

Party Conventions Here 'Last Chance' For Grassroots Voice

In announcing time and location of Deaf Smith County precinct conventions, and candidates for party precinct chairmen, local political leaders Wednesday pointed to the importance of the precinct in political party organization and activity.

publican parties comes Saturday in precinct conventions. For it is at the precinct conventions where delegates to the county convention — to be held May 14 — are elected, and it is at the county convention where delegates to the state party conventions are selected, and from there come the delegates to the national party conventions.

the county will stage their convention at 4 p. m. in the Hereford City Hall. (See story below.) ALSO ON TAP for Saturday are elections of party precinct chairmen, also listed at the end of this story.

the county convention is based on the number of votes cast in the precinct during the last presidential election. WITKOWSKI is not opposed in his bid for re-election as County Democratic chairman.

Following last summer's county redistricting, three precinct chairmen were switched, however: Bill Gentry, from 11 to 2; Louis Woodford from 2 to the new precinct 5; and Raymond Higginbotham was named to precinct 11. This was in action by the county executive committee.

Council Agenda Busy

Going on the bet that Hereford's growth during the coming 20 years will exceed that of most cities in the state, city commissioners in their Monday night meeting voted to enlarge scope of a comprehensive plan for the city.

The plan is being ordered in compliance with a federal mandate that all cities over 10,000 population must initiate such a study prior to 1967 in order to be eligible for any type of federal aid.

But Monday night the commissioners agreed that the five-section proposed mapping area would not accommodate the city's growth during the 20-year period called for in the plan.

INSTEAD, the commission approved a $46,000 program with a Dallas company to do photomapping and other studies over 13 sections for the plan.

Other business handled by the commission included: COMPLETION of annexation proceedings for a four-block area in South Hereford.

—Selection of a site for construction of a new city barn to replace the one destroyed by fire recently.

AG MEN VISIT

Holly Personnel View Beet Farms

Some 50 Holly Sugar agricultural managers, fieldmen and research agronomists toured sugar beet raising areas near the corporation's sugar factory here this week.

The agriculturists, who came from Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and California, visited many farms in the large area serving the only sugar factory in Texas.

THEY OBSERVED a number of different machines being used in the Texas-New Mexico region for stand thinning and weed control. In 1965, by continuous use of advanced mechanization and chemicals, some growers succeeded in producing sugar beets entirely without hand labor.

Glen W. Yeager, Holly's vice president — agriculture, who arranged the tour, stated, "Although Holly is fortunate to have growers in all of the corporation's areas who are taking advantage of up-to-date growing techniques, the Texas-New Mexico area is the only place, in which as much as three-fourths of the crop is completely machine thinned."

"ALTHOUGH we have been limited in acreage by Government restrictions, the minimum hand-labor requirement in the production of sugar beets here has placed this district in the forefront of all areas served by the corporation ever since Hol-

FOR STEWARDSHIP WEEK

Ministers Tour Local Farms To See Conservation Results

Several members of the Hereford Ministerial Alliance saw farm and ranch conservation programs in action Tuesday in a tour arranged for them by the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation Service.

Purpose of the visit to two farms near Hereford was to acquaint ministers with soil and water conservation practices in connection with the upcoming observance of "Soil Stewardship Week," May 15-22.

Accompanying ministers on the tour was Ed Parton, acting work unit conservationist for the local Soil Conservation Service office.

THE GROUP visited the Mack Noland and C. T. Douglas farms southwest of Hereford.

Both farmers are utilizing contracts with the Great Plains Conservation Program to aid in soil and water conservation improvements.

Through the Great Plains contracts, farmers share costs with the federal government to bring about such improvements.

ONE MINISTER, after hearing the program explained, asked how the government could justify a cost-sharing program with a single individual.

Parton replied by comparing the soil conservationist's work with that of a minister.

"Ministers work to help people supply their present needs, while this program is meant to help future generations. We have to save what resources we have to provide for the future help," the SCS official commented.

Judicial Races Highlight Local Election Ballot

By WAIN MILLER
News Editor

Eleven contested races on the statewide and local level provide the main attraction to the polls in Deaf Smith County Saturday for the Democratic Primary.

And what should be a heavy turnout by county residents is expected to mark their choices in a triple feature billing of judgeship races, along with a bevy of contenders for statewide nominations.

Polling Places For County See Some Changes

Addition of a new voting precinct brings the total number of polling places for Saturday's Democratic Primary to 11 as a result of redistricting action taken last summer by county commissioners.

Changes in boundaries of Commissioners' precincts one and two necessitated the addition of voting precinct number five, which became effective Jan. 1. THE NEW voting precinct includes the portion of the city of Hereford located north of Park Avenue and between Avenue K and U. S. Hwy. 385.

POLL TAX receipts, exemption certificates, and voter registration certificates bear the voting precinct number in which citizens should vote in Saturday's Democratic primary.

All county residents participating in the Republican Primary will vote at the Hereford City Hall. See POLLING Page 15

Campaigning has been at a premium on the part of the candidates in the multiple-choice ballot spots, and local interest, particularly during the past 10 days, has responded accordingly.

But voting is only a part of the citizen's duty for the day, according to local political leaders, who are attempting to stir up an audience for precinct conventions (see separate stories on this page).

A total of 3,801 Deaf Smith County residents have qualified to vote in 1966 elections — just 86 less than the number who cast ballots in the last presidential election.

More than 2,500 of these are expected to participate in Saturday's Democratic Primary, and a handfull more will post token votes in the local Republican Primary.

MUCH INTEREST SEEN Local Judge Race Highlights Ballots

The two-man race for the office of Deaf Smith County Judge is one of the three judgeship elections highlighting the ballot for Saturday's Democratic Primary on the local level.

H. C. (Hank) Williams, county judge for the past five years, is opposed in his bid for re-election by insurance man and former high school principal, L. B. (Scat) Russell.

THE TWO primary candidates both widely known and active in civic, church, and fraternal organizations, have stressed their stands on relations with juveniles in the county judge's capacity of juvenile court judge.

And both platforms have emphasized the candidates' desires for conservative, but efficient government.

WILLIAMS was appointed five years ago to replace Don Zimmerman as county judge. He is seeking his second elected term.

Russell, a former football coach and elementary and Hereford High School principal, was elected in April, 1965, to the board of trustees of the Hereford Independent School District.

As a resident here for the past 15 years, Williams has been active in farming north of Hereford. He resides at 308 West Eighth.

The incumbent served for 14 years with the Federal Reserve Bank in accounting and audit. See LOCAL, Page 2

Bank in accounting and audit. See LOCAL, Page 2

Runoff Likely In Three-Man JP Balloting

Likelihood of a run-off primary to determine the Democratic nominee for the office of Justice of the Peace for Deaf Smith County appears strong this week as two men attempt to unseat the incumbent.

In the only three-man local race on the ballot for Saturday's Democratic Primary, Ernest Wade, Charlie Sowell, and current office-holder C. B. (Berry) Miles are candidates.

A SIMPLE majority of votes cast is required for a candidate to win election without a run-off in a three-man race, and local political observers have mostly discounted this possibility in Saturday's JP balloting.

Miles, a candidate for re-election, was appointed to the office in 1956 and has twice been elected since that time. He first came to Hereford in 1929.

A farmer before becoming Justice of the Peace, Miles and his wife reside at 403 East Fourth. He is the father of three children. See RUNOFF, Page 2

HIGHLY-CONTESTED

District Judge Campaign Climaxes For Candidates

A highly-contested campaign for 69th District Judge climaxes Saturday when voters choose between incumbent Judge Harry Schultz of Dalhart and opponent Archie McDonald, Moore County Judge of Dumas. Deaf Smith County has been in the apex of campaign moves by the two candidates, and local interest in the election has responded accordingly.

McDonald is the first to oppose Judge Schultz since he took office in 1947.

THE OFFICE serves six counties — Dallam, Hartley, Sherman, Oldham, Moore and Deaf Smith — but much of the campaigning has centered in Moore and Deaf Smith Counties, which should control the outcome of the election.

Several issues have been advanced by the two candidates, with Schultz basing his appeal on the record during his tenure of office.

McDonald has contended that another person should be given the opportunity to hold the office, as Schultz has held the office. See DISTRICT Page 15

The mapping will enable working up through predictions for land use, topography, and other items.

BASIC studies of the economic structure of the city will also be made, as well as a population study.

The company will provide a thoroughfare and street plan for the city's future development, and studies will be made of the administrative ordinances, including the zoning and subdivision regulations.

This was all included in the initial proposal.

In addition, the commission agreed Monday night to include a study of the water and sewer system and plans for further expansion during the next ten years.

ONE MINUTE, PLEASE
THE CHURCH I LOVE
HAS NO NAME. (29th in a series).

The Lord Jesus Christ never gave his church a name. Many descriptive phrases help us to understand the function, and the work of the church. Christ said, "I will build my church." (Matthew 16:18). Also the phrase, "the church of the Lord, which he purchased with his own blood" is found in Acts 20:28. Another phrase used to describe the church is "the church of the first-born who are enrolled in heaven." (Hebrews 12:23). Also, God "gave him (Christ) to be head over all things to the church, which is his body." (Ephesians 1:22 & 23). Paul wrote to Timothy concerning "the house of God which is the church of the living God." (1 Timothy 3:15). Other descriptive phrases of the church are: "The kingdom of God"; "the kingdom of heaven"; "the vineyard" and "the bride of Christ".

"In as much as giving the church of Christ a mechanical, legalized title contradicts both the letter and the spirit of Christianity, when Paul finally gets around to the term 'Church of Christ,' instead of intending to give the church a stereotyped name, he must be thinking of Christ's right, based upon its nature and stupendous cost to him, to win and use the church." to annex the land. These persons pointed out that they were in desperate need of city water improvements and that they also needed other city services.

City manager, Dudley Bayne, said at the meeting Monday that these services would be extended to these people as soon as possible, but this may not be until late summer.

FUNDS FOR these improvements were included in the recent bond election which was passed by local voters.

Bayne said the water service would be given first, since it is the simplest to install, and the sewage would come later.

Members of the Hereford Gun Club issued a formal invitation to the mayor and commissioners to an open house and shoot at the local club facilities Sunday at the Hereford Municipal Airport.

Mayor Ray Cowser was authorized by the commissioners, climaxing a great deal of discussion on their part.

The commission decided to locate the barn on the land at the dump grounds. By locating the barn there the city will only have to buy eight-tenths of an acre of land and a water line will have to be run some 3,000 feet to the building.

Southwestern Public Service elected to furnish the power to the city's new well field west of town.

Both Southwestern Public Service and the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative were bidding for the service. Commissioners agreed that since Southwestern Public Service was at present providing an electricity to the city, it would follow through with that company.

COMMISSIONERS agreed to provide city maintenance for paved alleys in the city, providing they were engineered by the city engineer and met up to the specifications of the engineer.

The alleys will be constructed of a hot-mix substance and will have to be high on the edges and slope toward the center for drainage.

Request for the city maintenance for the alleys came after a local developer said that many of the houses being built in town now have garages in the rear and it was necessary to have paved alleys to get to these garages.

APPRECIATED ON MAY 7th

Pol. Adv. Paid For By Friends of L. B. "Scat" Russell

We who have known Scat for years know him to be honest and capable of holding a responsible office such as this. He is an amiable person who can and will cooperate with the Commissioners' Court and other Elected Officials in the operation of our county on a conservative basis.

As a member of YOUR school board he has voted the conservative line, and believes in conservative government. If everyone believed in spending tax dollars just because they are in the till we would see no end to increases in our taxes. Our county should be run in the same manner — WITH CONSERVATISM.

SCAT served in World War II as a captain and returned to the teaching and coaching profession — serving in that capacity for 23 years. As a teacher and coach he has dealt with children of all ages, sexes and colors. It has been rumored that he will be too easy on the Juveniles who appear before him, but we know this not to be so. His LOVE of children is very apparent to everyone who knows him, and it is hard to conceive that he will not use the firmness necessary to redirect their lives for the good they can give to their community. However, at the same time the youth will not be condemned simply because he has been brought before him.

SCAT was born and reared in Deaf Smith County. He is not completely unacquainted with the job to be done as his father served as Deaf Smith County Judge for several years.

THIRD DISTRICT GAME

Whiteface-Demon Duel Set Thursday Afternoon

Friday afternoon Hereford will test its strength against the devastating Dumas Demons, the third team in the 1-AAA district, who now have a 21-1 record for the season.

ONLY THE Amarillo Sandies have managed a win over the Demons this year earlier in the season. Dumas has since knocked off numerous AAAA contenders in its non-conference season.

The Demons have enough players to field two teams this year and one team seems to be about as tough as the other.

Dumas seems to be having a year for young players, with the same situation prevailing on the baseball team as on their district winning football team.

The majority of the players on the team are underclassmen, although their ace pitcher, Wayne Harkrider is a senior.

HARKRIDER is not the only strong pitcher sported by coach Bud Miller in Dumas this year.

Glenn Bonner, Billy Mc Vicker and Newell Squyres all seem to possess a certain talent at the pitcher's mound.

Dumas is 1-0 in conference play giving the Canyon Eagles an 11-0 licking in the first 1-AAA conference game of the season.

Most of Dumas' players have come up through the ranks in Little League and Pony League ball. Dumas has had strong Little League baseball teams from the past few years and the talent is now beginning to show in the high school ranks.

Coach Miller has not been consistent in his starting batting order this season, but will probably pitch Harkrider against the Whitefaces.

Hereford won the district 1-AAA title last year in a sudden death playoff against the Dumas Demons in Amarillo after the district play wound up in a tie.

THE NEXT WEEK The Whitefaces lost to Kermit in a two of three situation, losing two to the Kermit team.

Hereford defeated Kermit in Kermit, but when they traveled back to home territory the locals dropped two in a row to the contenders.

This is the biggest team for the Dumas school since baseball was organized there.

Hereford and Dumas both have new coaches this year with Don Dorman coaching his first year for the Whitefaces and Miller serving his first year at Dumas.

Dumas has played a number of the same opponents as the Whitefaces and has defeated all of them except the Amarillo Sandies.

COACH DORMAN said that the Demons are sporting one of the roughest teams in a number of years and they will be a hard bunch to beat, but the Whitefaces have come along real well since the beginning of the season.

Game time will be 3:30 p. m. Thursday at Whiteface field for the battle. This will be the first of four games between the locals and the Demons during the year.

There's a new William in the House of Penn.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Penn, former residents of Hereford and now of Olney, Texas are the parents of a six-pound son, born April 22, 1966 at 10:22 a. m. The young man has been named William Zed Penn, Jr.

Apparently the mother and son are doing fine, but at last report they were still trying to get the father back 'down to earth.'

There will be a P-T-O meeting tonight at Aikman School at 7:30 p. m. All parents and other interested persons are urged to attend. This will be the last meeting of the year.

Under the ruling laid down by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, employers can be penalized if they advertised under the heading "Help Wanted — Male" in situations where women are also qualified. In the Little Rock Arkansas Gazette an employment agency listed a number of openings. Halfway down the list was this note: "Unless the government rules otherwise, people for the following jobs should plan to use the Men's restroom."

In line with this, we noticed recently where the government has liberalized their ruling on this point. Employers can now advertise under a specific heading "Male or Female," but must be prepared to show "reason why" if challenged by the Equal Employment Commission.

Here's a tip for area rose growers, that should be helpful in view of damage from the recent freeze.

Either an old bush or a new rose which has a cane that shows signs of wilting or die-back should be cut back to good healthy new wood. If this isn't done, it will cause severe damage to the bush. The bushes should be kept moist and not allowed to be on the dry side. Old bushes should be fertilized if they have not been fed and a new bush could be fed very, very lightly in the next two weeks. This light feeding would help the plant recover from the recent freeze.

Losses will not be too great if some care is given the rose bushes.

Don't forget to vote in the Democratic Primary Saturday. Three important local elections are at stake and every qualified voter should go to the polls to make his wishes known.

By the way, if there is any question as to where you should vote, a map locating voting boxes will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Brand.

The Brand will also post election results in front of the building at 130 W. 4th St. The County Clerk's office asks that you not call there for election results since the phone lines need to remain open for out-of-town calls and to facilitate calls from precinct workers. By the same token, we at the Brand would prefer that you come by and look at the board rather than call. We will post the results just as soon as they come in. Our own phone lines need to be kept open for calls from area news media and the Texas Election Bureau.

GOP Congress

Hopeful Cites

Inflation Rise

Speaking before the noon meeting of the Amarillo Junior Chamber of Commerce, hard-running Bob Price, seeking election as U. S. Representative from the 18th Texas Congressional District, is calling on government to put a stop to rising costs.

"Just as it is government that generates inflation, it is also up to government to halt inflation," Price states. "Private citizens can cause dips and even depressions in the economy, but it takes official action to go the other way. For example, the federal government reports there are only 3.2 million unemployed, but employable citizens in the United States. That is a drop in unemployment of 1.1 million people since 1963. But, there has been a corresponding increase in the number of people on relief. More than 1 million new names have gone on government welfare and relief rolls of various kinds."

"IN BOTH instances federal tax money has been poured into programs supposedly designed to bring relief. Federal employment has skyrocketed and is responsible for a large percentage of the decrease in unemployment. Adding scores of thousands of new families to welfare programs means another outpouring of dollars. With price supports, higher social Security taxes, and support of the war in Viet Nam, vast sums of federal tax money are flowing into the economy."

"The natural result of increased money supplies will always be rising prices. It takes more dollars to buy normal supplies. We are like the man on a treadmill that has to run like the mischief just to stay where he is."

Price pointed out that the cost-of-living index has increased one percent in just two months. He referred to the 17% increase in the index since 1966. "That means," Price said, "that we now pay 1.17 for the goods that cost us $1.00 ten years ago. Taxes and prices have gone up enough to offset a wage increase, today, of about 4 percent."

The candidate noted the confusion that surrounds inflation and explained the problem in terms of what a dollar will buy. "If a worker was earning $5,000.00 a year in 1956, and has had raises so that he is earning $6,000.00 in 1966, his actual increase is only about $150.00 a year. Rising costs over those ten years will have reduced his purchasing power by some $850.00. With wage increases totaling $1,000.00 over ten years, his net earnings, in terms of what his money will buy are raises only $150.00 per year."

"The citizens in the 18th District must have representation in Congress that will fight to hold the line against higher and higher costs of living. The real measure of any free government is in how well it manages the public funds for the people. Waste, mismanagement, and personal greed in some high places, are all expenses we can well do without, and that is my first commitment, to cut the cost of government, and halt inflation."

FIRST PERFORMANCE IN 400 YEARS

LONDON (AP) — Twenty of the 42 medieval Lincoln mystery plays, of which manuscripts still exist in the British Museum, will be performed in the Lincoln Diocese next summer for the first time in 400 years.

They will be given in front of the parish church of St. Wulfham at Grantham in June by a cast of 180, largely drawn from local dramatic societies. Christ will be played by John Pennington, teacher at a state school.

An open letter to the voters!

It has recently come to my attention that some elected officials of this county have seen fit to campaign in behalf of my opponent for County Judge. This is certainly their right if they so choose, and I do not fall out with them for their choice.

They have their reasons!

In view of this however, I believe it is proper that I assure the voters of this county that in the event you choose to re-elect me, the duties of this office will be conducted free of dictates from any special interest groups, and that, with the cooperation of the Commissioners Court, the affairs of the county will be conducted in such a way to benefit the PEOPLE OF DEAF SMITH COUNTY

NOT TO FURTHER THE POLITICAL AMBITIONS OF ANY ELECTED PUBLIC OFFICIAL!

This office is, and will remain, FREE OF DICTATES from any special interests, and I will, to the best of my ability, conduct myself in a judicious, fair and impartial manner. I have favored no man, woman, or child in this County regardless of their race, color or creed. No man owns me. I do appreciate the support of anyone who is interested in good government for Deaf Smith County.

ST. ANTHONY'S BALL TEAM — These men are the members of the St. Anthony's Irrigation League baseball team. They won their first game Sunday 5-4 over Silverton. They are, back (l-r), Norbert Skypala, manager; Wakey Northcutt, Freddie Albracht, Dewey Albracht, coach; Sylvester Loerwald, home umpire; Elwood Skypala, score-

FIRST GAME OUT

IL Team Wins In Extra Innings

Members of St. Anthony's Irrigation League team took their first win of the season when a single by Wake Northcutt drove in two runs in the 11th inning to pull the game out of the fire. HEREFORD BATTLED the Silverton nine for nine innings to 3-3 tie and after two extra innings the locals got a one-run advantage over the opposing team to win with a 5-4 score. Danny Loerwald began the pitching duties for the locals, was relieved in the fourth by Ken Walterscheid and Jim Collier finished out the game taking over during the final two extra innings. Hereford will go into action again Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at Nazareth for their second game of the season. Loerwald gave up two runs while Walterscheid and Collier gave up only one run each in the game. THE FIRST SCORE of the game came when Dewey Albracht walked to first, Jim Collier doubled, scoring Albracht bringing the game to a 1-1 tie at the end of the first inning. Neither team was able to score until the third inning when Donny Loerwald singled and was later brought in by a hit by Butch Walterscheid bringing the score to a 2-2 tie. Silverton managed to score in the top of the ninth inning putting them ahead 3-2. In the bottom of the ninth inning John Willoughby singled and moved to second on an error. He later moved to third on a passed ball. Larry Walterscheid came up and singled driving Willoughby in for a tied ball game. BOTH TEAMS were unsuccessful in breaking the tie in the 10th inning, but Silverton scored a run in the 11th. As Hereford came to bat in the 11th Lee Roy Barend got a free trip to first, Willoughby singled and both Barend and Willoughby advanced on an error. Wake Northcutt, the next batter managed a single, bringing in both runners and putting the Hereford group in the lead.

School Officials To Attend UIL Meeting

Hereford head football coach, Jack Meredith and superintendent of schools Johnny Clark will attend a meeting with University Interscholastic League legislators this weekend in Austin. CLARK WAS selected as one of the state's 20 most outstanding superintendents when he was invited to attend the meeting. Meredith is on the board of the Texas State Coaching Association and will be meeting with the UIL representatives to discuss a number of the rules and their interpretations. Meredith said that the officials may also discuss the organizing a new classification for the larger schools in the state. FOR A NUMBER of years there has been a need for a AAAAA classification in the state with the growing enrollment in the state's schools. At the present time the largest classification is AAAA and many schools are getting large enough to qualify for this already overcrowded classification. Unless the number of students enrolled to qualify for the AAAA classification is raised, Hereford will be large enough to move up in a few years.

Pony League Mothers Set Business Meet

Pony League mothers will meet Monday at 5 p. m. in the Community Center. Mrs. Martin Wagner, president of the organization, called the meeting and urged all mothers of pony league players to attend the important business session.

WHEN A SUB GETS ASSIST
NEW YORK — How can a hockey player on the bench get an assist? It's simple, if he makes a pass, then leaves the ice, and the shooter scores a goal. It happened in Madison Square Garden last March 12 on Bobby Hull's record-breaking 51st goal. Lou Angotti, his Chicago Black Hawk teammate, kicked the puck to Hull, left the ice for substitute Stan Mikita, and Hull scored.

Babe Ruth pitched opening day victories for the Boston Red Sox in 1916 and 1917. Dick Sisler, 1965 manager of the Cincinnati Reds, now coaches for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Officers Assume Duties In Both BSP Chapters

Terms began formally for new officers of both Beta Sigma Phi Chapters in Hereford, as installation was conducted in separate meetings Tuesday evening in Community Center. Mrs. Cleo Cortis became president of the exemplar chapter, Xi Epsilon Alpha, and Mrs. Jack Straw of Kappa Iota.

Both chapters will close a season with social meetings later this month. Together, they observed the sorority's annual Founders Day with a dinner at the Caison House last Friday evening, celebrating the 35th anniversary of the organization which has grown to 185,000 members in 8,000 chapters in 15 countries.

Mrs. Howard Gore, retiring president of XEA, directed Tuesday's installation for that group, in which each current officer conferred her duties on her successor. Mrs. Nolan Grady is the new vice president, Mrs. Max Stipe secretary, Mrs. Hicks Roberson correspondent, Mrs. M. S. Chuck Laing treasurer and Mrs. Delbert Baimum civil defense chairman.

Yellow roses, the sorority flower, and candles decorated the ceremonial table. A diamond-set guard gavel was presented to the new president by Mrs. Gore, and silver star charms commemorating the 35th birthday of BSP were given to members by executive board members, hosesses for the evening.

In a brief business period, a contribution to air-conditioning of the community center ballroom was voted. A request from the Chamber of Commerce Beautification Committee, for all city residents to plant petunias this year, was presented. Announcement was made of 1966 area convention dates in Borger, Oct. 15-18.

Kappa Iota president, Mrs. Harold Kids, installed Mrs. Jack Straw to that office for 1966-67, also Mrs. Pat Parker as vice president, Mrs. Bobby Shelton secretary, Mrs. Houston Frye correspondent, Mrs. Wendell Maloney treasurer and Mrs. John Gilliland extension officer.

Mrs. Shelton was chosen by members' vote as having given the best program of the current year. She and Mrs. C. D. Fitzgerald were hostesses, who served refreshments to 21 members after the installation.

Two program topics were presented: Mrs. Fowler discussed The Art of Living and Mrs. Randy Ammons' subject was Music in Our Lives.

Hereford City Council of Beta Sigma Phi was in charge of the annual Founders Banquet, with Mrs. Irving Alexander, council president, as toastmaster. Girl of the Year awards from their respective chapters were presented to Mrs. Gore and Mrs. Straw by last year's winners.

Mrs. Harold Beauchamp and Mrs. Gilliland.

Mrs. Max Stipe gave the program highlight, a message from F. Ross, who founded the sorority in 1931 at Abilene, Kan. Local chapter histories were reviewed by the presidents after Mrs. Straw had welcomed 1966 pledges.

A national prize-winning song, Crown Every Moment, was sung by Miss Mamie Silvertooth. The song title gave the banquet its theme.

I HAVE TRIED!

When my opponent announced, I had court work closely scheduled and much additional work has since developed.

My bosses — the people of this district are many thousands and live in a large area — 6 counties.

In the time, I could manage away from 6 courthouses I tried to personally solicit your votes. I enjoyed visiting with each of you that I was able to contact, and I would have enjoyed as much visiting with everyone that I missed.

The affairs of your courts are everyone's business. If I have missed soliciting your vote, it is because I was engaged in taking care of your affairs.

My work with your public officials has always been pleasant and harmonious. I have greatly enjoyed working with them and with you as jurors.

I'm grateful to you for the opportunity to serve you for more than 19 years, and I hope I merit your vote to continue this service.

Herd Takes Second District Win

Pull Game Out Of Fire In Eighth Inning, 7-2

Hereford baseballers took their second conference win of the season Tuesday when they downed the Canyon Eagles 7-2 after trailing the bigger part of the game.

The locals pulled the game out of the fire in the top of the seventh inning when they managed a tie with the Eagles, who until then held a 2-1 lead over Hereford.

Canyon scored first in the opening inning, the Whitefaces tied the score in the top of the fifth, only to have Canyon pull ahead in the bottom of the sixth.

The tie drove the game into an extra inning and Hereford players managed a rally taking a number of hits off tiring Tom Liar, the Canyon pitcher who had traveled the full eight innings.

Ed Mims went the distance for the Whitefaces, but instead of tiring, Mims seemed to get stronger as the game neared the end.

Hereford seemed to be in trouble when it's usual hitters struck out in the first three innings.

AFTER THE team began hitting the Eagles put up a terrific defensive battle in the infield keeping the Whitefaces from scoring.

Ray Martinez shined for the Whitefaces as he singled the first two times at bat and scored Steve Hodges in the seventh inning on a sacrifice fly. This was the score that took the ballgame into extra innings.

In the eighth inning Robby

Lemons walked and Barry Johnson hit a home run over the right field fence on the next play.

BILL WATTS singled, Gene Duvall singled, Steve Hodges walked again and Martinez hit a ball deep into left field scoring Watts.

Wagner was the next batter and hit a fly deep into center field scoring Duvall.

Although Martinez has not proved to be a strong batter in the past, he has been improving weekly. He now holds the sixth highest batting average on the team and has proved himself defensively.

Steve Hodges holds the highest batting average for the team with a .474.

HE MISSED the first part of the season after surgery was performed on his right elbow to remove some bone splinters which he incurred during basketball season.

Barry Johnson holds the second highest batting average with a .49 and Gene Duvall is third with a .388.

Ed Mims was back in action for the first time in over a week after sustaining an eye injury.

Mims was out of play after a piece of cement hit him in the left eye causing temporary damage to the eye.

HEREFORD will go into action again this afternoon when they will face the dangerous Dumas Demons at Whiteface field at 3:30 p. m.

The Demons will be going into the game with a 21-1 season record and a 1-0 conference record after downing the Canyon Eagles 11-0 in their first conference game of the year.

Walter Johnson pitched 14 opening day games for the Washington Senators and won nine of them. Seven were shutouts.

Farm director Hal Keller of the Washington Senators is the son of Charley Keller, former New York Yankee left fielder.

WEATHER IS BIG FACTOR

Thinclads Have More Problems In NW Texas

By DAVID BUTLER
Sports Editor

Nine thinclads were named to the area track honor roll and only one young man from Hereford was named on the list.

GARY GOODIN was named to the list in two different places. The local cinderman was listed for his 19.1 time in the 180-yard low hurdles and his 14.9 time in the 120-yard high hurdles.

On the low hurdles Goodin lacked only .5 of a second reaching the state's best time, which is 18.6. On the high hurdles Goodin was more than a second off the state's best time, with a 13.6 being the best time.

All of the competitors in district 1-AAA were near or at the bottom of the list among the state's best thinclads.

Why?

If one would take a little time in going over the list he would find that the better times were set by the runners from further south in the state and that the times progressively got slower with the towns which were farther north.

THE TRACK season officially begins the second week in February and those teams which are going to run every week are allowed to start that date.

During that time in northwest Texas the weather is somewhat unpredictable.

A track team in this part of the country may be able to get in two days practice and then have to sit in the gym or field house for three more because of snow or cold weather.

Or just about the time the team gets into shape a cold front will move in forcing the men inside and all the practice time is lost.

WHEREAS further south the boys can begin practicing in February and are not likely to be interrupted by the weather until their first meet.

When Hereford traveled to Fort Stockton for their first meet of the season, many of the teams had as much as six weeks practice advantage on the local team. As a result Hereford did not place high in the meet.

Hereford thinclads improved every week until the district meet, but still the teams from the southern towns kept taking the points.

Coach Joe Brooks, head track coach at Hereford High School said, "beginning our track season later would not be the answer to the problem, because it would cause the people in the south part of the state to run into the hotter part of the year."

"The best time to run track is when the temperature is between 70 and 85 degrees and if it is much hotter or colder than that it is impossible for the runners to be at their best."

ONE CONCESSION to the people in northwest Texas is a home-grown product, Randy Matson of Pampa who has been so successful in the national track field.

Brooks pointed out that most of the bigger track stars come from California and the warmer states, but the best ones in Texas come from the southern part of the state.

But the north part of the state nearly always produces the better basketball players and better football players.

Again we can ask, "why?"

For the same reason — we have ideal weather for football in the climate around northwest Texas. In the warmer regions it is almost impossible to produce a topnotch football player, because of the heat.

NEARLY ALWAYS when one reads about a football player fainting on the field during a practice session it is in one of the southern towns and not in any city near Hereford.

So — If we asked for track season to be set later in the spring then these people could ask for football season to be later in the fall and both parts of the country can see the other's problem.

Really there is no one sound answer to the problem, but every now and then a product like Randy Matson will come out of the northwest part of the state, but don't expect it too often.

1966 Grid Slate Set By Officials

Final arrangements have been made for the 1966 version of the Hereford Whiteface football schedule.

The Whitefaces will be matched against a number of tough AA and AAA contenders in their non-conference schedule.

One Saturday night game has been scheduled for this coming fall, but the rest will be on the traditional Friday evening.

Hereford gridgers will be at home for half of their games, hosting five of the 10 teams they play this season.

Homecoming is set for Oct. 28 when the Whitefaces clash with the Perryton Rangers in their second 1-AAA district game of the season.

A number of new teams will appear on the Whiteface schedule for the first time this year.

During the weekend of Sept. 23-24 Hereford will play two games. The varsity squad will split up and a part of them will go to Hale Center Friday Sept. 23 and the other half will host Phillips Saturday Sept. 24.

Conference season will begin Friday Oct. 21 when the Whitefaces travel to Canyon.

The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 9 Floydada	There
16 Olton	Here
23 Hale Center	There
24 Phillips	Here
30 Levelland	There
Oct. 7 Open
14 Del Norte	Here

Miss Kathleen Knox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Knox, was one of two music majors in Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, to receive a scholarship from the TCU Fine Arts Foundation Guild for study next term.

Presentation was made by the dean of the school of fine arts at a luncheon in the Colonial Club at Ft. Worth this week.

Miss Knox will present a solo recital in flute Friday evening in the Fine Arts Building on the TCU campus, and her parents plan to be in the audience.

An unsigned (for reasons you will understand) but a voluntarily written letter to Judge Harry Schultz, candidate for re-election as District Judge . . .

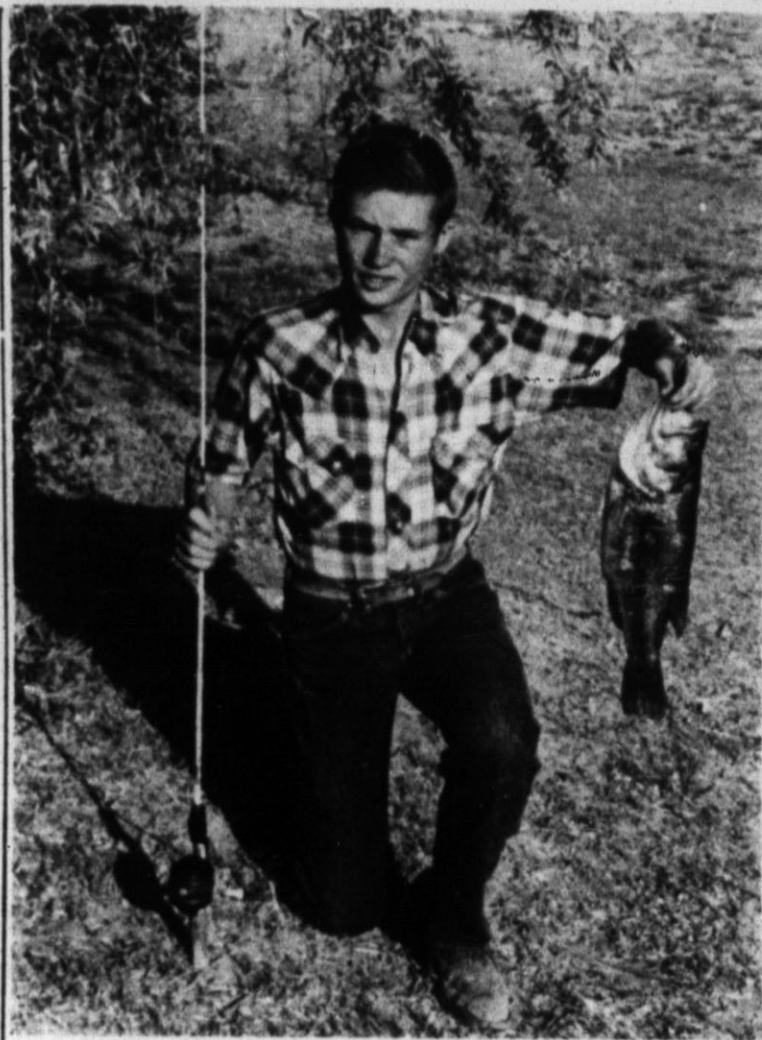

As a recipient of adult probation in the 69th Judicial District, I would like to express my opinion, and share my knowledge of the value of such a program with a generally unconcerned public.

A program that was introduced into this district by Judge Harry Schultz.

First of all probation is only available for first offenders, people who had previously led a law-abiding life, but who through some impulse or error in judgement found themselves faced with a felony charge. To have committed these people to prison would certainly have subjected them to the forced association with repeaters and hardened criminals, and it is not a supposition but a known fact. A law of nature, that we become a part of our environment. We become like the people we associate with, whether good or bad. I know this to be true from personal experience. Through the association with indiscreet characters, my judgement of moral values had deteriorated to the point that I awoke one morning to find myself faced with a felony charge against me. As a first offender I was given a chance to make amends for my mistake in Judge Harry Schultz's court through the Adult Probation program. Having been forced through strict supervision to separate my association from the wrong kind of people, I began to take inventory of myself.

I gradually changed my concepts until there was an explosive change of attitude, that altered the entire course of my life, and possibly the lives of generations to come. Not only was I allowed to make financial restitution, I was also kept free from prison influence, and permitted to recapture the self respect and moral convictions that were once so important to me. I gratefully submit this letter as my own idea. Not for the purpose of changing political views but in sincere appreciation to Judge Harry Schultz and the 69th Judicial Adult Probation Department.

Paid for by friends of Judge Harry Schultz — Mrs. O. G. Hill, Sr., Chairman.

4 1/2-POUNDER LANDED Hereford Scout Troop Returns From Ute Lake With 275 Fish

Boy Scouts of Troop 52 Hereford spent the weekend at Ute Lake, near Logan, N. M., and came back with some 275 fish as a result.

Included was a four-and-a-half pound bass landed by 15-year-old Randy Barrett, with the aid of some fellow Scouts.

FISHING from the bank of the relatively new lake, Randy caught the big one using a rod and reel with a worm on a small perch hook. The fish managed to get the line tangled and some fellow Scouts soon arrived to aid in untangling the fish.

A good catch by any standards, and particularly for the newly-built lake, located some 100 miles west of Hereford, the fish could easily top those which will be reeled in next week in the Texas-New Mexico Challenge Fishing Derby at the lake.

Thirty-eight boys and six adults made the trip to Ute Lake, where they spent Friday and Saturday nights.

OF THE 275 fish caught by the delegation, five were rainbow trout and 19 were black bass. The remainder were mostly cat and croppie, with many of these over a pound in size.

Another moment of excitement came when members of the troop came across a four-foot diamond-back rattlesnake while on a hike up the Ute Creek branch of the lake. The boys promptly killed the snake and went on their way.

Three coyotes and a porcupine were among the other sights of interest along the hike. Recently, the troop made a similar trip to the lake and top catch was a seven-pound channel cat, one of the larger fish landed since the opening of the lake.

Babe Ruth, always the showman, hit seven home runs and batted .455 in 15 opening day games for the New York Yankees.

Cotton Growers Poll On Transfer

Growers in about two-thirds of the upland cotton producing counties will vote during period May 16 through May 25 on whether to permit transfer of cotton acreage allotments to other counties by sale or lease. If in any county, at least two-thirds of growers voting favor transfer, growers will be permitted to transfer allotments by sale or lease to farmers in other counties within same state. Allotments may not be shifted to other states.

Where approved by at least two-thirds of growers voting in county, transfer of allotments to other counties for period 1967, 1968 and 1969 will be permitted. Transfer of allotments was authorized in Food and Agriculture Act of 1965.

First vote on transfer of allotments held on Nov. 23, 1965. At that time, growers in 349 upland cotton producing counties voted to permit transfers. There are a total of 1,059 cotton growing counties in U. S. Only those counties which did not approve transfers last November will vote. This includes Deaf Smith County.

The May 16-25 referendum will be by mail, first time a referendum of this type has been conducted by mail. Ballots will be delivered to all cotton growers of record in counties holding referendum. Officials said in mail vote should be much more convenient for growers rather than having to appear in person at their polling place, particularly during busy season.

USDA officials hope for good turnout in voting and will regard it as sign growers approve mail method of holding referendum. To be counted, all votes should be in office of the county ASC committee before office closing time, 5 p. m. May 25.

Club Entertains At King's Major

A party for residents of King's Manor and other Golden Age friends was a special event for Pioneer Study Club members Tuesday afternoon, when they were hostesses at the Manor.

Showing of a film was the program feature, with music and informal conversation completing the afternoon. Refreshments were served in the dining room, where each table was beautified with a different arrangement of spring blossoms.

Subject of the program was The Good Earth. Mrs. A. L. Manjeot and Mrs. Delmar Sigler were in charge of arrangements for it. Decorations were by Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. and Mrs. W. C. Hromas.

Fruit punch and an assortment of cookies were served by the refreshment committee, Mmes. N. E. Gass, B. L. Wilson, Henry Hastings, Frank Ball and P. B. Sowell.

Other members of the club assisted as hostesses. The party was the last meeting of the Pioneer Club for this season except for the annual installation luncheon, at which final reports of officers and committee chairmen will be made. Mrs. Sigle will take office as president to succeed Mrs. L. H. Lookingbill Sr.

Bobby Tolan, 20, St. Louis Cardinal outfielder, is a cousin of Eddie Tolan, gold medal winner in two dash events at the 1932 Olympics.

Card Of Thanks

I want to thank all our friends and especially Dr. McCrary, the nurses at the hospital here, the Rev. Hackley, and Dr. Whitley, Hambing and Owen for their many kindnesses while I was in the hospital here and in Amarillo.

Mrs. W. L. Haigood.

Sunday Concert Features Work Of WT Composer

First in a series of three concerts featuring the music of Dr. Houston Bright, composer-in-residence at West Texas State University, will be presented Sunday at 3 p. m. in the Fine Arts Theatre in Canyon.

Honoring Dr. Bright's silver anniversary at WTSU, the music department will present in the three concerts selections from the more than 80 works composed by the professor. All performances are free and open to the public.

COMPOSITIONS for concert band will be performed Sunday by the Symphonic Band, directed by Gary Garner, and the Concert Band, directed by Donald Baird.

The program will include Concerto Grosso, "Prelude and Fugue in F Minor," "Passacaglia in G Minor," and "Sketches from the West."

The second concert on May 15 will feature Dr. Bright directing the University Chorale, semi-professional 44-voice group as they perform choral works selected from the composer's varied works.

WTSU faculty and students will perform in a program of chamber music and solos on May 22. Spring convocation, later that day, will include a premiere performance of "Now Deck Thyself With Majesty and Excellence."

A native of Midland, Dr. Bright received his B. S. and M. A. degrees from WTSU and his Ph. D. from the University of Southern California.

In addition to his compositions for chorus, band, brass quartet, woodwind quintet, and piano, the professor is also author of the textbook, "Modern Tonal Counterpoint in Two Parts," and numerous articles for professional journals.

He is a member of the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers; American

NEW ROAD—Preparation of base is nearing completion for a county road under construction near Hereford as an impractical loop around the city begins to take shape. The road, located southwest of Hereford, runs north from U. S. Hwy. 60 to the paved road leading from Hereford to the Holly Sugar Corp. plant, connecting with this road just east of the plant. Other previously-existing and planned farm roads near the city will eventually connect to provide a make-shift loop around the city for locally-oriented traffic, but will not draw through traffic off the main highways. The roads are being developed by the county commission. (Staff Photo)

IGNORANCE IS BLISS

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — "I hate to pitch against kids," Whitey Ford said after hurling seven innings this spring for the New York Yankees Toledo farm club against the Mets' Jacksonville farm team.

Two ex-Mets, Bill Haas and Larry Elliott, hit Ford for homers. The Yankee southpaw gave nine hits, four runs, one walk and struck out seven.

Elections Of Officers Climax Legion Meet

New heads of both the American Legion and Auxiliary of the 18th District were elected to succeed the husband-and-wife team of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hanna in closing business sessions of the annual convention held here last week.

Roy Beard of Amarillo was chosen Legion Commander, and Mrs. Agatha Rafferty of Gruver the Auxiliary president. Bill Brady of Claude is the new district vice-commander of the Legion.

ATTENDANCE neared the 300 mark before the two-day convention ended Sunday afternoon. Entertainment had alternated the programs in which both the Legion and Auxiliary members had listened to addresses by State officials and reports of a wide variety of civic, educational and patriotic projects.

Principal speaker of the weekend was Texas Department Commander Clayton Mann of Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Willis Hawkins of Hart is the new auxiliary vice president. The district voted endorsement of the candidacy of Mrs. Jack Flynt, Dimmitt, for president of the Texas Department, American Legion Auxiliary.

The Sunday afternoon meeting in Community Center was one of the separate sessions for Auxiliary members, who joined Legionnaires in a number of the convention programs.

Mrs. Hanna presented awards to Auxiliary units with 100 percent membership quota records, and gave each district officer who had served with her a pin from a golden "friendship ring." She in turn was given a travel kit by district members, in appreciation of her services and a ring from her home unit.

Her daughters, Cynthia and Joette, who represented Junior Auxiliary members on convention programs, were given bracelet charms.

Plans for sending girls of this district to Girls State at Austin, leaving Amarillo June 24, were announced.

AUXILIARY programs began Saturday with a business meeting featured by reports of unit presidents and district committee chairmen. A tour of the city followed, then a tea in First National Community Room honored special guests. Mrs. Bill Gillesland, president of the Hereford unit, and Mrs. Charles Hood were hostesses.

The honored visitors were Mrs.

A joint memorial service was held Sunday morning with Shirley Draper of Shamrock, district chaplain, leading the tribute to deceased veterans. Members attended the churches of their choice and then met for a buffet lunch in the hotel before the separate final business meetings.

 sition for the past 20 years. However, Schultz contends that the experience gained during his tenure qualifies him for reelection.

THE INCUMBENT points out that the 69th District is the only one in the state serving as many as six counties, and that spiraling population in the area has multiplied the caseload in the court. At the same time, he continues, aggressive use of pre-trial procedures in civil cases have kept the court current with cases on the docket.

McDonald has served eight years as Moore County Judge. He began practice of law in Dumas in 1946, and was soon elected county attorney there. He later returned solely to private practice before becoming county judge.

THE DUMAS resident credits this experience, plus his educational background, as qualifications for the office of district judge.

He received his B. A. from Texas Tech, with honors, and graduated from the University of Texas Law School.

Receiving considerable airing in the campaigns have been statements concerning appeals from the 69th District Court, with citing different categories of statistics.

Following is the list of voting precinct polling places, and presiding election judges:

- Precinct 1 — License Examiner's Room on the first floor of the Courthouse, Frank Benzer.
- Precinct 2 — Commissioners' Court Room on second floor of Courthouse, Clinton Jackson.
- Precinct 3 — Herbert Schmidt residence, located 15 miles west of Hereford on Harrison Highway (or seven miles west of Westway), J. E. McCathern.
- Precinct 4 — Simms Community House, J.G. Fortenberry.
- Precinct 5 — Hereford Community Center, Tom Robinson.
- Precinct 6 — Ford School House, L. J. Stratuss.
- Precinct 7 — Dawn School House, Mrs. H. V. McCabe.
- Precinct 8 — Walcott School House, Mrs. S. N. Thweatt.
- Precinct 9 — Bippus Community House, Clint Homfeld.
- Precinct 10 — Palo Duro Church, Mrs. C. L. McBroom.
- Precinct 11 — Central School House, Raymond Higginbotham. (Absentee voting, which ended Tuesday, was in the county court room, with Wayne Thomas serving as judge.)

FIRST-HAND OBSERVERS

WORKERS THANKED

Cancer Crusade Posts New High

Reports at the Deaf Smith County Unit of the American Cancer Society meeting Tuesday night indicated a total of more than $3,725 has been donated to the 1966 Cancer Crusade in Deaf Smith County — a new all-time high for the effort.

THE FIGURE compares with $2,934 contributed in 1965 and $3,145, previous high mark set in 1959.

In addition, more than 12,000 pamphlets describing the Cancer Society goals and progress, plus information concerning the disease itself, have been distributed in connection with the educational portion of the Crusade.

Reports highlighted the meeting which also saw the local unit elect new officers for the coming year.

President of the local American Cancer Society, Mrs. Claude McDougal, was in charge of Tuesday night's meeting in the Community Center.

She reported that the local chapter board now has total membership of 28, including six physicians.

Mrs. McDougal extended special thanks to officers and other workers for the local Cancer Society, and particularly to Mrs. Armon Lauderback, County Crusade Chairman.

The Society president also reported that during the past year, three Hereford residents have received treatment for cancer through the aid of the Cancer Society, and many others have received aid in the form of sickroom equipment, and medical supplies.

ANNOUNCING that the April Cancer Crusade drive here has met its goal "to better its best," Mrs. Lauderback listed total contributions in various categories.

A total of $1,971 was raised in the House-to-House Campaign headed by Mrs. J. R. Oglesby; $522 has been received from the business drive, directed by Andrew Shual and Harold Kids; $363 came from the special gifts drive, directed by John Aikin; and $340 from the county communities drive, headed by Marcus Latham.

In addition, donations to the Memorial Fund, through Mrs. Sue James at the First National Bank, and at a roadblock sponsored by several high school organizations bring the grand total thus far to $3,725.18, Mrs. Lauderback said.

OFFICERS elected for the coming year are Mrs. Lauderback, president; Miss Della Stagner, vice-president; and Miss Lucille Park, treasurer.

Dr. Kenneth Waugh from West Texas State University was present and showed a filmstrip on "Discovery Is Their Business," a story of the various scientists' research in the fight against cancer.

Next meeting of the local unit will be Tuesday, July 5, at 8 p. m. in the Community Center.

GOP Primary, Convention Set At City Hall

Deaf Smith County Republican Primary and Party Convention will be held Saturday, where GOP candidates for U. S. Senator and U. S. District Representative, as well as county and precinct chairmen, will be listed unopposed on ballots.

The county Republican convention will be held at 4 p. m., with only those who have participated in the Republican Primary qualified to participate.

Unopposed Republican candidates are John Tower, for Senator; Bob Price of Pampa, for representative; Keith Jorde, county chairman; and Pat Parker and Frank Ford for precinct chairmen for precincts 1 and 2 respectively.

Balloting will be in City Hall from 8 a. m. until 7 p. m.

Voters ...

 ces described separately on this page, the two-man bid for county commissioner, precinct four, is the only contested local office.

THIS RACE sees farmer Paul W. Metcalf challenging incumbent Donald Hicks, who is expected to be re-elected to his third four-year term in the office.

In other area voting, U. S. Representative Walter Rogers of Pampa and State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake ask re-nomination and are unopposed.

Arnillo's Grady Hazelwood, also unopposed in his bid for re-election to the 31st Senatorial District, will be a candidate for the first time in Deaf Smith County, after this area became part of his district in last summer's Texas redistricting.

LIKE THE MAJORITY of other Texans, local voters are expected to wholeheartedly re-elect Governor John Connally, although he is opposed by Stanley C. Woods of Harris County and Johnnie Mae Hackworth of Washington County.

In the number two post on the ballot, Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith of Lubbock seeks reelection. He is contested by Bill Hollowell — election partner for Woods — of Van Zandy County.

Seeking promotion from attorney general to the U. S. Senate is Waggoner Carr of Lubbock. He is opposed by John R. (Jack) Willoughby of Harris County, but the pollsters have picked Carr for an easy win.

PERHAPS THE MOST hotly-contested race on the ballot appears in the form of bids for the office vacated by Carr.

Seeking this attorney general post are Crawford C. Martin, Galloway Calhoun, and Franklin Spears.

Some observers have given Martin the possibility of taking the nomination without a run-off, but many others disagree, although Martin is apparently supported by Connally.

Spears and Calhoun factions have not cottoned to this idea, however, and both are predicting run-off berths.

There is also some question concerning the outcome of the Jerry Sadler vs. Fred Williams vote for land commissioner. Sadler, the incumbent, meets newspaperman Williams of Del Rio.

Byron Tunnell of Smith County has two opponents to his bid for re-election to the railroad commission. They are Paul B. Haring of Goliad County and P. S. (Puss) Ervin of Dallas County.

Voters also choose between John F. (Jack) Onion of Bexar County and W. T. McDonald of Brazos County for Court of Criminal Appeals judge.

Local candidates, unopposed on the ballot for their re-nomination, are County Clerk B. F. Cain, County Treasurer Velma Hodges, District Clerk Lucille Posey, County Surveyor A. J. Schroeter, and Precinct Two County Commissioner M. R. (Marcus) Latham.

Ballots also list Leo Witkowski for county Democratic Chairman and candidates for ten of 11 precinct party chairmen. (See story at top of page one.)

Adventures in ADVERTISING

TOMBSTONE TERRITORY

Before World War I Fairy Soap was the largest seller on the American market. Mother used it as a beauty aid. Junior used it in the bath tub. Sister used it to shampoo her hair. And father used it to wash that portion of his face which wasn't covered with mustache and mutton chops. In magazines, on bill boards and in newspapers, you would see advertisements of Fairy Soap.

During the first great war the demand for Fairy Soap was so great that the manufacturers dropped their huge advertising program with an eye to making a bigger profit. They figured Fairy Soap was so well known it would carry itself. They were wrong. Other far sighted soap manufacturers stepped in with appealing advertising campaigns and took over the market. Fairy Soap was never able to come back and today lies in the graveyard alongside the Gold Dust Twins, Saint Jacobs Oil, Melon's Baby Food, Dolly Varden Chocolates, Omar cigarettes, Maxwell automobiles and many other products that died a natural economic death due to lack of advertising.

City's Changes Noted

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Three times Mrs. W. F. Ball has called Hereford her home, and almost she feels that each time she has lived in a different town.

She was reared in the little farm community which was Hereford in the World War I era, and changes have been so marked since that time, it hardly seems the same place, she says.

THE BALLS, had operated a motel and restaurant at Carrizozo, N. M., for several years before they sold out and returned to Hereford to make their home three years ago. But they spent a five year period of residence here before they went to New Mexico, after living in Missouri.

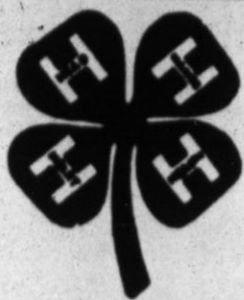

That state was their home in the early years of their marriage, soon after Mrs. Ball, the former Gochie Sisk, was graduated from Hereford schools. She has happy memories of social activities in her high school years.

"People were so scattered over this area that we often had to go a long way to get a crowd together," she says, "but we surely had a good time when we did."

Active years of rearing her family and then assisting her husband in operation of businesses which required constant personal attention, came to an abrupt end for Mrs. Ball when they came back here to "settle down," but she says she had not yet found any occasion for boredom.

KEEPING HER handsome ranch-style house at 236 Star and Winners in 4-H method demonstrations at a recent district contest gave the program for Happy Hustlers 4-H Club recently. Joette Hanna presented her demonstration on Money Management, Donald Vasek and Rodney Herr on Grounding Electrical Appliances.

These three will take their demonstrations to the State 4-H Roundup next month. Rodney is a member of Happy Hustlers Club.

Jackie Woodward presided at the meeting in Community Center, Steve Easley, Kim Blackwell and Edgar Warren were new members. Mrs. Donald Douglas and Mrs. John McNeely served refreshments to 29 members and the two program guests.

the attractive lawn around it, takes a good deal of her time. Visits and correspondence to keep in touch with her five children and their families requires more.

Activity as a member of First Baptist Church, the Pioneer Study Club and a social group which calls itself the Star Street Club, is another phase of her life.

One daughter, Mrs. Carl Zimlich, with her family including three daughters, lives in Amarillo, near enough for spur-of-the-moment visits. A son, Lt. Col. Bill Ball, is stationed at Omaha, Neb., with the SAC. He has a son and three daughters.

The Balls' other children are scattered over Texas: Francis with his wife and three sons lives at Odessa; Mrs. D. S. Thomas, with three sons and a daughter, at Denton; M/Sgt. Bob Ball, whose family comprises two daughters, at Wichita Falls.

MRS. BALL LIKES cooking as an expression of hospitality. She keeps cake or cookies at hand, and prefers the kind which improve with keeping, like the orange-date-nut cake which her friends pronounce "the best ever," and which can be sliced and served fresh or days later.

It is easily mixed, she adds, and instead of an icing it has a topping which is simply poured on while the cake is still in the pan. Also, Mrs. Ball takes a very relaxed attitude toward its baking process.

"I think this one fell a little," she pronounced as she gave it a critical look while lifting it from the oven, "but that won't hurt its flavor."

"You know," she chuckled, "When I was learning to cook as a bride, I found out if a cake falls, you can just serve it with some custard sauce and call it a pudding, and everybody will think it is delicious!"

That suggestion is included, no extra charge, with Mrs. Ball's recipe for the superlative cake which needs no masking with a sauce.

ORANGE-DATE-NUT-CAKE

Cream together 2 cups sugar, 1/2 cup butter and 1/2 cup margarine or vegetable shortening. Add 4 eggs, one at a time. Sift 4 cups flour with 1 tsp. soda and 1/2 tsp. salt.

Save out 1 cupful flour mixture to put over dates and nuts. Add remainder alternately with 1 1/2 cups buttermilk to egg mixture. Add 2 cups chopped pecans, 2 cups cut-up dates and 2 tbsps. grated orange rind, mixed with the cupful of flour, and stir all together.

Bake in a stem pan 1 1/2 hours at 375 degrees.

ORANGE TOPPING

While cake is hot, punch holes in top with long-tined fork and loosen from sides of pan. Pour over it a mixture of 1 cup orange juice and 2 cups sugar, stirred often to melt sugar. Leave cake in pan until it cools, so the topping will soak in thoroughly.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Spending a few days in the hospital is supposed to give an opportunity for a few clever remarks, or anyway sick jokes, but somehow those hilarious things like getting the wrong leg x-rayed or the medicine intended for the patient in the next room, never happen to me.

ACTUALLY, IT'S a nice vacation and I've enjoyed a short one. A few uncomfortable moments, but the hospital here is like all (not many, I'll admit) that I've ever inhabited, with nice staff members who seem determined to make you comfortable.

Everybody friendly, from the doctor to the janitor, cute little pink angels dropping around occasionally just to see if you want an errand run or some fresh ice in your water pitcher, even the cook coming by to check whether you prefer tea or coffee for breakfast.

A bed with those fascinating buttons that you can push to ride up or down, a magazine or two, a few friends visiting (and isn't it odd that you always discover someone you know who is also a patient?), and time to check up on the daytime TV shows, to assure yourself that you aren't missing much because you're normally at work when they are on.

A patient who is seriously ill, wouldn't have that version of the story, but it wasn't bad for me. And I surely appreciate the nice, thoughtful things that were done to make it easier, and the kind inquiries that indicated interest in my bad luck.

LOOKING OVER THE mail that has accumulated lately, it seems that vacation time is near and some folks have dandy suggestions to help you spend it.

For instance, a release from the National Forests says that campers these days tend to come in family groups rather than in groups of one age and sex.

In other words, rugged males aren't banding together to rough it in the wilds, because Mama and the kids want to go along too. So the "roughing it" is not quite so rough; camping areas near roads and parking lots are the ones most used; even hunting and fishing parties tend to use motels as operation bases, with meals in restaurants instead of by the campfire.

There are most campers of all ages, especially the elderly, and they have — and spend — more money. Better roads take them deep into national forests all over the nation, so if you want to try camping this summer, plain or deluxe, the woods are waiting.

HERE'S A HINT for campers you maybe never heard before: save your old coffee cans because they are just right for outdoor cooking. You can prepare a dinner for one in a pound coffee can — and this might be an idea for a Camp Fire Girl cookout.

Put a ground meat patty in the bottom of the can. Place 3 or 4 carrot strips, 3 tomato slices and about a half cup of cooked (canned) corn on top of the patty. Put the lid on, place on grill over hot coals and cook about 40 minutes. It's better, it says here, if you make the meat patty of half beef and half pork, ground together.

HERE'S ANOTHER recipe, not for campfires, which someone requested while we were swapping rice recipes a short time back. This one is Leta Kaul's.

GLORIFIED RICE

Dissolve a package of lemon Jello in 1 cup boiling water. Add 1 cup pineapple or other fruit juice. When cold, whip to consistency of whipped cream. Fold in 2 cups boiled rice, cooked dry. Add 1 cup whipped cream into which 4 tbs. sugar and a pinch of salt have been mixed. Add 1 cup pineapple chunks and chill.

Vultures are great blackish eagle-like birds with small naked heads, as distinguished from the larger, well-proportioned heads of eagles and hawks.

Card Of Thanks

We are most grateful for the expressions of sympathy in deed and word, by many friends and neighbors at our recent bereavement. The cards, flowers, food and words of sympathy were all deeply appreciated. We also wish to express appreciation for the kindnesses of Dr. Beene and the nurses at the hospital. May God bless you all.

H. C. "Hank" Williams

Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams was appointed Deaf Smith County Judge to fill-out the unexpired term of Don Zimmerman, who resigned that position to work with Cal Farley's Boy's Ranch.

Judge Williams, a successful farmer and businessman has served the county well.

A veteran of World War II and a dedicated father, Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams has devoted the past five years to furthering the sound business practices for this county that was started by his two capable predecessors, and to help curb the spread of juvenile delinquency.

"Hank" Williams Deserves Your Support!

As a taxpayer

As a parent

During the tenure of office of Judge H. C. "Hank" Williams, the Deaf Smith County General Fund has moved into the "black" for the first time in more than twenty years. Judge Williams has fought for efficiency in all the offices of Deaf Smith County, and through his efforts and the cooperation of a fine Commissioners Court, the county has moved forward on all fronts — giving the taxpayers more services for their tax dollars. This makes good sense.

Judge Williams has demonstrated his ability to handle the juvenile problems of this county with a firm hand. Admittedly, the percentage of Deaf Smith County youngsters who stray onto the wrong road is only a "drop in the bucket" to the number of fine, upstanding young citizens that we have, but it's in this group that the work must be done. Judge Williams has a remarkable record in rehabilitation of delinquent youngsters. His council is available day or night, in an effort to help — regardless of race, creed, color or financial standing in this community. Judge Williams deserves the support of EVERY citizen of Deaf Smith County.

We've Got A Capable Leader In Office - Let's keep Him There!

AUSTIN HIGHLIGHTS

Raise In Pay For State Employees May Be Asked

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN — Next year's legislative session may see state employees battling as hard for a pay raise as school teachers. Furthermore, help is assured. Gov. John Connally says that "substantial pay raises for state employees" will be among his "strongest recommendations" to lawmakers.

Indications are that the pay boosts could run as high as $17,500,000 a year.

According to Connally state government is slipping farther and farther behind in its efforts to keep qualified workers — not in the lowest pay levels but in the higher brackets of professional personnel.

Connally says that: More than 7,800 of the 45,000 state employees (not including those at colleges and universities) make less than $3,000 a year, the federal "poverty line." Turnover is running 30 per cent per year.

Lower-bracket hospital aides get as little as $193 a month. There are 313 vacancies in the hospital system, 77 in parks and wildlife operations, 100 in the prison system, 135 in the highway patrol and 148 in the Texas Education Agency.

"IF WE DO NOT reverse the trend," warns Connally, "not only will the stability and efficiency of our operations be threatened, but we will also weaken our entire system of local self government and responsibility."

Salary issue promptly was injected into the governor's race. Stanley Woods, Connally's opponent in the Democratic nomination, chided the governor for not having spoken out on the subject before election time.

Woods' ticketmate, State Rep. Bill Hollowell, running for lieutenant governor, said Connally should submit the raises to an immediate special session of the Legislature rather than waiting eight months until the regular session opens.

GINNERS FIRST ON CONTROL LIST?
Texas' new nine-member State Air Control Board now has held its second meeting since Governor Connally named the group whose purpose it is to protect the public from air pollution. Indications are that Texas' more than 1,300 cotton gins will be the first area subject to air control rules and regulations.

Conclusions after a year-long study of pollutants caused by cotton gins is that smoke emitted from burr burning contains significant quantities of arsenic and tars. These poisons, along with gin dust, have contributed to the 20 to 30 per cent increase in complaints about respiratory diseases suffered by downwind residents during ginning season. Also, there have been adverse effects on trees and vegetation downwind from arsenic and other evidences of pollutants.

Report states that much of the increased pollutants from the gins are caused from an increase in trash — leaves, limbs, immature bolls, and dust — picked up by mechanical harvesters. Recommendations for curing these problems will be in the report of the Board's staff.

WATER QUALITY COSTS GOING UP
Taxpayers, as well as the men who run the sewage treatment plants in growing cities, must get used to the fact that in the future they are going to have to maintain high standards of operation of their plants. Higher quality water means higher cost of treatment.

This came out in the Texas Water Pollution Control Board's meeting when the City of Dallas objected to a doubling of the Board's usual chlorination requirement, arguing it would cost more than it would be worth.

Dave Smallhorst, the Board's executive secretary, said: "The cities, including Dallas, have to recognize the fact that an increase in water quality requirements is going to mean an increase in cost." Smallhorst said chlorination is necessary to protect public health and the Boards first concern is the health of the public.

COURTS SPEAK

A trial court ruling that Rice University must integrate can be appealed by school alumni. Texas Supreme Court held.

Houston Court of Civil Appeals was ordered to consider the appeal. A provision of charitable trust establishing the school specified that it admit only White students. Trial court said the restriction is invalid and the Court of Civil Appeals held that only Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr could appeal.

Court of Criminal Appeals filed a request by Jasper attorney Joe Tonnahill that Jack Ruby be given an early sanity hearing, but took no immediate action.

State Supreme Court's refusal of the appeal of oil operator William Crawford of Dallas means Mrs. Madge Yeatts of Jones County will be entitled to collect $17,064 for damage to her farm caused by oilfield salt water disposal.

AG OPINIONS

Even under the new Criminal Code, habitual violators of Texas' traffic laws will not be able to protect their driver's licenses from being revoked by pleading no contest to charges. So ruled Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr.

In other recent opinions, Carr held that:

Wilbarger County Hospital District may pay for land acquired to establish a community center for mental health and mental retardation services out of a building bond issue or district tax levy.

Tax bonds of Texas junior college districts are not eligible to secure deposits of state funds, but revenue bonds are eligible to extent provided by statutes.

County clerks in misdemeanor cases have authority to issue arrest writs to any peace officer.

Wilbarger County Hospital District bonds are not acceptable as security for state deposits.

No inheritance tax is due the state on a veteran's estate which passed to the U. S. on his death.

Secretary of State has no authority to accept and file applications for certificate of withdrawal from foreign corporations unless they comply with all requirements of Texas Business Corporation Act.

HEARING SET

Railroad Commission has set a hearing for May 27 to investigate purchasing and transportation practices of the Gulf Oil Corporation and Gulf Refining Company in the Pittsburg Field in Camp County.

T. D. Humphrey Jr. and Southern Union Production Company requested the hearing.

In separate action, Sinclair Refining Company asked the Commission a second time for a rule change to permit operators in the East Texas Field to transfer their allowable to another producing well when the casing of a well springs a leak. Independent oil operator Bryan Payne of Tyler opposed the change. Such a proposal was rejected by the Commission last year.

INDIVIDUAL WATER RIGHT TESTED

Considering a case which could effect every rancher, farmer and other landowner in the state — so far as water rights on their own land is concerned — are the three judges who make up the Third Court of Civil Appeals in Austin.

Appeal by P. L. Garrison of Bandera County of a trial court decision favoring the Bexar-Medina-Atascosa water Improvement District No. 1 may revise the process authorized by the Legislature in 1959 under which a landowner could get irrigation rights to more than 300 acre feet of water a year through a relatively simple process of filing for a permit with the Water Rights Commission.

GARRISON got his permit on January 8, 1964. But a few days before that, the Commission had ruled that the 1959 route to a permit for additional water did not apply where navigable waters are concerned.

Attacking the permit because of this rule, the water improvement district won a trial court verdict that the Commission's rule was valid, but Garrison's permit was not. This because the usually dry west prong of the Medina River, covered by the permit, is part of a "navigable stream."

Garrison fought two sides in the arguments before the appellate court, because the Commission's attorney said he would rather the court uphold the rule than the permit, even though both were issued by the Water Rights Commission.

If Garrison loses, Texas landowners will frequently find themselves in need of a surveyor and an attorney when they plan to apply for a water use permit.

State Highway Department accepted bids last week for the most projects in a single letting in eight years — eighty-five projects for a value of around $46,000,000.

CRIMSON TIDE CAN RISE

UNIVERSITY, Ala. (AP) — Alabama's basketball fortunes figure to be on the rise during the next two seasons. Returning lettermen include two sophomores who helped the Crimson Tide attain a 16-10 record during the 1965-66 campaign. Mike Nordholz, a southpaw from Marietta, Ga., led Alabama with the best scoring average, getting 368 points in 20 games for an average of 18.4. Jerry Ludwig from Effingham, Ill., had the best free throw percentage with 37 foul shots made in 44 attempts.

The Tide loses five seniors, however, including Harry Hammonds of Tuscaloosa who led the scorers with 374 points in 26 games.

When Walter Johnson pitched 56 scoreless innings in a row for the 1913 Washington Senators he did it during five starts and three relief efforts.

Bob Gison of the St. Louis Cardinals won all five of his starts against the New York Mets last season.

GREAT BOOKS

In the Deaf Smith County Library you will find a set of volumes called "Great Books of the Western World." The works include writers of antiquity, through the middle ages and the present time. These are classics, under headings of narratives, philosophy, psychology, politics, essays, history and biography.

This set of books is used by teachers and students of the schools, study clubs and the local Great Books Discussion Group, says librarian, Mrs. Newman.

The last named local group, a national organization is open to anyone who enjoys reading and discussing the classics, was organized last fall. Led by Dick Godwin, other members include: Mr. and Mrs. Leo Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McAndrews, Betty Turpen, Mrs. Steve Bavousett, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Morgan, Mrs. Keith Jorde, Mrs. Donald Henslee, Mrs. Wes Fisher and Miss Kathlee Palmer. And others have attended as visitors.

Meetings are held at 8:00 P. M. first and third Mondays in the directors room at the Deaf Smith County Rural Electric favor of the ruling prince Co-op. Everybody is welcome.

At the March 21 meeting they discussed "The Prince," by Niccollo Machiavelli. This is a political book by a man who sought while he was in exile. He hoped to return to power and favor of the ruler in Florence. Although his policy was cruel and cunning, it is beautifully written. In his day, the method which is presented was one of survival of leaders in the late 1400's and early 1500's.

When we first approached this study, we knew only of the expression of "Machiavellian" used to denote evil or cunning, and that he was sometimes called "The Spider of Florence." The session we attended with the group was most enjoyable, interesting and enlightening.

The next meeting, Shakespeare's Macbeth will be discussed. There are only two rules of the game: (1) You must confine your comments to the work being discussed and (2) You must have read the lesson. If you want to attend you may check the volumes from the library to read and study.

Sandwich Meal Prepared And Eaten In Club

Substantial meals in sandwich form were prepared in the meeting of Young Homemakers Home Demonstration Club Tuesday morning in the home of Mrs. Stan Kropff, and recipes for others were given.

Mrs. John Hammett was in charge of the program. She made sandwiches of rye bread with meat and cheese filling, others with fruit filling, and served them with coffee to the members present.

Mrs. Charles Brown conducted business and reported on the recent County H. D. Council meeting. Mrs. Huey Lowrie told of the county workshop on recreation at which she and Mrs. Joe Shollenbarger represented Young Homemakers Club.

Mrs. Shollenbarger is a new member of the club, and Mrs. John Posey was a guest. Also present were Mmes. Jesse Jackson, Lloyd Smith, Lee Roy Burges, Dean Bryant and Tom Crawford.

The next meeting, on May 17, will be for a program on outdoor cookery directed by Mrs. Bryant. The place is yet to be selected.

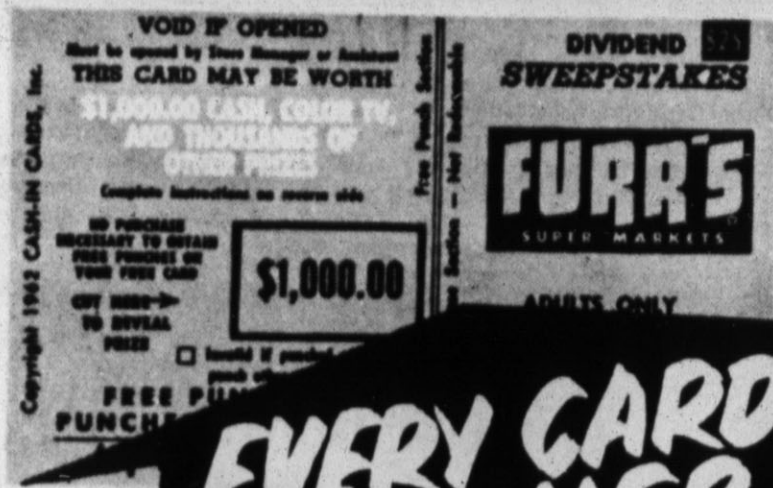

CHURCH ARCHITECTURE CHANGES

NEW YORK — The "shape of worship" is changing for millions of Americans.

Steelways, publication of the American Iron and Steel Institute, says that from 1960 to 1965, $6 billion was spent to build new religious buildings of various sizes and shapes.

In many cases, new materials and new techniques produced churches and synagogues with little resemblance to traditional religious buildings. The magazine added that much of the new construction used new steels and new steel-building techniques.

Second Sunday in May

... in America that means Mother. Every second Sunday in May is Mother's Day, one of the greatest of special days. It is a time when men, women, boys and girls take pains to do her homage, to dedicate to her — with simplicity and love, the simplest of things she wants most. Since it is her day, may the countless details and careful planning be in strict accord with her varied tastes. May we never forget life's uncertainties, disappointments and failures as we make plans to celebrate. May we forget all the foibles of men and remember her love is steadfast, sure. Who else can kiss a hurt and make it well? Who but Mother can control the Prodigal's steps? Then honor her with all you have on this Lord's Day. Lend a constant, kind and friendly hand as you take her to church. It is your Mother's Day.

Spots, Stains Can Mar Silk

By Mrs. Argen Draper

Much interest is being shown in the fabrics programs. A note on silk: When in doubt, dry-clean silk, advises Miss Rhea Merle Boyles, Texas A&M University Extension clothing specialist.

It's wise to check the fabric label and follow directions. If no cleaning care instructions are provided and you are in doubt, have the garment drycleaned; the specialist recommends.

Problems occur with many silks when they are stained or spotted with water soluble substances. Food and perspiration are common examples of this type of stain.

When water and detergent are applied to the stained area, the dye in silk often bleeds. This is particularly noticeable in silk fabrics made with different colored yarns. The dye from the darker yarn will bleed onto the lighter yarn and create a noticeable and permanent stain. Often a professional spotter can successfully remove stains from silk, says the Institute of Drycleaning, but he's no magician. Even if the dyes are fast, it's often hard to remove all traces of the stain.

The best solution is to take the stained garment to a professional drycleaner as soon as possible and tell him what the stain is.

PREFAB SPIRES

GREENSBURG, Pa. — In the past a town might have to wait weeks or even years for a new spire to be erected atop its church.

Today, new engineering techniques and prefabricated metals help hold spire erection time down to just a few hours, says the Overly Manufacturing Company.

The company puts a spire together at its factory, then disassembles it for shipment to the site. There a crew supervises assembly and erection. Even a 56-foot Gothic spire goes up in under three hours.

generous with their time and talents. Is there another town where people give so much to community work?

Research reported in Family Financial Planning shows that one out of four women who have time to spare want very much to spare it in behalf of a worthy cause. It was also found that the average volunteer is likely to have been serving from 10 to 20 years.

CONGRATULATIONS to those persons in Dimmitt who have worked so diligently to get the grain milling plant. Leo Witkowski sent a copy of the Castro County Extra to the office.

A NEW BULLETIN has come to the office. "Toys for Tots — Series One." If you are interested, they are available at the office.

SPRING HOUSE cleaning is old-fashioned, says Mrs. Doris Myers, Texas A&M University Extension home management specialist.

A good home manager will rotate cleaning jobs each week or each month. She thus avoids ever having to do a total cleaning job at any one time.

"This practice will keep the house looking presentable throughout the year. You'll have more free time in the spring to devote to other important family activities," Mrs. Myers adds.

There are a few safety rules for you to remember about household products used in cleaning, however. Be sure to read the labels on all household products, and follow instructions given. Teach other members of your family to do the same.

Do not mix liquid bleach with any other cleaning compound or a different kind of bleach. If liquid bleach is added to an acid-producing material, chlorine gas may be formed. There have been several serious incidents involving use of this mixture, the specialist reminds.

Household ammonia, when mixed with bleach, produces highly irritating fumes. And an explosion may result if ammonia is poured into bleach, cautions Mrs. Myers.

WHEN YOU WANT quick, gourmet meals, bologna is a good meat to buy, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Texas A&M University Extension consumer marketing specialist. In the United States today, bologna's popularity is second only to frank.

Named for the city of Bologna, Italy — where it originated — the spicy sausage has been popular in that country since the Middle Ages. The versatile meat combines nicely with casserole dishes, serves as a main dish item, or adds zest to breakfast menus.

SUGGESTIONS for spring parties:

- PARTY PUNCH
- 1 qt. boiling water
 - 1 1/2 t. black tea
 - 5 whole cloves
 - 1 C. orange juice
 - 1 qt. lime juice
 - 1/2 C. lemon juice
 - 1/2 C. liquid Honey
 - 1 C. cold water
- Pour boiling water over tea and cloves. Cover, let steep for minutes, then strain. Combine tea with other ingredients and pour over cracked ice to chill. Garnish with thin orange slices, red cherries, or mint leaves. Makes 24 1/2 cup servings.
- NOTE: Limes add a distinctive flavor, but if you cannot get them you may substitute an equal amount of lemon juice.
- CHOCOLATE PUNCH
- Prepare ten teaspoons of instant coffee in 1/4 cups of hot water. Add ten teaspoons of sugar and chill. When ready to serve, add three quarts of cold milk, two quarts of chocolate ice cream and two teaspoons almond extract. Garnish with floating scoops of whipped cream. Serves 40.

REP. ROGERS REPORTS

House OKs Work At Ag Station

I'm very pleased that the House of Representatives has supported a long standing objective of mine — that of augmenting research laboratory facilities at the Bushland Agricultural Experiment Station. As it approved agricultural appropriations for the coming fiscal year, the House voted $325,000 to construct the additional laboratory facilities and thereby complete a program begun several years ago to step up soil and water research aimed specifically at solving problems in our High Plains area.

With solid backing from home, I had worked to obtain the initial authorization of $600,000 to provide new facilities at the Bushland station, an action of Congress that was followed by a $250,000 appropriation in 1961 and a $25,000 appropriation last year with which to plan completion of the project.

By late summer, the planning will be completed and the project is expected to go out for bids.

FALSE ECONOMY moves had threatened to curtail progress in agricultural research programs and, with them, any augmentation of the work at Bushland. However, I am glad to say that the action of the House will, with the Senate's agreement, insure that research can be continued at a proper rate into such areas as soil and water problems (at the Bushland station), grain marketing, cereal rust, sedimentation, range livestock (at Miles City, Montana), meat animal research (at Clay Center, Nebraska), nutrition and consumer use research, pasture research, and barley research.

Experience shows the need for continuing research. The House, by its action, supported the conviction that it would be a serious mistake to risk reducing the ability of our agricultural system to assure an adequate supply of food and fiber to a constantly increasing number of consumers in the United States and abroad.

AGRICULTURAL scientists make the point that our research efforts must be at least five years ahead of the constant threat from existing pests and their hybridized descendants. For example, a new race of wheat rust known as 15B, appeared suddenly in this country and wiped out 300 million bushels of wheat and durum worth $500 million in the period 1950 to 1955.

Previous research on a new variety of wheat called "Selkirk" provided a stopgap crop to partially offset these disastrous losses until research could develop newer and better varieties with resistance to 15B which would eventually adapt and attack "Selkirk."

At the Bushland Station, one of the research objectives is to investigate improvements in soil conservation practices with special application to the soils in our part of the country. Emphasis is being placed at Bushland on moisture conservation practices to utilize as much rainfall as possible for agricultural benefit, and this work includes ways and means of better utilizing the water in the relatively shallow "playa" lakes.

Management of irrigation water is one of the fields of research at Bushland, as is the reduction of surface evaporation. The work at Bushland is closely tied to the agriculture of our area, and the funds approved for expenditure by the House would greatly help in the work by making possible improved and expanded facilities.

One of the interesting research projects now being advanced involves space technology and a cooperative agreement between the Department of Agriculture and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA). Cameras and sensing devices on satellites are to be employed to identify proper soil, water, and chemical conditions to assist underdeveloped countries step up lagging food production and develop natural resources.

To the Junior Class of Hereford High School on behalf of the graduating Seniors, thank you for a very wonderful banquet. The banquet by all means surpassed any previously and will be something that all of us will remember.

John Perrin and Barbara Zinser seemed surprised to find themselves named Outstanding Senior Boys and Girl but not many are any worthier of the honor.

A PLEASANT surprise was in store for those attending the banquet. A farmer vivacious member of H.H.S. was part of the group providing the entertainment. Mandi Moore sings with the group known as "Peter, Paul, and Mary... of Portales." It was good to see Mandi again and visit with her.

Talent seems to abound among the students of H.H.S. Earning quite a name for themselves are the popular "Three Wishes," composed of Nancy Smith, Sylvia Phipps, and Joellen Hamilton. Then there are the "Windjamers" who have just recently organized but are already building a reputation. This folk group is made up of Shelly Rush, Charlet Hill, Kandis Hill, Margaret Adams, Jean Roberson, Gwen Cargo, and Pam Winget.

HOPES TO RETURN
HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — Bill Stafford hopes to return to the New York Yankees before the season is half over. When the Yankees obtained waivers on the veteran, who is only 27, he was somewhat bitter and said:

"I can pitch better than some on the guys they are keeping on the staff. I'll be back." It is believed Stafford went out because the Yankees failed to get waivers on erratic Jim Bouton.

Auditions Set Saturday For Palo Duro Play

Auditions for "TEXAS" have been scheduled for Saturday, May 7, in the Fine Arts Building on the campus of West Texas State University, with registration from 10 to 12 AM. The additional audition date has been necessitated by the tremendous response of area talent. Last Saturday, applications were received from 95 students representing 27 communities and 11 colleges or universities. On the two previous audition dates, 71 students were interviewed. There are also 35 taped interviews from other universities to be heard.

Canyon and Amarillo auditionees were encouraged to return on May 7th so that those from more distant communities could be heard and would not have to return again; some of these ranged from Perryton to Waco, from Portales, New Mexico to Stillwater, Oklahoma.

THE TEXAS Panhandle Heritage Foundation, the producers, are anxious that the very best talent available be chosen for the first production of "TEXAS," and encourage all who are interested to make an application for audition. There are a number of mature roles to be filled and experienced dancers are needed.

"TEXAS," an outdoor musical drama, written by Paul Green, is a dramatization of Texas life in the era of the 1880's. The production opens July 1st, and plays through September 5, nightly except Tuesdays. It will be produced in the spectacular new Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon State Park, 12 miles from Canyon, Texas, in the Texas Panhandle on highway 217. This theatre had its first season last summer and played to 36,000 people.

There will be 45 people of university age and older chosen for the cast. Salaries range from $25 to $125 per week. All are required to double in chorus, minor speaking parts, and/or as technical assistants. Rehearsals will begin June 1.

Performances have been arranged to allow time for university courses and limited part-time employment. For the auditions, actors should deliver from a monologue or excerpt from a dramatic scene not to exceed three minutes. Singers should perform in English, musical comedy numbers preferred, and must supply music for accompanist. Applicants should bring wallet size photo.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Even though his riding gear was misplaced enroute from Florida's Gulfstream Park to Oak-Lawn Park the trip was worth it to veteran jockey Johnny Sellers.

Sellers guided J. Grant Scott's Better Sea to a four-length victory in the Arkansas Derby. The 3-year-old gelding earned $35,640 with Sellers earning 10 percent. Sellers first flew to Tulsa, where he owns a ranch, picked up his father and flew here in a chartered plane.
