

Whitefaces make bid for district title against Plainview

The Hereford Whitefaces lay it all on the line Friday night when they go against the twice-beaten Plainview Bulldogs in what could prove to be the game that decides the district championship.

The Whitefaces, if they win over the Bulldogs, could have a clear shot at the district 4-AAAA title, provided of course they defeat Monterey and Lubbock High the following two weeks.

If the Bulldogs win Friday, they will represent the district, regardless of how they fare the remainder of the season.

"I think this is going to be the type of game where the team that makes the fewer mistakes and takes advantage of the other team's mistakes, will win," Hereford head coach Larry Dippel said.

"Field position will determine greatly on the outcome of the ball game," he added.

The Bulldogs, who lost their first two games of the season but have come storming back to win five in a row, including two district matches, are averaging 254 yards per game in total offense. They also possess the league's leading individual rusher in Scott Hallman who is averaging five yards every time he touches the ball.

Hallman also is the leading scorer in the district with seven touchdowns.

"Plainview is a ball-control football team," Dippel said, "and they are a good defensive team to go along with that. The key to their success is they keep the ball and they don't make very many mistakes."

To go along with the Hallman threat is the Bulldogs' quarterback, Mark Foote. He is averaging 3.5 yards per carry and has scored two touchdowns. He manipulates the Plainview offense mainly on the ground, but does go to the air when the occasion arises.

His main target through the air is speedy split end Roger Jones who Dippel says is "a big playmaker." Jones is a 9.8 sprinter.

The Bulldogs were defeated in their first game of the season, 10-7 by the AAA Lubbock Estacado team, then fell to Amarillo Tascosa, 7-0. Since then they have nailed down five straight victories, including a 17-12 win over Lubbock Monterey and a 28-3 win over Lubbock High.

Hereford, should they win Friday, would have a half game edge over the Bulldogs in the race for the district crown. If they should then defeat Monterey and Lubbock it would mean the championship outright.

Should they fall to Monterey, the district would then wind up in a three-way tie between Monterey, Hereford and Plainview. A toss of the coin then would determine the district representative.

On offense, the Whitefaces will go with Rudy Gonzales and Bruce Barrett at ends, Jay Hen-

On defense it will be Ike Graves and Ralph Waits at ends, Clark and Alberto Garza at tackles, Sierra at noseguard, Short and Rosenda Gonzales at linebackers, and in the secondary will be Charles Allison, Danny Charest and Barry McNutt or Eugene Suttle.

Plainview coach Bill Davis says his team is looking forward to Friday night's game with the Whitefaces and he expects it to be a tough battle.

"Well, I just don't know how to say it," Davis said. "Hereford does have just as good a team as anybody and I guess it will just be an all-out fight for both teams."

Sunday marks end of Daylight Saving

At 2 a.m. Sunday, sleepy Texans and other persons across the country will wake up to the only 25-hour day of the year after Daylight Savings Time turns the clocks back one hour.

Persons will get back that hour they were forced to give up on the last Sunday in April when DST went into effect. That was the shortest day of the year—only 23 hours.

At 2 a.m. Sunday all timepieces across the country will be turned back the one hour, thus putting everything back as it was six months ago. With the dismissal of Daylight Savings Time Sunday the sun will come up later, or technically, you will just be getting up an hour later.

This, in turn, means it will be getting darker earlier each day.

The benefits to be derived from a change in the hours of general activity, having for its object more daylight leisure and the lessening of work performed by artificial light, had long been a subject of theory before World War I. Germany and Austria were the first to put it into practice in May of 1916, by the simple expedient of advancing the clocks by an hour and following the new schedule during the summer months.

The schedule was immediately adopted by England, Denmark, Holland, France, Italy and other countries.

The movement spread to the United States and a bill to effect daylight savings was passed by the Senate to take effect Jan. 1, 1918 but remained in committee during the year in the House of Representatives. Following the entry of the United States into the war, an act was passed by Congress in March of 1918, as a result of which the standard time of the United States was advanced one hour on March 31, to continue to October 27.

In 1919 the law again became effective on the last Sunday in March, in accordance with a report submitted to the Director-General of Railroads by the Committee on Transportation of the American Railway Association. The General Order No. 61, issued by the Director-General See SUNDAY Page Two

City preps for exes, festivities

Homecoming '71 unfolds Friday before Hereford citizens in what promises to be one of the best in recent years, filled with numerous activities capped by the Friday night football game between Hereford and Plainview.

The traditional ringing of the victory bell will begin Friday morning and continue until gametime at 7:30 p.m.

A pep rally will be held at the high school gymnasium beginning at 1:50 and the coaches will lead a yell, cheerleaders will introduce the players, managers and coaches and head coach Larry Dippel and team captain Steve Clark will give speeches.

Senior supper to precede game

A chili supper before the grid game Friday evening will be served by Hereford High School seniors, as a benefit for their entry in the contest for HHS annual queen, and an event of the yearly Homecoming Day.

Serving hours are 5 to 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Visitors here for the school's homecoming are invited, as well as fans on their way to the Whiteface-Plainview Bulldog game and all other residents.

Class candidate for the title of annual queen is Mary Wheeler, and proceeds of the supper will determine the seniors' place in the contest. Each high school class is staging a supper this fall; the one raising the greatest amount of money will have its nominee proclaimed queen. Tickets on sale by senior class members and at the door Friday are priced at $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for those under 12 years of age.

The Homecoming Queen candidates also will be at the pep rally where the crowning will take place. Candidates for the honor are Helen Brorman, Mary Kay Wagner and Mary Wheeler. Jana Balden is junior class attendant and Lilli Lyons is sophomore class attendant.

The Homecoming parade, one of the largest yet, will feature some 36 units that will participate. Also included will be the high school and two junior high bands.

The parade will start at 3 p.m. on the high school parking lot, move down Avenue C to Park Avenue, turn right there to Main Street then travel down Main Street to Second Street. From Second Street, the parade will go east to Schley, turn left there and gather on the Deaf Smith County Parking lot north of the courthouse. The parade will disperse after reaching the parking lot.

Judging will take place during the parade and the five winning floats or cars, plus the Student Council float, will be taken to the football field for display and recognition at the football game during halftime activities.

As a topping for the activities, a new event has been planned for Saturday. All exes of Hereford High School will be hosted at a barbecue at noon Saturday at the Bull Barn. A dance will follow at 9 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Judge, county named in $332,000 law suit

County Judge H. C. Williams and the County Commissioners were named defendants Wednesday in a $332,000 law suit involving the September 22 drowning death of a 17-year-old Hereford man.

The suit was filed by John Broadfoot, an Amarillo attorney who is handling the suit for the drowned man, Joe Benavidez, through his wife.

Broadfoot, in a telephone conversation Tuesday, said he already had typed the petition and the citations to be served to Williams and the County Commissioners court and "anticipates filing as soon as the U.S. mail can carry the letters down there."

Benavidez was found drowned on Sept. 22, more than 24 hours after he was last seen. His pickup truck apparently was swept off a county bridge just south-east of the city limits on Dairy Road. He was on his way to work and was last seen about 6 a.m. on Sept. 22.

His brother-in-law, Margarito Gonzales, called Benavidez' home when he failed to show up for work and Benavidez' wife, the former Fannie Marquez, officially reported him missing about noon.

A search was begun immediately and about 2 p.m. on the day he was reported missing, a spare tire to his pickup was found in the swollen creek. The top of the pickup finally became visible about 11 p.m. that same day after waters subsided some.

His body was found about 200 yards downstream at 9:20 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 23.

The low-water crossing on Dairy Road was under several feet of water as a result of heavy rains during the night of Sept. 21 and early morning of Sept. 22. Benavidez apparently attempted to cross the bridge and his vehicle was swept away by the current.

"I contend that the deceased made about $5,000 a year and had a life expectancy of 46.3 years left in which to earn that living," Broadfoot said. "Therefore, he would have made $231,500 in those years."

"We also sued for his wife, saying she is entitled to $100,000 more for the loss of the companionship of her husband. We tackled on another $1,000 for the funeral expenses and that made up the $332,000 claim," he said.

Broadfoot said in naming Williams and the county commissioners court in the case, they were negligent in their handling of the situation by not blocking the road off when it started raining.

"I contend they were careless in handling the situation and should have put out warning signs—they did, but it was after someone already had drowned," he said.

Woman, 58, dies Wednesday in fire

A 58-year-old Hereford woman died of apparent asphyxiation Wednesday when she was overcome by smoke at her home at 204 West Seventh.

Efforts by Hereford Volunteer Fire Department to revive Besse Prickett failed and she was taken by ambulance to Deaf Smith General Hospital.

The fire was discovered by a neighbor who smelled smoke around noon Wednesday and called the fire department. When members of the department arrived, they entered the house and found Mrs. Prickett lying near the front door.

The fire apparently started either from an electric blanket on the bed or from Mrs. Prickett's smoking in bed, according to Justice of the Peace Glen Nelson, who investigated the death.

Nelson said there was no way of telling how long the fire had been going when it was discovered, but fire officials believed it had been smoldering for some time.

There was no evidence of a fire, other than the smoke, when fire department officials arrived, but when the house was opened to ventilate it, the mattresses re-ignited and firemen had to extinguish the blaze.

Nelson said Mrs. Prickett had been dead for several hours before the fire was discovered. Mrs. Prickett lived alone in the house.

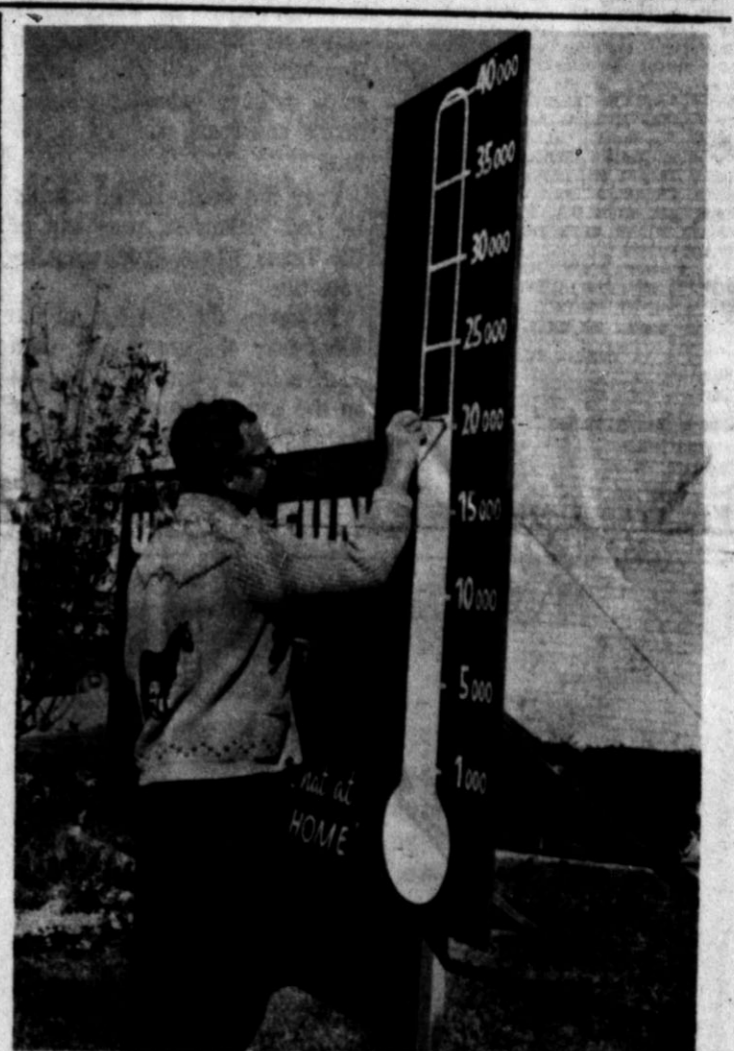

A claim representative of the county's insurance company was in town Monday and met with the commissioners about the situation. At that time, however, it was not known for certain whether a suit would be filed.

David Parsons, the claim representative for Floyd West and Company, met with the commissioners then went to the site of the drowning. He also questioned the road supervisor for that portion of the county.

Under the terms of the county insurance policy, the county is covered for $100,000 per bodily injury per person.

"I think he has got a hard row to hoe," Parsons told the court Monday. "First, he does not have a very good case and second it will be tried here and the people who live here know about these low-water crossings and how dangerous they can be."

Rains wreck havoc on milo, sugar beets

BY MARSHALL DAY
News Editor

The county's good milo crop is going to remain just that—a crop, unless farmers get the opportunity to get it in elevators before long, the county agent said this week. "We still have a good milo crop," Justin McBride said, "but it is still in the fields. We need some open weather to get it all harvested because we haven't got anything until it is in the elevator."

By the same token, the area sugar beet crop is beginning to fall behind because of the wet weather the Panhandle has been subjected to during the past two weeks.

Bob Ginn, agricultural manager at Holly Sugar, said the weather may cause the possible shut down of the plant for the second time in less than a week. The plant was shut down about the middle of last week because the fields were too wet to dig for beets, but it was opened again on Monday. More moisture Monday, however, again wet down the fields and it seemed probable the plant will be shut down for the second time this year.

"This is delaying our harvest, of course," Ginn said. "What it has done to us quality-wise we haven't been hurt too much in sugar content from what we can tell from what we dug between these two showers."

The processing operations at the plant were halted when the supply of beets ran out at 7 p.m. Oct. 19. At that time officials had anticipated they would be able to start up the factory again by late Friday, Oct. 22, or early Saturday, Oct. 23.

Prior to the rains the factory had been getting about 6,000 tons of beets per day and processing them in 24-hour working days.

"The sugar content seems to be holding pretty good," Ginn said Tuesday.

McBride said the milo harvest also is being delayed because of the rains and the crops are not getting enough warm weather to bring down the moisture content of the milo.

"The rains have delayed the farmers getting into the fields," he said.

"Some of the factors involved, though not in all fields, are these late fields encourage the growth of sucker heads which makes the grain run high moisture contents late into the season."

"Then, when the first frost finally does come and hits these heads that are immature, this will lower the quality."

Sucker heads are a secondary growth which puts a field behind See RAINS Page Two

NEAR COMPLETION — The new airport terminal, which cost slightly over $40,000, is nearing completion. Only loose ends remain and city officials are looking for the work to be completed in the next few weeks.

of Railroads, provided that all clocks and watches in train dispatchers' offices and in all other offices open at 2 a.m. should be advanced one hour to indicate 3 a.m. It was further provided that at 2 a.m. on the last Sunday in October all clocks and watches in train dispatchers' offices, and in other offices open at the time, should be turned back one hour to indicate 1 a.m.

The law did not receive general acceptance and in 1919 an active movement was in progress to appeal it, particularly among people living in the country and engaged in farming occupations. As a result an act for the repeal of the Daylight Savings Law was passed by both the House and the Senate, but was vetoed by the President.

The bill was passed, however, in both the House and Senate over the veto.

On the first occasion the change was tested, more than 100 million Americans living in 20 states made the change, but more than 80 million others did not make the change.

Benjamin Franklin is credited with the DST concept when he said it would conserve and lengthen the working day if clocks were moved ahead one hour.

Korean wheat study team plans visit here Saturday

Seven members of a Korean wheat study team will be in Hereford Saturday to take a tour of the area and be hosted at a luncheon at the Country Club.

The group will arrive in Amarillo on Friday, spend the day there and leave for Hereford at 8:30 a.m. Saturday. While in Hereford they will visit large-scale irrigated wheat producing farms and local country elevators.

They are being hosted locally by Leo Witkowski, president of the Texas Wheat Producers Association.

Following the first leg of the local tour, the group will then visit a local company involved in the processing of wheat for cattle feeding. They will look at steam rolling, flaking and micronizing operations here. After the tour the group will be at the Country Club for a reception and luncheon with area wheat producers, farm organization leaders and grain trade officials.

The visit to Hereford is one of several stops across the United States being made by the study team. The group is being hosted the main crop in maturity. In cases where the crops do go ahead and continue to grow, they are green when the rest of the crop is ready for harvest.

Both the sugar beet and milo crops were expected to exceed last year's crops earlier this year following beneficial August and September rains. However, the crops have begun to suffer in recent weeks because of an excessive amount of moisture that came when warm weather was needed.

Early releases from the U. S. Department of Agriculture this year indicated one of the highest corn and grain sorghum crops in history. Again, however, the wet weather has dampened the situation some since that time.

Walcott party set Saturday

The Walcott Community will host its annual Halloween Party beginning at 7:30 p.m. Saturday with a covered dish supper at the Walcott School.

The public is invited to the annual party and anyone who shows up without a costume will be fined 25 cents.

The school cheerleaders will have a fishing booth and a cake walk and other games will be set up for adults and children.

by the newly formed Texas Wheat Producers Board, headed by Ken Kendrick of Stratford, chairman.

The group also is scheduled to leave Hereford for a tour of the Gulf Coast to acquaint themselves with the export facilities for wheat at Corpus Christi, Houston and New Orleans.

Members of the visiting agribusiness group are Hyung Tae Kim, Jung Suk Kim, John Yong Lee, Kwan Yung Oh, Jung Soon Kim, Tai Yong Lew, and Kyu Back Nam.

Plans completed for Halloween carnival Oct. 30

To keep children of Easter residents' off the streets on Halloween night, members of that community are completing plans for their Easter Lions Club-sponsored Halloween carnival to begin at 7 p.m. Saturday in Easter Community Building.

Mrs. Don Tindal, general carnival chairman, and other women of the area will meet Saturday morning to decorate the building while men set up booths and tables for games of 42.

Prizes for costumes will be awarded a boy and girl in each of three age groups during the course of evening activity; other activities including cake, pie and scary walks, basketball bounce, penny pitch, dart throwing and a hayride.

A concession stand will feature a popcorn ball and peanut brittle sale conducted by the Happy Helpers 4-H club, and coffee, Cokes and spudnuts.

One case goes before jury in district court this week

Five district court cases handed this week ended in penitentiary terms in a week that saw only one case go before a jury, but then only for the passing of sentence.

The only case that went before a jury was that against Richard Marry, 18, 912 Union, who was sentenced to two years in the pen for auto theft. All the other cases were pleaded out and district judge Archie McDonald set the punishment.

Receiving a penitentiary term was Philip Chavez Jr., who had his probation revoked for forgery and passing and was sentenced to not less than two years nor more than three years in the pen. Chavez, 23, No. 1 Rainbow Trailer Courts, was tried by former district attorney Mike Metcalf because of the present district attorney's past involvement in the case.

Andy Shuval, district attorney, dismissed himself from four cases because he was at one time or another, involved with the defendants.

He dismissed himself from the Joe Warren and Ralph Warren cases, the Chavez case and the Jamie De Los Santos case. Others who received penitentiary terms were:

—Luz E. Alvarez, 48, address unknown, 30 months for burglary of an automobile.

—Raymondo F. Guerra, 28, Route 2, two years for theft over $50 and two years for driving while intoxicated, second offense, to run concurrently, and —Richard Marry for the auto theft.

Those who received probation were:

—Francisco Chavez Garcia, 23, of Hereford, 10 years probation for possession of heroin.

—Atanacio Cozates, 54, 312 Ave. I, three years probation for driving while intoxicated, second offense.

—Able Garza Jr., 16, 206 West Seventh, five years probation for theft over $50.

—Francis E. Gaetz, 48, Route 5, four years probation for driving while intoxicated, second offense, and —Joe Walter Warren, 22, Baltimore Street, five years probation for possession of marijuana.

Cases were dismissed against

Ralph Warren, 21, Baltimore Street, for possession of marijuana, two counts; Mrs. De Los Santos, 22, 321 Ave. A, assault with intent to murder; and Raymondo F. Guerra, theft over $50.

Saturday set as Halloween night

Hereford Mayor Jim Sears has proclaimed Saturday instead of Sunday as the official "Trick or Treat" night for Hereford.

The annual trick or treating date was set up one day by the mayor so children would not have to go out on Sunday night, the night on which Halloween actually falls.

This was done to prevent children from missing church and staying up late on the night before a school day.

This is the first time Hereford has ever observed the traditional holiday on a different day.

Law Suit . . .

Questioning of the road supervisor for that area disclosed that barricades were erected between 7:30 and 8 a.m. on the morning the accident occurred. This was prior to the time any missing person bulletin was issued.

The road supervisor said that crossing and one other are the first things he checks following a hard rain.

The case was filed in district court and will be heard there.

From Hereford the group will go to Houston, then to Corpus Christi and on to New Orleans. The final leg of the trip will be to Washington, D.C. and then to New York City before returning to Korea.

Adrian news

BY ANN BEAVERS
The Adrian Future Farmers of America Chapter returned Friday from a successful week at the State Fair of Texas in Dallas. Those winning blue ribbons were Melani Creitz, reserve champion and Rogar Wann, Ernoe Wood and Kirk Garison. Melani received 80 cents a pound and all others received 43 cents or better. Red ribbon winners were Janis Wood, Joe Perrin, Kim Garison, Linda Engle, Richard Myer, Nina Engle and Mike Briggs and they all received 40 cents or better a pound.

White ribbon winners were David Brownlee, Shana Brownlee, Chris Burns, Ersel Harris, Kris Garison, Ricky Lloyd, Beth Lloyd, Vickie Lloyd, Duane Webb and Albert Myer. They all received 36 cents a pound or better.

Livestock Exposition and brought 80 cents a pound. Melani and her father, Lorin drove from Adrian for her first big show Sunday. She entered Jeremiah in the $7,975 Junior steer show. The steer won a ribbon in the stock show in Amarillo in Sept.

She said one of the biggest drawbacks in raising a prize steer is "Getting your toes stepped on."
"Jeremiah stepped on my toes two or three times, but he didn't mean to. It hurts just the same."
Melani said she would get enough money to buy another calf so she can start over next year.
"But he won't be Jeremiah," she said as she petted his red head.

Mr. Amos Harris of Bellview, Texas visited his sister and family, the Jack Finchers, Friday evening.
Mrs. J. S. Elliott of Dennison is visiting her daughter and family this week, Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Creitz and Melani.

Mrs. Doris Pinnel was one of 112 men and women that returned to Amarillo following their 22-day tour of New England and Eastern Canada. The group was divided into three buses and departed on three successive days. The busloads met briefly in New York, Washington, D. C. and Montreal and each bus traveled 500 miles in the three week period.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Durham and family spent last week in Dallas at the state fair.

BY MELVIN YOUNG

Jim Lindsey, the new Chamber of Commerce manager, walked into the bank the other day and while conducting some business there was engaged in conversation by another of the bank's customers. "You used to referee basketball games up in Oklahoma didn't you," the man asked. Sure enough, Jim admitted that he had done a little refereeing while attending Southwestern University at Weatherford. It was a chance to pick up a little extra money and the little schools around Oklahoma were always looking for "inexpensive" officials.

Anyway, it seems that some 10 or 12 years ago Jim had refereed a game between arch-rivals Cloud Chief and Colony. The communities were about 15 miles apart and the competition between the schools was tremendous, surpassed only by the intense fervor of the fans. And one thing the fans seldom like and that's an official who makes a call against their favorite player—right or wrong. Anyway, it started out as a rough night for this young referee from Southwestern, and got progressively worse as the evening wore on.

Jim had called a couple of technical fouls against a young man from Cloud Chief and he could see that he was getting into deep water. He just didn't know how deep. It wasn't long however, until he had to call another foul against the young Cloud Chief player. And that's when the excitement started. Jim looked up to see this woman coming out of the crowd and onto the court. She knew where she was going too. She walked right over to Mr. Lindsey and brought one up from the floor (as we used to say in Golden Gloves circles,) and laid it on him. "That woman slapped me harder than I've ever been slapped before," Jim says, "and it took a little while for my head to clear."

Naturally, Jim still remembers that incident. His head hurts every time he thinks about it. But he didn't think about anyone else remembering and especially someone from Hereford, Texas. But the fellow Jim had met in the bank was none other than the "Little Chief" from Cloud Chief, our own Charlie Holt. That lady who slapped Jim was Charlie's sister and the technical fouls had been called against her son. Charlie was in the crowd watching his nephew play.

—HB—

Now Jim says a fellow will do almost anything to make money while going to college, but he allows that after that incident he was a little more careful about the jobs he took. "A guy can get killed like that."

—HB—

Being a referee is probably no worse than being a coach, but one thing about refereeing—you can leave town and not have to face the fans on Monday morning. That is, if you can get out of town in the first place. We have seen the time when a referee had to be escorted out of town by the police to insure his safety.

And we're sure that some fans would have enjoyed "murdering" that referee in Dallas last Saturday who awarded Southern Methodist that 2-point safety. That call turned out to be the difference between winning or losing for the Mustangs.

From what we have read, it appears that the call was correct, but sometimes being right is not an adequate defense against an irate fan as many an official will attest. Sometimes you're going to get it in spite of all you can do.

Now coaching is a pretty tough profession too. When you're winning, it's great, but let a losing season come around and you've "had it." You may not have the material for a winning team, but that really doesn't matter. The coach is going to get it in the neck anyhow.

But coaches and referees are not the only ones that have trouble from the fans we've learned. Newspaper people catch it too.

We well remember an incident a few years ago after we had written an editorial extolling the virtues of the Whiteface Band. The recognition came, appropriately we thought, right after the band had won the Sweepstakes award for the umpteenth time. We thought it would be nice to heap praise upon their shoulders. Well sir, that got us a visit from the High School principal and the football coach (both of whom have since moved on to greener pastures). Their complaint? We were demoralizing the football team by bragging on the band.

Well, that one seemed a little strange so we just let it pass without comment and perhaps that was the best way. Sometimes you just "can't win for losing" and that's really not too important. We still think that a

The Adrian High School basketball teams scrimmaged Hartley Friday afternoon and our girls won and boys lost.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson of Vega are parents of a son, Martin Paul, born Tuesday in Deaf Smith General Hospital in Hereford. He weighed 4 pounds, 15 ounces. Grandparents included Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Zaring and Mr. and Mrs. Shag McCown of Adrian.

Mrs. George Gruhkey flew to Denver Thursday and stayed thru Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Gruhkey.

Mrs. Imogene Parker, Mrs. Millie Maupin, Mrs. D. P. Doherty and Mrs. Lola Perry of Lovington, New Mexico played 42 with Mrs. Birdie Holland in Vega Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Heiselman, a football team, or any other group should have recognition for being a winner, and we do our best to recognize them when they are. For that matter, we like to recognize them when they put out a good effort whether they come in on top or not.

And the coaches? Well, some say they get paid for taking the abuse and we suppose that's right. After all, if they don't like it they can change professions. But we always think of that when we read some of the things said about coaches—it's really a pretty tough job. If you don't believe it, ask Gene Stallings and Jim Carlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Wayne Brown have moved to Adrian for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tarver of Wellington spent Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Millie Maupin, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Peters and boys and Mrs. LaNita Fulcher and Craig.

The Adrian School will dismiss at 3 p.m. Friday for the Halloween Carnival, starting at 6 p.m.

Miss Florence Wiggins of San Diego, Calif. is here this week with Mr. and Mrs. Keith Kromer and Stephen.

Mrs. Lola Perry of Lovington, New Mexico spent two nights with Mr. and Mrs. D.P. Doherty and one night with Mr. and Mrs. Don Morgan and visited other friends here last week.

Saturday the high school basketball teams will travel to Quitaque for a basketball game there.

Mrs. Freda Gruhkey met Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hill in Nocona, and all attended the State Fair in Dallas for a couple of days.

Tommy Loveless and LaNita Fulcher left last Monday for Dallas, where Tommy attended

gram. About nine attended.

The Adrian Girl Scouts camped out in the City Park, hiked five miles and cooked their lunch Saturday. Mrs. Alvin Scott, Linda Pridmore and Mrs. Joyce Rich accompanied the girls. The girls were Lena Greathouse, Martha Morales, Sherry Blankenship, Carolyn Myer, Tonda Rich, Susa Skaggs and Jo Ellen Jacobson.

The Junior High basketball teams played Bushland Monday and lost both games. The girls lost by one point. Final score was 19 to 20.

The boys lost with a score of 24 to 45.

Better luck next time, Adrian.

Whiteface offense becoming one of best in the district

With its offense slowly coming to life, Hereford moved from the No. 4 spot in total offense to the No. 3 spot following its 20-0 win over the Coronado Mustangs last week.

Prior to last week the Whitefaces were in fourth behind Plainview, Monterey and Lubbock High, but moved this week ahead of Lubbock High and Coronado.

The Whiteface defense, a key in the three straight victories for the Herd, remained in fourth place, but closed the gap on the Plainview team, which they meet in a possible title-decider here this week. The Whitefaces have given up an average of 229.7 yards per game as compared to the Plainview team which has given up an average of 213.7 yards per game.

Monterey is leading the defensive effort in the league with an average give-up of only 157.8 yards per contest. In second place is Coronado which has given up only 195.7 yards per game.

The Whitefaces, as a team, have lost 11 fumbles but recovered 7 of the opponents'. They have been penalized 38 times for 284 yards, have intercepted eight passes and have gained 90 first downs through the seven games.

In the individual rushing department, Hereford's Dan y Harris is leading in average-gain-per-carry with a 6.4 yard mean. He has carried the ball 56 times for 360 yards and six touchdowns.

He also is the second leading scorer among the district's teams with 38 points on six touchdowns and one two-point conversion. He trails Scott Hallman of Plainview who has 42 points on seven touchdowns.

Hereford's Keith Kitchens is third in individual passing among district throwers with a .364 percentage. He has the most passing yardage of any quarterback in the league with 563 yards including four touchdowns. He has been intercepted only two times all year on the 118 times he went to the air.

Paul Meriwether of Lubbock has the highest passing percentage with .375 as he has completed 33 passes on 88 attempts.

Rosie Gonzales of Hereford is tied with John Madrid of Lubbock High and Zane Cox of Monterey in the fumble recovery department with three each.

Hereford is the only team in the league that boasts two of the top five total offensive leaders. Kitchens is second in the league with 629 total yards for an average of 90 yards per game.

Harris is the third leading total offensive leader with 60 yards in four games for a 90 yard average per game. Harris is third although he has played in only four games this year.

Bruce Barrett held on to the No. 3 receiving spot in the district while Alan Cornelius slipped to a tie for fourth. Barrett has caught 13 passes for 188 yards and one touchdown and Cornelius has snared 12 passes for 111 yards and one touchdown.

The leading receiver in the conference is Dwane Sarten of Lubbock High with 21 catches for 222 yards and one touchdown.

In the punting department, Kitchens is averaging 34 yards per boot which is just 2.9 yards per try less than the district's leading punter, Mark Foote of Plainview.

Winston Short, who took a commanding lead in the tackles department at the start of the season, still holds that lead over the rest of the field. He has 163 tackles as compared to second placer Joel Beesinger of Lubbock High who has 99.

Also in the top category of tacklers is Rosie Gonzales who has 86 for fourth place, Steve Clark who has 72 for ninth place, Richard Sierra who has 69 for 10th, and Alberto Garza who has 64 and is in 11th place.

Loerwald comes close, off one game in grid guessing

Ralph Loerwald missed only one game in a week of upsets in high school and college football and won the $20 first prize in the weekly Hereford Brand Football Contest.

The only game Loerwald missed was the Southern California upset win over Notre Dame.

In second place was Gary Yosten who tied with Trine Bustamante in missing three each. Yosten collected the second place money of $10 by coming the closest to the tie-breaker. For his good guessing, Bustamante will collect $5 third place prize money.

Yosten missed the Air Force-Colorado State, the Lubbock-Plainview game and the Levelland-Canyon game. Bustamante missed the Baylor-A&M game, the Southern California-Notre Dame game and the Amarillo-Caprock game.

Results of last week's game were, Arkansas 60, North Texas State 21; Texas A&M 10, Baylor 9; Alabama 34, Houston 20; Nebraska 41, Oklahoma State 13; SMU 18, Texas Tech 17; Texas 30, Rice 10; Idaho 26, West Texas State 6; Southern California 28, Notre Dame 14; Air Force 17, Colorado State 12; Amarillo 21, Caprock 8; Tacosas 19, Pampa 14; Monterey 13, Ysleta Bel Air 0; Plainview 28, Lubbock 3; Abilene Cooper 9, Odessa Permian 7; Canyon 21, Levelland 8; Palo Duro 28, Borger 0; Perryton 41, Tulia 0; Lubbock Dunbar 23, Snyder 14; and Abertamy 13, Friona 8.

The Brand's panel of "experts" didn't fare too well in the picking last week. Larry Dippel missed seven games, as did Lynn Brisendine, Jay Spain missed eight and Marshall Day missed three.

The drop by Dippel closed the gap between him and Day. Day, who was in third place behind Dippel and Spain, pulled to within two games of the front-running Dippel.

Spain, who was in second fell to third, just three back of Dippel.

Dippel now stands at 95-43 for a .688 percentage, Day at 93-45 for a .674 percentage, Spain at 92-46 for a .677 percentage, and Brisendine at 86-53 for a .623 percentage.

In the race for the Cotton Bowl tickets, two of which will go to first place and two to second place, the battle for the top spot is tightening.

The standings are as follows:

101 - Mrs. Cawthon Bryant and C.W. Covington

100 - Dorothy Mercer

99 - Billy Batterman, Cawthon Bryant, Jeanette Hill, Bobby Kitchens, Danny Loerwald, and Jack Norman

98 - B.F. Cain, Tom Coneyway, Donnie Crisman, Dave Hopper, Cuby Kitchens, Leon McCutchen and Lowell Rusher

Local NFO prexy on bargaining bills

R.A. Crist, president of the Deaf Smith County NFO, said today that farm bargaining bills before Congress invite government domination and regimentation of collective bargaining that would complicate efforts of farmers to bargain for better prices without adding anything whatever to farm bargaining rights under the Capper-Volstead Act.

Involving the government in collective bargaining is unnecessary, he said, and the bargaining bills being pushed now in Washington should be killed.

"In the National Farmers Organization we are willing to accept the idea that the government must take charge of collective bargaining," he said.

"The government has failed to achieve fair prices necessary to keep family farming economically healthy, and it will continue to be subject to the same processor and consumer-political pressures that have weakened price support programs."

Crist said it is possible for farmers, with the Capper-Volstead exemption now available, to do the organizing and bargaining job themselves. What farmers need now, he said, is legislation to prevent handlers, processors, integrators, and other big corporate buyers from producing their own agricultural commodities to escape collective bargaining with farmers.

"A move is underway by big business to take over American agriculture and turn our farms into the bottom rung of a giant, ladder-like corporate system that plants, harvests, processes and retails all the nation's food," he said.

"The legislation we seek would curb this corporate grab for power in agriculture and help the people of Deaf Smith County maintain private farm ownership and our free enterprise system."

Crist said NFO has developed a nationwide collection, dispatch and delivery system during 10 years of collective bargaining under present law. The organization, he said, has negotiated more than 3,000 contracts so far this year with every type of buyer of agricultural commodities.

"Supply contracts have been negotiated with several hundred packers, grain dealers, millers, soybean processors, poultry integrators, potato processors, and foreign buyers," he said.

"We have learned enough in testing collective bargaining techniques to be convinced that the NFO is the farmers only hope for getting prices that return cost of production plus a reasonable profit."

Untimely frost could prove fatal mistake for animals

Cattlemen who are grazing their animals on grain sorghum stubble, Sudan grass or Johnson grass and who ignore warnings of an early frost could be making a fatal mistake as far as those animals are concerned.

The reason is the danger of prussic acid, or hydrocyanic, poisoning occurring in these types of plants when they are placed under stress such as that produced by an untimely frost.

According to Prof. John Baumgardner of Texas Tech's Department of Animal Science, the forage of plants such as sorghum, Sudan and Johnson grass contains a substance known as glucoside. Stress breaks down this substance and releases the prussic acid poison.

"The likelihood of such a chemical reaction occurring is especially high in young plants," Baumgardner said, "and in the regrowth of these plants in fields which have already been combined. Due to the high amount of recent moisture, this regrowth has been extensive."

Another kind of stress leading to the release of prussic acid poison is the "bruising" of plants during the combining process, the Tech animal scientist pointed out. When a frost hits, the poison is released immediately.

Although the actual occurrence of prussic acid poisoning among cattle is somewhat erratic and cannot be predicted with certainty in all cases, any animals grazing on sorghum, Sudan or Johnson grass are nevertheless always subject to this highly fatal type of cyanide poisoning during periods just preceding a frost, Baumgardner warned.

"Unfortunately, one of the first signs that plants have become poisonous is finding a field littered with dead animals," Baumgardner said. "Thus, by the time the discovery is made, it is usually already too late to do anything about it."

He said that the possibility of prussic acid poisoning occurring is always there, especially now when conditions are favorable for a frost to hit "any day."

"Therefore, the safest thing to do is for cattlemen to move their animals away from this dangerous grazing before a frost comes," he urged. "This is one time cattlemen cannot afford to listen to weather forecasts with skepticism because animals must be moved the night before a frost is forecast to occur. If the forecast is accurate, waiting until the next morning would be too late."

Baumgardner said that under conditions of good, clear and warm weather, it takes "about two weeks" following the frost for the danger of prussic acid poisoning to subside and that by the time the plant is cured out, the acid will have disappeared.

Kendrick gets new appointment

The Rev. Gary W. Kendrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Cummins, 431 McKinley, has been given a special appointment for study and research.

The Rev. Kendrick is enroute to New York City where he will be working in a clinical training center as chaplain. Rev. Kendrick also will be working towards certification as a psychotherapist at the Carl Jung Foundation for Analytical Psychology.

Rev. Kendrick was listed in Who's Who in Texas in 1968, elected to membership in the Dictionary of International Biography in 1970 and has just been selected to be in the 1972 edition of Outstanding and Successful Personalities.

Miss Goeringer bride of Robert D. Wagner

A midafternoon wedding Sunday was conducted for Miss Rhonda Jo Goeringer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Goeringer of 234 Greenwood, and Robert D. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Wagner, Star Route.

The Rev. Herman J. Scheiter, pastor, officiated in Immanuel Lutheran Church, where two tall bouquets of white carnations and blue chrysanthemums were set with candelabra in bases of green foliage at the altar.

Miss Nancy Goeringer of Clinton, Oklahoma, a cousin of the bride, was her honor attendant. Alan Wagner acted as his brother's best man.

Bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Miss Toni Goeringer; Miss Margaret Walker of Bartlesville, Oklahoma and Miss Janet Baker. Lee Teinert of LaGrange, cousin of the bridegroom, Jack Anderson of Kirkland and Bill Baldrige of White Deer were groomsmen-ushers.

Candles at the altar were lighted before the processional by the bridegroom's brother, John Wagner, and John McDonald, cousin of the bride. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Bill Brandt, was organist and Al Wagner the vocal soloist who sang The Lord's Prayer.

Mr. Goeringer gave his daughter in marriage. She was gowned in nylon organza over bridal taffeta with wide bands of Chantilly lace forming a front panel effect from high neckline to floor-length hem, and circling the graceful Juliet sleeves.

A double row of the lace was stitched down the center of the detachable Watteau train, which was edged with more lace, slightly gathered to follow the circular outline.

Layers of bouffant illusion in her short veil were held above her forehead with a large lace rose, its leaves outlined in seed pearls. Her bouquet was of gardenias surrounded by miniature white carnations, tied with heavenly blue streamers.

The touch of blue in her costume was echoed in attendants' dresses, of miramist over taffeta trimmed with pleated white insertion. They wore matching bands of blue in their hair, and blue ribbons tied the giant white mums they carried.

After the wedding, the couple and their parents received guests in Pioneer Gas Flame Room, where Mrs. John McDonald was at the registry table.

The numerous out-of-city guests included Mrs. Lena Wilson of Mounds, Oklahoma, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Selma Wegner of Clovis, the bridegroom's grandmother.

Mrs. Larry Dobbs, sister of the bridegroom, served the wedding cake while Miss Rojean Block ladled punch. Misses Cindy Parten and Linda Betzen assisted at the table.

It was covered with net over white satin and centered by crystal candelabra holding blue tapers, the bride's bouquet laid at the base. Touches of blue ornamented the four-tiered cake and on top were bride-and-groom figurines.

After a brief trip to New Mexico, the couple is at home south of Hereford, where the bridegroom farms with his father. For travel Mrs. Wagner wore a red pleated skirt with white top and blue weskit, taking the central gardenia from her bouquet as a corsage.

She is a 1971 graduate of Hereford High School. Mr. Wagner is a senior in West Texas State University, also an HHS graduate.

Supper planned for Needle Club

A Thanksgiving supper was planned by members of Mothers Needle Club, meeting recently in the home of Mrs. Corda Battey. The date will be Nov. 18, beginning at 6:30 in Pioneer Gas Flame Room. Mrs. L. J. Shirley will be hostess.

Handwork she has completed this fall and during the summer was shown by Mrs. Battey as part of the program. A guest, Mrs. Janie Sides, was present with nine members.

Look who's new

Mr. and Mrs. Leodegario Montemayor are the parents of a son, Leodegario Jr., born October 21. He weighed 7 lbs. 7 1/2 ozs.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Jackson are the parents of a son, Martin Paul, born October 19. He weighed 4 lbs. 15 1/2 ozs.

REALTOR'S SEMINAR — Approximately 80 realtors from Hereford, Lubbock and Amarillo attended a sales seminar last week which was under the sponsorship of the Hereford Board of Realtors. Al Mayer, of Theodore Mayer and Brothers Realty of Cincinnati, Ohio, conducted the daylong meeting at the Bull Barn, where he touched on various techniques involved in successful real estate sales. Twenty-five of Hereford's 40 board members attended the session, and since that time, Denzil Vaughn, Mike Waldrip, Melinda Duggan and Lee Umstead have gone on to a weeklong institute for the Texas Association of Realtors. Three such courses are requested before becoming a GRI (graduate of Real Estate Institute.) Presently, Hereford realtors Ralph Owens, Harold Kids and Melvin Jayroe hold these memberships.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor:

Reading in the Brand - hearing the announcement over KPAN - seeing posters downtown, about the Hereford High School Reunion for all former students, Saturday, Oct. 30th; has put me in a reminiscent and nostalgic mood. There is nothing so memorable as a Class Reunion.

The Class of '42 has been quite fortunate in having four such gatherings with the fifth in the planning for June '72.

With a reunion for all former students, it should really be great! Especially seeing all the teachers if they are able to come; Mr. Emmons, Mr. McCullough, Miss Crawford, Miss Rigler, Mr. Hudson, Miss Wrenn, Miss Hall, Miss Rice (Mrs. Fenzi) . . . wonder how much they have changed. Will they have difficulty in recognizing us - after all, they taught several hundred of us - they have more faces to remember than we! And the students whom we haven't seen in 10 and 15 years or longer? Will we recognize them as sleek former football players; the girls . . . ???

At our first reunion, we had a dinner in the ballroom of Hotel Jim Hill in February of '51. Our reunion was dedicated to the boys who had lost their lives in W.W. II. Since then all of our reunions have been dedicated to them. We introduced our husbands or wives - telling what we had done since graduation. At each reunion following, we would begin at the last gathering - bringing up to date - children, grandchildren, or what we thought would interest the Class.

At our 20th Anniversary, we voted to hold reunions every five years, on the last Saturday in June. These we look forward to, planning to attend from one to the other.

Those students who live in or near Hereford seem not to have changed to much as we see each other quite often; but those we do not see too frequently, it takes a few minutes for recognition. "Hey - aren't you, . . . Golly, what happened to your hair? I remember you when your hair wasn't gray and I didn't have a slick top." "Gee, too bad our kids don't have the same teacher we had." "Do you remember the 'hours' we were given? Wonder how our kids would react to that?" And the privilege cards! Can you imagine not bringing your lunch and eating it in studyhall? Or getting to school early and having to go to studyhall instead of first class! Or on bad days - in the auditorium! The assemblies - especially the Pep Rallies and the band playing every Friday for 25 minutes.

All of us have special memories of our days in "good old Hereford High" - lets get together Saturday and share them with each other. So . . . whether we've spent one day - one week - one month - one year - or four in "Dear Old Hereford High" - from year 1 to 1971, let's all attend this reunion if we possibly

El Llano picks year's projects

Service projects for the year and funds to support them were discussed in El Llano Study Club Monday evening, when Mrs. Olen Caviness and Mrs. Harold Bierman were hostesses in the Caviness home.

A unit in the Campfire Girls program here, the Sunshine Bluebird group, will be sponsored by the club, members voted. These younger Campfire Girls will replace a group which "graduated" last year after being sponsored by El Llano Club.

It will be great fun and most enjoyable. This may be the beginning of an HHS Association and the reunions will become an annual affair.

See you Saturday, I hope Mrs. A.C. Stengel, Class of '42

since they were also Bluebirds. Mrs. Bobby Walker is leader of the Sunshine group.

A rummage sale was scheduled for Nov. 6 to benefit the club treasury. It will be in charge of the project committee, Mmes. Bob Hoelscher, Fain Cesar, Raymond White and Virgil Merriott.

Mrs. Pete Caviness, presiding for business, read a list of items needed by patients at Wichita Falls State Hospital, which the volunteer services committee there is asking club women of Northwest Texas to contribute. Each El Llano member is to bring an item to the next meeting.

Mrs. R.W. Eades presented program, titled Do You Care. How You Look? She spoke of weight control and the importance of a balanced diet to maintain correct weight and good health, rather than erratic fad diets.

Other members present were Mmes. Bob Word, Elmer Kimball, Boyd Foster, John Jacobsen Jr., Jim Bookout, Ivan Block, Labry Ballard, Merriott, Cesar and White.

FROM MILK TO BEER
PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa (AP)—Volleyball star Gert Goedhals says he drinks beer because his doctor advised him to give up milk. Goedhals played volleyball for the Netherlands from 1957 to 1964 before settling here.

As an international player he found that he perspired too much and suffered from a kidney stone. "My doctor said I drank far too much milk and advised I should drink beer instead. I have always followed his advice," says Goedhals.

Thomas to speak to TSTA

Wayne E. Thomas of Hereford, chairman of the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, will speak at 7:30 p.m. today on "The Power of Positive Action" to about 200 members and guests of the West Texas State University chapter of the Texas State Teachers Association.

Thomas is expected to pinpoint some of the problems in higher education and to explore different courses of action which colleges and universities may need to take to solve those problems.

"The American people want some answers to two basic questions," said Thomas. "Those questions are: 'What do we need in higher education?' and 'How are we going to pay for what we need?'"

Thomas said his remarks will include a brief review of higher education legislation which was enacted by the last Texas legislature and the implications if may have for the future development of the Texas higher education system.

The Coordinating Board chairman said that he had recently reviewed reports on action taken this year by various state legislatures which affect higher education. "Every state in the nation is facing similar problems," he said.

Many of the questions are related to money. Thomas cited such specific questions as increasing tuition fees, determining higher education's fair share of state tax money, teacher salaries, student financial aid, and the plight of the private college.

"More and more people are entering higher education," said Thomas, "and there is a limit to the amount of money we can afford to spend."

Thomas said the facts just don't bear out a prevalent rumor that the number of people in college is starting to decline. He pointed out that the 1971 enrollment of 479,000 exceeded projections made by the Coordinating Board four years ago. He also cited a recent study by the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education which indicates that present college enrollment will double by the end of the century.

"I don't plan to offer solutions to all the problems of higher education," commented the Chairman, "but I do think we must begin making some realistic appraisals of where we are, where

Senior citizens of year picked in club project

Chosen as Messenger Home Demonstration Club's Senior Citizen of the Year, Mrs. Jack Hudson of Hereford, a former resident of Messenger community, will receive special attention from the club during the year.

"We are going, and how we plan to get there."

She was selected in a business meeting when the club was entertained recently in Mrs. Bill Page's home. Each year Messenger members "adopt" a senior citizen for special acts of friendship.

The club's annual Thanksgiving supper for families will be at Walcott School, it was decided, but the date has not been fixed. Mrs. Gene Bradley conducted business and welcomed Patricia Moelius as a new member.

Mrs. John Garnett and Mrs. Moelius gave the program on Family Living, listing Ten Commandments of Communication. Each member answered roll call with A Good Way to Settle a Family Argument.

Mrs. Page directed a game, counting points on appearance, with Mrs. Garnett declared winner. The floating prize went to Mrs. Leo Webb.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor: This sounds like good advice for people today.

SOMETHING TO LIVE BY
When James A. Garfield was a young man, a printed slip was given him by an aged friend, which he carefully cherished to the end of his life. It read:

"Make few promises. Always speak the truth. Never speak evil of anyone. Keep good company or none. Live up to your engagements. Never play games of chance. Drink no intoxicating drinks. Good character is above everything else. Keep your secrets, if you have any. Never borrow if you can possibly help it. Do not marry until you are able to support a wife. Keep yourself honest if you would be happy. When you speak to a person look into his eyes. Make no haste to be rich if you would prosper. Live within your income. Save when you are young and spend when you are old. Never go into debt unless you see a way out again. Good company and good conversation are the sinews of virtue. Your character cannot be essentially injured except by your own acts. If anybody speaks evil of you, let your life be so that no one believes him. When you retire at night, think over what you have been doing during the day. Never be idle. If your hands can't be employed usefully, attend to the culture of your mind.

Read the above carefully and thoughtfully each week."

Small talk

BY SUE COLEMAN

Women's Editor
The college term is far enough advanced that we are getting reports of awards won and honors received by Hereford students.

Like that from Southwest Texas State College that Kandis Hill has been nominated for Who's Who at the San Marcos school. She is one of the pretty daughters of the O.G. Hills Jr. and a graduate of Hereford High.

Mention here a short time ago of two persons seriously hurt in falls at their home brought out a crusading mood in John Gill-land. As an operator of the town's ambulance service he realizes just how many such accidents occur without getting the attention given to industrial and highway accidents.

Incidentally, you probably know that about the time Donnie Owen was getting ready to go home from the hospital after her fall, her sister, Della Stagner, was hurt in a similar mishap and I believe is still in a hospital.

Which is an example that you can be conscious of the danger, think you are careful and still get hurt. That's what John remembered after saying, "There oughta be a crusade" to remind people how bad home accidents can be.

There are enough safety campaigns, words spoken and written to keep us all alert; but as he said, the trouble lies in the fact that none of us believe it will happen to us. And he sees it happen often, not just to the old and decrepit, as we tend to think, but to the young and vigorous as well.

It does no harm to say, "Be careful!" again, even if the advice is not heeded. And to prevent some of the suffering like that of recent victims here, injured when they were at home alone and unable to summon help, John has one practical suggestion based on experience.

Often, he says, an ill or injured person is able to crawl across a room, even into another room or maybe onto a bed, but still cannot stand to reach a telephone on the wall. Anyone, of any age, who lives alone should have his phone on a table or shelf low enough to reach from the floor, and in reach of his bed.

Extension phones are not expensive, he adds, and except in a small apartment one should be put at the opposite end of the house to the main phone. (None, neither one of us is working for the Bell system).

A special program in the series sponsored by the Student Activities Council at WTSU tonight will appeal to some people who may have felt that the general run of such programs was far too highbrow.

The Cowalls, a pop-rock group, is to give a concert in the activities center at 8 p.m., open to the public. Admission for these programs, unless you are

Social security

Q. I am a 66-year-old widow and get social security on my own work record. If I remarry, will that stop my check?

A. No. Just telephone the social security office and we will change your name on the check.

Q. My 20-year-old son is getting social security because he is still in school. If he gets married, can he still get his checks as long as he is a minor?

A. No. Marriages will stop his social security checks. Notify the social security office if he does marry.

Q. I want to stop my social security checks because I am going back to work. How do I go about it?

A. Just telephone your social security office. All this information can be taken by phone and you probably will not have to visit the office personally.

Q. My children and I are getting social security on my husband's record. If we get a divorce, will that stop the children's check?

A. No. It will stop your check but not the children's. Be sure to call the social security office if a divorce is granted.

Q. My son was getting social security because he was a student. He dropped out of school. How do I report this?

A. You should telephone the social security office immediately. If he cashes any more checks, he may be overpaid and a refund may be required.

McWhorter on Tech council

D.C. McWhorter of Hereford has been elected to the Texas Tech Ex-Students Association Council it was announced this week by Wayne James, Executive Director of the Association in Lubbock.

McWhorter and Edd McLeroy, of Dimmitt were elected to two-year terms as District Representatives. They replace W. R. Phillips and Dale Young, both of Hereford, whose terms expired.

McWhorter, a Tech graduate of 1939, is self-employed and also a corporate officer with Friona Feed Yard & Black Grain Co.

The Council will meet October 29, 1971, in conjunction with the Texas Tech Homecoming activities.

Fifty million years of volcanic activity in the Rocky Mountains have left direct evidence in the thousands of geysers and hot springs from Colorado north into Canada.

The Hereford Whitefaces take on the Plainview Bulldogs at Whiteface Stadium Friday night in a game that could possibly determine the district championship.

The Bulldogs have won five straight games and the Whitefaces are on a three game skein. Plainview just came off a 28-3 win over Lubbock high and the Whitefaces stopped the Coronado Mustangs, 20-0, thus setting the stage for the thriller Friday.

Plainview stands 5-2 on the season and the Whitefaces now are 1-4.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Father to the Rescue

Suppose a man sees his son being beaten up by the neighborhood bully. Does he have a legal right to use force in his son's defense?

He does indeed. Parallel to the right of self defense is the right to defend the members of one's family, with force if need be. This doctrine goes all the way back to the days of feudalism, when the master of the household was legally entitled to protect his family from attack.

But in such situations, there is always the chance of escalating the violence. Therefore, the law places careful limits on this right of family defense.

1) The force used must not be excessive. For example:

A father found his son involved in a fracas with the man next door. Rushing to the rescue, he knocked the man unconscious with a mighty blow on the head. Then he followed up with a swift kick in the abdomen.

For the resulting internal injuries, the father was duly held liable in court. The right to defend his son, said the court, did not include the right to kick someone who was lying on the ground unconscious.

2) The force must be used only to defend, not to "get even." In another case, a father found out that a certain teacher had slapped his son in class. Days later, meeting the teacher on the sidewalk, he punched him in the nose.

Could the father be held liable? Again, yes. The court said that since the boy was in no danger at the time of the punch, the father's action could not fairly be called defensive.

3) Many courts add that the father's right to use force is no greater than the child's. Thus: A belligerent teen-ager deliberately picked a fight with another youth. But by the time his father came along, he was already getting the worst of it. The father promptly slugged the other boy with a rock.

Sued later for damages, the father claimed he had acted to protect his son. But the court held him liable anyhow. The court said that, in terms of the right to use force, he "stood in his son's shoes"—that is, in the shoes of the aggressor.

County families relying on various sources of income

More than one-third of the families in Deaf Smith County are getting some of their income or maintenance support from Federal, state or local governmental sources if the local population is representative of the rest of the country.

Nationally, according to a study made by the Tax Foundation, a non-profit research organization, nearly 73 million individuals are receiving money from government coffers.

This refers only to those getting general income support. Not counted are persons and private institutions receiving funds under special purpose programs, such as Federal farm support, scholarships, research and training grants.

Social security beneficiaries in Deaf Smith County, who are covered by old-age, survivors and disability insurance, are a major category.

As of the beginning of this year, there were 1,751 men, women and children locally getting such checks each month.

Another important category consists of those in Federal, state or local government employ. The latest figures for the local area indicate a total of 3,880, approximately, on these public payrolls.

Of the 5.5 million war veterans in the United States or their survivors, who are getting pensions or compensation from the Federal government, close to 400 of them are residents of Deaf Smith County.

Among other residents receiving money from public agencies are those who are on the retirement rolls of state and local governments, military personnel, those on the Federal civil service retirement rosters and persons getting unemployment benefits and other aid.

The Tax Foundation notes that since some people may be receiving income under more than one program "the unduplicated count would be slightly less but would not affect the overall validity of the figures."

Dee Anne Caison on district program

Pianist invited to play

Dee Anne Caison, young music student who has won numerous awards as a pianist, has been invited to appear on the convention program of District I, Texas Federation of Music Clubs, at Spearman Saturday, when junior musicians of the Panhandle will be featured.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Caison, Dee Anne is a seventh grader at La Plata Junior High and a music pupil of Mrs. Joe Hacker. Since she was only five years old, she has won superior ratings in junior music festivals sponsored by the district TFMC. Her seventh such rating as a piano soloist was achieved last year as she played in the Very Difficult I division.

Her musical talent has also taken her to the International Our Little Miss pageant. She plays the organ as well as the piano.

On the program of the one-day convention at Spearman Saturday, her selection will be Valcby by Mokys.

Representatives of Music Study Club here and the Dawn Music Club are expected to go to the meeting, where district awards for programs and publicity will be made and the featured speakers will be Mrs. Leake Ward of Odessa, TFMC president, and Mrs. John Yows of Borger, state and district junior counselor. Mrs. J.D. Wilbanks of Spearman is district president.

Gospel quartet to be guests at Bippus singing

A quartet from Amarillo will be guests at Bippus Community Church Sunday, when residents of that neighborhood gather for their traditional Fifth-Sunday Singing.

Good News Quartet will be heard in a group of gospel songs to vary the program of audience singing and special numbers by Bippus residents.

Whenever there is a fifth Sunday in a month a singing is held at Bippus Church instead of the preaching service conducted on other Sunday mornings by Gene Brock. An old-fashioned basket dinner is served at noon.

This custom began in 1929 and has continued through the years. Visitors are invited to join the Bippus folk for the day's activities beginning at 11 a.m. Sunday School, with Clint Homfeld as superintendent, precedes the dinner hour.

GOLD IN THE HILLS
BRECKENRIDGE, Colo. (AP)—Sited at 9,600 feet altitude just west of the Continental Divide, this town's gold mines have yielded an average of nearly $1 million for each of the 111 years since it was first settled during the gold rush of the 1860's.

At the turn of the century the highest post office in the U. S. was located a few miles out of town on 11,482-foot Boreas Pass, where a narrow gauge railroad line snaked its way across the Rockies. Today an old log section house marks the spot.

Supper to mark end of contest

A contest ended in Sugar Blues TOPS Club this week, and the winner will be announced at the next meeting, a salad supper at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Community Center.

The winner is the member recording the greatest weight loss since the contest began several weeks ago, in keeping with the club's goal, Take Off Pounds Sensibly. Prospective members are invited to bring a low-calorie salad and attend the supper.

Leading in weight loss the past week was Mrs. Joe Rivera, who was four pounds lighter as she was proclaimed queen for the week.

She gave the program, speaking on Concepts in Weight Reduction.

Highlights and sidelights from your state capital

BY BILL BOYKIN

AUSTIN, Tex.—Ballot order has been selected for 14 proposed constitutional amendments to be voted on at the November 7, 1972, election.

Major changes, including authorization for a constitutional convention, four-year terms for major state officials, higher state bond interest ceilings and equal rights for women are included in the list.

The amendments, in the order they will appear on the ballot, follow:

1. A salary raise for legislators from $4,800 to $8,400 a year.
2. To abolish Lamar County hospital district.
3. To provide for compensation of all justices of the peace on a salary basis.
4. To establish a constitutional revision commission and call a convention to revise the state constitution in January, 1974.
5. To allow tax exemptions for disabled veterans, their surviving widows and children and widows and children of armed forces personnel killed on active duty.

6. To provide a minimum $3,000 property tax exemption for resident homesteads of those 65 and over.
7. To guarantee that equality under the law shall not be denied or abridged because of sex, race, color, creed or national origin.
8. To provide four-year terms for governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, comptroller, treasurer, land commissioner, secretary of state and other statutory state officers.
9. To allow soil and water conservation district directors to hold, or be compensated for, more than one office.
10. To require that proposed constitutional amendments be described twice in clear language by statewide newspaper publication (633 papers).
11. To fix an annual salary of $22,500 for speaker and lieutenant governor.
12. To permit state employees to serve on local governing boards.
13. To set a six per cent

weighted average annual interest rate for constitutionally-authorized bond issues.

14. To allow counties to reduce their permanent school fund and distribute money to independent and common school districts on a per-scholastic basis.

DEMOCRATS ELECT—Feuding Democrats settled a row over election of a new chairman with unexpected calm.

At a Dallas meeting, the State Democratic Executive Committee named Roy Orr, 39, mayor of DeSoto, chairman, rejecting Gov. Preston Smith's preference for Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

Orr won by a razor-thin 32 votes to 30 over the veteran statewide official. Backers of both argued that their man would be the best choice to unify the state party for election-year battles ahead. White had backing of liberal and some moderate and conservative members of the committee. Orr drew support of most SDEC conservatives and some moderates.

Both candidates, the winner and the loser, pledged future cooperation with all factions.

Orr succeeds Dr. Elmer Baum of Austin as SDEC chief until the September, 1972, state party convention.

APPOINTMENTS—Dan S. Petty, 31, formerly of Texas, was selected by Governor Smith as his executive administrative assistant to succeed Office A. Green who resigned October 1.

Among other recent appointments by Smith were the following:

University of Houston Board of Regents—Dr. J. Davis Armistead of Lubbock, Robert Lee Grainger and Mack H. Hannah Jr. of Houston; reappointed, James A. Elkins Jr. of Houston. Board of Regents, North Texas State University—William W. Jamar Jr. of Brownwood. Texas Civil Air Patrol Commission (new)—Louis C. Ways, George E. Haddaway and D.

Harold Byrd of Dallas; John A. Goolsby Jr. and Frank T. Cox of Austin; William I. Williams Jr. and Luther C. Bogard of Tyler; Claude L. Chambers of Irving and Mike A. Burkholder of Pecos.

State Board of Barber Examiners—Thomas J. Hullum of Burnet.

Joe Reeder Jr. of Knox City was named 50th district judge succeeding Lewis Williams of Knox City who resigned.

COURTS SPEAK—The State Supreme Court affirmed lower court findings that state employees are constitutionally banned from city council service.

In another new decision, the High Court set a hearing November 3 in the controversy over whether 588 acres were legally acquired at Odessa for a new University of Texas of the Permian Basin campus.

Third Court of Civil Appeals here held a law preventing vending machine owners from holding financial interests in taverns is constitutional.

The death penalty conviction of a Refugio County man for slaying a sheriff and a deputy sheriff in 1969 has been upheld by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

DISASTER AID APPROVED—Texas Employment Commission will pay disaster unemployment compensation to persons made jobless by tropical storm Fern September 9-September 30 in 14 South Texas counties.

Counties covered in the assistance plan are Aransas, Bee, Brooks, Duval, Nueces, Refugio, San Patricio, Jim Wells, Hidalgo, Starr, Willacy, Jim Hogg, Live Oak and Calhoun.

Special aid determined in accord with U. S. Labor Department regulations will correspond in amount and duration to benefits paid under the state unemployment insurance program and manpower development and training act. Maximum is $45 a week for 26 weeks.

Eligible include those who no longer have jobs or a place to work as a result of the storm or who were injured or who were made heads of households as a result of deaths in the disaster.

ALLOWABLE REDUCED—For the seventh consecutive month, Texas Railroad Commission reduced the statewide oil allowable.

"YOU GOTTA HAVE HEART" — Due to improved heart surgery, these five Hereford residents will live busier and healthier lives. Rev. Aedan Davis, left, associate pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, underwent his recent surgery at the Lubbock Methodist Hospital. Next in line, Flake Barber, boasts to be Hereford's pioneer in this endeavor, after his open heart surgery at St. Anthony's Hospital, Amarillo, to be followed soon afterwards by Bill Wall, center. Dick Gholson, second from right, will go to Denver soon for his own surgery. Jim Haney, right, was a patient at St. Anthony's in Amarillo, also. The five received special recognition at Wednesday's Lions Club meeting where the program was given by two Amarillo members of the Mended Hearts, Inc., an organization of nearly 50 former patients from throughout the area.

penalty on the state's share of highway construction money from the federal trust fund.

The threatened cut—because Texas has not enacted a billboard control law under the highway beautification act—would cost the state about $24 million a year. The appeal to Volpe noted legislative efforts to comply with the federal requirement and asked a decision on the penalty be withheld until the next regular legislative session.

The Legislative Redistricting Board barely made its October 23 deadline for reapportioning the House of Representatives. The new Senate districts were announced a week earlier.

Exciting mystery new at library

Ella's imaginative child and fantasies of an old abandoned house make an exciting mystery in An Afternoon Walk by Dorothy Eden. Caught by the odd attitude of her husband and frightening anonymous phone calls, she begins to wonder about her own sanity.

This exciting story is found in the Deaf Smith County Library on the first floor of the County Courthouse.

AN AFTERNOON WALK
By Dorothy Eden

On a leisurely afternoon walk one summer day Ella and her five-year-old daughter come up on an abandoned house with an eerie overgrown garden.

For the attractive young housewife and her imaginative child, the old house conjures up fantasies of grand parties and bygone fashions.

But in the midst of their reverie they hear a horrible, throaty scream and, from a second-story window, see the spreading white wings of an owl taking flight.

At home that evening, Ella describes the experience to her husband, Max, only to be reminded that, having recently lost a child at birth, she is still emotionally unstable. Later, pointing out her strange lapses of memory, he insists that she needs more quiet and rest.

Ella reluctantly agrees with him and all but forgets the experience, even though she feels it is somehow connected with the sudden disappearance of a woman in the neighborhood.

Then she begins receiving a series of anonymous phone calls. Trapped between the cold neglect of her husband, who openly questions her sanity, and the increasing terror of the calls, Ella herself comes to question her own sanity.

THE MINISTER FOR JUSTICE
By Terence de Vere White

The setting for The Minister for Justice is contemporary Dublin, with its elegant but decayed Georgian facades, and the city's outlying rural suburbs, where neat country cottages and once-stately villas cower under the predatory gaze of rapacious real-estate developers. The central figure in the story is Stephen Foster, an eminently successful lawyer, who is honored by his colleagues, respected by his enemies, and jealously cherished by the women who claim his affection. What happens when Foster finds himself involved with a motley band of blackmailers who threaten to destroy his professional reputation, forms the basis for an ingeniously complicated plot.

SARAH

By Diane Peatson

This moving, vivid novel tells the romantic story of a young woman in London and India in the perilous, swift-changing times between the two world wars.

Sarah Whitman has fought her way up from domestic service to a position as a school mistress. Her life is touched by many people, especially three men: one who teaches her what it is to love and be loved in return, another who waits for her in vain, and finally, the man she accepts in marriage.

The saga of these interwoven lives presents a journey of the human spirit, a book rich in adventure that discovers inspiration in adversity and transports the reader into a world of events as challenging and unexpected as reality itself.

It is a luminous evocation of a bygone era, when the philosophy of Karl Marx provided inspiration for impoverished young idealists, and roccoco movie palaces offered brief escape into the romantic, make-believe world of Greta Garbo and Charlie Chaplin.

Pork symposium set for Dec. 6

The Third Southwest Prok Symposium is slated for December 6, at West Texas State University, with discussions of health, nutrition and marketing of swine.

The one-day conference is being sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the School of Agriculture at West Texas State University. Speakers will come from Louisiana, East Texas, Kansas and

Helpful suggestions prevent accidents during Halloween

Trick or treat or trick and treatment?

Which will it be Saturday night as neighborhood ghosts and goblins make their annual Halloween pilgrimage in search of candy and other long anticipated treasures?

For the children it is an evening of great fun and adventure but for some it can turn into a night of tragedy and sorrow.

Each year too many children are injured and killed Halloween Eve by motorists unable to see them as they dart unexpectedly into the street. Still others are badly burned as their costumes are ignited by flames from lighted candles and lanterns. This does not have to be if parents will observe rules of good sense and safety.

Use only bright costumes. A white sheeted ghost is much more easily seen by passing drivers than a black clad witch. But even a brightly clothed child may be hard to distinguish as the evening darkens so a fluorescent strip, which would make him even more visible, is suggested.

Do not allow children to carry lighted candles or lanterns. Many have been burned in past years when their costumes, which are often made of extremely light, highly flammable material, have caught on fire. A flashlight would be easier to carry and would also make it safer when crossing streets.

Be sure to chaperone all children, who would not normally be allowed outside alone at night. Younger children should be out only in the early evening hours.

A major problem each Halloween is children who have been poisoned. Be very careful that candy, gum or anything else edible is securely wrapped.

Keep a light on in front of the house so that there is no danger of children being injured by walking into objects or holes they can not see in the dark. If there is a pet in the household, keep him away from the door.

Children enjoy putting on makeup as part of their cos-times but be careful of what they use. Cheap makeup can in many instances cause complexion problems for youngsters or hurt their eyes.

Finally, when your child goes out for the evening, make sure you know where he or she is going and what time he or she should be back.

Halloween can be a real treat for everyone. One way to insure it is to follow these simple rules of safety. The result will be an enjoyable and safe evening for children and parents alike.

LOUIS IN FOUR ALBUMS
NEW YORK (AP)—Since the recent death of Louis Armstrong, four albums under the Audio Fidelity label have been made available.

The albums are "Louis And The Dukes of Dixieland," "The Definitive Album by Louis Armstrong," "The Immortal King Oliver," and "The Immortal Fletcher Henderson."

By the end of 1971, an estimated 3.7 million gas lights will be burning across the country.

Retired influence community

Mrs. V.E. Dodson reviewed the influence retirement age can have on a community, in voting and care facilities, Tuesday afternoon when Lone Star Study Club members met with Mrs. Jim Higgins, hostess.

Mrs. J.J. Durham gave the thought for the day.

Other members in attendance were Mmes. Hardy Benson, R. G. Blue, Jim Bookout, W.S. Flutt, H.E. Henslee, John Jacobson Jr., C.D. Kelton, S.A. McCathern, Ray Sutt, J.C. Williams, C.O. Phillips, Robert Thompson and Miss Mildred Elliott.

It was announced the next meeting will be Nov. 9 with Mrs. G.W. Newsom as hostess.

Panhandle-High Plains area. They will include veterinarians, nutritionists, economists and swine producers, who will discuss various phases of pig and pork production.

A live hog evaluation will open the meeting, and the hogs will be slaughtered for inspection at the end of the conference, according to Dr. Gilbert R. Hollis, Extension area swine specialist.

'When to cut' has new twist

The annual problem of "when to cut" is again facing grain sorghum producers, with an added twist this year. Grain is coming into elevators with higher-than-normal moisture content.

The late rains and subnormal temperatures have delayed drying of the grain, which is constantly threatened with wind loss during the fall months, according to Marvin Sartin, Extension area economist at Lubbock.

Producers must decide whether to go ahead and accept the reduced price that goes with early harvest or to wait for the grain to field dry and take a chance on yield loss.

Ray Anthis, chief inspector for the Lubbock Grain Exchange, says the recent rains caused sucker heads to emerge on the plants, which increases the moisture level of the entire crop.

"As of last week, the number carloads moved through Lubbock was only about ten per cent of the amount moved by the same date last year," Anthis says. He explained that harvest usually peaks the last half of October, but will probably come much later this year.

A possibility that presents problems to both the producer and the elevator manager is the chance of an early frost. The young suckers would be frozen and dried out, Anthis explains, but the endosperm will remain white. A test at the elevator will show the load of grain to be low enough in moisture, but damage will still occur. Anthis says the white endosperm will eventually turn brown and show signs of heat damage without ever getting hot.

Elevators generally desire grain with 14 per cent moisture or lower, which is at the level commonly referred to as "storable moisture." Grain which is harvested at 20 per cent moisture will lose about seven per cent of its weight to shrinkage by the time the elevator can dry it to 14 per cent, says John Seibert, grain marketing specialist at Texas A & M University.

Grain harvested at lower moisture levels loses much less weight to shrinkage. For instance, 18-per-cent moisture grain will lose only 4.6 per cent of its weight when dried to 14 per cent moisture.

Another factor that Seibert points out is that there is much less carry-over in elevators than in past years. Ordinarily, an elevator can combine the new grain with older material that is very low in moisture, and help in the overall drying process. Reduced yields in recent years, plus the big increase in grain sorghum use, has resulted in very little carry-over, he says.

The obvious question is "why doesn't the producer just wait until the grain is field dried?" Here is where vital decisions must be made. Old Man Weather is the chief factor.

The dock on wet grain may seem like quite a large sum, but one day of damaging wind can easily offset the income gained by waiting to harvest. Also, the producer must often schedule his harvest to match the availability of custom equipment, according to Ed Garnett, area economist at Amarillo.

He cites an example of what adverse weather can do. A producer with a crop that will yield 6,000 pounds per acre will have to face a reduction of 11 cents per hundredweight if the grain has 18 per cent moisture at the elevator. This would amount to $8.60 per acre lost for the early harvesting.

If he decides to wait and adverse weather such as wind and rain knocks down ten per cent of his crop, this would be a loss of almost $11 per acre if the current price of grain sorghum was $1.80 per hundredweight. Under the heavy financing that most crops are burdened with, it is easy to see why the producer harvests early.

There are alternatives to every question; and this is just another of the problems faced by High Plains and Panhandle producers, whether to harvest early or wait.

TO walk BY FAITH

Often we have seen a blind person walking down a street. His whole life is based upon faith in what he cannot see. Of necessity, he seems to be truly following Paul's admonition to walk by faith and not by sight (II Cor. 5:7).

But Paul wasn't talking about the physically blind at all. He was referring to the spiritually blind, to those who can only believe in what they actually see. Unfortunately such people don't realize that what they are seeing will not last forever. Only the unseen God will last. And the unseen God is the heart of Paul's statement.

Don't center your faith around temporary things which you can see; center it around the lasting God whom you cannot see, knowing as Paul knew, that one day you will see Him.

Don't be spiritually blindfolded by the sights of the world. Remove the blindfold. Develop true vision. Have faith in God.

Art Guild sees work of guest

An afternoon session as well as the evening meeting of Hereford Art Guild was held Tuesday for demonstrations by a guest painter, Rosa Lee McGlaun of Snyder, in the open color method of painting still life in oils.

Work of the guest in other media was on display also, hung in the County Bull Barn where the two lessons were given and a sack supper served.

The painting method shown by Mrs. McGlaun involves application of color to areas of canvas, then the shape of an object formed by leaving the color as surrounding areas are painted. The Snyder woman has been painting since childhood; Guild members were told that the easel she used was made for her by her father when she was eight years old.

After supper Mrs. Joel Newman, vice president, conducted a brief business session and distributed 1971-72 yearbooks. Mmes. Jim Higgins, Duane

Blackburn rites set in Nebraska

Funeral services are planned for Friday in Mitchell, Neb., for Earl Robert Blackburn, 62, of 825 S. 25 Mile Ave., who died Saturday at his home of an apparent heart attack.

Local arrangements were by Gilliland Funeral Home and the service will be directed by Jones Funeral Home of Mitchell. Burial will be in Mitchell Cemetery.

Born June 5, 1909, at Lincoln, Mr. Blackburn came to Texas in 1960 from Colorado. He was employed in farm work.

Survivors include his wife, the former Eleanor Holten, three daughters and three sons.

Burial service held in Paducah

Burial at Paducah Tuesday afternoon followed a morning funeral service here for Mrs. Carrie Lee Porter, 88, of 200 Ave. K, whose death occurred Friday evening in a Dimmitt nursing home.

The Rev. Clarence Powell, Baptist pastor, conducted the funeral in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home.

Mrs. Porter, a native of Mississippi, is survived by her husband, John Porter, two sons, Jim and Roe Gibbs, both living in California; two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Wilkins of Hereford and Mrs. Maye Vowell of Goodyear, Ariz.; a brother, Willie Algood of Mississippi, and 12 grandchildren.

Verscheide, Alwyn Foster and Frances Farmer were hostesses, who decorated tables in Halloween color.

Members at the meeting included Mmes. Ben Childers, J. V. Perrin, Bess Werner, Ruth Brinkley, W.O. McCutcheon, Jim Lipscomb, Ludwig McBride, W.D. Askew, Ray Cowser, H.J. Wilhelm, Ruby Hickman, Charles Newell and Miss Hilda Havens.

City's largest home schedules big garage sale

Since Kings Manor is the largest home in Hereford, its garage sale, scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. Saturday, will be one of the largest of the year.

As in numerous homes of the community, the sale will follow fall housecleaning at the United Methodist retirement home, to dispose of items no longer useful there but of possible use to others. It will include furniture, dishwasher, washers, clothing and miscellaneous objects from the Manor's housekeeping department and given by residents.

The sale will be held on the Manor grounds at 425 Sunset, with all bargain hunters invited to attend, Mrs. Don Davidson announces.

EXPENSIVE TRIP PARIS (AP) - Passenger trains are still very much alive in France, and so are those luxurious private railways cars seen today mostly in old western movies.

The Compagnie des Wagons-Lits recently rented one to a rich woman from Versailles described only as Mrs. Fisher, 72, who suffers from arthritis. It cost her $900 for the 400-mile trip from Paris to Nice.

But the price included a crystal and rare-wood decorated living room, dining room, two master bedrooms, a four-bedroom for servants and a kitchen.

In 1963 Robert Farrington drove the winners of six harness races at Freehold, N.J. Ed Myer performed the feat in 1963.

Holly makes beet payment

High Plains growers for Holly Sugar Corporation will receive a final payment from Holly on their 1970 sugar beet crop of about $873,000 on Sunday, Bob Ginn, agricultural manager for Holly's Hereford factory district announced today.

This will boost total returns to Holly growers on the High Plains to about $8,100,000 which includes both Holly and Sugar Act payments, Ginn said.

The average price received by growers, including Sugar Act payment, is $14.49 per ton. Ginn said that the High Plains crop averaged 19.9 tons per acre.

Ginn explained that under Holly's contract terms, growers receive an initial payment in November of the harvest year based on the sugar content of their beets.

A final payment is made in October of the following year based on the final net selling price received by Holly for the sugar produced from these beets.

Payment to growers for the 1970 crop is based on a sales period of October 1, 1970 through September 30, 1971.

Ginn said that rain has made harvest conditions difficult with the harvest 10 percent complete.

Julian J. Clark Stadium in Charlotte, N.C., will be the site of the Davis Cup challenge round matches, Oct. 8 to 10.

A new automatic bale wagon used by farmers allows one man to pick up tons of hay bales each day without leaving the seat of his tractor.

PFLAUMKUCHEN — It's made with fresh blue prune plums and comes from German cuisine.

Let's cook something

German cake is treat

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

German cooks are noted for their kuchen, those yeast-raised coffeecakes that often hold fruit. If you have a yen to make one of these you can do it the easy way by using a package of hot-roll mix. For the fruit choose fresh blue prune plums as German cooks like to do. Call the coffeecake Pflaumkuchen.

This coffeecake is best served warm. So if you make it well ahead of serving, do reheat it. It's not a rich kuchen so you may want to pass butter with it.

PFLAUMKUCHEN
(PLUM CAKE)

- ¼ cup lukewarm water
- 1 package (13¼ ounces) hot roll mix
- ¼ cup lukewarm milk
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- Grated rind of 1 lemon
- 15 blue prune plums, halved and pitted
- ½ cup sugar

- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 2 tablespoons butter

In large bowl, in lukewarm water, dissolve the yeast that comes in box of mix. Stir in milk, egg, 2 tablespoons sugar and lemon rind. Beat in until smooth the flour mixture that comes in box of mix.

Cover and let rise in warm draftfree place until doubled in bulk—30 to 45 minutes.

Beat again; spread in greased 13- by 9- by 2-inch baking pan.

Place plums, cut side up, on top. Mix together ½ cup sugar and cinnamon; cut in butter until mixture is crumbly; sprinkle over top. Cover and let rise in warm draftfree place until doubled in bulk—about 30 to 45 minutes. Bake in preheated 375-degree oven until golden brown—25 to 30 minutes. Cut in squares. Serve warm.

Veleda members appear as goblins

Members of Veleda Study Club answered roll call Tuesday evening with recollections of fun on Halloween during their childhood, followed by excited visiting over costumes worn to the meeting.

Members present included ghosts, witches and goblins, clowns and black cats.

Mrs. George Olson was hostess for the evening at Pioneer Natural Gas Flame Room. One guest made welcome was Mrs. Gilbert Ottesen from Colorado.

Business began by voting into membership Mrs. John Poindexter followed by plans to host the Nov. 3 birthday party at Westgate Hospital.

Mrs. Gid Brownd presented a program entitled Let's Make Time For Merriment, Using as reference Walter Alvarez's Bits of Wisdom for Happiness Mrs. Brownd quoted "Heaviness in the heart of man makes it stoop, but a good word makes it glad. A cheerful heart is a good medicine but a cheerful heart has a continual feast."

Alvarez quoted Helen Keller's "Use your eyes as if tomorrow you would be struck blind," and another "It's better not to put off doing things because it may be later than you think."

Again in the spirit of Halloween, Mrs. Brownd read The Tell-Tale Heart by Edgar Allen Poe.

Other members in attendance were Mmes. Joe Frank Clark, Hugh Clearman, Red Durham, Armon Lauderback, Richard Ottesen, Gwynne Owen, George Ritter, Billy Wayne Sisson, James Trail, Glen Watts and Frank Zinser.

Elks Lodge to host Halloween party for kids

A Halloween party for children and guests of Elkette and Elk members will be held from 2-4 p.m. Saturday it is announced by Exalted Ruler, Fred Ruland. The games, apple bobbin' and other activities will take place in the Elks Lodge on West Brady Street, in the former Quarter Horse Club building.

Look who's new

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby J. Stewart are the parents of a son, Stephen Darnell, born Oct. 25. He weighed 6 lbs. 7 ozs.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Goodman are the parents of a daughter, Nora Jean, born Oct. 24. She weighed 5 lbs. 14 ozs.

Mr. and Mrs. Genaro Fernandez are the parents of a son, Samuel, born Oct. 23. He weighed 7 lbs. 4 ozs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jose Garcia are the parents of a daughter, Adela, born Oct. 23. She weighed 4 lbs. 14 ozs.

She's too young for women's shoes. Too old for little girls'. Finding shoes to fit her can be a big problem. But you can count on Pocos. A special collection of shoes just for her. They come in adult sizes, but have the fit her growing feet need. They have the styling, too. Like those earthy casuals for jeans, pants, or whatever. Put her in Pocos, and that's another problem taken care of. 13.99 to 15.99.
