

Whitefaces go to El Paso in search of regional title

The Hereford Whitefaces go after the regional football crown Friday in El Paso against a team Hereford coach Larry Dippel says is capable of putting on an impressive offensive display.

The Coronado Thunderbirds of coach Jack Quarels, with a 10-0-1 record for the year, has showed its scoring powers throughout the season. They have been held to only two touchdowns in two games while running up the score on several of their other games.

"It appears this club is capable of scoring a lot of touchdowns," Dippel said.

"The thing that impresses me the most, though, is their poise. They are capable of coming back if they are down. They also have quite a bit of experience, and these are some of the things that concern me."

The Thunderbirds have 15 starters back from a 9-3 team of a year ago, including a premier junior running back, Chris Mangold who has carried the ball 161 times this year for 994 yards.

During the past four years, El Paso Coronado has posted a 47-7-1 record and has been in the playoffs each of those four years. The Thunderbirds lost to Palo Duro in the regional game last year, 54-22, but this year the El Paso team won its bi-district encounter with El Paso Bowie, 17-8 to earn the right to represent that area in the regional game.

In posting its 10-0-1 record, the El Paso team defeated Albuquerque Monzano 29-3, Roswell 19-6, El Paso Jefferson 14-13, Amarillo Tascosa 21-14, El Paso Andress 21-14, El Paso Irving 25-8, Ysleta Eastwood 14-13, El Paso Austin 39-0, El Paso Burgess 29-16 and El Paso Bowie 17-8 in bi-district.

While the Thunderbirds have posted that enviable record, which includes a 35-35 tie with Las Cruces Mayfield, a top-ranked New Mexico team, their coach is a little hesitant to take the Whitefaces lightly.

"I think it ought to be a real good game," Quarels said. "We have been real impressed with the way they hustle."

"Hereford has something in a team we haven't faced this year—a very well balanced attack, both on the ground and in the air."

The game, which will be played in the famed Sun Bowl beginning at 7:30 p.m. El Paso time (MST), is expected to attract some 15,000 fans. The game also will be transmitted to local radio station KPAN on its FM dial so local fans who do not go to the game can listen to it on the radio. Broadcast time locally will be 8:15 p.m.

The "rags-to-riches" Whitefaces will put its heralded defense against the Thunderbird offense which, among three of its backs, has ground out 1746 yards on the ground.

The Thunderbirds will be guided by either Kirt Carter or Doug Woodul at the quarterback position, depending on the situation. Carter is more of a throwing quarterback where Woodul moves the team well on the ground.

On defense, the 'Birds are strong against a rush, which could mean the Whitefaces may have to go to the air more. They average about 195 on the defensive line and can move with considerable speed.

For the Thunderbirds on defense it probably will be Russell Truby and Henry McKeen at ends, Robert Alvarado and Hal Staley at tackles, Bruce Curlin, Woodul, and Doug Schall at linebackers and Charles Chavez, Richie Grodin, James Martinez and Charlie Lopez in the secondary.

"We have got to play another good defensive game," Dippel said. "And we hope our kicking game is as good against Coronado as it was against Pampa so we can get good field position."

Questions over pay hikes settled

Questions about pay raises for several county employees were cleared up Monday after county commissioners received word from the Internal Revenue Service that—the particular situations here were exempt under the President's Pay Board ceiling of a 5.5 per cent pay increase.

The county commissioners granted a pay raise above the 5.5 per cent limit for County Treasurer Vesta Mae Nunley and District Clerk Lola Faye Veasey. The commission also hiked the pay for "extra labor," maintainer operators and foremen who work on Saturday's and for Ray Quillen, court reporter.

The question as to whether these situations would be exempt from the ceiling or the raise were brought out at a special meeting of the commissioners a week ago. At that time, the commission raised all county employees' salaries up 5.5 per cent which was the limit set by the President's Pay Board. Raises for the others in question were not given until Dist. Atty. Andy Shuval had a chance to contact the IRS and get a ruling.

The county commissioners had announced over a month ago that all employees would get a raise as soon as the wage-price freeze ended, which it did on Nov. 13. The commissioners had said they would give a 6 per cent hike, but the Pay Board limited all raises to 5.5, with only certain exceptions.

Because of the ruling of the IRS, Mrs. Nunley and Mrs. Veasey received salary hikes from $551 per month to $650 per month. This increase puts them above what a deputy sheriff makes.

"They are elected officials and should be making as much or more than the deputies, who are not elected officials," commissioner Donald Hicks said. "This is something that should have been done some time ago."

County maintainer operators and foremen who work on Saturdays received a pay hike to $3.25 per hour above the old hourly wage of only $2.50. Though the county could make the maintainer operators and foremen work Saturdays without pay increases, the commission-

Charter buses to go to game

Chartered buses for fans of the Whitefaces will leave Hereford at 11 a.m. Friday for El Paso and the regional football game between Hereford and the El Paso Coronado team.

Persons wanting to take a chartered bus can contact Debs Knox at Hereford Bakery as soon as possible. Tickets for the chartered bus are $6.75 per person.

The buses will leave Hereford from the large parking lot across the street from the Hereford Bakery.

As many buses as needed will be taken, Knox said, but fans should contact him as soon as possible to make arrangements. Tickets to the game, priced at $2, also will be available at the bakery.

The buses are 36-passenger buses with rest rooms and those who take the chartered service are asked to take a sack lunch. The trip will take about eight hours with one hour set aside for persons to eat. The buses are scheduled to arrive at the Sun Bowl at 7 p.m. and will depart immediately after the game.

ONE INJURED — Lori Ann Schwertner, 6, received facial lacerations Tuesday in an accident northwest of town when she was thrown through the windshield of the car driven by her mother.

Girl in good condition after two-car accident Tuesday

A 6-year-old Hereford girl remained in good condition in Deaf Smith General Hospital early Wednesday suffering from facial lacerations received when she was thrown through the windshield of a car in an accident northwest of town.

Lori Ann Schwertner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oskar Schwertner, was injured in a two-car accident on a county road about four miles northwest of Hereford at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Her mother, Lorine, was also taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital by Gilliland ambulance where she was treated and released.

According to investigating Highway patrolman Don Samuels, the 1964 Buick, driven by Louie LeGrand, was traveling south on the county road and the 1963 Plymouth driven by Mrs. Schwertner was traveling west when the accident occurred.

The front of the Buick struck the right side of the Plymouth, knocking it about 90 feet across a bar ditch and into a field. The Buick wound up facing east and resting in the bar ditch.

The small girl, alone with her mother in the car, was thrown through the right side of the front windshield of the car. A passing motorist came upon the accident and went to a near-by phone where he called the sheriff's department.

The sheriff's department relayed the call to the highway patrol, who investigated the accident.

Members of the Hereford Volunteer Fire department were called to clear the road of glass and other articles knocked from the cars on impact.

Samuels said no citation was given immediately following the accident but one will be given when the investigation is completed.

The possibility of a $300,000 bond issue without an increase in taxes may lie just around the corner for residents of Hereford. It was disclosed at a special meeting Tuesday of the Hereford Independent School Board of Trustees.

The board authorized superintendent Roy Hartman to pursue the matter and get estimates on several "sorely needed" projects in the school system. Hartman is expected to have some formation available as to the costs of the projects by the next meeting of the board on Dec. 13.

- Projects expected to draw first priority are:
- Paving around the football stadium, which is estimated at about $45,000.
 - Additional space for vocational programs.
 - New science facilities at Stanton Junior High, estimated at $100,000.
 - Renovation at two elementary schools, estimated at $100,000.
 - Enlargement of the high school auditorium.
 - Installation of an all-weather track at the football field, estimated at between $25,000 and $40,000.
 - A new library at the high school, estimated at about $100,000, and
 - New field house facilities for visiting football teams.

"There are more needs than these," Hartman said, "and with a $300,000 bond issue, some of these won't even get done."

"These figures are purely estimates and they could be higher or lower. We will just have to get someone to come in here and sit down and get some accurate figures for us."

Hartman stressed that the school could call a bond issue for $300,000 without having to increase the taxes. If it were not for the fact that taxes would remain the same the system would not even consider another bond issue, he said.

The areas behind the stadium bleachers are not paved and during wet weather and football games, fans have to walk through mud to get into the stadium.

On the library, Hartman said the present library is inadequate for the needs of the high school and if a new library is built, the present room could be turned into either three separate classrooms or into a team-teaching area.

"We are supposed to be able to seat at least 10 per cent of our total enrollment in our library at one time," Bill Phillips told the board. "Or, about 100 students. As it is now, we can squeeze about 60 in there."

A possible location for a new library would be just south of the band hall, Hartman said.

An addition to the field house is needed, according to Hartman, because of the inconvenience put upon other schools who come here for a football game. As it is now the visiting team

County purchases tank to fight country blazes

An old 5,000 gallon transport tank has been purchased by the county for use by the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department in fighting county fires.

The county purchased the tank for the department at a cost of only $500 and the city will provide the truck-tractor with which to haul the mammoth tank to fires that are outside the city limits that require a lot of water to fight.

"With this new tank, instead of running back and forth between a fire and the city to fill our trucks back up, we can take this 5,000 gallon tank with us and fight a pretty big fire," fire marshal Jay Spain said.

The tank was purchased through the Civil Defense. It was used as a fuel tank at the air base in Amarillo before it was discarded.

"This will be like a traveling fire plug," Spain said. "Our little trucks only carry about 400 gallons, so you can see this is going to be something real good for us."

"It also will be better protection for the county on those fires where it takes a lot of water to put them out."

The county commissioners, in purchasing the unit, also agreed that it would be of benefit to the county.

"As many fires as we have been having outside the city limits this could come in real handy. That would be enough reason in itself for us to go ahead and buy this tank," commissioner Marcus Latham said.

The Volunteer Fire Department will borrow a truck-tractor from the city to pull the tank and when there is a fire, fire trucks can back up to the tank and fill up when they are empty. Nozzles will be put on the tank, along with a pump.

Spain said Canyon, Dumas and Amarillo are the only other cities in this area that he knows of that have such a piece of fire-fighting equipment.

Lynton Allred gets special award

Lynton Allred, vice president of Allred Oil Company, received a Community Service Award from Phillips Petroleum Company for outstanding achievement in community service.

M.J. Chisholm, Division Manager for the Phillips 66, Houston Sales Office, presented the Community Service Award plaque to Allred and stated:

"This award for meritorious community service is made to distributors of Phillips products for unusual community services that bring credit to the individual or his organization. It is truly a tribute to the individual for service to his fellowman above and beyond the call of duty."

In addition to the inscribed plaque, Allred received notification that a $100 gift certificate would be donated in his honor to a favorite charity. Allred named the Gristown Christmas Fund as his choice.

Nominations for the Phillips Petroleum Company's Community Service Award are obtained from letters from customers calling special notice to an individual, or from recommendations of Phillips Sales Division Managers. A special committee periodically makes the selections of those to receive the distinction of being a Phillips 66 Community Service Award recipient.

"This award is being presented to Allred in appreciation for his active interest and participation in civic and community affairs," Chisholm stated. "These activities include City Commissioner; director of the Hereford Chamber of Commerce; president of the Hereford Noon Lions Club; assistant in organizing a Jaycee chapter in Hereford, chairman of the March of Dimes drive in Deaf Smith County; local chairman of the Easter Seal Society; active worker in the Hereford United Fund Drives; active member of the First Baptist Church where he is a deacon and Sunday School Teacher."

Quillen, who does court reporting in district court, received a 5.5 per cent increase. It was first believed that he would not be able to do so because of state law, but a check with the IRS said this was one of the situations where an increase would be permitted.

Quillen receives $2,964 from Deaf Smith County for his work, but also gets paid by the other counties in the district in which he works.

The field house was built in 1963, "for the size we were then," Hartman said.

The school administrators are looking into a program that possibly could help the system out by providing money to do renovation work at both Shirley and Central Elementary Schools.

Assistant superintendent Bob Holman now is working on a proposed program to present to the board that would help in the renovation projects. He will be asking the state for some $300,000 for the two schools.

"I am not getting my hopes up this time until we find out something definite," Hartman said.

The school system earlier this year had made plans to renovate Central elementary school into a partial non-graded system, but funds were not available.

Holly moves to put an end to pollution

Sugarbeet processors in 15 states have reached informal agreement with the Environmental Protection Agency for installation of pollution controls costing about $13,000,000, according to President John B. Bunker of Holly Sugar Corporation.

Bunker said that EPA Administrator William D. Ruckelshaus called the voluntary cleanup agreement "the first of its kind and I hope that it will set a precedent."

According to Bunker, processors would control organic wastes from their plants by recycling flume water rather than discharging it into nearby waterways.

The flume water, which transports and washes sugarbeets, is recirculated through settling ponds or tanks to help remove undesirable material and prevent odors from forming.

Bunker pointed out that Holly installed one of the industry's first waste water recirculation systems when it built its Carlton plant in California's Imperial Valley.

Since then, this system has been improved and has been put into operation at Holly's factories in California, Colorado, Montana, Texas and Wyoming.

The EPA has said that the beet sugar industry has installed full controls at 17 of its 57 processing plants.

Veteran's affairs

Q—I am attending school under VA's Dependents' Educational Assistance program. May I work at the same time?

A—Yes, since there is no limit to the amount of income you may earn.

Q—I draw 60 per cent disability compensation from VA. Does this make my dependents eligible for special educational benefits available to disabled veterans?

A—No. Only children of veterans rated by VA as totally and permanently disabled from service connected causes are entitled to this benefit.

Q—I just heard I might be eligible for a VA burial allowance for my husband who died 14 months ago. Is this true?

A—Yes, provided your husband received an other than dishonorable discharge. Claim for a maximum $250 burial allowance may be filed within two years of permanent burial or cremation.

4-H club given first lesson in decoupage art

Mrs. Richard Fortenbery, leader of Walcott 4-H Club, gave the groups first lesson in decoupage at a recent meeting over which Teena Self, president, presided.

Mrs. Wilis Duggan was welcomed as a new 4-H leader.

Members gathered to work on quilt blocks for a quilt project being conducted at each meeting. The finished quilt will be presented to a person of the group's choice.

Small talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

THERE'S BEEN frequent mention lately of the coming holiday season... now it's not just "coming"... it's here for sure... and a merry Thanksgiving to you all.

In practically no time at all it will be Christmas, and the year gone and we'll be having the usual first-of-the-year struggle to write 1972 in our dates instead of 1971.

Before rushing the year to an end, however, there's plenty to enjoy during the holidays; in many Hereford homes it is family reunions for Thanksgiving, a lot of them featuring college students at home for the first time since the semester began.

SOME FAMILIES, like that of Wilma and Pete Carmichael, will get together for the weekend. Their daughter, Shari, and her husband, Wiley James, students in the University of Texas at Austin; their son, Kenneth, his wife and two sons from Winifred, Mont., and the other son, Dr. Bill, and family from Bedford, are all to be here.

Wiley James, a second year student in the UT law school, comes in for congratulations on his recent accomplishment of being elected associate editor for the coming year of the Texas International Law Journal.

VISITORS LAST weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R.G. Blue were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blue of Enid, Okla. The two men are brothers... Mrs. W. K. Golden of Lake Belton is here to visit through the holidays with the Jack Wilcoxes. She is Meredith Wilcox's mother and in past visits here has made a lot of friends who are always glad to see her back in Hereford... Mrs. Wilber Griffin is meeting friends of her friend, Mrs. Keith Simmer, in whose home she is a house guest.

IT'S OPEN SEASON right now on benefit sales and bazaars and such events which naturally accompany the holidays. Several have been announced, and offhand I can remember the Christmas botique and food sale by women of St. Thomas Episcopal Church planned for Dec. 4, and the Art Guild show and sale the same day. Also Madre Mia Club's holiday bazaar Dec. 9.

Painting lesson is given after H.D. club lunch

Cameo painting, a decorative craft of many uses, was demonstrated by a guest on the program of West Hereford Home Demonstration Club after a lunch with a Thanksgiving theme Tuesday in the home of Mrs. D. W. Allman.

Pictures, pillows and such items as aprons and potholders ornamented with cameo painting were shown by Irene Coker as she showed how the paint was applied. Also on program was a talk by Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent, on fabrics.

The covered dish lunch was served to two guests, Mrs. Cheddix of Amarillo and Mrs. A. G. Bell, in addition to the speakers.

Members present were Meses. John Jacobsen Sr., Cora Bentley, W. A. Waters, Robert Boyd, Roy Boyd, E. M. Cox, D. R. Grimes, Berryman, Blanche Hardin, U. V. Pierce, Misses Mary Brady and Evelyn Bell. The club Christmas party will be in Mrs. Brady's home Dec. 14.

Walcott girls win 3rd place

The Walcott girls' basketball team finished third in the recent Adrian Tournament while the boys' team finished the tournament without a win.

Entered in the tournament was Walcott, Bushland, Amarillo Christian and Adrian.

The Walcott girls lost their opening game to Bushland, 27-15 then fell to Adrian, 24-10 before bouncing back and clipping Amarillo Christian, 15-10 for third place.

The Wilcox boys, apparently stuck on scoring only 22 points, fell to Bushland, 52-22 then to Adrian, 37-22 and Amarillo Christian, 27-22.

The next games for the Wildcats will be Dec. 13 when they play host to the Bushland teams.

In 1900 there were an estimated 500,000 deer in America. Today there are more than 16 million.

SPEEDWAY CHANGES COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — A $6 million two-mile super speedway, formerly known as Texas International Speedway, will reopen here Sunday, Dec. 5.

Bill France, president of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing, said the financially-troubled facility has been purchased by Daniel W. Holloway of Farmington, Mich.

It will be operated by Holloway and Robert M. Andrews of Lansing, Mich.

The new corporation will be known as Texas World Speedway, Inc.

Buy Polaroid's deluxe Focused Flash 450 and get a Big Shot free.

When you buy a Focused Flash 450, we'll give you Polaroid's Big Shot free. You get the finest camera Polaroid makes plus the most unusual camera Polaroid makes.

The best Polaroid Land camera for you: You get Polaroid's most advanced camera, the 450. It has Polaroid's Focused Flash. Focused Flash puts exactly the right amount of light on your subject.

Little lenses in the Rangefinder are linked to the focusing system of the camera. As you focus, the camera automatically opens the shutters to put the right amount of light on the subject even as far back as 10 feet. Or as close as 3 1/2 feet, you get the soft, flattering light of Focused Flash.

The 450 gives you automatic exposures for all other shots with an electric eye and electronic shutter. It also features a built-in electronic development timer that "Beeps" when the picture's ready, a Zebra icon rangefinder/flashfinder for easy, precise focusing, a superb metal body, with deluxe chrome finish.

The most unusual Polaroid camera for your wife: She gets the Big Shot. The new goof-proof camera that lets her take 60-second color shots of the kids. Big faces - the kind of pictures she wants most. The Polaroid Big Shot Land camera is only for close-up color portraits. That's why the camera looks so unusual - it takes a "long lens" to get shots like these. Pictures are almost all face, the kind you get in portrait studios.

Portraits you can't mess up. Forget words like "flicker" and "exposure". You just walk toward your subject until the two faces in the window are one - and press the button.

Never worry about the lighting. It's the same indoors and out. A flashcube behind a big diffusion panel gives you soft portrait lighting every shot. The timer signals when your picture is developed and ready to see. So easy the kids can take her portrait.

You get both until (date) for only $145*

YOUR GOOD HEALTH IS OUR MOST IMPORTANT CONCERN
Our many years in this community and our dedication to the cause of better health provide the basis for our deep personal interest in the well-being of you and your family.

THAT'S A NO, NO — An unidentified Hereford defender grabs hold of a Pampa player while the referees are watching the ball carrier and the action around him. Hereford won the game, 28-20, and will meet El Paso Coronado in the Sun Bowl Friday for the regional crown.

BY MELVIN YOUNG
 Few people could have believed at the beginning of the season that the Hereford Whitefaces would win the district title, much less the bi-district tilt, and you could have gotten a bet almost anywhere in town that they would certainly not be in contention for the regional crown. But that's what has happened, and we think it's great.
 This is, by the way, the first time a Hereford team has advanced as far as the regional playoffs in 25 years, and we suspect the first time ever that a Hereford team has played in the Sun Bowl. Now that in itself is quite a distinction.
 —HB—
 Apparently the homefolks plan to be on hand for the contest too. About all we've heard this week is "how far" and "which is the best route." Being an expert on nearly everything—and since we made four trips to the Sun City last year—we can report that it's about 400 miles, depending on which way you go, and nearly every route is good. Good 'n long, too.

 —HB—
 We understand the band, pep squad and drill team will be going to the game, and as an added feature, will be allowed to stop at Carlsbad for a side trip into the Caverns, and may get a tour of Juarez Saturday morning before returning home. That will be a great experience for all of them.
 Our youngest, who is now a Senior in high school, and a member of the drill team will get another chance to see the Caverns and we hope she's more receptive this time than before. We toured the mammoth cave when she was about 7-years-old and she didn't like it too well then. However, there were a lot of things that she wanted to see at that tender age. A couple of years earlier we had made a trip to California and spent one day at the beach while there. She didn't like that either. "Too much sand," she allowed and promptly went to sleep under the beach umbrella.

 But then, she's a lot like her father. She can go to sleep almost anywhere.
 —HB—
 John McClesky, the retired gimmer, probably plays more golf than anyone in Hereford, and in spite of his 75 years, will take on about anybody on the links. And like most of the golfers, he enjoys the penny-ante wagering that usually goes with it.
 Up in this part of the country, the game most often played is "bridge" and like the card game by the same name, the idea is to "bid" what you think you and your partner are capable of shooting, and then make the point—or less. If the other team thinks you can't make the point, they'll probably double it, and if you are confident, you'll probably re-double. That makes each point worth four and that's when the game gets interesting.

 During a recent match on the Gaines County Golf Course, John and his partner had bid a 10 on a normally easy 4-par hole. The only catch was a water hazard across the fairway near the green. The opponents doubled, and John, being confident that each could make a 5 or less, re-doubled. It sure looked like a cinch. Well sir, his partner took a par-4 on the hole, but John had a little trouble with the water hazard. He knocked his second shot into the water, and things went from there to worse. The team didn't make the bid.
 That upset Mr. McClesky, whose game is considerably more consistent than the average golfer, and he wanted to try it again. Replay the hole—on the same basis—a redoubled 10 bid. The other team agreed, and the foursome backtracked to the tee and started over.

 This time, John's partner put his second shot within 2 feet of the cup, and sank the putt for a birdie-3. But John got into trouble again. Back in the water with his second shot, and again the team didn't make the bid.
 His partner didn't say a word, knowing quite well that such things do happen to the best of golfers. But he was a little surprised when John walked over and said rather forcefully, "Say, if you had made a duce there, we'd of made that bid!"
 Well sir, that caused a little comment and we suspect they might have played that hole over if it hadn't been so late in the evening and the group had been a little closer to home.
 But you can't win them all.

Book reviewed by Mrs. Strain

Mrs. Robert Strain, guest speaker at Young Mothers Study Club Tuesday evening, reviewed the book Everybody Wins, Nobody Loses by Edith-Jane Bahr. The story contains humorous aspects of being a housewife. Mrs. Jerry Tisdale, hostess, was assisted by Mrs. Burl Spears.

License stamps must be obtained before weekend

If anyone decides on a weekend to try and get a duck stamp for their duck hunting license, they should forget it. Instead of contacting local game warden Chuck Cosper you might try getting your license stamped before the weekend at the post office. Cosper does not stamp the license because the federal post office is the only agency that can. Cosper has been plagued with weekend calls from persons who want their licenses stamped, but he cannot do it. He has suggested those who want their license stamped to get it done during the week while the post office is open.

Two guests present were Mrs. Bobby Whitfill and Mrs. Robert Devin. Members voted, in business, to purchase new gifts of clothing for the State Hospital at Wichita Falls as the remainder of its Christmas project activity. Announcement was made the Christmas party for husbands will be at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 14 in the Raymond Gerk home.

Other members in attendance were Mmes. Eldon Howell, Bud Thomas, Chesley Johnston, Travis McPherson, Harvey Milton, Paul Jones, Don Brush and Charles Brown.

AAUW names its chairmen

Chairmen of standing committees were introduced, with officers elected at a previous meeting, at a dinner for the new Hereford Chapter, American Association of University Women, in the Caison House Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Colby Conkright, chosen as the organization's first president, has named Mrs. Si Daring as historian, Mrs. Bob Word, parliamentarian, Mrs. Terrell Bell fellowship program chairman, Mrs. Leroy Williamson legislative program chairman.

Also heading committees are Mrs. Arthur Clark, implementation; Mrs. Jerry Lane, by-laws; Mrs. Charles Doubrava, public information; Mrs. Dick Barnard, social; Mrs. Roy Hartman, yearbook; Mary Carter, status of women.

Mrs. Melvin Lomenick and Mrs. Wayne Hodgson are vice presidents of the chapter, Mrs. Don Cumpston secretary and Mrs. Lane treasurer.

As membership chairman, Mrs. Hodgson announced that the 11 new members received Tuesday evening gave the chapter more than its goal of an enrollment of 50 charter members. Membership is still open, and eligible women of this area are invited to call Mrs. Hodgson or Mrs. Conkright for information.

Study topic for the year will be "We, the People," dealing with legislative branches of various governments. In keeping with this theme, a description of his visit to United Nations headquarters last summer was given by David Thomas, who spoke also of side trips in New York and Washington, D.C.

Londene Edmonson, lately named Teacher of the Year by Deaf Smith County Classroom Teachers, was introduced as a special guest.

Hostesses who made dinner arrangements were Mrs. Conkright, Mrs. Barnard and Bea Barrett. Dinner was served to 44 members.

The chapter will not meet in December; meetings will resume the fourth Monday in January.

Funeral service held Wednesday

Funeral services for Adolfo Casillas, 50, of House, N.M., were conducted Wednesday afternoon in St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Burial was in St. Anthony's Cemetery, directed by Gilliland Funeral Home.

Mr. Casillas died Monday in the Veterans Administration Hospital at Albuquerque. He was a veteran of military service in World War II. He was born Feb. 2, 1921, at Pleasanton.

Survivors are his wife, two daughters, four sons, four sisters and five brothers.

Thanksgiving arithmetic told

Using the mathematics of Thanksgiving for her program Tuesday evening, Mrs. Red Durham said "We can add to our thanks by adding to our giving, multiply by sharing our giving with others and dividing our blessings with everyone around us.

"We subtract from our blessings if we withhold our giving," she continued. "It takes two wings for a bird to fly and we can fly high with the twin wings of Thanks and Giving."

Valeda Study Club members met with Mrs. Armon Lauderback. In a brief business session they voted to collect gifts for girls at Gristown this Christmas season.

Members present were Mmes. Bill Brady, Gid Brown, Hugh Clearman, Red Durham, Richard Ottesen, George Ritter, Billy Wayne Sisson, James Trail, Glen Watts, Frank Zinser and John Poindexter.

The progressive dinner for husbands Dec. 14 will begin at 7 p.m. at the Trail home for the appetizer, Sisson for salad, Ottesen for the main course and Gwynne Owen for dessert.

Guests attend wedding from various cities

OUTPACES PRESIDENT
LOS ANGELES (AP) — After President Nixon announced his new economic program with a freeze on prices and wages, Bob Houston, manager of clergy relations for Forest Lawn Memorial Park, remarked that the churches were way ahead of him. He said:

"According to hundreds of pastors I've talked with in recent years, the church has had a freeze on ministers' salaries for years. I guess that means the church is more progressive than the government. At least you can't say it's behind the times."

Hereford has five in all-region choir

Five members of the Hereford High School choir were named to the all-region choir and one of those five now is eligible to compete for all-state honors in February.

Named to all-region were Susie Hickman, Randy Clements, Ladonna Williams, Georgette Malouf and Karen Scott.

Miss Hickman was among the top five sopranos entered in the contest and because of that she now is eligible to audition for all-state honors. A person must be one of the top five in order to qualify.

OPPOSES POLITICS
WASHINGTON, D.C. (AP) — Preaching social reform or getting involved in political issues is not the church's job, and is weakening many denominations, says Kenneth H. Wood, editor of the Seventh-day Adventist periodical, Review and Herald.

He says denominations which have diverted their emphasis from spiritual mission to social concern have been hit by "internal division, shrinking memberships and hostility from civil governments."

The January gathering of the all-region members will be under the direction of Gene Kinney, head of the vocal music department at Texas Tech University. Kinney will meet with the all-region members on Jan. 7 for a rehearsal and the group then will present its concert on Jan. 8.

Nebraska, Oklahoma clash will settle top spot question

No. 1 battles No. 2 on Thanksgiving Day, and No. 3 thrashes it out with No. 6 on Saturday.

As was said last week, copy will abound this week on Nebraska-Oklahoma.

In the Harmon book, the Cornhusker power quotient is just two points stronger than the Sooners, but whatever happens, you may be sure that a lot of mouth-watering turkey dinners all over the nation will suffer from acute footballitis.

Saturday's clash between the two Alabama unbeaten, Auburn and Alabama, won't run into any conflict with Thanksgiving dinners - possibly only cold turkey for the losers. The Southeast Conference championship is squarely on the line in this 36th renewal of the Battle of Alabama. Georgia's inability to stop Auburn two weeks ago surprised us - the Crimson Tide might have the same problem, but we don't think so. Alabama will "hold that Tiger" just a bit better. Auburn is the underdog by six points.

Army meets Navy in The Big Tradition in Philadelphia. The Cadets have shown a few more flashes of brilliance than the Middies, but as usual it can be anybody's ball game. On paper it's West Point over Annapolis by two points.

In all the years we've been rating the college division teams (small colleges), we've never had such a powerful Number One team as Delaware is this year. Nor have we had one so far out in front of the rest of the pack as are the Blue Hens. Temple, now classed as a major school, was the only team to beat Delaware. Eight points back, in second place is Tampa, with unbeaten Tennessee State and McNeese State third and fourth respectively.

On Thanksgiving Day, Texas will nail down the coffin containing the rest of the teams in the Southwest Conference. The Longhorns, No. 11, will win the league crown and earn the host's spot in the Cotton Bowl with an 18-point victory over Texas A&M. 7th ranked Georgia will whip the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech by 14 points.

In the Southwest and Far West, two of the nation's powerhouses will close out their 1971 seasons. 10th-ranked Arizona State, beaten only by Oregon State, will beat arch-rival Arizona by 28 points, and Houston, No. 12, will scalp Utah, also by 28 points.

In one of the climaxes to the 1971 college football season on December 4th, 5th-ranked Penn State will beat Tennessee, No. 18, by 13 points.

Washington report--from Cong. Bob Price

Energy Crisis
During recent months I have introduced two bills which would provide incentives for additional oil and gas exploration. My prediction that we face an energy crisis unless action is taken was borne out last week. The gas company which serves the Washington, D. C. metropolitan area announced it will no longer accept new customers except in single family residences.

In remarks prepared for delivery on the floor of the House, I pointed out that Congress has recently followed a policy which has effectively discouraged oil and gas exploration. This has resulted in shortages of these vital fuel resources. My bills would remove Federal Power Commission authority to regulate the price of natural gas flowing in interstate commerce and would provide a 12.5 per cent tax credit for drilling domestic exploration wells and performing secondary recovery operations. In my opinion, passage of either or both of these bills would greatly increase the search for additional fuel reserves. Three years ago, more natural gas was consumed than was discovered. The consumption over discovery deficit was 5.5 trillion cubic feet. In 1969, the deficit was 12 trillion cubic feet. If the choice comes down to higher prices or no gas, I believe most Americans would choose higher prices.

Dock Strikes
Because of the possible permanent damage to this country's agricultural and industrial export markets, I have introduced legislation which will give the President three new procedures to prevent or end emergency-creating transportation strikes—such as those which have tied up most U.S. seaports for many weeks. Most affected in our area is farm produce. Last year farm exports reached a record total of $7.8 billion. The expansion of this export trade is vital if there is to be a market for a great portion of our farm production. I remain a firm believer in free collective bargaining, but the interests of one group cannot be allowed to harm the entire nation. Government Pay Increases

In 1969, when the independent board appointed by former President Johnson recommended pay increases for Congress, the President and Federal judges ranging from 42 per cent to 100 per cent, I opposed these increases. During the opening days of the 91 Congress, I introduced a resolution to disapprove these raises. The leadership in the House refused to let my resolution come to a vote. I have now joined with more than 40 other Congressmen in introducing legislation which provides a means whereby any member can force a record vote on future pay increases. In my view, elected Representatives of the people have no business abdicating their responsibilities on such an important issue to a group of individuals not responsible to the electorate.

Brocks to mark marriage date

A reception marking the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brock is to be held from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Leonard Schmidt, 820 Ave. K. All friends of the honored couple are invited to call. Residents of Hereford since 1930, Mr. and Mrs. Brock live at 721 Union. Brock has been employed with the Hereford school system for many of the years they have resided here. They request that no anniversary gifts be made. Pearl Whited and Arthur Brock were married Nov. 19, 1921, at Crosbyton. The anniversary celebration was set for Sunday since all their children except one son, Alton Brock of Iwakuni, Japan, can be here then. The children and their families will be hosts for the reception. They include twin daughters, Mary and Virginia, Mrs. Victor Talbot and Mrs. Thomas Davis respectively, both of whom live in El Cajon, Calif. They are the eldest, and Mrs. Schmidt, the other daughter, is youngest of the children. In between are the sons, including Kenneth of Altus, Okla., Clyde of Baytown and Richard of Laredo. One son, Joseph, is deceased.

Former resident is cited for long service

Mrs. Ross Wilmeth was the third youngest daughter of the twelve children born to James H. Williams family in Hereford, reared and educated in its schools. Leila, or "Cookie" to two generations of students in Fort Sumner, N.M., was honored by her fellow employees recently on the occasion of her retirement following 23 years as supervisor of the Fort Sumner Schools hot lunch program. Members of the faculty administration lunch room staff and other friends gathered in the Home Economics building, where they applauded and laughed as Leila recalled highlights of her many years of service. Covering the early history of the accomplishments of the local PTA through whose efforts and constant support the hot lunch program was initiated. The group heard James Fincke, superintendent of the Fort Sumner Schools, give some surprising statistics regarding Mrs. Wilmeth's record. He spoke briefly of other honors and accomplishments of the honoree—her long record of support of the children in the community, her volunteer work with the Boy Scouts at Alamogordo Lake and the Campfire Girls in Las Vegas, her receipt of the PTA Life Membership Award in recent years, and her many "back door" acts of generosity and friendship to students of Fort Sumner Schools. Quoting from school records of enrollment and the number of students taking part in the lunch program, Fincke arrived at a figure for the number of meals in the lunch program Mrs. Wilmeth had prepared in her 23 years—1,963,000. "If a housewife prepared three meals per day," he said, "it would take her 1,701 years to equal the number Leila has served."

He added that this did not include the 4,480 meals she had served Head Start youngsters, the 6,900 meals for the Fox Relays, the numerous banquets she had prepared or directed, nor the famous sack lunches which accompanied the track teams. Gifts to the honoree included a charm bracelet purchased by the grade school children and decorated with suitable inscriptions regarding her school work and time of employment. From her adult fellow-workers she received an electric watch; and from the lunch room staff, a memorable lunch-room tray, ornately wrapped and presented, containing "one more typical school lunch." A festive tea-table, set in the cottage dining room, was presided over by Mrs. Nina Grimshaw and Mrs. Ethel Achen. Refreshments of cookies, tea sandwiches and punch were served the guests.

Langleys given housewarming, surprise event

Rebuilt after drastic damage in the tornado here last April, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Langley, only lately reoccupied by the family, was the scene of a surprise housewarming Saturday evening. An engagement had been made by the Langleys to go out to dinner with another couple. At the appointed time that couple and 18 others arrived, bringing food for a buffet supper and a gift for the house. The gift was a large lighted globe on a handsome floor stand. So badly damaged by the windstorm that it had to be almost completely rebuilt, the Langley house at 502 Star has been enlarged in the restoration, with the living room made larger and a room added. Guests Saturday evening enjoyed looking over it, the women admiring its plentiful storage space and "dream" kitchen while the men gave most attention to the study added for Langley's convenience, and the stereo system built into the house. Oscar Schilling of Amarillo, the architect who drew plans for the rebuilding and had previously planned additions to the original home, was among the housewarming guests with his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Trotter of Amarillo, former Hereford residents were also out-of-town guests. The party was planned by

Messrs. and Mmes. Elmer Kimball, Pete Caviness, Hazen Woods, Wayne Thomas, A. T. Mims and Tom Kendrick. Others in the housewarming group were Messrs. and Mmes. Paul Coneway, Kenny Gearn, Wesley Gully, D. C. McWhorter, Roy Grubbs, James Witherspoon, En Gollehon, Tom Burdett, John Alkin and Dick Barnard. RABBIT RAISERS MEET FRIDAY
The Tierra Blanca Chapter of the Texas Rabbit Raisers Association will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. Friday in the Community Room of the First National Bank. All members and visitors are welcome. Discussion will be on the various problems the members have. A total of 94,835 automobiles were reported stolen in New York City in 1970. The baracuda ranks as one of the most feared of all killer fishes.

Future events put on calendar at county H.D. Council meeting

Coming events of this month and into 1972 were announced in Deaf Smith County Home Demonstration Council Monday afternoon, at a meeting in the county courtroom. First on the list is a program on Family Relations, set for 2:30 p.m. Nov. 30 in the Scout Room at Community Center with the Rev. Gene Meacham of Dawn Baptist Church as the speaker. Let's cook something

From freezer to oven

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

We've just tried a new way to roast beef and found it extremely successful. You, too, might find it convenient.

By this method you wrap a top sirloin beef roast in heavy-duty aluminum foil and freeze it. When you decide to cook the meat, no thawing is necessary. All you have to do is to remove the meat from the freezer, place it (in its wrapped frozen state) in a shallow roasting pan, loosen the foil over the top, open the foil at the ends and pop it into the oven.

About half an hour before the cooking time is up, you turn back the foil completely and add seasonings and liquid for the gravy, then continue roasting until done. Easy and good!

ROAST BEEF WITH GRAVY
4 pounds (about) top sirloin beef roast, wrapped in foil and frozen

1 cup dry red wine
2 teaspoons salt
Generous sprinkling of freshly grated pepper
1 clove garlic, crushed
1 can (10 1/4 ounces) condensed beef broth (bouillon)
Butter
Instant flour

Remove foil-wrapped roast from freezer. Place in a shallow roasting pan and loosen the foil over the top of the meat and open the foil at the ends.

Roast in a 400-degree oven, allowing 40 minutes per pound. About 30 minutes before time is up, remove roast from oven and turn back the foil completely. With a bulb-type baster or spoon, remove most of the fat from the drippings in the foil. Pour wine over roast in foil. Mix salt, pepper and garlic; quickly spread over meat. Insert meat thermometer; return to oven and continue roasting at 400 degrees until thermometer registers 120 degrees for very rare, 140 for medium or 160 for well done.

Transfer roast (without foil) to a carving board or platter. Pour juices into a 1-quart measure; remove excess fat; to the juices add the undiluted beef broth and, if necessary, enough water to make 2 cups or more. For the gravy, allow 1 to 1 1/2 tablespoons butter and 1 to 1 1/2 tablespoons flour for each cup of liquid.

To make the gravy, melt the butter in a saucepan; remove from heat; stir in the flour; gradually stir in the liquid, keeping smooth. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Correct the seasoning and if you want the gravy a browner color add a little vegetable bouquet sauce. Slice the beef and serve it with the gravy.

Trip for lunch entertains club

Lunch at the historic Elm Tree Inn at Tullia entertained members and guests of Lone Star Study Club Saturday noon, preceded by a tour of the building which has been designated a landmark worthy of preservation for its part in Tullia's past.

Rooms furnished in keeping with the pioneer period around the opening of this century when the hotel was built, were visited by the Hereford group.

A lunch featuring turkey in the Thanksgiving tradition was served in the dining room. Club business was omitted except an announcement reminding members that only one meeting will be held in December, at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 14 in the home of Mrs. John N. Jacobsen Jr.

In the party which met Saturday morning at Community Center and drove to Tullia for lunch were Mr. and Mrs. W.O. McCutcheon, Dr. and Mrs. C.D. Kelton, Mmes. S.S. Williams, Hardy Benson, G.W. Newsom, W.S. Fluit, J.C. Williams, H.E. Henalee, Jim Higgins and Jim Bookout.

Engaged girl is honored

Gwen Duncan, bride-to-be of Jim Huckert, was complimented with a Sunday afternoon tea-shower in the home of Marie Richardson on West Park Avenue.

The Duncan-Huckert wedding ceremony is to be conducted on Dec. 4. Miss Duncan greeted shower guests with her mother, Mrs. L. T. Johnson, and her fiance's mother, Mrs. Norma Huckert.

In the hostess party with Mrs. Richardson were Mmes. John Gilliland, Robert Betzen, William Smith, John Claypool, Bill Gilleland, Robert Hickman and Bob Emerick.

DRAWING WINNER — Mrs. G. K. Munnerlyn is shown with Dale Lawrence, manager of Perry's, and the new sewing machine she won in a drawing Saturday.

Family incomes up according to survey

According to a nationwide study of income and its distribution, Deaf Smith County has more of its families in the middle and upper brackets and fewer in the lower brackets than ever before.

Locally there has been a progressive shift upward, with families advancing from one income level to the next higher one.

Many of those who were in the $8,000 to $10,000 group a year or two ago are now to be found in the $10,000-and-over spot. Their former positions, in turn, have been taken over by families who had been in the $5,000 to $8,000 category.

The facts and figures are revealed in a copyrighted report prepared by Sales Management, the marketing publication. It analyzes each community to determine the segments of its population that fall within the various income brackets.

The purpose was to obtain a better financial picture of localities across the country than could be gained solely from the usual "average income" figures.

Does that average income apply to a large portion of the population or does it represent a small proportion of high-income families counterbalancing a larger proportion with small earnings?

In Deaf Smith County, the report shows, 63.6 percent of the households had $5,000 or more in disposable cash remaining from their incomes after paying their personal taxes.

By way of comparison, the proportion three years ago, when a similar study was made, was only 50.3 percent.

The gain, 12.7 percent, topped the United States rise of 6.1 percent and that in the West South Central States, 8.2 percent.

Because the survey takes into account only cash income, it does not do full justice to farm communities, where income-in-kind and lower living costs are important considerations.

The breakdown figures for Deaf Smith County list 23.8 percent of the local households with net incomes of $9,000 to $8,000 after taxes, 12.8 percent at the $8,000 to $10,000 level and, in the over-$10,000 brackets, 26.4 percent. The remainder are below $5,000.

Because of the steady rise in the cost of living, these income gains were offset to a large extent, it is noted. However, the advantages have outweighed the disadvantages in the past five years.

More than 27,000 gallons of water are needed to irrigate an acre of land to the depth of one inch.

Project Christmas Card gifts to be received in annual drive

This weekend, canisters decorated in bright holiday colors will be placed in a number of Hereford business houses, ready to receive contributions in Project Christmas Card sponsored by the Hereford Medical Auxiliary.

The project, familiar to area residents, is conducted by the Auxiliary each year to raise funds which supply needed equipment to Deaf Smith General Hospital. Through the years it has bought items as diverse as nursery furniture and cardiac monitor equipment.

Auxiliary members, who are wives of Hereford physicians and dentists, request that area residents contribute to this project the sum they would normally spend sending holiday greetings to others in the community.

To replace these greeting cards, the Auxiliary prepares a page greeting in the Christmas edition of the Hereford Brand, listing names of all contributors and conveying their good wishes to friends.

Accounts have been opened at both banks here to receive contributions, and the canisters will be set up in the hospital lobby, at Piggly Wiggly, Easter Gin, Gaston's Safeway, Taylor's Food, Harold Close Drug, Beauty House and Hereford Hardware.

Mrs. Kenneth Hunt is president of the Auxiliary this year.

New York City received a $17 million Federal grant under the Emergency Employment Act.

New York hotels are permitted to add a 14-cent surcharge to local telephone calls made by guests.

The Thunderbirds enter the contest with a 10-0-1 record and are favored over the Whitefaces by a single point.
The El Paso team presents a strong challenge to Hereford's Whitefaces because of their well balanced attack that can push the ball on the ground as well as connect through the air.

At Christmastime

Servicemen get free calls

Continuing a tradition of three years' standing, the American Federation of Musicians (AFL-CIO), will again pick up the tab for U. S. servicemen's phone calls from overseas bases to their homes at Christmas time. U.S. servicemen and women may call their homes from anywhere on the globe where there is a U.S. military base or ship, as guests of the AFM, it was announced by Hal C. Davis, President of the 315,000-member union.

Calls are transmitted from overseas by the Military Amateur Radio Service (or MARS) to a HAM radio station in Mansfield, Ohio. From there they are sent through regular telephone lines to the serviceman's home. The Mansfield HAM station is manned by Robert Altomonte, president of the Federation's Local 190.

In 1970, equipment purchased with the help of the AFM enabled Altomonte to reach 60 per cent more stations and to talk longer on a clearer, stronger signal. Last Christmas, several hundred calls were put through in a three day period, primarily from Viet Nam, but also from faraway places like Korea, Ethopia, Japan, Antarctica and nearby places like Vieques Island in the Caribbean which has no phones at all. Even men in a Navy plane over the Atlantic and patients in a hospital ship in the South Pacific were able to talk to their families.

How To Place Calls
For technical reasons, the calls must be originated by the servicemen overseas rather than a member of his family at home. Because of the heavy traffic at the Christmas season, it is of the utmost importance that the serviceman who wishes to take advantage of this offer should make arrangements in advance with the MARS operator on his base and then have the operator notify Altomonte. The following information is vital: date and time of the call; and call letters and frequency of the station.

Families of servicemen should keep in mind that scheduling of calls is frequently influenced by atmospheric conditions. Because of international time differences, calls must be set up by Altomonte and MARS operators. The AFM will pay telephone charges for any call sent through the Mansfield, Ohio station between 12:01 AM Eastern Standard Time December 24 and 12:00 midnight EST, December 26.

Breakfast Kiwanis is host to Lt. Gov.

The Hereford Whiteface Breakfast club had its official visit from the Division's Lt. Gov. last Friday morning.

Lt. Gov. Curtis Crawford, of Amarillo, made his visit and spoke to the club on the topic "What is that in Thy Hand."

Crawford drew from this Biblical text to make some comparison of Kiwanians considering what they have at hand to work with right now. Emphasis was on the opportunities that Kiwanians had in working with our Key Clubs and Circle K clubs—working with the youth, also including all boys and girls work. He stressed the fact that in working with the Key Club, the clubs are working with the finest young men the community has to offer, stating that this was a time of learning and of instilling the highest ideals.

Also, the opportunities of working with the youth in career and vocational choices should be utilized, as Kiwanians should do all that they could to encourage the idea of "stay in school," he said.

Crawford also stated that Kiwanians have one of the best programs in the Operation Drug Alert. He said Kiwanis "has the materials and program to do the job."

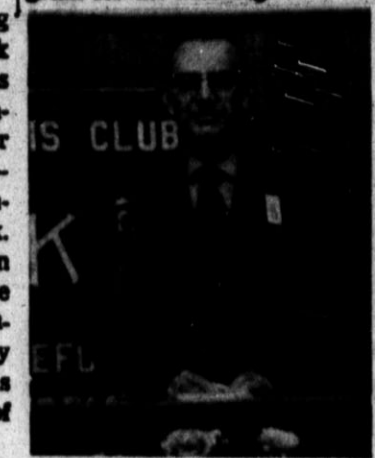

Crawford went on to stress many of the ideals of Kiwanis and the opportunities that it afforded members to serve their community. One point of emphasis was the goal of Kiwanis to support the churches and encourage the people in the community to give more attention to the spiritual side of life.

Approximately 50 Kiwanians were on hand to hear their Lt. Gov. Crawford speak, which included guest Kiwanians from Amarillo and the Hereford Noon Club. Also at the meeting, a highlight was the induction of four new members. Five were to have been inducted, but one new member was unable to attend.

Those new members inducted were Jim Manning, Tommy Crawford, Wayne Kester, and Dwayne Worley. To be inducted yet is Dan Dudley.

The next meeting of the Whiteface club will be on Dec. 3, due to the Thanksgiving holidays. At the Dec. 3 meeting, the Hereford High School Key club will have complete charge of the program, presiding over the meeting and presenting the program for the morning.

SPECIAL VISIT—Lt. Gov. Curtis Crawford of Amarillo, Lt. Governor of Division 6, Texas-Oklahoma District of Kiwanis International, paid an official visit to the Breakfast Kiwanis Club last week and presented the program.

Grant Hanna is named member of committee

Grant Hanna, a member of the local American Legion post, recently was appointed a general member of the National American Council of the American Legion.

Hanna will serve on the council until the close of the 1972 fall meeting of the National Executive Committee.

He was notified of the appointment by letter from John H. Geiger, National Commander.

In the letter, Geiger said Hanna's function on the council will be to "propagate an interest in and a furtherance of the principles of Americanism as advocated by the American Legion and to serve as a medium of disseminating an understanding of these principles throughout the Nation, using the agencies of the posts and departments of the American Legion and its affiliated bodies; and in association with other patriotic organizations of like mind."

For God So Loved The World

Oh LORD, OUR GOD,

... give us hearts of gratitude on this Thanksgiving Day. May the dignity and the solemnity of the occasion of Thanksgiving warm our hearts as individuals, as families, as nations. As we express gratitude for the favors of mercy, may we be conscious of the fact... they all come from God. May we know the full meaning of historic Plymouth landing. Let us be reminded anew that freedom began there... and to worship God according to the dictates of our own hearts was guaranteed when the Pilgrim Fathers stepped ashore. Then, let us not fail to humbly recognize God as the Giver of life,—the Provider of all goods,—and the Savior of the souls of men... AMEN

USDA recommends research program

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has recommended adoption of a nationally coordinated research and promotion program for potatoes.

Officials of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service said the recommendation is based on evidence received at a public hearing held at Denver, Colo., June 22-3; San Francisco, Calif., June 29; and Washington, D.C., July 7, 1971.

A research and promotion plan was authorized by Congress in the Potato Research and Promotion Act, which was approved Jan. 11, 1971.

The proposed plan would be financed by an assessment of up to one cent per hundred-weight of potatoes handled. Handlers would be permitted to collect assessments from producers, but producers not wishing to contribute would be reimbursed upon written application.

The program would be administered by a board made up of producers selected by the Secretary of Agriculture from nominations made by potato producers. Each state would have at least one member on the board, and would be entitled to one member for each five million hundredweight of production. All potato producers growing five or more acres of potatoes in the 48 contiguous states would be included under the plan.

Contracts for research and promotion would be made by the National Potato Promotion Board after approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

This decision is scheduled for publication in the Federal Register on Nov. 20.

Interested persons may file written comments or exceptions to the recommended decision in four copies with the Hearing Clerk, Room 112-A u.s. department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250, until Dec. 6, where they will be available for public inspection.

Any exceptions filed will be considered in the final decision by the Secretary of Agriculture. If the Secretary decides the plan should be issued, a referendum will be held among potato producers. To become effective the plan must be approved by at least two-thirds of the producers voting, by number, or by volume.

DE STUDENT OF THE WEEK — Student of the week for Distributive Education is Marcia Tiefel, a senior at Hereford High School. Miss Tiefel, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tiefel of 231 Avenue C is employed at Chandelier Gift Shop under the employment of Mrs. Fain Cesar. After graduation, Miss Tiefel plans to attend Texas Tech and major in elementary education.

Shared holiday joy is planned

Christmas gifts for a needy family in Hereford were planned along with a holiday party for themselves by members of El Llano Study Club Monday evening. Mrs. Virgel Merriott and Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. were hostesses in the former's home. Reports were made on a rummage sale held earlier this month to benefit the club's project fund. Unsold goods from this sale will be given to a high school club for Mexican-American students, who will conduct rummage sales to finance a scholarship.

Guidance and counseling in public schools was the program topic, discussed by Mrs. Bob Word, an El Llano member who is one of the Hereford school counselors.

She defined guidance as the cooperative effort of the counselor with other teachers to help a student solve his own problems.

Most important aim in counseling, she said, is to get the child to accept and like himself. She listed six areas of guidance; Orientation, educational planning, job placement, follow-up, study of the individual child and counseling.

Other members present were Mmes. Pets Caviness, R. C. Hoelscher, Boyd Foster, Ben Childers, Ivan Block, Elmer Kimball, Jim Bookout, Labry Ballard, Raymond White and Fain Cesar.

The club Christmas party is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Dec. 13 in the home of Mrs. Cesar, 126 Cherokee.

One out of every four persons in West Germany own television sets.
