

Record Number Examined During Children's Clinic

BY EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer
The Oasis Shrine Children's Clinic set the total number of registered patients at 192, which is a record!

Last year the total was 174. Each child had an average of slightly more than two examinations of some sort throughout the day Saturday.

These children came here for the 13th annual clinic for correction and cure of every type of physical and mental health problems. Many of those present were from out of state.

Jack Williams, president of the local Oasis Shrine, said, "This clinic was started by Dr. L.B. Barnett, in an effort to get a Burns Institute Hospital located in Hereford 13 years ago.

"This effort wasn't successful, but the idea for the children's clinic was and it has continued through the years."

Sponsored by the Oasis Shrine of Hereford, Friona and Dimmitt, the operation of the children's clinic—which is not actually a clinic but more a referral point for proper treatment—stands almost alone in this type of project. To their knowledge, only the Shriners of Pampa have a similar project, "almost entirely for the children in Pampa."

It was not uncommon to see out-of-state license plates on the cars parked at the Hereford Community Center Saturday morning.

"So much of it is donated," Williams said. "We pick up the tab on travel and lodging expense for the specialists who come here from other parts of the state, but the wonderful doctors we have locally donate everything."

Williams reported that they had examined approximately 175 children last year. "But we are not running on numbers. We are trying to get the children here to solve their special problems. When they are examined, the doctors here recommend them to the proper specialists who correct this condition."

The Klhiva Shrine Circus helps finance the clinic here. The circus, postponed on May 10 due to the rains and damp grounds, will appear here on June 3 for two performances at Whiteface Stadium. A matinee performance is scheduled for 3 p.m. and a night performance scheduled for 8 p.m.

Admission price is $1.25. All tickets originally purchased for the May 10 performances will still be good for June 3, it was announced. Additional tickets may be purchased from local Shriners.

While the examinations are free, the expenses nevertheless run high. The total of the day will exceed $5,000.

"There will be a roundtable discussion Saturday night following the examinations," Williams pointed out. "With the doctors and Shriners set to determine how the clinic went—how to improve it in the future. This is the only to see how we are doing, and feel this is very important."

The doctors will also determine how various cases should be handled, and make decisions upon referrals.

The participating doctors have voiced their approval of the Oasis Shrine clinic. They feel that it is definitely a step in the right direction for the future of the child involved.

Physicians participating from out of town were Dr. Jerry Miller, Dallas, radiology; Dr. Dean A. Harris, Dallas, audiology; Dr. Norman Wright, Amarillo, ear, head and neck; Dr. Sellman, Dallas, plastic surgeon; Dr. Maurice Dyer, Amarillo, pediatrics.

Also, Dr. Don Ryan, Denton, speech; Dr. Robert Walker, Dallas, dental surgery; Dr. Tom Nash, Dallas, neurological surgery; Dr. Richard A. Shirley, Dallas, orthopedics; and Dr. J. Elbert Loveless, Lubbock, orthopedics.

Dr. Robert Leachman of Houston, who has had actual experience with heart transplants, was here for cardiology.

The local participating physicians were Dr. Eugene Hendon, Dr. Ron Zimmerman, Dr. Joe B. Whitley, Dr. Wes Owens, Dr. H.A. Caviness, Dr. Milton C. Adams, Dr. G.G. Payne, Dr. H.R. Johnson, Dr. N.L. Ballard, and Dr. M.W. Nobles, Dr. C.E. Rush, Dr. J.H. McCrary, Dr. R. E. Hicks and Dr. A.T. Mims.

The Hereford Lions Club hosted the noon luncheon at the High School Cafeteria for the personnel and some of the patients.

Following a morning breakfast for the doctors at the Jim Hill Hotel, the activities began the Community Center, as most of the doctors made ready for the rounds of examinations at the Hereford Clinic.

Shriners from throughout the area participated in arrangements.

In the Community Center ballroom, the pre-registered children were there with their parents waiting for their names to be called, numbers to be given them, and directed to the proper room or to the proper doctor for further examination.

There were all kinds of children — and all kinds of parents. To a large degree, they were quiet — waiting in strained anticipation. Only the babies and the small ones who really didn't have any idea what might be ahead for them were making any noise.

They had a total of 102 pre-registered children set for examination, when normally there is only 50 or 60, it was reported. At 9 a. m., one of the Shriners said, "If that is any indication, we are going to have a very good turnout."

Shriners proudly wearing the traditional red fez were stationed all through the parking area, directing traffic and acting as escorts into the building and into waiting cars for transportation to the Hereford Clinic.

"This parking lot is not really large enough. . . . The Red Fez was in evidence everywhere. Inside the building, they indicated to each arrival where the proper place was for them to go, and where to wait.

"Is your child pre-registered. . . ?" A traditional question in the rear of the building was: "Has this child ever been here before? This is their very first time?"

"Make a chart. . . . Each child had his own chart. There were a dozen examination classifications on this chart, and the proper ones would be circled pending the examination of each patient.

"We need another doctor. Dr.

Rush is swamped. . . . Some pre-examinations were being made there in the Club Room.

"One of the Rainbow Girls — if you would come in here please. . . ."

"Where are they to go?" "They have to be pre-registered. Otherwise, their own family doctor could treat them.

That is why we didn't have the Brand. They should be examined by their own family doctor first, because it is possible that nothing is wrong with them and they would be wasting their time here. It's hard to get organized at first, but it doesn't take long. . . ."

"They come and go. . . . Looks like there is going to be about 200 kids here to be examined today. . . ."

The "fire truck" was put into action — and there were clowns in action inside the Hereford clinic, as well.

Perhaps there was more noise inside the main Hereford Clinic waiting room than there had been at the Community Center. But not bad.

"Everything is going real good. . . ."

New Feed Mill Is To Be Built Here

The contract for a major new feed mill just outside Hereford has been awarded to Thompson & Gill, Inc. of Madera, California.

Carl Gill, vice-president of TECO announced this week that his firm will break ground on a new plant for Pitman-Easley Industries, Incorporated. The facility will have an initial capacity for 15,000 head, expandable later to 25,000 head with added steam rolls.

The plant will be located 15 miles west of Hereford, and 1/4 mile from the present Pitman-Easley mill which is feeding 35,000 head. Completion is anticipated for October 1st. Construction costs are quoted to be in excess of a quarter million dollars.

The new plant will use TECO components throughout, advises

Gill, who has been a frequent business visitor to the Hereford area in recent months. Units planned for the installation include JEMCO airlifts, TECO-Flowcon weigh belt systems, fat and molasses tanks, TECO mixers, etc. The yards will have a permanently installed TECO hydraulic cattle squeeze.

A contract for the steel storage tanks has been let out to Fab-Steel of Clovis, New Mexico. Other components will be fabricated at the Thompson & Gill plant in Madera, Calif. and shipped to Hereford for erection by Kimble & McGuire Contractors of Amarillo.

Design of the plant is being completely handled by TECO said Gill with pride. Several major innovations will be featured in the design and construction. These include a continuous low mixing system utilizing belts. There will also be a new system for facilitating the flow of flaked grains from the storage bins.

Fire Damages Home Thursday

Damage to the Walter Lewis home, 419 Western was expected to run about $2,000 as the result of a fire there about 9 p.m. Thursday.

All units of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department responded to the call when the fire broke out in the kitchen of the home. The blaze was centered around the stove, but there was smoke damage throughout the home.

Rites Pending For Arthur Tijerina

A funeral with full military honors is scheduled for Private First Class Arthur C. Tijerina at St. Anthony's Catholic Church. The date of the funeral is pending the arrival of his body, which will possibly arrive in Hereford on Monday, according to a survivor officer of the U. S. Army.

His last rites will be read by Father John Broderick of St. Joseph's Mission.

PFC Tijerina was killed in Vietnam on May 10 from wound received while on combat operation when hit by enemy hostile sniper fire. No other details were released at this time.

Previous information from the Army revealed that Tijerina was assigned to the 25th Infantry Division which was stationed near Cu Chi. This information was dated May 2.

Tijerina has become the second casualty of the war in Vietnam from Deaf Smith County. The first Casualty, Lt. James E. Pavlicek, an Army helicopter pilot, died in action on November 3, 1967. Tijerina was with an armored unit. Tijerina was home on leave with his parents at 315 Norton in Hereford during the Easter holidays in April. He had been in Vietnam only two weeks at the time of his death.

Relatives and friends of Arthur described him as being an average person, who was well liked and "was the kind who couldn't possibly have had an enemy in the world." He had been a student at St. Anthony's School and was a graduate of Hereford High School in 1967. Twenty-one years old, he was born at Cotton Center, Texas, near Plainview.

His father, an employee at Rinauer and Sons, Inc., had been given assistance by his son, who drove a truck there for a time, prior to entering the Army on November 6, 1967.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto G. Tijerina, and two brothers and two sisters, Ernesto, Jr., Sylvia Velasquez, Elvira Jimenez, Rita Jimenez, and John, all of Hereford.

English Girl Set For HHS

Margaret Sharon Watson, an 18-year-old girl from Sale, Cheshire, England, will be a student at Hereford High School beginning in September on an American Field Service International Scholarship Award.

Sharon — the name she prefers to use — will stay in the home of the Grant Hannas, northwest of Hereford. The Hannas have two daughters of their own, Joette who is at home and Cynthia who is in college.

Sharon is expected to arrive in New York on September 1, and will come directly to Hereford via plane.

The eighteen-year-old has given a history of herself: "My parents were married in August 1947. Three years later I was born — on February 21, 1950. When I arrived, I already had a sister, Catherine, who was born on August 18, 1948.

"I started school when I was four and a half, my school being Lime Tree Primary. My sister had been there a year by the time I went, but the following year we both had to leave when our parents moved house. We didn't move far away, only to our grandparents' house, because my grandmother had died and my grandfather could not live alone.

"Catherine and I then attended Urban Road Primary School, where we stayed until we went into our Secondary School. We both attended Ashton-on-Mersey School for five years. In our respective fifth years, we were both prefects. Up until now our school lives had been the same, but after our fifth year Catherine went to the North Cheshire College of Further Education for catering, and I transferred to the Grammar School — after getting five G. C. E.'s and five R. S. A.'s, so that I could take 'A' Levels.

"In my fifth year at Secondary School, I took General Certificate of Education in history, maths, biology, English language, and English literature. I also studied geography and Domestic Science. During my first year in the Sixth Form at Sale Grammar School, I took additional G. C. E.'s in geography and Domestic Science, as well as starting my 'A' Level G. C. E. studies in history and Scripture. I also studied general subjects such as English, maths, Greek literature, civics, current events and music and art appreciation, so as to enable me to take General Paper G. C. E. at the end of my second year, in the sixth.

"The last year in the sixth is being spent pursuing studies at 'A' Level and general studies. I am also taking needlework G. C. E., as well as studying for an exam in speed writing.

"In and out of school I have tried my hand at many sports. Secondary school, I played for a played hockey (at my first Secondary school, I played for a time in the Senior Hockey Team netball, volleyball, rounders, badminton, tennis, athletics, including running, long jump, javelin and hurdles. Continued From Page One
I have taken part in fencing roller skating, ice skating, ten-pin bowling and swimming. I enjoy sports where I can meet people, and I get particular enjoyment out of skating and bowling.

"I am not very musical but I have attempted to play a variety of instruments, when I was younger, I played the violin for a while. I also played the recorder and at the moment I am learning to play the piano.

"Since I was about eight years old, I have been having lessons in elocution and have passed several exams in the subject. I have also entered speech competitions, and a few years ago I won a cup at the Heaton Mersey Youth Festival. I have also won several second prizes for speech, including one for a dramatic recital.

"Drama is my second love. I have played in two full-scale productions at school. In 'Quality Street' I played Miss Willoughby and in 'Sister Bonaventure' I played the part of Sister Josephine.

"I have also been in some small-scale productions. Because of this interest in drama, I have applied for a drama course organized by Cheshire Education. I was accepted on the course and so spent two weeks at Crewe Training College studying different aspects of drama.

"My other interests include reading — especially historical novels — cooking — which I enjoy — and dressmaking. I make most of my own clothes and some for my mother and sister. I also enjoy running the Junior Scripture Union at school.

"If I have any time to spare at the weekends and during holidays, I like to go hiking in the countryside — a sport in which all of my family participates. I like especially visiting the historical places in Britain, such as Stratford or any of the lately homes.

"A few years ago, I went with my sister to London for a holiday and visited many of the historical places in and around London. I enjoyed it very much and hope to go back for another visit soon. Most years we go to Wales for our holidays, although we do like to visit other parts of the country when we get the opportunity. During weekends and shorter holidays we like to go for days up and down the country. "During the school terms, I do not go out a lot in the week, but at the weekends I go dancing or skating with friends. Sunday is usually spent doing school homework and going to church in the evening. When I am at home, I like to tape-record records, especially popular music which I like. I also like orchestral music, which I like to listen to when I am reading. "After this year at school, I hope to go to a teachers training college, in order that I might teach junior-secondary children, and specializing in history and either Scripture or sociology. "All my life — almost — I have wanted to be a teacher, and my parents encourage me in my ambition. "Both my sister and I have had pen friends in the United States, and this is how I first formed the idea that I would like to go to America. My pen friend was always telling me about her life in America and I was so interested, particularly in the school system, that I have wanted to go and see for myself ever since."

Written before she realized that she would have this opportunity to come to America, she added, "I feel that if I could go, I would make the best of a scholarship and take a broad interest in everything around me. And I know that I could gain a lot from a visit to the United States, as well as give a wide view of life in England."

Sharon's religious affiliation is in the Church of England. Her father is a 'flour milling operator' at Sale, and her mother is a housewife.

Adult Education Classes Continue

The Adult Education Arts and Crafts class plans to continue throughout the summer, it was announced by the Hereford School Administration.

Tentative plans are to meet two days per week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Registration fee is $15. Those desiring to register for the course may do so at the assistant superintendent's office at the School Administration building at 700 Union.

The Arts and Crafts course will be taught by Mrs. Julie Wert. It is designed to give classroom teachers, campfire leaders, housewives, summer camp instructors, and others, the skills and techniques of working with papier mache, wood carving, origami (art of Japanese paper folding), poster making, bulletin boards, lettering, decoupage, hanging lamps, and many other areas that will aid in decorating the home, banquet tables, the classroom, and will give individuals a hobby in making gifts.

Some of the immediate projects planned for this popular course, the administration office reported, include that of making Christmas stockings, reindeer animals, grape clusters, wax dipped flowers, burlap flowers, candles, formafilm (shaped wires dipped in liquid plastic), and marble and crystal works, together with the projects listed above.

Hereford High School was first occupied in January 1926.

Valuable Books Are Placed In Dimmitt Library

Field Service Division of the Texas State Library in Austin announces the placement of a collection of 110 reference books, valued at over $1,000, in the Castro County Library, Dimmitt.

This excellent basic reference collection has been placed in the Castro County Library on the recommendation of the field consultant serving the public libraries of this area of the state for the Texas State Library, Mrs. Rosalyne Shamblin.

The Castro Public Library was selected as the library to receive this collection because of the outstanding progress the library has made. The board has worked with the Texas State Library consultant in securing outside help to catalog the collection after weeding by the board.

The librarian conducts a radio story hour in Dimmitt and participated in a workshop on public relations held in Amarillo. The local library publicity program was also commended. Such incentive grants are made from time to time by the State Library Field Services Division in an effort to encourage better local support for public library service.

Mother Of City Resident Buried

Funeral service for Mrs. Asusa Martinez, mother of Mrs. Paul Abalos, 607 Lee, were conducted Saturday morning in Long Beach, Calif., where she died earlier this week while on a visit there.

Mrs. Martinez was a resident of Ruidosa, Texas. She had visited in her daughter's home here and was acquainted with a number of Hereford residents. In addition to Mrs. Abalos, survivors include five daughters and two sons.

FUNGUS COULD CAUSE THE TROUBLE

Brown patch a fungus which attacks St. Augustine lawns during the spring and fall seasons, could be the troublemaker for homeowners experiencing grass troubles. Dr. C. W. Horne, Extension plant pathologist, suggests an application of PCNB (Terraclor) as soon as the disease is identified. It is characterized by a circular pattern in the lawn. The fungus kills only the leaves and normally does not attack the stolons.

Herd Lines

By Marshall Day

The need for more members was brought to light at the final meeting of the school year for the Hereford Whiteface Booster Club and some steps need to be taken in regard to the number of persons who participated through the past year.

A handful of men, somewhere in the neighborhood of 15, took on the duties and responsibilities for the past year and they alone were the nucleus of the entire organization. These men, though the membership was considerably higher than the number who contributed to it's cause, led the battle through the past year and somehow, through determination and belief in the cause of the organization, were able to make available to the athletic department and cheerleaders over $2,000 this year for their use.

What really digs deep is that quite a number of these men do not have children in the athletic program, but are still putting out the effort to help the local athletic program. Some of them at one time may have had a boy in the program, but due to graduation do not now, but they are still giving their time to the club. Others may not have ever had a boy in the program, but they too are still helping.

Makes little sense that these few men should carry the weight of the entire athletic program when there are others who could give a helping hand, doesn't it?

These men have set a goal for 300-350 members for the coming year, but they feel that the membership dues are of little significance if that is all they will be able to get out of the members. Work, participation and enthusiasm are what really count and what the club wants.

This club is not a select group, as it deals with people from all walks of life and makes no barrier in regard to a person's sex, or livelihood. What it is for is to promote the current athletic program and to improve and help it in any way they can. This is not just for athletes parents, as has been pointed out, but for every interested person in the community, and it seems there should be more people sharing the load with the handful who have done it in the past.

And while we are on the subject of baseball(??), it seems that while parents are very eager for their sons to participate in the summer program, there just isn't enough time for them (the parents) to take off to try and organize the American Legion baseball team, as is the case this summer.

One parent showed up at the meeting for the organization of this team last week while other persons went about their merry way thinking others would do the job for them. Well, this is not the case entirely, there are those who can not attend due to other more serious matters, but still one person can not do it all by himself. If something isn't done soon, parents will be faced with a son who could become a pro prospect left out in the cold.

Doesn't sound to enlightening does it?

What Does A Father Say To His Son Before His First Game?

This is your first game, son. I hope you win. I hope you win for your sake not mine. Because winning's nice. It's a good feeling. Like the whole world is yours. But it passes, this feeling. And what lasts is what you've learned.

And what you learn about is life. That's what sports is all about. Life. The whole thing is played out in an afternoon. The happiness of life. The miseries. The joys. The heartbreaks.

There's no telling what'll turn up. There's no telling whether they'll toss you out in the first five minutes or whether you'll stay for the long haul.

There's no telling how you'll do. You might be a hero or you might be absolutely nothing. There's just no telling. Too much depends on chance. On how the ball bounces.

I'm not talking about the game, son. I'm talking about life. But it's life that the game is all about. Just as I said.

Because every game is life. And life is a game. A serious one. Dead serious.

But that's what you do with serious things. You do your best. You take what comes. You take what comes and you run with it.

Winning is fun. Sure. But winning is not the point. Wanting to win is the point. Not giving up is the point. Never being satisfied with what you've done is the point. Never letting up is the point. Never letting anyone down is the point.

Play to win. Sure. But lose like a champion. Because it's not winning that counts. What counts is trying.

In semi-final action, Hill downed Maxwell 60-40, and 71-47 to gain the finals berth against Johnson as he tipped Williams 40-35 and 92-14. Hill took the first place trophy as in the finals he nudged Johnson 61-33 and 51-38.

West collected the consolation trophy as he fought his way through three other consolation bracket players and defeated Henderson in the final game 44-40 and 62-33.

Clarence Beauford, manager of B&B Recreation Club, has announced that he plans to have a tournament of this sort ever two or three months.

Herd Nips Dumas In Final Contest

Behind the five-hit pitching of Lynn Betts, the Hereford Whiteface baseball team ended the season by blasting the district champion Dumas Demons by a score of 5-2, Friday afternoon.

Playing on the Demon's home field, the locals were not to be denied scoring as four consecutive hits along with a walk pushed one run across the plate in the early moments of game play. After getting the first taste of blood, the Whitefaces surged ahead for more and got just that as they tallied three more runs before they were retired holding a 4-0 lead. Neither team scored in the top or bottom of the second frame, but the Herd came back in the top of the third to add another run to their mounting score. Taking a 5-0 lead into the bottom of the frame, the Herd defense held tight but the host team did manage a run as they trailed 5-1 going into the fourth.

The Whitefaces were held scoreless the rest of the game, but this proved nothing as Betts' pitching held the Demons to one last run in the bottom of the fourth. The score stood at 5-2 throughout the rest of the contest though both teams did threaten on several occasions.

The Herd ended season play with an over-all record of 11 wins and 8 losses and in district they split with four wins and four losses.

RODEO ACTION — Bareback bronc riding was one of the features at the annual Hereford Rodeo which was held last weekend. Stock for the rodeo was furnished by Ratjen Rodeo Company of Happy and Mansfield.

Clinic . . .

Some doctors were looking over x-rays. All doctors were using their best "bedside manners."

"You don't have a millimeter gauge, do you . . . ?" Reports were being typed out all over the place.

"There has been one cardiograph after the other today. If we can help just one child, it is worth it."

And that was sincere. The men with the red fez had actually placed themselves in the background. The stars of the show were the children who are being helped through the Oasis Shrine Children's Clinic — year after year.

Minnie Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cox, was Deaf Smith County's first white bride on record. She was married to Cal Walker on Jan. 14, 1890.

Again, to each of you, a tremendous THANKS for all that you have done.

Some people plant flowers in the spring

But then what does a flower have that a gas light doesn't? Flowers brighten up your yard. So does a gas light. After you install a gas light, it might be the first time you've seen your flowers at night.

Flowers come in different sizes and shapes. So do gas lights designed to lend distinction to any landscape. Take your pick. If they're taken care of just right, flowers will bloom the whole season. A gas light blooms year 'round, and requires absolutely no care.

Flowers have a wonderful fragrance. You've got us there. A gas light doesn't have an odor at all. But we know you'll overlook that, since a gas light has so many other nice features.

New lower prices on the '68 models are in effect through July 31st. Prices start at $52.70 cash (includes installation and tax) or only $2.00 per month.

Pretty inexpensive when you consider how many springs it will last. Plant a gas light this spring. Buy a PATIO PAIR (One gas light and one gas barbecue grill) and save $26.00. Prices start at $103.70 (includes installation and tax) or $4.00 per month.

STUDY CLUB LEADERS — With Miss Gladys Setliff as president, officers of Hereford Study Club for next season were installed at a supper Thursday evening. From left, standing, are Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon, treasurer; Miss Setliff; Mrs. Art Stoy, secretary; Mrs. W. M. Gentry, reporter; and seated, Mrs. Johnny Clark, historian, and Mrs. N. D. Bartlett, vice president. Mrs. Kenneth Fanning, not pictured, is the new corresponding secretary and Mrs. R. N. Yarbro, who directed the installation, is parliamentarian.

By MELVIN YOUNG
Have you heard the one about the man who was training his dog to live without food? He almost had him trained but the dog died.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dziuk Sr. have just returned from a trip to San Antonio and the HemisFair and report seeing only one other couple from Hereford there. Believe that was Mr. and Mrs. Owen Seamands. However, Mrs. Dziuk was rather surprised when she visited the Polish settlement pavilion and discovered a picture of her mother Mrs. Felix Urbanczyk and an aunt, Mrs. Ben Urbanczyk hanging in a display case. The picture was made about 1910 near White Deer and the ladies were standing over a fox with shotgun in hand "really haming it up." It was published in Volume I of A TIME TO PURPOSE: A Chronicle of Carson County, October 1966.

"It's quite a surprise," Mrs. Dziuk said, "to find photographs of relatives at a place like this, particularly one's mother," and she was quite pleased. Mrs. Dziuk's family, the Urbanczyks migrated to the Texas Panhandle from Indianola, near Houston, where the first large group of Polish settlers landed in 1854. This branch of the family are descendants of Anton Urbanczyk, who was seven years old when the Polish people landed at Indianola.

The family, and many other Polish families eventually migrated to an area in the Texas Panhandle where White Deer is now located, and began a Polish settlement there.

that the Dziuks did not see more people from Hereford at the fair. The last time we made a trip to San Antonio, we encountered Hereford people at almost every turn. But wait until school is out, and you can bet there will be more.

By the time you read this, both the Hereford Kiwanis Club's big event, and the Oasis Shrine Children's clinic will be history. And we're betting that both events will have been a tremendous success. The Kiwanians of course, have been entertaining their District Governor, C. H. "Slim" Livermon, who hails from Oklahoma City. Livermon is Governor of the Texas-Oklahoma District Kiwanis International, which covers quite a bit of territory. We sincerely hope that he enjoyed his stay in Hereford.

The Oasis Shrine Club's business, is a little more on the serious side. The Shriners have, for a number of years, put on a free clinic for children, bringing in some of the finest medical specialists known in this country, and through their efforts, countless youngsters have been helped to regain their health and lead normal or near normal lives. These doctors, nurses, Shriners and everyone else connected with the deal, donate their time. Their only reward is in knowing that they helped some child. It is indeed a blessing that our nation has so many who will do so much to help their fellow man — and we find this particularly true whereas children are concerned.

The "Poor People's March" on Washington will no doubt accomplish it's purpose. There is going to be a lot more of us poor before we get through paying the tax bill to clean up the mess in their new "shanty town."

And then there's the story about the cowboy who gazed down in contempt at the heard of buffalo which he was guarding. "Buffalo!" he moaned. "The mangiest, nastiest, dirtiest bunch of critters I ever did see!" One buffalo turned to another and said sadly, "Well, there it is, the thing I thought I'd never hear — a discouraging word!"

Former Resident Is Top Educator

Robert Lamm, 31, former Hereford resident, recently was named Outstanding Young Educator of Tucumcari, N. M., by the Tucumcari Jaycees. A graduate of Hereford High School, Lamm, received his B. S. degree in 1959 from West Texas State University where he majored in sociology and minored in speech. He also attended Texas University at Austin, and in 1964 obtained his teacher certification from Eastern New Mexico University. He also served about 2 1/2 years with the U. S. Air Force.

Lamm is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. (Bob) Lamm of Safford, Ariz., who also are teachers. He and his wife, Sandra, have two sons and a daughter. Lamm has taught in Tucumcari since 1965.

Cooperative Effort To Aid Children

"THAT'S A GOOD ONE!" — Or so little Lloyd Lombard of Perryton thought during his talk with Dr. Walker of Dallas, Saturday during the Oasis Shrine Children's Clinic. This scene was taken at the Hereford Clinic.

BUSY DOCTORS — Dr. M. W. Nobles of Hereford (left) and Dr. Jerry Miller, a radiologist from St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas, look over some of the many X-rays of children Saturday at the Hereford Clinic during the annual Oasis Shrine project. Also shown are Joe Carter, secretary, and Cleta Weemes, X-ray technician. There were 23 other doctors present—just as busy.

RAINBOW GIRLS — The girls who served coffee and drinks throughout Saturday to the Shriners who brought children to the Hereford Clinic are Rainbow Girls. Shown here are three of them in action, Kay Tucker, Regina Hampton and Linda Jacobsen.

THANKS FOLKS!

It is indeed difficult to express our sincere appreciation to the many people who have helped in staging another successful Crippled Children's Clinic, and it is with deep humility and thankfulness that we say to each of you "Thanks".

We are especially appreciative of the many contributions we have had from the business community and from the farmers of the area, for the wonderful doctors and nurses who have given of their time to this effort, and to the Shriners from all over the area who have come in to give us a hand.

Each year as we complete one of these clinics, we realize how wonderful people really are. We realize too, as do you, that if we can help even one child to become strong and healthy again, then this indeed is all the reward that we could ever want. Again, thanks, and God Bless each of you.

NAACP Talk Is Slated Here

Gillespie C. Wilson from the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People) will give an informative talk at 8 p. m. Monday, May 27, in St. Anthony's School Auditorium. The public is invited to come and there will be no admission. Coffee will be served following the talk.

Tiefel's Ship Now On Coast

After six months on duty with the U. S. Navy off the coast of Viet Nam, FTMS Jake Tiefel is back on the west coast and expects to be in Hereford on leave in July, he told his parents, the George Tiefels of 134 Ave. J, by telephone this week. The Hereford man is on the USS Chicago, now in base at San Diego. The ship has been stationed in the Tonkin Gulf area since last October.

The sunlight streaming through a window left the surface of the sun only eight minutes earlier.

Flower Crafts Demonstrated In Wyche Club

Drying flowers is a delicate process and requires time, but attractive results are worth the effort Mrs. Charles Packard told Wyche Home Demonstration Club members at their meeting Thursday afternoon.

She showed how to prepare the blossoms for drying to preserve shape and color, saying that marigolds, daisies, zinnias and mums are most suitable for drying and yellow and white flowers are prettiest dried.

Mrs. Norman Hodges demonstrated the process of putting "antique" finish on artificial flowers. She gave two methods of mixing a solution for this craft, and said a ready-mixed solution may be bought.

Mrs. Cecil Matsen was elected the club's nominee as a county delegate to the Texas H. D. Association convention.

Also present were a new member, Mrs. Courtney Brooke, and Meses. E. C. Hewitt Jr., Cecil Hart, Bob Thuet, C. F. Newsum, Bill Ellis, L. B. Worthan, Wayne Jones, Leroy Bodkin and G. W. Duncan.

Arsonists who were believed to have set fire to the XIT were among those chased out of Texas by Ira Aien, before he became foreman of the Escarbada in Deaf Smith County.

Former Resident Gets Doctorate

LAS CRUCES, N. M. — Ray L. Graham of Abilene, Texas, has earned a Doctor of Philosophy Degree in mathematics at New Mexico State University.

Dr. Graham will be among more than 800 graduates receiving degrees during annual commencement exercises June 1 in Memorial Stadium at New Mexico State University.

Dr. Graham's doctoral dissertation was on computer usage in calculus. His minor studies were in education.

The new Doctor of Philosophy holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in mathematics which he earned in 1958 from West Texas State University, and a Master of Arts in Teaching Degree which he received from NMSU in 1960.

Dr. Graham has been a mathematician at White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico, for two years; a mathematics teacher at Las Cruces High School for an academic year; a mathematics instructor at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, for two and one-half years; and an assistant professor of mathematics at Appalachian State University for two years.

SURPRISE HONOREE — Mrs. Bess Werner, seated, was surprised at the Pioneer Study Club luncheon this week when Mrs. H. E. Miller read an original poem, dedicating it to Mrs. Werner. Patio Luncheon Ends Club Year

A patio luncheon at the Robert Veigel home closed a year for L. Allegra Study Club Thursday, when new officers were installed and next year's service projects discussed. Mrs. James McDowell became president, succeeding Mrs. Dennis Lomas.

Mmes. Bobby Veigel, Buddy Bloomer and Gary McQuigg were hostesses. Art, the general program theme for this season, was suggested in the casual placement of artists' palettes on some tables, and still-life arrangements of bright-hued vegetables and garden flowers centering the red cloths.

A half-finished landscape was on an easel at one side and at the close of the meeting members were told that they were to finish the picture, each adding a detail of her own choice.

Tables were set in the shade of trees and the porch for a view of green lawn and May blossoms in the Veigels' backyard.

Officers installed to serve with Mrs. McDowell are Mrs. Cameon Gault, vice president; Mrs. Bloomer secretary; Mrs. Jimmy Conkwright, correspondent; Mrs. Danny Martin, treasurer; Mrs. Sam Lesly, historian; Mrs. Don Chaney, reporter; and Mrs.

Lomas, parliamentarian. Members voted to assist a Hereford girl, to be selected with clothing and incidental expenses as she attends college next term. This will be the major service project of the year.

Mrs. McDowell announced committee appointments for the season. Mmes. Howard R. Johnson and Lesly are to serve with Mrs. Gault on the yearbook committee; Mmes. James Higgins, Terrell Hodges, Gene Cope and Jerry Terrell with Mrs. Martin on the finance committee.

Mrs. Veigel is welfare chairman, with Mrs. Bob Sims and Houston Frye on the committee; Mrs. Ron Zimmerman, chairman, Mrs. John E. Smith and Mrs. Alex Schroeter from the civic welfare committee.

Mrs. Noble Ballard is telephone chairman with Mmes. J. H. McCrary, Bud Snyder and

She packed a hat for the new president, Miss Gladys Setliff, to denote her importance to the club, shoes for the vice president, Mrs. N. D. Bartlett, to follow in the president's footsteps, and on through the list of officers.

Mrs. Art Stoy took office as secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Fanning as correspondent, Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Gentry reporter, Mrs. Johnny Clark historian, and

Cutting Prices On Steel Is Dire News To Americans

Last week United States Steel, the giant of American steel producers, voluntarily initiated price cuts on several items. This action, in the face of rising costs, is newsworthy within itself — and when one considers their reason, it becomes alarming.

U. S. Steel announced the price cuts in view of the fact that imports were under-selling United States producers on the same items, thus cutting into the sales volumes at home as well as abroad.

The circumstance has resulted generally from tremendous wage increases demanded and secured by steel workers in this country during the past decade. Until recently, manufacturers have been able to offset these high costs through automation and efficiency, but finally, it seems, we must face a day of reckoning.

What's more, the same circumstance is being faced by U. S. manufacturers in many other lines, including cameras, film, radio and T-V tubes, radios, numerous items of rubber and plastic nature. The high cost of freight within the nation is another contributing factor of serious proportion.

When other nations can manufacture a parallel product, ship it into the United States, pay import duties, establish marketing systems — and still sell under American production costs, it is quite obvious that we are in a position to lose a tremendous portion of our world market, along with our home market. Actually, it is a table-turning accomplishment which places our competitors in the position we established several decades back when the United States jumped into the world's No. 1 production spot.

If we have troubles now, it is needless to point out that they will become manifold when we start laying off millions of skilled workers who find themselves in the fortunate position of $10,000 and $15,000 income brackets.

Whether U. S. Steel has the answer is a good question. Other manufacturers have refused to cut prices on the ground that they would be losing money — and we doubt if U. S. Steel, giant that it is, can consistently lose money on production over a long period of time.

To us, this situation appears far more basic than the answering of whims of any minority group which may feel itself misused, and this is especially true of such groups which drain, rather than enhance our overall economy.

Meanwhile, we predict that this little flurry is far from the last we will hear from a truly bad situation which, coupled with weakening of the American dollar, affords the direst of bad news likely to come our way in the present era.

Housewife Speaks Out

Too often, most of us shake our heads when we encounter political and governmental objects, but not Mrs. Joe Taylor, a housewife from Lockney, Texas, who is out making speeches in West Texas and New Mexico on this very subject.

Mrs. Taylor emphasizes Constitutional government, patriotism, and Christianity — and invariably her talks are followed by standing ovations of crowds consisting of 100 to 1000 listeners.

"I speak for democracy," says Mrs. Taylor, who believes that taxes are "a ticket to freedom." She thinks it is time to be concerned about our constitution, because "twisters" are busy twisting it to their own ends. Pride is another phase which she emphasizes, "because pride made this country great, and pride can redeem it. Her answer to changing America lies in teaching our children patriotism and Christianity in order that they can reach maturity being proud of their American heritage.

Whether one agrees with Mrs. Taylor or not — and it is surprising how many of us do — the point is that she is one average American housewife who found things not altogether to her liking, and she is doing something about it.

What if all Americans adopted the same attitude? Fact of the matter, what if all Americans even took the trouble to investigate the candidates and vote?

Needless to say, as Mrs. Taylor points out, we would have a stronger nation, based on democracy, and working together for a unity which this nation has not seen in a long, long time.

Others Envy Local Area

Recognition of Golden Triangle feed lots as a tremendous new Texas industry was accorded this area last week when college leaders toured the installations.

Though the officials were a good six months behind state bankers in their recognition, it is good to know that they realize what folks in the Panhandle are doing. In addition, overtures of Panhandle feed lots are beginning to be felt all over the state in view of the demand in this area for feeders, generally imported from other sections.

As we have said before, the advent of large scale cattle feeding is a "natural" for this region. It merely expands and develops the pioneer location of XIT and other gigantic ranches which recognized this asset back at the turn of the century and, coupled with the existence of accessible markets, cattle production bids to once again become Texas' No. 1 industry.

As pioneers in the project, Herefords position is enviable, thanks to an abundance of grain sorghum and the far-sightedness of several energetic citizens.

Television Hurts Feet?

A podiatrist (foot doctor) has expressed concern that watching television can hurt kids feet because kids have a way of doubling their feet under them as they watch and watch and watch.

This just about completes the potential physical wreckage of kid television watchers as proclaimed from time to time by viewers-with alarm.

It has been claimed that sustained television watching is hard on the back, the legs, the eyes, the ears, the posture, grades, the attitudes and viewpoints of youngsters — and, at times, the child-parent relationship.

MAIN STREET, USA

Has The President Failed In Effort To Stop Poverty?

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — President Johnson brags of having done more for the poor than any of his predecessors and the record supports his claim. But it has not been enough to prevent a small army of the impoverished from camping practically on his door step, demanding more help.

Why and how has the President failed? Why haven't the billions of tax dollars poured into the poverty program at least appeased the poor? What are the real facts about poverty in the U.S., as distinguished from the arguments made for political or self-serving purposes?

These are tough questions, impossible to answer flatly, but a relatively obscure Professor of Economics from the University of Illinois has tackled them dispassionately and come up with some enlightening evidence which has been given broad circulation by Rep. Thomas B. Curtis (R., Mo.).

He reprinted a speech by Prof. John B. Parrish in the Congressional Record.

The Parrish dissertation, given before an academic audience in Chicago last February, is entitled: "Poverty in America: The Myth and the Reality."

The Professor addressed himself to these questions:

What are the principal claims made today about poverty in the U.S.? How true are these claims? Are non-whites "left behind in poverty while the rest of the population becomes ever more affluent?" Where do we go from here with poverty policy?

Galbraith Theory Debunked Back in 1958, Prof. John Kenneth Galbraith of Harvard wrote a best-seller called "The Affluent Society" which espoused the thesis that there had been a "slow-up in the economy's to reduce poverty. This book earned at least $125,000 for Prof. Galbraith, led to a whole library of poverty literature, and allowed the author to become a key advisor to President John F. Kennedy.

However, Prof. Parrish proves there was no truth in the Galbraith theory, at the time it was expounded or since. Using either of two yardsticks, income or consumption statistics, poverty in the U.S. has steadily declined and is still going down. The poverty population is not 70 million but closer to 25 million, and declining.

What about the theory that Negroes have been "left behind" while white people get richer?

Prof. Parrish reviews the past 17 years and shows that American families, both white and non-white, "have been escaping from poverty at an unprecedented rate." Whites have done a little better than Negroes, but only a little.

In 1950, only 2 percent of Negro families could be grouped in the middle class, on an income basis. But 1966, the proportion has swelled to 33 percent, which the researcher characterized as "one of the greatest forward leaps of any ethnic group in the history of this or any other country."

Prof. Parrish concedes that not all Negroes have shared in the "spectacular movement into the affluent middle class." He cites three reasons: The average age of Negroes in cities is 22, 10 years younger than whites, and lower age means lower income; Negroes have much larger families, one Negro out of four is headed by a woman compared with one of eleven white families.

Virtual End of Poverty Seen

Prof. Parrish points to six major barriers which formerly prevented an effective solution to poverty, all of which have been removed in the past three years, by the courts, by the Catholic church, by Congress, by medical technology, by the accident of migration of the poor to central cities where they can be reached, and by sociological research proving the poor want to be helped.

All of which leads Prof. Parrish to conclude that this generation "can realistically look forward to the virtual end of poverty in American — not through politically oriented anti-poverty programs, after the fact, but through preventive programs that will help all groups, white and non-white, help themselves out of poverty."

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Amen, Professor.

It is interesting to hear politicians continually insist that federal government is living far beyond its means. Then, on the other hand, these same people quickly endorse our fight to stave off communism in Southeast Asia. This is like giving an opinion with your fingers crossed behind your back.

No one is trying to hide any problems that have been brought about by inflation. The crisis is obvious in the balance of payments. Confidence in the dollar has eroded, and talk of devaluation can be upsetting to a people who have long been richest on earth. The crisis becomes even more acute when a person considers that most small countries of the world don't even have one ounce of gold; they back up their own currencies in once stable United States dollars. Letting inflation wreck our own position will mean wrecking many smaller economies as well.

The answer is the same old "raise taxes, cut government spending" line. Which will work, if people are willing to let it. What has been forgotten is that war, not welfare, has brought on the inflation. Domestic expenditures have not contributed in any significant manner.

As a matter of fact, federal expenditures that might be classed as "welfare" have already been pared below any efficiency level. The War on Poverty is as good as dead.

Warfare, not welfare, has moved this nation's unemployment rate well under the usually acceptable four per cent level.

Most of the new jobs in the private sector last year were created by defense expenditures. To be more exact, defense spending was responsible for 800,000 new industry jobs — about three-fifths of the 1967 non-farm employment gain. In 1966, the comparable figure was 300,000 such jobs.

When unemployment rates go down, price stability exists no longer. The problem is now acute, since employment rates below three percent are for all practical purposes impossible, due to people changing jobs. There is little slack in the labor market. In terms of market pressures, aggregate demand has exceeded the full employment level. Inflation is the result.

Raising tax rates will have a positive effect in cooling the situation; cutting government spending will help. Government spending is being hacked at. But there's not a whole lot that can be done when defense expenditures take up to three fourths of the total budget.

In reality, the nation is now a warfare state; the nebulous concept of a welfare state has never existed in fact.

This is in no way a value judgment, since defending South Vietnam from a communist takeover involves soe fundamental question of foreign commitments and responsibilities. War may be the only way.

However, if we are going to endorse the war effort in Vietnam, we cannot berate the government for a tremendous budget. If anything, we should put our money where our mouth is and start paying our fair share.

Walter Palmer of Hereford, member of the United States Marines, has been wounded in action in France. A letter has been received from him which the Brand will publish in part:

Somewhere in France,

April 28, 1918.

I will try to tell you a few of my experiences since I have been in France. Well to start with, I have been in active service. We have been under fire and in the first line trenches. We were in mud to our knees. W at mud, sleep in mud, in fact, just lived in mud. But we didn't mind for we were getting the Huns. You could not stick your head out of the trench but what some Dutchman would take a shot at it, but on the other hand believe me he had to keep his head down.

Your friend,

Stagner, stating that despite the reputation of the Jap Zero, American air equipment is superior. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stagner, who live near Hereford.

—Small Talk—

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

At this time of year, when every woman's club in town tries to have a special program or party to wind up its year, they come so thick and fast that it's no wonder I'm dizzier than usual. One evening this week there were even two clubs having dinners at the same place at the same time.

SO FAR AS possible, I like to go to those I'm invited to, take pictures and pay special attention to all the special events but there's a limit. Looks like I reached it on one of the busier days lately.

During luncheon I took notes carefully on the club's yearbook which I'd taken along for that purpose. Back at the office I opened my purse to reach for the yearbook. It wasn't there, but a crumpled napkin was. Don't worry, Mr. Caison; it was a paper napkin.

MY ATTENTION was called to another mental lapse of the rush period. Mrs. Grady Parsons reminded me that the girl whom Cultural Home Demonstration Club "adopted" for this year is not a Girlstown resident, but a Hereford High School senior. The club is providing her graduation outfit; members made the dress and added accessories. Other clothing and school supplies have been given by the club during the school year.

It's a project I like; there are many girls who are not on the "charity" list and who never ask for help, whose families can pay for necessities of their schooling, but who nevertheless spend happier years in school if they have a few more clothes than the essentials, and money for extras which mean so much to a student.

When the club reporter Flossie Thompson, told me of the members' gift to "their" girl graduate, she naturally supposed that I knew which girl — as I would have if there had been time to think.

NEVER MUCH of a fisherman, Ann McCullough had to be urged to try her luck on a trip she and Ralph, with the Don McCulloughs and Ray McCulloughs and Ray McCulloughs of Amarillo, made to Lake Meredith last weekend.

In all, the party caught 21 fish; 12 of them were landed by guess who? Now Ralph figures

Ann will be ready for some fishing most any time.

The McCulloughs lately visited at Houston with their son, Pat, and his family, and did some sightseeing in that part of the state. Ann was a guest Friday at Les Temps Club luncheon in Amarillo.

NEARLY EVERYONE had visitors or made visits last weekend, for Mothers Day. . . . I've heard that Mrs. A. B. London's son and his family came from Corsicana. . . . Mrs. R. W. Mitchell had all her family at home for the day. . . . Mrs. Jim Mercers' daughter Dorothy Ann was at home from North Texas State University at Denton. . . . The Ed Warrens went to Santa Fe to visit his sister and her family, including a son at home from California.

AND I HEAR that Robert Miller gave Mrs. Miller a single rose on Mothers Day. But it was one of the huge ones which are being used so much for decorative purposes now, and it was in a beautiful vase he brought back from a recent trip to Arizona.

The coming of the Higgins clan to Deaf Smith County could have been considered almost an invasion. In fact, at one time someone remarked that the Higgins were about to crowd out the prairie dogs. The immigration was begun in 1890 when W. S. (Uncle Summy), W. H. (Uncle Billy), and Uncle Billy's son, John R. Higgins, moved their families into the county.

Former City Resident To Be Married

Miss Moore, a home economics instructor at Tarleton State College at Stephenville, is a graduate of Sam Houston State College.

Dr. Albracht practices in Stephenville. He is a graduate of Southwestern Medical School, Dallas.

GIFT PRESENTATION — Deaf Smith County Judge H. C. Williams accepts a check for $4400 in behalf of the Deaf Smith County Commissioners from the Hereford Lions Club. The check, which is designated for 1000 place settings, a dish-washer and disposal unit for the county Bull Barn, was presented Wednesday. Lions Club members had approved the money earlier and have had several projects such as a Radio Auction, Fish Fry, wrestling and carnival.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Judge Robert McAlpin Williamson — known to history as "Three-Legged Willie" — brought justice to Shelby County by using a long-barreled pistol to back up his law books.

Judge Williamson was crippled by polio at 15 when the disease left his right leg permanently bent backward at the knee. Undaunted, he strapped a wooden leg on at the knee and had his trousers tailored so that he appeared to have three legs. This was his dress in 1836 when he appeared in Shelbyville to open court and try to bring law and order to East Texas.

Once he had rapped the court to order, a tall man arose from the crowd. He told Judge Williamson that the people had met and decided that no court would be held. Then he pulled a large Bowie knife, laid it before the judge and said: "This, sir, is the law of Shelby County."

Williamson jerked a pistol from beneath his coat and slammed it down across the knife.

"If that is the law of Shelby County, this is the Constitution which overrides all law. This court is in session."

EARLY JET SET — Frustrated with the slow travel of the 1900's, L. L. Walker of Houston decided in 1910 to build his own airplane.

It worked, too. Powered by a 40-horsepower engine and piloted by Walker, the plane flitted about the port city at an altitude of 300 feet and air speeds of up to 30 miles an hour.

NEW LAND RUSH — Step right up, folks! One dollar will buy an attractive homesite in Arp, Smith County.

This isn't a come-on, either. For just $1, the town of Arp will sell a building lot that is complete with utilities and within the city limits.

There is a joker in the deal, but it's a minor one. To qualify for a dollar lot, the buyer must start construction of a home within 30 days and the house must cost at least $5,000.

Arp residents, worried because their community was losing population, began offering the land bargain to attract new citizens. It's working.

BELIEVE-IT-OR-NOT — Texas' oldest horse died not long ago at the age of 143 years!

He was Pony Boy, a half-Shetland, half-Spanish pony that belonged to Billy Craft of Jacksboro. Pony Boy was foaled in April, 1920, and lived 47 years by the calendar. However, in terms of human longevity, Pony Boy was 143.

POLITICAL IMAGERY — Governor James Ferguson, long a successful businessman, nevertheless liked the voters to think of him as a farmer.

Addressing a political rally one night in Austin, an aide brought the usual pitcher of ice water and a glass to the podium.

"Bring me a bucket and a gourd," Ferguson demanded. "That's the only thing I'm used to drinking out of."

State Draft Call Greatly Reduced

AUSTIN—The June draft call for Texas has been reduced almost one-third, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service director, said Wednesday.

The state quota of 1,416 men for June was scaled down to 961 by a telegram from Lieutenant General Lewis B. Hershey, the national draft director. This followed reduction of the national quota for June by the Department of Defense from 29,500 to 20,000 men, all for the Army.

At the same time, the Department of Defense said its call for July would be 15,000. The Texas share of this would be 700 to 750 men, Colonel Schwartz estimated.

State draft boards currently are filling the May state call for 2,223 men, destined for the Army and Marine Corps. The May call was increased 4.3 per cent in late April to provide strength for the Marine Corps.

Local boards are currently being advised of reductions in their June quotas.

The draft boards will forward 8,500 men to the armed forces examining and entrance stations in June for pre-induction physical and mental examinations in preparation to fill future quotas. The May total is 9,000.

The order of selection to fill the June induction call may be from among examined and ac-

Clint Coneway To Return To Vietnam

Navy Lieutenant Clint Coneway will spend his leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Paul Coneway of Rio Vista, prior to his deployment to Vietnam on June 10.

Lt. Coneway will arrive here on May 24 and will probably leave on June 4, according to his mother.

Stationed aboard the destroyer USS Stoddard (DD566), the lieutenant will be making his second trip to Vietnam. During his last deployment, he was awarded the Navy Commendation Medal for exceptional performance of duty while under intense enemy fire from North Vietnamese shore batteries.

On St. Patrick's Day, the Stoddard was attempting the rescue of a Naval aviator about 5,500 yards off the beach of North Vietnam when enemy shore defense sites opened fire on the ship. Coneway, the ship's navigator, successfully directed the destroyer into the shallow waters near the downed aviator. The ship was damaged by the enemy fire but continued to blast North Vietnamese coastal defense sites until the pilot was rescued by a Navy helicopter and was clear of the area.

Coneway, who will be 25 on the day he will leave again for Vietnam, was graduated from Hereford High School in 1961, and from the University of Texas in 1966, with a degree in Engineering Science.

He received a Navy scholarship and completed the Navy midshipman program while in college.

Upon his second return from Vietnam, Lt. Coneway expects to be sent to the Naval Oceanographic Research Team in the Caribbean.

A reception for graduates, their friends and families will be held in the Student Union Building following the service. It is open to the public.

The commencement address will be given by Dr. Glen E. Barnett, vice-president for Student Affairs and professor of Education at the University of Colorado.

capable of. Lesly, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Lesly, was born and reared in Hereford. He led a normal life of any growing boy until he reached the end of his junior year at Hereford High School. Then things changed somewhat as he decided to attend Wentworth Military Academy at Lexington, Missouri so that he could, as he put it, try something new, have a change of routine, and just simply because he wanted to.

Consisting of similarities somewhat like those of college, the academy requires that an entrant have passing academic grades and good moral character. Classes are conducted on the same basis as those of any other school with the exception of certain dates set aside for drilling and things principally connected with military ideas and morals.

While the academy has a six-year program, students can attend any length of time and that is what Lesly did as he completed his final year of high school there, then went on to attend West Texas State University where he is classified as a junior this year. But he did not leave the military scene without making his presence known. While at Wentworth, he worked hard and had plenty to show for it when departure time came.

Starting with the title of outstanding cadet in Reserve Officers Training Corps, he received the Army ROTC Superior Cadet Decoration. This decoration is given to the cadet who receives no demerits during the year, is in the top 25 per cent in school, and in the top 10 per cent scholastically in military. He also received the W. E. Lockhart Trophy for being the most outstanding cadet of the second year basic course, a trophy which is provided by the Canyon American Legion Palo Duro Post No. 97. This trophy is given by the military officers who select a cadet on his leadership on the drill field and in the class room, and on his moral character.

Also among his numerous awards, Lesly was granted the 1966 Military History Award which is presented to the cadet of the second basic course who attains the highest average during the first and second semester in the Military History Course of Instruction.

April 30, 1967, proved to be another of many days to remember for Lesly as he received a two-year scholarship that was to pay for all his college expenses for his junior and senior years in college. Following this scholarship came another event which aided Lesly and that was the presentation of the Anderson award for having the best work in American History than any other freshman and sophomore.

Things come in threes for most people, but not so for Lesly. After his receiving the Anderson award, he was given the Association of United States Army trophy that is given to the junior with the outstanding Academic and Military Science record. This award was presented to him on April 25 of this year.

Rated as one of the top three military schools in the United States, Wentworth Military academy has seen three of the Lesly boys enter into it, but John has thus far been the most decorated for his participation and dedication to it. He won two additional awards while at the school and these were the third high school Senior Scholastic Award and the Military Department Honor Cadet gold medal—MST 1 and 2. In addition to these two, he was given a certificate in recognition of his attaining standing as a National Merit Scholar.

A little over a year ago, Lesly married Sue Rife of Houston, and she is also a student at WT where she is classified as a sophomore.

One year later, he saw the chance to help the student body of West Texas State, and immediately ran for president where Lady Luck smiled on him once more. He was elected president of the student body by a majority of votes when a record 300 students cast their ballots in the April 9, 1968 election.

While classified as a junior at WT, Lesly has carried his military credits into college and again found himself with many obligations to fulfill. He now serves as president of Lambda Chi, Alpha a social fraternity, and has served as chairman of the Scholarship Committee, which has a purpose to encourage scholarship among fraternities on campus.

AN ACTIVE LIFE has been the theme for John L. Lesly as he has been the recipient of many awards and honors throughout his short life. Lesly, who is a junior at West Texas State, received a number of his awards while attending Wentworth Military Academy at Lexington, Missouri during his senior year of high school.

One last thing which has been added to his long list of accomplishments is that he served as Associate Justice of the Student Court in the fall of the first semester of this year. His job on this court was to hear all cases concerning violations of rules and regulations of West Texas State, and to try to establish rules concerning student riots.

Rain Improves Wheat Crops

"General rains have greatly increased the prospects for dry-land wheat" in the Hereford, Farwell and Dimmitt areas, the Wheat Harvest Control Office of the Texas Employment Commission has reported.

The latest Farm Labor Bulletin from the office also stated that "irrigated wheat continued to look good and prospects are for an average to above-average yield over the entire area."

The bulletin also said "general rains have fallen over the Texas Wheat Belt since our last report. These rains have been very beneficial; however, some wheat had been abandoned in the northern Panhandle prior to these rains. Scattered hail has been reported in isolated areas which caused some local damage. Insect infestation has been reported as minimal.

SEWING MACHINE CLINIC — A day-long session with the title, Know Your Sewing Machine, was conducted in the County Bull Barn Monday by the County Home Demonstration Agents, Argen Draper and Rita Huckert. Practice in use of the machine for various purposes, on various types of fabric, was given with instruction in regulating and caring for a sewing machine. Each woman brought

Senator Tower Speaks

Federal Deficits Are Out Of Hand, Senator Reports

Most Americans are currently aware that our federal government is in a serious fiscal crisis.

We've had a federal fiscal crisis for years. You've heard me talking about the need for restored fiscal sanity for a long time now. I made some strong recommendations about it in 1966. You and I worried about it considerably in 1967. And, now in 1968 the alarms are again being sounded about the instability of the dollar; about the imbalance of American national bank accounts; and about continuing Administration unwillingness to do anything.

What's at stake here is quite simply the future worth of our dollar.

Mr. William McChesney Martin — who's chairman of our Federal Reserve System, and essentially our top federal banker — calls the current situation the "worst financial crisis since 1931." I think he knows what he's talking about.

Each Texan who spends dollars can understand what inflation is doing to us.

It has made our dollar of three years ago worth only 92 cents. It has made our ten-dollar bill lose nearly a dollar in purchasing power in those same three years. It means that if a Texas family had 500 dollars in savings three years ago and has left it there, it has depreciated in buying value to only 460 dollars worth of savings.

It means that Texans who retired with an annual retirement income of 25-hundred-dollars three years ago have lost more than 200 dollars of that annual income to inflation.

This inflation is perpetrating the greatest dollar robbery in the history of the world. It's picking the pockets of every American, cheating workers, looting the thrifty and penalizing the poor and elderly.

This fiscal insanity perpetrated by the federal government is the very worst thing a government can do to its people — it is destruction of the buying power of the people's money.

It's obvious to me, then, that our number one national task today is the saving of the dollar. Unless we can maintain a solvent society our society will be neither secure nor great.

What's basically wrong? It's federal deficits. They are just out of hand.

We face a 20-Billion-dollar debt this fiscal year. Next year it will be at least 10-Billion more. In five years it is 50-Billion. The total indebtedness of our nation now is more than 352-Billion-dollars.

That's our debt. It's growing by leaps and bounds. We keep spending abroad more than we earn abroad. Our interest rates are marked up to the highest levels since the Depression.

And unnecessary federal spending goes on and on. Congress was actually asked in this year's budget to spend 60 thousand-dollars to study Black Bird Social Organization.

Instead of the habits of blackbirds, we'd better devote attention to federal banking practices.

The severe nature of this inflationary dollar crisis has led the Senate — with my concurring vote — to pass a 10-percent income-tax surcharge coupled with a six-Billion-dollar cut in federal spending.

We are in money trouble. And we simply won't get out of it without cutting spending and bringing in more tax revenue. It's a distasteful medicine — but it is a very sick patient we have on our hands.

The American dollar is not going to be saved by cutting down on what tourists spend abroad, or by cutting what corporations can invest to seek returns from overseas, or by talking about something called "paper gold." It makes no difference if our money is gold or silver or paper unless our economy is healthy and run properly.

The trouble with the American dollar today is the management of our budget by the Federal Government. This is the heart of our problem. This is where we must make changes.

We have got to cut spending, increase taxes and restore some thing at least close to balanced budgeting in the very near future or inflation will ever-more-swiftly drive our dollar toward 25-cent status.

The Senate has taken a lead in making budget cuts. As much as we need national defense expenditures we have even cut our national defense budget by nearly a Billion dollars. The House of Representatives needs to act, too.

And, Congress can't do the job alone. The President controls the Bureau of the Budget. He, too, needs to do more expenditure cutting.

We are a national family faced with potential bankruptcy. We have worried and talked for nearly a decade, now. If we don't act promptly the next decade will be a sorry one, indeed, for our nation.

Frontier country had a way of demanding use of every man's skills. When ranchers in the county learned that the new ranch hand on the Dr. Rucker Ranch was a veterinarian, his ranching days were over. Dr. F. E. Bove established an office in Hereford and practiced here until 1941.

Valedictorian of the Hereford High School class of 1906 was Sam G. Bratton. His class also was the first to be given diplomas in formal graduation exercises.

FOR SCROLL OF HONOR — A call has been issued to all wives and parents of Deaf Smith County servicemen to send picture to the American Legion Auxiliary for a Scroll of Honor and public display for Memorial Day. Send pictures with names and addresses to Mrs. Ira W. Ott (shown above), 120 Northwest Drive or Mrs. J. D. Love, 417 Star, Hereford 79045.

Local Boys Are Elected Officers

In a business meeting of Sigma Delta Sigma, a men's social club at Hardin-Simmons University, two local boys were elected to serve as officers for the coming year.

Kenny Justice, a junior at Hardin-Simmons, was elected to serve as business manager, while Paul Christman, also a junior, will serve in the capacity of social chairman.

These two, along with the other officers who were elected, will serve a nine-month term.

Northern Pike Are Released In Buffalo Lake

CANYON—More than 8,000 fingerling northern pike were released recently in Buffalo Lake 13 miles west of Canyon, according to Jack Crabtree, Texas Parks and Wildlife fisheries biologist.

Crabtree says the four-inch exotics were originally spawned in Nebraska and should range from 15 to 20 pounds when they reach adulthood.

In a two-fold plan, Crabtree says he hopes to establish a pike fishery in the lake, plus introduce a predacious type fish which will help eliminate the over-abundant carp and rough fish species in the reservoir.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q - What's the purpose of the Form 1040-x you introduced?
A - This new form was designed to make it easier for taxpayers to correct errors made on 1040 or 1040-A returns. Instead of filling out an entire return to correct a mistake, taxpayers now just submit information on the item in error.

For example, a taxpayer who made a mistake in listing his 1967 medical deductions reports the correct medical information on Form 1040-x. Then using key figures from the 1040 return he had filed, the new tax liability is calculated.

Copies of the new 1040-x are available at local IRS offices along with instructions for its use.

Q - I got a letter from the regional service center asking me for information. Should I send it back to this center?
A - Yes, unless the letter requesting the information indicates you should send it elsewhere. Usually a return envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

back in April. When can I expect my check?
A - The refund should arrive some time after the 1st of June. Some returns filed at the deadline may not be processed completely till the end of June, however. Incomplete returns and those with errors take longer to process.

Q - I'm having someone come in once a week to take care of my lawn and shrubbery. Will his wages be subject to income or social security tax withholding?
A - If you pay cash wages of $50 or more during a calendar quarter then you should report social security taxes for him. Use Form 942 to make the quarterly reports and payments.

You do not have to withhold income tax on wages paid to gardeners and other household employees.

Q - Do you have any booklet that outlines what a taxpayer can do if he disagrees with the results of an audit of his return?
A - Yes, the appeal procedures available to taxpayers are explained in IRS Document No. 5202, "If Your Return is Examined." Send a post card to your IRS district office to obtain a free copy.

Education Hearing Is Set In Pampa

Delegations from the 35 counties at the Top of Texas, including Deaf Smith County, will attend a public hearing of the House Education Committee in the Starlight Room of the Cornado Inn in Pampa beginning at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Leo Forrest, chairman of the Education Committee of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, and Bill Thompson chamber manager, will attend the meeting. All members of the Education Committee have been urged to attend the meeting, and it is expected that members of the school's administrative staff also will be represented.

Chairman George Hinson, a veteran member of the House Education Committee, has extended an invitation to all interested in vocational and technical training to attend the hearing and express their views on this most important subject. According to Chairman Hinson, the field of vocational and technical training has a tremendous future in Texas but needs a great deal of study, research and a greater awareness on the part of the general public.

The hearing will be of interest to people in education at all levels and most important to people in industry, city and county government, Chambers of Commerce, and the public at large. In commenting on the hearing to be held in Pampa, Chairman Hinson said, "We want to hear the ideas of people in this section of the state concerning the needs in the respective communities." "We are especially anxious to hear from industrial people regarding deficiencies in our present program," he said. Everyone will have an opportunity to present their views

Shower Is Compliment To Miss Linda Miller

Miss Linda Miller, whose marriage to Joe Whiteborn is to be solemnized June 1, was complimented with a shower Thursday in First National Community Room.

Hostesses were Meses. Kenneth Duncan, Dale Hallows, W. T. Lyons and Melvin Barton. The honoree's sister, Miss Susan Miller, was at the table where approximately 30 guests registered.

A bride figurine with an arrangement of flowers marked the center of the refreshment table, which was appointed to accent the color chosen by Miss Miller for her wedding, lime green. The hostesses in turn greeted guests and served lime frappe and petit fours.

Gift packages were presented to the bride-elect, who opened them to display the contents.

4 Accidents In County In April

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated four accidents on rural highways in Deaf Smith County during the month of April, according to Sergeant W. E. Walls, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

Three crashes resulted in one person injured and an estimated property damage of $2,230. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1968 shows a total of 28 accidents resulting in one person killed, 13 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $22,510.

Castro County had five accidents during the month, with three persons injured and damage totaling $2,040. Oldham County had five accidents with three persons injured and damages totaling $1,615, and Parmer County had six accidents with seven persons injured and $2,375 in damages.

The final bell closing the present school year will soon ring. This will be the signal for the beginning of summer vacations. Residential neighborhoods which were quiet between 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. will be alive with children popping out in all directions. This means that motorists must be constantly alert at all times during the summer months for children darting out from unexpected places.

The Sergeant added, "During 1967 of the pedestrians killed in rural traffic accidents one of four were school age children."

Talk About Many Things

By Mrs. Argen Draper Home Demonstration Agent

Ford Home Demonstration Club was busy all day Wednesday working on their club project. Members met to give the community house its spring cleaning and make 50 comfort bags. The bags are distributed by the Red Cross for servicemen's use.

Club Women helping with these projects were Mmes. Frank Brorman, Raymond Smith, W. A. Carter, John A. Smith, W. H. Mason, Raymond Flores, A. B. Kent and J. C. Gossett.

The Comfort bags are made of denim, 1 1/2 by 13 inches, finished with drawstring in the top. These bags are given to injured servicemen at the hospitals when they are able to be moved.

The Red Cross fills the bags with personal articles for the men. It is a fine project for groups and a very needed service according to Genevieve Miller.

DONALD HENSLEE was generous in sharing some lovely rosebuds with those of us at the courthouse. The prettiest, in my opinion, was Don Juan, a deep maroon climber which looked like pure velvet.

Another beautiful climber is Royal Gold. These are nice individually and too, the colors compliment each other.

THIS WEEK we've had a cousin, Edith Sayer, visiting from South Carolina. She is an interesting person and we enjoyed her visit. We should have invited people in to listen to her talk as that is what she does when we visit her. And just to think, she thinks our Texas drawl sounds different!

GRADUATION DAYS are a time for remembering as they prompted three senior 4-H members of the Ford 4-H club to recense a skit "The 4-H Days of Our Lives".

They gave memories of club work; most of these are happy memories, but some were remembered as very tense.

Some are comical now, but it has taken some time to get to the stage of being able to laugh about some very serious things that happen to young members when the pressures of deadlines and competition were weighing heavily on them.

Those giving this entertaining presentation were Joyce Bezner, Cynthia Hanna and Jerry Sublet. These three represented 25 years of loyal club membership.

All of Joyce's and Cynthia's work has been in Deaf Smith County, but Jerry began his 4-H career in the Hopkins School Club in Gray County. Two other senior 4-H members present and honored by the Ford 4-H club were Donna Woodward and Charles Atchley.

I READ WITH a great deal of interest about the largest American flag in the world. It is displayed with patriotic pride in Detroit. The flag measures 235 by 104 feet, covers seven stories of the J. L. Hudson Company in downtown Detroit.

Flag Day, June 14, is the next date the three quarter ton banner will be unfurled by a crew of 55 men. The Hudson Company has long claimed the World's largest U. S. Flag, but the size of the banner has increased through the years.

It was Armistice Day, November 11, 1923 that Hudson's introduced its original "world's largest flag" to Detroit. News about the flag spread throughout the nation, and the record-breaker was displayed on the U. S. Capitol in Washington in 1939. For 26 years the flag was known as the world's largest, and it was shown at least once a year before its retirement.

THE SECOND GIANT version of Old Glory made its debut on Flag Day, June 14, 1949. The new ensign had been constructed over a period of six months at the George P. Johnson Co., Detroit.

Eight women had sewn for more than 700 hours, and it had taken three sailmakers to put in the webbing, ropes and the metal grommets for the ropes.

A new field including stars for Alaska and Hawaii was made in March, 1960. Five of the six women sewing the new field also had worked on the flag in 1949. Three weeks were required to add about 200 yards of white bed sheeting.

Altogether the material in the flag is sufficient to make 611 flags, each 5 by 8 feet.

Materials include 2,038 yards of the finest grade of shrink-proof army wool, 5,500 yards of thread, 57 yards of heavy canvas and more than a mile of rope to hold the flag to the building against the tug of wind and its own weight.

Each star is 6 feet tall and each stripe is 8 feet wide (requiring specially woven widths of wool).

MR. AND MRS. Kenan Burk, (she's the former Sandra Ruebush, assistant agent here in 1964-1965) announce the arrival of Stuart Lamar. He weighed eight pounds and three ounces.

The Burks live on a ranch out of Lamar, Colorado. With Jean Kennedy and Sandra both in Colorado, I think we should arrange a vacation in that direction as that would show very good management.

"I'VE SEWED a long time and I didn't realize how much I didn't know about my sewing machine," this was a comment often heard Tuesday at Getting the Most Out of Your Sewing Machine Course.

Rita Huckert taught the course and she agreed to schedule another on June 20. It will be at the Bull Barn and it will be given in one day beginning at 9:30 a.m. and finish at 5 p.m.

The course will include (1) Know your sewing machine; (2) Regulate and care for your sewing machine; (3) Make the most of your sewing machine. The cost of the course is $1.80, which includes a packet of swatches and a very good instruction book.

The deadline for enrolling is Tuesday, May 21, as the order for the swatches and instruction books will be mailed at 4 p.m.

Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to take the course, so if interested, please send your check for $1.80 to Box 671, Hereford, Texas; or bring it to the Extension office, Room 304 at the Courthouse. Remember June 20 is the last chance for a long time.

RAYMOND AND Julia Casarez have just returned from vacation and report the HemisFair is fabulous. They felt it to be very educational and enjoyable, but a view from the Tower may give the person a feeling of insignificance.

ROSE JAR: a recipe which can be altered to please your circumstance.

Collect rose petals after several dry, sunny days. Add handful of buds, salt lightly, spread on screen to dry. Other flower petals and leaves are dried in the same way. Store in covered jar until you make potpourri.

For each quart dried rose petals use one cup herb mixture lavender, rosemary, thyme, mint, angelica, parsley, marjoram, peppermint ground up with one teaspoon each mace, allspice, cinnamon, coriander, cardamon, plus one tablespoon each cloves and orris root, four bay leaves.

Add half of herb-spice mixture to rose petals, other half to leaves and flower petals. Salt bottom of jar, then alternate layers of rose petals, salt, leaves and flower petals, salt. Seal jar, steep one month before using.

A well-blended potpourri could contain petals of roses, violets, jasmine, honeysuckle, hellebore and many other heavily scented flowers, plus leaves of geranium, balsam, lemon-verbena, myrtle and other aromatic leaves.

Year Is Closed By Madre Mia

Installed as president of La-Madre Mia Club at a dinner in the Hickory Log Restaurant Thursday, Mrs. Herschel Black announced committee appointments for the coming year. Mrs. Harvey Penner, this year's president, conducted the installation.

A seven-branched tree representing the club with its seven officers was used in the ceremony, which had the theme, Apples Of Gold. As each new officer was installed, Mrs. Penner placed a golden apple on her branch and completed the tree with 25 leaves representing club members.

Mrs. Waldo Baxter is vice president for 1968-69, Mrs. Walker Parris secretary, Mrs. Lynton Allred treasurer, Mrs. G. C. Merritt historian, Mrs. Ray Don King reporter and Mrs.

Dean Herring parliamentarian. Mrs. Herring is also yearbook chairman, with Mmes. Jon Crawford, Bill Nelson and Parris on the committee. As finance chairman, Mrs. Allred will be assisted by Mmes. Carl Carlile, Bobby Owen and Don Walsler.

Mrs. Gerald Martin is project chairman; the committee includes Mmes. Leg Drake, Harold Morton and Merritt. Mmes. Baxter, James Gentry and Bill Lankford comprise the committee on membership; Mmes. David Honea, Ben Scott and John E. Smith, social committee Mmes. Eugene Sparks, Wayne Lady and King, telephone committee.

Names were drawn for secret club pals of the summer. Dinner was served to a guest, Mrs. Noble Ballard, and 20 members.

Attorney Is Speaker To Young Homemakers

A guest speaker, County Attorney John Aikin, gave the program for the Hereford Chapter, Young Homemakers of Texas, at a meeting Thursday afternoon when two special events were planned for the summer months.

Lunch Ends Club Year

Mrs. Cliff Johnson, president, was hostess to Farm and Ranch Club for its last meeting before a summer recess, a covered dish luncheon in her home Thursday. Mrs. Jack Weaver gave the program on Preserving Flowers.

She said sand and borax may be mixed in equal parts to dry flowers; blossoms should be placed face down on about half an inch of this mixture in a flat box such as a suit box, and covered with an inch of the mixture then set in a sunny, airy place four to seven days. This will preserve the color as the flowers dry, Mrs. Weaver said.

Mrs. W. B. Nunley was elected secretary to complete a term.

Mrs. Bill Johnson and Mrs. Wayne Johnson were guests of the club. Members present included Mmes. John E. Hill, Philip Miller, C. T. Douglas, Buel Monroe, Paul Rudd and Nunley.

Young Mother Of Year Has Three Daughters

"My daughters are my favorite recreation," says Mrs. David Brumley, 304 Star, who this week was named Young Mother of the Year by fellow members of Young Mothers Study Club. Her children are Margaret, 8 years old, Barbara, 6, and Melissa, 2.

Wife of a farmer, Mrs. Brumley can lend a hand with his work, operate a tractor, garden or drive a truck if she is needed; but outside her homemaking duties she likes best activities concerned with children.

Serving as leader of a Bluebird group in the Camp Fire Girl program here, teaching swimming in summer Red Cross classes and teaching a Bible School class at First Methodist Church are those she is most interested in.

The former Connie Robinson, Mrs. Brumley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Robinson, 212 Western. She was graduated from Hereford High School then attended Texas Tech two years. She and Brumley were married while both were students there; he completed work for a degree but she turned her attention to bringing up daughters.

She has served Young Mothers Club as vice president for the year just ended, and formerly as treasurer. She is also a member of the Young Homemakers of Texas, and of the women's handbell choir and an exercise class in her church.

The Brumleys plan travel for family recreation, Sunday trips the girls will enjoy, and a long trip each year. This year they visited the HemisFair; last year they had a vacation in Missouri.

Eggs and rabbits heralded the spring season centuries before the first Easter basket was filled, the National Geographic Society says. Persians, Phoenician Greeks and Romans all associated eggs with the waking earth. The Chaldeans of ancient Babylonia chose the rabbit as a spring fertility symbol.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

This is a copy of a letter I sent to the Mayor of Hereford. At the risk of being labeled a nut who writes too many letters to the editor, you may print this if you so see fit. This is only the second letter I have ever written to a newspaper, magazine, etc., but this is a matter about which I feel very strongly.

Mrs. Paul Zinser

Dear Sir:

Again, Hereford is dreadfully awakened to the nearness of Vietnam. Another of our local young men has given his life for his country.

Oh, Hereford, wake up! What does it take to wake all of our patriotic citizens? Patriotism is more than waving the fireworks and waving the flag on the Fourth of July. Does it take the loss of one of our own to be again reminded that patriotism is more than flag waving — which I am first to admit is far, far better than flag-burning! We are all aware of the start of the peace negotiations. But how long will they take and how effective will they be? Still weekly hundreds of our boys lose their lives!

Isn't there some organized way for Hereford to show its respect for our fallen heroes and also for those who fight on courageously, even at this very minute? Is it too much to ask our merchants to voluntarily close for the one hour of the funeral of one who gives his life for his country? The people of Amarillo fly their flags at half-mast on the day of the funeral of their fallen sons. Perhaps there is even a more effective way to pay our respect to this boy, also our support for those still on the battlefield.

Respectfully, I ask "Isn't there something that Hereford can do?"

Sincerely,
Mrs. Paul Zinser

House Members Extend Program In Attempt To Improve Dollar

The House of Representatives approved a one-year extension of the Food For Peace Act Tuesday after banning aid under the program to any country trading with Communist North Vietnam.

Panhandle Congressman Bob Price, one of the sponsors of the bill and a member of the Agriculture Committee which approved the bill, said several other changes were made in an effort to ease present restrictions now imposed on the uses this country may make in the foreign currencies it receives in sales abroad of American farm commodities.

Price said they were made as a means of improving the dollar balance of payment situation in international trade.

"The PL 480 program has been one of the most useful and helpful programs we have had both for the United States and countries we have helped," Price said. "But the nations we help with the program must recognize that cooperation means help for the United States as well and that we can extend this aid only if we keep our own balance of payments sound."

"One provision in the bill changing the existing program gives authority to those handling negotiations for the United States to enter into agreements specifying that up to 50 percent of foreign currencies accumulated by PL 480 sales could be sold at the current rate of exchange to U. S. importers for the procurement of materials or commodities from the recipient nation," Price said.

Bud To Blossom Club Installs New President

Wishes of members concerning next season's programs and the annual flower show, were expressed in Bud To Blossom Garden Club Friday, when a luncheon at Hickory Log Restaurant closed a year.

Mrs. W. H. Gentry, vice president, was advanced to the club presidency for the remainder of a two-year term, after the resignation of Mrs. Bruce Brown from that office. Mrs. Ernest Kendall was elected vice president to fill the vacancy.

Mrs. Brown installed the two in a brief program. She had decorated the table with a globe, marking Hereford's location with a green heart symbolizing the gardener, and extending gold ribbons to a cornucopia spilling spring blossoms on either side.

"The world is our home", she said, "and it is our duty to preserve and add to its beauty. In order to do this we seek knowledge, which we can acquire in our club". Although she resigned the presidency because of other duties requiring her time, Mrs. Brown will remain active in Bud To Blossom Club.

Mrs. Gentry, speaking briefly, repeated the purpose of the club to spread knowledge, first to its members and then to others.

She announced committee appointments for the coming year: Program-year book, Mmes. Delmo Williams, Bob Cooper, Bill Nelson and Kendall; flower show, Mmes. Nelson, Sam Long, Calvin Edwards, R.N. Yarbro and Jess Robinson; telephone, Mmes. G. S. Wheeler and Lloyd Sharp.

Mrs. Brown was named chairman of civic beautification, Mrs. Bob Ginn of horticulture, Mrs.

Local Firemen Attend Confab

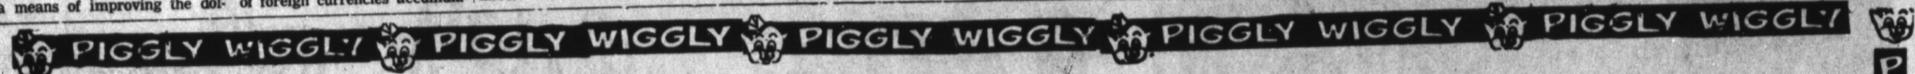

Several members of the Hereford Volunteer Fire Department traveled to Happy Saturday for the spring convention of the Panhandle Firemen's Association.

It was anticipated that about 35 members of the department would compete in the activities during the day. There were to have been pumper races, and water polo for the members of some 85 departments throughout the Panhandle, with an 8 p.m. banquet and dance ending the festivities.

Chairmen of project sub-committees are Mrs. Long and Mrs. Kendall, King's Manor grounds; Mrs. Cooper, arrangement clinic; Mrs. Herbert Bruns, anti-litter; Mrs. Weldon Stephan, peony garden at Community Center; Mrs. Williams, garden tour.

Mrs. Williams spoke informally of program plans for the new season, and Mrs. Nelson of flower show plans, both asking for members' suggestions.

Luncheon was served to a guest, Mrs. Floyd Coleman, and 14 members.
