

'Jubilee Law' Begins Monday

Monday will be the initial day of "Jubilee Law" in Hereford and will officially kick-off the series of events for Hereford's 75th Diamond Jubilee Celebration.

Beginning Monday, local residents will be required to wear official jubilee articles such as buttons, various permits or articles of dress. All men must either support a beard or mustache in addition to a "Brothers of the Brush" button, or they must wear a shaving permit and be a member of the "Brothers of the Smoothies."

Local women are expected to wear required articles of clothing of the Jubilee Belles. All articles may be purchased from Hereford downtown merchants or at Sugarland Mall.

Those found in violation of the "Jubilee Law" will be subpoenaed and must appear before the Jubilee "Kangaroo Court" for sentencing.

Studying Fire Damage

Fred Sims, left, and Hereford Fire Marshall Jay Spain study the aftermath of a fire in the Sims home at 134 Beach Thursday afternoon which gutted one room and heavily smoke-damaged the rest of the house. The two here are studying a closet where the blaze started in an attempt to find the cause of the fire.

Fire Guts Room Of Home

A fire gutted one room of the Fred Sims home, 134 Beach, and heavily damaged the rest of the home with heat and smoke shortly after 6 p.m. Thursday. Hereford firemen had the blaze under control shortly after the alarm was sent in, but not before heat and smoke caused extensive damage to the brick home.

Fred Sims discovered the fire when he returned home about 6 p.m. Thursday. He said he noticed smoke coming from a closet in a small sewing room in the rear of the house.

Sims discovered the fire and then called firemen. However, the fire rapidly spread and gutted the entire room in the few minutes before the fire trucks arrived.

Spain said Friday he was still investigating the case as to the cause of the blaze.

In other fire department action during the week a grass fire was extinguished at the airport shortly after 9 p.m.

Emergency officials also answered a call Friday at 10:05 a.m. at Tierra Blanca School where one of the students reportedly had a small stick hung in his throat. However, school officials had the stick removed and the boy in good condition before officials arrived. Jim Connelly reported a car fire shortly after noon Friday at 150 Centre which firemen quickly extinguished. A grass fire started by trash was put out by firemen about 1:30 p.m. Friday, just south of the new city park in southeast Hereford.

Lengthy Agenda Set For City

The Hereford City Commission will meet in regular session at 7:30 Monday evening at city hall.

On tap for the meeting is the opening of bids for a side loader for the city sanitation truck, adoption of the new city code, decision on the request for a motorbike trail and discussion of proposals for a city retirement system.

The city code to be adopted is the combination of all city ordinances into book form for easy accessibility.

The commissioners are expected to return a decision on

$500 Reward Offered

A $500 reward has been offered in connection with the missing $1,810.15 from Piggly Wiggly Food store.

Gaylord Newell, store owner, offered the reward this past week for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for the theft.

The money disappeared June 18 from a cash drawer in the store. It was intended for night deposit and disappeared before an employee could deliver it to the bank that night.

All employees of the store were cleared late last week when Hereford Police administered polygraph (lie detector) tests to each of them. No other suspects have been linked with the case.

In other police action during the week two wrecks were reported and police received several calls for complaints of fireworks inside the city limits.

An accident occurred about 1:45 p.m. Thursday at the intersection of S. 25 Mile Avenue and 4th Street. A 1962 Ford Galaxie driven by Eva Beltran, 1516 Forest, Apt. 52, was in collision with a 1962 Oldsmobile driven by Nina Harris Kimbell of 515 Ave. K.

The Beltran vehicle was traveling north on 25 Mile Avenue and the Kimbell vehicle was traveling west on 4th Street at the time of the intersection.

A peculiar accident happened shortly before 3 p.m. Thursday when a man leaped from a car and outran Hereford officers in a footrace through a residential section.

Officers were behind a 1960 Chevrolet with New Mexico license plates in the 300-block of Avenue B when the driver of the vehicle opened the door and jumped out. The vehicle then kept going forward and struck a parked 1972 Chevrolet owned by Eugene De Leon of 305 Avenue B.

Hereford officers pursued the man on foot but were unable to apprehend him. Police are presently investigating the case.

Officers reported several incidents of fireworks being popped illegally within the city limits and reported several incidents to parents of minor children.

A bicycle was reported stolen and dispatchers received several calls complaining of obscene phone calls to local residents and other domestic problems.

Groom cancels Sicily wedding

When Michele Fodera, 74, of Sicily, learned recently that his 84-year-old fiancée, Teresa Garmesi, had had an affair with another man in 1923, he broke the engagement — five days before the marriage.

Fodera told the marriage registry official, "Tear up the wedding banns. This is an affair of honor — I have just learned about her affair 50 years ago."

"You misunderstood me, I didn't say this place would run 7000 head of cattle, I said it takes that many to pay for it!"

The Case For NORM

Vander Zee Gives NORM Proposals To Mahon

The National Organization of Raw Materials (NORM), which held organizational meetings in Hereford more than a year ago, had opportunity Monday to present some of its recommendations for future farm programs to Congressman George Mahon in Washington, D.C.

Harlan Vander Zee, Hereford banker and president of NORM, reported that the organization's executive committee met with Rep. Mahon to present the complete program. Arnold Paulson, executive director of NORM from Minnesota, states the basic concept of NORM being to "regenerate the fiscal soundness of this nation by the production and fair pricing of all raw materials."

Purpose of this meeting was to deliver specific information and research figures as requested by Mahon during an earlier meeting this year. Congressmen Jamie Whitten (Miss.) and Mark Andrews (N.D.) also attended the meeting in March. Vander Zee reported that Mahon has assigned a staff assistant to the task of writing NORM's proposals into legislative form.

"Mr. Mahon made no commitment as to what might be the outcome of this effort and explained that legislation is a long and tiring process," Vander Zee reported. The group was told, however, that planning must begin at some point if it is to be considered in the future. "The 19th District of Texas is most fortunate to have a man like George Mahon as their representative," said Vander Zee. "He is held in highest respect by all those with whom he works; his dedication to a strong and sound nation is beyond question, and we greatly appreciate the time he spent with the representative of NORM."

During the presentation, Paulson noted the past 25 years has been "excellent proof" of the need to put agriculture, forestry, mining and the fishing industries back into their rightful place as the basic foundation of a sound economy. "We have seen national income grow from $199 billion in 1947 to $935 billion in 1972 — an increase of 370 per cent," claimed Paulson. "During the same period we have witnessed the increase in realized net farm income from $17.1 billion to $19.2 billion — a mere 12 per cent increase." Paulson contends the basic cause of shortages is the fact that producers are unable to continue to produce if there is not a fair and reasonable profit incentive, adding that this is seen in many areas of raw material production today. "All persons interested in assisting in bringing agriculture back to its rightful place in our society are asked to support NORM," Vander Zee said this week. He also urged support of Congressman Mahon as he studies the possibilities of the raw material concept and how it affects the nation as a whole.

THE SUNDAY BRAND Sports

McRights Sell

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. McRight, owners and operators of McRight Garage and Supply since 1939, have announced the sale of their business to Clyde E. Oldham.

The transaction will be effective today with Oldham assuming management of the business with opening for the public Monday morning.

The business, located at 642 E. 2nd, will remain under the same name as is now and will remain at the same location as it has since 1957.

"Clyde Oldham is a fine fellow," said the McRights in making the announcement. "He will do a good job and we just wish to express our appreciation for the many good years the people of the community have given us."

The couple said they plan to retire and rest and "travel when we can get gas."

McRight started in Hereford in 1927 as an International Harvester dealer.

"I was with them almost 13 years before I started our business in 1939," McRight said. "We have been at the same location since 1957 and remodeled the store in 1962."

McRight said the biggest change in the auto supply business since he has been in it is the volume of supplies he had to keep and the gross amount of business.

"Gross business is up four or five times what it was when we started. There used to be only one engine for a Chevrolet and one for a Ford and it fit cars, pickups and tractors."

"Now we have several size engines and different makes by each model car."

McRight also said the new types of cars are harder to work on and are much more complicated.

Mrs. McRight said one of the biggest changes she noticed was the number of store employees rising from just the two in 1939 to eight presently.

"One of the biggest changes in this area though has been the introduction of irrigation," McRight said. "That added a tremendous amount to our business."

The McRights will continue to reside in Hereford.

Clayton Urges Lions To 'Be Aware'

State Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake was guest speaker for the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Hereford Lions Club Wednesday at Civic Club Center. Clayton briefly outlined some of the problems and accomplishments of the recent legislative session. He also urged citizens to be "aware of what's happening in January," referring to the Constitutional Convention. Pointing to the approximate 3,000 bills considered in committee, Clayton said it was almost an impossible job to take care of the state's business in 140 days. With many new members in the House and Senate, along with some new top state officers, it also took time to get things organized in the session, he added. Clayton also told the Lions that "there is too much bureaucracy in some state agencies," adding that the Texas Education Agency was one example. "There's too much red tape, we need to overhaul it," he stated. Also on the subject of education, Clayton pointed out that the state has to come up with a new school financing plan. This was a controversial subject during the legislative session, and one where no solution was reached. Clayton was introduced by Lion president Nolan Grady. The Springlake farmer was first elected to the state legislature in 1962 and has been re-elected every two years since that time. Grady recognized Rueben (Mac) McGilvary III as a new member of the club Wednesday. Several guests were also introduced at the meeting. Katherine Kester, C of C women's division, appeared at the meeting to invite Lions to join in a telegram project for Miss Hereford, Sandy Caison. She will be going to the Miss Texas contest in July.

Officer Explains Drugs

"Getting a conviction against drug users is sometimes like beating your head against the wall," a state narcotics officer told Hereford Kiwanians during a noon luncheon Thursday in the Civic Club Center. The officer, Tom Sullivan, head of the Lubbock area Narcotic Division of the Department of Public Safety, said many of the suspects arrested in drug cases either have the charges dismissed or convictions reversed because of technicalities. "But we have the laws and we have to live with them the best we can," he said. Sullivan, introduced by Deaf Smith County Sheriff Travis McPherson to the regular meeting of the club, explained the workings of the narcotics officers and then showed Kiwanians examples of the various types of drugs subject most to drug abuse. He said arrests in the Lubbock area had been very good lately as undercover agents had made many "buys" from drug dealers. He said himself and five agents work the 64 counties covered in the Panhandle Division. The narcotics officer said it was hard to work the drug traffic in small towns because word travels fast when a stranger enters town and tries to get into the drug scene. Sullivan cited examples of cases dismissed in which he felt evidence was strong against suspects. "It seems to me that if a criminal gets convicted he has had to commit the crime legally," he said jokingly, referring to the case dismissals on technical points of law. Sullivan also said a problem in getting convictions is the fact that the assistant district attorney, who usually prosecutes most drug cases, is a young attorney just out of law school. "He is young and inexperienced and enters the courtroom against these old professionals (lawyers)," he said. "If one (Assistant district attorney) gets good then some law firms hires him. Your answer there is to pay the assistant district attorney more so that you can keep him." Sullivan then opened a display case with examples of the different drugs and drug paraphernalia. Included were hallucinogens (LSD), barbiturates, tranquilizers, marijuana, opiates (heroin), cough syrup, delirants (glue sniffing, deodorants, lighter fuel, gasoline), amphetamines and paraphernalia for all the examples. Sullivan said LSD is on the downgrade, but that the "freaks" are going to "milder" amphetamines which "may be as harmful as what they were using." Mr. and Mrs. Chris Lamont Otosen are the parents of a daughter, Daynis Kelly, born most June 29. She weighed 7 lbs. 3 oz. Mr. and Mrs. George Madrigal are the parents of a son, Ricky, born June 29. He weighed 6 lbs. 11 oz. Mr. and Mrs. David Van Treadwell are the parents of a daughter, Terri Neale, born June 29. She weighed 9 lbs. Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Lyn Schmitt are the parents of a son, Kyle Benjamin, born June 28. He weighed 6 lbs. 12 1/2 oz. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Eugene Bailey are the parents of a daughter, born June 27. She weighed 8 lbs. 4 1/2 oz.

Boy Scouts To Observe America's Bicentennial

As citizens of this area celebrate the Nation's 177th birthday, the Boy Scouts of America announces a program of activities to observe America's bicentennial. More than 10,000 members of the youth organization in the Texas Panhandle will develop local plans to begin next fall and carry into 1977. Don Moffitt, Scout Executive of the Llano Estacado Council said. Nationally, programs of emphasis have been designated for the bicentennial era. The 1973-74 theme will be Get Involved for Them (GIFT) and will encourage recognition of individuals and community groups that demonstrate service to others. The 1974-75 theme is Be Prepared for Life, a program of fitness and safety that will provide for the conservation of human resources. For 1975-77, the Boy Scouts of America will build on the programs of the Nation's American Revolution Bicentennial. For the 2-year period, there will be Heritage '76, a look at history; Festival USA, related to a greater knowledge of the country; and Horizons '76, to look to the future. The Llano Estacado Council also plans to include the bicentennial in its ongoing programs such as Project SOAR, the Conservation Good Turn; the BSA anniversary celebration in February of each year; and all other council and district events. Moffitt said, "It's important that boys and young adults, as future citizens, be involved in our nation's bicentennial, and we believe the best approach is for our local groups to make their plans with their neighborhood and community."

and challenging. It's up to you so why don't you take that first giant step toward planning your future and talk with Sgt. John H. Diehm your marine representative. You may also call Sgt. Diehm collect in Amarillo at 376-5151 extension 2151 or at 335-1228 after 5:00 pm.

Do You Have A Good Job?

What are you going to be doing this summer? Do you have a good job lined up that pays well and one that will send you to a formal school so that you may learn the correct way to do your job? Will they throw in free medical and dental care plus free room and board? How about world wide travel opportunities. If most of your answers are no, read on. What are your interests. Would it be just being a marine or maybe electronics, tanks or aviation would be interesting to you or how about learning to be a computer programmer or air control tower operator. If this is not to your liking how about being an engineer and drive our big heavy equipment that is used for construction or look into the possibility of being a plumber, electrician, refrigeration man or string wire for telephone and telegraph equipment.

Dawn Plans Celebration

The city of Dawn will host a fourth of July celebration at 6 p.m. at the Dawn Community School House, where there will be games and a raffle for a 200 pound hog. Everyone is asked to bring their own supper to the picnic, and there will be baseball, volleyball, badminton, relay races, and fireworks. Gene Meachum, pastor of the Dawn Baptist Church, will speak about patriotism in the United States, and songs of patriotism will follow. Gene Guynes, of Dawn, donated the hog, and the raffle tickets are $1.00 each. The picnic is sponsored by the Dawn Community Association, and proceeds from the raffle will go to the Dawn Community Building.

By the Garden Gate

With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

Summer days are lengthening and the temperature is rising. More and more outdoor gardening activities will be best done in the early morning hours or in the cool of the evening. The long days are really advantageous to the gardener, to complete our garden chores.

Most of last week I spent in the garden, much of the time in cutting weeds and foreign grasses. Following this it was time to water, and after watering cultivation had to be done.

Also did some repair work on the lawns, fed most of them. Also did some transplanting. In general I became acquainted with some new chores, some muscles and that tired feeling that makes one enjoy a night's rest.

Was pleasant being with old garden friends and some of the new introductions which I am trying this season, also had pretty music as the mockingbird has returned.

As I worked he perched on top of the TV antenna and told all about himself in a cheery song, also made me know that I was to stay away from the nest. When he wasn't singing and fussing at me, he was busy taking food to the mother bird.

Many bird friends are back. Was especially glad to see the beautiful yellow finch high on a nearby light pole, and a darling hummingbird flying hither-and-yon. Since seeing the hummingbird, I have cleaned and sterilized the feeder and soon it will be hanging where bright red blossoms will attract. Do hope that they return.

The fountain has also been cleaned and fresh water is added every day; nearby food is offered for my bird friends.

Is good to have old garden friends, and it is also very good to know about new ones that we can introduce to our gardens another season. Some of these are the three new roses which were the award winners and All-America Rose selections.

They are: Perfume Delight - the name gives away one of its chief attributes, that of fragrance. The brilliant pink color from the outermost petals to the center of the flower and statistics tell us that it is an excellent keeper. Average diameter is five inches. O. L. Weeks is the originator.

Bon-Bon is a bicolor of white and pink. It flowers in abundant clusters, and is in flower from early spring until frost. It could almost be classed as a miniature, as its height is approximately 2 1/2 feet. Its habit of growth is very compact, which will make it a very desirable rose. Will adapt to most any landscape design. William Warriner is the breeder.

Bahia is described as a prolific flowering rose and is a continuous flowering type. It too is a bi-color, orange-pink. Will be a favorite because of its large clusters of blossoms and spicy fragrance. Produced by Walter E. Lammerts.

LAWN TIPS... Lawns are probably one of our largest investments in the landscaping of our homes... unless it would be trees? Therefore they should be well maintained during the hot dry summer months. The mower should be raised at least half an inch so that the root system can be kept cooler and will increase the area for food manufacture.

Watering is most important. Do not just sprinkle lightly and then repeat every day. Water deeply by soaking, and if possible water early mornings. If this pattern of watering is followed, evaporation will be less, and the grass will have time to dry before nightfall. The later aids in keeping down diseases.

Do not leave grass clippings on the grass, catch these in the catcher and add to compost pile (if there is not Bermuda or other seeded grasses in the clippings). If clippings are allowed to fall on the lawn, it might cause other problems, such as mold and thatch build up.

It is well to mow more often and do not remove more than a third of the total leaf surface. Do not ever cut deep enough that the roots are exposed to the hot sunshine.

Some authorities advocate the idea of a light application of nitrogen fertilizer be applied each month of the growing season. One pound of nitrogen should suffice to 1,000 square feet of lawn area.

This can be varied as the needs arise. Some grasses will require ammonium sulfate and or ammonium nitrate. Caution: Do not over feed.

It is also well to remember that potted plants should not be neglected during the summer months. They too should have a light feeding to keep them healthy and promote growth after having been repotted or perhaps replaced, on the patio or in window boxes.

Be sure to water deeply and more frequently, especially those which have been placed outdoors. The evaporation is more and light exposure tends to dry out the soil.

Remember to remove faded blossoms. This is necessary to keep the plants healthy and producing. This is especially true of petunias, sweet peas, babybreath, candytuft, zinnias and dahlias.

Later in the season it may become necessary to prune old stems and faded foliage. Now that the first full bloom of the roses has been completed, it is necessary that the old blossoms be removed, and in so doing use extra care, that it will also serve as pruning, which in turn can aid in shaping the bush or climber.

After the full blooming period they should also be fed, either by root or spray. Use liquid iron with fe tracings. Roses planted this spring, which were in containers, will not need feeding until later unless color of foliage denotes lack of iron then foliar feeding can be used. Bare root roses planted this season should have a feeding.

DPS Predicts 19 Deaths During July 4th Holiday

Colonel Wilson E. Speir, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, today estimated that traffic accidents in Texas over the July 4th holiday will claim 19 lives.

Speir said the toll should be less than that recorded on previous July 4th holidays because this year's observance falls in mid-week.

The official DPS count of fatalities will begin at 6 p.m. Tuesday and run through midnight Wednesday.

Speir said all available Department of Public Safety patrolmen will be on duty during the holiday period in an effort to reduce accidents. He said they would be especially watchful for hazardous traffic violations including speeding and driving while intoxicated.

In addition to stepped-up highway patrols, Speir said the DPS would conduct its special "Operation Motorcade" program in cooperation with local law enforcement agencies throughout the state. Fatal accident summaries will be released three times July 4th to help focus public attention on the traffic situation.

NAVAL BATTLE
A naval battle between the U.S. frigate Constellation and the French frigate Insurgent took place in the West Indies on Feb. 9, 1799.

The DPS director urged motorists to make the holiday safe by obeying all traffic laws, avoiding fatigue, and by not drinking if driving.

He also noted that drivers can reduce the severity of accidents and conserve gasoline supplies by reducing their speed under maximum limits.

Upward Bound Benefits Low Income Students

Some 60 area high school students from low-income backgrounds are getting a look at what college life is about and gaining new insight into their futures and potential through participation in Project Upward Bound at Texas Tech University.

Upward Bound, a federally funded project designed to prepare educationally disadvantaged youths for successful participation in education beyond the high school level, has been in operation at Tech since 1966. The current year's program has been funded by a grant for $74,983 from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"There are countless opportunities for success in America, but they are for those who are prepared to take them," said project director Mack A. Bush. "Because these opportunities for success demand more education, more aggressiveness and more personal adaptability, Upward Bound was created and designed to expand the horizons of people from low-income backgrounds and to save valuable talent which otherwise might be wasted.

"MANY FACTORS ranging from economic pressure to family sentiment may influence a youth to discontinue his education. Many low-income families are not oriented toward college. These people often lack the motivation to prepare themselves adequately for college," said Bush.

Upward Bound attempts to introduce new ideas and concepts and motivate the youths toward higher education through a twelve-month program beginning with a summer session on the university campus.

In the summer session, the group, usually composed of equal numbers of males and females, live in college dor-itories for six weeks. During that time they attend classes, workshops, cultural events and participate in group activities, field trips and personal and group counseling.

PROJECT UPWARD Bound's full-time staff, part-time staff and tutors work closely with the youths during the summer session to help them as needed. The part-time staff is composed of graduate students from the university, work-study students and occasional volunteers. The full-time staff consists of Bush and assistant director Julio Llanas.

Students completing the summer session are enrolled in a continued program of instruction, tutoring, counseling and orientation toward college. These activities are offered in the students' regular high schools and in the Upward Bound offices on the Texas Tech campus, said Bush.

STUDENTS ARE invited back to the campus several Saturdays during the year to participate in special programs and to attend special plays and lectures offered, he said.

The Upward Bound students are encouraged to use the university facilities, including the library. Their Upward Bound identification cards permit them to check books out of the library.

The students selected for participation in Upward Bound must meet family income requirements and must have a potential for success in college work. The students are usually recommended to the project by counselors or administrators and teachers in their schools. Advertisements on radio and in the newspaper and cooperation from another federal project, Operation Talent Search, also bring applicants to the project, said the director.

The Texas Department of Public Safety is actively recruiting applicants to fill the ranks of its uniformed services. Major C. W. Bell, Regional Commander of the DPS, announced that the training school for new uniformed law enforcement personnel will begin September 25, 1973.

The Major noted that the DPS has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups to these positions and said efforts in this direction will continue.

Also in keeping with the current trend, female applicants will be considered for these rewarding careers in law enforcement.

Major Bell said general qualifications for DPS officers are these: applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age; height not less than 68 inches; weight not less than two pounds per inch of height; visual acuity of 20-40 correctable to 20-20; and a minimum of 45 semester hours of college credit.

Applications may be obtained by contacting any DPS employee or any DPS office. The completed application form should be taken to offices in Lubbock, Amarillo or Wichita Falls where the competitive examination is given each Tuesday and Wednesday at 9:00 AM.

Major Bell said persons selected as cadets will be regular school year segment of the program, said Bush.

ABOUT 77 per cent of the students in the Lubbock Upward Bound project enter college, compared to about 76 per cent in nationwide Upward Bound project areas. Last year, 75 per cent of the students in the project stayed with it for the full year, and 90 per cent of the project students who finished high school went on to college, said Bush.

Arrangements will be made for a physical examination. A character investigation will be conducted and those persons who are accepted for employment will be notified prior to the beginning of the September recruit school.

Mounting evidence from police and highway officials across the nation indicates that violence against youthful hitchhikers — especially girls — has become a major crime wave.

Consider just these chilling statistics, noted in a July Reader's Digest article: nearly 70 per cent of all rape victims in Boulder, Colo., last year were hitchhikers; in Boston the figure was 33 per cent. In Berkeley, Calif., 30 per cent of the rapes committed in the first two months of 1973 followed the abduction of hitchhikers.

Writes author Nathan Adams in the article: "In the case of a girl who hitchhikes, the odds against her reaching her destination unmolested are today literally no better than if she played Russian roulette."

Police estimates, victim interviews and a polling of young hitchhikers reveal that one out of every six will become the victim of some category of sex crime, ranging from indecent exposure to forcible rape.

NOR IS RAPE necessarily the worst fate a ride-thumper can suffer. In Boston recently, seven girls were murdered in as many months; six had been abducted while hitching. And more than a quarter of the hitchhikers victimized by sex criminals were beaten, slashed or shot. Since last fall, six young women in Santa Cruz, Calif., have been the victims of grisly murders.

DPS Recruiting Applicants For Uniformed Services

Police Warn Girl Hitchhikers

Uniforms, vehicles, weapons, ammunition and related equipment are furnished. Group life and hospitalization are paid for the employee and dependent coverage is available at reasonable rates. Officers participate in the Employees Retirement System of Texas as well as Social Security. Vacation, holidays and sick leave are as provided for all State employees.

Successful graduates will be assigned to the Highway Patrol, License and Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service, or Drivers License Service, according to the needs of the DPS and consideration of personal preference.

All officers are eligible to compete for promotions after two years of service. Experienced uniformed DPS personnel interested in criminal investigation may apply for astonishing naivete about what could happen to them.

Although every state has some form of anti-hitchhiking law on its books, legislation that would ban the practice entirely has been vigorously opposed by students lobby groups, and many lawmakers are convinced that an outright ban would be unconstitutional. Moreover, enforcement would be a nightmare for police.

A BETTER answer would be to improve public transportation services near colleges and universities. The Digest also recommends overhauling legal procedures to spare rape victims the ordeal of embarrassment they suffer when they report the crime. (An estimated four out of every five hitchhikers who have been raped do not even report the incident!) Wider use of policewomen in rape investigations, and curbs on courtroom voyeur-spectators might help.

Finally, the article urges, a nationwide educational campaign should be undertaken to familiarize young people with the chilling statistics of hitchhiking hazards. The money for such a campaign is available, authorized under the Highway Safety Act of 1966.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

When Engagement is Broken

Getting engaged came easy for Gwen and Andy. But getting married seemed so scary that they finally decided to call the whole thing off.

At that point, however, a new problem arose: which one was entitled to keep the engagement ring? When Gwen refused to give it back, Andy hauled her into court.

After due deliberation, the court ruled in Andy's favor.

"An engagement ring is a symbol of the coming marriage," said the court. "If the engagement is broken off, the ring should be returned. The gift was conditional and the condition was not fulfilled."

Most courts agree that the engagement ring is returnable—at least, unless the man was solely to blame for the breakup. Returnable also are other gifts exchanged between the two parties in contemplation of marriage.

But this does not extend to gifts given prior to the engagement—that is, gifts given during the period of courting.

Thus, a court rejected the effort of an elderly suitor to reclaim some jewelry he had given to a younger woman. The court said the gifts had been made at his own risk, on the chance this his courtship would succeed.

What about gifts from friends and relatives, when the marriage plans fall through? Consider this case:

A dotting father was so delighted when his daughter became engaged that he set up a $5,000 joint bank account for the betrothed couple. Soon afterward, the romance cooled. But the young man retained his affection for the $5,000.

"That was an outright gift," he argued in a court test. "Her father didn't say we had to get married."

But the court decided that even if the father didn't say it, he clearly meant it. The court said he would scarcely have set up a joint bank account except on the assumption that the two would soon be husband and wife.

Patty Roach Is Bride In Ceremony At Dallas

The bridegroom's cousin officiated for the marriage Saturday evening of Miss Patty Roach, daughter of Mrs. Curtis O. Roach and the late Mr. Roach of Hereford, and Michael Coleman McMahan, Lt. USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis O. McMahan of Dallas.

Dr. Patrick Henry read the double ring ceremony in Northway Christian Church at Dallas, where he is minister.

The couple will live temporarily at San Antonio, where L. McMahan will be stationed before returning to Enid, Oklahoma, to be an instructor pilot at Vance AF Base after recent duty in Southeast Asia.

For the setting of the evening wedding, paired columns holding white fuji mums and coral pink gladiolas flanked high-rise candelabra, and the kneeling bench was centered between spiral candelabra. Pink bows marked family pews.

Mrs. Bill Hodges of Houston was matron of honor and the bridegroom's brother, Lewis McMahan, best man. Bridesmaids were Miss Kaye Pepper and Mrs. Dale Elam of Houston and Mrs. Carl Stapp of Dallas.

Serving as groomsmen and ushers were Robert Simmons and John Raughman of Dallas, Jim Cooper, Bill Hodges and Dr. Al Thaggard of Houston, Frank Schweers and Joe Thaggard of San Antonio.

Miss Roach wore a Juliet style gown of white organza and Gothic patterned Venice lace. The lace bodice had a high wedding ring neckline and full-blown sleeves gathered to lace caps and wide lace cuffs.

Gothic points edged the high waistline and a soft fabric bow at center back held the chapel train that extended over layers of organza which formed the voluminous skirt.

Her lace-Juliet cap held the veil, bordered with Gothic medallions, which flowed the length of the train. She carried a cascade of gardenias and stephanotis with pink rosebuds as a color accent.

Attendants' dresses were of coral flower-print chiffon in empire style, with mint green sashes tied in bows with streamers to the floor. Their white straw hats were trimmed with the same fabric and their flower-wreaths were of white starburst mums and pink amaryllis.

Mrs. Roach wore for her daughter's wedding a crepe chiffon shirtwaist dress in powder blue, floor length. Mrs. McMahan's turquoise crepe gown had its matching jacket. The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Joe Hill, dressed in pale yellow crepe with floral panels. Each wore a gardenia corsage.

Immediately after the wedding, Mrs. Roach was hostess for a reception in North Park Inn. Mrs. Johnny Brownlow of Hereford laddered punch while Miss Suzie Kahlich and Mrs. Tommy Shields cut the bride's cake and Mrs. Schweers, sister of the bridegroom, served the groom's cake.

The tiered white cake was trimmed with pink rosebuds; the groom's cake was the traditional chocolate.

For travel Mrs. McMahan changed to a pastel blue pantsuit. After ten weeks in San Antonio the couple will be in a new home at 4402 Oakcrest, Enid.

The bride has been director of physical therapy for Lubbock Medical Center Hospital; she has served as vice chairman and job placement chairman for West Texas District Physical Therapy Association and for the past two years has been Northwest Texas voluntary advisor for the March of Dimes National Foundation.

Her BS degree in physical therapy was earned from the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston. She had attended Texas Tech, was vice president of the Women's Service Organization and selected as its 1969 Woman of the Year, and held membership in Beta Beta Beta, biology honorary society.

A 1966 graduate of Hereford High School, she was a twirler with its Whiteface Band.

McMahan received his Air Force commission and pilot wings from Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock in 1972, after a BS degree in Mechanical engineering from Tech in 1970. He was president of Pi Tau Sigma, mechanical engineering honorary society, and a member of Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary, that year.

Proceeding the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McMahan hosted the rehearsal dinner for the bridal party Friday evening at North Park Inn. Mmes. Joe Hill, Alvin Thagg and Gordon McFarland were hostesses to the bridal party and out-of-town guests at lunch Saturday noon in Mrs. McFarland's home.

Out-of-town guests included, from Hereford, Messrs. and Mmes. Marvin Coffey, Lonnie Coffey, Claude Damron and Johnny Brownlow; Mrs. Pauline Lovan and Herbert P. Lovan.

Evening Wedding Today Is Planned By Couple

The wedding of Miss Carmen Malouf and Eldon Ray Rape, both of Friona, is set today in an evening ceremony at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The bride grew up in Hereford and was graduated from high school here. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hanna Malouf of Friona, former residents of Hereford.

Sisters of the bride will be her attendants. Miss Souad Malouf is to be maid of honor with Misses Georgette, Amal and Sylvia Malouf as bridesmaids. Maynard Greeson will be best man.

Groomsmen are Dwight Whitaker, B. K. Baske and Connie Robinson. Michelle Swayden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Swayden, will be flower girl and Peter Malouf, brother of the bride, ring bearer.

To be given in marriage by her father, the bride has chosen a floor length gown of angelmist and re-embroidered Venice lace over bridal taffeta. It is designed with a high neckline, empire waist, long Camelot sleeves and a full skirt.

Inserts of the lace and satin ribbon trim the neckline, bodice and sleeves of the gown. The mantilla veil, bordered with lace, is attached to a lace coil.

Her flowers will be yellow sweetheart roses with white carnations in a cascade bouquet.

Soft yellow knit dresses with lace trim will be worn by the bridal attendants. Each will carry a single yellow rose with ribbon bow and streamers.

A wedding dinner at Knights of Columbus Hall will follow the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico and into Mexico, the bride will wear a ribbed mauve western-cut jacket and cuffed pants with a pink ruffled blouse and a corsage from her bouquet.

The couple will be at home after July 9 in Friona.

Miss Malouf attended South Plains College and Texas Tech University. Rape attended West Texas State University and is store manager for Hi-Pro in Friona.

Work Hard, Rewarding For Theology Student

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

A DEGREE IN ACCOUNTING was not the best preparation for Edith Davis' studies in a school of theology, she says, but it is not entirely wasted in her work as youth director in two Kansas City churches.

"When there is a statistical report or survey to be done, I can really amaze my co-workers by finishing in an hour with my calculator a project they had planned to do in days," she says with a grin.

At home for the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Davis Jr. of 109 Kingwood, attractive blonde Edith is a student in St. Paul's School of Theology in Kansas City and is also an employee of the two small churches.

ALTHOUGH SHE IS ONE of only seven women students in the school, she does not consider her choice of a career in the church as an oddity.

"Actually, 15 per cent of all United Methodist ministers are women," she points out, explaining that women in the pulpits of eastern and midwestern churches are not so uncommon as they are in this section, while many other women ministers are engaged in youth and educational work, serve as missionaries, on church boards or as chaplains.

There's a new metric aid for the kitchen

The transition from the inch system to the metric system is being made easier for the homemaker by Union Carbide Corp., R. E. Burt, manager of market development said.

It will be possible to measure 42 milliliters of lemon juice or 36 grams of egg yolks with the new metric slide rule and other English-metric converters. These metric aids with complete instructions will be sold as single units, or will be available in multiple units for classroom use.

in hospitals or other institutions.

Ordained a deacon at the recent Annual Conference of Northwest Texas United Methodist Churches, Miss Davis was the only woman in the group of seven prospective ministers.

THIS IS THE FIRST step toward full ordination in the UMC ministry, and the young Hereford woman expects to continue study and work for the next step, ordination as an elder.

She hopes eventually to be qualified for an appointment to the itinerant ministry, for work as pastor of a church.

Until recent years the Methodist Church, although it ordained women, did not give them such appointments, and the question is still being debated in some churches.

WHEN HER MOTHER teasingly told Edith this week, "You won't be appointed to your own church until you improve your preaching," she answered promptly, "I'm working on that!" and then said seriously, "Conducting worship services is something I enjoy very much, but of course a sermon is another matter."

Many of her fellow-students have had considerable training in public speaking, she says, and practically all of them took degrees in liberal arts, including ancient history and social studies which were omitted in her college courses.

That has made it necessary for her to study even harder than she would have done for the usual classes in such subjects as theology, Bible and church history.

SOME CLASSWORK in sociology has been done outside the school, in such places as the Topeka State Hospital for mental patients and in various forms of community service.

"We may choose from several options for the community work, then are literally sent out on our own. They tell us, 'If you need help you can call us.' It was a shock, but after getting used to it I've enjoyed it."

Part of her work was in a large area of low-income residents, and she admits, "I learned things that I'd never suspected about the way people can live!"

HER WORK AS YOUTH director is in two churches which share the services of one pastor and one youth director. One is a suburban church, the other in a rural area and Edith likes the fact that they are entirely different.

Attending and assisting at church youth camps while she was growing up, helped give her a background for this job, she says.

She graduated from Hereford High School and completed work at Tech for her degree in 1972.

Lest We Forget

In the past 75 years the United States has been involved in a number of wars, battles and military conflicts in an effort to retain the many freedoms enjoyed by Americans.

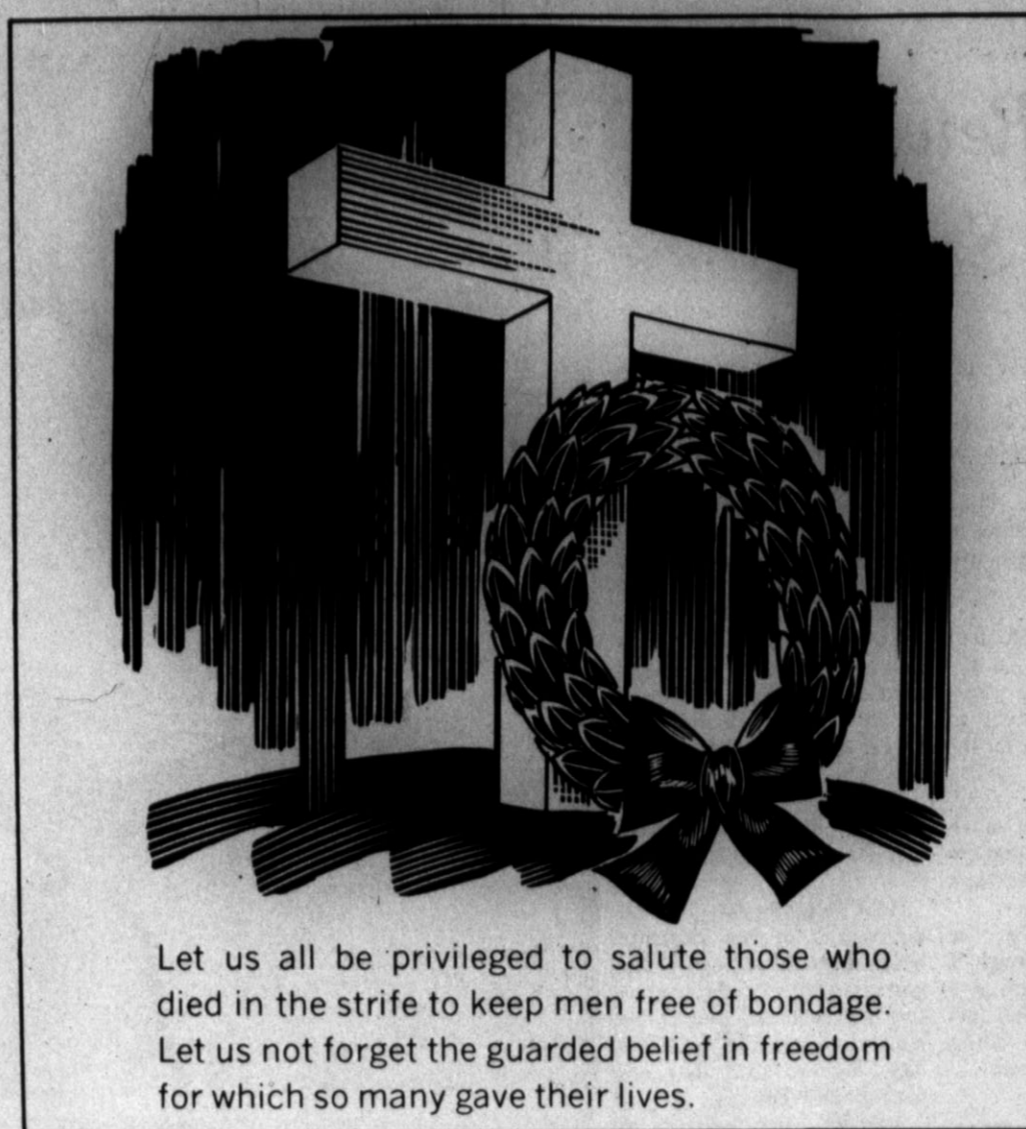

The costs of those freedoms have been great. And Hereford and Deaf Smith County have helped share those costs with the sacrifice of many local young men who died in service to their country.

Lest we forget these great men, below is a listing of the men from the county who have paid the Supreme Price for our freedom. In addition, The Hereford Brand is compiling a special tribute to our servicemen who died in action to be published in a special edition for the 75th Diamond Jubilee Celebration in August. Persons with additions to the list are asked to contact the Brand.

Let us all be privileged to salute those who died in the strife to keep men free of bondage. Let us not forget the guarded belief in freedom for which so many gave their lives.

Think About It

Open letter to the citizens of Hereford: Everything which has been said concerning shooting fireworks is undoubtedly true; the danger of injury, fire, and/or property loss.

But it seems to me that the worst danger to our young people in the long run has not even been mentioned. And that is this: shooting fireworks within the city limits is against the law, the kids do it anyway and we sort of laugh it off or maybe even tell them it is O.K.

The real danger lies in the fact that we are teaching our kids that it is all right to break the law. Never mind whether we think it is a good law or a bad one. We are teaching them that it is ALL RIGHT TO BREAK IT.

Then they go off somewhere and they participate in a sit-in, tie up traffic, take over a building, or other forms of "civil disobedience" and the first thing the parents say is, "Where did they learn that?"

We taught it to them, dear people. Think about it!

Thanks For Peace

Born in the depths of internal dissent over a seemingly endless war, "Honor America Day" is once again to remind us of our obligation as citizens of this great country.

This year, the celebration actually a 21 day salute to America's greatness extending from Flag Day, June 14 to July 4th — will dawn on a nation at peace for the first time in almost a decade. In the short space of the single year since the last Fourth of July, our President has brought an end to the divisive conflict in Vietnam, and opened up new initiatives with the Eastern Bloc.

We are now dealing with traditional opponents from a position of enlightened self interest — discussing our relationships in terms of trade exchanges rather than nuclear exchanges.

AS WE reflect on the glories of a time free from the agonies of war, and as we turn our efforts to the solution of critical problems here at home, it behooves us all to look closely at the chain of events that has brought us to this fortuitous present.

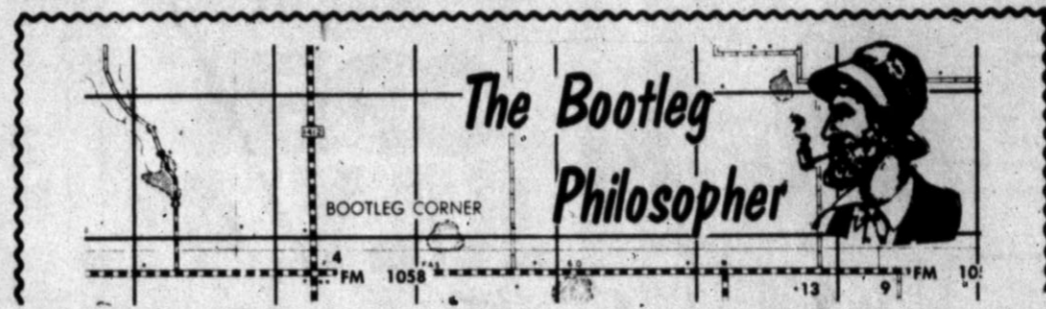

The thinking individual cannot escape the conclusion that through the years since the founding of the Republic, brave Americans have been willing to sacrifice everything, if need be, to defend our way of life and the cause of justice. This was as true of the Vietnam Conflict as it was of all the other wars.

Let us resolve during this celebration to honor America to remember with gratitude the sacrifice of those who have made it possible to enjoy this day. Let us put aside our differences, and work together to insure that those who have served are given appropriate recognition based, not upon popular judgments of the conflict in which they served, but upon the measure of devotion to the nation demonstrated by those who gave a portion of their lives, and frequently more, in the cause of our freedom.

AS WE celebrate the 177th birthday of the nation let us also celebrate the fact that American bravery and dedication are qualities still in abundance. And as we give thanks for peace, let us also pray for the continuation of the strong national will and spirit typified by the sacrifice of those who served to insure America's future.

Dear editor:

One of the pleasures of living on this Deaf Smith County grass farm out here, aside from the current prospect that the fuel shortage may keep me from doing all the plowing I might not otherwise be able to get out of doing, is studying the plight of the big cities.

AS EVERYBODY knows, cities just don't have enough money to operate on and are constantly hunting for new sources of tax revenue.

One of the new sources now being proposed is a commuter tax. Cities say look, all those people living outside our limits are coming in every day to work, wearing out our streets, using up our electricity and water, being protected by our police, enjoying all our other services, getting paid here and then going back to their suburban homes to spend it. They ought to be taxed for the privilege.

This makes sense, and clearly the thing to do is to set up tax booths on every road leading into town and charging every commuter say a dollar a day to get in.

NOW OF course on the other hand a lot of city people, as soon as their work week in the crowded city is over, head for the country, so the thing for country people to do is to rent those tax booths on weekends and charge city people for leaving.

This way everybody makes money, coming and going.

I can't say which side would make the most, but that's beside the point, the only thing to do is try it out and let the chips fall where they may, although these days it's hard to let the chips fall where they may when nearly everybody is using a chain saw.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

P.S. I've just read that some eager beaver in Washington has assured farmers they'll get all the fuel they need to make a crop. Why can't Washington leave me alone?

A Reminder

Dear Editor,

I am writing to remind you that not all our men are home. There are some 1,300 listed MIA, missing in action.

Hanoi has not lived up to the ceasefire and treaty signed in Paris agreeing to give a full accounting of all our men.

Hanoi did not account for 53 men previously listed POW (prisoners of war). Only 10 men were accounted for of our 300 lost in Laos.

Public pressure improved the conditions of our POW's and finally brought them home. We must continue the same public pressure and concern until every MIA is properly accounted for.

The voice of these 1,300 MIA's cries out to be heard. Don't let apathy leave these men behind as the 389 were left behind in Korea.

Join the new writing campaign — to the President, members of Congress, Department of Defense and Hanoi — demanding a full accounting of all our MIA's.

In Other Words...

Those Were The Days

"Let us have faith that right makes might, and in faith let us, to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it."

—Lincoln

I used to be a real movie fanatic. I saw every movie in town at least once — some of them even twice. In fact, I saw more pictures the second time than one of my college roommates saw the first time.

Of course most of those were before, or just at the beginning, of the movie rating codes. There used to not be any formal rating codes and we went by the "code of the dorm." If there was a pretty good — or bad — movie showing it didn't take long for "the word" to get down the hall.

BUT THE motion picture industry has changed tremendously the last several years. Going to the show used to not be any problem. Everybody in the family could go. Now parents have to decipher codes.

Most people know the meanings of the G's, GP's, R's and X's, but they haven't figured out the exact dividing lines between each.

There is no problem with X-rated movies because you know what you are going to see. However, to me there is not much difference between GP and R. Sometimes even G-rated walks the border line — unless, of course, it's by Walt Disney.

I THINK the rating system is good because I like to have some idea about what to expect. But I still think I still prefer "the old days" of movies.

I can remember getting money on Saturdays from my parents — not more than half a dollar for admission, a couple bags of popcorn and drinks and some candy. I would then sit petrified in my front row seat through at least two — and sometimes three — showings of "The Creature From The Black Lagoon" — in black and white — before my mother sent my father to get me.

THEN ON other Saturdays I could catch a feature from a "Lash LaRue" serial. I then had to return the next week to see if Lash made it out from under the saw blade at the old watermill.

On still another Saturday I would buckle on my black holsters with pearl-white handled gun and go watch Hopalong Cassidy ride off into the sunset on his faithful horse, "Topper." But never once, never, did Hoppy ever let his lips touch those of the beautiful heroine of the screen.

I would always sit with my eyes glued to the screen through the first showing; race up and down the aisles at least a dozen times in the second showing, and eat some more popcorn during the third.

However, I always made it back to my favorite seat so I could again view the end of each feature. And he never did kiss her.

TELEVISION has now changed the motion picture industry lately because of the many movies televised each day. However, the major networks have been under fire the last few weeks after one of them announced it would begin showing X-rated movies late at night after children go to bed.

One network did in fact show a X-rated movie recently, but announced that the film was edited enough to make it G-rated.

However, several local people have expressed concern about the new policy and asked what could be done. If you have a comment concerning movies or any other policy of the major networks the mail addresses appear below.

Womble-Robertson Vows Are Exchanged Saturday

The marriage of Miss Diana Gay Womble and Ray Robertson of Amarillo was solemnized Saturday evening in First United Methodist Church with the Giles Tate of Amarillo Church of Christ minister, officiating.

Miss Womble is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benny Womble, 246 Ranger, and Robertson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clem of Amarillo.

Decorating the altar of the church were white stock and carnations flanked by spiral candelabra twined with English ivy. Aisles were roped with white satin ribbons.

Amarillo residents attended the bride. Serving as maid of honor was Miss Kimara Kihn and bridesmaid was Miss Brenda Kay Short.

The bridegroom's brother, Gary Clem, was groomsmen and ushering were John Step of Amarillo and Terry Sparks.

Shelly Bills, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bills of Amarillo, was flower girl and the ushers lit the candles. Bill Devers sang Twelfth of Never and Ave Maria, accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Bill Brady.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of bridal satin with silk chiffon sleeves and silk bodice. The bodice was overlaid with Irish lace and was heavily embroidered with pearls. Irish lace roses trailed to the hem of the gown.

The floor length silk illusion veil was attached to a caplet of matching embroidered lace beaded over satin. She carried an arrangement of pink sweetheart roses and white carnations over a satin Bible draped with English ivy.

The Bible was a gift from the bride's father when she was in the first grade. She wore a wedding band of her grandmother's, Mrs. Mary Brashear, and a coral necklace given to her by the bridegroom.

Wearing flowered pink gowns and large lace hats, the bridal attendants carried lace parasols filled with pink carnations and English ivy.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Womble wore a floor-length rose dress and matching floral coat. Mrs. Clem chose a floor-length blue dress. Both were presented white orchid corsages.

Serving cake and punch at the reception table in the church fellowship hall were Miss Charlotte Robertson and Mrs.

Richard Bills. Assisting was Miss Connie Matthews.

The three tiered colonnade cake was topped with a satin bell and trimmed with iridescent grapes. A five branch candelabrum was arranged in the center of the reception table.

Inviting guests to register in the guest book was the bride's sister, Miss Kerrie Womble.

For a wedding trip to Colorado the bride choose to wear a navy pantsuit with a lace blouse and a navy wool riding hat. She wore a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Carlsbad, New Mexico after July 9.

Graduating from Hereford High School in 1971, the bride is also a graduate of Amarillo College where she served as president of Psi Omega Phi. Robertson attended Amarillo College and West Texas State University.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Brashear of Augusta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sanders of Corpus Christi; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Glidewell of Amarillo; and also, Mr. and Mrs. S. McKinney of Tucumacari.

Comings And Goings Club Has Summer Meeting At King's Manor

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Fields of Shamrock visited Sunday with his mother, Mrs. H. T. Fields of Manor Cottage.

Last Friday four cars full of Kings Manor residents went on a picnic to Buffalo Lake. We stopped to go through Hereford's Museum. We were amazed to find it so large and so complete.

The art (paintings) were all done by local people. The families of two of our own group were featured depicting pioneer days. A wax life sized likeness of Mrs. Nellie Stanford as a girl graduate was on display. She was lovely and dainty in her graduation frock - Miss Frances Dameron's family has furnished a room there with old time furniture and appointments.

There was the old Country Store and much other memorabilia.

Outside we looked at early plows, a grindstone, an old Santa Fe railway caboose, and the Womble half-dugout all furnished.

At Buffalo Lake we found a table under poplar trees on the lake bank. The Texas wind was high but it's an ill wind that blows no one any good. We felt this one kept away mosquitoes, flies and gnats. After lunch we set forth for home. To mouth a stale one, "A good time was had by all!"

A summer social meeting punctuated the vacation weeks for La Madre Mia Study Club members Thursday evening, when they enjoyed a salad supper in the REC Medallion Room and also cared for some business.

Fourth of July symbols decorated tables in colorful style as the supper was served from a buffet table. Hostesses were the club president, Mrs. Rober Williams, and the social committee, Mmes. Herschel Black, Ben Scott and Dave Honea.

Chief business was formation of a Celebration Belles chapter to assist in promoting Hereford's Diamond Jubilee celebration in August. Named the Bonnet Belles, this chapter will have its offices filled with La Madre Mia officers.

In addition to Mrs. Williams they are Mrs. Craig Smith, vice president, Mrs. Jimmy Anderson, secretary, and Mrs. C.

D. Adams, treasurer.

Operation of an old-fashioned pie kitchen during Jubilee Week was planned, also decoration of a float for the parade Aug. 25.

Gifts were exchanged by secret club pals. Members at the supper included Mmes. Charles Watson, G. C. Merritt Jr., Lynton Allred, Dickie Gerles, Richard Ward, Bobby Owen, James Gentry, Don Walsler and W. E. Sparks.

Marriage At Plano Has Local Interest

First United Methodist Church in Plano was the setting for the wedding of Mrs. Katherine Clay Shannon and James Thomas Cooper Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jim Palmer of the church.

Mrs. Clay is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clay of Paris. Cooper is the son of Mrs. Joe Story of Hereford and the late James Thomas Cooper Sr. of Plano. He is acquainted in Hereford through visits in the Story home.

Mrs. Theron Derx of Arlington, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Dean Donaldson of Irving was best man. Mrs. Nathan White provided organ music and accompanied congregational singing of the hymn, Praise to the Lord, as the wedding party walked to the altar.

At the reception, the serving table was covered with white satin and white overlay. Silver candelabra entwined with daisies, yellow roses and greenery highlighted the table.

A pale yellow wedding cake topped with doves and sweet peas was served by Miss Pam Poole. Punch was served by Mrs. Pat Cox. Mrs. Raymond Gaylord of Houston presided at the registry.

After a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the couple will reside in Plano.

The bride is a graduate of East Texas State University and is currently a teacher at Olney Davis Elementary School in Plano. Cooper, who attended Texas Tech University in Lubbock, is employed with Texas Instruments at Richardson.

News flash -- baby bites off snake's head

When a puff adder in the garden of his Johannesburg home reared up to strike 13-month-old Pieter Pretorius, he grabbed it by the neck, put its head in his mouth and bit hard -- the snake died.

His mother, Mrs. Anne Pretorius, said, "... Pieter was sitting there giggling, with the bleeding snake hanging from his mouth."

Talk Of Texas

By Jack Maguire

LOST AND FOUND—Somewhere (and it's probably in Texas) there is a $100 certificate of trust which is worth more than $2,600,000 to its owner.

On June 26, 1888, the Texas & Pacific Land Trust (created to settle the debts of the Texas & Pacific Railway) issued debtors of the line trust certificates worth $100 each. The certificates were to be paid off with income from 3.45 million acres of land which the railroad had received from the state of Texas for building a line from Texarkana to near El Paso.

In the 85 years since, holders of the certificates have received annual dividends from the assets of the trust. All but the holder of one certificate, that is.

Certificate No. 390 hasn't been heard from since it was issued. It's worth finding, too, because the original $100 value has been increased by a 100 to 1 split. The split, plus the accumulated dividends, make the missing certificate worth more than $2,600,000 today.

Better check your attics!

DOWN MEMORY LANE—In 1936, when Glenn Miller, his trombone and his band, played at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas, the cover charge was only $2 a couple.

Even that appeared to be too much for the average pocketbook in that year of financial depression. Miller didn't attract enough paying customers and the hotel refused to renew his option.

THEY'LL KEEP 'EM FLYING—Texas' Confederate Air Force, the only aviation museum of its kind in the world, plans to keep its World War II planes in the air so long as it can find pilots for them.

When "Talk of Texas" said several weeks ago that the Harlingen-based organization might ground its planes because of the age of the pilots and the difficulty in getting parts, the Confederate Air Force attacked. Mail and phone calls poured in from the officers (all are commissioned "colonels") saying that the CAF had no intention of deserting the wild, blue yonder.

The unique flying museum got its start in the mid-1950's when a group of ex-service pilots in the lower Rio Grande Valley bought a North American P-51 "Mustang" fighter as surplus. Later a Navy Grumman F8F "Bearcat" was acquired. Interest in the old planes was so high that the group organized the Confederate Air Force on September 6, 1961, with a single goal: To acquire and keep in flying condition a complete collection of combat aircraft used by the U.S. in World War II.

With the addition of a B-29 Super Fortress in 1971, the CAF completed its collection. Today the more than 800 colonels of the CAF have 50-plus planes based at Rebel Field, Harlingen. This year, more than three million Americans will see the famed Ghost Squadron in action as they take their planes to air shows all over the U.S.

A salute (and apology) to the gallant CAF. Keep 'em flying!

IT'S A FACT—A revival, not a sports brought out the largest crowd ever to go through the turnstiles at Houston's Astrodome.

On November 28, 1965, a few more than 61,000 souls showed up to hear Evangelist Billy Graham preach. The second largest Astrodome crowd set a world attendance record for basketball when 52,693 came to see UCLA play Houston in 1968.

HELPING HAND—When the Mid-Cities Learning Center at Euless, Tarrant County, was burglarized recently of everything from pencil sharpeners to typewriters, police asked pawnbrokers in the area to be on the lookout for the stolen items.

Nothing showed up, but the county's several pawnbrokers didn't want the Montessori school's 60 students to be inconvenienced. They got together, raised enough money to replace the stolen goods and threw in an intercom system and a burglar alarm as extras!

SIMMIT, MISS., SUN:

WESTBY, WISC., TIMES:
"The three 'C's' of traffic safety are Caution, Courtesy and Control. Lose any of them and you could be in trouble, especially if you lose control—and control of your temper is just as important as control of the vehicle."
LA SALLE, COLO., LEADER: "If the value of the dollar doesn't stop dropping and the cost of merchandise doesn't stop rising we may be forced to carry merchandise to buy money."

Impeachments Efforts

By BERT MILLS

Impeachment of a Federal official is often discussed, seldom initiated formally, and almost never succeeds. President Nixon's impeachment is now being discussed, may actually be initiated, but has practically no chance to succeed.

The Constitution empowers the House of Representatives to impeach a President, Vice President or judicial officer charged with "treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors." Treason and bribery are clearly understood but nobody is quite sure how to define "high crimes and misdemeanors."

Murder would surely be a "high crime" but what is a "misdemeanor?" The dictionary defines that word as "misbehavior, a crime less than a felony." President Nixon may have misbehaved but has he committed any crime, even a non-felony? Proof is certainly lacking up to now.

A SMALL BAND of House members led by such unlikely leaders as Rep. Pete McCloskey, the renegade Republican from California who sought to defeat Nixon for the 1972 nomination, and Ms. Bella Abzug, the far-left Democrat, has been trying to get a debate going in the House that might lead to impeachment proceedings. Their strategy is not to push an impeachment resolution, which they know would have no chance of adoption. Instead they call for an inquiry either by the House Judiciary Committee or a special committee. The elected leaders of the House, Democrats and Republicans alike, have shown no interest and believe that anything concerning impeachment is at least premature.

AT LAST COUNT, there were 11 Watergate investigations underway, by prosecutors and grand juries, courts, and Senate and House committees. Up to now, only one proceeding has been concluded, the guilty finding by a Washington court against all those charged in the burglary of the Democratic National Committee headquarters.

In view of all these probes, not to mention all the digging by newspapers and other media, it would seem that another inquiry by the House is hardly necessary. It is understandable that Representatives might be jealous of all the publicity Senate investigators are getting but that is no excuse for a parallel probe.

The political overtones of impeachment talk are obvious. Many Democratic organizations throughout the country are circulating impeachment petitions and forwarding them to Washington, for use by their Congressmen. Ms. Abzug claimed members of Congress "are receiving mountains of mail calling for impeachment."

IMPEACHMENT talk could have a backlash effect. Already there are some signs that the public is beginning to feel sorry for Nixon, and to share his wish that the guilty be punished and allow the nation to get on with more important matters. However, to Ms. Abzug, nothing is more important because there is a real "Constitutional crisis."

Incidentally, Ms. Abzug remains in Congress only by an unusual break. During her first term, she was defeated by reelection in the Democratic primary. Then her victorious opponent died before Election Day and she got a second chance and won.

EVEN WITHOUT a House investigation or impeachment proceedings, Watergate news will continue to gush for many months. The Senate committee will not complete its investigation and submit its report until February, 1974, and the deadline may be extended.

Indictments and trials also lie ahead and will take time, not to mention the probability of appeals. The Democrats can be counted upon to keep Watergate alive until the Congressional elections in November, 1974. Already there is talk of ousting 50 House Republicans.

There will be plenty of time to consider impeachment when the facts are fully revealed. Responsible members of Congress would be well advised to consign all impeachment efforts to the back burner for the foreseeable future.

"Where else could we live, outside this United States, where the government pays some farmers not to produce and some unpoused women ... to reproduce." CARSON CITY, MICH. GAZETTE

"The term 'energy crisis' is America's newest household word. An Agnewism, so to speak! Maybe it means that Rip Van Winkle is waking up. For decades we have squandered our natural resources and now we are being brought up with a rude shock. We suggest that the crisis can be dissipated by stopping our wasteful habits and directing our energy toward exploration for additional resources." ISLIP, N.Y., BULLETIN

"We can't understand the reasoning of politicians who wish to grant complete amnesty to those who fled the country rather than serve in its armed forces. They broke a law and should receive some kind of punishment for it. At the least, they should be required to serve their country in some peaceful occupation for the number of years they would have served in the armed forces." GARNETT, KANS., REVIEW

Church Welcomes New Minister

PETER REYNA, SR.

Pete R. Reyna, Sr., will be welcomed to the pulpit today at the Spanish Church of Christ, 148 Sunset.

Reyna, a graduate of Sunset School of Preaching in Lubbock, is moving here from Denver to assume duties as new minister of the church.

Accompanying Reyna to Hereford will be his wife, Shirley, a daughter, Linda, 18, who will enter York Christian College, York, Neb., this fall and a son, Reuben, age 15. The Reynas have two other sons, Pete, Jr. of Topeka, Kan. and Ernest of Denver.

Services at the church are at 9:30 and 10:25 a.m. and 6 p.m. on Sunday and at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Local Teachers Finish Conservation Course

Three Hereford school teachers finished a soil conservation course at West Texas State University in hopes of bringing soil conservation education into Hereford.

Mrs. Carolyn Waters, fifth grade teacher at Aikman Elementary; Mrs. Bera Boyd, sixth grade teacher at Bluebonnet Elementary; and Wanda Vershelde, kindergarten teacher at Shirley School took the three-week course offered from June 4 to June 22 to learn conservation concepts, identify natural resource problems, meet environmental specialists, and to observe conservation concepts in the field.

The three women were sponsored by the Tierra Blanca Soil and Water Conservation District, and were in a class of about 16 teachers from the Texas Panhandle area.

THERE ARE SO MANY fresh cherries this season and sweet cherries make this recipe so very good. If you have not raised sweet cherries at home, now is the time to buy while they are at the peak of both flavor and supply.

A fresh cherry parfait would fittingly climax the family dinner or make delicious summer refreshments.

FRESH CHERRY PARFAIT
2 c. fresh sweet cherries, halved
1/4 c. sugar
1/4 c. lemon juice
2 T. water

Simmer covered, over low heat for 5 minutes. Drain, reserving 3/4 c. juice and the cherries. Chill.

Soften 1 envelope gelatin in 1/4 c. cold water. Combine 3 egg yolks and 1-3 c. sugar in top of double boiler. Stir in 1/4 t. salt and chilled cherry juice. Cook over hot water (not boiling) or very low heat until mixture coats metal spoon, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and add softened gelatin. Chill until mixture is about as thick as fresh egg whites. Fold in chilled cherries.

Beat egg whites until they stand in soft peaks, gradually beat in 1/4 c. sugar. Fold into gelatin mixture. Chill.

Just before serving, fill parfait glasses with layer of gelatin mixture, a half cup of halved fresh sweet cherries, starting and ending with gelatin mixture. Garnish with whipped cream.

THE COURTHOUSE bunch

said good-bye to Edna Earl Smith who will soon be leaving for College Station. We will miss her but wish the Smiths well in their new home. Juanita Higgins made delicious punch for the occasion.

COURTHOUSE PUNCH
1 - 12 oz. can frozen lemonade
1 - 6 oz. can frozen orange juice
1 - 6 oz. can frozen pineapple juice
3 - 12 oz. cans water
1/2 c. sugar
1 - 28 oz. gingerale.

ANSWER TO A REQUEST for making beef jerky at home. Slice beef into thin strips, about one-fourth inch. Be very careful to get the strips no thicker as it will not cure properly. Slicing the meat is easier if the meat is frozen or at least contains ice crystals.

Place strips in glass cookware. Baste strips with liquid smoke. Use the liquid smoke sparingly, but be sure all strips are basted. After basting, sprinkle each strip with seasoned salt, then sprinkle with very small amount of sugar.

After one layer has been basted with liquid smoke and sprinkled with salt and sugar, repeat with another layer and crisscross layers. The pan should have three or four layers in it. Let the pan sit and soak up these seasonings for at least four hours.

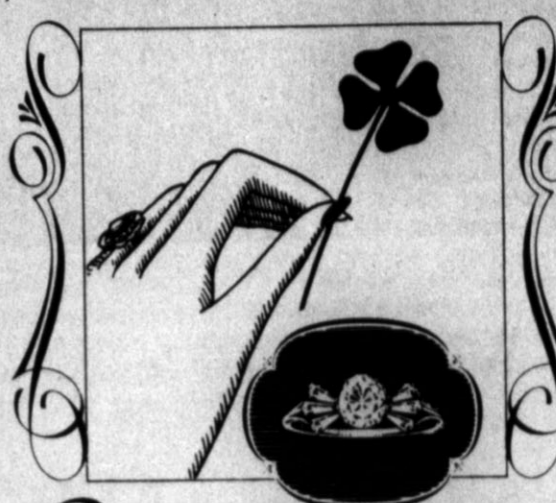

After the four hours, place strips on an oven rack, not in pan and strips not touching. Cook overnight, 8 to 12 hours at 150 degrees. If the oven temperature range starts at 200, set it at this and leave the door slightly open.

You will need to experiment with seasonings, cuts of beef and length of time for cooking. Less tender cuts of beef or venison can be used.

After the first batch, sprinkle the next batch with table salt and pepper and maybe brown sugar. Also eight hours will give different consistency than 12.

On the first batch, remove some at 8 hours, some at each hour interval up to 12 hours. Label paper towel or napkin at the time cooked so you can determine your preference. Store jerky in a glass jar. Good Luck!!

EATING JERKY is one reason the West was tough.

Deadline is July 9 for entering recipes for the Jubilee Tasting Spree, to be included in a cookbook which will be distributed at the event July 17, Mrs. Joe Frank Huckert, chairman, reminds cooks of this area.

The Tasting Spree is scheduled in the County Bull Barn as the first of the community-wide women's activities concerned with the city's Diamond Jubilee celebration next month.

Recipes are to be compiled in a book, and dishes made from these recipes are to be entered in the Tasting Spree and judged for prizes. The recipe books will be given to those attending the Spree.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

IT'S DOUBTFUL that anybody ever took a census of trees "in and around Hereford," and I wonder if there are as many as 100,000 of them, or if that total was ever reached.

Looking over old newspapers for facts about the history of Hereford, we've come across some that are unusual and one of them was the goal of having 100,000 trees here - in 1910.

It's hard for me to envision that many trees, but it sounds like a lot.

The idea impresses me as a good one, especially in view of the baking-hot weather we've had lately when any amount of shade was very attractive.

IF THERE AREN'T 100,000 here yet, that might be a goal still worth working toward, and if we have 100,000 it wouldn't hurt to have as many more.

It feels so good to get into the shade of a tree when you're driving down the street on near 100-degree days!

When you're walking it's even better, and that goes for the shade of an awning on a store front.

The heat discourages me from doing any research on the question, but it occurs to me that maybe the decline of the downtown in our nation's cities dates roughly back to the change in style that took awnings off the stores.

IT WASN'T INTENDED as a family reunion, but it turned out somewhat that way when Mrs. Homer Carrington and son, David, visited here last week from Parsons, Tenn. They were guests in the Cawthon Bryants' home and visited Mrs. Carrington's grandmother, Mrs. Flora Bryant.

Children of the latter, Gladys Carter of Plainview, the Rev. and Mrs. Noel Bryant of Wichita Falls and the Frank Burgasses of Tulsa, with their daughter and her two children from Iowa, also a grandson, A. C. Bryant of Clovis, were all

It was their first time in Texas, and family members saw that there was plenty of sightseeing around Hereford, including a performance of the musical, Texas, in Palo Duro Canyon.

PLANNED AS A FAMILY reunion, a gathering of 47 relatives at Fort Sumner recently had Gladys Smith, 904 Sioux, as one of the number.

Six sisters and a brother were present, and family members were there from Odessa, Tahoka and Lubbock; Aztec and Roswell, N.M.; Shreveport, La., and Flagstaff, Ariz.

MR. AND MRS. DONNY DYER of Farwell announce the birth of their son, Kevin Lynn, on June 23 at Clovis Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Dyer is the former Sharon Cash of Hereford.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James Cash, 206 Grand, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Travis Dyer of Bovina.

80,000 British women are alcoholics now

The Helping Hand Organization, a voluntary organization helping addicts, recently published a report that Britain has about 80,000 women alcoholics, many of whom have suffered some form of depression.

The report stated that women were more secretive about their drinking than men and were able to conceal their problem better because husbands were more protective than wives who have alcoholic husbands.

Farmers Urged To Conserve Farm Fuel

With the nationwide fuel shortage now a reality, farmers as well as all Americans are being called on to stretch each gallon of fuel as far as possible.

Although farmers are in a priority group to receive special consideration for allocating fuel, it's still vital that they take measures to conserve fuel consumption, emphasizes Henry O'Neal, agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

What are some of the key things a farmer can do to reduce fuel use?

Reduce tillage practices. Make just one trip over the field, covering as many operations as possible. For instance, plant and apply herbicides or fertilizer at the same time.

Don't cultivate unless necessary.

Use the right tractor for the job, if there is a choice. Use a light tractor for light jobs and a bigger tractor for heavier jobs.

Use a diesel tractor where possible as diesel fuel is more plentiful than gasoline.

Operate the tractor at proper speeds and keep it properly tuned. The operator's manual is a good guide on proper use. Don't let the tractor idle for lengthy periods.

Consider moving large equipment by truck rather than driving it on the highways.

Where possible, delay certain operations that will not affect the current crop season, such as ditch clearing and land leveling.

The Texas A&M University System specialist points out that farmers should inform their local county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office regarding any problems in obtaining fuel.

FU Official Labels Farm Bill 'Mediocre'

"It is most unfortunate that the House Agriculture Committee has bowed to pressures from Secretary Butz and the Administration and approved a mediocre farm bill at a time when a good farm program is so necessary to the consumer as well as the farmer," Texas

Farmers Union President Jay Naman of Waco said. In a statement from the Waco office of the statewide farm organization, the Farmers Union expressed disappointment at the reduced target prices in the House version of the farm bill. The House bill reduces the target price of wheat approximately 20 cents a bushel, takes 20 cents a hundredweight off the price of grain sorghum, and reduces the target price of cotton by 5 cents per pound. These reductions lower the target prices substantially below the 70 per cent of parity level in the Senate-passed farm bill. "The purpose of the farm bill is to provide an incentive for farmers to produce in abundance by assuring them a target price which will enable them to pay high production costs and still retain a realistic profit. This objective is in the interest of the consumer as well as the farmer, if threatened shortages materialize," the spokesman for Farmers Union said. Naman charged that Secretary Butz has coerced the House Agriculture Committee into including several crippling amendments in the House version of the farm bill by threatening a presidential veto. One of these, according to the Farmers Union official, is a provision that will offset the advantages of the escalator clause to increase target prices as farm costs increase. "The Secretary of Agriculture insists on an 'efficiency index' that will drive the target price down if farmers increase their efficiency. In other words, it is a scheme to deprive farmers of the opportunity to receive any benefits from their increased efficiency," Naman said.

Farmers Union claims that its 'fly-in' of farmers to Washington have resulted in some improvements in the House version of the farm program. "Without some of the work which our farmers have done in Washington, it would be a much worse farm program, but at best, it is not something that Congress should be proud of," according to the farm organization spokesman.

"We hope that the House or the Senate-House Conference Committee will restore the Senate passed target prices and accept the recommendations which Farmers Union has made to strengthen the program. As it is, if the production costs continue to go up and export opportunities do not materialize, the American farmer will again be left holding the bag," Naman said.

County Ranks High In Livestock Production

The Panhandle contributed more than 70 per cent of the Texas cattle and calf production in 1972, John C. White agricultural commissioner reports. Texas has more than twice as many cattle and calves and three times more beef cows than the second place state. The cattle and calf population for Texas as of Jan. 1, this year totaled 15,350,000 head. "Our human population and the cattle and calf population for Texas in years past has pretty well been about equal. But this past year, our cattle population showed a huge increase, about 2,500,000. Beef cows numbered 6,320,000 in Texas contrasted to 2,283,000 head of second-place Oklahoma. Texas is also first in the nation in cattle on feed. Last year, about 4,300,000 head of cattle were fed out in Texas; this year, it's expected the figure will top 4,500,000 head. The state ranks ninth in the nation in milk cow numbers with a total of 360,000 head. The only area of livestock production in which Texas is not in the top 10 is in swine. Texas is 14th in total numbers of swine, the same spot it held in 1972. "But I believe we are going to see Texas soon in the top 10 states in hog production," White said. The past two years, Deaf Smith county has been the number one county in the state for production of cattle and calves plus cattle on feed. Deaf Smith increased its 71 production total of 327,000 cattle and calves to 426,000 in 1972. Cattle on feed in 1971 totaled 216,000, contrasted to 281,000 for cattle on feed on Jan 1, 1973.

Livestock sales made considerable progress even though bad weather killed about 50,000 head of cattle throughout Texas.

DPS Reports 14 Wrecks

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 14 accidents on rural highways in Deaf Smith County during the month of May, according to Sgt. W.E. Wells, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area. These crashes resulted in no persons killed and five persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first five months of 1973 shows a total of 32 accidents resulting in no persons killed, and 19 persons injured. The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for May, 1973, shows a total of 550 accidents resulting in 21 persons killed and 318 persons injured as compared to May, 1972 with 517 accidents resulting in 25 persons killed and 329 persons injured. This was 33 more accidents, 4 less fatalities, and 11 less injured in 1973 at the same period of time.

The 21 traffic deaths for the month of May, 1973 occurred in the following counties: Gray, 5; Lubbock, 4; Bailey and Hartley, 2 each; Castro, Knox, Montague, Palo Pinto, Randall, Swisher, Wise, and Young, one each.

Deaf Smith County Tops In Sugarbeet Production

Deaf Smith County was the top producer of sugarbeets in Texas in 1972, according to the most recent statistics, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has announced. Over 216,000 tons of sugarbeets were harvested in Deaf Smith County. Deaf Smith increased its production total in 1972 over the 1971 total by over 30 tons. Castro is the closest county in sugarbeets behind Deaf Smith with 173 tons.

Prince Valiant

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAL FOSTER

Our Story: THE LONG-ABANDONED BORDER FORT IS PUT IN ORDER, AND ARN AND HIS SMALL BAND AWAIT THE RETURN OF THE WANDERERS. HE IS SURE HAAKON'S MEN WILL DRIVE THEM BACK, SO HE MUST DEVISE A WAY TO HARASS THEM.

AT DAWN AN AWFUL PROCESSION WINDS SLOWLY UP THE VALLEY: WOUNDED RAIDERS, HORSES, CATTLE AND PRISONERS, ALL HEAVILY LADEN WITH PLUNDER. EVEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN ARE BENT UNDER THE WEIGHT OF LOOT. THEY ARE BEATEN INCESSANTLY, FOR THEIR SPIRIT MUST BE BROKEN TO MAKE THEM GOOD SLAVES.

THEN ARN RELEASES HIS WARRIORS. NO NEED TO GIVE ANY ORDERS, FOR THEIR EYES BLAZE WITH FURY, AND THEY WILL RETURN ONLY AFTER EVERY WANDERER IS SLAIN.

IT IS NOT LONG UNTIL THE PRISONERS AND THE PLUNDER ARE SAFELY IN THE FORT AND THE ANIMALS DRIVEN TO PASTURE AMONG THE HILLS. NOW THEY AWAIT THE RETURN OF THE MAIN BODY OF RAIDERS.

THEY COME TROTTING UP, PLEASED THAT THEY HAD PLUNDERED SO FAR BEFORE MEETING RESISTANCE.

THEN THEY SEE THE HACKED BODIES OF THE MEN WHO HAD GUARDED THEIR PLUNDER AND THEY SCREAM WITH RAGE.

AND TO ADD TO THEIR DISTRESS, ARN APPEARS ON THE WATCHTOWER AND, IN A PLEASANT VOICE, TELLS THEM HE HAS THEIR TREASURE AND TO COME AND GET IT IF THEY CAN.

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
Four of us college gals share an apartment, and what with silk hair and neck scarves so in fashion now, you can imagine how many we have.

We wanted to do something to keep from having to press them each time we used one, but what to do...

We found one of those old-time collapsible hat racks in a secondhand store. This was fastened on the wall in the bathroom, and the scarves hung on the pegs!

You cannot imagine how pretty this is with all of that color in the bathroom. Also, when we take hot showers, the steam penetrates the scarves and removes any wear wrinkles!

Might give other gals food for thought. Sue and Ponce

DON'T ALTAR IT
DEAR HELOISE:
I'm one of your greatest fans—but seldom think I have an idea you haven't had before. Maybe my "necessity is the mother of invention" will think is a cute idea for making hats for my dolls.

You need a nutcup, a piece of lightweight cardboard, and some cloth. Also lace, if you want.

From the cardboard, cut a circle about five inches in diameter. In the center of this cut a hole big enough to fit over the nutcup. Glue this cardboard to the nutcup and then cover with your cloth.

This makes a real pretty wide-brimmed summer hat. You can make it more effective by making a dress and hat from the same cloth. Add lace to make it real fancy.

KNOW YOUR ONIONS

DEAR HELOISE:
When slices of onion are left over after a hamburger fry, don't throw them away. I put mine in a plastic bag or plastic container and freeze to be used later in meatloafs, soups, roasts or whatever.

TURN THE TABLES!

DEAR HELOISE:
Mothers with small children have historically been denied the luxury of setting the table ahead of time when entertaining, because with one good yank from a small hand everything could be on the floor!

The problem has been solved very easily for me by creating the tablecloth and pressing it into the grooves on both sides of the extra table leaf before pushing the table together.

This same technique can be used even if a leaf is not used. Simply pull the table apart about an inch and press the cloth into that groove before closing the table.

Your table can then be set, knowing that the tablecloth is tightly anchored!

It certainly has helped one busy mother to manage some relaxed entertaining!

"I'M THIRSTY"

DEAR HELOISE:
This is something I've been doing for years and so I thought I would pass it on.

Ever since I started growing up, during the night I would wake up thirsty. (What kid doesn't?)

My mother would take a plastic glass and fill it with water and put it in the freezer. Before I went to bed, I would take the glass of frozen water out and put it on my nightstand.

During the night when I woke up I could reach over and sip nice cold water which would still have ice in it!

It's great for those hot summer nights! It doesn't disturb anyone, either!

Now that I'm married, I have a husband who shares the same problem, so now there are two glasses on our nightstand. It saves the problem of waking your partner, especially if he cannot just "drift back to sleep."

LETTER OF THOUGHT

DEAR HELOISE:
After four children in five years, and never having one sleep through the night after their arrival home from the hospital, I finally found a trick to use during those late-evening and early-morning feedings!

With the others snug in their beds, I found that this silence gave me a chance to catch up on my correspondence. Every new mother knows the number of lovely cards and gifts received, and a personally written "thank you" is highly appreciated!

I just sit at my kitchen table, prop my leg, nestle the little darling in my arm, prop the bottle with a lightweight blanket and let my right hand go to town with that pen and paper.

At the slightest hint of a problem, all it takes is a drop of the pen as the baby is already in your arms!

Love your column. It's been a great time-saver for me!

Mrs. Jean Rose

A SHORT STORY

DEAR HELOISE:
Save the legs from all your old jeans that you cut off to make shorts. These make wonderful "knock-about" quilts, lap robes, etc., and are absolutely the greatest for picnics.

They are simple to make (tie instead of quilt), inexpensive and awfully nice to have on hand.

Mrs. B. K.

LOVE THAT WIG!

DEAR HELOISE:
I was recently brushing my mother's wig, and not having much success. It is difficult to do this and hold the wig block at the same time.

I thought of using our "plumber's friend" or plunger as it is sometimes called.

The wig head has a hole in the top and fits right down on the handle of the plunger. Our plunger was brand new—and from now on this will be the life it will lead—a wig stand.

It works beautifully. The suction cup on the plunger holds it in place on the table top if you use one with a short handle, or if your plunger happens to have a long handle, use it on the floor.

CAN YOU TRUST YOUR EYES? There are at least six differences in drawing details between top and bottom panels. How quickly can you find them? Check answers with those below.

5	7	7	5	9
6	2	7	4
7	4	9	3	5
3	7	6	7
9	2	7	7	4

Four numbers—5, 4, 7, 5—in the L-shaped configuration (shaded) above total 21. You are asked to find a similar grouping whose total is 17. Let's see how quickly you can comply.

Indeed, among 96 possible L-shaped four-somes, there is also at least one totaling 18, 19, 20, etc., through 28.

You're invited to test your skill at finding these groupings too. The L, of course, may be in any position, with the short side extending up or down, right or left.

● TOTAL RECALL? "The Spirit of '76," a famous painting by Archibald Willard, shows how many men playing musical instruments? If you don't know, guess.

● A clock strikes the hour. If a half, a third, and a fourth of the hour were totaled, the sum would be one more than the hour struck, which is what?

● "Won ton! Won ton!" cried the Chinese diner who ordered everything backwards. What was he saying?

● "Take a number," says Patricia Andrews, of Houston, Texas, "double it, divide by four and double the answer. You now have the original number."

CAN YOU trace the path of the flag-waving young man above? Just one of five possible pathways leads to his destination.
