

Garcia Found Guilty, Gets 5 Years

Jury Deliberates 13 Hours In Returning Verdict And Sentence

By DON RICHARDS
Brand News Editor

A 38-year-old Lubbock man was convicted of murder with malice and handed a five-year prison term Friday by a 6th District jury here after a marathon 13-hour deliberation period.

The six-man, six-woman jury assessed the penalty and denied probation to Luis R. Garcia to climax the four-day trial in Deaf Smith County district courtroom.

Garcia, father of nine children and owner of a Lubbock tortilla factory, set at the defense table and continued to look straight ahead without changing expression as Judge Archie S. McDonald read the findings of the jury.

Garcia had been charged with the November 7 slaying of his wife, Victoria, 34, on a street in west Hereford. Mrs. Garcia was found lying face-up with one bullet wound in her face on west Lake Street after an extensive search by Deaf Smith County law officials.

THE JURY spent eight hours in deliberation Thursday in finding Garcia guilty in the case. Jurors stayed almost four more hours that night and then returned for another hour Friday before delivering the five-year punishment.

Jurors started deliberation about 1:30 p.m. Thursday and deliberated continuously until just before 9:30 p.m. when they returned the murder with malice decision.

The 12-member jury then listened to arguments for probation until 10 p.m. when they were locked up to determine punishment. Three and one-half hours later at 1:30 a.m. Friday, jurors told Judge McDonald they were deadlocked at 11-1 and after discussion among themselves said they would resume deliberation at 1 p.m. Friday.

AFTER THE five-year sentence was announced, Defense Atty. John O'Shea requested Judge McDonald grant the defense the 10-day period before formal sentencing and said a motion of appeal will be filed. The defense attorney then escorted Garcia outside to a car and both were unavailable for comment.

McDonald allowed Garcia to remain free on his $5,000 bond until future motions are filed or future action of the court.

The decision by the jury climaxed the four day trial which centered around testimony concerning a chase involving Garcia's pickup and a car in which Mrs. Garcia and another man were riding. The shooting incident allegedly occurred when Garcia blocked the second vehicle on west Lake Street where the street deadends.

GARCIA DID NOT testify in his own defense during regular trial testimony, but took the stand late Thursday night after he had been found guilty in an attempt to gain a probation term from jurors.

O'Shea asked Garcia if he wanted to talk to jurors to ask for probation.

Garcia, who had held his sober expression during the

Trustees Approve Bond Sale

School Board Pushes Toward Elementary Construction

Hereford School Board, in a special meeting Saturday morning, approved the sale of a $150,000 un-used bond issue from 1966 for the purpose of using the funds on construction of a new elementary school building.

Trustees then opened bids on the bonds and approved sale at an interest rate of 4.75 per cent to First National Bank of Hereford. The school's financial advisor had secured bids in advance, in order that the board could take action if the bond sale was approved.

BOB DAVIS, financial advisor from Columbian Securities, explained the bond situation to the board before any action was taken. The unused bonds had been voted for building purposes in 1966, and carried a clause that interest could not exceed 5 per cent.

With the escalating costs, trustees were concerned about having sufficient funds to build the proposed new elementary building with funds from current bonds. They were also advised that, with rising interest rates, the unused bonds might not sell under the 5 per cent rate in the future.

Three bids were received on the bonds, and Davis called them "real good" bids. The other two bids were Columbian Securities, 4.7754 per cent; and First National Bank of Abilene, 4.80 per cent.

THE BOND maturing schedule calls for an eight-year period with $5,000 maturing in 1974, $15,000 the next two years, $20,000 each in 1977-78, and $25,000 each of the final three years.

The school board also looked over the basic floor plan proposed for the new elementary building, with architect Herb Brasher showing some minor changes suggested by principals in the system.

The facility includes approximately 41,200 square feet of floor space.

Asked about the timetable on the project, Supt. Roy Hartman estimated completion in early 1975 if things move at a normal pace. It might be the fall of 1975 before classes start in the new building.

ONE TRUSTEE noted that a number of citizens had asked about the boundary lines for the new school, and Hartman said he thought it was too early to make a decision on that matter.

Two policy matters came up for PUTTING OUT a special edition of a newspaper is kinda like getting married, you don't know what the end result will be.

The Brand staff is getting more and more involved in the production of a special Diamond Jubilee edition, which is scheduled for publication Aug. 23. When the going seems easy, check to make sure you're not going downhill.

Don't forget the "tug-of-war" contest on Tierra Blanca Creek today. Should be a lot of fun and Jubilee planners are urging citizens to put on their pioneer apparel, fix up a picnic basket, or whatever, and watch the fun.

In Miss Texas Pageant

Sandy, Sherry, Fare Well

Hereford beauties Sherry White and Sandy Caison were both among the top finishers going into Saturday night's finals of the Miss Texas contest in Fort Worth.

Miss Caison, Miss Hereford of 1973, won her division of the talent contest Friday night to send her into the finals last night.

Miss White, this year's Miss Lubbock and who was Miss Hereford 1972, also won her division of the talent contest Thursday night and then also captured top spot in her swim suit division competition Friday night.

A large crowd was expected in Hereford's Community Center Saturday night as local residents were able to watch both girls during the finals of the Miss Texas pageant. Hereford's Cablevision provided cable extension for the center and open the doors for the public to view the competition. No television station in the area aired the live program.

Taylor's Furniture and Roberts' Appliance furnished four color televisions for the special program.

Both girls were expected to have excellent opportunities for top spots in the annual pageant, but results were unavailable at press time Saturday.

Winner of the Miss Texas contest will represent the state in the annual Miss America contest in Atlantic City, N.J.

Miss Caison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Caison and Miss White is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond White.

Girls from the Whiteface and the Borger campuses will be guests Tuesday night, and they will be escorted by a Lions Club member and his wife. The expenses for the trip to Hereford and a supper Tuesday evening will also be paid by the Lions Club. The escorts will furnish carnival expenses, and Gene Grady said that last year's Lions Club Carnival was a record year, almost doubling the proceeds of the previous year, selling 40,689 tickets at the carnival. Grady also wanted to express appreciation for the work that the wives of the Lions Club members did at the carnival last year.

SBA Advises Hereford Businessmen

By STEVE CONNELLY
Staff Writer

Two members of the Small Business Administrations (SBA) met with local businessmen Thursday night at the Community Center giving advice on managing small businesses.

Twelve Hereford businessmen were on hand as Millard A. Townsend and O. G. Bates of SBA and the Service Corp of Retired Executives (SCORE) gave advice on how to effectively manage a business and how to sell their products.

O. G. Bates substituted for J. B. Hare of SBA who was not able to come because of an illness.

SBA BEGAN in 1953 when the Small Business Act was passed, and was created in an effort to help communities through financial aids and management assistance by its several programs.

SCORE is a body of retired executives who try to help small businessmen by giving advice through their own knowledge of how a business is effectively operated.

These two groups not only give lectures, but will give sound personal advice to small businessmen in trouble.

Townsend began by giving an introduction to SBA and SCORE. He then stated the importance of the Chamber of Commerce in small towns, and said that the "Chamber of Commerce has been very instrumental in bringing in new business."

TOWNSEND endorsed the efforts of businessmen who are trying to "keep the money in Hereford," but said that there is little businessmen can do to keep all of the people from going out of town to buy. But said that local businessmen should try to keep all the business they can.

The purpose of the lectures, according to Townsend, was to approach problems by learning to apply better business techniques, but he later stated that he and Bates were "not here to give you a magic pill."

Bates began his portion of the lecture, which was entitled the "Master Keys to Success", and said that the most important of these keys was management skills.

THE REASONS he gave for poor management were lack of knowledge, not enough experience, or the wrong experience, and "just plain incompetence."

Bates said incompetence was the most common problem, and it is estimated there are only seven out of every 100 businessmen who have enough talent to run a successful business. He said the other 93 follow their plans.

Bates then stated the importance of administrative skills, planning skills, and customer relationships.

Good planning is important because you must be able to see into the future, not only your needs, but the needs of the community.

He later stated that a sign of good management skills is being able to solve a problem with the least expense.

BUSINESS personality was another quality he stressed, and he said that businessmen must have a successful appearance, and they must "look, act, and feel successful to be successful."

He furthered his statement by saying that the attitude of the employees is just as important as the attitude of the employer. He said good manners with customers is the most important key to good customer relationships.

Bates relayed to the audience that "management attitude is, nine times out of 10, reflected by the personnel. Businessmen should visualize and plan, looking to the future, never the past."

He stated that good management brings out the best in the business and in the employees, all of which reflects on the outcome of the business.

He said all should strive for 100 per cent perfection, even though you can not reach it, and to set a goal and stick to it.

ANOTHER important key to success, he stated, is to know your breakeven point. The formula he gave for finding the break-even point is to "divide the gross profit by the net sales, which will give a per cent. Then divide this per cent into operating expenses, and this will give the break-even point."

In conclusion, Bates said that "all businesses have to make a balance sheet, but that the most important thing is left off. People—customers and employees."

Townsend then spoke on businessmen,

Needed: One Queen

Officials of the 75th Diamond Jubilee Celebration are making plans to make the Jubilee Queen the "Queen of Queens in the history of Hereford."

The contest committee announced this week that the age limits of eligible women contestants has been changed and the deadline extended. Eligible to be nominated will be females who will not be younger than 16 years or older than 160 years by Dec. 31, 1973.

Duties of the Queen will be that of Hereford's ambassador during the celebration week. She will greet all dignitaries, including the governor, as well as reign over all special events planned during the special week.

Prizes have been compiled by the Jubilee committee totaling more than $4,000 with first prize being an all-expense paid trip to Miami, Beach, Fla. The trip will be for two at the Sea Isle Motel for seven days and six nights.

Additional prizes in the Queen's contest will be announced during the contest kickoff July 31 at the Community Center. Persons wishing further information or wishing to nominate themselves or other persons should contact Jubilee Headquarters, 364-1898.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

"People in Washington just don't seem to catch onto the secret of high employment. It might be better to work for a little less than to continue crowded welfare rolls. Unemployment increased when the minimum was raised the last time, and it will increase when it is raised...this time, because many employers find they can do without some of the extra help. This is especially so in small communities."

Burglaries, Arrest Problem, Accidents Reported During Busy Local Police Week

By STEVE CONNELLY Staff Writer

The Hereford Police Department was busy this week handling a few burglaries, and one patrolman reportedly was attacked by a suspect being held in the Hereford Police Station.

Sgt. Oscar Martinez was injured Thursday night by a suspect in City Hall and was taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital where he was treated for wounds to the throat. Martinez was released that same night.

The suspect had been arrested for disorderly conduct and was inside the Police Department at the time of the incident. He reportedly attempted to walk out of the building when the affray began. A struggle broke out between Martinez and the man before two other officers were able to assist in the arrest. The man was then placed under arrest for the disorderly charge and also for assaulting a police officer.

A burglary was reported at Boyd Machine and Supply Company Tuesday at 11:15 a.m.

"Dub" Boyd, owner of the shop, told officers a chain hoist and a radiator were stolen from the bed of a 1967 GMC pickup which was in the parking lot of the business. The hoist was valued at $50 and the radiator, $45. Leads on the theft are pending investigation.

Herb's Automatic Laundry reported the theft of two permanent press racks sometime during Tuesday night. The racks were valued at $70 each.

Mall Improvements Proposed

Plans for some improvements at Sugarland Mall — along with a proposal for a $3 million expansion program — were revealed in Hereford this week by a representative of Preble Properties, owners of the Mall.

Mrs. Bun Wolf, special investigator for Preble Properties, said the Mall was the company's first acquisition here but, after studying the potential of the community the past week, she was recommending "an expansion of $3 million — or more — in new business and industry."

SHE EXPLAINED the recommendation was made in a telephone conversation this week with Michael Staver, president of Guyer-Staver Investment Co. of Dallas, owners of Preble Properties.

"I believe Mr. Staver would like to be a part of the future growth of Hereford," she commented. "He was raised on a Navajo Indian reservation and he loves and believes in the development of what some call rural America."

MRS. WOLF SAID she had made recommendations for some immediate improvements at the Mall. Re-striping of the parking area was scheduled to be completed by the weekend, and other improvements planned as soon as weather permits. She announced the Mall would begin staying open until 9 p.m. on Thursdays.

She also added that action was being initiated to fill several vacancies at the Mall. "Pizza Inn has submitted a lease contract to Preble Properties, and it is now under consideration," she stated.

REFERRING TO her study of the community the past week, Mrs. Wolf said she was "very favorably impressed" with the people with whom she visited. Many of the business people are young, she noted, and "all eager and positive with no negativeness."

"I found that the people reflect a forward-moving attitude, and I believe anyone who is fortunate enough to live in Hereford or Deaf Smith County has many reasons to be proud," she concluded.

No suspects have been arrested so far.

A burglary at Kim's Fried Chicken, 811 Park, was believed to have been committed about 3 a.m. Thursday, in which about $28 worth of change was stolen from the cash box.

The back window of the establishment was broken, and the cash box had been broken into. The checks in the cash box had been left at the scene. Solution to the case is pending investigation, possibly involving a juvenile.

Tommy Deas, 120 Cherokee, summoned an ambulance when a neighbor, Mrs. Nancy Russell, 119 Cherokee had been electrocuted by a hedge trimmer. The cord was believed to have been chewed by a dog, and Mrs. Russell came in contact with the electricity. She was taken to Deaf Smith General Hospital Wednesday, about 1 p.m. when the accident occurred, and was released Thursday.

Five accidents were reported since Tuesday, none of which were serious.

An accident on Park Avenue, 60 feet west of Avenue K, was reported Tuesday at 2:25 p.m. to the Hereford Police Department.

A 1973 Buick, driven by James M. Bridges, 605 Ave. K, was parked at the side of a 1964 Plymouth, driven by Ramona B. Longoria, 505 Whittier.

The Longoria car was stopped behind several cars which were stopped at a traffic signal. When the Longoria car apparently started to back up, the two cars collided.

Another accident occurred involving three cars at Park Avenue, about 86 feet west of Irving Street, Tuesday at 10 p.m.

The three cars and their owners were a 1973 Chevrolet pick-up, driven by H. F. Robinson, 212 Western; a 1973 Chevrolet pick-up, driven by Wayne K. Bass, Rt. 2, Hart; and a 1967 Buick, driven by George Straskulic, 127 Ave. A.

The Robinson pick-up was turning into H & W Implement Company, and the Bass pick-up had stopped behind Robinson. The Straskulic car collided with the Bass pick-up, which collided with the Robinson pick-up.

An accident occurred Thursday, about 3 p.m., at the corner of 25 Mile Avenue and Park Avenue involving a small car and a pick-up.

A 1972 Toyota, driven by Vicki Lynn Kuykendall, 8511 Franklin Dr., Denver, Colo., was going east on Park Avenue and was in the middle of the intersection at the time of the incident.

A 1963 Chevrolet, driven by Joe Lee Russ, Grand Avenue Apt. 28, proceeded into the intersection as he was going north. The Kuykendall car had the door and back panel crushed as a result of the accident.

An accident occurred in the Taylor and Son's Grocery Store parking lot Thursday at 9:45 p.m.

A 1973 Ford, owned by William S. Reinauer, 127 Mimosa, was parked on the south side of the store, and a 1963 Chevrolet, driven by Redolpho Pena, Carizozo Springs, collided with the left rear of the Reinauer car.

Another accident occurred sometime Thursday as a 1965 Pontiac, driven by James Oguin, 215 Ave. I, had parked his car in the parking lot of Taylor and Son's Grocery Store on the east side at 6 p.m. Thursday.

He returned at 11 p.m. to find that his car had been damaged, apparently by another unknown car.

Other action in the police department chiefly involved family disturbances, obscene phone calls, and reports of stolen bicycles.

Police investigators arrested one juvenile Friday afternoon in connection with several obscene phone calls.

CC Reviews Bylaws

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce board of directors Thursday reviewed changes to its bylaws and approved the building of a new conference table.

R. C. Hoelscher, chairman of a committee to revise the bylaws, went through the proposed changes for board approval before they are submitted to chamber membership for final vote.

The board membership was set at 14 in the bylaws with 12 members elected and the past president of the chamber and a representative of the Women's Division taking the other two places.

Dates of nomination of officers was changed and election of officers was moved up a month. Several articles were added to bylaws at the suggestion of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Serving on the revision committee with Hoelscher were Larry Wartes, and Terry Caviness.

Board members voted to have Byron Terrell build a new conference table for the board room. The new table will be 16-feet long and five feet wide in the center and taper to three feet at both ends.

Directors also voted that future awards by the chamber of the Hereford Bull award must have board approval. The suggestion was made by president Jim Conkright and directors accepted it.

Chamber manager Bill Albright made a membership report and reported of the two new industries recently locating in Hereford — Grain Handling Corporation and Hereford Pure Milk Company.

Conkright suggested the Chamber write to the U. S. Chamber protesting recent stands by the U. S. Chamber concerning agriculture.

Albright announced a tour of Texas A&M representatives to be here soon; a tour of Catholic children; Iowa Farm Bureau tour and a Soil Conservation Service planned tour of Hereford.

The Board approved plans for Albright to sell one printing machine and attempt to fine one to give better service.

Conkright announced the planned meeting of 4-4A coaches in Hereford August 10 and the golf tourney scheduled for coaches and news media.

County To Discuss Full Agenda Monday

Deaf Smith County Commissioners will face a full agenda when they meet in regular session at 10 a.m. Monday in county courthouse.

First item for consideration will be a request from the Rev. Boniface to use the Bull Barn for a Mexican Independence Day Dance.

Commissioners are then expected to discuss a clothing allowance for officers of the Sheriff's department and then talk about the food stamp program of the State Welfare Department.

Representatives of King's Manor in Hereford will also meet with the county concerning a paving project at the retirement center.

Discussion of jail planning and management improvement under the Criminal Justice Council will be discussed along with an item concerning a water line in Precinct No. 4.

Final listed item on the agenda concerns a visit by Nell Miller concerning the old library.

Bronco Playoffs

Final results of Saturday's playoff games in Bronco League were not available at press time, but Altus, Okla., was leading with two wins.

Altus had beaten Hereford's National League All-Stars 12-7 Thursday night. The Oklahoma team then defeated the Hereford American team 5-0 Friday night.

Hereford's two teams were to play each other Saturday evening with the winner playing Altus again Saturday night.

Depending on the Altus-Hereford game Saturday night, should Hereford win the game, a final playoff series will be held at 2 p.m. today in Bronco Park.

However, if Altus won the Saturday night game then the Oklahoma team would win the double elimination tournament without having to play today's scheduled game.

These crashes resulted in one person killed and two persons injured.

The one fatality in the county involved the death of Jeff Coleman, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Coleman. The youth was riding his motorcycle near his home 24 miles west of Hereford when the cycle collided with a vehicle driven by a neighbor.

Young Coleman was dead on arrival at a Friona hospital.

Rocking Chair Marathon To Begin Friday Night

The Rocking Chair Marathon of the 75th Diamond Jubilee Celebration will "rock-off" at 8:30 p.m. Friday in front of Jubilee Headquarters across the street west of the courthouse.

The marathon is open to all ages and entries already range from a six-year-old to a 67-year-old grandmother. Prize for first place in the contest is $300 in cash for the persons who rocks the longest continual amount of time.

Prizes will also be given to the persons who notably rock the longest, but also to those with the best decorated rocking chairs and the oldest and youngest entries.

Cash prizes totaling to $263.71 will also be given to the next four finishers behind the winner.

Entry fee for the contest is $15 and officials of the Jubilee report several merchants willing to pay the entry fee for persons wishing to enter the contest. Persons interested in participating should contact the Jubilee Headquarters.

Jubilee officials have commented that more young females are entering the contest than young males.

Contest rules allow contestants to take periodic breaks for eating and "other necessities." The contest will be held on Sampson Street west of the courthouse in front of Jubilee Headquarters and officials have obtained permission from Hereford City officials to close the street.

'Jolly little tune' brought from China

Eric Bravington, managing director of the London Philharmonic Orchestra, which returned to London recently after a successful five-concert tour of China, says the orchestra will make a pop recording of part of a Chinese ballet, a "jolly little tune which should hit the charts."

"It's called 'The Happy Women Fighters,'" he said, "and comes from a post-cultural revolutionary ballet entitled 'The Red Detachment of Women.'"

Stop grain and silage losses with FURADAN 10 Granules from Chemagro.

A new infestation of Southwestern corn borer is spreading northward. It is likely to be a new problem in this area this year. An infestation of borers now and wet weather this fall could mean serious lodging and the heavy losses and harvesting problems that go with it.

With the high price of corn and the shortage of quality silage, this is one year you can't afford any lodging losses.

Check your fields now. Inspect them regularly. When you find borers, call your chemical dealer or aerial applicator for FURADAN 10 Granules from Chemagro. Chemagro Division of Baychem Corporation, Box 4913, Kansas City, Missouri 64120.

Garcia Found Guilty, Gets 5 Years

majority of the trial, had difficulty talking to jurors as his voice began breaking. He said he felt the jury had failed in the case, but asked them to forgive him and then thanked them for their many hours of work.

Criminal Dist. Atty. Andy Shuval, prosecutor in the case, then asked Garcia if he (Garcia) was sorry for killing Mrs. Garcia.

"If you put it that way, yes, I am," said Garcia. Neither he nor his attorney had ever before admitted that Garcia actually did the shooting.

SHUVAL THEN did not ask the jury to grant probation but did say that "one of the best risks for probation is a man who commits murder of one he has known. He has to live with that the rest of his life. This man has nine children to remind him" (of the death of Mrs. Garcia).

However, jurors denied the probation and each again agreed with the verdict after O'Shea asked the judge to poll the jury.

Key witnesses for the state were Cecil Sanchez, a Lubbock part-time bartender who was working in Dumas at the time of the incident; and Frank Martinez, son-in-law of Garcia.

Sanchez Testimony

Sanchez, 32, first witness of the trial, testified through interpreter Paul Abalos of Hereford, and stated that Mrs. Garcia came to Dumas to ask him for help. He said she went to Dumas police and identified herself as his sister. Under cross examination Sanchez also said another report identified her as his wife.

The former bartender said he had met Mrs. Garcia through his wife (Mrs. Sanchez) and said that Mrs. Garcia asked for a ride from Dumas to Hereford to visit her brother.

SANCHEZ SAID he was driving his brother's car and pulled up to the intersection of U.S. 60 and U.S. 385 when Mrs. Garcia told him her husband was following them in his pickup. Sanchez said he speeded up and tried to lose Garcia after Mrs. Garcia said she was afraid of him (Garcia) and did not want to stop.

Sanchez, unfamiliar with Hereford streets, said he turned west on Lake Street and ran into the dead end. He said Garcia then blocked his way as he tried to turn around.

Sanchez said the vehicles were facing at an angle and with the headlights of the car to each other and he definitely saw Garcia step from the pickup with a gun and start shooting at the windshield of the car. Sanchez denied shooting back with a .38 pistol he had under the car's floor mat, but said he ran from the car to nearby weeds and said he expected Mrs. Garcia was doing the same.

SANCHEZ SAID several shots were fired while he was running and that he stayed in the weeds "about two hours" before he circled the car and came back to it. He said his gun was lying on the seat and that Mrs. Garcia was lying on the ground beside the driver's side of the car.

Sanchez testified he then drove the car out of town and got lost and ended up in Tucumcari, N.M. He then headed to Amarillo, but said he ran out of gas at Adrian and had to hitchhike to Amarillo and on to Dumas where he turned himself in to Dumas authorities.

Under cross examination by O'Shea, Sanchez denied he and Mrs. Garcia had been having an affair for the few weeks before her death. He said he had seen her in the Lubbock nightclub where he tended bar, but also denied any other relationship other than an acquaintance.

Martinez Testimony

Martinez, was riding in the Garcia pickup along with his wife, Dianna, who is one of Garcia's nine children, and testified that the trio left Lubbock late the night of November 6 to "go to Hereford to pick up my mother-in-law." He said the three drove into Hereford and saw a car in which Mrs. Garcia was "sitting real close" to the driver who he said was Sanchez.

Martinez said when the vehicles stopped at the end of Lake Street Garcia stepped from the pickup and headed for the car. Martinez said he heard a shot and then Garcia returned to the pickup to get a pistol from the cab. Martinez said he then heard a lot of shooting and then saw Sanchez run for the field.

He said his father-in-law then returned to the pickup for a shotgun to "hunt that man Sanchez in the field."

Under examination by Shuval, Martinez said he had been mistaken earlier when he told officials in a sworn statement that he saw Garcia walk over to the open door of the car, "sort of lean over, and shoot again." Shuval pointed out that Martinez's story Wednesday differed from earlier ones he had told officers immediately after the shooting and to the grand jury.

Shuval also added that Martinez had said earlier that Garcia took the pistol with him the first time he left the pickup.

The son-in-law of the defendant also said he had seen Sanchez and Mrs. Garcia "dancing real close" in the Lubbock night club several weeks before the incident.

Special Testimony

Also testifying was Sheriff's Deputy Art Burton who said he found a portion of a .38 bullet in the ground near Mrs. Garcia's head.

The Sanchez vehicle, found near Adrian, had three bullet holes in the front windshield and the Sanchez gun in the car had one spent cartridge.

FBI special laboratory agents testified lab tests showed the bullet in the ground had windshield glass on it and that the bullet in Mrs. Garcia's head did not.

Police officer Norman Neece testified he watched an Amarillo pathologist remove a .38 slug from Mrs. Garcia's face and was verified later by the pathologist's testimony.

O'SHEA PRESENTED four character witnesses for Garcia. Three of them testified they had seen Garcia in church about 10 p.m. the night of the incident. Mrs. Garcia was killed shortly after midnight that night.

O'Shea also presented a stipulation in fact from another FBI agent that lab tests showed traces of semen on Mrs. Garcia's panties and panty hose. However, the tests were unable to determine the age of the stains.

O'Shea rested the defense case about 6 p.m. — only about half an hour after Shuval rested the state's case.

Final Arguments

Shuval told jurors in final arguments that Garcia "knew what he was doing when he left Lubbock with a pistol and a shotgun." The district attorney then brought O'Shea and Garcia both to their feet as he gave his "reasonable deduction" as to exact events the night of the incident.

"I believe Garcia went around the car and shot Mrs. Garcia," Shuval said. "He then got the shotgun and hunted Sanchez. He then came back to the car and (taking a big step in front of the jury) stepped over the body of Mrs. Garcia to turn off the lights of Sanchez's car."

Garcia came up out of his chair shaking his head as O'Shea objected to the judge. However, Shuval was allowed to continue and O'Shea was told he would have his turn for final arguments.

"IF GARCIA just wanted to bring back his wife would he need a pistol and a shotgun," said Shuval. "Also why did he not report to police instead of going back to Lubbock and leaving his wife lying in the road?"

Garcia turned himself in to Lubbock authorities the next day after Mrs. Garcia's body was found.

O'SHEA TOLD jurors that the state had not proved Garcia was actually the man that fired the bullet that killed Mrs. Garcia. He theorized Mrs. Garcia could have been killed in a cross-fire as Sanchez ran to the field with Garcia behind him.

The defense attorney also told jurors Mrs. Garcia had been enticed away from her home and children by "an illicit paramour."

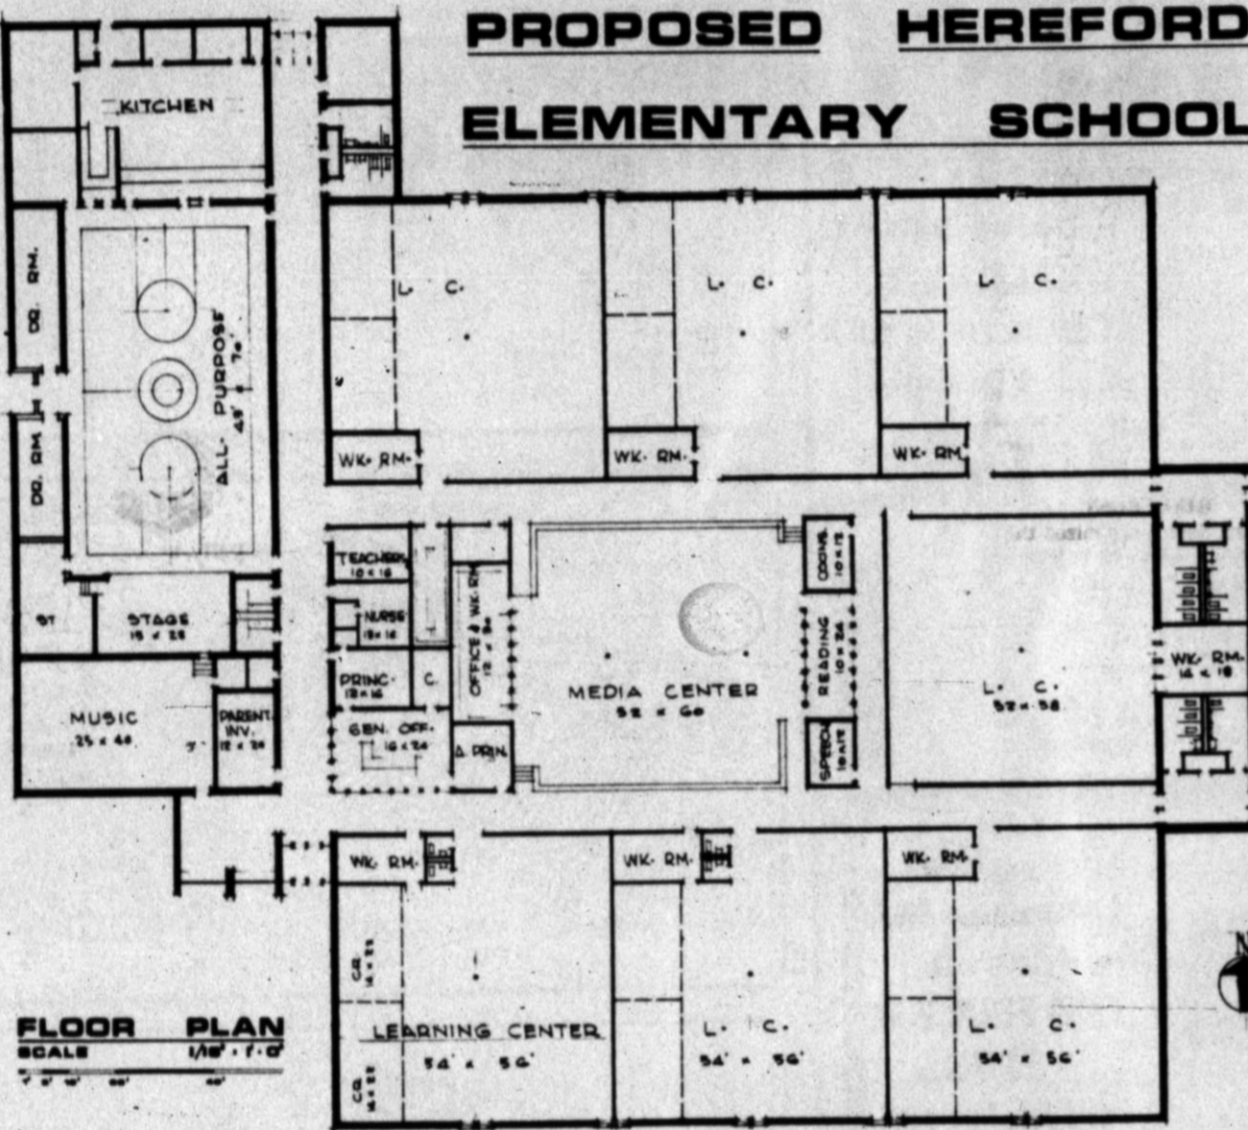

"Also why would Mrs. Garcia have to go all the way past Hereford to Dumas just to ask for a ride back to Hereford," O'Shea said. "And if Garcia were leaving Lubbock to go to Hereford with fatal mischief on his mind, then why did he bring two witnesses with him?"

HIGHLIGHT of final arguments was when shouting broke out between Shuval and O'Shea over a statement O'Shea was trying to read to jurors. Shuval objected because the statement had not been introduced during regular testimony. O'Shea shouted back that it had.

McDonald told both men to control themselves and then asked the jury to leave. Searching back testimony in the court reporter's records indicated the statement was not allowable.

O'Shea told jurors at the end of the trial he was somewhat disappointed at the verdict, but that he would accept it. He did say several motions would be filed within the next 10-day period, including one for appeal.

The 12 members of the jury were paid $40 for their four days work as they were dismissed by Judge McDonald.

Past Events To Be Topic At 1973 Westway Reunion

Keepsake photographs and scrapbooks will supply much of the entertainment at the annual Westway reunion July 29 in the Westway Community Building, to which all residents, former residents and their friends are invited. Reminiscences sparked by the old pictures are expected to fill the afternoon, following a covered dish dinner at noon. The reunion is scheduled to begin at 11 a.m. Residents of years ago will talk over incidents which have become classic stories in the community, like the 1924 Fourth of July rodeo and picnic held on a day so chilly that snow actually fell, but the participants had a good time in overcoats, Mrs. Paul Rudd remembers. Bussey Kaul is president of the reunion association this year. Mrs. Jack Renfro will be in charge of registering the crowd. Recognition will be given oldest and youngest Westwayans present, those who came farthest to the reunion and other notables. A brief business meeting will be held also, and officers for next year elected.

Another Challenge

Dr. Fox's Medicine Show and the Firehouse Fifteen are issuing a standing challenge to any Brothers of the Brush or Smoothies chapter for a banjo picking contest, guitar picking contest, fiddling contest, "juice" harp contest, harmonica contest, or a yodeling contest.
This is a standing challenge to continue through the Diamond Jubilee Celebration.

Concession Stands Needed

Lee Umsted, Chairman of the Concession Committee of the Revenue Division of the Diamond Jubilee Celebration announced a recent meeting of that committee for the purpose of formulating plans to set up concession stands at various Diamond Jubilee functions.
Also discussed was the possibility of arranging for a major soft drink company to be designated the "official drink" of the Celebration.
They want organizations interested in having concession stands during the Celebration to come to the Diamond Jubilee Headquarters to fill out an application. The Headquarters is in the old Draft Board Office located at 323 North Sampson Street.

Rocking Chair Marathon

The Rocking Chair Marathon is to begin soon, and Jubilee officials say they will find sponsors for those who do not already have sponsors.
Entrants are asked to sign up at the Diamond Jubilee Headquarters between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m. weekdays, and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday. The deadline for entering the contest will be Thursday at 5 p.m.
The Hereford City Commission has closed Sampson Street between 3rd and 4th Streets for the contest over the July 27-29 weekend, when the contest will be held.
Of those already entered, the ages range from six to 67. Officials would like to stress again that there can be no motorized or platform rockers in the marathon.

Aid In Jubilee Pageant Is Promised By Belles

Volunteers to take part in the historical pageant which will be a highlight of the Hereford DIAMOND Jubilee next month, were secured from the Belles of St. Anthony's as they met Friday afternoon in St. Anthony's parish school library.
A letter from Ed Line, pageant chairman, was read. Mmes. Mark Banner, Neil Lueb, Greg Banner and Allen Brockman indicated they will help in the event.
Dates of car caravans which Jubilee Belles will conduct were announced by Mrs. Mark Barner, who presided at the meeting. On Aug. 4 a caravan will go to Dimmitt, Friona and Bovina; Aug. 11, to Western Plaza in Amarillo and Vega; Aug. 16 to a performance of the musical, Texas.
Tentative plans were discussed for observance of Religious Day in Jubilee Week. Mrs. E. N. Reinart announced a meeting Thursday to make cornhusk dolls to sell in a booth. Another general meeting was set for the second week in August.
It was announced that several elementary school girls wish to organize a chapter of Belles, and others who would like to join are asked to notify the adult chapter.
Mrs. Walt Warren and Mrs. Elmer Reinart were hostesses for the meeting, where 12 were present.

Swimming And Eating In Vacation Spotlight

By Argen Draper

Home Demonstration Agent

SWIMMING, CANNING and eating seem to have the spotlight at the moment. Some helpful hints on all three. These should make vacation time easier.

SUNTAN LOTIONS often stain swimwear and clothing, so handle them with care. For instance, they react with protein fibers such as wool and silk, leaving permanent stains. Certain man-made fibers, on the other hand, have an affinity for oily or greasy stains. Because of this, they absorb and hold suntan lotion. These—and other fabrics—may stain permanently unless laundered promptly and properly.

For best results, hand wash swimsuits after each wearing—using warm water and mild detergent. Examine edges exposed to large amounts of suntan lotion and if necessary, scrub them.

If a stain remains after regular washing, test the fabric for possible use of a dry cleaning solvent. If found safe, sponge or spray stain with solvent and launder.

For stains on man-made fibers, use a commercial spray remover before using the spot remover. These aerosol spray products—basically grease-solvent—are ideal for washable, colorfast fabrics. Launder treated garments as soon as possible after spraying.

However, if a fabric can't be treated with solvent, pretreat it with a concentrated solution of detergent, then launder. To get maximum life from swimwear, treat it with care. Loving care, that is.

HINTS ON DYEING: Cotton and rayon dye like the color on the package; nylon and silk dye darker; wool dyes duller; polyester dyes lighter.

BLOSSOM DROP on tomato plants: The main reason for this is a variety that is not adapted to the area. It can also be caused by cold temperatures, hot temperatures, extremely dry weather or excessive nitrogen fertilization.

Little if anything can be done to remedy the situation and you can only wait for later flowers to produce fruit; rarely does a plant continue to drop its flowers. Sometimes sprinkling or fogging plants about dark will help the flowers to "set."

CANNING POTATOES. Use potatoes 1 to 2½ inches in diameter. Wash, pare and cook in boiling water 10 minutes. Drain and pack into hot jars. Pack to ½ inch of top of jar; cover with boiling water, leaving ½ inch headspace.

Process pints 30 minutes and quarts 40 minutes at 12 pounds pressure. This pressure is adjusted to altitude.

(In using instructions for canning raise pressure 2 pounds to adjust to altitude. That is, when instructions call for 10 pounds raise to 12.)

PICKLED ONION SLICES

4 qts. sliced onions
1 c. salt
2 c. sugar
¼ c. mustard seed
2½ T. prepared horseradish

Peel onions and slice in half inch slices. Cover onions with boiling water, let stand 2 minutes. Drain; dip in cold water. Sprinkle onions with salt; add cold water to cover. Let stand 12 to 18 hours in a cool place. Drain; rinse and drain thoroughly.

Combine sugar, mustard seed, horseradish and vinegar; simmer 15 minutes. Pack onion slices into hot clean jars, leaving ¼ inch head space, adding 1 pepper and 1 bay leaf to each jar.

Heat pickling liquid to boiling. Pour boiling hot, over onions. Adjust caps. Process pints 10 minutes in boiling-water-bath. Yield: 6 or 7 pints.

SBA Advises Hereford Businessmen

and said that the "small businessman is the unsung hero." He then said that businessmen must plan ahead and be able to change as the environment does.

He said there are no strict rules to success to follow in business, but that there are two basic principles to follow: "1. Businesses are fed by people, and 2. People want benefits." You must serve the public best to have a successful business, and be "a part of the community, not just living off the community."

He then stated the free enterprise system has not worked effectively since the depression, until the 60's. He said that this was a problem to the younger generation because they have not known how a business is run effectively because few businessmen have done this since the depression. He also said that "you can not apply college theories to real business", and that "you must transpose the philosophy of learning into the philosophy of living."

Townsend added that specialized skills are in more demand than a standard college education, and that "there is no substitute for knowledge."

He said that most people do not believe two-thirds of the advertising they read in magazines or see on television, and that they know that many businesses

"make products to make money, and not to fill the needs of the customer." He emphasized that honesty is an important part of business, and that businessmen do not have to resort to illegal practices to make a profit. "The world will pay for honesty, it's a premium."

IN CONCLUSION. Townsend said that businessmen should get together and work out problems collectively, and try to increase and improve their knowledge by discussion business practices.

Refreshments were served at the meeting, and Bates and Townsend gave advice to a few of the local businessmen after the meeting.

Learn to take life as it comes—prepare to be unprepared.

Sympathy is usually used for trading stock—one offers it to another for all the details.

Trying to do yesterday's work and tomorrow's worrying today is enough to break any man.

Hereford Native Visits After Living In Iran

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

MOTION LANGUAGE for "pencil sharpener" could present difficulties to an English-speaking shopper in Iran, but Suzy Masrou says her hand signs, accompanied by sound effects, were enough for the clerk in a Tehran store, who promptly produced the item she wanted.

After living a year in that Mideastern nation, Mrs. Masrou has learned enough of Farsi, the language spoken by the Iranians, to make her way around the shops in Tehran since most of the employees speak at least a smattering of English.

But occasionally she wants an item like the pencil sharpener, where short versions of the two languages don't supply the proper words; then she resorts to signs.

HERE FOR A VISIT with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Woodford of 216 Star, Mrs. Masrou tells of a life in Iran different from that seen by the tourist or even by Americans who live there several years as oil firm employees or U. S. government workers.

Her husband, Riaz Masrou, is a native of the country, a petroleum engineer who received his degree from Texas Tech where she also graduated, then taught in Lubbock schools several years. She and her daughter, Allyson, have been in Hereford about two weeks on their visit.

Adaptation to the foreign country was easier for her because she did not have the problem of immediately learning a new way of homemaking; the Masroues live in the home of his parents and she does the housework only in their apartment and does not have the job of meal preparation.

LIKE ALL AMERICANS who reside in the Moslem Mideast, she is impressed with the plentiful supply of household servants, remarking that "labor is the cheapest thing you can find in Tehran."

NO DIET NEEDED
Try living within your income—you'll find it is a very effective way to reduce.

ABE LINCOLN BEARD
Will This Be Your Beard Style For Hereford's 75th DIAMOND JUBILEE

English is a second language for people in that city, the capital of Iran with a population well over a million. French is also spoken commonly, but English is taught throughout the public school system.

Suzy Masrou teaches English in one of the language schools conducted by the Iranian government which sees the value of having its people speak the languages of the foreign business firms and tourists who add so much to the country's economy.

PRESERVATION OF Persian handicrafts is another interest of the government, also as a matter of economy. The former Hereford woman brought as gifts to her parents a collection of articles made in the Iranian Handicraft Center, which include weaving, colorful enamel, delicate filigree jewelry, hammered brass and silver tableware decorated with turquoise stones.

The Handicraft Center has lately opened a branch in New York City, and Mrs. Masrou says its stock has a great appeal for Americans.

Even though Americans are welcomed as customers, there is much anti-U.S. feeling in Iran, Mrs. Masrou notes with regret.

"The Young Persians blame the United States for everything that is wrong with their country and with the world in general, whether or not they can find any cause," she says. "But for some reason, the British are not in disfavor now."

"IT'S ODD TO HEAR

their tirades about the bad treatment of blacks and other minorities in the United States, with statements which aren't always factual, yet they see nothing wrong with their treatment of their own lower classes who are in much worse shape than American blacks.

"In fact the poorest people are so oppressed that they haven't yet realized their condition, and they wouldn't dare protest."

A stratified society under an autocratic government presents a very different way of living to anything the American woman had ever seen.

Another thing different, is that Iran is a Moslem nation and so businesses and schools observe the Moslem week, with Friday instead of Sunday as the holiday. Moslem rather than Christian holidays are celebrated, of course.

Allyson attends the Tehran American School, where the pupils are all from American families. It operates on the customary Moslem week, but closes on American holidays and also on the more important Moslem holidays.

Tehran is a city with handsome new buildings in western skyscraper style side by side with small adobe structures in the old Persian fashion. Many homes are built around courtyards in the style we think of as Spanish, Mrs. Masrou says.

Streets are often narrow and crowded with vendors of all sorts of goods, donkeys, and often herds of sheep or goats. Street vendors come to the homes also, so that almost any foods and household needs can be bought at one's own door.

"THEY ALSO BUY AND sell old clothes and do all sorts of repair jobs, so much of the buying and selling is done at home. Shops, even the larger and newer ones, are in European style, so you buy bread at one place, meat at another, vegetables another, instead of all at the supermarket.

A conversation with Suzy Masrou keeps revealing fascinating details about her new home and its people, so it is easy to stretch a visit with her into hours.

"We've kept her talking ever since she got here," her mother says, "and think we must have heard all the important things, but more than once every day she will mention something else that is so interesting we don't know why she has overlooked it! We can't get enough of hearing about her experiences."

The visitors hope to come to Hereford again next summer, with Masrou who could not take a long vacation this year but will be due several weeks' leave then.

Travlin Belles Chapter Named

Travlin Belles was chosen as a new belle chapter for the Diamond Jubilee Celebration by members of the Newcomers Club recently.

Elected as high bustle, Mrs. Homer Yocum; Silver Belle, Mrs. Guy Warden; Susy Quill, Mrs. Welty; sheriff, Reba Tucker; board of governors representative, Mrs. Gaylon Bryan.

Other members included Mmes. Ron Bridges, J. R. Thompson, Glenn Baxter, Gene Batterman, Iva Saltzman, Roger Kindler, Robert Brown, James Wansley, Jewel Curtis and Lou Gilster.

The Travlin Belles will hold their next meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Homer Yocum, 1014 E. Third, to discuss plans for the jubilee.

SALK VACCINE
On April 12, 1955, a report from the University of Michigan Polio Vaccine Evaluation Center declared the vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk was safe and effective.

PAYS DIVIDENDS
Constructive criticism has its good points, but self-criticism is the most profitable.

Summerfield 4-H Officers Elected

The Summerfield 4-H Club held a meeting this week, electing officers, and announced the results of a 4-H style show.

The newly elected officers are Beverly Edwards, president; Anita Almonza, vice-president; Stephanie Foster, secretary-treasurer; Kelly Foster, council delegate; Starla Kendal and Barbara Foster, song leaders; Sandra Brown, reporter; and Randy Harris and Allen McRight, telephone committee.

A County Dress Review was held in Nazareth recently, and a style show for the 4-H girls was held, with several of the girls winning ribbons.

Blue ribbon winners were Anita Almonza, Renee Dobbs, Lee Ann Dobbs, Kelly Foster, and Stephanie Foster. Beverly Edwards also won a red ribbon in the style show.

Members also announced that they are planning a "Play Day" in August, in which the children of Castro County will go to Palo Duro Canyon for a day. The members are also working on their yearbooks, which are due Friday, and their next meeting will be in September.

By Bill Albright, Executive Vice President
Deaf Smith County Chamber Of Commerce

Have you ever wondered, "What exactly is a Chamber of Commerce?"

Six months ago I would probably have said: "A Chamber of Commerce is a group of business people organized to improve their businesses". There is some element of truth to that statement since it is a group and it is organized to improve but it is much, much more.

A chamber is a group of citizens organized and working together to improve the economic, civic, and cultural well being of the community. Now that sounds like a noble undertaking — just what does it do and how does it do it?

Well, first of all, the chamber is a focal point for action and for information. As such, it provides the machinery through which people can work for community progress. Specifically, the chamber stimulates agricultural, industrial, and commercial growth. It actively promotes improvement of community facilities — streets, parks, schools, retail facilities, etc. It also conducts activities for the progress and benefit of the community. All these programs and projects are accomplished through committees composed of members of the Chamber. These members voluntarily contribute their time, energy, and money to help make Hereford a better place to live. The committees actively operating this year are Agriculture, Aviation, Area Development (Water and Transportation), Beautification, Crime Prevention, Culture and Religion, Education, Finance and Facility, Governmental Affairs, Hereford Hustlers', Industrial Development, Membership, Publicity, Retail Trade, Sports and Tourism. Obviously, there is a committee for every imaginable interest and each member is encouraged to actively serve where his interest leads him or her.

Yes, we do have distaff members — our Women's Division is composed of some 116 members, whose purpose is to support the chamber and its activities. The regular membership consists of more than 500 businesses and some 50 individual memberships. The membership is the chamber of commerce and the chamber represents our forward thinking

MORE ENTRIES are being added, Parade Chairman Harold Wheeler reports, with no deadline set. He invites those who have plans for entering the parade, or any inquiries about an entry, to contact him. And he emphasizes that there is no fee required of parade participants.

VEHICLE PROBLEM is no problem for Dawn Music Club members, who will drive a 1928 Ford sedan in the parade. They are simply borrowing it from three young men of their community who own it jointly: Jerry Stewart, Roy Johnson and

ROOMFUL OF ROSES is a song title, also a description of a storeroom on an upper floor of the county courthouse where flowers to decorate Deaf Smith County Library's float have been stored. The floor of the entire room was covered knee-deep as Sina Sims and Joan Waters, library pages, pour out another sackful of the paper blossoms which staff members have made in a rainbow of pastel colors.

THE WHOLE WORLD is being constructed in the church float. Workers completing the miniature by girls from the Acteans of Avenue Baptist Church, to be used as the central point of the framework are Bonnie Hix, Cynthia Thomas and Terri Greenwood.

PRELIMINARY WORK entails measuring the trailer borrowed from A.E. Hodges' farm, which La Madre Mia Study Club will use as the base of its float. Using the tape measure and writing down notes are, from left, Mmes. Dickie Gerles, Roger Williams, Bud Snyder and Dave Honea.

THE HANGING TREE, rumor says, will be the theme of the float prepared by Deaf Smith County Sheriff's Department, but the personnel there will only say they are calculatin' on the project. Wheeler, with Sheriff Travis McPherson and Deputy Leon Gorrell are puttin' their heads together to figger it out.

Miss Tonya Jayroe Is Bride Of Craig Poarch

The Church of The Nazarene was the setting for the marriage of Miss Tonya Denise Jayroe and Billy Craig Poarch Friday evening with the Rev. Max Jetton, pastor of the church, officiating.

Miss Jayroe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Jayroe, 124 Oak, and Poarch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Poarch, 220 Ranger. The couple stood beneath an archway of greenery topped with white doves and killian daisies. Palm trees and candelabra also decorated the church with white satin bows roping the aisles.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Dee Ann Douglas, with bridesmaids Miss Sharla Jayroe, cousin of the bride, and Miss Carla Crist. Serving as best man was Doug Poarch of El Paso, brother of the bridegroom, with groomsmen David Spinherne, Lawrence Brorman and another brother, Kim Poarch.

Shawna Umsted, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Umstead, and Dee Ann Poarch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Poarch of Kentucky, were flower girls. Todd Jetton, son of Rev. and Mrs. Jetton, acted as ringbearer with Kelli Robinson serving as candlelighter.

Virgil Slentz presented vocal selections, More and Never My Love, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Hacker playing the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white empire gown of bridal satin trimmed with lace. The bodice, neck, and sheer Juliet sleeves were accented in lace and the skirt bordered at the hemline.

Her floor length net veil was attached to a lace caplet and she carried a cascade of white daisy poms and babybreath. Her only jewelry was a pearl pin of her grandmother's.

Her attendants were attired in aqua crepe dresses with matching wide brim-hats. They also carried bouquets of white daisy poms and babybreath.

Mrs. Umsted served the three tiered-wedding cake decorated with ornament of white doves and a wedding band, at the reception. A bouquet of daisies and English ivy was arranged in the center of the bride's table.

Mrs. Virgil Slentz served punch with Miss Denise Poarch pouring coffee at the groom's table. Donna McNutt invited guests to the registry at the reception held at the Hereford Country Club.

The bride chose a green and white checked dress of cotton and polyester blend with matching shoes and hat as her traveling costume. A corsage was taken from her bouquet.

After a trip to points of interest in Colorado, the couple will be at home at 606 E. Fourth. A 1973 graduate of Hereford High School, the bride plans to attend West Texas State University this fall.

Poarch, a 1970 graduate of HHS, will be a senior at WTSU. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jayroe and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mobly of Amarillo.

HEREFORD MAN'S FIANCEE — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hoefflinger of Dalhart have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathie Von, to Jerry Bill Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. L.B. Russell of Hereford. The couple plans to marry August 18 at Faith Chapel in Canyon, where both are students in West Texas State University. Russell is a senior and his fiancée a sophomore.

MR. AND MRS. DAN Turrentine of Pacific Grove, Calif., are here visiting his mother, Mrs. Bess Werner, and his brother, George Turrentine, and family.

Texas, sophomore in the school of arts and sciences. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Hap Cavness.
The other honor student is Jana D. Trent, 705 N. Main, whose KU classification is exactly the same.

Their only worry was that the serving line moved so slowly, and with so many to be served that was a problem. However, it is really a tribute to the actual purpose of the lunch — letting the customers have a taste of dozens of different dishes.

AND SPEAKING of the Turrentines who live out toward Westway, reminds me of the Westway reunion which is to be held today and is expected to bring together a lot of ex-residents as well as people who still live in that community.

FOLKS WHO ATE lunch at the Tasting Spree Tuesday were unanimous in praising the ability of Hereford cooks who turned out the huge variety of mighty good food; and the directors were happy at the number of people who came.

But when each customer took his time to choose his selections, it made for slow movement. As one taster moaned, "Decisions! Decisions!"
Incidentally, I'm told that the youngest entrant in the contest for cooks was Kyle Bruton, aged 11.

Leta Kaul was busy this week getting some things ready for the day; said her son Bussy is the duly elected president of the reunion association, but she is his deputy.

This Western Jamboree will be one of the "special events" of the Diamond Jubilee Celebration of Hereford.

will be sold at the concession stand in the hall.
For a night of real fun, don't miss it!
Advance tickets are on sale now at Mary L. Spence Music Store, Jubilee Headquarters or from members of the two lodges. They will also be available at the door.
Ya'll come!

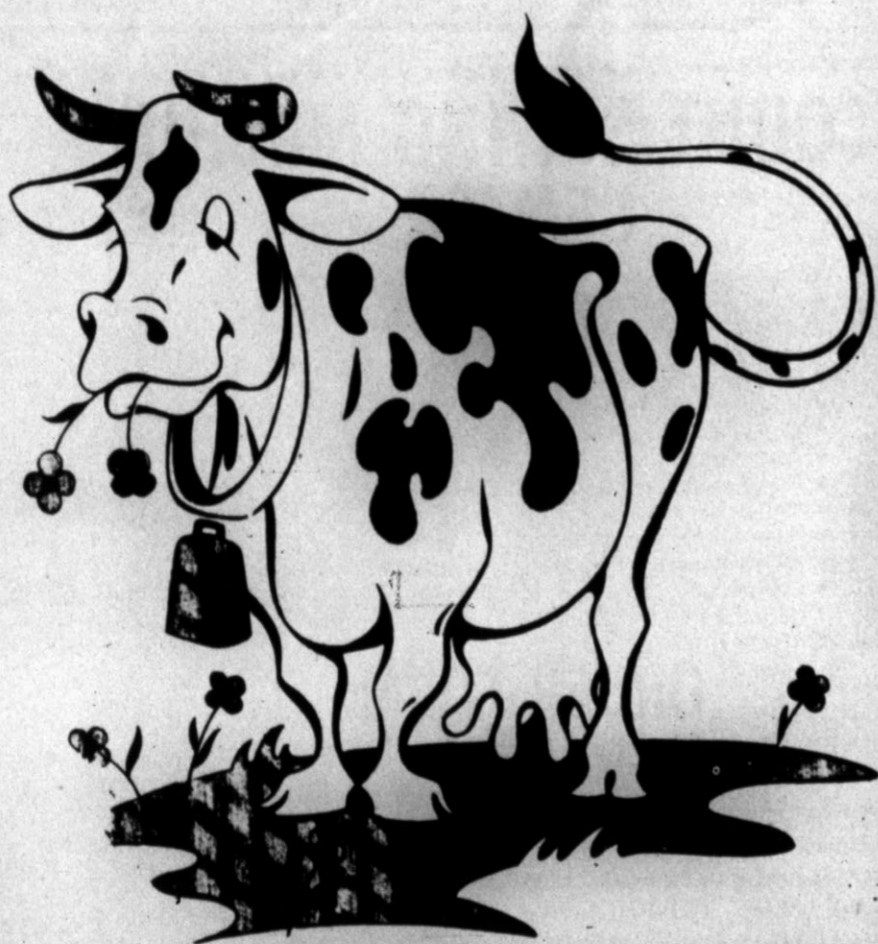

MRS. JOHN MOODY got back the middle of this week from Las Vegas, Nev., where she has been visiting in her daughter's home and welcoming a new grandson, Timothy Blaine Montgomery.
The baby's parents are the Rev. Quinton Montgomery, who is pastor of a Baptist church at the air base near Las Vegas, and Mrs. Montgomery, the former Linda Scott of Hereford.

Country and Western musicians, vocal or instrumental, are invited to take part in the program and may pick up free admission tickets at Mary L. Spence Music Store. General admission is $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12.

Wedding In Houston Is Read For Grebe-Cooper

Vows were exchanged in an afternoon wedding ceremony Saturday by Miss Pamela Sue Grebe and James Burke Cooper both of Houston, at St. Andrew Lutheran Church in Houston. The Rev. Charles Rathgeber of the church officiated.

Miss Grebe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Grebe of Houston and Cooper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cooper, 138 Mimosa.

Two arrangements of gladiolas, mums and mixed summer flowers decorated the church, with two globed spiral candelabra twined in smilax arranged at the altar. Family pews were marked with white bows and greenery.

Miss Cheryl Grebe served her sister as maid of honor and Mrs. Tom Robde of Houston was matron of honor. David Cooper, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Bridesmaids included Miss Pat Zuelke of Lubbock, Mrs. Joe Smith of Houston, Miss Clare Hogan of Dallas and Miss Pat Cooper, the bridegroom's sister.

Groomsmen were Robert Stoerkel and Joe Smith, both of Houston, Joe Yeager of Quanah, Lee Hobbs of Morgan City, La., and Mike Harvey of Dallas. Ushers included Tom Robde, Barry Hartman, the bride's cousin, and Larry King, all residents of Houston.

Monica and Tommy Robde were flower girl and ringbearer. Candelighters were Barry Hartman and Larry King.

Wedding Song and The Lord's Prayer were sung by Miss April Hansen, accompanied by Miss Sue Bynum, organist, who played other selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza with empire bodice of Venice lace. The gown was accented with a square neckline and Camelot sleeves.

Her veil of silk illusion was trimmed in matching lace. She carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses, babybreath, stephanotis and ivy.

Her attendants' pale yellow voile gowns were designed with empire waists, square necklines and short puffed sleeves. Moss green satin ribbons tied at the back of the dresses with streamers trailing to the hem of each gown.

Green ribbons were held at the back of the white picture hats with fresh daisies. Each attendant carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies.

Miss Renee Helmica of Houston invited guests to sign at the registry table at River Oaks Garden Club.

Candles and greenery on white lace tablecloths decorated the bride and bridegroom's tables. The tiered wedding cake was ornamented with pale yellow roses.

The couple will make their home after August 1 in Houston, after a wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco.

The bride attended Texas Tech in Lubbock three years before transferring to the University of Houston. She will graduate in December with a degree in education.

Cooper is a 1968 graduate of Hereford High School and received his BA and MBA degrees from Texas Tech. He is currently employed by Arthur Andersen and Co. in Houston.

Out-of-town guests present at the wedding were the bridegroom's grandparents, Crannell Tolliver of Canyon, Mrs. Brian Tolliver of Mountain View, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Byars of Canyon and Mrs. Sidney Colclazer of Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Cooper hosted the rehearsal dinner at Look's Sir Loin Inn Friday evening for members of the wedding party.

Learning To Speak Metric

The meter is coming! Sometime within the next few years, Congress will very likely pass legislation designed to smooth the transition from our present system of weights and measures to the metric system, used by most of the rest of the world.

Actually, the metric system has been legal for use in the United States since July 28, 1866. And its use here has been increasing rapidly in recent years.

SCIENTISTS and medical personnel have long used metric measurements because it is much easier to calculate when everything is in multiples of 10. Recent veterans are familiar with judging distance in meters, because the military services are shifting to metric standards for many purposes.

Most imported automobiles are built to metric standards. Athletes who train for international competition practice and compete over metric distances. And observant housewives will have noticed that the labels on many packaged foods state ingredients in "grams."

So the metric system is already being phased in. It's really a question of accelerating that process, while slowly phasing-out our present system.

WHY? Because the rest of the world is metric, and it's a better method of measurement, once you get used to it.

As foreign trade becomes more and more important to use, American companies are finding it necessary to produce products built to two different sets of standards, one for the world market and one for the domestic, because parts and tools used for metric equipment are not compatible with those for non-metric machinery.

The need to build two versions of everything is a luxury we cannot afford. That's why General Motors — and many other companies — have already decided to "go metric."

WHAT'S INVOLVED? For the average American, probably no more than buying a new ruler and bathroom scales and learning some new terminology.

For companies with a big investment in tools and machinery, however, the switch can be very expensive indeed. Which is why the changeover needs to be accomplished slowly, and perhaps with some kind of tax allowance for the loss in value that will hit non-metric equipment. (Of course, minimizing confusion is also a very good reason for taking 10 years or so to complete the switch.)

There are some tips for "going metric" yourself:

Some of the key units of the metric system are very close to units we are familiar with, so close that they can be considered about equal for "Mental picture" purposes. Learn these and a few prefixes, and it's not hard to figure up or down from there.

The meter, for example is just a little longer than a yard (roughly 1.1 yards). The liter is very close to a quart (about 1.06 quarts). The kilogram is a little more than two pounds (2.204623 lbs., to be exact).

Now, the prefixes. "Kilo" means "one thousand." A "kilometer" is therefore one thousand meters. "Centi" means "one one-hundredth." So a "centimeter" is one one-hundredth of a meter. "Milli" means "one one-thousandth." That prefix causes a lot of confusion, because Americans associate it, incorrectly, with the word "million." There are other prefixes, all signifying some multiple of 10, but this is a good "starter" set.

CONVERTING from metric to American measurements is complicated. But working within the metric system is a snap. For example, to calculate the number of centimeters in a kilometer, all you have to do is multiply 1,000 by 100. All metric calculations are similarly easy. It's really just a matter of moving the decimal point. For comparison, try quickly calculating the number of inches in a mile (12 times 5,280).

Moon Walk Day

The moon first felt human life rustling about on its surface July 20, 1969, 4:17 p.m. EDT, when two U.S. astronauts descended in the lunar module, "Eagle." July 20 became known as Moon Walk Day, and it is certainly one date that will remain emblazoned in the minds of all who were able to watch the dramatic event on television.

On that historic day, pilot Michael Collins orbited the moon in the command module, "Columbia" while Neil Armstrong and Edwin Aldrin, Jr.

explored the moon. The duo's entire stay on the moon lasted 21 hours, 36 minutes and 16 seconds, and the actual moon walk initiated by Armstrong, was 2 hours, 15 minutes in length. The potential spin-off benefits from this venture, added to the overall contribution the national space program has made to U.S. industrial life throughout the years, are tremendous.

The moon walk proved once again that technology—whether it be earthbound or streaking toward the stars—is the key to a better way of life.

Letters To The Editor

Hereford's Bobby Riggs

Dear Editor,

Since it might be impossible to convey this message over the KPAN airways, I beg your indulgence in helping me reveal to the unwary public that a tennis "hustler" is in our midst.

I would like to take this means of conveying to the public that Clint Formby, a man whom I formerly held in high esteem, not only flim-flammed me in tennis Tuesday afternoon, but then had the audacity to gloat over his triumph publically on his radio station.

It all started when Formby saw me on the tennis courts, playing a little after 35 years abstention, and called to challenge me to a game. He noted that he was on crutches but thought he could still manage a creditable game.

He showed at the appointed time, and on crutches. After suggesting a friendly wager on the matches, he proceeded to throw away the crutches and play like Stan Smith, or some other pro!

He then had the nerve to send me a bill for $6, allowing a 2 per cent discount if paid by July 18. However, I didn't get the bill until July 19!

This sad story should serve to warn anyone who might fall into the same trap that Formby, who is supposed to be the soul of integrity as president of the National Association of Broadcasters, is also the Bobby Riggs of Hereford!

Sincerely,
Irving Alexander

Talk Of Texas

By Jack Maguire

FOOTNOTE TO HISTORY—The Texas State Cemetery in Austin, which will be 122 years old this year, was established almost by accident.

On December 26, 1851, General Edward Burleson died during the regular session of the Fourth Legislature. A former vice president and noted soldier of the Republic of Texas, General Burleson was serving as senator from Hays, Travis and Gillespie Counties when he died.

A joint committee of both houses of the Legislature was appointed to arrange the funeral. Andrew Jackson Hamilton, a representative from Travis County and later governor of Texas, was chairman of the committee. There is no record of its deliberations, but apparently it decided that Burleson should have a state burial. Chosen as the site was a tract of land which Hamilton owned a few blocks east of the State Capitol in Austin.

For five years, the body of General Burleson lay alone in the tract. In fact, Hamilton sold the land (including the grave site) in 1853, but repurchased it the next year and traded it to the state of Texas. It was not until 1856, however, that the second person was buried there. He was Associate Justice Abner S. Lipscomb of the Supreme Court.

Although a few other burials were made in the State Cemetery in the ensuing years, it was not until the 20th Century that the Legislature began to pay much attention to it. Beginning in 1910, reburials of prominent war heroes and political leaders began. Today the cemetery is the last resting places of hundreds of men and women who have had an important role in Texas history.

TRAVELING TEXAS — One of America's two life-size reproductions in wax of Leonardo da Vinci's painting, "The Last Supper," will go on display again in Fort Worth.

The realistic figures of Jesus and his 12 disciples supping together for the last time in the Upper Room are the creation of Katherine Stuberg and her daughter of the same name. They were descendants of a German family which had worked in wax portraiture for 300 years. They made both sets of wax figures of "The Last Supper." The other set is in Santa Rosa, Calif.

William Fleming, former president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, commissioned the reproduction a score of years ago. It was first displayed in Fort Worth in 1956, but has been in storage for several years.

The wax masterpiece will be housed in a new building being constructed for the purpose by the Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission. It will be ready in 1974.

TEXANS AT WORK—The nation's only firm of flying bookbinders operates out of the basement of a beautiful stone mansion in Bonham, Fannin County.

R.D. Peeler, the mansion's owner, is senior partner in the Peeler Binder. Together with John Simpson, who doubles as pilot of the firm's airplane, he flies throughout the U.S. practicing the antique art of binding books by hand. This involves taping, strapping, sewing, backing and boarding books that may be more than 300 years old. The pair specialize in restoring old courthouse records. Their charge ranges from $500 to $1,500 and more per job.

HORSEY SET—Houston and Harris County, Texas' most heavily populated area, boasts a horse population of 35,000.

Texas, with 625,000 head, leads the nation in the number of horses and Harris is the horsiest of the state's 254 counties.

THE CHANGING TIMES—During World War I, Dallas' Fair Park (home of the State Fair of Texas) was converted into a ground school for aviation cadets. It was known as Camp Dick.

DEADLY PARTY—In 1873, the Grayson County town of Denison decided to stage a barbecue to celebrate the first anniversary of its founding and to dedicate its new cemetery.

As it turned out, the cemetery got some unexpected and unwanted business from the celebration. Apparently the barbecue was prepared too far in advance of the party. As a result, a serious food poisoning epidemic made most of the celebrants violently ill and a goodly number ended up in the new burial grounds.

NOT CHICKEN FEED NOW—Poultry-raising is big business in Texas.

Once a farmer with 500 to 5,000 chickens was considered a big operator. In 1972, the average poultry farm had between 40,000 and 100,000 birds in its flock.

The Bootleg

Philosopher

Dear editor:

One thing about the Watergate hearing that keeps coming up every time a new witness shows up to tell a different story is the question, put by nearly all the Senators on the committee, is, How can the truth ever be discovered?

It's a problem. For example, four men say attending a meeting and none of the four can agree on what was said. One remembers it one way, another remembers it exactly the opposite, and the other two don't even remember being there.

Now I have given this problem considerable thought while the committee members have been out to vote and I believe I have the solution.

AS I understand it, logs are kept of all meetings and telephone calls of all important people in Washington, but they just reflect who showed up or who called, not what was said.

The thing for Congress to do is pass a law requiring every conversation of everybody, in person or over the phone, to be taped. Like these new seat belts that won't let a car start till they're fastened around the passengers, what Washington needs is a telephone that won't work till the tape machine is started and office doors that work the same way. Make it a penitentiary offense to talk in the hall.

WITH everything everybody says taped, incidentally with all the microphones leading to a central recording machine kept under 24-hour guard so nobody can destroy any conversations, you have no idea how easy an investigating committee's job would be, or how little lying would be done, or how few glasses of water it's take for sweating witnesses. I can't think of a single better thing that would so improve their memory.

Now I realize this would take immense amounts of recording tape, millions and millions of miles of it, and if you hear of any plan to put this idea into effect I wish you'd let me know as I'd sure like to invest in the company that produces the stuff.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

GRASSROOTS

"I see where every time somebody gets held up or murdered with a pistol, we hear loud screams for legislation to outlaw firearms. After which, the course, we would need laws to outlaw autos, germs, rich food, etc., which kill more people than guns. But all of this would be futile. We already have laws which outlaw killing, nobody wishing to kill pays much attention to them because the only sensible penalty for violation of same has been outlawed." MACON, MISS. BEACON

"The United States government would do well to get over the notion that cutting off U.S. aid to a foreign country, or threatening to do so, is somehow akin to blackmail. We consistently loan money and credit haphazardly, and feel aggrieved each time another government thumbs its nose at Uncle Sap." REDWOOD FALLS, MINN. GAZETTE

"One of the most serious problems facing American business is productivity—how to increase the output of goods or services without a corresponding increase in the cost of materials or labor . . . the mechanisms for increasing productivity already exists . . . What seems to be lacking, it was pointed out, is a national will to continue to truly progress. Pride of workmanship is a fading ideal. People seem content with the status quo. Leadership is the vital missing ingredient . . . And . . . that leadership should start with the White House, since the federal government generates 20 per cent of the Gross National Product, and carry all the way through to 'the baker and the candlestick maker.'" PITTSBURGH, PA. BROOKLINE JOURNAL

"Right now is the time for the politician to sound off about how he opposes high taxes. With final tax day clearly in mind—and a cleaned out pocketbook—we love the sound. The only thing is that the fellow can't get votes until November, and think of the many different expensive things he's going to promise us by then, to be paid for with our tax money." MADISON, VA. EAGLE

"We hear too much criticism of the things our young people do and not enough of the many good and commendable and worthwhile activities carried on by them. They are our citizens of tomorrow and mistakes they will make, as we all do, but they should get all the credit they deserve for the many good things they do, too." SELBY, S.D. RECORD

With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

Many years ago Henry Ward Beecher wrote, "Flowers have an expression of countenance as much as men or animals. Some seem to smile; some have a sad expression; some are pensive and diffident; others again are plain, honest and upright, like the broadfaced sunflower and the hollyhock."

I believe this theory. Plants do respond to good treatment, lack of proper care and to their environment. Therefore, I am sure that the flowers lifted their faces to the fresh cool raindrops, that so beautifully fell upon the good earth last week.

Everything looks like it has on a new dress. Seems the colors are more vivid, fresh and pretty. Plants and grass have grown, and now many things need to be done.

It would be well to give some extra care and attention to ground covers: Ivy, (many varieties) ajuga, vinca, both the minor and major (known as periwinkle) acre, money wart, crown vetch, myrtle, lily-turf, lily-of-the-valley, carpet bugle (ajuga reptans) wandering jew, and many varieties of succulents, sedums, also annuals and perennials, such as moss rose (portulaca) candytuft, and many, many others.

Ground covers are becoming very popular, gardeners are using them instead of grass. I am very proud of the varieties that I have. The past few weeks I have had three or more in full flowers, they added beauty to the gardens.

Have used some of them in bouquets. The tiny florets add beauty and daintiness. Also have learned that it is easy to keep them free of grasses if the weed-killer Dalpon is used, and will not injure other plants.

After the blooming period the beds should be reworked and where repair is needed it should be done. If bare spots, they should be filled in; if the ground cover is spreading into spaces where it is not planned for, this should be lifted and used where repair is needed.

All dead blossoms and stems should be removed. Plants should be groomed by removing foliage that is defaced.

Where new plants are added, first prepare the soil for planting by adding peat moss and a light application of a balanced fertilizer. Plant the new plants or the transplanted ones. Water well, by this I mean deep watering so that the new plants will get off to a good start.

If you haven't used ground covers, do so. They thrive with little maintenance and come year after year. In the fall when the garden is being put to bed, use the lawn mower on most varieties except sedums or succulents.

If the growth has become too rank, this can be held over until spring when the plots will need to be groomed, and this is made easy by using the mower. Water well, using some fertilizer and the response will be excellent. Soon there will be quick growth of fresh green materials.

Care of flower beds is another July garden chore. Removal of faded blooms, weeding, cultivating, staking, trimming and treatment for diseases, insects, and lack of color.

The other day while I was visiting the gardens at Amarillo

Garden Center, garden club members were grooming the borders and flower beds. If the petunias had become leggy and some parts of the plant died, these were pruned away, the plants cultivated, fed etc., and the new growth will be added beauty for the late summer and fall.

Give added attention to tiny new plants which are coming up, such as marigolds, zinnias and gladiolas. Cultivate around the new plants, keep the soil moist, thin if needed and watch them grow.

Have had some very pleasant moments these past few days. Have visited gardens, and some new homes where plans for landscaping were discussed, also plant materials, lawns, and oh! yes sold some bulbs for spring flowering.

One of the gardens visited was at the Wilcox home. The backyard living area is like a magazine picture. There were some garden problems which I hope can be corrected, and Mrs. Wilcox gave me a new plant.

Have had many calls and have visited where there were problems. There are many diseases of shrubs this season. One is Euonymus scale. Signs of damage are yellow leaves and stems, stunted growth, dead branches and sometimes the entire plant is lost.

Treatment — groom plant, carefully removing infected parts (burn or destroy by some measure). Remove all fallen leaves and other debris around the base of the plant. Treat soil, cultivate and feed with a well balanced food.

Check entire plant, the inside or center. When spraying or using other treatment be sure all parts of the shrub have been reached.

One of the horticulturists which I studied under, suggested that instead of a spray use a heavy application of Tide suds on all parts and repeat several times. If plant is near wall, be sure that the wall is thoroughly cleaned and infected parts removed which are touching the wall.

Bagworms are also appearing. They are easily recognized, as the young caterpillars spin a tiny thread attached to tiny bags, these are ornamented with bits of leaves and bark. From now until August they carry these bags about as they feed, building them larger and more resistant to insecticides.

Some of their favorite plants are arborvitae, red cedar, Scotch pine, juniper, fruit trees, and they are also found in gardens on beans, etc. They are very destructive, but can be controlled by spraying. Consult local authorities as to recommended spray.

Elm leaf beetles are about 1/4 inch long, dull yellow with black median and lateral stripes on back. They lay clusters of eggs on leaves; Larvae remove leaf epidermis—entire tree turns brown.

If not controlled, this will spread from tree to tree, and entire trees can be lost. The trouble has been very bad in Amarillo, also other diseases have attacked the elms there.

Remember that spraying in the winter when trees, shrubs, etc., are dormant, will aid greatly in controlling many of the diseases, also kill attacking insects which lay eggs on foliage, carried on into the following growing season.

Every day it is our job to seek new information and to keep informed on new phases of Garden Club work. New books are added to the library, new friends and gardeners meet with exchange of ideas and information, and organizations which keep us abreast with National Garden Club Inc., methods and introductions.

Last week Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr., Mrs. Jess Robinson and myself attended the quarterly meeting of the national judges group of the north zone garden clubs.

We studied about terrariums. Many important bits of information was shared. Also learned that the judges group will sponsor School 1, at Amarillo Garden Center October 9-11. All classes will be open to the public.

Be sure and see the beautiful red sedum at the Nieman home on Douglas St. Very, very pretty and different.

Couple Exchanges Vows In Afternoon Ceremony

Miss Elva Ramirez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Ramirez, Route 3, became the bride of Sammy Ramirez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cruz Ramirez, 431 Long, in an afternoon ceremony Saturday at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

The Rev. Boniface Riedmann, pastor, read the nuptial mass. White gladiolas decorated the church altar and an arch of the flowers in the form of a bridge was placed so the couple passed under it. White ribbon bows marked pews.

Casper Morales was best man and Mrs. Morales matron of honor. Their daughter, Minerva, was the flower girl. Miss Angie Ramirez, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridal escorts were Messrs. and Mmes. Ismael Ramirez, Ruben Ramirez, George Ramirez, Frank Madrid, Tommy Garcia, and Jody DeLaGarza, the latter couple from Odessa.

Also Misses Irma Ramirez, Elia Ramirez, Bertha Ramirez, Adriana Garcia and Lupita Calderas; and Silverio Rayos, David Munoz, Eguene Condarco and Roy Castillo.

Junior attendants were Blanca Ramirez of Midland, Irma Flores, Mary DeLaCruz, Sylvia Martinez, Cruz M. Ramirez, Rudy Ramirez and Sam Espinosa Jr. Ring bearers were Michelle Ramirez and Gilbert Ramirez.

Mrs. Jim Cramer, organist, played the marches and other traditional wedding music.

Silk organza over bridal satin made Miss Ramirez's wide-skirted gown, with bands of lace appliqued down the skirt, in yoke effect on the bodice, around cuffs of the fully gathered sleeves and on the empire waistline. The skirt, in soft pleats at the waist, flared to carpet length and formed a slight train.

Her bouffant veil, held by a circlet of flowers in shades of peach and lime green, was ornamented with scattered lace appliques. She carried a hand-made bouquet imported from Mexico.

Her attendants wore empire dresses in coral color with high neckline, puffed sleeves and A-line skirts, ruffled across the skirt backs to the floor. Junior maids had similar dresses in lime, with wide ruffles circling the skirts.

Of the same design, dresses of the maid of honor and train bearer were white, with the ruffles edged in silver.

After the wedding a reception was held in the Knights of Columbus Hall. Mrs. Margarita Ramirez and Miss Adela Ramirez presided at the refreshment table which was centered with an arrangement of white gladiolas touched with coral and lime.

Dallas, the bride dressed in pink with white accessories. They will be at home at 406 West Sixth Street.

Both have attended Hereford schools. Ramirez is employed by Missouri Beef Company.

Wedding guests from other cities included Messrs. and Mmes. Alonzo Ramirez, Victor Velasco, and Omero Velasco of El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ramirez of Lubbock; Messrs. and Mmes. Severa Sanchez and Edward Ramirez of Midland; Messrs. and Mmes. Keith Davis and Paul Gonzales and Mrs. Andrea Ramirez of Roswell, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Hipolito Sanchez of Denver.

TIP TO MOTORISTS

Safe highway driving calls for individual action—a habit every motorist should cultivate.

Recent visitors of the Jim Brooks were her nephew Gene McClennen, and his daughter, Susan, from Duncan, Okla. Also visiting the Brooks during the past week was his brother, Earnest Brooks of Comanche, Okla.

Mrs. Spicer Gripp has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Stokes, Mr. Stokes and daughter, Shelby, at Mt. Vernon, Wash. for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cassels and Brian of McCook, Neb. have been here visiting their relatives including parents and brothers and sisters, among whom are the James Dobbs. The Cassels report that their daughter, Jeanine, who has been a patient in a Denver asthma sanitarium for several months, is improving. They are given hope that she may be able to be released within a few months.

The James Dobbs visited her mother, Mrs. Walter Jay, at Elk City, and other relatives in that area last weekend.

Among those in the group of FFA members from Hereford attending the State FFA convention at Dallas last week were Rocky Andrews, past president of the local group, and David Hutchins.

Visitor of the T. L. Sparkman Jr. family Thursday was Alford Pruett of Biloxi, Miss. Alford helped the Sparkmans farm from 1937 until sometime in 1940 when he went into the Army. The last time they had seen him was in 1943 when he came visiting on Army leave. A brother, Henry, who now lives in El Paso, also worked for Earl Springer and others in the community for several years during that time. The Pruett family had gathered to celebrate the 81st birthday of their mother, who lives in Elk City, Okla.

The Floyd Coles, Beverly, Cheryl and Mrs. Herman Vinson of Pampa attended a Cole family gathering held in Sequoah State Park, near Wagoner, Okla. last weekend. All the Cole children and part of the grandchildren attended. Also some of the late Mrs. Earl Cole's family, the Hendersons, came to the gathering.

Mrs. David Yandell was honored on her birthday Tuesday with a supper at the House of Wong. The Olin Parrises, the Harlan Barbers and David Yandell were the others making up the party.

FATHER AND SON GREET EACH OTHER AFFECTIONATELY. THEIR EYES ARE MOIST AND AGUAR'S VOICE TREMBLES AS HE SAYS, "WELCOME HOME AGAIN, SON." THEN HE TURNS TO GREET VAL'S BEDRAGGLED FAMILY. "A VOYAGE ACROSS THE NORTH SEA IN AN OPEN LONGSHIP IS NOT EXACTLY LUXURIOUS," COMPLAINS ALETA, "THERE IS MORE SALT ON MY SKIN THAN ON A PICKLED HERRING!"

"I CALLED YOU, VAL, TO TAKE COMMAND OF OUR ARMY. THE WOUNDS RECEIVED IN BATTLE WITH THE DANES PREVENT ME FROM TAKING THE FIELD. NOW PRINCE ARN HAS BEEN HURT IN BATTLE WITH THE WANDERERS ON OUR OWN BORDERS, BUT NOT BEFORE HE FOUND A WEAKNESS IN THE ENEMY'S ATTACK."

"THIS MESSAGE READS: 'THE WANDERERS ARE VICIOUS, AND LIVE BY PLUNDERING FRIEND AND FOE ALIKE. DRIVE THEM BACK ACROSS THE BORDER INTO HOLVIK AND LET THEM WORRY KING GRIMMER.' YOUR SON HAS NOT YET GROWN A BEARD, BUT ALREADY HE GIVES THE KING ORDERS!"

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
You recently asked if anyone had any new or different ideas for making valances. Here is one: I didn't want to hang curtains in my bathroom window, because I needed all the light possible. I just cut a piece of cardboard the desired size, folded it over a regular curtain rod and stapled it.

I covered it with some left-over bathroom wallpaper and stapled a row of pompon fringe along the bottom. Not only did it look nice, it was a snap to put up.

A SHADY STORY
DEAR HELOISE:
One day soon after my father came to live with me, I had taken down a draw window shade that had absolutely refused to pull down and go back up on the roll. First I tried to turn and tighten the spring by hand, but each time I let go the spring would flip back again. Then I tried to hold it with a pair of pliers. No success! My father said, "Why don't you unroll the shade and re-roll it by hand." So I did. The spring was as tight as when new. I haven't figured out why this works, but it sure is a miracle. And it saved me from having to buy a new window shade.

NO DUST LEFT!
DEAR HELOISE:
Here's a bright idea that has really been a work-saver for me.

We live on a busy unpaved street and in dry weather the dust really flies. My window and door screens were always covered with fine dust which made them really look dirty. I hated the job of scrubbing them about twice a month.

Today I was doing my weekly housecleaning. I had been using my sweeper attachments. As I was using the soft upholstery brush, I happened to glance out the window. Then—a sudden inspiration. So why not? So I did!

I went over the screens with the brush. Presto—the screens were cleaned without all the hard work!

You must have had the old thinking cap going for you about that time...

But did you know that there is a sweeper attachment you can buy that is just for the purpose of cleaning those screens? It has stiffer bristles that loosen the dirt, which is then sucked up by the vacuum. Nothing like doing everything we can the easy way. Right?

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE:
We've been married almost two years and so far the following system has worked very well:

My husband and I split the housework 50-50. We take turns cooking (though often we help each other) and whoever doesn't cook does the washing up.

Mostly we go shopping together. I do the laundry one week, he the next. On cleaning day, one scrubs the bathroom while the other vacuums the rest of the house.

The only drawback is that I've had to learn to change the oil in the car—he said it was only fair to share that too!

PRIZE DAY!

DEAR HELOISE:
Maybe other mothers have trouble remembering whose turn it is to get the cereal box prize. Of course, every one claims it every time.

Since I have three children, I decided to put the prizes away until I have ten. Then I let my three children have three rounds of choosing with a different one getting first choice each round. One prize is left over for the next time and even the last chooser gets a choice.

This has eliminated a lot of arguments and they really look forward to choosing day. Usually there are enough duplications in prizes to keep anyone from being disappointed. So far everyone is happy!

HANDS HURTING?

DEAR HELOISE:
There really must be countless women who struggle through bedmaking because of arthritic hands.

Having read in your column about the lady in the same shape using a yardstick to make her bed, I'd like to share with you the way I do it.

I've found that one of those long-handled shoe horns is simply marvelous for tucking those sheets under that hard-to-fit mattress. Try it. You'll find that it really helps!

BUTTON, BUTTON!

DEAR HELOISE:
Perhaps the following tip will help others who may have purchased a pantsuit with a blazer style jacket with the shiny brass buttons.

After the first wash the shiny buttons turned a dark bronze. I rushed out and bought a new set of buttons with a rough matte surface. Before cutting the buttons off, I recalled a tip from my days in uniform.

I made a button stick from a piece of cardboard about 4" x 8". Cut a slit down the middle of the cardboard about an inch from the end. Sliding this button stick behind the buttons, I polished them with a creamy brass-polishing liquid to a bright shine. To help keep that shine I covered the buttons with a coat of clear nail polish.

Today—even after being out in the rain—the buttons are still as bright as the day I polished them!

Using the button stick makes the polish job much easier. It prevents the polish getting on the garment and is much faster as one can polish several buttons at one time.

Move over, gal. It's sure nice to meet up with someone who has been in the same boat. I wish I had a dime for every brass button that I have polished...

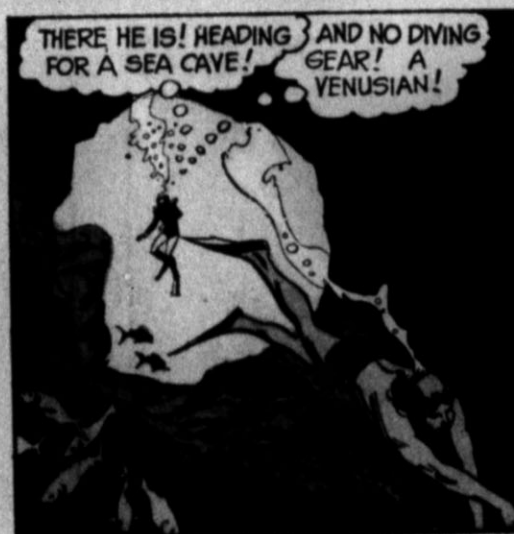

You won't get any argument out of me on this one as this was the very same way I used to get such a shine that it would almost knock your eyes out!

BULLETIN BOARD

● FOR TWISTED MINDS! The result is 327. You've taken a number, doubled it, turned the number upside down and divided by three. What number was taken originally?

● Adam, Sir Isaac Newton and William Tell all had something in common. What was that?

● This might make a good typewriter sentence, except that one letter is missing: Joe packed my sledge with boxes of frozen quail. Which letter?

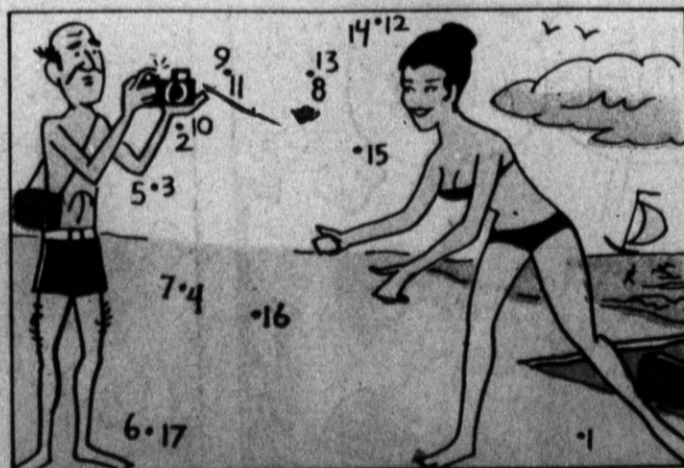

● How steady is your hand? Try passing a coin from your forefinger to your middle finger, etc., to your pinky, turning it over each time.

WANT to impress friends with a magic trick? Twist several paper napkins into a tough rope. Challenge onlookers to break this rope by tugging at the ends.

At the same time, twist another napkin rope for your own use. Blow on the center, tug at the ends, and this rope snaps in two easily.

The act of blowing on the rope is meaningless. The trick is this: As you begin to twist the napkins, dip your fingers into a glass of water and press them against the center.

The water will weaken the paper and a sudden tug will part it. Of course, water is applied secretly.

SHUTTER-BUGGED! Too bad, Dad, but the picture you've taken won't come out. To find out why, connect dots 1 to 2 to 3, etc.

SMOOTH SAILING! Add colors for a surprise picture: 1—Red. 2—Blue. 3—Yellow. 4—Brown. 5—Flesh tones. 6—Orange. 7—Dk. green. 8—Lt. green. 9—Black. 10—Pink. 11—Gray. 12—Maroon.
