Circus To Be Here Monday

The Khiva Shrine Circus, originally scheduled for Hereford but rained out last month, is coming to town Monday for two performances. Tickets are on sale from local Shriners, and all tickets originally purchased for the May 10 date are still good.

With new acts, new costumes and new production numbers, it is the same circus line-up as previously reported in the Brand. It will have 42 acts, from acrobats, aerialists and animal trainers to elephants and clowns.

It is entertainment for all ages.

But the total proceeds are used to cover the expenses of examination and treatment of children — such as the record-breaking number who participated in the Hereford Children's Clinic held here on May 18.

The money will also be contributed to the Scottish Rite Hospital for Cripple Children and the Shriners Burns Institutes.

Is there a more worthwhile cause?

Their annual budget now runs $14-million annually for these projects. This budget does not include the Hereford Children's Clinic, whose expenses will be in excess of $5,000 this year.

The Shriners supply entertainment in order to raise the necessary money for the physical and mental welfare of the children who might not have a chance in life otherwise.

From the opening Grand Entry to the awesome finish of the Grand Finale, the Shrine Circus provides thrills and chills packed into a fast-moving two-hour circus program of the very cream of circus talent.

The matinee performance will begin at 2 p. m. at Whiteface Stadium and the night performance at 8 p. m. at the same location.

Kershen Chosen As Delegate To National Meet

Andrew Kershen of Hereford will be one of the Texas delegates selected by Gov. John Connally to attend the 55th Annual National Convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress this week in Washington, D. C.

The convention will begin Tuesday at The Mayflower in Washington, and end Friday.

In a letter to Kershen, Connally said "The State's future in water resources conservation and development is promising. The cooperation among those responsible for anticipating and answering Texas' water needs is gratifying; however, we have much work to do in this task. To assist our endeavors, I hope you can attend this convention and actively engage in its deliberations."

Other delegates to the convention include State Representative Bill Clayton, John Kendrick of Brownfield, Marvin Shurbert of Petersburg, K. B. (Tex.) Watson of Amarillo and Colonel Cliff Chamberlain of Lubbock.

3 Businesses Set Open House

Three new Hereford businesses will be holding open houses today, with all local residents invited to visit and look over the facilities.

The Family Medical Clinic, operated by Dr. Gerald Payne and Dr. John McCrary, will hold open house at the new site on West Park Avenue from 1 until 3 p. m. today.

Thames Pharmacy, operated by John and Sheila Thames, will have open house from 1 until 4 p. m. at 110 S. Centre.

Carmichael Real Estate will hold open house from 2 until 5 p. m. today, with owner Troy Carmichael ready to meet visitors.

TWO WINNERS — Marguerite Newell received a check for first prize in her design of the official City of Hereford flag from Mid-Plains Pioneers president John Douglas Pitman. At the right is F. H. Oberthier as he addressed the audience after having been announced as the Pioneer Citizen of the Year by Clint Formby (right). Oberthier, 98, was also the oldest person in attendance Thursday. In the background of the first picture is Cecil Boyer and Mrs. Reed Williams.

Official Flag Presented

Record Number Of Pioneers See Oberthier Get Honors

By EARL MOSELEY
Staff Writer

The Mid-Plains Pioneer Celebration broke all records numerically at their annual meeting Thursday, presented the city with an official flag, and named F. H. Oberthier not only the Pioneer Citizen of the Year but the oldest man in attendance.

Clint Formby of Radio Station KPAN presented a bronze plaque to Oberthier, who is 98 years old. Oberthier not only accepted the plaque with pride but took the microphone and told the audience of his appreciation. Sharp of wit and credited with an amazing memory regarding the history of the area, he remained at the Bull Barn for further activities in reported disregard of doctor's instructions to the contrary.

Oberthier is credited as being a real pioneer. A resident of Deaf Smith County since May 1, 1968, he had lived in Castro County eight years previously. He had moved to Castro County from Dublin, in central West Texas, where he had been in the banking business with a salary of $40 per month.

Oberthier was one of 40 local men who contributed to the financing of the first irrigation test well. One of his greater contributions toward Hereford was that he built its first electric light plant.

The lights were turned on for Hereford on October 12, 1908.

He has been active in many civic activities here throughout his long life, and is a lifelong member of the First Christian Church.

Oberthier is also a lover of poetry, and has many choice books and selections of poetry in his collection.

He lives at Westgate, and will celebrate his 99th birthday August 4.

Three Boy Scouts of Troop 52 presented the colors. This included the City of Hereford flag which was designed by Mrs. Charles (Marguerite Rayzor) Newell and constructed by Mrs. Rena Rae Renfro Newton of Rena Rae of Texas Draperies, Hereford.

The flag was presented to Earnest Langley, president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, by Mid-Plains Pioneers president John Douglas Pitman. The flag will be on display in the future in the office of Hereford's Mayor Ray Cowser at the Hereford City Hall, it was reported.

The flag bearers were Eagle Scouts Carl Brown and Jimmy Dickerson and scout Ted Seyfert. Members of the Campfire group who participated in the celebration were Valerie Chism, Nancy Brink and Charlene Powell.

There were 615 plates served for the basket lunch, and an estimated 700 in attendance. Many of those in attendance had attended the 50th anniversary See RECORD, Page 2

Smith, Hazlewood Win In County

Preston Smith and Jack Hazlewood carried Deaf Smith County in the Democratic primary runoff Saturday enroute to victories in their respective races.

Smith and Don Yarborough had emerged from the May 4 primary with neither having a majority, so the runoff was required. Smith had carried Deaf Smith County by a wide margin in that race also, but Yarborough had the majority of votes statewide.

In the May 4 race for Associate Justice for the Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District, Hazlewood had a wide margin over his opponent James Joy, but Hereford attorney Bruce Miller had carried the county in that race. Miller was knocked out of the race and the runoff was necessary.

Building Permits Stable In May

Building permits issued at City Hall during May totaled $258,700, with three new residences accounting for more than one-third of the amount.

Of the 11 residential and three commercial permits, nine were for new homes. Two of the homes will be valued at $30,000 while the third will be $35,000. Two permits were for residential additions or repairs.

The three commercial permits included one for $27,000 for a new service station in the Welsh Addition, northwest Hereford.

For the first five months of 1968 building permits total $1,588,450. In 1967, there were $3,062,130 in building permits, including 155 new homes.

There had been 159 absentee votes turned into the Deaf Smith County Clerk's office by deadline time Tuesday.

Smith picked up 1165 votes here, while his opponent for the governor's seat, Don Yarborough, collected 531 votes in this county.

Hazlewood, from Amarillo, garnered 1089 of the votes cast here in the race for Associate Justice for the Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District, while his opponent, James Joy of Plainview, received 589 votes.

Sims, Precinct 4 was incomplete at presstime.

Got A Job To Do? Telephone YES!

Deaf Smith County residents have an opportunity to do a service for local youths as the Texas Employment Commission has announced its annual Youth Employment Service (YES).

Purpose of the program is to obtain a job for the youths of the immediate area for the summer. The program is sponsored by the Hereford Key Club and the Hereford Kiwanis Club, in cooperation with the Deaf Smith County Technical Action Panel.

Residents are urged to let the boys or girls do any type of work, whether it be short-time or full time. The only requirements are those set by the Child Labor Law.

Examples of the type work which could be offered the youths are baby sitting, yard work, repair work, deliveries and farm work.

Lester Rape, manager of the TEC, explained that youths are urged to contact his office for the job which are expected to come up during the summer. The TEC, in turn, will attempt to situate the right youth in the right job.

Twisters Sighted Near Here Friday As Hail Rakes Area

Deaf Smith County experienced its most turbulent weather of the year Friday as varying amounts of rain and hail fell over the immediate area, while several tornadoes were sighted.

The storm, which had been threatening most of the afternoon, reached its peak just before 5 p. m. and hail began to pepper the city. Sizes ranged from tiny, slushy fragments to golfball size. The frozen moisture nearly covered the ground at its height in some spots. There reportedly were some windows broken out in the city by the hail, which appeared to be heavier just south of Hereford.

Mrs. Clifford Johnson, who lives in a mobile home one mile south on the Dimmitt highway, told the Brand that the hail started at her home about 4:45 p. m. and lasted until 5:20. During that time, two windows were knocked out of the home and other damage was done to the outside. The damage was to have been assessed by experts Saturday.

Mrs. Johnson said she had seen a cloud hit the ground just south of her home near the L. J. Dirks residence. "It kept spinning and seemed to stay on the ground," she said, "so I called the Sheriff's office." Unable to hear what the dispatcher at the sheriff's office was saying because of the golfball size hail beating on her roof, Mrs. Johnson said she just told the man to send someone out to watch the storm.

Mrs. Johnson said the rain had measured 1.35 inches at her home.

About the same time as the storm was battering the Johnson home, there were reports of tornado sightings just south of Hereford, and near Summerfield. No damage was reported by the twisters, although numerous crops were damaged by the hail.

H. L. Hershey, 12 to 13 miles northeast of the city, said that he received .89 of rain which fell slow and easy. However, he did report the wind out of his way got high, but there was no damage from it and no hail.

Bill Ellis, who has a farm 12 1/2 miles north of Hereford, reported .85 of rain, and .70 on a farm west of town. Ellis also caught no hail.

Phillip Miller reported he had received .45 on his farm 18 miles west and 6 miles north of Hereford. It was still raining at the time of Miller's report Saturday morning.

Crops east of Hereford were heavily damaged Wednesday afternoon when a surprise hail storm rolled over that area. Traffic was brought to a standstill as visibility was near zero at the height of the storm.

For another insight into the stormy season, see story in this issue on the Citizen Band Radio Club and what they do in case of disasters.

Nazarene Church Honored Again

The Church of the Nazarene, 248 W. 16, has been chosen as the "outstanding church in this geographical area" and is one of 14 in the entire Church of the Nazarene denomination to receive such honors.

Rev. K. Dwight Southworth, pastor, explained that this geographical area includes churches in the states of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, Arkansas and Louisiana.

Dr. Orville Jenkins, executive secretary of the Department of Home Missions, reported in a letter to Southworth that the honor was given to the churches on the basis of all around growth and achievement. It is part of the church's "growing church achievement program."

The local church will be honored during the forthcoming General Assembly at Kansas City, Mo. The assembly begins June 14.

At the West Texas District Nazarene Assembly in May, 1967, the Hereford church received the honor as the "Outstanding Small Church" in the district over some 60 churches.

Hearing Is Set On Construction At Area Creek

AUSTIN — J. R. Hickman, 914 Avenue K., Hereford, has applied for a permit to appropriate state water, the Texas Water Rights Commission has announced.

Hickman has applied for the right to construct a dam and reservoir, having a capacity of 900 acre-feet, across Palo Duro Creek, tributary of Red River, and to use therefrom 800 acre-feet of water annually for the purpose of irrigating 800 acres per year. The proposed reservoir would be located 17 miles northeast of Hereford.

The Texas Water Rights Commission has announced a public hearing will be held on Hickman's application in Austin June 19 at 10 a. m. in Room 816 of the Sam Houston State Office Building, at which time the applicant and those favoring or opposing the project will be heard.

REFLECTIONS OF A STORMY AFTERNOON — Hereford experienced a bit of rough weather Friday afternoon as thunderstorms moved into the area. Rain totals across the area averaged .95. The above photo was taken on 25 Mile Ave., shortly after the heaviest part of the storm had passed. Photo is by Tyler Vance.

Golf Tournament To Be June 8-9

The first open partnership golf tournament will be held at the local green June 8th and 9th, it has been announced by Bob Baker, local pro.

There will be no qualifying as teams will be arranged in flights by combined handicaps. Teams are requested to keep handicaps within five shots of each other to make the tournament more fair.

The tournament will consist of 36 holes of low ball medal play with shot gun starts at 8:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. Acceptance for the tournament will be to the first 44 teams which pay their $20 entry fee.

It was also pointed out that Hereford players and teams will be allowed to make their own foursomes and play with the same group both days that the meet is held. All entry fees will be returned in the way of prizes.

If more information is needed, persons are urged to contact Baker at 364-2782.

Baseball Clinic Is Re-Scheduled

Jack Waggoner, high school baseball coach, has announced that the Little League baseball clinic which was scheduled to begin June 3, has been rescheduled to begin on June 10 instead. The change of dates is due to Waggoner having been out of town for the past few weeks and not having had time to send out all of the forms that were requested.

Waggoner has also reminded all boys 17 to 21 years of age that there is to be a New York Yankee try-out camp held in Hereford on the 8th of June beginning at 9 a. m. at the high school field.

The Hagans have been in the restaurant business for the past 17 years.

They have three daughters. Sharon Hagans is a 1968 graduate of Hereford High School. An older daughter is married and a younger daughter is still in elementary school.

Score the fat around veal chops before flouring or breading so that during cooking the chops won't curl.

Remove the white ribs, along with the seeds, when you are preparing green peppers for use in a salad or hot dish.

If you like to keep pine nuts on hand for use in various dishes, put them in a tightly closed jar and store them in the refrigerator. If stored for any length of time at room temperature, they'll stale.

Next time you use brown sugar and fruit juice as a glaze for baked ham, try adding a little dry mustard to the sugar-juice combination.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

WHEN a RH baby is born because of a strange complex blood typing that exists between the mother, the father, and the baby, there is risk to the health and development of the child. The condition originates before birth and is called erythroblastosis and occurs rarely in the first-born but more often in subsequent pregnancies.

Dr. Coleman

a profound anemia and jaundice, a yellow discoloration of the skin.

Much is known about the RH disorder and doctors always know in advance that such a child will be born because of repeated tests of the blood taken all throughout pregnancy.

A team of experts are ready to treat the child and when necessary actually remove all of the child's blood at birth while replacing it with normal healthy blood. Thousands of healthy children owe their lives to this remarkable exsanguination transfusion method.

On the immediate horizon there now is an RH-negative vaccine which will be given to a mother after the birth of her first child in order to protect future babies from developing this severe and dangerous blood disorder. The experimental work is so successful with the use of the new vaccine that the state of Massachusetts is beginning to manufacture and use this newly created vaccine when there is any suspicion that a RH blood situation may occur.

(© 1968, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The extreme value of all antibiotics, penicillin and sulfa is now measured in the prolonged health of millions of people who have benefited from them. One of the most difficult problems that confronts physicians is the severe allergic reaction that follows an injection of penicillin to a patient who is unusually sensitive to it.

There are a number of helpful ways to diagnose a drug allergy. Most of these are complicated and cannot be readily performed in the doctor's office. There now is concentration on the idea that a special protein portion of penicillin may be the possible explanation for the reaction it causes in some people.

Dr. J. George Feinberg, an American working with colleagues at the Beecham Research Laboratories in Britain, believes that he now can eliminate the offending substance in the penicillin mold and purify it so that all serious side effects from penicillin may be eliminated.

Tremendous strides are also being made in learning the reasons for allergic reactions to all other drugs, foods, and inhalants that now are responsible for so many difficult allergic illnesses.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Cause and Effect

Was Mrs. O'Leary, whose cow kicked over the lantern, legally liable for burning down the whole city of Chicago? After all, if she had not left that lantern in the barn, the fire never would have gotten started in the first place.

Obviously, in following the chain of cause and effect, it is only fair to cut off responsibility at some point. Even if you do something wrong, the law won't blame you for every single consequence, from here to eternity.

But just where is the cutoff point? That is a crucial issue in a great many of the personal injury suits so common in our courtrooms today.

To begin with, you are not liable at all if no causal connection can be shown. Suppose you are driving with an expired driver's license, and a pedestrian steps in front of your car—too suddenly for you to stop. True, you did wrong by driving with an expired license. But that would not make you liable for hitting the pedestrian, since there was no causal connection between the two events.

Even assuming a causal connection, you are still not liable if your action was not the "proximate" cause of the final harm.

What is a proximate cause? Of course, no two cases are identical. But what the law looks for most often is foreseeability. That is, you are usually not held liable if harm was not reasonably foreseeable as a result of your action.

On the other hand, if harm was indeed foreseeable, you may be responsible even if the exact form of the harm was not. Pulling away someone's chair, making a minor bump likely, could lead to liability for a major injury as well.

What if there is an "intervening" cause—some misconduct by a third party, following your own misconduct, and leading to the accident? Does that intervening cause let you "off the hook"?

Often it does. Yet you might still be liable if that intervening cause was something you could fairly have expected.

For example: a hardware dealer left a rake, standing upright, in a busy aisle. A small boy, running by, stepped on the teeth of the rake, snapping the handle against a woman's head.

When she sued the hardware man for damages, he argued that his original error was nullified by the boy's later misconduct in running through the aisle. However, the court held him liable in spite of this intervening cause.

Reason: he should have foreseen, when he left the rake there, that boys—especially small ones—will be boys.

Local Woman's Mother Receives College Degree

Mrs. Joe Rojek of Hereford was one of the three children, all teachers, of Mrs. Marcia Caldwell who saw their mother receive her associate in arts degree from Howard County Junior College in Big Spring Tuesday evening at the age of 63.

Mrs. Caldwell has proudly attended an even dozen graduation programs for her children as they completed junior high and high school, plus the conferring of two degrees for each of the three. In addition to the Hereford teacher, the children are Frank Caldwell of Lubbock and Mrs. Merle Dickerson of Amarillo.

The Politics Of Disruption

Editor's Note: The following editorial is a reprint of the column "The Wright Slant on Washington," written by Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth.

THE MOST disturbing recent development on the national scene is the appearance of a new philosophy alien to the American character. It can be described as "the politics of disruption." It is a form of blackmail against the whole of organized society. Its technique is to threaten a breakdown of order unless its demands are met. We see its ugly shape in a number of recent events:

*Students at such established institutions as Columbia, Princeton, Howard and the University of Maryland threaten mass disobedience and disruption of the entire academic process until their set of demands is granted.

*Leaders of the "Poor People's March" whose followers will be flooding into Washington in the next few days accompany their petitions with a thinly veiled threat. Reverend A. D. King, brother of the slain civil rights leader, said from his pulpit on Sunday, April 21 that "We are going to Washington and disrupt Washington so it cannot function unless it does something about the black folk."

*Dissidents opposed to the nation's international committees advocate the burning of draft cards, try by physical blockade to prevent students from talking with Air Force recruiters, and set up vocal chants to drown out officials of the U. S. government speaking by invitation upon college campuses.

*Certain groups threaten obstruction, disruption and riots at the sites of the national political conventions unless certain things are done.

THIS basic attitude is intolerable in a Democracy. Legitimate though complaints may be, no group has the right to threaten the breakdown of the lawful processes of free government. No man, no group, no cause is this important. Each group has the right to insist that its voice be heard. No group has the right to insist that its demands be heeded as the price for public order.

If this alien syndrome — the politics of disruption — should ever gain widespread acceptance in this country, then the idea of liberty under law would be doomed. And it has only two alternatives.

In one direction lies anarchy — the complete disintegration of lawful authority. In the other direction lies a Nazi-style police state. One is as deadly as the other. Either could destroy freedom as we have known it for nearly 200 years.

Investigation Of Supreme Court Is Ready To Begin

By BERT MILLS
Washington, D.C.—Has the U.S. Supreme Court exceeded its Constitutional mandate in recent years by usurping powers entrusted to the legislative branch of governments? Senate investigators think so and are out to prove their case.

Congress investigates almost everything but it is highly unusual for the Supreme Court to be the target. It is common for the Court to be criticized by individuals, including those in high places, but rare for a committee to seek to prepare an indictment of the court.

Undertaking the assignment is the Senate Subcommittee on Separation of Powers, headed by Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr. (D., N. C.). He has been judge himself and is regarded as one of the leading Constitutional lawyers in Congress. He has been planning his probe of the Supreme Court since his subcommittee was created last year.

Ervin is not beginning this war without a lot of troops behind him. He has lined up a trio of law professors as consultants to the subcommittee. Eight other experts on Constitutional law, including historians and political scientists, will participate in panel discussions at initial hearings in June.

Crisis of Confidence Seen

Sen. Ervin has stated the court "is faced with a crisis of confidence of a magnitude rarely equalled in its history." Without a doubt, public criticism of the course of the court has reached a peak in recent years as one unpopular decision has followed another.

Ervin takes the position that members of the Senate "have a responsibility to consider the work of the court and to criticize and to discipline it when in their judgment the court is behaving improperly." It is tough talk indeed to speak of "discipline" being applied to the Supreme Court.

A frequent critic of court decisions, Ervin argues that "one may criticize the court and its current notions of judicial superiority without in any way demeaning the institution." He wants to find the reasons for the "progressive decay of the Court's reputation, and do what we can to restore public confidence in the institution."

Initial hearings are intended as a public forum at which experts from the academic community will build a record. The panel discussions are only step one in a process which is bound to be lengthy. No matter how scholarly the witnesses, the role of the Supreme Court cannot be determined in four days.

How Will the Court React
Unaccustomed as it is to a formal investigation by a Congressional committee, the Supreme Court's reaction to the hearings is awaited with interest. Nobody expects Chief Justice Earl Warren to rush to Capitol Hill to answer the criticism that is bound to be aired.

On the other hand, the court has recently been burned by the Senate, which adopted a series of amendments to the crime bill which reversed key decisions by the current court. These amendments are not yet enacted into law and even if they are the Supreme Court could subsequently declare them illegal.

Conflicts between the legislative, judicial, and executive branches are inevitable under our system of checks and balances. Perhaps the nation has reached a point in its history when a fundamental change in the relationship between the three branches is in the offing.

Congress feels it has become subordinate to both the judiciary and the executive. The legislators are seeking to regain powers they feel have been usurped. Sen. Ervin's hearings are one step in that direction.

Ultimately, there will be a second step when the Senate subcommittee turns its attention to investigating usurpation of legislative powers by the President. That probe promises to be as interesting as the investigation of the court.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

As a member of the generation that joined the scene after World War II, I find myself anxiously reaching for the newspaper every day to see where all hell has broken loose this time. Upheaval, challenges to the status quo, were things I had never been exposed to before. Change is upon us; too many people don't know what to make of it.

One journalist has described this decade as a time of apprehension, distrust, doubt, and fear, much like what Americans must have experienced in the years 1765-1771.

Today there is really no "George Washington." There is no one person, no one cause, to bind citizens together. It is every man for himself, and people whose values have sandy foundations will find themselves unable to formulate any personal identity in the absence of a leader.

In essence, we have entered World War III, or so surmises the noted historian Arnold Toynbee. It is a worldwide revolt to upset an impersonal establishment. The revolt is being carried out in Czechoslovakia, in Russia, in France, and in the United States, to point out tangible examples. Some people are alarmed, some are confidently optimistic in the end result, and some are so unaware of changes taking place that they will only be bewildered.

What too many of us forget is that the upheaval is spontaneous. It has been created by our own productive society, geared to the idea that the answers to all problems are found in increasing the gross national product. The revolution is not unique to our country, and it is not unique to the free world. It is to be found in every industrialized nation, coming about in protest of impersonality and phoney causes.

Newspapers give us the impression that things are going from bad to worse, at least on the domestic scene, and they may be; fear for one's own life is not uncommon in urban areas.

However, simplistic answers of stricter law enforcement, less government spending and more individual responsibility will not stop the movement in progress. The upheaval can end only when we begin to live by our expressed convictions, when we begin to practice what we preach. That is, if we have any honest convictions in the first place.

A change can come when people seek the ends sought by our forefathers in 1776. The Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, also the revolution, were demonstrations against impersonal treatment by an aloof, paternal country.

We praise our ancestors for the role they played in the 1776 battles, for seeking to enrich American lives. The revolution is happening again. We may fight it, but we should not cast it off without examining its purposes of enriching our human lives. We may condemn tactics, but we can't condemn the ends.

Unofficially, it is estimated that there are still about 62 men left in Class One in this county, and this new addition will give the county a good margin to go on before calling upon Class 2 (those listed here) for quite awhile.

The Garcia Lake oil test well, located on the rim of Garcia Lake, about 35 miles northwest of Hereford, is now down to the depth of 1,430 feet, and what is known as the White Horse sand has been struck. This is a formation, according to E. H. Blood, found in some of the big oil gushers in Oklahoma. The drillers are working 24 hours a day and have gone through some hard and difficult formations and hope that drilling now will progress more rapidly.

All county quotas on rationed farm machinery were cancelled this week by the Texas USDA War Board, which issued a statement pointing out that purchases of farm machinery are no longer restricted to the county in which a farmer carries out his operations. He may purchase from any dealer in the state under the new regulations. Farmers must, however, locate the machinery they wish to purchase and obtain a purchase certificate from the county farm machinery ration board before making a purchase.

Hereford Rural District High School voters Tuesday voted to accept a proposed $630,000 building improvement bond issue, through only slightly more than half as many turned out as in January when a similar issue was rejected. Tuesday's issue was approved by a 156 margin, with 422 voters for the issuance of bond and 266 against. For the first time in three years, a victim of rattlesnake bite was reported in Hereford. Recovering now in Deaf Smith County Hospital is Gary Landers, 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Landers of 285 Higgins. According to Gary's father, a city mail carrier, the youth was apparently bitten while playing in the yard around the Landers home sometime Thursday afternoon.

5 YEARS AGO — 1963

Heavy thunderstorms with damaging hail and heavy winds have continued to soak the Deaf Smith County area. For three consecutive days, the storms have rumbled across the county. As the storms moved across the area, three confirmed funnel clouds in the Buffalo Lake area skirted the county. Another funnel was reported by a Hereford Police Department patrolman near Summerfield about 2:30 a. m. Saturday. Harry Schults of Dalhart, judge of the 69th Judicial District, has called a special meeting to discuss the advisability of hiring a district juvenile officer. Invited to the meeting are county judges, mayors and school superintendents within the six-county area. The meeting will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday, in the district court room at Channing.

Produce Dealer Fails To Pay Company Here Reparation Award

Milton Trujillo, produce dealer at 5052 Conley Rd., El Paso, Texas, has failed to pay a produce shipping firm in Hereford, a reparation award of $404 issued under the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today.

Officials of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service said Mr. Trujillo is not entitled to conduct business under the PAC Act until the reparation award is satisfied. He cannot be employed by another PACA licensee without USDA approval, officials said.

C&MS said the Texas firm had failed to pay for two truckloads of potatoes and onions purchased in interstate commerce. Mr. Trujillo was advised of the complaint, but did not answer the charges. USDA ordered payment of the purchase price, plus interest, through default proceedings.

Regulatory services of PACA for Texas and other southwestern states are handled by the Ft. Worth office, regulatory branch, fruit and vegetable division, C&MS, USDA. Joseph E. Ward is in charge of the office, Room 9-C-63 Federal Office Bldg 819 Taylor Street.

The Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act established a code of good business conduct for the produce industry. As a means of enforcing that code it requires that interstate traders in fresh and frozen fruits and vegetables be licensed. The law authorizes USDA to suspend or revoke a trader's license for violating the Act.

Concerning Veterans

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q — I recently got out of a Veterans Administration hospital after being confined there more than a month for treatment for a disability not related to my military service. Is it true that I am entitled to payment from VA for this period since I was hospitalized for more than 21 consecutive days?

A — If, as your letter indicates, you were hospitalized and treated by VA for a non-service-connected disability, you are not eligible for the compensation that is paid for the temporary 100 per cent rating given by VA to all veterans hospitalized more than 21 consecutive days for treatment of a service-connected disability.

Q — I had active military service from May to December 1955 and came out without a scratch. However, I am now disabled as a result of an accident. Am I entitled to a pension?

A — Not according to the facts stated. One of the requirements for a noncontinuous active duty, any part of it during a wartime period, or be separated from wartime service for a disability incurred in service in the line of duty. Your period of service was not during wartime, so you are not eligible for a non-service-connected pension under existing law.

Q — Last summer a buddy of mine, who served in Viet-Nam, was discharged and applied for G. I. Bill apprenticeship training. He was told that there was no apprenticeship program. I'll soon be getting out of service and have been told that I can enter apprenticeship training and receive G. I. Bill benefits.

What's the story?
A — The story is that both your buddy and you are eligible for G. I. Bill education and training benefits, including apprenticeship training. What undoubtedly happened is that your friend applied for apprenticeship training benefits before the new law authorizing this type of training was signed by the President last Aug. 31. Since Oct. 1, 1967, when the new or expanded education and training benefits provided by this law went into effect, apprentice ship training has been authorized for veterans who served after Jan. 31, 1955.

Residents May Get Seedlings Free From Agriculture Offices

Although seedling shipments will not begin until about December 15, tree farmers are urged to get their orders in early this year.

About 11 million slash, loblolly and shortleaf pine seedlings will be available from the Texas Forest Service nursery near Alto.

Regular slash, loblolly and shortleaf seedlings will sell for $6.12 per thousand, which includes state sales tax while the same species, produced from seed collected from seed production areas, will be a dollar more per thousand.

Drought-hardy loblolly pine seedlings produced from seed collected from genetically improved seed orchards will be offered this year at the same price of $7.14 per thousand, tax included.

All prices quoted are F. O. B. Indian Mound Nursery near Alto.

Seedlings must be ordered in multiples of 100 and no orders for less than 500 can be accepted. Seedlings are not available for resale or for ornamental purposes.

Seedling applications and additional information may be obtained from local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service and soil conservation district offices, from county agricultural agents and from the Texas Forestry Association at Lufkin. Applications also can be obtained from your nearest district headquarters of the Texas Forest Service or by writing the Director, Texas Forest Service, College Station.

Underground Irrigation System Has Been Installed At Halfway

A permanent-set, underground sprinkler system recently has been installed at the High Plains Research Foundation on the 310-acre farm at Halfway, Texas. The installation was jointly sponsored by Gifford-Hill Western and the Eastern RainBird Sprinkler Company. An injector pump for application of chemicals is being furnished by the Nor-Pak Company of Dumas.

This 5.7 acre experimental system should offer great potential in water savings through better efficiency and timing of irrigation. Labor costs should be cut sharply, and extreme minimum tillage is very possible.

Water is supplied through a 6-inch pressure line of plastic pipe to ten separate 2-inch lateral lines. Each lateral contains either 11 or 12 risers 3/4 inch in diameter with sprinkler heads spaced alternately for multiple coverage. Each lateral can be controlled through a heat-activated valve which is wired to a master control panel. The control panel can be programmed to operate independently for up to two weeks. This means that each lateral line can be turned on for any length of time desired, up to 60 minutes, with exact amounts of water specified, and the entire process can be repeated if desired. Chemical solutions can also be injected in specific amounts when needed. Once the control panel is programmed, the complete cycle can be activated by a master switch and no further attention is necessary.

In 1968, the Research Foundation will conduct a number of tests, under the direction of Jim Valliant, Soil Scientist. Primary crops to be studied will include grain sorghum and cotton this first year, with the objectives to include a cost analysis of the system, the desirability of applying fertilizers, herbicides, and pesticides through the system, and its possible practicality for the Texas High Plains.

Free Speech for Congressmen

Do congressmen talk too much? If they do, one reason may be that they have—by law—more freedom of speech than you and I.

Suppose that a senator, in the course of debate, accuses a prominent businessman of cheating on his income tax return. Even if the senator has no proof at all, he cannot be held liable for defamation of character. As a member of Congress, he is protected by what the law calls an "absolute privilege" against liability for slanderous statements.

In fact, a congressman is protected not only against slander suits but even against criminal charges—if based on what he says in the course of debate. For example:

A bribery charge was brought against a congressman on the basis of a speech he gave on the House floor favorable to a certain financial institution. There was some evidence that he had collected a payoff from the institution for giving the speech.

But the court ruled that, even if the charge was true, he still could not be convicted—because that would be an infringement of a congressman's special freedom of speech.

Such an occurrence is the rare exception rather than the rule. And while it has been argued that there are grave dangers in entrusting to any individual so much leeway, there is a powerful purpose behind this principle of law: to encourage the utmost freedom in congressional debate.

The fear of unpleasant legal consequences, either justified or unjustified, could well put a real damper on a congressman's performance of his job. For the same reason, similar protection is given to lawmakers in almost all democratic countries.

Still, a congressman's freedom of speech is not totally without limits. One restraint (seldom used) is Congress' own power to discipline a member who abuses his privilege.

Another, more important restraint is that the congressman loses his immunity if he repeats his statements outside of Congress, apart from his official functions.

But probably the most effective restraint on an unscrupulous congressman lies in what the voters can do to him, come next Election Day:

GI Loan Changes May Aid Widows

Recent changes in the GI home loan program should make it easier for thousands of unmarried widows to get GI home loans, Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco, announced today.

Basic eligibility requirements are that the widow's husband either died on active duty or from a service-connected disability, Coker said, and the veteran's service was during World War II or after June 27, 1950.

A new law permits the VA to guarantee home loans up to $12,500 of the loan amount but not more than 6 percent of the loan Coker added.

The higher ceiling on GI loan interest rates that went into effect recently should help these widows to get a GI loan from a commercial lending institution, he said.

Many eligible widows had husbands who served in World War II; under current legislation, they still have more than two years to obtain a GI loan — until July 25, 1970.

Entitlement for qualified widows of men who served in the Korean Conflict is not scheduled to expire until January 31, 1975.

Widows whose spouses served during the Vietnam era — or any time after January 31, 1955 — will have their eligibility expire:

- (a) 20 years from the date of the veteran's death in service,
- (b) 20 years from the date of the veteran's discharge, or,
- (c) March 3, 1976 — whichever is later.

Funeral Rites Scheduled For Mrs. G. L. Muse

She came as a girl to this county from Oklahoma. She was a member of First Christian Church.

Chinese Dish Sounds Good

By Mrs. Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

Gwen London was nice and brought us a new cookbook that had just been received in the Library. It is Myra Waldo's Chinese Cookbook and is very interesting.

If you like Chinese food, check the book out and try some of the recipes as they are supposed to be simplified. I had been looking for a certain Egg Fu Yung recipe. This one sounds good.

EGG FU YUNG

1/4 cup peanut or vegetable oil
1 green onion, chopped
1/2 cup cooked pork, ham, chicken or shellfish
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1 teaspoon salt

1 cup bean sprouts
1/4 cup sliced mushrooms, canned or fresh
4 eggs, beaten
Sauce

Heat 2 tablespoons oil in a skillet until very hot. Add the chopped onion and stir 2 minutes. Remove pan from heat and add the cooked meat, chicken or shellfish, the soy sauce, salt, bean sprouts and mushrooms. Mix well, drain and allow to cool.

When completely cooled, stir in the beaten eggs. Have oil for frying 1/2-inch deep in a skillet and bring to 375 degrees. With a soup ladle, spoon the meat and vegetable mixture into the oil, frying about 1/4 of the mixture at a time. Allow to get golden brown on both sides, then serve immediately with sauce.

SAUCE

1 cup water
1 teaspoon soy sauce
2 tablespoons oyster sauce one-eighth teaspoon monosodium glutamate

1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons cornstarch mixed with 2 tablespoons cold water one-eighth teaspoon black pepper

Bring the water to a boil. Add other ingredients with the exception of cornstarch paste. Remove from heat, thicken with the paste, return to heat and simmer 2 minutes.

If desired, the Fu Yung may be garnished with additional chopped green onion.
Serves 6.

Witherspoons Hold Reunion

Forty of the Witherspoon family got together for their third annual reunion at the Hickory Log in Hereford Wednesday night, on the eve of the Mid-Plains Pioneer celebration.

When the Witherspoon men first came into Deaf Smith County at the turn of the century, they were cowboys on the XIT Ranch. Since then, they have had a long family history here. Hosting the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. Vern Witherspoon of 201 N. Jackson, Hereford.

Those from Hereford who attended the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mathews, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Riddle and Garry, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Witherspoon.

THE SMALL BLACK ants are invading porches and houses. Many requests for control of the ants have come to the office. Small black ants feed on any kind of food material in the home including sweets and greasy foods.

For control inside the house, apply 2 or 3 percent chlordane or 0.5 percent dieldrin household spray where ants are noticed, giving particular attention to drainboards, window sills, door thresholds and pantry shelves.

Outside the house, apply a band of insecticidal dust or spray around the foundation wall and treat all nests found in the yard. Use 10 per cent chlordane, 2 per cent dieldrin or 5 per cent heptachlor dusts.

LOCAL MISSIONARY TO HAVE SURGERY

Miss Naomi Hare, a missionary from the First Methodist Church of Hereford and daughter of Mrs. A. A. Hare of 600 Plains, Hereford, has returned home from Chihuahua, Mexico, for surgery Wednesday morning at the Deaf Smith County Hospital.

An Air Force 'Venus Fly-trap' rocket collected what is probably the first samples of dust ever retrieved from space, in 1961. At a height of 47 miles, the rocket opened eight metal leaves, which were promptly struck by about 10 particles per square centimeter each second.

County Servicemen Listed On Legion Scroll Of Honor

The names of the Deaf Smith County servicemen whose pictures were offered for display during Memorial Week, and who will be added to the Scroll of Honor by the American Legion Auxiliary, have been released for publication.

The Legion Auxiliary explained that the list does not, unfortunately, include the names of all the local service personnel, due to the fact that they could only go by the names submitted to them by the parents and wives who are still living here — with the sincere wish that they could have gotten all the names.

Those who were submitted are:

- PFC Wesley Lee Layman, Vietnam.
- PFC James L. Thuett, Vietnam.
- Sp.4 Johnny N. Leigh, Germany.
- Ignacio Padilla, Germany.
- Lt. Charlie Thomas, Vietnam.
- Sp.4 Roger W. Mercer, Vietnam.
- Sp.4 Roger Westberry, Vietnam.
- S-Sgt. Carl Schroeder (32 mos. in Vietnam. He is a career man with 18 years in the Army. Schroeder has also received four Purple Hearts.)

Sp.5 Leroy George, returned from Vietnam, now at Fort Hood, Texas.

Sgt. Jerry E. Tucker, Cpl. R. Wayne Hastings, George Schulte (stateside), Sp.4 Tommy D. West.

T-Sgt. John L. Green, Korea. PN-3 David A. Green (now discharged with disability, receiving treatment at Fort Lyons Colorado. He served on the U. S. S. Kitty Hawk in Vietnam waters.)

Lewis A. Poarch, serving on U. S. S. Henry W. Tucker. Lt. Col. Lloyd H. Manjeot, Okinawa.

Sgt. Paul M. Hoff, Jr. (stateside).

Don W. Schmer, Philippines. Byron Grover, Vietnam. Pvt. Larry A. Duncan (stateside).

Edward A. Gallagher, (stateside).

L-Cpl. Richard Rickman, Vietnam. Sp.5 James R. Keese, Vietnam. Sp.4 Glen D. Stovall, Vietnam. PFC Leroy E. Drerup, Vietnam.

Tommy Reeves (stateside). Jerry E. Warren (stateside). Sp.4 Oscar Martinez, Vietnam. Sp.4 Robert Caraway. Sgt. Conney White.

PFC Paul A. Hagar, Vietnam. Leslie L. McGee. Walter L. Burrow. Sgt. Johnnie K. Rogers. Sgt. Ebb Martin.

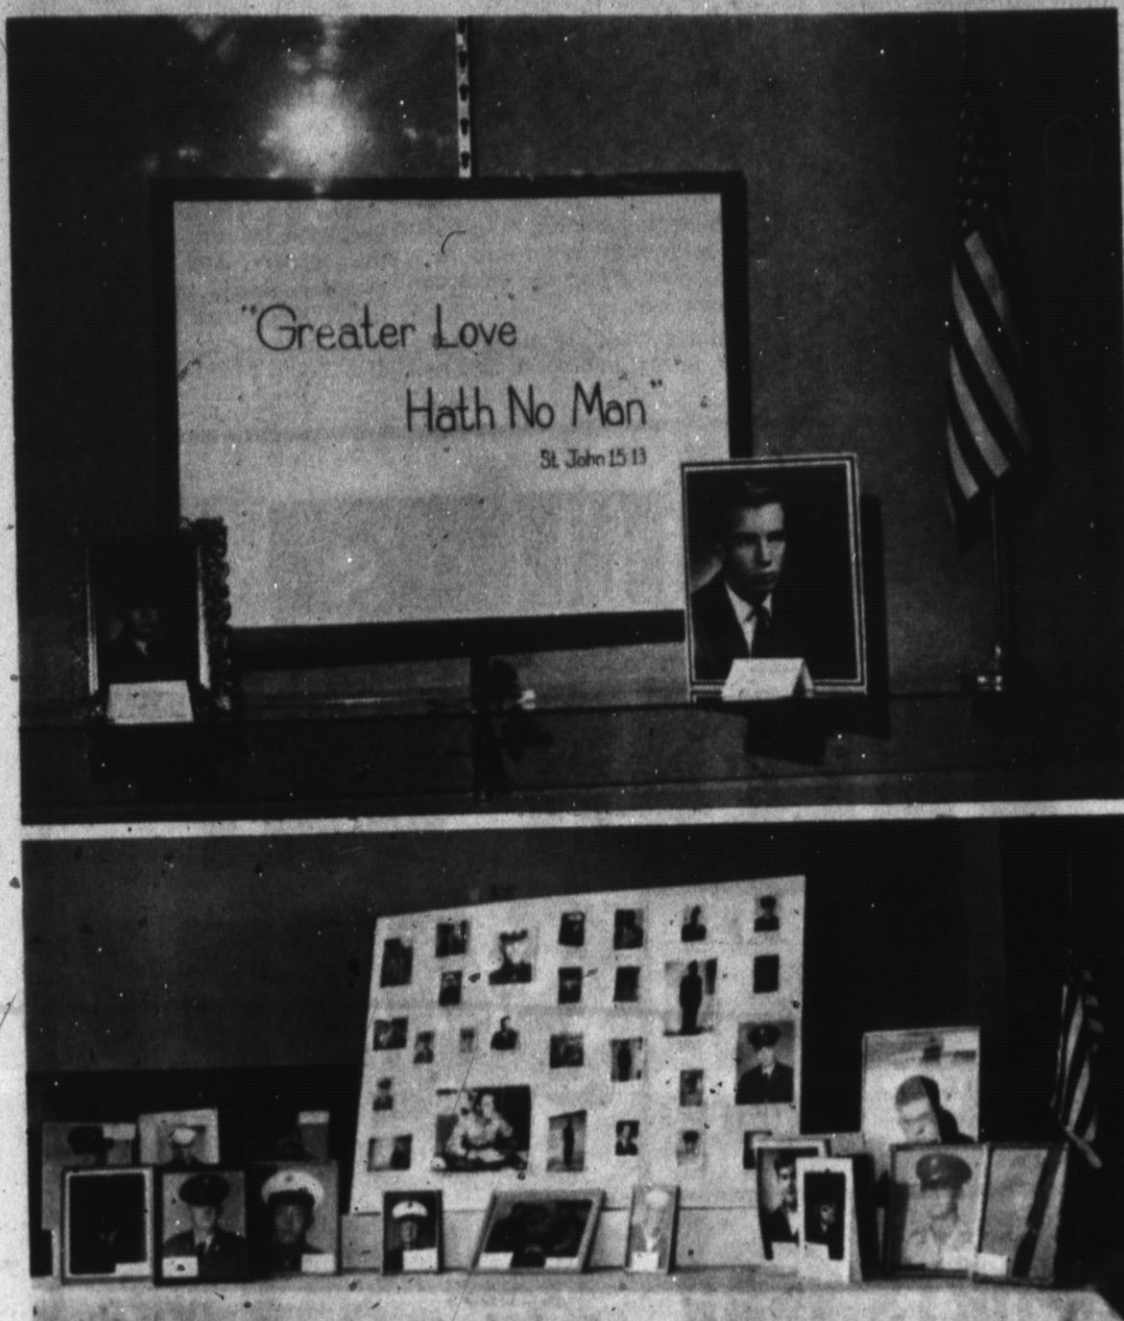

Lt. Clyde D. Sorrells. The pictures of these men have been on display at the Plains Insurance building at 213 N. Main.

A special display has been erected for James Pavlicek and Arthur C. Tijerina, who were killed in action during the Vietnam conflict, at the First National Bank.

The Legion Auxiliary reported that Poppy Day sales on Wednesday amounted to slightly more than $22 — an all-time record sale here over the years.

The officers and members of the Hereford American Legion Auxiliary Post 192 have expressed their deep appreciation toward all the people here who bought the poppies, and to the Boy Scouts and Junior Auxiliary members who aided the Senior Auxiliary with the details.

The entire amount of the sale will go toward the welfare of the veteran and the veteran's families.

SCROLL OF HONOR — The American Legion Auxiliary Post 192 of Hereford had the two displays shown here set-up for Memorial Week. The one at the top, located in the lobby of the First National Bank, was in honor of Hereford's two Vietnam casualties, James Pavlicek and Arthur Tijerina. The display pictured below, at 213 N. Main, honored 40 others who have in the recent past or are at present in the service of our country.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — My neighbor got his refund check a month after he filed; but I'm still waiting for mine, and it's been two months since I sent in my return. What's the hold-up?

A — The date the return was filed has a lot to do with how long it takes to issue a refund. Returns filed early can be processed and the check issued much quicker than returns that are received just before the April 15 deadline.

Unless you made an error on your return you should be receiving your refund check within the next several weeks. However, if the refund doesn't come within ten weeks from the time you filed, write the regional service center. Give you name, social security number and the date you filed to help them trace it.

Q — Can you use the new Form 1040-X to correct a mistake on a 1040-A?

A — Yes. Form 1040-X can be used to correct mistakes made by taxpayers filing either Form 1040 or 1040-A.

Q — This year's income looks like it will be lower than what I thought it would be when I filed my estimated tax declaration. How can I change it?

A — Changes in estimated tax declarations can be made by filing an amended declaration on or before the next filing date — June 17, 1968, Sept. 16, 1968, or Jan. 15, 1969. For this purpose use the form provided on the bill if one is mailed to you. If you do not receive a bill, obtain Form 1040-ES (Amended) from your IRS office.

Q — On a refund check made out to a husband and a wife, do they both have to endorse the check before it can be cashed?

A — Yes, both signatures are needed.

Q — I plan to rent my house while I'm in Europe for two years. Will this income be taxable?

A — Yes it will. However, you may deduct from the rentals you receive, depreciation as well as the amounts you spend for taxes, repairs and other expenses.

Keep good records of both your rental income and rental expenses so that you will be able to file an accurate return next year.

Q — Why does IRS want the name, address, and social security number of someone who is a big winner at Keno or some other game in Reno?

A — This information is required so that the casino can report to IRS the payments it makes of $600 or more of gambling winnings. This is similar to the procedure that race tracks follow.

Two-year-old pacer Fulla Napoleon won 20 of 23 starts and $170,419 in 1967.

Senator Tower Speaks

Crime And Housing Bills Are Major Steps Forward

After many months of deliberation the Senate has completed action within the last week on two very important bills — the Law Enforcement Bill and the Housing and Urban Development Bill.

Normally, we refer to these two omnibus legislative measures more simply as just the "Crime Bill" and the "Housing Bill." I know Texans are interested in both of them, and I want to take the time today to report to you on just what we have accomplished in these bills.

First, let's talk about the Crime Bill.

I have known from your calls, letters and conversation that Texans have been deeply concerned for a long time about the increasing lawlessness in our society. I know, too, that you have felt the federal government should be doing more to restore safety and order.

I believe this year's Crime Bill is a major step forward. It is finally agreed to by the House of Representatives and signed by the President in anything near its Senate-passed form, our law officers will have a series of strong, new tools.

The Crime Bill provides for the use of federal tax funds as direct grants to the states for all sorts of anti-crime programs. In particular, these funds — some hundred-million-dollars in the first year — will be used for law officer training, communications improvements and specific attacks on organized crime and rioting.

LIONS HEAR CPA — James E. Jenkins of Amarillo, a certified public accountant, described his profession to members of the Hereford Lions Club during their regular noon meeting Wednesday. Jenkins stressed the importance of businessmen getting help on their records.

The Bill also took note of several Supreme Court decisions which have hampered the admission as evidence of such things as voluntary confessions. The Senate overruled the high court and has made it much easier for lower federal court judges to admit voluntary confessions as trial evidence. Also, the Senate reversed the Supreme Court in allowing more reasonable leeway to law enforcement officers for their arrest and questioning procedures.

The Crime Bill passed by the Senate also allows the carefully-controlled use of wiretapping to gain evidence in national-security cases; where mob crime is suspected; and in other felonies and loan-sharking in which state lines are breached in the course of the crime.

A modified gun-control provision in the Senate bill prohibits interstate, mail-order sales of any type of firearm by felons, mental incompetents, aliens illegally in our country, and those dishonorably discharged from the armed services.

In short, the Law Enforcement Bill of 1968 concentrates on protecting the rights and safety of law-abiding citizens — not just on protecting the rights of criminals. It is a welcome change of emphasis, indeed.

Let's turn our attention, now, to the 1968 Housing Bill. It has some new directions and long-range provisions that probably will have as great an effect on order and progress as will the new anti-crime programs.

As you know, I've been a member of the Senate committee that considers housing proposals ever since you first elected me to this office. Over the years I have tried to help shape housing legislation which would insure all Americans a decent home while preserving both individual initiative and private enterprise.

For a long time, many of us charged with this responsibility have felt that the federal government was wrong in placing almost total emphasis on the creation of rental housing, particularly in programs designed to house lower-income families. This year, for the first time, we have perfected a bill that will provide federal assistance through a program designed to make not just rental — but homeownership a possibility for all Americans.

The Housing Bill, as approved by the Senate, provides a special program of mortgage-payment assistance. Instead of the federal government just paying to have rental units built, or just providing rent-supplement payments, this homeownership program will help thousands of American families more progressively toward the goal of owning their own home.

This is another dramatic change of emphasis in the use of federal tax funds. It's one of the most important accomplishments I've witnessed in my seven years in the Senate.

Low-income American families have not in the past been able to get the credit necessary for them to embark on a home buying project. This new Housing Bill will help make that credit possible; will help the most needy with payment subsidies; and will ultimately result in a whole new group of American homeowners.

Nothing could be more calculated, in my opinion, to add responsibility, initiative and stability to our society.

I think the important precedent that was set in this bill is that we have finally recognized that government has not the resources to do everything to alleviate the conditions of the underprivileged and the poor in this country. And, indeed, government should not do all of these things that private enterprise does have the resources and should be involved.

FLAG PRESENTATION — In the top scene, Mid-Plains Pioneers president John Douglas Pitman displays the official City of Hereford flag to the audience at the celebration for the first time. The flag bearer is Eagle Scout Jimmy Dickerson. Below is shown a part of the estimated 700 people at the Bull Barn Thursday who joined in the 70th anniversary celebration of Hereford.

More Water Is Used Each Year

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF WATER, INC.

Over five times as much water is used in Texas today as 20 years ago. Increases in population, irrigation and industrial growth have expanded the total state water requirements to the point we face a potential scarcity. Already a scarcity exists in some areas and as groundwater depletion becomes more widespread, the size of the water short areas will increase.

More than one-third of the total annual water supply in Texas comes from underground sources. Three-fourths of the states' towns and 80 percent of its irrigated farm lands have drawn most of their water from beneath the earth's surface. Constant large scale withdrawals for exceeding these underground rates are seriously depleting these underground reserves. Unless other water supplies are rapidly developed, Texas irrigated acreage will be reduced by two-thirds.

This is the situation facing Texas today. This is causing national, state, and local policy decisions to be made which will effect all areas facing a potential shortage such as West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

The Bureau of Reclamation of the United States Department of Interior has stated in its progress report on West Texas and Eastern New Mexico Import Projects Investigations that a surplus of water exists in the Mississippi. The amount of surplus water and the most practical point of withdrawal are being studied by the Corps of Engineers and Mississippi River Commission.

The fact that there will be a national need for additional farm

Latest USDA Report Shows Farmer Faces Rise In Costs

"The latest report from the Department of Agriculture confirms our contention that the American farmer is sinking further into the economic quicks with each passing year," the House Republican Task Force on Agriculture said today. The panel referred to the April "Farm Income Situation" report from the Department's Economic Research Service. Task Force member Bob Price pointed specifically to farm production expenses. "The report tells us that farm production expenses this year may run up to $1-1/2 billion higher than last year's Agriculture Department estimate," he said, "reflecting the effect of increasing inflation on the American farmer."

land by 1985 is well established by studies conducted by the Texas A&M University Water Resources Institute. The National Market will consume all we can produce on land irrigated now plus over 600,000 acre of land which it will be economically possible to irrigate with import water. Growing population, expanding industry and increased demand for agricultural products demand increasing water supplies for each industry or it dies or moves.

The potential for growth on the High Plains with import water is limitless, the potential for growth without import water is non-existent. Water, Inc. is your voice. Your support is needed to make that voice louder and more confident.

cent since 1966, according to the report," the Panhandle Congressman said. "That same Situation Report shows that taxes payable per acre also rose 53 percent and interest payable per acre rose 10 percent during that same period.

"Compare such increases with the much smaller .7 percent increase in the per acre index on prices received for all commodities as reported in USDA's Agricultural Statistics publication, and you can readily understand why our farmers feel the ever-increasing pressures of the current pinch. There's a limit on how much a farmer can squeeze out of an acre of land in income, but there seems to be no limit on where his per acre expenses can go under current Administration policies."

PER ACRE STATISTICS ALARMING

Price said he was particularly alarmed at the rise in capital expenditures, taxes and interest payments as calculated by the Department on a per acre basis. "Capital expenditures, including farm buildings, vehicles and other machinery and equipment, have risen 5 per-

Opera Fan Attends Met Season In Minneapolis

Her annual visit to Minneapolis for Metropolitan Opera week has been made by Mrs. D. W. Palmer, who returned recently to her home, 149 Liveoak.

Formerly a resident of near-by North Dakota, Mrs. Palmer has been listed as a guarantor for the Met programs in Minneapolis for many years — at present the only one from Texas.

She plans a trip each year to see and hear performances presented by the Met's touring company, which incidentally will make its annual visit to Dallas next week.

Mrs. Palmer met her son, Seattle attorney Glenn Toomey, in Minneapolis and together they attended the operas and a number of parties given for singers, orchestra members and other personnel of the touring company with whom they have become acquainted through years of going to the opera, or through Mrs. Palmer's study of music in New York.

They were hosts at one of the post-performance parties, a supper in the Old Cheshire Cheese Restaurant of the Sheraton-Ritz Hotel. Their guests included Franco Corelli and Mirella Freni, who sang the title roles in Gounod's opera, Romeo and Juliet, at one of the evening performances.

Other operas in the series, which the Hereford voice teacher pronounced one of the best ever heard in Minneapolis, were Tosca, Carmen, The Marriage of Figaro and two of Verdi's less familiar works, La Forza del Destino and Luisa Miller. Mrs. Palmer especially liked the production of Carmen with a new voice at the Met, that of negro singer Grace Bumbry, in the role of Bizet's tempestuous Spanish heroine.

TVS's first assignment was to construct a system of dams and reservoirs to promote navigation and control destructive flood waters on the Tennessee River and its tributaries.

C-C Group To Discuss Theatre

Stage-struck residents of this area are invited to the meeting of Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce Fine Arts Committee at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Community Center. Purpose of this session is to discuss possibilities for organizing a community theatre.

Anyone who would like to act, direct plays, work on stage settings, lighting, costumes or even scene shifting, is invited to meet with the committee, announces Mrs. R. C. Godwin, chairman.

She adds that previous experience in theater activity is not necessary, although persons of any age who have worked with school plays or other amateur productions will be welcomed. The meeting is also open to those who simply would like to see an organization formed to present live drama in Hereford.

Highest exacta payoff during 1967 at the Yonkers Raceway meeting was $1,027.30 on Nov. 16. Seven and three were the numbers on the third race.

Medicare Benefits Can Be Used For Buying Medical Equipment

Medicare can now help pay for the purchase of medical equipment, Travis C. Briggs, social security district manager, said today.

"Previously, Medicare helped pay only for the rental of such items as wheel chairs and hospital beds which a beneficiary needed for use at his home," Briggs pointed out.

"But now the patient can decide whether he wishes to purchase, rather than rent, the needed equipment, if it appears that he will need it for a long period. If he purchases the equipment, part of the cost will be reimbursed either in installments or in a lump-sum, depending on the price. If the patient has had doctor bills during the year totaling $50 or more, Medicare would pay 80 percent of the purchase cost of the equipment. But if he has had no other medical expenses the first $50 of the cost would come out of his pocket."

"This coverage applies only to those who signed up for the supplemental part of Medicare, involving a $4 a month premium."

Briggs said that payment can be requested either by the supplier or the patient. In addition to the invoice for the equipment, a statement by the physician as to its medical necessity and how long it will be needed is required. Further information regarding requests for payment can be obtained from the Amarillo social security office.

AFTER-OPERA SUPPER — Mrs. D. W. Palmer of Hereford, left, was hostess at a supper after on of the Metropolitan Opera Tour performances during a recent week in Minneapolis. She is pictured with Mirella Freni, center, and Franco Corelli, stars of the Romeo and Juliet production, and Dame Alicia Markova, director of the Met ballet. Mrs. Palmer's son, Glenn Toomey of Seattle, pictured at right with Mrs. Corelli, was host with his mother.

A boned and rolled lamb shoulder roast is a good choice for the rotisserie. Serve the roast with heated canned chick peas mixed with buttered rice. Good! And different too.

Kamehameha Day is June 11 in Hawaii, recalling the memory of King Kamehameha I, the "Napoleon of the Pacific." President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the Tennessee Valley Authority into existence on May 18, 1933, as a corporation clothed with the power of government, but possessed of the flexibility and initiative of a private enterprise.

The Hereford Brand Sports

Page Thirteen
Hereford, Texas, Sunday, June 2, 1968

If you haven't had the chance to just mosey around by the two tennis courts located in town here, why don't you give it the once-over the next time you happen to be in their vicinity. More than likely if you don't make it during the wee hours of the morning or the late hours of the night, you will probably find several persons out there giving the old, and new courts, a good workout.

Lately it seems that more and more persons are turning their eyes to the fast-moving, invigorating sport, and seemingly getting something out of it besides tired legs and sore muscles. While tennis is not a highly recognized sport in this area at the time, I feel sure it will be someday if the current trend keeps up. Here in Hereford, we have a new set of courts that will accommodate four games of singles or doubles as the case may be, and the growing interest in the sport is alarmingly good.

Through watching some of the persons out there, I feel there is a good deal of potential in the town, but what it needs now is something to give it a helping hand in taking its first step toward a competitive athletic sport in the local high school.

Maybe it is just coincidence or just something else, but it just so happens that a tennis pro is about to make his appearance in this area with the idea of promoting the area-dormant sport. If enough persons take an interest in the sport, there is always a possibility that it could catch on here in a hurry. In catching on, it would open another door for athletics in the local system and possibly in the summer months and as we all know, athletic participation is an important thing in anyone's life. Boys and girls alike could join in this sport, and with volleyball being the only recognized sport for girls in the area, it could prove to be a great asset.

Perhaps, the new courts at the high school were built for the purpose of having a tennis team in the future, but the continued delay on the part of beginning the course, is perhaps allowing numerous hopefuls and potential tennis players slip through school without ever having a chance to show what they could do. A little pushing on this matter might not be a bad idea, don't you think?

This week will mark the beginning of several baseball leagues and also one of the feature games of the season in another league.

For the first time in the history of Hereford, the Colt League will launch its career when both of the two teams will see action. The Sonics will travel to Dimmitt to battle the Dimmitt White Sox while the Astros, the other Hereford Tri-City Club League team, will host the Nazareth Braves. Gametime for the Dimmitt contest is 8 p. m. while the game to be played here on the high school field will begin at 6 p. m.

The American Legion baseball team will also open its season when they journey to Amarillo today to see action against the Tascosa team. There are still openings on this team, and more boys are needed to complete the roster for the year. The schedule for the team will consist of 12 games this year. Game time today is set for 2 p. m. at the Tascosa field.

Another game, or games as it will be, will be played in Amarillo today when the Hereford Rebels Irrigation League team see double header action against the Amarillo Graham Plow team in a battle for the number one spot in league standings. Both teams are tied at the present time with four wins and no losses each.

Last but certainly not least, the Little League teams will see action all through this coming week so don't forget to go out and watch them.

Officers who served for the 1967-68 league year included

Maggie Anderson, president; Aneta Knox, vice-president; Doris Davis, secretary; Pauline McDonald, treasurer and Margaret Collins, sergeant-at-arms. Others serving on committees for the past year were Mrs. Wilma Clark, chairman and Mrs. Margaret Byers, and Mrs. Phillis Channer, all of the awards Committee; Mrs. Jean Watts, chairman and Miss Alice Lueb and Mrs. Nadine Kearns, all on the Rules Committee; Mrs. Clea Weems, chairman and Mrs. Audine Dettman, and Molly Jo Schofield, all members of the Schedule Committee.

Serving on the Nominating Committee were Mrs. Marion Davies, chairman and Mrs. Selsey Metz, and Mrs. Randy Robbs. Members of the Auditing Committee were Mrs. Bertha Arnold, chairman and Mrs. Jean Henderson, and Mrs. Rudy Boyd. Banquet Committee members included Mrs. Jean Watts, chairman, and Miss Alice Lueb, Miss Jean Henderson, Mrs. Betty Rusher, and Mrs. Selsey Metz.

Officers elected for the 1968-69 season were Mrs. Bertha Arnold, president; Mrs. Joan Munnerland, vice-president; Mrs. Jean Watts, secretary; Miss Alice Lueb, treasurer, and Pat Burnett, sergeant-at-arms.

It was also announced that the president will appoint her committees at the first meeting of the Sunset Keglers in the fall.

Awards at the banquet included the award to the first place finishing team of Hereford Insurance which consisted of Jean Watts, Betty Stephan, Margaret Byers, Clea Weems, and Bertha Arnold. Second place team consisting of Chester Gin players were Stella Varner, Carrie Shirley, Bonnie Jones, Faye White and Pat Burnett.

The third place team of Justice Realtors included Wilma Neill, Joyce Skelton, Pauline McDonald, Wilma Clark and Alice Lueb.

The High Average trophy went to Alice Lueb with an average of 167 while Bertha Arnold was awarded the High Series trophy with her series total of 579. The Bowler of the Year was Marian Davis and Cheryl Brannon was named the Most Improved Bowler.

Horse Show Is Set In Dimmitt

Approximately 120 horses from as many as five states are expected to be entered in the annual quarter horse show sponsored by the Dimmitt Rodeo Association today in Dimmitt.

With the show to begin at 10 a. m., the horses will compete in five halter classes and five performance classes, according to the age group. Trophies will go to the first-place winners in all classes, to the grand champion horses in events, and to the best all-around horse.

General Manager Maurice Campbell has invited all horse owners to attend and compete in the show and also invited the public to attend as there will be no admission charge.

Rex Barrett of Pampa will judge the event.

Texas Tech Offers Fellowships To Attract Elementary Teachers

Fellowships are being offered by the Texas Tech Graduate School to anyone with a bachelor's degree who would like to teach in elementary school. It has been reported that it does not matter what field the bachelor's degree covers in order to qualify.

However, college graduates must be residents of towns from 10,000 to 35,000 in population size within 150 miles of Lubbock before they will be considered for these fellowships.

Such graduates should not be active in the teaching profession at this time, nor have more than 12 hours toward a Master's degree. Also, they must want to enter elementary teaching.

Advanced Bi-Cultural Improvement and Educational Re-Training Opportunity (ABIERTO) provides for the study of fine arts, humanities and social sciences as well as professional teacher education.

The purpose of ABIERTO is to encourage college graduates to prepare themselves for elementary teaching.

Special attention will be given to preparation for working with Latino students.

The program leads toward teacher certification and a Master's degree.

Deadline for transcript submissions and other materials is June 15, 1968.

Each fellowship carries a stipend of $2,000 for the nine months period beginning in September. Tuition is free and there will be an additional $400 for each eligible dependent. Summer school carries $400 plus $200 for each eligible dependent.

Those interested in this program should contact Robert Holman, assistant superintendent, Hereford Independent School District, P. O. Box 1698, Hereford, Texas 79-045.

Burwick Signs With A&M Ags

Bobby Burwick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas Burwick, formerly of Hereford, has recently signed a four-year scholarship to attend Texas A&M University, it was announced.

Burwick, who transferred to Hereford at the last half of his junior year from Amarillo, received numerous awards and recognition during his brief time in the local school system. Though he played only one-half of the regular football season to eligibility rules, he led the team in rushing and various other categories. He, along with two other Whiteface gridsters, was selected to the all-district team for his efforts.

Also playing basketball, Burwick led the team in total points and was selected to the second-team all-district squad this year. Following the basketball season, he then put himself to work on the cinders and was through this awarded his complete four-year scholarship to A&M University.

In track this past season, Burwick nabbed numerous firsts in the meets he entered and took the first place spot in district and regional competition. In the state meet, he notched a fifth place finish to conclude his high school athletic career.

The Burwicks moved to Dallas last weekend where Bobby will stay until the fall semester begins.

Local Residents Get Diplomas At Texas Tech

ship is Miss Charrie Morgan, daughter of the Tom Morgans and speech therapist in Hereford schools, who will attend Tech at the same time. She will begin work toward a masters degree.

Mrs. Rojek's children, Lyndi and Tracy, will accompany her to Lubbock.

3 Businesses Set Open House

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Every year at this time thousands of young men and women get a job during their summer vacation and then return to school in the fall. Those students getting a job for the first time will need a Social Security Number to give to their employer so he can withhold their income tax and their social security tax. Most of them will get back the income tax come next January, but Social Security checks and Medicare are quite a few years away.

If you work on a summer job, talk to your employer about your W-2 form. Make sure that he knows where to mail it to you so you can file a tax return and claim a refund if you have one coming.

In addition to the Hereford teacher, the children are Frank Caldwell of Lubbock and Mrs. Merle Dickerson of Amarillo.

After receiving the associate degree, Mrs. Caldwell plans to continue her education at West Texas State University in Canyon, beginning this summer.

Nazarene Church Honored Again

The Church of the Nazarene, 248 W. 16, has been chosen as the "outstanding church in this geographical area" and is one of 14 in the entire Church of the Nazarene denomination to receive such honors. Rev. K. Dwight Southworth, pastor, explained that this geographical area includes churches in the states of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, Arkansas and Louisiana. Dr. Orville Jenkins, executive secretary of the Department of Home Missions, reported in a letter to Southworth that the honor was given to the churches on the basis of all around growth and achievement. It is part of the church's "growing church achievement program." The local church will be honored during the forthcoming General Assembly at Kansas City, Mo. The assembly begins June 14. At the West Texas District Nazarene Assembly in May, 1967, the Hereford church received the honor as the "Outstanding Small Church" in the district over some 60 churches.

Washington Report

From Congressman BOB PRICE 11TH DISTRICT, TEXAS

1223 LONGWORTH OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C. • 205-3708

A nationally televised program "Hunger in America" has stirred up a storm of protest and denials by those who administer welfare food programs. Following the broadcast, Secretary of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman, reported his views to Rep. Carl D. Perkins, Chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee. That committee had begun hearings on a proposal to establish a commission to investigate hunger in the United States following an earlier and widely publicized report by a non-federal group known as "The Citizens Board of Inquiry into Hunger and Malnutrition in the United States."

Freeman told the president of the network that the report on hunger was dishonest and asked for equal time to tell what is being done in Federal food programs. "Hunger in America," bluntly and simply, was a travesty on objective reporting," Freeman wrote the president of the network. "It presented to millions of viewers a distorted, oversimplified picture of domestic hunger and what is being done about it."

Immediately after the first report by the so-called Citizens Board of Inquiry was issued, my committee, the House Agriculture Committee, began an inquiry of its own. Chairman W. R. Poage wrote the Health Officers of the 25 counties listed. In his letter to the officials Poage noted that their areas had been designated as "Hunger countries." He pointed out that the Agriculture Committee is greatly concerned with any possible lack of ability of people to obtain an adequate supply of food, then added this request: "I would greatly appreciate it if you would immediately advise me whether you have any personal knowledge of any actual starvation in your county. Second, do you have any personal knowledge of any serious hunger in your county occasioned by inability of the individual to either buy food or receive public assistance."

Replies have been received from more than half of the counties named in the report, and are still coming in. Most are signed by medical doctors serving as health officers. Not one would state that he knew of a single case of starvation in his county.

Two of these counties were in the 18th Congressional District — Motley and Cottle. The replies, including one from the County Health officer of Motley County, reported no case of actual starvation, but numerous instances of malnutrition. With few exceptions they were blamed on ignorance on the part of parents as to what foods constituted a balanced diet. The letter from the doctor at Matador said the County received about 7,000 pounds of food monthly for welfare, "and often it is hard to find enough people who can qualify for it."

The Mayor of Paducah — Cottle County — which was also listed, said his inquiry to the Welfare Department, County and City officials, City and County Health officers, church groups, and interested citizens revealed that "none of these people knew anything about a survey being conducted in this area. I have arrived at the conclusion that no survey was made in this area."

Certainly no one in actual need should be expected to go hungry or suffer from malnutrition. But from the real evidence produced so far, the so-called Citizens Committee was created for the purpose of developing hysteria without regard for the facts, and the establishment of another commission to review the work of a headline seeking group which has made such a fantastic report.

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

THE LAND OF ODD — Hardin County, in southeast Texas, may be the only spot in the world to boast a lake formed from an oil field.

On October 8, 1929, about 15 acres of a producing oil field on the outskirts of Sour Lake slowly began to sink. By the next day, the field had settled about 30 feet below the rest of the surrounding ground. Within another 48 hours, a total of 35 producing wells had been knocked out and the central part of the field had sunk to a depth of 100 feet below the rest of the surrounding ground.

Slowly oil and sulphur waters from the springs around the town began forming a sort of dead sea in the giant hole in the ground. Today the area is known as Cavity Lake.

THEY STARTED YOUNG — Old-time gunfighters weren't born; they were made while playing "games" in grammar school.

Ben Thompson, one-time city marshal of Austin and probably the deadliest shot Texas ever produced, learned how to use a six-shooter on the playground of an Austin school. He settled his first argument in 1856 when he "called out" one of his schoolmates over a fancied insult.

They met in an Austin street. Ben drew first, shooting his adversary in the arm. The future city marshal was 13 at the time.

TRAVELING TEXAS — Along with visits to Muleshoe's statue of a mule and Odessa's sculpture of a jackrabbit, tourists interested in unusual monuments can now include a stop in Snyder.

On the town square is a life-sized statue of one of the few white bison ever killed by a white man. The albino buffalo was killed in Scurry County, near Snyder on October 27, 1876, by a hunter named J. Wright Mooar.

The statue is 5½ feet high and eight feet long.

LONG ROAD — It's possible to travel 903 miles in Texas without leaving U. S. Highway 83. It enters the state at the top of the Panhandle, north of Perryton, and continues to Brownsville on the southern border.

If you can afford a Ford, you can afford a Chrysler.

Chrysler Newport now priced about $3.78 a month more than Ford LTD*

Chrysler Newport now priced about $3.78 a month more than a Ford LTD* (which is still a Ford, a high-price, low-price car). Chrysler Newport now priced about $2.29 a month more than a Chevy Caprice* (which is still a Chevy, a high-price, low-price car). That little more now moves you up into a big, full-size, almost shamefully elegant Chrysler — and that's an unbeatable deal. Afford a Chrysler? The way we're dealing, can you afford to pass it up?

CONGRATULATIONS GIVEN — Major Charles W. Bainum, right, of Friona, is congratulated following completion of his 255th and final combat mission over Vietnam by his wing commander, Colonel Walter G. Turnier. The major, who is being reassigned to Randolph AFB, Tex., was recently decorated with the Distinguished Flying Cross for gallantry during combat air operations.

Friona Man Ends Vietnam Duty By Flying His 255th Mission

VIETNAM — U. S. Air Force Major Charles W. Bainum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Bainum of Friona, recently completed his 255th and final combat mission over Vietnam.

During his combat tour, Major Bainum served as an F-100 Super Sabre pilot with the 31st Tactical Fighter Wing, Tuy Hoa AB, Vietnam. In addition, he served as chief of the unit's standardization and evaluation section.

Major Bainum was recently awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for close air support of Republic of Korea forces near Qui Nhon. He was credited with inflicting heavy casualties on the enemy while destroying 22 military fortifications and a machine gun.

The major is scheduled for reassignment to Randolph AFB, Tex., where he will serve as an instructor at the Pilot Instrument School.

Major Bainum, a graduate of Friona High School, received a B. S. degree from East Texas State College, where he was commissioned in 1954 upon completion of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps pro-

Peace Corps Tests Are Set

Deaf Smith County residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 1:30 p. m. on Saturday, June 15, at the Post Office Building in Amarillo.

The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test, which takes about an hour and a half, to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive — an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The Application form, not the Placement Test, is the most important factor in the selection of Volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post offices or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D. C. 20525.

12,000 Peace Corps Volunteers are currently serving in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands, working with the people of those nations in self-help projects in agriculture, health, education, and community action. Many more Volunteers are needed for projects which will begin this summer and fall.

Rainbow Girls Change Officers

Yellow roses, presented in a bouquet to Miss Regina Gay Hampton Friday evening at the climax to her installation as worthy advisor of the Rainbow for Girls, will be the floral symbol of her administration.

Miss Hampton chose Humility as the theme for her term, yellow and white as her colors. They were used in decorating rooms at the Masonic Temple for the open installation program.

Granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D.R. Vandever, Miss Hampton succeeds Miss Judy Lookingbill as worthy advisor. Miss Annie Nunley became associate advisor, Miss Vickie Brownlow took the office of charity, Miss Joette Hanna, hope, and Miss Kay Tucker, faith.

Bill Hampton installed his niece, and other installing officers were headed by Miss Carroll Todd. Miss Lookingbill served as marshal, Miss Kathy Miller as recorder, Miss Lynda Jacobsen as musician and Miss Carol Coffey as chaplain.

Appointed officers who were also installed include Miss Kathy Roberts, love; Miss Sharon Matthews, religion; Miss Carmela Burges, nature; Miss Lynne Inman, immortality; Miss Dell Sealy, fidelity; Miss Tonya Jayroe, patriotism; Miss Karen Matthews, service.

Miss Karen Scott became confidential observer, Miss Vickie Ruland outer-observer, Miss Debbie Armstrong choir director, Miss Ann Priddy treasurer, Miss Elaine Kelley recorder, Miss Patty Betts drill leader, Miss Cynthia Hanna chaplain and Miss Suzanne Smith musician.

Miss Elizabeth Rudd presented the roses to Miss Hampton as she was conducted to her station and Margaret Adams sang the song chosen by the new worthy advisor, I Believe. Miss Susan White was accompanist.

The Bible verse selected to emphasize the administration theme is from the book of Proverbs, "By humility and the fear of the Lord are riches, and honor, and life."

A reception honored the new officers after installation. Miss Shannon Watson was at the guest register; Misses Becky Elliott and Susan White and Mrs. Bill Hutson served refreshments.

Crosthwait To Receive Degree

Buford Dean Crosthwait, son of Mrs. B. Y. Crosthwait, 223 Star, will receive his BA degree in sociology from Humboldt State College at Arcata, Calif., next Friday, and will begin employment as a social worker in Ukiah, Calif.

He plans to return to school for his masters degree after a period of employment. Crosthwait enrolled at Humboldt after four years' service in the U. S. Navy and two years of study at Imperial Valley College in El Centro, Calif. His high school work was done in Hereford.

Mrs. Crosthwait plans to be in Arcata for her son's graduation, then will visit in Modesta, Altadena and other California cities, ending her trip as a guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Larry Don Rutherford, at El Centro.

Her mother, Mrs. C. J. Mountz, has been visiting the Rutherfords and is expected to return home next week.

Evangeline Cory Booth, only woman general of the Salvation Army, was born in London on Christmas Day 1865.

Researchers say a boron fiber only four one-thousandths of an inch in diameter has a strength of 400,000 to 500,000 pounds per square inch.

The first fan probably was a leafy branch waved by some prehistoric man to fan his fire or whisk flies from food.

Couple At Home After Church Wedding, Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Javier Gutierrez are at home on Route 5, Dimmitt, after their marriage in a recent afternoon ceremony at First Methodist Church here. The bride is the former Miss Maria Luisa Garcia.

Parents of the couple are Mrs. Soila O. Gutierrez and Mr. and Mrs. Luz Garcia, all of Dimmitt. The Rev. Fidel C. Alcalá, pastor of San Paulo Methodist Church of Hereford, read the double ring marriage ceremony last Sunday.

White satin draped the altar, where vases of roses were flanked by single tall cardies, and the chancel rail of the church. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Blanca Estela Gutierrez was the maid of honor and Jose Gutierrez of El Paso the best man. Escorts were Messrs. and Mmes. Amadeo Martinez, Prudencio Rodriguez, Juan Alaniz, Patricio Estrada and Richard Edwards.

Bridesmaids were Anita Garcia, Tomasa Garcia, Irene Garcia, Argella Gutierrez, Maria Salazar, Rosita Salazar, Carmen de la Cruz and Silvia Alaniz and acting as chamberlains were Tomas Aguirre, Oliveroz Tijerina, Johnny Benavides, Miguel A. Gutierrez, Alberto Salazar, Simon Camarillo Jr., Jesse Salazar and Manuel Betancourt.

Patricia Alaniz and Susan Grace Edwards were flower girls, Armida Urias and Josefita Ortiz the ring bearers. Elvirita and Marco Antonio Romero were a miniature bride and groom. Bob Griego and Chindo Hill served as ushers. Elvira and Emilio Romero were escorts of the bouquet.

Music was by Don Baugous, church organist; Mrs. Nedra Higginbotham, who sang The Lord's Prayer, and Mrs. Mary Lou Vazquez, vocal soloist.

The bride's portrait gown was of satin, lavishly trimmed with lace at the neckline, on the spreading skirt and in a double row edging the train. Her veil, also bordered with lace, was caught to a tiara of crystals matching her necklace and earrings, and a bouquet made of crystals, imported from Mexico.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall after the ceremony. Elizabeth Alcalá was at the guest book; Noemi Salazar, Teresa Quintana, Anna Marie Esparza and Josefina Salazar at the punch bowls.

The wedding cake, four tiered, was decorated with bells and flowers and topped with bride and groom figurines.

For a short honeymoon trip, the bride changed to a green suit with white blouse and accessories.

Out-of-city guests were Mrs. Antonio G. Villareal from California, Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Romero from Mexico.

Serve toasted walnuts with raisins and dates for a delightful cool weather dessert. To toast walnut halves, scatter them over a small cookie sheet and bake in a moderate oven until lightly browned. Watch the toasting to make sure the nuts do not over-brown and shake the pan a few times during the baking period.

Canned mushroom soup to which a little milk has been added makes a good sauce for a chicken, turkey, ham or beef biscuit roll. If you like, you can add sauteed sliced fresh mushrooms or the canned variety to the soup when you heat it.

Lynn Hale, Bride-Elect Is Honoree At Shower

Before she leaves for a trip by air to Weisbaden, Germany, she was married to Alan Gowdy, stationed there with the U. S. Army. Miss Lynn Hale was complimented with a shower recently in Hereford Country Club.

In the receiving line with the honoree were her mother, Mrs. Gerald F. Hale; her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Morris Gowdy of Dimmitt, and his grandmother, Mrs. J. E. Gowdy of Lakeview; also her two grandmothers, Mrs. Randall Walvoord of Amarillo and Mrs. E. T. Hale.

Hostesses were Mmes. Bob Wörd, Doc Carter, Guy Bogle, Bill Dameron, Virgil Marsh, Bill Howard, Kenny Gearn, Dennis Lomas, Alex Schroeter, Pete Caviness, Joyce Trimble, Wayne Phillips and L. H. Lookingbill Jr.

Sisters of the engaged couple,

Misses Cindy Hale and Sharon Gowdy, were in turn in charge of the guest book. Misses Sherri Marsh and Billie Jo Witherspoon served refreshments.

An antique coffee service and a silver punch bowl were placed at opposite ends of the table which was covered with a white net cloth, ruffled to floor length. In the center a cupid figurine held a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and fresh green foliage with an umbrella opened above the arrangement.

Cakes were iced with a design of white bells and green ribbons. Guests called through late afternoon hours to present gifts to the bride-elect and wish her bon voyage.

Accompanied by her parents and sister, she is to leave Tuesday for Germany.

Joint Luncheon Of Clubs Slated

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

Holiday visitors in Hereford for Memorial Day had their ranks considerably increased by old-timers who came back for the Mid-Plains Pioneer Round-up on the city's 70th anniversary.

MY THREE-YEAR residence here didn't qualify me for a stop at the celebration, but I understand there was a lot of fun as old acquaintances met, and a dinner to equal anything dished up at community celebrations in past years.

There were, and still are, also a lot of out-of-town old-timers as guests in Hereford homes.

HER BROTHER and his wife Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Nichols of Plainview, visited Mrs. William McGehee, 504 N. Miles, Thursday, and so did Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gilliam, friends from Brownfield.

Ann Morgan Barkley of Houston was a guest for a short time while she was here visiting her father, Eldon Morgan of King's Manor, her brother, Myron Morgan, and his family.

Katie McGehee's daughter and her husband, Helen and Ross Stark, with whom she shares a home, missed the visitors as they were spending several days at Ruidosp, N. M.

TENSION over racial friction is 'in the air' of cities in the northeast, says Audni Miller, here on vacation from Columbus, Ohio. She is visiting her parents, the H. H. Millers of Dawn, and other relatives and says it is good to feel the absence of strain in this area.

She has worked the past year in the admissions department of American Lutheran College, traveling to various cities to interview prospective students. Now her work is taking a new turn, one she expects will make it doubly interesting.

At the request of Lutheran clergy and laity of the area, the area, the almost all-white college plans to have at least 10 percent of its student body negroes by the beginning of next term, and a like percent of its faculty by 1970. It will also offer a course in Afro-American history as another gesture of integration.

Most of Audni's work will be centered in New York, Baltimore and Washington as she seeks negro students, working with Lutheran pastors. Since she has previously spent most of her time in metropolitan areas, the field will not be new to her although the exact task will be.

TO US, away from the race conflicts, such self-conscious attempts to build up negro enrollment seem strange, like the arrangement in some cities of sending white children by bus to school in negro residential areas and vice versa.

It's hard to see the use of such plans to drag in integration by the scruff of the neck,

College Girls Asked To Parties By Panhellenic

Girls interested in rush by national sororities are invited by Amarillo City Panhellenic to two parties. One is a forum at 2 p. m. next Sunday in Amarillo Federation Clubhouse, 2001 Civic Circle.

Prospective college girls and their mothers are invited, to be and I personally only hope they help prevent more conflict than they cause.

Brand, Hereford, Texas, come better acquainted with national sororities and various phases of rush. To register with the Panhellenic, a girl is asked to bring a recent picture, her exact grade average and a list of her honors and activities.

Any girl unable to attend the forum but wishing information may notify Mrs. Joe Howell, 5713 Berget Drive, Amarillo, 79106.

Girls who register will receive invitations to a Coke party at Tascosa High School Commons which the Panhellenic will sponsor June 16.

Community Calendar

The Community Calendar, which includes major events which will be of interest to Hereford and residents of the immediate area, will run in each issue of the Brand. The calendar will include events for the coming six months, and all individuals and organizations are urged to write or mail their event for inclusion.

Miss Myrna Botkin And J. L. Clark Recite Vows

Miss Myrna Jean Botkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Botkin, 100 Elm, and Jackie Leon Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Clark of Route 2, Friona, exchanged marriage vows in a first-of-June wedding in Summerfield Baptist Church.

The Rev. Don Larkin, pastor of First Baptist Church at Burlington, Colo., officiated for the evening ceremony. The altar was lighted by tapers in two pair of candelabra twined with sprays of greenery. Aisles were marked with white satin bows.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Richard J. Plank of Monte Vista, Colo., attended her as matron of honor and Miss Janice Clark of Friona, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid.

S. D. Baize of Friona, best man, and Jackie Lee of Plainview, groomsmen, are both cousins of the groom. Ushers were Ronnie Botkin of Lake Charles, La., the bride's brother, Jim Snead and Ron Brookfield of Lubbock.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a slim-lined dress of lace over white peau satin. In empire style, with long straight skirt, the dress was fashioned with circlet neckline and sleeves pointed at the wrist. A lace train rounded to chapel length.

"Something borrowed" as a luckpiece in her costume, her veil belonged to Mrs. Wayland Wampler of Lubbock. Of white net, it was held to her blonde hair by a cluster of satin flowers edged with seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet had two gardenias centered in a cascade of white carnations.

Attendants' dresses were of blue crepe with lace bodice and sleeves and floor length skirts. Each carried a single white carnation with blue satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Dorinda Nall was the vocal soloist and Phillip Porres the organist, both of Lubbock. Solos were More and Wedding Prayer; traditional marches were played.

For a reception in the church fellowship hall, Mrs. J. B. Noland and Mrs. Earl Plank assisted with hostess duties. Mrs. Ronnie Botkin was at the book where guests registered. Miss Carol Hopf and Mrs. Wampler of Lubbock, Miss Nanetta Clearman of Summerfield and Miss Sheila Youngquist of Stamford served refreshments.

The bride's table was covered with a net cloth decorated in sequined bells, over white satin.

After a trip to Ruidoso, N. M. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at 11 Avenue X, Lubbock. For travel the bride chose an orange crepe sheath with tent overdress of lace in the same shade. Accessories were black patent and her corsage the gardenias from her bouquet.

Mrs. Clark is a candidate for a bachelor of science degree in August from Texas Technological College. She has been on the Dean's honor list since her enrollment at Tech in the fall of 1965, after graduation from Hereford High School.

Her memberships at Tech have included Alpha Lambda Delta and Junior Council honoraries; the Women's Service Organization in which she served as president of her pledge class; was selected as best pledge and acted as pledge trainer; and Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honorary society.

Employed now by Parmer County Pump Company in Friona, Clark plans to enroll in Texas Tech next fall. He has attended Angelo State College at San Angelo and was graduated from Friona High School in 1965.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Botkin, Mr. and Mrs. Finis Botkin and children of Taboka; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Botkin, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ellison of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lawrence of Hamilton, Miss Frances Dyer of Richardson and Miss Joy Sims of Abilene.

Linda Miller Married In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Linda Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller of 817 Brevard, and Joe Whitehorn, son of Mrs. Ruby Whitehorn of 123 Avenue J, was solemnized Saturday evening in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Miss Karen Gray to wed in July

White chrysanthemums and gladiolas decorated the church for the ceremony in which Mr. Miller gave his daughter in marriage.

She was attended by Mrs. Virgil Kelley as matron of honor, Miss Jane Witkowski and Miss Sue Miller, her sister, as bridesmaids, Glen Williams was best man, the bridegroom's only attendant.

Miss Linda Hallows, pianist, played traditional wedding music and the marches.

Lace over candlelight satin made the bride's gown, styled with basque bodice and skirt gathered to moderate fullness. The lace was cut in points at the wrists, at the center of the sweetheart neckline and at the front of the fitted waistline.

Lace flowers, encrusted with seed pearls, were clustered over her forehead to hold the bouffant layers of illusion veiling which fell over her shoulders. She carried a bouquet of miniature white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Kelley wore a long-sleeved, floor-length dress of white lace over lime green. The bridesmaids' frocks were street length and sleeveless, of lime lace. Each wore a circlet headpiece of the material of her dress, and each had a corsage of green orchids.

After the marriage ceremony, the couple and their parents received guests in the church hall. Refreshments were served from a table covered in airy white net over a cloth of lime color.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Harley Jones, served the three-tiered wedding cake which was iced with decorative touches of lime, while Mrs. Dale Hallows poured punch. Miss Sue Miller was at the registry table.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitehorn left on a wedding trip with the bride attired in a navy shift with white coat. Her corsage was taken from the bridal bouquet.

They will be at home afterward at the Sevier Trailer Park on South Main.

Mrs. Whitehorn was one of the 1968 graduates of Hereford High School, where she was a member of the National Honor Society. Mr. Whitehorn is employed at H&W Implement Company here. He also attended Hereford Schools.

Engagement Of Interest In Hereford

BRIDE-ELECT — Engagement of their daughter, Juanita Lois, to Nicolas Rudsell is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Ray T. Bosley, 300 Avenue J. The couple plans to be married later this month. Mr. Rudsell, formerly of Anchorage, Alaska, is employed here, as is the bride-to-be, and they will be at home in Hereford after the wedding.

Plans for the marriage of Miss Lura Karen Gray and John Randolph Lebrick July 6 in Albuquerque, are of interest to friends of the bride-elect in this area.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob L. Gray, 10217 San Marino Road NE, Albuquerque, granddaughter of the late Mrs. W. R. Scheihagen and niece of Mrs. Byrdie Dee Fellers of Hereford. Mrs. Gray is a former Hereford resident and Miss Gray has visited here frequently.

Her fiancé, of Roselle Park, New Jersey, was graduated from Texas Tech last January with a BA degree in history. His parents reside in Old Lyme, Conn. Miss Gray is a sophomore English major at Tech after graduation from an Albuquerque high school.

The wedding is to take place in Asbury Methodist Church in Albuquerque. Among attendants for the afternoon ceremony will be Don Fellers of Amarillo and Dick Fellers of Bovina, both formerly of Hereford, as grooms men.

Disaster Season Is Emphasized By Club

With the tornado season now open, the Hereford Citizen's Band Radio Club has once again set its wheels of progress into action as they remind local citizens of the need for preparation in case a disaster of some sort should occur in Hereford.

A Citizen's Band Radio, or C. B. as it is commonly called, is a complete radio station that can transmit as well as receive messages from other C. B. radio stations. The normal conditions of this country allows transmission of messages as far away as 60 miles.

There are sometimes as many as 12 two-way radio cars or trucks out looking for tornadoes when the area is under a tornado alert, and if a tornado is sighted, the job of the club is to radio the city police, the Sheriff's Office, and the Texas Public Safety Department. With the range of transmitting between 30 and 60 miles, the club is in the situation to let the City of Hereford know in advance about a tornado one to three hours before it ever reaches the city. And thus by knowing in advance, the people can take precautions that could save lives and property.

The club explains that the chances are that if a tornado were to ever hit the city of Hereford, it would cross part of Deaf Smith County, Parmer, or Castro, or parts of all of these.

So to more widely cover the chances of sighting a tornado, there are more than 160 two-way radio owners listed in the three counties.

More members are needed in this club and to get more informed about the entire situation, the Citizen's Band Radio Club is taking a First Aid course through the Red Cross, starting June 4. This course is free to both husband and wife members of the club, while others are urged to partake in the course.

The local club is a part of a national program, consisting of approximately 800 cities and towns, and there are more than 2,000,000 two-way radio owners. While the club is still growing, persons are asked to become members of the club now to help in the fight against disasters in this area.

Sponsored by the law enforcement people, the Red Cross, the hospitals, the Chamber of Commerce and most of the local businesses, the club assigns several people to certain areas throughout the area for the Tornado watch. There is a need for some 30 persons to handle the situation should it arrive. As the club says, "We need everybody that will help us, to help others to live."

3 To Attend Legion Confab

Mrs. Ira W. Ott and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hanna of Hereford, with the district president, Mrs. Sam Williams of Friona, will attend the Fourth Division Convention of the American Legion in Mineral Wells, next Saturday and Sunday.

Legionaries and auxiliary members from the 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th and 21st districts, comprising the Fourth Division of the American Legion, will assemble there, according to B. McDaniel, department vice commander.

All sessions of the convention will take place at the Baker Hotel.

A bus tour has been arranged for Fort Wolters and Downing Heliport, which are located there.

TORNADO WATCHERS — Don Daugherty, president of the local Citizen's Band Radio Club, and his son, Alan, watch intently toward the sky in an effort to spot a tornado or other disaster that might threaten the local community.

photo. The purpose of the club is to be on the watch for tornadoes and other disasterous elements that might cause loss of life or property around the area.

1910 Class Reunion Here Has Added Surprise For One Member

A reunion of the 1910 class of Hereford High School was held during the afternoon Thursday at the home of Ruby Wilson, following the Mid-Plains Pioneer celebration. There were six members present — out of the 12 who were members of that class.

Of the original dozen, there were 11 girls and one boy.

The lone "boy" was present with the five "girls." He is Sam Brunk of Oklahoma City, now a salesman for Screen Guild of Oklahoma who distribute American International Pictures among others for that territory and area representative for Box-office Magazine.

His classmates are Una Norton, Nellie Black and Mrs.

Wilson of Hereford, and Price Bruce and Waldine Wilson of Amarillo.

Brunk reported that 10 of the original 12 students are still living. The others are Lora Guinn and Annie Price of California, Letha Edwards of Waco, and Emma Dean of Tulla.

The two who are now deceased are Gertrude Taylor and Jessie Sisk.

Brunk said that the class had its last reunion here in 1961, when nine of the class attended. He was interested in the old baseball team picture which was published on two occasions prior to the Mid-Plains Pioneer celebration. The fellow identified as Glenn Brunk was his brother, who is now dead. "The picture was made in 1906 and not 1902," he said, "because my family did not move to Hereford until then."

Mr. and Mrs. Brunk had another reunion when they arrived at the Brand office. They discovered Mrs. H. C. Williams at the receptionist's desk — someone they had known some years ago in Oklahoma City. Afterward, Brunk met staff writer Earl Moseley for the first time but discovered that the two of them had been with Boxoffice Magazine at the same time previously for seven years, in the southwest section. He was surprised when Moseley related various personal and professional facts of his life, before the former connection was revealed.

Brunk could be described as a "traveling salesman." He visits theatremen from points in Ark-
