

US To Insist On Recapture Of Weapons

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The United States will reserve the right to recapture all weapons and munitions supplied Russia under lend-lease before writing the wartime account "closed," government officials said today.

These officials noted that such recapture provisions have been written into the lend-lease settlements concluded with seven other countries.

It is not clear when negotiations to settle the Russian account will get underway. A note to Moscow some weeks ago suggesting that a mission be sent here for the purpose reportedly has gone unanswered.

Officials say that in general this country does not expect to exercise its right in any country to regain possession of items like guns, planes and tanks, but that the recapture clause was inserted as a precautionary measure.

The great bulk of the $11,000,000,000 in lend-lease goods furnished the Russians falls into the strictly war goods category.

The Russians will be asked, however, to pay at least part of the cost of civilian type articles which the Soviets can use in peace time.

A decision apparently remains to be made on whether to charge for weapons still in use by the Soviet army.

Officials declined to estimate the amount of the final Soviet obligation. They pointed out, however, that Britain was billed for $650,000,000 and France for $420,000,000 when they settled their lend-lease accounts. But part of these sums went to pay for surplus property these countries wanted to buy outright.

Journalists' Contempt Suit To Be Reviewed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The supreme court today granted three Texas newspapermen a review of contempt of court proceedings in which they were given three-day jail sentences.

The contempt citation was based on news accounts and an editorial dealing with the trial of a civil case before Judge Joe D. Browning in the Neches county court, Corpus Christi, Texas.

Judge Browning ruled the news articles and editorial were "calculated to reflect upon the integrity of this court, to embarrass this court, to affect the course of justice x x x."

The Texas court of criminal appeals upheld the contempt action, with one judge dissenting. The newspapermen then appealed to the supreme court. They are Conway C. Craig, publisher of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times; Bob McCracken, managing editor; and Tom Mulvaney, reporter. The jail sentences were stayed pending supreme court action of their appeal.

Court To Rule On Freight Rate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The supreme court today agreed to rule on validity of ICC orders increasing class railroad freight rates 10 per cent in the north and east and reducing them 10 per cent in the south and as far west as the Rockies.

The changes were challenged by nine northern states, governors of the six New England states, and 33 railroads.

Class rates affect principally manufactured articles. They apply to about four percent of all rail traffic. The changes were ordered after officials of southern states and others asserted freight rates were higher in the south, giving competitive advantages to northern manufacturers.

The challenging states and the 33 railroads appealed from a decision by a special three-judge federal court in Utica, N. Y., last May. The special court after upholding the orders stayed their enforcement pending action on the appeals to the supreme court.

Jester To Address Amendment Boosters

AUSTIN, Oct. 14. (AP)—Governor nominee Beauford H. Jester will be the kick-off speaker tonight as advocates of the roads use tax constitutional amendment launch a statewide campaign at a dinner.

Allan Shivers, Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor and Rep. O. C. Fisher will also speak for the amendment.

Molotov Terms Parley Results Unsatisfactory

Attack May Mean Big Four Review Of Treaty Drafts

PARIS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov today attacked as "unsatisfactory" many of the results of the Paris peace conference, presaging a showdown on leading issues in the four-power foreign ministers' New York meeting.

Molotov, charging that the United States had dominated the conference, upheld the Soviet Union's right to $300,000,000 reparations from Finland—a figure soon afterward ratified, over United States opposition, voiced by Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg. The Michigan senator sought to reduce the reparations figure to $200,000,000, but the conference voted this down 11 to 5.

Molotov remarked that only portions of the draft treaties with Italy, Romania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Finland pleased Russia and indicated that many of the issues would be thrown back into the foreign ministers council where decisions must be unanimous.

He accused the United States, Great Britain and France of "violating their agreements" and "retreating" from four-power accord in the adoption of "a number of anti-Democratic measures" in connection with Trieste.

He spoke critically of guarantees written into Balkan treaties for free navigation of the Danube and complained that the conference had refused to fix Bulgarian boundaries as of January, 1941—an action that would have given Bulgaria some territory from Greece.

The conference of 21 nations, taking action on the final draft treaty with Finland, prepared to adjourn tomorrow. The draft treaties then must be approved finally by the foreign ministers of the United States, Russia, Great Britain and France at meetings in New York.

Sen. Arthur Vandenberg spoke before Molotov and demanded that the Finnish reparations bill be pared from $300,000,000 to $200,000,000—a move that kindled Molotov's anger. The Michigan senator said:

"The United States will leave its motives to the verdict of history in connection with the winning of the war and the writing of a just peace. We decline to plead as defendants among allies to whom we have given every ounce of cooperation in blood and treasure of which a great nation is capable. But we shall continue to speak for the American conception of justice and fair play."

Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin of Great Britain upheld the Russian claim to $300,000,000 from Finland.

City Court Docket Light For Monday

City court docket this morning was the lightest in several months for Monday, with a small number of minor offenses giving police a welcomed rest after a busy fortnight.

Only 15 cases were heard this morning, and the docket was completed well before noon. Most cases involved charges of drunkenness, with one listed for affray and one for assault.

Auto Catches Fire

Big Spring fire department answered an alarm at 1910 Gregg street, where an automobile owned by Joe Hull caught fire late Saturday afternoon. There was no damage.

Canine Attack "Self Defense"

ST. PAUL, Oct. 14. (AP)—"Self defense," ruled the judge. The case before him was C. J. Kastner's $50 damage suit against James E. Track.

Track's Norwegian Elkhound, "Jet," and Kastner's bull terrier, "Tiny," had got into a scrap. "Tiny" landed in the dog hospital.

Judge John L. Rounds ruled in the defendant's favor after witnesses testified that "Tiny" was the aggressor.

Buffalo Meat Sold

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 14. (AP)—A Minneapolis grocery-meat retailer sold 10,000 pounds of Buffalo meat for sale today on a "first-come, first-served, no-limit" basis but asked for special police details to handle the crowds of meat-hungry housewives.

RIBBENTROP REMEMBERS DAYS OF GLORY

Streicher Urges Fellow Nazis Facing Hangings To Be Brave

NUERNBERG, Oct. 14. (AP)—Julius Streicher, ranting Jewbaiter number one of the Nazi regime, today urged his condemned associates to be "brave and strong" in their last 48 hours of life.

Streicher, once gauleiter of this Nuernberg area, will hang, too, on Wednesday, but he is seemingly untouched.

This morning the beady-eyed little man, who openly advocated extermination of Jews, told a prison psychologist to be sure to impart this message to the other ten who will die with him:

"They must not be low but must be brave and strong." Joachim von Ribbentrop's mind reverted to his wartime experiences as Hitler's foreign minister as he bent under the strain of waiting for death.

Truman Meat Decision Open To Speculation

AFL Convention Nears Decision On Meat Stand

CHICAGO, Oct. 14. (AP)—The American Federation of Labor neared an important convention decision today on whether to come out for immediate removal of price and wage controls.

AFL President William Green urged the action of his keynote convention address. He contended the present OPA law was working out against Labor's interests and that workers now would be better off without controls.

However, there appeared to be some AFL rank-and-file opposition to Green's idea. The day after he made his recommendation the AFL Brotherhood of Painters and Paperhangers asked the delegates to urge the government to strengthen the present OPA law.

The Washington Administration might look at formal AFL confirmation of Green's position as a split among OPA's supporters sufficiently meaningful to be an argument for removing meat controls. At least some AFL delegates felt that may be the governmental reaction.

The stand taken by Green is that he always favored a price control law as a means of stalling off inflation until the nation could more nearly balance off the pent-up demand for goods and remove most of the price pressure. But he said the present law was too weak to keep prices down, could be "classified" as a "profit-promoting measure," and thus should be abandoned.

He said he did favor retaining "perhaps continued control of rent and some other items comparable to that."

Power Strike Nears Crisis On 3 Fronts

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 14. (AP)—AFL trolley men, who brought about a paralysis of the city's main transportation system 18 days ago by refusing to pass picket lines of the power union, voted today to return to work immediately.

Leadership of the 21-day Pittsburgh power strike today faced three tests of its authority:

1. A back-to-work vote by 2,700 AFL street car operators and bus drivers who have absented themselves for 18 days rather than cross the independent power union's picket lines.

2. An unsanctioned rank-and-file meeting tonight to consider the Duquesne Light Company's offer to submit the wage dispute to arbitration, and

3. A collective bargaining election tomorrow in which two AFL unions and one CIO group challenge the independent union's right to represent 1,700 of its 3,200 members.

Mayor David L. Lawrence, who called the strike the city's worst disaster since the 1936 flood and said it was causing the greatest unemployment "since the dark depression days," urged the strikers to accept the arbitration offer. The union is demanding a 20 percent wage increase against the company's offer of five percent.

A labor dispute which kept 900 Ford Motor Company employees idle 12 days ended, but the nationwide maritime tieup, Washington's hotel walkout and Hollywood's film strike continued with scant hope of early settlement.

Five Cities Seek Rights To Dam On Upper Colorado

By JOE PICKLE Herald Managing Editor

AUSTIN, Oct. 14.—Representatives of five cities comprising the Colorado River Municipal Water Association today urged the state board of water engineers to grant them water rights on the Colorado River above Colorado City on the basis of current demand plus projected needs.

While asking for rights on the tentative basis of a proposed dam six miles northwest of Colorado City, spokesmen from Colorado City, Snyder, Big Spring, Midland and Odessa did not shut the door on any compromise with the Upper Colorado River Authority, which is seeking a dam downstream at Robert Lee.

R. T. Piner, spokesman for the Big Spring group, pointed out that history of the city had been one of growth, and although there is no immediate shortage in Big Spring, continued development would require more water. Too, he looked on the lake project as providing more economical means of production. B. J. McDaniel, city manager, cited August consumption, showing virtual tripling demands for water of the past decade.

Protests were filed with the board by L. T. Youngblood, Bronte, who felt that cities could get ample waters from the UCRA project at Robert Lee without jeopardizing feasibility of that project. H. G. Wendland, San Angelo, and L. W. Smith, Austin, of the Bureau of Reclamation, testified similarly, indicating that possible loss of 20 percent of the anticipated water to CRMWA would make the UCRA dam questionable. J. P. Adcox, Colorado City rancher, who now holds flood rights, filed a precursory protest as a matter of form.

S. W. Freese, Fort Worth engineer, testified as to need of the water rights, that the Colorado River was the only available source, and that the project was feasible. Should cities continue consumption trends of the past 15 years, new plus existing supplies would be required, he said. John D. McCall and Millard Parkhurst, Dallas attorneys, said the plan was legally and financially feasible, and that an early board decision is needed to open the way for financing and creation of the district.

D. A. Bandoen, Abilene, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, urged the board to grant applications to both CRMWA and UCRA because of vital need.

Frank Kelley, Colorado City, chairman of delegations, urged the board to grant application now because "we are primarily interested in providing these cities water when they need it."

N. T. Underwood, Snyder, told of water shortages in his city, as did Charles Brazil, Colorado City mayor. M. C. Ulmer, Midland, said that city had ample water currently but it does not meet USPHS standards, and John Wilson, Odessa city manager, cited dwindling well supplies and a great influx of WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The House Campaign Expenditures Committee called on two Political Action Committees today to outline their specific roles in the current congressional elections.

Opening the first hearings since its creation, the house group set aside half the day to probing the much-discussed CIO-PAC, and the other half to the National Citizens PAC. Representatives of four other national groups are to be questioned tomorrow, and Wednesday.

They are the AFL, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the National Association of Manufacturers, and American Action, Inc., of Chicago first billed for today but later sent back until Tuesday.

Chairman Priest (D-Tenn.) told newsmen no complaints have been received by the committee against any of the organizations, "despite all the furore" about the CIO-PAC.

Speaker Rayburn (D-Texas) aroused the ire of many southern Democrats when he declined to name Rep. Domeneaux (D-La.) as chairman. The latter had pledged an intensive probe of the CIO affiliate in offering the first resolution calling for creation of the committee.

Rayburn's choice of Rep. O'Neal (D-Ky.) for the chairmanship prompted Domeneaux to issue a statement contending that the Democratic Party leadership was controlled by the PAC. O'Neal subsequently resigned and was succeeded by Priest.

Later, Rep. Leo Allen (R-Ill.) quit the committee because, he said, he was convinced it would not make a thorough investigation of the labor group. He accused the Democrats of "delay and inaction."

Netherlands, Indonesians Sign Truce

BATAVIA, Oct. 14. (AP)—The Netherlands government and the Indonesian Republic signed a truce agreement today calling for immediate cessation of the 14-month-old hostilities in the East Indies.

No "cease fire" order has yet been issued, but the agreement stipulates that the truce between Indonesian and Allied forces will be considered in effect as of today.

The joint truce commission, including Indonesian, Dutch and British representatives, will be charged with truce enforcement. The British members will withdraw after Nov. 30, when the last of Britain's armed forces are scheduled to have left Indonesia.

The Dutch military position in the Indies, meanwhile, was strengthened by the arrival at Batavia of the Karel Doorman, Holland's only aircraft carrier.

(The Doorman formerly was the British aircraft carrier Nairana).

BAMBOOZLING THE BABOONS

CHICAGO, Oct. 14. (AP)—Brookfield zoo's baboons prefer the outdoor "Monkey Isle" to their cages so every autumn attendants have a job getting them indoors.

To meet this problem, inventor Hollis Jeffries perfected a "baboon trap." The baboon, attracted by his reflection in a big mirror, walks through an automatic door into a Plexiglas compartment.

A movable wall raises to admit the Simian to a second compartment. When the partition comes down, Mr. Baboon is trapped and the front door opens to the next customer.

Zoo attendants hope it works.

Hungry Nation Awaits Speech Tonight At 9

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—Housewives scurrying for meat and politicians for votes cocked an ear to the White House for President Truman's decision tonight on what to do about getting steaks and roasts back.

Hours before the chief executive's all-network broadcast set for 9 p.m., Central Standard Time, the Republican party termed the scheduled address "political" and demanded radio time to reply.

While there was no clear-cut indication what Mr. Truman plans to say in his 15-minute discussion of stabilization and the meat problem, the issue before him boiled down to this:

Whether to scrap meat controls outright, as many Republicans and some Democratic leaders have demanded, or keep them unchanged.

Or, whether to compromise on some relaxation of controls, involving perhaps higher ceilings, a bonus plan to induce marketing of livestock, and possibly importation of meat.

Mr. Truman is on record as firmly opposed to removal of OPA controls. He took this stand September 26, but at a news conference last week he declined to comment when asked whether he had changed his mind.

One indication that he may have come from a high official who is familiar with the problem. He hinted to a reporter that top aides helping prepare Mr. Truman's speech met at the White House last night and that decontrol of meat is in the picture.

There has been speculation, moreover, that Mr. Truman might deal with wage controls, too, and possibly scrap that program.

On the other hand, among those playing an active part in drafting the President's statement are OPA Administrator Paul Porter and Reconversion Director John R. Steelman.

Porter has openly opposed removal of meat controls. Steelman, on the subject of controls generally, recently said that to "Let prices go" would be the "worst possible" course.

The GOP contention that Mr. Truman's address "will be political" came from Carroll Reece, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

"Just three weeks before a crucial congressional election," Reece said in a statement, "Mr. Truman has chosen to tie up most of the nation's radio facilities with an explanation of his administration's so-called stabilization program, with particular reference to the stabilized shortage of meat. Whatever may be the form of his explanation, its substance and its obvious political purpose will be political."

"If Mr. Truman has in mind some action to solve the meat problem—and it is to be hoped that he has—he can take that action at his desk in the White House, where it could have been taken many weeks ago. x x x"

"I conceive it to be my duty x x x to make every effort to obtain equal facilities for the presentation of the Republican viewpoint. Therefore, I am requesting and expecting that the four major radio networks give equal facilities to the Republican party."

Local To Respect Movie Picket Lines Despite Orders

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14. (AP)—By unanimous vote the technicians of the AFL-International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees has decided to respect the picket lines at the nine major movie studios as established by its rival, the Conference of Studio Unions.

The Technicians' Local 683 has 1,500 members, and Norval Crutcher, its secretary, said the vote to support the CSU was taken in contradiction of orders from Richard Walsh, international president of IATSE.

"The technicians are taking no sides," said Local 683's business agent, John Martin. "We want this strike settled, and settled soon."

Roy Brewer, IATSE representative, said he would order members of Local 683 to comply with instructions of the international and "go to work and adhere to their contracts with the studios."

Austin-Corpus Christi May Be State's Top Prep. 11's

Ysleta Appears To Be Champion In District 4

The Texas schoolboy football campaign moves into the stretch this week with 32 conference games in 14 districts but the big battle is an interdistrict struggle between unbeaten, untied powerhouses of the west—Amarillo and Odessa.

This game will match teams long mentioned as quarter-finalists in the state play-off and boasting similar records. Best comparison is the fact that each beat Abilene by two touchdowns.

Ysleta with Amarillo-Odessa tilt for the top spot in the state's schedule will be Gainesville at Sherman. Favored teams for the District 5 championship and unbeaten and untied, this game will be the most important in the title race.

Corpus Christi plays Thomas Jefferson at San Antonio in a headliner of District 15. Corpus Christi is undefeated and untied, Jefferson is unbeaten but tied.

There are 49 games on the schedule and the slate is dotted with important tilts with the perfect record list due to dwindle to possibly 10 schools.

Last week found the undefeated, untied teams being cut to 15 while six have escaped defeat but have been tied.

With unblemished records are Amarillo, Borger, Graham, Odessa, Gainesville, Sherman, North Side (Fort Worth), Marshall, Milby (Houston), Galveston, Orange, Austin, Brackenridge (San Antonio), Corpus Christi and Edinburg.

Undefeated but tied are Wichita Falls, Pasadena, Sweetwater, Laredo, Thomas Jefferson and Lamar (Houston).

Little Ysleta, moved into the favored spot in District 4, where

It had beaten the pre-season top-ranker Austin (El Paso), by battering Roswell, N. M., 39-0. El Paso high, Ysleta's foe this week, had trouble aplenty with Roswell and if Ysleta beats El Paso it will be considered "in" since Austin crushed Bowie (El Paso), the other District member, 34-0.

Galveston's victory over South

Park was particularly noteworthy. It made the undefeated, untied Island City team the top favorite in District 14.

Austin still rates the No. 1 ranking in the state and Corpus Christi looks like No. 2. However, these teams have to meet inside their own district so only one could be a state finalist.

Herd Tougher Than Army Team, Says Sooner Mentor

DALLAS, Oct. 14 (AP)—Big Jim Tatum takes Texas, sub. The coach of Oklahoma's double-tough Sooners, who gave both Army and Texas a terrific battle, declared today "both are real champions, but if they played three games I'd pick Texas to win two of them. Army is tougher defensively but Texas has more speed and more reserve strength."

The drawing mentor of the eleven that lost to Army 21-7 Sept. 28 and bowed to Texas 40-13 here Saturday said he would "sure like to see these two teams play. It would be a wonderful game."

Conscious that his statement might bear heavily on whether Texas or Army ranks No. 1 in the national poll, he commented that Oklahoma got more breaks against Texas than Army. "We fumbled 12 times against Army," he pointed out. "We didn't fumble a time against Texas."

"Texas' strength is in its passing but it can run, too, when the passing spreads out the opposition's defense," he asserted. "Texas could lose. Bobby Layne and still be just as much in the ball game although I never saw but one man before who was a better passer than Layne. That was Sid Luckman. Yet Texas has the replacement—others who can throw the ball, too. But if Army lost Glenn Davis it would be greatly weakened."

He declared Army did not have

Forum On 6-Man Game Scheduled

Another open forum on six-man football legislation will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the county court house this evening and anyone who cares to can sit in on the discussions.

Lectures by J. Z. Thompson, Tommy Hart and Frank Honeycutt will be heard along with critiques on officiating in District Ten games during the past two weeks.

As has been the custom in the past, the program will be limited to two hours. President Walker Bailey will preside.

Razorback-Steer Clash Headlines Conference Slate

By The Associated Press

Shoving interregionals and the national pigskin picture aside, Southwest Conference eleven this week get down to serious home-front business with only Baylor not competing against a conference opponent.

Undefeated and untied Texas again appears in the top attraction, entertaining the tied but unbeaten Arkansas Razorbacks at Memorial stadium in Austin.

Texas A.&M. plays Texas Christian at College Station and Rice and Southern Methodist meet in a night game at Houston.

Baylor, after losing its first two conference games against T. C. U. and Arkansas, goes to Lubbock to clash with the Texas Tech Red Raiders, victors over two Southwest Conference teams, Texas A. & M. and S. M. U.

Arkansas, with wins over T. C. U. and Baylor, presently leads the conference campaign, but Texas rates a favorite's role in the Saturday clash. The Longhorns rolled over Oklahoma A. & M., 54-6, while the Porkers had to rally late to gain a 21-21 tie.

The Razorbacks are potent, however, and have the advantage of any breaks thrown at them.

Outcome of the game, which is expected to attract another 40,000-plus Austin crowd, may depend on the condition of the two squads.

Arkansas, considered one of the best conditioned outfits in the country, received a setback while trimming, Baylor, 13-0, Saturday when Clyde Scott, the former Navy player, received a hip injury that may prevent him from seeing action against the Steers.

It remains to be seen how many Longhorns were banged up in the grueling Cotton Bowl tilt Saturday against Oklahoma. None of Dana X. Bible's players received serious injury but undoubtedly there were many bruises. Those Steers fought all the day before succumbing, 13-20.

Rice, flying high after trouncing Tulane, 29-6, and S. M. U., upset victor over Oklahoma A. & M., 15-8, meet in a game that should see the ball sailing all over the field.

Big Ike Eikenberg's tosses were the most effective weapon against the Green Wave for Rice, while young Frank Payne completed seven for seven to lead the Mustangs against the Aggies.

Toughest game to pick probably will be the Aggie-Horned Frog clash. A month ago, few people would have given Dutch Meyer's Fergs a chance. The Aggies were supposed to have had a powerful line and a star-studded backfield, but successive defeats at the hands of Texas Tech, Oklahoma and Louisiana State have wrecked pre-season predictions.

Both teams were defeated last week in interregionals, the Aggies by Louisiana State, 9-33, and T. C. U. by Miami, 12-20.

For the fourth successive week, Harris leads the individual ball

Boo Ferriss Will Attempt To Stack Cards Tuesday

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 14 (AP)—Sam Bredon is selling tickets today for a seventh World Series game at Sportsman's Park because his St. Louis Cardinals have as many lives as a cat—Harry "The Cat" Bredon.

If it weren't for the game little lefthander from Oklahoma, the Boston Red Sox would have been measured for series rings long ago and the Red Brds would be scattered to the four winds instead of planning strategy for tomorrow's finale.

There is room for a solid suspicion that "The Cat" and the Cards spent their last life in a 4-1 win yesterday. The Sox have Dave (Boo) Ferriss, their 23-game winner, primed for a second straight shut-out bid.

The odds definitely are against the home club which will have Murry Dickson on the mound.

However, an extra day of rest will benefit the Cards. Marty Marion is playing with an aching back. Howie Pollet, if needed, will have more time to let his torn side muscle mend and Enos Slaughter, who played gamely in the sixth contest despite a painfully swollen right elbow, will be more like his usual self.

Slaughter was the last Card to face the lefthanded Harris who yielded five hits, all in the third, before he was replaced by Tex Hughson. The big Texan turned back St. Louis with two hits before he went out for a pinchhitter and was replaced by Lefty Earl Johnson, against whom the Redbirds made one run in the eighth.

The Sox had given Brecheen a rocky first and second inning before Harris blew up.

After that, Brecheen steadied down and pitched the same kind of masterful game he had turned in a week ago. He retired 10 men in a row from the second to the fifth and yielded only seven hits in all. Rudy York's triple off the left centerfield wall followed by Doerr's fly to Harry Walker broke his string of 18 shutout innings in the seventh.

SA Fisticuffers Invade Stanton Wednesday Nite

A team of boxers for a Wednesday night trip to Stanton will be selected at the Salvation Army canteen this evening, when some 33 youngsters will have opportunity to tie on the mittens in a series of exhibitions planned by Capt. Olvy Sheppard.

Among those who are certain to box are Melvin Byers, Charley Hale, Charles Franklin and Charles Wright, all members of a Junior squad.

Capt. Sheppard said the team for the Stanton trip would be built around such fisticuffers as Jimmy Eppler, Billy Whittington, Billy Eppler and Jim Byers. The latter is one of the coaches of the team.

A Salvation Army team took part in a boxing show at Knott last week.

Most of the boxing equipment has been installed in the basement of the West Fourth and Ayleford street canteen. Capt. Sheppard announced. A 25' x 15' ring and three punching bags were put up last week and the equipment will be made available to the candidates for the team each Monday night.

Capt. Sheppard said he hoped to have a boxing team in top condition to enter in the Golden Gloves boxing tournament here next January.

Hull Now Reported "Out Of Danger"

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Former Secretary of State Cordell Hull, seriously ill for two weeks, is now considered to be "out of danger." Bethesda Naval hospital reported today.

Reflecting the gains made by the 75-year-old retired cabinet officer, the hospital said it is discontinuing its twice-a-day regular bulletins on his condition.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

WIS TOMMY HART

Definitely improved over previous outings was Big Spring's running game against the Lamesa Tornados in last weekend's football classic.

Ground gains against the Tornados totaled 199 yards, far and away the best of the year, but the manner in which the backs were able to pile up the yardage was the more impressive. Heretofore, the ball carriers seemed at a loss to know how to ace once they headed downfield. In the contest against Jim Neill's boys, the Steer backs suddenly found themselves and were hitting the line with power and cunning.

There still hasn't been anyone uncovered who can hit a forward wall with the devastating force of a Pug Gabriel. But that can be overlooked if the quartet of Horace Rankin, Bobo Hardy, Gerald Harris and Jackie Barron continue to improve.

Rankin's cutbacks had the Lamesa linemen frantic and, most important, he keeps moving forward. Hardy still picks up his blockers better than anyone on the team and is especially dangerous once he gets beyond the line of scrimmage.

Harris shows up best on that behind-the-line lateral, for, given half a stride, he is fast enough to leave most players trailing in his wake. Barron doesn't handle the ball much but can when a yard or two is needed.

The Longhorns have compiled aggregate rushing gains of 536 yards in their four starts as compared to 687 yards for the foe. Lubbock and Odessa each made better than 200 yards against the Steer line but the local forwards have generally been up to the task when their goal line is threatened.

Big Spring has succeeded in maintaining the passing edge in all four of their outings and only Cisco was able to make any sizeable advances through the air. The Lobos rolled up 91 yards in aerial gains as compared to 24 for Odessa and 26 for Lamesa. Lubbock tried and tried but did not complete a pass.

Rankin and Barron have combined their talents with Harris, Hardy and the Longhorn wings to run the total aerial gains to 404 yards for the season.

Thus, for the year, Our Town has gained a total of 940 yards to 828 for the foe, a decided edge. And that against the toughest kind of opposition.

The combined foe still holds the edge in down renewals, having made 43 to 32 for Big Spring in the four outings. On the other hand, and in direct contrast to last year, the Bovines have succeeded in outscoring the enemy, 32-25.

Hardy's three touchdowns still lead the parade. Rankin has fumbled once. Harris crossed the goal line for the first time against Lamesa but earlier had two points after touchdowns. Barron booted one extra point (against Cisco).

For the fourth successive week, Harris leads the individual ball carriers. His 188 yards in 37 tries runs his average pickup to a few inches better than five yards.

Other ball carriers and their accomplishments are:

RANKIN — 131 yards in 38 tries for an average of 3.5 yards.

HARDY — 125 yards in 38 tries for an average of 3.2 yards.

BARRON — 22 yards in five attempts for an average of 4.4 yards.

GEORGE WORRELL — 52 yards in ten tries for an average of 5.2 yards.

Rankin has completed eight of 17 passes for gains totaling 150 yards. Barron, who passed only once against Lamesa, completed that one to run his record to 11 good ones in 26 tries and a total pickup of 185 paces. Each has passed for a touchdown.

Hardy caught three passes in last week's outing to run his record to six for the campaign. Those six were good for an aggregate pickup of 112 yards. Wright isn't far behind, having been the target for six successful overheads good for 73 yards. Enor Puckett's accomplishments total two completions and 63 paces. Rankin has gathered in two flips and ambled 56 yards. Harris has a brace of completions good for 18 steps while Worrell got one good for five yards.

Rankin punted five times against Lamesa, running his total to 19 for the semester. His yardage is 648 for the four games, his average exactly 34 yards. He cut loose with one tremendous boot against the Lamesans that traveled 85 yards and sailed far over the safety man's head to the one-yard line. Barron's total for two kicks is 73 yards, his average 36.5. Eddie Houser has punted once and that kick was good for 45 yards.

The Steers have set some sort of a record in the past two games when they escaped penalization. They've had 70 yards stepped off for ten infractions in all but the enemy has been charged with 110 steps in 15 calls.

Twelve fumbles have been charged against the locals, who have succeeded in making recovery but three times. The opposition has bobbed on eight occasions and lost the ball three times.

Eight Big Spring kickoffs have gone for 347 yards and an average of 43.4 paces. The enemy has kicked ten times for 376 yards. That makes for average of 37.6 good ones in 26 tries and a total

Cubs' Defense Worries Dibrell

There's little doubt but that Johnny Dibrell and his Big Spring high school football Steers find the stories of the Paul Bunyans of Brownfield's Cubs anything but reliable as they return to the practice field this afternoon.

As recently as a week ago, the Bovines had expected to find Brownfield, with the possible exception of Cisco's Lobos, the easiest touch on the 1946 schedule. The Bruins had lost to Midland and Lamesa and had failed to score a touchdown this season.

After last week's bout with Amarillo, the Brownfield clan had still failed to reach pay dirt but in the manner in which they held off mighty Amarillo was something else again. The Sandies won, 7-0, but had to cash in on a break to subdue the Cubs.

Fortunately, the Bovines came out of the Lamesa scrap last week in great physical shape. Too, they uncovered a new offensive punch against the Tornados they didn't know they owned before. That offensive is built around Horace Rankin, the 150-pound speedster who was never quite stopped by Lamesa.

Mrs. L. E. Eubanks Elected Director Of B, PW District At Conference

Mrs. L. A. Eubanks of Big Spring was elected district director of District Eight of Business and Professional Women's club, it was announced at a luncheon Sunday in the Settles ballroom, the concluding feature of a day and a half conference of B and P W clubs here last weekend.

The luncheon was followed by a panel discussion on "Club Profile" by Mrs. Patsie Mellen, Mrs. Addie V. Payne and Mrs. Ester Dunn.

Mrs. Dunn, president of the El Paso club, organization of each unit within the organization to a part of the human body and pointed out the similar duties of each. She explained that the head was the coordinating unit and represented the officers, while the feet symbolize the membership committee which carries the club along. When all those parts work together the result will be "freedom for every human being, and justice for all."

"No profile is stationary," Mrs. Addie V. Payne of Colorado City reminded the clubwomen. What each club needs, she said, is developed leaders, and such leadership requires training so that as one group moves on, an experienced one is ready to take its place. To acquaint the new members with their club work they should be taught accepted customs in order that they might practice them. She concluded by reminding that a good leader makes a good follower and that each member should be trained to make a well-rounded leader.

Mrs. Mellen, Big Spring, summed up the woman's place in business by declaring that they must first be trained for their jobs, then they must take the places they can fill. "We must let all people know that in a B and PW member there are no sagging contours revealing selfishness, envy or snobbishness. Women must walk shoulder to shoulder with men to assure jobs, justice and peace."

Grace Brown, district director presided at the meeting which included a vocal selection, "Danny Boy," by Edith Gay. Invocation was given by Bonita Hart.

At a business session following the program Mrs. Brown announced that at the president's meeting held earlier in the day Fort Stockton was named as the conference city for 1947.

Mrs. Edna Hoffman, state president from Houston, urged all club members to attend the state meeting to be held in San Antonio next summer, and reminded them to start making plans for the national convention which will convene in Fort Worth in 1948.

The luncheon tables were decorated with fall floral arrangements, and place favors were programs

Grifford-Vaughn Vows Read Here

In a quiet ceremony read Saturday afternoon at the home of the Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the West Side Baptist church, Miss Sue Grifford became the bride of Murphy Vaughn, Jr.

The single ring service was read at 4 p.m. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grifford, and the bridegroom is the son of Murphy Vaughn, Sr.

Mrs. Murphy was attired in a blue wool ensemble and she wore black accessories.

The couple will live here where Vaughn is employed at Meads Sweet shop. Mrs. Vaughn is a student at the Big Spring high school.

Attending the wedding were Mrs. W. A. Cook and Mrs. Grifford, mother of the bride.

Births Announced; They're All Girls

It was a one hundred percent cargo of girls delivered by the stork in his visits late last week to the Malone & Hogan Clinic-Hospital.

On October 10, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Evis, 910 East 15th, became the parents of a daughter, Sharon Lee, who weighed six pounds, 15 ounces at birth.

Saturday arrivals were a daughter, Janice Karen, to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jackson of Vealmoor; and a daughter, Delores, to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Munoz of route 2.

Daughter Proves Her 'Death' Case Of Wrong Identity

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Oct. 14. (AP)—It might have been a normal family reunion when J. T. Burns' daughter came from Chicago to visit him, except for that "poor soul" in the family cemetery plot. Last Aug. 10 Burns paid $667 funeral costs for a woman he had insisted was not his daughter despite police claims to the contrary. Burns was proved right Sunday when the daughter, Mrs. Tom Evans, 43, arrived from Chicago. Burns had sent for his daughter after receiving a letter from her. "Now we would like to find out who that poor soul is out there," he said.

The father related he was told Aug. 8 by Cedar Rapids police that his daughter had been found dead of a heart attack in a Chicago rooming house. He had the body shipped to Cedar Rapids.

But when he viewed the remains, Burns said, he was certain the woman was not his daughter and told police and the undertaker so. He consented to the burial only after Chicago police insisted upon the identification, he said.

Why Get Up Nights Due To Kidneys?

WHEN YOU GET UP NIGHTS DUE TO FREQUENT URINE... If you get up nights—have frequent desire to pass your urine—but have only scanty passages—yes, and have backache, due to excess acidity in the urine, be glad you're reading this: These generations ago Dr. Kilmer, a famous doctor, found hundreds of his patients with this trouble. Painstakingly he made a medicine of 16 herbs, roots, vegetables, balsams—Nature's own way to relief. He called it "Swamp-Root" and millions of grateful men and women have taken it—often with amazing results. Swamp-Root goes right to work to flush out kidneys... increases flow of urine, helping relieve excess acidity... so the irritated bladder gets a good flushing out, too. Many report getting a good night's sleep after the first few doses. Caution: take as directed. For free trial supply, send to Dept. T, Kilmer & Co., Inc., Box 1255, Stamford, Conn. Or—get full-sized bottle of Swamp-Root today at your drugstore.

If Stomach Gas or Sour Food Taste Robs You of Sleep

Here's How You May Help, Whether You Eat 500 Pounds or 2000 Pounds of Food in a Year

You can't feel cheerful, be happy and sleep well, if your stomach is always upset. As age advances the "old stomach" needs more help. The reason is this: Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness. To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains very special and potent activating ingredients. Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic weak, watery blood, in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better. Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

Sunday at 8:30 a.m. club presidents were honored at a breakfast at which the principle speaker was Miss Marguerite Anderson, state president-elect. The 1947 officer emphasized the part that women can and should play in city and public affairs. Although they are important factors in national life, they can play their most vital parts at home, Miss Anderson stated. "It is the woman's duty to vote and teach younger people how to vote," she declared.

Miss Fannie Bess Taylor, state finance chairman, discussed with the club women the various problems which arise in a club's finances, explaining how dues might be collected and budgeted for the most efficient use.

What An Organization Can Do

Editor James E. Kelly, writing in his Stanton Reporter, pays tribute to the Lions club, which is that city's community organization, for its accomplishments of the past year.

During that space of time, the club has undertaken and completed two major projects: The establishment of the Martin County Memorial hospital and the restoration and improvement of the Stanton high school football field.

He traced the difficulties encountered on both projects and rightly concludes that with less enthusiasm and determination, neither would have been possible.

"It plainly demonstrates that an organization of business and professional men can accomplish for the town and community," he observed. "Indeed, it does, for the hospital project has succeeded beyond original hopes, because it not only is a going institution but also has a 20-acre plot which some day may become the home of a much larger hospital. The same can be said of the football field project, for the club's athletic council not only promoted a restoration of the playing field, after suspension of football during the war years, but it installed a lighting system for night football as well.

Editor Kelly did not mention it, but the organization also was responsible for softball as a lively community recreation during the summer season.

"Before the organization of the Lions club the old town seemed to be going to seed," he said. "But once banded together in an organization devoted to service, business and professional men of Stanton have accomplished things. We rejoice with Stanton and Martin county people in this new spirit. It's a mighty healthy sign and a splendid example."

Place For Women In New World

Business and Professional Women launched observance of the national B&PW week with a district conference here during the weekend.

Significantly, they pointed to their place in helping to meet the issues of the day instead of decriing rights withheld from women. It is not that women yet enjoy their full rights or that the public yet regards women as "people" instead of the "feminine sex," but rather that new emphasis is being placed on the responsibility of women as they earn these rights.

Surely, none could argue that greater active participation of women in community and national affairs would create any further confusion than the male leadership has managed to conjure. On the contrary, it is possible that they can and will bring a refreshing and hopeful atmosphere on to the current stage. For one thing, they are less inclined to a fatalistic attitude. They are more apt to go on faith where the practical man balks. On the whole, the leadership among women is perhaps broader and less susceptible to prejudices.

The efforts of women, such as is exemplified by the B&PW, can have a wholesome effect on society. Their efforts are needed and will be appreciated in the community.

Realtors Would Scrap Rent Controls

WASHINGTON (AP)—Housing shortage?

The National Association of Real Estate Boards came up today with what, it thinks, is a way to ease the housing shortage.

It's this:

1. Raise rents.
2. Then a lot of people, unable to pay the higher rents, will have to move out of their present homes.
3. As they move out, people able to pay the higher rents will move in.

But where will the people who have to move out, find another place to live?

The real estate boards don't say, directly but maybe they mean that:

*At least the single people, who move out, will be forced to double-up with someone else. But this would mean:

1. These single people would have to find someone to double-up with.
2. They'd have to find a place where they could double-up.

But the boards, in a lengthy statement, warn against letting the public be "bamboozled."

They also tie in the meat shortage with the housing shortage, blaming both on politics.

The president of the boards, Boyd T. Barnard of Philadelphia, says:

"One way to relieve the housing demand immediately is to get rid of rent control.

"There is over-consumption of our existing space. We have several million people who, because of frozen rents, are able to buy more housing space than their income would normally allow.

"Approximately 1,500,000 living units which were designed for two or more people are now occupied by only one person because of frozen rents. Everybody knows cases of this kind.

"The stenographer who used to live doubled up with another now has her own individual apartment. This situation is excellent for her and we do not begrudge it—but it certainly is over-consumption of space due to rent control.

"If rents were increased no more than is fair to property owners, I predict that about a million added units of rental space would immediately be available for veterans and others.

"These units would take the edge off the immediate housing demand."

Then, digging further into the housing shortage, and linking it with the scarcity of meat, Barnard says:

"Our own studies indicate that if we were allowed to build 700,000 or 800,000 units a year without the red tape of government, just as we built them during the war, and before the war, in two years the whole housing shortage would be a thing of the past.

"This is the plain simple fact which politics has obscured. It is just like the meat crisis. We could have plenty of meat, and our shortages are due solely to politics.

Barnard doesn't say who is playing politics with the meat shortage, or who's responsible for it, but he has some positive ideas about the housing shortage.

He says the meaning which the government puts on figures in the housing shortage is "not to be trusted."

Further, Barnard says, "No good is accomplished by trying to bamboozle everybody."

He doesn't say directly who is trying to do the bamboozling.

Chinese Want It Crisp

By ROY ESSOYAN (For Hal Boyle)

SHANGHAI (AP)—American greenbacks, however highly rated elsewhere on the globe, are disdainfully deflated by Shanghai money-changers unless they're fresh and crisp as toasted breakfast cereal.

Even so, if it isn't a 10 or 20-dollar bill, the black market financial wizard fixes you with a hateful eye and calmly discounts the currency like a used toothbrush. And, at the going exchange rate of 4,100 Chinese dollars to one U. S., he hands you bills that look like they had been used as innersoles for Chinese army shoes.

This is a city where a U. S. dollar is worth anything from 90 to 95 cents, but never a dollar. Shanghai's financial foundations shift like desert sands, with the value of American money there, it's called gold) subject to more changes than an old maid's mind.

An unidentified but expert engraver somewhere in the city began turning out a remarkable likeness of a U. S. $50 bill, which resulted overnight in a substantial reduction of the value of the real thing on the Shanghai black market. Some merchants, even after a minute scrutiny, flatly refuse to accept a fifty.

If a genuine U. S. $10 note appears as if it has changed hands as few as a half-dozen times, it's worth only $9.60 (or 39,360 Chinese dollars). If it has seen more wear, although undamaged and relatively clean, it's worth only $9.30. Ten one-dollar bills, according to Shanghai's self-made banking rules, bring only slightly more than the equivalent of 90 cents apiece in tattered Chinese "jettons."

A U. S. $100 note, regardless of its newness, is worth U. S. $92.

No bank has dealt in foreign exchange since the end of the war, and most money-changers on the black market view with dark suspicion any currency other than American.

The Philippine peso, while 50 cents American anywhere in the islands, is treated like an out-cast in Shanghai. Those Chinese who can be persuaded to accept the peso at all discount it drastically.

A businessman, who concluded a U. S. $10,000 deal recently, delivered the money in $10 and $20 bills, as requested. Nearly $4,000 was returned as unacceptable. The notes were neither old nor damaged—just not crisp enough.

Interest rates are equally puzzling. Interest on inflated Chinese dollars is more than double that on U. S. dollars. A loan of U. S. $5,000 on good security brings U. S. $400 a month interest. A millionaire in Chinese currency (less than $250 U. S.) can get $218,000 a month interest on his $1,000,000. If he let the loan ride for a year, he would have $3,000,000 at the current interest rates. The catch is that by then his $3,000,000 might be worth no more than his $1,000,000 is now.

NEW YORK — Mounse, the French star imported by Barney Josephson for his Cafe Society Uptown, went back to Paris for two reasons... to star in a movie and because her visa had run out.

Always a stickler for quiet and no-nonsense in any of his plays or films, Paul Muni made the management of the Alvin Theater double its big lobby chandelier while he was acting in "A Flag Is Born..." They turned it on again when Luther Adler replaced Muni, who went back to Hollywood for a film, and Luther paid it no mind.

The Bronx comes in for almost as much kidding as Brooklyn, but it's no joke to Bandleader Herbie Fields. He has opened a huge ballroom in the uptown borough and is coining a minor mint at his Tremont Terrace... Seems he and Mickey Rooney did duets on drums and piano when they were chums in Hollywood... Both now are grown-up married men, in case you want to feel old... Freddy told a nifty anecdote about the grandmother of a friend he'd just visited in Connecticut... Seemed she didn't get much of the conversation, even with a hearing aid she was wearing... Freddy expressed a little concern about her falling hearing, but was told not to pay too much attention... "You see, his friend explained, "Gram always uses her old batteries on the family!" "Well, I miss him, too," said Truman. From the tone of his voice you could tell that he very much meant it.

Argentine Meat

Most people have forgotten it, but the late President Roosevelt got into quite a controversy in 1939 over the relative merits of Argentine and American beef. Many people at that time said he was casting reflection on the honor of the American cow and claimed he had committed such a political blunder that he couldn't expect to be re-elected.

At that time, the idea of importing Argentine meat was pure po-

Truman Hunts More Capable Men

WASHINGTON—Harry Truman has received a lot of criticism for not surrounding himself with higher type men in the White House. One reason, of course, is that Truman is genuinely fond of the poker-playing, joke-telling Missourians and Mississippians who are around him.

On the other hand, few except those on the inside know how hard Truman has tried to get others to join his staff. He begged Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., to become assistant secretary of the Navy. He urged Bob Nathan, former brain trust for the War Production Board to become economic adviser.

One of his most significant talks was with Isador Lubin, a White House secretary under Roosevelt. The talk indicates that Truman at times feels a sense of genuine loneliness.

"I just can't afford to come back to work for you," Lubin gave as his excuse, when the President first invited him to return. "My daughter is growing up and my expenses are increasing. I just can't live on a government salary."

The President countered by saying that perhaps he could find means of meeting Lubin's financial requirements. This had Lubin stumped, and he hesitated. Actually, he had other reasons for not wanting to come back, but he didn't want to hurt Truman's feelings by saying so. Finally, he blurted:

"Well, Mr. President, there's something I sort of miss around here."

"You mean," suggested the President, "that you miss Roosevelt?"

"Yes," replied Lubin.

"Well, I miss him, too," said Truman. From the tone of his voice you could tell that he very much meant it.

litical dynamite, much more so than today when the public is clamoring for meat. At that time there was ample meat in the U. S. A., but despite that fact, Roosevelt ordered the U. S. Navy to purchase a mere dribble of 21-tons of Argentine canned beef.

Immediately there was a hue and cry from Western cattlemen. They even went so far as to introduce an amendment to the naval appropriations bill whereby the Navy would be required to buy only American meat.

Roosevelt, however, stood his ground, even stated publicly that Argentine canned beef was better than American canned beef.

Under an Agriculture Department ruling, Argentine fresh or frozen beef cannot be imported into the United States because of hoof-and-mouth disease. However, canned beef can be imported. So also can meat—largely mutton—from Patagonia, southernmost end of Argentina, which is disease-free.

During the war the British bought up most of the Argentine meat supply on a lend-lease agreement with the U. S. A., whereby part of the Argentine meat was used for the American Army abroad. However, there is no reason why the British could not be induced to divide some of this meat now, especially in view of the fact that it was purchased with American money.

War Plants For A Song

The big boys operate so smoothly in Washington that the public seldom knows what's going on until it is called on to foot the bill. One operation that ought to be watched is the tug-of-war by the big steel companies to take over the government's new modern steel plant in South Chicago now operated by Tom Girdler's Republic Steel.

Built by Uncle Sam for war purposes, the South Chicago mill cost the taxpayer around $90,000,000. It is one of the most streamlined in the country. The question now is: Who will get this industrial windfall?

After the last war, government factories were sold a song to the private companies which operated them, and, some years later, the Army and Navy found themselves needing increased armaments with few munitions plants at their disposal. At one time in May and June of 1940, even after France fell, some of the big industrialists deliberately stalled on armaments until the Treasury promised them a tax bonanza on the depreciation of new war plants.

As a result, some Army-Navy men hope that all of Uncle Sam's war plants will not again be turned over to private industry for a song. However, Gen. Robert M. Littlejohn, the war assets administrator, has different ideas. He wants to get surplus war property off his hands as quickly as possible—a policy which frequently plays into the hands of big business.

Tom Girdler Bids

Dovetailing with this policy, Republic Steel has offered to buy the government's South Chicago steel plant for $30,000,000, about one-third its original cost. Payments would be made over 20 years at $1,500,000 a year. No interest would be paid to the government.

Only bidder against Republic Steel so far is Henry Kaiser. Shut out of the steel market, Kaiser has decided the only way he can get steel for his automobiles is to make it himself. He has offered to rent the government's South Chicago plant at $2,000,000 a year for the first three years.

Kaiser contends that the government would be able to take the plant back in case of increased international tension, and that, in the interim, it will get more money from him than from Republic.

Most interesting thing to watch in this deal will be the influence of George Allen, RFC director and one of the closest men to President Truman. Allen is a director of Republic Steel, is also considered the messenger boy for Victor Emmanuel, who has an interest in Republic Steel. Thus, company officials have a pipeline into the White House day or night.

On the other hand, trust-busting Attorney General Tom Clark is changed with discouraging monopoly in the sale of war plants. So it will be interesting to see whether George Allen's friend, Tom Girdler, or the attorney general wins out.

Stillwell Legends Well Remembered

(Editor's Note: The writer was an Associated Press war correspondent for two years in the China-Burma-India and Southeast Asia command.)

NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Joe Stillwell stolidly ignored medical advice four years ago in order to fight probably the bitterest war a trudging old foot soldier ever waged simultaneously in combat and Oriental politics.

The stringy old general's friends in New York recalled last week-end that he brushed aside efforts to keep him in bed for a long period in Chungking back in 1942.

"I am fighting a war," Stillwell said, then, "and can't spare the time."

The doctors could keep him down only a couple of days, although they told him his ailment would result in severe liver trouble within a few years unless he took care of himself immediately.

Stillwell was a single-minded decision of devotion to duty after he had withdrawn all the forces he could save from the Burma debacle in 1942.

Stillwell had just walked out of Burma and had come up with his famous declaration:

"I claim we took a helluva beating. We must find out why we failed and return."

This and other forthright remarks about the collapse of the British and American forces in Burma ahead of the Japanese won him a large measure of unpopularity with the British command.

As the foremost field commander of the eastward offensive against the Japanese, Stillwell balked against all British efforts to turn the tide southward for reconquest of Burma.

But it was not a dispute with the British that took the general out of Burma before the Ledo Road from India to China was opened. Rather it was a growing feud with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and considerable integrated back-stabbing that removed Stillwell in the autumn of 1944, when only minor clean-ups remained before the road was opened to Kunming and Chungking in January, 1945.

Before he was withdrawn, Stillwell had many scrapes with death in Burma, and once, on a walking mission to the forwardmost Chinese positions, artillery shells hit within a few yards of him, but buried themselves and spent their force in mud.

None of his forces ever would dispute his right to the combat infantryman's badge which was given on his deathbed.

To his CBI troops he was known universally as "Uncle Joe" or the "Old Man." He called himself, as he pronounced it, "Old Turkey Neck."

He was a family man who spent lonely nights in Burma writing home by lamplight.

Once he told Lt. Col. Fred Eldridge, his biographer, that in the family he rated "just after the dog."

The "Old Man" was tough in his hatred of the Japanese. An enemy prisoner once tried to shake hands with Stillwell when the general examined him at his Taikpa GA headquarters in North Burma.

"No" with you, you bastard," the general said and authorized the quotation for publication.

Hull And Phillips Grocery Offers Seasonable Goods

New, complete stocks of seasonal merchandise are arriving in large quantities now at the Hull and Phillips Grocery, 303 Bell street, Elmo Phillips and Elton (Ted) Hull, co-owners, announced this week.

Hull and Phillips are making every effort to keep their stocks of all types of merchandise up to demand, and the new seasonal items are adding considerably to the general supplies.

Included in the new arrivals are hosts of nationally advertised brands in conventional packs, with articles such as canned corn, peaches, fruit cocktail, peas, etc., heading the list.

Hull and Phillips offer their customers one of the most complete stocks of other grocery items as well. Although some choice cuts may be missing at times, the market continually keeps a supply of meats, and fresh fruits and vegetables are received regularly.

As for scarce items, Hull and Phillips believe they are furnishing their customers quantities as large as any other store in West Texas. That is one of their goals during the era of shortages. And shoppers will find no unreasonable prices in their store.

GEORGE OLDHAM CO. REPAIRS FARM MACHINERY, ALL TYPES

The George Oldham Implement Company, located on the Lamesa Highway in Big Spring, maintains a first class repair shop for the servicing of truck, tractor and power units, and is recognized at one of the best of its kind in this section of the country.

Owned and operated by George Oldham, the modern equipped building covers 12,500 square feet of floor space which provides an excellent display room, repair shop, office parts department, etc. At the present time mechanics are busy getting trucks and tractors repaired. Farmers in Howard county, busy getting soil in shape for winter seasoning, or those planting winter grain, are having repairs made on their farm equipment.

In an effort to help farmers in this area keep their present equipment in good shape until newer models can be replaced, Oldham's make every effort to keep parts on hand for repairs.

On sale at the company at the present time are the following items: McDeering single row power and horse drawn binder on rubber; one direct connected Moldboard plow for H or M tractor mower on rubber; four wheel rubber tired all steel farm and camp trailers; McCormick Deering and Fairbanks-Morse hammer mills; bear cat garden tractor with breaking plow; harrow and cultivator attachments; power wood saw; water well pump jack; tractor Fresno; cream separator; Go-Devil knives; McCormick twine; Firestone Tractor tires electric light plant; tractor bulldozer and terrace blade; concrete mixers, and US Safety standard truck gas tanks.

Oldham, who has been in the implement business since 1935, has been located at the present address since 1941, and has built up a steady trade, founded on business by satisfied customers, who return again and again. The large T-shaped building is recognized as one of the largest and most well-situated buildings in Texas. Pictures showing its construction and floor plan once appeared in a national trade magazine.

STANDARD SUPER-SERVICE STATION—A clean, modern station featuring Standard products is maintained at 311 East 3rd Street for the convenience of day and evening motorists. Homer Williams, proprietor, points out his specialties in service from 6 a.m. to 12 midnight, his complete facilities for washing and greasing and his Standard products for winterizing cars now.

It's Time Now To Winterize, Car Owners Told

With the air getting definitely nippy early in the mornings car owners were reminded by Homer Williams that now is the time for winterizing the automobiles.

At the Standard Super Service station there are complete facilities for draining differentials and transmissions and replacing with the proper grade of oil for the best lubrication during the colder weather. Whether the car is a 1946-model or one of the older types such service is necessary. For maximum service Williams advised that owners let them clean and peck wheels for safety and driving ease.

Aside from the mechanical services, the Standard station located at 311 East Third street, is the dealer for RPM motor oil and Standard gasoline. Williams' station can furnish also Atlas Tires, batteries and Champion plugs.

For a squeak-removing grease job or a washing that will make the auto look new try the Standard Super service.

For the best of service from 6 a.m. until 12 midnight stop by Williams Standard station at 311 East Third street, telephone 9587.

It's Hong Kong Blues For Taxi Bike Riders

HONG KONG—A government order has forbidden one of Hong Kong's most widespread but least popular forms of transportation, pillion riding on bicycles.

About 2,000 cyclists are screaming "who put pads on the rear fenders and have been making a living hauling passengers in this transportation-hungry city," but the decree stands.

More than 1,000,000 persons live in overcrowded Hong Kong, which has only 10 to 15 buses. To take care of the overflow, there are bicycles, tricycles, rickshaws, pull-bikes and even sedan chairs. Only the pillion type has been banned, but this apparent discrimination is unofficially explained by these reasons:

Some cyclists have made a practice of robbing their passengers.

Lady Nearly Choked While Lying in Bed--Due To Stomach Gas

One lady said a few days ago that she used to be afraid to go to bed at night. She was swollen with stomach gas--which always got worse when she went to bed, and the gas would rise up in her throat after she lay down and would nearly choke her. She couldn't lie flat. Had to prop herself up on pillows. Recently this lady got INNER-AID and now says gas is gone, stomach feels fine, bowels are regular and she can go to bed and sleep soundly.

INNER-AID contains 12 Great Herbs: they cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish liver and kidneys. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get INNER-AID.

THERE'S A HAT IN YOUR PANTS IF YOU MAKE IT

SEATTLE--Gene Brown, lawnmower repair man and saw filer, is Seattle's latest hat designer--for men only. Brown bobs the legs off his overalls and makes hats with the trimmings.

"Not exactly me," the 66-year-old craftsman, explained. "The wife does the making. I have to wear size 46 to get my stomach behind the bib. Forty-sixes have too long legs so I cut off the cuffs and have two hats."

Brown's hat, admired by machinists, fits like the garrison caps of the Spanish Loyalists.

Biggest Water Pumps

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)--Six 10-foot bore water pumps--the largest ever built--are being constructed here for the Grand Coulee Dam in Washington. The pumps will lift water from the Columbia River for storage and release to irrigate nearly 1,000,000 acres in Washington.

Stallings Loses Salmon, Saves Life On Fishing Trip

A former Big Springer who now lives in Napa, Calif., Maurice Stallings, narrowly escaped with his life in an unusual experience while fishing recently on the Klamath river in California. The Napa Register, gave the following account of the incident:

"Stallings was swept downstream when a sudden rise of the river level caught him unaware on a small island in the stream. He had just caught a large salmon, and had waded out to the island with John Nemes. The two were fishing from the downstream tip of the island when a rush of water, released from a dam above, raised the stream level.

"Nemes waded back to the bank and Stallings attempted to follow suit. In an instant, however, the depth and increased to a point where Stallings had to throw away his boots, rod, reel, coat and the salmon, to make a desperate swim for the bank in the rough water. He suffered injuries to his right hand in the scramble.

"The island was submerged by the rising torrent."

Maurice Stallings is a brother of Arthur and Rufus Stallings of Big Spring.

Nine People Die In Weekend Accidents

By The Associated Press

Nine persons died in Texas from week-end accidents.

Seven deaths resulted from automobile collisions, while two persons received fatal and accidental gunshot wounds while hunting.

David V. Tarpley, Jr., 19-year-old farmer of Merkel, was killed instantly yesterday after his automobile crashed into a concrete railing of a bridge near Abilene.

Billy Searcy of Houston, a mid-get auto race driver, filed Saturday night when three racers stacked up in a collision on the midget track in San Antonio. Five persons, including three spectators, received injuries, none serious.

Two Dallas residents, Robert Walton Stone, 37, and James Wesley Collins, 22, died in Saturday night traffic accidents.

Stone was struck by an automobile shortly after midnight, while Collins' automobile was involved in a collision just outside the Dallas city limits.

J. H. Cates, Houston service station operator, received fatal injuries when he was struck by an automobile near Corsicana Saturday night as he walked from behind a parked bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Orr of Odessa were killed instantly when their automobile collided with a truck trailer on a highway four miles north of Crane Saturday night.

Hunting accidents took the lives of C. O. Kemp, Sr., of Athens and Beaver Bishop, a former Jasper county sheriff.

Kemp fell while hunting squirrels on his farm near Athens, accidentally firing his rifle. He was shot in the chest.

Bishop received a fatal and accidental gunshot wound while hunting north of Jasper Saturday.

Two persons received serious burns in an oil well fire near Athens yesterday afternoon.

Hospital attendants at Jacksonville described the condition of T. B. Hill, a driller, as critical. B. B. Boyter, a companion, received serious burns.

Legion String Band Organizing, Will Appear Thursday

The Howard county post of the American Legion, getting more active by the week, has under way a new undertaking—organization of a Legion string band.

Doyle Turney, member of the post and well-known musician in these parts, is directing preliminary rehearsals and organization, and hopes to add to the orchestra personnel. The band will make its debut at the Legion meeting on Thursday night of this week at the Settles hotel, and is expected to draw a large crowd.

On Saturday night, the post is sponsoring a dance for its members only. Special decorations and refreshments will be added attractions for the event to be staged in the Settles ballroom. Admission will be only to Legionnaires who have either membership button, membership card, or receipt for membership application. A membership desk will be operated at the dance to sign up all ex-servicemen as Legionnaires.

The current Legion member drive will reach its climax Thursday night week, October 24, when special prizes will be awarded to the outstanding solicitors. Each member of the post has been assigned the task of bringing in two new men.

Siamese Returning Border Provinces

BANGKOK, Siam, Oct. 14. (AP)—Premier Thamrong Nawasawat announced today that the Siamese cabinet had decided to return four disputed border provinces to French Indochina, ending a territorial quarrel of nearly five years standing.

A special emergency meeting of parliament was called for this afternoon to ratify the cabinet's action. Approval was considered certain, for the premier said the measure was backed by the leaders of both major political parties.

The disputed territory represents some 20,000 square miles of the Indochinese states of Laos and Cambodia, which Siam obtained in 1941 under a Japanese-negotiated treaty with the Vichy-French government.

The post-war French government has refused to recognize the treaty.

The disputed frontier has been the scene of sporadic fighting between Siamese and French colonial forces. The Siamese have accused the French of wanton aggression in the dispute and last July appealed to the United Nations Security Council to intervene.

The cabinet's decision today followed the return of a special Siamese delegation to Washington and was said to have been taken on the basis of the mission's recommendations.

Teachers Get Back Pay; Still On Strike

UNIONTOWN, Oct. 14. (AP)—The 111 teachers of Redstone township schools got their pay of more than $60,000, but their strike for a $400 pay increase continued today. Schools remained closed to 3,224 pupils.

The teachers struck Friday, asking their back pay for three months and a $400 cost-of-living increase.

Meat Conserved

TOKYO, Oct. 14. (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur today ordered a general tightening up on meat consumption by all US army personnel in the Pacific in the face of the sharp meat shortage in the United States. The action was taken to conserve stocks now on hand.

Clothiers Find Male Physiques Longer, Thinner

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14. (AP)—Men who buy readymade suits are running thinner and longer these days—a change which clothiers attribute to the war, not the meat shortage.

Back in the century of the common ham, it is true, short and stout models made up nearly a third of the retail clothing dealer's stocks. Now they're hardly more than a fourth. Meanwhile the market for long models bounded up from 13 to more than 19 percent.

The National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers, which discovered the new American male figure in a survey of its membership, hazarded a guess that the change resulted from physical training received by the men in the services.

The survey also disclosed that a controversy is raging in the industry over whether suits should come equipped with vests.

"If a vestless suit trend exists it will be limited to young men's models in woolen and not worsted suits," the association's style committee decided.

"The vestless suit is proper in its place on a college campus but its desirability in business and dress clothes is doubted."

The supreme court of haberdashery also ruled that among men the preference is almost equally divided between four styles of undershorts—the boxer, the elastic back, the slides and jockey.

Consumer demand for shorts at $2.00 is waning, it added wistfully.
