

YMCA Plans Park Ave. Facility

Commission Also Hears Ambulance Request

By PAUL SIMS
Managing Editor

Hereford YMCA representatives were given the go-ahead to pursue plans for constructing a facility enclosing the city swimming pool on Park Ave. and adding handball courts, a fitness center, offices and a game room in the process during a meeting of the city commission Monday night.

The proposal may cost as much as $500,000 according to YMCA officials, but eliminates a more expensive plan to construct an underground facility, discussed last year in a commission meeting.

In other business Monday, commissioners told Deaf Smith General Hospital

Administrator Jim Bullard to proceed with plans for operating a city-county financed ambulance service out of the hospital, purchased furniture for the new city hall, approved one zoning change requests and denied two others, adopted an ordinance regulating sidewalk sales in downtown Hereford, approved a plat and dedication deed and authorized issuance of certificates of obligation to finance construction of the city hall.

Roger Owen, president of the YMCA board, said an underground facility constructed on city property at 15th and Ave. C was not feasible because of its $3.3 million cost. The "Y" began plans for construction of that facility last year following a positive meeting with the city commission.

"That amount of money is absurd," Owen said in proposing the YMCA's newest alternative for leaving its present location in Sugarland Mall.

Owen and YMCA director Rick Wood said that by enclosing the $15,072-square-foot city pool and adding an additional 6,240 feet for a handball and racquetball court, fitness center, offices and a game room, the total cost may be reduced to around $500,000.

A second handball court and gymnasium could be added later, Wood said.

The pool would operate as it does now in the summer, when it is open to youngsters at a very limited cost. "Since it would be the only public pool in town, we would not take that away," Wood, who asked for a lease on the property, "We'd want you to take care of it year-round, not just for nine months," Commissioner Emory Brown said.

"We'd like that," Wood said. "We'd be able to maintain control of it that way."

"Then, I think it's great," Brown said.

City Manager Dudley Bayne told Wood that the pool is already heated which would make it suitable to use as an indoor facility.

"It makes sense," said Commissioner Wes Fisher in support of the proposal.

Bullard told commissioners that

Bergland: Grain Reserve To Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The super-crops farmers are harvesting this year, including record per-acre yields of corn, wheat and soybeans, are making some Agriculture Department officials wonder if those yields can be repeated for the third year in a row.

Crop production set a record in 1978, largely because of a then-record corn harvest. And few experts were saying publicly that farmers might have a repeat performance this year.

Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland was asked Monday how the farm situation might shape up in 1980.

"It's going to be hard to imagine a year as good as '79," Bergland said.

"Record-breaking yields, mostly all over the country; prices are tolerable — nothing exceptional, but tolerable. And when you multiply these prices with these yields ... farming is having one of the better years, some say the best," he said in a telephone interview with a group of farm broadcasters.

"I don't know if that can be repeated because half of this (record yields) is the result of just good weather. ... I can't predict that, and certainly can't control it."

But "one thing we can do" is to keep federal programs in place and continue the farmer-owned grain reserve "as a means of stabilizing prices and moving grains into the market in an orderly fashion," he said.

Bergland said, as he has before, it is not likely that a large acreage set-aside program will be in effect for feed grains next year.

Bergland believes, as USDA projections indicate, that domestic and foreign demand for feed grains, particularly corn, will be large enough so that in 1980 farmers will need to plant at a near-maximum.

According to the latest projections, domestic and export demand will require about 7.44 billion bushels of corn in the 1979-80 marketing year that begins Oct. 1. That compares with the record harvest estimated last week of 7.27 billion bushels, meaning that more corn will be needed than farmers are producing this fall.

On a tonnage basis, total grain demand in 1979-80 — including wheat, rice and

Hospital Reports Decline In Census during August

By PAUL SIMS
Managing Editor

Expenses exceeded revenue by $12,350 at Deaf Smith General Hospital during August, hospital administrator Jim Bullard reported this morning during the regular monthly meeting of Deaf Smith County Hospital District directors.

"We did not have a good month," said Bullard, who reported that the hospital was unable to collect $29,397 in bad debts. That figure, subtracted from the total patient revenue of $215,415, left a net revenue of $186,018. Total operating expenses were $197,361 and non-operating costs totaled $3,669.

The hospital, in its 11 months of the current fiscal year, still has received $201,773 in revenue over expenses, according to the August operating report. That is 27 percent down from the budgeted figure of $278,036.

In August, there were 232 patients admitted, compared to 246 in August a year ago. The average daily census for adults and children was 29.8 patients, compared to 32.5 last year. Bullard said that 29.8 percent is not a pleasing figure when the 12 percent bad debt writeoff is applied.

Year-to-date figures were still up from the 1977-78 fiscal year. There have been 2,540 patients admitted this year, compared to 2,288, and the average daily census for adults and children (not including newborns) is 30.6, compared to 29.3.

Bullard reported that the hospital this

McCathern To Make Announcement

Gerald McCathern of Hereford, the leader of a national tractorcade to Washington in protest of low farm prices earlier this year, will announce whether or not he will seek the Democratic nomination in the 31st State Senatorial District at a news conference at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the Community Center.

The public is invited to the meeting, McCathern said.

McCathern, who is considering the race along with two other Hereford men—Bill Sarpalus and Clint Formby—and Mel Phillips of Amarillo, is author of a book, "From the White House to the Hoosgow", about his experiences as a leader of the American Agriculture Movement.

Sarpalus is an administrative assistant to House Speaker Bill Clayton, and Formby owns several radio stations, including KPAN in Hereford. Neither of the two men has announced his intentions in the race.

The incumbent is Republican Bob Price of Pampa.

Murillo Murder Trial Gets Delay

The murder trial of Balentin Martinez Murillo was postponed this morning in 222nd District Court until sometime in October.

Murillo, 32, is charged with the March 16 stabbing death of 26-year-old Hector Mata of Hereford.

According to the district attorney's office, Mata was standing next to a pickup truck during an argument over a misunderstanding involving a stalled car when he was stabbed once in the heart region.

Murillo, Mata and several other persons allegedly were involved in the altercation, which occurred in front of the Wishing Well dance hall on N. Main.

Jurors were scheduled to hear testimony today in the attempted murder trial of Danny Villarreal, who allegedly stabbed Carlos Leal on June 24 in the 200 block of Blevins.

Home Economist To Leave Hereford for Position in Tyler

By KERRIE STEIERT
Women's Editor

After providing more than eight years of service as Deaf Smith County Extension agent, Joyce Shipp has been hired as Home Economics Program Leader by Smith County in East Texas. Mrs. Shipp's resignation here will become effective Sept. 28 and she will assume her new position at Tyler on Oct. 1.

Although her new title will be slightly altered from the one she has held here, Mrs. Shipp will still be working as an agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service (TAES). She will be headquartered in a newly-built office with two assistant agents on her staff.

Her husband, Roy Shipp, who resigned this spring as girls athletic coordinator here, is already in Tyler, employed by Farm Bureau Insurance.

A native of the Panhandle, Mrs. Shipp is certified as a trainer agent, capable of preparing prospective agents for service. During her tenure here, she has worked with the Extension Homemakers Clubs through method demonstrations and leader training sessions. She has

Attorney Blasts Bell Cost Structure

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Southwestern Bell's present and proposed telephone price structure undermines a Texas Public Utility Commission order that offers "lifeline rates" to the poor, a consumer attorney says.

Carole Barger said during a break in the PUC's Southwestern Bell rate hearing Monday that Bell was violating two requirements of the 1978 "lifeline rate" order.

Bell's request for $145.2 million in rate increases would impose a $1.55 per month increase on monthly bills for single line household telephones, including measured rate or "lifeline" service.

Ms. Barger, attorney for the Consumers Union and the Association of Community Organizations for Reform Now (ACORN), cross-examined Bell official Joe McDonald about the rates.

She said later, that when the commission ordered Bell to offer measured rate service in 1978 it also decreed that:

—The cost of measured service could not exceed that of a two-party line.

—Bell could not increase rates for "lifeline" service until Bell completed a study showing usage of the service.

supervised the projects of the County Family Living committee, which has presented a number of health-oriented programs for the benefit of the community as a whole.

Mrs. Shipp first worked for the county as an assistant Extension agent in charge of the 4-H program. She was promoted to County Extension Agent when Argen Draper retired from that position.

The departing agent has presented five programs yearly to each of the 14 Extension Homemakers chapters here. The leader training clinics which she has conducted are designed to promote capable leadership and individual growth among the club membership.

Reflecting on her role here, Mrs. Shipp stated, "My eight years in Hereford and Deaf Smith County have been most enjoyable because of the many wonderful citizens. I have certainly appreciated the support I have received from everyone, and especially, the Extension Homemakers."

Mrs. Shipp also praised the general community, saying "Hereford is definitely a unique, progressive community. The people are interested in

County Courthouse To Receive Facelift

Cracks in the 75-year-old Deaf Smith County Courthouse will be repaired by a Dallas restoration firm if a company proposal is approved at next Monday's commission meeting.

Joe Sanders of Lone Star Waterproofing Co. in Dallas and commissioners examined the exterior of the courthouse in a special meeting Monday morning and found numerous cracks and places where sealant had come loose. Sanders estimated the cost of repairs at $28,404 later Monday.

"He'll give us a breakdown and send us a bid on what exactly needs to be done and how much it will cost," said County Judge Glen Nelson, who led commissioners J.F. Martin, Bruce Coleman and James Voyles on their tour outside the courthouse.

The officials, after walking all the way around the structure, went up to the roof to find additional cracks. Sanders crawled out on a ledge on the fourth floor to point out additional damage.

Lone Star Waterproofing Co. specializes in the restoration of old buildings. Among structures repaired by the company are the Hale County Courthouse at Plainview, the courthouse in Waxahachie, First Baptist Church in Wichita Falls and several Dallas-area buildings.

Gold Price Soars 18 Dollars an Ounce

LONDON (AP) - Gold jumped nearly $18 to hit a record $371.35 an ounce at the morning fixing in London today. The metal was quoted in Zurich at $371.25, and as gold rose the dollar dropped.

The fixing price for gold is the level agreed upon for trading the metal by London's five major bullion houses after conferring on market conditions. They also fix a price for afternoon dealings.

Gold closed at $353.50 in London and $353 in Zurich Monday.

The metal opened at $367 in Zurich today and climbed quickly. In London, gold started the day at $365.50.

The gold price has been gaining relentlessly week by week as the Arab oil countries, European banks and speculators buy gold as a hedge against inflation.

Army To Loosen

Enlistment Rules

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Army, unable to meet its manpower goals, will soon loosen schooling requirements so more young men and women can qualify for enlistment, sources say.

At the same time, the Army is raising its recruiting objective for the 1980 fiscal year starting Oct. 1 in hopes of overcoming this year's shortage.

The Army is eliminating a requirement that male and female volunteers complete at least the 10th grade before trying to enlist, said the sources, who asked to remain anonymous.

Formal announcement of the actions was expected shortly. "It won't make any difference how much schooling you've got, so long as you can pass the entrance qualification test," said one senior officer.

The minimum acceptable score on that mental test will remain at 31 percent.

The Army still will hunt for as many high school graduates as it can attract, officials said. High school graduates generally have proven more reliable and more likely to finish their enlistments, according to military manpower studies.

The relaxing of school requirements for recruits is the latest in a series of steps the Army has taken in a so-far unsuccessful effort to fill its ranks.

Arresting Officer

Tells of Davis Scene

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Using the dramatic testimony of an arresting officer, prosecutors build toward the climactic sequence of events last summer that ended with millionaire Cullen Davis in handcuffs.

Justice of the Peace Morris Howeth, then a district attorney's investigator, said he jumped from a moving car and ran toward Davis after receiving a radio command to "take him."

"Cullen, you're under arrest," Howeth said he told Davis, who was emerging from a phone booth on a restaurant parking lot as carloads of other officers arrived on the scene.

Davis now is standing trial on charges he tried to hire the murder of his divorcee, Joe Eidson.

Jurors left the courtroom late Monday afternoon while defense attorneys tried to block portions of Howeth's testimony.

"You had not witnessed him (Davis) perform a felony or an offense against the public peace?" asked defense attorney Richard "Racehorse" Haynes.

"No sir," Howeth said, adding that he arrested Davis under a pre-arranged signal.

Americans Return After Years in Cuba

MIAMI (AP) - "I never gave up," said Larry Lunt after he and three others stepped onto U.S. soil after years of imprisonment in Cuba on espionage and political charges.

Gaunt, tired and somewhat bewildered, the four Americans arrived at Miami International Airport on Monday night, only hours after learning their release was imminent.

Imprisoned since the Cold War days of the mid-1960s, the four were released 10 days after the United States freed four Puerto Rican terrorists.

The State Department denied any "package deal" with Cuba, but officials acknowledged awareness of Cuban President Fidel Castro's public offer to release the Americans in return for release of the Puerto Ricans.

"I'm happy, I'm happy, I'm three times happy," said ecstatic Juan Tur, 62, in Spanish as he hugged his wife and daughter. Tur was sent to prison by Castro in 1963 for "counter-revolutionary activities."

The freed Americans were Lunt, 56, a Saratoga, Wyo., rancher sentenced to 30 years in 1965 for espionage; Tur, a Tampa native; Everett Jackson, 39, of Los Angeles, sentenced to 30 years for espionage in 1967; and Claudio Rodriguez Morales, 49, of Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, sentenced to 20 years in 1966 for smuggling people out of Cuba.

Bell

chase it. Measured rate service provides customers 25 calls a month at a lower than normal cost. Users who make more than 25 calls must pay eight cents for each call over that number.

McDonald told Ms. Barger and PUC hearing examiner Phil Ricketts that Bell was eight weeks away from completing its "demographic study" on users of "lifeline service."

He acknowledged that Bell's rate proposal would raise the price of measured rate service and reduce the price advantage it offers the customer.

For example, a Dallas customer now pays $4.75 for measured rate service, compared with $4.50 for a two-party line and $7.50 for an exclusive line. Bell's proposal would raise the price to $6.30 for measured rate service, $6.25 for a party line and $9.05 for a single line.

The saving for measured rate customers would drop from 36 percent to 30 percent, compared with the price of a normal one-party telephone.

"They are not following the (1978) commission order. ... Measured rate is higher than the two-party line rate both now and in their proposal. The PUC said they had to be the same," Ms. Barger said in an interview.

She said ACORN and the Consumers Union want rates for lifeline service left alone.

"Once something is a 30 percent rather than a 40 percent discount, that reduces the incentive to change," Ms. Barger said.

The PUC staff says household rates would change but has not said whether lifeline customers should have higher rates. The staff has recommended that measurements for lifeline service include not only number of calls but how long they last.

Staff recommendations would add $136.4 million to Bell's annual revenue.

City

Hereford's funeral directors—John Gilliland and Ron Smith want out of the ambulance business and proposed that the city and county share in the cost of operating a service which may cost between $60,000 and $80,000.

"We feel like if either of the ambulance operators, or both of them, tomorrow said they were getting out and gave 30-days notice, then they'd come to you," Bullard said. "That's why we're coming to you."

Bullard said the hospital, in its present financial situation, could not afford to share in the funding of the ambulance service.

"We're not jumping up and down about this and saying we want to run the ambulance service. We cannot, first of all, in any form or fashion jeopardize our patient care, and the second thing is we cannot financially afford to get into the operation of an ambulance."

Brownlow said it is "not right" for the funeral homes to "leave the thing hanging—I don't want them to hold this over our head. If they want to quit, they ought to quit, then we'll do something."

Commissioner Ed Coplen asked Bullard about the feasibility of contracting an out-of-town company to operate ambulances.

"The difference would be in the rates charged for calls. They would, of course, be higher," Bullard said.

constantly improving themselves and their surroundings, and that is what my main goal in Hereford has been—to help people help themselves."

In addition to her work with the Extension Service, Mrs. Shipp has helped produce the Miss Hereford Pageant for three years as a member of the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division.

"The people here have been very good to me," Mrs. Shipp reiterated. "One of

"Plus, if you operated your own, you'd have full control," said Brownlow, adding, "I'd a whole lot rather subsidize the hospital than anybody else."

Commissioners told Bullard to talk with both funeral-home directors about their intention to quit.

Commissioners voted to purchase desks and credenzas for the new city hall from First Printing of Hereford for $5,345, five-leg chairs for secretaries from Litho Graphics for $792 and executive armchairs from Litho Graphics for $1,462.

The commission accepted the recommendation of the Planning and Zoning Commission to approve a zoning change from C Multi-Family to D Restricted at 505 Ross.

A request to change two lots in the 500 block of Lawton from C Multi-Family to D Restrict was denied as the commission again accepted the zoning commission's recommendation.

The zoning commission's recommendation to change 918 S. Main from A Single Family to C Multi Family was overruled by commissioners, who said the change would permit "spot zoning" since the rest of the block would remain A Single Family.

A plat and dedication deed for 26 lots south of 15th and west of Ranger were approved during the meeting, paving the the best things about my job is getting to work with people because I like people."

Prior to settling here, Mrs. Shipp taught school at Hermleigh, near Snyder. She was raised at Samnorwood, located between Wellington and Childress. She received her bachelor of science degree in home economics education from Texas Tech University in 1968. Two years ago, Mrs. Shipp earned her masters of art way for the construction of Farmers Home Administration-financed homes on the property.

Commissioners approved an ordinance regulating sidewalk sales by downtown merchants. The new ordinance states that sales must be no longer than two successive days, limits merchants to three sales per year and requires sales to be authorized by the association of downtown merchants, submitted to the chamber of commerce and approved by the city manager.

Commissioners resolved to elect Melvin Jayroe, Frank Zinser Jr., Dan Hall, James Gentry and Bruce Coleman to the new tax appraisal district board, required by Senate Bill 621 as part of the Tax Relief Amendment approved last year by Texas voters.

The bill sets up single tax appraisal districts in counties.

The commission authorized the issuance of $75,000 worth of certificates of obligation to the contractor in charge of constructing the new city hall, which should be completed in November. The building is being financed through the certificates, which are guaranteed by revenue-sharing funds and city money.

The commission also extended the curb and gutter contract of the contractor to include an additional 150 feet on 3rd St.

Crops

feed grains — is expected to be about 296 million metric tons against this year's production of 285.4 million.

That will mean a draw-down in U.S. stocks to an estimated 61.9 million metric tons by the time new crops are ready for harvest next year, compared with the total grain left over this year of 72.2 million metric tons.

Another factor that is important for farmers, as Bergland mentioned Monday, is the grain still locked up in the reserve program. Under it, grain is stored by farmers for up to three years or until prices rise enough to trigger its release.

Wheat and corn comprise most of the reserve — a total of about 1.3 billion bushels initially — and were both released earlier this year when prices rose high enough. But corn prices later sagged and its release was terminated on July 31.

Bergland said the reserve program has confounded its original critics who he contended now admit it is "one of the best programs ever to come along."

Not only has the reserve been a boon to farmers, but it also has served as a buffer for export demands and helped assure foreign buyers that the United States is committed to being a dependable supplier of commodities.

The most recent USDA figures show that farmers who initially stored 732 million bushels of corn in the reserve program have redeemed from storage about 184 million bushels, about 25 percent of the original reserve.

Smoking Expected to Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says cigarette smoking on a per capita basis is expected to decline in 1979 for the sixth straight year. That would put it at the lowest level in 22 years.

Production is gaining slightly and exports of cigarettes are brisk, the department's outlook board said.

"However, the smoking and health controversy, coupled with further price increases may bring the smoking rate per person in calendar 1979 down about 2 percent from last year's 198 packs per capita," the report said. That would be the lowest since 1957, it said.

Per capita smoking rates are calculated by including all persons 18 years and older—non-smokers as well as smokers. It is a statistical measure rather than a true gauge of the smoking habits of those Americans who do smoke.

This year, the report said, per capita "consumption" of cigarettes is estimated at 3,900 — 195 packs of 20 each — against 3,970 or 198.5 packs in 1978.

The rate has declined annually since 1973 when the per capita smoking rate was 4,148 cigarettes, or 207.4 packs.

In a related report, USDA announced that federal price supports for 1979-crop tobacco grown by farmers will average 6.9 percent higher than in 1978. The price supports are mandatory under law.

Flue-cured tobacco, for example, will be supported at an average of slightly more than $1.29 a pound against $1.21 last year, and barley at more than $1.33 a pound, compared to slightly less than $1.25 a pound in 1978.

Lawsuit May Reveal Scheme

EDINBURG, Texas (AP) — The meaty issue in the civil disbarment suit against Hidalgo County District Attorney Oscar McInnis is whether he masterminded an alleged scheme to kill a friend's ex-husband, admits one of McInnis' lawyers.

"The heart of the matter is the solicitation of murder. That is what is really involved in this case," lawyer John Lewis said Monday as the trial opened on whether to strip McInnis of his law license.

Judge Joe B. Evins postponed jury selection until today after McInnis' attorneys asked to eliminate certain issues from the disbarment case.

McInnis' 16-month-long legal problems developed in his 12th year as a district attorney in this border county. He had built a reputation as a top-notch prosecutor, winning two murder convictions over Houston defense attorney Percy Foreman.

McInnis and Patricia Parada had faced criminal charges of conspiring to murder her ex-husband, but both federal and state versions of those accusations were either dismissed or thrown out.

The State Bar of Texas says the longtime South Texas prosecutor is unfit to practice law because of the same allegations and others of "professional misconduct."

The bar's official complaint against the 63-year-old McInnis alleges he tried to have Noe Villanueva killed and enlisted the help of Hidalgo County jail inmate Dan Rodriguez to contact a hit man in Mexico. Villanueva was not killed and was among the 34 witnesses subpoenaed and sworn in on Monday.

The state bar also alleges McInnis lied to a grand jury about the scheme, and used his official authority to harass Villanueva by charging him with

If a jury of McInnis' constituents finds he violated a professional standard, the final decision of whether to reprimand him, suspend him or permanently disbar him rests with

Although the federal murder-conspiracy charges have been thrown out, McInnis and Miss Parada face a trial later this year on charges they lied to a grand jury about the alleged scheme.

Two Canyon Women Author Book Exploring Sites for Area Trips

Nine months and 24,000 miles later, the dream and work of two Canyon women is on Panhandle bookshelves. "Presenting the Texas Panhandle", a where-to-go, what-to-see and who-to-know guide to the upper 26 Texas counties, was published recently by Lana Barnett and Elizabeth Buhrkuhl.

The book developed, said Barnett, because she wanted to know what was interesting to see on weekend trips in the Panhandle.

"When we moved back out here from Ft. Worth, I was wanting something to take with me on weekend trips, something that listed what there is to see. I called the library, asking if there was a compilation and they checked and didn't have anything like that," she explained. "I just thought about it for a year. I didn't have the money then."

During that time, Barnett came to work for The Canyon

News, helping prepare the county progress edition. She saw advertising as a way to finance the guidebook.

Barnett enlisted the aid of Buhrkuhl, a school teacher for 18 years, who has instructed from third grade through college level.

With the encouragement of Troy Martin, News publisher, they began work, gathering both advertisement and information. The result is a 198-page book with cover by Canyon artist Jim Ward and filled with historical photographs from the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Each county has a chapter devoted to it that includes a feature story of a current topic; a historical feature; a calendar of annual events; things to see and do; a list of interesting facts, both past and present; current and historical photographs.

"We didn't write the book," they add. "We published it but we had contributing authors and did some of the writing."

In traveling the Panhandle, the major feature has been change, said Buhrkuhl.

"We have not been in one county that there hasn't been a lot of changes, growth, industry, population, mostly for the better," she said.

"We've seen wildlife. We saw a herd of antelope between Perryton and Pampa," said Barnett. "We've had a ball. We've met people in all walks of life, in all age groups. We've met people in all kinds of business situations."

"We've learned that the people are fantastic. And that the Panhandle is not all flat; there are a lot of canyons and hills in this Panhandle," she said.

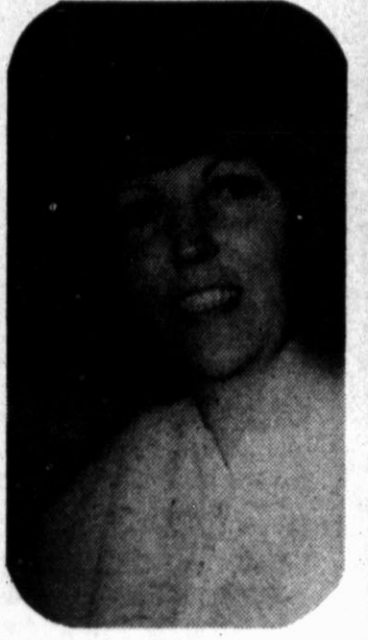

They plan to update the book with a new edition every other year. In the meantime, they are working on other projects.

Copies of the book are available at Gibson's, Christian Book Store and Casey's Books and Records in Hereford. For mail orders send $3.95 plus $1.00 postage and handling to Lan-Bea Publications, P. O. Box 601, Canyon, Texas 79015.

Health Farm Idea Entertains Club

La Madre Mia Study Club members gathered Saturday morning to begin the new season with their annual breakfast at the home of Mary Beth White, 326 Elm St. The breakfast party had originally been planned at the home of Glenda Gerles north of the city, but muddy roads caused the group to meet at the White residence.

Theme of the breakfast was a health farm and invitations informed members to wear jogging attire to the breakfast. In a humorous format, members were coaxed to jump rope and perform calisthenics by Trainer Glenda Gerles while Joyce Allred, Betty Owen and Sharon Hodges assisted as "health farm staff members." Nutritionist Betty Lady gave a farcical lecture on diet, serving meager health food tidbits to the health farm clientele.

Members then jogged to the home of Betty Owens, 340 Elm, where they "broke training" and enjoyed an unrestricted breakfast. After the buffet meal, secret pals for the summer were revealed with the exchange of gifts.

A brief business meeting ensued with the presentation of yearbooks by the yearbook committee members, who also served as hostesses for the breakfast. Mary Beth White, general chairman of the annual Holiday Homes Tour, appointed her committees and plans for this fund-raising project were launched.

Other club members attending the recent breakfast were Bunny Anderson, Carolyn Baxter, Ruth Black, Beverly Bryant, Mary Herring, Sandra Martin, Gladys Merritt, Lucy

Rogers, Mysedia Smith, Marcia Snyder, Georgia Sparks, Debbie Tardy, Betty Taylor, Marlene Watson and Judy Williams.

Ann Landers

Funny Uncles

DEAR ANN: No one will write to you today who feels more desperate than I do at this moment. My father is a doctor. He recently advised us that our teenage daughter needs a series of treatments. I was baffled by her reluctance to go to her grandfather for medical help until she broke down and confided that "Gramps" had made improper advances toward her. She had actually fled his office. (I should have mentioned that "Gramps" is a closet alcoholic.)

Our Daughter feels relieved to have this burden off her mind, but my husband and I are in a state of shock. What should we do about this bizarre situation? My mother would have a heart attack if she knew. We simply cannot tell her—or anyone else. It would ruin his reputation, cause a divorce, a suicide or both.

We looked in the Ann Landers Encyclopedia for help under "Molest" and "Funny Uncles," and we couldn't find anything. Please tell us what to do. You are absolutely the only one we can turn to.—Rope's End In New England

DEAR NEW ENGLAND: Your sketchy letter leaves a list of unanswered questions. First, how old is your daughter? Second, what kind of treatments does the girl need? Third, do you believe her grandfather is responsible for her medical problems?

My advice: Take her to another physician at once. (Treating one's close relatives is never a good idea.) Ask your daughter if she feels the need for counseling, and if you need counseling to deal with this traumatic revelation, get it. (P.S. Look in the Encyclopedia under "Child Molesting" and "Incest." It's both places.)

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My husband (age 24) started to grow a beard about eight months ago. It looked rather attractive when it was short, but now I hate it.

My mother has a fit whenever she sees Phil. It's gotten beyond the joking stage. He says he's going to let his beard grow because he wants to see how long it will get.

Mom says it won't grow beyond a certain length—that this is nature's way of protecting the person from having a beard that might be dangerously long. She must be right because I've never seen a beard longer than midchest. Phil says she's wrong. Please settle this.—Gillette, Wyo.

DEAR GILL: Your mother's information is incorrect. The average rate of hair growth is half an inch a month, although it varies with the individual.

According to the Guinness Book of Records, the longest beard was grown by another Phil. His name was Phillip Henson, and he let his beard grow for 10 years. He was six feet, two inches tall. His beard reached the carpet and dragged for about six inches. (I wonder how Mrs. Henson liked it!)

DEAR ANN LANDERS: The letter from "Lydia about her forgetful husband struck home. I'm a forgetful husband myself. I forget my own birthday. When family or friends throw a surprise party for me, it's really a surprise!

My wife handles all our finances. If I lend a couple dollars to a friend, I forget about it until he or she repays me. I never forget, however, that I'm married to a terrific woman and we have a wonderful son. As far as I'm concerned, that's all that is worth remembering.—From Cleveland, I Think

DEAR CLEVELAND [Yup—that's where you're from. I checked the envelope]: Thanks for the day-brightener. Just keep remembering the important things and the loving people around you will take care of the rest.

Bright reds, yellows or oranges are easier to see when outdoors. Light reflective patches or tape can increase visibility.

Avoid loopy knits that catch on rough surfaces, door handles or furniture.

Small Claims Court, Inexpensive

COLLEGE STATION — Have a grievance about "small" money?

For $5, you can file a claim in a small claims court, reminds Linda McCormack, a family resource management specialist.

Small claims courts provide a forum for swift, inexpensive justice—over anything from rose bushes destroyed by neighborhood dogs to "bad" checks, she says.

Mrs. McCormack is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Anyone over age 18 can sue and anyone can be sued—in a small claims court.

You can sue another person or any business.

It doesn't matter under what legal form the business operates, either. You can sue a man in business for himself, a partnership or a large corporation.

HOW SMALL IS "SMALL"?

For the $5 fee, you can ask for a judgment on any problem involving $150 or less.

Also, if wages or labor are the issue, you can sue for up to $200.

WHERE IT IS

Each Texas county has a small claims court. Call the county courthouse for more information about the small claims court in your county.

HOW IT WORKS

There are no complicated papers to file in a small claims court.

Hearings are informal—with each person involved in the dispute standing face-to-face before a judge.

Since no formal pleadings are required, you don't need a lawyer, although lawyers are allowed.

Judges in small claims courts are justices of the peace, and they decide each case, unless either party requests a jury.

Each person involved in the dispute must speak for himself. There are no technical legal rules about what evidence the judge can hear.

He decides the case on the basis of what he hears in court.

BEFORE FILING

Before filing for a decision in a small claims court, try to resolve your problem with the person, business or organization involved in the dispute.

Also, don't overlook other ways to solve the problem if they offer advantages—consumer protection agencies, news media sports, Better Business Bureau, industry-sponsored panels and local industry mediation groups.

To make corn-husk butterflies, soften corn husks with water, then cut, pleat, or stretch, says Pat Seaman, a housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Additional husks for the body plus painted designs complete the creations.

Also, create a giant angel the same way settlers made dolls, she continues.

Use husks for the body and wings and corn silks for hair, Ms. Seaman adds.

New Coach at Stanton

Salinas New Golf Champ

JAMES SALINAS
...wins city title

James Salinas, who just moved to Hereford one month ago, used a hot putter and consistent playing to win the Hereford Golf Tournament last weekend with a two round score of 145.

Salinas came to Hereford as a new coach at Stanton Junior High after completing his studies at West Texas University where he played for the Buff golf team. "My putting saved me Sunday," Salinas said. "I just wasn't hitting the ball real good but everytime I was on the green I was able to get the ball in the hole."

In second place of the championship flight was Jeff Loerwald, who turned a 36 hole total of 149 and third was Dana Rush with a 151 total. Rush was down nine strokes going to the back nine of the final day and a sparkling 36 chopped three strokes off the deficit but it was not enough to overtake Salinas who finished the final round with a 73.

Charles Skinner won the top spot in the first flight with a 153 total, which tied him with Shorty Roark, but a playoff decided the winner. Third in the flight was Ron Weisauer with a 155 total.

Second flight winners were Ken Hager and Cliff Arnold in the top position tied at 150. Winners in the third flight were Max Leon in first with a 159 and Rocky Lee in second with a 36 hole total of 165.

Lewis Block won the fourth flight with a 180 total, which edged the pair of Leo Hollowell and Dick Gholson who tied for second with a 182.

The tournament, which was open to Hereford residents, drew 43 entries in the two day, two round affair.

Blakely Cops First In Football Contest

R.L. Blakely, of 230 Northwest Drive found just a tie game and three upsets all that kept him from having a perfect entry in the Hereford Brand's second Football Contest this week. Blakely, a well-known Herd booster, missed just four games on the contest to walk away with the top prize of $25.

Larry Wartes, who lives just two doors down from Blakely at 236 Northwest Drive, just five misses for the $15 second-place prize, while two other entrants edged out four others for third place after submitting identical tiebreaker scores.

David McDonald and Dave Hopper, of 143 Northwest Drive and 509 Westhaven respectively, split the $10 third-place money with a tie breaker guess of 48 on the Pittsburgh-St. Louis game which was won by the Steelers, 24-21.

Blakely missed only the Friona-Lockney tie, and upset wins by Amarillo High over Odesa Permian, Rice over Tulane, and Seattle over Oakland. Wartes correctly picked Rice and Seattle, but missed Littlefield's win over Levelland. Boys Ranch's win over Bovina, and Notre Dame's win over Michigan as well as the Amarillo High win and Friona-Lockney tie.

Just missing out on the money last week were Matthew Albracht, Alan Wartes, Lynn Lauderback, and Sheila Brannon, all with six misses. Those missing seven games included Joyce Wartes, Nicks Fariss, Don Delozar, Randy Farr, Jeff Hazelrigg, and Tony Edwards. 21 others missed eight games last week.

A total of 225 entries were received for the second week's contest. Contest officials remind entrants for the last time that only an official entry form or an exact copy of its will be eligible for judging during the remaining 11 weeks of the contest.

Money winners for the first 12 weeks of the contest qualify to compete for the grand prize of $100. Entry blanks appear in today's issue of The Brand, and must be turned in to the Brand office by 5 p.m. Friday to be eligible.

SMU's Ford May Get Fifth Year

DALLAS (AP) — Injured Southern Methodist quarterback Mike Ford — as well as Coach Ron Meyer — would like to see the Southwest Conference allow him to come back for a fifth year of play as a hardship case.

Ford, the nation's total offense leader in 1978, suffered a torn ligament in his right knee Saturday night in a 27-7 victory over Texas Christian. He underwent surgery Sunday.

"I talked with him today and his intentions are he wants to come back for a fifth year," said Meyer of his junior quarterback, who averaged 268 yards per game last season.

Meyer also said Monday that SMU would seek a hardship year for sophomore safety Blane Smith, who suffered a broken foot in the hard-hitting game against TCU.

"I looked at the films of the injury and it was not a hard blow, it was certainly not malicious," said Meyer.

Ford was hit on the right knee by the right shoulder of TCU tackle Fred Williams, who came over the top of a block by Mike Jusko.

"Mike had his leg planted and got hit by a helmet," said Meyer.

After the broken bone report was out of the way, Meyer had some good news for Mustang maniacs.

"We expect all of our freshmen running backs to be ready for the North Texas State game Saturday night," said Meyer. Tailback Eric Dickerson, who gained only 15 yards in 15 carries, was dazed but did not suffer a concussion. Backup tailback Charles Wagoner's sprained ankle was better and fullback Craig James only suffered a bruised hand not a broken one as first feared.

Meyer said freshman Mike Fisher of Waco Richfield would backup Jim Bob Taylor at quarterback. Also frosh Layne Walker of Clovis, N.M. will backup Fisher.

"We have a lot of confidence in Jim Bob...he can throw the ball pretty well," said Meyer. "Mike Fisher can throw the ball pretty good, too."

Meyer also announced that freshman defensive tackle Michael Carter, who suffered a bruised knee two weeks ago, would be available to go against the Mean Green in Texas Stadium.

Redskins Rout Giants In Monday Night Clash

WASHINGTON (UP) — It's a fair bet that New York's Bryan Kelley and Washington Benny Malone aren't high on each other's party list.

In fact, if you're interested in fireworks, it might not be a bad idea to be in Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. on Nov. 25, when the Giants and Redskins renew their rivalry.

In their first meeting Monday night, the Redskins gained at least a touchdown from the confrontation between Kelley and Malone en route to a 27-0 thrashing of the Giants in an NFC East game.

According to the participants, it all started early in the game. However, the culmination came when Kelley was penalized for kicking the Redskins' running back in the head after a third down play which would have forced Washington to punt.

Instead, Kelley's outburst gave the Redskins new life in a drive which ended with Clarence Harmon's reception of a 4-yard touchdown toss from JoeaThiesmann.

"It's personal between me and him," said Kelley, who also was charged earlier for running into the punter — another infraction which kept a Washington drive alive. "He knows what he did. It's personal and it started on the second play of the game. He said some things that you don't want to hear."

Malone said, however, that the mostly-hidden scuffle started with the Giants' Gary Jeter early in the game "and I was trying to protect myself. I'll never back down."

"It's going to stay personal. It started the first time I carried the ball," he said.

In between the eight penalties for 72 yards that the Giants were assessed, the Redskins dominated play, including a 31-yard pass interception by defensive tackle Karl Lorch which he turned into a touchdown.

"That's the only pass that I've caught in at least 10 years," he said. "The last one was in junior college."

Thiesmann also and ran 7 yards for another score on what he said was a designed draw but appeared to be a scramble.

Mark Moseley added field goals of 46 and 40 yards.

New York Coach Ray Perkins said merely, "We made too many mistakes and didn't play smart football on defense. We got burned early (on Lorch's interception), and we kept two of their drives alive."

However, he added, "We played 60 minutes of football, and I'm proud of that, even though we lost."

Thiesmann wore a bandage around his head, where he had taken 15 stitches after being smacked in the first half, said: "The key to our offense is the line. They put the 27 points on the board."

USC Retains Top Spot In College Grid Ranks

By The Associated Press

Southern California's Trojans are on the march and more and more followers seem to be joining the bandwagon.

Top-ranked Southern California widened its lead over Alabama in The Associated Press college football poll Monday, collecting 1,227 points of a possible 1,240. The Trojans, who last week led in first-place votes by 45-14 and in points by 1,222-1,172, were tabbed No. 1 on 49 of the ballots submitted by the poll's committee of 62 sports writers and broadcasters.

"It's nice to be there (No. 1)," Southern Cal Coach John Robinson said Monday. "But we're just trying to keep improving, keep concentrating on little things and the big things will take care of themselves."

That was certainly the case last Saturday as the Trojans crushed Oregon State, 42-5. But Robinson knows being No. 1 means being a big target for any foe.

"We're trying to get better, so we'll be ready when we get to the game that decides things," Robinson said. "Maybe it'll be Minnesota — or Louisiana State or Notre Dame or Washington or UCLA. You never know what the big one is until you've played it."

Alabama, which didn't play last weekend, received 12 first-place votes and 1,153 points. Oklahoma and Texas held onto the third and fourth positions as the poll's top four remained unchanged.

Notre Dame, a 12-10 upset victor over Michigan last Saturday, jumped from ninth to fifth in this week's poll, while the Wolverines fell from sixth to 11th. Penn State was sixth, followed by Nebraska, Michigan State, Missouri and Houston.

Oklahoma, a 21-6 victor over Iowa, received 1,017 points while Texas, which doesn't open until Saturday, received the other first-place vote and 976 points.

Notre Dame got 953 points, edging Penn State, which received 947 points following a 45-10 rout of Rutgers and climbed from seventh to sixth. Purdue, which lost to UCLA 31-21, slipped from fifth to 17th.

Nebraska rose from eighth to seventh with 815 points by defeating Utah State 35-14 and Michigan State went from 10th to eighth with 781 points by hammering Oregon 41-17.

Missouri and Houston cracked the Top Ten for the first time this season, moving into the ninth and 10th spots, respectively. Missouri, which had been 11th, beat Illinois 14-6 while Houston, 13th last week, edged Florida 14-10. Missouri had 613 points to Houston's 578.

This week's Second Ten consists of Michigan, Washington, Pitt, Florida State, HIO State, Purdue, Southern Methodist, North Carolina State and UCLA.

UCLA was the only newcomer to the Top Twenty. The Bruins replaced Georgia, which lost to Wake Forest 22-21.

Oilers to Stick With Pastorini

HOUSTON (AP) — Houston

Oiler running back Earl Campbell says there's one difference in the quarterbacking abilities of starter Dan Pastorini and Gifford. Nielsen—Pastorini shouts signals louder.

"The only difference I noticed was I didn't hear Gifford as good," said Campbell, who rushed 132 yards on 32 carries Sunday in the Oiler's 20-6 victory over Kansas City.

Nielsen had 25g/7ritics Monday for his sub role, made necessary when Pastorini suffered a bruised shoulder against Pittsburgh.

But now that the shouting is over and Nielsen has had his first fling as a starting quarterback, it's back to the under-study role for Nielsen as Pastorini resumes his starting assignment.

Nielsen completed 12 of 18 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown in his first regular season start. He hit seven of his first eight passes, including a 24-yard touchdown pass to Tim Wilson to set the tone of the game.

Phillips left little doubt that Pastorini still is No. 1. "There is no question that Dan will be back this week," Phillips said. "Dan could have played Sunday. He threw some before the game without much pain but we didn't have to use him."

Nielsen said he was pleased with the way the Oilers responded to him in the game, and wide receiver Ken Burrough confirmed it.

"Giff proved to me a long time ago that he was cool," Burrough said. "I guess he proved it to the public. I already had confidence in him."

Rookie defensive end Jesse Baker got four of the sacks in the waning moments of the game.

The Oiler defense held the Chiefs to a 55-yard punt return for a touchdown by J.T. Smith although Fuller directed KC inside the Oiler 20 several times with his passing.

"On the punt return, we didn't get set up to that side," Phillips said. "And when we finally got over there we didn't make the tackle."

The Oilers, 2-1, go on the road to Cincinnati Sunday and despite the Bengals' 0-3 record, Phillips has no lack of respect.

"They always seem to play well against us," Phillips said. "They've got as much individual talent as anyone in the league. Some teams team to get up for certain teams and they seem to get ready for us."

Royals Rap Angels, Rangers Move Toward Title

By BARRY WILNER
AP Sports Writer

If the Kansas City Royals have designs on their fourth straight American League West title, they're headed in the right direction.

The Royals moved within two games of first-place California by bombing the Angels 16-4 in Kansas City Monday in the opener of a three-game series. It's the closest the Royals have been to first place since Sept. 3 and was precisely the way they wanted to open the showdown. "Winning the first game big like this might give us a psychological edge," said Dennis Leonard, 13-10, who was supported by an 18-hit attack against four Angels pitchers and won for the seventh time in his last nine decisions. "It was my most important win of the year."

Also winning a key contest Monday was Minnesota, which belted Chicago 10-3 to move within three games of California.

Meanwhile, Baltimore reduced its magic number for clinching the East to three with a 2-1 squeaker over Detroit while Milwaukee rallied to beat Seattle 7-6; Boston dropped out of the East race after splitting a doubleheader with Toronto, losing 5-4, then winning 5-3; Cleveland swept two from New York 5-1 and 6-5, and Texas topped Oakland 6-3.

Kansas City fashioned its victory behind an onslaught that saw every starter get at least one hit. Darrell Porter and Al Cowens each knocked in four runs, Porter boosting his season RBI total to a career-high 102 with a three-run homer in the seventh. Pete LaCock also homered for the Royals.

Twins 10, White Sox 3
Minnesota scored five times in the fifth with the benefit of just one hit, a two-run triple by Oombo Rivera. A bases-loaded walk, a wild pitch and a sacrifice fly knocked in the other runs.

Ken Landreaux had his 14th homer for the Twins.

Orioles 2, Tigers 1
Scott McGregor outpitched Milt Wilcox while Al Bumbry and Ken Singleton homered for the Orioles. McGregor, 12-5, gave up eight hits and the Tigers got their run in the ninth on Lynn Jones' sacrifice fly.

Wilcox had a five-hitter but was victimized by Bumbry's sixth homer in the eighth and Singleton's 35th in the ninth.

Brewers 7, Mariners 6
Paul Molitor belted a three-run homer with one out in the ninth to boost Milwaukee to victory. A five-run fifth for Seattle had given the Mariners a 6-2 lead, but Gorman Thomas' two-run single in the eighth brought the Brewers into striking range.

Blue Jays 5-3, Red Sox 4-5

Boston was mathematically eliminated from the East race with the split.

The Red Sox handed Toronto the opener in the ninth inning. One-out singles by Rick Bosetti and J.J. Cannon preceded a double off the left-center field wall by Rick Cerone. Cerone went too far rounding second and Boston catcher Mike O'Berry tried to throw him out. O'Berry's peg sailed into center field and Cerone scored the winning run.

Fred Lynn and Jim Rice each hit home runs No. 38 in the nightcap. Lynn's a two-run shot and Rice's a three-run job.

Indians 5-6, Yankees 1-5

Rick Waits threw a five-hitter in the opener and Mike Har- grove ripped a run-scoring triple in the bottom of the ninth of the nightcap to lead the Cleveland sweep. Jerry Narron, Bucky Dent and Reggie Jackson homered in the second contest for New York while Toby Harrah and Andre Thornton had consecutive homers for Cleveland.

Rangers 6, A's 3

Buddy Bell and Pat Putnam drove in two runs apiece and Jim Kern registered his 27th save for Texas.

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Buddy Bell drove in two runs with a first-inning single and teammate Pat Putnam also drove in two runs as the Texas Rangers beat the Oakland A's 6-3 Monday night.

Texas starter Steve Comer, 16-10, allowed four hits over six innings and reliever Jim Kern pitched the final three innings to earn his 27th save.

Putnam, the Ranger's designated hitter, hit his 18th home run of the year leading off the second against Oakland starter Mike Morgan, 2-9. Putnam tied Bell for the club homer lead and made the score 3-1.

Al Oliver doubled home a run and Putnam had an RBI single in the fifth. The Rangers completed their scoring with a sacrifice fly in the sixth by Bump Willis.

The A's Rickey Henderson hit Comer's first pitch of the game over the left-field fence for his first major league homer. Henderson had three of Oakland's seven hits and also scored in the sixth on a double by Dave Revere.

Daniels Gains Yardage

The Brand photographer and an official had the same view in this action from Friday night's game between Hereford and Amarillo Palo Duro. Hereford tight-end Scott Daniels [85] took a short pass and made a big gain on the play pictured above. The Herd's Keith Adams [2] also caught three passes in the 10-6 Whiteface victory, but the Hereford defense earned much of the credit in the triumph. The Whitefaces are home again this Friday, taking an unbeaten Borger.

Pirates Top Expos, Take 1-Game Lead

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

Before starting against Montreal, Pittsburgh's Don Robinson found an autographed picture of Expos slugger Tony Perez hanging from his locker with the inscription: "See you in September."

"I don't know who put it there," said the 22-year-old pitcher. "I know that Tony has given me a lot of trouble at the plate and I guess someone wanted to remind me." Perez didn't give Robinson too much trouble Monday night, though. As a matter of fact, neither did many other of the other Montreal hitters as the right-hander spun a six-hit, 2-1 victory in the opening of a key series between the National League East leaders.

Robinson was pumped up not only by Perez needle, but by the ear-splitting noise of the crowd, it seemed.

"When they announced Montreal's starting lineup, I was warming up in the bullpen and I couldn't hear myself think because of the roar of the crowd," said Robinson. "Then, before the ninth inning, they were roaring again - but they just seemed to get me up a little more. I started to throw the ball a little faster."

The performance was a vindication of sorts for the young pitcher.

"I was hoping that I would prove myself with the game on the line tonight because later the east had a chance to do a similar job against Philadelphia and I didn't pitch well," he said.

Houston, meanwhile, chopped Cincinnati's NL West lead with a 1-0 decision over San Diego while the Reds were losing 7-4 to San Francisco.

Elsewhere, Los Angeles defeated Atlanta 9-4 and Philadelphia turned back St. Louis 7-5.

Dave Parker provided Robinson, 8-6 with the two runs he needed by stroking run-scoring singles in the third and fifth innings against Steve Rogers, 13-10.

Giants 7, Reds 4

Roger Metzger's two-run triple capped a five-run first inning that carried San Francisco over Cincinnati. The first four Giants singled off Mike LaCoss, 14-7. Bill North singled; took second on a balk and went to third when shortstop Dave Concepcion dropped LaCoss' throw on a pickoff attempt.

After Joe Strain singled, Mike Ivie hit an RBI single. Darrell Evans followed with another RBI single and Ivie scored the inning's third run on a wild pitch. After Larry Herndon was walked intentionally, Metzger cracked his seventh triple of the season.

Vida Blue, 13-13, scattered 11 hits, including Johnny Bench's 20th home run in the second inning.

Dodgers 9, Braves 4

Joe Ferguson hit two home runs and Steve Garvey and Dusty Baker had one apiece to lead Los Angeles over Atlanta as the Braves' Phil Niekro absorbed his 20th loss.

Ferguson hit his 19th homer in the second inning when the Dodgers scored five runs, four of them unearned. Bill Russell's bases-loaded double accounted for two of the runs.

Garvey, who needs 10 hits to reach 200 for the fifth time in his career, hit his 26th homer leading off the fifth. Baker hit his 23rd in the seventh, a two-run shot, and Ferguson had a solo blast in the ninth.

Phillies 7, Cardinals 5

Manny Trillo raced home from third on third baseman Ken Reitz' error with two out in the ninth inning and Garry Maddox followed with a run-scoring single as the Philadelphia Phillies rallied for three runs to beat St. Louis.

Philadelphia left-hander Sheve Carlton, 16-11, gained the victory. Tug McGraw pitched a scoreless ninth inning to earn his 16th save.

Astros Clip Padres As Niekro Shines

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Joe Niekro of the Houston Astros is knocking on the door of his first 20-win season in his 12-year major league career, and he owes no small debt of thanks to the San Diego Padres.

The knuckle-balling Niekro, 19-10, recorded his fifth shutout of the year Monday night when he stifled the Padres 1-0. It was also his fifth victory over San Diego in 1979 and boosted his lifetime mark against his former team to 13-4.

"I like to pitch against the Padres," said Niekro, who spent part of the 1969 season in San Diego. "When I face them, I'm pitching in the two parks I like best, the Astrodome and San Diego Stadium."

"I didn't have the good knuckler tonight," he continued. "I had to pinpoint my slider and my fastball."

The Padres could manage just six hits off the 34-year-old right-hander, who was making his fifth try for his 19th win. Now he must contemplate getting the magic number 20 at a time when every victory is magic for Houston.

The Astros gained one game on first place Cincinnati Monday night and trail the Reds by 1 1/2 games in the National League West standings.

"Getting that 20th is like the football team on the one-yard line," he said. "winning the 20th would be icing on the cake. This team has come a long way and we want to win it."

Young Bob Ojchinko, 5-11, pitched a masterful game himself, allowing the Astros only five hits and not walking a batter.

"But I messed up on (Rafael) Landestoy, and it cost me the game."

Landestoy, who came to Houston last year in a trade with the Los Angeles Dodgers, belted a ninth-inning leadoff triple and scored the only run on Cesar Cedeño's sacrifice fly.

"I hit a fastball up and outside. It was a very good pitch," said Landestoy, who is riding a 12-game hitting streak.

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Officials for SEDCO, Inc., the Dallas-based oil well drilling firm founded by Gov. Bill Clements, startled a congressional committee last week when they revealed that Mexican oil company officials failed to heed advice which might have prevented the massive oil spill still blackening the Texas coastline.

SEDCO had leased the oil rig to a Mexican drilling firm, Pemargo, which had the contract from the Mexican government-owned oil company, PEMEX.

Stephen Mahood, SEDCO vice president and general counsel, testified the company advised against the drilling practice but were ignored by Pemargo and PEMEX officials.

Specifically, they were advised by SEDCO men to pump seawater into the well to prevent the oil blowout, and later, were advised against removing the drill pipe from the well, Mahood testified.

Seeks Immunity
Three days following the congressional committee hearing, SEDCO attorneys asked a Galveston federal judge to declare the drilling firm free from liability for damages from the oil spill.

The company also asked as an alternative that the judge limit any liability for damages against SEDCO to $300,000, the amount the firm would have earned from the lease of the rig to Mexico.

U.S. District Judge Robert O'Connor signed an interim order protecting the company from any liability and set Oct. 23 as the deadline for filing any claims against the company.

SEDCO's request surprised Texas Attorney General Mark White, who is investigating the cause of the spill. White said he has stronger suspicions that the company ordered the drilling rig scuttled a month after the blowout to destroy evidence.

Emergency Appropriations
Meanwhile, at a Capitol press conference last week a Texas coastline legislator announced he will ask Clements to include an emergency appropriation for revitalization.

Sugar's gone hard

DEAR POLLY — How can I soften confectioner's sugar? It has been kept in an airtight container but still is as hard as a rock. I hate to throw it away. — Joan

DEAR JOAN — Have you tried a rolling pin? I have never had powdered sugar harden as yours has but if it did I would try putting it in a wire strainer and crushing the lumps. How about this, readers? — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — To remove rust from the chrome on the car we use mud from the back yard. Gently rub it on the chrome, rinse well and the chrome will shine like new. — SADIE

DEAR POLLY — Do tell Frank that rust stains can be removed from porcelain with a pumice stone that can be bought at a plumbing supply house. — B.W.S.

DEAR POLLY — Instead of using fluid starter in your barbecue try briquets dipped in paraffin. To prepare them melt one bar of paraffin in the top of a double boiler and then pour the warm paraffin into cardboard egg cartons. Fill each pocket half full and then place a briquet in each one. When the paraffin cools and sets break the pockets apart and store the treated briquets in a cool place until needed. — MRS. T.H.

Dear Readers — Do handle the paraffin with care. Hot paraffin can give one a serious burn. — POLLY

DEAR POLLY — To rid jars, cups, vases, etc. of foul odors I lay them on their sides for a few days and the odor leaves.

I put a little salad dressing on a facial tissue and remove any dust from my house plants. They look pretty and glossy.

When I scorch food I am cooking on top of the stove I run cold water in the sink and leave this pan of food in the water for a few minutes. The loose food is then poured into another pan and the rest is scrubbed away. There is no burnt taste to the food that is saved. — HELEN

DEAR POLLY — I bought a lot of books at a sale and like those that L.M. has they had a terrible odor. I tried all sorts of things and nothing worked. Finally one warm sunny day I took them out on the patio and stood them up so the sun and breeze could reach all the pages. I brought them in before the evening air got damp and repeated this every day for a week.

Each day the odor lessened. Some were fresh smelling in the week's time and others had to be put out several days more — this was especially true of the thicker books. When the days were not so breezy I put sticks between groups of pages so the sun and air could get through them. — JANE

HEALTH
Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.
A healthy sausage

DEAR DR. LAMB — I read your column regularly and need some assistance. I was recently diagnosed as having low blood sugar and the doctor suggested that I eat protein snacks between meals as well as high-protein meals.

I do feel better but have gained weight and now feel like a healthy sausage. I would like to know what I can eat that will give me the needed protein without the increase in weight.

DEAR READER — I wonder how many of my readers have ever questioned the popular concept that a high-protein diet causes you to lose weight when people like you tend to gain weight when they eat proteins.

The truth is that proteins are just carbohydrates and fats with ammonia attached to them. The ammonia part of the amino acids in the protein is simply stripped off and the excess protein becomes fat and carbohydrate. The extra ammonia is converted to urea and eliminated in your urine.

There are plenty of high-protein foods that are relatively low in fat. The problem is that many people choose foods that they have been told are high in protein but that also contain lots of fat and therefore lots of calories. A good example is whole milk; about half its calories really come from fat.

Meat is an excellent source of protein but you must use lean meats if you want to avoid a lot of fat calories. A good example would be lean round steak with all the visible fat removed.

Chicken breasts or turkey breasts are good sources of protein without fat, particularly if you remove the skin. The purpose of the high-protein meals and snacks is that they empty more slowly from the stomach than are carbohydrates, particularly the concentrated carbohydrates such as sugar. They are absorbed a little slower. As a result, they don't tend to raise your blood sugar and cause you to have rebound low blood sugar reactions.

You can accomplish the same results by being sure your diet contains more bulk. This should come from the bulky vegetables such as leafy salads or raw vegetables. You can even use raw apples since they're fibrous, slowly digested and won't raise your blood sugar very much.

To give you a better understanding of what low blood sugar really is and what you should be doing about a diet, I'm sending you The Health Letter number 3-9, Low Blood Sugar: Hypoglycemia. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents in check or coin with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

In the final analysis, you will gain weight if you consume too many calories, whether these calories come from fats, sweets, protein or alcohol. If you eat quite a few calories at meals and snack between meals, you can expect to get too many calories.

In your case, I suggest that you review the foods you're been eating to be sure they are truly protein foods with limited fat content.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My college-age son is very concerned about his hair which is getting thin on top of his head. His twin brother has a heavy head of hair. I've heard that this is inherited. I was told by someone that mixing a tablespoon of cod liver oil with a third of a cup of milk and taking this one hour before breakfast is supposed to be of help. What do you think about this suggestion or what help can you recommend?

DEAR READER — I don't think very much about that suggestion. In fact I'll try to forget it as soon as possible.

Anyone who has unexplained baldness at an early age should see a dermatologist. There are many causes for loss of hair. It can be associated with a poor diet as occurs in people who are on fat, crash diets. It can occur after an operation, after an acute illness and from certain diseases of the scalp itself.

The common cause of baldness, particularly in young men, is male pattern baldness. Each hair follicle has its own set of genes that are inherited. As a result, some follicles have an inherited characteristic to produce a particular form of testosterone or male hormone. These hair follicles don't really lose the hair but it becomes very fine and rudimentary, sort of like peach fuzz which doesn't do much to give you a full head of hair.

DEAR DR. LAMB — My husband and I read your column and wondered if you had any advice about our son. He is an exhibitionist. We discovered this when he was 16 years old and now he's 27. We've exhausted our funds and life savings on psychiatric treatment and lawyers and tried to keep him out of jail. Now we're getting older and there's no solution in sight. He's no better. In fact the whole family is in a state of turmoil.

We don't know what to do. He's very sensitive and he loves his family. In all the past psychiatric treatments, they could induce hypnosis, and he got his problem almost to the surface and then he would freeze up. I could go into detail but I doubt you'd have the time for the whole story.

Why isn't the public informed that this is an affliction and not a vulgarity. Even in the courts he's treated like an animal. He gets fired from his job. I'm sure that he would rather have been born blind or deaf or without a limb but unfortunately he wasn't.

What help is available and why isn't this treated from a medical standpoint in the courts? The psychiatrists we've seen tell us that it's not because of some disease of the brain but it's a mental problem brought on by parent and child relationships in childhood. What are your views?

DEAR READER — I have included your letter in the column in hopes that it would help in a small way to improve public understanding of such emotional problems. Such acts are called compulsive behavior and it's not possible for the victim to control these acts. It's generally agreed that it's not associated with disease of the brain, but rather is related to psychological factors. These are rather complex. There are many theories about human behavior but very few concrete facts.

Many individuals with the problem your son has cannot be cured or at least with what we know about treatment of such disorders today they can't be. One of the advantages of psychotherapy is to try to analyze the mechanism and bring an understanding of the mechanism to the patient.

One psychiatric text describes in detail the problem that one such patient had and it was related to automobiles. He rarely exhibited himself except from the car. As long as his life was structured so that he could never be allowed to drive alone, he was unlikely to exhibit himself.

The public needs to know that the exhibitionist is harmless. It is socially embarrassing to see a person exhibit his or her nude body but such individuals are not inclined to attack the person that they exhibit themselves to. Commonly such men are insecure in their masculinity.

I wish I could offer you an immediate solution but the best that you can hope for is continued psychiatric therapy with the hope that the understanding of the mechanism and the factors that seem to trigger it off might lead to a way that the situation can at least be controlled.

Atheists Sue To Prevent Pope's Washington Visit

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Two atheist leaders have filed suit to stop Pope John Paul II — "the crowd plunger" — from saying Mass on a public mall in Washington next month.

They urged atheists and others, including women, gays and blacks, to join them in picketing the pope in Chicago.

One of the reasons the Roman Catholic hierarchy invited the pope to America, Madalyn Murray O'Hair said Monday, was to enhance Sen. Edward Kennedy's political future, presumably for a presidential race.

Ms. O'Hair and her, Jon Garth Murray, said the Roman Catholic Church owns land worth more than $162 billion and "scores of cathedrals" where the pope can celebrate Mass.

The Murrays told a news conference they had filed two lawsuits in federal district court in Washington to stop the pope from conducting mass on the mall between the national Capitol and the Washington Monument on Oct. 7.

Murray, director of the American Atheist Center, and his mother also said they would lead a "peaceful demonstration" against the pope at Chicago's Grant Park on Oct. 5.

How peaceful it is, Murray said, "hinges on the insanity of the Roman Catholic crowd up there." He said law officers had been notified of their intentions to demonstrate.

Their suits state a permit has been granted for the pope to say Mass on the Washington mall Oct. 5. They claim such use of public land is unconstitutional.

The suits were mailed Thursday and name as defendants "Karol Wojtyla, alias John Paul II, a.k.a. the Pope of Rome"; Secretary of the Interior Cecil Andrus and William Whalen, director of the National Park Service.

The suit against the pope seeks $10,001 "in damages for deprivation of atheistic civil libertarian rights." The other suit seeks no specific amount of marijuana came in June 1, 1977. Butler testified, it was unloaded by defendants Hawkins, Foster, Charles Talkington, and Carlos Gerdes. He said he was unsure if Sneed participated.

Butler testified he and Talkington then drove two truckloads of the weed to Newport, Tenn.

She said the trip also was designed to gain support for public aid to parochial schools and for an anti-abortion constitutional amendment.

"It's a power show of the Roman Catholic Church," Ms. O'Hair said. Even if the U.S. Supreme Court said the church could not hold mass, she added,

"they would go ahead and hold mass."

The suit against the pope alleges that use of public land for a mass violates the U.S. Constitution in that it "has no secular purpose, fosters government entanglement with religion, and has the principal effect of advancing religion through the use of U.S. government property."

pope at his scheduled stops, "not counting rumors that he will appear in Los Angeles or San Francisco."

Altars at each of the pope's stops, Murray said, would cost from $150,000 to $700,000.

"This is the first widespread use of public land for a specific religious rite," he said.

He said the Roman Catholic Church is asking member families for "$5 a head," a request that could bring in $50 million tax-free.

He said Pope John Paul II's style might be different than other popes — "He's a crowd plunger" — but his views are the same.

Ms. O'Hair described the pope as "one of the most repressive persons on the national scene in 50 years." She said because of his anti-abortion pronouncements "he should be brought before the United Nations (International Court of Justice) in the Hague and charged with crimes against humanity."

Dope Trial Resumes

BEAUMONT, Texas (AP) — The state's key witness, Willis Judge Butler, will face cross-examination by defense attorneys today on his part in a scheme to smuggle 86 tons of Colombian marijuana into Texas and Tennessee.

Butler testified Monday his job was to drive a truck and help locate boat landing spots in the smuggling ring.

Butler said his first contact with smuggling came in August 1976, when Charles "Muscles" Foster, one of the defendants, told him there was big money in the smuggling business.

He said he and other defendants — Martin Marion Sneed Sr., James Holland, Raymond Eugene Hawkins and Foster — drove to Vinton, La., to confer with a fifth defendant, Thomas Wimberly.

When the first boatload of

Although Butler was named in the original federal indictment listing the crimes, he made an agreement with prosecutors that he would testify for the state for possible government leniency.

Butler, like Talkington, said Foster never paid the amount he promised for their participation in the smuggling operation.

Foster has been missing since December and is listed as a federal fugitive.

U.S. District Judge Joe Fisher ordered reporters from the courtroom four times Monday. Fisher has excluded the press from his courtroom seven times since the trial opened a week ago.

His first exclusion of the day came during testimony by shrimp boat pilot and defendant Robert Hamm, another who plea-bargained for government consideration.

On a motion filed Friday by Robert Ritchie, attorney for Tennessee millionaire John Ruppel, Fisher ordered "the newspapers" from the courtroom before the two sides argued the possible prejudicial quality of testimony the defense felt Hamm was about to present.

After the ouster, Hamm testified about a trip he and his wife made with Ruppel, Gerdes, and their wives to Las Vegas.

Hamm said that during his smuggling involvement he told his wife he was working for the Cauble Oil Co. — owned by Denton rancher and former Texas Aeronautics Commission chairman Rex Cauble.

Just before the noon recess, Fisher cleared the courtroom again.

After the recess, Sneed attorney Michael Matheny Jr. tried to learn the identity of an earlier Hamm smuggling client, but Hamm refused to tell him. The court was cleared again and Fisher halted the line of questioning.

Hamm said he had been granted immunity from prosecution for 20 to 25 felonies involving drug smuggling, not all related to this case. He also said he agreed to cooperate on the condition he not be forced to testify on matters and persons not mentioned in the original indictment.

Mag Article Wins in Court

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — With a champagne toast "to the First Amendment," the staff of the Progressive magazine celebrated a government decision to cancel a court fight against an article on hydrogen bomb secrecy.

"We will publish it just as quickly as we can," publisher

Erwin Knoll said Monday of the article, "The H-Bomb Secret," by free-lance writer Howard Morland.

The next issue is to be mailed to subscribers Oct. 4. Knoll said it is uncertain whether there is time to get the article in that issue.

Heers also went up in the offices of the Madison Press Connection, a small, two-year-old daily that published Sunday an article the government also says contained restricted weapons information.

"I am delighted that the government has done the right thing for once," said Press Connection editor Ron McCrea. "This policy of retroactive classification simply won't wash with the American public or press."

Although it had contended publication could compromise national security, the Justice Department announced Monday that it was dropping two legal efforts to block the articles.

Its suits were against the Progressive and the Daily Californian, a student newspaper at the University of California at Berkeley.

"The reason for the dismissal was the publication of an article containing restricted information concerning thermonuclear weapons information by a newspaper in Madison, Wis.," Terrence Adamson, q2.o2Justice Department spokesman, said in Washington.

He was referring to the Press Connection publication of the letter by Charles Hansen, 32, a computer programmer from Mountain View, Calif., who said studying nuclear weaponry was his hobby.

Adamson, who said the government believes national security may have been hurt by publication of the Hansen information, left open the possibility of criminal prosecution in connection with the article.

The government claims the letter exposes three critical factors of H-bomb construction. The letter cited Morland's claim that the information could be gleaned from public references.

The Justice Department also said it would seek to vacate an order issued late Saturday against the Daily Californian, which had also been planning to publish the Hansen letter.

Morland said his article was not necessarily a blueprint for building H-bombs, but rather an attempt to show that the nuclear industry uses a "myth of secrecy" to keep the public ignorant about nuclear proliferation.

Paul Harvey News

Don't Like the Taste

It's been just a couple of months since the President picked Paul Volcker to head the Federal Reserve Board.

He was to be the Administration hired gun to shoot down inflation.

During Senate confirmation hearings he promised that he would increase interest rates to whatever extent necessary to accomplish that purpose.

Reassured, the stock market rallied.

Now Volcker is doing what he said he would—and the stock market is slumping.

We know there are times when only castor oil will do—but we still don't like the taste of it.

There are many factors contributing to inflation:

—Workers demanding more without producing more means that everything they produce has to cost more.

Government extravagance at home and abroad which produces nothing at all makes money worth less.

People spending more and saving less creates upward pressure on prices.

As chairman of the Fed, Paul Volcker promised to curtail this "overspending" by raising the interest rate on borrowed money.

If you have to pay upwards of 12 percent interest for a home mortgage you are less likely to buy a new home. Indeed, applications for new home building permits decline as a result of this tight money policy.

Volcker is pleading with Congress now to reduce taxes at this time because reduced taxes would leave Americans with more spending money and more spending inevitably drives prices higher. However, none of this medicine tastes good.

And Congress during an election year will be under increasing pressure from back home to cut taxes regardless.

It's terribly tempting for members of Congress to stimulate our nation's economic activity just before an election even though they may be buying your vote with stage money.

Chairman Volcker is trying to counterbalance this influence, trying to convince Congress not to cut taxes, not to initiate wage, price or credit controls which inevitably result in a costly, cumbersome regulatory morass.

He says Americans should be encouraged to save and invest their money by a government reduction of taxes, on those activities.

Presently, on your bank account interest you may pay a 70 percent tax! That does not encourage saving. That encourages spending. And spending creates upward pressure on prices.

If we will curtail our appetite for more money worth less—what's in it for us?

Chairman Volcker believes business inventories will be less by the fourth quarter. Our economy will grow moderately through 1980. And the shrinkage rate of the American dollar—now running 13 percent—may be down to 8½ percent by Christmas.

That's not enough correction but it's the right direction.

Eisenhower Diary Discovered in Kansas

HOUSTON (AP) — In two copyright articles, the Houston Chronicle has reported the discovery of part of a secret wartime diary General Dwight D. Eisenhower ordered destroyed in 1945.

The 22-page typescript was discovered by Francis L. Loewenheim, Rice University historian, in a Columbia University manila envelope in the Eisenhower Library at Abilene, Kan.

Loewenheim said the envelope was among the voluminous personal papers the library received after the 1969 death of the former president and former Columbia University head.

The historian wrote there is little doubt the sentiments Eisenhower recorded and later sought to suppress did represent his deep-seated feelings, particularly about such military figures as Adm. Ernest I. King and Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

"What we have here, in effect, is the real Ike," Loewenheim wrote.

The diary entries were written in the early days of the war, from the time Eisenhower was in the War Department's operations division to the early days as commanding general of the European theater.

Entries made in February and March 1942 were said to have described Eisenhower's mixed views of King, who had become commander in chief of the U.S. fleet in December 1941.

The Feb. 23 entry said King "... is an arbitrary, stubborn type, with too much brains and a tendency toward bullying his juniors! But I think he wants to fight, which is vastly encouraging...."

Then followed this March 10 entry: "One thing that might help win this war is to get someone to shoot King. He's the antithesis of cooperation—a deliberately rude person... which means he's a mental bully...."

Loewenheim wrote that the relations between MacArthur and Eisenhower cooled noticeably while Eisenhower served as a top MacArthur assistant in the Philippines before the war.

While he was head of the Pacific and Far East section of the War Plans Division, Eisenhower's Jan. 13, 1942, diary entry made an "... I've got my fingers crossed" reference to MacArthur.

"I still think he might have made a better showing at the beaches and passes, and certainly he should have saved his planes on Dec. 8—but he's still the hero!!!" the entry added.

On Feb. 8 another entry read: "Another long message on 'strategy' to MacArthur. He sent in one extolling the virtues of the flank offensive. Wonder what he thinks we've been studying for all these years. His lecture would have been good for plebes!"
