

Whitefaces Nip Snyder's Tigers 18-6

BY MARSHALL DAY
News Editor

The Hereford Whitefaces crept into Snyder Friday night in search of their eighth win of the season and inadvertently stepped on the Tiger's tail.

And, before it was over with an 18-6 win for the Herd, the Whitefaces knew they had tangled with an ill-tempered beast.

The Tigers, who have won only two games this year, appeared to be out to win one for their coach, Maurice Hodges, who was placed in the Snyder hospital Friday for treatment of a bad case of flu.

The explosive Hereford offense was stopped time and time again by the doormat Tigers and had to rely on three touchdowns—all in the second period of play.

Snyder, a heavy underdog to the Whitefaces, got its only score during the same 12 minutes of the game.

James Harris, junior runningback and punt return specialist, set up two of Hereford's touchdowns while scoring on one of those.

Snyder took the opening kickoff and marched like a venging angel down to the Hereford 40 before the Whiteface defense dropped quarterback Tim Holder for an 11 yard loss back to the Snyder

49. The Tigers had picked up three first downs in their first drive.

After each team had completed one series of plays and Snyder was held on its second series, James Harris began his work. He took a Snyder punt, faded back to the Hereford 15 then stepped behind a wall of blockers as they escorted him downfield. He made it to the Snyder 23 before he was finally brought down.

Five plays later senior

Wesley Hish scooted over from the 6 for the game's first score at 11:27 of the second quarter.

The try for the point after failed as did every attempt that night.

Just 11 plays later the Whitefaces were again in for pay dirt with a 12-0 lead.

Following a Snyder punt, Hereford got the ball on its own 49 and proceeded to march downfield. Quarterback Keith Kitchens, who had two of his aerials picked off by the Snyder secondary, hit Terry Champ for 16 yards on the series' first play.

From the Snyder 35 it was a ground game all the way as James Harris got five, Wesley Hish got four then five more and James Harris picked up 20 yards to the 1.

The final yard was covered by James Harris with 7:01 left in the first half.

Snyder moved quickly back into the game just moments later when it intercepted the first Kitchens pass. Kitchens, trying to hit Barry McNutt, saw the ball tipped away into the hands of Holder at the 40 and returned to the Hereford 18.

Snyder stayed on the ground and pushed the ball to the 2-yard line, aided by a penalty against the Whitefaces. From there Richard Gorman plunged across at 2:46 to make it a 12-6 game.

The final TD drive the Whitefaces made came after the Snyder score as they moved by air and land 67 yards in eight plays, highlighted by a 35 yard pass from Kitchens to James Harris.

A 9 yard pass from Kitchens to Champ put the ball down at the 1 of Snyder then High carried it over for his second score at 3:35 of the first half. The pass attempt for the points failed.

Hereford appeared on the verge of busting the game wide open in the second half as it took

Branding Time

By Speedy Nieman

That feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says the man who is straightforward and honest doesn't have to worry about a faulty memory.

—When wealth is lost, nothing is lost; when health is lost, much is lost; when character is lost, all is lost. — Old German proverb.

The election is over, and the polls were correct in predicting a Nixon landslide. Perhaps, even as the President noted, the road to defeat for McGovern started at the Democratic National Convention. The McGovern organization was simply not in step with the mainstream of American thinking. It was one thing to capture the Demo party with some well organized radicals, but quite another thing to sell this program to the American people.

I don't know about you, but those computers on election night were just too smart! One percent of the vote would be reported for an election, and the TV announcer would announce the winner. In the race for governor of Texas, the computer early predicted Briscoe as the winner, even though Grover was leading the vote count. And, the smart-alecky machine was right!

The computers projected the winners with amazing accuracy, noting that "key precincts" gave the winning trend. How can they be so sure that people in these "key" precincts are going to spell out the eventual trend. It appears someone might change their mind somewhere along the line. Makes you feel a little uneasy. Knowing you can be replaced by a machine.

Whether you voted Nixon or McGovern, it appears this country has bright prospects for the future—if we get together instead of pulling in different directions. The economy continues to expand, peace in Vietnam is now in sight, and the one-sided endorsement of Nixon should help shape some new legislation. There are some things wrong in America but, despite the critics, it is still the grandest nation in the world!

The United Way campaign got off to a slow start but volunteer workers hope the drive will pick up momentum this week. If you, or your business, has not been contacted as yet, you'll probably be getting a call this week. If you need information, contact drive leaders Mike Patrick or Jack Wilcox.

Just in case you haven't had occasion to see the plot's lounge at "Vega International Airport", our reporter was over that way the other day and snapped a picture of the facility. (See below).

CUTTING OUT—James Harris, 37, digs downfield on his way to a 62-yard punt return that set up a touchdown by Wesley High—the first of the night in the hard-fought game with the Snyder Tigers. Harris also made another long run that set the stage for his own TD later on in the same period. The Whitefaces won the game, 18-6, and upped their season record to 8-1 with one game remaining.

United Way Extends Campaign Two Weeks

BY LORI HOPSON
Staff Writer

United Way of Deaf Smith County, Inc. will extend its annual fund-raising drive for a period of two additional weeks, making the total campaign duration four weeks, according to R.C. Hoelscher, board member and drive treasurer.

Hoelscher said the extension of the drive until Nov. 24 is due to the number of cards still out, and the number of area residents and businesses who have not yet been contacted for their contributions.

In a meeting Friday, United Way heads announced the new deadline date for turning in cards and contributions.

"There are still a lot of cards and contributions," said Hoelscher, "and some of our workers would not have been able to finish by the first deadline."

He added that one of the problems which has beset the campaign in past years, and one which campaign captains are trying to offset this year, is the lack of knowledge on the part of local citizens as to where their contributions will go and what the funds will be used for.

Eight agencies are supported by the Deaf Smith County United Way, either totally or in part. These are Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scouts, Boys Baseball, alcoholism council, children's rehabilitation center, Salvation Army, Red Cross and Texas United Fund.

United Way also helps with Amarillo's operation Drug Alert, and with help for handicapped children. The drive has not been successful in Deaf Smith County in meeting its goals for the past several years, and according to drive chairman Pat Malone, the campaign needs to be a "joint effort of all the individuals in a community."

Hoelscher attributed the lack of success in past years to the fact that "not enough people were willing to give."

He added that the drive this year, however, should be given an optimistic note, though it has gotten off to a slow start.

In addition to the change of the campaign name from United Fund to United Way of Deaf Smith County, Inc., other major policy changes have taken place since last year's drive. One of these is the requirement of all agencies supported by United Way to adhere to contracts.

According to the contracts, each agency must present the United Way, must use United Way Funds for operating expenses only, and must have a governing body which serves without pay and meets at least four times yearly.

Hoelscher stressed the importance of the work United Way is doing and urged local citizens to pay their "fair shares."

"We've still got a long way to go," he said.

City To Review Proposed Rates

Southwestern Bell Telephone's proposed rate increase will be reviewed in a public hearing set for Thursday at 3 p.m. in City Hall. The meeting has been scheduled at the request of the city commission.

Bell Telephone has asked for the increase to cover rising costs of operations over the past 15 years. It has been almost that long since the company has had a rate increase approved in Hereford, according to Mike Patrick, local Southwestern Bell manager.

The increase has been requested because of "continued inadequate earnings on our (Bell) operations here, in the face of today's high cost of doing business," said Patrick. A monthly increase in business one-party service from $10 to $13.50 will be included in the rate-increase package. Also, residence one-party service will go up from $5.25 to $6.25 in the proposed increase.

Residence two-party service would rise from $4.25 to $4.90, and suburban four-party business service would rise from $8.35 to $10.50. Suburban four-party residence service would increase from $4.85 to $5.25.

Also proposed are other miscellaneous rate changes.

"I really don't see how the city can deny the request," said Patrick. "The facts are there and we can back up everything we have stated. We keep our books according to the Federal Communications Commission, the National Association of Regulatory Utility Commission and we have everything they might want to know."

If granted, the proposed rate increase might possibly go into effect with the December telephone bills, according to Patrick.

Lubbock Man Free On Bond

Louis Garcia, 38-year-old Lubbock man, charged in the Tuesday shooting death of his wife at the west edge of Hereford, is free on $5,000 bond after he turned himself in to Lubbock authorities late Wednesday.

Local authorities said Garcia was walked into the Lubbock police department late Wednesday, with his lawyer, and gave himself up. He was arraigned there and bond set.

He will be brought to Hereford late this month and be arraigned here and bond will be reviewed.

Garcia is charged with shooting his wife, Victoria, about 1 a.m. Tuesday after he allegedly chased her and another man down a deadend street in the southwest portion of Hereford.

Local law enforcement authorities received word of the shooting via Tucumcari authorities. The New Mexico authorities had heard of the incident from a service station attendant who had put gas into a vehicle owned by another man involved in the shooting.

The body of Mrs. Garcia, 34, was not found until 1:10 p.m. Tuesday after an all-out search by local authorities had consumed most of the day. She was found laying face-up in the middle of Lake Street where it deadended about 50 feet from the city limits.

According to reports, Mrs. Garcia was shot once in the face.

Officers said, according to information they received from several witnesses, that Garcia chased his wife and Cecil Sanchez down the deadend street and blocked their exit. He allegedly began shooting at the Sanchez vehicle as his wife and Sanchez tried to get out of the car.

Sanchez ran from the vehicle and into some tall weeds and hid, and emerged later and began driving toward Tucumcari where he stopped at the service station and had some gas put into his car.

He made his way to Dumas, via Amarillo, after his car ran out of gas near Adrian, according to reports. He went to the Moore County Hospital for treatment of cuts and it was while he was there the story began to unfold.

Frank Martinez, 19, who told local police he was with Garcia at the time of the shooting, appeared at the local sheriff's office Tuesday night. He told officers then he knew where Garcia was hiding and that Garcia planned to turn himself into Lubbock authorities sometime Wednesday.

Martinez was held as a material witness in the case.

Tax Office To Update Voter Lists

The county tax assessor-collector's office, in an attempt to update its voter registration list, is asking all persons with incorrect precinct numbers to come by the tax office and have the situation corrected.

Nell Miller, tax assessor-collector, said this week her office is trying to update its permanent registration list. In order to make sure everyone is registered in the correct precinct, the permanent registration list had to wait until after the General Election.

She added that anyone who voted at least one time during this year is automatically registered for three years. However, if that person registered in one precinct and since has moved to another, they should come by the tax office and have their number changed.

For Directors

C of C Balloting Ends Tuesday

Balloting in the Chamber of Commerce board of directors' election will end at 5 p.m. Tuesday, according to chamber executive Jim Lindsey.

More than 500 ballots were mailed out recently to chamber members and Lindsey reported many already have been received back at the chamber office. The ballots, containing the names of the eight nominees, can be returned to the chamber office where they will be tabulated Tuesday evening and announced Wednesday at the regular chamber meeting.

Nominees for the posts are Terry Caviness, Jay Swayze, Bud Eades, R.C. Hoelscher, Bob Emory, Larry Wartes, Bob Josseland, and James Gentry. Four of the nominees will be selected to the board to replace four out-going directors.

The out-going directors are Charles Hoover, Earl Stagner, Lynton Allred and Harold Close.

WORK BEGINS—Construction on the $190,000 First National Bank addition started recently as workers began tearing down buildings on the corner of Fourth and Sampson. The new facility will be the drive up teller windows which will be connected to the back by an underground tunnel.

the opening kickoff and marched downfield to the Snyder 7 before the drive was stopped.

On a fourth down play from the 7, Kitchens was hit as he attempted a pitch out and the ball squirted loose and Snyder recovered at their own 11.

Following the defensive stand the Tigers began moving downfield themselves but a Tim Jones pass was intercepted by Steve Nieman at the Herford 35.

The ball changed hands two more times as the game went into the final period, and Snyder got another break early in that stanza when it recovered a Wesley High fumble at the Snyder 49.

They moved down for six yards and failed on a fourth down try and Herford took over at its own 42. However, the Tiger secondary came up with its second Kitchens pass at the Snyder 48.

The teams were unable to move the ball on their next possessions, but Herford uncorked on its last possession of the game when Kitchens hit a receiver for an apparent 58-yard TD strike. However, off-sides was detected against the Hered and the score was called back.

Despite the offside penalty, Herford continued to move the ball downfield and the game ended with the Whitefaces missing a fourth down pass at the Snyder 12.

Social Security

Q. Do I need a work permit or anything else to get a social security number before I am age 16?

A. No. You don't need any work authorization and you don't have to be any certain age. In fact, people are encouraged to obtain a social security card well in advance of the time it is needed.

Q. I thought I would have my daughter get a social security number now even though she is only 12. Is this a good idea?

A. It probably is. Then she would have a number ready for any work, any trust or bank account or for any other reason. However, be sure she understands the importance of the number. She will be using it for the rest of her life.

Q. I need a social security number for a college entrance examination. How do I go about getting one?

A. If possible, you should go to a social security office and fill out a social security account number application. You may also request an application by telephone. But don't delay because it will take a few weeks to issue a number.

"Superdon" is not a new character on Saturday morning's round-up of cartoon favorites. Rather, "Superdogs" are a superior breed of German Shepherds being trained by the Army to run through dark tunnels, swim rapid-current streams, parachute from aircraft, sniff out cordite, detect an enemy in the jungle and stand up to heavy fire in a combat situation. The only thing they can't do is leap tall buildings in a single bound!

They are presently being developed and trained at the Army's Edgewood Arsenal near Baltimore.

Possibly establishing a tract record all his own, Konrad Bendroh, a top Shepherd, sired 200 puppies. When those pups reach eight weeks, they begin a rigorous training phase which runs from basic commands to maneuvers in combat situations.

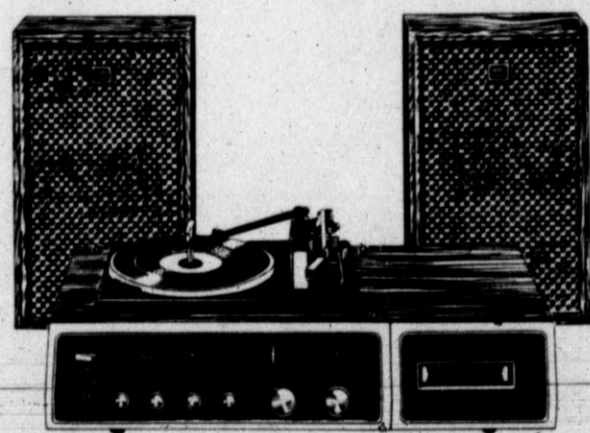

After advanced training where they learn to hunt, probe and climb over a various assortment of obstacles, they are assigned to various government agencies, the Army and the Air Force for patrol duties.

Speaking of superdogs and things canine, did you know that the Army actually has job openings for dog trainers? It's one of over 300 different jobs in countless areas which the Army hopes to fill with young high school graduates.

As you might have guessed, trainers perform a variety of educational and training functions involving dogs. In addition to teaching various commands, they train them to become used to muzzles, gas masks and the sound of gunfire. Every aspect of dog training in every conceivable situation is their responsibility.

But dog trainers must be more than "good with animals." They must also know the causes and prevention of communicable and non-communicable diseases.

Sisson Attends State Conservation Meet

Billy Wayne Sisson, member of the Board of Directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, recently returned to Hereford from a meeting in Austin of the groundwater panel of the Texas Water Conservation Association (TWCA).

According to Sisson, most of the participants in the meeting discussed the pros and cons of local versus state control, and the group agreed that groundwater management is best accomplished through local groundwater districts.

Sisson also noted that the general consensus of the panel was that groundwater problems are getting more state-wide attention. He cited the land-surface subsidence as a result of excessive groundwater pumping in the Houston area as an example.

TWCA, a state-wide organization of river authorities and water districts, is principally concerned with improving the water situation in Texas. The groundwater panel is one of seven executive units of TWCA.

Sisson, a member of TWCA, represented Deaf Smith, Potter, Randall and Armstrong Counties, as well as the entire Water District, at the Austin meeting.

Several directors and managers of water districts and other units of government, including state agencies and municipal water districts, attended the meeting.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — "There were 55,000 criminal trials pending in district courts and 216,000 civil cases pending on dockets in Texas at the beginning of 1972," former Texas Chief Justice Robert Calvert told those attending the Governor's fourth annual Traffic Safety Public Support Conference in Austin.

This "crisis in our courts" has been caused by the constitutional restrictions on the Judicial Article, Judge Calvert explained.

The "Crisis is approaching a judicial scandal," he quoted Judge Truman Roberson of the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals as saying.

Judge Clavert outlined problems in the present judicial system in Texas — explaining that they were analyzed by the 1972 Chief Justice's Task Force for Court Improvement.

The major problems are (1) docket congestion and trial delay; (2) proper administration and (3) proper election of judges.

Proposals for complete reorganization of Texas courts will be presented to the 1973 Texas Legislature," the former Chief Justice continued.

"Opposition will come from elected officials who are afraid it will affect their jobs.

"Judicial reform is doomed for this generation if public support does not overcome the opposition to these proposed changes in the Judicial Article of the Texas Constitution," he concluded.

A citizen's conference to gain support for the proposed judicial reform will be held in Austin on November 17 — at which time specific legislative proposals will be outlined for the public and press.

REVENUE SHARING COUNCIL FORMED — The Texas Department of Community Affairs has been designated as the agency to provide information and aid to local governments in federal revenue sharing implementation.

Designation of the agency for liaison between state-federal and local governments was agreed on at a meeting of the new Texas Revenue Sharing Council.

Texas is expected to receive about $245 million during 1972 under the new federal revenue sharing program. About $163 million of that will go to local governments, and $81.5 million to state government.

The council, said Gov. Preston Smith, is not to interfere with individual decisions of local governments. Its purpose is to assist the local units with legal constraints and federal rules and regulation.

Council members directed the Department of Community Affairs to establish and man an Office of Revenue Sharing Assistance to local governments.

The department, Texas Municipal League and Texas Association of Counties will assist the Treasury Department in completing lists of eligible governments and their officials.

The Department of Community Affairs was further ordered to plan a state wide workshop on revenue sharing for local officials.

Texas was termed "best prepared" of any state to begin implementation of revenue sharing.

Members of the Revenue Sharing Council include the Governor, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, House Speaker Rayford Price, Seguin May or Al Koebig, Houston May or Louie Welch, Victoria May or Kemper Williams Jr., Nueces County Judge Bob Barnes, Ector County Commissioner Kellus Turner and Bexar County Commissioner Frank Vaughan Jr.

COURTS SPEAK — Former State Sen. David Ratliff of Stamford was found guilty by a Travis County district court jury of theft of state paychecks made out to a onetime employee and drew a 10-year probated sentence.

The Texas Supreme Court upheld a one-year suspension of license for a Dallas lawyer who allegedly embezzled $2,772 of a client's money. The State Bar of Texas wanted the lawyer disbarred, but lower courts settled on the suspension instead.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals dashed hopes of Texas Fine Arts Association to inherit the Austin home of the late artist Wayman Adams.

Plans to pay off depositors of the closed W.L. Moody Co. Bankers, Uninc., Galveston, were delayed by federal district court after the state filed a motion to intervene.

The Court of Criminal Appeals scheduled a December 12 hearing on the appeal of former State Rep. Walter Knapp of Amarillo from a four-year prison sentence for theft by false pretext.

AG OPINIONS — Results of blood tests of drivers suspected of intoxication do not have to be disclosed to insurance companies and credit associations, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded: A retired judge may be appointed a Court of Criminal Appeals Commissioner on his consent.

A bill appropriating funds for establishment of an occupational extension center of a public junior college is constitutional.

A state employee who resigns or is dismissed must be paid for all duly-accrued vacation time.

Texas Real Estate Commission may require licensees to use a specified contract form when acting as real estate brokers or salesmen.

The 15 cent special county road and bridge tax fund levy and the farm-to-market and lateral road tax fund may not be transferred into the general fund or used for any purpose other than roads and bridges.

Bell County commissioners have no power to make the county maintenance fund a single fund collected and spent county wide without regard to precinct lines.

A member of the state Board of Physical Therapy Examiners may not hold the position of executive secretary of the board.

APPOINTMENTS — Governor Smith named John J. Monfey of San Antonio to the Texas Vending Commission, succeeding Raymond B. Williams of Dallas.

Smith also announced these appointments: Charles Lowell Slaton of Quanah to the Veterans Affairs Commission.

Mrs. Conna Jean Nye of Rio Grande City to the Good Neighbor Commission.

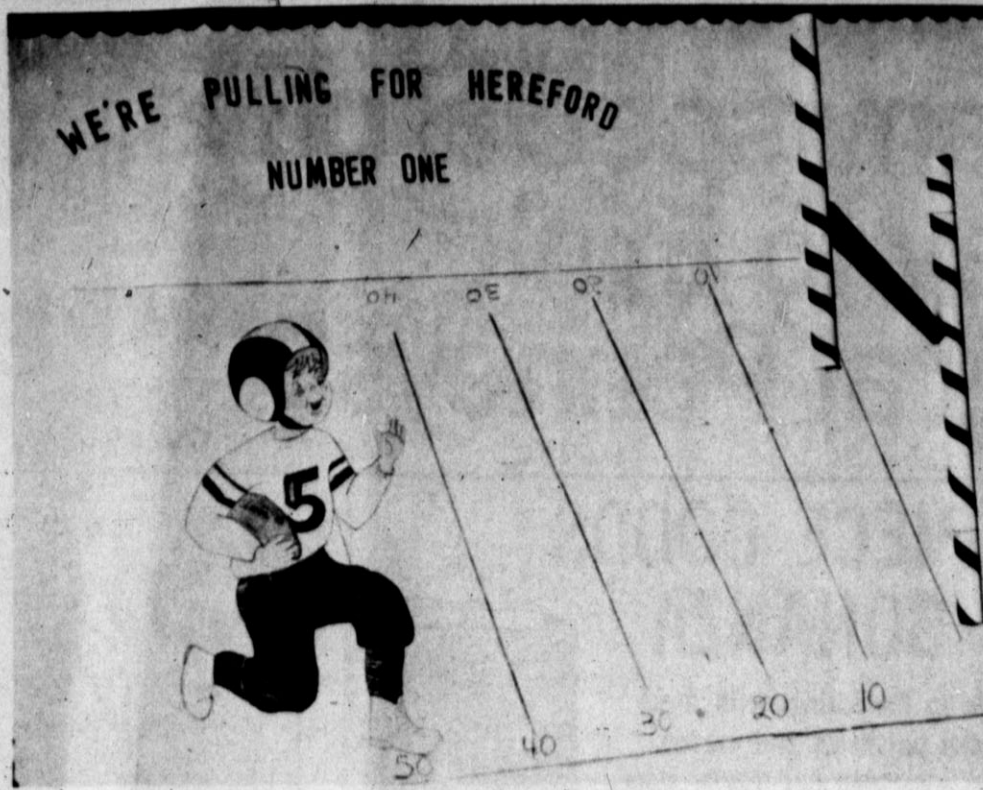

Edgar H. Burton of Lufkin, Roy K. Furr of Lubbock, Hobert H. Joe of Houston, Thomas P. Metcalfe of Franklin and Truman D. Craddock of Hamilton to the Egg Marketing Advisory Board.

Cpt. Bill Joe Robins and Capt. Van Albert Court Jr. of Corpus Christi to be branch pilots for Port Aransas Bar, Corpus Christi Bay and Tributaries.

W.W. Siddons Jr. of Hillsboro to the Tri-County Municipal Water District.

THEFT, LITTERING CONTROLS PLANNED — The Department of Public Safety announced plans to combat commercialized motor vehicle thefts and to check littering on highways.

DPS has created a specialized task force to coordinate a statewide effort against auto theft. The 15-member group will investigate thefts of autos, boats, motorcycles, heavy equipment, mobile homes, travel trailers and boat power units. Members will be stationed at strategic locations over the state.

DPS patrolmen in all uniformed services, meanwhile, have been ordered to watch closely for motorists and other who throw litter on the highways or right-of-ways. Fines from $25 to $200 may be assessed for littering. DPS actually made 841 littering arrests in 1971 as compared with 225 in 1960.

About 50,000 motor vehicles were stolen in Texas last year, an increase of 17 per cent over 1970. Losses were estimated at $35 million.

MINERAL VALUE UP — Texas mineral production rose 6.3 per cent last year to a value of $6.8 billion.

Texas was the country's leading producer of petroleum, natural gas, natural gas liquids, natural graphite, magnesium metal and recovered sulphur. Large quantities of helium, Frasch sulphur, lime, gypsum, clays, sand and gravel, salt, metallic sodium and uranium ore were also produced. Value of mineral fuels amounted to $6.3 billion, more than 93 per cent of the total value of Texas minerals.

Warner Elected Group President

George Warner, owner of Warner Seed Co., Inc. of Hereford, was elevated to president of the Texas Seedsmen's Association in a recent meeting held in San Antonio. Warner, who served the past year as first vice president, took over the office formerly held by Gary Pogue of Kenedy. Warner will serve a one-year term as head of the state-wide organization of Texas seedsmen.

Club to Send Hospital Gifts

By Argen Draper
Home Demonstration Agent

The Westway Club has the date set for packing scraps and gifts for the Wichita State Hospital. All kinds of scraps no matter how large or small; buttons, tapes, and lace. The patients at the Hospital use even the smallest scraps of fabric.

The date for gathering the scraps and gifts is November 27, at the Bull Barn. Make your plans to meet these ladies Mayme Lamb, Bess Werner, Leona Fangman, Lucille Dieter, Fannie Rudd, Freda Sherman, and Wanda Wagner. Some of you will need to bring gunny sacks and we've asked J.C. Simpson to sew the sacks for us. Merchants Frieght will cooperate in getting the things to Wichita Falls.

Also, the women are bringing the gifts for the girls at Girlstown at the same time. There will be a committee there to get everything in its proper place.

When you're in the Library, look at the pretty pictures that Lorene Newman has made. It is gold leaf craft. As Lorene did them you know they are western motif. It is worth your trip to see them.

CHILI CHEESE LOG

2 cups grated sharp cheese
1 T. lemon juice
1/2 t. red pepper
3 oz. cream cheese
1/2 t. garlic salt
1/2 c. chopped pecans
Mix above ingredients with mixer. Roll into 1 long or 2 short ones and sprinkle with: 1 t. paprika and 1 t. chili powder.

Whole Wheat bread is becoming more and more popular with health foods or natural foods being generally used. It seems a bit old fashioned to use the conventional method in bread making, but my advice is "learn the rules and then break them." This recipe is from Virginia Self via Annis Corbett and has been a favorite with all those who have used it.

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

about 3 loaves
First Mixture:
3/4 c. oil
1/2 c. honey
Add hot water to make 1 qt. Stir in 2 1/2 c. flour for a thin batter. Let stand.
Second Mixture:
Dissolve 2 pkg. yeast in 1/2 c. warm water and 3 t. brown sugar. When yeast is well raised add 2 eggs and beat well. Add to first mixture. Add 2 1/2 c. flour.
Add more whole wheat flour until dough does not stick to hands.
Let rise twice and 1 t. salt and let rise 3rd time.
Make out into loaves, let rise and Bake 350 degrees for 40 to 50 minutes.

Ruth Warner has given me a good whole wheat bread recipe. She will share with you:

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

Dissolve:
2 packages yeast in 3 c. warm water
ADD:
1/2 c. corn germ oil
1/2 c. brown sugar or raw honey or unsulphered molasses
1 egg beaten
Mix:
8 c. whole wheat flour
1 T. salt
Let rise once and punch down. When rises second time, make into three 5x9 loaves. Bake 350 degrees for 55 minutes.

Whole Wheat bread freezes well. When ready to use heat in the foil it is wrapped in and bake at 400 degrees for 35 minutes.

I hesitate to mention this, but I was too busy Tuesday to go to the L'Allegria Benefit Luncheon.

I never intended to be that short of time but I have two clubs on Tuesday. However, people have said the food at the luncheon was very delicious. Kay Morrison attended Bippus Club Wednesday when we made whole wheat bread. Kay was very complimentary about the Patriotic Puffs that were served Tuesday by L'Allegria Club. Marlene Farley said we could pass the recipe on to you.

PATRIOTIC PUFFS

1. Dissolve 2 packages yeast in 1 cup lukewarm water.
2. Mix following well. Then add to yeast mix:
1 cup hot water
1/4 cup oil
1/4 cup honey
2 teaspoons salt
2 beaten eggs
3. Add 6 cups unsifted whole wheat flour.
4. Chill in refrigerator 'till firm. Shape into rolls. Let rise and bake. Or freeze raw rolls.
5. Bake at 425 degrees F. about 10 minutes.

Lucille Dieter serves the family natural foods. She made bread with this recipe to serve at Westway Club Thursday. It is good and you will like it.

WHOLE WHEAT BREAD

1 package yeast dissolved in 3 cups lukewarm water
1/2 cup soy flour
1/2 cup wheat germ
2 cup unbleached white flour
4 cups whole wheat flour
1 tablespoon salt
2 tablespoons corn oil
1/4 cup honey or honey and molasses
Combine all ingredients, let rise, knead about ten minutes, form into loaves, filing each

Ruth Warner shocked me when she asked for the formula for keeping Christmas trees fresh. It shocked me to think it is only 45 days 'til Christmans.

A simple formula for keeping a Christmas Tree fresh throughout the holiday season:
1/4 cup horticulture iron (florist)
1 gal. hot water
2 cup light corn syrup
4 teaspoons chlorinated household bleach.

Catholic Women Plan To Attend Diocesan Meet

Representation at a Diocesan Council of Catholic Women meeting in Lubbock Tuesday and Wednesday was planned by St. Anthony's Women's Organization at its meeting in the parish school auditorium Thursday evening.

The Rev. Boniface Riedmann, pastor, urged members to attend this meeting, which has as its program theme, Why Me, Lord?

Plans were made for members to serve as hostesses Dec. 2 at an observance of the Feast of Guadalupe, a religious holiday of a special meaning to those of Spanish descent.

Motion pictures made during the celebration of St. Anthony's Church golden anniversary last summer, were presented by a program guest, Thomas Albracht. Also guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bezner.

Refreshments were served to them and to 34 members by the hostess committee, Mmes. Ed Schilling, Joe F. Huckert, Neal Lueb, Johnny Jesko and Mary Determann.

VETERANS' AID—Two mobile units such as this one will be in Hereford Nov. 14 and 15 as part of the President's National Assistance for Veterans program. The vans will be manned by veteran services and benefits specialists. Use of the vans will bring assistance to veterans who have not made full use of the available federal government services and benefits.

Aid Is Aim Of Program

Two mobile vans manned by veteran services and benefits specialists touring Texas as part of President Nixon's National Assistance for Veterans will be in Hereford Nov. 14 and 15.

The vans will be located in the 200 block of East Fourth street, across from the court house from one to five p.m. Nov. 14 and from eight a.m. to five p.m. Nov. 15.

Jack Coker, Waco Veterans Administration Regional Office Director, said the National Assistance for Veterans program is a multi-federal agency concept joining the services of the VA; Health, Education, and Welfare; Housing and Urban Development; Office of Economic Opportunity; and Texas Employment Commission.

During the month of November the vans will visit Wichita Falls, Vernon, Pampa, Borger, Hereford, Plainview, and Lamesa.

Use of mobile vans will bring assistance to veterans who have not made full use of their benefits and other federal government services.

VA Chief Johnson said the Texas vans—a first in the nation as an innovative program—will establish a "track record" to base planning for the expanded program to deliver veterans services.

Traveling with the vans will be a team of four VA benefits specialists, a clerk, and a Texas Employment Commission representative, who will be from the local office of the TEC.

Information and counseling in various veterans benefits areas will be offered. These include education, home loans, medical benefits, disability compensation and pensions, employment, job training, housing assistance, and individual and family counseling.

Coker said a key feature of the van's effectiveness will be the complete telephone communications available for counselors. Contact may be made from the van to any government office needed to give the veteran complete, one-stop service.

Dear Sir: This is written on election day. Had it not been for your very informative explanation of the Amendments, in the November 2nd edition of the Brand, it would have been difficult indeed to have voted on them.

We did not see the paper in this area that explained the Amendments as well as you did. Thank you for this help.

We enjoyed receiving the Brand. It is a gift to us from our niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Noland, of your city. Keep up the good work, in publishing a very fine paper.

Comings and Goings at King's Manor

The Key Club boys of Hereford (actually they're junior members of the Kawanis Club) carried out their motto of Share Your Life in a big way last Friday when they descended on King's Manor. Armed with all kinds of cleaners, clothes, vacuums and plenty of elbow grease they cleaned our windows inside and outside, vacuumed rugs and furniture, and turned mattresses. Mind you it was their free day from school. What a service and what sharers they were! We are deeply grateful.

Joe Sheffy is Key Club president and Bobby Owen is their sponsor.

Mrs. Don Davidson, J.O. Norred and Louise Vaughan from First United Methodist Church attended the spiritual growth retreat at Ceta Canyon Nov. 3 and 4. The retreat was sponsored by the Amarillo and Plainview districts with Dr. Jordan Grooms, district superintendent of Big Spring district, as the speaker.

Dr. Grooms used the book of Romans as a guide in spiritual enrichment. The singing sessions were led by Buddy Roland, a student at West Texas University.

Some 70 women were in attendance. The theme of the meeting was Live a New Life and banners and posters depicting the theme were displayed by the churches represented.

Small discussion groups met together to discuss the problems, aims and goals of the church today. Mrs. Woodrow Adcock held a mini-course in slide making and the slides were shown at the closing session.

Otis and Lucile Naylor and Mrs. Evadne Cox attended the Fun After Fifty Club's pre-Thanksgiving dinner in Clarendon Nov. 4. The delicious meal, games of 42 and visits with friends made the day a delightful one.

Mrs. Vondell Dyer of Amarillo visited Harvey Marshall at Westgate Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Willoughby of Oklahoma City visited her mother, Mrs. Merlene Newell.

Dr. J. Edwin Low, his wife and mother from Canyon visited Mrs. Aris Stamper.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Cole of Amarillo visited Mrs. Ann Higgins.

Otis and Lucile Naylor returned last Tuesday from a tour and visits with relatives in Eastern Oklahoma, Western Arkansas and East Texas. The trip was marred by rain, fog and ice so autumn colors were not at their best. The scenic drive around portions of Tenkiller Lake in Oklahoma and the walk through rose gardens in Tyler were some of the highlights of the trip.

Mr. Smith had as a visitor his daughter from Amarillo, Sunday.

An open house tea was given Nov. 4, by the J.R. Stevensons, who are our newest neighbors to occupy their home on King's Manor campus. They are from Amarillo. Guests were the folks from King's Manor including Westgate.

The Stevensons were assisted by Mrs. Stevenson's sister, Mrs. Lura West, a cottage resident of the Manor, and a sister-in-law, Nadine Wade of Hereford.

The new home at 428 Sunset was the center of attention. Guest were greeted by Mrs. Stevenson while the host toured guest through the house which is a model of appointments and decor.

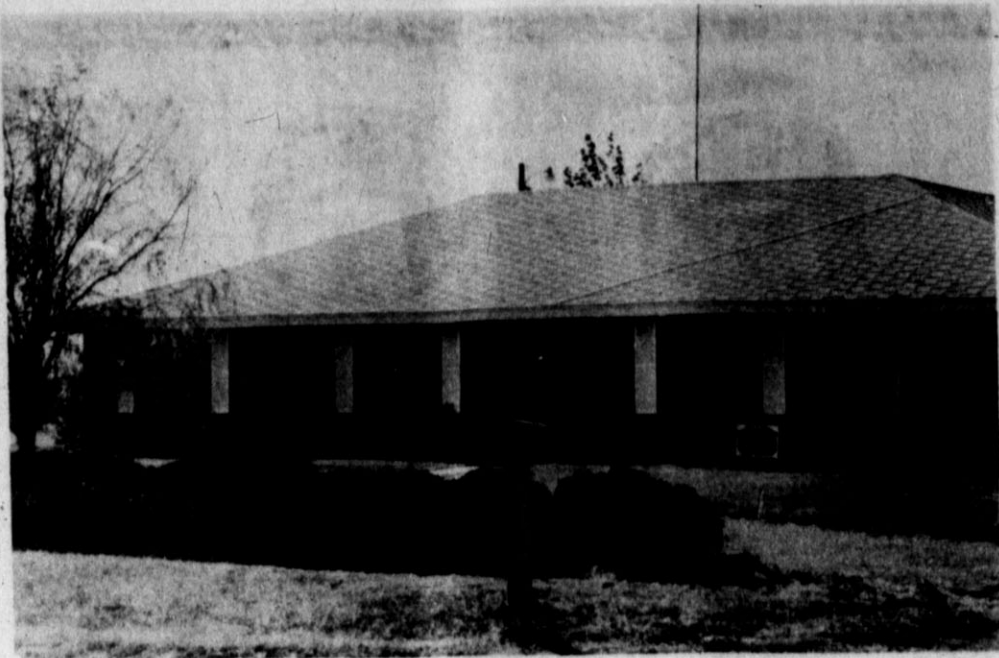

Mrs. West and Mrs. John English poured as party dainties were served with Russian tea. Mrs. Wade helped with wraps and kept groups oriented.

Of special interest was a quilt in Cathedral Window pattern. A multiplicity of dainty stitches and color combinations with outstanding effect, it is the hostess' handiwork.

The house faces the west and nature provided a "golden afternoon" for the party. About 65 guests attended.

English Speaks To Lions

"Add years to your life and life to your years," Dr. John English told Hereford Lions Wednesday when he appeared as program speaker and talked about the importance of an avocation.

Following the program, Lions president Nolan Grady presented a check for $400, on behalf of the club, to the United Way campaign. Chairman Pat Malone was on hand to accept the contribution.

English, administrator at King's Manor, cautioned Lions that "God made man to be creative... when you stop being creative you start to die."

English, whose hobby is painting, did a watercolor landscape as he urged the Lions to find a hobby—if they did not have one, and to plan for activity after retirement.

English has the philosophy that men "burn themselves out on their profession", even more so than women, and need to have a hobby for relaxation and for the retirement years. He pointed out that one ward at King's Manor has 35 residents, but only 3 are men.

Homer Garrison introduced the speaker and cited King's Manor as the "finest retirement center in Texas, and perhaps the nation." He also praised English for his work with the facility.

Several guests were recognized at the club's regular weekly luncheon meeting.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to express our appreciation to all the wonderful people that gave the beautiful flowers, to the ladies that prepared the food, to the pallbearers and to Bro. Godwin and Bro. Powell who conducted the service, to the ones that sang so beautiful, to all those that spoke words of condolence, but more especially the many prayers during the illness and loss of our dear mother and grandmother.

Along The Frio

BY MRS. OWEN ANDREWS
 Among those attending the 4-H Banquet at Dimmitt, on Saturday night were members of Frio Jolly Worker group and their parents including Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Behrends, Bob and Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Adams and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Smith, Jan and Sue, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Warric, Eugene and Raymond. The banquet was at South Grade School Cafeteria. Among awards given, Sue Smith received a new one, "I Dare You", an inspirational award, and Mrs. Adams was awarded a pin for eleven years service as an Adult 4-H Leader.

Mrs. Owen Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bruns, Julie, Hal and Hilrey spent the weekend visiting the Glenn Andrews at Carthage, Mo. The fall colors of foliage are at their peak there, drawing many tourists to see the display of natural beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins, Patty and Scott and Lynette Andrews were in Lubbock Saturday, Patty and Lynette went to the ball game, while the others visited daughter Genie Robbins, who is a student at Tech now.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Andrews were at Wellington during the weekend. They were there especially to attend the Saturday night wedding of Mrs. Andrews' cousin, Phyllis Thomas, and to visit other relatives.

Mrs. T.L. Sparkman Jr., Miss Alma Andrews, Mrs. Laura

Littrell and Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, of Amarillo, went to Wellington, Friday, to attend the funeral for Mrs. Lonnie Leach. The families were friends for many years while they lived at Wellington. Mrs. Leach passed away on Tuesday at her home.

Visiting the Sam Ogans Thursday night and Friday were the Gordon Parnells, of Borger.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones, the Chesley Johnstons and Alma Andrews went to Adams, Okla., during the weekend to visit the Mearle Findleys and

Club Holds Tasting Bee

A tasting bee was the program for Mon Amis Study Club at its meeting Thursday morning in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Co., along with a White Elephant Sale.

Mrs. Earnest Flood was auctioneer for the sale of items brought by members from their homes, articles for which the owner had no use but which could be useful to someone else.

Proceeds went to the club treasury. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Jerry Lance and Mrs. Don Tindal. A new member, Mrs. Brice McRee, was present for the first time. Other members present were Mmes. Martin Young, James Dobbs, Tony Young and Guv Walsler. Each brought a dish prepared for other members to sample in the tasting bee.

History proves that the road to success is a public highway—not a private throughfare.

The Veterans Administration today reminded veterans who find errors in their military records of their right to have them corrected.
Jack Coker, Director, Veterans Administration Regional Office, Waco, pointed out that while some errors may seem trivial, correction of others could prove important, resulting in eligibility for VA and other benefits.
Generally, a veteran is expected to file a request for correction within three years. However, it was noted that this deadline may be waived in the interest of justice.
Officials explained that a veteran, his survivors, or legal representative can file written applications for correction of records with the branch of service in which the veteran served.
Department of Defense forms, "Application for Correction of Military or Naval Record," are available at VA offices, the agency said.

Economic Stabilization Questions and Answers

Q. What is the IRS doing to make sure landlords don't illegally increase rents for tenants receiving higher Social Security benefits?

A. The Internal Revenue Service has begun compliance audits involving more than

NADER THE RAIDER

50,000 rental units which house high percentages of older persons on Social Security. In addition, expedited service is being given to the inquiries and complaints of Social Security beneficiaries. Thus, a person contacting the IRS with a rent inquiry or complaint should identify himself, or herself, as a Social Security beneficiary.

At the same time the IRS has initiated this "rent watch," it has been granted new authority to administer sanctions and allocate penalties to landlords who illegally overcharge rent. Cases of flagrant violation of rent rules will be turned over to the Justice Department for litigation and possible prosecution. Finally, the IRS and Cost of Living Council are distributing materials designed to educate landlords and tenants about their rights and responsibilities under the Economic Stabilization Program. Free IRS rent publications are available from Internal Revenue district offices.

Q. Is all rental property covered by the rent regulations?

A. No. The regulations exempt many types of rental property. However, the regulations generally control most rented residences. Property exempt from the controls includes:

- 1) All nonresidential property, including property leased for industrial, farm or commercial purposes;
- 2) Rental units which were completed and first offered for rent after August 15, 1971;
- 3) Rehabilitated dwelling (where the cost of rehabilitation is more than one-half the fair market value of the pre-rehabilitated property or the cost of that property) offered for rent for the first time after August 15, 1971;
- 4) Rental units where the owner and members of his family, do not own or control, directly or indirectly, more than four rental units; and
- 5) Units renting for $500 a month or more on January 19, 1972.

Q. If a Category II manufacturer wants to increase prices, what forms does it have to file and when?

A. Category II manufacturers — generally those with sales of $50 million to $100 million — must file a Form PC-1, "Report for Price Increases for Manufacturing, Service Industries and the Professions," with the Price Commission for the quarter in which a price increase has occurred. Along with the PC-1 form, a Form PC-51, "Report on Sales, Costs, and Profits," must be filed not more than 45 days after the end of the firm's fiscal year. If a Form PC-50, "Base Period Income Statement," has not already been filed, it must be submitted at this time.

Smaller firms, which are not required to file with the Price Commission, may find these forms helpful in complying with Economic Stabilization regulations. Forms may be obtained at any IRS office.

TEXAS COWBELLES

A NEW ORGANIZATION in Hereford, and in Texas, CowBelles are women concerned with the cattle industry in any phase, from cattle breeding to beef marketing. They may be active in the industry themselves, or wives of ranchers, cattle feeders and those associated with feedyard operations, buyers, truckers, veterinarians, processors and distributors of beef.

NATIONAL IN SCOPE, CowBelles were not organized in Texas until last summer, when Hereford women were among those of the Panhandle area who took the lead in forming a state group. One objective of its officers is organization of local clubs in all parts of the state where the cattle industry is important.

LOCAL PRESIDENT is Mrs. Robert Josserand. Hereford CowBelles has been chosen as the name of the new group here and monthly meeting dates have been set for the third Tuesday in each month. The November meeting will be at a luncheon Tuesday in the Flame Room of Pioneer Gas Co.

Serviceman's Wife Pupil

English Lessons Bring Texas, Korea Together

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

TWO YOUNG HEREFORD housewives with a world of difference in background are associated in an unusual way as Marilyn Culpepper, an average West Texan, teaches her friend Hye Un Elizondo, lately from Korea, to read and write English.

One is definitely West and the other East, but the twain meet regularly for the lessons which are improving Mrs. Elizondo's ability to speak English as well as read and write her second language.

She is the former Chong Hye Un of Seoul, capital of Korea, and she married the Hereford man while he was stationed there on military duty. In oriental style, Chong is her family name and Hye Un, pronounced "Hay Oon," the given name.

BECAUSE MRS. Culpepper had difficulty remembering and pronouncing Hye Un when the two first became acquainted, she calls her pupil Chong and the latter answers agreeably to her last name.

She also finds it amusing that one acquaintance here calls her "Hey You."

When she met her husband knew no English. While she has been learning the language ever since, he has also added Korean expressions to his vocabulary, and now she says, "We talk to each other in mixed English and Korean."

"He speaks Spanish with his family here, but I'm not trying to learn that, yet," Mrs. Elizondo laughs.

NINE MONTHS IN America has given her time to become accustomed to ways different from those she knew as she grew up.

"It was bad at first, when I knew no one, and when I went anywhere, even to the store, I felt lost. Now I know the people in the store and they know me so I like to go there and to other stores in town. And I know my neighbors and Marilyn's friends and many others."

Of course she misses her family — parents, grandparents, sisters and brothers — but she likes America better as she makes more friends.

AMERICAN FOOD hasn't won her favor yet although she is learning to prepare dishes her husband likes — meat and potatoes and fried eggs. She has found oriental food at a restaurant in Amarillo, but not ingredients that she can cook herself.

The nearest she has found those is in El Paso and although she can order some of the staples by mail, she can't get fresh food by that method.

Another thing different to her is the furniture in American homes.

"In Korea it is not like this," she says, indicating the attractive living room suite and dining table in her mobile home at 705 Ave. H. "Our tables are this high," pointing to the coffee table, "and we sit on cushions instead of chairs and sofas like these."

One phase of life is the same, however; she was accustomed to wearing American style clothes. Only the older women, she says, still wear the native Korean dress with its brief jacket and long skirt gathered to a high waistline, rather like the empire style dresses fashionable this year for bridal gowns.

Mrs. Culpepper is teaching Hye Un English with the method originated by Dr. Frank Laubach and now used worldwide in the famous "Each one teach one" literacy program.

First designed entirely to teach illiterates to read and write in their own language, the method has been adapted in recent years to teach a second spoken language, at the same time the pupil learns to read and write that language.

SHE BECAME interested in the method when Mrs. Dale Barkley of Tulia, a former Hereford resident, conducted a workshop for Baptist Church women here. Mrs. Elizondo is her first pupil and both are happy with the results of her teaching.

Mrs. Barkley encouraged her to attempt the instruction, as she herself had taught English to two Korean girls who are wives of Tulia servicemen. It was somewhat by accident that Mrs. Barkley attended a workshop on Laubach teaching methods at a church camp, and gained her interest in the subject.

Most Americans consider Dr. Laubach's idea applicable only to other countries, such as the mission fields where he first used it.

BUT WHEN MRS. Culpepper learned that actually, one in 10 U.S. residents are functional illiterates (who cannot read well enough to fill out routine forms such as loan applications) she felt that the method is faked here and today.

It is designed for adults, and Mrs. Culpepper is to meet Monday with a group of local Spanish-speaking adults who want to learn conversational English by this method.

She believes her work with Hye Un has given her the experience to attempt teaching a group.

Wedding Vows Spoken In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Maria Graciela Vargas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Vargas of 1103 Park Avenue, and Mario Alberto Gamez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Gamez of 228 Avenue A., was read by the Rev. John Kiesling, associate pastor, in St. Anthony's Catholic Church Saturday.

White chrysanthemums on either side of the altar were decorations at the mid-afternoon ceremony for the couple who will be at home at 205 Wither- spoon after a week's honeymoon in Arkansas.

Miss Yolanda Vargas was her sister's maid of honor and Simon Camarillo of Amarillo was best man.

Other attendants were First Lt. and Mrs. Robert Hernandez of Killeen, Messrs. and Mmes. Tony Vallejo, David Quiros of Tulia, Juan Pesina, Lino Hernandez, Paul Ramirez, Ray De los Santos, Ernest Castaneda and Richard Morales.

Also Misses Sylvia Castro, Odelia Gamez, Cielé Gamez, Lupe Gamez, Rosie Castro and Celia Serrano; and Joe Marquez, Rnúl Lopez, Roy Rendon, Rosendo Gonzales, Ricky Castaneda, Joe Rodriguez and Alfred Gutierrez.

The bridegroom's small sister, Roselle Gamez, with Yvette Vallejo, daughter of the Tony Vallejos, and Yvonne Santos, daughter of the Ray Santos, were flower girls.

Rúben Vargas, the bride's brother, carried the rings. Wedding music was by Mrs. Allen Evers, organist, Misses Christine and Linda Castaneda, vocalists. Selections included Hawaiian Love Song, He, and music from the motion picture, Love Story.

The bride wore a gown of lace over satin with empire waistline, long sleeves, and carpet length skirt flowing into a train.

Edged with a double row of lace scallops, her veil extended over the train and was held to her hair with a lace headpiece. White roses made the bridal bouquet.

Of design similar to the bride's, dresses of feminine attendants were of velveteen in sugarbeet shade, with gold trim. Each carried a long-stemmed orchid carnation with matching ribbon streamers.

At the reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall after the wedding, guests were registered by Misses Teresa Munoz and Gloria Garcia. Misses Francis Rrances Castaneda and Dora Castro served the cake.

The multi-level cake had decorations in sugarbeet color, and flowers ornamented the refreshment table where Misses Alicia De los Santos, Adriana

Garcia and Sylvia Gamez assisted in serving.

For the wedding trip, Mrs. Gamez changed to a two-piece beige and navy ensemble.

She and the bridegroom are both graduates of Hereford High School. He is employed at the Armour Company plant here.

Out-of-city wedding guests included the Mike Gamez family of Elay and the Robert Gamez family of Dallas as well as the Robert Hernandez and David Quiros families.

Library OK'd For Membership

Deaf Smith County Library is one of 12 libraries in the 25-county area that surrounds Amarillo that have qualified for membership in the Amarillo Major Resource System organized under provisions of the Texas Library Systems Act. Administered by the Texas State Library, the Systems Act gives public libraries that meet certain standards of local support the right to join a system for carrying out cooperative programs of various kinds. Under the Statewide Plan for Library Development, Texas has been divided into ten areas. The libraries serving more than 25,000 persons and meeting other qualifications are area libraries. Smaller libraries are designated community libraries.

A total of 195 libraries throughout the state qualified for system membership. "We are particularly gratified that 29 libraries that did not qualify for membership last year joined the system this year," said Dr. Dorman H. Winfrey, director of the Texas State Library. "This not only means that local support for libraries is improving but also that libraries are recognizing the benefits of system membership to their patrons."

Ford Club Hears Program By Agent

A program on making whole wheat bread was presented to Ford Home Demonstration Club Wednesday by Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent.

In making the homemade bread Mrs. Draper used many ingredients from local products. She explained the use of liquids in making breads and rolls. The usual liquids used are milk, water, and water in which potatoes have been cooked.

All liquids must be used at the proper temperature, she said, 105-115 degrees F. for yeast dissolving method, 120-130 degrees for rapid mix. Hotter liquids will kill yeast.

Mrs. Joe Gonzales presided at the business meeting and served refreshments to three guests, Mmes. Bobby Kendrick, Travis Neil and Quinton Conn. Members present were Mmes. Frank Brorman, J. Raymond Flores, A.B. Kent, John Smith, Raymond Smith, C.L. Walters and Chuck Stokesberry.

Increasing Power

For 40 years now, we have been increasing the power and the financial resources of our national government. That trend reflected a widespread acceptance of two theories: 1. All social problems are susceptible to quick solution, if sufficient resources are devoted to the task. 2. Centralized planning and management are superior to local control, and federal officials are more competent and more efficient than state and local officials.

It was — like prohibition — a noble experiment. And, like prohibition, it seems to have failed. At their best, the adherents to these theories of social reform were genuinely motivated by a desire to help those in need of it. At their worst, they embodied a monumental contempt for the average American, an interest in empire-building greater than their concern for results, and even the all-too-human urge to pursue a fast buck in the easiest possible manner.

One point must be conceded. The various attempts at large-scale social engineering have done a lot to reduce poverty — in the Washington area. It is no mere coincidence that the Washington suburbs contain the wealthiest and second-wealthiest counties in the country (Montgomery, Md., and Fairfax, Va., respectively).

At the beginning of fiscal 1972, Sen. Abraham Ribicoff (D-Conn.) noted that the money allocated for poverty-fighting programs that year — $31.1 billion — was enough to wipe out poverty entirely, if it were distributed directly to the poor. Yet, there are still about 25 million Americans below the official poverty (low income) line. Where did the money go? It went to legions of well-paid bureaucrats, consultants, research establishments, academicians and social workers. As Sen. Ribicoff put it, "social service programs have helped few people get off welfare, yet the number of social workers rose from 41,000 in 1960 to 144,000 in 1968."

In other words, we have created a civilian equivalent of the much maligned "military-industrial complex." Rep. Edith Green (D. Ore.) calls it the "education-poverty-industrial complex."

She documents her charge in a long, thoughtful article focusing primarily on certain operations of the Office of Education, part of the huge Health, Education and Welfare department.

As she puts it, "in attempting to provide solutions to our country's pressing ills, we have set up a monstrous apparatus that can no longer be supervised or controlled by even the best of men. This tremendous proliferation of programs and activities is leading to a major collapse of rational management."

Her investigation of the Office of Education disclosed that: "Over and over, a project would be escalated into a far bigger activity than originally proposed or planned, with vast additional funds being allocated by OE through a non-competitive, non-reviewed amendment procedure rather than through the normal process of funding approval."

If all that sounds familiar, it is because this is the kind of charge that is usually made against the military-industrial complex.

And I have no doubt that on occasion the military-industrial complex deserves it. But the key point is that the education-poverty-industrial complex is obviously guilty of the same kind of wasteful behavior, and it is now the larger of the two.

The call for a "reordering of our national priorities" is often heard today. It is code for "spend less on defense and more on social welfare." Well, I've got news for that group. We have "reordered" our priorities. The defense budget for this fiscal year is $78.3 billion; the "human resources" budget is $110.8 billion. In 1955, we were spending 10.5 per cent of our Gross National Product on the military and 3.8 per cent on human resources categories. The comparable figures for fiscal 1973 are 6.5 per cent military and 9.2 per cent human resources.

Since we have done what the social engineers asked, I do not think it unreasonable or unfair to inquire about the results. Have those billions been used effectively and productively enough to justify their continued appropriation? Or is it time, once again, to try to find a better way to solve our problems?

Welfare Progress

There was no wedding cake to be cut when Congress adjourned but there might as well have been. In its final hours, the 92nd Congress solemnized the marriage between the Social Security and the welfare system in the United States.

Beginning in January the federal government will guarantee a minimum income to about five million Americans. They will receive monthly Social Security checks whether they have paid anything into Social Security or not.

The new income guarantee covers everyone who reaches 65 or becomes blind or disabled, unless he is in prison or living out of the country.

Thus another move has been made into "cradle to the grave" security for Americans.

Certain to come is socialized medicine, which may be paid out of an overloaded Social Security bite out of the average paycheck.

The latest move by Congress wipes out the last vestige of Social Security as a "nest egg" amassed from savings by each working American for his own personal benefit or that of his survivors.

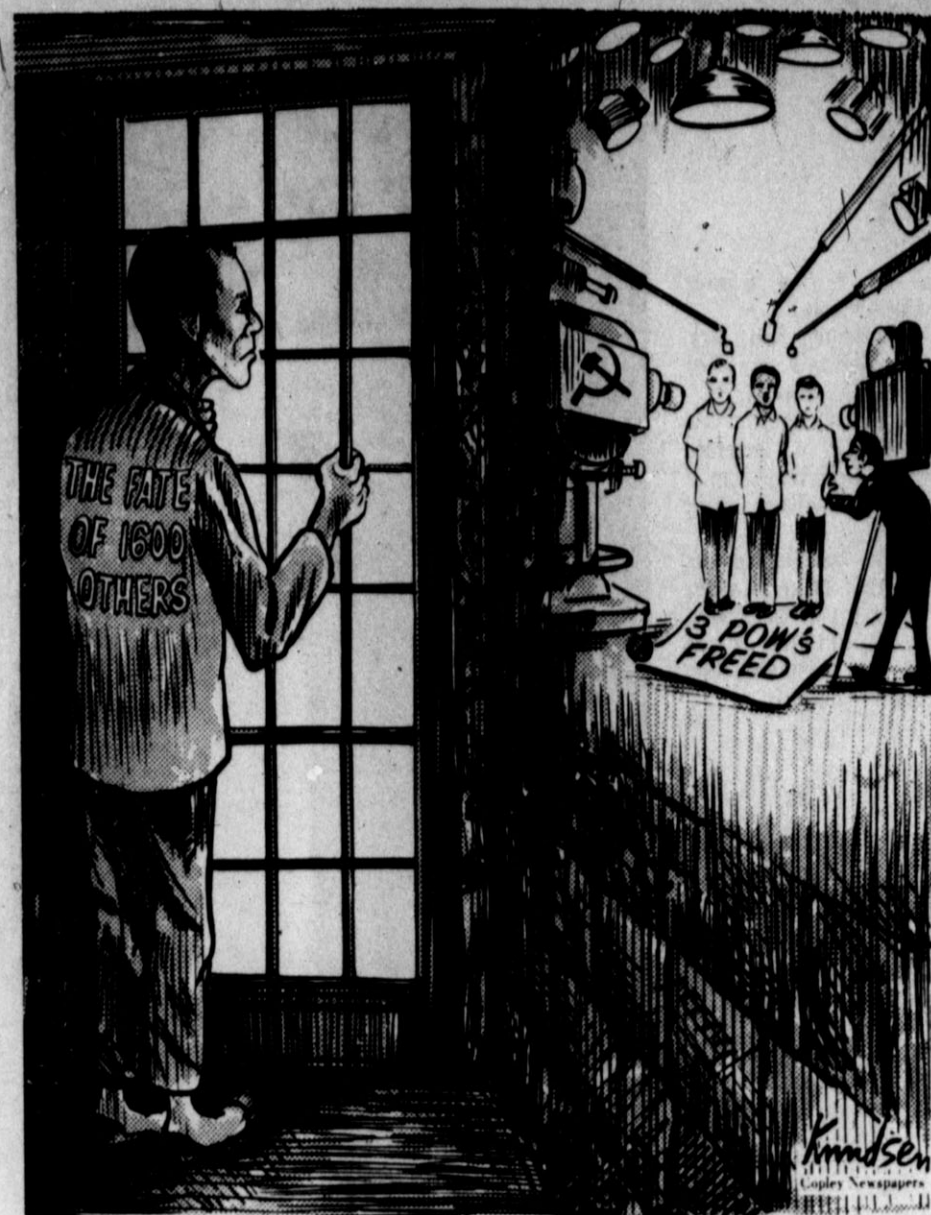

What has now been accepted as fact is the principle that work and prudence are not guarantees of retirement security.

When Social Security was started back in the depression days, it was a revolutionary idea of helping a person save up for retirement years or during a period of disability when work was impossible. It was a program designed to encourage, rather than force, each working American to save for his own future. He had to set aside something out of each paycheck, and his employer had to match it.

The idea was to form a giant fund, administered by the government, and when a worker reached retirement age, he could draw out some of the money he had put into it.

Some people think it still works that way, but the recent move to open the doors to everybody, regardless of whether or not they put anything into Social Security, makes a mockery of the whole idea.

Giving more Social Security benefits is potent political medicine. Although President Nixon held the bill on his desk a few days before signing it, nobody thought he would veto it. After all, what office holder is going to be against the elderly?

STILL IN THE DARK

MAIN STREET, U.S.A.

'Banner Year' Seen For U.S. Economy

By Bert Mills

Washington, D.C. — 1973 will be a Happy New Year for business, according to a U.S.

Department of Commerce forecast which predicts "a banner year for the U.S. economy."

The Commerce Department forecast was issued eight days before the elections, leading to suspicion that at least its timing has political overtones.

Nevertheless, the economy has been on an upturn and independent forecasters have also viewed the 1973 outlook through rose-colored glasses.

The Commerce report notes that the Administration's economic goal this year was to increase Gross National Product by $100 billion, with real growth of about 6 percent.

This target "probably will be exceeded" and the rate of inflation will be reduced to 2 to 3 percent by yearend. The unemployment rate began this year at about 6 percent, was reduced to 5.5 percent at yearend, and the forecasters see "a good chance" it will be cut to around 5 percent by January.

Therefore Commerce expects the economy will enter 1973 "in a strongly rising trend, but with still enough slack in capacity utilization so that major production bottlenecks can be avoided...The present upswing in the economy is a major expansion that will continue at least through 1973."

"Sales will be strong and rising next year," the experts predict. Other indicators of an upturn will be increased output of manufactured products, higher capital spending by business, and improved level of industrial operations, and rising profits.

Tight Budget Foreseen
Monetary and fiscal policies "will have to become less stimulative" in 1973, according to the seers at Commerce, who predict the Federal Reserve Board will adjust the rate of monetary expansion to avoid setting off another round of inflation.

President Nixon will be preparing the Federal budget for fiscal year 1974 regardless of election results, and Commerce foresees "a very tight budget" and "a determined effort to hold expenditures to a non-inflationary "250 billion" in the current fiscal year, which ends June 30, 1973.

The prediction on interest rates is that they "will be generally stable in the near future." The decline in interest rates which began with the price-wage freeze in August, 1971 continued into 1972, and while there have been increases this year all major rates remain below pre-freeze levels.

Long-term interest rates also dropped after the 1971 freeze, then increased moderately this year, but have stabilized recently. This is attributed to a diminishing of inflationary psychology due to the "success of the fight against inflation" becoming increasingly evident.

Retail Sales Rise Seen
The Commerce Department report also discusses 20 major industries, analyzing current developments and projecting expected developments in 1973. Retail sales have been booming this year as consumers went on a "buying spree," particularly in purchasing "big-ticket" spent items.

Shoppers have ample cash reserves and what Commerce calls "a more positive buying posture." The projected result is a $482 billion retail trade volume in 1973, up 8.5 percent over the boom level of 1972. Department stores should enjoy a 10 percent rise in business next year.

The Department of Commerce report is entitled "Interim Review of the Economy: The Expanding Economy of 1972 with Industry Projections for 1973." It is available for 60 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

THE BOOTLEG . —Philosopher

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm looks into some statistics this week.

Dear editor:

Every once in a while you pick up a paper and read that the cost of living index for such and such a month has gone up 3 tenths of 1 per cent or some such figure and the experts then tell you whether this is an improvement or not and go into detail about what caused the rise.

But what I haven't been able to figure out is where they get the figures.

It's sort of like a public opinion poll. Nobody knows anybody who has ever been polled.

What I mean is, are those cost-of-living experts talking to enough people?

Say they report that it cost 3 tenths of 1 per cent more to live in October than it did in September. That may look scientific on paper but it sure leaves out the blown gasket on my car on October 4, the break-down on my television set on October 6, the new tire I had to buy on October 10, the extra company I had to feed on October 14, the hole that showed up in one of my shoes on October 20, the dented fender on October 25.

I don't care what the index shows, 3 tenths of 1 per cent won't cover me for the month of October, although to keep the national figure in line I'd be willing to settle for that.

If my cost of living jumped 50 per cent in October, but the national rise was just those 3 tenths of 1 per cent, then clearly somebody somewhere must have had a 50 per cent drop to offset me.

I will give a set of worn-out tires and a pair of run-down shoes to anybody who can locate that man.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Talk Of Texas

BY JACK MAGUIRE

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY — Of the 280 people who sailed from France on July 24, 1684, to help the explorer, La Salle, seek the mouth of the Mississippi River and found a colony, only 15 survived. Most of the others perished along the Texas Gulf coast.

The problems began when La Salle's navigational errors caused the four ships to sail by the Mississippi and land at Matagorda Bay. One ship went aground trying to enter the bay, one returned to France and the third was captured by the Spanish. By the time La Salle got a fort completed, his company was down to 180.

Once the explorers were on shore, the perils of the wilderness and attacks by Indians had further reduced the company. In January, 1687, when La Salle began his final explorations in Texas, only 40 of his party remained. By 1690, there were only 15. La Salle himself was ambushed and killed by his own men.

Despite the tragic consequences of the expedition, La Salle and his men are credited with opening much of the south and southwest to colonization later.

TEXAS FIRST — In 1909, Sanger Brothers department store in Dallas installed the first escalator in the state.

HOW IT BEGAN — Charles Goodnight, famed West Texas cattle baron in the days of the open range, also deserves a minor role in history as an inventor.

Goodnight was the designer and builder of the first chuck wagon, the rolling kitchen without which no cattle drive could have survived. Goodnight built his wagon of oak, equipped it with iron axles, built in food storage compartments and added a tailgate that folded down to become the cook's work table.

The design, with only minor improvements, still is in use today wherever such a facility is required.

ONE OF A KIND — If pilots of Southwest Airline jets enjoy landing at San Antonio, there's a reason: The agent who signals them into the passenger ramp is a beautiful blonde in a miniskirt.

Nancy Grubbs, 26, is one of the few female ramp agents in the U.S. and the only one in Texas. In busy periods, her job also includes loading and unloading baggage.

THE CHANGING TIMES — Belcherville, the Montague County town that once bragged that it was the smallest incorporated municipality in the U.S. (pop. 18), has given up its corporate status.

Once it was an important trading and cattle shipping center. However, it began declining a couple of decades ago when the Katy Railroad discontinued its daily passenger train between Denison and Wichita Falls. Belcherville was a regular stop for the trains.

By the Garden Gate

With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

"When chill Novembers surly blasts, icy rain and swiftly falling snow flakes fall, To make fields, trees, and gardens desolate and cold" —

It is then time for all good gardeners to say goodbye to garden flowers, and beautiful, leafy trees and take up the chores that remain. That is when outdoor activities cease, and we take care of the inside chores.

Some of these are cleaning the garden tools, oiling them and putting them away. Check all mechanical machines. Make sure that the mower, clippers, and edgers are properly cleaned, oiled and put away in good condition.

These fall chores are not too pleasant, because often while cleaning and drainout the old oil it runs over, gets on our clothes, the floor, hands and another clean-up must of necessity take place.

If this happens, and while you are finishing cover the oil with sand or loose cement. Leave this until the oil is saturated into the sand or cement then sweep carefully, lift in a dust pan and throw away with the trash. Do not throw out on the garden soil.

If stain is not removed then use a little gasoline and sweep vigorously until stain is removed, and finish with a thorough washing with strong suds. If left the oil and other residue can be tracked into the house.

After the oil has been drained give attention to the air filter pad and clean with kerosene or gasoline. If you do not want hands chapped, wear rubber gloves.

If you have grown dahlias and geraniums, cut off the tops as soon as possible. If you do not plan to lift the dahlia tubers, cover carefully with soil making the covering in a cone shape, tamping well as soil is added; this is to give good drainage.

If tubers are not protected from excessive moisture they will deteriorate. If you have space for indoor storage, then when ground is dry lift the tubers, leaving them attached to the main mother stalk. Shake all loose and attached soil from them, and let dry for a few days.

boxes or latticed wooden boxes. Cover with dry sand or peat moss. Check during winter for dryness and if excessively dry, moisten by sprinkling. Storage space should be located so there will be no danger of freezing.

The following is a suggested way to care for geraniums, which I have not used, but was recommended to my friend Bessie Hill, so am passing it on! Cut tops from the geranium plant, and when soil has dried out mound it carefully and firmly to a height where there is assurance that water will not stand on the soil.

Leave thus until springtime. Soil can then be removed gradually, as season changes. The plant will start new growth, and later cuttings can be taken from the mother plant.

Another plan for geraniums is to lift the plant if not too badly harmed by freeze. Take and fasten securely a cellophane bag, put the roots down in bag to where the plant growth starts, tie securely and hang in garage or other storage space where there is no danger of freezing. In winter check for moisture. If dry, sprinkle lightly and re-tie bag as before.

All gladioli corms should be lifted, the entire plant can be pulled, and placed where the corms will dry out. Cut off tops, place on newspaper and leave to complete drying. Sprinkle with insect powder, or naphtha flakes and store in large brown grocery bags, which have been pierced to admit air. Hang in storage space where corms will not freeze. These too should be checked later for dryness.

November is the ideal time in most sections to plant tulip bulbs and most spring flowering bulbs. The daffodils and crocus should have been planted in October, but if you didn't get this chore done, then plant as soon as bulbs are purchased and the garden soil is ready.

These should be set in a well prepared soil at an even depth (deeper planting makes stronger and nicer blooms, especially with the tulips). The soil should be humus, and spaded deep, turned over and raked well. Preparation of soil always pays off in good dividends.

When plant material which have been killed by frost or freezing, is well dried and one can work in the garden, these along with fallen leaves should be made into a compost pile.

I have to confess I really miss those wonderful bonfires of leaves and other garden debris we used to have on chilly fall days. When the fragrant smoke curled upward from the heap, then broke into glowing flames which scorched our faces while our backs were cold, we would quickly turn around, warm our backs, swiftly turn back and hold our hands to the fire, then pull the mittens on tight, give the sock-cap a tug, would run and hurry with more leaves to add to the glowing fire.

I thought it was great. But those were days when there was plenty of fresh air. Today that commodity is so scarce we dare not add any smoke — and we need to be conservative, therefore all debris should be conserved for the soil.

Our memories can live on, and it is ours to create more and perhaps better ones by doing our share to keep America beautiful.

Last Sunday when I was standing looking up at a beautiful Horse's Tail Falls in Mexico, underneath the stately oak trees, I felt an acorn fall on my head, and stooped to pick it up.

As I raised up I said to Mrs. Malond (our District Director) that I was going to take it home and plant it... and try to grow an oak.

Through study, reading and lectures I have learned that many gardeners are starting tree seeds in autumn to have little trees to plant and share with friends. These nuts should first be placed in the refrigerator and left for several weeks, removed from the cold and placed in well prepared soil, which has been put in containers.

If you have a greenhouse, plant in a bed framed with two-inch boards, in a sunny place, otherwise plant where they can be in a sunny area. Keep moist and wait. Some seed nuts will mature more quickly than others, so don't become too discouraged if you have to wait.

I have been successful with pomegranate, strawberry shrub, pecan, black walnut and oak. If you are really interested, secure from the U.S. Department of Agriculture their manual on Woody-Plant Seed. Read and study other literature, and I believe you will become interested.

If you do not achieve success the first time — try again. I planted some acorns which I picked up in Virginia. A dear tiny tree came up, but died. Perhaps I did not take care of it properly... but am going to try again.

When I think of the value of a tree (the real value can not even be properly assessed) I am reminded of a statement made by Mrs. Maxwell W. Steel, President of the National Council of Garden Clubs, Inc., when she addressed the fall meeting in Brownsville last week. In her message she said, "Garden clubs had not only added beauty, conserved natural resources, shared in keeping American clean, and shared in many phases of ecology, but they had carried on a challenge which was made over 100 years ago when a committee was appointed with this instruction, entrusted to the committee was the challenge and instruction that the pound would never lose its value. "This admonition is still ours, we are to do our part in seeing that the real values of America will never lose their real values. NGC members have kept the faith. When a tree is planted, measures of beautification carried out, cleanliness promoted, then we are keeping the faith... and many values are being conserved as well as increased."

Mrs. Hill and I were very fortunate in that we met Mrs. Steele, in the airport in Dallas and had a most enjoyable visit with her. She is a gracious lady and interested in many, many things.

She questioned us at length relative to the high plains in the varieties. How it was used and if the cattle industry was successful.

We were very glad that Mr. O'Daniel and his wife of Tulsa (parents of Mrs. Harlan VanderZee) were in our group and he could give correct and fair answers to her questions.

Mrs. Steel spoke of the youth of America and of her interest in them, she had attended a Girl Scout meeting in Dallas, (10,000 in attendance). She was impressed with the Texas girls and leaders, and said they were certainly a dedicated group to the ideals and aspirations of America. This will be a remembered red-Letter experience.

HAPPINESS IS: Loving, sharing and aiding our youth.

Hospital Gift Collection Set

Collection date for scraps of fabric, trimmings and sewing material to be sent for use in handcraft work by patients in Wichita Falls State Hospital, was set for Nov. 27 at a meeting of the sponsoring Westway Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. D.W. Dieter was hostess at her home. Collection of the needle-craft materials has been a project of Westway Club for several years, and local trucking firm has taken numerous 100-pound bags of the material to the hospital each year.

Club members ask home sewing enthusiasts to take this occasion to clear out their collection of unused scraps and give it to the patients who always express gratitude for the contribution.

Additions to the collection may be taken to the Deaf Smith County Bull Barn on the afternoon of Nov. 27 and placed in the burlap bags which will be ready to receive them. Anyone who has gifts for the hospital patients may also send them at this time, if they can be packed into the bags.

Westway members will send Christmas gifts to residents of Girlstown U.S.A., another yearly custom.

After the business session

Thursday, Argen Draper, County HD Agent, demonstrated the use of whole wheat flour in making several types of bread. She discussed the dietary value of whole grains.

Members present included Mmes. Aron Fangman, Richard Wagner, Paul Rudd, Fred Sherman, Bess Werner and Albert Lamb.

Pre-Thanksgiving Dinner Set

A Thanksgiving dinner for American Legion and Auxiliary members will be served at 7 p.m. Nov. 21 in the Legion Building; plans were completed at a recent Auxiliary meeting. The speaker will be Homer Hanna, educational director of First Baptist Church.

Members are to bring gifts at this time for the gift shop at the Amarillo veterans' hospital. From the hospital shop, patients select Christmas gifts for their families.

Also, Auxiliary members will collect personal items to be sent at Christmas to patients in the state hospital at Wichita Falls. As a holiday fund-raising project, they will serve a Christmas dinner Dec. 7 to personnel of the Anthony stores here.

Mrs. J.G. Gandy conducted business. Hostesses, Wilhelmina Vinton and Mabel Wagner, served refreshments.

IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
BY HAL FOSTER

Our Story: THE TAVERN DOOR IS FLUNG OPEN AND A NOISY GROUP OF TIPSY YOUNG NOBLES ENTERS. THE PLACE IS CROWDED, BUT THEY TAKE THE BEST TABLE AND PUSH ASIDE ITS OCCUPANTS.

USUALLY, WHEN JOAN SINGS, THERE IS SILENCE, BUT THESE YOUNG GALLANTS LAUGH AND JOKE ALL THROUGH HER PERFORMANCE. HER TWO STALWART BROTHERS FROWN.

ONE OF THE PARTY DRAGS JOAN ONTO HIS LAP: "YOU ARE A COMELY WENCH. YOUR REWARD WILL BE A KISS FROM EACH OF US!" HER BROTHERS RUSH TO HER DEFENSE AND KNOCK HER ANNOYER DOWN.

"HOW DARE YOU, YOU FILTHY COMMONER," SHRIEKS THE LAD AND DRAWS HIS SWORD. HIS FRIENDS RUSH TO HIS ASSISTANCE, WEAPONS GLEAMING, AND PANIC SWEEPS THE TAVERN AND THE CUSTOMERS DASH FOR THE DOOR.

ONE OF THE UNARMED BROTHERS GOES DOWN AND JACQUES TAKES HIS PLACE, FIGHTING LIKE A MADMAN. ARN FORCES HIS WAY THROUGH THE MILLING CROWD AND DRAGS JOAN AWAY.

"FALL BACK TO THE DOOR!" SHOUTS PRINCE VALIANT AS HE DRAWS THE 'SINGING SWORD,' AND AT THE MENACE OF THE BRIGHT BLADE A PATHWAY IS CLEARED.

"TO THE SHIP, TELL THE CREW TO ARM AND STAND READY," THE SURVIVING BROTHER IS STAGGERING AND MUST BE HELPED, AND TO MAKE MATTERS WORSE THE MEASURED TREAD OF THE NIGHT WATCH CAN BE HEARD.

VAL ARRIVES WITH HIS BURDEN A STEP AHEAD OF THE WATCH. "CAST OFF AND MAN THE SWEEPS!" HE ORDERS. "WE MUST RISK THE WIND AND WAVES AT THE HARBOR MOUTH."

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
My daughter came up with a brilliant idea of what to do with many of the pictures of herself. She collected all the flattering, candid poses of herself from over the years. Leaving none out: Baby pictures, toddler, earlier school days, etc., up to her present age of fourteen. These were all used to make her own personalized collage. The background, or base, was a sturdy piece of 11" x 14" paper. (Cardboard can be used, however.) The pictures, having been trimmed, were then glued on-the paper. Each one was placed at a different angle so each could be completely seen. She let this dry several hours. Then she applied a coat of fast-drying varnish over the whole thing. When dry, she put the finished product in a 16" x 20" frame. It is certainly a novel conversation piece. And, all her best pictures are now in one place, all at the same time!

Mrs. A. Miller

And what grandmother wouldn't love to receive something like this. Or even Dad to put on his desk at the office. Such a clever use of the imagination. You are a real luv for sending this hint our way. God bless you.
Heloise

THE CAT'S MEOW
DEAR HELOISE:
An old scrubbing brush nailed cat-height to the wall will give "Old Tom" a real good back scratch when you aren't around to do the job for him.
Trudy

TAKE YOUR PILL
DEAR HELOISE:
I have to take a pill each day at a certain time. But my only access to water is from a drinking fountain. I simply cannot take a pill with my head bent down. Here is how I remedied this problem. When I leave the house, I put my pill in a plastic pill bottle with a snap top. Time for pill, simply pop pill in mouth, fill bottle with water and drink. Ever so easy.
Sara Wartes

IT'S A TOSSUP
DEAR HELOISE:
I love those great throw pillows you see so much of now. Especially the ones made of unusual fabrics. Unfortunately, they are too expensive to fit into our budget. So I've come up with an idea. I used two terry washcloths—the real plush type. Each has a fresh, bold design. To construct them was easy. Place the right sides together. Sew up three sides. Leave the fourth side open so that you can add the stuffing. Turn it inside out. Then stuff with whatever you want... I used old nylon stockings. When the stuffing is in, simply sew up the seam. Use a whipstitch or a blindstitch that you can't see. For a custom-made touch, I fringed them with bright yarn. They looked so professional. I really am proud of myself.

Susan Haydon

A HINT OF TINT
DEAR HELOISE:
I recently needed to tint some frosting for a birthday cake, but the red food coloring had dried in the bottom of the bottle. Diluting it with water would have given me too much moisture. So I put the vanilla (needed in the recipe) right in the coloring bottle. This diluted just enough color for the frosting. Worked perfectly.
Nina B. Perry

PEERLESS IDEA
DEAR HELOISE:
I discovered the greatest way to correctly read my glass measuring cup. It seems so simple I can't believe I just discovered it. Simply look at the mark inside the cup on the side farthest away from yourself. The measurement is perfect. I tested this out by stooping and by standing on a stack of three books. The measure never varied. Hope this will be helpful to you and your readers.
Julia Switlick

SHORTCUT SHORTCAKE
DEAR HELOISE:
I came upon a marvelous idea for a family treat. It is so quick and easy. I take a packaged cream-filled sponge cake. Cut it lengthwise. Place both halves on a plate. Top this with strawberries. Presto! Strawberry shortcake. Mom loves it because it is so simple.

MAKIN' BACON
DEAR HELOISE:
I've discovered if I slide the cooked bacon on its draining paper under the electric skillet while I'm cooking the eggs, the bacon will stay warm. This really solves the cooled bacon problem with so little effort.
Mrs. J. F. Gmadt

MY DEAR DAUGHTER
DEAR HELOISE:
On my daughter's first birthday, I wrote her a letter reviewing events of her very important first year. I included the special little moments, accomplishments, and fun times, as well as serious ones. Most important of all, I thanked her for filling our lives with so much happiness. After sealing the letter, it was put with her other mementos. I plan to give the letter to her on a special occasion, such as her wedding day or at the birth of her first child.

Eva Knore

I can just hear so many of you say... "Wish I'd thought of that!"
New mothers, take note. Beautiful thought...
Heloise

COIN THE PHRASES
DEAR HELOISE:
I'm a coin collector. Stamp fans and other different collectors might also use this idea. When I started seeing all those articles about Eisenhower dollars, I decided to start a separate scrapbook to go along with my collection. Pictures, notes, and other material on the subject, in addition to articles, can be added. I think this adds a lot of interest to your collection.

● BREATHAKER! Don't hold your breath for this. A person normally breathes _____ times per minute. FILL BLANK. Hint: Answer's between 5 and 30.

● Doggone! Five years ago my older sister was five times as old as my dog, but now she's only three times as old. How old is my dog?

● Hold a pencil between your teeth. Clasp your hands behind your back. Announce that you will transfer the pencil to a pocket in your jeans. How can this be done?

THIS is a toughie. Object is to insert the numbers 1 through 5 in blank spaces of the diagram above so that when totalled in any direction — horizontally, vertically or diagonally — the sum will be 15. Oh yes, there's one more rule: Each row must contain all five numbers in all directions.

One diagonal row is already inserted, and as a further clue, let it be known that numbers 2 and 4 occupy lower left and upper right corners, respectively. No fair peeking below.

TWO of the scarecrows in the diagram above won a prize — not for beauty, but for looking most nearly alike. Which two?
