Fall Rituals Held By Beta Sigma Phi

Beta Sigma Phi's Autumn Rituals were held in formal observance with both Hereford chapters participating Tuesday evening, Nov. 3, in Community Center.

Xi Epsilon Alpha, No. X1728, Exemplar Chapter; and Texas Kappa Iota, No. 3347, is the Jewels chapter.

Hostesses for the event were members of the city council of Beta Sigma Phi: Mrs. John Gilliland, president, Mrs. C. D. Fitzgerald Jr., Mrs. Harold Beauchamp, Mrs. Dean Hacker, Mrs. Hicks Roberson, and Mrs. Jack Bailey.

Presiding at receiving pledges into Beta Sigma Phi, and at the Ritual of Jewels for Kappa Iota, was Mrs. Fitzgerald Jr., chapter president. Pledges participating in the ceremony included Mrs. Randy Ammons, Mrs. Lewis Block, Mrs. Carl Carlile, Miss Pat Colwell (Dimmitt), Mrs. Bobby Duncan, Mrs. Jerry Fowler, Mrs. Melvin Fowler, Mrs. Dave Heck, Mrs. Gary Kelley, Mrs. Ronnie Osborn, and Mrs. Mike Wilson.

Having completed their training as pledges, Mrs. Wendell Maloney and Mrs. Houston Frye received the Rituals of Jewels of Kappa Iota.

Ending their four years' study in Kappa Iota Jewels Chapter, Mrs. Gene Cope, Mrs. Claude Miller, and Mrs. Cletus Carlis were received into Xi Epsilon Alpha Exemplar Chapter in a ceremony with Mrs. Max Stipe, chapter vice-president, officiating.

In the Ritual of the Order of Rose, Mrs. Eddie Johnson, Mrs. Charles Laing, and Mrs. Ernest Wade were recognized for 15 years of service in Beta Sigma Phi. Mrs. Harold Bestuchamp, president of Xi Epsilon Alpha Chapter, officiated at this ritual, assisted by Exemplar members, Mrs. Carl Hollingsworth and Mrs. Don Baugous; and Kappa Iota members, Mrs. Houston Frye, Mrs. Pat Parker, Mrs. Pat Ferguson, Mrs. Jack Straw, Mrs. Arliss Edwards, Mrs. Fitzgerald Jr., chapter president, and Mrs. Dean Hacker.

Receiving this honorary degree of the Order of the Rose indicated that Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Laing and Mrs. Wade had become "notable for their fidelity to the ideals of Beta Sigma Phi, for industry, for loyal devotion to the organization throughout the whole period of membership."

Each of these so honored received a yellow rose corsage, special flower symbol of the organization. Hostesses presided at the serving table laid with white satin cloth and centered with arrangement of yellow roses (organization flower) in silver bowl and eight candles. Appointments were in silver.

Farewell Coffee For Mrs. Heavin Given Saturday

Honoring Mrs. M. L. Heavin, Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon entertained at a farewell coffee Saturday morning, Nov. 7, in her country home.

The Heavins, formerly of the Simms Community, are moving soon to a farm near Texhoma, Okla.

Young Farmers To Be Holiday Guests of Young Homemakers

Young Farmers will be guests of Hereford Chapter of Young Homemakers of Texas at their Thanksgiving buffet dinner Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Community Center.

Plans for this event were made at meeting of the club executive committee Wednesday afternoon in the home economics lab, with Mrs. Howard Hunter, president, presiding.

Committees appointed included Mrs. James Dobbs and Mrs. Tommy Sparkman for menu; Mrs. Raymond Gerk, and Mrs. Layton Sawyer for decorations; and Mrs. C. Andrews for table.

Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. David Brumley will be in charge of general arrangements. At their late October meeting, the club heard a report of the area officers' workshop held at Hale Center. More than 50 members attended that session with its special emphasis on "Our Homes" and "The Importance of Good Leadership." Special classes of instruction were held for those in each club office.

Special announcements were made at that club meeting here as to the success of the pecan sale (with proceeds going to purchase of appliances for the home economics laboratory); and also as to the naming of a new associate advisor for the club, Mrs. Joe Bradley, new home economics teacher in high school.

The club also voted to participate in the "Worry Clinic" of Nov. 14 with Mrs. Clark Andrews as chairman of the committee representing the participating clubs with Young Homemakers — Homemakers Club and P-TO units from Central, Shirley, and Northwest schools.

After the Thanksgiving dinner, the next meeting of the club will be Dec. 15, 3 p.m., at King's Manor to decorate the rooms out there for the Christmas holidays. Hostess for that day will be Mrs. Bob Hicks.

Small thin Scandinavian pancakes offered for dessert are usually served with lingonberries but if these berries aren't available you may substitute whole cranberry sauce.

Split pea soup is delicious made with a ham bone; but sometimes to ring a change, use bone-in pork shoulder instead of the ham bone. When the soup has finished cooking, remove the pork and strain the soup, slice the meat from the bone and return to the soup.

When you are serving popcorn freshly made mix it with melted butter and grated Parmesan cheese. This makes a delicious "munch" when offered with tomato juice.

A nationwide harvest of 141.2 million bushels of apples is expected for 1964 by the Agriculture Department. This is 13 percent greater than the 1963 crop.

The tradition of Thanksgiving being celebrated on a Thursday began in 1789. At that time, George Washington wrote a presidential proclamation recommending that Thursday, Nov. 26, be recognized as a day of national Thanksgiving.

FRIO NEWS

Williams Joins U.S. Coast Guard

By Mrs. Owen Andrews

Lee Roy Williams has joined the U.S. Coast Guard and expects to leave Monday for Fort Worth. From there he expects to go by jet to Alameda, Calif. to begin training.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams, Lee Roy's parents, took him to Dallas and Fort Worth for physical and other tests. They were away Wednesday through Friday and also visited Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Layton, Fort Worth, long-time friends.

Frio Home Makers Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Frank Robbins. Mrs. David Hutchins brought the program — a demonstration on "Candy Making". She had several kinds of candy made for sampling and for the program made Divinity and English Toffee. She spoke on the art and gave tips as to various causes of failure and how to avoid and to remedy mistakes.

Present for the meeting were Mrs. T. L. Sparkman, Mrs. H. M. Mobley, Mrs. Richard Price, Mrs. Earl Harkins, Mrs. James Dobbs, Mrs. Joe Autry, Mrs. Chestley Johnston, Mrs. Charles Self, Mrs. Marvin Welty, Mrs. Annie Springer, Mrs. J. D. Stringer, Mrs. Homer West, and Mrs. Owen Andrews.

The next meeting will be a Thanksgiving supper for the community and will be on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24, at the Community Center in Hereford. Those attending will bring basket supper and come about 7 o'clock.

The Rev. Richard Cheatum and Bobby Straight, both from Wayland College, concluded a weekend at Frio Baptist Church revival Sunday evening. The minister and singer ate supper with the Glenn Williams, Friday night and had Saturday lunch with the Floyd Coles.

Saturday evening they had supper with the Homer Wests. Both nights were spent with the Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Fine and family. Basket lunch was brought to the church, Sunday, and most folk stayed to eat together and for singing in the afternoon.

Several from this community attended the open house at Stanton Junior High, Hereford, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Andrews and sons visited her father, Bradley Burrus, and grandmother, Mrs. Meyers, at the home of an aunt, Mrs. George Albers, and Mr. Albers, Sunday. Also they visited other relatives and friends, all in the Canyon area.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Andrews and Elizabeth were supper guests of the James Dobbs Thursday night.

Mrs. Joe Ed Andrews was honored at a birthday supper at the Charles Frye home Thursday night. Others present for the occasion were Joe Andrews and Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Houston Frye and Milton and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frye. Card games and visiting provided entertainment for the evening.

Arnold Frye, Deavenport, Iowa, was also present for the supper. Mr. Frye has visited relatives here this week and also visited his brother, Carl Frye, who is now a patient at Deaf Smith County hospital.

Mrs. H. M. Mobley and Mrs. Jack Roberson visited the J. B. Hartlins in Hereford Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Price visited his father, O. E. Price, and other members of the family, at Andrews, during the week-end.

Harlen Barber went Friday with a group of men from Hereford on a deer hunting trip to a ranch near Pie Town, N.M. They expect to be away about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Taylor are parents of a son, whom they have named Tod Brent. He was born Sunday, Nov. 8 at North-

Most cooks like to trim the excess fat from the outside of beef short ribs before braising.

It's time to think of cookies for the Thanksgiving holiday! A favorite spice-flavored drop cookie may be used; add chopped candied fruit, raisins or currants and nuts.

Negro Charged With Burglary

Ladelle Stewart, 20, negro male, 305 Myrtle, was arraigned before Justice of Peace C. B. Miles Friday morning on a charge of burglary with bond being set at $2500.

Stewart was arrested by officers of the Hereford Police Department and charged with burglarizing a neighboring residence Thursday.

Officers arrested Stewart Thursday evening and charged him with the burglary.

Stewart entered the plea of not guilty before Justice Miles and bond was set early Friday.

Stewart is currently being held in Deaf Smith County Jail in lieu of the $2500 bond.

According to arresting officers, a guitar valued at more than $150 and other articles were taken from the house.

Vandals Strike Near Stadium

Several acts of vandalism occurred near Whiteface Stadium Friday evening as the Hereford-Tulia game was in progress, with two car windshields being shattered and considerable damage being done to a house at 349 Stadium Drive being constructed by Frank Ford Jr.

Vandals broke into the new house, now under construction, and kicked out wall panels, tore scattered nails over the structure and poured milk over the walls and floors in the house.

Jerry Tisdale, Hereford, and James Schultz, 131 Beach, reported to the Hereford Police Department that the windshields in their automobiles had been shattered during the game.

Both of the vehicles were registered in Hereford.

According to police, all of the incidents were reported Saturday morning and police are currently investigating.

BIG PILE UP — This beet truck and the highway patrol car immediately behind the truck were nearly involved in a serious collision Friday evening four miles west of Harrison Highway when vehicles driven by Sylvester Fangman and Hilda Estrada collided head on. Fangman's car struck the Highway patrol unit. See story on page 1. (Brand Staff Photo)

B&PW Members Attend Perryton Dist. IX Meet

District IX Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs met in 36th annual conference in Perryton Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. In attendance were 238 members from the Panhandle District. Representing the local B&PW Club were Ruby Lee Hickman, president; Kathleen Baker, vice-president; and Ursalee Jacobsen, chairman of finance committee. They presented a skit on finance written by Mrs. Jacobsen, and they were assisted in the production by the Canadian Club members. Mrs. Baker served on the resolutions committee. Mrs. Ruth Graham, Director of District IX, was presiding officer. Among state officers in attendance were Modell Seruggs, state president; Bonnie Merriman, third vice-president; and Hope Conroe, immediate past president and state chairman on personal development. Three other district directors also attended.

It was noted that presidents from all clubs in the district were present, in addition to good representation from the membership of each. A full report of the conference was given at an early November meeting of the Hereford club. Detailed qualifications of those recommended for nominations to state and national offices were presented. Club members were urged to continue personal study of special legislative problems on the status of women, with emphasis on legislation still needed on both national and state levels. Basic information with recommendations for further source study had been set forth for the club in an October meeting with Sophie Snare's and Bea Barrett's presentation of the legislative program, showing legal discriminations against women and laws needed to set them aside. All club members were reminded to put Nov. 16 on their calendars for club meeting presenting District Director Graham.

Hostess's gift was won by Mrs. Vida Jacobsen. Mrs. Schroeder served the desserts prepared for the program with coffee and hot tea to Mrs. Grimes, a visitor, and to Mrs. Jewel Awtry, Mrs. Artie Frost, Mrs. Blanche Hardin, Mrs. Ida Mae Vaughn, Miss Mary Bradley, Mrs. Jacobsen, Mrs. Myrtle Witherspoon, Mrs. Moseley, and Mrs. Hattie Duncan. At the next club meeting, Nov. 24, Argen Draper will present a program on Skirt Treatment. Members were reminded of the tea honoring Jean Beene and the McBrides Sunday, Nov. 15, 3 to 5 p.m.

Members present were Mrs. John Beasley, Mrs. Jim Carnahan, Mrs. Easley, Mrs. Hilton Higgins, Mrs. Dennis Lomas, Mrs. Walter, London Jr., Mrs. Jim McDowell, Mrs. Bob Viegel, Mrs. David Gibson, Mrs. Alex Schroeter, Mrs. Desayne Walker and the hostesses, Mrs. James Higgins and Mrs. Marsh.

Cranberries were first used by the Pilgrims in Massachusetts and even today the berries are grown only in North America. Since 1949, the Communist government of China has made some 2,000 changes of place names. Tea, which today is a popular drink, at one time is believed to have been used primarily as a medicine.

Walcott Annual Holiday Supper Set For Friday

Annual Thanksgiving supper at Walcott School will be served Friday at 7:30 p.m. Walcott School P-TO has planned a fine menu and full evening for this fund-raising event. The menu will include turkey, dressing and trimmings, vegetable, salad, dessert, hot rolls, coffee or tea. The public is invited. Prices are: $1 for adults, 75 cents for high school students, and 50 cents for grade school pupils. Mrs. Bruce Coleman is chairman of arrangements.

Holiday Desserts Center Program For West HD

Mrs. Carl Schroeder was both hostess and demonstrator-lecturer for West Hereford Demonstration Club when they met Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 10. Presenting a program on holiday desserts, Mrs. Schroeder demonstrated the making of Fruit Pudding Pie. She showed and gave recipes for Coconut Cherry Bar Cookies and Pecan Cranberry Dessert, made by Mrs. Alice Swigert Cox. To each member, Mrs. Schroeder gave a copy of recipes for the desserts. The club president, Mrs. E. B. Moseley, opened the meeting with the reading of a poem showing the merging of autumn and winter. Club members answered roll call with holiday desserts that have few calories. With Mrs. E. B. Moseley presiding, committee reports were given and plans made for the Thanksgiving supper for all club members and their families at Community Center Monday evening, Nov. 30. Hostess's gift was won by Mrs. Vida Jacobsen. Mrs. Schroeder served the desserts prepared for the program with coffee and hot tea to Mrs. Grimes, a visitor, and to Mrs. Jewel Awtry, Mrs. Artie Frost, Mrs. Blanche Hardin, Mrs. Ida Mae Vaughn, Miss Mary Bradley, Mrs. Jacobsen, Mrs. Myrtle Witherspoon, Mrs. Moseley, and Mrs. Hattie Duncan. At the next club meeting, Nov. 24, Argen Draper will present a program on Skirt Treatment. Members were reminded of the tea honoring Jean Beene and the McBrides Sunday, Nov. 15, 3 to 5 p.m.

Family Sports For Fun

THE SKATERS — Roller skating for family fun, usually on Saturdays, are Mrs. C. F. Newsom and her children, (shown from left) Robert (10, in fifth grade), Nancy (9, in third grade), and Janice (13, in eighth grade). Ready for skating for both enjoyment and exercise are Mrs. Chrile Stone (white blouse), 407 Ave. J, and Mrs. Johnnie Honey, 200 Grand Ave.

FAMILY FUN IN HEREFORD often carries all members of the family into participation in one or more sports, depending on the seasons and kind of weather — especially of the blue-sky variety. A survey would show many more family sports than those on this page listed on the roster of families joining in fun together. It might be a good idea for each family to take personal survey and decide on sports they can share for fun, exercise, and civic growth. Many families have long since learned to work together; fun in sports could become a good family habit too.

them on a circle tour for Mexican dinner. Together they enjoy tennis, swimming — plenty of enthusiasm, skill, and competition — and badminton. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. J. W. Robinson often team up for a tennis game, a sport the Robinsons enjoy as a family, including their son Jay.

BOWLERS — Mr. and Mrs. Charlie W. Owens and son David (11, sixth grade in Northwest) are a real family of bowlers, always playing on family night in open bowling. Mrs. Owens bowls in one league, and Owens bowls two or three other times a week. Shown on the shelves at left and above them are some of the trophies won by Mr. and Mrs. Owens, as a team and as individual bowlers at different times — for high average and high series, among other competitions. David hopes to give sterner competition to the family heads in due time. Owens and David join an older son, Richard (17, high school senior, not shown here) in hunting, while Mrs. Owens keeps the home fires burning.

GOLFERS — Joining in golfing, favorite family sport, are the Frank M. Cogdells, 915 E. Park Ave., and their son Chuck (11, in fifth grade at Shirley School). This is a sure fair weather family sport, but they join in bowling, hunting in season, and chess — for indoors game in bad weather, that is, for Cogdell and Chuck. On the links they are one among some dozen families that are golfing enthusiasts.

Shower Honors Recent Bride, Mrs. Willoughby

Mrs. John Willoughby, the former Miss Carol Jean Skypala, was named honoree at a miscellaneous shower in Community Room of First National Bank Building Friday evening, Nov. 6.

Hostesses sharing in house party duties were Mrs. Ansel McDowell, Mrs. P. L. Carmichael, Mrs. Ira Ott, Mrs. Norman Gray, Mrs. Gerald Banner, Mrs. Sylvester Fangman, Mrs. Grant Hanna, Mrs. John Warren, Mrs. Mark Koenig, Mrs. Rudy Metz, Mrs. L. J. Dirks, Mrs. E. D. Harper, and Mrs. Fred Muller.

Also Mrs. Buck Hale, Mrs. T. E. Clark, Mrs. O. A. Smith, Mrs. Bartley Dowell, Mrs. Merlin Kaul, and Mrs. Bill Cavanaugh.

Guests were presented to the bride, her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Skypala, and Mrs. Irving Willoughby, the groom's mother. (The bride's mother, Mrs. Elwood Skypala, was hospitalized and unable to attend this courtesy for her daughter.) Each one in the receiving line was favored by the hostesses with a corsage of bronze mums.

For the occasion the bride's chosen colors of mint green and gold were used in decoration of the rooms. The serving table was laid in ecru lace cloth with centerpiece of bronze and gold mums in white milk glass vase. Other appointments were in milk glass. Dainty pastel yellow lace napkins complemented the table decorations.

Punch and mint green sherbert with assorted party tea cookies were served by Mrs. Bill Stevens, aunt of the bride, and Miss Doris Willoughby, Lubbock.

bock, sister of the groom. Registering the more than 100 guests who called and sent gifts were Miss Lynda Rickman and Miss Kay Kirks. Special gift to the bride from the hosesses was a pole lamp (early American design) with five hand-painted china globes. The Willoughby-Skypala wedding was an event of Oct. 17 in St. Anthony's Church.

Mrs. Wayne Stovall Honored At Pre-Nuptial Showers

Receiving guests were the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. H. L. Higgins, and Mrs. C. L. Stovall, Summerfield, mother of the then prospective groom. Each had been favored with corsages of white chrysanthemums.

Accenting the bride's chosen colors, the serving table carried an arrangement of royal blue and white roses and white candles. Appointments were in crystal.

Miss McKee and Miss King presided at the refreshment table, and Miss Boardman was at the guest register.

Individual gifts were presented by the hostesses to the honoree.

Miss Sharon Ann Sumner and Charles Dennis Hodges were married Saturday evening, Nov. 7, in First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Russell A. Wingert performing the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Arthur Sumner, 816 Brevard St., and the groom is the son of Mr.

and Mrs. Walter N. Hodges Jr. For the wedding the church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and candelabra with white tapers. Mrs. B. Y. Croftswait, organist, played traditional wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street-length dress of white, long tapered sleeves and scalloped neckline lifted to throat in front and sloping to low back "V". Her bouffant veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a wedding bouquet of white carnations and orchid atop a white Bible.

Serving her sister as honor attendant was Mrs. Donald W.

George, Plainview. She wore a street-length dress of orchid satin with matching hat, and she carried a bouquet of white mums.

Jerry Hodges, Canyon, brother of the groom, was best man. Serving as ushers were Austin Hodges, Lubbock, brother of the groom, and Don Warwick.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sumner chose an aqua silk dress and matching hat. Mrs. Hodges wore a powder blue wool dress with matching hat and shoes. Their corsages were white chrysanthemums.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. Jerry Hodges, Canyon, sister-in-law of the groom. At the bride's table laid in pastel lavender with overlay of white net, the three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Melvin W. Sumner, aunt of the bride. Presiding at the punch bowl was

Mrs. Perry Ray, sister of the groom.

When the couple left on their honeymoon, the bride was wearing a red wool suit with pink collar and black accessories and the corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet. After a short trip the young couple will be at home at 118-B Fuller Street.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Hereford High School and has been attending Amarillo College of Hair Dressing.

A graduate of Hereford High School, the groom attended West Texas State University and is now employed at Holly Sugar Corp.

Out-of-city wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hodges, Canyon; Austin Hodges, Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. George, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Houck, grandparents of the bride, Delta, Kans.; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams, Panhandle; Mrs. Gary Cummings and Mark and Miss Gayle Steele, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Walk Boston, Dimmitt; and Miss Lanell Hoskins, Guymon.

THE SUNDAY BRAND

Editorials

Page Four The Sunday Brand, Hereford, Texas, Sunday, Nov. 15, 1964

All In All, Our Kids Are A Pretty Fair Lot

Too often it has been our habit to point accusing fingers at modern day youngsters under the broad category of juvenile delinquency. Seldom do we take the time to investigate total existing conditions, and we practically never give full credit on the scores of incidents on the other side of the ledger.

For instance, we read with interest an article in The Brand this week which reported adoption of a Korean refugee by members of the Hereford High School Hi-Y club. In substance, the local youngsters are feeding, clothing and sending the 11-year-old Korean orphan to school — and they have been pursuing the project since March, 1963.

Frankly, we wonder how adults, who incidentally have the same opportunity, can sit back and denounce all American youth when deeds of this type are brought to their attention.

We do have some youngsters who are more inclined toward lawlessness, drinking and theft, but the point is that we should not judge all youngsters by those few who stray into this line of endeavor. We find the same situation among adults. Most of them living clean lives, work hard, pay their taxes and contribute materially to the community and nation in which they reside. But, like the teenagers, you will find exceptions among the adults — and quite a few of them will be found wanting in the final analysis.

In fact, if we delve into the realms of national debt, death by traffic and general morals, there seems little question but that this particular generation is leaving the United States of America in much worse condition than it was when they inherited the country some 25 to 30 years ago. Some people even go so far as to point out that should the oncoming generation bungle so much as has the present one, there is a possibility that our nation of free people may well crumble.

To say the least, oncoming generations will face tremendous problems and, probably their most important single inheritance in meeting this challenge will be that of expanded education. Never before has a generation of American boys and girls been so exposed to grade school, high school and university education. Upon this foundation, let us hope that they can cope with and conquer the tangle of affairs which must be faced.

Meanwhile, the least we can do is judge our young people on a basis of general conduct and accomplishment, rather than on single or remote incidents over which most of them have no control at all. Our country is pretty well what the people make it, and it seems to us that the youth of Deaf Smith County, the Panhandle and all of Texas, is comprised of boys and girls upon whom we can reflect with pride.

Down To Business

Most encouraging is the State Department's announcement that this country will delay making its fund pledges to the United Nations technical assistance program until it sees what the general assembly of the international body does about communist debts.

Russia and its satellites have arrogantly defied Article 19 of the U.N. charter. This provides that any country which falls more than two years behind in its dues shall lose its vote in the general assembly. The Reds have flouted this rule in their attempt to cripple U.N. peacekeeping forces in the Middle East and the Congo by refusing to pay their assessments. Since Jan. 1, they have been liable to loss of their votes.

However, Russia has attempted to force the new nations into ratifying its violation by refusal to punish it under Article 19. Using the usual Red tactics of bluff and bluster, the Soviet delegation has threatened to walk out of the U.N. if the assembly tries to make it obey the rules. And with the Reds' usual circular logic, the Soviet Union has said the U.S. will be responsible for wrecking the U.N. if this country insists on the enforcement of Article 19.

This type of crude extortion would get short shrift in most forums, but in the U.N., Russia's bully-boy tactics have succeeded in cowing many of the new nations. Their reaction to Khrushchev's shoe-pounding exhibition demonstrated that these nations, which now hold the balance of voting power, have different standards for the communist world and the free world.

Now the United States has made it clear that this country's patience with its timid colleagues is not unlimited. The State Department has indicated that Uncle Sam does not intend to remain the patsy forever. The Russian bluff, it appears, will be called.

The State Department said, "The United Nations is now facing some important issues which bear directly on the future development of the organization and its programs. Most crucial, of course, is the problem of maintaining the United Nations' constitutional and fiscal integrity. . . . The United States naturally prefers to make its decisions about next year's programs after these constitutional issues are resolved."

The implications for the showdown on Article 19 are plain. Delegates to the upcoming general assembly may have assumed that old soft-hearted Sam intends to continue ponying up the cash to the U.N. If Red deadbeats are allowed to ignore their debts. That is no longer a safe assumption.

The U. S. apparently means business and millions of weary taxpayers will agree that it's about time. There is a point at which soft-heartedness becomes soft-headedness. If the trembling neutrals go past that point with Russia, let them make the trip without us and, above all, let them buy their own ticket.

A special British budget called for sharply boosted social security benefits and increases in both income taxes and fees assessed against workers to help pay for the benefits. Exchequer Chancellor Callaghan submitted the proposals to Parliament less than a month after the Labor Party came to power. He said the regular budget next April would include capital gains taxes for the first time, along with revised corporate taxes.

TEXAN IN WASHINGTON

Tom Clark, U. S. Justice Still Has Common Touch

By Tex Easley
WASHINGTON, (AP) — Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark, a Dallas lawyer before coming to Washington, belies an old belief that once on the bench of the high tribunal a man tends to lose the common touch.

The handsome, graying, 65-year-old Texan, appointed to the life-time position in 1949 by President Harry S. Truman, is aware that some of the decisions in which he has joined have drawn bitter criticism.

It was he, who wrote the majority opinion in the school prayer case, and he participated in the unanimous 1954 vote in which the court next that segregation in schools is unconstitutional.

During an interview in his beautiful, oak-paneled chambers in the Supreme Court building across the street from the Capitol, he was asked what he thought of some recent tirades against the court and the billboard signs still to be seen in the South calling for the impeachment of Chief Justice Earl Warren.

"We welcome criticism," he replied.

"It's in keeping with the tradition of the democratic system. While we'd like for it to be constructive, it's their right. It gets a bit discouraging sometimes. Sometimes remarks are made that hit below the belt.

"But, I rather think that with most of the people, the image of the court now is better than it has ever been.

"Of course, it's a difference of opinion that brings a case to us, and when we reach a decision, you have to expect that it will make some people unhappy. That's always been the case. Thomas Jefferson, unhappy with an opinion handed down by John Marshall, told the chief justice to go enforce the law himself. And Teddy Roosevelt once told Oliver Wendell Holmes he never would let him in the White House. That was after a securities case decision."

Justice Clark, who ranks only behind Justices Hugo L. Black and William O. Douglas in seniority, was asked how he as a native Texan viewed the racial integration problem, how it looked down the long road ahead.

"I think we have made considerable progress since I was a boy. In fact, remarkable progress during the past 20 years," he replied.

"We've called for deliberate speed. In some cases it seems to have been a bit too deliberate. But in the South as a whole, there has been great progress. There will always be some discrimination, even by some Negroes among themselves. Our children will certainly see further changes for the better. I am very hopeful."

He voiced the opinion that the trials and tribulations of social adjustments in the South can be eased through enlightened leadership in communities and states. In Texas the changes have been taking place with relative calm, he said, and attributed this in no small part to the leadership of Lyndon B. Johnson, his fellow Texan and personal friend.

Panhandle Paragraphs

While most of us are worrying about the current presidential race and the problems facing the newly-elected President Johnson, we got one citizen still worrying over the country's first president. According to M. O. Woolam, George Washington was not the father of the country nor the first president. A guy by the name of John Hanson on Nov. 5, 1781, was elected by the Continental Congress as "President of the United States in Congress Assembled. Hanson held the office for one year and resigned because of feeble health.

—Donley County Leader (Clarendon)

The serious problem facing our country today is the possibility of our much wanted and flaunted two-party system coming to an untimely end. The success of our democratic government has been based on a two political party system. This, we are told, is essential to the survival of our nation. As of today, if we are to believe the analysts, the Republican party is in eminent danger of regrouping under the direction of two different leaders or groups of leaders; this would be disastrous to our political system.

We have this to say: At a time when the communist countries of the world are changing leadership, they have depicted their defeatist attitude and their lack of faith and continually searching for another way to impress the other nations of the world, we are just proud that the American people expressed faith in their leadership! The American people are still showing the nations of the world they can speak.

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his hindwood farm reviews the recent campaign in his letter this week.

Dear editor:

A lot of the experts on politics, after rubbing out what they may have said before the election, have now been analyzing the voting results and have asked the puzzling question: why do Presidential candidates campaign so hard and so long when it's impossible to tell what effect it has, other than to wear the men down physically?

To back this up, they point out that at the start of the campaign the public opinion polls showed Johnson with about 62 percent of the vote, Goldwater with about 38, give or take a few points for the undecided voter. Now, they say, look at the results. The percentages on the actual voting were about the same, 62 for Johnson, 38 for Goldwater, so what was the campaigning all about? Why spend 25 million dollars rushing around the country when the thing was decided before they started out?

These experts don't understand politics. Both candidates have to campaign to keep things in balance and the two-party system going. If you want to upset the apple cart, let one man campaign and the other stay at home. This would throw the public opinion polls completely off, for a reason the experts don't understand.

The way I figure it is, if a man has a certain percentage of the votes at the start of the campaign, he's bound to lose 10 or 15 percent by getting out and campaigning. For every hand he shakes, he misses four or five. He's late for a rally, the local chairman is mad and all the high school band members are hungry. And so it goes, and by the time you've covered 35 or 40 states, you leave a lot of toes stepped on. If he campaigns and his opponent doesn't, you see what this does to the polls. Throws them off completely.

Both men have to campaign, so the losses will offset each other. It is a courtesy which is fundamental to politics, and has to continue.

Campaigning is something like farming. When you wind up a year and look back and figure up your profit, you find you would have been about even if you'd stayed out of the field altogether, but that would have been unagricultural. Same thing with politics.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

Letter To The Editor

I think it is a disgrace for anyone to run our government and President down the way Young does with his cartoons.

I don't blame a person for supporting his party; but when he loses he shouldn't keep throwing slurs at our President and government. We have the best government in the world and he should appreciate it instead of criticizing every move that is made.

I am proud of our country, myself.

Sincerely,
Mrs. N.E. Tyle

and is helping Texas and the whole South go through this adjustment," he added.

Clark said he maintains his legal residence at the Dallas home of a married daughter, Mrs. Tom Gronlund. He said he sent in his absentee ballot two weeks before the Nov. 3 election, and in response to a question, said he voted for Johnson.

Discussing his affection for the South, he pointed out that both his parents were natives of Mississippi. Then he told of an incident which occurred two years ago when he was invited to Oxford to speak to students at the University of Mississippi.

When he got off a plane at Memphis, Tenn., he said, he was met by two FBI agents who said they had reports that he had received threats against his life if he went to Oxford. He said he told them that the reports were untrue and declined their offer to accompany him to Oxford for protection.

"I have never had a more friendly reception than that accorded me at Oxford," he added. "I thoroughly enjoyed the two days I stayed there."

Justice Clark and his wife, the former Mary Ramsey, were married 40 years ago. They live in one of the older, but charming, apartment houses on Connecticut Avenue in Northwest Washington.

Known as one of the hardest working members of the court and as one of its most prolific writers of opinions — and considered more or less a moderate between the more liberal and conservative of the court members, Clark regularly takes home stacks of briefs to review. On the night before the election, he was up until 1:30 a.m. poring over legal documents.

Besides the daughter living in Dallas, the Clarks have a son, Ramsey, who is an assistant U.S. attorney general.

Born Sept. 23, 1899, Justice Clark attended Virginia Military Institute before going to the University of Texas, where he obtained a law degree in 1922. He is a member of the Presbyterian church, a Mason, and an active leader in the national councils of the Boy Scouts and other youth movements. Golf is his hobby. He belongs to Burning Tree Country Club,

Music, Common Denominator, Sparks Mrs. Snowden's Talk

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Below is the full text of the First District T.F.M.C. convention luncheon address of Mrs. Earl W. Snowden, president of Texas Federation of Music Clubs.)

Music started long before men had any way of keeping records of the things that happened. Men had music before they knew how to read or write. Their first musical instruments were their clapping hands and stomping feet. The human voice, too, was a very important musical instrument.

Music always had rhythm. It always had a regular beat. People marched to a beat. They sang to a beat because it sounded better that way and made sense. The sound meant something to them because the human body itself is a rhythmic thing. The pulse of the heart-beat is the rhythm of the body.

Rhythm was something people could understand, and music became important to people because it was the one way they could talk to one another.

When people know their feelings are the same, they trust each other. Music helps people share their feelings and trust each other. Music is a universal language—one which people of all countries and all times can understand.

What would we do without the music of nature—sound and movement of wind, brooks, streams, rain; the rhythm of the sounds of living things—singing of birds, crowing of roosters, barking of dogs—these have rhythmic beat of sounds—different from noise. Noise is unplanned movement and sound without a regular beat but it is music—thunder, automobile brakes, a ball bounced on a sidewalk, taxi horns, train whistles, street cars, etc.

Do you know the seven classes of employed musicians in the order of number employed—teachers; performers, singers, conductors; makers of musical instruments; critics; composers and arrangers; managers or sellers, called impresarios; publishers? We assist and aid each one of these by being a part or member of a national organization (of music).

It has been said that without vision the people perish. Music especially is a part of our business of living. Therefore we need to resolve not only to keep ourselves attuned to the music of our time, but also keep in harmony with the great music of the past. Were it not for music, literature, and art, there might be little of the desire which impels us to better living and deeper appreciation of the beautiful.

It could be that our present idiom in music will sooner or later give way to new and still greater means of expression, which may relate to the new knowledge we are acquiring science.

When we are truly thankful, we usually find ourselves doing or saying something to express our appreciation. When this is not too difficult, we continue it day after day. When we really know what we are talking about, telling others about the activities we enjoy becomes a fine experience.

Whether the need to instruct a new member, orient a new club officer, or restore enthusiasm to a member with experience.

since, you will become the "expert" in Federation work when you have put to use the know-how built into certain educational helps. Through the 1938, the National Federation of Music Clubs has grown into America's and the world's largest musical organization with a membership of some 900,000 in 5,500 clubs in all states and abroad.

Dedicated to finding and fostering young musical talent the Federation conducts annual junior festivals with more than 25,000 participants, offers biennial Young Artist Auditions and annual Student Auditions, Young Composers, Adult and Junior Composition contests and grants, awards, and scholarships. The Federation is continually championing American music with awards and commissions and with the annual February Parade of American Music when governors of many states proclaim February as American Music Month, as do many other organizations.

An American composer is honored in each issue of the "Music Clubs Magazine"—the official publication of the Federation, published five times a year. Also "Junior Keynotes" is issued five times annually. Other Federation interests include: Sponsorship of National Music Week, the first full week of May each year; Crusade for Strings with awards of merit given for furtherance of this objective; support of legislation on bills affecting the welfare of musicians and the development of American musical life; campaigns for higher standards in church, radio, and television music;

Also presentation of a $1000 award annually to the individual or organization giving the greatest number of performances of American works overseas and strengthening music's role in international understanding; official representation in the United Nations—the only non-government musical organization so accredited—sponsorship of annual "Hands across the Seas" broadcast in observance of United Nations Day; providing music activities and therapy in hospitals.

I know that in the past and currently speaking First District is one of the finest in the Texas Federation of Music Clubs. I would like to think that some day in the near future we could be known as THE DISTRICT.

I do not mean to infer that districts are competing against each other. However, competition in its purest form is good for everyone. If your club observes another in this district accomplishing a project you think quite outside your realm of possibility, review and perhaps on a smaller scale or by a different approach you could do as well. Do not set your goals beyond your reach. Make them practical, attainable but also worth while and stimulating.

This will take initiative and work. The ultimate results will be consistent progress, an outstanding district record and, in turn, the State and the National. No one individual can do this; so together, let us become THE DISTRICT of the T. F. M. C. If the future of music rests in our hands, we must be true to our responsibility by displaying courage and imagination, wisdom and resourcefulness. What we have already accomplished should be merely the inspiration for further and more ambitious achievements. Let this year be one of unprecedented growth and influence for our Texas Federation and try by sharing your knowledge with others.

Let each of us make our organization not only one of cultural import, but a living force for the uplift and inspiration of every community, the nation, and the universe. We are instruments of power through music, which, when wielded fearlessly by us will make life more beautiful and more abundant.

The musical lights in this country are burning brighter than ever and will continue to do so. Admission that they can be made to burn still more brilliantly is not an indication of failure to recognize their present brightness.

After all, to be the musical capital of the world carries with it not only a blessing but an obligation; and as we go about in our work, remember that in doing it, we should carry a smile, which is a curved line that straightens out a lot of things.

Mrs. Leo Witkowski was program chairman.

Mrs. Beene emphasized the total picture to be achieved from landscape planning. She pointed out that dark-colored houses present greater problems than lighter-colored dwellings. She cautioned that window sills and roof-lines should top plantings underneath windows and by wall and she suggested that corner plantings go well with ranch style houses of today.

Accenting the Thanksgiving season, Mrs. Will S. Kerr opened the meeting by reading Ben Franklin's Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1789.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Beene, guest speaker; and Mrs. Tom Carter, Mrs. Ray Cowser, Mrs. V. O. Hennen, Mrs. Will S. Kerr, Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill, Mrs. Ansel McDowell, Mrs. Homer Newton, Mrs. Charlie Noland, Mrs. Jess Robinson.

Also Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Garland Solomon, Mrs. E. W. Young, Mrs. J. L. Woodford.

Mrs. Bob Pinkin, Mrs. T. E. Seigler, Mrs. Leo Witkowski, and the hostess, Mrs. Brumley.

Hard Work Days Here, Suzanne Writes Home

(Editor's Note: Suzanne Langley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Langley, Hereford, has settled down to the routine of school work in Austria. This is another in the series of letters from her.)

VIENNA, Oct. 7.

There's so much to see and do around here that we don't have time to think about being uncomfortable, so don't worry about me!

The "little" things like paper are so much more expensive over here. Only certain things like food and entertainment are cheaper. Clothes, cosmetics, books, etc. are more expensive.

Well, we learned a lot about Vienna and Austria in our lectures and tours last week. We saw several museums — historical and art. We learned how to meet the Austrians, where we should and shouldn't go, things we should and shouldn't do, many of the important Austrian customs, etc. Then we also had some excellent lectures on Vienna's musical heritage, the theatre, politics, etc. It has all been very interesting and informative.

This is the longest vacation I've ever had. Of course we've been studying German all along, but classes just began this week, and many of them didn't even begin this week. Two of mine don't begin until next week. Mother, you were right — I'll really have to study.

My courses have changed a little. I decided since I'll probably minor in History, that History of Russia would do me much more good than History of Music. If I can work it, I may audit it anyway. Their y-stem of registering for courses, for auditing, etc., is somewhat different from what I'm accustomed to. I'll tell you more about this and courses later, but for now, this is what I'm taking: 6 hours of German (required for everyone), 3 hours of History of Europe between the two World Wars, 3 hours of German and Austrian Literature, 3 hours of Russian History, 2 hours of Phonetic German, and 3 hours of International Relations, for a total of 20 hours.

I may just audit the International Relations, as there is a 15-minute conflict with another class, but I will at least audit it, which means going to all lectures and staying up with the reading as much as possible, and it will go on my transcript either way.

I know this isn't, exactly like I'd planned, but I'm going by what they tell us is best. I'll definitely keep the International Law book, but I don't know about the music books yet — I hope I can sell them for a good price! We ended up having 14 readings required for the Literature course. Many of these books I want to buy as I would have like to have them, if it's OK. Most are paperbacks. — Enough of school!!

I told you in my last letter that I saw Indonesian President Sukarno. He was walking along downtown, window-shopping with his guards and a small crowd of people following him. I just stood and watched him a while.

Also I got a glimpse of Queen Sirikit of Thailand the other day. She and King Bhumibol were here — I guess maybe traveling after going to the wedding at Athens. I read that they were here.

Then, I had a very exciting weekend! Saturday I spent all day in the Vienna Woods! It was just beautiful! The woods are in some mountains and the view from up on the look-out places is tremendous. You can see Vienna from up there and it is really big! Also, the leaves are beginning to turn gold and orange and are just beautiful — the trees are so tall and thick. We just walked around — a group of us went up — then I went and just sat down for a while by myself.

Then a whole big group of us met at six down at the bottom of the mountain at a little village called Grinzing. This is close to where they make wine, so it's famous for it. We had a big chicken dinner and then went to a little wine keller. We really had fun! The people in these all sing German songs and they always have some men playing the accordion or guitar. Everyone is so happy and gay and we had fun trying to sing along to all the German songs. We've learned quite a few of them — a lot of them are on my record.

Always in my letters when I say we, I presume you know I mean a group of the IES kids. I've made some good friends in this group and I like most of them real well. We all always have lots of fun together and it's hardly ever exactly the same group — just whoever happens to be going to the same place. Of course, there always more girls than boys because of the ratio, so no one ever really "pairs" up. We just have fun.

The real problem is getting away from these kids (many of us feel this). Our main purpose in coming over here was not to be with each other, although it's good to share and compare things. But we always talk English and go in too big groups.

I'm trying to get off by myself more and when I do, I meet fascinating people! Sunday after Church I went to a little restaurant by our house to eat, and sat with a family from Ljubljana, Yugoslavia — a girl 20, her mother, grandmother and aunt. We had a very interesting conversation and they want me to come see them! They were so interested in America! The grandmother had lived in Vienna 50 years ago and this was her first visit back to the city. Thus I could see for myself an example of how Vienna and Austria have such strong ties to many of the countries surrounding it.

How important language is! The girl could speak English very well — she is majoring in it and minoring in French — and could also speak German.

This letter is getting so long, but I just don't know where to stop.

Sunday night I went with Ingrid Suchomel — she got me tickets and came to get me — to my first Opera! We saw "Der Rosenkavalier." It was a fabulous production! I loved it! I was amazed at the similarities it had to an American musical. And Ingrid so carefully explained everything to me. How lucky could I get? (I just really do like her — she's a very nice and intelligent and interesting girl. We talk in both German and English — she likes to practice, too.) The Opera House itself is very beautiful, too, and huge! And every available seat and standing room is full every night. It's absolutely amazing — this is only the Staatsoper, too. It is the main one, but there is another one.

I went to Church in an Episcopal one this Sunday, because I knew how to get there. I'm going to spend an afternoon one of these days to find the Methodist Churches. There are three, but all pretty far out in the city. Anyway, since Sunday was

Miss Witkowski's Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Witkowski, 215 North Texas Ave., announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Rita Sue Witkowski, to Joe Frank Huckert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huckert, Summerfield.

A 1961 graduate of Nazareth High School, the future bride is attending Texas Technological College, Lubbock, where she is a January candidate for a B.S. Degree in home economics. On campus she is a member of the Newman Club, and the Home Economics Club; and she has served on the Horn Hall advisory council.

The wedding will be solemnized Jan. 23, 1965, in Saint Anthony's Church with the Rev. Angelus Delahunt officiating.

Worldwide Communion Sunday. I sure wanted to be in a Methodist Church, but I was taking Communion in spirit with all of you anyway, although it was rather different in this Episcopal Church.

Also, I met Saturday (when I was walking back from the wood by myself) two of the sweetest elderly ladies. I just love them! And they live way out and said it was very pretty by their house, too, and that I could come see them and practice my German, as they don't speak English. So, maybe I've found someone to talk to! They were going to the International Garden Show this morning, but because of classes I couldn't go with them.

Huckert is a 1961 graduate of Hereford High School and is now a student at West Texas State University, Canyon, majoring in agriculture-business. He is a member of the Newman Club there.

Well, I must close. I just can't write a letter of the kind for you to type and send around. If you want to combine some parts of each that everyone is interested in, you can, but I'll just have to write everyone whatever I have time for — which won't be much. You'll have to tell them details, I guess.

Yelling Fans Pose Problem For Football

By Harold V. Ratliff
Associated Press Sports Writer

On the last play of the Arkansas-Texas A&M football game, an official threw his flag. But there was no penalty and the game ended with the Aggies on the Arkansas one-yard line.

Nobody checked with the officials on why the flag was thrown and why there wasn't another play as a result of the penalty call.

Some said the officials must not have taken action on the violation because the Aggie stands had emptied and the Cadets had flooded the field as they always do at the end of a game.

The implication was that there already had been enough trouble and the officials thought it best not to prolong it.

Which, however, was quite incorrect. The official had signaled a violation all right but it was against the offense—it was offensive pass interference.

The rules say that if a violation by the offense occurs on the last play of the game, the thing ends right there. No additional play can be given. It's the same at the half. At the end of the first and third quarters the violation is carried over into the next period.

In the case in point those who didn't know the rule said the Aggies were deprived of a certain touchdown, because if they had been given another play they undoubtedly would have scored.

It would have meant nothing more, however, than saving their feelings—they would have lost anyway. The score was 17-0 at the time, in favor of Arkansas. And chances are that the Aggies wouldn't have scored since they would have been penalized 15 yards for the pass interference even if the rules had allowed an additional play.

Which also brings an examination of the rules to determine what can be done toward preventing a recurrence of the events of that night.

The officials had to stop the

FLASH GORDON by MAC RABOY

THAT'S IT...! WE'RE IN ORBIT!

KILL THE ENGINES!

WE'RE READY TO GO ON WITH THE WORK, DR. ZARKOV!

FAR BEYOND THE ATMOSPHERE OF EARTH, A STRANGE SPACESHIP COMES TO A STOP... THEN A THIN METAL WIRE TONGUE BEGINS TO UNREEL INTO SPACE...

THE HAIR-LIKE BAND CIRCLES OUT AND AROUND BACK TO THE SHIP AGAIN TO FORM A RING! AND AS IT CONTINUES TO BE SPUN OUT, THE RING SLOWLY EXPANDS!

THE RING IS IN PLACE, DR. ZARKOV!

GOD! WE'LL RUN THE WEATHER TESTS AS SOON AS FLASH ARRIVES! I'LL BE ON THE BRIDGE IF YOU NEED ME!

IMAGINE! NO MORE RAIN ON SUNDAYS!

CONFINE YOUR TALK TO THE WORK WE'RE DOING! THIS IS A VERY SERIOUS PROJECT! WE'LL RUN A POWER TEST!

WHAT?! YOU CAN'T TURN THE POWER ON TILL THE TEST IS READY!

ARE YOU QUESTIONING MY ORDERS? WHO'S BOSS HERE?

THERE SHE IS, DALE! THE RING IS OUT!

THIS IS GOING TO BE EXCITING, FLASH!

NEXT WEEK - SUNBURN!

LITTLE IODINE by JIMMY HATLO

WE'VE GOT TO WRITE A COMPOSITION ON WHAT WE WANT TO BE WHEN WE GROW UP...

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT... I'LL HELP YOU!

NOW YOU CAN PUT DOWN... AND WHEN I'M A NURSE I CAN TAKE CARE OF IMPORTANT MEN LIKE...

YES... GO ON...

THEN SAY... MOST GREAT MEN PLAYED FOOTBALL... I WANT TO BE AS GOOD AS...

I'VE READ ALL YOUR COMPOSITIONS... EACH OF YOU WROTE ON A DIFFERENT SUBJECT, BUT BY AN ODD COINCIDENCE, THERE IS A MENTION OF ONE NAME IN EVERY PAPER...

NO MATTER WHAT THE TOPIC IS... SOMEWHERE THERE IS A FLATTERING REFERENCE TO ONE J.P. BIGDOME...

BUT I THINK I'VE SOLVED THE MYSTERY... SO I'LL ASK IODINE TREMBLECHIN TO READ HER COMPOSITION TO THE CLASS...

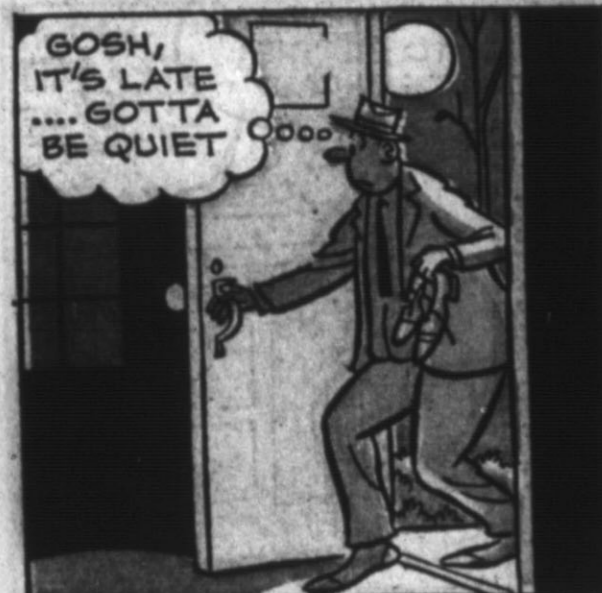

UH-YEAH... I WANT TO BE A PRESS AGENT LIKE MY FATHER... A PRESS AGENT GETS PAID FOR GETTING HIS CLIENTS NAME MENTIONED EVERYWHERE...

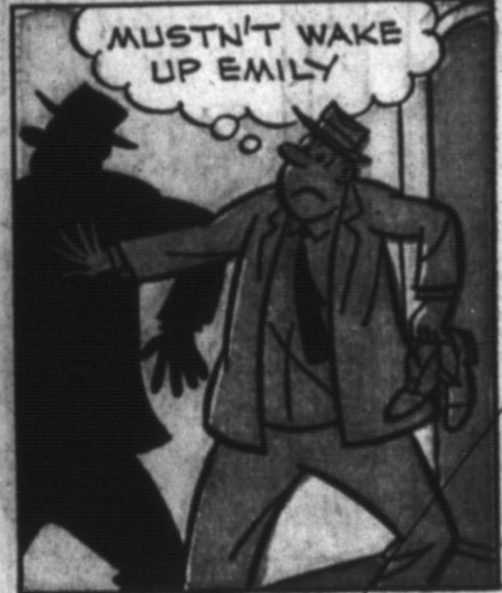

YOU CAN TELL YOUR CLIENT YOU GOT HIS NAME IN PRINT ONE HUNDRED TIMES!
