$1,000 Labor Camp School Donation Made By Jaycees

Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce at its Tuesday meeting presented a $1000 check to Father Raymond Gillis to pay some of the outstanding bills of the school at Hereford Labor Camp.

Funds for the donation to the school came from a portion of the donations received by Jaycees during the four Sabin Oral Vaccine Sundays held last winter. The remainder of the donation is from other Jaycee activities and projects. In accepting the donation, Father Gillis told club members that the school was begun in 1950 and consisted of only one-half of a barracks building. "We started with 20 children," he commented, "but as the number of children grew year after year, we had to add on other buildings." When Dr. Lena Edwards built her maternity hospital at the camp, he continued, she had to get it inspected and approved by the state. One thing that the state inspector objected to most was the school which was a "fire hazard" and had to be moved out, he noted. "We wanted to build something that was not a fire hazard," Father Gillis said. "In the old building, we had to be very

Woman Pleads Guilty To DWI Charges Here

A 25-year-old Latin-American woman, charged with driving while intoxicated, first offense, entered a plea of guilty to charges Monday in Deaf Smith County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding. The woman, Angelina Martinez-Loya, was sentenced to five days in the county jail and fined $50 and costs. She was arrested Saturday about 10 p.m. four miles south of Hereford on U. S. 385 by a unit of Texas Highway Patrol.

careful and had a few narrow escapes. Fortunately we were there when the fires started."

About a year ago construction was started on a new two-story cinder block and concrete building. With the help of local contractors and donated labor and funds, the building was completed before school opened in September. Registered at the school are 300 students who attend classes in the first through fifth grades.

"At the school space is available for a sixth grade and we would like to have one, but we just can't get the teachers," Father Gillis said explaining the lack of a sixth grade. He noted that the people here are "very proud and always interested in trying to help" their community.

"I don't think you can find a better people anywhere who are so very kind and generous. . . and are always interested in what is going on in the community," he said. "Noting that it was through the encouragement and help of community citizens that the school was built, Father Gillis said: "We now have a school which we are proud of and hope you are proud of, too."

Russell Resigns Principal's Post; Michael Is Successor

L. B. Russell, principal of Hereford High School and a member of the school staff since 1952, has resigned to go into private business in Hereford, and will be succeeded by G. W. (Bill) Michael, assistant senior high principal. The changes take place at the end of the first semester, Jan. 17, Superintendent Paul Stevens announced Wednesday. Russell's resignation was accepted at Tuesday night's meeting of the board, when Michael was named as his successor. Russell, Hereford reared, returned to Hereford as head coach in 1952. Then in 1961 he became senior high principal, a position he has held for the past two and a half years.

At the same time, mid-term resignations also were accepted from two other teachers. Suzanne Dole, a fourth-grade teacher at Northwest elementary school, has resigned and is moving with her husband to Littlefield.

Wyatte L. Harman, a vocational agriculture teacher in Hereford High School, will leave the system at the end of the first semester to accept a position with Texas A&M University as a research assistant. Michael has been in the teaching profession since 1951 when he became a coach at Gorman. In 1954 he moved to Rising Star as coach, and then to Crosbyton in 1956 as junior high principal.

He was principal of the high school at Ralls for two years, and in 1959 was an elementary principal at Van Vleet. He came to Hereford in 1963.

Michael has a bachelor's degree from Daniel Baker College at Brownwood, and holds a master's degree from Texas Christian University. He also has done work toward his doctorate at Texas Tech.

The board voted to deed the building formerly used as a school at Dawa back to the Nell Estate, who in turn will deed the property to the community for a center.

The usual mid-December dip in enrollment in Hereford schools has failed to materialize this year, enrollment figures announced by Superintendent Stevens at Tuesday's board meeting, revealed.

In fact, total enrollment was actually three pupils higher than at the same time last month. The total at the start of this week was 3586 as compared with 3585 a month ago and 3611 for a year ago.

By schools, this week's figures were reported as follows: Alkman Elementary, 464; Central Elementary, 442; Northwest Elementary, 697; Shirley Elementary, 536; Stanton Junior High, 558; Hereford High, 811.

A low bid of $281,290 for construction of a new wing and extensive remodeling of Deaf Smith County Hospital was accepted by County Commissioners' Court as bids were opened and tabulated Monday.

In all nine bids were received on the project with the low bidder on the project being R. W. Boston Construction Co. of Amarillo.

Other firms bidding for the construction contract and their bids were Doyle Construction Co., $315,500; John F. Moss, $287,090; J. C. Page, $293,225; Ramey Construction Co., $291,732; Neill Singleton, $311,603; Timmons Construction Co., $286,248; Western Builders, $296,620, and Walter E. Wirtz, $282,735.

According to the contractor, construction of the new wing and remodeling is to begin "immediately" with the completion date of the project being January, 1965.

Commenting on the bid, T. E. Seigler, hospital administrator, said: "We are very pleased with the low bid since it is within $200 of the anticipated cost of the project."

He pointed out that the bid would allow for construction of the new wing and remodeling with some funds left over for contingencies.

"With the bid," he pointed out, "we will be able to build like we wanted to with enough funds left to purchase all the equipment we wanted to put into the hospital."

With the bid accepted, construction of the first stage of the project—building of a new wing—is to begin immediately, he noted.

When it is completed, patients will be moved from the original two-story building to the new wing, he explained.

During the second stage of construction, the original hospital building will be demolished. (Continued on Page 2)

Santa And Sleigh Coming To Town

That Man of the Year, Santa Claus, will officially open the Yuletide season here Saturday in person.

Santa will come to Hereford in the World's Largest Sleigh. Every boy and girl in the area has a hearty invitation to come to visit the old gentlemen from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Free rides with Santa will be given, through a special arrangement made by the local committee, chairman Ernest Kendall said.

Since it doesn't snow very much in Texas, six of Santa's favorite Shetland ponies will pull the sleigh, dressed in their chrome-plated harnesses, red flames and sleigh bells, according to Kendall.

The sleigh, which is 30 feet long and eight feet wide, is bright red, trimmed in silver. Santa's official North Pole flag will be prominently displayed atop the sleigh.

Fine, Sentence Latin-American On DWI Charge

A Latin-American entered a plea of guilty Monday to charges of driving while intoxicated, first offense, in Deaf Smith County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding.

Entering the plea was Andres Falcon Garcia, 36. He was sentenced to six days in jail and fined $50 plus court costs. Garcia was arrested about 10:15 p.m. Saturday five miles south of Hereford on U. S. 385.

A personal interview with Santa is in store for each child. Through concealed speakers on the sleigh, the interviews will be broadcast along a designated route, which has been set up by the local committee. Beautiful Christmas music will also be heard.

Local merchants, who have contributed to arrange for the local visit, have free ride coupons which they will give to their customers. When a child (Continued on Page 2)

Mrs. McGee Wins Brand Grid Prize

Mrs. Taft McGee out-doped scores of persons to win The Brand's annual football contest for the 1963 season. For her good guessing she receives two tickets to the New Year's Cotton Bowl game in Dallas.

Harold Morton wound up in second place, and Mrs. Edgar Skypala and Ansel McDowell tied for third place. McDowell conceded to Mrs. Skypala, so she gets the free Cotton Bowl ticket for third place.

Mrs. McGee did a splendid job of figuring out in advance just what teams were going to win. She doped 164 right out of 236 games played. Four games were cancelled because of President Kennedy's death.

Morton guessed 160 right, and Mrs. Skypala and McDowell each predicted 158 games right. Winners also were announced by The Brand for the 11th and 12th weeks of the contest.

Keith Kitchens, with 15 right, won the 11th week's series, and Leon McCutchen, guessing right on 14, was second. Mrs. W. C. Beene picked 13 correctly for third spot. Three games were cancelled in that week's series—Notre Dame at Iowa, Colgate at Brown and Kansas State at Oklahoma State.

In the 12th week's series, Dave Hooper was first with 17 right, and Paul Schroeter's 16 right guesses put him in second place. Harold Morton with 15 won third. Actually five persons tied for third place in the 12th week's series, but Morton won the tie-breaker.

Among those indicted by the grand jury were Ollen Clarence Nix, 56, 511 Grand, driving while intoxicated, second offense; William Max Greer, 32, 507 Grand, forgery; Clinton Ray Wright, 24, Fairfield, Ill., indicted on two counts of burglary; Lloyd Decker, 52, of Vega, forgery; Arnulfo LaFuenta, 20, 302 Norton, theft over $50.

No billed on charges during the grand jury session was Louis M. Palomo.

12 Indictments Are Returned By Grand Jury

Deaf Smith County Grand Jury handed down 12 indictments, no billed one man, and passed two cases to the next grand jury term. This was the final meeting of the jury for the July term of 69th District Court, Judge Harry Schultz presiding.

As the court session entered its second day Wednesday, selection of a jury for a trial was scheduled for Wednesday with the trial beginning during the afternoon.

Also during the session of the district court, a jury commission selected three new petit jury lists and a list of prospective grand jurors for the February term of the court.

Among those indicted by the grand jury were Ollen Clarence Nix, 56, 511 Grand, driving while intoxicated, second offense; William Max Greer, 32, 507 Grand, forgery; Clinton Ray Wright, 24, Fairfield, Ill., indicted on two counts of burglary; Lloyd Decker, 52, of Vega, forgery; Arnulfo LaFuenta, 20, 302 Norton, theft over $50.

No billed on charges during the grand jury session was Louis M. Palomo.

25-Cent Parking Fine Goes Into Effect Monday

New parking fines will go into effect on Monday, Dec. 16, at the lowered 25-cent rate, according to Dudley Bayne, city manager.

When City Commission approval was given for the lower fine, it was thought that new tickets could be printed in time for the change to go into effect on Dec. 20.

However, reported Bayne, word was received Wednesday that it would take approximately 45 days to print new tickets.

Even though the old citations for overparking will still be used, Bayne explained, a printed card will be inserted in each pointing out that the new fine is 25-cents.

Know what a pedestrian is? That's a man with two cars, a wife and a teen-age daughter.

We thoroughly believe the above, but could also add a definition of our own. To wit: A pedestrian is a man with two cars that won't run!

But then Tuesday just wasn't our day. We felt it in our bones early that morning when we crawled out of bed, listened to the weather report, and finally trudged off to work. Everything went fairly well during the day. But as night began to close in, our problems started anew.

We were to attend the annual Rotary Club Christmas party and had invited guests for the occasion. In order not to be late, we slipped away from the office before five and hopped into the company vehicle for the short drive home.

But alas, we were to go nowhere. The darn car wouldn't run.

Well, that was a minor problem. We left it where it was and bummed a ride home. After all, we had another car and could very well use it for the evening.

But our plans were foiled. The old buggy wouldn't start.

By this time, the weather was becoming quite nasty. Ice was forming on the streets and the weather prognosticators were forecasting dire tidings for the remainder of the evening.

Not to be discouraged, by these set-backs, we quickly called the garage; berating the gentleman who had sold us that battery back in January, securing his assurances that he would be up momentarily with another and have us on our way in minutes. He arrived per schedule. Excellent service to be sure.

The man jiggled this cable and that cable; turned the switch; started the car just like it was supposed to start; assured us there was absolutely nothing wrong with the battery, and went on his merry way.

The spirit of Christmas was beginning to ease back.

We picked up our guest and proceeded to the banquet hall and a very pleasant evening. The food was excellent, the program delightful.

But the evening was young yet.

Ah yes, you guessed it. Come time to depart, the damn car wouldn't start.

Fortunately, we were able to bum another ride for ourselves and our guests, not being forced to walk the two miles home in the bitter cold.

Of course, every cloud has a silver lining.

Up until the unfortunate events of the past evening, we were at a complete loss for material for this column!

The annual banquet season has begun in earnest. Almost all the local stores have a feed for their employees during the holiday season, and each of the service clubs also entertain their members.

If a fellow just happened to have a birthday at this time of the year it would be extremely difficult to secure a free time for the celebration. But, all-in-all, we enjoy the festive occasions. Provided, of course, we have transportation.

We are reminded of a story told recently at a TSTA banquet about the three youngsters engaged in a heated debate concerning the importance of their fathers.

"My father is more important than yours" says one young fellow. "Why, he owns all the houses in that new housing development that you see over there."

"Sure," says the second young man, "but my father owns the mortgages on all those homes, and that certainly makes him more important than your Dad".

The third, thinking long and hard, finally decided that his father was more important than either of the others. "My father," said he "is much more important than yours. He owns Hell. I know, 'cause he's superintendent of the schools and I heard him come home Tuesday night and tell mother that the school board gave it to him".

Just 10 more shopping days until Christmas.

Actually, that's about nine more than we need, because we normally do our Christmas shopping on Christmas eve.

However, we don't recommend this for everyone. In fact, we would like to see everyone shop early, and then the stores would not be so crowded when we suddenly (and at the last minute) get the Christmas spirit. Such is life.

We've heard it said: One of the hardest things about making money last is the ability to make it first.

Sugar beet growers in this area are attending a series of meetings this week, sponsored by the Holly Sugar Corp., to learn "cultural practices for their 1964 production," says Wes Fischer, assistant local Holly manager.

(Continued from Page 1) In commenting on the aim of the school in trying to help the Latin-Americans, the pastor of St. Joseph's Mission noted the problem of getting the children to attend school regularly.

"The day is coming," he commented, "when these children won't be able to do anything without an education."

In closing, Father Gillis thanked the Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce for its donation to the school. He also gave the organization an invitation to the dedication services.

(Continued from Page 1) Capital building is due for extensive remodeling which will include new plumbing, fixtures, and piped oxygen to every room.

When that is completed, noted the hospital administrator, patients will be shifted from the children's wing of the hospital in order that some remodeling and piped oxygen can be installed.

Fourth and final stage of the project will be renovation of hospital wing added in 1948.

As county commissioners gave approval to the hospital construction bid, they also approved low bids on hospital equipment.

Bidding low on room furnishings for the new wing was Hill-Rom Co. with a bid of $24,047.

Entering a low bid on other hospital equipment was American Sterilizing Co. The firm submitted a bid of $5646 on its equipment.

In other action concerning construction of the new hospital wing, commissioners agreed to pay Oscar A. Schilling $10,948. This represents 3 1/2 per cent of the five per cent architectural fee for designing the wing.

Also on the agenda of the County Commissioners' Court were bids for two new tractors. Submitting the winning bid on a tractor for Precinct 2 was Kemp Motor Co. with a bid of $2600 including trade-in. Other firms bidding were Farm and Home Supply, $2617.40; B & B Oliver, $4475; and Hays Implement Co., $4602.74.

Low bid on a tractor for Precinct 4 was submitted by Case Tractor and Implement Co. The firm's bid was $2067.40 with trade-in.

Other firms bidding on the tractor were Hays Implement Co., $4080; Kemp Motor Co., $656.25; B & B Oliver, $4475; and Farm and Home Supply, $2-897.40.

In other business, the County Commission granted Jorde Potato Co. permission to cross a county road in Section 10, Block K-8 with an irrigation pipe casing.

An order also authorized execution and delivery of first and final installment on $18,000 worth of Deaf Smith County road machinery warrants.

In other action, Nell Miller, tax assessor-collector, was authorized to withhold 25 cents from the $1.75 poll tax payment. The tax-assessor collector was also authorized to publish the tax levy and rate for 1964.

He is generally recognized as "Oklahoma's Ambassador of Good Will," and for his "humor with a wallop." Newspapers have called him "A One-man United Nations."

He is a confirmed optimist with implicit faith in the future, believing that "in the long run, everything is going to be here."

For two years during World War II he was chairman of a committee administering aid and relief to prisoners of war in all the Axis-dominated countries and was a member of the War Savings staff. He spoke throughout the nation to USO groups and Red Cross and later to wounded service men in hospitals from coast to coast.

He is a past-district governor and a past director of Rotary International.

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

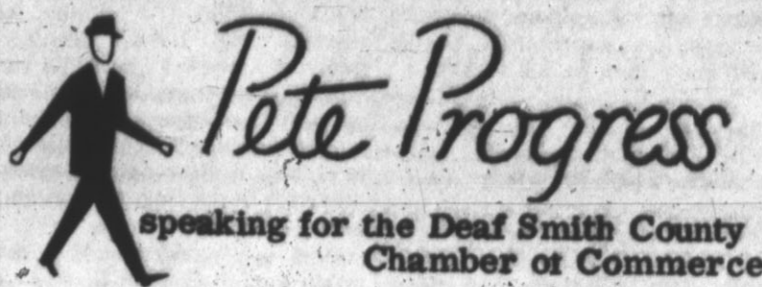

Connally Back To Resume Duties As State Governor

By Vera Sanford
Gov. John Connally is "back home" in Austin, after a 13-day stay in Parkland Hospital in Dallas. He has had what he termed "amazing" recovery from critical wounds inflicted by President John Kennedy's assassin. B-6-26-5P

As everyone knows, the governor didn't spend much time being purely a patient. Within a few days he had converted the hospital into a "Little Capitol". Now the Governor is "off-icing" in the Mansion, across the street from the big state-government complex. His staff is working out of his business office in the Capitol. People around the Statehouse say that Connally seems to be enjoying working under stress. The month he came into office, he was forced to undergo a hernia operation. He ran the executive department from a hospital room then, too, and later from the Mansion. It will be six months before doctors know for sure whether Connally will regain full use of his bullet-shattered right arm. It must remain in a neavy cast for 90 days. He will be unable to see visitors for several weeks.

The United States on 90,000 acres of state-owned, submerged land surrounding Padre Island National Seashore Park is on display in the Texas State Library building in Austin. Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler presented this copy to the State Library and an identical copy to the National Archives in Washington, D. C. NEWS CENTER
Austin will become a world news center now that a Central Texas has become president. When the Lyndon Johnsons come to the LBJ Ranch near Stonewall, Austin will be the news center for the White House correspondents who accompany the President wherever he goes. Telephone company workmen are beefing up lines to the Johnson Ranch to handle the crush of communications which follow the President. WATER POLLUTION STUDIED
A congressional sub-committee conducted a two-day hearing on Texas water pollution problems. Governor Connally, in a written statement, told the sub-committee the state has an active pollution control program in which it has help of all units of government, industry and public groups. There is ample room for federal research on the problem "so that we may be helped to help ourselves," Connally said.

HISTORICAL NOTE
When the State School Land Board looked over the list of goodfaith claimants at its meeting this week, it noted that one man who claimed 9.59 acres of mesquite-dotted rangeland in Zavala County is the grandson of the man who served as Land Commissioner more than a century ago. He is Murray G. Smyth Jr., whose grandfather, George William Smyth, was Land Commissioner from 1868 to 1888. Board also noted that their assessors set the value of the Zavala County land, and other land in that area, at about $30 an acre, whereas goodfaith claims on land in rich-soil Houston County was set at $69.50 an acre. PADRE ISLAND DEED
The red-leather-and-velvet bound parchment deed which conveyed title from Texas to

"Once in a while I see something in print that makes so much sense that I want to share it with my town" said Pete Progress as a prelude to his latest progress report. "This article appeared in the October issue of THE EXECUTIVE, publication of the American Chamber of Commerce Executives, and was written by Robert S. Harman, General Manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Hawthorne, California. "It was written in rebuttal to an earlier article in the same publication which surveyed the "image" of Chambers of Commerce as seen by news men across the country. While those references to the news media do not apply to the Hereford Brand nor to KPAN, they certainly do apply to those media in our neighboring major cities. Here is the article. . . .

The report from news media that Chambers of Commerce have an unfavorable public image is nothing new to Chamber managers. Although already presented by Peter W. Smith in our July Journal, the image was left a bit foggy, but a bit of semantic scrubbing might make it sparkling clean and bright. To do this, many of the newsmen who contributed to the report might well reflect upon the very charge they made against Chambers - "inability to change policy." The purpose of a Chamber organization has not changed in 200 years and rightly so. My last Vice-President, in a report given at our annual meeting a few weeks ago, told the story succinctly with these words: "Let us never forget that Chambers were originally formed to build Commerce . . . and they still are."

"Commerce is our name. Unfortunately, that word is frequently defined inaccurately with a result of misconception and confusion. Progressive cities have many fine and noble activities in the fields of culture, education, special group and club projects. But none of these worthy projects is successful if there is not a sound foundation of Commerce. If Commerce dies, everything likewise dies!! "Not one of the seven news representatives covering that meeting made any reference to those remarks, even though proof of the statement can be found in many cities in these United States. These cities are fighting for their lives and what is their sole, priority project? It is Commerce they want. "Commerce to provide jobs for people, to provide means people to have homes and food and clothing. Histories of our communities are filled with dramatic stories of great sacrifices and great budgets to secure one thing. . . Commerce. "And newsmen think of the Chamber controlled by a small group of men who do not represent the community at large, who represent business with the primary aim of furthering their own interests? Let's translate what 'represent' means when used in connection with a Chamber of Commerce. Of course a Chamber represents business. . . that is the sole reason for its existence. But if that representation is successful all the community benefits. And let us also examine the irony of the sad, but true statement that many Chambers are controlled by a few. Chamber managers almost plead for volunteers to help expand commerce but the community scorns the plea because they will get rich! This is semantic juggling at its very best. "Yes, we concede that too few citizens understand what a Chamber of Commerce is all about. Some of this is our fault. Throughout the years Chambers have been infiltrated, divided, and disseminated with so many special projects that our principal function has been sidetracked if not completely obliterated. "Our budgets are stretched so thin with a variety of side-issues pleasing to special groups that we encounter increasing difficulty to successfully accomplish our main objective. Long ago, Chambers inherited the responsibility of being all things to all people. The largest expense of a Chamber is its office which is maintained specifically and exclusively for people. . . all people. Our committees, our Boards, could just as well assemble in other facilities at no cost. "But we laboriously keep all types of records and statistics, distribute free maps and numerous lists, strive to the best of our abilities to provide information on recreation, on special events regardless of who is promoting them, act as a Better Business Bureau, and supply information on almost every subject. "I, for one, am entirely receptive to serious consideration on a change of policy. I am particularly receptive to a policy that will permit me to devote the majority of the small talents that I possess to doing the work for which the Chamber was originally organized. While we are doing this 'soul-searching' it might be well to give consideration to a survey of Chamber Managers on their image of the press. "Mr. Smith reports a curt comment from a newsmen. . . 'the initiative is usually ours, not theirs'. What has happened to the time when reporters searched out a story, dug out the facts, wrote imaginative and dramatic stories of a achievement? "Here is another responsibility that Chambers have inherited; we are now expected to serve as a part of the news media staff, (not by all, but by far too many news agencies) and to prepare their stories for them. Many Managers do their best to provide such services and I frequently wonder whether the press acknowledges such cooperation by playing a personal and leading role to establish a sound dues policy for the Chamber. "Reluctance or secrecy to divulge committee deliberations can easily be eliminated if the press is truly sincere. Most Chamber meetings are open, especially to members. During the past year my Chamber held 108 committee meetings, all publicized in advance. Three of those meetings were attended by representatives of news media. "It seems there are mixed-emotions about the things that were done, and are still being done, to make our country the greatest nation known to civilization. A review of the activities of any Chamber will reveal the work of individuals who are proving, to this very day, that there is a straight road from the cabin to the White House; that any child, no matter how obscure his birth, can be a Carnegie, Einstein, Ford, or Edison. And forgive my pride. . . even a Manager of a Chamber of Commerce. "The real, true image is still there! Let's wipe off the mirror with a clean cloth!" "That's my progress report for this week." Pete said, as he headed for the Brand office.

Mr. Smith reports a curt comment from a newsmen. . . 'the initiative is usually ours, not theirs'. What has happened to the time when reporters searched out a story, dug out the facts, wrote imaginative and dramatic stories of a achievement? "Here is another responsibility that Chambers have inherited; we are now expected to serve as a part of the news media staff, (not by all, but by far too many news agencies) and to prepare their stories for them. Many Managers do their best to provide such services and I frequently wonder whether the press acknowledges such cooperation by playing a personal and leading role to establish a sound dues policy for the Chamber. "Reluctance or secrecy to divulge committee deliberations can easily be eliminated if the press is truly sincere. Most Chamber meetings are open, especially to members. During the past year my Chamber held 108 committee meetings, all publicized in advance. Three of those meetings were attended by representatives of news media. "It seems there are mixed-emotions about the things that were done, and are still being done, to make our country the greatest nation known to civilization. A review of the activities of any Chamber will reveal the work of individuals who are proving, to this very day, that there is a straight road from the cabin to the White House; that any child, no matter how obscure his birth, can be a Carnegie, Einstein, Ford, or Edison. And forgive my pride. . . even a Manager of a Chamber of Commerce. "The real, true image is still there! Let's wipe off the mirror with a clean cloth!" "That's my progress report for this week." Hummel Figures Make Popular Yule Presents

Authentic "Hummel" ceramic figurines have been top-ranking collector's items among fans of all ages for nearly a quarter-century and a favorite gift item. Made exclusively by the W. Goebel Company of Bavaria, West Germany, they are instantly recognizable by the meticulous craftsmanship, subtle coloring, and the indented "M. I. Hummel" seen on the base of every piece. The secret of these figurines' appeal lies in their unaffected, childlike, caught-in-action feeling. Be it a little girl clutching a few wilted posies, a young boy merrily on the way to market, or a child frolicking with pets, their moods and manners are typical of tiny people the world over, and reflect the timeless dreams of eternal childhood. This wide-eyed, ingenious charm emanates from the artist's deep love and understanding of children. Berta Hummel, whose original sketches have been the basis for these ceramic figurines made by the W. Goebel Co., was one of six children who grew up in a home in Massing, Bavaria, where music and art were as natural as air and water. Born in 1909, she demonstrated her talent and imagination at an early age, beginning by sketching and painting portraits of her young school friends. Throughout her formal art training, including the Academy of Fine Arts in Munich, Berta Hummel continued her warm interest in children, artistically as well as personally.

Bright Jewelry Simplifies That Buying Problem

Even if your budget doesn't stretch quite far enough to put diamonds in every stocking you plan to fill this Christmas, you shouldn't overlook your jeweler as one of Santa's best assistants. Watchbands for people who already own fine watches are expected to be popular gift items at around $10. Cultured pearls at $20 to $35 will probably lead the popular-

Any little lady can enclose a porch or breezeway with Warp's FLEX-O-GLASS. It's so easy! Just cut with shears and tack over screens. ity parade in gifts for teen-age girls. Prices for grown-up styles will be slightly higher. Rings set with rubies, hematite or onyx are expected to be big items for men at $20 to $30. The jewelry store shopper will find stores less crowded than others even at Christmas. Merchandise isn't "picked over," employees are less harried, and there are fewer temporary helpers behind the counters. Style-color size selections are good, too, and the early shopper can usually get special orders from manufacturers if he wants them. Here are a few other ideas that may help you fill Santa's sack with quality jewelry gifts this season: AM-FM transistorized radios; bronzed baby shoes or barometers; candelabra, cameras, cameos or cuckoo clocks; dinnerware or desk sets; electronic watches or engraving on almost any kind of jewelry. Also there are fraternity pins, good luck pieces and ultrasonic cleaning of precious hors d'oeuvre trays including new musical types. Or you can get identification bracelets, irons, ivory items, ice buckets and Indian jewelry; jade or jeweled jam jars; knives, key-rings, knick-knacks and knife sharpeners; lockets, lamps, luggage and other leather items; military rings, mugs, memory books and motion picture equipment.

Perhaps you are looking for novelties or special watches for nuns or nurses; opera glasses; pens, pencils, pins or portable phonograph (including stereophonic models) and radios. Quartz, rosaries, skin divers' and other types of sports timers and stop-watches; as well as trays, telescopes, thermometers, typewriters and tape recorders, including transistorized types so tiny they can be tucked into a briefcase are some other suggestions. Still more possibilities include

Making Pretty Package Bows Not Difficult

Two things always happen in the weeks before Christmas. 1) You promise faithfully to do your holiday shopping earlier than last year, to avoid last-minute buying and giftwrapping.

Jewelry; vacuum bottles; or weather forecasters, woodenware and wall clocks of all sorts are among other possibilities. And, there are many more, of course.

A new idea in women's slippers is a leather lining in an even brighter shade than the slipper itself, such as geranium lined with turquoise; yellow with citron, and scarlet with bright pink.

Men's easy slippers also come in a variety of styles. These are leather-lined, low-cut opera slippers in glossy smooth leather for wear with an elegant dressing gown.

2) One of the children gets bedded down with the virus or flu. While the two don't seem related, they are, according to Margaret Drummond, giftwrap stylist for the Kaycraft Division of the Papercraft Corporation.

"Instead of just reading comic books, coloring or watching television while ill, a child can be given an enjoyable and creative crafts experience. Showing him or her how to make beautiful fluffy bows will be fun... and will help you when Christmas comes.

"Like many other simple crafts projects, this one can be learned quickly and easily—even by seven year olds," the Papercraft expert asserts from experience. The child-tested instructions are simple to follow. Demonstrate them once and then supervise the making of one big bow. You'll be surprised how readily the unwillingly confined patient gets the knack of it... and enjoys the pretty results.

With only half an hour's concentration a day, a dozen bows can be made easily in a week's time and stockpiled against the holiday giftwrapping rush.

Papercraft's giftwrap creator says, "I guarantee that no loving aunt or doting grandparent will ever notice an imperfection in the gaily decorative bow when told who created it."

The only supplies necessary are a selection of ribbon; LePage's white paste (safe to use in bed because its container is unbreakable); and a pair of scissors with safely blunted edges.

The reason for providing several kinds of colors of ribbon is so your "artiste" can use imagination in creating many attractive combinations.

To make a wide, fluffy bow: 1) Cut six-inch lengths of ribbon in the colors and styles you and your youngster prefer. As a base for the bow, cut off the round end piece from the ribbon reel.

2) Fold one length of ribbon in half. Paste the tips together to form a loop. (To get just the right amount of white paste, make a cardboard spreader about the width of a pencil.

3) Start first level of bow by pasting loops around rim of cardboard circle. Continue procedure until there is a full circle of ribbon loops radiating out from cardboard.
4) To make the second level paste a ribbon loop over each space between ribbon loops of the first level. A full bow is achieved by adding several levels, in smaller and smaller circles, toward the cardboard center.

Texas Original Is Bound For New York City

Lawrence Warner, a senior at Hereford High School, is far away from his original home this Christmas, and is going to remember his family back in New York by sending them a Texas original—a Christmas tree made from grain sorghum heads. The idea originated from his aunt, Mrs. George Warner, who created the first such tree some years ago.

Lawrence, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Caylor, et ux, to Leona Statton: All of Lot 15 of Parker Subdivision of the West 1/2 of Block 23, Evans Addition.

J. T. Parker and Clyde Douglas to Paul B. Schroeter, et ux: All of Lot 38, Hare Addition, a subdivision of Block 14, Welsh Addition.

Marriage Licenses
 Lee Alan Carr and Shirley Jean Caster, Dec. 6.

Mrs. Austin M. Warner of New York City, has resided here in Hereford with his aunt and uncle now for about a year. At home in New York, he has two sisters, Melody Lynn, 8, and Kimberley Elise, 7. He also has a brother, Nathan, 14.

Grain sorghum from this area goes to all parts of the world, but one would not think of it going as far as New York in this form. The "tree" is constructed from grain sorghum heads, and then has had bits of paint and glitter put on it for sparkle. Mrs. Warner, who has an active interest in creative arts, made the first such tree a few years ago, and it is a good representative of this area's agriculture. The tree will be a genuine souvenir to the Warners back in New York of a son's life down here in Texas.

Lawrence has made tentative plans to attend the University of New Mexico upon his graduation from Hereford High School. He plans to minor in language and psychology and will probably major in some math related field such as physics or chemistry.

Bridal Shower Honors Miss Marian Jo Wilson

Miss Marian Jo Wilson, bride-elect of Kenneth Keith Clark, was honored with a shower Saturday afternoon at Hereford Country Club. Miss Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wilson, is a teacher in Odessa.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Marlin Gilliland. In the receiving line with the honoree were her mother and her aunts, Mrs. Harry Faulkner, Mrs. A. A. Bush, and Miss Floyd Wilson, all from Amarillo. Alternating in the receiving line and at the refreshment table were two aunts, Mrs. Ulric Lee, Knox City, and Mrs. C. H. Smith, Big Spring.

Mrs. Hoyt Lewis and Mrs. Si Booser, also aunts of the bride-to-be and both from Amarillo, registered guests.

A white cutwork cloth over pink covered the refreshment table. An arrangement of cranberry red roses and pink carnations in a silver bowl and dusty pink candles in double silver holders accented the table. The chosen colors of the bride-to-be are cranberry and dusty pink. Other appointments were in silver.

Jim Bookout, Mrs. Earl Plank, Mrs. Joe Reinauer, Mrs. Roy Calvert, and Miss Ona Hammer, all of Hereford, Mrs. James Conkwright, Lubbock, Mrs. Robert Jacobson, Adrian, and Mrs. Bedford Forrest, Plainview.

Youths Explain Own Conception Of Citizenship

Editor's Note: Members of the Dawn 4-H Club are writing essays on the subject, "What Citizenship Means to Me", as a 4-H project. Here's the first in the series, written by Mike Engler.

By Mike Engler
In the 1800's as refugees from Austrian politics, Czechs poured into the United States and homesteaded "free land" in America's expanding West. Among these people were my maternal great grandparents. Also, in the 19th Century, after the German revolutionary years my paternal great grandparents came to the land of promise.

These people were looking for religious and political freedom in a democracy. They lived a simple life—human, warm, and personal. There were small communities with town meetings and face to face relationships. When there was a local problem to be solved, the people knew that unless they got busy and solved it for themselves it would not be solved. Families and groups of families worked together. This provided leadership, civic pride and responsibility, all qualities of a good citizen.

With the coming of the Industrial Revolution, community life began to dry up. Sprawling cities grew with no development of true community life. The control which men had once had over their own lives gradually slipped away as giant organizations came into being.

Today millions of Americans no longer have a genuine say in the affairs of their own destiny. We have become a nation of spectators. We have gotten the habit of letting the experts do our thinking for us.

No single factor is more important to the future of America and to the world at large than is the local community. If our communities are strong, America will be strong. If they are weak, American will be weak. The American people must change from indifference to interest.

Therefore, they should observe these "THE HINTS FOR GOOD CITIZENSHIP."

1. Inform Yourself — This is basic. There is a "general level of ignorance" in our United States.
2. Learn To Think Clearly — Have the ability to collect and evaluate evidence and learn to distinguish between propaganda and "impropaganda."
3. Learn To Read A Newspaper — Remember that it is the unusual that makes the news; know the slant of a newspaper.
4. Hold Some Judgements In Reserve — Avoid being too hasty and jumping at conclusions.
5. Express Yourself — It does very little good for us to know unless we can express to others what we know and why. Then we must follow up by VOTING.
6. Do Not Hesitate To Change Your Mind — An ideal citizen should be one "who is not embarrassed when introduced to a new idea."
7. Recognize Self-Interest And Prejudice — A problem in human relations is that of judging all through our own eyes of

Christmas Bazaar Slated Saturday

The Christmas Bazaar Saturday, Dec. 14, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. at St. Thomas Episcopal Church will feature Christmas decorations, needlework, "white elephants," and gift-wrapped candy and cookies.

The women of St. Thomas, sponsors of the bazaar, have spent several months preparing the items to be sold. The Christmas decorations booth will have such things as table decorations, tree ornaments, stockings, candles, net aprons, and Christmas tree skirts.

Aprons, pillows, covered coat hangers, glasses cases, and pajama bags will be among the items available in the needlework booth.

A Christmas castle made of marshmallows and candy will be the door prize. Tickets for the prize may be purchased for 25 cents each.

Also a part of the day's activities is a Mexican dinner. The advance sale of tickets for the dinner was terminated some time ago. The dinner is limited to those who have already purchased the tickets. No more will be sold.

The proceeds from the bazaar will be used for the church building fund. Plans call for an educational wing to be added to the present structure.

self-interest and prejudice. The extent that we rise above this is the measure of our tolerance.

8. Be Tolerant of Opposing Viewpoints — When we do arrive at our own conclusions, we ought to do so with a certain respect for the person whose viewpoint we do not share.

9. Be Reluctant To Question Motives Or To Engage in Personality Attacks — Here is a great need for the use of the Golden Rule. Name calling and character assassination are not Hall-Marks of an ideal citizen.

10. Recognize That Difference of Opinion is Wholesome — In a democracy, we accept majority rule but respect the rights of the minority. We as citizens can lose our precious freedom if we avoid discussing questions of national and international importance just because they are "controversial". Shelving our problems has never yet been known to solve them.

In matters of grave importance we have many violations of the Ten Hints For Good Citizenship. Most important is that we are not adequately informing ourselves. Then we do not thoroughly debate and express ourselves on these matters, and when we do, we're not very tolerant of opposing views and are inclined to question motives and use personality attacks.

If every community in America were to clean up its own local situation and each and every citizen in every small community in America were to assume the responsibility of citizenship, then the major problems in America would become minor — because the government is YOU!

Letters To Santa...

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a Jinny Thumberlina and some clothes that fit her; a doll stroller and a Corning Ware set.
Bring my little brother, Douglas, a Dick Tracy capmobile, a Yac-u-form molding kit and a doctor set.
Thank you,
Morry Mean and Douglas Rel-nart.

Dear Santa:
For Christmas I would like a top that whistles, a pair of walkie-talkies and a siren police car that flashes light.

300 Attend Adrian School Events

By Ann Beavers

Adrian High School was the scene of many happy handshakes, hugs and "Why, hello there Jane or Bill", as ex-students came from California, Fort Worth, and Viet Nam and other far off places to reunite with old friends in the Third Adrian Homecoming, Saturday, Nov. 30.

The day's activities started with a basketball game (if you'll pardon the expression) between the former "Stars" of the odd and even years. The most outstanding thing about the game was that they made it through four full quarters. After the game it was generally agreed by the fearless phantoms of the past that basketball is a game for the younger generation.

Some 300 persons were served a beautiful buffet supper by Jess Fincher. It was a meal everyone will remember for a long time because of the elaborate planning and preparation done by Jess.

Robert Jacobsen presided at the evening meeting as Alton and David Whitten led the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The Alma Mater was led by Mrs. B. A. Syms who wrote the words in 1930.

The main speaker of the evening, J. B. Linn, manager of Radio KDHN, Dimmitt, gave a combination humorous and serious talk which was well suited for the different age groups present. Jess Fincher was elected president of the Homecoming Assn. and Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Cretz elected vice-president and secretary. The next Homecoming will be in November, 1966.

Annual Blue and Gold banquet for Cub Scouts and their guests was given by the women of The First Methodist Church. Present were Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts and Cub Scouts of Adrian, and Scoutmasters and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Skaggs and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jacobson. Speakers included Louis Machuca, Scout Executive for this area, Hereford; The Rev. Dale Sellers, Cubmaster; and Robert Jacobson, Grady Skaggs and James Morgan. Awards were given boys. Sixty persons were present.

The banquet was held in Fellowship hall of the Methodist Church. In charge were Nancy Johnson, Doris Sellers, Mrs. Fred Harwood, Mrs. Johnny Gamble, Mrs. Ed Jacobson, Mrs. Jim Cavin and other women of the church.

Sunday school class of Ed Jacobson's young adults met last Sunday after morning services for a covered-dish dinner. Twenty-five attended.

Last week a week of Prayer service was observed at the Baptist Church when W.M.U. members met each morning for a program. They had charge of services Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson and family, Claude, visited Sunday with the John Whaley family.

Adrian Matadors smothered Bovina 75-33 in a game Tuesday night.

Terry Williams, a senior in Adrian school, spent a week on crutches recently suffering from a sprained ankle.

Miss Vickie Lou Beavers was honored on her sixth birthday with a party in her home given by her parents. Attending were Pam Johnson, Nina Eagle, Dixie Jobe, Cathrine and Cathleen Lewis and Troy Rogers.

The Student Council presented a movie, "Les Miserables," based on the book by Victor Hugo, to the student body Wednesday, Nov. 27. Films of this type will be presented frequently by various groups in the schools.

Junior class has set the date for their annual play. They will present, "The Case of the Missing Heirs" March 12 in the high school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Homfeld and children from Odessa and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Homfeld from Higginville, Mo., visited the C. F. Homfeld family last week.

Mrs. Wayne Hayes and son Tom Houston visited the past two weeks with Mrs. Nina Spinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Maupin and daughter from Santa Rosa, N. M., visited Wednesday afternoon with the Pat Maupin Sr. family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lowell Ladrum of Amarillo are the parents of a girl, born Dec. 2. The maternal grandparents are the Bill Leslies of Adrian.

P. N. Johnson has the big trophy to keep now as he won the 8th go-round last week end in Lubbock. Mrs. P. N. Johnson also won three trophies at Lubbock. With her coon dog "Ole Legs" she got a Coon-in-the-bank, coon-in-the-log, coon-in-the-barrel.

Mrs. Ina Shaffer and children from San Jon, N. M. and Mr. and Mrs. Junior Shaffer and family from Tucumcari, N. M., visited the Alford Jobe family Saturday afternoon.

Alford Jobe and children visited Sunday afternoon in the Lewis Jobe home at Endee.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Price and son from San Diego, Calif., visited last week with his parents, the R. G. Price family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson, Amarillo, visited Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Ruth Ferguson.

The Lewis Jobe family from Endee helped celebrate Melvin Jobe's first birthday, Dec. 4.

Caprock Beef Club held a meeting Wednesday, Nov. 27, at the Dameron Hereford Ranch. Three classes of Herefords were judged by both juniors and seniors.

Those attending were Justin McBride, county agent; L. E. Garrison, Kathy and Kirk Garrison, Dude Speed, Doriss Horton, Steve Foster, and Dwight Hayes all of Adrian and Bill Browning, Lester and Perry Kirkland and Tony Allred of Vega.

The Adrian High cheerleaders have some of the Matadors pennants left for sale at 50 cents each. Just recently the order for the "Matado Players" came in and are available if anyone would like to purchase them. They are $1 each and will be on sale at all of the remaining ball games at home.

Tuesday night, Nov. 19, the Adrian Matadors traveled to Bovina. The Adrian girls lost their game by a slight margin of three points. The final score of the game was 32 to 35. The girls couldn't seem to get started in the first half of the game. They put on a little speed and effort in the second half and almost caught up with the Bovina Mustangs, but never quite made it.

The Adrian Boys were victorious over the Bovina team with a final score of 56 to 44.

Adrian Matadors beat the Lazbuddie Longhorns by one point Tuesday night, Nov. 26, at Lazbuddie. The Adrian girls were 19 points behind the Lazbuddie girls at half time. They made a surprising recovery the last five minutes of the game to win with a score of 46 to 47. All of the traveling squad got to play.

The Adrian boys' team was victorious over the Lazbuddie boys by 23 points. Every boy on the traveling squad played in the game.

Tuesday night Bovina played Adrian here and the game was close all the way with Bovina ahead at half time with a score of 15-16. The final score of the game was 34 to 37 in Adrian's favor.

Hereford High Freshmen Plans To Study For U. S. Citizenship

PLANNING TO SEEK United States citizenship is Esperanza Gallegos, a freshman student at Hereford High. Esperanza or Hope as she is known to students and teachers, has lived all of her life, except for four months in America. When she was just a baby, her parents moved from Monterrey, Mexico, where she was born. (Brand Staff Photo)

By Vicki Inman
Esperanza Gallegos, a freshman student at Hereford High School, has a problem unique for an HHS student: she is not a citizen of the United States. Esperanza, better known to her friends and to her teachers as Hope, the English form of her name, is classified as a freshman student who makes grades averaging from "B's" to "A's". She was Dean Smith County's runner-up in the spelling bee last year.

Esperanza is not an American citizen. She was born in Monterrey, Mexico, in 1948, but has lived in the United States all her life, except for four months. In reference to her lack of U. S. citizenship, Esperanza said that it sometimes bothers her when she talks about it, so she is making plans to become an American citizen.

She has talked her problem over with Mrs. Jewel Smith of the County Welfare Office and is now writing for a book which she will have to study to pass her tests for citizenship. She said that she will know more about it later.

When Esperanza was four months old, her parents tried to enter the United States but did not have a passport. However, in August of 1953, Esperanza's parents obtained their passport and came to Texas. Since that time, Esperanza has lived in Missouri, Ohio, and parts of Texas. She has lived in Hereford for three years and intends to stay here for as long as possible.

Esperanza likes to read and to sew. Her favorite class is English and her favorite teacher is her English teacher, Mr. Denny Richardson. Mr. Richardson commented that he didn't know Hope wasn't a U. S. citizen until it came up in a discussion of a short story that his seventh period English class was reading. "Hope speaks perfect English and is a very good student," he said.

Second Assembly Features The Bud Imig Family

Bud and Patti Imig, with their two children, Brad and Casey, starred in the Southern Assembly program held at the HHS auditorium, Thursday Dec. 5. The program displayed a number of unusual and unique musical instruments. Bud opened with an accordion number "Lidrastron". The accordion number was followed by tunes played on a red wood xylophone, saw bells, skillets, organ cymbals, medicine bottles, steel discs and swiss hand bells. Some of the many tunes played were "The Bells of St. (Continued on Page 3)

Yearbook Honor Position Nominations Made Tuesday

Nominations for Yearbook Honor positions were made in homerooms, Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Hereford High Tri-Hi-Y Holds Formal Initiation

Tri-Hi-Y formal initiation was performed at 6 p.m. Thursday in the Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church.

Presidents Nanette Clearman and Pegene Cox presided over the meeting as 72 new members were initiated into the club. All members marched into the hall as the ceremony began. Dixie Wilson sang "Your Way Mine." Then four members gave talks: followed by "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Mamie Silvertooth. After the reading of a poem by Kathy Boston, all new members lighted their candles. While the candles were lighted, the club recited the candidates' prayer, followed by a prayer by Myrna Botkin. To close the program, the club sang "Blessed Be The Tie" and said the benediction.

Each student made a nomination for each position. The top three went on the ballot and the one who gets the largest number of votes will be elected. There will be no runoff unless there is a tie vote. The election will be in homerooms Thursday, Dec. 12. Winners will be announced in assembly on Friday, Dec. 20.

All nominees must have passed all courses taken last semester and must be passing all courses at the present time. They must be cleared by the faculty and administration for satisfactory citizenship. Nominees for Mr. and Miss Hereford High and for Personality King and Queen must have been students in HHS during the last semester of the last year. All others must have been in HHS since the beginning of the school this year.

Senior homerooms nominated candidates for the following: Mr. and Miss Hereford High; Personality King and Queen; Class Favorites, and most beautiful and most handsome. Junior homerooms nominated candidates for class favorites, Mr. and Miss Hereford High and Personality King and Queen.

Sophomore and freshmen homerooms nominated candidates for class favorites.

Most beautiful and most handsome candidates must be seniors.

Annual Stunt Night Program Slated Saturday

Stunt Night this year at HHS is scheduled for Saturday, at 8. The purpose of Stunt Night is to raise money in order to decrease the cost of the annuals that the students pay. The highlight of the evening will be the coronation of the annual queen. The freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes have been competing for the honor of annual queen. The results are chosen by the number of votes that each of the classes receive. The queen will reign over the festivities of the evening. Tickets went on sale Monday, Dec. 9, and prices are fifty cents for students and one dollar for adults. The classes are competing for the sale of these tickets. Participating in Stunt Night will be the four classes in HHS and also the various clubs and organizations. Master of ceremonies will be Charlie Bell.

A defeat followed by three straight victories gave the Whitefaces a record of five wins and one loss after two weeks of play.

Defeat came at the hands of the Palo Duro Dons on Tuesday last week by a score of 16-58. The Dons led most of the game but the Herd tied up the score late in the game before being snowed under by the red-hot hitting of the Dons late in the last period. Dimmitt fell Thursday night by a score of 79-40 as the White-faces rebounded from the loss. Mike Ferguson led the Whiteface scorers with 20 points. Also in double figures was Bill Hill, with 12, and Robert Strange and Danny Cates, with 12 each.

In the first game of the West Texas Invitational Tournament the Herd rolled over Friona by a margin of 69-55. Four Whitefaces were in double figures in this one. Cates led with 16, Hill had 14, Earl Jackson netted 13, and Ferguson got 11.

Next in line for the Whitefaces were the Canyon Eagles. In the first meeting of the two teams this season the Herd eked out a 46-45 win and this one wasn't much different as the Whitefaces took a 50-48 win. They also took the championship of the tourney.

Two wins and two losses gave the "B" team a 4-2 season mark after two weeks. They beat Palo Duro, lost to Pampa, beat Phillips, and lost to Borger. The last three games were played in the Phillips "B" team tournament.

In their season opener the freshmen lost to Dimmitt "B" team Thursday night but evened their record Friday with a win over Dimmitt freshmen.

Tomorrow night the Whitefaces varsity will travel to Roswell. The two teams will meet at 7:30 tomorrow night and again at 7:30 Saturday night. The team will spend Friday night in Roswell. Both games are at 7:30 Mountain Standard Time.

Whiteface footballers not participating in basketball are still playing football. The boys play touch pass every day from 3-4 p.m. The losing team gets the honor of running bleachers while the winners get a couple of sprints. (For those of you who don't know what bleachers are the term means running up and down the stands at the football field.) Some of the teams are the Chargers and the Sul Ross Cowboys (undoubtedly the team of end Coach Jesse Geron). There are a couple of other motley groups.

Girls P. E. classes have completed a physical fitness test which came under the program of the late President. The test consisted of sit-ups, standing broad jump, shuttle run, chin-ups, softball throw, and 600-yd. run-or-walk. There are eight classes or divisions, according to age, height and weight.

Now the girls P. E. classes are starting a volleyball tournament. The girls practice on Tuesday and Thursday. Games have not been scheduled yet. However, we think the boys may be out to support their favorite team.

Editors' Notes:

By Linda Higgins
And Len Ann Withowski

Since the beginning of the third six weeks, HHS has obtained seven new students. We would like to welcome these students and on behalf of the school and extend a friendly hand if any help is needed. There have been two seniors. One is Gerry French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan E. French of 131 Ave. B. Gerry moved here from Dalhart.

The other senior is Richard Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wade, Richard and his family live in the Danforth Trailer Park. Richard came to us from Borger.

The only junior to move here is from Roswell, N. M. He is Donald Ravizza, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Ravizza of 419 Ave. K.

Four freshmen have moved to Hereford. The first is Sarah Kerr. She is living with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr. She moved here from Wichita Falls.

Susan Sayles moved here from Lubbock. She takes new residence at 408 Ave. I, with her parents Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sayles.

Charles Mickson, from Marfa, Texas, is living with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Finley of 710 Knight.

Marna Goodale came to us all the way from Riverside, Calif. She lives with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Goodale, 236 West 3rd.

This week has been a hectic one for all, but especially the boys. Why? Well, it's been Twirp Week.

Girls you don't have long left, get busy this week-end. Maybe you will be the one to get the prize for the most dates.

Also girls, remember Stunt Night, Saturday night. Plus, we have a basketball tournament in Roswell this week-end. In the first game Hereford plays Santa Fe at 8:30 p.m. on Thursday.

The name of the capital of Honduras, Tegucigalpa, means "silver hill." A large silver mine is operated not far from there.

"Hereford High School students are friendly and they are willing to work. I have taught here for only three weeks and I am looking forward to my last seven weeks of teaching here," commented Miss Hunter, the typing and office practice student teacher at HHS.

Miss Hunter, a senior at West Texas State University, Canyon, is the first student teacher at HHS this year. She is a 1960 graduate of Dimmitt High School.

Miss Hunter started her nine weeks of teaching at Hereford High in November and will finish her required period of teaching, January, 1964. Miss Hunter commented that she did enjoy teaching.

Business education is Miss Hunter's major at West Texas and she is minoring in English. She plans to graduate from West Texas in May, 1964, and has plans to teach the following year.

Business is not Miss Hunter's only interest for she is an accomplished piano, organ and accordion player. She has also been active in I-H Club work in Castro County. One of the many honors she received as a club member was participating in state competition with a safety team demonstration. She placed second in this competition.

Miss Hunter is the daughter of Mrs. Rachel Hunter of the Jumbo Community in Castro County.

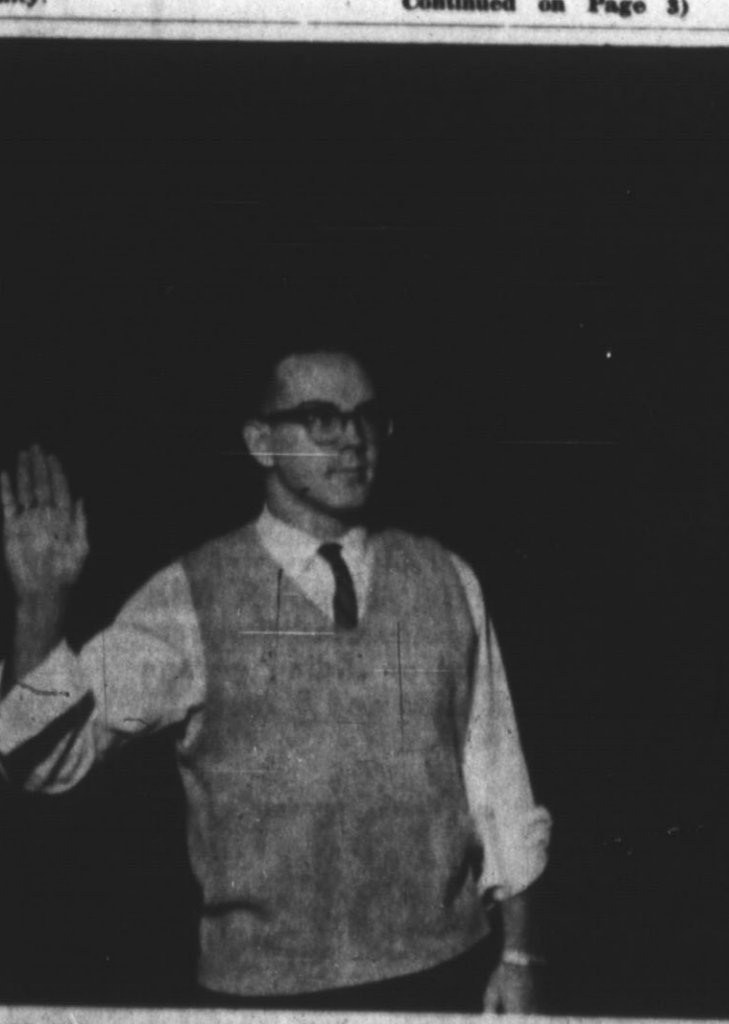

"All say they are not afraid of it, but nobody wants to touch it," said Elizabeth Burns about her purse. The purse is made from an armadillo. It was purchased in Jaros, New Mexico by Gary Smith, a senior at HHS. "It is unusual, but I love to carry it," she added.

The armadillo is an insect-eating mammal, which has an armorlike shell encasing its back. The name armadillo, meaning "little armored thing," was given to the animal by the Spanish. Its original home is in South America, but it is now found in the southern United States. The shell covering of its back is made up of numerous bony plates with horny coverings that are often fused together. Across the middle of the back, there is a hinge between the front and hind sections which permits the animal freedom of action. The armor is protection against flesh-eaters.

Armadillos are a benefit to mankind since they devour large quantities of termites and other injurious insects as well as scorpions.

It looks as if the armadillo has found another use to benefit mankind, or at least Elizabeth thinks so.

Honor Society Initiation Held

New members of the National Honor Society were initiated formally Thursday, Dec. 5. There were 17 new members initiated and 11 members who were put on probation in the spring of last year.

Each member must maintain a B plus average and be approved by the faculty on scholarship ability, leadership ability, service to the school and character.

The National Honor Society can select up to 15 percent of the senior class, 10 percent of the junior class. Each spring it can put 5 percent of the sophomore class on as probationary members.

The student body of HHS and the faculty witnessed the formal initiation. J. Carter, president of the organization, swore in the new members.

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Cub Scout Achievement Unit Includes Making Christmas Candy

By Dale Stevens
 Food Editor
 Cub Scout Den 3, Pack 52, completed a cooking unit last week with a session of candy-making under the direction of den mother, Mrs. Clarence Hicks and assistant den mother, Mrs. Austin Rose. The course included four lessons directed by Marilyn Prickett at Southwestern Public Service Company.

The candy, which was packed in apothecary jars and decorated as gifts for the boys' families, was made from recipes collected by Mrs. Hicks.

During the lessons directed by Mrs. Prickett, the boys learned fundamentals of cooking and discussed table manners in the first session; cooked blueberry muffins, scrambled eggs, and set the table during the second session; cooked a meat dish, frozen mixed vegetables, made potato salad, and ate buffet style during the third lesson and made Christmas cookies during the last session.

Mrs. Prickett, who believes this to be the first Cub Scout group to take the course, termed it very successful. The book used was Reddy's Electric Cooking Course for Juniors. The boys were awarded certificates and "Reddy" badges.

The boys in Den 2 are Randy Cramer, Steve Easley, David Hicks, Gary Hicks, Steve Lyons, Quig Rose, Teddy Seyfert, Jody Treadwell, and Paul Villareal. Den chief is Boy Scout Denny Hicks.

Chocolate Drop Candy
 1 large size package chocolate chips
 1/2 block paraffin
 Melt together in top of double broiler.
 1/4 pound butter or margarine
 1 can sweetened condensed milk
 2 pounds confectioners powdered sugar
 1 small can flake coconut (3 1/2 oz.)
 1 1/2 cups chopped pecans
 Mix well together. Roll into small balls; chill 10 minutes. With teaspoon roll chilled balls into melted chocolate mixture and drop on waxed paper to cool. Green and red balls may be made by using red and green chocolate chips. If unable to find green chips use lemon chips and green food coloring.

Snow Balls
 Melt in double boiler one large size package chocolate chips (12 oz.) Add 1/3 cup evaporated milk. Remove from heat. Add 1/2 cup sifted confectioners powdered sugar, 1/3 cup chopped maraschino cherries, and 1/3 cup chopped pecans. Drop by teaspoon into 2 cans flake coconut (7 oz. size). Roll into small balls; drop on waxed paper and chill 15 minutes.

Cream Dream Dot Fudge
 1 large bar Dot Chocolate or 1 large (12 oz.) package chocolate chips.
 1/4 cup marshmallow creme
 2/3 cup nuts
 1/2 cup evaporated milk
 1 t. vanilla
 1/4 cup margarine
 Break chocolate squares in half. Add marshmallow creme, vanilla, margarine, and nuts. Set aside. Combine evaporated milk and sugar in saucepan and bring to a boil over low heat, stirring occasionally. Continue boiling without stirring until a small amount forms a soft ball in cold water or 232 degrees. Pour at once over chocolate mixture and stir until chocolate melts and mixture blends. Pour into greased 8 x 8 inch pan. Cool and cut into squares.

Christmas Strawberries
 1 pound coconut ground fine
 1/4 pound ground almonds
 1 can (15 oz.) sweetened condensed milk
 1 1/2 packages strawberry gelatin
 Red food coloring.
 1 t. sugar
 1/2 t. vanilla
 Mix all ingredients except 1/4 package gelatin and form into berries. Roll in remaining gelatin (may need more). With a toothpick or similar object, apply green confectioners powdered sugar frosting on stem and to form leaves. Chill in refrigerator. These freeze nicely. They are very colorful and eye-catching for tea trays and parties.

Virginia Sea Foam
 3 cups brown sugar
 1 cup water
 1 t. vinegar
 2 egg whites
 1 t. vanilla
 1 cup chopped nutmeats
 Green and blue food coloring
 Combine sugar, water, and vinegar. Cook, stirring only until sugar is dissolved, until a little dropped into cold water forms a soft ball, 238-240 degrees. Pour slowly over stiffly beaten egg whites, beating while pouring. Continue beating until mixture becomes creamy. Add vanilla and nutmeats and beat again until mixture will hold its shape. Add a few drops of coloring if the effect of sea waves is desired. Drop from tip of spoon onto waxed paper or turn into greased pan and cut into squares when cold. Candy in pan may be "waved" with spoon while still workable.

Bear-Track Cookies
 2 1/3 cups sifted flour
 2 t. baking powder
 1 t. salt
 1 cup corn-oil margarine
 2/3 cup sugar
 1/2 cup fortified, chocolate-flavored syrup
 2 eggs
 1 t. vanilla
 1/4 cup milk
 Peanut halves
 Sift flour, baking powder, and salt together. Cream margarine and sugar in mixing bowl until light and fluffy. Blend in syrup, then add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir in vanilla, then mix in dry ingredients alternately with milk. Chill in refrigerator for 1 hour. Drop heaping teaspoonfuls of batter onto greased cookie sheet, and insert four peanut halves about half way into the largest side of each to resemble claws.

 Bake in a 357 degree F. (moderate) oven until the edges of the cookies are set and centers spring back when touched lightly, 10 to 12 minutes. Makes about 3 dozen.

By Argen Draper
The office is buzzing this week with the agents compiling the annual report on this year's work. When we survey the report there are solid grounds for deep satisfaction as the accomplishments are many.

The people in this area have made this a successful year for Extension in this county. Our annual report is due Saturday, and the staff will be pretty close to the office all week.

Here are two releases that will be of interest to you.

Deck the Halls
As Christmas time rolls around, many homemakers and their youngsters will be trying their hand at wreath-making. This custom, that actually predates the Christmas era by many centuries, often leads women out in the yard in search of greens. Pruning shears in hand, they are ready to snip off whatever they need from the shrubs around the house.

It's true. Sufficient evergreens may be obtained by careful and judicious pruning. But Harold Mosher, landscape architect in the Massachusetts Extension Service, offers a word of warning.

Remove only as much greenery as will improve the shape or vigor of the plant, Mosher says. Keep that uppermost in your mind—not that still-to-be-made Christmas wreath.

Many of the cone-bearing evergreens cannot develop new shoots or branches from old wood. Cut back pines, spruces and firs to the live side branches only.

Yews, and junipers, on the other hand, can stand rather severe pruning. Still, care should be taken not to make holes in the plants. It's best to remove branch tips. In fact, this often will cause the branches to grow better and produce a denser plant.

Arbovitae, red cedar and Arizona Cypress also will tolerate shearing. Again, be careful not to make holes.

And, you can successfully prune broad-leaved evergreens—holies, boxwoods, and laurel. All of these make rather rapid growth to replace any branches you may take off.

side and playing football. It may be a little cool in those P. E. shorts but no one has died of pneumonia yet. P. E. teacher Jiggs Hudson should have a little mercy, though.

Basketball is getting a little crowded these days with the three teams in the same gym. There seems to be a little shortage of balls with the freshmen as each Varsity and "B" team player gets a ball for shooting practice and the freshmen have to take what's left over and that isn't very many.

Mary", "Melody of Love," "It is no Secret", and Jingle Bells". The assembly was closed with the playing of "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You" on the Swiss bells by Mr. and Mrs. Imig.

Mr. Imig has traveled with dramatic and musical companies and performed on many television and radio variety programs. He has discovered how everyone can enjoy music without the high expense of musical instruments and yet retain his interests, originality, and individuality.

Lard Good in Many Ways
Lard, one of the oldest shortening agents, is also one of the best, says Frank A. Orts, meats specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Lard has the greatest shortening power of any plastic fat, he says. In addition it is workable over a wide range of temperatures, and the tenderest and flakiest pastry can be made using lard, according to Orts.

The specialist points out that lard adds flavor and richness to foods, whether used for shortening or for frying. He also says ing the colder months. It will absorb moisture if exposed to a damp atmosphere.

PEANUT CHEWS
1/2 cup honey
1/4 cup maple sirup
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup roasted peanuts
Four honey and maple sirup into pan and cook until the temperature reaches 252 degree F. (the hard ball stage). Remove from heat, add soda and cream of tartar. Mix thoroughly. Add nuts and mix until they are coated.

Pour into buttered pan. When cold, cut into squares. A discouraging thing has just happened: a call for a calorie chart, and just before Christmas!

Carver To Drill At Sunday Game

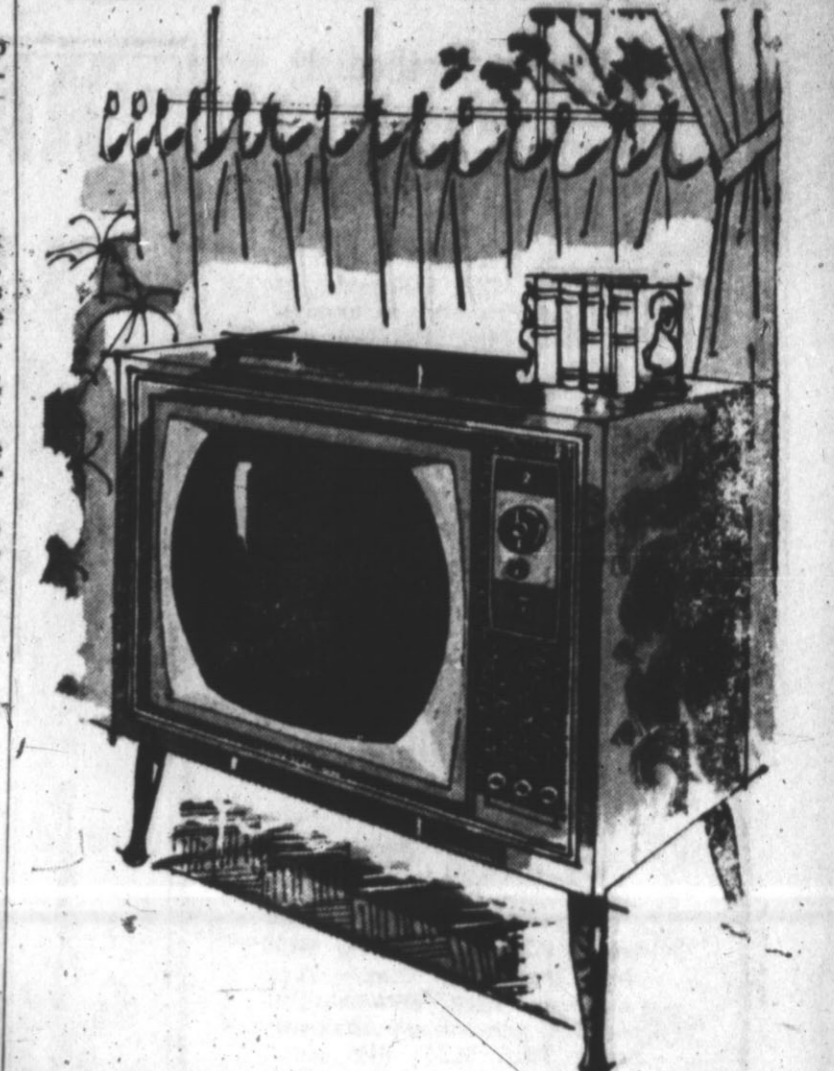

Randy Carver, a student at Missouri Military Academy, will appear with the school's drill team between halves of the Dallas Cowboy-St. Louis Cardinal game Sunday, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carver of Hereford, have been informed.

The drill team, known as "The Fusileers" are highly rated for their performances.

Randy is a senior and has been attending Missouri Military Academy for the past three years.

Christmas Mail May Set Record, Postmaster Says

Postmaster Nolan Grady said Wednesday, "This certainly looks like a record-breaking year for Christmas mail. Between December 1 and the 25 last year, we handled a record number of pieces of mail. So far this year, we have already received and sent several thousand Christmas cards, letters and packages, and the heaviest rush is still to come."

The postmaster says the present flow of Christmas cards is running about the same as last year, but the mailing of Christmas gifts is lagging somewhat. He suggests that all gift parcels to most distant points be sent by Air Mail from now on.

Speaking about Christmas gift packages, the postmaster said, "I cannot emphasize too strongly the vital need for packing and wrapping your Christmas gifts securely. Pack all your gifts in sturdy cartons, wrap them with heavy paper, and tie them securely with strong cord. It is sometimes hard to understand why people will be so careless about putting valuable Christmas gifts into the mails in flimsy boxes and loosely wrapped packages. Many of these poorly wrapped gifts simply cannot stand the necessary handling, and thus cause much delay and disappointment all around."

The postmaster further suggests that it is best to print the recipient's full name, street address, city, zone or ZIP Code number and state on all mailing labels, making sure to include an extra label inside your gift packages.

If you'll send all your Christmas cards by first class mail, using the new five-cent Christmas Tree stamps, and include your name and address on the envelopes, you'll help your friends to keep their mailing lists up-to-date. Further, you are assured that any cards that cannot be delivered will be returned to you for corrected addresses.

If you wish to enclose your Christmas card or letter in your gift package, merely add the appropriate letter postage to the postage for the package itself and indicate the presence of a letter or Christmas card inside the package.

The postmaster expressed his thanks for the fine public cooperation to date and said, "If you'll just follow these simple requirements, it's sure to be a much merrier Christmas for everybody."

Don't mail money in Christmas gifts or parcels. Use Postal Money Orders or checks. Insure your gift parcels. Register letters or real value.

Parcels containing delicate gifts must be marked "fragile", and food stuffs should be marked "Perishable" if they are subject to spoilage.

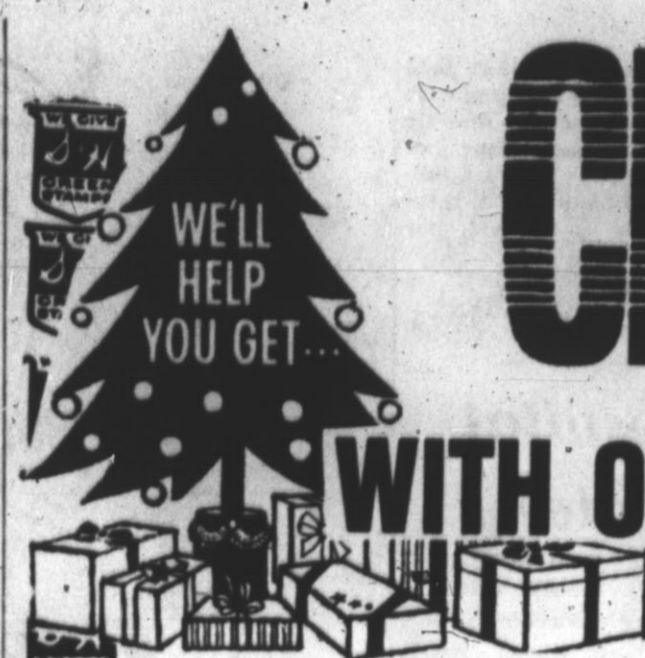

Be sure your Christmas card and gift mailing lists are up-to-date.

Wrap your Christmas gifts securely.

Address your cards and gifts legibly and correctly.

Use complete addresses - including street number, rural route or post office box number. Be sure that the name of the street is complete with avenue, parkway, or drive. Avoid abbreviation of street and state names. Use ZIP Code numbers, wherever possible, and be sure to include your own ZIP Code number in your return address.

And most important of all, mail your cards and gifts now!

Congress Will Not Speed Passage Of Kennedy Bills

It is customary for a President of the United States, charged by the Constitution to "from time to time... recommend" to the Congress, "such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient" to assign priorities to the legislative program proposed by his Administration.

President John F. Kennedy placed top priorities on the tax bill and civil rights legislation. It was to be expected that President Lyndon Johnson, who had worked closely with the late President in formulating the Administration recommendations, would restate those priorities when he addressed the joint session of Congress last week.

But this does not mean that Congress, in the wave of reaction to President Kennedy's traditional processes and rush to enactment those measures the late President so strongly advocated. By now it is clear that his will not happen. Congress will not do this for the very sound reason that it can't without abrogating the foundation strength of our legislative process.

Congress brings together 435 members of the House of Representatives and 100 Senators who, coming from every section of America, represent a diversity of views about what should be done in the exercise of legislative power granted by the Constitution. Reaching a consensus in such large bodies as the House and Senate is never easy. It is a most difficult process when legislation of sweeping impact—like the tax bill and civil rights bill—is laid before Congress for its deliberation and decision.

Basically, the Congressional process requires that reasonable men find a way to reconcile their differences and decide upon a common course of action. In committee study and floor debates in the two Houses, the elected representatives of the people hammer out legislation that, if approved by a majority, is thus determined under our system of government to be acceptable to a majority of our citizens.

But under our system, the majority is not permitted to have its way until the minority has had its right to express its position. This system, traditionally so well respected in the House and Senate, permits those who dissent from a legislative proposal to exercise every last measure of their parliamentary right to be heard and to advocate another course.

In the wake of President Johnson's address to the joint session, editorial writers who understand and respect less well than the President the methods and means of Congressional action renewed their attacks on Congress for alleged "foot dragging." One editorial complained that Congress is "one of the most lethargic legislative establishments in the history of democratic government." Congress needs no defense from me or from any American who respects the responsibility imposed on Congress to deliberate fully before acting. Congress should be judged by the quality of its acts—not the quantity of them.

There is often more significant not enact as in what it does pass into law, and I would assure everyone that it is often more difficult to keep bad bills from becoming law than it is to pass good ones.

However, for those who are more interested in the quantity than the quality of Congressional action, I cite these statistics: Since Jan. 9, when the first session of the 88th Nov. 30, 10,938 legislative measures were introduced in the House and 2,779 in the Senate; 858 bills were reported by House committees and 731 by committees of the Senate; and 189 public and 10 private bills enacted into law.

Criticisms arise because national attention falls on a few measures such as the tax bill, the civil rights bill, and appropriations bills. The tax bill merited the extended study it received in the House Ways and Means Committee, which amended it measurably before sending it to the full House for thorough debate before it was passed. It is receiving the same careful deliberation in the Senate.

The civil rights bill was highly controversial when it was being considered by the House Judiciary Committee; it is highly controversial in the Rules Committee where it is now pending; it will be bitterly controversial when it is debated by the full House.

Appropriations bills have required lengthy consideration because of the efforts of many to effect substantial cuts. None of measures will clear the Congress because of emotional pressures. They will be handled in the regular and orderly manner, as they should be. If this is "foot-dragging," let those who would criticize it make the most of it.

Unlike the 2,000,000 men and women who man the agencies and departments of the government's Executive Branch, 100 Senators (and the 7,000 or so men and women of their personal and committee staffs) are directly accountable to the people of the United States through the elective process. I would urge Ameri-cases to remember that only one form of government brings quick action directly applied as a result of any problem laid before it—a totalitarian dictatorship. I'll take, and I know you would, our system.
