

TEXICO CITIZEN KILLED BY AUTO

One of the most deplorable affairs that ever occurred in this community was the accident near the railroad track on the Texico side, in front of the Withers Grain and Coal store, Wednesday afternoon about 5:30 when Mr. J. C. Norris, a highly respected and well known citizen was instantly killed by being crushed under the wheels of an auto which was driven by N. A. Clinghan, a real estate dealer of Texico.

It seems that Mr. Norris met his friend, Mr. Davidson, postmaster at Texico, alighted from his car, left it running and was engaged in friendly conversation when Mr. Clinghan drove along the road between the two cars, and in some manner, owing to the congested quarters, several cars in close proximity and the descending sun shining in the driver's eyes, ran over Mr. Norris before he was aware that an accident had happened.

The back wheel of the driver's car passed over Mr. Norris' head, tearing off his ear and crushing his head.

A coroner's inquest was held and Mr. Clinghan was exonerated of any blame attached to the accident.

The unfortunate man was at once removed to Withers Grain store, then to Curd's Undertaking establishment and then to his home east of the high school in Farwell, where he leaves a wife and two children, a boy and a girl.

Mr. Norris was well known in Texico-Farwell, having lived here for seventeen years. During this time, he had been engaged in farming and at one time conducted a drug store. Recently, he had been engaged at carpenter work. He was about sixty-two years of age and was a man of quiet and unassuming manners, well liked by every one and a member of the Methodist church. The sad affair has cast a gloom over the entire community.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church by Rev. Thurston, the pastor, at 3:00 p. m. Thursday. The floral offerings were beautiful and in profusion. Interment was in Texico cemetery where the remains were followed to their last resting place by one of the largest funeral processions ever seen in Texico.—State Line Tribune.

We are having some real nice weather at present. The farmers of Cleo are making good use of it, as one can see teams and tractors going early and late. On account of so much rain during August and September, the people here are very far behind with their wheat planting. However, if we can

W. H. Glibreath, of Hereford, had some calf buyers down here Monday. We haven't learned of any sales being consummated.

Our singing at Cleo last Sunday evening was well attended and everyone seemed to be in a singing humor, as we did not dismiss until about 5:30 p. m. Visitors present were Homer Norwood, Joe Gollehon, Clyde Shuford, Misses Tennie Hastings and Leola Shuford, of Dimmitt, Ollie Mopet and Mr. Ray, of Sunnyside. Mrs. F. H. Galle, our efficient pianist, render valuable service in our singings, as she seldom fails to be present and is ever ready to play, when there. I think I can truly voice the sentiments of our entire singing

I certainly enjoy reading letters from the correspondents, of Bovina, Friona, Joel and Dimmitt, as it seems to me that we get a great deal of news out of them. I notice that the Joel correspondent asked me to give some of my experiences of my early days. I may do so some time, when I run out of anything else to write about. By the way, it is raining again while I am writing. It seems as though we will not get to plant wheat this fall.

Methodist Missionary Society

The Methodist Missionary Society had the pleasure of meeting with Mrs. Glenn Snyder, six miles east of Hereford, on last Wednesday evening, Sept. 22, 1920. Cars were provided for all who could go and about 2:30, eight cars, heavily loaded, left town for the Snyder home. The ladies were greeted at the door by Mrs. Snyder, her mother, Mrs. Thompson, and Mesdames H. H. Hawkins and J. Frank Potts, who assisted as hostesses on this occasion.

Promptly at three, the meeting was called to order by the President and the regular business was disposed of in a very efficient manner. Reports of officers and committees were given in full, all of which showed that the work of the Society was going forward with great zeal. Six new members were added to our rolls this quarter, namely: Mesdames Matthew, Ott, Ward and Simpson and Misses Swisher and Williamson.

Upon Mrs. J. O. Newell's invitation the Society will meet in her home next Wednesday for the "Prayer Circle." This closed the business session and for the social hour our President conducted the Devotional, having chosen "The Good Shepherd," for her subject. References were read by members and commented upon by the reader in such a way as to give us many good thoughts. Miss Grace Smith then gave us two splendid readings which were enjoyed by one and all. Bro. Terry led in prayer, after which the hostesses served stuffed tomatoes with whipped cream, bread and butter sandwiches and iced tea, with pansies as favors, to about fifty-six guests. Bro. D. W. Hawkins then dismissed the Society with prayer.

Infant Dies

Little Mary Athalie Miller, eighteen months old baby of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Miller, passed to her reward on September the 24th, 1920, after an illness of six weeks of whooping cough, followed by a severe kidney trouble. Everything was done, in a medical way and nursing, that could be, but God knew best and had the little flower transplanted to a better world. We all miss her greatly and her place is vacant, but our loss is her gain, so we must bow in submission to His will, who does all things well, and some day we will understand. She, being the first of the family to go, will be waiting and watching for the others, as they are ready to go to her.
So the little flower that budded on earth, will blossom in Heaven.

ENROLLMENT 334

IN CANYON NORMAL

The eleventh year of the West Texas State Normal College started Tuesday with an enrollment of 334 up to last night. Class work will start today. Word from other normals indicate that attendance in all the normal schools will be lighter than usual this year owing to the great demand for teachers all over the state. The West Texas State Normal was the only Normal school in the state having an increased attendance last year.

The enrollment the first two days of last year was somewhat more than it is up to the present time, but at least 400 are expected by the beginning of next week.

President Hill reports all of the faculty members present and that the indications are splendid for a good year's work.—Randall Co. News.

BAPTIST DRIVE IS FOR $2,000,000.00

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 27.—The Baptists of Texas will raise $2,000,000 in cash before the annual meeting of the State Convention at El Paso on November 11 according to plans set in motion at a special called meeting of the Baptist Executive Board which was held in the First Baptist Church of Dallas last week.

The $2,000,000 which it is proposed to collect will be a part of the more than $16,000,000 which was pledged by Texas Baptists in the $75,000,000 Campaign which was recently carried to success by Southern Baptists. Approximately $2,000,000 subscribed by Texas in this campaign has already been collected. According to the original plan of the $75,000,000 Campaign, one-fifth of the amounts subscribed was to be paid in each year for a period of five years, until the whole of the fund was available. The present movement is taken by Texas Baptists in order that they may be sure that one-fifth of the $16,000,000 pledged will be in the hands of the state treasurer by the close of the convention year.

A plan of organization has been perfected in which Texas has been divided into six districts and placed under the supervision of men whose duties shall be to extend the organization in the territories assigned them until every church in the State has been reached. Dr. F. S. Grover of Dallas, General Secretary of the Baptist Executive Board and Dr. T. V. Neal, also of Dallas, Executive Secretary, will have direct supervision of the campaign. The campaign motto will be: "Kash for the Kingdom."

THE FREIGHT CAR OUTLOOK TO DATE

The Santa Fe Railroad has issued the following on the car situation:
"A survey of the equipment of the Santa Fe lines east of Albuquerque, September 15, showed that 41,239 covered cars belonging to the company were on the rails of foreign lines, classified as follows: Box, 23,040; furniture, 3,382; stock, 5,001; refrigerator, 6,236.

"Reports for the same date last year showed that there were 40,400 Santa Fe covered cars on foreign lines classified as follows: Box, 25,313; furniture, 3,457; stock, 4,800; refrigerator, 6,621.

In other words, there were 799 more Santa Fe cars off the company's lines September 15 this year than there were on that date last year.

"On September 15 there were 20,375 foreign line covered cars on Santa Fe rails classified as follows: Box, 16,793; furniture, 661; stock, 1,909; refrigerator, 1,150.

"Last year same date, there were 26,572 foreign line covered cars on Santa Fe rails, classified as follows: Box, 21,392; furniture, 896; stock, 1,280; refrigerator, 2,004.

"In other words, there were 4,994 less foreign line covered cars on Santa Fe rails September 15 this year than there were on that date last year.

"The Santa Fe's shortage of covered equipment September 15 aggregated 5,703 cars. On June 22, the shortage was 17,590 cars, or a reduction of 12,886 cars made in ten weeks.

"Cars loaded on Santa Fe System rails and received by the Santa Fe from connecting line rails to be transported to destinations on or beyond Santa Fe rails from January 1, to August 31, inclusive, for three years show the following totals, by years:

1918	966,031
1919	850,503
1920	1,074,264

"This means that the Santa Fe handled 25 per cent more business in the eight months period this year, represented by carloads, than it did in the corresponding period last year, and 11.2 per cent more than it did in the corresponding period of the company's record year of 1918.

"In view of these facts, the Santa Fe, in common with other western lines, feels that it is making progress toward the restoration of normal service. The Santa Fe's performance has been accomplished through team work of its officers and employees organized by divisions, and the cooperation of shippers with the division organizations.

"When the Santa Fe was returned to corporate control, railroad men who have to do with the movement of freight, and all regular shippers, were provided with detailed information in bulletin form and in statements presented personally by company representatives showing that whatever improvement was to be made in the service this year would have to be brought about with the equipment on hand, for the reason that additional locomotives and cars could not be manufactured and terminal facilities could not be extended in time to take care of the country's 1920 transportation needs.

"Due to the efforts described, all departments of the railroad were able to speed up their work, including the shopmen who worked overtime to repair locomotives and cars. Shippers, generally, promised to and did, load heavier and save time in loading and unloading.

"The Santa Fe company, therefore, is committed to the policy of localizing its public relationship activities by bringing the division officers and employees into an understanding with local shippers. As a result of this program, the railroad man finds himself in a frame of mind to take care of his customer to the best of his ability, and the shipper reciprocates by going to the limit to make every car set out for him perform its full part in the general movement of freight traffic."

Another Good Land Bargain

Last week I advertised Section No. 76, Block K-3, at $50 an acre and sold it. This was a good buy for the purchaser—he's certain to make money. Not because I think so, but simply because the man bought the land for less money than its real worth. Property bought for less than it is actually worth always makes money.

I have another tract of land for sale this week in the south half of Section No. 34, Block K-3, at $35 per acre, with one-third cash and balance easy at 7 per cent interest. This land is located on an excellent graded road seven miles northeast of Hereford. Has a good five room house, good barn, other outbuildings, well and wind mill. Water is shallow and land good. Possession January 1st, or the tenant will sell 150 acres of good crop and give possession sooner. This is a good buy. Land across the fence is held at above $60 per acre. The south half of 34 is worth nearer $60 than $35, the price asked. It's a snap.

A SHOWER FOR MRS. ROYAL A. TERRY

Looking through life's book, the pages that are oftentimes turned to, are those that record our thoughtfulness and kindly little deeds for others; for "friendship is the only rose without a thorn."

On Tuesday evening from four to six o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Black on West 3rd Street, was a scene of mirth and merriment, for here Miss Elizabeth Black was entertaining for her long-time friend, Miss Bernadine Price, who became the bride of Mr. Royal A. Terry less than a week ago.

This little act of Elizabeths seemed so befitting, for these two girls have loved and confided in each other all these years, at home and when away in college together, without ought to mar or disturb their mutual trust in each other.

When about fifty guests had assembled, and Miss Grace Smith had given an appropriate reading, the "black servant girl" came rushing in from the kitchen calling to Mrs. Terry to hurry and come and help her wash the dishes, and hang the clothes on the line, for company was coming. All followed Mrs. Terry, and sure enough in the dining room was the table loaded with silver, china, cut glass, etc. and a basket full to hang on the improvised line. When all was adjusted and the servant girl quieted a little, Miss James, of the High School, toasted the bride. Miss Inez Dunlap followed with a toast to the groom, and then came Mrs. John McLean, who toasted the poor, dear girls, who were left behind.

The company were then asked to be seated, and were served brick cream and angel food cake. After this, Miss Elizabeth, at the request of those present, gave a piano selection.

It seemed to those present that the flowers clustered here and there in the different rooms told a sweet little story and the sun, as he was about to say goodnight to this part of the world on this beautiful September evening, sent back a benediction and blessing on the western rays of light as they came through the window for this unselfish act of one friend for another.

After many happy wishes for the bride, and bidding the young hostess good-bye, the guests returned to their homes.

Below are the different toasts:

Miss James gave a toast to the bride: "Here's to the bride, may she smile the while she keeps 'the home fires burning,' always singing 'Love's old sweet song' as she goes along in the land of her dreams."

Inez Dunlap gave a toast to the groom: "When two are wedded and an agreement thereby formed. Two minds at that time must have worked as one, and in this agreement two persons must have taken part."

Though we her of the bride and much she may toast be,

We must not forget the groom and that much he may toast be,

For there are girls who may have liked him and there are girls he may have liked a lot, But there was only one could capture this party of 2nd part.

May he live to be old and happy, with Bernadine as his bride, Though his trousers beslick and his shoes need a shine, May he find his buttons in place every time."

Mrs. John McLean toasted the girls left behind: "Here's to the girls with the beaux and their curls, Who are left behind, Poor things! Little ones, big ones, chubby or slim, They all have their reasons, So fill your cups to the brim. I know of one girl, sad story, At the marriage altar did balk Because he who loved her, would wobble when he walked.

But there is always a bright ray Shining thru the dark day, And this is my consolation.

This strong young knight, Without trespassing night, and without further calculation,

Be likened to a brave, wise, old bell-weather sheep, Pursuing the trail over vale and steep,

And surely he'll draw the flock behind him, too, As good Bell-weather always do.

So you who are left paddling your forlorn canoe, Remember this adage which they say is true,

"We may live without poetry, music, art,

We may live without conscience and live without heart,

We may live without friends and live without books,

But civilized men cannot live without cooks."

—One who was present.

The Mystery of Hartley House

By CLIFFORD S. RAYMOND

Illustrated by Irwin Myers

Copyright by George H. Doran Co.

I should look back, I knew, many times, as a struggling practitioner, possibly in poorer districts of the city, possibly in a small town, to the strange but beautiful time when I was at Hartley. This experience would be only an episode, remaining as the memory of a time when my life halted for a wonderful moment, satisfying, rich and joyful, and—having had this moment—went on in the drab fashion ordained for it. An occasional kindly letter from Mrs. Sidney, or possibly from Isobel, might quicken the memory, but I and this period would fade from their lives as it never could from mine. I should be packing a pill-case on late and unprofitable rounds

In that soul-destroying routine with its ceaseless invasion of the intimate personal economics of uninteresting people, abnormally egoistic in the pain of a small or large disorder—the cheerless life of a small physician, serving his useful purpose, I have no doubt, but how little serving his own!

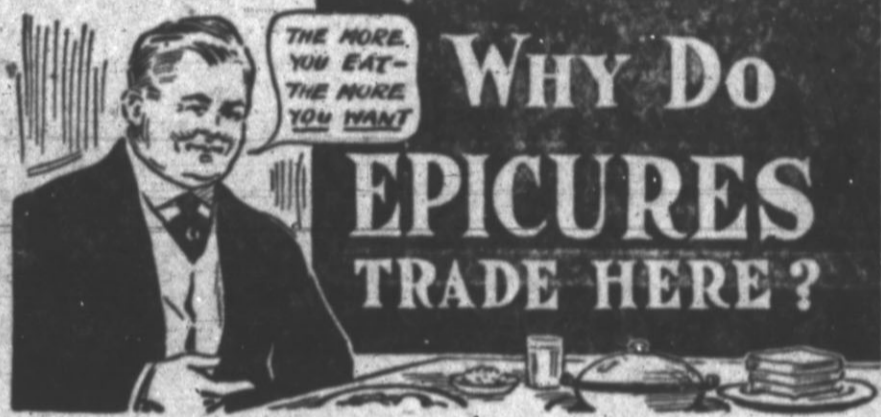

We got through Christmas day in a dazed fashion. The necessary offices for the dead compelled a routine which relieved the tension, although they contributed a dulled terror to the day—those terrible, exacting practical details with which some one in the bereaved family must occupy himself. Mortuary details are useless to the pessimist. I know no more comic figure than an undertaker, no more gigantic shaft of human egotism than a tombstone.

Mr. Sidney, we found, had left brief but explicit directions for his burial. This, in the case of a man with life so well conceived, was strange, but his wishes, as we found them, were simple and startling. He was to be buried by the river, close to the pool which had been invested with the added charm of a ghost-story. His grave was to be marked by an unostentatious stone. The inscription was to be as he directed in a note in a sealed enclosure to be opened at the time Mrs. Sidney thought appropriate. It might be, he had written, that Mrs. Sidney would not want the stone erected during her life. Her wishes were to be consulted. When the grave was marked, if it ever was, the inscription was to be as he directed. Mrs. Sidney, acquainted with the terms of this extraordinary mortuary note, said that it was her wish to have the sealed envelope opened immediately and its instructions carried out. Christmas night had set in, and the place was a fairland of glistening white. Far-off church-bells sounded. (Continued on page 7).

Sunday Night Program at the First Christian Church During October.

Some Things Fundamental to the Faith of Young People

Older people, as a rule, do not realize how disturbing are the influences which have been operating upon the minds of young men and women for the last twenty-five years. New fields of learning have been opened up and new studies have been added to the curriculum, new ways of thinking and talking have been introduced, the result is, our boys and girls have difficulties, concerning which their parents knew nothing.

On Sunday nights during the month of October, Mr. Asbell is going to deliver a series of Sermon-Lectures on, "FOUNDATION STONES OF A YOUNG MAN'S BELIEF IN CHRISTIANITY." These sermons will be practicable and we think, helpful. The first of the series will be delivered Sunday night, Oct. 3, Subject, A High School Boy's Difficulty, Number One, "WHAT TO DO WITH YOUR DOUBTS."

Oct. 10, "HOW THE OLD CONCEPTION OF THE SCRIPTURES DIFFERS FROM THE NEW."

Oct. 17, "THE ROLE AGNOSTICISM AND EVOLUTION HAVE PLAYED IN CHRISTIANITY, HAVE THEY HELPED OR HINDERED?"

Oct. 24, "WHAT HAS SCIENCE DONE TO RELIGION?"

Oct. 31, "MUST I BELIEVE THE MIRACLES OF THE BIBLE?"

These sermons will get next to young people and will be helpful to older folk, for they are going to touch on questions that you have been thinking about for a long time.

Our choir is coming alive after the summer vacation and is capable of producing soul inspiring music, so we extend you a hearty invitation to drop in and enjoy these Sunday evening services with us. There is a bigger welcome for you than the prodigal son received when he came home. Come and see for yourself.

Last Sunday 174 were at the Bible School, that is, that many came in time to be counted. About twenty-five came in too late. Wind up Big Ben and get up a few minutes earlier, and put the same business into your religion that you put elsewhere and see what happens to our church. Our Bible School begins not one minute after nine forty-five, preaching one hour later. The Intermediate Christian Endeavor will hold its meeting in the Auditorium at 8 p. m. Mr. Claude Ricketts and his wife have a big society of live-wires. Something doing every minute. Mr. Asbell's Young Folks Class meets in the Gallery. They are starting in on a new series of lessons, studying the LIFE OF CHRIST, and since his words have in them the power of dynamite and His ideas have changed the destinies of nations He is worth knowing about. Let's start in on the first lesson and not miss a single one.

Yours for real business,
John Meyer Asbell, Pastor.

Tire Mileage Increased and Cost Reduced—for Small Cars

You can buy Goodyear Tires today at prices which are no higher than they were ten years ago.

And from these tires you can now obtain more actual mileage due to advancements made by Goodyear in their construction since 1910.

The present cost of Goodyear mileage therefore is decidedly less and this fact applies to all the line, including the 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch size Goodyear Tires built especially for small cars.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires—get exceptional mileage at very low cost.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? $4.50
30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag
