Auto Mechanics Student Benefiting From Adult Training Course

ADULT TRAINEE — Bill Pena is shown working on one of the many parts of an automobile which he has studied in the new Adults Auto Mechanic Class being conducted under the cooperation of the Texas Employment Commission and Hereford High School at the school shop. Pena hopes to specialize in the field of automatic transmissions. —Staff Photo

From farm work and odd jobs such as washing cars to a first class mechanic is quite an occupational jump especially from the income standpoint. It is not impossible though if a person has the desire and willpower to take the big opportunity.

Bill Pena of Hereford is one person who is taking advantage of one of the job training courses of which this is the purpose. He is at the present time enrolled in the Auto Mechanics Class which is directed under the cooperation of Hereford High School and the Texas Employment Commission.

Pena was born and raised in Weslaco, Texas, and has lived there most of his life, working at various low paying jobs. He tried to get employed as an auto mechanic helper but as he put it, "I couldn't quite get started. They wanted someone more skilled."

When failing to get started in this field, Pena went to Houston searching for an auto training school. He was unsuccessful there but then heard of a school in Sparta, Wisconsin.

He enrolled in the McCoy Job Corps Center in Sparta taking one course in engine overhauling. He felt this center was not greatly beneficial to him because the majority of a mechanic's work is not offered in one course. Instead it is broken down into several.

"Here they have everything in one course," said Pena. "They told me they wanted me to learn a little of everything."

Pena came to Hereford in June and through the Texas Employment Commission was informed of the auto mechanics class which was scheduled to begin in July. After being one of the first to enroll, he also applied for the allowance provided the students in this course by the Employment Commission.

Because Pena spends six hours of his day training in the class, the allowance is a necessity, especially as he has a wife and daughter to support.

"I want to be an overall mechanic, especially in the field of automatic transmissions," he said. "I feel that the transmission is something not too many people are well trained in. Besides that most cars now are coming out with the automatic system."

Pena is well aware of the many changes in automobiles these days. He hopes to be better educated in the future on the new devices now coming out and just an overall better knowledge of the later model automobiles. To accomplish this he said that he would like to attend another training school to put him up with things.

Pena is presently employed as a part time employee at Vernon Lewis Service Station on 25 Mile Avenue as a mechanics helper. He said, "Before, I was afraid to ask for a job such as this because I was so undecided what to do in certain situations. When I was told to tune a car I didn't know where to begin."

"Since I have been in the class I have learned to check certain parts and if they do check then the automobile can't do anything but run smoothly. In other words I know where to start looking."

Is the program discouraging because of the vast amount of time spent? Pena answered this question in saying, "No, it is encouraging because when you run into problems you can solve them with the teacher's help. The program is just great."

He said that if a person wanted to learn to be a good mechanic this class will teach them enough to make it well worth while. "A good thing about it is that you are living at home, working, and training at the same time."

A big change in the income status is of course the greatest hope of Pena. "It should be doubled at least and maybe more than that," he said.

After graduation from the training school in April, he would like to start his occupation full time in either Hereford or Amarillo.

If Pena ever gets the chance he said he would like to teach something along this line. "Too many people are out of school that are untrained and are not taking advantage of something of this nature."

"They just know parts of a trade; a little bit here and a little bit there."

Deadline Nearing

As of last week, Ted Swindle of the Texas Employment Commission said he had at least five good prospects for the upcoming Implement Mechanics Class. He has been contacted.

The starting date for the Implement Mechanics Class has been set for Dec. 1, and in order to qualify a person must have at least an eighth grade education and be 18 years of age or older.

There are certain benefits for the students attending, according to TEC. Not only do they receive valuable training but also they are eligible to draw a training allowance which can amount to $30 per week and higher. This amount is regulated according to the number of dependents the trainee has.

Students participating in the new course are allowed to work a maximum of 30 hours per week. Any amount exceeding the designated 30 hours would affect their allowance.

Swindle encourages anyone interested to contact either he or Alex Torres at the Texas Employment Commission for further information.

Local Problems Aired By Community Leaders

By BARBARA DRYDEN
Society Editor

"With Hereford growing as fast as it is, the situation has created growing pains and we need community concern with backing and interest to solve these problems," stated the Rev. Fred Howard, vicar of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, who was moderator for a panel of community leaders at a Church Women United World Community Day Celebration held Friday at the Country Club.

Five areas covered by panel members on the situation included community concern stemming from the generation gap to the local health problems, to the proposed Day Care Center, for children who are left home alone because their mothers are working, to the educational progress of the community and the public housing field.

Panel members discussing the varied problems confronting us were Dr. D. E. McBrayer, who works with a youth committee; Mrs. Jo Solomon, school nurse, who is working with a public health committee; Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine, president of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce, who is working on a needed Day Care Center; Bob Holman, education committee; and Harlan Vander-Zee, who explained the needs in the public housing field.

Mrs. John D. Pitman, president of Church Women United and mistress of ceremonies for the event, has worked with these committees, which are all sponsored by the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, and explained that CWU is trying to function to publicize what these committees are working to accomplish. Hereford churches are concerned with these problem areas, not from the standpoint of doctrine, but the fact that these people are human beings and they are interested in their social welfare, health welfare and mental welfare, which is all a part of spiritual welfare.

Dr. Duffy McBrayer, who works with the Chamber of Commerce youth committee, spoke of the immediate concern for a youth center for Hereford. Several young people are working on the committee, he said, and have taken several trips to area towns to look over the various facilities of such and are working toward drawing up plans for local needs.

"If disease can be prevented, are we not ahead?" stated Mrs. Jo Solomon, who is working with a health committee to study ways and means for a public health clinic. Because of lack of communication and education, with ten to twenty thousand migrants in Hereford at one time, she emphasized the fact that only five per cent of children entering school have had adequate immunization against disease. By supporting public health with a strong preventative program, we will also, in the long run, cut down on taxes.

In telling of the need for a Day Care Center, Mrs. Gillentine stated that in an inclusive survey taken seven years ago, the need for this care includes at least 300 children in this area. Earnest Langley, president of the Chamber of Commerce, she said, has appointed an action committee to work on these problems, headed by Mrs. Joe Easley. More progress will be reported in the next few weeks, she said.

Bob Holman, coordinator of education for Hereford public schools, told of the educational progress of the community, and the courses that are being offered to these people who are deprived economically, emotionally, health wise and educationally. He said there are over 1700 migrant children in grades one to six who are economically deprived and over 1200 in this age range who are not from migrant families.

The normal six-year old child, he said, enters the first grade with a vocabulary of eight to twenty-six thousand words, and Mexican-American children are expected to learn the same as these normal children when they have only a 200 word vocabulary in their own language. Public education, he said should start at the age of two or three to give the child the experience he has missed by not having a balanced, well directed home life.

The courses offered to these uneducated adults will help them to make a decent living and become active citizens of the community.

Speaking on the public housing problem, Harlan Vander-Zee said many one-room dwellings with inadequate heating and lighting are accommodating eight to twelve family members, some by choice, but most are forced into this situation. Many are transients who would stay if housing was available in their income bracket.

A group of twelve have been named on a committee, he said, to study a plan for a low income rental housing program in Hereford.

In closing, Rev. Howard stated that these are not church functions, but the persons working with the committees are church oriented and have a deep concern for the problems which confront our community. He said that Hereford has been a good place to live and we are working to make it better.

Veteran's Day Breakfast Is Scheduled Tuesday

Members of the local Veterans of Foreign Wars passed a resolution last week at their regular meeting, issued a plea for the local community to participate in "Operation Speak Out" and also planned a breakfast for veterans on Veteran's Day at the American Legion Hall in Veteran's Park.

According to Legion officials, the breakfast will begin at 6 and will conclude at 8:30, with food to be prepared by Legion members.

The meal, free of charge, is to honor all veterans of all wars. Veterans, their wives and families are invited to attend the meal.

The breakfast, along with "Operation Speak Out," is being held by the VFW along with the American Legion.

It was also reported that the high school Key Club will be distributing flags for businesses and residents throughout the city.

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4818 of Hereford today called on all community organizations to join with the VFW in "Operation Speak Out" which is a program designed to encourage the "silent majority" to show their support of the government on the Vietnam question the week of November 9-15, which includes November 11, Veterans Day.

Speaking on behalf of Post No. 4818, Commander S. T. Wiseman said: "Vietnam Moratorium Day last October 15 has given the world and especially Hanoi a distorted view of the true feeling of the majority of the people in this country. It is the belief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars that the majority of the people in this country do support our men in Vietnam and the position of our government."

"It seems tragic that there are those in this country who support the position of Hanoi while American servicemen are daily being killed by troops of Communist North Vietnam and the Viet Cong. It is time that the silent majority let their will be known publicly. For this program to be effective and reflective of the community mind, it is my hope that all other civic, fraternal, patriotic, labor, religious and other organizations here will join with us and make this a true community effort."

Commander Wiseman also stated that Raymond A. Gallagher, V. F. W. Commander-in-Chief, is calling on all other national organizations to join with the VFW in this undertaking.

Remember November 11

Hereford Man Is Killed In Crash

Funeral services for Bruce Kellogg, 28 of Hereford who was killed in a one car accident near Laham, Nebraska are pending.

Kellogg as an engineer with the Natural Gas Pipeline Co. of America and had been in Nebraska for several weeks to supervise installation of new equipment in Beatrice.

Officers said Kellogg's associates told them he had planned to attend a football game in Glasco, Kan., Wednesday night and apparently was enroute home when the mishap occurred.

Volunteers Are Needed For Day Care Program

Mrs. Raymond Higginbotham, who is an assistant with the Day Care Center for the mentally retarded reported earlier this week that the organization is in grave need of volunteers willing to aid in a worthy cause.

These retarded children are not capable of attending public schools and therefore need another source to assist in the development of their learning power. Director of the Center, Mrs. Maxine Thomas is making outstanding progress but even greater results could be achieved if more volunteers were available.

Two local high school girls, Betty Reddell and Jan Trimble, have been devoting each of their afternoons to help in the therapy for some of the teenage retardates. Mrs. Higginbotham says that the girls have been very good help and deserve commendation.

The center is needing volunteers to work in two separate classes, preferably morning 8:30 to 1:30. Afternoon classes begin at 12:45 to 3:45, five days a week starting December 1, and lasting for three months. The center takes most holidays the public schools take.

Anyone interested in helping these children can contact Mrs. Raymond Higginbotham 364-1545 or Mrs. L. W. Norvell 364-4475.

Processing To Begin Tuesday

Sugar beet processing, which has been halted at the Holly Sugar plant for slightly over a week now, will begin again Tuesday, according to factory officials.

Beets were being brought in to the plant as of last Saturday, but it is believed that there are still crops which were not effected heavily by the moisture.

Factory officials reported that plant workers will report back for work this week and the regular 24-hour processing will continue.

Patterning Still Needs Assistants

A plea has been issued to any local residents who are willing to devote only one hour a week to assisting in the new program of "Patterning" exercises for brain damaged children.

A previous request for help brought outstanding results but for various reasons the number of assistants recently has decreased. We are in hopes this plea will be useful in filling the great need for help.

Any person interested in assisting in the exercises should contact Charlene Brownlow at 364-0630. The exercises are from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m. five days a week — one hour a day.

Mrs. Brownlow explains in ed. "Though this will not repair the brain damage, it will help overcome it."

Stanton's Parent Night In Monday

The parents of students attending Stanton Junior High are urged to attend the annual "Back To School Night," Monday. The plan, according to Don Martin, principal of Stanton Junior High is to have parents going through their children's schedule. "Classes" will begin 7 p. m., lasting 12 minutes with a five minute break between each. The "day" should be finished by 8:45.

Martin says the purpose of the event is to provide a chance for parents to meet their child's teachers and also to help the adults visualize their child's daily schedule.

The Homemaking Department is providing refreshments to be served following the "classes."

Muleshoe Stymied In 49-0 Slaughter

It was a run-away, not much of a football game. The Hereford Whitefaces, still unblemished in district 1-AAA warfare, mauled the hapless Muleshoe 49-0, and kept the Mules from the scoreboard for the eighth straight time this year as they have failed to score even a single point.

Jeff Loerwald, Ricki Ward, Eugene Suttle, David Paetzold, James Head, Richie Lyons, Tom

Gorman, Mike Wartes and Woody Woodward all had a hand in the scoring pie. Loerwald kicked two conversion points and a field goal; Ward scored one touchdown; Suttle scored one touchdown; Paetzold scored two touchdowns; Lyons ran for one touchdown; Gorman kicked one point after; Wartes was on the receiving end of a 34-yard pass play for a TD and Woodward kicked a point after.

ward set the ball on the 31. An eight yard gain by Wartes set the scoring play up as Ward then followed his blockers across the double stripe. Loerwald's first point after attempt was no good, but an offside on Muleshoe game the locals the opportunity to try again and this time Loerwald made it through the uprights with the ball.

Muleshoe took the kickoff on their own 20 and gained seven yards on a pass, but a jarring tackle forced the ball loose from the runner on the next play and Hereford's scrappy little Lyons came up with the ball on the 29-yard line. Ward gained a quick six yards and Suttle then rambled across for the TD in the first quarter. The PAT was no good and the score stood at 13-0 with 9:31 left in the first stanza.

Three minutes and thirty-five seconds later, Muleshoe went to the air on their possession from their own 21, and Paetzold intercepted the pass and scampered unmolested into the end zone for another score. Again the kick was no good and the locals had added to their lead to make it 19-0.

For the remaining few minutes of the first quarter, there was no scoring, but just as the buzzer sounded for the end of the initial stanza, Muleshoe punted and Hereford took over on their own 37. On the first play, Head rambled behind good blocking for the remaining 63 yards for another touchdown. Loerwald added his second point after for a 26-0 lead just 17 seconds into the second quarter.

With 1:56 remaining in the first half, the Mules took the ball on their own ten yard line, but a fumble by the visiting field general which was recovered by Woodward at the 11 set up another score for the Whitefaces.

Not even attempting a scoring drive, the Whitefaces sent in Loerwald for a 17-yard field goal attempt, and he made it good for a 29-0 lead.

It looked as if no one could score again, but Hereford did with just seconds remaining in the half. Taking a Muleshoe punt on the Muleshoe 48, Lyons turned on the power and went all the way for another touchdown just as the halftime buzzer sounded. Gorman put the boot to the ball for the extra point and Hereford led 35-0 at the half.

Giving the younger boys a chance for varsity action in the second half did not stop the scoring drive for the locals. With 3:04 left in the third quarter, the Whitefaces added another score when quarterback Wartes flipped the ball back to Ward. Wartes then tore off downfield, gave a finger-tip catch from Ward, and sped into paydirt.

Woodward added the one point conversion for a 43-0 lead.

The scoring play by Wartes was set up when Duncan intercepted the Muleshoe pass on the 19 and returned it to the 31.

Just into the fourth quarter, the Whitefaces marched from midfield to the Muleshoe 20, and from there attempted a field goal, but it was no good.

With 2:08 left in the "contest," Paetzold, who shifted from his defensive back slot to the offensive back position, busted through for a 29-yard TD run and the score read 49-0 for the final. Marsh Pitman attempted a conversion kick, but it was no good and the score remained at 49-0.

Hereford tried another field goal with just 33 seconds left in the game, but it was short.

The win brought the local's record to seven wins and one loss for the year and a 3-0 district mark. Their next game will be next Friday when they go to Tulsa to meet the improved Hornets in a 7:30 p. m. game. The following week, they will meet the Dumas Demons in what could possibly be the district decider.

The couple was on their way home from Snyder after visiting relatives. The wreck occurred when Weemes drove upon a strip of the highway that had been patched and was slick because of the rainy weather.

The car spun around and went off a bridge and was hemmed by a culvert.

The automobile, a 1962 Chrysler, was reported as completely demolished.

Both occupants were taken to Garza Hospital in Post and then transferred to West Texas Hospital in Lubbock. Mrs. Weemes was reported to have several broken bones and various cuts on her face which required stitches. Weemes received several bruises and scratches.

Green Appointed To Post Recently

CANYON, Tex. — Dr. John E. Green, dean of the West Texas State University School of Fine Arts, recently was appointed to an important position with the National Association of Schools of Music.

He was one of 12 new examiners selected nationwide to make evaluations of schools of music at colleges, universities and conservatories.

The evaluations are necessary before a school is accredited by the association. All accredited schools are reexamined every 10 years.

Green, 47, also head of the department of music at West Texas State, became a dean this fall when the departments of music, and the speech were organized into the School of Fine Arts.

More than 300 schools of music hold membership in the association.

"The workload of the NASM has become so large that it has become necessary to increase the number of examiners," Green said.

The association has about 2 examiners, persons who are deans or department heads of schools of music at institutions in the United States.

The new examiners will meet Nov. 22 in Los Angeles with Dr. Robert L. Briggs, director of the School of Music at the University of Houston. Briggs is a member of the commission on curriculum for the NASM.

The annual meeting of the association will be in Los Angeles Nov. 23-26.

Hereford Has Been Home

By BARBARA DRYDEN Women's Editor

"Hereford has always been home to us, even though we were away for two and one-half years," says Mrs. Roy Faubion, who moved back to Hereford with family the last of August from Austin. "Hereford is just about the only place the children remember," she said, "and they are thrilled to be back."

The Faubions have two lovely children, Sherry, 13, who is an eighth grader at La Plata Junior High and ten year old Clayton, a fifth grader at Northwest Elementary. They are busily renewing old friendships and acquiring new ones.

To make their household complete, Roy's mother, Mrs. Ruby Faubion, lives with them, coming back with the family from Austin.

The family loves to do things together and they are all enthusiastic fishermen. They made frequent fishing trips to the Brazos River during their stay at Austin, but Mrs. Faubion says their favorite fishing spots are in the mountains.

Roy Faubion is employed by Radio Station KPAN as a salesman and Mrs. Faubion works in the credit and layaway department at Penney's.

She says she doesn't have as much time for her role of a homemaker and her various hobbies as she would like, but she enjoys cooking and sewing and constructs many of her own garments and those of her daughter's.

One of her hobbies is making flower arrangements from pheasant feathers, which decorate her lovely home at 136 Beach. She is also making decorative waste baskets from ice cream cartons.

Roy is currently playing the lead part in the Hereford Community Players production "Mary Mary" which opens Thursday at La Plata Jr. High.

and he is also active in Cub Scout work. The Faubions are members of the First Christian Church.

Businesses Will Remain Open

According to school officials the monthly meeting of the Hereford Independent School Board of Trustees will not be postponed because of Veterans Day. The meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Administration Building at 700 Union.

Most of the Hereford businesses, including county and city offices will remain open. First National and Hereford State report they will also be open.

Impala's hidden persuaders:

- ① 350-cu.-in. engine
A new more powerful standard 250-hp V8 makes the 1970 Impala move with all the more assurance. On good ol' regular gas.
- ② Anti-theft column lock
A locking system is built right into the steering column. When you take your key with you, you lock not only your ignition but your steering wheel as well.
- ③ Aluminized exhaust system
It simply means that your original muffler, tailpipe and exhaust are going to last longer than you'd probably expect them to. Fair enough?
- ④ Side guard beams
They look like highway guard rails, and they're built into both sides of the car for extra protection in case of impact. Not too many cars have them.
- ⑤ Inner fenders
Up inside every fender is another fender to protect against slush and mud and help keep your Impala looking young.
- ⑥ Flush and dry
We build the car so that rain and wash water can run down through the inside of the rocker panels, then out. Air follows to do the drying.
- ⑦ Full Coil suspension
Huge coil springs at all four wheels are four big reasons why a Chevrolet Impala rides smoother and quieter than a low-priced car has any right to.

Deer Season To Test Hunters

COLLEGE STATION — Good fall rains and the resulting green feeding areas will mean a real test of a deer hunter's skill this year, is the assessment of Charles W. Ramsey, Extension Wildlife specialist at Texas A&M University.

Ramsey says that in areas of the state where there have been extra amounts of precipitation this fall, the already adequate deer crop will be difficult to hunt. He explained that where there is an abundance of green weeds or a good acorn crop, the deer will get up only to feed for short periods of time and then lay back down.

He added that the deer population is slightly decreased in certain areas of Texas, but not to any great degree.

"Generally the deer will be in good condition this year, and because of this, they will be hard to hunt," Ramsey commented.

Ramsey says that the hunter's success depends on the movement of the deer rather than the deer density. This movement is in turn dependent on the available food supply. If the food supply is good, the animals will not go to the feed pens and expose themselves to the hunter's deer blind.

An exception to this slow movement might be the early "rutting," or breeding, season for certain bucks. The excellent food supply has resulted in an earlier rutting season than usual. Ramsey explained that during this time, the buck will go off feed and begin wandering, thus exposing himself to the hunter.

Ramsey says that the hunter can estimate the deer possibilities in his specific hunting area. A good acorn crop or an abundance of green weeds will mean the deer have an adequate food supply and are not moving around. If the bucks are rutting, the hunter can see "buck rubs" and hunt trails where the deer are travelling.

He emphasized that in most areas, the deer are just as plentiful as other years. He added that since the hunting regulations differ from county to county over the state, any questions can be answered by the local conservation officer in the hunting area.

"If the hunter has the skill, the deer are there to hunt," Ramsey concluded.

Young Homemakers, Farmers, Host Thanksgiving Dinner

The menu included turkey and dressing with all the trimmings and each member brought a dessert.

AGILE WOMAN SYDNEY

SUPPORTING YOUR TOWN

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a two-line space.

A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at the paper. This is the best possible town advertising. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business man."

P. S. How many new residents and out of town shoppers saw your name and business today; this week?

St. Anthony's Catholic Church was the setting Friday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Viola Chapa, daughter of Mrs. Esperanza Chapa, Chicago, Ill., who became the bride of Larry Padilla, son of Mrs. Connie Padilla, 224 Ave. C in Hereford. Father Michael Graham, pastor, officiated for the 2 p.m. candlelight ceremony.

Serving as maid of honor was Ramona Padilla and best man was Lajo Padilla, both cousins of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by John A. Garza, the bride wore a street length gown of white shell knit, lined with silver. The slimline dress was fashioned with a rounded neckline and long sleeves flounced at the wrist. Her bouffant veil of illusion fell from a chrysanthemum caplet and she wore silver slippers. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls with matching earrings and she carried a bridal bouquet of cymbidium orchids.

The maid of honor wore an aqua crepe dress with a brown velvet coat and a cymbidium orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony in the home of the bridegroom's mother where refreshments were served by Mrs. Dale Grove and Mrs. Mike Garza.

Assisting was Mrs. Jonn Garza. For a wedding trip to Phoenix, Ariz., the bride's traveling ensemble was a yellow chiffon dress with a fur collar. They will be at home after Nov. 10 at 224 Ave. C, Apt. B.

Lions Club Sees 'Aladdin' Program

Southwestern Bell Science Demonstrator Roy Wickerham Wednesday teamed up with his magical genie — professional Magician Mark Wilson on film to turn the nation-wide Long Distance switching network into a fascinating display of illusions.

The two traded magic words and disappearing acts at a meeting of The Hereford Lions to illustrate developments in today's communications business.

The show featured the story of the nation-wide Long Distance switching network; a three-dimensional photograph called the hologram; see-while-you talk Picturephone service; and data service that enables machines to "talk" over telephone lines.

Wickerham tours the program, "Better Than Aladdin," throughout the western half of the state for Southwestern Bell.

The audience was shown a hologram, believed by some to be the forerunner of 3-D television. Wickerham said scientists at Bell Telephone Laboratories are showing more immediate interest in developing the hologram as a means of storing information for use in telephone systems.

He said it is estimated that the contents of the entire Congressional Library can be stored on two 10 X 14 inch holograms.

Wickerham also demonstrated Data-Phone service, which transmits information between business machines, and showed his audience a model of the Picturephone set, which transmits the caller's image as well as his voice.

With the help of two audience members, whom he designated as network managers, Wickerham also demonstrated how "traffic jams" in the busy nation-wide Long Distance switching network are easily straightened out as if by magic.

Increase Record Scored By TFB

WACO — The Texas Farm Bureau this year scored its largest annual membership gain in 13 years, with a total count at year's end of 116,822, according to Wayne L. Little, TFB director of field services.

This is an increase of almost 6,000 members over the 1968 figure of 110,889. A total of 168 of the 203 organized county Farm Bureaus registered a gain, Little said.

The TFB's fiscal year ended on Oct. 31, and the membership figure was announced on Nov. 6 following calculation of all members transmitted to the state office by the end of October.

Little said that in the past four years, Texas Farm Bureau has gained more members than all other general farm organizations in the state have on their membership rolls.

The TFB official said the organization's growth is an indication of the desire of farmers and ranchers of Texas to attain unity in their ranks.

Sermon Set At Local Church

"God Is Not Dead," is the topic of the sermon chosen to be given Sunday night by J. T. Martin, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, Sunset and Plains.

This lesson was delivered previously in a special service in Atlanta, Georgia in reply to Thomas Altizer who has been foremost in teaching that God is dead.

Rev. Marlin's sermon is designated to exalt God and to refute the "God Is Dead" theory taught by radical theologians today.

"Midsummer Nights Dream" Scheduled Here Nov. 10-11

The three act play, "Midsummer Nights Dream," will be presented November 10 and 11 in the high school auditorium. Performances will begin at 7:30 each night. Admission is 75 cents for students and $1.50 for adults.

The play is under the direction of John Claypool and Mal Menchee with the Theatians as sponsors.

The play is based on a group of teenagers who want to put on Shakespeare's "Midsummer Nights Dream" to raise money for a youth center. While rehearsing in the park, a rain storm enters the plot, driving the young people to seek refuge with an eccentric millionaire.

Happily, Mr. Courtney has not only money but a stage to spare, as well as a rather peculiar personality. The story is complicated by ghosts and Courtney's changing stand: to loan his stage or not to and a hidden half million dollars.

Also included is the love scene between Pyramus and Thisby, from "Midsummer Nights Dream." Pyramus is played by Prehn Nanninga and Thisby is Sammy Ogan.

Stage manager for the play is Gary Goheen, who also is the understudy for all the boys' parts. Joyce Ford is the assistant director and girls' understudy.

Girls, in order of appearance on stage, are Karen Gilbert as Rosalie, a girl who eats to live and lives to eat; Barbara, the leader of the group and the director of their play is portrayed by Deborah Hodges; Cathy Doughman plays Nancy, an all-around person; Cordella Suttle performs as Myrtle, who is constantly saying and doing the wrong thing; Hildy, a pig-tailed edition of Barbara is played by Dianna Golden; Donna Coker plays the role of Marye Anne, nature's gift to the stage who competes with Barbara for Squid's admiration; Tanya is portrayed by Margaret Wilcox as the married daughter of Edwina Drew; and as the quiet distinguished Edwina Drew we have Carmen Malouf.

In order of appearance we have boys, Joe, a firm disbeliever in the rule, "Silence is Golden," played by Prehn Nanninga; Squid, a happy-go-lucky teenager is put through the paces by Sammy Ogan. Raul Valdez performs as Carlos, a regular guy; Don DeGraff acts the role of Jim, an opponent to the dull moment. Steve Watson plays the part of Mr. Courtney, a miserly millionaire searching for that spare half million left a round before taxes.

The ticket and Program Design Committee consists of Carol Turrentine, Mona Gail Gibson, Jan Durham, Peggy Summers and Deborah Hodges.

Applying make-up for the play are Marilyn Smith, Cissie Reinauer, Debra Wilson, Ginger Lyons, Elizabeth Gandy, Janet Ashley, Janet Self, and Mary Wheeler.

Costumes are by Pam Campbell, Karen Jagels, Kelly Barber, Sue Miller, Brenda Brock and Mary Jane Kriegshauser.

Judy Yarbrow, Leigh Ann Allen, Jan Durham, Peggy Summers, Debra Wilson, Carol Turrentine and Mona Gail Gibson serve as usherettes.

The public is cordially invited and urged to attend the production this Monday and Tuesday evening beginning at 7:30 each night.

Shoulders which carry responsibility have little room for carrying chips.

Courtney. All five are actors in "A Midsummer Night's Dream" which will be performed at the Hereford High auditorium Monday and Tuesday nights starting at 7:30. The public is invited to attend.

Thomas Is Named Swine Specialist Western Store Of A&M Veterinary Microbiology With New Owner

COLLEGE STATION — Dr. William B. Thomas, assistant professor in Texas A&M University's Department of Veterinary Microbiology, on November 1 became swine specialist on the headquarters staff of the Agricultural Extension Service.

In making the announcement Extension Director John F. Hutchison said Thomas replaces Dr. Don Hudman who resigned to enter commercial work.

The director added that Thomas will continue the educational programs, involving the many phases of the swine industry, already underway with special emphasis on production. The industry in Texas, Hutchison noted, is expanding, and it is our objective to give producers educational information which will help them operate successful enterprises.

The new specialist will work closely with county agricultural agents and their producers and with organizations and groups interested in the Texas swine industry, Hutchison said. He will also have close connections with the many research workers at A&M on production as well as other fields of importance to a growing industry.

Thomas is a native of Nueces County, a graduate of Banquet High School and holds B. S. M. S. and Ph.D. degrees from Texas A&M in animal nutrition and minors in related fields. During his youth, he was an outstanding 4-H Club member for nine years and RFA for three years, and a Gold Star and State Fair Honor Award winner.

He served in the U. S. Army from 1953-55; as assistant county agent in Travis County 1955-56; as a graduate assistant at A&M 1956-57 and as head of livestock operations for Rio Farms, Inc. from 1957-61. He was swine specialist for the Texas Education Agency for two years before returning to A&M as an instructor in animal science.

From 1966-69 he served as a research associate for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and since September 1969 has served as an assistant professor.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas of Robstown and a member of the American Society of Animal Science.

Ownership of Boots and Saddles dry goods store located in Sugarland Mall was transferred last week. Ernest Kendall of 240 Elm Street purchased the store from Jack Daves on November 2.

Daves had been owner and manager of the business since it opened upon completion of the Mall. According to Kendall, Daves was running a shoe repair shop in the back of the store up until three months ago. He said that there was absolutely no intention of starting shoe repair again in Boots and Saddles.

From now on the store will concentrate strictly on the sale of western wear. Daves will probably help us the most during the month of December," said Kendall.

He also commented that men's western wear jackets and ladies western suits will be added to the stock.

The building of a balcony, which will be used for storage of boots, a dressing room, and office are under way at the present time.

Before purchasing Boots and Saddles, Kendall was in the retail business around Hereford, Lubbock, and Amarillo for the past twenty years.

What is the A.B.C.?

Chatting with a merchant the other day, we mentioned our "ABC figure."

"What," he asked, "is an ABC figure?"

Perhaps what we told him will also interest you.

This newspaper is a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations, an independent, nonprofit organization of nearly 4,000 advertisers, advertising agencies, and publishers.

Its purpose is to provide accurate and factual reports on the circulations of member publishers. In the advertising and publishing industry, the ABC insignia is often referred to as the "hallmark of circulation values."

At regular intervals, an ABC traveling auditor visits our office to check our records. The findings of this physical audit are embodied in an Audit Report published by ABC — the report literally tells us what our circulation is.

Virtually everything an advertiser should know about our circulation is found in this report, facts and figures without opinions.

Few retailers bother to ask to see a copy of our report, yet we want you to know one is available anytime you are interested in the quality and quantity of our circulation audience — the audience for your advertising messages.

What is an ABC figure?

It is our way of assuring you that you get full measure for your advertising dollar in this newspaper.

Mavericks Win 2, Knot 1 In Grid Action Last Week

La Plata's Mavericks kept their records unmarred by defeat, but the ninth grade did suffer a tie with their Tulla opponents, 6-6, while the seventh grade nipped the Dimmitt team, 22-0 and the eighth grade whacked the Dimmitt eighth, 50-12.

For the ninth grade, it was a defensive battle up until the final quarter when both teams put their scores on the board. Larry McNutt rambled 20 yards for the only La Plata TD, and the point after attempt failed.

Tulla also scored in the final quarter, and their point after attempt also failed.

La Plata picked up five first downs, gained 152 yards rushing, and 110 yards passing for a total offense of 243.

Leading the ground game was Danny Harris who rambled 85 yards on 8 carries while McNutt went 36 yards on six carries.

Terry Champ averaged eight yards per carry in gaining 41 yards on five carries and Walter Olson gained ten yards on three carries.

The tie brought the ninth grade's record to six wins, no losses and one tie. Next week they will be open and then will face the Stanton Dogies here on Nov. 20.

The eighth grade saw five different Mavericks cross the goal line in their 50-12 rout of the outmanned Dimmitt team.

James Waits got the first score for the locals when he went in from 30 yards out and James Harris added the two point conversion for an 8-0 lead. Wayne Schumacher then went 60 yards for another TD in the opening period and a 14-0 lead.

In the second stanza, Harris went in from 20 yards and just moments later, Schumacher got six more points when he crossed the goal line from five yards out. A third touchdown was registered in the second quarter when Jim Marsh unloaded a 60-yard scoring pass to Waits.

Going into the third quarter holding a comfortable lead, the Mavericks added another TD when Harris scored on a 50 yard run with Marsh adding the extra points.

Johnny Armario got the final La Plata touchdown when he crossed the goal line from five yards out in the final quarter and Marsh again added the extra points.

Statistics for the game show La Plata got 15 first downs, 460 yards rushing and 110 passing for a total of 570 offensive yards, and Dimmitt got three first downs and 120 yards rushing for a total of 120 yards.

Waits carried the ball ten times for an even 100 yards and Schumacher got 120 yards on 12 carries. Harris carried 18 times for 160 yards and Marsh got 40 on six carries.

Marsh completed four of six passes for the 110 total in the air.

The next game for the eighth grade will be November 11 when they meet the Stanton team. The seventh grade had a slightly more difficult time as they had to score late in the final quarter to win their game over the Tulla seventh grade, 22-20. La Plata got on the board in the first quarter when Marvin Harris uncorked a 55 yard bomb to Mike Munnerlyn for the score. Harris added another touchdown in the same quarter when he scored on a 20 yard run and then added the extra points himself.

La Plata gained six first downs, 176 yards rushing and 5 passing for a total of 231 total offensive yards. Dimmitt got 12 first downs, 220 yards rushing and 23 passing for 243 total yards.

Harris got 131 yards on 17 carries, Munnerlyn got four calls and gained 12 yards, Steve Bryan got five yards on four carries and Doug Charest went 34 yards on six carries.

Harris completed one of two passes for 55 yards. The win took the seventh grade's record to 5-0-1 and their next game will be the season finale against Stanton November 11.

Smart Shopper Food Guides

By Mrs. Argen Draper
 Home Demonstration Agent

Smart shopper food guide from the Department of Agriculture gives the best grocery buys in the four food groups for November. In the milk group, nonfat dry milk and evaporated milk; meat group is boilers, fryers, turkeys, eggs, ground beef and dry beans.

Fruit and vegetable group is canned peaches, fruit cocktail, apples, potatoes, both Irish and sweet, canned and frozen green beans, canned peas, corn and tomatoes; also, tomato juice and paste and puree.

Bread and cereal group plentiful food is rice; flour both all-purpose and self-rising. Other foods that will be found in the smart shopper's basket are jellies, jams, salad and cooking oils. Variety is the key to interesting meals and wise shopping is the secret to good management.

Rita Huckert gives me a good report on the 4-H group at Walcott. When she had the lesson on the milk food group, she made instant hot chocolate. Here's the recipe she used. This is nourishing and very tasty.

HOT CHOCOLATE MIX
 3 pound box of nonfat dry milk
 6 ounce jar non-dairy coffee cream
 1 pound box instant chocolate cream
 1/2 pound powdered sugar
 Mix all ingredients well. Store in covered container.

TO SERVE: Combine one-third cup mix with two-thirds cup hot water. This makes 1 cup hot chocolate. Two tablespoons instant whipped topping may be used in each cup if desired.

Something else good has given me. Thanks to Todd Cokrum for this pumpkin cookie recipe. Todd recommends this as his kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Margaret Lomenick, served these cookies at school one day. I understand some mothers have been busy making these cookies.

Local Farmers Union Will Participate In Campaign

Jay Naman, Waco, President of the Texas Farmers Union, announced that the state organization will take part in a six-state Flying Membership Campaign of the national Farmers Union during the week of November 10.

The Farmers Union Convair will shuttle members in and out of North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Texas and New Mexico. Host families in each state will join with visitors for concentrated membership efforts during the week. The airplane will pick up the visiting Farmers Union members on Thursday, November 13, and return them to their home states.

Tony Dechant, Denver, Colorado, the national president of the Farmers Union, said the flying campaign has only one purpose — "saving the farm program to prevent a loss of $8 billion a year farm income, and improving it to increase farm income by at least that same amount."

"We have learned," said Dechant, "that the whole job can't be done in Washington. It takes grassroots action. One farmer-working through his local Farmers Union — can do more to persuade Congressmen and Senators on the need for improving farm income than a year of arguments on the floor of Congress."

Dechant said there is urgency in the campaign. "A bill is before Congress that will permanently extend our farm legislation," he said. "It will improve it in several important ways."

Dechant said, "By the Administration's own estimate, allowing the farm program to expire will cost farmers $1 billion a year. The bill now before Congress not only extends the program, it improves it — and will add at least $1 billion a year in farm income. This is big money to farmers. This $2 billion a year that we are fighting for would be, for example, $2,000 a year for a million farmers."

"The bill—developed by the Farmers Union and a coalition of 21 other general arm and commodity organization — takes the first step toward improving the farm program by making it permanent," Dechant said. "Then it deals with several problem areas," he said. "Among these are wheat and feed grains. It provides for 'Consumer Protection Reserves' of wheat, feed grains, soybeans, and cotton. These will not only improve prices, but will make supply-management programs work. The bill also provides for an immediate increase in support prices of feed grains. It provides for an immediate increase in support of prices of feed grains. It provides for establishing export marketing certificates for wheat, comparable to the domestic marketing certificate. The bill also establishes authority for federal marketing orders for any commodity when producers want them."

District FTA Meet Is Held At Canyon

CANYON, Tex. — Approximately 900 students representing 32 area high schools attended the District 16 Future Teachers of America convention in the Buffalo Fieldhouse at West Texas State University Tuesday.

Named Mr. and Miss FTA at the convention were Jay Jones and Ronda Muir, both of Amarillo Tascosa.

Runnersup were Jean McCray of Panhandle and Chris Brady of Claude. Kandy Vaughn of Spearman and Lonnie Markley of Dimmitt were named third place winners.

Miss Muir and Jones, who were awarded $25 checks from the Rotary and Lions Club respectively, will advance to state competition later this month. "Education: Eternal Enrichment" is the speech topic designated by all state FTA chapters this year.

According to state rules, if either winner becomes unable to compete in state competition, the second place contestant will be eligible to compete. Judges for the district competition were Miss Patsy Ehly and Miss Jennifer Hickman, members of the WTSU Speech department, and Eugene Buckley and Thomas Cannon of the WTSU Education department.

All Mr. and Miss FTA candidates who had participated in earlier eliminations were awarded certificates of recognition by Dr. Thomas MacOwan of the WTSU Education faculty.

Newly elected officers for District 16, chosen at the convention, are Nancy Evans of White Deer, president; Steve Stone of Amarillo Palo Duro, vice president; Sherry True of Borger, recording secretary; Susan Herder of Perryton, financial secretary; Joan Roksandich of Amarillo Tascosa, parliamentarian; and Margo Watson of Claude, historian.

The corresponding secretary is to be appointed by the new president. Presenting the keynote address was Lee Hicks, Texas State Teachers Association field representative.

Hicks spoke on the ever-present generation gap saying that "there is indeed a generation gap. There has always been one and there always will be. I challenge you (the future teachers) to remember that you are of the 'now' generation... but the students you teach will be completely different than you are now."

Hicks then proceeded to characterize students through the titles of various popular songs. In conclusion, Hicks cited that 50 percent of the freshmen enrolled in colleges today have fathers who didn't attend. "These are the youngsters," Hicks said, "who are not on pot. These are the ones who realize the value of an education."

In quoting Tony Bennett, Hicks described these students as the ones who say, "You're Going To Hear From Me."

Veterans Day, November 11

Veterans Day, November 11, 1969, was first observed as Armistice Day. Silence had fallen across Europe at 11:00 A. M. November 11, 1918, ending World War I. This is still a day of hope, fifty-one years having passed since that eventful day.

Over 4½ million men represented the United States during this great conflict, World War I. Over 126,000 men would not be coming home, having paid the supreme sacrifice for their country. They were remembered in services beginning on November 11, 1921. In 1926, Armistice Day was the official name given this day of observation. In 1938 Congress proclaimed the date a legal public holiday.

The hopes and dreams of mankind were shattered just one year later, in 1939, when World War II began. America again responded to the challenge. Over 16 million men were called to forsake peaceful pursuits and bear arms for the protection of our allies.

Twice since that date, Americans have come to the aid of oppressed people, once in Korea, and now in Vietnam. When communist forces invaded Korea and South Vietnam, we came to the aid of those suffering people who had visions of living in a land that was free.

We Americans still maintain hope for peace in the world today, even though battles continue to rage in the jungles of Vietnam. We will not accept a peace of slavery, but a peace of honor and dignity.

As we observe Veterans Day 1969, we pause to remember the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, a symbol of all American fighting men who paid with their lives, that the living might enjoy enduring freedom. More than one million men have given their lives in this endeavor.

Veterans of all wars of the United States now number more than 39 million. Of this number, there are some 414,000 women veterans. There are more than 27 million of these veterans alive today. We have a tremendous responsibility and owe a great debt to these veterans who have given us our dearly cherished freedom.

To this very special group of Americans, we owe a pledge of assurance that we are worthy of the many sacrifices they have made and are making at this moment, in order that we may remain a free nation.

We face the future with confidence and hope and that world peace will come because of the actions and deeds of our veterans of past wars and our men who fight today on the battlefields of Vietnam.

Veterans Day, 1969, we salute those heroes of past wars and our fighting men of today, who are preserving our democracy. We honor those who died for freedom's sake, and we pledge to those who live that we will remember with reverence their contributions to our freedom.

A STITCH IN TIME

Talk of Texas

By JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Dallas took to the air 51 years ago this week to celebrate the signing of the Armistice that ended World War I.

The Army's Advanced Flying School at Love Field had planned a two-day "Flying Frolic" to be held on November 8-9, 1918. Fall downpours turned the airport into a quagmire, however, and flooded rail lines into the city. The air show had to be postponed for four days.

Meanwhile, the Armistice became effective at 11 a. m. on November 11, and the "Flying Frolic" was turned into a two-day victory celebration. It included simulated bombing runs, parachute jumps and even a fireworks display unloosed from the planes flying overhead.

HUMP ON THE RANGE — Texas, which hasn't had a range camel since the Army experimented with a herd of the animals in pre-Civil War days, has one now.

Gleannoch Farms, which breeds and trains Arabian horses northwest of Houston, keeps a camel named Cleopatra Bint Isis on the premises.

GUN MAN — Captain M. T. Gonzaulas, who retired in 1951 after 31 years as a Texas Ranger, owns 580 hand guns.

His favorites are two gold-and-silver inlaid Colt .45's presented to him by grateful citizens.

GARBLED GEOGRAPHY — Double-talk on some Polk County highway markers cause uninitiated tourists to do a double-take.

Suddenly a highway sign appears that reads: "Dallardsville 6 miles." A line directly under it reads: "Big Sandy 6 miles."

Dallardsville and Big Sandy are one and same. It's a case of one village being known locally by two different names.

Dallardsville is the post office and the name that appears on maps. Big Sandy is the name of the consolidated high school there which serves a large area of the Big Thicket, including the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation. The double names are on the highway signs are there primarily for the benefit of school bus drivers.

There is another Big Sandy that does appear on the map. It's a thriving community in Upshur County.

HUMPTY-DUMPTY HAVEN — The late Robert More, Sr., for years the general manager of the Waggoner land empire in West Texas, was an ornithologist in his spare time. That is, he collected bird eggs.

Today Mr. More's collection of 10,000 eggs of more than 750 species of birds is one of the largest of its kind in the world. Housed, now on the second floor of a tire company and service station operated by his son, R. L. More, Jr., at 1905 West Wilbarger Street in Vernon, the collection is open to visitors. There is no admission charge.

TRAVELING TEXAS — Some of the most unique souvenirs of Texas are turned out by a shop at 1904 Florida Street in Midland.

Polished cores from oil wells are converted into bookends, paperweights, lamp bases, tie tacks and even cuff links.

65 YEARS AGO — 1904

The safe of the Hereford Business College Bank was blown open last night and had it not been for the early arrival of a new student, the bank would have been considerably weakened. The bank opened on time this morning and is doing business as usual. Considerable excitement has been occasioned this week by the continued absence of Luther Rhodes, the 15-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rhodes north of town. Luther got on his horse last Sunday morning and started for Hereford to get the mail, stopping at some of the neighbors on the way. When night came on, he failed to return and nothing has since been heard of him.

50 YEARS AGO — 1919

The big Kemp & Kell interests of Wichita Falls, Tex., have just purchased the elevator on the Santa Fe tracks opposite the passenger depot, owned by the McQueen Grain Company, and will take over its management on the first of the year. Curtailed passenger train service, endured patiently by the people along this line of railway for over a year as a war measure, and since that time more or less patiently, as a matter of necessity, will be a thing of the past on Dec. 1, and a schedule of service better than we have ever enjoyed in the past will be inaugurated.

35 YEARS AGO — 1934

Roll call drive of the Red Cross, Deaf Smith County chapter, will open Monday with the parade celebrating Armistice Day. Canvassing the city for memberships will begin Tuesday. Most of the work is to be completed that day. D. H. Alexander is roll call chairman. County administrators have been notified by Texas Relief Commission officials of the third general distribution of canned beef and notified to call at the commission's 21 canneries for their allotment. The third distribution will include 5,500,000 cans of beef. It is twice as large as the two previous allotments, and will cover the requirements for a two-month period. Deaf Smith County's share of the meat will come from the cannery at Amarillo. The amount to be distributed here has not been announced.

20 YEARS AGO — 1949

Cafe and coffee shop owners who sell the most coffee in Hereford were quick to say Wednesday that there was only a small possibility that 10-cent coffee would come to Hereford. Only the smaller owners were uncertain and could not make statements. None of the leading coffee-drinking anticipated a rise in the price of a nickel cup of coffee. At the Star: Oh, how you'll love the warm and wonderful story of the doll who set the nation singing! June Haver and Mark Stevens in "Oh, You Beautiful Doll." At the Texas: Blackbirds!! They broke every law of the 7 seas... every law of God and man... in the traffic of humans. Warner Baxter and Wallace Beery in "Slave Ship" with Elizabeth Allen, Mickey Rooney, and Peter Lorre. Brought back by popular demand.

5 YEARS AGO — 1964

Officials of Holly Sugar Corporation announced that the sugar company is moving the headquarters of its livestock department from Denver, Colo., to Hereford. Construction has started on Hereford's newest school, northside elementary which, as yet, does not have an official name. Pouring of concrete for the 39,000-square foot structure got underway this past week, and the new 24-classroom ultra-modern masonry structure is to be completed by Aug. 15, next year.

MAIN STREET, U. S. A.

World Of Silent Wonder

By BERT MILLS

Washington, D. C. — Gallaudet College, the world's only liberal arts college for the deaf, is one of the wonders of Washington which is seldom seen by either the resident or the visitor but which exerts an influence throughout the nation and around the globe.

Located a short distance from the U. S. Capitol, Gallaudet is a 105-year-old private institution which receives two-thirds of its support from the Federal government. Three members of Congress serve on its Board of Directors. The Department of Health, Education and Welfare oversees its operation.

Gallaudet has about 900 students from all over the nation and a number of foreign countries. All of the undergraduates are deaf, and so are many of the faculty of 202. A few graduate students who plan to be teachers of the deaf can hear. To those blessed with hearing, Gallaudet is a strange place indeed.

Every state in the nation benefits from Gallaudet because its graduates have spread across the land to teach the deaf to overcome their communication problems. Few schools for the deaf do not have at least one Gallaudet alumnus on their faculty. Gallaudet graduates have founded schools for the deaf in four foreign countries.

Anthem "Saag" in Sign Language

Recently Gallaudet inaugurated Dr. Edward C. Merrill, Jr. as its fourth President. Your correspondent was privileged to attend as one of some 400 academic delegates. It was an unforgettable experience because most of those present could not hear a word that was said during a 90-minute ceremony.

But the deaf people on the stage and in the audience did not miss a word. The entire program was "signed" to the audience by faculty members who are experts in the language of signs. The speakers talked at a normal pace and the flying fingers, hands, and arms of the communicators kept pace.

Imagine, if you can, the National Anthem being "sung" by a girl who is deaf. A loud speaker played the tune and the words were conveyed to those who understand sign language by the performer on stage. To those in attendance, the memory of that girl in the red dress will come back whenever "The Star Spangled Banner" is played.

President Merrill of Gallaudet has normal hearing. But he has been under-going on-the-job training since last January, and has learned at least the rudiments of sign language. His address was both by voice and by hand, simultaneously. It looked like quite a feat but it was topped by the minister who pronounced the benediction. A Gallaudet graduate who can speak but not hear, he also spoke with both his voice and his hands.

Deaf Students Dance Prayer

Perhaps the most dramatic point of the ceremony was the portrayal of "The Lord's Prayer" by a dance group of students. Again, a loudspeaker played the time for the audience, while nine girls "danced" the words. How deaf performers can match actions to music they cannot hear is a secret known only to those who have surmounted a major handicap.

The principal address was given by Dr. Paul A. Miller, President of Rochester Institute of Technology. He commented: "No one of us will likely join ever again in an academic ceremony of such uniqueness." There could be no quarrel with that claim.

As Dr. Miller expressed it, Gallaudet is "a beacon of hope for deaf people everywhere." The college cannot accept a deaf youth seeking a higher education, and must turn down more than half of those that apply. That is too bad but perhaps the day will come when the public will see to it that every deaf, but talented young person can gain the benefit of a liberal arts education at Gallaudet or other institutions patterned after it.

CUBAN STYLE

HAVANA — Men's hair styles in Cuba this year call for longer sideburns and the elimination of the square cut across the neck, says the Bureau of Fashion Orientation. The bureau gave this guideline in a new newspaper series and said it would have more fashion advice in the future.

A Good Place to Start -- Home!

Currently, the citizens of this nation are in a dither about the pollution of streams and rivers, the countryside and the roads and certainly, they should be. We have become a nation of litterers.

And what about the pollution of our cities?

It's a different type of pollution, but pollution nevertheless.

Our cities and towns are rapidly becoming serious eyesores, and Hereford, although better than many, is certainly no exception.

We litter our streets, little realizing how dirty the sidewalks and curbs can become in a short time. Main Street has become a dumping ground for paper cups and other litter and probably catches more than its share daily with a double dose on Sundays. Vandals also take a toll of the improvements along the street and city of Hereford must spend thousands of dollars each year maintaining the light fixtures and planter boxes. A needless waste.

Some of our citizens are also guilty of leaving old, delapidated out-of-order automobiles on the streets for long periods of time, and many property owners allow rental property to become run down, bordering on slum conditions.

The City is making an effort to do something about the old automobile situation, and recently issued a warning to citizens that the old cars would be hauled off if arrangements were not made to get them off the streets. But this is just a beginning to solving the so-called pollution problem.

and it takes the cooperation and work of the citizens of this city to really do the job right.

To start the ball rolling, we might all survey the situation around our own property — whether it's the home in which we live or some rental property owned in another part of town — and see what can be done to beautify our own little area. Then too, a litter basket for the family automobile would alleviate a great deal of the trash on the city streets.

Hereford has had a reputation for cleanliness in past years, and we see no reason why we should let it slip now.

China And The Bomb

Some of Communist China's most belligerent expressions have come in defense of its nuclear weapons development. It has said that the better its nuclear weapons systems become the stronger the "socialist forces" will be in their fight against capitalistic imperialism. It charges that the partial test ban and the nonproliferation treaties are attempts by the United States and the "revisionist" Russians to maintain a nuclear monopoly and blackmail the nonnuclear countries.

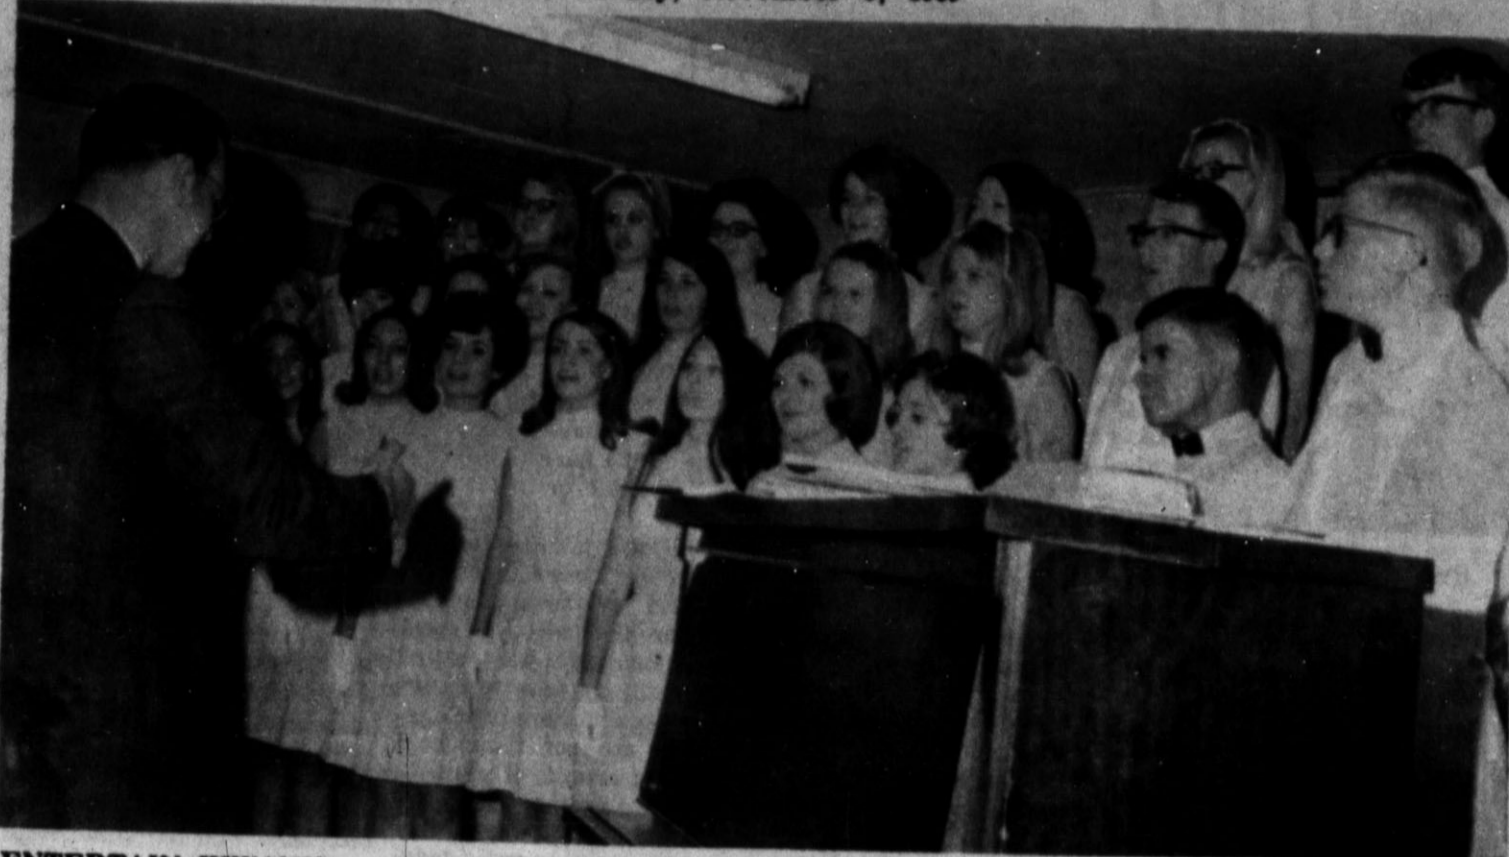

Do recent events offer a ray of hope in all the gloom for those deeply concerned by the nuclear arms race? The Chinese confirmed their ninth and tenth nuclear blasts. One reportedly was a three megaton hydrogen bomb test in the atmosphere. The other was China's first underground test.

Why the underground test? If Red China is so intent on catching its rivals and so convinced that curbs on testing are meant to inhibit it, the underground test did not make sense. It is more expensive to undertake and much harder to monitor for results.

American officials have no answers. One can only speculate, but logically there are two possibilities. The underground test could have been aimed at peaceful uses of nuclear energy, or it showed China's growing concern over the effects of radioactive fallout in the atmosphere — the concern that brought the Russians and Americans together on the test ban treaty. — Milwaukee Journal

The other evening President Nixon went over to J. Edgar Hoover's home for dinner, raising again in reporters' minds the question of whether the Federal Bureau of investigation chief will retire when he reaches the age of 75 Jan. 1. State Health Commissioner To Attend "End Hunger" Conference

Dr. James E. Peavy, State Health Commissioner and executive chief of the Texas State Department of Health, will participate in a December 3-5 White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health designed to "end hunger in America for all times."

Dr. Peavy, president of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers, will represent that group on one of 26 panels, his being the State and Local Governments panel.

The conference, called by President Nixon, will be under the direction of Dr. Jean Mayer, special consultant to the president, and will bring together top educators, scientists, medical and health professionals, representatives of agriculture and the food industry, spokesmen for consumer and social action groups — including the poor — and federal, state and local governmental officials.

BAN NON-WHITES
EAST LONDON, South Africa — The Posts and Telegraphs department of segregationist South Africa has banned non-whites from using rural party telephone lines. Confirming this, Assistant Director of Telephones J. F. van Rooyen said non-whites left in charge by absent farmers are liable to use the farmhouse telephone. Party line subscribers in the past often complained their conversations were disrupted by abusive language. He said no action would be taken if non-whites used farm telephones in an emergency or in the normal course of the day's duties.

In a personal letter to Dr. Peavy, Dr. Mayer said "the White House Conference will advise the President and the American people on how best to fulfill our national commitment, 'to put an end to hunger in America... for all time.'"

Prior to the conference, the 26 panels will consider a wide range of food and nutrition problems and draft sets of provisional recommendations. The panel on which Dr. Peavy will be working is expected to gather in Washington in mid-November.

Participants in the conference will begin their work with these recommendations. In small working sessions, they will review the various proposals critically and discuss them with the panels which prepared them.

From this interchange the conference will provide its final report — a carefully developed and broadly acceptable body of recommendations for the President, for federal, state and local governments, for the private sector of the economy and for the American people.

Some of the questions to be seriously considered during the conference include how to insure surveillance of the state of nutrition for citizens, or how to detect malnutrition; how to improve the nutrition of the more vulnerable groups — the poor, pregnant and nursing mothers, children and adolescents, aged, etc.

How to monitor continued wholesomeness and nutritional value of our food; how to improve nutrition teaching in the schools.

In announcing the conference, President Nixon said, "that hunger and malnutrition should persist in a land such as ours is embarrassing and intolerable... something very like the honor of American democracy is at issue."

CLOTHIN GDISPUTES
BLOEMFONTEIN, South Africa —Modern styles moved a local church organization to appeal for a government censor board to control women's fashions. The Women's Aid Service of the sternly Calvinist Dutch Reformed Church further resolved to ask local fashion designers to produce creations "suited to South African culture." They also want education authorities to act against "scantily clad" teachers and give "positive" instruction on clothing to pupils.

MALNUTRITION

DURBAN, South Africa — About one million young African children in South Africa are suffering from malnutrition and the number is likely to increase, Prof. John Reid warned. Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — Can you deduct anything for a contribution to a political party?

A — No, political contributions made by individuals or businesses are not deductible.

Q — My last paycheck was bigger even though I'm being paid the same amount. Have taxes been reduced?

A — The explanation for your higher take-home pay may lie in the amount being withheld for Social Security taxes. An employer is required to withhold these taxes just on the first $7,700 of wages paid to each employee in a calendar year. After that, Social Security taxes are no longer withheld so that the net amount of the paycheck will be higher.

Q — My 15-year old son wants to go hunting with me. Is there any Federal law that would stop me from taking him along?

A — No, your son may go hunting with you without violating any Federal firearms law. Although the Gun Control Act of 1968 prevents your son from buying a rifle, shotgun or ammunition for himself until he is 18, you may supply him with what he needs.

Q — When can I start deducting the pledge I made to my church's building fund drive?

A — Deductions for contributions to qualified organizations can only be taken for the tax year they are actually paid. If you pay all or part of your pledge this year, then you must take the deduction on your 1969 return for the amount actually paid.

To take the deduction on your 1970 return you should postpone your payments until 1970.

Q — Is a fellow with a pension from private industry taxed the same way as a person with a government pension?

A — Except for the retirement income credit, both a government and a private pension are subject to the same income tax provisions.

To claim the retirement income credit, a person with a private pension must be 65 years of age or over. This age requirement does not apply to Federal, state or local civil service retirees.

Q — I just started a new job and expect to have an expense account. Will I have to keep records of what I spend for tax purposes?

A — If you account to your employer for these business expenses and your reimbursement is not more than what you spent these amounts are not income and you will not have to report them on your tax return. Employees who are not reimbursed should keep records of what they spend for ordinary and necessary expenses. They may claim a business expense deduction for these expenses when they file their income tax returns.

For details on necessary recordkeeping, send a post card to your District Director. Ask for Publication 463, Travel, Entertainment and Gift Expenses.

Bell Air System Believed Big Help

In two rooms at the University of Texas-M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston, 86 per cent of the leukemia patients survive; 62 per cent lead relatively normal lives after treatment. Outside the rooms, only half of the leukemia victims survive; the normal life rate drops to 40 per cent.

The difference, doctors believe, is a special air filtration system initially developed for industry by the Bell System.

This system, called "laminar flow," reduces the patient's chances for infection — the killer of more than two-thirds of all victims of leukemia because the disease destroys the white blood cell's ability to combat infection.

Devised by the Sandia Corporation, a subsidiary of Western Electric, the Bell System's manufacturing and supply arm, the filtering systems are mounted at the head of each bed in the cleanrooms.

Air is filtered and distributed in parallel lines across the rooms, up the ceilings and through return ducts in a flow cycle difficult for a visitor to discern.

"I think there is a wide application for this kind of room for patients undergoing extensive surgery for heart transplantation — a field where patients are highly susceptible to infections," said Dr. Gerald Bodey of the hospital's department of developmental therapeutics.

"Our biggest problem at the moment is not having enough of these laminar flow cleanrooms to go around." The cleanrooms, he said, usually are reserved for patients with leukemia in its acute stages. They are placed in the rooms for initial treatment — usually 60 days — until their bone marrow, weakened by disease, returns to normal.

Frequent culture samples are taken to verify the rooms' cleanliness, doctors said, and visitors must be specially clothed in masks, smocks, and foot coverings or remain in a restricted area at the foot of a room.

Initially developed to keep miniaturized industrial components free of contamination, laminar flow filtration systems have been adapted for use, not only in Houston, but in drug manufacturing plants and in hospitals in New Mexico, Washington, MIchigan, Maryland and New York.

Doctors in Houston emphasize that the filtering system is no guarantee that infection will not be contracted, but they are highly encouraged by the results of 29 trials conducted at the hospital since the cleanrooms were installed in 1967.

TO AID TRADE

CAIRO — The first Afro-Asian conference for the development of small scale industries has adopted several recommendations for bolstering trade among member states.

Farmers said they hope the standard of living in those countries will rise as a result.

This conference, held here, was attended by 25 Afro-Asian Countries and 12 International organizations.

HHS Band Again Rates Tops In UIL Meet

Deep within the confines of Buffalo Bowl last Tuesday, several groups met in heated competition. But, this time it wasn't the usual type of battle that is played between the elusive goal lines.

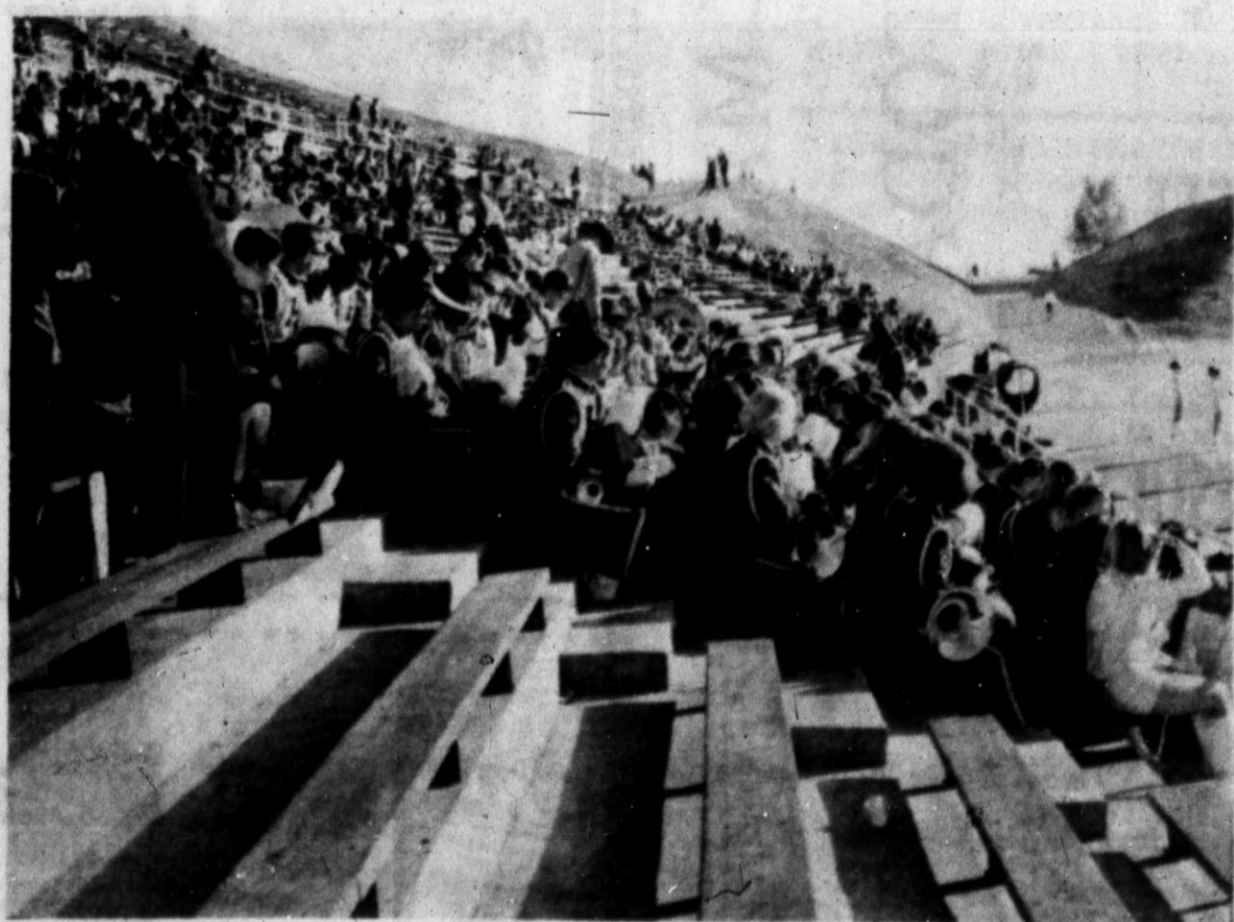

For weapons, the cletes, helmets and pads were laid aside and replaced by horns, drums, clarinets, saxophones and other musical instruments.

The score wasn't kept on a scoreboard and the time didn't tick off as it does so many times during the grid season. There were no quarter halts or halftime breaks. There were no large crowds to cheer the battlers on. Instead, the only ones present to see the action were interested parents, fellow students and the opposition.

In actuality, the battle was the University Interscholastic League Marching band competition. In Tuesday's action, Hereford saw all three of its bands march away with the highest ratings given—Division I's.

But, all was not lost in the colorful uniforms and shining brass. In addition to the bands, twirlers from throughout the area were on hand to give the show a little spice, and again Hereford was well enough represented to rate two first division solo awards. Taking the honors were sophomore Brenda Formby and junior Terri Beth Line.

This year's win marked the eighth straight win for the high school band and both the Stanton and La Plata Junior High bands also chalked up first division ratings.

FEMALE COPS?
 PRETORIA, South Africa — South Africa needs a supplementary female police force, says a University of South Africa criminology Prof. P.J. van der Walt. But tasks given to women police officers should accord with their character and emotional make-up and it should not be expected of them to sacrifice their femininity. "With more research, tact and the co-operation of the public, women could play a much bigger part in the police force to prevent juvenile crime."

REVISE LAWS
 FRANKFORT, Ky. — A special committee has been named to draw up a revision of Kentucky's criminal laws. Members include judges, prosecutors and defense attorneys.
