Around King's Manor Expansion Program Making Progress

With The Brand Staff

Five Hereford school board members and Superintendent Paul Stevens returned Wednesday from New York after securing a "Double A" rating for bonds which the board is offering as part of a huge school expansion program. The rating was given by Standard and Poor's Bond Rating Co., reflecting an excellent financial condition for the schools and the community. This will mean a $30,000 savings over the next 15 years. Making the trip were these board members: Ivan Block, Raymond White, Bill Gentry, Labry Ballard and Olin Parris.

County Judge H. C. Williams said Wednesday that scholastic transfers from one school district to another must be made before June 1. Parents who plan to send their children to schools outside the district of residence should make application for transfers to the County Superintendent.

Deaf Smith County Farmers Union will hold a covered-dish supper tonight at 8 o'clock in the Community Center. All members are urged to attend.

Spring Concert of the High School's five combined choirs will start at 8 p.m. Friday in the high school auditorium. No admission charge will be made and the public is invited to attend.

Six Hereford men went to Muleshoe Monday night to assist in organizing a Toastmasters Club there. Going from Hereford were: Milton C. Adams, Stan Knox, Bob Rott, Melvin Jayroe, Virgil Dodson and Kenneth Rudd.

Mary Lois Skypala, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Coker, 119 Sunset, Hereford, will receive her BS degree in education at graduation services at Southwestern (Okla.) State College, Weatherford, May 22. Speaker will be Charles L. Bennett, managing editor of the Daily Oklahoman and Oklahoma City Times.

Marine Corp. Robert L. Wetly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Wetly, Hereford, participated in a recent "operation airlex" at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Carroll D. Martin, Hereford, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Martin, 130 Ave. J, is among 750 seniors due to receive bachelor's degrees at North Texas State University, Denton. He is due to receive a bachelor of science degree in education.

Marine Lance Corp. Boyd A. Epling, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Epling, Route 4, Hereford, was promoted recently while serving with the First Marine Division's First Tank Battalion, Camp Pendleton.

Hereford people have been invited to attend the 36th Pioneer Round-up to be held Saturday in Plainview. Theme will be "Those are the years that were." A reception at Southwestern Public Service at 10 a.m. will start the program. A parade is slated for 2 p.m., and a night program in Plainview High School auditorium at 8 p.m. A chuck wagon supper is to be served at 6 p.m. The event is sponsored by the Plainview B-PW club.

King's Manor's six-pronged expansion program is well "off the ground," and there is a strong possibility that the original September 1 opening date for all six units will be kept, the Rev. Don Davidson, Executive Director, said Wednesday.

Farthest along is the $220,000 nursing unit just west of the original buildings. Walls and roof for this portion of the sprawling home for the aged are completed, and inside work is under way, he explained.

When completed, this unit will provide the first facilities of King's Manor for "sick" persons who cannot now be cared for in the older portion of the home. He said a number of applications already are on file for patients for the new unit.

Groundwork has been finished for a new "wellcare" unit at the home which will provide facilities for 10 additional residents as well as a permanent kitchen and dining room for the entire plant. The new unit, which will be attached to the original structure on the west, will be known as Westgate and will bring housing facilities for "well" residents to 40. The hospital will provide facilities for 26 and will be ultra modern in every respect, the director said.

Westgate is to cost $115,000 and is being built by Knox, Galley & Meadon, Lubbock. In addition, the project just getting started will have office, a large living room, sun parlor and a prayer room. It will extend the wellcare section by 116 feet.

Also nearing completion is a

Commissioners Rename Street On South Side

A portion of Austin Road has been redesignated Country Club Drive. This action was taken Monday by Deaf Smith County Commissioners following the presentation of a petition signed by 41 residents of the area, calling for the change.

Effective immediately, that section beginning at the 'Y' on South Main, west to Highway 385 has been changed to Country Club Drive.

The request for renaming this section of Austin Road had been delayed from a previous meeting.

In other action, the court approved payment of County bills including those presented by Jewel Smith, County Welfare officer; approved the monthly hospital report; increased the salary of Edna Earle Smith and approved the crossing of a county road with a gas line.

The also discussed new policies for the use of the Bull Barn, and at the same time authorized (Continued on page 2) business manager's home, a $16,500 "on-campus" project being built by Foxworth-Galbraith Lumber Co., and duplexes costing $36,000 to provide "on-campus" homes for employees of the hospital and the new wellcare unit. The duplexes are being built by Carl McCaslin Lumber Co.

"When we have completed our present building projects out total assets at the home will run to nearly three-quarters of a million dollars," Mr. Davidson said.

He said a paving project on the west side of the home also is pending. "We plan to open up a street on the west side of the plant, providing much better road facilities for our home. At present our road system is inadequate, and even more so now than usual since the new well-care unit has been started."

Among new personnel at the home are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, business manager of the nursing unit and director of nursing services respectively; L. C. Thompson, manager of the nursing home; and Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Copeland, maintenance and assistant in food services respectively.

"When the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference meets the last of this month, we will have an excellent progress report to make of the home," Mr. Davidson concluded.

King's Manor is owned by the Northwest Texas conference.

Wheat Prospects Dim; Other Crops Progress

Sugar Beets, Potatoes Off To Good Start

Dry weather, which is beginning to effect even irrigated wheat, has dimmed wheat prospects in Deaf Smith County, but other crops are off to a good start, agricultural experts said Wednesday in summarizing crop conditions at mid-spring.

"Opportunities for producing a good wheat crop are dimming," one crop observer said, and he added, "Only summer fallowed wheat is hanging on." He was speaking of dryland wheat; about half of the county's 100,000 acres is in dryland wheat.

He said even irrigated wheat is "demanding more and more water as it nears maturity, and this is giving irrigation farmers a run for their money."

"In fact," he explained, "irrigation farmers are being hard-put to keep their wheat supplied with enough water, and some wheat farmers are almost literally staying up around the clock, changing water."

Meantime, other crops were making good progress. Sugar beets are up and off to a good start. Virtually all the sugar beet acreage is on irrigated land.

Lefty Thomas, county agent, said cotton planting is well along. The county has some 11,000 acres allotted to cotton, and practically all is irrigated. Thomas said only 100 to 200 acres is dryland. He estimated 50 to 60 percent of the cotton is now in the ground.

Onions and potatoes also are "off to a good start," he said. Since these are irrigated crops, the continuing dry weather has not effected these crops yet. Planting of grain sorghum also is getting under way. The count (Continued on Page 2)

Whitefaces Win Squeaker To Go Into Bi-District

The Hereford Whitefaces blasted their way from behind in the bottom of the seventh inning Tuesday to defeat the Levelland Lobos 5-4 and clinch the District 1-AAA crown.

The Herd was trailing 4-0 at the bottom of the seventh inning but took advantage of several errors and singles to pull from behind and capture the district crown.

Five Students Vie For Class's Top Positions

Five Hereford High School seniors were notified this week by High School Principal Bill Michaels that they were in the running for the honor of valedictorian and salutatorian for the graduation class of 1964.

The students are Linda Tooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Tooley; Janice Hagans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston E. Hagans; Royce Ann Gilliland, niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gilbreth; Ronnie Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Duncan and Joe Coffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coffman.

"Normally," Bill Phillips, school coordinator, said, "the honor students are announced before school is out but this year we have five students with averages that figure so close that it can be determined by an A or B in a single course."

"These student's grades are so close that this six weeks grade determines what the semester average will be."

"If after the semester grades are determined there is a tie, we will go back to their freshman grades," Phillips continued.

This year the valedictorian and salutatorian will be formally announced the night of graduation, which is May 29.

"It is customary that the valedictorian and salutatorian give speeches of welcome and farewell the evening of the commencement exercises. These five students will get together and write two speeches, one to be given by the valedictorian and the other by the salutatorian," Phillips said.

The winning pitcher was Jim Haney and Dennis Deel was charged with the loss for the Lobos.

Hereford boasts a 10-9 record for the season and has defeated several AAAA schools, both at Hereford and away from the home field.

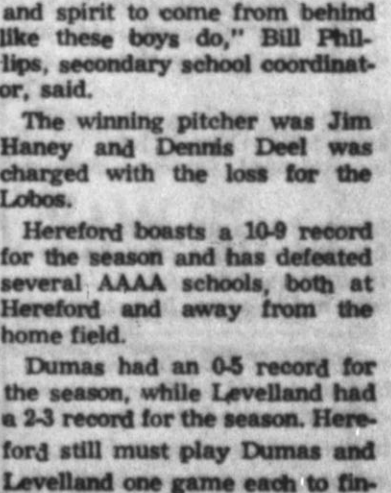

Dumas had an 0-5 record for the season, while Levelland had a 2-3 record for the season. Hereford still must play Dumas and Levelland one game each to finish the 1964 season.

May Jones At Nara Visa Has Her Own Kind of Museum-Rare Bottles

Editor's Note: This is the first of a two-part story on museums in this area. This one deals with an interesting museum featuring bottles near Tucuman, N. M.

By Melvin Young
To thousands of tourists traveling through the Southwest, the "tourist trap" is well known, complete with Gila monsters, Reptile Gardens and the "up-turned palm."

Not so however, with the bottle wrangler of Nara Visa, for May Moncus Jones has nothing to sell, but plenty to tell. If you have half a day to spend in a sleepy little New Mexican hamlet, May Jones will thrill you with tales of the old Southwest, traced through her collection of empty "bottles."

Hundreds stop annually. This tiny museum, enclosed with genuine ribbon barbed wire from the old Syndicate Spread, housing some 5000 pounds of Southwest history, now draws tourists like honey draws flies. Located on Highway 54, just inside the state, the little town of Nara Visa, N. M., has little to offer the tourist out to "spend" his way to happiness in two easy weeks. It contains simply, a bar, a couple of service stations, the Bottle Wrangler Headquarters, a Postoffice and a new, modern motel.

Those looking for the bright lights will pass on. But those interested in history will spend a day in the quaint little town.

As you view the thousands of odd bottles (some over 170 years old), you just naturally ponder the motivation behind a collection such as this. Certainly not for profit, for there's no charge for the tour of the "Bottle Wrangler's Headquarters", and often as not, you can't even pay for the bottle of beer enjoyed next door.

Mrs. Jones started on the bottle trail approximately 10 years ago while living in California. Recuperating from a severe heart attack, she needed a hobby to occupy her mind. She started collecting relics... mostly bottles. This led to the study of the history of bottles, obtained mostly from writing to the many chambers of commerce around the nation, and to the companies themselves whenever there was an identification mark visible.

The answers became increasingly interesting as the years passed by.

Until a couple of years ago, the Bottle Bug plied her trade throughout the ghost towns of Nevada and California, but later decided to return to the place of her birth, Nara Visa, to make her home near a 90-year-old mother and an older sister Ima. "These folks around here thought I was nuts," said May Jones, "and some of them still (Continued on Page 2)

Odessa Golfer, Plainview Man Win Golf Titles

Jimmy Russell, professional golfer from Odessa, fired a six under par, 64, to capture the pro division of the Hereford pro-member tournament held Monday at the John Pitman Municipal Golf Course.

Troy Badgett of Amarillo pressed Russell with a 66, while Horace Moore, Plainview and Tucumcari, N.M. pro Wilson Swiney tied for third with a pair of 68's. Lubbock's Gene Mitchell Sr.; Duke Kincaide, Clovis; S. A. Smith, Andrews and Kenneth Shields, Littlefield were all knotted with a one under par, 69.

In team play, Russell's foursome turned a low ball 52, 18 under par, for the title. Dexter Lillie of Hereford, Jim Green, Muleshoe and Elton Flake of Plainview shared the championship with Russell.

Mitchell, along with John Renner, Friona; Bill Davis, Hereford and Paul Hall, Lubbock, collected second in team running with a low ball 53. Third place was a 54, and three groups tied for fourth with 55's.

Jack Williams, Plainview took home the low amateur title with a 68. Huck Noehols, Friona won the low net amateur championship with a 62.

Gus Moreland, Pampa and Al Negrepe, Clovis' Cannon Air Force Base tied Russell and Vera Farquhar, Amarillo for the pro-pro top spot. The two duos recorded a 62.

"The tournament was one of the best we have ever had and we feel that it was a complete success in every aspect," said Bud Posey.

Shrine, Doctors Set For Clinic; 200 Expected

Oasis Shrine club and physicians are "ready" for Saturday's children's clinic, an annual event in Hereford when area doctors pool their talents for one of the Panhandle's outstanding events of its kind.

Wayne Phillips, president of the area Shrine club, said preliminary work for the clinic has been completed. The day's activities will be outlined at a workers' breakfast in the Jim Hill Hotel at 7:30 Saturday morning.

Then from 9 until 11:30, children will be registered at the Community Center. From 11:30 until 1:30 p.m., lunch will be served free to children, their parents and the physicians at senior high cafeteria. Hereford Lions club will pick up the tab for the luncheon.

The clinic proper, which is to be held at the Hereford Medical & Surgical Clinic downtown, will be staged from 1:30 until 4:30 p.m., the Shrine operating shuttle service between the cafeteria and the clinic for the occasion.

The clinic proper will be followed by a round-table discussion at the Jim Hill for the doctors and Shriners.

A social hour at the Hereford Country club is planned for for Shriners, their wives, doctors, nurses and guests, and a dance will follow.

ty's usual planting runs to 170,000 acres, and apparently this year's crop will reach that proportions. In fact, should a rain occur at the right time, some of this year's wheat land will be planted late to sorghum.

Rain will "make" same wheat if it comes soon enough, but most farm observers checked Wednesday were of the opinion that this year's wheat crop will be generally poor. One man compared it with last year's prospects. He summed it up like this: "Hot, dry winds will hurt wheat even further, but so far we have had little hot wind, and this has been a factor in maintaining the crop at its present level. Such winds hurt even irrigated grain."

He said "we will have another low yield year, but I believe we may better last year's yield slightly. Of course that was the worst year we have had in six years, due to a November freeze which destroyed much of the 1963 wheat crop."

A few wheat farmers already have plowed up their wheat. Meantime, another warning to wheat farmers that they must sign up for participation in the 1964 program not later than look a little strange when I tell them what my hobby is."

But Mrs. Jones has found the hobby most interesting, and intends to keep looking for maverick bottles just as the cow punchers of the New Mexico ranch country look for the maverick calves. "There's plenty of history just lying around rotting away," she says, "and I intend to find as much of it as I can."
Her collection, of course, contains many items other than bottles. Arrow heads, a genuine 19th century hand corn planter, hundreds of rocks and a few genuine Indian baskets adorn the shelves in her home. But it is with the bottles that her first love lies.

In tracing the history of bottles, she has discovered that within her collection can be found Chinese opium bottles used around the turn of the century; bottles with flat bottoms, long necks, short necks, no necks and even a few of the Mason variety, dating back to 1828.

Big bottles, little bottles, medicine bottles, whiskey bottles. Bottles from England. Bottles from Japan. Bottles with labels; bottles without. Blue bottles, purple bottles, amber bottles and clear bottles. And even a couple like the one our mother used to use as a rolling pin.

Some of the bottles originally held remedies that would cure all. Others held spirits that would cure nothing (except the mild series). All tell a tale. One bottle which contained a well known carbonated soft drink bore the inscription "Best By A Dam Site". It was used to dispense soda pop at the building site of the mammoth Hoover Dam.

Mrs. Jones is happy in Nara Visa. She has traveled far and wide before and after bitten by the bottle bug, including a stint in Hollywood, Calif. She has rubbed elbows with the big stars. She is acquainted with such notables as Bing Crosby, the late

Wallace Berry, Shelly Winters and many others. "Bing and Wallace were 'real folks,'" she says. "They're like the people of Nara Visa. My brother-in-law used to say, 'God made a lot of people and a few folks and dropped the folks in Nara Visa.' You just can't beat them. But there's one thing I can't get used to since returning," she says. "It's these New Mexicans with boats. Why it doesn't rain enough in this country to float a cork, must less a boat. Every day we see these guys going by with boats behind their cars and pickups. It's crazy."

"If you've never been to Nara Visa, just picture yourself stepping into the show 'Gun-smoke,'" says Mrs. Jones' sister Ima Ward who operates the little bar next door. "This place is history too." Ima is often called 'Kitty' with reference to the 'Kitty' of 'Gun-smoke' fame.

The bar is located in a building that once housed a bank. The most robbed bank in the Southwest say old timers, having yielded to the six-gun seven times in its short history. The vault that once "protected" the ranchers' cash, is now used to store the liquor and beer for its present tenant, Ira's Bar.

Mrs. Jones also helps sister Ima at the bar. "I don't think there are very many banks like this," she says. "Some of the tourists who stop here and stay longer than anticipated (they all do) wonder how their people will look when they explain, they have lost over half a day in Nara Visa—drinking beer in a bar. You'll have to admit—that is a rather strange excuse even though true. I can explain their delay here. They are living a part of the early West's past history in this modern day and just hate to leave it."

"A museum means a lot to a town," said Mrs. Jones. "But we don't have much here. Probably didn't stop over 700 or 800 tourists last year. We didn't keep an accurate count, but if you're really looking for a museum that will keep you spell-bound for the whole day, just drop in on my brother Herman Moncus at the Elk Drug in Tucumcari," she said.

As Nara Visa faded in the distance, our thoughts drifted back to the wonders we had just departed. We had not dreamed that an "empty bottle" could be so interesting. That the quest for the origin of such bottles could span continents, crossing the wide oceans and cement friendships with people of far different backgrounds. We didn't dream that "history" could be found in an old faded bottle, scrounged from gosh towns long since forgotten, scattered along the prairies, discarded by the pioneers as they hurried across the open spaces searching for a better life ahead.

Who would have believed that these relics of days gone by would have outlived the records of the companies that made them? Indeed, who would have believed that this quaint little hamlet in Eastern New Mexico would contain one such as May Moncus Jones, the "bottle wrangler" sublime?

And away we went, via Logan Dam to Tucumcari and another story about the Moncus family... historians, adventurers, collectors, "folks".

We drove 3,243 miles to make a point about our Super Turbine transmission

You can do it on the way to the grocery store

Would we drive a Buick with a Super Turbine transmission* all the way from Pasadena to New York City just to win Class C in the Mobil Economy Run? Of course. And just in case anyone failed to get the message, we did it twice again. And won Class D and Class G. In all, Buick entered 4 classes, and won 3—more than any other make of car. (Remember when people used to think Buicks used a lot of gas?) Did we make our point about the Super Buick Motor Division

Turbine transmission? You bet. Obviously you aren't planning to drive 3,243 miles to prove your new Buick is economical. And you can't expect to get as many miles per gallon as the experts in the Economy Run. Still, it is nice to know you can win the economy run around town. And the good looks prize at the same time. See your Buick dealer about it. No doubt he'll think of a number of other reasons to drive a Buick.

By Melvin Young

After taking a swing through Eastern New Mexico this past Monday, we were quite pleased to note the change for the better when crossing back into Texas.

We left Hereford early Monday morning, driving north to Channing (visiting Boys Ranch on the way) and then across to Nara Vista, N. M., via Highway 54. After leaving the irrigation belt going north, there just isn't much to see except ranch land, parched and lifeless, waiting for the spring rains that never came.

We couldn't help wondering about the mess it would make if some careless motorist happened to toss a lighted cigarette out the window, catching fire to the prairie.

With the winds we're having lately, there's no telling how much area it would cover before anyone could bring it under control.

But coming back around by Tucumcari, Broadview, Grady and Bellevue, we were pleased to note the visible difference in the appearance of the farm lands after crossing back into the state of Texas. During the entire trip, we can remember no tractor running on the New Mexico side of the line, but no sooner had we entered Deaf Smith County than we began spotting farmers at work, fields being tilled and a marked difference in the appearance of the wheat. Don't think the area has received a bit more rain than neighboring New Mexico. We do believe however, that better soil and water conservation has made a big difference.

As we've said before... there just ain't a better farmer than the Deaf Smith County breed.

We are reminded too that the grass in Deaf Smith County is tinder dry and due to this condition, we have been experiencing an unusual number of grass fires. It has been keeping our volunteer fire department hopping just to keep abreast of the situation. And here we might say that Hereford's Volunteer Department is probably the best in the country. They're doing a mighty fine job of controlling a bad situation. The boys go all out to give us even better fire protection than many people receive with paid departments.

And we're not the only ones that feel this way. We'd bet that Lee Cocanougher, Palmer Norton and a few others who have experienced grass fire lately would agree wholeheartedly. They're tops.

And speaking of fires, Some of our school board members may be in for a hot time when they return from New York. At least, that's the thinking of ex-board member, B. F. Cain.

It seems that the group in New York took the liberty of placing a long distance telephone call to Cain (collect) at 1 a.m. Central Standard time. That's 3 a.m. Eastern Daylight Savings Time.

"That's too early to be getting up and too late to be going to bed," says B. F.

Board members making the New York trip were Bill Gentry, Ivan Block, Labry Ballard, Olin Parris and Raymond White.

The Hereford bands played to a capacity crowd Tuesday night during the annual Spring Concert conducted at the high school auditorium. The program was excellent as usual.

And up the road a ways, the boys of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch are making plans for their 25th Anniversary program, highlighted by the combined commencement exercises for 32 high school seniors, and 47 boys in the eighth grade who will go into high school this fall.

The celebration is planned for May 24.

More than 300 boys now call the Ranch "home", while some 1000 have graduated since 1939 when Cal Farley took six homeless boys off the streets of Amarillo and gave them a home in the Old Tascosa Courthouse.

The public is invited to attend the celebration and stay for the commencement exercises to follow.

Someone once asked the French writer Jean Cocteau if he believed in luck. "Certainly", he said. "How else do you explain the success of those you don't like?"

Graveside Rites Planned for Baby

Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoff Jr., died early Wednesday in Deaf Smith County Hospital.

The Rev. Russell A. Wingert, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, will conduct graveside services in Rest Lawn Memorial Park at 2 p.m. Friday.

Surviving are the infant's parents, Route 1, Hereford; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoff Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Winkler, all of Hereford.

Area 'Foot Week' Observance Set

Annual Foot Health Week will be observed throughout the nation May 15-22 and the Texas Podiatry Association will participate in the observance of the annual event, according to Dr. W. A. Watson.

Dr. Watson, podiatrist serving Hereford, said the theme for this year's week is, "Walk and be Healthy".

"We would like to focus the public attention to the foot problems as they exist. The need for podiatrists in this area is becoming a major problem," Watson continued.

"Hereford only has one part-time podiatrist, where there should be two," Dr. Watson said.

Latinos Defeat Amarillo Sunday In Return Bout

The Amarillo Lobos and the Hereford Latinos became engaged in another hitting battle last Sunday but this time Hereford came out on top by the score of 17 to 15.

In the first inning Amarillo scored one run, but the Latinos came strong as Joe Hernandez led off with a hard shot through short stop; Shorty Salinas followed with a home-run over left field fence; Jake Suarez had a single next, then Goose Thoman belted another homer. Paul Torrez, Red Ball got singles and Sabino Suarez belted another home-run to move the Latinos ahead 7 to 1.

In the second inning Amarillo scored three runs, but Hereford countered with six more runs. Julio Valdez replaced Red Ball on the mound when the score was 17 to 10 in the seventh inning and the Lobos got five runs off Valdez to make the score 17 to 15.

Goose Thomas led the Latinos with five hits in six times at bat, including a homer. Amarillo got 15 hits off Red and Valdez while Hereford connected 18 hits off Martinez and Tenorio.

The winning pitcher for Hereford was Red Ball and Tenorio was the losing pitcher.

The Latinos will play Dimmitt and another local team in a doubleheader here next Sunday.

The Sportman will present trophies to Salinas, Thomas and Suarez as they tied for the first homer on their first time at bat.

Merry Maidens Show Handiwork For Parents

Merry Maidens 4-H club held an achievement exhibit for their parents at the Community Center last Saturday. Each girl displayed her recent project and explained how it was made.

Jane Witkowski exhibited yeast rolls; Toni White, peanut butter cookies; Sandra Frye, a sachet ball; Mary Ann Vance, canned tomatoes; Patsy Paetzold, her favorite food table with rating scale used in judging it.

Clothing projects were displayed when Dorothy Marnell showed a wrap-around skirt; Lou Ann Witkowski, her wool suit; and Jo Ann Marnell, a formal.

Achievement certificates were presented to Toni, Dorothy, Jane, Sandra Frye and Patsy. Jo Ann and Lou Ann were awarded certificates for public speaking.

Named earlier as 4-H Gold Star Girl in Deaf Smith County, Jo Ann Marnell was presented the special Gold Star Certificate.

Not present but receiving certificates for foods were Patricia Herr, Sandra Yocum, Judy Benner, Nancy Fisher, Connie Walker, Thelma Warren, Lynn Fisher, and Mary Kay Wagner.

Parents enjoying this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Frye, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Vance, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paetzold and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Witkowski. Special guests were Mrs. Jean Beene, Home Demonstration 4-H supervisor, and her family.

At their regular May 6 meeting, the Merry Maidens heard reports from foods groups—Unit I and Unit III—made plans for the achievement event. Sandra Frye and Patsy Paetzold directed group singing, and Mary Kay Wagner led the 4-H club ritual.

Members then present were Sandra Frye, Patricia Herr, Patsy Paetzold, Toni White, Lou Ann Witkowski, Sandra Yocum, Jane Witkowski, and Mary Kay Wagner, also the club leaders Mrs. Leo Witkowski and Mrs. Edward Paetzold.

Our Day

of course it is, but it brings with it a staggering challenge... the individual responsibility of helping save civilization. The terrible "dark days" following the fall of the Roman Empire would be termed "good days" compared to the period of destruction that would follow the loosing of our hydrogen weapons. We must face it. In a manner, we must be our own saviour. Then let us kids not quibble. We must cheerfully accept the task. If we keep our eyes fixed on God and our ears tuned-in to His direction center, we can be the deterring force He needs to save the world from destruction. For He said, "Him that lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God." The varied programs of the church offer opportunity to gain this wisdom and understanding of God and His plan of salvation for the world. You have a part to play. Get inside His field of service... attend church regularly. For, "The wise in heart will receive Commandments."

You In The Church
 The Church is You
 — form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity. Be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Reject Completes 'Gossip' for Year

By Sue Smith

The mimeograph machine was reluctantly put away Wednesday evening, April 30, as the last page of the Reject was finished and neatly stacked beside nine other pages. There was a bit of sadness felt by the Reject Staff as they became aware of the fact that the fun and efforts of gathering whispers of sneaky gossip or printing quiet little remarks with a usual schooling significance was suddenly and completely ended. They also realized that the privilege of publicly poking fun at the faculty members sadly but surely was gone forever with the last publication of the Reject.

However, there were a few consolations. Some 43 dollars was made by selling the Rejects at a dime each. This, as usual, was not all clear profit; Eighteen dollars was used for paying for the paper.

Each edition usually brings about twenty dollars clear profit on the average. With this profit, a $90 Anso 225 camera was bought plus an ample supply of film and flashbulbs. Some $10 was spent on the campaign supplies needed when running Vicki Inman for president of Panhandle High School Press Association. Any money left over from this last edition will be used for equipment and supplies for next year.

On the whole, the main goal for printing the Reject was to make money to support the journalism needs and also for pure honest enjoyment for the students and faculty of Hereford High School. The Reject staff sincerely hopes we have fulfilled the latter to the fullest extent. We tried to include every student at one time or other and exclude any remark that might hurt anyone. We do hope we have accomplished this. Thanks again from the Reject staff for the wonderful cooperation and enthusiasm shown toward this year's Reject.

NHS To Furnish Tassels For Honor Students

By Christine Skypala

This year, as in previous years, the senior members of the National Honor Society will have two tassels on their caps at commencement exercises. One will be gold, which symbolizes that they are members of the NHS, and the other will be maroon.

The National Honor Society will pay for the gold tassel and the senior may then keep it after graduation as a remembrance of their membership in the NHS. The maroon tassel will also be kept by the seniors, which has always been tradition at HHS.

The caps and gowns are scheduled to be distributed sometime within the next week, according to Mrs. Billye Buck, senior class sponsor.

Choir Members Attend Banquet Friday Evening

More than 150 choir members and guests were in attendance at the organization's banquet held Friday night in the cafeteria.

Speaker for the affair was Bill Gollighon, a senior Tech student, from Lubbock. He is a student missionary to Japan.

Most Students Not In Sports

By Sue Smith

Why do the majority of our students enjoy sports only from the grandstands?

In this world today, participants in sports are judged by their skill and not their will. Only the best in the individual sports ever really get a chance to play. Why can't the imperfect, ill-coordinated have their fun in sports?

Room is made for the average student everywhere else. In classes, the average as well as the over-average are taught the same things, participate in the projects, and strive for the same goals. Even though some make better grades doesn't mean that others don't endeavor to conceive just as much experience and knowledge; and sometimes, with even more enthusiasm.

Why can't it be this way in sports? Why must those who try just as hard and who love sports just as much sit on the sidelines and watch the "better" ones?

If only the Mickey Mantles were allowed to play baseball or only the Globe Trotters were allowed to play basketball, this would be a sad world indeed. As Webster says: "Sport-That which diverts and makes mirth; pastime; amusement."

DE Finishes 10th Year at Hereford

By Mike Clark

It's a little more than ten years now since Distributive Education was started. DE teaches students the skill of selling, and gives the student knowledge of the trade. The students gain on-the-job experience with the help of the employers who cooperate in helping this program, and supplying jobs for the students.

Next year Mr. Paris, DE coordinator, is expecting a good turnout in applications from students who are interested in this program. So far approximately sixty-three students have signed up for the program.

Although Mr. Paris has been a DE teacher only for a few years, it has been successful since he started. Mr. Paris has recruited more than a hundred students for DE since he has been DE teacher here at Hereford High School.

HHS Boys Learn to Iron, Cook In Homemaking

By Sandra Green

It has been said that a woman can win a man's heart through his stomach and gain his confidence by needle and thread. What about a man who can sew on his own buttons? The boys' homemaking class is now in a unit of learning to care for their personal wardrobe. Each boy was to bring a shirt and Mrs. Margaret Durham, their instructor, is now in the process of teaching how to mend shirts. Buttons, needles and thread are basic tools needed in sewing on a button for themselves.

"The class has just completed a unit on food preparation and is now getting ready to prepare an evening meal for themselves and guests," commented Mrs. Durham.

A merchant will take a class period to teach material selection taking in consideration color and quality of the material.

The boys are learning how to sprinkle, iron and pack a long sleeve shirt.

The job of sprinkling is made easier by sitting, they learned. Warm water lessens the time required to allow shirts to stand, about two to three hours. To lessen wrinkles, they smooth out as many wrinkles as possible before sprinkling. The shirt is folded in thirds by first moistening the shirt front folding sleeves down, then putting the tail on the underside.

Ironing time is lessened and the job is made easier by following these instructions. Place the shirt at left end of the board, as it is folded the tail will fall over the side of the board and yoke will be toward the student.

Place folded, dampened shirt at left end of the board, as it is unfolded the tail will fall over the side of the board and the yoke will be toward you.

Pick up the right sleeve by the cuff and shoulder. Turn it placket side up. Smooth the wrinkles toward the shoulder and cuff. Start ironing in the center of the sleeve toward the shoulder.

Shift the iron to the left hand when ironing toward the shoulder.

der. Shift the iron back to the right hand, iron the inside of the cuff. Turn the sleeve over and repeat the process.

If starch has been used run hand up sleeve to loosen before ironing the collar and the band while the shirt is in this position. Stand the collar. Straighten yoke for ironing.

Pull the fold of the shirt over the edge of the board in order not to iron a crease. Crossing the arms, turn the shirt in position for ironing left sleeve. Iron the left sleeve and the underneath side of the collar and the band.

The right sleeve is now hanging free over the end of board away from the rest of the dampened shirt. Give the shirt a one-fourth turn, which places it lengthwise on the board. Iron the inside of the left half of the back and yoke. Stretch and press dry the side seams to prevent puckering.

Do not iron in a crease. Retouch the front if necessary. Move the shirt slightly toward the far side of the board. Iron the inside of right back.

Iron the right front over the ironed back. Turn the button band over and press it on the wrong side. Touch up the side front. Turn collar in position by folding; ironing is not necessary. Shirts last longer if stored on hangers.

Things were rather slow in the sports life of HHS last week. The only action was, however, exciting and important. It was a 5-4 victory over Dumas.

As usual, the Whitefaces had to come from behind to pull this one from the fire. And, also as usual, Mike Ranspot hurled the Herd to victory over the Demons. Ranspot, throwing into a wind which sometimes got as high as 50 mph, set a Whiteface record as he struck out 16 Demons.

Dumas built up a lead of 4-0 in five innings behind the no-hit pitching of Billy McVicker. However, the Whitefaces exploded for five runs in the bottom of the fifth.

Dumas missed the change to give the Herd a helping hand Saturday when they lost to Levelland by a score of 3-2 in a game played in Dumas. A Lobo loss would have clinched a tie for the district championship for the Whitefaces. As it is, the Whitefaces need a win over Levelland to clinch an undisputed loop crown. They had the chance last Tuesday.

Saturday the Whitefaces travel to Dumas for the last meeting between the two teams this year. The regular season ends for the Whitefaces Tuesday when they go to Levelland.

In district the Interscholastic League one-act play competition, Hereford's drama department lost the district title by the "skin of their teeth". Dumas, having beaten Hereford in district, went ahead to take first at regional and second at state in the Conference AAA competition with "The Brute". May Ann Engram, Dumas, took the Samuel French Award for the Conference. Royce Chandler, Dumas, was placed on the all star cast.

Congratulations to Canyon for winning in the Conference AA competition with its "Othello". William Moore captured the Samuel French Award for best actor.

Pampa High School's journalism teacher, Miss Elizabeth Hurley, received the outstanding Journalism Teacher of the Year in Texas award. We want to congratulate her on her fine work in journalism.

We are proud to say that "The Whiteface" was named the best paper in its category for a page in a local paper and it received the highest rating, Award of Distinguished Merit. Larry Fuhrmann, we congratulate you on your second place standing in state for your spot news photography in class AAA.

We want to welcome everyone to the all school exhibit which will be Monday, May 18. Each department will be open so you may see the progress it has made this year.

This issue of "The Whiteface" is the last official one of this year; however, a revue paper will be published by a few energetic staff members. We have truly enjoyed working on the staff and hope you have enjoyed our publication as well.

Barber, Royal Take Honors For Top Students In FFA

Virgil Barber was named the chapter star farmer and Lee Robinson was named the star greenhand at the Future Farmer's annual banquet held Thursday evening in the high school cafeteria. Gary Royal received the degree of state farmer.

The annual affair was attended by 75 future farmers and 100 guests. Speaker for the evening was Benny Mays, state president of the organization. Entertainment was presented by the "Lamplighters" and the "Sham-bli Trio Plus One".

There were several FFA Foundation awards presented to the boys. These were: farm mechanics, Billy Johnson; farm electrification, Carl Myers; farm safety, David Block; soil and water management, Roddy Allred; public speaking, Arvell Williams; livestock farming, Jackie Andrews; and crop farming, Gary Royal.

Receiving the DeKalb award was Gary Royal, president of the local chapter.

Each year the local chapter bestows honorary degrees upon persons who have helped further the cause of the farming organization. This year the awards went to Curtis O. Roach of Hereford Grain Corp. and Henry Sears of the First National Bank. The awards were presented by the chapter officer to Mrs. Roach and Ted Royal, since neither Roach nor Sears were able to attend the meeting.

Arvell Williams opened the banquet with the invocation, and chapter officers conducted the opening ceremony. The welcome was given by David Block and Gary Royal introduced the guests.

Jackie Andrews then reviewed the progress of the local chapter over the past nine months. Chapter advisors presented the awards.

Gary Royal introduced the speaker. In his opening remarks, Mays pointed out to the boys that the time to start is now if (Continued on Page 13)

The Whiteface walked away with top honors in the community newspaper division of the Interscholastic League Press Conference held in Austin last week. Larry Fuhrmann, staff reporter for the Hereford Brand and a student at Hereford High School, won second place in the state contest for spot news photography. Fuhrmann was the only person from Hereford to win individual honors in the meet.

Those going on this state trip were Rosemary Hershey, Mary Bromman, Christine Skypala, Vickie Inman, Sandra Green, Betty Huckert, Keith Blanton, Linda Hart and Beverley Barrett. Sponsors were Mrs. Carol Haseloff, journalism teacher, and Mrs. Burke Inman.

With suitcases jammed shut, almost forgotten toothbrushes clutched tightly, and car trunks packed to the fullest, the trip officially started at the early hour of 4 a.m. on Thursday, May 7. Nearing Austin, the different climate was respectfully acknowledged as windows came down and shoes came off.

Another aspect of the climate that especially claimed the attention of the eight girls was the humidity. Hair seemed to bloom, a trifle ungracefully in all directions, including up and down, with a slight fizz on the end. A typical day included attending a meeting, fixing hair, attending another meeting, fixing hair, fixing hair, fixing hair...

Arriving in Austin, the first thing many of the girls did was—you guessed it—roll their hair.

The first speech of the convention was by Mr. Bill Berger, president of the Texas Press Association.

His address to the assembly of Journalism students on Friday was "Your Future in Texas Journalism". Mrs. Edith Fox King, director of publication in San Antonio College, viewed the pros and cons and rewards of a school paper in her talk "Student Publications—A Challenge." The address "Covering the World's News" at the annual banquet on Friday night was by Frank Starzel, former general manager of Associated Press.

Since no Hereford Journalism student was entered in the state contest, most of the meetings (Continued on page 13) apartment but walks six blocks to and from school, does six to seven hours of homework each night, and works as a barber. Jim recently received a $1600 scholarship to Harvard University and also one to John Hopkins. He decided to attend Harvard since the expense at John Hopkins was so great.

Also from Lubbock High, Senior Day will be observed by holding a "Hootenanny", the naming of Mr. Muscles and Miss Venus, a wading contest, a penny diving expedition, and the naming of senior personalities.

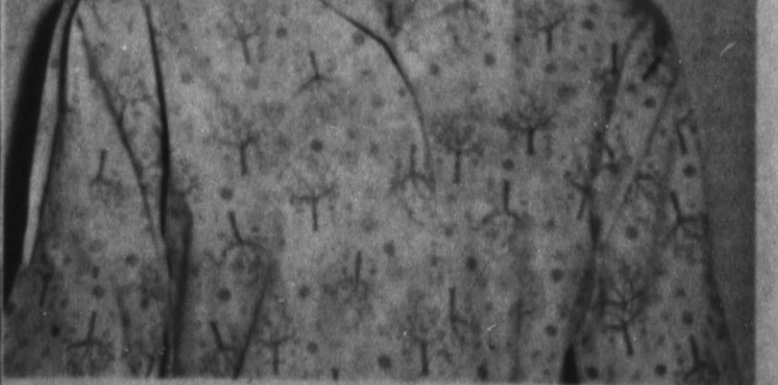

"If Johnny has a 'D' toward the end of school," according to The Eagle's Tale at Canyon High School, "he still has a chance, considering that 'Somewhere Over the Rainbow' was written in three days and Lincoln's 'Gettysburg Address' was written, lost, and given inside the duration of 24 hours. Even if Johnny has a 'D' he can at least make it to the stage at graduation. Twenty days of hard work might be more profitable than 174 days of poor work."

Any willing student who has something to say on social, political, or any other matter of interest to the student body may say it freely in the "Rebound" column in the Midland school paper, The Bull Dog.

At Odessa College, Sports Day, held for local schools, a Midland High School girl jumped seven feet in the standing broad jump to place second.

Activities of the Communist Party in the United States will be the topic of an assembly presented to the student of Lubbock High School by the F.B.I.

June 8 the group will sing in Salt Lake City, and June 9 in Immanuel Baptist Church, Farmington, N. M. They will conclude their tour June 10 at Glorietta Baptist Assembly for the final night of youth week.

Accompanist will be Mrs. Duane Barrett, organist for First Baptist Church, Hereford. Duane Barrett, minister of music and education for the Hereford, is in charge of arrangements.

Barrett said the purpose of the tour "is to increase the interest of young people in choir work to get to know young people of the West and how they think and work." He added the choir aims "to be of spiritual benefit to the young people in the churches visited, and most of all, to add to the Christian growth of young people."

The program will consist of a sacred music including Christian anthems, hymns, gospel songs and spirituals.

Those making the tour, in addition to Lovell and Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, will include: Carol Anderson, Faye Ann Brown, Mary Lynn Gibson, Linda Gill, Laura Plank, Margaret Plank, Pat Price, Karen Ruthart, Sharian Seiver, Mamie Silvertooth, Dian Wilson, Lynda Hughes, Jan Jarnagin, Jill Jarnagin, Jan Keeth, Cynthia Leasure, Sharon Ruthart, Jennifer Schaffer, Barbara Willis, Lonnie Coker, Wayne Edwards, Jimmy Newton;

Also Joel Richardson, Gary Don Roberson, Steven Thornton, Doug Watson, Charles Ray Donnes, Gary Fairchild, Bill Jarnagin, Reggie Reeves, Jody Rogers, Dean Schickendanz, James Schultz and Kirby Sunderman.

Sponsors will include Wayne Moore, Mrs. J. C. Newton and Mrs. C. A. Pruitt.

TO TOUR WEST — Members of the Canyon and Hereford First Baptist Youth Choirs are planning a 12-concert tour extending as far west as Sacramento, Calif. The group will

The "Continental" from Monterey High School in Lubbock furnished the entertainment. The quintet sang several folk songs and furnished other vocal music.

Golightly's speech of cold, cold humor was a portion of Adam's diary—revealing the relationship between himself and Eve. It showed just exactly what Adam thought of this strange new creature who had invaded his world.

consisted of hearing the awards read off. This was not necessarily dull, for as Dr. Norris G. Davis, who read off the ILPC ratings said, "I wish I could read material as dull as this to my students and get the same response."

The Hereford Whiteface received the highest award in district AAA for a page in the community newspaper. This is the second consecutive year that Hereford High School journalists have won this award for their paper. Spontaneous applause, this time by students from Hereford, greeted this announcement.

Most of the fun of state conventions is not entirely the convention itself, but the excitement of the big city. After the meetings, the journalism students either went sight-seeing, went window-shopping, went to an academy winning movie, or toured the big campus of the University of Texas. The University attracts many types of people and with mounting curiosity, the Hereford students observed many of them. One girl, in particular, probably from India, attracted attention because she had on a long dress during one of the hottest parts of the day.

Barber...

One of the sight-seeing tours was through the University paper, The Daily Texan. Guiding the group was Texas editor, Mr. Dave McNeely. Mr. McNeely is also a member of a group called the Gentlemen who played at a Saturday night dance in the student union building.

Once the group was admiring some hair styles in a window of the Capitol Beauty College of hair styling when, quite unexpectedly, the owner, Mr. William S. Platt, invited them to visit his school. Mr. Platt was once a high school principal and also wrote a book, Candles in the Dark, which was formally recognized and commended by the Texas Senate.

On Sunday, the journalism group toured the state capital building and then loaded up for home. Just a short distance out of Austin, the school car developed some sort of trouble. One man, Mr. R. W. Ringstaff at a Texaco station in Leander went 14 miles or more out of his way to help the group. "We would especially like to thank him for his kindness and thoughtfulness," said Mrs. Haseloff.

At 12 p.m. that night the group rolled into Hereford exhausted, worn-out, tired but happy.
