Civil Air Patrol, which has been meeting in the Central Church of Christ for some time, will move back to Northwest Elementary School for its Monday night meeting, Dr. Milton Adams, commander, said Saturday. Formal inspection by Group 1 personnel from Amarillo will be the main feature of the program.

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will hold a special board meeting Wednesday morning at 6:30 in Chamber headquarters, Chamber Manager Bill Thompson said Saturday. The board will make recommendations regarding the housing committee report of "Operation PEP", headed by John W. Pitman. The committee made its recommendations some time ago to the chamber, and the board will make its recommendations at the Wednesday morning session.

B & J Irrigation Supply, Inc., has moved from its old location on North 25-58th Ave. to a new location on U. S. 60 just east of the city limits. "The new building is just about completed and we'll be moved in the next few days," said Dan Johnson.

Hereford Aviation enthusiasts were informed Saturday that the Thunderbirds, U. S. Air Force demonstration team, will appear at Reese Air Base Nov. 7. The base is planning open house.

Army Sgt. Timothy J. Leatherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Leatherman, Route 1, Hereford, has been assigned to the 1st Armored Division at Fort Hood. The 25-year-old sergeant is a squad leader in Headquarters company.

Rites Are Set For Long-Time Area Resident

Services for Mrs. Nettie Price Slaton, 89, Deaf Smith County pioneer and civic worker, will be held Monday at 2:30 p.m. in Gilliland's Rose Chapel with the Rev. Herschel L. Thurston officiating.

After a lengthy illness, Mrs. Slaton died in Deaf Smith County Hospital Thursday, only six days before the 90th anniversary of her birth, Oct. 28, 1874, in Missouri.

As the former Miss Hattie Louemma (Nettie) Adams, she was married to Dr. W. A. Price May 13, 1894, and they came to Hereford in 1904 from Millam County. In their home they provided hospital service for the area until the Carl House (later Savoy Hotel) at Lee and Second Streets was secured with its 21 rooms for the first county hospital. She served on the board of directors and worked for the building of the new county hospital in 1904, two years after Dr. Price's death. She became the first administrator of the hospital.

In 1925 she was married to Judge J. P. Slaton, who preceded her death in Dec., 1947. For many years she has made her home at 601 South 25 Mile Ave.

A homemaker and member of the First Methodist Church, her church and civic interests included a wide field, including her church work with WSCS, Hereford Music Study Club, Bay View Study Club, and Hereford Garden Club.

She was a charter member of the music club organized in 1936, served as its president 1938-39, and was an active member until about five years ago when she became an Honorary Member of the club. She was a charter member of the music club's Past President's Club and maintained continuous membership in it. A 54-year member of Bay View Study Club, she maintained active club work until becoming an honorary member in 1956.

Farmers Paid $40.2 Million In '63

New Territory Clause To Aid Refinery Here

Sale Of Crops Yielded Major Farm Income

Deaf Smith County proved once again in 1963 the dependence placed on crops in the county; farmers were paid more than $40.2-million in proceeds from their crops, farm subsidy payments, soil bank and Agriculture Conservation Program receipts.

Faust Collier, ASCS director, released figures Saturday on the 1963 harvest, showing farmers with more money than ever before for their crops.

Total income in 1963 for Deaf Smith County farmers amounted to $40,234,973.56.

Vegetable crop production for the 1963 harvest was not immediately available and these figures were not included in the acreage, production and yield results for the county.

Other farm commodities such as cattle, hogs, eggs, and wool are included in the total figures, but not broken down as such. These farm commodities accounted for $10,699,528.74 of the total income of the 1963 county yield. Cattle was the highest producer with $7,960,000 of the amount.

None of these commodities received government support payments other than wool producers, who received $1,632.86 in Deaf Smith County in 1963.

In the figures released by Collier, each cash crop grown in the county was broken down as acreage planted, yield per acre, price paid, amount the farmer was paid for crop, government payments and total income the farmer received for his efforts in 1963.

Farmers were paid a total of $34,937,323.74 at market prices for their crops in 1963. They received a total of $5,696,448.82 in government payments for 1963.

The payments by the government included diverted land payments, soil bank, subsidy programs, agriculture conservation program and other government aids used by farmers in Deaf Smith County.

Grain sorghum was the item on the list of crop for 1963, with more than 134,000 acres being planted in grain sorghum in 1963. The average yield was 70 cwt. per acre with the county producing 9,381,330 cwt. in the 1963 harvest.

Farmers were paid $1.74 cwt. on an average during the season. Farmers receipts on their Deaf Smith County grain sorghum a-

Politics Warms Up; 133 Vote Absentee

Politics and election fever warmed up considerably in Deaf Smith County this past week as zero hour neared.

With only eight days remaining in which to campaign, candidates were making their second, third and even fourth rounds through this area late in the week, seeking to persuade voters to cast their ballots for them Nov. 3.

A further indication of the intense interest in election 1964 was the fact that a record number of absentee votes was cast during the first nine days of the absentee voting period.

B. F. Cain said late Friday 133 ballots had been cast or had been mailed out from his office to people who cannot be present on election day or are not able to leave their homes.

He said the number will "easily reach 200" by the end of the week. Absentee voting period ends next Friday, and Cain expects his office to be flooded with written requests for ballots when the office opens again tomorrow. He explained that persons who cannot come to the office to cast their ballots must write for ballots.

He said they will be mailed promptly, but must be back in his office by closing time Friday, the end of the absentee voting period. "Persons who intend to vote absentee and who are not able to come to my office had better get in their requests as soon as possible," he warned.

Meanwhile, all election machinery had been set up and officials expect to see as many as 4000 - possibly 4500 ballots - cast in the Nov. 3 election. Although only one county race will have both a Republican and a Democratic office seeker, interest in state and national races is keen.

Voting places appeared in a recent issue of The Brand, and they will be repeated in next Sunday's Brand.

400 Doorbell Ringers To Ask CROP Money

More than 400 teen-agers are expected to turn out here Halloween night to collect donations to CROP, predict the program's officials. More than 300 canvassed the town last year, working in chilling rains with temperatures in the 40s.

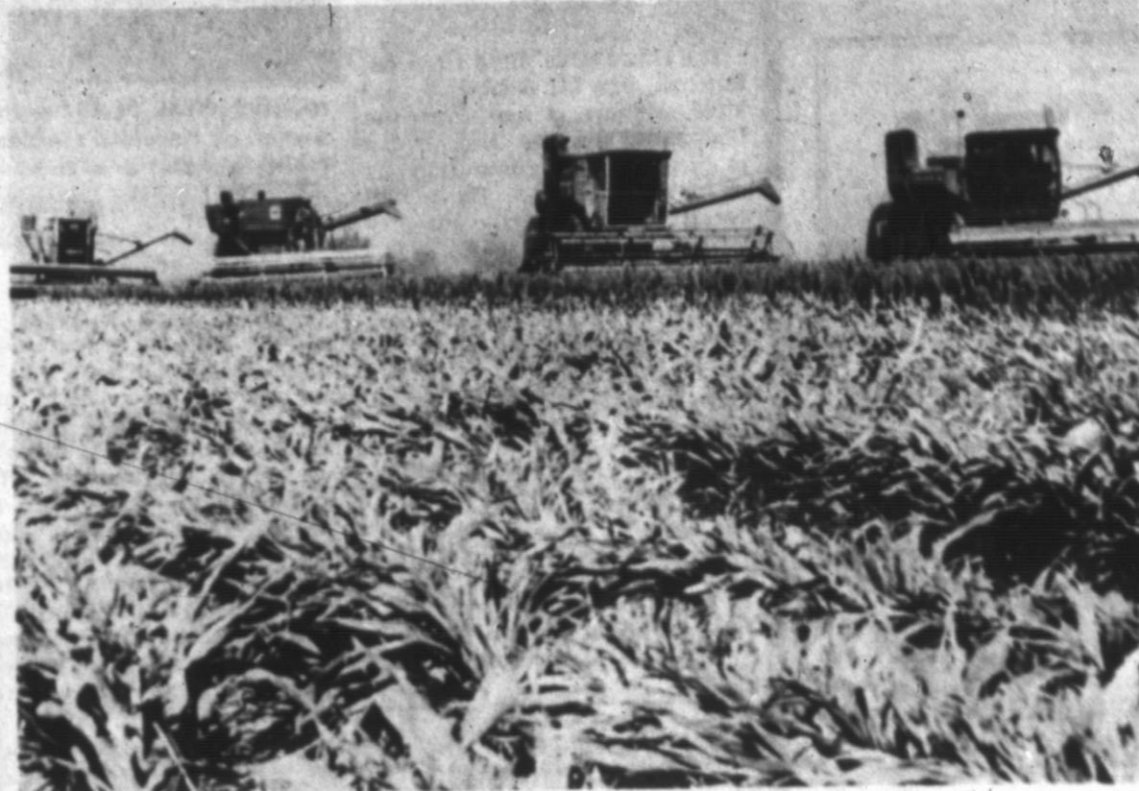

Mrs. W. J. Messick, member of the executive committee, said that this year's goal will be $1600. Teen-agers brought in $1500 last year, ranking Hereford seventh in the state.

"Each CROP collector's hand will be stamped," Mrs. Messick said, "so that no unauthorized collectors will be taking funds for themselves."

Last year, there was some of this "hanky panky", but stamping each collector's hand is hoped to eliminate the problem.

CROP is becoming as much a symbol of Halloween to the young people of the state as the traditional "trick or treats", black cats, pumpkins, and the rest.

Shades of Old Western Helpfulness

Neighbors Go Neighborly, Harvest Farmer's Grain

There's still the spirit of the evidence of that neighborliness in West Texas.

Down around Easter there's evidence of that neighborliness in field after field of cut-over grain sorghum.

Ivan Block's sorghum was ripe for the cutting. But Block was in a hospital in Amarillo, his own combines gathering dust.

That's when this neighborliness business showed up. The folks around Easter came to Block's cranked up their combines and their grain trucks and literally moved into Block's fields Friday right at the time Block was undergoing delicate surgery.

By Friday night, the combines had done their job and done it well, and the grain had all been hauled to market or storage. Block won't have to worry about those unharvested fields as he recovers from throat surgery.

Bill Waldrep put it this way: "There are some of the finest folks in West Texas right here in the Easter Community, and when a man has hard luck, they go to his rescue - and pronto. That's what they did in Ivan's case."

Nobody bothered to make a count of the machines that were harvesting Block's grain, but there were at least 12 combines running at the same time, on three different locations. It looked like a picture set up to promote combine sales, only this was no picture; it was the real McCoy.

And there must have been 12 to 15 grain trucks hauling the grain out of the fields after the combines had done their job.

One of the men who was running one of the big combine jobs, pulled his machine from the last field about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon, and summed up the situation like this: "Ivan's a good farmer, a good guy and a good friend. I'm just happy we could do this for him."

Some of the men even left their own fields standing to help out Ivan. One farmer as he pulled away from the Block land, squinted at the sky and said, "gotta hurry over and cut my own sorghum now. Think if I hurry I can get it done before dark, but if I can't I can finish it tomorrow."

Said Waldrep: "See what I mean?"

These were the fellows who did the harvest job, turn-key style: Charles Land, Harold Seawright, Lloyd Johnson, Lee Kent, Edgar Vinson, Buster Thompson, Joe Kendall, B. E. Sinclair, Fate Shannon, M. E. Stovall, Glen D. Stovall, Ben Rule, R. R. Rule, David H. Hutchins, Earl Hartins, Fiddl Salinas, Andy Canton, Fred Walton, Melvin Barton, Oscar Wylie, Herman Paetzold, J. F. Martin, Jim Riles and Waldrep.

Incidentally, Block came through surgery in fine shape.

Herd Drops Heartbreaker To Canyon In Last Stanza

Hereford Whitefaces dropped a heartbreaker see-saw battle to the Canyon Eagles Friday evening at Buffalo Bowl, 25-20, to lose the district 1-AA opener.

Hereford received the opening kickoff, and returned it to the 25-yard line where they were unable to move the ball against the inspired Canyon team.

Steve Hodges booted a 45-yard punt that backed the Eagles up to their own 20 yard line, where they promptly sent fullback Dennis Haley on a series of crashes through the line, which netted them almost 10 yards per carry until the Eagles had driven to the Herd three yard line, where they fumbled and the Herd took over.

The Herd carried for its first first down of the evening to their own 14-yard line, where they met a determined Eagles defense and were forced to punt for the second time of the evening.

Big Steve Hodges sent another one booming off the end of his toe to back the Eagles up to their own 40 yard line. The Herd defense finally tightened up and the Eagles were forced to punt.

The Hereford safeties backed up to their own 15 yard line, where they bobbed the punt, dropping it, where the Eagles recovered it on the Herd seven yard line.

Dennis Haley crashed for the seven yards in two plays. He hit for four yards on the first play. He then tromped over the Herd for three yards and the opening touchdowns of the game.

Phillip Parker booted the ball on the conversion attempt, giving the Eagles a 7-0 edge over the Herd.

Gene Drummond returned the kickoff from the Herd 10 to the 37 yard line, where he was finally halted by the Eagle tacklers.

Quarterback Frank Cain took to the air, where he was able to move the Herd against the Eagles. He completed a pass to Lynn Cook on the first play from scrimmage and Cook carried to the Eagle 45, where he was dropped.

The Eagles were given their first penalty of the evening as they continued to pile on after he whistle.

Heart Forced Early Retirement, Now He's 'Unretired'

Chindo's Well Now-and Working!

By Ray Martin
Chindo Hill, 26, puts in a full day's work as an auto mechanic these days and does the job well.

But at the start of 1963, the prospects that he would ever do a full day's work again were pretty slim. Chindo had a bad heart condition, and had been retired by Social Security on a total disability check.

Texas Education Agency, a division of the Texas Vocational Rehabilitation, stepped into the picture at the suggestion of Mrs. Jewel Smith, Deaf Smith County welfare administrator.

"Chindo," she says, "could have gone on drawing his Social Security check for $24 a month for himself and his family for the rest of his life, but Chindo isn't built like that; he wanted to be whole again and able to earn a living."

John Fenoglio, counselor for the agency, came down from Amarillo and began working on his case.

Several local doctors examined Chindo. Specialists at Amarillo also examined Chindo. They recommended open heart surgery.

So, Fenoglio's agency made arrangements for open heart surgery in Dallas, the agency picking up the tab. The case was turned over to TEA Jan. 2, 1963. Six days later the surgery was performed - and successfully.

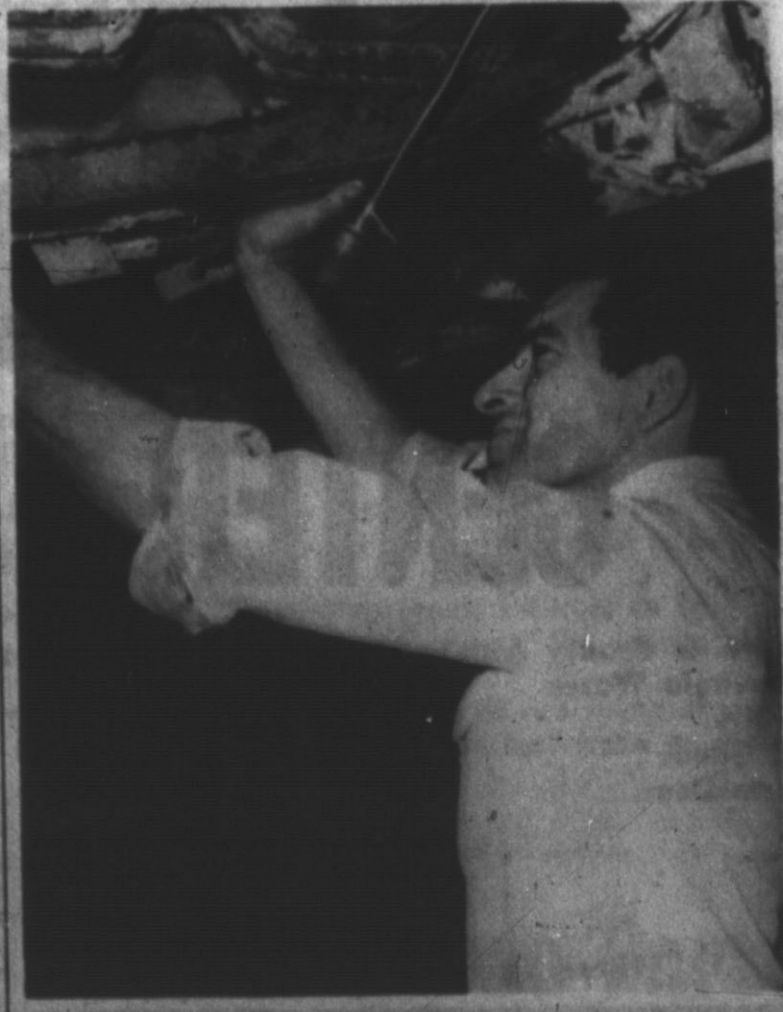

"When it became certain that Chindo was going to recover fully," explains Mrs. Smith, "something had to be done to provide a means of livelihood for him. Once the operation was declared successful, he would be taken off the permanently-retired list of Social Security."

That's when TEA stepped into the picture again. Fenoglio said Chindo's education had stopped at the fourth grade. He knew no trade. In fact, he had been "half sick" for several years.

Albert Hubson came to the rescue. He offered to give Chindo the training he needed in auto mechanics. As soon as he was able, Chindo went into the Stephens-Hudson shops and started a six-months' apprenticeship training.

Total sugar beet acreage allotments in the United States were cut this week in an announcement released by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The cut involved a decrease from the 1,458,000 acres planted in 1964 to an estimated 1,375,000 acres for the 1965 crop. This decrease cut the acreage from 1964 by more than 120,000 acres, nearly five times the total acreage grown in this district to supply the newly constructed $24.4 million Merrill E. Show Plant of Holly Sugar Corporation.

Local officials had hoped to get an increased allotment from the 27,500 acres grown in this district in 1964 to more than 40,000.

This would have meant an increase of 12,500 acres in the four county areas serving the multi-million dollar refinery.

Prospects for the acreage increase were dimmed by the overall cut in the acreage. Holly officials said Saturday, but all was not lost until the allotments were issued next week by the department of agriculture.

The total cut if effective over the entire United States, would mean a decrease for all sugar beet growers by approximately six percent, but nearly 300,000 acres are guaranteed in areas where new beet sugar processing plants have been constructed, such as the Show refinery, under a special "expansion acreage reserve" provision of the sugar act.

This would mean an average reduction of about 11 percent below 1964 planting for established sugar beet farmers in the United States.

The possibility for a cut in the 27,500 acres now allotted to local growers is possible, but seemed doubtful, due to provisions of the sugar act allowing for expansion of the new districts.

The local district entails Deaf Smith, Castro, Farmer and Curry counties in New Mexico.

Dexter Lillis, district manager of the local district for Holly Sugar Corporation said, "We will have information concerning the acreage to be allotted to us for the coming season next week. The possibility of a cut in acreage is doubtful, but at the same time, the chances for an increase in acreage was dimmed by the cut in the overall allotted acreage."

The agriculture department said this action was recommended by the major sugar beet growers associations and all but one of the sugar beet processors.

Officials termed the local crop, one of the best anywhere and prospects for future crops seemed very bright.

County And State Wheat Conventions Are Slated

Deaf Smith County Wheat Growers will have a busy week.

Their county wheat growers annual meeting is slated for Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the Community Center, and the Texas Association of Wheat Growers will have its annual meeting in Amarillo Friday in Holiday Inn West.

At the Tuesday night meeting, officers will be named and resolutions to be presented to the state association will be adopted.

Leo Witkowski, Hereford, president of the state organization, said Saturday that the state convention will start at 1 o'clock Friday when Ed Jenkins, assistant director of A. C. F. P., will deliver the main address. Jenkins also is a vice president of the Community Credit Corp. and recently returned from Russia. He will illustrate his address with slides he made in Russia.

Walter Suga, congressman from the 15th district, is also included on the speakers' list. Dr. Kenneth Proctor, Assistant Experiment Station, also will be on the development of new hybrid wheats. An address also is to be given by Tom Kneidel, Washington, executive secretary of the National Association of Wheat Growers. Kneidel is from Streifford.

Witkowski said he expects this year's convention "to be one of the biggest and best wheat meetings we have ever held." He extended an invitation to all interested persons to attend.

Andrew Kurbus, Route 4, Hereford, is president of the Deaf Smith County association. He also serves on the board of the state organization.

McCullough Motor Co. Sold To O. D. Dishman, Jim Hale

McCullough Motor Co., Hereford's oldest auto firm has been sold. Announcement of the sale was made this week by Ralph McCullough, co-owner and manager for the past 15 years. New owners of the Chrysler-Plymouth sales and service organization are O. D. Dishman and his son-in-law, Jim Hale, of Amarillo. They have been engaged in business in that city, but will move to Hereford soon.

The McCullough Motor Co. came into being nearly 15 years ago when two brothers from Amarillo, Ralph and Ray McCullough, purchased the Chrysler-Plymouth franchise from Mark Benefield and the late Lee Benefield. That purchase became effective Feb. 11, 1950. Since that time the McCulloughs have actively operated the auto firm while participating in other interests as well. Their latest venture was the establishment of Tri-State Engines Center of Amarillo which Ray McCullough now manages. They will retain the Tri-State firm which is a Chrysler Industrial engine wholesale firm located on the Fritch Highway. Ray McCullough has managed the wholesale firm since it was founded while brother Ralph continued to operate the local auto firm. Both have real estate holdings in Hereford and Amarillo.

McCullough Motor Co. is the oldest new car dealership in Hereford, operating continuously under the same firm name and handling the same products. Hale and Dishman assumed active control of McCullough Motor Co. Thursday after receiving official confirmation of their franchise agreement with Chrysler Corporation. They will now operate under the firm name of Dishman & Hale Chrysler-Plymouth, Inc. Bill Miller, long time sales manager under the McCullough brothers, will remain with the firm in that position. He has been associated with McCullough Motor Co. for approximately 14 years.

Jim Hale, speaking for the new owners, told the Brand Friday that no changes in personnel are contemplated.

Dishman and Hale have been operating a partnership in Amarillo for a number of years. They were Cushman distributors for the entire West Texas area. Prior to that time, Dishman was sales manager for Chrysler in Roswell, N. M. for approximately 10 years. Both are experienced in the automotive field.

The Hales have three children, Patricia, age 13; Debbie, 8, and Mike, 3 years of age. Both the Dishmans and the Hales plan to move to this community as soon as possible. They will commute until Amarillo property

Herd...

Another run set the Herd up on the Eagle one yard line, where Steve Hodges crashed over for the score.

There was a flag on the conversion attempt, with the option resting with the Eagles and the play was refused.

The Herd kicked off to the Eagles, who returned the ball to the 35, where they fumbled on the first play from scrimmage, with Gene Drummond recovering for the Herd on the Eagle 42 yard line.

The Herd kicked off to the Eagle 30 yard line and a first down, aided by an eight yard scamper by Cain.

Gene Drummond crashed for 13 yards on a crucial fourth and three situation, where Walter Williams carried the pigskin to the Eagle four yard line. Frank Cain cleared the four yards with ease on the next play pulling the Herd ahead of the Eagles in the scoring columns for the first time of the evening.

Cain connected with Mike Moore on a short pass in the end zone and the Herd led 14-7.

Canyon returned the kickoff to the 31 yard line. Canyon completed his first pass for eight yards and a first down. Then Canyon ran a reverse pattern which netted them another first down on the Herd 42 yard line.

Another 12 yard pass was completed to the Hereford 28 yard line. The Eagles, attempting to launch an aerial attack, saw it shatter before their eyes when Roger Owens snagged a ball out of mid-air on the Herd 15 and returned it to the 30 yard line.

The Herd was unable to move the ball, and Hodges was called on once again, where he stampered off a booming punt for 60 yards, backing the Eagles up to their own four yard line.

The half ended before the Eagles could organize another attack, with the Whitefaces leading 14-7.

The Eagles returned the kickoff to their 46 yard line, where they began a drive, which was finally halted on the Herd 20 yard line and the ball went over on downs.

Cain promptly connected with Cook for 10 yards and the Eagles were once again penalized 15 yards to the Herd 45 yard line for a personal foul.

The Herd was unable to move any further, either in the air or on the ground. Hodges punted from his own 40 yard line to the Eagle 13, where the ball was killed.

Canyon quarterback Tom Lair launched another drive from that point and led the Eagles 87 yards, where he finally crashed over for the touchdown from 11 yards out.

The conversion attempt was blocked and the Herd still led 14-13.

Mike Moore returned the kickoff from the five yard line for 16 yards to the 21.

Walter Williams ran the ball on the first play from scrimmage, where he fumbled on Herd 25 yard line.

The Eagles promptly converted the costly mistake into a score, with Tom Sanford crashing over from one yard out. The conversion attempt was no good and the Eagles led the Herd 19-14, with 8:09 minutes left in the final stanza.

Hodges returned the kickoff from the 15 yard line for 16 yards to the Herd 31. Cain then organized a drive, throwing everything at the Eagles.

He connected with Drummond for 13 yards and a first down on the Herd 44. Wynn Buck crashed through the Eagle line and secondary for 20 yards before he was halted. The Eagles received their third personal foul penalty of the evening as they continued to hit Buck after the whistle. They were penalized to the Eagle 24 yard line.

The Herd drove the ball to the Eagle 16 and on a crucial fourth down situation with three yards to go, Cain connected with Owens for six yards on the 10 for the first down.

On the next play, Cain tossed to Hodges in the end zone. The conversion attempt failed and the Herd led 20-19, with 3:58 minutes left in the game.

The Eagles returned the ball to their own 40 yard line, where in four plays, they crashed for 60 yards and a touchdown with Lair going over from two yards out, with 1:41 left in the game.

The conversion attempt was no good and the Eagles led the Herd 25-20.

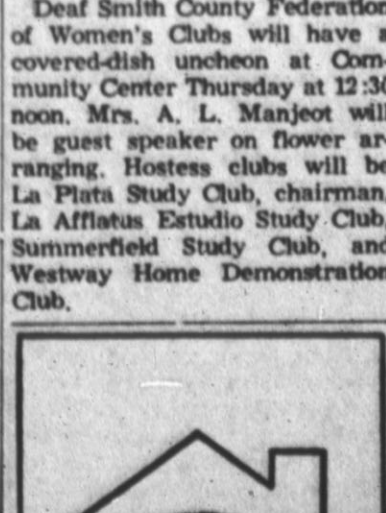

Quarterback Frank Cain desperately tried to organize an aerial onslaught, with only 37 seconds left in the game, but the ball went over to the Eagles and they ran out the clock, winning the game 25-20.

Chindo...

"Other mechanics helped him a lot," Mrs. Smith says, "and Chindo made progress. In fact, just about everybody helped him, and when other mechanics' checks would climb because of the extra hours they put in helping Chindo, they'd divide their net with their apprentice mechanic."

"And everybody was pulling for Chindo and his pretty wife and their little girl. Even prayer meetings were held for him when he underwent surgery."

So, now Chindo is off the Social Security rolls and Fenoglio and Mrs. Smith have stamped "closed" on the lengthy file spent $1433 converting a 26-year-old man into a useful, self-supporting citizen again. "And we figure the price was small considering it meant putting a man on his feet again," the counselor sums up.

"It's wonderful to help people like that," Mrs. Smith concludes.

Here was a young man, hopelessly ill but secure in the knowledge that he could draw $254 a month for the rest of his life from Social Security. But he would never have been well, and besides Chindo isn't the kind of fellow who wants to sit around and do nothing. He had much rather be making his own way in the world, but if it hadn't been for the TEA's rehabilitation program, and the help of folks like Albert Hudson, it would never have been possible. Chindo could never have afforded the surgery in the first place nor the cost of a training course in the second place.

"We are just awfully happy that his story has a happy ending."

Farmers...

mounted to $16,323,514.20 and they received $3,002,838 from the Department of Agriculture for aid in their farming efforts.

Deaf Smith County farmers were paid a grand total of $19,326,352.26 for raising this one cash crop in 1963.

The other large cash crop in 1963 was wheat, with 90,971 acres being planted in wheat in that season.

The average yield per acre was estimated at 28.2 bushels per acre, with the county producing 2,565,382.2 bushels in the 1963 harvest.

Farmers averaged payments of $1.92 per bushel for their wheat and were paid a total of $4,925,533.82. They received a total of $1,404,272 from the department of agriculture for aid in their wheat program, giving Deaf Smith County farmers a total of $5,929,805.82 for their efforts in raising wheat in 1963.

Cotton ranked as the number 3 crop in 1963, with more than 10,300 acres being planted in the 1963 season.

The average yield in Deaf Smith County was 750 pounds per acre, with Deaf Smith County producing 7,746,750 pounds in 1963.

Farmers received an average of $31.9 for their cotton and receipts for their crops totaled $2,471,213.25 for the entire county.

The county did not receive any government assistance for their cotton efforts, so the total amount received by farmers for their cotton was $2,471,213.25.

Barley ranked as the number four crop in Deaf Smith County for 1963, with more than 5,600 acres being planted in the county.

The average yield for the county was 34.8 bushels per acre, with Deaf Smith County farmers producing 195,784.8 bushels during the 1963 harvest.

Farmers were paid an average of $90.1 per bushel for the barley during the 1963 season and receipts for the crop grown in the county totaled $176,402.10, an amount which was matched by the government with payments totaling $176,402.10 for a total of $352,804.20 received by Deaf Smith County farmers for their barley in 1963.

Deaf Smith County had 1,997 acres of corn planted in 1963, which yielded 64.5 bushels per acre in the county. The county produced 123,001.5 bushels during the season and farmers were paid $1.09 per bushel for their wheat.

Total receipts for the wheat totaled $134,071.63 and government payments totaled $36,510 for the county, making a total of $170,581.63 farmers received for their corn in 1963.

Sugar beets was small business in 1963, before Holly Sugar Corp. completed their $21.4-million refinery here.

Only 1,064 acres were grown in Deaf Smith County in 1963. The crop yielded an average of 13.9 tons per acre and total production in the county was 14,790 tons.

Farmers were paid an average of $14.00 per ton and receipts for the county totaled $207,060 with subsidy payments for Deaf Smith County totaling $34,513.96.

Total amount paid farmers in 1963 for their sugar beet efforts was $241,578.96.

The sugar beet outlook has changed drastically this year as Deaf Smith county farmers planted more than 12,000 acres in sugar beets. The average yield for the 1964 crop should be around 22 tons per acre, eight tons per acre more than the previous year.

The county will produce more than 64,000 tons of sugar beets this season, some 249,210 tons more than the previous season.

According to sources, farmers will receive between $12 and $14 per ton for their sugar beets in 1964.

LOOK AT THE RECORD

Democrats have been in power 32 years, Republicans 32 years during the 64 years of the Twentieth Century.

- ★ Over 95% of our National Debt was put on the American people by Democrat Administrations.
- ★ There has been a shooting war under EVERY Democrat Administration. There has been PEACE under Republican Administrations.
- ★ The average unemployment during 32 years of Democrat rule has been over 7% — just over 5% under Republicans.
- ★ The "Prosperity" of the last three years has been at your children's expense — $30,000,000,000.00 added to National Debt since 1961.
- ★ If you have a family of 3 children, your portion of the National debt is over $8,000.00. If you have 5 children, your part of the debt is nearly $12,000.00
- ★ And yet the Democrat nominees want to stack billions in wild new spending programs on your back and promise you more "Pie in the sky."
- ★ The Democrat Party thinks you are too dumb to run some of your own affairs and too dumb to look at the record. They have lost faith in everything except their own ego.

HOW DO YOU ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS?

1. Is it morally right to "pass the buck" to future generations by wild deficit spending in good times, just to satiate our own greed?
2. Is it morally right to tax one man's labor so that another man can be given a guaranteed profit?
3. It is morally right for the government to use your own tax money to threaten, bribe, or cajole you?
4. Is it morally right for our government to give your tax money to Communist regimes that have threatened to destroy you — and let Communists speak on American college campuses?

Istanbul is the largest city in Turkey.

Blessed are the rebels, for they shall know the difference between intention and action. They know that the crane who waits for the sea to sink and leave, dried fish to feed him, starves; that it is one thing to itch for something, and another to scratch for it; that some men have ideas and others have notions — and often one is mistaken for the other. They know that many are called, but few get up.

Blessed are the rebels, for they shall have the courage to challenge the status quo. They know that nothing is done; that everything the world remains to be done, or done over, or done better.

Blessed are the rebels, for they shall have the courage to stand alone. They recall Andrew Jackson's words: "One man with courage makes a majority."

The rebel is a natural irritant. But never forget that pearls are formed by an irritating grain of sand constantly rubbing against the oyster's neck. — Quotes from Bill Rossi in the Boot and Shoe RECORDER.

In driving around town Friday we noticed a flag flying at 107 Centre St. Another in the 300 block on East Third. The occasion? United States Day.

Slightly more than one week away is the day that everyone has been waiting for. It's election day. Candidates are making their final swings throughout the state, trying to sway voters to their cause, and taking advantage of the final days of the campaign to get in a few plugs for their candidates.

The Brand will, as in the past, post a board outside the office to keep voters posted on the progress of the election on the local level. The County Clerk's office has asked also, that you please not call that office for information. The phones need to be free in order that incoming returns from the country voting boxes will not be delayed. We need to get this information in as quickly as possible.

So come on down to The Brand. We'll try to keep you posted on the local returns.

The clerk's office has also cautioned voters to be extra careful this year in marking their ballots. If you're voting for Goldwater or Johnson, don't fail to mark out the minor party candidates or your ballot will not be counted. Mark out ALL candidates except the one for which you're voting. There are three presidential candidates on this year's ballot.

In spite of the rapid growth of our city as related in The Thursday Brand and again in picture and story form today, the business picture has not been particularly bright. Business houses all over Hereford have been complaining because of the lack of business over the past three or four weeks. This is due in part we feel, to the fact that most of the farmers are busy harvesting beets and milo. Another thing that has affected the business picture at this time is the lack of either a wheat or milo crop in the dry land areas of the county. Although the irrigated crops are dandy in almost every respect, the lack of the dry land crops always hurts the economy of Hereford.

We understand that friends and neighbors of Ivan Block pulled about 19 combines into his field this week to take care of the little task of harvesting his crops. Ivan is in St. Anthony's hospital in Amarillo where he is recuperating from surgery. That's the typical West Texas way. Let a neighbors have a little trouble and everyone within miles turns out to help.

The busy Bill Hustler, while picking his corn, stopped work to go voting one cold frosty morn; He hurried right into the polls, let us note, And folded his ballot but forgot to vote!

Mrs. Nettie Price Slaton

Life For Living Study Features Three Speakers

Mary Jean Gore, Lois Hollingsworth, and Mary Anna Laing extended XI Epsilon Alpha's study of "Life Is for Living" when that chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its recent meeting in the Community Center.

Speaking on "How to Be a Real Person," Miss Gore cited each person as an individual striving each day to improve oneself, and she emphasized the goals of humility, truthfulness, and striving to be God-like as necessities to personal growth.

She left these quotations for reflection and meditation: From Whitman's "Song of Myself": "There is that in me—I do not know what it is. It is eternal life — it is happiness."

From Emerson's "Spiritual Laws": "We become divine if we will only have a little consideration of what takes place around us. The whole course of things teaches faith we need only to obey."

From Matthew 18:26: "For what is a man profited if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

Goldwater Backed By Cuban Refugees In GOP Rally Here

Arriba! Goldwater. That was the battle cry Friday night as more than 75 interested Anglos and Latinos gathered at the Community Center to hear Arturo Torres and Euell Pumeraea proclaim the evils of the cloud of communism that now hangs over their native land.

Other speakers on the program included Gene Fooks, minister of Central Church of Christ, and Bob Price, Republican candidate for Representative of the 18th Congressional District.

The two Cuban refugees, one speaking in Spanish and the other in broken English, told the people gathered at the Center that they must fight the menace of communism that now breeds hate and violence only 90 miles from our shores. "Many people do not know Communism", Pumeraea told the group. "But we know the monster. Think of your children and fight today." Pumeraea told the audience there was now 91,000 Cubans in prison in his native country, over 10,000 Cubans in exile and nearly 6 million Cubans in forced labor who will rise up and fight if given an opportunity.

He said that "Barry Goldwater is a great American. He is fighting for your freedom. He is fighting for your liberty. He is fighting for your children. Fight today", he said, "for tomorrow will be too late for you."

Pumeraea was followed by Gene Fooks, minister of Central Church of Christ of Hereford, who related his experiences as an airman at Luke Army Air Force Base in World War II. His Commanding Officer was Lt. Barry M. Goldwater, the man who is now campaigning for the highest office in our land. Fooks said that "we have all been fighting immorality for a long time, but sometimes I fear our voices have been like a whisper in the wilderness. Barry Goldwater is a golden opportunity for the Golden Spread as well as the United States."

Fooks reiterated his experiences as a member of the Senator's squadron back in 1941, telling of the fine things Goldwater had done for the 60 men under his command in those trying days. Goldwater was a young Lieutenant at that time. "Goldwater is a most honorable man and I believe he will lead this great country of ours to a higher pinnacle than we have ever known before," he said.

Last speaker on the crowded program was Bob Price, Republican candidate for Representative of the 18th Congressional District of which Deaf Smith County is a part.

Price, introduced by Herman Sanchez of Pampa, tore into his Democratic opponent with gusto, pointing out that the incumbent Congressman did not even own a home in his home district. Price said that his opponent had never spent a day in the service fighting for his country, "yet he claims to be an authority" on matters of highest military importance, he charged.

Price drew his biggest ovation when he said "I'm for arming every Cuban refugee with every thing we have", and giving them aid they need to liberate their homeland. Price told the group that Communism had its breeding ground only 90 miles from our shores and was using this base to infiltrate and subvert South American nations. "Within a period of 10 years", Price said, "Communism will take over the South American continent unless the American people act now to isolate the cancerous growth". He asked the audience which system they wanted to live under in our own nation, Socialism or the free enterprise system that has served us so well.

Bob Price was just getting warmed up when he finished speaking on the Cuban situation. The veteran of 27 missions in the Korean war told of the frustrations of soldiers fighting a war and the war in Vietnam today are just allowed to fight enough to die", Price said, "not enough to win".

He told of chasing the Communist planes to the Yalu River, and having to turn back because Washington said "we couldn't go across".

He told of the obsolete equipment now being used in Vietnam, of the planes that suffer from mental fatigue; so old that the wings fall off under stress. "We have no intention of winning in Vietnam", Price said.

Price also took the Democratic administration to task for the moral decay "now so prevalent in our government." He mentioned the Bobby Baker scandal, the Billie Sol Estes case and the latest episode concerning Walter Jenkins in the washroom. "It's so rotten it can't help spilling over", he told the people assembled at the Cen-

Walter Rogers is third in command of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. This Committee has legislative jurisdiction over mines and mining affairs — and helium supplies — and over water rights and development. Our Congressman is Chairman of the Irrigation and Reclamation Subcommittee which passed on the Canadian River Dam Project.

Walter Rogers ranks seventh out of thirty-three members on the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee — the oldest, most powerful legislative Com-

Water: Rainfall average about 25" per year, wells, city water, ponds, tanks, and large creek that could irrigate 100 acres of Costal Bermuda or other grasses. Grasses: King Ranch Blue Stem, Costal Bermuda, Mesquite, Side Oats Gramma, and Sorghum Alnum. SCHOOL and MAIL: School bus and mail comes to the door. ROADS: Three sides paved, one side gravel with gravel roads on important roads of the ranch. WORTH THE RISK
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — J.R. McAfee, a retired Methodist minister, recalls the time a young girl rode to church on a horse and was left in an embarrassing position.
As she started to dismount, her dress caught in the saddle and she hung suspended, feet off the ground, in a sea of petticoats.
The minister, noticing a bunch of teen-agers gawping at the spectacle, warned them to "look the other way, or you're liable to be struck blind."
One of the bigger boys smiled as he slapped a hand over his left eye. "I think I'll look one eye."
In the Yemen, a man's belt is his status symbol, serving as pocket, brief case, lunch box and key ring.

Your Red Cross In Action

By Corinne J. Neely

CHAPTER ACCOLADES

This year the chapter has given several awards to show appreciation. And others are planned. For the joint effort of saving a life, using Red Cross skills and knowledge, certificates were presented to James Balch and Barbara Barrett by past-chairman Don Zimmerman. Barbara had learned "water safety" - life-saving which enabled her to pull a drowning boy from the pool. And Mr. Balch then applied artificial respiration which he had learned in First Aid.

for their part of the Disaster Plan of the chapter. Their group serve as leaders and committee heads in the plan. Also for their support of the chapter in a financial contribution to help meet the deficit of funds for the budget this year.

At a later meeting of the board, others to receive certificates were Mrs. Buck Hale and George Davis, upon the recommendation of the Water Safety Committee for hours given in this program. And to Linda London and Marie Roberson, who acted as staff-aides in the office last summer.

High School and Stanton Jr. High were given an "Award Day" certificates for accomplishments in enrollment and projects for the year.

It has often been said that "Americans go all out in giving awards," but why not? We more than any country on earth have so many worthy causes and the willing volunteer to carry on. The awards they receive is all they get for many hours given—that and the feeling of satisfaction of being "his brother's brother." This is a quote from Dan Eddy's recent talk at the United Fund Kick-off.

And anyone having heard him speak would have to give more "than his share" to the organizations of the United Fund.

Appreciation awards were presented by Mr. Zimmerman to the Civil Air Patrol in recognition of their volunteer services to the community-stressing work done in locating a wrecked plane. And to the Hereford Fire Department for their fine services in the community over a period of many years.

At the Annual Meeting, outgoing board members received recognition for service in awards presented by Volunteers chairman, Nickie Dameron. They were Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr., Mrs. Earl Springer and Mrs. J. W. Thomas. At the same time Mrs. J. V. Perrin, Mrs. Steve Clements and Dr. Bruce Beene received 5 year pins for continuous service.

The Hereford Jaycees have been given an award of thanks

Unemployment Vs. Workers

More and more these days, we hear people complaining about the scarcity of help. The sources mention shortages in common labor clear on through the management levels. Supporting their side of the questions can be found thousands of classified ads seeking help as compared with only a few ads seeking positions, and this is more especially true in all classes of trades and skilled labor.

One man last week was telling us that he was unable to recruit help from a long line of people in the employment office, and, needless to say, was a little bit bitter about the whole thing. Most of us encounter delays and poor service from time to time in all walks of life, including coffee shops, garages, repair stations and retail stores. Even school teachers, they tell us, are hard to come by.

At first, we thought perhaps the situation was distinctive to this part of the country, but it appears to be rather general and can be seen from coast to coast. Certainly it does not agree with current government reports on unemployment — and we wonder sometimes what would happen if an employer insisted on "good help", rather than settling for the first ones who offered to take the average job.

Another Hereford man in discussing the condition, offered to bet $1,000 that he could be dropped from an airplane into any strange community in the United States — and that he would find employment to sustain himself within a 24-hour period. His point being, of course, that many of our unemployed do not really want work.

UF Drive Needs 'Second Front'

Hereford's United Fund drive is lagging, and there's no use in kidding ourselves about it.

It is always a difficult task to raise $30,000 for charitable purposes, and it would be nice if the people heard that the campaign was underway, then flocked in with their donations. Unfortunately, it just doesn't work that way.

Most everyone agrees that United Fund, though far from perfect, is the best thing to ever come our way in the form of solicitations. It saves time, trouble and manpower for all concerned. More important still, it demands that recipients inventory, itemize and account for the funds which they receive and, with a few exceptions, the participating groups have lived up to their bargain of sustaining themselves on United Fund proceeds — even when the goal drops a bit short.

At this point, most of the places which have participated in the 1964 campaign are pretty well in line with the quota. The trouble is that scores of firms and individuals have not yet made their contributions and the drive, which should have closed a week ago, still needs almost half of its donations to reach the 1964 quota.

Since our whole community, including several organizations are dependent upon the outcome of the United Fund drive, it seems that the time has come for renewed vigor in the campaign; a "Second Front", if you please.

In direct contrast to the 1964 campaign results appears the lead story in The Brand last week tiling the fact that local bank deposits have reached beyond $23 million — representing a sharp increase over past periods.

The information indicates, without doubt, that someone is laying down on the job.

Skilled labor, centering around mechanics, technicians, cleaners, pressmen, printers, air conditioning repairmen, T-V service men and other trades seem to afford the greatest opportunity for employment in the country — and their demand is tremendous, regardless of the location in question. Hereford, at the same time, has been in the throes of a growth "boom", and may well be faced with a more critical labor situation than that found in most other non-urban areas.

Generally speaking, however, the situation does exist, and there seems to be no immediate answer. On a long-range basis, we can begin training people to fill the ever-widening niche in the field of skilled trades but, first, we must sell these trades and the opportunities they offer to the rank and file of our young people.

'Big Stick' Still Speaks

What motivated the ousting of Premier Nikita Khrushchev? How will the move affect us as citizens on the United States?

The answers to these two questions are not available, save through speculation, and they probably headline the agenda of all queries in Washington, from the President on down through the corpse of page boys. What's more, you can take either side, and emerge with some fairly good arguments.

Mostly, though, it boils down to the fact that the Russians will go just about as far as we will let them. This was true under Stalin, as it was true under Khrushchev — and just as it will continue to be true under the new leaders today, and in the generations to come so long as the communist theories control the nation.

No matter how you phrase it, Teddy Roosevelt's idea of the "big stick" is the only language which the communists understand. We proved the point dramatically when President Kennedy called the Russian bluff in regard to location of missile bases in Cuba. Consequently, it is important that our nation does remain strong, and it is especially important that we carefully and intensely police the results of any disarmament agreement with Russia, Red China or any other antagonistic nation.

America does not want war and, be we under Democrats or Republicans, the best way to achieve this result is to remain strong.

Dog Repellant To Aid Postman

At long last, the city mail carrier is going to get a break. What's more, in our opinion, his good fortune is overdue.

Lo, these many years, the mailman has been waging a constant battle with the canine population and, oftentimes, the hostile included dog owners, both old and young. And if he protected himself with violence, he could always anticipate additional foes within the ranks of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. As a result, it is hard to find a veteran letter carrier without a single bite-mark and, needless to say, the question of dogs is inevitable at any convention of mailmen.

Ultimate relief for the mailman appears in the form of a modern, spray bomb, harmless to the dog and efficient to the point that it will send the canine slinking away before he can do serious damage to the letter carrier. As a result, everybody is supposed to be happy — especially the mailman.

We doubt if the invention will go down in history as a tremendous contribution to posterity, but it will definitely be a great boon in the postal profession and, before all is said and done, there are no telling how many other professions which may benefit from its development.

Cut Out That Jazz!

Although Soviet Russia usually bends over backward to woo the young intellectual of Tokyo or the Congo, it does not always show the same friendliness toward its own — at least those of an artistic bent.

The defection of two jazz musicians last week is one of several recent signs that budding Russian artists receive little applause and much frowning for their efforts. They seem to feel that an off-key tune, or a poem that doesn't rhyme, is not only unpleasant to the ear but also downright un-economic.

What their struggling economy needs, they claim, is more farmers and fewer flutists. Post Joseph Brodsky was convicted last month of "parasitism" and told that he must spend the next five years at a job a bit more useful — hauling Siberian fertilizer. As the word spreads, we can expect some Bolshevik "beats" to spill the scene.

team 27 to 22. The game was a good one not withstanding the great number of fouls made by both teams. The Canyon team plays fast and good ball.

On Monday Nov. 16, at 3 p.m., the teams will play another game on the High School campus here and those enjoying the game are promised a well matched and interesting game on that day.

Last week in making mention of the good onion crop raised by the Rice boys, sons of S. J. Rice, the Brand stated that they had raised 2,000 pounds on three tenths of an acre, when they raised two tons, 4,000 pounds, on that amount of land. We regret the error and are glad to correct it.

The biggest thing in the Brand this week is the double page ad of the Fox Mercantile Company. It's red all the time even if you have not read it; it's bound to be red. This company has been in business in Hereford nine months and have as they state, built up a good line of trade. Their second Special Sale, called, "Need Money Sale," is now on. Out of town customers and buyers in the towns around Hereford are invited to come to Hereford during this sale and see how well they can do. A special invitation is extended to the people of Friona, Ravina, Farwell, Summerfield, Dimmitt, Parrot, Dawn, Umberger, Canyon, Vega, Wildorado, Adrian and Kelso.

THE BOOTLEG — Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his hindwood farm asks a puzzling question this week.

I haven't got room to list them all, but among the enormous number of things I don't understand is international relations.

For example, I read in a newspaper last night that Russia is charging the United States is trying to wreck the United Nations.

This is a serious charge, especially since we went to all the trouble and expense to put up all those United Nations buildings in New York where Khrushchev likes to take off his shoes and get comfortable, so I read the article first, ahead of the day's campaign dope.

As it turns out, Russia is behind in its dues to the outfit and the United States is insisting it pay up or lose its vote as the rules demand, and this, Russia says, is an attempt to wreck the organization.

This is what I'm talking about. It's like me telling a bank it's trying to wreck this hindwood farm because I won't pay off a note, and if I could find a banker who would take such an argument seriously, I'd sure do some business with him.

Another thing I don't understand about the world is the difference between England and the United States. Over here, it takes nearly three months for both political parties to get through saying what soundbites each one is, while in England they can do it in three weeks.

Of course it's like two lawyers lambasting each other in court all morning and then going out and having lunch together, but it ought to hurt our pride that an Englishman can think up all those words for her and crack in three weeks while it takes us three months. The fault probably lies in the failure of the public schools to give proper grounding in vocabulary back in the lower grades. Something ought to be done about it.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Carol Jean Skypala, John Willoughby Wed

The marriage of Miss Carol Jean Skypala and John W. Willoughby, Amarillo, was solemnized in Saint Anthony's Church Saturday morning, October 17, with the Rev. Father Cletus McGorry reading the double ring wedding ceremony.

Only members of the families of the bride and groom, their other close relatives and friends attended the wedding. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood V. Skypala, 212 Beach St. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Willoughby, 910 Union Ave.

Mrs. Morris Hacker, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Fred Henry Jr., Amarillo vocalist and aunt of the bride, in "O Perfect Love" and "Mother, At Thy Feet We're Kneeling," sung after exchange of vows while bride and groom knelt for silent prayer and meditation.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta, designed with scooped neckline, flared skirt, and long petalpoint sleeves fastened with tiny self-covered buttons. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was caught to lace floral petals traced with seed pearls, and her bridal bouquet was fashioned of white carnations and yellow rosebuds. Her only adornment was a strand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Maid of honor was Miss Ann Mercer, and bridesmaid was Miss Doris Willoughby, Lubbock, sister of the groom. They wore identical dresses of mint green pebble crepe fashioned after the bridal gown. They wore matching hats of velveteen and net with other accessories in gold, and they carried nosegays of bronze mums with pastel mint green satin streamers.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Carroll Willoughby, Fort Worth. Groomsman was Wilbern (Butch) Connelly; and ushers were Dwight McGee, Don Warrick, Fred Henry Jr., Amarillo, uncle of the bride. Both Mrs. Skypala and Mrs.

Willoughby chose beige wool dresses for their daughter's and son's wedding. Their accessories were gold and their corsages were fashioned of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Skypala, 210 Fuller St. Registering guests was Mrs. Bill Stevens, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Fred Ruland and Miss Betty Gravelle presided at the bride's table with its decorations in the bride's chosen colors and appointments of milk glass and silver. Rosebuds and lovebirds decorated the tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom.

After the reception, the immediate families of bride and groom were guests at a wedding luncheon.

For her going-away costume, the bride chose a two-piece suit of burnt orange featherweight wool fashioned with box jacket and sheath skirt. Her accessories were black, and she wore a black half-crown hat with halo veil. Her corsage was lifted from the wedding bouquet.

The couple will continue their schooling in Amarillo, where the groom has transferred from West Texas State University to Amarillo College, majoring in finance and business administration. He is continuing employment with Amarillo's American National Bank, where he has worked during the past two years.

Out-of-city guests for the wedding were W. A. McCarty Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carroll, Amarillo; Mrs. Maurice Taylor and Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Pampa; Henry Skypala, August Skypala, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Iriebeck, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Frielme, all of Canyon; and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Anderson and Suzie, Borger.

Newest Members Feted At Party

Rainbow for Girls, No. 157, had a coke party for initiates, an initiation-business session, and hayride on the organization's recent agenda.

Especially for initiates since June 1, the coke party was given at the home of the Mercers, 112 Aspen, Saturday evening. Mrs. Mercer, Rainbow's Mother Advisor, and Ann Mercer, present worthy advisor, were hostesses. The occasion was an informal roundtable to help the initiates know more of purposes and regulations of the organization. Participating in the discussions were line officers including Ann Mercer, worthy advisor; Denise King, worthy associate; Carol Coffey, Hope; and Janice Smith, Faith.

Present also were past worthy advisors.

After the Oct. 19 initiation of Debra Huddleston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Huddleston, into the order, the girls at this Masonic Hall meeting discussed their fund-raising project, a repeat of boxed candy sales, to begin Nov. 15. Proceeds will be used, according to the worthy advisor, for financing the annual trip to Grand Assembly. Thirty members were present.

For their October social event, the girls and their guests met at the home of Denise King, where they began their hayride that took them on a circle tour on country roads east-northeast of the city and finally brought them back to the Masonic Hall. With their sack lunches, they had picnic supper, with Mrs. Jimmie Mercer and Jo Frances Deavenport serving hot chocolate.

Helping the Rainbows with their fun were Mr. and Mrs. Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Summers, Mack Noland, and Mrs. Roy Boyer.

Guests included Robert Messick, Ted McWhorter, Bill McMin, Wayne Winget, Gil Sims, Clint Oliver, Lonnie Coker, Russel Phillips, Jimmy Childers, Gary Crume, Alan Coker, Jerry Russell, Richard Brogdon, and Richard Weber.

Girls present were Ann Mercer, Barbara Brownlow, Kathy Hutchison, Vicki Brownlow, Jo Frances Deavenport, Carol Coffey, Patsy Daniels, Sue Drummond, Linda Price, Peggy Allred, Janice Smith, Nancy Boyer, Judy Summers, Sharon Worthan, and Carol Todd.

Bob Miller, aide to Galveston Congressman Clark Thompson, said he surprisingly got fine cooperation from warring factions of Alabama Democrats in his advance planning for the Lady Bird Johnson train visit to that state.

"They can be real proud of themselves," said Miller, who later went to Texas to do the same spade work for the visit of the first lady to the Beaumont-Tyler area.

A report from the Army's surgeon general shows that Texans taking preinduction examinations services last year were, on the whole, just a trifle less fit than the national average.

Of 20,365 Texans who were examined, 9,562 were found acceptable, for a rate of 47.1 per cent. The national average was 50 per cent. Utah led with 67.9 per cent. Oklahoma ranked high with 66.3 per cent. Mississippi was lowest with 32.7 per cent, and Louisiana second lowest with 32.9 per cent.

Of the 10,773 Texans found unacceptable, 289 were disqualified for "administrative reasons", 4,946 failed mental tests, 783 others failed mental tests and also were medically disqualified, and 4,755 were disqualified on medical grounds.

Beta Sigma Phi To Hold Its '65 Assembly Here

Hereford was awarded the 1965 District Convention of Beta Sigma Phi in the organization's general assembly last Sunday in Pampa, according to Mrs. John Gilliland, president of Hereford Council of Beta Sigma Phi.

About 300 delegates and members will attend the Hereford convention from the district of the upper Panhandle north of Plainview and Hart.

On behalf of Hereford's two chapters, Xi Epsilon Alpha and Kappa Iota, Mrs. Gilliland presented Hereford's bid for the 1965 convention. The favorable decision was given by acclamation of the 1964 convention meeting in Pampa's Coronado Inn.

With the theme of "The Old South," Beta Sigma Phi members registered Saturday, Oct. 17, and attended a program and bridge party given by Pampa's five chapters. A Sunday morning coffee for delegates was followed by forums of all district presidents and vice-presidents, ways and means committees, and social committees.

Questions of importance to the organization and ideas were discussed in all groups, and Hereford chapters were represented in each. Forums adjourned for

Class Installs New Officers With Ceremony

Mrs. Dale Barkley used the theme "The Crown of Glory" when she installed officers for Victory Sunday School Class of Avenue Baptist Church at their Oct. 15 meeting in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Co.

Presenting a challenge to each officer, Mrs. Barkley quoted Timothy 2:15 and other Scriptures as she emphasized the duties and responsibilities of each particular office and of each teacher. She gave the poem "Along Life's Busy Thoroughfares," which she dedicated to Mrs. Pearl Boyer, the class mother, who was unable to be present for the installation.

Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table centered with an arrangement of red roses, the class flower.

Present were Mrs. Luther Baxter, Mrs. G. W. Duncan, Mrs. Jay Daniels, Mrs. Marvis Southward, Mrs. Billy Wall, Mrs. Johnnie Townsend, and Mrs. Barkley.

Attending the convention with Mrs. Gilliland were Mrs. Harold Beauchamp, president of Xi Epsilon Alpha Chapter, Mrs. Pat Parker, Mrs. Charles Laing, Mrs. Howard Gore, Mrs. Bill Kendall, Mrs. Bob Huddleston, Mrs. Delbert Balnum, and Mrs. John Schneider.

The city council of Beta Sigma Phi will be hostesses to both chapters in formal rituals Nov. 3 in Community Center, Mrs. Gilliland has announced.

Three Hereford Women At Hawaiian Conclave

In Honolulu, Hawaii, attending the 28th annual convention of National Extension Homemakers this week are Mrs. Louise Olson, 820 W. Park Ave., Mrs. J. D. Love, 417 Star, and Mrs. Viola Williams, 404 Western. They arrive on the S. S. Lurline in Hawaii at 10 a.m. today (Hawaiian Time).

These members of Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Clubs are among 1,000 mainland club members registered for the Hawaiian convention in session Oct. 25-30. Under the convention theme, "Hands Across the Waters," they will attend general sessions, workshops, and forums at the headquarters in the Hilton Hawaiian Village Hotel in Waikiki.

Leaving Amarillo by TWA flight at noon last Monday, the Hereford H. D. members arrived in Los Angeles by mid-afternoon (PST). There they were joined by Mrs. Olson's sister, Mrs. John O. Baker, and Mrs. Bernard Parks, Dallas, with some time for sight-seeing before they sailed on the S. S. Lurline at 4 p.m. (PST) Tuesday for Hawaii.

On the boat trip they met other Texas acquaintances including Mrs. Melton McGeehee, Wayside, committee chairman on safety in the National Extension Homemakers Council. They shared boat activities also with Mrs. Olson's friend, Mrs. E. L. Survant, Trinchera, Colo., whom Mrs. Olson had visited in the Trinidad, Colo., area. Mrs. Survant is National President of NEHC.

Hosts for the convention are Hawaii University Extension Clubs, numbering 150 with a total membership of nearly 2,400 homemakers. "Housed at the University are the East-West Center and seven undergraduate colleges, including the College of Tropical Agriculture and the Cooperative Extension Service," which sponsors the extension clubs.

Among special events Monday marking this NEHC convention will be the issue for the first time of a 5-cent Commemorative U. S. Postage Stamp honoring Homemakers.

"Our Heritage" will be the central topic for workshops, including one on safety conducted by Mrs. McGeehee, national committee chairman. Principal addresses will be given by Thomas H. Hamilton, President of University of Hawaii; Dr. Lloyd Davis, administrator, Federal Extension Service; and Dr. Margaret C. Browne, Director, Division of Home Economics, Federal Extension Service.

The packages Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Love, and Mrs. Williams will pick up today at registration will include tickets to all convention events, as well as credentials, and reservations for sight-seeing tours: Little Convention Tours to Kaula (Oct. 30-31); to Hawaii (Oct. 31); and to Maui (Nov. 2).

They will leave Honolulu about midnight Saturday via United Airlines jet flight, arriving in Los Angeles at 6:25 a.m. (PST) for some more sight-seeing before returning to Hereford.

Fine Cooks Share Superior Recipes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Cooks are often accused of withholding their secrets.

But not those cooks who send, as a gift to friends, a handwritten or privately printed collection of their favorite recipes.

It was in a privately printed cook book that we came upon an unusual and delectable way of preparing halibut. We're delighted to pass along our detailed version of the recipe.

What does this dish have in its special favor?

It is easy to prepare.

It uses a fine fish.

Its sauce is an interesting combination of flavors.

It is attractive enough to serve to guests.

It makes a fine Friday offering.

So here, for your approval, is Halibut Lulu.

HALIBUT LULU

2 pounds halibut, or 2 large or 4 small steaks cut 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick

3 tablespoons butter

3 tablespoons lemon juice

1/4 cup minced onion

1/4 teaspoon salt

1/8 teaspoon pepper

1/4 cup heavy cream

1/4 cup firmly packed grated sharp cheddar cheese

2 tablespoons catchup

1 1/2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce

2 tablespoons minced parsley

Paprika

Arrange halibut steaks in a shallow baking-serving dish just large enough to hold fish in a single layer — about 8 by 12 inches. Dot fish with 1 tablespoon of the butter; sprinkle with lemon juice, onion, salt and pepper. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven 10 to 15 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork.

Meanwhile prepare the sauce: In a small saucepan put the remaining 2 tablespoons butter, cream, cheese, catchup, Worcestershire and parsley. Stir constantly over very low heat just until cheese is melted; remove from heat.

When fish is cooked, remove from oven. Tilt dish so that juice runs to one corner; draw off juice with a bulb-type baster; reserve juice for some other dish, if you like. Pour prepared sauce over fish; sprinkle with paprika. Broil fairly close to heat until tinged with brown — about 3 to 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Shower Honors Miss Campbell, Bride-Elect

Miss Sandra Campbell, then bride-elect of David J. Carthel, was named honoree at a miscellaneous shower given in the Community Room of First National Bank Building Tuesday evening.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. J. C. Reece, Mrs. E. A. Guinn, Mrs. Layton Sawyer, Mrs. Jim Wood, Miss Tawana Jones, Miss Elva Leen Martin, and Miss Judy Rowland. They presented a special gift of teflon cookware to the honoree.

Decorations accented the future bride's chosen colors of white and rusty-gold. Miss Tawana Jones presided at the serving table laid in white lace and centered with a low table arrangement of autumn flowers. Thirty guests registered during calling hours of this informal party. The wedding of Miss Campbell and Carthel was an event of Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church.

A plan specifically designed to fill the insurance needs of farmers and their employees is now available in one of the nation's leading companies. The plan provides:

1. Legal liability protection for limits of $100,000 per person $1,000,000 per accident. This coverage protects you for law suits.
2. Voluntary medical payments up to $15,000 for on-the-job injuries.
3. Death and dismemberment benefits and, if desired, $25.00 weekly indemnity for on-the-job injuries.
4. $500 blanket medical for off-the-job injuries and sickness plus dismemberment benefit.
5. $1,350 life insurance for death from any cause.
6. Hospitalization plan for members of employee's family when desired.

The cost is reasonable. In some cases farmers are now paying more for on-the-job coverage alone. In all cases when employees contribute to the cost of off-the-job coverages, your net cost will be approximately what you are now paying for limited on-the-job coverage. If you are sponsoring ex-bracers for visas, you need this plan to take care of your responsibility as a sponsor.

1 teaspoon dry crumbled basil
1/4 cup butter or shortening

Remove wing tips. Wash and drain wings but do not dry. Spread out wings; with a kitchen scissors cut each one through skin, at center point between the two bony parts, to joint; twist joint and straighten wing to form a "stick". Mix together the milk solids, flour and salt. Roll chicken sticks in mixture and place on wax paper or a rack to dry for about 30 minutes. Dip in egg, then in crumbs mixed with basil. In a medium skillet in hot butter brown sticks on both sides. If skillet has a heatproof handle, or one that can be removed, leave chicken sticks in it; or transfer to a shallow baking dish; Bake in a moderate (375 degrees) oven for about 10 minutes. Turn sticks; continue baking in a slow (325 degrees) oven about 30 minutes or until very tender and done. Makes 2 servings.

Tuck Gives Talk To Progressive Club On Taxes

Studying "How Tax Money Is Secured and Used," Progressive Home Demonstration Club heard H. A. Tuck speak on "Our Tax Dollar" at their meeting last Monday in the Community Room of First National Bank Building.

Tuck presented rates of assessment on county tax and school tax, noting extent of properties beyond the city limits and naming as two of the largest taxpayers Holly Sugar Plant and Santa Fe Railway. As general advice, he suggested additional information could be obtained from the office of the Tax Assessor and/or the Board of Equalization.

Tuck was introduced by Bruce Miller, County Attorney of Deaf Smith County, who also spoke on need for a new library building for the county.

Mrs. J. D. Gilbert Jr. presided at the business meeting, with Mrs. T. J. Parsons serving as program chairman.

Mrs. H. L. Hershey was hostess to the three guests, Miller, Tuck, and Mrs. Roy Hays; and to members present: Mrs. P. L. Carmichael, Mrs. Alvis Jolly, Mrs. E. C. Hammett, Mrs. Taft McGee, Mrs. Floyd McGee, Mrs. Gilbert, and Mrs. Parsons. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Alvis Jolly.

'Cool' Schools For Hot Climate Are Proposed

FREEPORT, (U) — Plans for room in the Brazosport Independent School District are proposed.

A $2 million bond issue vote has been set for Oct. 28. And $1.6 million of this is for air-conditioning all school buildings in the district not already thus equipped.

The two parts of the total bond issue are to be voted on separately, with the $500,000 designated for additions and improvements to the Elizabeth Ney school in Lake Jackson.

Dr. J. R. Jackson, assistant superintendent of the district, said that Brazosport will then be among the very few public school systems in Texas to have voted bonds for the purpose, and Austin will vote on the proposition this month, Jackson said.

Jackson stated it has been found that children study better, make better progress, and do not have the usual drowsiness after lunch when the classroom is air-conditioned. Most of the students are used to air-conditioned homes, automobiles, churches and business centers that have been provided with comfortable situations. And, too, he pointed out, the high humidity along the Gulf coast makes air-conditioning all the more essential for best school work.

The Brazosport school district is made up of Freeport, Clute, Lake Jackson, Lake Barbara, Richmond, Surfside, Quintana, Jones Creek, Quarter Creek and Velasco.

Part 1 In A Series

Suzanne Langley Writes Of Experiences Abroad

(Editor's Note: — Suzanne Langley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Langley, is in Austria for a year. She has written home frequently, and extracts from those letters are being offered in the series starting below.

Oxford, England August 31. (Mostly written aboard ship) Hi!! I sure hope you all made it home safely and in one piece. I sure did hate to tell you good-bye. It took the ship so long to leave that it just made it worse.

When we couldn't see you all on the pier any longer, we began looking around the harbor at our last sight of land for a while. New York has quite a harbor, doesn't it? And of course we saw the Statue of Liberty and watched it until it was out of sight.

This ship still seems big to me, but more familiar now, of course. There are lots of places to go and we've found plenty to do. Usually we have an EES meeting right after breakfast, then we have the rest of the day free for doing anything we want to. We walk around, look outside at the water, talk, play cards — mostly bridge or hearts, go to the movies, dance, and talk and talk. It really is exciting! Being out on the ocean for so long and watching every day just makes you realize how huge and powerful it is. It just fascinates me to watch the water and the waves. I love it!

Actually, the boat looks different than I thought it would in a lot of ways and it's been too cold and windy to go outside much, but I haven't been disappointed any. We have so much fun on the inside. I really do like this group of kids as a whole. They are quite different from any I've ever known — at least the majority are. But it's very interesting to talk to so many different types.

One thing the majority have in common — they're intelligent, sharp, and really know what's going on — about everything. I think I could learn a lot just listening and talking with them and trying to keep up. Just as everyone said, though, there are all kinds. I've met some who are obviously only coming for a good time — a few even admit it, but those have been very few! There are a few who are extremely intelligent and that's it. But I think that on the whole they are just average Americans from nice families.

We got our rooms and roommates the other day. It didn't give us a chance to know the girl we're to room with very long, but I like the girl I'm to room with. Her name is Britta Halvorsen. She's from Sparks, Nevada and went to the University of Nevada in Reno. She's real cute and seems real nice. She comes from a German family, too, and is majoring in German. So, you see, even though I haven't seen her much and don't know her well, we seem to have much in common.

Also, I'm excited because we are living in the 1st district (the closest to the school so we can walk to school and town) and our Hausfrau speaks only German, which will be great. No temptation to speak English. Also, Britta and I are both determined to learn German so we're not going to speak English.

I'm so excited about being here. We've now docked at Southampton and are waiting to get off the ship. I can hardly wait! I'm so excited that I just can't believe we're here! You just can't imagine how I'm enjoying this and the best is yet to come. Oh, I did get to rest a lot on the boat. We sleep quite a bit, actually. Really, I feel great!

Oxford, England Sept. 2 (Postcard)

We walked all over Stratford today — saw Shakespeare's house, Ann Hathaway's and the beautiful Holy Trinity Church which contains his grave and monument. England is beautiful so far. It is so quaint and Mother, you would love the pretty flowers — even the tiniest lawns have flowers. The country between Oxford and Stratford was so green and its so cool here. London tomorrow. Will write later, having a marvelous time. The Institute personnel and speakers are really good — tell you about them later.

Next letter from Belgium.

Scientists calculate that the earth's crust quavers 100,000 times a year.

About 60 species of birds are able to feed on poison ivy without harm.

Suzanne Langley

DERWENT AWARDS PRESENTED

NEW YORK (AP) — The Clarence Derwent Awards given annually for outstanding work in nonfeaturing roles on the New York stage have been voted this season to Joyce Ebeet and Richard McMurray.

Miss Ebeet appears in the off-Broadway revival of "The Troja Women," and McMurray was in the Broadway drama, "A Case of Label."

The $500 cash award was set up in 1945 by Derwent, a leader in Actors Equity and other theatrical enterprises.

LAURENCE HARVEY IS BUSY

NEW YORK (AP) — Laurence Harvey has a crowded stage schedule for the coming season.

The British actor is due to start rehearsals in midsummer for the London production of "Camelot." Another announcement has him pledged to Broadway appearances in a comedy, "Alfie." Dates for the latter, however, depend "entirely on the availability of a suitable theater."

BUT I'M NOT PLAYING. I'M TRYING TO GET DINAH TO EAT.

SHE SEEMS STARVED, YET SHE DOESN'T SEEM TO LIKE MEAT, VEGETABLES, CEREALS, OR ANY FOOD FOR DOGS, PIGS, COONS OR CHICKENS.

THEN YOU'D BETTER WEED THE GARDEN.

HELP! SHE'S RUNNING FOR THE WOODS. COME BACK, DINAH! COME BACK!

STRANGE. SHE'S STOPPED IN THE VEGETABLE GARDEN. SHE'S EATING WEEDS!

WELL, DANG MY DINGIES! SHE CLEANS OUT THE BUGS TOO! NO WONDER THE MAN FROM MARS CALLED HER "THE FARMER'S FRIEND."

AND WHAT AN APPETITE!

ISSUE WEAPONS TO THE HUNDRED MEN.

CAN'T I GET BACK MY OWN? TAKE WHAT YOU GET.

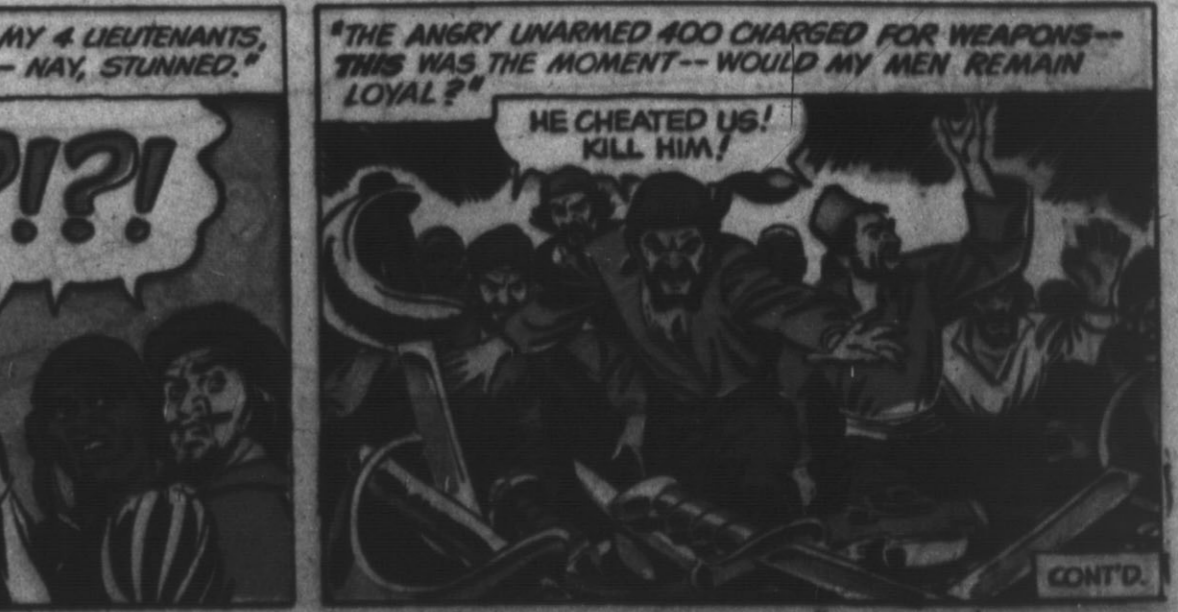

"A SPOKESMAN FOR THE UNARMED 400 --"

WHAT ABOUT THE REST OF US? CAN'T WE TAKE THE OATH AND RECEIVE WEAPONS, TOO?

"THE TIME HAD COME TO TELL THEM -- I DID!"

NOW HEAR THIS! AS OF THIS MOMENT, ALL SANLOI PIRACY -- EITHER ON LAND OR SEA -- IS ENDED FOREVER!

"ALL, INCLUDING MY 4 LIEUTENANTS, WERE AMAZED -- NAY, STUNNED."

"THE ANGRY UNARMED 400 CHARGED FOR WEAPONS -- THIS WAS THE MOMENT -- WOULD MY MEN REMAIN LOYAL?"

HE CHEATED US! KILL HIM!

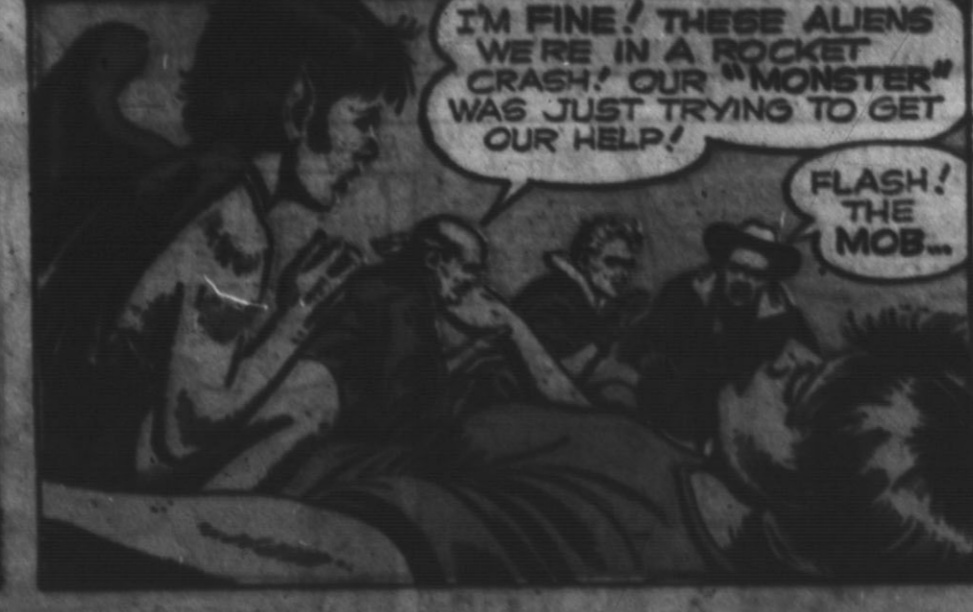

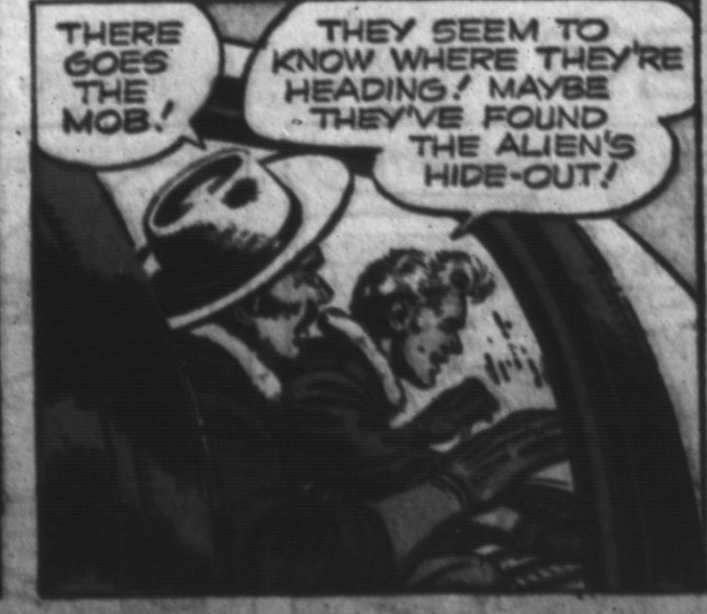

CONT'D.

WHAT'S IN THE BOX?

IT'S A SURPRISE -- I'LL TELL YOU ABOUT IT LATER --

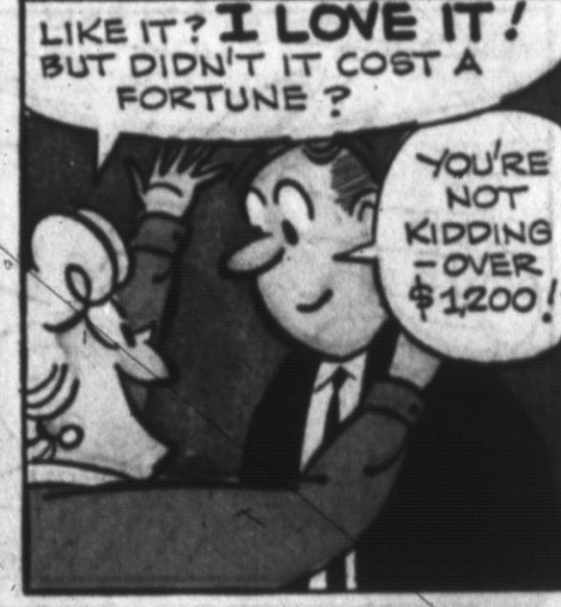

A MINK STOLE!

OH, HERBERT! THAT'S THE MOST BEAUTIFUL THING I EVER SAW!

I THOUGHT YOU'D LIKE IT --

LIKE IT? I LOVE IT! BUT DIDN'T IT COST A FORTUNE?

YOU'RE NOT KIDDING -- OVER $1200!

OH, IT'S ABSOLUTELY GORGEOUS! BUT CAN WE AFFORD IT?

OF COURSE WE CAN'T -- BUT WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES THAT MAKE?

THEN YOU SHOULDN'T HAVE DONE IT!

WHY NOT?

IF MY BOSS WANTS TO SURPRISE HIS WIFE WITH A MINK STOLE -- IT WON'T HURT US TO KEEP IT HERE A FEW DAYS FOR HIM --

$608 -- YOU LOVELY THING! HOW COULD I GROW SO ATTACHED TO YOU WHEN I ONLY OWNED YOU FOR FIVE MINUTES?!!
