Onion Prices Climb After Weak Opening

Hereford area red Irish potatoes are moving to market here with three bright angles to the picture:
1. Yield is good
2. Quality is good
3. Price is good
Produce men here said Wednesday that some fields are turning out as high as 200 sacks to the acre of No. 1 potatoes. This does not include No. 2's and culls. Sacks weigh 100 pounds each; thus this means yields of 20,000 pounds to the acre.
One produce man here said "the quality is good and the price is high, and the farmers are happy over this year's early summer crop." He estimated 11,000 acres in this area are devoted to early red potatoes.
Price Wednesday was holding steady at $4.25 per sack.
Harvest of white potatoes is due to start in the next two or three days, although red potatoes each year come off first.
The onion market, which started out poorly two weeks ago, has strengthened considerably and yellow varieties were moving to market at $1.65 Tuesday with prospects for $1.75 by late Wednesday or early Thursday.
At the outset of the harvest season, onions brought only $1.25, one of the poorest opening prices in years. "It appears now, however, that the market on onions has leveled off and probably will hold steady for the rest of this short season," a produce buyer here explained. He said white onions, however, are still "slow."
With good harvest weather, the onion crop should wind up the season by the middle of this month. There is no estimate of the number of acres planted to onions.
Meantime, other vegetables were making progress, although it will be early autumn before other crops will be ready to harvest.
Carrots are "looking good," one produce man said, "and (Continued on page 2)

Boy Finds Ways To Make Vacation Interesting

Pictures and story
By Larry Fuhrmann
School is out — youngsters have a lot of time on their hands. So what do they do with it?
There is more to summer than just loafing... summer can be an educational experience in itself to a child. Ross Hardwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hardwick, is shown in pictures at left, as he puts his summer leisure time to good use.
Little League is often first on the list of summer activities for a boy, and Ross is no exception. He was pitcher this year on a major league team. And there is swimming, tennis, bike riding...

17-Year-Old Youth Jailed On DWI Plea

Two persons, one of them only 17 years old, appeared before Deaf Smith County Judge H. C. Williams this week and entered pleas of guilty to separate charges of driving while intoxicated. It was the second time within a year that the youth had appeared before Judge Williams.
A Latin-American entered a plea of guilty to a DWI charge after he was arrested by city officers Friday evening.

Officers said he crashed his automobile into a gasoline pump at a service station, and the attendant on duty reported the incident to officers who took him into custody.
Judge Williams fined him $175 and sentenced him to five days in the county jail.

The youth also entered a plea of guilty after he heard the charges presented against him. The boy was arrested shortly after midnight Saturday when he drove his car onto U.S. 60 from the Labor Camp west of town. According to the arresting officer, the youth began passing a string of automobiles in a no-passing zone, and was not apprehended until he reached the intersection of Highways 385 and 60.

The deputy sheriff told the court in the youth's trial that the boy was "very belligerent" upon arrest and ran away from the officer. He was recaptured after a chase which ended several blocks away.

The same boy had appeared before Judge Williams on a juvenile charge nearly a year from the date of his arrest on the DWI charge.
The boy was fined $175 and sentenced to five days in the county jail.

Both the youth and the older man had driver's licenses suspended for a six-months period.

Merchants To Move Stocks Outdoors For One-Day Sidewalk Sales Event

Come next Monday, Hereford downtown merchants will move big chunks of their stock out on the sidewalk in front of their stores and sell it at specially-priced bargains.

The SOS sale (Sale on Sidewalk) is a business promotion project of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce's Retail committee, and downtown merchants.

Plans for the big sale have been in the making for some time and Cleo Corlis, chairman of the committee, said Wednesday that "everything is just about ready" for the big event.

The board of directors of the Chamber met Wednesday morning at the chamber headquarters and discussed the sidewalk sale, among other items on the agenda.

For the gala sale, downtown Hereford will be draped in colorful bunting as a project of the Hereford Business & Professional Women's club. The bunting will be put up during the weekend under arrangements with the B&PW club.

Early Planning Starts For '65 Livestock Show

Preliminary plans for the 1965 Golden Spread Western Junior Livestock Show here were made at a meeting of the organization's executive committee Wednesday afternoon. Meeting was held in Chamber of Commerce headquarters.

The group discussed committee chairmen who will serve in the January show, Palmer Norton, president said. The board also considered rules which will apply to next year's show, and "some" changes from the previous rules may be expected.

The show each year, held at the Bull Barn, is one of the biggest and most successful junior livestock shows in the Panhandle.

The top steer of the show last year brought $3.55 pound, the grand champion being bought by the First National Bank. A total of 290 animals were entered in the show.

City Accepts $10,000 Bid For Cleaning Sewer Lines

Hereford City Commission voted unanimously, in a short, business-filled session Monday evening to accept the low bid submitted by Ace Pipe Cleaning Inc. of Kansas City, Mo. for the cleaning of sewer lines in the city.

The bid submitted by the Kansas City firm was $10,325 and another alternate bid of $780 was submitted for another method, although the first bid was accepted by the commission.

Only one other firm submitted a bid on the job which was proposed by the commission last month. The firm was American Pipe Cleaning of Minneapolis, Minn. The first bid submitted by the firm was for $15,820, some $5,485 above the Kansas City firm. The alternate bid submitted by the American Pipe Cleaning firm was for $880, which was only $100 over the Kansas City firm.

Ace Pipe Cleaning specified the job would take 45 days to complete and the American Pipe Cleaning estimated 90 days on the job.

In other business, the commission accepted bid on the electrical work and the complete remodeling of the second floor of the city hall.
A low bid of $3,800 was accepted by the commission from Fowler and Kelley Electric Co. for the wiring of the second floor.

Another bid was submitted by Owens and Hollingsworth Electric Co. of Hereford, for $4,182. McCaslin Lumber Co. was awarded the contract for the remodeling of the second floor of the city hall as their bid of $17,323 was accepted by the commission. A bid was submitted by Herr and Foster, local contractors, for $11,982.76, but the builders asked the commission that their bid be withdrawn.

City Manager Dudley Bayne told the commission that the firm had not included portions of the work to be done in their bid. (Continued on Page 2)

The Sugar Story — Part VI

Sugar 'Leavings' Valuable to Stock

By Phil Duncan
EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the sixth in a series dealing with the process used in extracting sugar from the beets after they arrive at the Merrill E. Shoup Plant of Holly Sugar Corporation here. This sixth part deals with the drying and processing of the sugar beet pulp.

Since the earliest days of the beet sugar industry, the beet pulp remaining after the extraction of the sugar has been recognized as a valuable cattle food containing considerable amounts of proteins, minerals and carbohydrates.

When the first attempts were made at processing sugar beets, farmers stored the "green" or wet beet pulp in large pits or silos. However, the farmers discovered tremendous losses are incurred in the wet storage of pulp. Some tests have indicated that as much as 65 percent of the original weight of the beet pulp, and 50 percent of its food value is lost during a six months' storage period.

Fall Wardrobes for School Featured on 4-H Symposium

Special feature on the clothing consumer day program to be tonight in the community center is a symposium to be conducted by local college girls. The program will also feature discussions by Mrs. Dorothea Prowell and Gonda Smith.

Area's...

(Continued from page 1) some may be ready to harvest as early as late August. Most of the crop, however, will not move to market before mid-September.

The same thing is true of lettuce. Outlook is good at this time, and the lettuce crop here is making progress.

Field crops also are flourishing on irrigated land, although dryland crops were suffering considerably for lack of rain. Sugar beets' outlook Wednesday was described as "the brightest in the nation," a term applied to the area crop earlier in the season.

Grain sorghum is on schedule and cotton, although not a major crop in Deaf Smith county, is doing well.

next fall. Among those on the committee are LuAnne Higgins, Joyce West and Ann Gentry. Mrs. Don Steele is directing the symposium.

Miss West will be a junior this fall, enrolled at Texas Tech in Lubbock. She is majoring in English. Miss Higgins will also attend Texas Tech, and will be a senior. Her major is Spanish. Miss Gentry will be enrolled as a sophomore at Baylor University, where she will major in elementary education.

The symposium will open the program, with Mrs. Steele in charge. Then Dorothea Prowell will discuss the new fibers for a girl's college wardrobe, followed by a discussion on the care of college clothing by Gonda Smith.

Jean Beene, assistant county home demonstration agent, will give the summary.

The annual program will be followed by a tea, sponsored by the education committee of the home demonstration council. Mrs. Joe Wagoner is chairman of that affair.

The program, which was originally rained out, is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. in the community center, with Dorothea Prowell in charge. She is chairman of the clothing subcommittee of the home demonstration council.

All girls going to college this fall, especially freshmen, are asked to attend the session. Also invited to attend are their mothers, and also-career girls who could use the clothing tips, according to Jean Beene.

City...

A petition was presented to the commission by Bayne, requesting that 14th Street be closed from Long Street to Avenue C. The commission voted unanimously to leave the street open.

In other business the commission voted unanimously to authorize the city manager to advertise for bids on new automatic controls for the booster plants at the city's water stations.

Bayne told the commission that the upkeep of the present system over the past three years would have paid approximately half the cost of a complete new system.

The commission voted unanimously to table an addition to the plumbing ordinance, which would not permit the use of composition fibrous tile in the city. According to reports the tile will decompose after a few years' use. The commissioners wanted to study the proposal before taking any action.

Six rezoning petitions were acted upon by the city commission on the Monday meeting. The commission voted unanimously in each instance to accept the decision of the zoning commission.

Only one area was denied the rezoning. This was a request submitted to the commission by James H. Bradley, concerning property in North Hereford. Bradley requested that the lot be changed from residential to a multi-family housing zone. The zoning commission voted unanimously to reject the request and the city commission voted unanimously to accept the decision of the zoning commission.

The commission accepted the decisions of the zoning commission concerning the requests submitted by Jesse Barrett, Henry Benson, Mary Ponder, H. A. Roberts, Florence Carlson and Hereford Development Co.

All of these requests concern different areas of rezoning and were all unanimously approved by the zoning and city commissions.

Commissioners Lloyd Sharp, Albert Maxwell, W. L. Davis Jr., Gid Brown, Mayor Ray Cowser, City Attorney Earnest Langley and City Manager Bayne were all present at the meeting.

Sugar...

individual farmers, the value of the beet pulp to the grower has been considerably reduced in many areas and this has forced the beet processors to seek additional outlets for the pulp.

However, since water is the major component of the wet pulp, transportation for long distances is out of the question because of excessive costs. This has led to the general practice now of drying the pulp. The greater part of the moisture is removed from the wet beet pulp by mechanical pressing.

After the cassettes leave the giant diffuser, where the sugar is extracted from the slices, they are conveyed to a series of giant presses in which the majority of the water is squeezed from the cassettes.

The presses mechanically force the pulp into a smaller and smaller volume, allowing the water to escape through screens in the presses.

To add to the nutritional value of the pulp, beet-molasses is sprayed on and mixed with the pressed pulp before it enters the two giant driers.

The pressed pulp is then fed to the direct-fired rotating-drum driers, which reduce the moisture content to about ten percent in the final product.

Air is heated in a furnace for drying the pulp. A draft fan is located on the drier, at the exit of the drum, and discharges into a cyclone separator to recover small particles of pulp from the flue gas.

The air is heated to temperatures up to 1200 degrees F., although the actual temperature of the pulp is less than 180 degrees F.

Automatic temperature controllers regulate the amount of fuel.

At the Shoup Plant, part of the dried beet pulp will be bagged directly as it is produced, in 50 pound paper bags. The bags are then put in warehouse storage.

Some of the pulp will be pelletized, but due to the added cost of the pelletization many of the feeders prefer to use the dried pulp in the bulk form.

A considerable number of factories, such as the Shoup Plant have bulk warehouses in which the dried pulp from the production line is stored until packaged or sold in bulk. This method has several advantages. For example, delays on the packaging station do not delay the production of the dried pulp. Also, in bulk storage, the moisture content of the dried pulp quickly equalizes with that in the surrounding air.

Many processing improvements have been incorporated in the new plant to produce a more uniform quality of dried beet pulp.

Much of the dried beet pulp produced at the Shoup Plant will be consumed by the Holly Feed Lots and the local feeders.

Tax Officials Surveying City Business Firms

Representatives of the Internal Revenue Service are in Hereford this week to "conduct a returns compliance survey." It was announced Wednesday by Area Collection Manager Wendell Nobbe, Amarillo.

Nobbe explained that the survey is designed "to help merchants and other business men" with their problems in making returns. Some of the merchants "are confused over such items as excise tax — whether to collect it or not — and over other complications on the business returns' forms."

Revenue officers, Nobbe said, will contact owners and operators of businesses "to determine whether all returns due have been filed."

It was explained that businessmen can assist the officers and reduce interview time by having their 1963 tax returns available at their places of business when

An exhibit of the new $30,000 snorkel, recently purchased by the Deaf Smith Electric Co-op, was presented at the Annual Family Night for the Hereford Volunteer Firemen, Tuesday evening.

The hamburger fry and swimming party, attended by some 100 firemen, their families and city officials, was climaxed by the snorkel exhibit, presented at the Hereford Municipal Swimming Pool.

The snorkel, purchased by the Electric Co-op for high-line work, has been made available to the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department through the efforts of Leo Forrest, manager of the co-op.

The snorkel will be on 24-hour call, Forrest announced, and a qualified operator is a member of the volunteer fire department and will also be on call.

Bill Craig, an employee at the co-op and operator of the new vehicle, is a member of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department and will have an alarm system in his home similar to that of other firemen.

The snorkel is equipped with two baskets, which will easily support the weight of two or more men and fire hoses can be handled with great versatility as demonstrated Tuesday evening.

The hoist will elevate to a height which exceeds 50 feet and an elbow in the giant lift allows the firefighters to be hoisted directly over the flame if the situation arises.

The snorkel has complete maneuverability, as the entire unit will make a complete revolution the surveyers call.

The program is to help those who do not presently understand all filing requirements, Nobbe said, "to get their tax affairs in order prior to the establishment of their names on the automatic data processing records."

and almost any angle or position can be reached without repositioning the truck.

Forrest explained, "The truck will be used in the line-work of the co-op, and it is possible that the truck could be out working when a situation arises, but it is equipped with a two-way radio and can be rushing toward the position it is needed at a moments notice."

"It is the desire of the co-op to share this fine piece of equipment with the city of Hereford in appreciation of the fine fire department available to our company and every one in Hereford. We feel we have one of the best equipped fire departments that can be found and hope this snorkel will further aid them in the very excellent job they have been doing," Forrest concluded.

The truck will be housed at the co-op barn on East First.

"The Hereford Volunteer Fire Department would like to thank Mr. Forrest for his generous offer to the fire department and the people of Hereford," Dub Reeves, fire chief, commented.

"This is a piece of equipment that can often be used by the fire department, but due to the cost and occasions on which the snorkel would be used, it has not been feasible to purchase one at this point," Reeves continued.

"This is a very generous offer and will surely prove to be very beneficial to the city of Hereford," Reeves said.

Reeves announced at the meeting that four firemen would attend the Annual Firemen's School at Texas A&M, College Station. The school is scheduled to begin July 20 and will conclude July 24. The local firemen will leave July 18 to attend the week-long school.

Reeves explained that improved methods in firefighting are taught at the school and firemen are actually given a chance to see some situations, which might arise, in action.

Subject to Law

Surely the eagle best represents the ideal of Liberty. But the picture shows him to be under restriction. He has duties to perform, young to rear and a home to protect. Perhaps freedom is linked with responsibility. From Alaska to the Gulf he ranges in freedom as monarch of the sky. Yet, how subject is he to the natural laws of God. You never see birds very high in the sky. Most birds do not risk much of height above the tree tops. When exhausted they need a branch on which to perch. They fly awhile and then earth calls them down. How clearly the eagle speaks to us Americans. We are so free, yet so subject to God, so responsible to Him and ours. May we limit our own freedom, support His church and realize how subject we are to God.

and traced the avenues which the Texas Highway Department must follow to effect their solution.

"As long as we put millions more people on wheels each year — we add a quarter-million vehicles annually in Texas alone — no highway program ever can be expected to reach a static phase," Petry said.

He stressed that the principal potential stumbling block in highway planning and construction today rests in complete public understanding both of the problems involved and the steps being taken for their elimination.

"An attitude of do-it-for-me-first-and-forget-the-other-guy will not serve the best interest of the State or the highway user who pays the bill," Petry declared.

He addressed his remarks to the annual meeting of the Texas Section of the Institute of Traffic Engineers, an organization composed principally of engineers working on urban traffic problems.

"The urban commuter sees the newly-constructed freeways clogged with home-bound traffic, and has little sympathy with our primary, interstate or farm-to-market road programs," Petry said. "He wants to know why we don't build more and bigger and better urban freeways — and right now!"

"At the same time, we must not forget the farmer who must move his produce to processing centers, the small-town manufacturer or businessman who needs a market for his goods, the inter-city traveler: These highway users cannot understand why we do not spend all our time, engineering talent and money on upgrading travelways linking urban centers."

Petry said that the Highway Department is "fully aware" of the complex traffic problems in the cities of Texas. He added: "Yet, it would be a folly to level all our resources upon these piecemeal concerns to the detriment of a total highway system of 65,000 miles."

The Commission Chairman pointed out that Texas is a "contradictory state."
"More than half the counties in Texas have more rural residents than urban. We have 22 metropolitan areas — more than any other State — yet we rank fourth among States in rural population."

"Only a balanced program of highway construction — favoring no single element — can hope to cope with such disparities," he declared.

"Our city people cannot realistically deny Farm to Market roads," Petry said. "Cities are the 'markets' served by these roads. What is more, the 2.4 million rural residents in Texas represent a sizeable market for goods made and distributed from our cities."

Additionally, the Commissioner said:
"Many farm to market roads ultimately become thoroughfares primarily serving cities. A system of secondary highways encircling Houston, for instance, comprises the state's first rural highway belt for regional inter-urban and bypass traffic. And a farm to market road (FMRS) is the principal highway directly serving the NASA Manned Spacecraft Center in Harris County."

Petry said that about $3 million in Farm to Market Road funds now is committed to current construction and advance planning of routes vital to Houston's future growth.

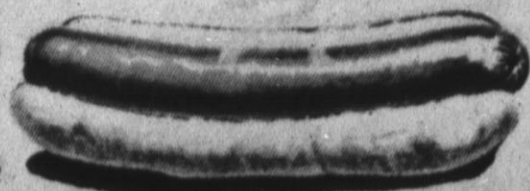

Total value of the Texas highway system today is approximately $4.5 billion, according to Petry.

He pointed out that the cost of building Farm to Market Roads averages just $25,000 a mile in Texas, compared with a $610,000-a-mile average for Interstate Highways throughout the state, and costs often exceeding $1 million a mile for Interstate Highways in cities.

Redbirds Boost Lead, Go Into Tournament

The Hereford American Legion Baseball team strengthened its lead in the South Division schedule with week-end victories over Dimmitt and Childress. The Redbirds blasted Dimmitt 29-3 Saturday night at Dimmitt and took a 19-7 decision over Childress on the home field Sunday afternoon. The local team now has an 8-1 record with one make-up game with Friona yet to be played. The Redbirds are entered in the Thunderbird Tournament in Plainview this week and have assured themselves of a spot in the District Tournament in Pampa starting July 16. The Redbirds wasted no time getting started in Dimmitt Saturday night as they took a 15-0 lead in the first inning. Batting around twice in the opening frame they collected four singles, a double by Lynn Cook, and a bases-loaded home run by Gary Stagner. The hour-long rally was aided by three bases-on-balls issued by Dimmitt starter Steve Hutton and seven Dimmitt errors.

In the Hereford half of the second lead-off man Danny Loerwald singled but was left on base as the next three men went down in order. In the third Steve Hodges walked and stole second but was called out for falling to tag up on Charlie Moreno's fly ball to deep center field. Ronny Duncan got his third home run of the season over the left fence for the only tally of the inning. In the fourth Loerwald and Frank Cain singled and Cook walked to load the bases. Steve Hodges was hit by a pitched ball to begin in one run. With two out Frank Cain was caught off third on a play that produced a real hassle among the umpires as well as the coaches.

The fifth inning brought in five more tallies on one hit, by Bill Watts, four walks, and three Dimmitt errors. In the sixth Ronnie Kenmore went on the mound for the Dimmitt team and gave up one run on four singles but struck out the last two men to end the rally with Redbirds on all bases. In the final inning he was not as fortunate as the Hereford team picked up six runs on two hits, two walks, and five Dimmitt errors. Steve Hodges got the only extra-base hit of the frame, a double.

Ed Mims started on the mound for Hereford and pitched two scoreless, hitless innings. He walked five and struck out three. Bill Watts came in to pitch in the third and walked three men but left the bases loaded on two strike outs and a force at second. He retired the Dimmitt batters in order in the fourth but gave up one run on two hits in the fifth for the first Dimmitt score. The tally was made on a Hereford error.

Frank Cain pitched the final two innings for the Redbirds. In the sixth he walked the first batter but the runner was picked off first on a fine play by catcher Lynn Cook. Two strike outs retired the side in order. In the seventh Cain struck out the side but gave up two runs on three walks, a wild pitch, and one Hereford miscue.

Hereford got 29 runs on 17 hits, 12 walks, one hit batter, and 15 Dimmitt errors. Ten different Redbirds hit safely at least once. Danny Loerwald led the parade with three singles. Dimmitt scored three runs on three hits, 12 walks, and three Hereford errors. Redbirds pitchers struck out a total of 12 batters.

The Sunday afternoon game was a real thriller until the Redbirds finally broke loose in the fourth inning. Childress took a 2-0 lead in the first on a double by Joe Merrell and a home run by pitcher Jerry Sachse. The Redbirds tallied one run in the first on singles by Danny Loerwald and Lynn Cook and walks by Mike Ranspot and Steve Hodges. Two strike outs by Left-handed Jerry Sachse ended the threat with the bases still loaded. Hereford pitcher Larry Minks gave up two more singles in the second and one in the third but left all three men on base. Hereford also got two hits in the second but left the men stranded. The Redbirds finally caught up in the third after Larry Minks got a two-base hit and scored on Ronny Duncan's single.

In the fourth Childress picked up one more single but two fly balls retired the side. In the home half of the fourth the Redbirds scored eight runs on five hits, two walks, one hit batter, and one Childress error. Ronny Duncan got a double and Charlie Moreno a triple in the frame. In the top of the fifth Minks loaded the bases on three singles but got fine support in the field to prevent a run from scoring. He struck out one batter and the side was retired on a fine double play from Minks to Cook to Ranspot.

The Redbirds added nine more runs in the fifth as the heavy bats swung against Childress reliever Paul Canup. Lynn Cook walked, Mike Ranspot was hit by the pitcher and Larry Minks hit a double to score two runs. Ronny Duncan blasted the ball over the center field to score two more runs for the Redbirds. A double by Charlie Moreno and singles by Loerwald and Frank Cain brought in two more runs. Lynn Cook was safe on an error and Mike Ranspot hit his fifth homer of the season to bring in the final three tallies.

In the sixth Childress scored two runs on an error and a home run by Dave Galligan. The visitors scored three more in the seventh as a result of a two-run homer by Joe Merrell and a home run by Anthony Shires. Childress got seven runs off Larry Minks on 13 hits and one error. Minks did not walk a batter and struck out four. Hereford scored 19 runs on 19 hits, six bases on balls, two hit batters, and two Childress errors. Larry Minks got four hits and Danny Loerwald and Ronny Duncan three each to lead the Redbird batting.

Amarillo Man Named Head Of West Texas Ex-Students

CANYON, — A new executive director of the West Texas University Ex-Students, Inc., has been selected by the organization's board of directors. He is Eddie Conner, Amarillo business man and a member of the famed 1950 Border Conference Championship football team.

Conner, whose home was Floydada, where he graduated from high school, will assume duties July 15. He was selected after the board of directors, headed by Frank Barrett, Hereford, association president, screened applicants for several months.

The new director fills a vacancy left when Milton "Buff" Morris, executive secretary for more than a dozen years, resigned in September to devote full time to The Opportunity Plan, Inc.

In accepting the new assignment with West Texas Ex-Students, Inc. Conner outlined plans to continue work on several projects currently underway, and to add other programs of assistance to WTSU.

On the organization's active agenda are projects covering scholarships, student achievement awards, public relations activities, construction of a university entrance marker, publication of The West Texan, ex-student newspaper, and keeping of detailed records on all WTSU former students. Conner expects to increase the organization's scholarship program, and add such projects as a faculty excellence award program.

While he was born in Sulphur Springs, Conner moved with his family to Floydada when he was three years old, and he was reared there. After his graduation from high school, he served a three-year tour of duty in the Far East and the Philippines with the Navy.

Conner earned his BS degree in 1951. He lettered four years in football. After graduation, he coached and taught in the Amarillo and Canyon schools. He completed requirements for the masters degree in 1953 in counseling and administrative education.

For five years Conner was a partner in Buck's Sporting Goods in Amarillo. After selling his interests in that firm, he became a partner in the C&C Real Estate in Amarillo, which he left to become executive director of the West Texas Ex-Students, Inc.

Conner is married to the former Joan Byars of Canyon, a 1954 graduate of WTSU. The couple has two children, Lon Ed, 13, and Guy Mathew, 3 months.

LARGEST BIBLE SCHOOL — First Baptist Church's vacation Bible school for Latin Americans was well attended — they had on the average of 159 per day, with 261 enrolled. Directing the group is Miss Linda Starr (left), from North Carolina State Teachers College. Lions Club Series Continues

Re-Match Heads Wrestling Card

Ricky Romero and Tokyo Tom, who wham-banned each other in the Bull Barn ring here late in June, will grapple again this Saturday night as the Hereford Lions club continues its summer series, says Slim Wester, the club's fight manager.

Their battle will have a 60-minute limit or a two-out-of-three fall limit, Wester said.

"I feel we are particularly lucky to get a rematch of these top wrestlers so soon after they were here," Wester said. "They proved very popular with the crowd at their previous fight here."

He said attendance has been increasing at the summer series, more than 600 persons turning out for last Saturday's night program, held on the Fourth of July.

Black Bart will make his first appearance in the Hereford ring next Saturday night. He is to meet Dory Funk Jr., another wrestler who has been a favorite with audiences in the Lions' series.

They are slated for a one-fall match with a 60-minute limit, and Wester says this scrap should prove as interesting as the headliner to follow.

In the opener, Billy Graham will meet Louie Tillet, the latter making his first appearance here. They will do a 2-out-of-3 battle with a 45-minute time limit.

Rights Unknown For Many Years, Youth Declares

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another essay by a member of the Dawn Boy's 4-H club. This citizenship essay was written by Robert Galley. He is 16-years-old.

America is a land of human dignity and human liberty. When the Fathers of the Republic declared, "That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," a principle was brought forth which was as old as man, but for all practical purposes, was unknown.

Slowly, among suffering and revolution, humanity has been reaching out toward a reign of the rights of man. Paganism denied such rights. It allowed nothing to man as himself. Man was what wealth, position or power made him. Even wise Aristotle taught that nature intended some men to be slaves and servants. The religion of Christ proclaimed the doctrine of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

Eighteen hundred years went by, however, before the civilized world put its institution in accord with this spiritual faith. During all that time the Christian church was waiting this promised union. It came at last in America. It came first with the Declaration of Independence. It came a second time with Lincoln's Proclamation of Emancipation.

The American ideal is that all men are created equal; all have the same rights. Liberty is given to all. Now, and then, before America's independence, partial liberty had been experienced, but not until the Republic of the West was born, not until the Star-Spangled Banner waved in the sky was liberty fully embodied in a great nation.

In America, the government takes from the liberty of the citizens only as much as its necessary for the security of the nation. In America there are no masters who govern in their own right or at their own will. Ours is a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Our government is our own will.

In America, rights begin with the people and go upward. In the vast majority of other countries, the rights begin with the state and go downward.

The mission of the United States is not confined to its own people. It extends to all the people of the earth; to provide free-

LET'S COOK SOMETHING

New Desserts for Short-Order Cooks

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor
Home cooks of the short-order variety may be interested in a new packaged product — lime-flavored pie filling.

One of the helpers in our test kitchen tried this new preparation at home, using two packages of the lime-flavored filling for a generous 10-inch pie. The three little boys in the family gobbled up the dessert; Daddy (just home from the hospital) and Big Sister (just out of her teens) also enjoyed it.

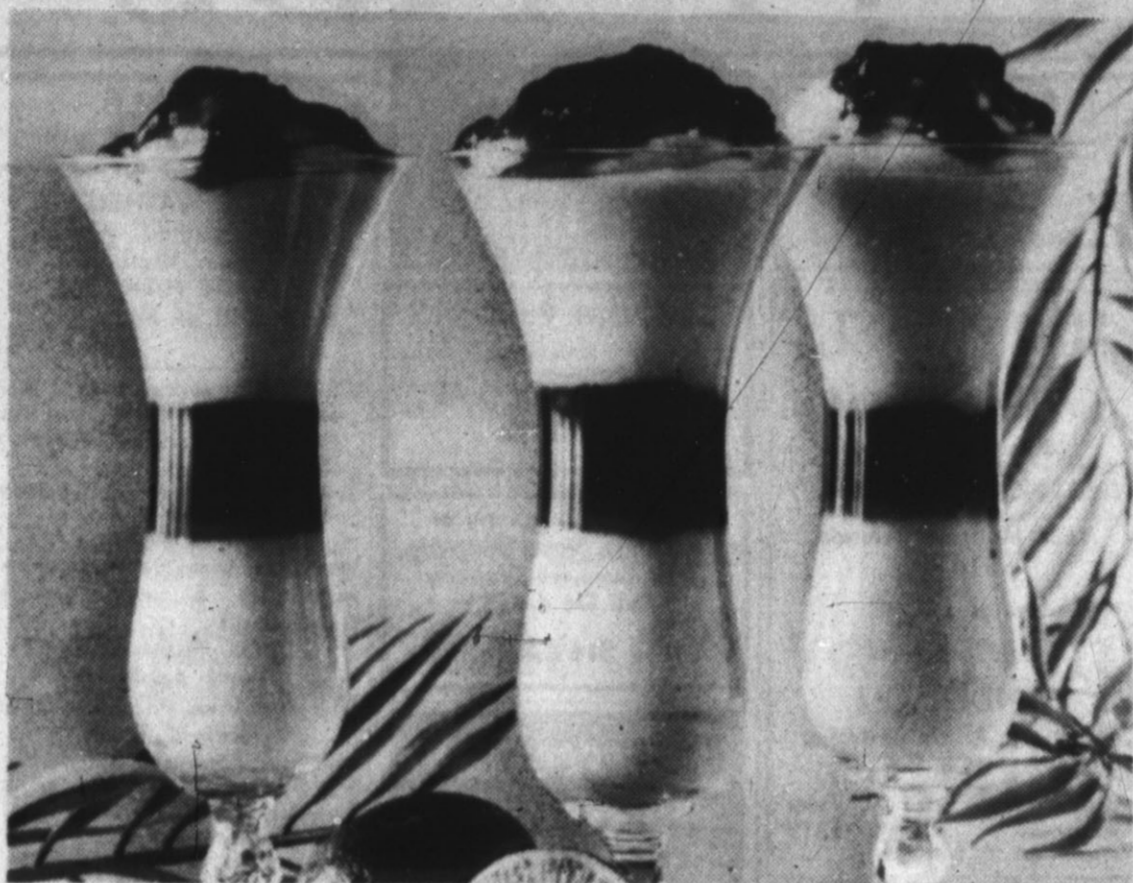

In our own test kitchen we used the pie filling in a Lime Raspberry Parfait. Such a pretty combination it made — Snowy-green layers laced with garnet!

LIME RASPBERRY PARFAIT

1 package (3½ ounces) lime-flavored pie filling
½ cup sugar
2½ cups cold water
2 eggs, separated
1 package (10 ounces) frozen raspberries, thawed
1 tablespoon cornstarch
Turn the pie filling into a saucepan; stir in ¼ cup of the sugar. Gradually stir in the cold water and the slightly beaten egg yolks, keeping smooth. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until mixture just starts to boil. If the flavor capsule is undissolved, break it with the mixing spoon and stir to blend. Cook slightly.

Beat egg whites until foamy. Gradually beat in the remaining ¼ cup sugar; continue to beat until very stiff. Fold unto cooled pie-filling mixture.
Drain syrup from thawed raspberries. Turn the cornstarch into a small saucepan; stir in a little of the raspberry syrup, keeping smooth; stir in remaining raspberry syrup. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened and clear. Cool slightly; fold in drained raspberries.

Spoon about half of the cooled pie-filling mixture into 8 parfait glasses (¾ cup size), add over half of the raspberry mixture. Spoon remaining pie-filling mixture over raspberry layer; top

QUICK DESSERTS — A package of lime-flavored pie filling, new product inspired by Key West lime pie, is used with a raspberry sauce to create parfaits. Vary the recipe with remaining raspberry mixture. Chill 1 hour before serving. Makes 8 servings.

HD Club Hear Program On Frozen Foods

Cultural Home Demonstration Club heard Jean Beene in a program on frozen foods — their preparation and storage — and a report on their club project for Girls' Town when the club met recently with Mrs. Roy Thompson, 606 Blevins.

Mrs. Beene, assistant home demonstration agent, presented steps in preparation of foods for freezing and their packaging for freezer-storage. She stressed cautions to be taken in these areas and added indications of unsafe foods during the storage period.

Mrs. Grady Parsons presided at the business meeting, directing reports on the club's two recent projects.
Mrs. Earl DeHart, club secretary, summarized the visit of five club members to Girls' Town, Whiteface, and their presenting the seven table cloths made by the club and extra clothing for the girls. Club members were cordially received at Girls' Town and toured the establishment, reporting that the building there greatly needed air conditioners.

Making the trip to Whiteface with Mrs. DeHart were Mrs. Bob Williams, Mrs. Grady Parsons, club president, Mrs. Viola Williams, and Mrs. Art Lewis.

Mrs. J. G. Gandy reported that five members represented the Cultural group when home demonstration clubs of Deaf Smith County assisted the Hereford American Legion Auxiliary at the June picnic for Amarillo Veterans Hospital. The club will have representatives again in the July 16 cooperative picnic for the hospital veterans.

Mrs. Thompson, hostess, served refreshments to Mrs. Beene, special guest for the day, and to eight club members — Mrs. George Parker, Mrs. Viola Williams, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Gandy, Mrs. Louie Olson, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. DeHart, and Mrs. A. D. Love.

Club to Conclude Study of Cyphers

Hereford Garden Club concludes its study of Cyphers "Design and Depth in Flower Arrangement" in its Friday meeting at 3 p.m. in the home of Mrs. R. L. Wilson, 125 Star St. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. R. W. Mitchell will be co-hostesses.

Mrs. A. L. Manjeet will direct this program on arrangements of the artistic, stressing the importance of depth in all arts and in flower arranging in particular. She will deal with color and texture as producing third dimensional effects. Movement she will present as the fourth dimension — a new phase of study involving the mobile.

The club will have arrangements for analysis to illustrate each feature presented in the lesson.

Roll call will be answered with review of the recent flower show and suggestions for future exhibitions for the public.

Additional Guests Listed For Wedding

Additional out-of-city guests at the Gray-Rountree wedding in Dallas Friday were Mrs. Cicero Gulley, aunt of the bride, and Mike Gulley, Wellington; and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gulley and daughters, Fort Worth.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Ann Rountree and Thomas Arrington Gray II was solemnized Friday evening in the Skillman Avenue Church of Christ, Dallas. The bride is the daughter of the Reuben H. Rountrees, 205 Witherspoon, who attended their daughter's wedding as did Johnny Cloud, who served as usher.

Coach Greg Mulleavy of the Los Angeles Dodgers started his career as a shortstop with Petersburg, Va., in 1927.

State Ad Valorem Tax Ban Possible; Surplus Likely

By Vern Sanford Texas Press Association AUSTIN — Local governments in Texas may be the main beneficiaries if state government winds up the current fiscal period with an $80 million surplus, as Gov. John Connally predicts. Should such a surplus be reached, Connally told reporters, it is "fairly" certain he will recommend abolishing the ad valorem tax on property for state revenue purposes and leaving that source exclusively to local governments. Connally said $20,000,000 of the expected surplus could be set aside in a special fund to retire college building bonds backed by ad valorem tax contributions. In predicting that the surplus will not be less than $35,000,000 and probably will reach the $80,000,000 figure, the Governor joined those who have contended all along that the general revenue fund will be so far in the black by 1965 that new tax problems will be eased if not erased. Connally also said he contemplates submitting to the Legislature in stages the recommendations of his Committee on Education Beyond the High School. He still plans to call a conference on morals and ethics but said he has not picked a time. However, he declined to say whether he would recommend fair employment and public accommodations legislation in order to maintain some state jurisdiction over civil rights under the new federal law. ILLITERACY FIGHT — A quiet campaign is under way to mobilize South Texas as community facilities to combat an illiteracy problem which results in wasted lives and a damaged economy. Fausto Toscano, as assistant to Governor Connally, is in South Texas determining what can be done at the local level to help stamp out the blight of illiteracy. Toscano has visited seven South Texas counties attempting to establish local literacy centers to teach adults to read and write. He reports that in most counties in Southwest Texas illiteracy is far above the national average, and runs over 20 per cent in some counties. Texas Education Agency is engaged in the most intensive study of the problem ever undertaken in the state and the director of that study says the problem can be substantially solved in a few years by a concerted state-local effort. Texas Highway Department now has a team of travel information officers in the rotunda of the State Capitol. They are stationed in an illuminated tourist information booth. This information team has the task of acquainting the thousands of visitors to the Capitol with the State's other tourist attractions. NEW MANSION ASKED — Should Texas build a brand new $500,000 governor's mansion? That is a subject of debate in the capital city. Building Commission Director J. R. Nieman Jr. has recommended a new structure to replace the 108-year-old mansion. Budget Director Bill Cobb also has testified in favor of the proposal. Connally, a member of the Building Commission, supports the new mansion plan. But whether he will throw his full backing behind it depends on the state's financial condition when the Legislature convenes in January. If a new mansion is constructed Connally suggested the existing one be turned into a museum supported by nominal admission charges. Other structures proposed in Nieman's $8,084,330 budget request included a $3,600,000 state finance building to house state fiscal agencies and a $2,800,000 office building for legislators and their related services. Both would be located in the capitol area. GOOD NEIGHBOR TRIP — An August trip to Mexico City and to the four Mexican states adjacent is planned by Governor Connally, who said that much of this state's economic future is tied to lands south of the Rio Grande. Connally hopes to improve relations with Latin leaders before the 1968 Olympics are held in Mexico City. Also he would like to link the Olympics with San Antonio's Hemis-Fair which is scheduled for the same year. HEADING FOR GOLDEN GATE — Nearly 500 Texas Republicans, "irrevocably committed" to Barry Goldwater for the presidential nomination, will arrive in San Francisco this weekend for the GOP state convention starting Monday, according to state GOP headquarters here. Texas has 56 voting delegates, but state Republican headquarters reports 112 delegates and alternates have been named; 300 Texas guest tickets have been issued; and six pages, six assistant sergeants-at-arms, six assistant doorkeepers and 68 honorary assistant sergeants-at-arms from Texas also have their credentials. STRENGTH MAINTAINED — Texas' 40-month business upswing is the longest of the postwar era (except for the Korean War period), according to the UT Bureau of Business Research. While the business activity index slipped two per cent in May average for the first five months of 1964 is seven per cent above the same period in 1963. "It now seems reasonable to expect that before any adjustment occurs, Texas business will surpass even the 45-month rise of business activity from October 1949 to July 1953," Bureau Director Dr. John R. Stockton predicted. MENTAL HEALTH — County Judge C. L. Abernathy of Plainview heads a statewide committee which is taking a long, hard look at what Texans are doing about mental health problems. The 112-member citizens committee expects to have its report ready by August. But comments at meetings have indicated strongly that committee will tell Texans that mental health work should begin in the local community. Judge Abernathy said the old concept of isolating mental patients far from home is far less effective than treatment in their home towns. FISHERMAN'S HAVEN — Parks and Wildlife Department spokesmen expect the out-sized Amistad Reservoir, now being fashioned from the Rio Grande, Pecos and Devils rivers, to be a haven for fishermen. Aquatic biologist Larry Campbell predicts that when the 6-million acre foot reservoir is completed in 1968 it will boast blue catfish from the Devil and Pecos; large mouth bass from Lake Walk and Devils Lake, and flathead, blue and channel cat from the Rio Grande. Underway are conversations leading toward a joint management program for the 100,000-acre reservoir project with the Mexican government. SHORT SMOKERS Cigarette smokers are doing it again. Revenue from cigarette tax stamps increased $568,948 in June over June 1963 and more than $900,000 over May. A gold-painted guard rail was installed along a $90,000 freeway section near Winnie in Jefferson County. Freeway connects downtown Houston with Beaumont. Highway Commission Chairman Herbert C. Peery Jr. predicted it will save 21 lives a year. Cotton still is big in Texas. L. Gov. Smith told the International Oil Mill Superintendents Association. During the last 10 years the state has produced an average of 2,900,000 bales a year and more than 1,600,000 tons of cottonseed, with an average val-

A Busy, Busy Summer

Hereford Girl Wins Rodeo's Top Prize

It's been a busy summer for 15-year-old Jo Poarch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V.H. Poarch. Jo recently returned from Fort Sumner, N.M., where she took the "Best All Around" title at the American Junior Rodeo Association's annual meet.

Jo has been rising in the horsemanship world since 1960, when she bought Cuero Jo from Meredith Ireland. Before that, she had "worn out two or three".

The Poarch's three daughters, Lynn, Jo and Candy, are all horse enthusiasts, as well as their son, Wesley. Six-year-old Renee is starting out in her sisters' footsteps also.

Cuero Jo is now 7-years-old, and he has helped Jo win several honors. Before 1960, the girls never knew horses existed. But then their father bought a horse, and the idea stuck. . . stuck so well, in fact, that Jo won the Golden Spread championship in 1962, followed by state championship in 1963. And now there is even a bigger goal in mind — the World Championship in 1964. But it does take work.

In 1960 Jo bought her horse and began training him herself. She worked with him every morning and every evening to train him for barrel racing. Experts have said that if a rider has one good barrel horse in a lifetime, he is lucky. Jo is lucky — she has a good barrel horse.

Her horse has won for her 10 high point plaques, 15 trophies, nine belt buckles and numerous ribbons. And she now has a brand new leather tooled saddle.

Jo — "Best All Around" top award presented at the New Mexico contest. She also won the same award at the Sweetwater rodeo, and has a large trophy to show for that honor.

To win the coveted title at Fort Sumner, Jo had to enter three contests. Those were roping, pole bending and barrel racing. Jo's mother commented that Cuero Jo seemed to be a good "all around" horse — he makes a good show for himself in every contest he enters.

Now Jo will go to the national finals to be held in Odessa in August, and compete for the world championship. It will, of course, not be a snap. But Jo already has a good lead over entrants from 38 other states — that's how many were represented at the Fort Sumner rodeo.

Sister Lynn also has won honors with her horsemanship. She won second in barrel racing in the junior rodeo here, and also won state awards. She won first in district one year in barrel racing, and was also crowned queen of the Junior Riders.

Graduation from high school won't mark the end of Jo's "career" in horsemanship. She hopes to join National Intercollegiate Rodeo Association and be a part of the rodeo team.

As Mrs. Poarch said, "They all love it, the little nuts."
