

A Vote For The Hospital is a Vote For Hunger

SPEAKERS ON JUNE 22 ARE ANNOUNCED

PRESIDENT HILL FROM CANYON AND DR. R. THOMSEN

BUSINESS SESSION Will Follow Friday Morning Two Local Men Named On the Program

The meeting of representatives of all towns along the Clovis-Canadian division of the South West Trail, announced last week to be held at Hereford on June 15-16, has been changed to Thursday and Friday, June 22 and 23, according to announcement received here Monday from Secretary Palmer of Canadian. The change was made so as not to conflict with the Amarillo Trade Extension which is set down for June 15-16.

In his last letter Secretary Palmer said that the meeting would open with a mass meeting of Hereford citizens on Thursday night, June 22, when addresses would be delivered by President Hill of the West Texas Normal and Rev. R. Thomsen of Amarillo, both speakers of pronounced ability. Mayor Knight will deliver the address of welcome on that occasion. On Friday morning, June 23, a business session will be held by the association and road matters thoroughly gone into and preparation made for the expected heavy summer's travel. D. L. McDonald and C. O. Lee of Hereford will discuss features on the program at this session.

At Monday's luncheon a committee to handle the convention was appointed composed of the following local men: E. W. Harrison, chairman, C. O. Lee, Judge W. M. Megert and Ralph Barrett.

Band Reception is Success Despite Chilly Weather

"We've got a real hand" was the opinion heard on all sides Monday night following the neat little concert and reception for the Hereford Chamber of Commerce Band, winners of the amateur title of all West Texas at the recent Plainview convention, on the courthouse lawn.

Raw, chilling weather conditions kept down the crowd and made business light for the ladies of the U. D. C. who served ice cream and cake to the shivering crowd, but otherwise the affair was a pleasing social and musical success.

Mrs. B. F. Guthrie, representing the Community Clubs, Rev. J. R. Sharp, representing the citizenship generally, and President D. L. McDonald of the Chamber of Commerce, all made short addresses, telling the band boys how proud Hereford is of them and their splendid victory at Plainview, and prophesying greater and more glorious attainments for the organization in the future. The band's rendition of a generous program drew round a number of applause, the audience being pleased with the smoothness and flawless execution of the music as it started to finish. They made a very appearance in their new uniforms.

Lights were strung on the lawn and the U. D. C. ladies had attractive tables scattered about for the convenience of their patrons. The detailed arrangements for the affair were in charge of a committee headed by Doug Fox.

The weather conditions favored, the fair would have been more enjoyable, at even under this handicap the evening was delightfully spent and similar concerts during the summer are being looked forward to eagerly by Hereford's music-loving population.

NUMBER OF LOCAL GIRLS LEAVE FOR SCHOOL AT CANYON

Mrs. Walter Orr and daughter, Miss Ella, went to Canyon Tuesday morning. Miss Orr will enter the West Texas State Normal College for the summer term. Misses Marie Burns, Edith Wilkerson, Gladys Hicks, Mildred Hamlin, Inez Hodges, Virginia Morgan and Lulu Davis of Burina will attend the same summer school. The Summer Normal will open Wednesday, June 7.

Some Questions Answered About Hospital Bond Election Saturday. Study These Facts, Mr. Voter Before You Cast Vote Against This Measure

WHAT ABOUT THE COST OF MAINTENANCE, IF THE ISSUE IS CARRIED?

The Commissioners Court is authorized to pay any deficit the hospital may have. But the experience of the past year with this institution shows by the books that if it can be run rent-free, as the county can run it, it should be almost entirely self-sustaining. There is no good reason why, if properly managed, it should not pay its way.

WHAT ABOUT THE MANAGEMENT?

The law provides that the Court shall appoint a board of five managers, who shall have absolute charge of the hospital, subject to such financial limits as the court may impose. One woman and two physicians must be members of this board. Board members must be citizens of the county and must serve without pay.

WHAT PROPORTION OF THE TAX WILL NON-RESIDENTS PAY?

The total tax raised per annum will be $4,056.90; of this amount non-residents will pay $1,690.25, leaving only $2,366.65 to be paid by approximately 1,750 resident tax payers. It is also a fact that the non-resident owners, the unrendered roll of the county, the railway, the telephone and telegraph companies, and the three banks of Hereford will pay within $338.00 of half of this yearly tax. Not over 25 out of every 100 tax payers will pay on a valuation over $2,000. About 437 out of the 1,750 resident tax payers control five sixths of all valuations, leaving only one sixth to be paid by the 1,313 remaining small owners.

The average tax payer on this issue will spend more in one month on amusements, or on tobacco than the entire bond issue will cost him!

WHY CAN'T WE HAVE A BETTER BUILDING NOW?

Everyone prefers a larger, better, more modern hospital than the present one. But in the first place a bond issue for such an outfit just now could never carry, and any sane man knows it; and secondly, the county does not need any larger building now. The building is steam-heated and as safe from fire and comfortable as any frame building can be made. It is much more comfortable than the majority of homes in Hereford today. The men who talk about a $75,000 building now would never vote for it if it was brought to a vote—and they know it and everybody else knows it. It's just a subterfuge, nothing else.

AND NOW LISTEN TO THIS!

If this bond issue fails, then Hereford will be without a hospital at all, immediately. Mr. Carl, who holds the notes against the property, must foreclose at next term of court to protect himself. The stockholders are not liable for further assessments under the contract with him, cannot afford to maintain the institution longer, unaided, and if the issue is defeated then THE HEREFORD HOSPITAL WILL CLOSE AT ONCE. Think it over.

And it Just Kept On Raining, and Raining, and R-g

It actually rained in this man's country, either in or near the city of Hereford, every night from Wednesday, May 31, to Monday night of this week, without a break. Some of the rains were veritable downpours others only light showers. The Plains country is certainly soaked, and soaked for keeps just now. It would almost take an adding machine to figure it all up by showers, and the heavens took like it is not all over yet, so final figures will not be attempted until this unprecedented spell is undoubtedly over. But it has been a lot of real moisture, the grass and crops are coming like a house afire, and the outlook is dandy.

Come to the Plains!

WHEAT POOL MEN'S FINANCES ARRANGED AT AMARILLO

The Zone Board of the Texas and Oklahoma Wheat Growers Association met with the bankers of Amarillo at that point last Saturday and made all arrangements for financing the revolving fund to handle the wheat pool for this year, according to Judge L. Gough, who was present. This means that everything is now in readiness to get down to business and handle the members' wheat as it is harvested. Texas headquarters will be maintained at Amarillo and Oklahoma offices at Enid, although both wheat associations will use the same selling agency for the first year.

MR. AND MRS. GEO. SASSER ON VISIT WITH HOME FOLKS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sasser and little son, Duffy, of Artesia, N. Mex., arrived in this city Monday, and are visiting in the home of Mrs. Sasser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Anthony. Mr. Sasser and Mr. Anthony went to Amarillo Tuesday.

Dandy Good Meeting of Business Men Last Monday

A rattling good crowd of thirty-one attended the weekly luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce at the Stockmen's Cafe last Monday. There was a lot of good natured fun and some serious business attended to. The Secretary was authorized to sign papers appropriating $25 as prize money for the winner of the Pig Club contest of the Askren boys to be held here this fall, and it was also voted to send this boy to the Dallas Fair again this year as last.

A committee was named to handle the forthcoming convention of the South West Trail, June 22-23. The matter of entertaining the Amarillo trade trippers on June 15 was talked over. Then the hospital bonds were discussed in detail and arrangements made to send speakers into the rural school houses during the week, etc.

It was a happy affair and shows the interest in public affairs the people of the town are taking. Next Monday the bunch will meet at the City Cafe. Those present Monday were: Henry Wilkinson, C. C. Rockwell, S. J. Williams, Lem Carlisle, J. B. Ebbson, Wm. M. Knight, Judge W. M. Megert, Leonard Foster, Arch Foster, F. H. Oberthier, E. B. Black, C. H. Dyer, G. A. F. Parker, L. Baskin, D. L. McDonald, Seth B. Holman, Bobo McLean, Lee Biggs, Dr. J. M. Farrell, Rev. J. R. Sharp, T. K. Wilson, W. R. Steekman, N. C. Yozelle, D. F. Ashbrook, Ralph Barnett, C. O. Lee, Dr. W. K. Gabbert, Doug Fox, E. W. Harrison, Edward Reese, banker of Emporia, Kansas.

TEMPLE VISITORS IN WEBSTER HOME

Mrs. J. B. Nunneley and traveling companion, Miss Anna Hamussek, of Temple, Texas, arrived in this city Saturday morning and are visiting in the home of Mrs. Nunneley's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Webster, of near Vega. Mrs. Nunneley and Miss Hamussek are enroute to California. They left Hereford Monday morning.

Reward Hung up For Sleuthing of Chicken Thieves

A snappy meeting of the Hereford Poultry Association was held last Saturday afternoon at the courthouse, followed by a capon demonstration at the home of President E. W. Kinney. Mr. Kinney and Dr. Galbert discussed various phases of the caponizing business and afterwards did the work slowly so that the members present could see each move made. Twenty-six members were on hand for the occasion.

The Association took up the matter of recent chicken thefts and authorized a reward of not to exceed $25, each amount to conform to the magnitude of the case, for information leading to the arrest and conviction of thieves stealing chickens or turkeys from members.

LET'S MEET AMARILLO BOOSTERS AT TRAIN, JUNE 15TH

Arrangements were made at Monday's luncheon to properly receive the Amarillo trade trippers, who reach here Thursday morning, June 15, about 8:30 o'clock, according to press dispatches, and spend forty-five minutes in the city.

It is understood that the visitors do not want a public meeting but prefer to mix with the landless men while here and visit the various houses of business. Therefore, it is determined Monday that every man present would work as a committee of one to get every merchant and every other inhabitant possible to meet the train in a body on the fifteenth, greet the visitors hospitably, and escort them up town for a general hand shaking and get-acquainted hike.

Don't forget the date: Thursday, June 15. The Amarillo delegation will come in a special train, enroute to New Mexico points, and will arrive shortly after the regular morning west-bound passenger. Everybody turn out and show Amarillo boosters that Hereford is alive and on the map.

ELECTION ON SATURDAY MUST CARRY TO UPHOLD GOOD NAME OF COUNTY

HOSPITAL FACILITIES WILL BE ENTIRELY LOST TO COUNTY IF PEOPLE FALL ASLEEP AND FAIL TO DO DUTY

SLATON'S MASTERLY ARGUMENT

Shows the Trifling Sum it Will Cost Any Tax Payer; Points Out the Unwarranted Claims Advanced by Opponents; Brings Out Humane Necessity for Institution

A medium sized crowd, somewhat curtailed by threatening weather, heard a clear, convincing, unanswerable argument by Judge John P. Slaton Sunday afternoon on the absolute necessity of the voters of Deaf Smith county placing their O K upon the proposed $10,000 hospital bond issue at next Saturday's election. Judge Slaton made many converts to the cause during the afternoon. Monday morning J. C. Womble suggested to The Brand that Judge Slaton's argument should be heard by the voters outside Hereford if possible. "I was opposed to these bonds before I heard him explain the proposition," said Mr. Womble, "because I did not understand the matter. He convinced me and I am now for the bonds." Mr. Womble's suggestion has been adopted and school house meetings throughout the county will be held as far as possible this week.

D. L. McDonald presided Sunday afternoon. He introduced Rev. J. R. Sharp, who asked divine guidance at the meeting and read from the scriptures the twenty-fifth verse of Matthew. Dr. E. B. Atwood, president of Wayland College, then made a brief address

Age Don't Always Mean Anything in This Daily Grind

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the most of men." Mixed with the serious business of the hour at the luncheon last Monday was a little humor that added "pep" to the meeting and put the folks in good humor.

One speaker was commenting on the fact that the young men of the town should be induced to take a more active interest in civic affairs. He those now in active harness are getting older every day and new blood is needed. Whereupon G. A. F. Parker rose to remark that age did not always mean very much and stated that Abraham had not amounted to much until he was eighty years old, as the biblical record will show. Some one asked Mr. Parker, "What about Methuselah?"

"Why Methuselah never amounted to anything at all," replied Mr. Parker. "I once heard a preacher state in a sermon that Methuselah lived 946 years and did not have sense enough to come in out of the rain, even allowing himself to be drowned by the flood!"

"And that is not all," quipped Mr. Parker, smiling. "This same preacher related how the father of the girl Methuselah was coming called the suitor off to one side and said: 'Mat, you've been going with my daughter going now 400 years and I think it's time you were declaring your intentions!'"

Schoolhouse Meetings to be Held During This Week

The Hospital Bonds election committee have arranged for speakings at some of the country school houses this week, and more may be arranged later. Those decided upon so far are as follows: Wednesday night, at Summerfield, Jno. P. Slaton, speaker; at Askren, G. A. F. Parker, speaker. Thursday night, at Wrehe, Wm. M. Knight, speaker. Friday, at Progressive, Jno. P. Slaton, speaker.

on the humanitarian side of the hospital question. Dr. Atwood said that savages did not have hospitals; that civilization has been marked by the progress of christian society in the erection of hospitals and kindred humanitarian works. He declared that Christ himself had laid the foundation for such christian effort and that it was the duty of every christian to minister to the suffering and infirm through encouragement of hospitals, asylums, etc.

Judge Slaton, in the beginning, said that there seemed to be three groups of voters in this matter. First, those who favored the bonds; second, those who wanted a larger and more modern one; third, those who were against any kind of a hospital. Answering the talk of the second group the speaker said that in the old days, when the county was first established, the traffic and population did not warrant a highway such as we now have east and west and that if such a proposition had been made then it would have been defeated. The county did not need such a road at that time. Later, when traffic and population grew to the right point, the expense was undertaken. He also called attention to the city paving in the same way pointing out that there was no demand for pavement in 1887 when the city was first incorporated, but that it came when the people really needed it.

Judge Slaton said that the present hospital is ample for present demands and to care for all patients for the time being. The county is not able to build, and there is no necessity for, a $75,000 brick building, as some people are demanding. We must crawl before we walk, said the Judge. He said that he himself had been a patient in the present building; that it was amply heated, free from noises that some people claim it is subjected to, and more comfortable, sanitary and fireproof than the average home in Hereford. He said that everybody in the county would like to see a better building, but that conditions now did not demand it, and that there was no real reason for such a demand except as an excuse to evade voting for the present proposition.

The speaker said that this five cent tax would raise $4,056.90 per annum, which would pay off the bonds in less than six years. Of this amount non-resident property owners would pay $1,690.25, leaving only $2,366.65 to be paid by 1,750 resident tax payers. He figured that the non-residents, unrendered rolls, railroad, telegraph and telephone companies and the three Hereford banks would pay within $338 per annum of half of the yearly tax. The rolls show, said the speaker, that only 25 out of 100 voters pay taxes on over $2,000 and that 437 of the wealthier individuals and corporations control five-sixths of the entire taxable value of the county, leaving 1,313 small tax payers to pay the remaining one-sixth.

"The average voter in this county will spend more on amusements or tobacco in one month than the entire cost of this tax to him," said Judge Slaton. "How can such a man have the conscience to vote against a humanitarian project like this in view of such a trifling expense?"

Judge Slaton showed that the value of the property to be taken over by the county under this bond issue is nearly $10,000, almost $5,000 more than the amount asked for, that the furnishings and equipment could be transferred to a new building whenever one was authorized, and that the house and lot was well worth the $5,000 paid for them and would probably bring the county a profit when sold.

In conclusion the speaker declared that it would be a disgrace to the county to defeat this bond issue in view of the fact that the per capita cost was so pitifully small, of the absolute need for it in behalf of the poorer people who could not afford to make trips to other institutions, and in view of the fact that the hospital would be compelled to close for all time if the voters defeated the issue Saturday.

Mr. McDonald then explained the history and organization of the hospital, after which the meeting adjourned.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS Retail Merchants Meet at Dallas

At the meeting of the State Retail Merchants Association in Dallas last Thursday, Mr. C. G. Thomas, speaker of the House of Representatives of the Texas Legislature, urged strict regulations for MUTUAL INSURANCE Companies, requiring such concerns to deposit a bond as is now required of Old-line Companies. He said that during the last year 1,100 mutual fire and hail insurance companies throughout the country had failed, of which eighty-eight were in Texas.

HOME PAPERS FOR HIM

Clarence Ousley, candidate for the United States Senate, is gaining in the race by leaps and bounds. The newspapers of the state are rapidly lining up for the one man in the race with the well rounded platform, with the dignity and the public expression necessary for such a high position, with the experience in governmental affairs that insures efficient representation of the interests of Texas in the Senate.

The judgment of the home folks on any aspiring candidate is always a stiff criterion. Both the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and the Fort Worth Record are actively and enthusiastically supporting Mr. Ousley in this campaign. Here's what these two powerful publications have to say on the subject:

Ousley is Going to The Front

It is with sincere delight that the Fort Worth Record notes the steady gains being made by Colonel Clarence Ousley of Fort Worth in the campaign for the Democratic nomination for United States senator. The Record has always followed the career of the distinguished editor, publicist and public servant who founded this paper under his present name and who directed its policy during many successful years and it took a pardonable pride in his candidacy for the senate. It takes even more pride in urging Democrats of Texas to nominate Colonel Ousley.

It is a source of particular gratification that Colonel Ousley seems likely to get the unanimous support of the daily newspaper of Fort Worth, his home city. He should get the support of Fort Worth voters, fellow citizens of his, for he represents those principles which are held by the majority of the people of this city and of the great agricultural areas with which this city is in sympathy.

Events have made it clear that the voters who wish a sane and effective representative in the upper house, a man whose platform looks forward to the great problems to be solved rather than backward to dead political issues, a man in sympathy with and who understands the people of Texas, farmers, laborers, business men and women, and all, will have to concentrate upon a man who stands for those things which are for the constructive benefit of the state. Such a man is Colonel Ousley and the signs of a rallying to his banner are evident.

National economy, protection of Texas farm and livestock products as part of a revenue tariff system, a workable agricultural credit system, a broadening of the representation of various elements of the business world on the federal reserve board, a more elastic railroad rate system including state control of intrastate rates within proper limits and a maintenance of law and order, the fundamental principles of the republic and the reserved rights of the states—these are the chief planks in Colonel Ousley's platform and they are the planks that Texans will support.

The candidate has chosen a happy slogan as the subject of his address, "Your Business at Washington." His past activities indicate that he regards the mission of a United States senator as just that. We have had enough misrepresentatives at the national capital. We have had enough flag waving and speechmaking, enough yards of the Congressional Record filled with words. What we want is a senator who will attend to our business at Washington and that is what we are convinced Colonel Ousley will do. Texas Democrats will do well to support him.—Ft. Worth Record.

We Should Elect Ousley

In his address at Houston Saturday, Clarence Ousley declared that we ought to participate in the world conference to be held at The Hague. He made clear that he had no idea of suggesting that we should involve ourselves in controversies between the powers over purely political questions, but he insisted that we should be giving the world the benefit of our counsel and co-operation in considering the economic problems which concern us quite as much as they concern anybody in Europe.

This is in keeping with many other utterances which Colonel Ousley has made during the campaign on this and other questions which the people are facing. He advocated American participation in the Genoa conference, and it will be recalled that he was among those who presented this question to the national agricultural conference at Washington. In this matter, as in others, his utterances have been guided by well informed common sense.

We have been watching the Senatorial campaign in Texas since the beginning and have impartially weighed the utterances of the various candidates. We had planned to support the candidacy of Lucian W. Parrish, as is well known, but his untimely and tragic death robbed the people of his services and put an end to our plans in this respect. Since then we have given careful consideration to the merits of the other candidates in the field and have come deliberately to the conclusion that the best interests of Texas and of the country will be served by the election of Colonel Ousley. In reaching this conclusion we have been moved by no other consideration than those having to do with the promotion of the interests of the State and of the Nation. We have consulted none of the candidates themselves, and no one officially connected with the campaign of any candidate. No one will be more surprised at this formal announcement of our support of Colonel Ousley's candidacy than Colonel Ousley himself. But having arrived at the conviction that among the candidates now before the people, his election offers the best means of promoting the public good, we feel that our duty to the State and the Nation requires that we say so plainly and that we do what lies in our power to promote his nomination and election.

Aside from all other considerations, Colonel Ousley's candidacy has the merit of having kept before the people the real problems which face them. He has not sought to find popular campaign material irrespective of the needs of the times, but has set before himself a consideration of the problems which require solution in the period just ahead and he has brought to the consideration of those problems a well informed and highly trained mind, an impartial judgment and a disinterested desire to promote only the public welfare. The result is that Colonel Ousley's position on the outstanding economic problems which face us is in keeping with the best opinion of the country and his character and ability are an assurance that should Texas send him to Washington a genuine service will have been done the Nation as a whole.

It is nothing less than a strikingly shown than in Colonel Ousley's position on the tariff. We shall have occasion to discuss this and many other questions during the remainder of the campaign, but one quotation will serve to illustrate what we mean. "We have a tariff," says Colonel Ousley; "we have always had a tariff, and as far as the human eye can see we shall always have a tariff. Will we permit a measure of revenue to be misused continuously as a piece of favoritism to American manufacturers or will we use it for the common benefit? The man who talks about leveling the tariff wall talks nonsense; he wouldn't do it if he had the power. Theories are very interesting, but facts are important at this time." That's common sense, the kind of common sense the Nation needs to have applied to all its problems at the present time.

Colonel Ousley's utterances on the tariff and on the other outstanding problems which the Nation faces are worthy of the careful study of every voter. We shall from time to time direct the attention of our readers to a consideration of them, feeling certain that if the people come to appreciate fully the difference between Colonel Ousley's attitude toward these problems and the attitude of the other candidates they will choose him to represent them in the United States Senate.—Ft. Worth Star-Telegram.

Birthday Surprise

A number of the friends of Misses Lela and Lulu Orr gathered at their home on Sunday just after church, the young ladies being delayed long enough for the crowd to assemble. Each of the guests brought a contribution to the dinner and when it was all spread upon the table a wonderful feast greeted their eyes. It was a great surprise to the honorees when they stepped into the house and were greeted by about thirty-five young folks.

The dinner was served cafeteria style and the afternoon was spent in visiting, singing and merry games upon the large lawn.

Methodist Missionary Society

The lovely home of Mrs. J. F. Potts was the scene of a happy gathering Friday afternoon when the ladies of the Missionary Society met in their business and social meeting. After a short business session the following delightful program was rendered:

Instrumental Duets—Misses Elizabeth Black and Gwendolyn Spradley. Reading—Sarah Boutwell. Piano Solo—Annie Fitzhugh Parker. Reading—Aileen Hodge. Vocal Solo—Miss Swisher. Piano Solo—Mrs. Garton. Mesdames Hawkins and Stocking conducted a novel get-acquainted scheme which was the source of much merriment as well as genuine good fellowship.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream, strawberries and cake were served by the hostesses, Mesdames Potts, Spradley and D. W. Hawkins.

Guests of the afternoon were: Mesdames Robinson, Garton, Nestor Gass, Moudy, Bobo McLean, Cornell, Wheeler, Luther Hough and Condon; Misses Elizabeth Black, Mattie Swisher, Annie Fitzhugh Parker, Bowsher and Robinson.

This special Dempster feature allows the mill to turn freely on the tower with the wind so that on gusty days the Dempster gets the maximum power out of the wind. The saucer shaped tower cap supports the cup shaped ball race which is movable within the saucer. This assures equal distribution of weight over the balls. The Dempster Turntable is packed in grease when the mill is erected. This will last a year. Then after 12 months when you refill the oil reservoir you can replenish the lubricant in the turntable by putting oil through the oil hole in the top cover.

DIMITT

Rev. G. H. Fort preached a fine sermon here Sunday morning and it was enjoyed by all.

Miss Vergie Ansley of Clarendon, Texas and Mr. Charles E. Berden of Muleshoe, Texas, were married last Sunday night by Rev. G. H. Fort at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Hermann Haberer, at Big Square. The happy couple will make their home near Muleshoe.

Miss Sophia Litsch, who has been working at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Miller for the past five months, left Saturday. Miss Litsch will visit her parents a few days in Nazareth, then she expects to go to work in Amarillo with her sister, Miss Katie Litsch.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shuford entertained several of their friends for dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Womack spent Sunday with Mrs. Womack's sister, Mrs. Connie Chabahan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of Megargel, Texas, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim McIntire. The Youngs and the McIntires are old time friends.

Mrs. C. E. McLean returned Sunday from Ft. Worth and Lubbock, where she has been visiting her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Stiles, of Big Square, spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Miller.

The Chautauqua was great this year. Everyone seemed to enjoy all the programs immensely. In fact, we liked it so well about thirty-six of our good citizens signed a new contract to bring it back again in 1923.

Mrs. Balapner, of Tulla, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald Duree.

It has rained in Dimmitt every day for the past six days, and the farmers are getting very restless as their crops need attention and it is too wet to work them. However, we feel very fortunate so far that we haven't received a heavy hail along with so much rain.

Bruce McLean made a business trip to Tulla the first of the week.

Misses Genevieve Graham and Henry McMurry, of Marlow, Oklahoma, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Billy Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Graham. Miss Genevieve Graham is a sister of Mrs. Billy Graham and Miss Henry McMurry is a cousin of the Graham brothers, Perry and Billy.

The Methodist Missionary Society will meet Wednesday afternoon at the church. Scripture lesson for Wednesday, Psalms, 37th chapter.

The Baptist Tierra Blanco Association met here last week. Had a fine meeting and dinner on the ground.

NAZARETH

Mr. Conrad Schulte shipped a car of cattle to Fort Worth last week, returning home Wednesday. He was well pleased with the price he received for them.

Miss Dora Hoelting returned Wednesday from Kansas where she has been visiting friends and relatives the past few months.

The Nazareth second team played a game of ball at Hart Sunday, the score being 14-24 in favor of Nazareth.

Hart played a return game Thursday on the Nazareth diamond, the score being 11-17 in favor of Nazareth.

Henry Lange was in Tulla Thursday. Rev. Father Conrad returned Thursday from a few days visit at Lindsay, Texas.

The shareholders of the Home Merc. Co. had a meeting at the Hall last Friday afternoon.

JOEL

"Hurrah for our editor! We are with him in every word he wrote about the K. K. K.'s. There was a time and place in the past when they supplied a great need, but that need is past, let us hope forever.

Irad West's son, Reford, who is a member of the pig club of last year, is the proud owner of a fine litter of pigs from his pig club sow. But he had the misfortune to make a bad cut on his hand while fixing a can in which to carry slop to his pigs. He says it is getting along all right, and so are the pigs.

O. L. Sharp and family spent the day with Mr. Hamm's folks south of Hereford on last Sunday.

Hollis Galley was driving a six horse team hitched to a tandem disc harrow and was standing on the weight box from which he slipped and in some way caught his foot on a disc, cutting thru the shoe into the heel of his foot. He said it let a lot of his meanness out from his sock and he felt sort of weak for a spell. He thinks he'll be as natural as ever soon.

The ladies of this community are to meet with Mrs. Chamness this week, on Wednesday, to prepare decorations for the children's day exercise.

The meeting of the pig club members and their parents with the Randall County Agent, Mr. Walker, which had been arranged to be held on Tuesday evening of this week, failed to materialize on account of the storm. The meeting will likely be called for next Tuesday night, June 6th, if the weather is fit and Mr. Walker can come down. Everyone who is interested in hogs is invited to be present at 8:30 p. m.

We certainly appreciate the good offices and kindly help of Mr. Walker in giving us this aid at this time. It surely is a wonder to this community that the County "lads" are so short sighted that they can't see the need for a live county agent. Our banker told us last week that the only money of any consequence that is coming in is hog money. Comparatively few men in these parts know much about raising hogs. A good county agent would organize pig clubs all over the Hereford trade territory and we would be able to learn more about the art of raising hogs on our own cheap feeds. Far too many pigs are lost at the ages of 1 to 21 days and there is always a cause. The county agent would help us find and remove that cause and if he did not ing, else in the year he would save us many times the amount of his salary.

Miss Angie Boyce of Gunter, Tex., came in on Tuesday morning to visit with her sister, Mrs. Ed Batts.

L. W. Pool, of Piqua, Ohio, came in the latter part of last week to see after his land interests and made a little visit with Mr. Ray Hershey and family, who formerly lived in the same town in Ohio. He found out that this is no desert place.

Ed Batts is making a renewed effort to have the rural mail route No. 1 out of Hereford extended so as to take in our neighborhood. If he is successful and (we hope he will be) the extension will serve about fifteen more families.

We are hereby inviting the patrons and friends of the Progressive of the Dawns Schools to join us in commemorating children's day at our school house on next Sunday, June 11, at eleven o'clock a. m. Bring your dinner and your song books.

Mrs. Louis Smith received word that her mother, Mrs. Frank Miller, of Oklahoma City, will make her a visit this week.

DAWN

We had a good crowd at Sunday School last Sunday, thirty-five in all, although some were late. 'Tis better late than never. Sunday School begins promptly at 2 o'clock. Everyone be on time so none of the lesson will be missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, of McKinney, Texas, are visiting their sons, Jess and Lyman, this week.

Jake Cannon of Amarillo was a visitor in Dawn last Sunday.

The Dawn Literary Society put on an old fashioned spelling match last Friday night. Henry Ingram was the last to sit down on one side, while Reinhold Frye, Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Hodges, and Mrs. Nana Neal won the prize on the other.

Dawn won another game Sunday. This time from Amarillo Independents as per schedule. Will not give the score here. Nuff said that Dawn won and that both teams seemed to think it was a track meet instead of a ball game and kept insisting on using the diamond for a track. Dawn will tie up with Wildorado next Sunday.

Go to Church Sunday!

HOGS

To The Public:

As the weather is getting warm, and hogs shrink badly if I hold them a few days, I have decided to pay 25c per 100 lbs. premium on California hogs, if you will bring them in Wednesday so I can ship them Thursday morning. Remember to bring them Wednesday.

Bring in your hogs not later than Wednesday evening. I ship every Thursday.

At about this time of the year, when your lawn sheds its winter coat of hardness, and the first blades of grass spring up, you're going to start thinking of a lawn-mower.

That is, if you want a neat, even growth, and know its advantages. An unkempt, shaggy lawn detracts from the appearance, and so indirectly from the value of the house.
