Phillips retaliated with two quick touchdowns and two extra points to go ahead 14-6.

A 70-yard drive gave the Whitefaces another T. D. late in the half. Haney carried it over from the five. A Cain pass on a fake conversion was good for two extra points and tied the score at 14-14 at the half.

Scoring was ended early in the third quarter as the Blackhaws made good a 48 yard pass and added the extra point, making the score 21-14.

But the Whitefaces were not through trying. Late in the fourth period the Herd drove to the Phillips two yard line and then scored, only to have the marker erased by a penalty.

Penalties were the real difference as the Whitefaces collected nine for 65 yards while the 'Hawks got only two for 10 yards.

Future Farmers Initiation Held For Green Hands

Freshman members of Future Farmers of America completed a week of informal initiation ceremonies Friday, Oct. 25 as they worked toward membership in the Green Hand Chapter of the Hereford High FFA.

During Green Hand Week, the new initiates were required to carry cans of black and brown shoe polish to shine shoes of upperclassmen members.

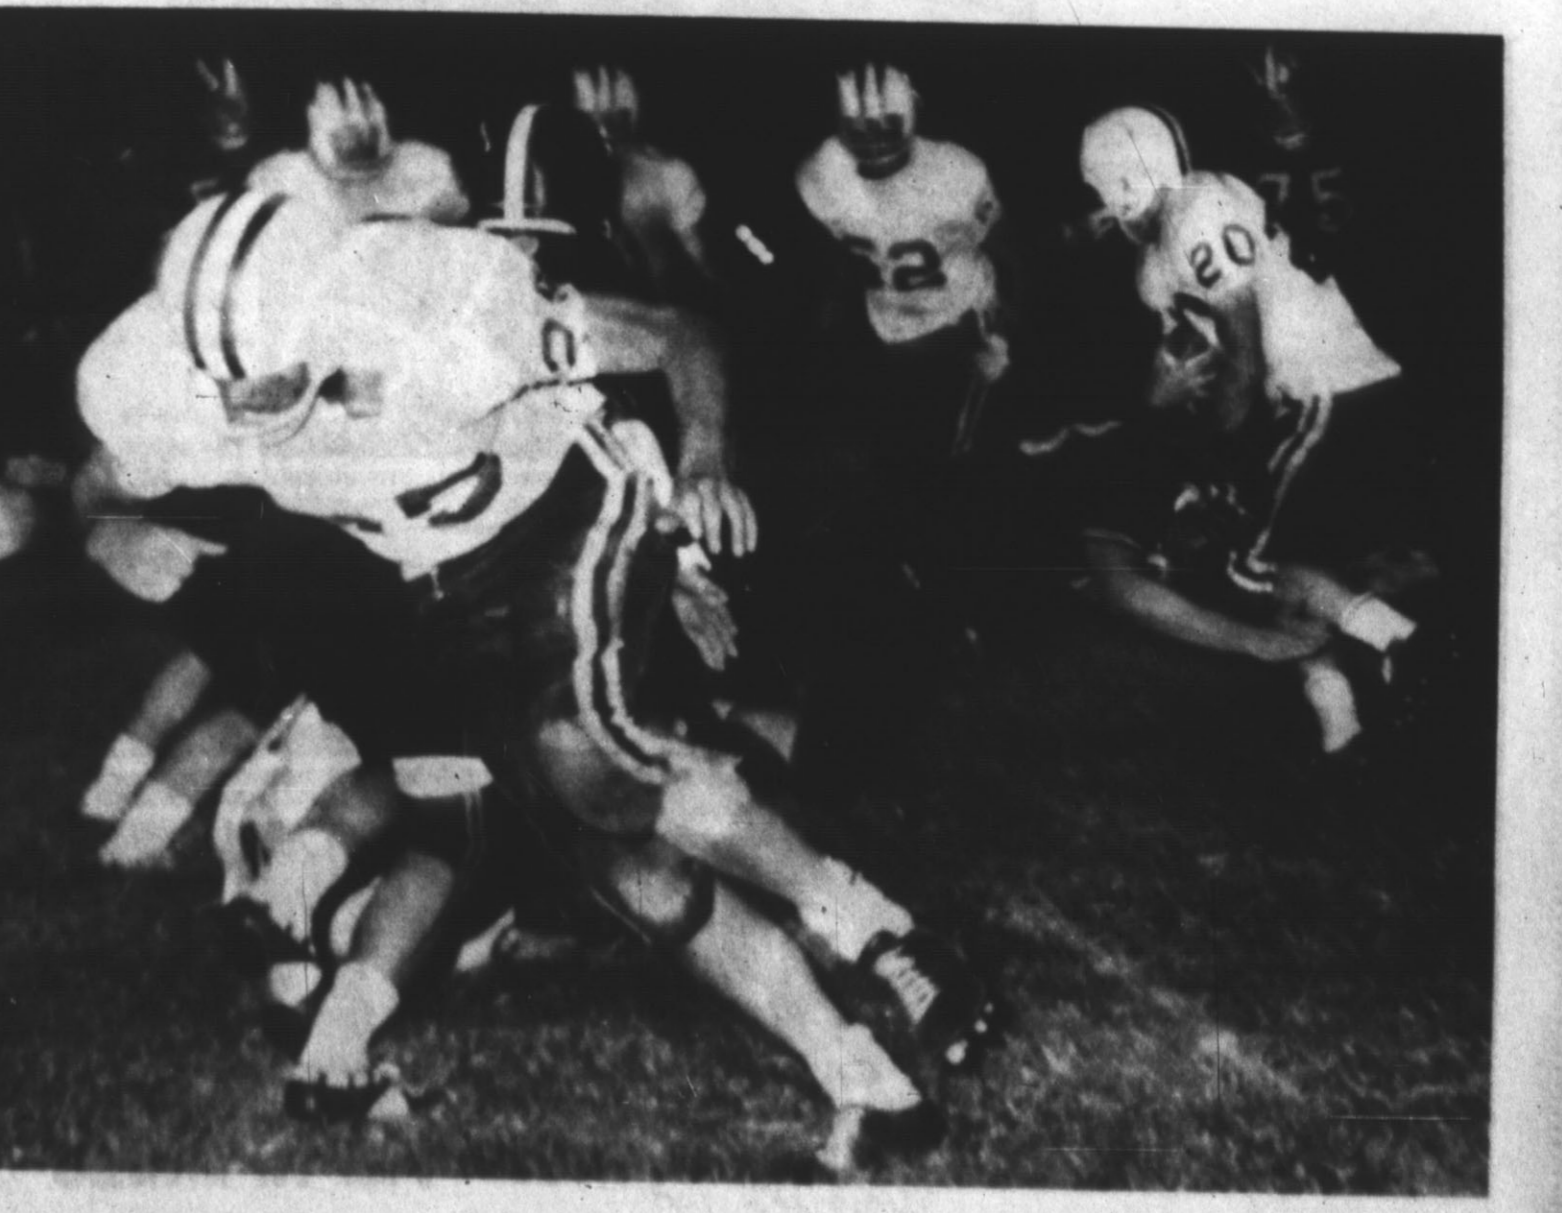

As part of the initiation into the chapter, all freshmen also had green ink applied to their left hands, in order that upperclassmen could identify the new chapter members.

CHEERLEADER PEGGY NEFF IS REALLY up in the air about the homecoming game with the Phillips Blackhaws Friday night. Amendment Would Boost Aid Limit To $60 Million

Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of four condensations of amendments to be approved or rejected by Texas voters Nov. 9. The original was prepared by State Representative Bill Clayton of the 51st district. This one deals with aid to the needy.

Amendment No. 2 on the Nov. 9 special election ballot if approved, would combine provision for all four classes of recipients: Aged, blind, children and permanently and totally disabled, under one numbered designation.

It removes the present $5 limitation on state funds which may be expended on any one individual for aid for the aged and substitutes a maximum not to exceed the amount that "is matchable out of federal funds."

The measure also establishes a ceiling of $60 million instead of the present $54.5 million, on total amount of state funds which may be expended. It also gives the legislature authority to prescribe residence requirements for eligibility of needy aged, needy blind, needy children and permanently and totally disabled persons.

Texas' public welfare provisions originated during the depression years, and amendments have been proposed and adopted almost as regularly as Congress has changed terms whereby the states may become eligible for available federal funds.

Prior to 1933, aid was considered by most Texas people to be the concern of local governmental units rather than the responsibility of the central state government. However, the depression of the '30's, the shift in Texas from an agrarian to an industrial type of society and economy, and the influence of federal legislation led in 1930 to passage of the first public welfare amendment, authorizing the state to issue $20 million of 4 1/2 per cent general obligation bonds, the proceeds to be used in "relief to needy and distressed people and in relieving the hardships resulting from unemployment."

From time to time amendments have been adopted since that time which have raised the limit to its present mark.

The proposed amendment authorizes an increase in the amount of money the state may appropriate to the four state programs (old-age assistance, aid to the blind, aid to dependent children and aid to permanently disabled) to a maximum of $60 million.

Under the Texas old-age assistance program, monthly aid to persons over 65 total $144 million - $42 million from the state and $102 million from federal funds. The national average in 1961 was $68.78, while Texas' average was $54.56. Only 10 states have lower payments.

National average for payment to blind in 1961 was $74.57; Texas' payments total $60.72; Texas aid to permanently disabled is $54.05; national average is $70.46, based on 1961 figures.

Arguments FOR the measure: Combining existing sections into one section, (all four categories of recipients of public assistance) will simplify the program.

By eliminating constitutional ceilings on individual assistants' grants for aged and permanently disabled, the amendments obviates tedious and costly amendments to the Texas constitution every time the cost-of-living index rises.

The amendment "assures the Texas recipient that he will not be disqualified from receiving the maximum amount permitted under the federal program because the state of Texas cannot bring its state fund limitation to meet federal standards." By giving the legislature authority to prescribe residence requirements for recipients, the amendment anticipates congressional action soon resulting from pressure throughout the United States to lower residence requirements for the nation's mobile population.

Arguments AGAINST: Substitution of the amount that "is matchable out of federal funds" for the present ceilings established by the constitution on state funds which may be expended on individual recipients of aid for the aged, ($25) and aid for the permanently and totally disabled ($20), opens the door to greater expenditures for public assistance as often as the legislature meets.

The maximum not to exceed the amount that "is matchable out of federal funds" may be subject to court interpretation. What is meant by "matchable?" The large over-all expenditure of state funds which this amendment would authorize would add only a few dollars a month to the income of individual recipients. Instead of encouraging dependency on public welfare, the state should press back the growing tendency toward socialism and the welfare state.

NEXT SUNDAY: A review of amendment 3, an amendment authorizing each political subdivision in Jefferson county to establish a retirement fund for appointive officers and employees of such subdivision.

Darrell Rose, news director at KPAN, states that by having the D. E. Radio Day Program, parents as well as students will have an opportunity to know what is happening, and will be brought up to date on school activities.

Aptitude...

After results are posted, sophomores should not be alarmed if they can not understand their ratings. They should wait for an explanation from Mr. Thompson or me, said Mrs. Holt.

Students, parents, teachers and counselors should always be careful in interpreting tests results. Scores should always be considered as only a small part of the entire picture, commented Robert Thompson, counselor.

There are too many unknown factors which could tend to cause a student to score low on a test. A cold or a head ache or something that is bearing on the person's mind when he is taking the test could cause low scores, he pointed out.

"We are prone to place too much confidence in these scores alone. But if properly used the tests can be valuable tools in assessing individual abilities, aptitudes, interests and personalities," he concluded.

Following a week of informal initiation into the chapter, formal ceremonies are to be held at which time the Green Hands will be inducted into the chapter and receive their chapter pins.

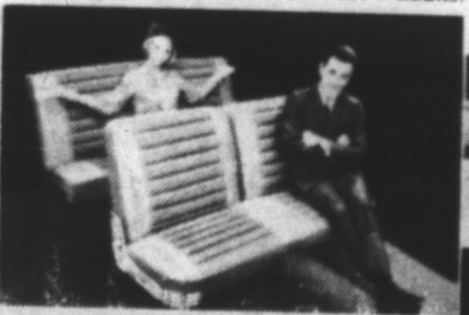

As they become members, each will be challenged to achieve the highest award given by Future Farmers of America—the American Farmer Degree.

This degree is the hardest to earn, stated Jess Robinson, chapter advisor and vocational agriculture instructor. It can only be won by first completing requirements for three other degrees.

Degree, the chapter advisor noted. To qualify for this award, the new member must complete satisfactory plans for a supervised farming program, be familiar with the aims and purposes of Future Farmers of America, and be able to recite the creed and motto.

"At the end of formal initiation, the Green Hands have taken their first step in developing the qualities of leadership that a Future Farmer should possess," commented Arvell Williams, chapter president.

HE BLESSED the CHILDREN

As naturally as the flower turns its face to the sun, so does the human child respond to the love and grace of God... they know He loves them.
Jesus, who knew the Father's heart, said to some good people of His time - "Let the little children come unto me and forbid them not."
Surely no woman or man would detour a child in his natural search for God and goodness. Take them to church... show them the way... the Master still commands us. They may be ours for a few short years.
They are His forever. How important then to introduce them to Jesus.
Here they meet Him, know Him and love Him, for such is the Kingdom of God.

Homecoming festivities, out of the way, school and people are back to old routine. Pep assembly was held on Friday, Oct. 25, with mothers receiving mums from their sons on the football squad. Other guests attended the rally.

All classes were busy during the Homecoming week, selling tickets for the supper held in the high school cafeteria on Friday preceding the ballgame. The desserts for the supper were furnished by members of the four classes in HHS. Kids, besides looking beautiful they were delicious. The junior class had a very busy day on Wednesday and part of Thursday. They were taking aptitude tests, which are given to eleventh grade high school students all over the United States.

CROP officers were elected on Monday at homeroom period by interested workers. Steve Conway, president; Larry Hill, vice-president; Peggie Cox, secretary-treasurer; Royce Ann Gilliland, publicity; John Fowlkes, food chairman Carolyn Avon Arvell Williams. These officers and all their able workers will be out hob-nobbing with the city's goblins on Halloween to collect money for the CROP program.

The first meeting of the Tri-Hi-Y was held on Wednesday, Oct. 17, in the high school auditorium. Linda Tooley gave a brief talk on what Tri-Hi-Y meant to her. The fundamentals of the organization were explained to the new members. Membership applications deadline was set for Friday, Oct. 18. Peggie Cox, president presided over the meeting.

Friday, Oct. 25, was initiation day for the Tri-Hi-Y members. Some girls wore the most ridiculous garb that I have ever seen. The big sisters decided what the new pledges were to wear.

Congratulations to Connie Beafre Football Queen for '63. She and her attendants surely did look pretty riding on the float Friday night at the Homecoming ballgame. The attendants were Linda Hart, Mandi Moore, Brenda Shelton and Becky Higgins. Girls, you all looked pretty. I heard that you had the best seats in the stadium on top of the float.

Picnic in October? Well that is what the Key Club had, a picnic Saturday night, Oct. 26. The boys and their dates even went on a hayride. Don't say that they are stupid, but say very brave.

Thursday night, Oct. 24 the seventh and eighth graders went to Tulia to play football against the Dobbers. The Hereford boys were cheered on to victory by several girls, Suzanne Hart, Patsy Smith, Jan Miller and Pam Winget.

Saturday, Nov. 2, there will be a high school dance at the community center. Music will be presented by the Tiaras under the direction of Earl White. The admission will be one dollar per person so plan to come at 8:30 p.m. and stay until midnight.

Mrs. Waldrep explained the altar hangings and the seasons of the church year. Mrs. Bell discussed the altar vessels and linens and illustrated with an altar setting for Holy Communion.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Joe Smith, chairmen for the Christmas Bazaar were appointed. Announcements were made concerning the annual Churchwomen's Conference to be held at the Episcopal Conference Center in Amarillo and led by Bishop Wright of the Nevada diocese.

Those present were Mrs. Bill Waldrep, Mrs. Gene Parsley, Mrs. Jesse Geron, Mrs. Wallace Halgood, Mrs. Jack Bailey, Mrs. Abe Davis, Mrs. Harold Gattis, Mrs. Robert Willmet, Miss Marcia McGregor, Mrs. Joel Treadwell, Mrs. Joe Smith, the Rev. Joel Treadwell, and the hostess, Mrs. Marcus Bell.

we took this big V8 and put it in the '64 Chevy II...

WOW!

A pretty potent mixture. The car's the same size. Just as trim and easy to handle as ever. But now you can have a full-grown V8 in it. A Turbo-Fire 283* that turns out 195 hp. It's the kind of machine that doesn't take much coaxing to set in motion. (Especially when you consider it has over 60% more power than the Chevy II that won North America's toughest rally last spring—the Shell "4,000.") And we've also added a choice of a 4-speed Synchro-Mesh transmission* with a floor-mounted shift. But in case your tastes run somewhat milder, we should point out you have a pick of three other engines as well. The standard 4 (on 100 Series sedans), the standard 6 and a new 155-hp 6*.

And, of course, whatever one you decide on, you're getting a car with the pure and simple integrity of a Chevy II. (Upkeep has been even further reduced this year by such refinements as larger self-adjusting brakes.) It's a simple matter to spot one of these '64's by styling touches like the new grille design and trim accents. But we'd like to suggest a more memorable way. Drop down to your dealer's and drive one.

*Optional at extra cost.

ORSBORN CHEVROLET - OLDS
 HEREFORD, TEXAS

By Dale Stevens

"Mr. Novak," a new program this season on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m., is one of the finest things, in my opinion, that has happened on television. A continuing dramatic series, it is on the surface the story of the problems of a young teacher, just as Dr. Kildare is the story of the problems of a young doctor.

But "Mr. Novak" can not be summarized that easily. So far this fall the programs have dealt with such problems as a blind student, a race situation, teacher ethics, and school dropouts. But in each of these episodes there was one or more problems so profound as to completely overshadow the basic plot.

For example, in the story of the blind student, in one scene the principal, Mr. Vane, while speaking on the problem of the young male teacher and girl students, said something like this: "In one instant of time, a young person can do something so unpremeditated, so contrary to his upbringing and personal judgment, so tragic in its possible consequences, that he cannot understand why he did such a thing, and is embarrassed and humiliated. It is up to the adults who guide this young person to see that this one instant of time does not ruin his life."

In the program involving a racial problem, the two principal points to emerge as applicable to any school problem were a question asked by Mr. Novak, the young teacher, "Where does the school stop and the home take over?" and a statement by Mr. Vane, "We must each act in such a way that every person here (in the school auditorium) may walk across this campus with dignity."

Where, indeed, is the dividing line between the school and the home for the social, moral, spiritual, and physical welfare of the student? Many professional and lay groups, working separately and together, have been searching for the answer to this question for several years and have not found it. To be able to walk with dignity, not only on a school campus, but in this world, is the ultimate goal to be sought for every human being.

There are a few things about the program that detract a little, but only a little. For example, the relationship between Mr. Novak and Mr. Vane is so very similar to that between Dr. Kildare and Dr. Gillespie. The other somewhat bothersome little detail is the wisdom and un-failing kindness of Mr. Vane. However, even though he is a composite of the good points of countless school principals, he is a very human and likable person.

Pilot films of the program were first shown to school administrators and school board members at their national convention in Atlantic City last February. They did not like the program in the form in which it was presented and told the producers: "Their response was to ask, 'What do you want? Tell us and we will do as you say.'"

Primarily the school people wanted to counteract the "Our Miss Brooks" and "Mr. Peepers" image of the schools and teachers. They wanted realistic portrayals of schools, their personnel, and their problems.

Now, just as the American Medical Association assists with and approves "Ben Casey" and "Dr. Kildare," the California State Teachers Association assists with and approves each episode of "Mr. Novak."

It is not an effort to glorify or whitewash schools and their problems. It is a sincere effort on the part of the producers and actors, their sponsors, and the school people who assist them to present to the public programs which will make them aware of current problems and possible solutions to those problems. If the program maintains its present quality, it can do a great service for teenagers, their parents, their teachers, and America as a whole.

Dodson Reviews Migrant Worker Problem In Area

Members of Velda Study Club studied the problems of the migrant workers during their Oct. 22 meeting. Each responded to roll call with comments on the question: "What is your answer to the migrant problem?"

Virgil Dodson, president of the Hereford Migrant Ministry, then presented slides showing the work being done with migrant workers at the labor camp. He pointed out the services performed by the migrants and discussed their needs and what is being done to help them.

The club sent a check to the Hereford Migrant Ministry in appreciation for their work.

Mrs. Dale Barkley conducted the business meeting. Mrs. Bill Bradley was elected vice-president of the club.

Welcomed as new members were Mrs. L. J. Clark, Mrs. Emmett Solomon, Mrs. Joe Frank Clark, Mrs. Robert Willmot, Mrs. George L. Olson, and Mrs. Arnon Lauderback.

Mrs. J. R. Oglesby was the hostess. Others present were the new members and Mrs. Dale Barkley, Mrs. Don Baugous, Mrs. Bill Bradley, Mrs. Hugh Clearman, and Mrs. Robert Strain. The hostess gift was won by Mrs. Bradley.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. C. R. Womble.

Pioneer Gas Firm Awarded Safety Honors

National honors for outstanding driver safety performance were won by Pioneer Natural Gas in the gas industry division of the 32nd National Fleet Safety Council and sponsored by the American Gas Association.

The Pioneer Natural Gas Company fleet, consisting of 464 vehicles, was awarded third place in Chicago recently in the gas industry division of the contest at ceremonies held in conjunction with the 51st National Safety Congress and Exposition.

The award is based on the company's best safety performance from July, 1962 through June, 1963. During the period, the firm's drivers operated 7,321,800 miles and had 8.1 accidents per 1,000,000 vehicle miles of operation.

All accidents were counted in the contest except those occurring when a company vehicle was properly parked. Winners were determined after inspection of their records by an auditor appointed by the National Fleet Safety Contest Committee.

Toastmasters Boost Campaign For United Fund

Members of the Hereford Toastmasters Club have been hitting the microphone afloat in Hereford recently, making talks before other clubs on the United Fund campaign which got under way Wednesday.

Four members have appeared before clubs to tell of the work of the United Fund.

Bill Penn spoke to the Kiwanis and Lions clubs, and Don Chaney told Jaycees of the United Fund. Melvin Jones spoke to the Rotarians and Stan Knox to the Wythe Home Demonstration club.

Don Chaney recently told 4-H club members about Toastmasters, and Virgil Dodson, another member of Toastmasters, spoke to the Lions club recently, telling about Kings Manor.

At last week's meeting of the club, J. Raymond Flores won the trophy with a talk, "This thing called Hypnosis," and Stan Knox was the most improved speaker with a talk, "There's Advertising and Then There's Advertising."

Dr. Milton C. Adams gave a report on the International convention in St. Louis. Best evaluator was Rex Lee, and best topic speaker was Irving Alexander.

Guests were Darrell Rose, Joyce Benzer and Elise Beene. The two girls are 4-H members, working on public speaking. Virgil Dodson, speaking on current events, was the topic master.

Members present were Alexander, Melvin Jayroe, Stan Knox, Bob Rott, Dr. Adams, Don Chaney, Flores, Penn Hardy Benson, Dodson, Kenneth Coker and Rex Lee.
