

Spaniards May Arm Against An Attack, UN Probers Learn

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Jose Giral, premier of the exiled Spanish republican government, told a United Nations sub-committee investigating Franco Spain today that the Franco regime has told every Spaniard he could arm himself to defend Spain "against an attack by Russia."

Giral, appearing before the United Nations Security Council sub-committee in its first public hearing in the month-long inquiry, said that:

"Two months ago the Franco regime decreed that every citizen could arm himself to defend the fatherland against an attack by Russia." He did not explain his reference to "an attack by Russia."

Answering committee questions concerning the armed forces of Spain, Giral said "it is difficult to set the armed strength since the whole population is entitled under law to be armed."

Paul Hasluck, chairman of the sub-committee, had called attention to a voluminous report on Franco Spain submitted by Giral in which the armed forces of Franco were set at $40,000.

Giral said the $40,000 figure included colonial troops.

The five committee members and Giral sat at the translators' table in the security council conference room instead of at the horseshoe-shaped council table.

Giral spoke in Spanish, one of the five official languages of the United Nations. English and French are the working languages.

The sub-committee is inquiring into Poland's charges against Franco's regime, which include the contention that refugee Nazi scientists are conducting atomic research inside Spain.

Baptist Plans For Church Annex Await Priorities

Plans have been completed and a building permit secured for erecting a $50,000 annex at the East Fourth Street Baptist church, but prospect for obtaining a priority for material from the CEA within the next month are doubtful, officials of the church said today.

Complete plans have been drawn by Puckett and French and application made for the priority. Rev. James E. Clark, pastor, said, "We have been received that the original application was not granted, but the CPA pointed out that another may be submitted after 90 days. There was no indication as to whether a new application would gain favorable action, however."

Church officials plan to file again on June 17, when the 90-day period expires.

The proposed annex has been planned to house additional Sunday school class rooms and other educational facilities for the church.

Ensign W. R. Grady Given Posthumous Honor Of Navy Cross

The late Ensign William R. Grady, USNR, Big Spring, has been honored posthumously by navy.

His name was among those of 111 Texans who were presented the Navy Cross for extraordinary heroism during the war. Next to the Congressional Medal of Honor, the Navy Cross is the highest award for heroism in combat for navy men.

Jose Espinosa Moreno, Lamesa, has been given a presidential unit citation as a crew member on a gunboat which participated in pre-invasion demolitions of Iwo Jima. The boats worked within 1,000 yards of deadly fire from shore batteries to cover demolition teams, towed crippled ships, fought fires, evacuated wounded and returned to the floating line. Moreno was discharged from the navy in March, 1946.

Monoplane Crashes Into Cayuga Church

PALESTINE, May 23 (AP)—A light monoplane crashed into the roof of the Judson Baptist church at Cayuga, Tex., near here yesterday, resulting in superficial injuries to two girls.

A group of church pupils holding a coronation ceremony outside the building escaped injury. The names of the flyers were given as James Lanston, about 21, and Charles Ruth, about 18, both of Cayuga. Their plane was virtually demolished.

They said they took off in the rented plane at the Palestine airport yesterday afternoon.

New Auto Price Raise Granted; Fourth Hinted

Chance For Cut During Full Production Slim

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—OPA, slapping four to eight per cent price hikes on top of previous increases for new automobiles, kept the door open today for a possible further boost.

At the same time chances virtually disappeared for any OPA-ordered cut in ceiling prices when the industry achieves full scale production.

A high OPA official who asked to remain anonymous said the agency "does not plan to try to reduce prices" after cars begin to roll from assembly lines at the pre-war rate. Manufacturing costs usually decline as production goes up.

The official asserted that car makers "have had a pretty tough time of it" and that a price cut by OPA would be out of the question.

But he added there could be another increase. Three already have been piled on 1942 auto prices.

Present ceilings will stand, the official said, until the industry has been operating at the 1941 production rate for three months. It may take some time to hit that stride. The Civilian Production Administration reported last week that, due mainly to strikes, only 433,766 passenger cars were produced in the 10 months through April—a normal pre-war figure for one month.

The increases announced yesterday range from $98 to $167, averaging about $78 for 16 makes of cars built by Chrysler, Ford, General Motors, Hudson, Nash, Packard and Studebaker.

The full amount of the fresh increases will be paid by the public. Dealers were required to absorb part of the previous two, but OPA has announced that their pre-war profit margins will be cut no more.

Illness Fatal To John Watkins, T And P Employe

John P. Watkins, 68, general chairman of the Brotherhoods of Railway Conductors for the Texas & Pacific system, died in a hospital at Fort Worth today of cerebral hemorrhage.

Mr. Watkins, a veteran T&P employe and for 31 years a resident of Big Spring, suffered a stroke two years ago and had been showing improvement until he died suddenly early this morning.

Brief services will be held at 10 a. m. Friday in Fort Worth and the body will be brought here for final rites Saturday at 3:30 p. m. in the Eberley-Curry chapel, with the Rev. James E. Moore, Presbyterian minister, officiating.

Coming to Big Spring in 1910 to join the T&P, Mr. Watkins operated out of here until five years ago when he removed to Fort Worth to become general chairman of the system's conductors. He had served as chairman of the local brotherhood for 15 years prior to that time and made the Big Spring-Fort Worth run for eight years before he left here.

He was a native of Smithfield, Ky., and held membership in the Masonic lodge at Fort Worth.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Cora Watkins, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Emma McElvaine, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Lettie Muse, Washington, D. C.

Saturday Scheduled As VFW Poppy Day

Saturday will be observed as "Poppy Day" by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, officials of the Christensen-Tucker post have announced.

Each year on the Saturday preceding Memorial Day, VFW posts throughout the country offer poppies for sale as a means of financing the charity fund for disabled veterans, are purchased by the individual posts, who, in turn offer them for sale to the general public. Earlier government dispatches said communists were seen withdrawing from Changchun yesterday, presumably headed for Yungki (Kirin) 80 miles to the east.

In contrast to the mild skirmishing which preceded Cheng's entry into Changchun today, the communists were forced to wage a stubborn, four-day battle to seize the city in mid-April from a far inferior government force, made up chiefly of ill-equipped volunteers.

Deadline Passes; Brotherhoods, Railroads Are Still Deadlocked

Shortly Before Zero Hour Press Secretary Has Nothing To Report

BULLETINS

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The hour set for starting a railroad strike arrived at 4 p. m. today with no public word of success from White House negotiators striving to head off the walkout of 250,000 engineers and trainmen.

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The White House announced 30 minutes before the deadline for the nationwide railroad strike today that negotiations "are still going on."

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The railroad management group empowered to act for all carriers was called today to join the 11th hour efforts at the White House to avert a 4 p. m. walkout on the rail lines.

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—Three railroads—the Pennsylvania, New York Central and Long Island—voluntarily suspended all or part of their trains out of New York City this afternoon as the deadline for a scheduled strike drew near with no word of a postponement.

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The White House announced at 2 p. m., just two hours before a strike deadline, "every effort is being made to settle the rail labor dispute."

Charles G. Ross, presidential press secretary, gave reporters this picture of the situation at that hour: "I have very little to report. Mr. Whitney and Mr. Johnson (heads of the trainmen and engineer brotherhoods) are here. They have not yet seen the president."

"The operators, headed by Mr. Pelley and his group, are also here. They came in at the invitation of Mr. Steelman. They have not seen the president."

"The president went to lunch at his usual hour of 1 o'clock and has just returned to his office. Every effort is being made to settle the rail labor dispute."

John J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads, headed the carrier delegation. Alvanley Johnson of the engineers and A. F. Whitney of the trainmen, told reporters: "We'll have a statement after we see the president."

Russia Ready To Begin Loan Negotiations

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Government officials reported today Russia has informed the United States it still is interested in beginning negotiations looking toward a $1,000,000,000 American loan.

These officials told reporters a new Russian note was received over the weekend. The United States is preparing an answer, they said, the third to be sent to Russia on the subject.

Although they declined to disclose the contents of the Russian note, officials made known that the United States and the Soviet still have not been able to agree on topics to be included in loan conversations.

American officials previously had disclosed that the United States had indicated a desire to examine economic conditions in Eastern Europe, especially in Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

In its last note, sent about six weeks ago, the American government had suggested that actual negotiations could begin in Washington about mid-May.

Russia's failure to reply until the past week-end aroused speculation that Moscow had abandoned hope of getting American financial assistance.

San Antonio Reports 28th Case Of Polio

SAN ANTONIO, May 23 (AP)—Confirmed as a definite polio case today was a 2½ year old girl.

The child became the city's 28th victim since the outbreak May 1.

City health department officials said that one new suspect was reported at Brooke General hospital. He was a 30-year-old Army sergeant, stationed at Dodd Field.

He appealed to the communists, through General Marshall's truce commission at Nanking, to evacuate Changchun to prevent further destruction of the city, there was no immediate indication why the Reds had left.

GOVERNMENT MINE—Lacking a flagpole, owners of a bituminous coal mine at Midway, Pa., strung the flag on electric wires to signify the government seizure—but the miners remained away from work. (AP Wirephoto).

Many Coal Men Refuse To Work For Government

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—With more than a third of the soft coal miners idle despite government seizure of the mines, a White House conference sought today to work out a wage contract acceptable to both John L. Lewis and coal operators.

Among the conferees at the early morning meeting were Secretary of Interior Krug, federal mine boss; Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach; Dr. John R. Steelman, President Truman's labor adviser; and Reconstruction Director John W. Snyder, Vice Admiral Ben Morrell, Krug's lieutenant as government operator of the pits, also joined the talks.

The picture was not rosy. The best that Secretary of Interior Krug could offer as government mine boss was a guarded "hope" that the end of the current two-week truce Saturday would not plunge all the pits back into idleness.

The first 24 hours of government seizure produced discouraging results from the administrative point of view. Thousands of miners, who had gone back to work under the truce, quit their pits.

This return to idleness closed down an additional 243 mines, increasing the number immobilized by the bituminous dispute to more than 2,100 out of 4,500, total. The latest federal estimates are that more than a third of the 400,000 soft coal miners are now staying away from work.

With the truce's end rapidly approaching, Krug and Vice Admiral Ben Morrell, who is charged with running the seized mines, weighed the newly-stated terms which Lewis is submitted to the government for settlement of the two and one-half month old dispute and asked for time to study all its particulars.

Los Angeles Books Man For Suspicion Of Phantom Killings

LOS ANGELES, May 23 (AP)—A 21-year-old man who described himself as a former Army Air Forces gunner, was booked in central jail on suspicion of murder today after Detective Sergeants F. A. Pahrman and T. L. Kelly had questioned him in connection with the slayings of five persons recently in the Texarkana, Texas, area.

The officers said he would be held for further investigation by Texarkana officials.

Kelly said the man, who was arrested at a downtown shooting gallery early today, told them he had hitchhiked here from Texarkana and had only been in town a few hours. He told the officers, they reported, that he had been in a coma from March 25 to May 3 and could not remember much of that period.

The officers said they arrested the man after he wrote some notes regarding the Texarkana killings and gave them to the Los Angeles Examiner.

Pahrman said they did not take a written statement from him.

Patsy Cross Struck By Car On West 3rd

Patsy Cross, 12, of 705 Douglas is in a local hospital today for treatment of injuries received Wednesday afternoon when she was hit by an automobile on West 3rd street, the police department reported.

The attending physician said she was suffering from a broken left arm and multiple lacerations and abrasions on the upper left leg and lower right leg. According to the police report, Miss Cross was injured in an accident involving an automobile driven by E. L. Eggleston of Fortan immediately after she disembarked from a bus. No arrests were made.

Drainage Funds Paid

DALLAS, May 23 (AP)—Federal Works Administrator Major General Philip B. Fleming said today that advances totaling $56,800 were made today to the city of Beaumont, Tex., and Jefferson county, to finance planning and specifications for storm drainage works which will cost an estimated $3,038,300.

City Paving Program Finally Gets Underway With 3-Block Project

With arrangements virtually completed for a three-block project, prospects were bright today for beginning Big Spring's 1946 paving program before the end of the month.

Final arrangements made with property owners on East 15th street from Johnson to Austin, and forms and equipment are being moved to the site, City Manager

B. J. McDaniel said. Property owners on the three blocks are entering the program 100 per cent as a result of contact work carried out by R. L. Cook, former mayor, and city employees.

Contact work now is underway on Runnels from 11th to 18th streets. J. B. Collins is taking the lead this week on making the Runnels street arrangements, and a city employe will be available after the weekend to help complete this work. Collins is contacting a property owner in each block who in turn is distributing forms to his neighbors. Although definite results have not yet been determined, indications are that most property owners are anxious to cooperate in the program, McDaniel said.

Preliminary engineering work is proceeding on Dallas, Martha and Jefferson streets and on Washington Blvd.

McDaniel also announced today that a maintainer purchased recently from the Army, had been received, which will fill a vital need in the city's street-repair and construction department. Delivery of a concrete mixer and roller, purchased at the same time, is expected soon.

AAF To Begin Reserve Training

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Wartime airmen from the University of Texas were told yesterday that the army air forces would start training reserve pilots and ground crews in July at 40 bases.

General Carl Spaatz, AAF commander, said training would be started progressively at 90 more bases before mid-1947.

Each reservist will be given 15 days annual active duty in addition to brief periods of training throughout the year, he said. AAF plans call for ground and flight training for 30,000 reserve officers and 120,000 enlisted reservists.

The University of Texas students made the trip to seek information on the reserve plans.

John Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Evans, Big Spring, was a leader in the group of University men invited to Washington for a conference with the AAF officers. They had raised the question about training for reservists at that university.

Pearl Harbor Probers Vote Down Suggestion

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—The Pearl Harbor committee today rejected, 3 to 1, a demand by Senator Brewster (R-Me) that it look into State Department files he contended might contain information on 1,200 to 1,500 pre-war messages exchanged by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

Voting down a series of proposals by Brewster for further inquiries, the committee closed the voluminous record it began compiling last November 15 on the Pearl Harbor attack.

Committee attaches said the record, including 181 exhibits, will fill 36 printed volumes of 800 pages each, totaling approximately 8,500,000 words.

Sixth Baby Dies From Brideship

NEW YORK, May 23 (AP)—The death toll of babies stricken ill aboard GI brideships mounted to six today when a five-month-old girl, in this country only four days, died in Pittsburgh.

The child, Vivian Smith, arrived here with her mother, Mrs. Howard Smith whose husband lives in Burbank, Calif., on the SS Brazil last Sunday.

The death, which physicians diagnosed temporarily as acute diarrhea and malnutrition, was the first reported among the Brazil's passengers.

Five infants who traveled on the brideship Zebulon Vance have died from a mysterious ailment which struck them as they crossed the Atlantic.

A federal investigation was begun after mothers complained of overcrowding and unsanitary conditions aboard the vessel.

The ship docked here Monday after a 13-day voyage from Le Havre. Four deaths occurred at the Fort Hamilton hospital—where 15 other babies originally were taken—and one at Paris, Ill. Several ailing infants have since been transferred from the Army hospital to other hospitals or their homes for private treatment.

Dallas Embargoes Perishable Goods

DALLAS, May 23 (AP)—Dallas headquarters of four major railroads had placed embargoes on perishables and livestock today pending developments in a threatened nationwide railway strike, set for 4 p. m.

John Carey, union terminal ticket agent, said this afternoon that ticket sales were continuing on all lines.

The Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad and the Missouri Pacific were refusing shipments of livestock and foodstocks. The Santa Fe limited its embargo to livestock. The Santa Fe freight office said it was refusing all shipments of perishables for the Louisiana and Arkansas Railway.

The Cotton Belt freight office was continuing to accept all kinds of freight.

At Denison, Jack H. Little, general superintendent of transportation for the MKT lines, said the railroad was holding perishables at icing points.

Milling Operations Temporarily Halted

WICHITA FALLS, May 23. (AP) — Milling operations at the General Mills plant here were temporarily suspended Wednesday as officials said they could not continue to produce flour until the government increased the flour subsidy or the ceiling price.

Eugene Berry, general manager, said "the government raised the wheat price ceiling May 13, but has not raised the subsidy or ceiling on flour. We are not in a position to sell or grind any flour until an equilibrium between these prices is reached."

Berry said he hoped some government action would be taken within the next week. Employees affected by the shutdown will be used in the elevator and maintenance work, he stated.

The General Mills elevator has received about 250,000 bushels of new wheat thus far.

Ambulance Driver Tells US Court Enemy Ignored Red Cross Patch

DACHAU, Germany, May 23. (AP) — An American ambulance driver who helped wounded Germans in Normandy told a US military court how enemy troops ignored his Red Cross insignia and shot him four times after he surrendered at the Malmédy crossroads Dec. 17, 1944.

Glaring at 74 SS war crimes defendants, Samuel Dobyns of Sandusky, O., described the shooting of more than 100 soldiers as they stood with hands upraised in surrender in a field in Belgium during the battle of the Bulge.

Dobyns was trapped by crossfire that day and his ambulance was riddled by machinegun fire. He said he had just painted new red crosses on it.

He and his helper hit the dirt and the ambulance was wrecked against a tree. He surrendered to a group of German troops, he testified, and one private wanted to kill him on the spot.

"An officer told him not to shoot me," Dobyns said.

He walked slowly before the defendants, but was unable to pick out the officer.

Dobyns said he was lined up with perhaps 150 others, including five swearing Red Cross insignia. A pistol shot rang out and a man near him fell.

"I broke ranks and ran to the rear," he said. "Then I heard another pistol shot and others in the rear started to disperse. At last two machineguns opened up and we all hit the dirt. I was shot four times and there were eight or ten other holes in my jacket.

"I saw three or four German soldiers shoot the wounded that were crying for help. I thought I was the only one left alive."

After several hours, Dobyns and 18 or so others jumped up and ran to safety.

Dobyns said he could not identify the captors as SS men.

Homer D. Ford, a military police private of Leeton, Mo., told how he was captured that day and escaped from the bloody field also after he had been shot.

This testimony concluded the prosecution's presentation of eye witness accounts by five enlisted men and one lieutenant who survived the Malmédy shootings. All six now have been mustered out. They were brought by plane to Dachau for the trial. Seventy-one bodies were covered from the Malmédy field.

Lions Prepare For District Meeting Here

Lions officially shoved everything else aside Wednesday to prepare for the joint meeting of district 2-T and the state convention here June 10-12.

Jack Y. Smith, president, announced the appointment of Otis Graf, Sr., as general chairman for the affair and heard brief reports from heads of several subcommittees.

Those included Ted Groehl, finance; W. R. Dawes, registration; Wiley Curry, publicity and greetings; Jake Douglass, housing; Joe Williamson, transportation; J. H. Greene, decoration; Dan Conley, entertainment. Another committee for entertainment for visiting Lionses is headed by Mrs. Jack Smit and is at work.

Douglass reported 175 reservations for double rooms already had been received, and he predicted that many Lions may be called on to supply facilities in their homes to care for the promised over-flow crowd.

Highlights of the convention will include church services as the only program item the first day; business sessions, the governor's banquet and ball on Monday, June 17, and model luncheons; state business sessions on Tuesday, June 18, a big barbecue and international night the same evening in the city park amphitheatre when Francisco Antonio Doria y Paz, international director from Mexico City, will be the speaker. He likely will be accompanied by a string band of Lions from Mexico.

Publishers Urged To Conserve Stock Of News Print

NEW YORK, May 23. (AP) — Loggers strikes on the Pacific Coast and coal shortages on the Eastern Seaboard if continued much longer, could seriously curtail the nation's already short supply of news print, Cranton Williams, general manager of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, said today.

Publishers were urged by Williams to conserve their stocks and keep up inventories because of uncertainties in the coal, transportation and wood-cutting industries. Though Pacific Coast paper mills have wood on hand, the strike of the International Woodworkers of America (IWO) in British Columbia, unless soon settled, can deplete those inventories quickly, Williams added.

Newspapers in Texas, Oklahoma and throughout the Southwest will be affected by logging strikes because they get their newsprint from British Columbia mills, Williams pointed out.

The newsprint service bureau reported April production of news print in North America was 434,421 tons, highest April output in history, and that April shipments were 446,927 tons. Stocks at the end of April totaled 196,370 tons, against 208,776 at the end of March.

MEXICO CITY, May 23. (AP)—Ten University of Mexico students have been expelled by Dr. Salvador Zubiran, rector, in connection with disorders last week when students demanded additional spring vacations. Police used tear gas to quell the disturbances. The vacations were not granted.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 million of the most delicate filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent urination, especially at night, is a warning sign that your kidneys are not working properly. Sometimes there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it also may cause nagging headache, rheumatic pain, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give heavy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubules flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Farm And Ranch News

By WACIL McNAIR

A spraying demonstration for lice, ticks and flies on livestock, tentatively on schedule for several weeks, will be held either late this month or early in June, County Agent Durward Lewter reports. A machine owned by Coke county and widely used by ranchers in that area will be used, and T. B. Hicks, Coke county agent, will be here to assist with the demonstration. Hicks already has notified Lewter that he can bring the spraying machine any time that local arrangements can be made. Lewter is hoping that conditions will permit spraying a Howard county herd in separated groups in order that effectiveness of various mixtures can be determined. He wants to spray one group with rotenone and sulphur, currently used by most local stockmen for spraying and dipping, and use solutions of DDT varying from 2 percent to approximately 2 percent. One chemical company has contributed a 55-gallon drum of DDT and another has given enough to mix about 10 gallons of 2 percent solution.

Hicks has reported that DDT worked well with cattle in Coke county, and that it positively controls horned flies for three weeks after spraying. He also said they have definitely controlled flies by using two initial sprayings and then repeating every six weeks.

Texas Electric Service company plans to give several prizes to 4-H club boys at the end of the electrical appliance show Saturday night. To become eligible for the prizes the boys must register, either at the display headquarters on the mezzanine floor of the Settles hotel or at the tent housing the farm appliance display at 3rd and Johnson streets. Deadline for registration is 9 p. m. Saturday, at which time the prizes will be awarded. The prizes will be pigs, baby chicks and laying hens.

I. B. Cauble and son will offer 39 head to bidders at their bull sale May 31 in the new West Texas Livestock Auction company's plant. Included will be 25 two-year-olds, two herd sires and 12 yearlings.

Several out of town visitors will be here Tuesday for a tour of 4-H club calves in Howard county now on feed. The group will visit as many of the club boys as possible, and some of the animals probably will be vaccinated at that time.

An order for 53,900 lbs. of Johnson grass poison has been placed by the Howard county farm bureau. Most of the order, which is enough to destroy about 125 acres of solid grass, was submitted by Howard county farmers. Small amounts were requested by Midland and Martin counties.

Winners in the annual Sears essay contest for 4-H club boys will be announced by the end of the week, and awards will be distributed next week. A good number of entries reached the county agent's office before the deadline Monday.

Moscow Expected To Make Historic Policy Decisions

WASHINGTON, May 23. (AP)—Diplomatic authorities here looked today for a series of historic foreign policy decisions by Moscow in the next three weeks affecting the whole immediate course of postwar events.

They believe Premier Stalin and Foreign Minister Molotov will do the deciding before June 15—the date the foreign ministers' conference resumes in Paris—and thereby determine the extent of future Soviet cooperation with the United States and Britain in making the peace.

These are the critical issues on which the Kremlin now appears confronted with decisions: 1. Do the Soviet leaders consider it more important to keep Red occupation armies throughout Eastern Europe or to get Eastern European countries on a peace-time basis with regular treaties concluded?

2. Are they willing to make a settlement of the Trieste dispute which would fall to Yugoslavia that entire strategic area at the head of the Adriatic? Some officials here say that Trieste evidently has become a symbol of Russia's ability to deliver the goods for a friendly Communist government.

3. Will Stalin overrule Molotov's initial objections to the proposal by Secretary of State Byrnes for a 25-year four-power German control pact or will he uphold Molotov's objections to making such an agreement?

Physician Reports Removal Of Stomachs

Boston, May 23. (AP)—Dr. Frank H. Lahey, director of the widely-known Lahey clinic, has reported 89 successful operations in which the patients' stomachs were removed completely.

Addressing the Massachusetts Medical Society, Dr. Lahey said the gastrectomies were done to remove cancerous or other growths.

He said a "substitute stomach" is provided for these patients through a loop in the intestines. Dr. Lahey also advised people past middle age who have indigestion that lasts longer than a week to submit to X-ray examinations because "they may be suffering from ulcers or cancer."

Area Businesses Pay Fines For Violation

DALLAS, May 23. (AP)—Business establishments in Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana have paid out more than a quarter of a million dollars in fines for violation of the wage stabilization law, A. Langley Coffey, War Stabilization board chairman, said.

The majority of the violators, 59 in all, were in the building and construction industry, Coffey said.

Sugar Stamp Racket Still Plagues OPA

FORT WORTH, May 23. (AP)—The sugar stamp racket is bobbing up again in the Fort Worth OPA district, this time in the Lubbock area.

A. Fox Curry, Jr., district sugar rationing officer, today said numerous complaints are being received from grocers in the South Plains region that sugar purchasers are turning in bogus stamps, manufactured by pasting part of a blue food stamp, no longer in use, over an expired sugar stamp.

Curry advised grocers and clerks to inspect all stamps carefully. Otherwise, he warned, they will not be able to replace the sugar which they sell by accepting faulty stamps.

Tomato Growers Take Holiday From Sales

HARLINGEN, May 23. (AP)—Seventy-seven valley shippers have taken a tomato shipping holiday starting at midnight last night, lasting until midnight Sunday.

The shutdown is designed to stimulate overloaded markets on which 600 cars of tomatoes were awaiting sale yesterday. The association has criticized high retail prices as the reason for slow sales of the big Texas tomato crop.

Veteran Educator Wants To Retire

PALESTINE, May 23. (AP)—Thomas Gatlin, 40 years an educator, says he wants to retire. The veteran head of the Slocum schools recently accepted his re-appointment only on condition that he serve until a successor can be named. He said he desires to retire because of ill health.

Known as the hero of the Slocum tornado which destroyed the school in 1929, Gatlin has taught in Texas for 32 years. He is a native of Tennessee where he taught for eight years.

In 1929 a tornado hit Slocum resulting in heavy damage. As the tornado approached the town Gatlin ordered his pupils to lie flat on the floor and a few moments later the twister wrecked the building leaving only the floor, desks, Gatlin and his students intact.

No Shortages In Eggs, Are Nutritious Can Be Prepared In Variety Of Ways

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS, Associated Press Food Editor

No matter what shortages, expected or unexpected, may hit us there are lots of eggs to be bought right now and they can be made into some very tasty dishes.

Perhaps it's true that there's no better egg than a soft-cooked or coddled one. I'm almost willing to go along with that myself. But there are lots of other good ways to prepare eggs—and in cooking with an item so plentiful we need variety.

Here's a fine spring or summer dish which is practically a meal in itself and very pretty to look at, too.

Hearty Egg Salad
1 envelope plain unflavored gelatine
1-4 cup cold water or vegetable juice
8 hard-cooked eggs, diced
1-4 cup stuffed olives, sliced or cucumber diced
1-2 cup green pepper, diced
1 cup cooked rice or macaroni
1-3 cup mayonnaise
2-3 cup sour cream
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
3-4 teaspoon salt

Soften gelatine in cold water or vegetable juice, dissolve over hot water. Cool at room temperature. Combine eggs, celery, olives, green pepper and rice or macaroni. Mix together mayonnaise and sour cream. Add lemon juice, mustard, salt and cooled, dissolved gelatine. For an egg and olive garnish on molded egg salad, arrange alternate slices of hard cooked egg and large olives around the sides of a mold which has been rinsed in cold water. Pour a small amount of the mayonnaise-gelatin mixture in the bottom to hold slices in place, and chill until firm. Combine mayonnaise mixture and egg mixture, using two forks. Fill mold with salad, being careful not to dislodge slices of egg and olive. Chill two or three hours, until firm. Unmold on a bed of watercress, shredded spinach or escarole. Garnish with tomato slices, if desired. Baked eggs make a fine light summer entree. Try these.

4 eggs
4 thick slices tomato
1 tablespoon chives
Salt and pepper
1 cup sour cream
Bread crumbs
Butter or margarine

In a greased baking dish place tomato slices. Poach the four eggs very lightly. As soon as they are set, place one on top of each tomato slice, season with salt and pepper, sprinkle chives over, and pour in the sour cream. Sprinkle with crumbs, dot with butter or margarine, and make in 400 degree oven until crumbs are brown—about 15 minutes.

And here's a good egg dish for supper.

Scotch Woodcock
8 eggs
Butter or margarine
Salt and pepper
3 tablespoons sherry
4 slices toast
Anchovy paste

Melt a little butter or margarine in a frying pan. Break eggs into this over a low heat. As soon as the whites begin to solidify, scramble them with a fork until they reach the consistency you like. Remove from stove, season with salt and pepper and the sherry. Pile onto toast slices, which have been spread thinly with anchovy paste.

Caubles To Offer 40 Bulls In Sale

Forty sires from the herds of I. B. Cauble & Son and Mrs. Pearl Cauble will be offered at the new West Texas Livestock Auction company on May 31, it was announced today.

The sale, first in the new plant, will begin at 1 p. m.

For the occasion, Cauble and his son, Rexie, are nominating 11 two-year-old bulls and one used herd sire. Mrs. Pearl Cauble, daughter-in-law of the older Cauble, is nominating 16 two-year-olds and 12 yearling bulls.

Cauble said animals would be the equal to the sires which went through the ring at his first sale in December on the occasion of his Golden Wedding anniversary. The bulls are all in good flesh, he added.

Platinum is among the chemical elements that were not discovered until the 16th century.

Places To Spot Tuna

NORTH BEND, Ore., (UP) — Tuna fishermen, plying Oregon's coastal water for the prized albacore, will no longer have to perch a man in a crow's nest to spot the tuna schools.

Packing plans here will employ airplanes from a local airport to spot the schools when the run begins about June 1.

The pilots will search out the schools, radio the plant, which in turn will message the fishing fleet the exact spot of the schools.

Surplus Workers Increase Sharply

Surplus workers increased sharply in the Big Spring area, rising from 722 to 882, during the past week, according to the regular report of the local US Employment Service office. The number of veterans on the rolls increased by 37 to reach a current total of 511.

Job placements also showed an appreciable rise, however, with 73 situations obtained during the week as compared to 28 for the previous week. Job openings now total 39.

During the week, 363 workers and employers contacted the office.

Principal local demands for labor are as follows: One information clerk, one calculating machine operator, one metal auto body repairman, two salesmen for construction and building equipment supplies, one insurance salesman, one retail store manager, one grocery clerk, one porter, 10 laborers, one soda dispenser, one cashier, four waitresses, two chambermaids, two sales clerks and 10 maids.

A number of skilled trades are needed for jobs in other towns in Texas, Louisiana and New Mexico, the office reported. Clerk-typists are needed urgently for work in the Navy Department in Washing-

Life Underwriters To Meet In Corpus

T. A. Thigpen, president of the local chapter of the Texas Life Underwriters association, is in receipt of recent letters lending assurance that the state convention of the organization will take place at Corpus Christi June 6-7-8, despite the recent polio scare that swept that community.

An official of the Corpus Christi chamber of commerce wrote Thigpen to the effect that stories about prevailing conditions there had been greatly exaggerated. Schools were shut down there for a few days, the letter advised, but otherwise conditions were normal.

Two Ways to Make Iced Coffee
1. Make coffee double strength either by using twice the amount of coffee to the usual amount of water or by reducing the amount of water one-half to the normal amount of coffee. Follow the procedure which produces the best coffee in your equipment. Pour it hot and fresh into a tall glass filled with ice cubes.
2. Make coffee full strength. Pre-cool for not more than three hours. By doing this you reduce the dilution resulting from the melting of ice, therefore extra strength is not required. Serve in a tall glass full of ice.

First Governor Was A Fighting Texan In Battle, Statesmanship

By PAUL BOLTON
 EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of sketches on Texas Governors, written to observe the centennial of Texas statehood. Others will follow from time to time.

AUSTIN—The "fighting Texan" tradition goes clear back to our first governor. James Pinckney Henderson left his native North Carolina in 1836 to bring other adventurous southerners to join in battle, but he was a late comer for the revolution. Not until 1846 did he get his chance.

He'd looked forward to it so long that he got a leave of absence from the governor's chair to join in the fighting.

The first governor of Texas seemed bent on setting a record for office holding. He was twice appointed to office in the republic: Attorney general under Sam Houston and acting secretary of state to succeed Stephen F. Austin. Then he went to Europe as Texas' minister to France and England, talking the two nations into recognizing Texas as a nation. He also talked Miss Frances Cox, of Philadelphia and Paris, into marrying him. History doesn't record which was the hardest job.

J. PINCKNEY HENDERSON

In the first election after the new republic was formed, following San Jacinto, Texas voted on three things: a constitution, a president, and annexation to the United States. They adopted the constitution, elected Houston president, and okayed annexation. But the United States was not interested. Texas kept slaves. There were enough slave states, the Whigs in Washington thought, Washington also feared that annexing Texas would mean annexing a war with Mexico.

Then, because of Henderson's good work in Europe, the United States got to wondering about the interest of Great Britain in this new southern nation. In 1843, the US started making advances. Henderson thought it might be a pretty good time to go up to Washington. Maybe he could influence the North Carolinians. So to Washington he and a delegation went. But even with the vigorous support of President Tyler, they couldn't get the two-thirds vote needed for annexation.

Something of a fighter himself, Tyler tried a new tack: a joint resolution. Two and a half days before his term expired, the resolution was passed. And Henderson ran for election to the first office of governor.

Because the Whigs had opposed annexation, most Texans were democrats; however, there actually was no party system. Henderson got 7,653 of the 9,538 votes cast. Election returns were so slow that for a time his lieutenant governor was in doubt.

Henderson had his "conversion" problems. He abolished the army and navy, did away with customs collection laws. Meanwhile, below the Grande, war was brewing. Mexico began fighting in 1845, even before Texas had stopped being a republic, although the congress had approved annexation. So Henderson went off to war, leaving Horton as acting governor. Henderson served with the rank of major general, leading Texas forces into Monterrey.

Returning to Texas to finish out his term as governor, he found it short indeed. But he garnered one more honor. Thomas J. Rusk, who with Sam Houston had been elected to the US senate, died. Henderson was to succeed him.

But his health was failing. He went to Havana to recuperate. He was sworn in as senator in 1858, but was too ill to work at the job, and died on June 4, 1858. His body lay in Washington until 1930 when it was reinterred in the state cemetery at Austin.

Magic Makings—

Evolve Something From Nothing With Ingenuity

SOMETHING FROM NOTHING! Whether it's in attic, scrap bag or junk yard, there are always possibilities of a bright future for many a thing thrown into discard!

PAGING CINDERELLA! Remember those camp stools whose covers gave way on the last trip out? Turn them into luggage racks for the guest room by stripping them of the canvas seats. Varnish, stain or paint the wood. For each, make three two-inch wide strips of chintz or other material harmonizing with the room, doubled, and neatly seamed. Firmly tack them across the frames, one in the middle, one near each end. A good idea to bring into the living room — as a tray holder. The strips may be of needle point, cross stitch or some of the room's upholstery or drapery material. Quite easily it may become a permanent coffee table!

ORANGE CRATE MAGIC . . . There's an orange crate on the kindling pile, isn't there? Maybe two. And you could use bed-side tables. Line them with oilcloth of the desired color, cut, fitted and pasted in place. You'll need a yard of 46-inch oilcloth for lining each crate. Make gathered skirt pieces of chintz, cretonne or a gay print, and tack to the top of the sides and back (it doesn't have to go clear around). Then make a top covered with a 5-inch all-around frill to thumb-tack or baste into place. The shelves can hold books, magazines, bed-side radio, water jug. Imagine them red oilcloth-lined, with red and white checked cotton material, and crisp frills of white muslin, organdy or eyelid embroidery. It will take 2 to 3 yards of the checked material, depending upon width, and 1-2 yard material for ruffles for each table. By connecting the two covered crates with a piece of heavy glass or a long board, covered and be-ruffled, this something-out-of-nothing trick becomes a dressing table. Now you need a dressing table stool! Using a butter tub, nail lid to bottom. Make cushion of cotton batting, stitched to fit. Dress in ruffled skirt with big ribbon sash.

If it's up to mamma to make minor repairs about the house, fit up a breadboard with a house-hold carpentry kit — hammer, screw driver, pliers, wrench — and hang it by screw eyes on a kitchen or entry wall. Painting tool handles and edge of board makes it quite attractive.

It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Cruz Pays Fine

Lorenzo Cruz, picked up last week by members of the sheriff's office on a charge of drunkenness, paid a fine of $1 and costs in justice court Wednesday after changing his plea to "guilty." He originally had elected to fight the charge and won a postponement in the trial for that reason.

Clear Policy To Be Based On Right

Students of international affairs have agreed, in a large measure, that the greatest weakness of the foreign policy of the United States was in its uncertainty.

There is fresh evidence in support of this theory in the dismal report of Secretary of State Byrnes on the outcome of the four-power-parley in Paris. Openly, he admitted failure; contented he still retained hope; expressed the philosophy that "we must not try to impose our will on others, but we must make sure that others do not get the impression that they can impose their will on us."

There is nothing definite in this except a strong hint that henceforth the United States proposes to desist in a policy of appeasement toward Russia. There is nothing to tell us basically in which direction the United States proposes to move and on what broad issues of policy this nation will make a stand.

In the sense that it would not be right to cram our doctrines down the throats of other nations for the sake of carrying a point, Mr. Byrnes is right.

Yet, if the United States is to have a policy on which it can stand, it must be based on what we consider to be right. In this sense, it may become necessary to stand up for what we honestly believe to be right even to the point of imposing it, through reason, if possible, on others.

It is one thing to say that others (Russia in particular) cannot push us around. It is another to move with a clarity of purpose that we will not be pushed through our own aimlessness. If we are worthy of our heritage and big enough for our opportunities, we should be able to arrive at a conclusion of what is just and right.

Then if we are right and if we have the courage of our convictions, then those who would oppose and obstruct cannot always prevail against us.

Sinatra a la France

NEW YORK — I've been taking a look at a young fellow singing at the Embassy Club on 57th St., the old Rikobamba where Frank Sinatra got his start and can't make up my mind whether he's wonderful or not. I'd be glad to form an opinion if I could figure out what he is singing and saying.

His name is Charles Trenet, and he is a little like a French Danny Kaye, although without Danny's drive and variety. He has curly, light-brown hair and sings with a great deal of what I suppose is charm; I can't think of another word. If I did, it probably would be in French, and I wouldn't understand it anyway.

He is 30 and has been appearing in France as a sort of combination Sinatra and Noel Coward, with a few antic overtones of the aforementioned. Danny Kaye suggested since he was 15 he has managed to start a cult of admirers since his opening at the Embassy. I know one girl who collected his French records long before his arrival here and was one of the leading plunkers, always in earshot of the owner of the Embassy, for his importation to Broadway.

Trenet sings in tune, and the tunes he sings are nice enough, although not exactly sparkling with genius and musical excitement. He may be singing lyrics which combine the topicality and tenderness which the late Larry Hart put into his words, or he may be a Parisian Oscar Hammerstein 2nd, for all I can learn. And if his lyrics are excellent, give Trenet another pat on the back, for he sings all his own stuff, music and lyrics.

Trenet always wears an old battered felt hat, which I'm told is as famous a trademark in France as Chevalier's straw lid over there of Sinatra's bow ties over here. His prolific theatrical talents include writing scripts for his own movies, as well as his tunes and words. As a sideline, he paints.

He has also finished a novel called "L'Automate," which does not mean that it probably would be a Broadway use to the Automaton, but "The Automaton."

Our French entertainment underground sends word that college kids over there idolize him with an enthusiasm that pales the antics our bobby soxers display over Frankie and Van Johnson. When he left for America, a Parisian journal, normally more restrained, published a tearful editorial lament urging him to hurry home.

The Parisian glamor boy has had several Hollywood offers, both as a performer and composer. He plans that as his first post-night club move. For the moment, however, he is being paid such lush amounts and has so many constant offers that he undoubtedly will have at this division of his career for a while. Until, at least he can learn to sing in adequate English. I wish he'd hurry up and learn—so I could make up my mind.

$500 Bull Stolen

CLARKSBURG, O. (UP) — It seems as if someone in Ohio has been seeing too many Western pictures lately. Rustlers recently stole a 490-pound registered Hereford bull from the farm of John Mossbarger of Clarksburg.

Mossbarger values the animal at $500 and has offered a $50 reward for information leading to the arrest of the rustlers.

Argentines May Put Hoover On Spot

WASHINGTON.—The last time Herbert Hoover went to the Argentine — as President-elect in 1928 — he put his foot in his mouth at almost every step he made, beginning by kicking the representative of the powerful newspaper La Nacion off his bathtub.

Today it looks as if the Argentines were going to help him repeat. Already they have devised a neat plan to challenge us to restore rationing during Herbert Hoover's trip.

In the first place, the Argentines regard Hoover's trip as primarily a "propaganda" move. Argentine government officials say that not another grain of wheat or another ounce of fat for European famine relief can be squeezed out of their country. Therefore, they argue, the former President's tour must be interpreted as "a gesture, intended to impress South Americans with the humanitarianism of the USA."

So, President Peron is planning to go the United States one better. He will inform Hoover that Argentina is prepared to institute food rationing, and urge that the United States do likewise. This suggestion will be given full publicity, with the idea of bringing Argentina out on top no matter what happens.

If the US government agrees to return to rationing, Peron will get credit (the figures) for having proposed the move. If not, Argentina will go ahead anyway and "show the Yanquias up."

This scheme has been carefully mapped out and Peron is prepared to put rationing into effect no later than August 1. He is seriously considering the step in any case, for domestic conservation purposes. Now, he will simply make a virtue out of his necessity and time the publicity for Herbert Hoover's trip.

however, the Republicans are constantly calling us for advice and conferences. They really try to make us feel we're wanted — and that's something no one here does.

"We've got serious problems and unless we can get an ear we may have to go over to the Republican side of the street."

Steelman threw up his hands in horror.

"Don't ever think of doing that," he said. "It's unfortunate the President hasn't been able to see you—but you know he has been terribly busy with international affairs and hasn't had time to see half the people he'd like to see lately. You just sit tight and I'll arrange an appointment just as soon as possible."

Truman's Old Friends

Brotherhood men say this incident has been forgotten and the boys bear no grudges. Nevertheless, the incident symbolizes the growing coolness toward the Democratic party on the part of some labor groups.

Most people don't know it, but the railroad men had a great deal to do with re-electing Harry Truman as senator when some politicians considered him on the ropes in 1940. Even some of Harry's best friends, including John Snyder, feared he was a dead duck. But the railroad brotherhoods came to his rescue, collected $1 each from their membership and finally raised a campaign kitty of $18,000.

It was partly their energy which finally sent Harry Truman back to the presidency — and, later on to the presidency.

NOTE — Truman paid off in the fall of 1943 when he braved Roosevelt wrath by introducing the so-called "Truman resolution" giving railroad labor an 8-cent-an-hour increase, despite Roosevelt's determination to hold the price-wage line. Roosevelt threatened to veto the resolution if it passed.

a half for Sundays and holidays. . . . Stop-over pay for travelling employees after 12 hours. . . . Changes in overtime pay rates for field service employees. . . . Brotherhoods are by no means together on what they want. They broke apart at Chicago mediation committee early this year when Whiskey's trainmen and Johnston's engineers refused arbitration. The switchmen, firemen and conductors on the other hand, agreed to have their wage dispute (not the rules dispute) go before an arbitration board. . . . The 16-cent-an-hour increase awarded by the board wasn't received with joy, however, by any of them.

Besides the five "operating" brotherhoods which run the trains, there are 13 non-operating brotherhoods who don't run trains and who also demand pay increases of 14 cents above the 16 cents already awarded. A strike vote shows they mean business. . . . Some Washington observers are wondering if the upshot of all this won't mean government ownership of the rails. Pushed between airplanes and motor trucks, the RRs can't increase their costs too much and stay in business. (Copyright, 1946, by the Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Deserved Honor For Real Scholar

Hundreds of Herald readers follow and enjoy the articles by Frank Grimes, which appear in The Herald each Sunday.

Mr. Grimes is editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, and Tuesday was accorded the highest honor within the gift of McMurry College—a doctor of laws degree.

We do not know of a better educated person in West Texas than this self-educated scholar who left school in the eighth grade. "It was a foolish thing to do," he said, but he did because of "not having any better sense at the time."

However, Frank Grimes took to books—good books—and drew avidly on the combined knowledge of the masters. He did not nor does he now, clutter up his mind with flimsy stuff which goes into most current fiction.

For enlightenment and stimulation, he pored over factual and serious works; for style and philosophy he read and re-read the classics.

Since 1919 he has been writing the editorials for the Abilene newspaper, and his mind and pen now whip out editorials for 13 editions a week. Most of his time, however, is spent in research and study.

The conferring of the degree upon Frank Grimes is a most timely if not belated recognition of the humane services of an outstanding West Texas essayist and Christian gentleman.

Can Congress Outlaw Strikes?

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The question is asked: Can Congress pass a law outlawing strikes and, if so, why doesn't it?

Congress could pass such a law. There's nothing in the Constitution specifically saying labor has the right to strike.

But—there's plenty in the Constitution which could be interpreted as meaning labor does have the right to strike.

The interpreting — whether or not men have the right to strike under the constitution — would have to be done by the Supreme Court.

For once such a law were passed by Congress, some union would strike to make a test case of it.

The position of labor unions is this: The strike is the only weapon labor has in trying to force employers to meet some, if not all, of labor's demands.

Labor unions insist that the Constitution gives workers the right to strike. They point to those sections which say:

1. A man shall not be forced in to "slavery" or "involuntary servitude."

2. A man shall not be deprived of "liberty" without due process of law, such as trial.

So, the unions argue, forbidding a man to strike deprives him of the "liberty" to leave a job and this means "involuntary servitude."

An anti-strike law would reverse the trend of legislation in the past 30 years.

If Congress attempted to outlaw strikes, it almost surely would go one step further and force compulsory arbitration upon employers and employees unable to agree on a dispute. In this way: The government would set up

Ricksha Pullers' Plight

By DON HUTH (For HAL BOYLE)
CALCUTTA, (AP) — The plight of India's thousands of ragged ricksha pullers has been placed before the government of India in a report that recommends ultimate abolition of such conveyance.

The government's labor investigating committee terms this type of transportation "a degradation to human personality" and "an offense against human dignity."

The attention being given to India's ricksha pullers follows a recent announcement of the Chinese government that these coolies' work was "archaic, inhuman and wasteful to manpower." China has outlined a three-year plan to abolish all rickshas.

It was not until about 1918 that Indians took to ricksha pulling, the novelty of which provoked scorn and jeers from crowds.

Gasoline rationing and the rising costs of cars and horses during the war increased the number of ricksha pullers. Calcutta and Madras limited the number of public rickshas to 6,000 and 4,000 respectively, but the number of licensed pullers according to latest available figures (1944) were 30,000 in Calcutta and 6,123 in Madras.

The labor investigating committee's report said this wartime situation had given rise to abuse. Because of the restriction on rickshas, the price of license plates was reported to be as high as $242 to $273, although even the inflated price of a ricksha was not more than about $80.

India's public rickshas are mostly owned by petty capitalists. In Simla they share the earnings with their pullers but in Madras and Calcutta the pullers pay a fixed hire charge for vehicles. The labor committee estimates the monthly earnings of the pullers between $9 and $10 in Simla, $7.50 to $8 in Madras and about $13.50 in Calcutta.

Ricksha pullers come mainly from the village and suburban areas, drawn into the profession through need of employment or indebtedness. Factory hands and mental public employes in Calcutta supplement their income by pulling rickshas.

Texas Trials For AAU Track Meet To Be Held June 28-29

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART Sweetwater gets the Hardin-Simmons university-Arizona State football game, set for next Oct. 28, having had more to offer than either Big Spring or Odessa.

Warren Woodson, HSU mentor, had instituted correspondence with leaders in all three cities for offers. Mark Wentz, secretary of the Big Spring Athletic Association, replied with a guarantee but obviously it could not compare with Sweetwater's bid.

All of which brings us back to the old story that we need a larger athletic plant, if we hope to land the top-drawer sport shows.

Sweetwater's beautiful stadium will seat 9,000 comfortably. The local Steer balliwick will take care of something like 4,400, if extra seats are added.

If any planning toward construction of an athletic plant is made here in the future—whether by the school system or the city—we should see to it that those plans call for an all-purpose stadium, one that could be used for baseball as well as football.

Such a facility would not be long in paying for itself.

Alex Carrasquel, who was Chicago White Sox property when he skipped to the Mexican baseball league, has notified the Windy City club he wants to return to organized baseball.

It appears very doubtful that Jimmy Dykes and Company would welcome him into the fold, however.

The Venezuelan was fired by the Vera Cruz club last week.

Charley Parker, one of the most unorthodox runners the track world has known, is still burning up the clinders. He turned in a 10.3 second 100 meters last Sunday in an Army track and field show at Yokohama. That's within one-tenth of a second of Jesse Owen's world record.

Parker will probably go to the University of Texas after he is released from service.

A periodical has reported from New York that output of civilian

Samuels Returns To Run Against Elite Field

SAN ANTONIO, May 23. (AP)—Those Texans expect to dominate the national AAU track and field meet come June 28-29 but first they have a little knock-down drag-out party of their own just to see who are the best men to send against the rest of America.

The Texas try-outs are scheduled June 14 at Alamo stadium and from these will come 10 men for each event in the nationals, which also are scheduled for Alamo stadium.

Texas-born boys appeared destined to have a powerful lot to say about who's going to win the sprints and the hurdles in the running events as well as the high jump, shot put, broad jump, discus throw and javelin throws in the field events.

Ferry Samuels, the San Antonio boy who last year won the junior 100 meters in the nationals; Bill Martinson of Baylor and Alton Lawler of Texas are the star Lone Star entries in the shorter dash. Samuels, who did 9.5 in the 100 yards last year, was discharged from the service several months ago and will seek the senior 100-meter crown this year.

The University of Texas' Earl Collins, 1945 collegiate 220-yard champion, will be in the 200 meters, and also there will be Desmond Kidd of Texas and Steno Cotton of Baylor. Kidd also is entered in the 400 meters along with Art Harnden of Texas A. and M. and Roy Holbrook the former Texas Aggie now at Corpus Christi naval air station. Holbrook also will try the 400-meter hurdles.

August Erfurth of Rice, junior 110-meter hurdles winner last year, will be in the senior division this time. He is Southwest conference high hurdles champion and also won at the Drake relays.

In addition to Erfurth there will be Bill Cummins, former national AAU and national collegiate hurdles king who has recovered sufficiently from battle wounds to return to the high hurdles and to enter the 400-meter hurdles. Pete Owens, former Howard Payne star, also is making a comeback, and Lee Miller, San Antonio schoolboy, will enter the high hurdles.

Don Sparks, Fort Worth Tech's schoolboy miler who has run this event in under 4:30, will be in this event.

Pete Watkins, Southwest conference record holder in the high jump who won the national AAU championship in 1943, will be around to do his stuff and there also will be Henry Coffman of Rice, conference champion this year, and Vern McGrew, the Houston high school star who has hit 6 feet 5 inches.

John Robertson of Texas, who has leaped 28 feet 8 inches, will be in the broad jump.

John Donaldson of Rice, 1945 junior and senior discus champion, will be back to defend his laurels, and Alton Terry, former Hardin-Simmons star who still holds the Drake relays record, will pitch the javelin.

There also will be many other Texans, including A. J. Fritz, Galveston middle distance star; Henry Adams of Kingsville, a star sprinter several years ago; Bill Craft, Corpus Christi high school half-miler, and several other members of the University of Texas Southwest conference championship team.

Former national AAU or collegiate champions who are of known merit do not have to qualify but Donaldson, Watkins, Samuels, Erfurth, Cummins and Collins are all entered in the Texas meet—to get the feel of the track and have some pre-nationals competition.

T. J. Dunlap's American Legion girls softball team, preparing for their Saturday invasion of San Angelo, humbled Stanton's All-Stars for the fourth successive time in Stanton Wednesday night, winning 17-7.

Held scoreless in the first inning, the Legionnaires broke loose for three tallies in the second and were never headed thereafter.

The Dunlap gang crowded their efforts with a six-run seventh inning.

Deris Yates and Ethel Trotter drove out home runs for the victors while Miss Yates also came through with a triple.

Lefty Todd, on the mound for the Big Springers, scattered six hits effectively.

Score by innings: Big Spring061 310 6-17 Stanton200 023 0-7

Dallas Pro Net Meet To Be Held Indoors

DALLAS, May 23. (AP)—The first Dallas professional tennis championship tournament will be held indoors tonight because rain has made the courts unusable.

Bill Tilden, of Philadelphia meets Jack March of New York in the feature match and Welby Van Horn of Atlanta, Ga., opposes Irving Margolis, former New England player now living in Dallas.

Redcaps, Cosden Oilers Square Off At 9 p.m.

Victory Would Put Doc's Nine Up With Leaders

Having survived their brush with Big Spring Motor in glorious fashion, the Redcap softballers penetrate deeper into the mushball jungle at 9 o'clock tonight when they cross bats with the Cosden Oilers at the city park.

Doc's boys are flirting with first place in Mundy league standings. They've been improving with each start and last Monday night turned in their best performance of the young campaign by edging the Fordmen, 2-1, behind the expert, elbowing of Morris Crittendon.

Crittendon takes the rubber again tonight, seeking his sixth victory against a club that is unbeaten in four starts. His mound foe is expected to be the redoubtable L. D. Cunningham.

This is a crucial week for the Cosdens, too. Tomorrow night they return to action against the Motorists in a re-play of their May 18, but when they tied, 1-all, through nine innings.

Tonight's 7:30 contest dispatches ABC into action against H. M. Rowe's Howard County Independent gang. ABC is favored to cop the duke.

Panthers Pull Away In Race

By The Associated Press The San Antonio Missions, breaking loose in the ninth, defeated the Dallas Rebels, 2-1, last night to drop the Rebels two full games behind the league-leading Fort Worth Cats, who pushed over a 2-0 victory against the Houston Buffs. Only two games were scheduled.

Roy Boles replaced George Dockins at the end of the first inning as the Fort Worth pitcher and allowed only four hits. Jay Haney and Jake Phillips batted in Fort Worth's two runs off George Sumei.

Dallas was leading going into the ninth, but Missions pitcher John Marcum drilled a single to drive in Rube Naranjo and Harry Hatch came through with another single that scored Dominique Castro.

Today's schedule: Dallas at Fort Worth, Tulsa at Oklahoma City, Houston at Beaumont, San Antonio at Shreveport.

Obie Sets A Record

Siege Gun's 66 Breaks Mark Set Three Years Ago

Long-driving Obie Bristow played himself a round of golf at the Big Spring country club Wednesday afternoon, setting up a new course record for 18 holes with a six-under-par 66.

Tuning his game for the West Texas Invitational tournament, Obie played the nine-hole course with an outgoing 33 that included birdies on Three, Four, Five and Seven, then stitched together an incoming 33 that featured an eagle on the par-five 488-yard first hole.

The big one might have escaped with an even better aggregate tally had he not bogied No. Six going out and slipped for another bogie on the incoming No. Three. Bristow's score wipes out

Cardinals May Turn Up With Pair Of 20-Game Southpaws This Year

By JOE REICHLER AP Sports Writer

Barring unforeseen developments, the St. Louis Cardinals, knee-deep in southpaw strength on the mound, may turn up with a pair of 20-game winners this year, each pitching from the left side. Only once since the turn of the century has a National league club boasted two lefthanded 20-game winners in one season.

In Max Lanier (6-0) and Howie Pollet (4-2) the Cards have two of the most accomplished pitchers in the league. Having already won more than half the team's total between them, the pair stand a good chance to emulate lefties Carl Hubbell and Cliff Melton, each of whom gained 20 or more triumphs for the New York Giants in 1937.

Pollet's fourth victory last night, a 7-1 win over his pet "cousins," the New York Giants, came at a most opportune time, since it enabled the Cards to regain their first place National league deadlock with the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Brooks had moved a half game ahead by shading the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in 13 innings earlier in the day.

The lean lefthander from New Orleans, who had beaten the Giants eight times in nine previous starts before he went off to war in 1943, narrowly missed getting his second straight shutout before a paid attendance of 45,755 at the Polo Grounds.

Dixie Walker, Brooklyn's idol, gave his worshippers plenty to cheer about when he belted a long double off the right field wall to score Dick Whitman in the 13th inning and give the Dodgers a 2-1 edge over the Cubs.

Boston's American league leading Red Sox retained their six game margin over the New York Yankees by winning a 12-inning game from the Cleveland Indians 7-4. A home run by Ted Williams with one on in the 12th broke a 4-4 deadlock. Johnny Lazor, starting at right field in place of Dom DiMaggio, who was benched with a pulled leg muscle, sent the game into extra innings with a ninth inning home run.

The Yankees overcame a 3-0 deficit as a result of Hank Greenberg's first inning home run, to defeat the Detroit Tigers 5-3 and hand Fred Hutchinson his first loss. A triple play, with everybody in the Yankee infield taking part, helped the New Yorkers out of a big hole in the eighth.

In third place for a few hours as a result of Detroit's loss, the Washington Senators fell back to fourth when they dropped a night tussle to the St. Louis Browns 3-1. Johnny Sain pitched the Boston Braves into a virtual third place tie with the Cubs by trouncing the Cincinnati Reds 5-1 for his fifth triumph.

A double by first baseman Murrell Jones in the ninth scored Don Kolloway with the run that gave the Chicago White Sox a 5-4 verdict over the Philadelphia Athletics.

With Schoolboy Rowe starring both at bat and on the mound, the Philadelphia Phils upset Pittsburgh, 6-2, for the Quakers' second straight. Rowe drove in two runs with a pair of doubles and scored twice himself.

The Dunlap gang crowded their efforts with a six-run seventh inning.

Deris Yates and Ethel Trotter drove out home runs for the victors while Miss Yates also came through with a triple.

Lefty Todd, on the mound for the Big Springers, scattered six hits effectively.

County Classified As Two-Variety Cotton Area By Grading Program

Howard county has been classified as a two-variety area for cotton, according to the Smith-Doxey grading program, County Agent Durward Lewter announced today.

The classification is expected to affect prices favorably for those cooperating, despite the fact that the two varieties listed are rated comparatively low in pulling strength. The government graders are more interested in uniformity than any other factor, Lewter said.

Almost half of the county's cotton growers already are listed, with 212 members signed to grow Western Prolific and 60 members to grow Sam Little Native Mebane. Any other farmer in the county who plans to raise one of the two varieties exclusively is eligible to join the program.

All ginners in the county also must cooperate to put the program over, Lewter said. They must provide a bonded cotton sampler, which may be either a farmer or an employe. Bond forms are available in the county agents' office, and they must be submitted before July 15.

All county ginners cooperated last year, Lewter said.

Word also has been received that the grading office in Abilene definitely will be maintained this year, which will give ginners one-day service on samples.

Since the classified varieties already are popular in the county, Lewter said most farmers probably will raise one of the two, and he especially urged them to sign for classification in his office. By signing up a farmer precludes any possible delay in getting prices set for his crops at market time, he said.

Naval Chairman 'Presumptuous,' Leaders Claim

WASHINGTON, May 23. (AP)—Democratic whips of both the house and senate said today it was "presumptuous" of the two naval committee chairmen to advise Secretary of the Navy Forrestal against a merger "compromise."

Senator Hill and Rep. Sparkman, the party deputies from Alabama, declared that in effect Sen. Walsh (D-Mass) and Rep. Vinson (D-Ga) were telling Forrestal to disregard President Truman's views on army-navy unification.

And they added to a reporter that the two chairmen were presumptuous, too, in their assertion that congress will pass no merger bill.

Both Hill and Sparkman expressed emphatic belief that unification legislation will be enacted this year. They are members of the military committees of their respective chambers.

The congressional tempest was touched off by the letter, made public last Sunday, which Walsh and Vinson sent Forrestal on the merger issue. The letter asserted no such legislation will be passed by congress and advised Forrestal to avoid "any compromise" on the subject with Secretary of War Robert Patterson.

Extermination Of Rats Must Extend To Homes

Field work conducted during the past few days indicates that several outlying residential areas in Big Spring are infested with rats, V. A. Cross, director of the typhus control program, said today.

Curbing these infestations is a major prerequisite for abatement of health menaces in the city, he said. One case of typhus was recorded last week in the county, and a full-scale extermination project should be launched by Big Spring residents if the rats are to be destroyed before similar cases materialize in town, Cross advised.

He also pointed out that extermination of rats would aid greatly in lessening a polio menace.

The typhus control unit has prepared quantities of Red Squill, which are available at the city-county health unit at cost. Residents were reminded that the Squill is not harmful to pets or human beings, but is lethal only to rats and mice. Twenty-five baits, enough to rid an ordinary residence of rats, may be secured at the health unit for 50 cents. The baits are available to residents of either Big Spring or the county.

Anyone in the city who uses the Red Squill and still finds evidence of rats, is urged to call in a report to the city hall, and the typhus control crew will assist in effecting complete extermination, Cross said.

Work is progressing on rat-proofing buildings in the Big Spring business section. A supply of sheet metal sufficient to complete work on the 100 block of Main and a portion of the 200 block has been received. Inspection of buildings where work already has been completed indicates that the rat-proofing is 100 per cent effective, Cross said.

To Name Delegates To Farmer Course At College Station

Delegates will be selected soon to represent Howard county at a farmers short course to be held in College Station on Aug. 28-29-30, County Agent Durward Lewter has announced.

It will be the first course of its kind offered since 1941, and attendance will be limited to three boys and three girls from each county in the state. Adults will not be permitted to attend the first post-war session, due to a housing shortage in the A&M college area.

Judging contests will be held for boys and corresponding events for girls. The delegates also will visit all departments of A&M college.

Bristow, Crook Low In Ringer

Bill Crook played his hottest golf of the month Tuesday and Wednesday at the country club to trim his score to 27 in the men's ringer tournament in progress there but he could not catch Obie Bristow, who whacked two strokes off his 28 to insure his lead.

Obie needed a birdie on No. Nine to slice his aggregate. He took care of that Monday. Then yesterday he popped up with an eagle on No. One to take the play away from Crook.

Charley Watson continues in third place with a 28 while Burl McAllen is a stroke off that pace.

The tournament continues through Friday, May 31. Merchandise prizes go to the winners.

Vets Decided In Munny Debate By Spartans

Big Spring Hardware and ABC chalked up triumphs in Munny softball league play at the city park Wednesday night.

The Spartans, sporting a new hurler in Johnny Daylong, slugged out a 12-5 victory over VFW while the service club tumbled Eddie Hammond's United Body Works contingent, 16-5.

Paced by Noel Hull, who had a home run, the Spartans iced the decision in the fifth round in the initial clash when they chased in six runs. Pat Gent hit for the three bases to help the Hardware club's cause along.

Bill White was the victim of the Spartans' big bats.

Vernon Whittington's ABC troupe caught the UBW brigade in their finest performance of the season but copped the duke, nonetheless, due mainly to some heavy hitting by Johnny Malaise.

Malaise drove out a four master and managed to get on base every time he went to bat.

Lee Flowers and Tody Williamson shared the pitching chores for the victors.

Fresh-Water Cod

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (UP)—Berkshire county is 150 miles from the ocean, but Louis Costi caught a codfish in a stream near here. First of its kind ever taken in this area, the catch was described by Berkshire Museum officials as a rare fresh-water variety of cod also known as a burbot.
