

County Commission Discusses 'A Start' For Local Museum

County commissioners breezed through a light agenda Monday and then stopped to ponder the need for "making a start" towards the materialization of the often-discussed desire to establish a county museum.

Commissioner Donald Hicks began by saying that he felt that the county should take a definite step towards seeing the museum established by designating a county-owned vacant building (the former Catholic School across the street from the courthouse) to be used to house items donated to the proposed museum.

He and other commissioners commented that many items would probably be donated towards the museum if a place were provided to store articles and a museum building could be obtained.

PEOPLE have talked about this thing for quite some time and I think that five years from now nothing will have been done unless the county takes the initiative and does something to get it started," Hicks said.

The committee chairman, Mrs. Elmer Patterson, told the Board last week that the subject of the proposed museum would probably be discussed in detail by the committee soon.

However, no definite plans concerning the proposed museum have been formulated yet. Commissioner Marcus Latham in concurring with Hicks' proposal commented, "I think that if people knew we had a place for storing articles set up, they would be more willing to help get this going and we would end up with a museum to be proud of."

"SOMEBODY has to spearhead the thing," Hicks said in suggesting that the county commission officially designate the former school as an initial home for a county museum.

Commissioners took no action on the proposal, but agreed to visit with persons interested in the establishment of a museum here concerning the matter.

In other business, the commission accepted the low bid of Gulf Oil Corp. to supply gasoline, diesel, and oil to the county for the coming year.

Of the six bids received, Gulf's bid of 11.89 cents per gallon for regular, 14.39 cents for ethyl, and 10.90 for diesel was the over all low bid and was accepted.

Commissioners also took a look at the monthly financial report, which showed continued improved status over postings a year ago.

BALANCE in the general fund as of Jan. 31 was $52,433, as compared to the 1965 Jan. 31 balance of $15,000.

HHS Studies Additional Vocational Classes

New Program Offers Training In Many Skills

A new field of education may be commenced at Hereford High School next fall if student demand is sufficient for courses in several areas of vocational training.

This was the announcement this week as school officials began sampling student demand for courses in such fields as cosmetology, auto mechanics, building construction trades, and a vast area of training offered in a program known as Industrial Cooperative Training (ICT).

The courses, if adopted, would offer specialized vocational training, especially aimed at students not planning college education.

The proposed program would open a new era of education in Hereford schools, although such courses have been offered for many years in schools elsewhere throughout the state.

THE PLAN was explained to students Monday and a tentative sign-up for the courses was commenced to determine how many students would enroll in the courses, should they be offered.

Plans for the courses are being made as a result of last fall's vocational survey of all Hereford area businesses to determine needs for workers in all fields.

GOAL OF the proposed new course offerings is to give students specialized training in vocations and better equip them to find employment following graduation from high school.

Voter Register Period Begins

A special two-week voter registration period will begin today in the county tax assessor-collector's office at the courthouse.

Persons who obtained poll tax receipts or exemption certificates before Jan. 31 will remain qualified to vote this year without registering during the 15-day period, which starts today and continues through March 17.

OTHERS who could have qualified by paying their poll taxes but failed to do so now can secure the right to vote this year by registering free of charge, according to Neil Miller, county tax assessor.

The new registration plan was approved by the Texas legislature last week in a special session forced by a federal court ruling that the poll tax was unconstitutional as a prerequisite for voting.

VOTING qualifications remain substantially unchanged from old rules, Mrs. Miller pointed out. The exemption certificates will be issued to persons turning 21 years of age during the year as usual, she added.

The exemption certificate must be obtained 30 days prior to any election.

A total of 3,267 persons have already qualified to vote in Deaf Smith County by paying poll taxes.

Dignitaries Cut Ribbon In Ceremony

An estimated 2,000 persons visited Sugarland Mall Shopping Center following a ribbon-cutting ceremony Wednesday marking the opening of the north Hereford complex.

While the wind whipped up dust on the outside, crowds flocked to the up-to-date climate controlled facility in windless comfort and took their first look at four stores opening for the first time Wednesday in addition to three others opened previously.

A host of dignitaries were on hand for the ribbon cutting ceremony which began the day.

Hereford Mayor Ray Cowser cut the ribbon in front of the J. C. Penney Co. mall entrance as chamber of commerce, other city officials, representatives of Sugarland Mall, Inc., and a host of area residents looked on.

Among those on hand were Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce officials.

STATE OFFICIALS HERE

Camp Aid Eyed At Meetings

Three representatives of the Texas Office of Economic Opportunity met with the local committee for investigating possibilities of improving the Hereford Labor Camp here Wednesday.

Laying initial plans towards a community-wide committee to plan improvements at the camp, the officials outlined their findings concerning avenues for improvements available through public sources.

MEETING with the local committee Wednesday were Al Ramirez, Austin, director of the migrant division of the Texas OEO; Tony Guzman, director of the Community Action Program in Corpus Christi; and Fred Deyo, a retired colonel of the Army engineers corps, director of the San Antonio self-help program arranged by the OEO.

These officials met with a five-man local group comprised of Virgil Dodson, representing the Hereford Migrant Ministry; Ed Dziuk, representing Hereford Housing, Inc.; Father Raymond and Father Eunan, representing St. Joseph's Mission; and John Douglas Pitman, representing the county commission.

"THEY WERE here to find out some more of the things that might be needed for setting up an overall program to improve the Labor Camp," said Dodson, chairman of the local committee.

Ramirez and Texas OEO director Walter Richter were here recently to discuss with the same local committee the possibilities for setting up an improvement program at the camp.

Guzman will meet again today with the committee to continue discussions.

AT THE close of Wednesday's meeting, Dodson said that Deyo presented some very good ideas outlining the possibility of setting up a self-help program at the camp.

Dodson said that a community action program may be established here to direct planning of improvements at the camp, with initial goal towards draining a lake which this summer flooded several homes at the camp.

ON THREE CHARGES

New Mexico Man Arrested On Drug, Other Charges

A Clovis, N. M., man was being held in Deaf Smith County Jail Wednesday in lieu of bonds totaling $10,000 in connection with three misdemeanor charges filed following his arrest at a local cafe Saturday.

CHARGED with illegal possession of barbituates, carrying a prohibited weapon, and illegal possession of liquor in a dry county was Billy Joseph Cochran.

Cochran was out on bond in connection with a first degree murder charge in Curry County, N. M., at the time of his arrest.

The 38-year-old Cochran was arrested Saturday by a deputy sheriff summoned to a local cafe when the owner complained of the man's abnormal behavior.

The arresting sheriff's deputy told the Brand that Cochran was out on a $15,000 bond in Clovis at the time of his arrest here. The Clovis bond was in connection with a first degree murder charge facing Cochran concerning a Dec. 16 shooting in Clovis.

IN THE THREE misdemeanor charges filed in County Judge H. C. Williams' court, bond was set at $6,000 in connection with several capsules of barbituates found in Cochran's possession at the time of arrest.

An additional $2,000 bond was set on a charge of carrying a prohibited weapon. The arresting officer said Cochran possessed a .38 caliber revolver when arrested.

Two cases of hard liquor were also found and resulted in the $2,000 bond for a charge of illegal possession of liquor in a dry area.

In addition, five decks of marked cards and 10 sets of dice were found in Cochran's possession.

Cochran listed his home address as 1305 Ross in Clovis.

Government Figures Show Local Business Totals At New High

(Special To The Brand)

Figures just released by the Government show that the number of businesses in operation in Deaf Smith County is at a high level.

There are more of them flourishing in the local area, in proportion to population, than in many parts of the country.

THE SURVEY, which was conducted by the Census Bureau, in cooperation with the Social Security Administration, also provides data on the number of people employed and the size of the payrolls in every section of the United States.

The report was compiled from tax reports submitted by employers last year, under the social security program. It was based on figures covering the prior year's operations.

LISTED in Deaf Smith County are a total of 350 active business establishments.

Of this number, 195 have 3 employees or less, 81 have from 4 to 7 employees and 53 from 8 to 19. The remainder are bigger. Some 94 percent of the total are small businesses, with fewer than 20 employees each.

THE RATIO is high. Elsewhere in the United States there are 90 percent in this category. The ratio in the West South Central States is 91 percent.

The proportion of establishments in this group indicates the extent to which moderate-size enterprises are supported locally.

At the same time, there is no dearth of larger-size firms in the county.

THE REPORT shows that Deaf Smith County's business concerns provide gainful employment for 2,711 people in "covered" jobs. By covered is meant employment that falls within the scope of the social security program.

Not included in the tabulation are domestic workers, members of the armed forces, farm workers, civilians employed by the Federal, state and local govern-

MRS. A. E. HODGES

Home Demonstration Club Woman Of The Year Named

Mrs. A. E. Hodges was named Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Club Woman of the Year in balloting at the annual appreciation luncheon Monday in the Bull Barn. Runner-up, only one vote behind, was Mrs. E. C. Hammett.

Mrs. Hodges, of North Hereford Club, is now Director of District 1, Texas Home Demonstration Association, the youngest woman ever to hold that office. She is a candidate for the treasurer's post in THDA this year.

AT THE THDA convention she will be chairman for district directors' reports. Mrs. Hodges has been an H. D. Club member since 1952 and has served in all offices of her club and the County H. D. Council.

stration Clubs in Deaf Smith County, from a beginning in 1915 when the first H. D. Agent was employed to serve this county, Castro and Farmer Counties.

Seven stores, in addition to those open Wednesday, are currently under construction in the 160,000 square foot mall.

These will be open about May 1 a spokesman said.

THE FOURTEEN stores which already have signed leases in the mall will occupy some 85 percent of the shopping center.

Negotiations are currently underway for stores for several types to occupy the remaining portion of the center. Carnes

PEEKING UNDER BANGS

BEIRUT (AP) — Lebanese schoolgirls are wearing such fancy hairdos that cheating is spreading in the classrooms, one college mistress complains.

The director of Beirut's French Protestant College declared that the girl's heads are so shrouded in drooping hair that teachers can no longer see their students' eyes and the girls are copying each other's work at their desks.

Beirut girl students are singularly fashion conscious, and many a schoolgirl spends her lunch hour — and her allowance — at the neighborhood beauty parlor.

Hairdos at the Protestant College, one of the city's biggest girls' schools, will be simpler from now on, however. The schoolmistress paid a call on the head of the Coiffures Syndicate and made him order all beauty parlors to refuse to give low-hanging cuts to any of her students.

Manager of the local Duckwall's store is Hal Linguist, who has been with the chain for 12 years and managed stores in Amarillo and Topeka, Kan.

Assistant manager is Alan Hammer, formerly of Albuquerque.

The store will be open from 9 a. m. until 8:30 p. m. nightly through Saturday during the opening celebration.

Beginning Monday, store hours will be from 9 a. m. until 6 ments and self-employed persons.

Wages and salaries have also been climbing, bringing payrolls to a new high. The local payroll subject to social security taxes has reached $11,384,000 a year, according to the current report.

New businesses are springing into existence at a substantial rate, although not as frequently as in former years.

The hazards are greater. The amount of money needed to go into business is much larger these days, while the chances of immediate success continue to be slim.

Provisions Of 'Medicare' Topic Of Area Meetings

Recent changes in the Social Security Law make it possible for those who are still working and earning too much to permit payment of retirement benefits to participate in Medicare.

Also, persons who are now age 65 and have never worked under Social Security will be eligible to participate in the Medicare program.

Those and other provisions will be discussed in a series of public meetings about Medicare, sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Agent and Home Demonstration Agent in cooperation with the Amarillo Social Security Office.

MEETINGS are being held in order to give these persons an explanation of Medicare and an opportunity to ask questions.

Physically handicapped persons who are unable to attend these meetings may drop a card to the Amarillo Social Security District Office and arrangements will be made for a representative to call at this person's home.

The address is, Social Security Administration, 1006 Adams St., Amarillo, Tex.

Wheat...

FARMERS need to be alerted to the dangers which lie ahead if feed grain supplies are sharply up from this year's crop the secretary cautioned. "The success of the feed grain program thus far has contributed to conditions which now could threaten to reduce the effectiveness of the program. Reduced supplies and strong grain and livestock prices may tend to cause some producers to look away from participation in the program."

"We still have a surplus of feed grains. Carryover stocks are not expected to be any lower when harvest begins next fall than they were a year ago. We need a good sign-up in the 1966 feed grain program to get feed grain stocks out of the surplus category for the first time in nearly 15 years."

The secretary pointed out, however, that the situation in wheat is different. Carryover stocks are down as a result of past programs, and will fall again this year. Our carryover will be near what we consider to be an adequate reserve level. For this reason, the option to divert additional voluntary wheat acreage under the 1966 wheat program has been withdrawn.

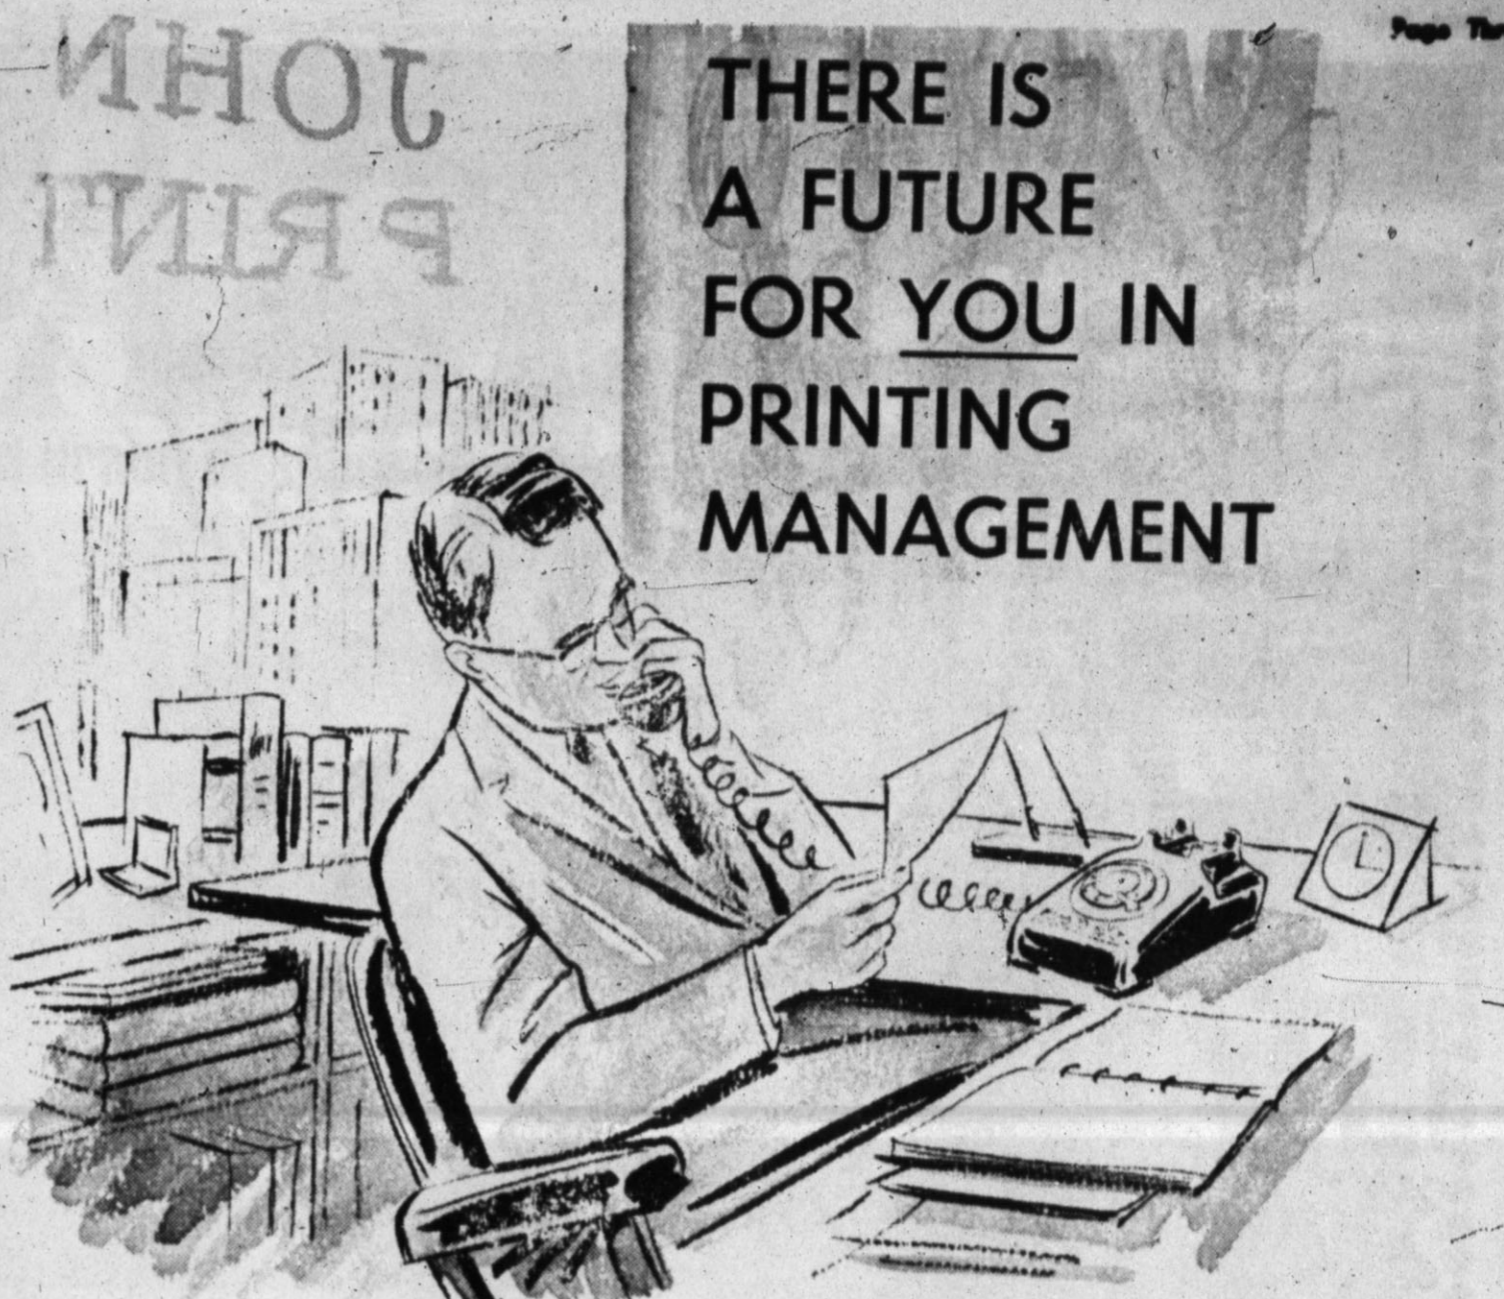

THIS provision will still be available for winter wheat acreage, since some producers have planted crops with this provision in mind. However, winter wheat producers are encouraged wherever possible not to reduce their acreage below the farm allotment during the present sign-up period.

Frank Bezner, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, reminds farmers that the sign-up for the 1966 cotton, feed grain and wheat programs now is under way at the ASCS County Office. It will continue through April 1, 1966.

NOSTALGIA JUNCTION

"THIS IS THE first time I have ever won anything in my life," said Mrs. Yates. The automobile is valued at approximately $2,000 by the store officials.

The Hereford Brand, Hereford, Texas, Thursday, Mar. 3, 1966 houses a growing railroad museum. Echols' father, two uncles and grandfather had been railroaders, and he himself worked for a railroad during high school days. A collection that started out as a few mementos became so large that a special place was needed for display. They found just the right place — a 17 by 20-foot depot that had been abandoned after 40 years' use as a station in Maricopa, Ariz. A house-moving firm transported it to the Echols' back yard. In the depot's bay window is an authentic telegraph desk, complete with half a dozen chattering dot-dash instruments. There are more than 50 kerosene lanterns hanging from the ceiling. Markers, emblems and hundreds of other items from 200 American railroads are displayed. Outside are two steel-wheeled baggage wagons and a section crew's hand car, as well as a railroad crossing sign that came from an abandoned track in New Mexico.

Although the program basically is aimed at students not planning higher education, other students might also enroll in the courses.

LISTED for tentative registration are courses in cosmetology, auto mechanics, building construction trades, and ICT.

The first three would provide extensive classroom training in the respective vocations.

THE LATTER, ICT, would offer classroom training plus on-the-job training in any of 2,000 state-approved job categories, ranging from printer to draftsman to dental assistant.

The occupational survey revealed that there was a definite local opportunity for workers trained in these vocations.

Unlike existing vocational courses at Hereford High (distributive education, vocational agriculture, and homemaking) the new courses would offer specialized training in a chosen vocation, rather than general knowledge of a number of trades or skills.

State aid of up to 50 percent could be utilized to finance setting up programs, if approved.

TEACHERS in the vocational classes would meet requirements differing greatly from those in other classrooms.

For instance, should the auto mechanics course be approved, a teacher would be sought who has had at least five years of recent work in an auto service shop, plus post high school training.

Not only would teachers instruct from outlined courses, but they would also be able to provide knowledge from their personal experience.

Secondary coordinator Bill Phillips said that course offerings in other similar vocations are also being considered at the present time.

Whether or not the above-mentioned courses will be established at Hereford High depends upon both the student demand and the means available for setting up the classes.

FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Hedrick Dodge Celebrates Formal Grand Opening Here

Hedrick Dodge celebrates its formal grand opening here Friday and Saturday at Second and Sampson, "home of the Dodge rebellion" in Hereford.

The auto sales and service agency will be open from 8 a. m. until ?? during the two-day grand opening celebration.

OWNED by Wayne and Glenn Hedrick, the firm will handle Dodge's full line of autos, pickups, and trucks.

Glenn Hedrick manages the agency here while his brother, Wayne, operates Hedrick Motor Co. in Amarillo, where the two have been in the auto business for the past 12 years.

All series of Dodge products will be on display during the opening, Glenn said.

Free refreshments will be served.

ON HAND for the opening will also be representatives of Chrysler Corporation from Dallas, Atlanta, and Lubbock.

Hedrick said that a truck specialist will be on hand to confer with Hereford area residents concerning truck problems and needs.

Highlighting displays will be "the leader of the Dodge rebellion," the Dodge Charger — newest entry in the fastback auto field.

Hedrick Dodge's full service department also opened this week to handle all types of auto parts and service.

D. E. Members Leave For State Meet

Widely Known Teacher, Author On Program

James T. Anderson, art and music specialist, Artesia, New Mexico, will speak at the Northwest Texas Conference on Education, March 11, at Amarillo, Texas.

Anderson's topic will be "Space Concepts Through Aesthetics." The meeting will be at the James Bowie Junior High School at 1:30 p. m. Anderson has taught summer workshops on the graduate level at Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Oklahoma, and in public school systems in Oklahoma and New Mexico.

NATIONAL publicity was recently given to his book, "Space Concepts Through Aesthetics" by several leading educational magazines. Aesthetics (the aesthetics of geometry) is perhaps the most valuable and most popular teaching media for learning space geometrics.

THE IDEA of teaching scientific concepts through artistic impulse started in the Abo Underground Elementary School in Artesia, where Anderson is an instructor.

'Go Woah' Activities Set Sunday

Members of the Hereford Racing Association were forced to postpone their "Go Woah" activities last Sunday due to bad weather.

ACTIVITIES HAVE been rescheduled for Sunday, weather permitting, and rules will be the same as before.

The contest will be held on a country road one mile south of Hereford on Hwy. 385 and a quarter mile west.

"Go Woah" is a test of driving skill in which drivers compete against elapsed time on a 100-yard course.

Object of the event is to travel the 100 yards in the fastest time, but he must not spin his tires when taking off or skid when coming to a stop, with the front tire resting on a mark 100 yards from the starting point.

EACH DRIVER will be given three tries and may drive any licensed vehicle. Trophies will be presented to winners.

Admission for spectators will be 50 cents and an extra 50 cents will be charged for those who wish to compete in the contest.

Proceeds will go to the Hereford Racing Association for construction of an oval dirt race track.

By MELVIN YOUNG

One used to be the important number. Now everything is two. People need a second car; a second TV set; a second bathroom; and a second mortgage to pay for it all.

And now, according to Senator John Tower (R-Texas), one of the most pressing problems facing Congress in this year of 1966 is what to do about the inflation that is cheapening the buying power of the American dollar.

Figuring on the basis of a 100 cent dollar in 1955, our dollar now will only buy 85 cents worth of goods - and it's getting worse by the day.

Our food dollar has lost 15 cents. Our rent dollar has lost 13 cents. Our clothing dollar has lost 7 cents.

Our medical-care dollar has lost 27 cents. Our transportation dollar has lost 28 cents.

Our home-building dollar has lost 20 cents. Our college-cost dollar has lost 24 cents.

Our car-repair dollar has lost 20 cents. Our car-insurance dollar has lost 26 cents.

Actually, the ones who suffer the most during an era of galloping inflation is the elderly - the person trying to live on a pension which was hardly adequate in the beginning, much less now.

But everyone is touched by inflation. Bigger salaries are dandy - but that also means a bigger tax bite, and in the end, our take home pay is not what it should be.

Which reminds us of the story of a businessman who was asked if he could live within his income.

"Heavens no," he replied. "I can hardly live within my credit!"

Husbands - if you feel that your wife is not being attentive enough towards you, the solution is elementary. Just appear to have nothing to do this next weekend.

You know, it's time to plant roses, rake the yard and all that jazz. After all, Spring is almost here.

We were happy to see an excellent crowd Wednesday morning at the opening of Sugarland Mall Shopping Center.

The show is one of three scheduled for summer run at the Goodspeed Opera House in East Haddam, Conn., where the current Broadway success "Man of La Mancha" was first tried.

Wards Catalogue Store Features More Inventory

Montgomery Ward Catalogue Store is now open in its new location in Sugarland Mall Shopping Center after closing the former downtown location.

WITH TWICE the inventory as in the former location, the new store also features an enlarged service department, according to Lonnie Isch, local Wards manager.

The store will be open from 9 a. m. until 8:30 a. m. on Mondays and Saturdays and 9 until 6 p. m. Tuesdays through Fridays.

Isch said the store has increased its inventory of appliances, radios, televisions, tires, and batteries in comparison to the old store.

This is in addition to the catalogue ordering service for customers of the nationwide department store chain, and mail order house.

Wards had been located in the downtown Hereford location since 1955 prior to Monday's opening in Sugarland Mall.

Litter Control Is Progressive Club's Topic

Control of Litter was discussed as a national problem and a personal responsibility, as Mr. Taft McGee spoke to Progressive Home Demonstration Club members Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was in Mrs. Dale Hallows' home.

Suggestions for keeping litter at a minimum on highways and in public places were made by all members at roll call.

Mrs. Hallows presided for business, including a report from the recent County H. D. Council session by Mrs. H. L. Hershey, who also directed recreation.

Mrs. Charles Gresham was welcomed as a new member. Others present were Mrs. E. C. Hammett, Mrs. Dean Stallings, Mrs. Tom Morgan and Mrs. Taft McGee, in whose home the next club meeting will be held March 15.

JUDICIOUS REPLY
LEBANON, Ky. (AP) — Judge Joe Jarboe, noted for his dry sense of humor, was riding a bus with a tourist who insisted upon belittling everything he saw in Kentucky.

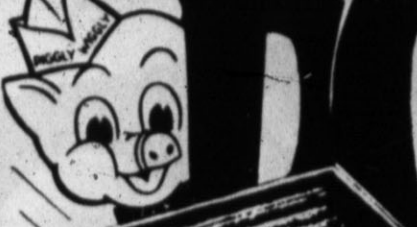

Kentuckians, the man said, are slow; never get anything done. About that time, the bus passed the 351-foot-high Jefferson Davis monument at Fairview. "What's that?" the man asked.

"Beats me," replied the judge. "I was through here the other day, and it wasn't built then."

Coach Joe Brooks said that Ricky Fangman hurled the discus 140 feet and Charles Inman marked up a 4:56 on the mile run.

He added that Billy Frank ran good on the quarter-mile at the meet.

"The team learned a lot at the meet," he said, "and I think they will profit a great deal from it."

GARY GOODIN who suffered a sprain earlier in the season is recovering well and is back on the hurdles and is doing a good job, according to Brooks.

Bill Coffin is improving daily on the shot putt and Roger Suttie is doing a good job on the pole vault.

Jim Childers is also looking good on the track and will be in good shape for the Saturday meet.

Hodges To Miss First Of Season After Surgery

Hereford High School all-around sportsman Steve Hodges will undergo surgery today when doctors will remove some bone chips from his right elbow.

HODGES RECEIVED the injury during the past basketball season.

The surgery will keep him out of action on the Whiteface baseball team for at least six weeks.

Hodges has played on the Whiteface football team as quarterback and on the local basketball team and will be on the baseball squad when the injury is healed.

HE WAS named all-district quarterback on the first team and all-district safety on the second team. He was recently named to the all-district basketball list.

BI-DISTRICT CHAMPS — The Vega Longhorns took the bi-district girls basketball crown Tuesday evening in Whiteface Gym when they downed the Nazareth Swifts, 46-43. Pony League Sets Meeting, Seeks Older Bracket

A meeting of all parents and others interested in the Hereford Pony League baseball program has been scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Community Center.

Abe Davis, president of the Hereford Little League, said that anyone interested in coaching or umpiring the baseball program for boys aged 13-15 is also urged to attend.

PARENTS of boys in this age group received a special invitation.

Highlighting the meeting will be election of officers for the Pony League organization.

Another portion of the program will be a discussion of the possibility of establishing a baseball program for 16-year-old boys, Davis said.

He explained that boys who pass the age of 15 can enter the high school baseball program, but that too many of the boys cannot continue baseball due to the fact that there are six Pony League teams and just one high school team, which is limited in size.

"I THINK we should work to establish a summer baseball program for 16-year-olds," Davis commented.

He said that many plans for the coming Pony League season will be discussed at Tuesday's meeting.

"We have virtual assurance that if Hereford Pony League conducts a good program this summer the area tournament will be held here at the close of the season," Davis pointed out.

On another subject, he stated, "The Hereford Pony League would like to express its appreciation to the Deaf Smith County United Fund for its wonderful help to Pony League."

"Without the United Fund aid, a Pony League program would be most difficult if not impossible to finance."

The last few days have been miserable for the track and baseball players who are trying to get in some last minute practice before the big moment.

WHITEFACE THINCLADS will travel to Brownfield this weekend for their second meet of the season and the baseball players will begin their season Tuesday when they clash with the Pala Duro Dons here in Hereford.

The weather has been typical March-windy weather and will probably continue through the spring.

It has been said that the typical West Texan swallows a quarter of a bushel of dirt in one year, besides what he inhales, and the Californians complain about smog.

Maybe mother nature will be good to us for at least part of the home baseball games and the only high school track meet scheduled in Hereford.

CONGRATULATIONS go to Steve Hodges after he was named to the all-district basketball list last weekend.

This was good news came along with some bad news about Steve. He will enter the hospital today for minor surgery on his right elbow to remove some bone chips.

Steve incurred the injury during the basketball season.

We wondered how one person could take so many spills and not come up with at least one injury.

ONE OF HIS team mates on the baseball team told us that the injury was causing him quite a bit of pain.

But it looks as if Steve will be recuperated and in good shape after about six weeks.

It would be really bad if any permanent injury resulted in that talented arm which passed the Whiteface football team to one of its most successful seasons in nearly a decade.

It looks as if the Hereford Gun Club is sponsoring some real marksmen this season with Jim Wimberley hitting some 98 of a possible 100 targets in Sunday's first registered shot.

Although the weather was cold and blustery Sunday the men in the club went ahead with the planned shoot and many of them did very well in the competition. Hereford members will travel to Amarillo Sunday to enter a registered shoot over there.

OF COURSE TARGET practice will be held for those members and non-members who will not be participating in the meet over there.

It looks as if the 1-AAA district was not as strong in basketball as it was chalked up to be after the Canyon Eagles were downed in their first game out by the Andrews quint.

Andrews went on to win the regional title in Lubbock last weekend and will represent this weekend in the state meet this weekend at Austin.

Coach Cuby Kitchens traveled to Austin Wednesday to attend the meet.

LEVELLAND WON the district 2-AAA but was also defeated in their first game out.

Hereford downed the Levelland Lobos on three different occasions during the season this year.

Hereford tracksters ran up against some real tough competition Saturday when they entered the Fort Stockton track meet.

Ricky Fangman hurled the discus some 140 feet and failed to even place.

According to coach Joe Brooks head track coach this is good for a high school thinclad.

CHARLIE INMAN also ran the mile in 4:56 which is also good and again failed to place.

Brooks said he felt the team learned a lot from the meet and will profit from it Saturday at Brownfield.

TOP RIDERS GO WEST

ARCADIA, Calif. (U) — The Santa Anita thoroughbred meeting has some of the nation's top jockeys on hand. They include Willie Shoemaker, Bill Mahorney, Bobby Ussery, Wiater Blum, Manny Ucaza and Johnny Longden.

Three days before Santa Anita opened, Ussery scored with Turn to Reason in the Christmas Handicap at Tropical Park, Coral Gables, Fla. At the Santa Anita opening Ussery won with Understanding, an 18 to 1 shot.

GOLFERS START DISTRICT PLAY — Hereford Whiteface golfers will begin district play Saturday when they travel to Muleshoe. The tournament will be 18 holes of play. Five players will be entered from Hereford and the top four scores will count toward the total. Varsity players are Jimmy Young, Roger Owen, Andy Channer, Steve Hendon and Mike Horton. District Squad Includes Hodges

Steve Hodges, Hereford's all-around sportsman, was named to the first team all-district basketball last weekend by area officials.

THIS IS THE SECOND time that the senior has been named to all-district teams. He was named to the first team all-district football as quarterback and to the second team football as safety.

Hodges was the second high scorer for the Whitefaces with 263 points in 23 games for a 11.04 point per game average.

He led the team in scoring during the district play with his best game being against Dumas when he scored 30 points.

The Whiteface senior scored in double figures in 14 games in the season and was high point man in five of those games.

HE WAS ALSO the leading rebounder in all games with 136 rebounds in 17 games with an average of eight rebounds per game.

Hodges did not see much action in the first few games since he was fresh off the football game, but as the season progressed he was placed on the first team.

In statistics taken from most of the games Hodges hit 38 per cent from the floor and 71 per cent from the charity line.

In the Dumas game Hodges hit 15 of 16 free throws in the event not missing one until the final period.

HODGES WAS referred to as a "real hustler" by coach Cuby Kitchens.

His best ability was getting in under the basket and grabbing rebounds from some of Hereford's tallest opponents.

Most of Hodges' shooting was from right under the basket. Hodges was presented the Fighting Whiteface award by the Hereford High School cheerleaders at the Football Banquet for his ability as quarterback on the grid squad.

Following the basketball season Hodges went out for baseball and will be playing on that squad after a short recuperation rest following surgery on his right elbow.

Little League Officials To Meet Monday

Little League officers, managers and umpires will meet Monday evening at 7:30 p. m. in the Pioneer Natural Gas building for an organizational meeting.

DURING THE meeting the officers will begin lining up managers for the coming season which begins with tryouts Apr. 21.

All managers will have to be selected by Apr. 20, according to Floy Driver, vice president of the local organization.

Driver said that the officials are expecting some 400 boys to try out for the event and 320 will be selected for the eight major league and eight minor league teams this year.

He also said that four new sets of uniforms have been ordered this year to go with the four new sets ordered last year.

ANOTHER MEETING for umpires has been set for Apr. 4 at the Community Center with the head umpire of the district from Dumas as the speaker.

Officers for this year are McQueary, president; Floy Driver, vice president; Raymond White, secretary-treasurer; Clinton Massie, player agent, and Dale Scott, purchasing agent.

TIGHT WHITE COLLAR IS TOO HOT NITEROI, Brazil — There's a great undressing movement underway in this state capital across Guanabara Bay from Rio de Janeiro.

Suffering state employees facing the long, hot summer are collecting signatures for a petition to the state governor asking him to dispense with the traditional coat and necktie for the summer months. Instead they want to wear open-necked sports shirts to work.

Scott Wins Local Keg Tournament

Erwin Scott of Hereford won the top place in the Junior Bowling Association Tournament finals. Prize for this win was a $25 bond.

Fred Lookingbill of the A&C Foundation team, Elvis Davis of Consumers Fuel, Wendell Burdine of Boyd's Machine Shop, and George Heard of Lee Tire & Supply all won 10 free games at Sunset Lanes.

Secretaries from such areas as Dimmitt, Friona, and Vega, as well as Hereford, who are interested in the organization are invited to attend the meeting.

ASSISTANT AT 'SOUTH BANK'

LONDON — Dr. Leslie Brown, formerly the Anglican Archbishop of Uganda, is taking a temporary appointment as Assistant Bishop to Dr. Mervyn Stockwood, Bishop of Southwark.

Dr. Stockwood, one of the more progressive Church of England prelates, has been called the author of "South Bank Religion," which tries novel methods of attracting the godless masses to Christianity. At Southwark, Bishop Brown will be mainly concerned with the Southwark ordination course, a training scheme for part-time priests.

Northern Pike Not Suited For Buffalo Lake

Those tackle bustin' northern pikers apparently are not for Texas sportsmen yet.

Fisheries crews for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department report failure in efforts to seine samples of the 100,000 northern pike placed in Buffalo lake near here last spring.

The sharp-toothed predators, famed for their fighting qualities, were planted in the lake by the United State Fish and Wildlife Service as a means of controlling an unwanted rough fish, described as a cross between a carp and gold fish.

The service made the transplant in the face of observations that the northern might not survive in the lake's warm waters. Fisheries personnel said the pike "just died" and that they definitely did not fall prey to the trash fish.

The same crews seeking traces of other northern exotics previously stocked in the new lake Meredith last spring succeeded in seining robust scrapers from the 1,500,000 walleyed pike stocked. Some of the walleyes measured almost a foot in length.

A LAYMAN'S CRITIQUE

NEW YORK — Hesitancy of Roman Catholic laymen to voice their religious views freely is what Edward M. Keating terms "The Scandal of Silence," the title of his new book, published by Random House. A Catholic layman himself, Keating says:

"The greatest obstacle to free speech is psychological, but breaking the silence is like breaking down an enormous wall, unaided by anything except the belief that the wall must come down."

Rogers-Miller Walgreen Drug Opens In Mall

Rogers-Miller Walgreen Drug opened this week in Sugarland Mall Shopping Center. The drugstore is owned and operated by Grady Rogers and Robert Miller. Rogers had operated Rogers drug in downtown Hereford for the past 19 years prior to closing it in order to open the Sugarland Mall store. Miller formerly operated a pharmacy in Park Ave. Shopping Center. THE NEW store is twice as big as the former Rogers Drug, and will offer an enlarged gift department, as well as expanded lines in other departments. Rogers said. Three pharmacists will be on duty, Rogers, Miller, and John Tomasi. Store hours will be from 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. daily, except Sunday, when hours will be from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m.

Model Meeting Of BSP Is Held

A model meeting of Kappa Iota Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, was conducted in Community Center Tuesday evening as a part of spring rush programs. Three rushees were guests of honor, welcomed by Mrs. Harold Kids, president. Hostesses were Mrs. Jack Straw, Mrs. Pat Parker and Mrs. C. D. Fitzgerald Jr., who form the membership committee. Mrs. John Gilliland presented an interesting program on Sculpture and Painting. She used pictures of famous pieces of sculpture and painting, both classic and contemporary, to illustrate her talk. These arts as media of self-expression were also discussed by Mr. Gilliland, who spoke of the many busy people, famous or unknown, who find in painting or carving a pleasant hobby to express their own feelings. In the business period plans were made for members to go together to an Amarillo Little Theatre presentation of Tennessee Williams' play, Summer and Smoke, on March 20. Election of 1966-67 officers will be held at the next chapter meeting, March 15, and executive board members will be hostesses at a breakfast March 27. Rushees present were Mrs. John Meador, Mrs. Bob Pugh and Mrs. Reva Hill. Members present included Mrs. Jim Cramer, Jerry Fowler, Houston Frye, Dean Hacker, Max Goforth, David Hamblen, Bob Kinsey, Duke Powell, Bobby Shelton, Pat Parker, Wendell Maloney and Dave Heck.

BOWLERS WHO TRAVEL

NEW YORK — How would you like to be a member of a sanctioned bowling league and travel 20,000 each year?

That's how far the Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies cast travels and their sports hobby is bowling. Comedian Bill Jack handles the paperwork.

"We get in 75 to 80 games a season," says Jack. "We began in Los Angeles last September and bowl through May. We lay off in the summer because at that time we rehearse in San Francisco for the next season's ice show."

Best Ice Follies bowler is comedian Eric Kermond of Sydney, Australia who took up the sport six years ago. During their New York run the Ice Follies bowlers competed on Thursday nights.

RELISHES CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Eddie Litzenger, former Rochester American now with Victoria, B. C., in the Western Hockey League, likes to see Cleveland Barons on the opposing team's jerseys. Last year, playing with the Americans, Litz played 14 games against the Barons and scored five goals and registered eight assists. In an interlocking game this fall, Litzenger resumed his attack on the Barons, an American Hockey League Team, by getting two goals and making three assists. His efforts helped the Vancouver Maple Leafs beat Cleveland 7-3.

Fashion Trends Topic For LaPlata Club Talks

Women of today have found a Fountain of Youth in fashions, Mrs. Irving Alexander told La Plata Study Club members to whom she was guest speaker Tuesday evening. The club met in the home of Mrs. Roy Harris. Mrs. Leroy Aven, program director, introduced Mrs. Alexander, who spoke of current fashion trends with accent on youth. She said new household gadgets which give women more time are responsible for greater interest in style changes. Skirt lengths this spring emphasize the style swing toward youth, she continued and put the spotlight on pretty legs and knees so that patterned hose and knee makeups are new touches. Men soon will be leg-watching instead of hip-watching, the speaker noted. Fashion hints were given by members in response to roll call. They included mention of color-matched hat, dress and shoes for a look of tallness, pale lipstick, navy and white as popular spring colors, a returned to rounded toes in shoes and more color in men's clothing. Members present were Mmes. Urlin Streu, Lloyd McGee, E. D. Hopson, Jay Boston, Louis Woodford, A. J. Schroeter, Jack Brown, Frank Prowell, Bill Michael, Dennis Richardson, Emil Dettman, Ansel McDowell, Philip Shook, Kenneth Rogers, Aven and the hostess.

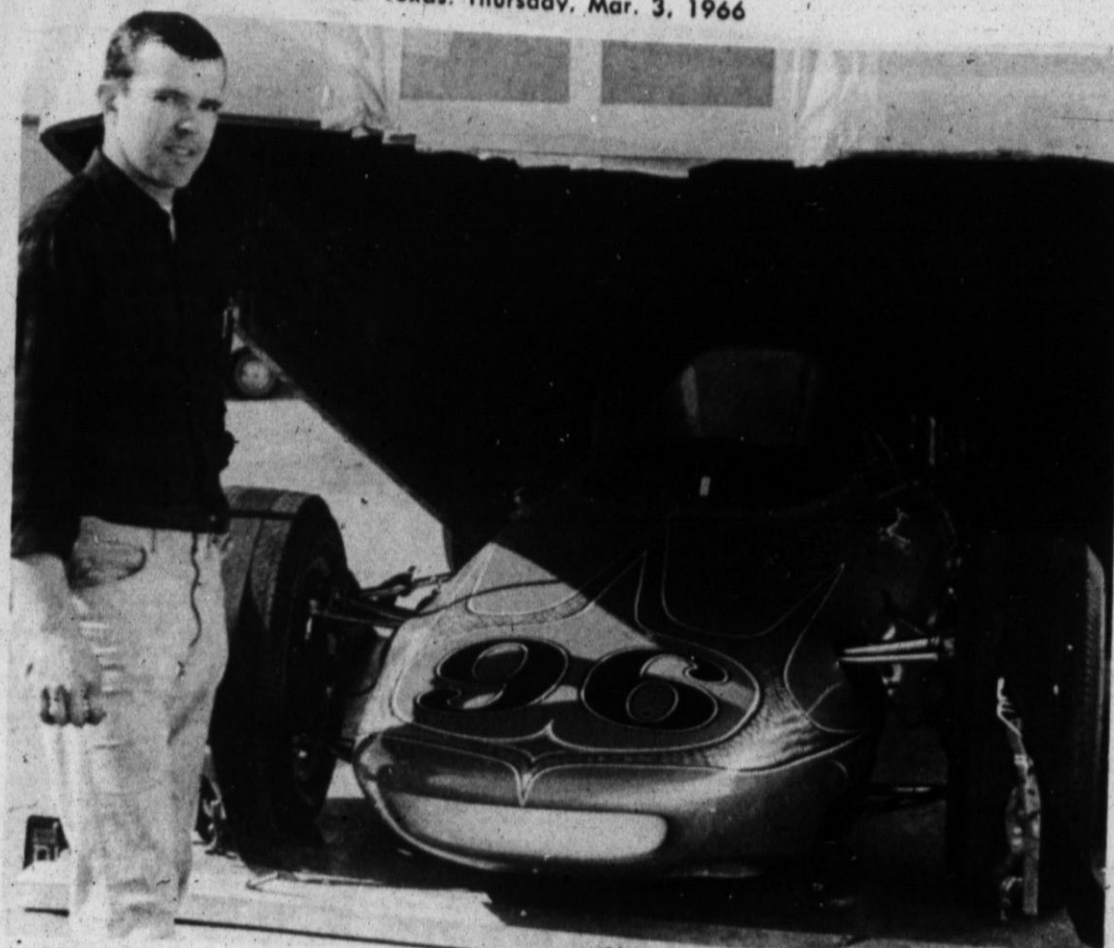

SILVER DISCS ARE WAFER-THIN

SPRING HOUSE Pa. — Pure silver discs bigger around than silver dollars are selling for less than a quarter. This may seem like economic stupidity, but experts of the Florinics Division of Selas Corporation of America here insist they are selling the silver wafers at a profit. The price is right, they point out, because this particular disc is only two one-thousandths of an inch thick and weighs less than 19 one-thousandths of an ounce. Furthermore, much of the disc consists of empty space — thousands of tiny pores too small to be seen with the naked eye. The foil-like disc is metal-membrane filter; a new tool for micro-filtration and microanalysis. Designed for screening out contaminants as small as two-tenths of a micron (less than eight one-millionths of an inch), it is expected to find wide use in research laboratories and also in the production of soft drinks, beer and pharmaceutical and biological preparations, Selas officials said.

Indy Racer Background Traced In Quick Visit

By DAVID BUTLER
Sports Editor

Ever see a real Indy racer? SEEING ONE IS a thrill for anyone, whether he is a racing enthusiast or not.

Monday, Mike Devin of Costa Mesa, Calif., spent a part of the day in Hereford due to engine trouble in his pickup. The pickup was being used to pull a trailer with an interesting payload.

The payload was a full fledged Indianapolis 500 racer which was covered on the trailer.

The vehicle was valued at approximately $80,000 by its owner J. Frank Harrison.

LAST YEAR the vehicle ran in the famous race at Indianapolis by driver Al Unser of Albuquerque, N. M.

Powered by a modified Chevrolet 283 cubic inch engine the car will travel 230 miles per hour on the straight-away and will average about 200 miles per hour on the back straight-away on the Indy track.

Devin was headed for Indianapolis where he will deliver the car to the driver who will test some tires for the race scheduled on Memorial Day.

THE ENGINE is modified by boring out the cylinders to four inches which increases the cubic inches from 283 to 305 making the engine develop some 500-horse power and has an 11-1/2 compression ratio.

Coupled with an Italian made Colotti transmission the engine turns some 7,000-9,000 revolutions per minute at top speeds.

Fuel is fed to the firing chambers of the engine by a fuel injection system which provides an injector for each cylinder.

Devin said that the vehicle made good mileage on the alcohol-nitro methane fuel mixture about two and one-half miles per gallon.

DUE TO A RULING, by the Indy officials the vehicle is allowed to carry only 75 gallons of fuel.

The ruling stemmed from an accident two years ago when two cars collided causing a bad fire. At that time the vehicles were carrying some 90 gallons of fuel each.

In a car traveling at such a high rate of speed the oil must run through a radiator, just the same as the water does, cooling it off.

The vehicle carries approximately seven gallons of oil and the dry sump system is used for circulating the oil.

Oil is stored in a tank near the front of the vehicle and is pumped back to the engine, which is in the rear of the car, by an aircraft-type pump.

IT THEN CIRCULATES through the engine and falls to the bottom of the oil pan and is pumped back to the front of the car where it circulates through the radiator and then returns to the tank.

A minimum of oil is kept in the engine and almost no oil is in the pan.

A vehicle of this type is custom-made from the ground up by specialists and has many safety devices to protect the driver.

For instance, the brakes are almost foolproof. There are three master cylinders on the vehicle as compared to one on most stock cars.

The brake lines are made of woven stainless steel, rubber, another layer of woven stainless steel which is coated with teflon.

OF COURSE, the normal roll bar is present on the car which keeps the driver from being crushed should the car turn over in a race.

The engine is situated in the rear, allowing better weight distribution and also eliminates the heat on the driver which is a problem for drivers who are driving a car with a front mounted engine.

Devin said that the group selects a driver and then builds the car around him. All of the controls are situated for the convenience of this driver and another person might not be able to even get into the vehicle.

THE CAR HAS no frame as such. It had two aluminum side pieces which are hollow and fuel is stored inside them. The front is connected by another piece of aluminum and the front wheel suspension is fastened to this.

Jerry Eisert is the chief mechanic for the automobile and will be present during the running of the race.

The biggest problem plaguing the drivers of this type automobile is losing the oil pressure which causes the engines to "blow up."

DEVIN SAID that unlike the highway driver who loses his oil pressure the race driver just keeps driving until the engine goes completely out.

The reasons for doing this is that some other drivers' engine may "blow up" and cause this car to lose a position and the other driver to gain one and this could mean the difference of $2,000 or $3,000 in a big race and the engine is not the most expensive part of the racer.

Devin said the time trials for the Indy begin the third weekend in May and the car and driver will be participating in them and later in the race.

Cattle Raisers Hear Result Of Eradication

Procedures for keeping Southwestern cattlemen free from what once was one of the area's most troublesome and costly livestock pests will be explained at the 89th annual convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association in Fort Worth, Mar. 7-9.

Dolph Briscoe, Jr., of Uvalde, president of the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation will discuss the future of the screwworm eradication program in Mexico.

ERADICATION of screwworms in Mexico would benefit stockmen of that country and would help assure no further screwworm infestations in the U. S. At present, U. S. stockmen are protected through release of sterilized flies in a barrier zone along the southern border and by eradication efforts in western states.

Freedom from the pest came about as the result of a concentrated industry effort which began a little more than four years ago. Livestockmen hopefully looked upon the campaign as an end to millions of dollars of damage and loss each year. Sportsmen viewed it as a way of increasing the wild game population. Scientists foresaw here, if it worked, a forerunner for similar projects that could eliminate forever insects and diseases that had plagued man, animals and plants for centuries.

To date, more than 17 1/2 billion screwworm flies have been reared in an escapeproof building on former Moore Air Force Base in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. After being sexually sterilized through exposure to cobalt-60, a radio active material, and released from airplanes; sterilized males mate with native, fertile females, causing only infertile eggs. Reproduction stops.

Briscoe is one of several speakers who will bring cattlemen up to date on latest developments affecting their industry. Among the speakers is Gov. John Connally who will address the cattlemen on Tuesday, Mar. 8, the same day Briscoe will speak.

Fred Wulf of Brady, TSCRA president, has issued an invitation to all who are interested in the cattle business to attend the convention.

Mrs. Clyde Coleman and Brooke like simple food

LET'S COOK SOMETHING!

Apple Pie Is Different

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Apple pie remains the favorite dessert of meat-and-potato-eating American men, whose wives like to find ways of making the delicious pastry with a little variety.

MRS. CLYDE COLEMAN, whose husband is on Hereford High School coaching staff, has a recipe he has approved for apple pie with a difference. She calls herself a strictly plain cook who concentrates on the simple, substantial fare which pleases Coach Coleman best.

A teacher herself, in Central Elementary School, Mrs. Coleman must make good use of her time in household duties, and is happy that there are no fussy appetites in her family. Her daughter, two-and-a-half-year-old Brooke, "just likes food", she says, and the whole family eats steak and vegetables and simple desserts.

HEREFORD RESIDENTS three years, the Colemans moved to a new home on the northern edge of the city last October. At 320-16th Street, they are in a section developing around Bluebonnet Elementary School, with homes well scattered.

"We like the space around us, but now that a house is being built on the next lot we are looking forward to some near neighbors", says Mrs. Coleman.

Choosing furnishings for the new home and getting settled has kept her especially busy this winter and she sees many more weeks of work before everything is arranged as she wants it.

This is her second year of teaching. For relaxation she likes bridge, and plays with a group which meets monthly. She also works with the Women of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, but has not joined other organizations because she wants the time with her family.

A VIVID BRUNETTE, Mrs. Coleman is a familiar figure among spectators at high school sports. Her enthusiasm for the games is heightened, of course, by her husband's role as coach.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Coleman grew up in Oklahoma. Her home was in Anadarko, but she completed her high school education in a girls school at Tulsa, then entered Southwestern State College at Weatherford.

She was a campus wife before she finished work for her degree there.

Mrs. Coleman's apple pie recipe, "the kind I like because it's so easy to put together", goes like this:

Dutch Apple Pie
Fill a 9-inch unbaked pie crust with grated raw apple. Mix 1 cup sour cream, 3 T. flour and 1 cup sugar and pour the mixture over the apples. Then mix 1 1/2 tsp sugar, 1/2 tsp each cinnamon and nutmeg or cloves, and sprinkle it over the top of the pie.

Bake at 425 degrees 15 minutes; reduce the heat to 350 degrees and bake 25 minutes more.

WMU Has Guests At Book Review

Guests of Avenue Baptist Church women for a recent book review were 11 members of Temple Baptist Women's Missionary Union. Mrs. Clint-Formby presented the mission study book titled Panama, The Land Between. Thirteen members of the hostess group were present.

At another meeting of night circles in Avenue Baptist Church last week, Mrs. G. W. Duncan conducted a study of the book, The Miracles of Christ, by David A. Redding. Ten members attended this meeting.

Avenue Baptist Missionary Union meets at 7 p. m. each Wednesday and the Business Women's Circle meets the first Thursday of each month.

Delegates To District Meeting Elected In County H.D. Council

Three delegates to the spring convention of District 1, Texas Home Demonstration Association were elected from Deaf Smith County H. D. Council at the February meeting Monday, following the Council's appreciation luncheon in the Bull Barn.

Mrs. Jimmie Bradley, Mrs. Dale Hallows and Mrs. O. L. Williams are the delegates, backed by Mrs. Grady Parsons, Mrs. H. D. Fowler and Mrs. H. D. Buse, alternates. The convention will be held in Dalhart April 28.

A report on the luncheon showed attendance above 175, and special invitations sent to 28 persons. Suggestions were made for improving plans for next year's luncheon, and it was voted to make a standing rule that the appreciation luncheon be held annually with the education committee in charge of the program.

Mrs. E. C. Hammett presided and Mrs. Dale Hallows read a poem to open the meeting.

Club representatives present were Mrs. Parsons and Viola Williams, Cultural; Mrs. Carl Schroeder, West Hereford; Mrs. Charlie Burk and Bradley, Bippus; Mrs. H.D. Buse, John Jones, Elmer Northcutt, N. A. Brown, S. N. Thweatt and Loyd Sevier, Messenger.

Brazilian Scenes Shown By Guest On Young H.D. Club's Program

A guest, Gailther Vanderveer, showed views of Brazilian cities and people as he spoke to Young Homemakers Home Demonstration Club Tuesday morning.

meeting was in First National Community Room and Mrs. Lloyd Smith was in charge of the program.

Vanderveer, who took the pictures on a preliminary visit to Brazil, will leave early in May with his family to serve five years as a missionary in that South American country. He showed pictures from Sao Paulo, large industrial city where he will be located, and told of living conditions among various income levels.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

NEW YORK — A litterbug on ice is double trouble. Keep America Beautiful says that the skating or ice fishing pond is one place where every litter bit really hurts. There are two reasons:

Litter left on ice, whether a broken skate shoe lace or a candy wrapper, can trip up skaters, causing injury.

And litter discarded on the ice sinks to the bottom in the spring and becomes a menace to the safety of bathers.

New York City was first referred to as Gotham in an 1808 book of essays by Washington Irving, his brother William and James K. Paulding. The name was taken from a village in Nottinghamshire, England, still extant which became famous in the Middle Ages as a residence of fools. One tradition held that England's wily Gothamites began their antics by discouraging King John from building a palace in their village and saddling them with heavy expense.

Jaycee-Ettes Are Pre-Voting Rally Hostesses

Jaycee-Ettes were hostesses for a social period following the annual Stamp Rally of Herford Jaycees Saturday evening at the Jaycee Hut. The rally is an occasion for campaign speeches by candidates for offices in the young men's organization.

Preparation of the meeting room was staked of the Jaycee-Ettes, who decorated the hut in the spirit of a political rally. They also served sandwiches and coffee to approximately 45 persons, Jaycees and their wives.

Jaycee-Ettes have already elected and installed their officers for a new year, with Mrs. John Meador as president.

SHOULD EMPHASIZE FUTURE

LONDON — The Anglican Bishop of London (Dr. Robert Stopford) wants to change the form of observance on Remembrance Sunday — the November day when Britain annually recalls its dead in two world wars. Writing in his official magazine, London Churchman, he proposes the emphasis should increasingly be on the future and not on the past so that "we may be strengthened to work for universal peace."

Club Rules, Protocol Among Workshop Topics

Practical use of parliamentary rules to make club meetings move more smoothly will be outlined at one of the general sessions of the free Leadership Workshop to be held in Community Center March 21-22.

Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. will conduct this discussion Tuesday evening, March 22.

Mrs. Hill has had special training in parliamentary procedure and has learned to apply the rules effectively as she has presided over many club and committee meetings in this county.

A resident of Deaf Smith County since 1922, she taught in the public schools several years and has been an outstanding clubwoman.

At present she is governor of District 1, Texas Garden Clubs Inc., a district which embraces 26 West Texas counties. She works in women's organizations and the Sunday School of First Baptist Church, is a past matron of the Herford Eastern Star Chapter and a past president of Pioneer Study Club.

A manager of farm and ranch property, she has served in offices and on committees of organizations related to agriculture in the county.

Another of the local leaders who will work with specialists from the Texas Extension Service in conducting the workshops is Mrs. Tom Draper, who has been Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Agent since 1947. She will lead the sectional workshop which has as its subject, Duties of Officers and Membership Protocol.

Mrs. Draper is a graduate of Texas Tech and Texas Women's University, a member of Phi Upsilon Omicron and Epsilon Sigma Phi, honor associations of home extension workers. She also is a past worthy matron in

Music Club Has Guest Program

Students of piano and voice who are pupils of Music Study Club members were presented on the club's program Monday afternoon in Community Center.

Miss Frances Dumesque, Mrs. A. J. Schuster, Mrs. A. O. Thompson, Mrs. Bob West and Mrs. Ellen Coombes were hostesses.

Mrs. Coombes directed the program, featuring music of American composers in the second of two observances of Parade of American Music Month. Mrs. Bill Bradley, president, welcomed guests.

Two folk songs "Kiberta Let Yo' Hair Hang Long, and Oso River She's So Deep and Wide" were sung by Mona Gale-Gibson to open the program. She was accompanied by Mrs. Frances Parker. Kathy Fooks played Cypresses (Kramer) and David Kelley's song was Jacob's Prelude in E minor.

Carol Rae Newton played Tall in the Saddle, by McBride. Janice Newsum presented Moon River and Maria Tiedel played Two Buffoons, by Cobb. Outstanding numbers were Conrad's Gavotte, Petite, played by Teresa Robinson, and Fountains in the Rain (Gillock) by Donna Olson.

Refreshments were served to the young soloists and a group of guests including members of their families, as well as club members. The table was covered with white lace and a miniature pink grand piano was the decorative piece. Pink punch was served, with an assortment of homemade cookies.

Guests included Misses Barbara Logan, Arthur Tiedel, W. D. Gibson, C. W. Covington, Elena Rae Newfor and Carol Newsum; Miss Jennifer Jackson, Kim Young, Terri Linn Seiver and Brian Lee Thompson.

Members present were Misses J. E. Allison, Eugene Brink, Joe Frank Clark, B. Y. Crosswait, W. S. Fisher, H.K. Fot, Joe Hacker, Richard Jackson, Bill Langford, Paul Lyons, Dale Young, W. T. Thompson, Glenn Snyder, Bradley, Parker and the hostesses.

The House of Commons had 430 members during its last session.

India Missionary To Speak At Christian Church

Dr. Kenneth W. Bonham, medical missionary serving in India, will take the pulpit during the morning service at the First Christian Church Sunday.

DR. BONHAM and his wife have been serving as missionaries with the United Christian Missionary Society since 1922 where they first served in a hospital in Damoh to Pendra Road. In 1942 the Bonhams were transferred to Pendra Road, Madhya Pradesh where they were serving when they received their furlough.

The Christian Hospital has 32 beds, and inpatients are required to bring at least one attendant to prepare food and to assist in the patient's care.

HOSPITAL facilities are planned to demonstrate and teach sanitation as well as to treat the sick with a Christian emphasis.

Many of the patients attend and participate in the daily devotional program conducted by the staff.

Hospital facilities are set up to treat some 60-200 patients per day in the clinic.

DR. BONHAM was born at Leesville, La. and was graduated from Texas Christian University. He received his medical degree from the University of Texas at Galveston.

Dr. and Mrs. Bonham attended the Kennedy School of Missions at Hartford, Conn. for their missions orientation course.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A commentary on a changing social scene lay between the lines of a skeleton history of Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Clubs which Juanita Hershey read at the clubs' annual appreciation luncheon Monday.

NAMING EARLY H. D. Agents here, she frequently noted that "she resigned to marry Soando, a local bachelor" or "Miss Somebody left to be married." Usually the agent's tenure was rather short, indicating that Hereford was a good place to find a husband.

That was when only unmarried women were employed as county agents; now most of them like our Argen Draper and Rita Huckert, are married. The unusual thing about the Deaf Smith County list is that several assistant agents of recent years, like Rita's immediate predecessor, also "left to be married."

agents were always unmarried, and so were teachers in most school districts. In fact, in small towns most of the new blood came from the young teachers who arrived each September, were courted by the local bachelors and frequently married the next June.

THAT WOULDN'T be practicable — or even possible — now. First because most of the prospective teachers are married before they are out of college, and second because there is practically no such thing as a local bachelor above the age of 18; they also are married before they are out of college. In fact, a whole segment of the community that once added spice to life, made up of unmarried residents in their 20's, is missing.

Of course there are still people age 20-odd, but they aren't so interesting when all they can talk about is making the next payment on the washer-dryer or how the baby reacted to his whooping-cough shots.

WONDER HOW MANY of the leaders of clubs and other women's activities in Hereford came here as teachers. Certainly the number would run into the hundreds. Some whom I know are former teachers include Mrs. D. A. Alexander, Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr., Mrs. A. M. Jones and Mrs. John Jacobson Sr.

WHEN SOMEBODY asked Byrdie Fellers the other day if she wasn't going to have a housewarming at her new home at 126 Aspen she said no, but she was seriously considering inviting all her friends to a yard digging, just as soon as it gets a little warmer. And that sounds like a mighty practical notion, to me!

DR. AND MRS. Ansel McDowell Jr. and children, Marian Elizabeth, Linda, Ansel III and Stewart, were here from Perryton over the weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ansel McDowell, and the family of his brother, Jim McDowell.

DID YOU EVER see a day that looked more like the first of March in the Panhandle than Tuesday?

Judging in five groups will be conducted simultaneously through the morning, in various rooms of the church and educational building.

Student performances will close at 12 noon, and a luncheon will be held in the Cjason house for judges, assistants, teachers and others interested in the festival.

Mrs. A. J. Schoeter is festival chairman. Assisting her are Mmes. James Clearman, Wes

Students from Hereford, Friona, Dawn and Wacott, 165 in all, are entered in piano, cornet, French horn and vocal solo, folk song solo and ensemble and brass quintet divisions.

Judges, coming from Amarillo, are Ardath Johnson, Inez Jacquot and Carol Lynn, who have judged in previous festivals here and Caroline Goodnow and Robert Goodnow.

Mrs. Goodnow teaches a large class of piano pupils in Amarillo, where she has lived 10 years, and has served as organist at St. Paul's Methodist Church. She studied in New York after receiving the BM degree in piano from North Texas State University, where she was a pupil of Silvio Scotti.

Goodnow, a pianist and organist, holds a master's degree in musical education from the University of Denver and bachelor's degree from the University of Kansas, and has taken special courses at West Texas State University and Colorado College. He taught band and instruments in Amarillo schools before joining the Musical Arts Conservatory staff to teach piano, organ and theory.

REP. ROGERS REPORTS

Texans Celebrate State Birthday

March 2 is Texas' very special, historic day—Texas Independence Day. No other State celebrates its own independence day because (as every Texas schoolchild knows) no other State but Texas declared its independence from a foreign nation to become a separate republic. On March 2, 1836, at Washington-on-the-Brazos, delegates to the constitutional convention declared Texas independent of Mexico — declaring, in the words they adopted, "that the people of Texas do now constitute a free, sovereign, and independent Republic." The delegates to the convention were still in session when four days later, at the Alamo, Colonel James Travis and his heroic band of Texas patriots fell to the massed onslaught of Santa Anna's Army.

MANY OF THE 30 counties comprising the 18th Congressional District were named for Texans immortalized by those stirring events of early 1836, the battle of the Alamo and the signing of the Texas Declaration of Independence.

Three of the counties of the District, including the two counties added to the District by the Texas Legislature's action last year, are named after defenders of the Alamo. George Washington COTTELE gave his name to Cottle County, in the southeast corner of the District. Lt. George A. LAMB and Peter James BAILEY, who also died at the Alamo, are the Texas heroes whose names are borne by the newly-added counties in the southwest corner of the 18th District.

Nine signers of the Texas Declaration of Independence are immortalized by Panhandle counties: George C. CHILDRESS, who as committee chairman was the principal author of the declaration; James COLLINGSWORTH, latter to become the first chief justice of the Republic of Texas; Dr. Junius William MOTTLEY, killed a month after the signing in the Battle of San Jacinto; Samuel P. CARSON, secretary of state for the Republic in the cabinet of the first Texas President, David G. Burnet; Andrew BRISCOE, who fought at San Jacinto; and Robert POTTER, John S. ROBERTS, Martin PARMER, and James G. SWISHER, four others among the 59 signers of the Declaration. It is interesting to note that when Collingsworth and Motley counties were created by an Act of the Texas Legislature in 1876, careless writing of the bill added a letter "g" to James Collingsworth's name and dropped a "t" from that of Motley.

OTHER COUNTIES in the 18th Congressional District are named for men who played dramatic roles in those stirring days of the Republic. Erastus (Deaf) Smith was commander of Sam Houston's scouts. Commodore Edwin Ward MOORE led the Texas navy. William Beck OCHILTREE served in the cabinet of the Republic. Sidney SHERMAN was an officer with Houston at San Jacinto. Judge Anderson HUTCHINSON was a district judge in the Republic.

Warren D. C. HALL was adjutant general under President Burnet. Henri CASTRO was a native of France who came to America, established a colony in Southwest Texas, and later served the Republicans as consul to Paris. Abner S. LIPS-

COM Bwas secretary of state under President Lamar. Judge John HEMPHILL was chief justice under the Republic of Texas and U. S. Senator after annexation.

These are other celebrated Texans whose names our 18th

District counties bear: Royal T. WHEELER was chief justice of the Texas Supreme Court in the 1850's. Oliver C. and Rufus HARLEY, John M. HANSFORD, James W. DALLAM, and Stockton P. DONLEY were all famous early-day Texas attorneys.

General Horace Randall was killed in the Civil War. Willis Simpson OLDHAM was a member of the Confederate Senate from Texas. ARMSTRONG County, in the words of the 1876 Act creating the county, was named for "several early Texas pioneers of that name." Peter GRAY, for whom my home county was named, was a mem-

HAS TO PAY FOR CONTROVERSIAL PLAY

FRANKFURT — A local merchant who walked out on a performance of "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" has been ordered by a city magistrate to ante up the $4.25 he owes for tickets.

The man, Willi Krueger, said he deducted the amount from his payment for the subscription season because he and his wife resented the Edward Albee drama as "dirty and immoral."

The judge ruled that the play was not immoral, adding that artistic standards change and that what might once have been shocking is so no more.

Penney's Auto Center Here Becomes First In Region

J. C. Penney Co. opened its first auto center in this area Wednesday at Sugarland Mall Shopping Center in Hereford.

The nationwide department store chain recently became the newest entry into the expanding field of private-brand tires, batteries, and automotive accessories, and the Hereford facility offers the first such service in this area for Penney's customers.

THE CHAIN'S private-brand tires, batteries, and auto accessories, which will be sold under the name Foremost, will carry the same guarantee and reputation that Penney's soft and hard goods have enjoyed for many years.

Clete Corlis, store manager, said Penney's new line of tires is supplied by one of America's leading manufacturers.

He also pointed out that Penney's private-brand gasoline will feature five grades of gas through blend-o-matic pumps which provide custom mixtures of regular and ethyl grade gasolines.

ALSO featured in the Penney's Auto Center is a complete service department offering such work as wheel alignment, brake service and motor tune-ups.

A large line of parts and accessories are also stocked. Managing Penney's tire, battery, and accessory store is Tom Homsey.

It was also pointed out that Penney's Charge Plates may be used for purchases and service at the Auto Center and other credit terms can be arranged.

vastly increased selections in all departments existing in the former store, and has added numerous new departments as well.

"WE ARE happy to bring a complete department store to residents of the Magic Triangle," Corlis said.

In addition to the departments existing in the former store, new lines include jewelry, records, men's suits, an expanded variety of shoes, drapery material and hardware, kitchen utensils, dishes, paperback books, luggage, a western wear department for all ages, Hallmark greeting cards, lawn and garden furniture, tools, and mowers, gifts, and decorative items.

The store will be open from 9 a. m. until 8:30 p. m. through Saturday of this week to celebrate the opening.

Beginning Monday, store hours will be from 9 a. m. until 6 p. m. Tuesday through Friday and 9 a. m. until 8:30 p. m. on Mondays and Saturdays.

BATTLE SHAPES UP

Dirksen Pushes Districting Rule

WASHINGTON — A battle of major proportions is shaping up in the U. S. Senate. The issue is the Dirksen Amendment on "reapportionment" — to determine the make-up of legislatures in all 50 states. But more basic is the question: "Can the supreme court repeal the Tenth Amendment and deprive the people of their Constitutional right to decide how their state governments will be run?"

Those who favor the Supreme Court position argue that the Constitution is an old-fashioned document which must be modernized to meet new conditions to the Supreme Court. wants to "interpret" away any part of America's basic law, they say, without benefit of the legal machinery for amending the Constitution, it is within its rights.

Those who favor the Dirksen Amendment, which takes the road prescribed by the Constitution for dealing with major changes in this basic document, insist that the Supreme Court has violated the Constitution and the precedent of 175 years. They point out that the rights of Americans have been protected by the legislative system the Supreme Court arbitrarily overthrew. They note, too, that the Constitution gives the states exclusive sanction over the make-up of state legislatures.

What, however, is at stake? UNTIL, THE Supreme Court decision, most states had two-chamber legislatures. One was elected on the basis of population and the other on the basis of geographical subdivisions. Through this system, neither the big cities nor the rural areas restore to the states the rights denied them by the high court. Behind the amendment is a bipartisan coalition of senators who represent all viewpoints from left to right and all areas of the country? Against the amendment is a group of senators who intend to block passage by any means, including the filibuster.

The Dirksen Amendment has received impressive endorsement from nationwide farm, civic, and trade organizations. The majority of the Senate approved it in an earlier form last year. Public opinion polls have shown tremendous support for the Amendment.

ONE OF the biggest obstacles to passage of the Amendment is the AFL-CIO. From the standpoint of the powerful labor leaders, this makes sense. If the amendment is defeated, then the big-city machines will dominate the state legislatures. And since organized labor has a controlling interest in these machines, the AFL-CIO will be the beneficiary.

Privately, it is conceded that AFL-CIO preponderance in the state legislatures will have widespread political effects. Those who control these state governments will have a stranglehold on party organization and on the national conventions which nominate Presidential candidates.

If a filibuster blocks the Dirksen Amendment, therefore, it will mean more than the thwarting of the Constitution. It will change the whole pattern of national governments and national elections, paving the way for the kind of labor government which the United States — when given a free choice — has always rejected.

To most political observers here, that is the real issue in the upcoming battle over "reapportionment." And that is why the Senate will study mail from its constituencies with more than the usual care.

AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Upon recommendation of a friend, we read an autobiography by William Alexander Perry entitled "Lanterns on the Levee." Though it was written some 35 years ago the problems of his day were about the same as now.

The book is about the deep south and written in the first person. It reads at times like prose-poetry and had an interest from the beginning. And, unlike some books written in that time, it never seemed passe.

The philosophy of the author is the reason why the book seemed timeless. Some of his ideas appealed to us and were thought-provoking.

OUR FRIEND liked the following and quoted it: "The father in the narrative said that he supposed a man's job in this world was to try to make it a better place to live-in and so far as he was able, attend to his own soul. He should always remember that the results of his efforts would be infinitesimal."

The thought which remained with us was that Perry was an aristocrat and proud of it. And he was willing to admit that many people had contributed to his education and way of life.

In looking back he recalled contributors, who were his early-day colored nurse and husband, his grandfather and grandmother, an evangelist, a judge, a tutor, a public school teacher, a doctor, a professor, his mother and father, and his friends.

HE ALSO gave credit to the sea, the sun and other elements in nature. And to his church, Beethoven and Wagner, Michelangelo and Andrea del Sarto. Loneliness and friendship were also included.

The author compared all these contributors as being similar to the long procession of the Magi and the shepherds and their gifts.

We thought it was a delightful idea, and what a list each of us could make of our own!

So if you are one who likes to go back and find an old book which is still modern in problems and theory we recommend this one as a treasure!

ONE MINUTE, PLEASE

THE CHURCH I LOVE STRIVES TO CARRY OUT THE GREAT COMMISSION (12th in a series).

During the forty days between the resurrection of Christ and his ascension back to heaven, our Lord gave his followers what is commonly called the Great Commission. These are the marching orders for the Christian soldiers that make up the Lord's army, the church. The Captain of our salvation said, "Full authority in heaven and on earth has been committed to me. Go forth therefore and make all nations my disciples; baptizing men everywhere in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, and teach them to observe all that I have commanded you. And be assured, I am with you always, to the end of time." (Matthew 28:18-20 NEB).

In the Gospel according to Mark, the Great Commission is stated this way: "Go forth to every part of the world, and proclaim the Good News (Gospel) to the whole creation. Those who believe it and receive baptism will find salvation; those who do not believe will be condemned." (Mark 16:15, 16 NEB).

Luke records the March order like this in Acts 1:8 (NEB). "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will bear witness for me in Jerusalem, and all over Judea and Samaria, and away to the ends of the earth."

Reading the second chapter of Acts, we see the Gospel began to be preached in Jerusalem. "Then those who accepted his word were baptized, and some three thousand were added to their number that day." (Acts 2:37-41 NEB).

"As for those who had been scattered, they went through the country preaching the Word. Philip came down to a city in Samaria and began proclaiming the Messiah to them. . . . But when they [the Samaritans] came to believe Philip with his good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, men and women alike." (Acts 8:4-11 NEB).

When Philip met the eunuch from Ethiopia in Africa, he "told him the good news of Jesus." "Then they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him." (Read Acts 8:26-40).

Peter took the Gospel of Christ to the Gentiles as recorded in Acts chapters 10 and 11. After Paul was converted he preached God's saving message (Romans 1:16) to the people of Asia Minor and southern Europe. One the bank of a river in Macedonia, Paul spoke to a traveling sales lady, named Lydia, concerning the Gospel. She believed and was baptized with her household. (Acts 16:11-15). And when Paul and Silas were cast into prison, they preached to the jailer in Philippi. He accepted Christ and was baptized the same hour of the night. (Acts 16:19-34).

The Gospel was spreading; and it continued to spread. Paul took the Good News to Corinth. As a result "a number of Corinthians listened and believed, and were baptized." (Acts 18:8).

The Gospel of Christ was taken, by the faithful soldiers of the Lord, across the continents and across the oceans. Today the faithful continue to take the Good News to the people of the world. When men believe and obey the Gospel they become godly. "Godliness is profitable for all things, having the promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come." (1 Timothy 4:8).

Registration Presents New Chance To Vote

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

Texans who failed to pay their poll tax have another chance to register for a vote in the 1966 elections. This time it's "free."

Registration period extends from March 3 through March 17. Any citizen eligible to vote can sign up with his county tax assessor-collector and his name will be placed on the poll list at no charge.

SO READS the "emergency" provision in the new voter registration act just passed by the Legislature and signed into law by Gov. John Connally.

Hereafter, free registration will take place from October through January each year.

There is one possible hitch: Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr fears that names of those who sign up during March won't be available for local elections already slated on bond issues, local option liquor questions, etc.

He asked the three federal judges who banned the poll tax to put off their order until March 28.

Estimates of the number of Texans who will take advantage of the free right to vote vary widely — from 50,000 to 1,000,000. Any figure approaching the latter could make a substantial difference in the outcome of many local and some statewide elections. Indications are that the number of new voters will be nowhere near that high, however.

All who paid poll taxes by January 31 will be entitled to vote as usual, without re-registering.

PECOS SULPHUR BOOM
Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler compares reaction to the recent Pecos County sulphur discovery with California's Gold Rush days of 1849.

He said "operators are moving in both day and night attempting to locate and file claims on state-owned land . . . to mine sulphur."

Sadler declined to accept 50 cents an acre per year for sulphur leases when, he stated, leading sulphur operators paid up to $2,000 an acre bonus for five-year leases in a recent federal sale off the coast of Texas.

State School Land Board rejected a rash of filings under an 1895 claim law. Board set a sulphur lease sale, along with oil and gas bidding, for May 3.

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Governor Connally appointed Hill County Attorney Steve Latham of Hillsboro to succeed Sam Johnson, resigned, as judge of the 66th District Court of Hill County. Latham formerly practiced law in Wichita Falls.

Governor chose former District Attorney Dan Walton of Houston as judge of Harris County's Criminal District Court No. 4, succeeding the late Judge A. H. Krichamor.

Connally's appointees to the new Texas Air Control Board are Clinton Howard of Irving, Henry J. LeBlanc Sr. of Port Arthur, Herbert Whitney of Corpus Christi and Dr. Wendell Hamrick, John Files and Dr. Herbert McKee, all of Houston.

Bob Cheatham of Texarkana and Clifford Hensley of El Campo were named by the Governor to the Texas Real Estate Commission.

WATER DEBATE RE-HEARD
Supreme Court of Texas has under advisement a longstanding dispute between city of San Antonio and cities in the Guadalupe River basin.

San Antonio is appealing a 1957 Texas Water Commission decision. Ruling denied the Alamo City's application for 100,000-acre feet of water a year from Canyon Dam near New Braunfels and awarded 50,000-acre feet from the reservoir to Guadalupe-Blanco River Authority for municipal use down stream.

Attorneys for San Antonio claimed the city must import 138,000-acre feet for its needs for 1980. Meanwhile, Guadalupe basin will have a surplus over necessities of 180,000-acre feet. GBRA attorney denied any surplus is in sight. He said some cities, including Seguin and Port Lavaca, already have suffered from serious shortages.

MAJOR legal point involved is whether the Commission can delegate to GBRA rights to release water to unspecified municipal users, while denying San Antonio's application to pipeline water from another basin for high priority city and domestic needs.

AG RULES

Attorney General has ruled that Texas Highway Department may grant the owner and operator of overweight mobile equipment, which transports frac oil in oil well servicing, a permit for the movement of the equipment.

In other actions he ruled that: A county attorney isn't authorized to bring ouster proceedings against a city attorney of a city incorporated under the general laws of Texas.

A CHAIN referral selling plan to promote sales, containing a prize awarded under the element of chance, is a lottery in Texas.

A County Clerk may use one or more volumes, properly labeled and indexed, to constitute "a well-bound book" to meet the requirements of recording deeds, leases and declarations. Vehicles owned by an individual must be registered by law in the county where he lives. Fraternal or Veterans Clubs may legally sell alcoholic beverages to members on the premises without a special license.

NEW ACT calling for deposit of justice of peace court fines and fees in officers' salary funds of counties is constitutional.

Funds appropriated to National Guard Armory Board can be legally spent for addition to the building at Camp Mabry in Austin subject to necessary agency approval.

Harrison County juvenile board or commissioners court has no authority to hire a secretary for the county juvenile officer, but can hire a child service worker with added duty of secretary.

State Board of Control still has supervision of the Battle-ship Texas Commission.

II TEST FOR BRUCellosis

Eleven counties — Atascosa, Brooks, Coryell, Falls, Hamilton, Hood, Jack, Limestone, McLennan, Milam and Roberts — are testing for initial brucellosis eradication certification.

Borden County has qualified for recertification.

During January, 16,331 back-tagged cattle originating in Texas were tested at slaughter. A total of 18,202 cattle were tested at Texas livestock markets for return to the county, and 284 reactors were disclosed.

According to a U. S. Department of Agriculture report, the screwworm eradication program in Texas has been successful. Only 75 cases were confirmed in January, as compared to 237 cases for the same period last year.

VISITORS INCREASE

Attendance at 22 Texas vacationland attractions increased 13 per cent last year, with total admissions of 30,403,000.

Six Flags over Texas rated as top tourist stop with 1,713,000 visitors, outdrawing by 446,000 San Antonio's Alamo, according to Tourist Development Agency. Biggest percentage gain was marked by Bishop's Palace on Galveston Island, Big Bend National Park reported another big increase, as did the Aquarena at San Marcos, Old Stone Fort of Nacogdoches, Fort Davis National Historic Site and Padre Island.

BUILDING SALES DROP

Texas building and retail sales dropped during January. However, both December and January still were above the first month of 1965.

UT's Bureau of Business Research reported total retail sales in January off 28 per cent from a record December — due largely to the "greater-than-seasonal rise" two per cent over January a year ago.

Building permits for the first month of 1966 dropped a whopping 22 per cent below December and four per cent below the 1965 average. But the $133,200,000 total was 16 per cent over January, 1965.

SHORT SNORTS

State Railroad Commission set hearing for March 21 on proposal to extend discovery allowable period for onshore oil wells to 24 months (from present 18).

Governor approved $116,048 Project Head Start Program in Hidalgo County (for Mission, McAllen and Monte Alto Public Schools) and $86,525 program for Abilene public schools.

ALL PHASES of the poverty program will be discussed at a briefing for the press to be held by the Southwest Regional Office of OEO at the Driskill Hotel in Austin on March 10-11. A conference on Historic Structures and their preservation will be held in Austin on March 11-12.

If the first part of your car registration number is here, you might be a winner.

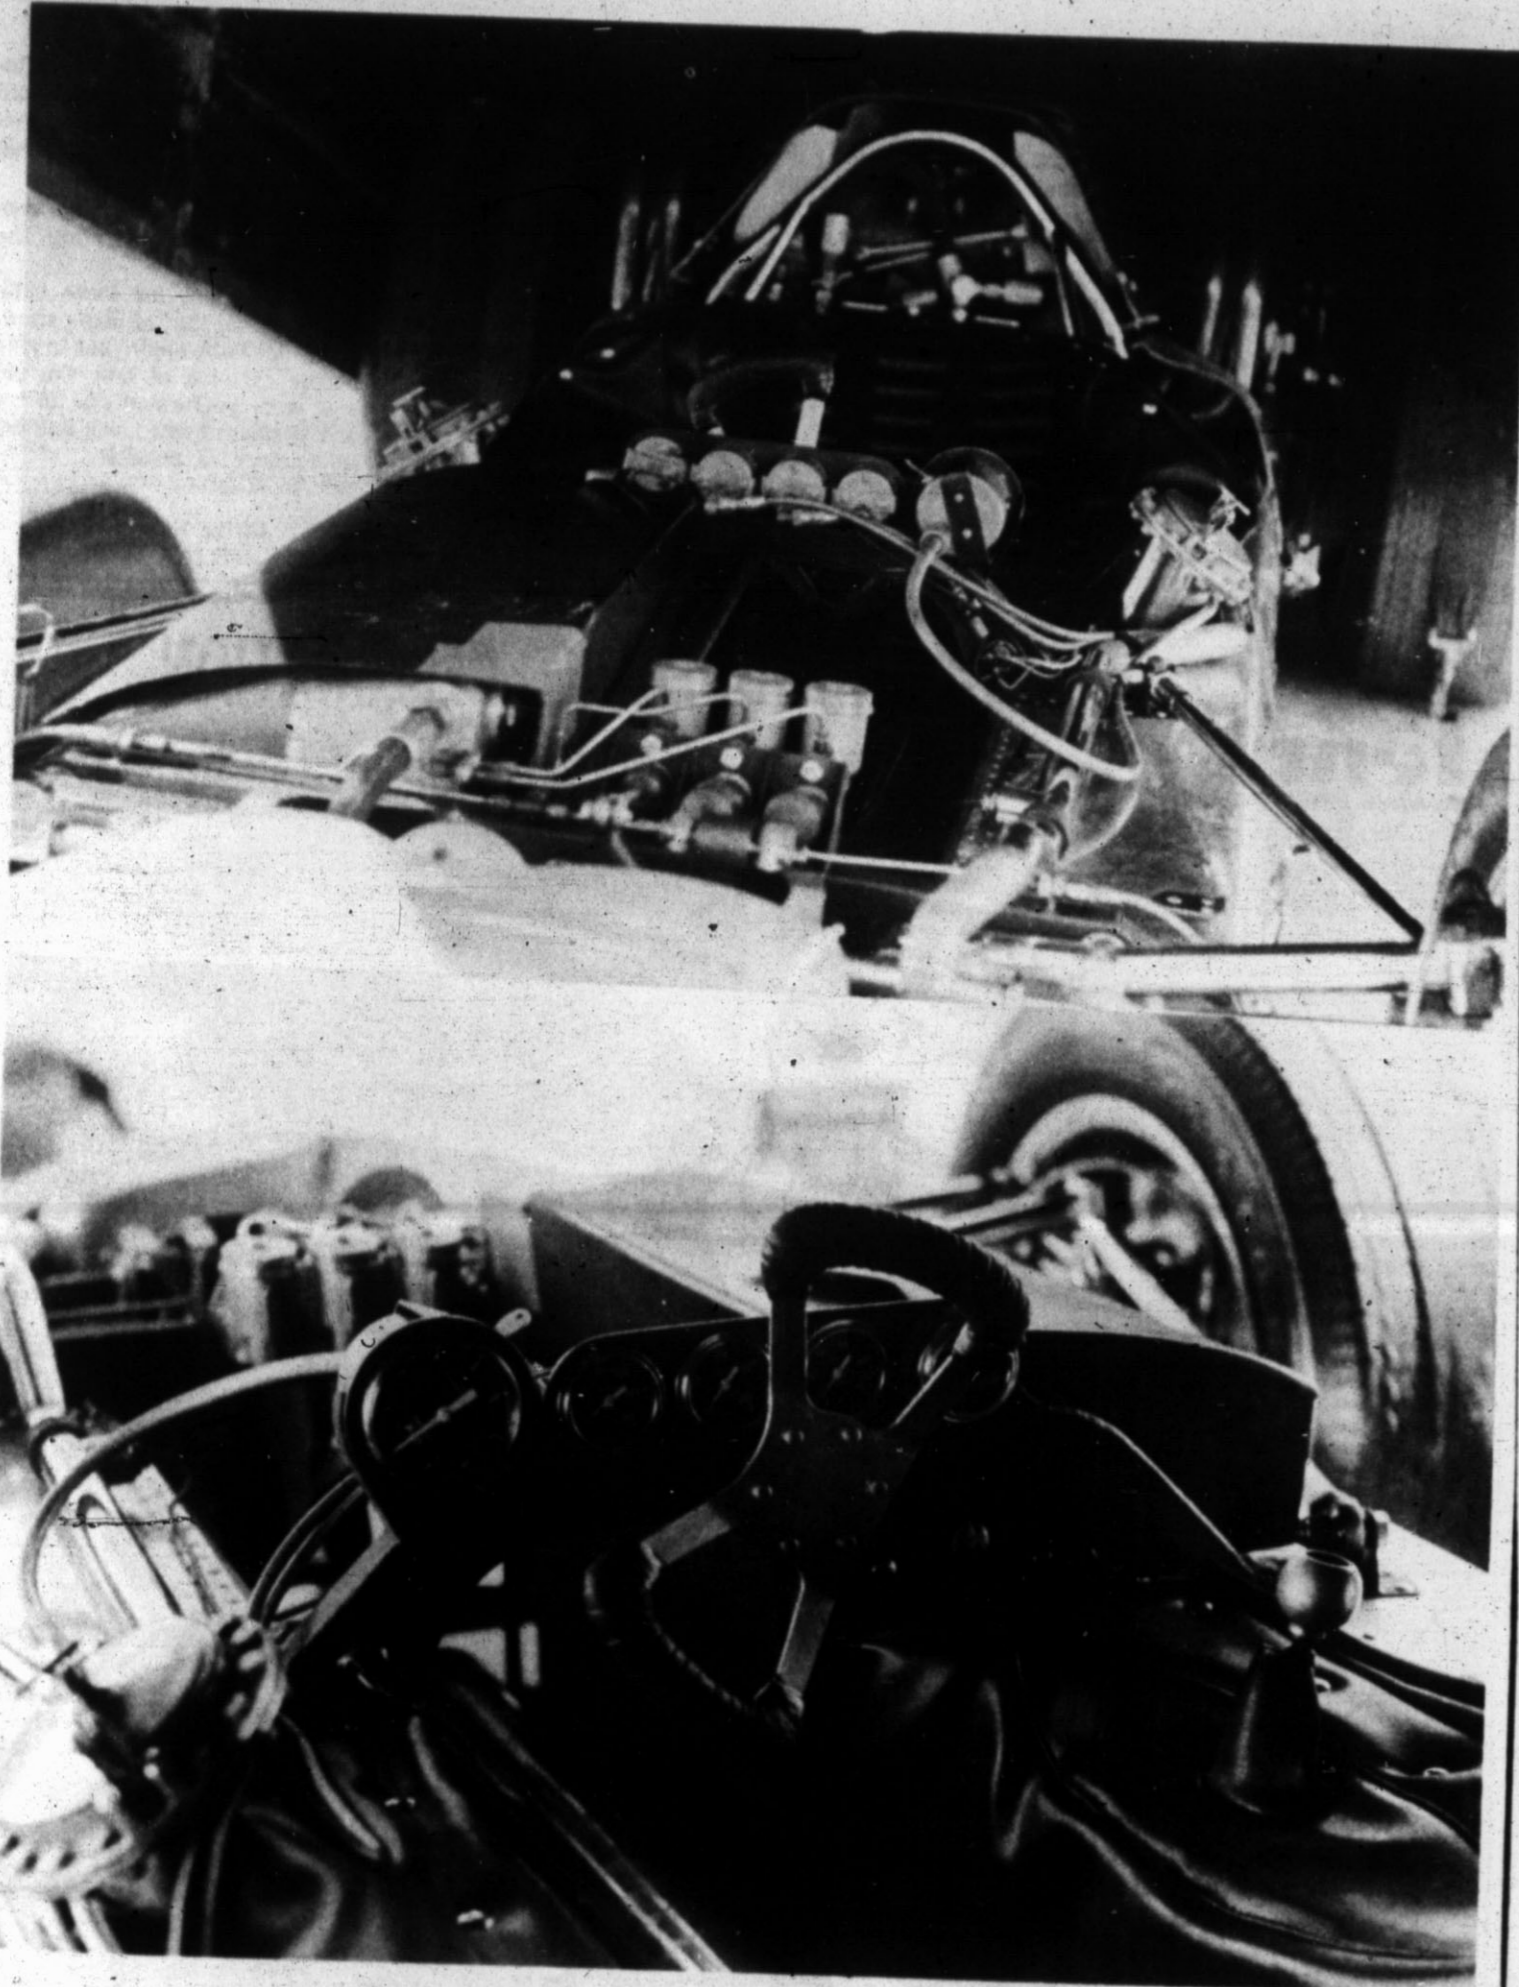

Here's how it works. Look at the first symbols (the prefix) on your vehicle identification slip. Then look at the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward being a winner. Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your entire vehicle identification number on the poster—the symbols plus the rest of the numbers—$2332 cash is yours. (If your prefix isn't listed in this ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been posted during the past few weeks. And every week there are 72 new winners posted on the showroom wall. So watch for next week's list of new symbols in this newspaper.) No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number. While you're in the showroom, get a good look at the Buick Special. The $2332.00* happens to be its price. *Manufacturer's suggested retail price for Special V-6, 2-dr. coupe. Price includes Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge.

Contest Rules. Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. L. Folk and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231 and receive the weekly list of winning numbers by mail for comparison with their own vehicle identification number. An official entry form will be included. Sweepstakes limited to persons over 21 living in the continental U.S. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.

REV. J. O. SAVELL
... in services here

Revival Starts Sunday In Local Assembly Of God

The Rev. J. O. Savell of Houston, a well-known figure in the Assemblies of God churches, will arrive in Hereford next Sunday morning to conduct a revival in the local church, located at Ave. G. and Union. The revival will run two weeks, closing on Sunday night, March 20. The evening services will begin at 7:30 p. m. and there will be no Saturday night services.

The Rev. Savell was pastoring Trinity Tabernacle Assembly of God Church in Baytown, when the Rev. V. W. Marcontell, pastor of the local church, was converted in that church in 1933. His counseling and pastoral advice was a great help to Mr. Marcontell in getting started in the ministry.

While serving as pastor at Baytown, the Rev. Savell was elected Superintendent of the Texas District. He served in this capacity until requested by Officials of the denomination to come to Springfield, Missouri and take the position of assistant General Superintendent of the Assemblies of God, the second highest position in the Assemblies of God. After serving in this capacity for a number of years he resigned to reenter the evangelistic and pastoral ministry.

The Rev. Savell is said to have come from the plowhandles to the pulpit. In his sermons he uses a mixture of wit, homespun philosophy, fiery evangelistic appeal, and oratory in such a way that it captivates his audiences. He is said to be one of the most brilliant preachers ever to minister in Assembly of God churches.

In extending an invitation to Herefordites the Rev. Marcontell said, "I would like to have my friends come and meet the man who led me to Christ."

Justice Lauds New Kiwanis Heritage Effort

The Honorable Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and president of the National Conference on Citizenship, has given a strong endorsement to the principles of the new Kiwanis-sponsored Freedom Leadership Program, it was learned here by Eugene Campbell, President of the local Kiwanis Club.

JUSTICE CLARK received word of the new program from Kiwanis International President Edward C. Keefe of Oklahoma City when the latter visited the Supreme Court in Washington, D. C. in mid-January.

As president of the National Conference on Citizenship, Justice Clark has long been active in efforts to strengthen the American heritage of freedom through explaining and dramatizing it to the people of America.

The Freedom Leadership Program, which will be undertaken during 1966, and afterwards, by many of the 5,400 Kiwanis clubs, has substantially the same ends, Campbell said.

"BASICALLY, THE Freedom Leadership Program will be an effort by Kiwanians to bring the freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights and the American jurisprudence system to the attention of their fellow citizens of all ages, explaining and dramatizing in the process," the Kiwanis president added.

The program has received favorable endorsements from individuals and organizations especially interested in government and in the welfare of the people.

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD

"I Shall Keep This Lent"

"LENT" means springtime. It is an old Latin word which means a forty day fasting period next before Easter. It begins with Ash Wednesday and continues till Easter, exclusive of Sundays. It is a time for the conditioning of our soil . . . a time for our Souls to become penitent. It simply means that it is spading up time, the season for planting seeds and for setting blooming trees.

In the realm of the spirit it is a call to get ready for the season of beauty and goodness.

Who amongst us is satisfied with what he is or what he has been? Then let us qualify for the Lenten Season. Let us clear away the rubbish of last year's crop, cut under the old stalks. May we learn from our Lord to give ourselves to good conditioning during Lent. The miracle of Lent is genuine repentance which leads to Newness of Life. A Sainly Keeper of Lent said it well when he spoke the words, "I shall keep this Lent, and hope to refresh my Soul." Amen
