Men Of Easter Community Collect Grain For Ranch

By WAIN MILLER Brand Staff Reporter

Farmers of the Easter Community have joined once again in an effort to support a cause which they feel is worthwhile.

Farmers of the community have collected over 25,000 pounds of maize and grain sorghum to be delivered to Cal Farley's Boys Ranch at Old Tascosa.

But they are still short of their self-set goal of 38,000 pounds to be donated to the ranch.

C of C Banquet Tickets Selling Very Quickly

Sale of Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce banquet tickets picked up sharply last week.

Manager Bill Thompson reported that 249 tickets had been purchased by Chamber members for the annual affair. The 1963 banquet will be held on Thursday, Feb. 7, at 7:30 p. m. in the high school gymnasium.

Members of the Chamber have only until Thursday, Jan. 31, to buy their tickets. After that, if any tickets remain, they will be available to the general public.

Guest speaker for the banquet will be William J. "Bill" Bird of San Francisco, one of the most dynamic young business leaders in America. After a successful career as a Chamber of Commerce director and on the staff of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, he entered the insurance business.

Presently, he is western vice president of Prudential, directing activities in a number of western states, including Alaska and Hawaii. The subject of his talk will be "George Wears Two Hats".

The meal will be catered by Walter Jetton of Fort Worth, who will serve a selection of ham, roast beef and smoked turkey, along with many other items.

One of the highlights of the banquet will be the presentation of the Citizen of the Year award.

Latin-American Fined, Sentenced On DWI Charge

A 19-year-old Latin American was fined $76.70 including costs and sentenced to 20 days in jail as he pleaded guilty Thursday to charges of driving while intoxicated, first offense, in Deaf Smith County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding.

Charged with the offense was Angelio Ybarra, 319 Ave. A. He was arrested in the 200 block of Catalpa St. on Saturday, Jan. 20, by Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office and the Texas Highway Patrol.

Four Days Left For Poll Taxes

Only four days now remain for Texans to get their 1963 poll taxes. And the rush is expected to be heavy this week as residents assure themselves of voting rights during the year.

All state residents must have valid poll tax receipts or exemptions in order to vote in various elections during the year. Cost is $1.75 per person. Of this amount, $1 goes to the state, with 75 cents remaining in the county of purchase.

And there will be at least two important elections coming up right away. One is for two city commissioners and the mayor. The other will name three members to the Hereford Rural High School District.

County Tax Assessor-Collector Nell Miller urged residents to come early during the week in order to avoid the traditional rush and waiting in line the last day or two. Deadline here for obtaining a poll tax is 5 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 31.

By closing time Friday afternoon, the county tax office had issued 1,535 poll tax receipts. All persons who are new residents of the state, who have become 21 years of age or who are more than 60 are entitled to exemptions for the year. The old age exemptions are usable continually after being issued.

Figured on the cost for a year's use, a poll tax costs just a little less than one-half cent per day... inexpensive, indeed for a voting right.

Davis To Run For Re-Election To Commission

W. L. (Bill) Davis Jr. became the first city commissioner to file for re-election this week as terms of three posts on the city's governing body are expiring.

Other officials to be elected in the city election this year include a mayor and a city commissioner for Place 2.

Davis is presently city commissioner, Place 1. Ray Cowser is serving as mayor and G. E. Brown is the other commissioner whose term expires.

Neither has announced as yet whether or not they will run for re-election.

The election to fill the three posts has been set for Tuesday, April 2. Deadline line for filing for the posts is March 1.

Davis has served on the City Commission in Place 1 for the past two years.

CHILDREN 11 TO 15

Women And Girls In Theft Case

Two Latin-American women and their three children, ages ranging from 11 to 15, were arrested and jailed here Thursday as a local grocery store manager complained that they took groceries from the firm without paying for them.

An investigation of the incident following the group's arrest led to charges of theft over $5 against the two women and juvenile probation for the three girls.

Charged with the misdemeanor offense are Lupa Perez, 32, 216 Catalpa, and Josie Martinez, 26, of the same address.

The complaint alleging the theft of approximately $5 worth of groceries was filed with Hereford Police Department about 5 p. m. Thursday.

The store manager was able to give an accurate description of the suspects and their automobile. Shortly after the pickup order was broadcast, the vehicle was stopped by police officers in the vicinity of Alkman School.

Upon searching the automobile, officers discovered several articles of clothing. Questioning Hereford store managers revealed that the articles were believed to have been taken from Ben Franklin and J. C. Penney Co. stores.

Shoplifting charges were filed Friday in Deaf Smith County Court, Judge H. C. Williams presiding. Bond was set at $500. The pair was freed after posting bond.

A juvenile hearing was also conducted in Juvenile Court, Judge Williams presiding, resulting in probation for the three youths.

Second Lumber Company Theft Suspect Charged

Charges of felony theft were filed here Thursday against a 52-year-old Hereford Latin American implicated in a rash of recent building materials thefts.

Charged with the offense was Wilfo Casas of Virginia Street. Bond was set at $1000 as the man was arraigned in Justice of the Peace Court, Judge C. B. Miles presiding.

It is alleged that Casas and a Hereford Negro, James Harper, 39, Catalpa St., took the building materials from Rockwell Brothers Lumber Co.

The series of thefts is reported to have begun about Dec. 15, 1962. An estimated $325 in materials is said to have been taken.

As the Hereford Police Department and Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Office began investigating, law enforcement officers discovered three window frames taken from the company in a house now under construction.

The building was allegedly built by Harper. Eight other window frames taken from the company were also recovered. They were said to be in the possession of another Negro. He is reported to have purchased them.

Also recovered during the joint investigation were shingles, siding and felt.

Harper, the first to be arraigned on a felony charge, was released Tuesday as a $1000 bond was posted.

Select Cast For 'If A Man Answers'

A story which now forms the plot for a popular movie and a best-selling book will be presented by Hereford High School dramatists Feb. 22-23 when the curtain rises on "If A Man Answers."

The three-act comedy will feature a cast of 13 which was selected during auditions held last week. Rehearsals are currently underway for the presentation, according to director James Hinkley.

Featuring the story of a girl's rather unusual hunt for a husband and her even more unconventional manner of trailing him, "If A Man Answers" was adapted from Winifred Wolfe's best-selling book by David Rogers and released through the Dramatic Publishing Co.

Exchange student Heather Gordon of South Africa plays the role of a Bostonian-Patristan society girl who goes husband-hunting in New York. (Her mother is a former Paris nightclub performer, her father, a Boston blue-blood.) Her script name is Chastal, which spells trouble for New York bachelors in the play.

Gene Wright, who finally makes the mistake of introducing himself to her — and later marrying her — is portrayed by Rondal Long.

Wright, a professional photographer, employs many models in the play, including those portrayed by Loni Rush, Catherine Smith, Brenda Shelton, and Cheryl Parker.

Chantal's friend Tina Brooks comes from Boston to try to take over New York and Gene Wright, thus clouding the picture of the Wrights' happy marriage. Carolyn Aven plays Tina.

But Gene's father, a debonair man — about — town himself, helps solve the problem. He is portrayed by exchange student Frank Hergert.

The author put real spice in the story, however, with John

HERD NOW 4-0 IN LOOP

Faces Dump Demons 38-32; 2nd Place Hawks Are Next

In one of the finest defense battles staged this year, Hereford outdueled the big Dumas Demons 38-32 here Friday night. The victory kept Hereford in undisputed possession of first place with a 4-0 conference record. It dropped the Demons to a 3-2 for the loop.

And Hereford did it the hard way, coming from behind and getting tougher in the last half. The Demons' big one-two punch of Kelly Baker and Mike Wendele was stymied the entire night by the bustling Whiteface defense. Baker was held to six points. The 6-5 1/2 all-state senior got one field goal in each of the first three periods and nothing in the fourth quarter.

Wendele hit a free throw in the first and two field goals in the third for five points.

An overflow crowd watched as the two teams staged one of their semi-annual cage battles that show no quarter.

Hereford got off to a very slow start as Robert Robinett and David Parsons, each hit from the field to put Dumas in front 4-0. Dwight McGee hit a basket, but Robinett scored for a 6-2 margin.

Earl Jackson hit a free throw and Wendele hit one of two charity tosses.

Austin Hodges missed a free throw before Kelly Baker stuffed in a rebound to make it 9-3. McGee hit a basket, Parsons missed a free throw, Jim Haney hit a charity throw and Parsons hit a basket to put Dumas in front 11-6 at the end of a slow first period.

Hereford hit just 2 of 11 field goal attempts during the period, but came back to hit an even 50 per cent in each of the remaining quarters.

Baker stuffed in another rebound as the second period opened and Wendele missed a free throw.

Mike Ferguson hit one free throw, but Robinett scored from the field and Dumas led 15-7 with 5:30 left in the half. Then Hereford started fighting back. Haney topped a jump shot and Hodges added one just like it.

Julian Miller scored his first points of the game with a jump shot. Hereford then held the Demons scoreless for 3:20 while they nibbled at the six-point lead. Ronnie Welty hit for two points. Hodges scored again and Haney dropped in one with 60 seconds left. Dumas took three shots at the basket, including one easy rebound, but missed them all, as time ran out with the score 17-17 at halftime.

Wendele opened for the Demons with a basket and Robert Strange missed a free throw for the Herd. Dumas widened its lead to 21-17 as Baker hit a jump shot to conclude

Around Town

Just once this winter, couldn't we have a nice, wet snow with no wind? Seems that we got spoiled the last two years with such snows that we almost forgot what winter usually is like in the Panhandle. Lots of wind, single-digit temperatures and not much snow. But seriously, some of the wheat pasture is beginning to get in bad shape. In the northwest part of the county, where dryland farming is the rule, they've had to take cows off of winter wheat pasture in order to save it. And even that won't do any good if we don't get some moisture soon.

If you haven't already, you should make it a point to pay your poll tax Monday or Tuesday. The county tax office is going to be crammed with people Wednesday and Thursday, if past performances are any indication. True, you may not like the idea of paying for the privilege of voting. But that's the law right now in Texas and think how you'd feel if a state amendment came up this fall to abolish the poll tax and you couldn't

Roadblock Set March Of Dimes

Members of Hereford Junior Chamber of Commerce will set up their roadblock for the March of Dimes on Sunday in the vicinity of Hereford Community Center.

The roadblock is an annual activity in the Deaf Smith County's contribution to the National Foundation and is sponsored each year by Jaycees.

According to club president Bruce Pink, the roadblock will be in operation from noon to 4 p. m. Organization members will be soliciting donations from passing motorists.

Seventh Still Undefeated After Taking Ninth Win

Stanton Junior High School seventh graders added Estacado Junior High of Plainview to their growing list of victims here Thursday night. Dogies remained undefeated as they trounced Plainview by 32-20. It was the ninth win against no losses for the Stanton Dogies.

Both squads got off to a slow start, but Stanton pulled away to a 15-9 halftime stronghold and then went on for an easy win.

Johnny Cornelius led Dogie advances with eight points during the game while Cliff Crowell and Jerry Fowlkes both added seven. Sid Shaw made four for the Dogies, Gary Goodin and Lence Petree both hit for two, and Ben Lee and Williams converted free throws to close the Dogie scoring.

Dogies managed to claim a 6-4 lead during the first quarter as Cornelius, Goodin, and Crowell hit for the Dogies. Stanton allowed Estacado only five points in the second quarter while moving to a 15-9 lead.

Fowlkes netted five for the Dogies as Crowell and Shaw got two each.

Stanton carried a 15-9 advantage into the third quarter, but could only add five to the margin during the period. Cornelius dumped in a field goal. Crowell hit a free throw, and then Petree tacked on two.

But the Dogies maintained a 20-12 lead as the fourth quarter got under way. Cornelius hit four points, Fowlkes, Crowell, and Shaw scored two each, and Lee and Williams ended the game with free throws.

County Highest In State For Bond Sale Goal

Deaf Smith County had the highest percentage of Savings Bonds sales of any county in the state. Final tabulations released Friday showed that Deaf Smith County bought 266.4 per cent of its goal for 1962.

Robert L. Thompson, chairman of the county Savings Bonds committee, announced that the county has purchased $386,125 worth of bonds during 1962, with a goal of $220,000, $32,522.

Of the 12 counties in District 1 of the Panhandle, only one other was able to make its goal. That was Sherman County with 110.4 per cent of its goal.

And of the 52 counties included in Area I, encompassing the entire Panhandle and South Plains area, only one other county was able to reach 200 per cent of its goal. That was Martin County, which bought 223.3 per cent of its goal.

And for the entire state of Texas, only three counties hit 200 per cent. They were Deaf Smith, Live Oak County with 263.4 per cent and Martin County.

Statewide, however, the story wasn't so bright as sales totaled $143,146,965, which was 86.7 per cent of the state goal of $165,100,000.

HISTORY ON THE MOVE

DAYTON, Ohio — Time once again has caught up with Newcom Tavern. Dayton's first plastered house, first store, first hotel, first courthouse, first tavern and first jail.

In 1896 it was moved from its original location, log by log, to make way for an apartment-house.

Now it is to be moved again. Its present site is too busy an intersection, city historians say, and passing motorists who might otherwise visit the tavern go by too quickly.

Not an enviable record to be sure but 35 children perished in these "traps" the highest year on record due to carelessness of some adult who neglected to take the necessary steps to eliminate the hazard existing either in abandoned boxes or those temporarily out of use. In spite of the safety precautions adopted by industry in providing inside releases on all new refrigerators and freezers now manufactured, it can be expected that with increased sales, more old boxes being disposed of, the peril will be present for years to come.

Members of the Refrigeration Service Engineers Society who are continuously and relentlessly combating this danger are to be commended for their efforts which are undoubtedly preventing many tragedies.

UNCRUSHABLE

BY TONI TODD

AMONG YOUR VALUABLES... count the Toni Todd Uncrushable—a fashion to bank on for all-season mobility, new season slenderness. The fashion treasures: softly draped neckline, sparkle pin, easy skirt with unpressed pleats. Arched triacetate jersey print never wilts or wrinkles. Machine washes, dries on drip drying. Brown, blue, or green predominate. 14 1/2 to 24 1/2.

only the LOOK is expensive $12.95

vicky vaughn

GOING STEADY... Vicky Vaughn's engaging partnership of two-tone sheath teamed with a brief back-buttoned jacket, featured editorially in GLAMOUR. The sheath has a softened skirt, sleeveless blouse top; the jacket boasts saucy sleeves and button accents. The fabric is En-Shan-Tay, a rich textured blend of rayon and silk. Black, navy or red with pastel blouse top. 5 to 15.

Dogies Trounce Plainview, Take Tourney Consolation

Stanton Junior High School eighth graders won three games and lost one during a week of basketball action which began with a tournament in Clovis. Dogies claimed consolation honors at the Clovis Invitational Tournament last weekend in Clovis, and then returned home to defeat Estacado Junior High of Plainview by 56-36. Last week's wins gives the eighth grade Dogies a season record of 12 wins and only two losses. Stanton opened in the Clovis meet with a 40 - 28 victory over Tucuman. But the Clovis host school, Gattis, claimed a 37 - 27 point win over Stanton to throw the Dogies into the consolation matches. But the Dogies came roaring back in the Saturday night finals to garner a 45-39 win over Marshall Junior High of Clovis to take consolation honors in the tourney. Jim Allison paced the Dogie attack against Tucuman with 16 points, while Billy Watts got ten. Stanton jumped to a 12-4 lead during the first quarter and remained ahead the remainder of the game. But Stanton saw competition of a tougher variety in the second game of the meet. Gattis of Clovis took a ten - point win. Allison again led Dogie scoring, this time with 11. Larry Noland got five, Felix Albiar four, Gene Duvall three, and Bill Watts and Billy Frank two each. Stanton trailed throughout the game.

First half. Second half brought a point-matching exhibition, but the Dogies ended up on top by 42-39. Back on the home court Thursday night, Stanton walloped Estacado Junior High of Plainview by 56-36. Once again Jim Allison led Stanton scoring, with 18. Gene Duvall ripped in 15 and Larry Noland netted nine. Also scoring were Bill Watts with six, Bill Frank with four, and Mike Davis with two. Stanton streaked to a 17-2 lead in the first quarter, and then burned in eight, Duvall got seven, and Noland tacked on two. In the second quarter, Watts hit for a two - pointer and Noland hit for one. Duvall scored four, and Allison dumped in six. Resting atop a 30 - 15 lead as the second half began, Dogies slowed in the third quarter. Noland contributed four to the cause, Watts and Duvall both tallied field goals, and Frank got two free throws. During the fourth quarter, almost everyone on the Dogie squad jumped into the scoring columns. Watts, Noland, Johnson, Frank, Duvall, and Davis all hit field goals as Allison got a pair of two - pointers.

Stanton Freshmen Fall To Plainview

A small group of Stanton Junior High School supporters saw the freshman Dogies edged out by Estacado Junior High of Plainview here Thursday night.

After getting off to a slow start, the Dogies were unable to catch Plainview and took their third defeat of the year. The 23 - 36 loss gives Stanton a record of 12 - 3 for the season.

Dogies had trouble finding the range during the game, as so one netted double figures. Lee Roy Williams claimed scoring honors with seven while Gregg Richards seconded with six.

Stanton managed only four points during the first quarter while Plainview ripped in 13 to take a permanent lead.

Richards hit a field goal for Stanton, while Randy Tooley and Robbie Lemons both added free ones in the first round.

Williams dropped in six quick points during the second period to help Stanton close the gap to 13 - 19 before the half. But Moore's two - pointer and a free throw by Steve Hodges were not enough to bring Stanton within catching distance.

Plainview was held to eight in the third period, but Dogies managed only six. Richards added a pair of charity tosses to one from the field while Lemons sank one for two to make it 27-19 entering the final round.

Once again the cold Stanton team could only tally four in the fourth period. Tooley got a field goal and a free throw and then Williams contributed a final one - counter. But Plainview tossed in a final nine points to put the game away, 36 - 23.

his scoring for the night. Jackson retaliated with a basket, but scores by Miller and Wendele (his last ones for the night, also) shoved Dumas ahead 25-19.

Jackson missed a free throw, but McGee scored. Haney stole the ball and threw to Strange on the fast break. Baker missed a free throw and McGee tied the score at 25 - all with 40 seconds remaining.

Robinet hit a free throw with 30 seconds left, but Hodges netted a basket with five seconds left to put Hereford in front for the first time as the quarter ended.

Then came six straight points that undid the Demons. Starting very slowly, Haney hit a jump shot from the top of the circle with 5:10 left. Welty stole the ball and Hodges hit a jumper from the right side with five minutes left.

Dumas continued to be felled by Hereford's zone - press. In fact, it seemed the Demons were in a semi-stall as they cautiously worked the ball around.

However, they couldn't find the basket and ended up by fouling Haney, who netted his two free throws with 3:50 left. That put Hereford in front 33-26 with 3:50 left.

Miller finally hit Dumas' first points of the period with a jumper at 3:30, but McGee came back with a basket and Hodges netted a free throw for a 36 - 28 lead.

Parsons missed a free throw and Hereford started to stall. Mike Wendele fouled out with 2:25 left, but McGee missed the free throw. Miller fouled, but Hodges also missed.

Robinet hit a basket with 1:40 left, then fouled McGee, who missed the free throw. But Dumas couldn't control the ball and Hereford again stalled. Robinett fouled with 12 seconds left and Welty netted both tries.

Robinet hit from the field with two seconds left but it didn't matter.

Dwight McGee paced Hereford's low-scoring attack with 10 points. Jim Haney and Austin Hodges had nine each.

Robinet had 11 for the Demons while Baker and Miller got six each.

Free throws actually spelled the difference as Hereford hit eight of 14 attempts, while Dumas got just two of seven tries.

After a cold start, Hereford scored strongly by quarters, the Whitefaces hit 8, 11, 10 and 11. Dumas hit 11, 6, 9 and 6 on its side of the ledger.

In other action, Phillips stayed contending in contention with a narrow 58 - 61 win over Littlefield. And Perryton whipped Levelland 57 - 46.

Hereford has its work cut out for it this week with two tough games. The Herd will host Phillips here Tuesday night to close out the first round schedule. Then on Friday night, the Herd will go to Perryton to try the Rangers on their home court.

The Phillips Blackhawks are the surprise team of the district with a 3-1 record. They beat Levelland 48 - 35 and Perryton 61-59, bowed to Dumas 45 - 60 at Dumas, and beat Littlefield 64 - 61.

Sophomores Larry Lewis and Larry Boykin are leading the fast-moving Hawks, aided by Charles Robbins, Ken Bynum and Ronald McGough. The Hawks are small, but very fast. They get the most out of their speed on both offense and defense.

They will be trying to knock off the league-leading Whitefaces and end up the first half in a tie for the lead.

Littlefield was to play at Perryton Saturday night. Also on Tuesday, Littlefield will be at Levelland and Perryton at Dumas.

A meeting of all Hereford merchants has been called for Tuesday, Jan. 29, at 10 a. m. in the Chamber of Commerce office. Some important business is to be discussed.

The regular luncheon and business meeting of the County Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at 1 p. m. Thursday, Jan. 31, in the Hereford Community Center. Josephine McGee will provide musical entertainment and Clint Forby will speak on Individual Responsibility. Hostess clubs will be Hereford Music Study Club, El Nino Study Club, Farm and Ranch Club, Bud to Blossom Garden Club and North Hereford Home Demonstration Club.

Springlake will have a PTA-sponsored Talent Show on Feb. 7 at 7:30 p. m. Cash prizes will be awarded in each of three divisions, one for those in the first through sixth grades, seventh through twelfth grades and those not attending school. Entries should be mailed or phoned in by Feb. 6.

The Music Study Club is to meet Monday, Jan. 28, at 7:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. J. C. McCracken.

If you didn't see Hereford beat Dumas here Friday night you really missed a treat. Big Kelly Baker, called "The Moose", looked more like a mouse and probably was the most frustrated player you ever saw. The 6-5 1/2 All-Stater never did get a clean shot at the basket from inside. Every time he got the ball, he found two or three little Whitefaces swarming all over him. Mike Wendele, 6-4, didn't have any more luck than did Baker. To sum up the game briefly, both teams were fairly cold on the floor, and both played sparkling defense. But Hereford just outlasted the defending state cage champions in the second half and that made the difference.

But Hereford isn't out of the woods by any means in the district basketball scramble. Tuesday night they host the second place Phillips Blackhawks in what should be another thriller. Hereford needs to win this one as badly as it did Friday in order to protect itself as the second half starts. And the tough ones will be on the road in the next half, against Dumas, Phillips and Perryton, with Littlefield and Levelland playing here.

Second place and honorable mention in Sports Photo's judging went to H. A. Tuck, Brand news editor.

The second place picture, entitled "Swing Your Partner" appeared May 17 and showed Hereford first baseman Joe Mack Hale reaching desperately, but just missing a runner crossing the base.

The other award-winning picture was called "Tag, You're Out!" and appeared on April 15. It showed Hereford catcher Eugene Green crouched over a runner who tried to come home and found himself not only tagged out but knocked out on the play.

The Brand was competing with all Associated Press papers in the state printed in cities of less than 75,000 population. The only other non-daily in the state, to win was the Pecos Independent, which got first in Community Service for first exposing the Billy Sol Estes scandals.

Announcement of the honors signaled the third consecutive year that the Brand has won awards in the APME contests. It was competing with papers from Big Spring, San Angelo, Odessa, Bryan, Midland, Paris, Tyler, Victoria, Brownwood, Marshall and Abilene.

ON A FAST BREAK, the Whitefaces put four players under the Levelland basket with Earl Jackson (23) attempting the bucket. However, as Jackson jumped to launch the shot, six-foot six-inch Labo forward stood on his tip-toes to block the attempt. Under the basket with Jackson are Dwight McGee (25), Austin Hodges (11), and a third teammate concealed by Hodges. The other Levelland defender is Sonny Cook. In the action Tuesday at Levelland, Hereford handed the Lobos their third straight conference loss by a 57-52 score. (Staff Photo)

THIRD DISTRICT WIN

Herd Uses Strong Defense To Defeat Dumas Demons

Almost a full house stood on its feet many times here Friday night as the Hereford Bees downed the Dumas Demon B squad by 44-35.

Although billed as the preliminary for the varsity tilt which followed, the B game featured plenty of action.

Leading 21-16 at the half, the Herd's margin was quickly shortened as the second half got underway. But the Whitefaces managed to pull ahead again for the win.

The victory grants Hereford a three and one record in district play, and a 12-6 mark for the season.

Frank Cain and Charley Moreno teamed up to lead the Dogie advances with eight each, while Neal Lueb and Gary Roberson added seven each to the effort. David Stevens tallied six in the last quarter, Kenny Justice hit for five, and Gary Stagner marked three.

But the real story of the win for Hereford was its alert defense, which was sparked by Roberson and Moreno.

Whitefaces jumped to an 11-4 lead during the first quarter. Cain scored with a set shot, Lueb connected with a rebound and then put in one of the two free throws which followed.

Stagner converted a free one and then scored to account for his three points early in the game. Roberson scored a n.d. made good a charity toss. Demons had to rely on four free throw conversions to account for their scoring in the first round as they fell behind.

Dumas found the range a little easier in the second quarter, but was able to close the gap only two points as the Whitefaces moved to a 21-16 half time advantage.

Moreno ripped in five points during the period, including a free throw. Two one - counters each by Lueb and Cain and then another one by Roberson gave the Whitefaces a total of 10 points in the third round to account for the scoring while the Demons did likewise and their deficit remained the same.

The outcome was somewhat more questionable, however, as the second half opened. Dick Kirkland sank two balls in 30 seconds to make it 20-21. But Lueb countered with a set shot from inside the key and Justice ripped in a lay - up to give the Herd more breathing room.

Cain hit a field goal, but the Demons put in two quick ones to close the gap to 27-24. Roberson sank a long one and then Moreno stole the ball and went up for two. Cain connected another long one to give the Herd a 33-28 margin as the third round ended.

Demons were held to only three points in the first four minutes of the last quarter while the Whitefaces raced to a commanding lead. Roberson opened with a free throw, which was followed by free ones by Justice and Moreno, and then Stevens made two of the same.

Fighting desperately, Dumas fouled themselves out of the running. Moreno stole the ball again and drove towards a lay - up only to get clobbered by two Demons as once as he attempted to shoot. He converted the free throws which resulted, and the Herd led 49-29.

Dumas took its turn at the free throw line and got two points. A short field goal made it 33-42 after David Stevens sank the Herd's first two - pointer of the quarter with 1:30 to go in the game. Stevens later netted a pair of charity tosses, and then Dumas ended its scoring with 20 seconds left.

Justice grabbed the ball from a Demon and drove in for a lay - up with five seconds remaining. The ball rolled round and round the rim, but finally out, leaving the Herd to be extremely content with a 44-35 win over Dumas.

"Hottest Brand Going"

Miss Deanna Kriegshauser Weds Richard Wayne Walsh

St. Anthony's Catholic Church of Hereford was the scene at 5 p. m. Saturday, Jan. 26, for the double ring wedding ceremony uniting Miss Deanna Kriegshauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kriegshauser of Route 3, Hereford, and Richard Wayne Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walsh of Lubbock. Fr. Hubert Byrnes read the ceremony in front of an altar decorated with bouquets of large white mums flanked by four candelabra and potted palms. The family pews were marked with large white bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of bombazine and chantilly lace. The basque bodice was fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline aglow with iridescent sequins and tiny pearls. The sleeves extended to wrist points and the bouffant skirt featured embroidered appliques of lace on the front panel. Cascading tiers edged in lace extended to the extremities of the cathedral train. The bridal bouquet was a crescent arrangement of white roses and English ivy, featuring a large white orchid in the center. The bride's veil, made by the bride's mother, was a fingertip veil of silk illusion on a pillbox crown-of-peau. Three fabric roses encrusted with pearls adorned the front of the crown.

Judy Kriegshauser, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She was attired in a street length dress of emerald green velvet with an inset bodice of green satin, styled with a bell skirt, scoop-neck and elbow length sleeves, accented with a single satin rose and a satin bustle adorning the waistline at the back. A pillbox hat of green satin, accented with three fabric roses and a short veil, adorned her head with accessories of matching satin shoes and white wrist gloves, carrying a single long-stemmed white Duchess rose.

Mrs. Gary Walsh of Amarillo served as matron of honor with Miss Dee Buck of Stillwater, Okla., serving as bridesmaid. They wore identical street length dresses and accessories of the maid of honor.

Sister of the bride, Miss Mary Jane Kriegshauser, served her sister as junior bridesmaid and little Dianne Bamber, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. They wore dresses similar to those of the attendants, with a wide satin sash and a tiny pillbox hat with a single fabric rose. Their accessories were white gloves and each carried a single rose.

Johnny Walsh of Lubbock, brother of the groom, served as best man, with Gary Walsh of Amarillo and Jim Bergkamp of Portales both serving as groomsmen. Gary Kriegshauser, brother of the bride, Burrell Tucker of Wood River, Ill., John Kriegshauser, brother of the bride, and Vannie Graves of Portales, N. M., all served as ushers for the wedding.

Alcoytes for the wedding were Randy Kriegshauser, brother of the bride, and David Walsh, brother of the groom.

Organist, Mrs. Mary Hershey, played the traditional wedding music with Ben Gollehon as vocalist, singing "O Sanctissima" and "Panis Angelicus" by Franck and "Ave Maria" by Bach and Gounod.

Mother of the bride wore a two piece suite dress of beige brocade with black accessories and a yellow rose corsage.

Mother of the groom wore a mauve two piece silk suite with matching accessories accented with a pink rose corsage.

Immediately following the wedding a buffet supper was held in St. Anthony's Church hall. Mrs. Jim Bergkamp served at the guest register.

Approximately 150 out-of-town guests from Amarillo, Lubbock, Portales and Clovis attended the wedding.

Following the wedding supper the couple left for points of interest in New Mexico. For the wedding trip the bride chose to wear a navy blue silk suite with accessories of black patent accented with the white orchid corsage lifted from the bridal bouquet.

After February, the couple will be at home in Portales, N. M., at 300 Avenue D.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Hereford High School and attended Eastern New Mexico University. At the time of her marriage she was employed at Justice Realtors in Hereford.

Walsh is a 1960 graduate of Price College in Amarillo. He is now attending Eastern New Mexico University at Portales and is majoring in marketing and business administration. He is a member of the Delta Sigma Pi business fraternity.

A rehearsal supper was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walsh on Jan. 25 at the Hereford Country Club. The wedding colors of emerald green and white were carried out in the centerpiece and table decorations. Approximately 25 guests were present for the supper.

Delta Kappa Gamma Holds Luncheon And Initiation

Initiating services and a luncheon were held for the Delta Xi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma when it met on Saturday, Jan. 19, in the Japanese dining room of the Western Wheel Inn. Della Stagner, president, presided over the meeting.

Eloise McDougal was in charge of the initiating service, being assisted by Thelma McMin and a chorus consisting of Mozelle Neill, Caudie Ola Brown, Ruby Crawford, Avis Smith and Faun Welker. Officers helping in the ceremony were Della Stagner, Leta Kaul, Grace Paul and Para Render. Those being initiated into the group as new members were presented by Mrs. McDougal, they included Zula Atwood, Louise Hilburn, Beatrice Hawkins, Evie Frohner, Pearl McLain and Gladys Legg.

Immediately following the luncheon, under the direction of Grace Thomas and Ormel Lee Walker, a program was given with Jo Ann Zahn of Farwell in charge. It was in the form of a panel discussion, with those participating on the panel being Mrs. Zahn, moderator, Alice Cowan and Alice Williams.

Theme for the panel discussion was "The Role of Teachers in Furthering Education." Lives of famous teachers, such as Jesse Start, Miss Dove and Billie Davis, were used as illustrations to show how the role of the teacher is important in the lives of the school children that they teach. The panel was closed with the tribute to "The Unknown Teacher" by Henry Van Dyke.

Van Dyke stated that, "Famous educators plan new systems of pedagogy, but it is the unknown teacher who delivers and guides the young. He lives in obscurity and contends with hardship. For him no trumpets blare, no chariots wait, no golden decorations are decreed. He keeps the watch along the borders of darkness and makes the attack on the trenches of ignorance and folly. He fights many

L'Allegra Club Studies First Aid

Community Center was the meeting place for both Thursday mornings at 9:30 a. m. on Jan. 17 and Jan. 24 for the first and second lessons on the Red Cross Advanced First Aid Course started by the L'Allegra Study Club.

John Gilliland presented the first program on "The Human Body." In this discussion he explained about the over 200 bones that are found in the body. The circulatory system was explained including the veins, capillaries, arteries and the heart.

During the business meeting the party for the husbands was discussed and scheduled for Feb. 14 as a Mexican dinner in the home of the Virgil Marshes.

Those attending the meeting on Jan. 17 at the Community Center were: Mesdames Jimmy Carnahan, Tommy Carnahan, Bill Dameron, Joe Easley, Arthur Fuston, C. E. Hicks, James Higgins, Dennis Lomas, Walter London, Joe Lyons, Virgil Marsh, Richard Pickens, John Pitman, Alex Schroeter and Oliver Streu.

For the second meeting of Jan. 24 the lessons were discussed by Ralph Owens and John Gilliland.

"Safety Factors in Approaching Scene of Accident" was discussed by Ralph Owens. He stated, "When arriving on the scene of an accident, always remember that first aid is only temporary. Look at all the victims and treat the worst injured patient first. Several points to remember in caring for the victim are: look for bleeding and stoppage of breathing, stop someone to get an ambulance, if have to move victim, because of traffic hazards (in middle of highway), chalk place where victim was for benefit of the police and try to keep victim cheerful.

John Gilliland spoke on "Special Wounds". In this part of the lesson gunshot wounds and vener flesh wounds were said to be two of the most dangerous wounds, because of the contamination and infection hazards. Rabies is fatal, prevention shots should be taken before the disease starts. Animals should be captured alive and taken to a veterinarian. Tetanus shots should be gotten for animal bites, children bites and cat scratches. Tetanus shots last about six months.

Those attending this meeting were: Mesdames John Pitman, Joe Lyons, Dennis Lomas, Tommy Carnahan, Dwain Walker, Joe Easley, Richard Pickens, Cameron Gault, Alex Schroeter, James Higgins, Terry Kirby, Virgil Marsh, Walter London and Arthur Fuston.

About 75 attended the installation with visitors coming from Friona, Dimmitt, Muleshoe and Circleback. The Hereford Lodge served a dinner to members and visitors.

Ann Gentry Chosen 1963 Homemaker Of Tomorrow

After recovering from the surprise of being selected as Homemaker of Tomorrow from Hereford High School in the 1963 Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow, Ann Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gentry, was overjoyed. "I had no idea that there was a chance for me to win and when my name was called I was flabbergasted. This is one of the greatest honors that I could have received."

Ann is a versatile average American teenager with a flare for sewing and cooking mixed with just enjoying life. She is enthusiastic if an evening of football or basketball is on the agenda or enjoys just goofing off with some quite home entertainment, listening to her stereo. Occasionally Ann and several of her friends enjoy taking in the wide open spaces for an afternoon of horseback riding.

Having achieved the highest score in a knowledge and attitude test given to senior girls on Dec. 4, she is now eligible along with winners in other state high schools, for the title of state Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Winner of the state Homemaker of Tomorrow title is awarded a $1,500 scholarship by General Mills, sponsor of the program. The runner-up receives a $500 scholarship. The school of each state Homemaker of Tomorrow is awarded a complete set of Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Basis for selection of local and state winners is a test prepared and scored by Science Research Associates, Chicago. Personal observation and interviews are added factors in determining national winners.

This 1963 Betty Crocker Search reached another all time high in enrollment, with 410,466 girls in 12,964 schools participating. In the program's nine years, nearly three million girls have been enrolled.

Word will be received sometime in February whether or not Ann is the State Winner.

A PERSONAL MARCH OF DIMES campaign drive was conducted by nine-year-old Roy Messer, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Messer, Route 1. Roy spent two weeks collecting donations to fill out the card before turning it in Thursday. Each card contains slots for $10 in donations, but the Deaf Smith County youth's totaled $11. Transmission lines of 150,000 to 350,000 volts are the biggest in commercial use in this country.

At the local contest held Saturday in the Bull Barn, Hale Center FFA squad earned the top honor in the livestock judging contest. Other placings included Tulla, Shallowater, Lockney, and Lubbock, second-fifth respectively.

In the 4-H division of the contest, Dallam County took first place. Following were Oldham, Deaf Smith, Farmer, and Motley counties in order.

All Will Not Be Sweet, But . . .

Sugar Refinery Beckons New Era Of Progress

Lo, these many years we have been talking about industry. For more than 50 years, we have talked about the need of a sugar refinery. Suddenly, when many had given up, came the announcement that Holly Corporation will build an $18 million plant in Hereford. What do we do now? How will such a plant affect you personally?

Not unlike an expectant mother, many of us have anticipated the event as inevitable only to find ourselves in a sort of daze when the time arrives. We know that things are going to happen — and pretty fast, too.

Regardless of what we do, many changes will occur. The community will grow in population, and with growth always comes problems. Once again, we can expect crowded class rooms; we will need new water wells, disposal systems and larger churches; there will be fewer places to park our automobiles, greater competition will be faced in most lines and, always — higher taxes. On the other side of the ledger, growth also brings prosperity to many people. It means more jobs, better rents, higher land prices, increased retail volumes and, best of all, thousands and thousands of new dollars in gross farm income.

Nor will these problems always be general or community-wide in scope. There will be problems for the farmer who switches a portion of his annual yield to the new crop, just as many merchants will face new competition in various forms. In both cases, there will be a few who are not equal to the challenge, and who will spend their time talking about the "good old days". This happens in every community which grows. It is an inevitable result, and the best way to cope with the situation is to anticipate the change and plan to take best advantage of the opportunities which are bound to accompany growth.

In addition to the proposed sugar refinery, let us also recognize the fact that this particular industry is probably only the beginning of a tremendous era of expansion; almost certain to follow are a packing plant, more feed lots; a canning plant, real estate developments, perhaps even a shopping center or two. In all probability, the population of Hereford will increase by more than 50 per cent during the next few years. Such, at least, has been the experience in other communities under similar circumstances, and this will especially be true if the citizens continue to pursue a progressive policy.

Meanwhile, we can expect dissent within our own ranks from time to time, for such is the history of progress. Seldom, however, will these complaints be heard from those who are young, ambitious and energetic. As ever in the past, our young people will seek their future in the fields of growth and progress — and the community which cannot attract or replace its youngsters is bound to join the decaying ruins of hundreds of other towns which are today "drying up" all over the nation. America is on the march as never before. Right now, Hereford and Deaf Smith County are "sitting on top of the world". Our future is glowing and bright — and that is the way we must keep it: with a stronger Chamber of Commerce, an enlarged United Fund, greater organized effort than ever before — and a greater citizenship which is proud to be a part in this new era of progress on the High Plains.

Ladies Move Into Ranching Circles

The Twentieth Century has wrought many changes, foremost of which is probably the entry of women into all phases of American life.

One of the last areas to give way to the innovation has been ranching and cattle breeding, but when slender, 14-year-old Becky Higgins last week walked up to the judges stand and was recognized as "tops in the business", another barricade to the "man's world" was shattered. In the same show, let it also be noted that Charlotte Seaton of Lubbudde claimed top honors in the hog division.

While we are indeed proud of these young ladies, we cannot help but wonder if such startling success does not foretoken a new future for the Old West. Shortly after the close of World War I, women began filling vacancies in the world of business. Today they are predominant in many walks of life. Household habits have altered all over the country, and probably no other single development has so greatly and definitely influenced the standard of living in this nation.

What's more, the women appear to be accomplishing far more than the mere male ever achieved on a solo basis. While most countries, including Russia, pretty well designate menial chores for the women, America is finding a place for them on the top rungs of the ladder.

We do not predict that the ranches and foremost livestock raisers of the future will all be feminine. On the other hand, we do feel that the average rancher who can talk and compare his cattle with an interested, intelligent wife is likely to make far greater strides in his field than the man without benefit of such advice and companionship.

Besides, whether we like it or not, the situation is with us. American women have come a long way during the past 50 years — and we doubt that they will ever again sink back into the abyss of oblivion which was their status at the turn of the century.

Thank You, Mrs. Draper

Home Demonstrations Club members last Sunday honored Mrs. Tom Draper upon the occasion of 16 years active service as Home Demonstration agent in Deaf Smith County, and the Brand would like to join these fine ladies in saying, "Thank You, Mrs. Draper, for a job well done!"

Mrs. Draper is one of several fine agents to serve this community, and lists among her achievements numerous projects of state-wide and national recognition. She can also point with pride to the fact that Deaf Smith County, too, is considered one of the leading counties in Texas' Home Demonstration circles.

To us, the climax of all achievement in the field, however, rests in the fact that Deaf Smith members thought so much of Mrs. Draper and so appreciated her work that they voluntarily organized and sponsored the tea in her honor. The occasion within itself says that she has been successful in passing along some of her own talents as a leader and organizer; it further says that she is the sort of person other people enjoy and appreciate, which must certainly be a primary aim of all Home Demonstration work throughout the nation.

These things, along with the satisfaction of watching the success and progress of youngsters formerly associated with her in 4-H clubs, afford a type of reward realized by very few people. Knowing Mrs. Draper well, we realize how much they mean to her, and that she will treasure them the remainder of her days. This is the stimulus which sparks that extra bit of personal interest beyond the call of duty and, incidentally, well establishes the existence of a truly fine Home Demonstration leader.

As a newspaper, it has been our privilege to work closely with Mrs. Draper these past 16 years. Sometimes the going has been rough, at other times it has been smooth but, always, Mrs. Draper has steered a direct course based on service in behalf of her fellowmen. If we could turn the calendar back 16 years and select any Home Demonstration Agent in the United States, we would say, "Give us Mrs. Draper, please!" What's more, under the same circumstances, we will bet that Mrs. Draper, given a choice of all the counties in the United States, would not hesitate to select Deaf Smith.

Area Drive To Be Staged For Rehabilitation Center

Hereford and Deaf Smith County residents will be asked during a special Panhandle-wide appeal to make donations to Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation.

The appeal will consist of a two-hour television broadcast presented by KFDD-TV, Channel 10. The special television show will be broadcast on Saturday, Feb. 2, beginning at 10:30 p. m.

As the donations are made here, Hereford amateur radio operators will make special calls to the Amarillo station informing announcers of the amount and the donor.

Starring on the two-hour show will be Rosita, Chill Willis, Audie Murphy, Dale Robertson, The Two Jims, Ray Peterson, and Jennifer Adams. They will appear on film.

According to Joe Macrander, with the Foundation's Special Service Department, fund raised during the Tele-Rally will be kept in the Panhandle and deposited in area banks.

Funds raised during the program, he continued, will be used only for patients from this area, and only if these patients are unable to pay their own expenses.

Macrander, a former patient of the Foundation's Texas Rehabilitation Center and formerly of Amarillo, has been instrumental in organizing the Panhandle-wide campaign. The special service department representative was severely injured in an accident near Amarillo in 1955. He was totally paralyzed due to injuries until treatments at Gonzales eventually resulted in complete independence from his injuries.

Approval of the upcoming solicitation campaign for the Foundation and Texas Rehabilitation Center was given unanimous approval recently as the planned campaign was reviewed by the Amarillo Solicitations Review Board.

Gonzales Warm Springs was originally established to care for Texas who had been crippled by polio. The Foundation's work was to restore them to normal, healthy and productive lives. As the crippling disease ceased to be a public health menace, the Warm Springs Foundation turned to the treatment of other disabilities.

Thus the Texas Rehabilitation Center came into being at Gonzales Warm Springs. Today the Center's patient load includes men, women and children who have become disabled through brain damage, spinal cord injuries and strokes. Other patients being treated suffer from the effects of cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis, arthritis, and other paralyzing diseases as well as polio.

It is estimated that between 400,000 and 500,000 persons are disabled, many severely incapacitated, in Texas and the nation.

This represents an area of growing concern since they are costing the public an estimated $537 million. Nearly all these persons can be rehabilitated and most, with proper treatment could be gainfully employed or at least become sufficiently self-reliant to release those caring for them to more productive employment.

In Texas, the problem is staggering since this state lags behind others in providing rehabilitation services for disabled citizens.

An authoritative source observed recently that the needs of

NOBODY IS RUNNING

If you thought city politics were running smoothly, without problems, better think again. There's a problem brewing. It's summed up in this question: "Who's going to run for city council?" Mayor M. T. James Jr. says he won't run for re-election. Councilman Bob Duncan says the same thing. Councilman Fred Thompson resigned a few weeks ago after moving out of the city limits. The post is still vacant and will be until after the April city election. That is it'll be filled if somebody runs. "I'm tired," says Mayor James, after six years on the council. "I think somebody else ought to have a crack at it." "It is someone else's turn," says Councilman Duncan, who has served for the past four years. Both say they've "definitely" made up their minds not to run. Olton has run into such problems before. On one occasion only a few years ago, not a single soul filed for election and everybody had to write in their choice. So the situation stands: a mayor and two councilmen will be elected in April, and right now the field is open. The council will get around to officially calling the April election at its next meeting. At that time a filing deadline will be established.

THE OLTON ENTERPRISE

COUNTY ATTORNEY RESIGNS

Karl Lovelady, Bailey county attorney who is under indictment by a district court grand jury, presented his resignation to the board of county commissioners this week, it is reported. He handed an envelope to County Judge Glen Williams with the statement that the envelope contained "a simple" resignation for himself and his wife who is an employee in the tax collector's office. Judge Williams said the envelope will not be opened until next Monday's meeting of the board. Lovelady's office, when asked by the Journal for a statement, said "Mr. Lovelady has no statement to make." Lovelady is reported to have told several in the courthouse that he has resigned, effective Feb. 1. Presumably Mrs. Lovelady's resignation will be effective at the same time.

AIRPORT OFFERED RANDALL COUNTY

A deal to make Tradewind a county-owned airport was offered Randall County commissioners again Monday. Making the proposition was Shelby Kritzer, owner of controlling interest in the airport. Kritzer first approached the court last year. About $1 million in revenue bonds would be required to make the purchase. The federal government would participate to the extent of about $370,000 in the purchase. According to Kritzer's plan, the revenue bonds would be serviced out of funds received for lease by Tradewind of the airport. At the end of 40 years the airport would belong to Randall County. Kritzer said the site already has been sanctioned as a secondary airport.

COURT UPHOLDS BOARD DECISION

The district court in Austin last week ruled in favor of the State Banking Board of Texas in a suit against the board by the First National Bank of Tullia. The decision has been appealed, according to the plaintiff. The suit was filed last May after a charter had been granted by the state board for a state bank in Tullia. The plaintiff challenged the action on the grounds that the action was "arbitrary, capricious and illegal for the reason that no public necessity exists for an additional banking facility in or around Tullia and the board's finding to the contrary, if such finding was made, is not supported by substantial evidence." The plaintiff asked that the action of the defendants in approving a charter for the proposed First State Bank of Tullia be declared null and void.

GYM TO BE BUILT

Panhandle's school gymnasium will be built at the site of the old high school building, which burned, it was decided in a special board meeting Friday. The board met again with officials from the insurance and a contractor to discuss possibilities other than the rebuilding at the present site. Members of the board had considered the aspects of accepting a cash settlement from the insurance company on the burned building and applying it toward construction of a new gym near the high school building. After studying figures on a cash settlement and the cost of a new gymnasium and the current indebtedness of the school district, it was decided to reconstruct the burned building.

THE BOOTLEG Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his bindweed farm takes an odd view this week, which we are printing only in the interest of freedom of the press.

Dear editor:

I have a ticklish subject to discuss this week, as you will see when you read a little further.

As I understand it, New York City has been without any newspapers for over a month now due to a strike, and it is my opinion the thing ought to be settled quickly before it's too late.

The reason it ought to be settled is that if it's not, those New York publishers may find themselves in the same boat with us farmers — they may find there were too many in the first place.

Understand, I'm not saying the nine dailies in New York aren't needed, still at the same time, the last thing a newspaper wants to do is to give its readers an opportunity to get along without it.

A newspaper is a valuable asset to a town, don't see many good towns without one, but it's a truth that should be hammered away at constantly, not put to a month-long newspaper-less test just to find out. It's sort-of-like a man with a good job in a big company. He's needed all right, he earns his salary, but it's not a good idea to take off for six months to prove how essential he is. The firm might survive without him.

Farmers know they're essential if the country is to keep eating, but you aren't going to catch me shutting down this bindweed farm to put the thing to a test.

By the way, to change the subject, did you know that Mr. Khrushchev is now wearing shirts with French cuff links and has his son-in-law on the government payroll? And that Castro is still smoking long cigars and eating well, regardless of how the rest of the Cubans are making out? Human nature is hard to put down, when it can get its hands on the money.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

MONA'S COFFEE BREAK

Exception Noted On Motherhood's Perils

By Mona Jette
I said I wouldn't do it but I did. I'm referring to a rather nasty habit I've cultivated of reading a controversial article in my monthly barrage of magazines, then getting all steamed up about it.

Before you read any further, run out and buy the Jan. 26 issue of the Saturday Evening Post. If the newsstands are all sold out, drop by my house and I'll be happy to lend you my copy. Ready? Now turn to page 10. That's right. It says just what you thought it said: "A Vote Against Motherhood"

It is written by a Gael Greene. (I can't decide whether to call her Mrs. or Miss. It's hard to tell about these celebrities. Gael is obviously married, as she tells about the decision she and her husband have reached on having a family. "But I can't call her Miss Greene. If I were "miss" I wouldn't be wanting to get pregnant, either.")

Dropping this conversational bombshell into your lap, the author lists, with deliberate calmness, the reasons why she doesn't want children. First of all, she refuses to be a mother first, wife second, woman third and a human being last.

Mrs. Greene has steeped back and taken a long, searching look at her friends, mostly educated and "degree-ed", and found she didn't like what she saw. She feels they are trapped, resentful, shredded, and their love life is strained by frustration, tension and bitterness.

Motherhood, to Mrs. Greene, is a prison - dirty diapers, 2 a.m. feedings and colic, all confined within the bars of a playpen. In this prison, mothers are racked with guilt for fear of neglecting their children.

She prattles on in an all-knowing vein about people who bear children to use as instruments of revenge, pets and as status symbols. Ending her thesis, she says: "Whom do I harm by not having children? The world, which already has too many? There is a choice. Couples should be permitted to make the decision, whether to have children or not, without social pressures."

Back up there, gals! Before you jump on the bandwagon, let's hear from the other side. I will step forward from the ranks of those screaming, overworked, undersexed and neglectful women known as American Mothers. I am casting my vote, with thankfulness rather than chest-thumping, FOR MOTHERHOOD!

I am a female (which, incidentally means "one of that sex which conceives and produces young"). I am 26. I have been married to the same man for ten years. We married while my husband was still in college, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree. The only degree I managed to obtain was a P.H.T. (putting hubby through), because I was too busy having a v-i-n-g (with all apologies to Mrs. Greene) BABIES.

I am a woman first. Being a woman, I wanted a man. Therefore, I am a wife second. Being a wife and loving my husband with all my being, I wanted his children. We wanted something to show for our life other than a new car every year and a houseful of furniture. Therefore, I am a mother. We have three children and Mrs. Greene can dissect away at our reasons from now on if she wishes. I'll tell her right now that we have three of the best loved little state symbols in the world.

I don't feel as though I've lost one thing of my femininity undergoing the process of motherhood. There is just one thing that brings my femininity out in duck bumps... and that's a MAN!

I am proud I am a woman and have never admired that slat-seated and board-chested species of womanhood stalking through careers with a vengeance because they weren't born men. And I've seen a lot of women, both prolific and sterile alike, who were about as feminine as a Sherman tank wearing a pair of lace panties.

When we married, my husband promised me the stars and the moon. All I got for the first three years of our nuptial bliss was a baby every year. And I loved it! My husband told me that I was never more beautiful than when I was waddling along with my tummy pooching out, with his child. But most important, I really felt beautiful.

None of my pregnancies were planned; they just happened. But we don't regard our children as "mistakes". I have no great visions of grandeur for my children, but I wonder if the mothers of Abe Lincoln, Albert Schweitzer, Ludwig von Beethoven or other famous men planned their births? Does the world regard these men as "accidents"?

You say your friends feel trapped and resentful, Mrs. Greene. Don't you know that some people are motivated to create their own private hells whatever the circumstances? To regard the arrival of children as a temporary interruption to a career is the height of selfishness. I've had a career, too. It's not bragging, but our whole family seemed to profit from the experience. Children get just as tired of looking at you just as bored doing the same old things, as you do. Mine discovered a wonderful new world outside the walls of our home. And as a reporter - photographer and eventually women's editor, I discovered that you can have your cake and eat it too, if it's handled correctly.

My children were not neglected and I didn't feel guilty. During the evenings, we compared adventures. The children admitted to that exclusive fraternity known as childhood and in turn, they were thrilled to learn about the newspaper world. I was a glamorous figure to them, for they had visions of me slinking off to cover such exciting assignments as murders, suicides and robberies. (Not for the world would I have burst their bubble and revealed I was just a lowly society editor covering such mundane events as the silver tea at the conclusion of a meeting of a study club.)

Having babies hasn't drained my creative saps. Gael Greene, you can't imagine what creation is even about until you've given birth to a child. Birth is not a pretty process. Stripped of dignity and modesty, your mind and body possessed with one objective: To bring a child into this world. This is when you become a woman. And when you hold your newborn child in your arms, marveling at the newness, the perfection, then you know what it feels like to sit at the right hand of God, and view the first creation with your own eyes.

I am just one of the millions of mothers in the world; women who paint, read good books, collect fine recordings, refinish antiques, fight political campaigns, or even start that novel. And raise our families.

Sure we yell and scream at them. Sometimes we dislike them so much we could beat them with a baseball bat. But we really aren't yelling AT them. It's a slap at ourselves because we expect them to be perfect. They are just little men and women, waiting for you to teach them the social mechanics that will prepare them for adulthood.

Sure we get frustrated. There always comes a day when the washing machine overflows, the commode stops up, three kids break out simultaneously with the chicken pox and some brat knocks a home run through your living room's picture window. But you take it in stride... knowing that tomorrow ALWAYS comes.

We suffer a lack of privacy. I can remember a time when my main ambition in life was to get in the bathroom without some whining child scratching pitifully at the door. But our love life has not suffered.

We like life and we're not afraid of it. So we have our babies. Granted, children are a responsibility, a challenge and a risk. A responsibility in that they are dependent on their parents for so long. A challenge in that it proves the stuff of which you are made, bringing out your good and bad personality traits. A risk because there is a certain element of chance involved. Buy my word, woman? Do you realize the number of people who slip and break their necks right in their own bath tubs each year?

In all of your articles, Mrs. Greene, I couldn't find a world about "time". For, in spite of all we do, the hands of the clock keep revolving around and around, ticking away the days, weeks and years. Children do grow up, you know.

The day comes when you realize you are no longer looking down at your son... but up. Then he takes you out and beats you 30 pins at bowling. You inadvertently stumble on the fact that the first thing your daughter does when she gets up each morning is dab perfume behind her ears. (Now that's feminine, isn't it? Well, she certainly didn't learn that from her father!) And the youngest reveals she has gone behind you back and mastered the Hully Gully. Now that's a real frustration!

Yesterday you were washing mountains of diapers and today you find you have a constant foursome for bridge or golf. They ask your advice on books to read, girls to date. Yesterday you listened to one-syllable words and today they're throwing some at you that make you lose sleep and eventually get you out of your nice warm bed to fumble for the dictionary.

Have you ever attended a high school graduation and looked around at all the men and women sitting side by side? Look at that couple right across from you, the ones holding hands like newlyweds. Now look at that young man striding across the stage to receive his diploma. That's their son. Look at them again. Do they look frustrated, resentful or trapped? Forgive me while I look away, for it embarrasses me to watch the glance of love and pride they are exchanging.

If you haven't tried it, sin-

Area... (Continued from page 4), the disabled in Texas are far beyond the reach of present resources and programs.

The state, despite deficiencies in rehabilitation, can claim a center which is on a par with the finest physical medical hospitals in the nation.

This is the Texas Rehabilitation Center of Gonzales-Warm Springs Foundation - the largest facility of its kind for in-patients in the Southwest.

Attending to the quality of the program is the fact that the Center is fully approved by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of American Hospitals. The commission is the Nation's watch-dog of medical standards. Quality of treatment is no accident at the Center. An advisory council of outstanding physicians serves voluntarily as do members of the statewide board of directors.

The council assists in developing, supervising, and evaluating the medical program. The Center's staff is headed by a full-time specialist in physical medicine and rehabilitation and his physician assistants. They are supported by highly trained therapists and technicians plus a group of consulting medical specialists.

Delta... (Continued from page 1) comes, which in later years, will shine back to cheer him, this is his reward. Knowledge may be gained from books, but the love of learning is transmitted only by personal contact.

Members present for the meeting from Hereford were: Mesdames Luelia Durham, Margaret Durham, Opal Bookout, Caudie Ola Brown, Alice Christman, Rubye Crawford, Elizabeth Garner, Leta Kaul, Eloise McDougal, Betty Jean Mercer, Mozelle Neill, Sam Ratcliff, Sophie Snare, Ormel Lee Walker, Grace Thomas, Gladys Legg and Misses Thelma McMinn, Della Stagner, Lucille Park and Erma Walker.

ter, don't knock it. You can keep your champagne sippers and your year-long safaris. My husband and I will just keep our kids. We are both firm believers in good investments, and in our children, we have the best investment one can make. An investment in the future.

We don't feel anger or disgust - just pity. Mrs. Greene, you have our sympathy.

IN GRAIN SORGHUM TESTS

May 15 is Best Date Of Planting

Research information from experiments on date of planting grain sorghum at High Plains Research Foundation, Halfway, indicates May 15 is the best planting date.

Hybrids planted on that date have produced higher yields with less damage from sorghum midge and birds than hybrids planted earlier or later.

A grain sorghum date of planting test was initiated in 1961. Purpose of the test was to determine the effects of planting dates on yields of early, medium and late maturing varieties of grain sorghum.

Despite the damage from birds on early planted milo and midge damage on later varieties, results clearly demonstrate some advantages and disadvantages of various planting dates.

In the test, six hybrids — two each of early, medium, and late maturing varieties — were used. Planting dates for all six were April 25, May 15, June 5, and June 25. The seeding rate was 10 pounds per acre.

All test plots were sidedressed with 100 pounds of nitrogen per acre on June 26.

The April 25 and May 15 fields received four irrigations totaling 15.63 acre inches while the two later plots were watered three times for a total of 12.58 inches.

Bird damage on the two early planted grain test plots was excessive since there were no sources of bird food in the area. This amount of damage would not occur in large fields so it can be discounted.

Midge infestation started a week earlier than in the 1961 season and resulted in greater damage. The June 25 planting received the greatest damage in 1962 as it did in 1961.

The May 15 planting had fewer plots damaged by either birds or midge and produced the highest yields. The late maturing hybrids produced the best yields and were the highest of the entire test. Date of planting tests were conducted by Delbert Langford, associate agronomist of the Foundation.

LETTER FROM A CUSTOMER

VARINA, N. C. — Charlie Poe, operator of a supermarket here, can testify that a man's conscience can be a burdensome thing.

He received a letter recently with a $1 bill enclosed. The letter read:

"Mr. Poe, I went in your store last Saturday to get out of the cold weather. While I was in your store I ate some stuff and didn't pay for it. I ate some oranges, oranges, peanuts, pecans and one rutabaga."

"Now my belly and my conscience hurts me. This one dollar will take care of my conscience."

"But my belly still hurts." The letter was signed: "A friend."
