THAT feller on Tierra Blanca Creek says it is surprising how much work our friends think we can, and should do.

Bridging the generation gap requires six more inches of hair.

IF YOU think a dress code in the school system is a new happening, wait until you read the Diamond Jubilee edition of The Hereford Brand to be published in late August. You'll find one of historical articles concerns the adoption, in 1920, of a "regulation uniform" for girls. In addition, boys were advised not to wear silk shirts and "other extravagant and unsuitable clothing at school."

SPEAKING of Hereford's 75th anniversary celebration, it appears the "Jubilee spirit" is slowly catching hold in the community. While some citizens seem reluctant to get started "so early", the activity is gradually picking up and it should be a busy summer — climaxed by the celebration week.

We recall attending a similar celebration in Andrews a number of years ago when the city marked its 50th birthday. The same professional company aided the city in putting on the celebration, and the pageant spectacle at the football field was a big success. It drew a packed crowd almost every night, with people coming from all around that area to view the show.

AMARILLO'S search for new industry, stymied for years for whatever reasons, has been paying off the past couple of years. The big "plum" came last week with the announcement that Iowa Beef Processors would locate one of the world's largest beef plants in Amarillo.

While Hereford was in contact with IBP officials on the proposed plant location, local C of C industrial committee workers didn't get their hopes up on landing the site. A plant employing 1,500 to 2,000 people had to have a large city with a big labor force potential, along with a number of other factors.

Paul Engler, IBP official who formerly lived in Hereford, was reported as saying that future plans call for building two more smaller plants in the northern Panhandle to provide carcass meat for the Amarillo plant to process. A number of communities will probably be looking toward this possibility in future years.

MEANWHILE, Hereford's industrial committee continues to search for new industry that will fit into the community picture here and compliment the economic structure. Community-wide cooperation is the key, and Amarillo C of C leaders will readily credit this as a big factor in their recent successes.

When asked about their industrial success, one Amarillo official said, "We took a lesson from Hereford and got to work!"

Jury Gives Brooks 4 Years

Alan Everett Brooks, 19, received a four-year prison sentence in 69th Judicial District Thursday after a jury found him guilty of the January 20 break-in of Harold Close Drug Store in which about $450 in drugs were taken.

Formal sentencing for Brooks has been set for Wednesday when Judge Archie McDonald will determine whether Brooks is to serve his term consecutively or concurrently with a four-year term he already faced. Brooks was sentenced in an April, 1972, trial to four years probation after he pleaded guilty to possession of narcotic paraphernalia.

Brooks was arrested in late January for the break-in of the store in Sugarland Mall and charged in the incident along with Jesse Caster, 18. Caster's trial is tentatively scheduled for sometime this summer.

Police arrested Brooks and Caster after investigating the drug store break-in and after several local youth were hospitalized for apparent drug overdoses the day after the break-in.

According to Hereford police records, the drug store was entered through a vent in the roof and several ceiling panels were kicked out in gaining admission to the store. Amphetamines and other drugs valued at $450, and $18 in cash were missing after the break-in.

Numerous pills similar to those taken in the break-in were confiscated by police at the time when Caster and Brooks were arrested.

Brooks was also arrested Sept. 4, 1971, and charged with possession of a contrivance used in smoking a narcotic drug to wit: marijuana. He then pleaded guilty in an April, 1972, hearing to the charge and was assessed the four-year probated term by Judge McDonald.

McDonald then revoked the probation this past January because of probation violations resulting from a charge against Brooks in Castro County. Brooks then faced the full four-year term from the previous conviction before the trial for burglary began.

Judge McDonald is now expected to decide in the Wednesday hearing whether Brooks will be allowed to serve both four-year sentences at the same time or whether the terms be served one following the other.

Thomas Kendrick was the defense attorney and Criminal Dist. Atty. Andy Shuval prosecuted for the state.

Jurors in the two-day trial were R. F. Ginn, Frank Watson, Mrs. Dale Smalts, Billie J. Boren, John Stribling Jr., Mrs. R. E. Monical, Mrs. Donald D. Douglas, Wayne Richardson, Bill Gudgell, Freelin E. Suttle, Jimmy F. Garner and Lynn Arnold.

In other action in Judge McDonald's court this week seven persons pleaded guilty to felony offenses and each was assessed probated terms.

Leon Langham, Evelyn Langham, Dwain Kent Hickman and Loyce Hickman each received four-year probated terms after their pleas of guilt to theft charges. Rosa Burns received a three-year probated sentence after pleading guilty to forgery.

Amado Coronado pleaded guilty to a passing a forged instrument charge and received a three-year probated term and Eliseo Rivera received a three-year probated term for driving while intoxicated-second offense charge.

Three Seriously Burned

Butane Explosion Engulfs Men, Youth In Flame

A Hereford man and a young boy received serious burns to major portions of their bodies Friday afternoon in a butane explosion 30 miles west of Hereford in Deaf Smith County.

The man, Tom Timberlake, 21, and Chris Kemp, 11, were rushed to Deaf Smith General Hospital with second and third degree burns over their faces, arms, backs and chests. Both were later transferred to Amarillo's High Plains Baptist Hospital for more intensive treatment.

Timberlake's brother, Paul, also was involved in the explosion, but received less harmful first-degree burns over his face, arms, chest and back. Paul, 17, required emergency medical treatment but was treated and released and not transferred to the Amarillo hospital with either Tom Timberlake or the Kemp youth.

Kemp is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Green of Hereford.

The accident occurred about 4 p.m. on a ranch 30 miles west of the city. The three were apparently working with the butane when the gas ignited, filling the air immediately around them with fire.

Reports indicated Paul Timberlake, the least injured of the three, called for an ambulance and then drove toward Hereford with the injured two in a pickup.

Emergency officials and Highway Patrolmen met the pickup about 23 miles west of Hereford on the Harrison highway and loaded the three in the ambulance and reached the hospital shortly before 5 p.m. The older Timberlake and Kemp youth were then transferred to Amarillo about 5:30 p.m.

Highway Patrol units and Hereford Police officers escorted the emergency ambulance into and out of town and provided blocks at major intersections until the ambulance could get through.

Diamond Jubilee Book Published

To commemorate Hereford's 75th anniversary, the Hereford, Texas Diamond Jubilee Celebration Assn. will publish an official souvenir booklet which will carry not only the planned program of events during the celebration, but an historical outline of Hereford and the area.

Helen Rose, chairman of the historical booklet committee urges all persons interested in having their family, business, club or organization included in the booklet to contact her or one of the committee members.

"We will need interested residents, pioneer families established business firms to provide historical information for this booklet. We plan to have full page, half-page and fourth-page articles about families, churches, schools, businesses and organizations that have contributed to the growth and development of Hereford. We further plan to include many pictures to add to the enjoyment of this booklet," Mrs. Rose commented.

Any persons interested in having their family, business, club or organization included in the booklet may contact Mrs. Rose at Box 1007 in Hereford, or call 364-1193 for an appointment with a member of the committee.

Grand Jury Postponed

The grand jury of 69th Judicial District in Deaf Smith County Friday postponed consideration of its nine-case agenda until a later date.

The jury originally was scheduled to meet Thursday afternoon. However, the burglary trial of Alan Brooks lasted an extra day through the afternoon Thursday.

The session was rescheduled for Friday, but was again called off after Criminal Dist. Atty. Andy Shuval reported Friday morning he was ill and unable to attend the session.

No date was announced as to when the grand jury would convene to study the cases.

Intelligence Officer Tells Of Organized Crime

By DON RICHARDS
Brand News Editor

If any person in Hereford has ever placed a $25 or $50 bet with a professional bookmaker then he has helped to support organized crime a Department of Public Safety intelligence officer said here Thursday.

"The biggest crime we have to fight is gambling and the bookmaking part of it," Charles Moore told a group of Kiwanis Thursday in regular luncheon meeting.

He was brought to speak to the club by Deaf Smith County Sheriff Travis McPherson.

MOORE, VETERAN intelligence officer with the Department of Public Safety's Criminal Law Enforcement, is one of 50 such intelligence officers across the state. His main job is to crack down on organized crime in gambling, narcotics, prostitution, car theft and to investigate criminal subversive acts and racial disorders.

"Organized crime is not just the Mafia or Costra Nostra like many persons believe," Moore said. "Organized crime is anytime persons gather to undertake or commit crime in an organized manner. It can be a car theft ring, prostitution circuits or local bookmakers."

THE intelligence officer, a former Hereford native, said organized crime is not limited to people of Italian descent. "It has been detected in all walks of life and is presently bigger than U.S. Steel."

Moore said U. S. Steel made $4 billion in 1967 while organized crime drained $40 billion from the general public.

Moore said the biggest crime is in bookmaking on a local level where persons place $25 to $100 bets and don't think seriously about it.

"BUT THEY take your money and invest about 60 to 70 per cent of it into narcotics," he said. "Some of it goes into loan sharking (lending money at high interest rates) and other money is invested into legitimate businesses."

Moore said all oddsmakers who give local bookmakers the odds to use for a particular bet are all located out of state. He also said all oddsmakers are in some way related to organized crime.

"DICE gambling is also another big taker of the public's money," he said. "And people don't know that when they throw dice they are losers before they start."

Moore, who is headquartered out of Lubbock, said his agency recently raided a Lubbock residence where a man was arrested for making "loaded" and "shaved" dice.

"We had the place under surveillance for several weeks and identified many known gamblers throughout the Panhandle area who were buying these 'loaded' or 'shaved' dice from him." The intelligence officer said the man arrested had previous arrests on his record for operating a dice table equipped with a powerful magnet to control the dice. "So when you start throwing dice, the odds are already against you," he said.

Moore also discussed prostitution and how it is organized in Texas cities.

"PROSTITUTES have circuits in Texas and each of the girls has a pimp," he said. "Almost all of the pimps are known criminals and are usually dope pushers or addicts."

"We know this has to be organized because one girl can live in one place and work as many as 10 motels in the area without any conflicts or any spare time. That takes organization."

The officers said Texans last year put more than $56 million into the illegal prostitute business.

"THEFTS RINGS," he said, "are highly organized. Many of the 40-50,000 car thefts each year are simply joy rides. However, the rest aren't and the amount of police money used in tracking all these down is tremendous. Look at the man hours lost by police."

Moore said organized crime has also invaded labor unions, but also said that there are many good labor unions that are not involved with crime.

"ORGANIZED crime is a public demand for services that the government or legitimate business can't offer," he said. "This type of crime only exists where you, the public and its customer, will allow it to."

Building Permits Total $112,000

More than $112,000 in building permits were issued in Hereford during the month of May — down from previous months this year, according to H. N. Benson, building inspector.

Highlighting the building permits issued the past month were two for new residences and one for a "quick-stop" food store.

Building permits issued during the month were:

- May 1 — Jose Robledo, 221 Catalpa, $2,000, add to residence.
- May 2 — C. L. Stovall, 208 Ave. C, $1,000, storage house.
- May 4 — J. D. McCaslin, 333 Douglas, $35,000, residence.
- May 7 — Clyde Gilliland, 194 Ranger, $500, metal storage house.
- May 7 — Loy Smith, 206 Kibbe, $2,500, addition.
- May 10 — H. C. Bunch, 229 Greenwood, $650, patio.
- May 11 — J. C. Hennington, 234 Star, $300, storage.
- May 14 — Jesus M. Castillo, $800, addition.
- May 14 — Homer E. West, 130 Juniper, $1,000, storm shelter.

May 15 — A. J. Schroeter, $2,500, addition.

May 16 — Rockwell Bros., $1,000, add to warehouse.

May 16 — Circle K Corporation, Block 2, Womble Addition, $35,000, erect Food Store.

May 21 — Joe L. Tijerina, $450, car port.

May 23 — Loyd G. Webster, $175, metal storage building.

May 25 — Ralph Owen, $1,000, storage.

May 30 — Perry Ray, 100 Beach, $1,500, garage.

May 30 — Richard Farrell, 211 Centre, $26,500, residence.

May 31 — Juan De La Cruz, 207 Jackson, $500, enclose porch.

Don Lane, left, Kiwanis president, has just presented Rodney Laubhan with a check from the club to help with the organization of Big Brothers. Laubhan is one of the local men helping get the organization started.

BILL CLAYTON

Clayton Enters Speaker Race

Six-term State Rep. Bill Clayton recently ended Capitol speculation by announcing that he was officially a candidate for the office of Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives.

Clayton, a Democrat from the West Texas community of Springlake, is an acclaimed leader in the Texas House legislative chambers. Sponsor of more than 40 bills in the past legislative session, Clayton promised to streamline the bulky and often unworkable House Committee System to enable legislators to have the opportunity to deal with more bills with less haste than has generally been true of past legislative terms.

Four Accidents Reported; Other Complaints Heard

Hereford's police officers investigated four minor accidents involving no injuries during the middle of the week and received various other reports concerning theft to obscene phone calls.

Officers investigated an accident about 5 p.m. Tuesday in the parking lot near Mr. Burger on West Park Avenue.

According to police records, a 1967 Buick owned by James R. Clarich was parked next to the building and was hit when a 1966 Pontiac driven by James Tennison Abston of 122 Kibbe Street came around the building.

About 9:15 p.m. Wednesday a front-rear collision was reported in the intersection of Park Avenue and Avenue F.

A 1965 Chevrolet driven by Harold Lee McNutt, 137 Greenwood, was in collision with a 1963 Plymouth driven by Quida Bell Turner of Box 983 in Hereford.

Both cars were going east on Park and the Turner vehicle was apparently attempting a left turn onto Avenue F when the cars collided.

Another accident was reported in the 300 block of U.S. 80 near the intersection of 4th Street when a 1970 Chevrolet pickup driven by James Porter White, Summerfield, apparently collided with a 1964 GMC pickup driven by Doris Faye Wilcox of Portales, N.M.

The Chevrolet pickup was heading east on U.S. 80 when the trailer it was pulling apparently came unhooked and crossed lanes and collided with the west-bound GMC pickup.

About 2:30 p.m. Thursday a minor accident was investigated by officers at the intersection of East 4th Street and Sampson Street.

A 1971 Volkswagen driven by Edna Arriaga of Rt. 3; and a 1964 Buick driven by Sanford Spencer Dodson of 124 Centre collided in the center of the intersection.

The Arriaga vehicle was heading east on 4th Street and the Dodson vehicle going south on Sampson when the accident occurred.

In other police action during the week a stolen tennis racket valued at $50 was reported taken from a parked car on North Main.

Police dispatchers also received several calls reporting harassing or obscene phone calls and investigated an incident involving a reported stolen American Flag and other items from the Campfire Girl Hut. A battery to a power fork lift operating on construction near Pants West Store was also reported stolen.

Space Factories Planned

The possibilities of carrying out manufacturing process aboard space laboratories show considerable promise for the future, according to L.R. McCreight of General Electric Co.'s Space Sciences Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa. He said that the manufacture of "more perfect crystal electronic material components" and "pure biologicals" is a possibility and crystal germination of substances for use in electronic and computer technology could be done at cost savings in zero-gravity space.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Policeman's Blunder

Officer Harrison halted a speeding motorist and gave him a ticket. But he failed to notice that the man was intoxicated. Scarcely five minutes later, the same motorist drove his car through a red traffic light and knocked down a woman pedestrian.

Could the woman hold the city legally liable for the accident because of the officer's blunder?

"The city is supposed to provide police protection," she argued in a court hearing. "That's what we pay taxes for. If the officer hadn't let that drunken driver get away, I would never have gotten hurt."

But the court disagreed, saying the law simply does not recognize this kind of a claim.

It is true that all members of the community are entitled to reasonable police protection. But this is a general, not a specific, right. It does not mean that each victim of a crime, if he can point to some police error, can collect damages from the city government.

The reasoning is mainly pragmatic. Courts fear that if such claims were allowed, the financial burden on cities would be staggering. Nevertheless, under certain circumstances, a person may indeed have a special right to police protection. Consider the problem of the person who is an informer or a material witness in a forthcoming trial. If he is in danger, the city is likely to be held responsible for his safety.

"Otherwise," said one court, "it might become difficult to convince the citizen to cooperate with law enforcement officers."

In one unusual case, the family of a suicide victim tried to blame the city because the police had missed a chance to prevent the tragedy. They said officers had come out to investigate a family quarrel, then left with things still unsettled.

But the city was exonerated. The court said even if the officers should have stayed longer, they still could not fairly have foreseen that the man would take his own life.

American Legion Launches Season

Hereford's American Legion Baseball team was to launch its season Saturday night, playing the Tascosa Legion team in Amarillo at 7:30.

The local Legionnaires will follow with their second outing today at 3 p.m. in Amarillo, taking on the Palo Duro team. The home debut will be against Canyon on Saturday, June 16, at 4 p.m.

Coach Aaron Bourland, Hereford High coach, is manager of the Legion team this summer and is assisted by Coach Jim Arthur, also from the Whiteface staff. The team has been working out about two weeks, and Bourland will field a relatively young group.

The team roster currently includes 17 players. They are: David Aguilar, Charles Anderson, David Artho, Dave Charest, Doug Charest, Mike Crim, Pete Hale, James Harris, Vance Hennington, David Loerwald, Steve Loerwald, Tommy Loerwald, Roy Martinez, Craig Nieman, Terry Poindexter, Lynn Tarr and Harvey Torres.

Coach Bourland released the Legion baseball schedule this week. All games in Amarillo will be played at Thompson Park.

Violations Costly For 30 Texans

Violations of game, fish and water safety laws through April 30 cost Texans $40,000 in fines according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department law enforcement officials.

Heading the list were some 611 anglers who went fishing without a license.

Another 254 boaters failed to have life jackets for each person aboard their craft.

The month of April, comparatively slow in hunting opportunities, accounted for 280 hunting violations, 43 of which were for hunting deer out of season.

All money collected by the Parks and Wildlife Department from such fines, with the exception of water safety violations, is funneled into the department's Fund Nine.

Together with hunting and fishing license fees and revenue from sand, shell and gravel dredging, the money is used to finance fish and wildlife management work in Texas.

Orioles, Indians Showdown Seen

The Orioles and the Indians appear headed for a showdown for the Pony League championship in Hereford.

The Orioles took over first place in the standings with two triumphs this week, while the Indians — winners in the first half of league play — snapped a three-game losing streak.

In Thursday night action, the Orioles captured a 9-2 win over the Twins, while the Indians erupted for a 10-4 decision over the White Sox. Tuesday's action saw the Orioles down the Indians by 7-2, and the Twins win their first victory with a close 9-8 win over the White Sox.

Scott Dryden went 3-for-3 and Archie Crim got the pitching victory when the Indians won a 10-4 decision over the White Sox Thursday. Mike Pittard, Gary Hester, Richard Moya and Cris Collins led the Sox attack.

Dennis Artho had a shutout going against the Twins Thursday, but gave up two runs in the last frame as the Orioles took a 9-2 victory. Hector Rameriz and Mike Reyes led the winners at the plate, while Author Rocha, Tim Sandoval and Kent Ellis led the Twins' attack.

The Orioles handed the Indians their third straight loss Tuesday in a 7-2 game, but both teams had four hits. Reyes and Artho led the Orioles with two hits each, and Reyes was the winning pitcher. The four Indian hits were scattered, being registered by Crim, Mike Foster, Steve Hoover and Dale Tarr.

The Twins celebrated their first win Tuesday when Greg Hacker picked up the mound triumph and Tim Sandoval led the hitters. Scott Taylor, the loser, hit a home run for the Sox while Gary Hester and David Nolen had timely hits.

The season standings: Orioles 7-2, Indians 6-3, White Sox 4-5, Twins 1-8.

Red Changes To Blue On Water

That flashing blue light on the lake shouldn't be too hard to figure out — it means the same as a flashing red light on land.

When out boating and a flashing blue light comes your way, take heed. A lawman may want to talk to you.

According to law, you should reduce power to a no-wake speed until the intentions of the officer are made clear to you. If he wants to talk to you, you should stop the boat and wait for the officer to come to you.

Red Raider Club Day Set

Red Raider Club Day has been scheduled in Hereford Wednesday, June 13, with a golf tourney and dinner highlighting the activities.

Hereford is one of five tour stops scheduled by Texas Tech coaches and Red Raider Club officials this summer, it was announced this week by Mac Tubb, local club member.

The am-am tourney will start at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, with a Tech coach or Red Raider Club official to be included in each foursome. Players will use handicaps in the tourney. Dinner will follow at the Country Club at 7 p.m., and special golf prizes will be awarded.

Entry fee for Tech boosters in the area is $20, which includes the golfing, a cart, and the dinner. Entrants should contact Tubb or Dave Hopper to make reservations for the day.

APPROVAL GIVEN — The idea of Beef for Fathers Day is approved by county and city officials who signed a Hereford CowBelles proclamation at a steak lunch Friday. County Judge H. C. Williams lifts another bite of steak on his fork as Jim Conkwright, Chamber of Commerce president, shows him where his signature is to be placed. Looking on are Mrs. Bob Josserand, CowBelles president, and Marn Tyler, chairman of the Fathers Day promotion.

Beef For Fathers Day Proclamation Is Issued

Proclamation of the use of beef for Fathers Day, signed by city and county officials Friday, climaxes a promotion sponsored by the Hereford CowBelles which will continue through this week preceding the holiday. High point of the week will be a Fathers Day barbecue at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the County Bull Barn, when husbands of the CowBelles will be guests of honor. Beef tidbits cooked by members will be served in food stores here Wednesday; 4,000 miniature meatballs are being prepared for this day. Mayor Jim Sears, County Judge H. C. Williams and Chamber of Commerce President Jim Conkwright signed the proclamation endorsing the serving of Texas grain-fed beef in homes on Fathers Day, May 17. The signing was done, appropriately, at a steak lunch in K-Bob's Steak House. Mrs. Reece Lawson, beef promotion chairman, and Marn Tyler, Beef for Fathers Day chairman in the CowBelles, have spoken on area radio and television programs and to the Morning Kiwanis Club here. Buttons, posters and cafe placemats have been distributed to advertise the event, and marquee signs placed at the Dairy Queen, Caisson House, Hereford Credit Union and high school. The giant steer figure belonging to Big Texas Steak House in Amarillo has been loaned to the CowBelles for use in promotions through the week. Members have made hostess aprons with the organization's emblem on white organdy, to be worn by those who serve the tidbits in stores Wednesday, also by barbecue hostesses Tuesday.

'Super Star' To Speak At Baseball Banquet

Mickey Mantle, one of the "super stars" of baseball, will be in Hereford June 29 for the Boys' Baseball, Inc., annual banquet, and the deadline for buying tickets is Friday. No tickets will be sold at the door, so all dads who want to take their son to see the great Mantle should buy the tickets this week. The tickets are priced at $2 each and are on sale at Bronco and Pony League parks.

Mantle is still active with the New York Yankee organization as a spring training coach, and is involved in a variety of business enterprises. He makes his home in Dallas and has four boys of his own, ranging in age from 12 to 19.

Saves Speed Until Last

There's no sense getting burned out by early speed. At least that's the way Willie Lovell, the leading jockey at Ruidoso Downs, sized things up in the $5,195 Mesalero-Apache Handicap at 6½ furlongs.

Lovell elected to play a waiting game aboard Mystic Maker, a 3-1 shot, while Mr. Tattoo and Stubby's Kid bickered over the lead. "I knew I didn't have the speed to reach those two in the early running, so I figured I'd stay out of trouble, then try to catch them in the stretch," Lovell said.

The gameplan worked to perfection as Mystic Maker uncorked a mighty attack at the midway point, got through between Mr. Tattoos and Stubby's Kid in the upper stretch and drew away for a brilliant length win in a clocking of 1:19 flat.

This was only a second short of the track record. Stubby's Kid, ridden by Jerry Nicodemus, gave all he had in the final drive, but was no match for the winner. Mr. Tattoo, toting Gil Villescias in the top load of 124 pounds, came up short after carving out a blistering pace. He finished third.

Lovell summed up the victory this way: "My horse ran a real good race. We didn't have the speed, but we had all the strength we needed in the stretch."

Nicodemus noted: "There was no way we could keep up with Mystic Maker. At a shorter distance, I think we'd stand a much bigger chance."

Legal Notice
THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: ELDON FORD CASEY,
Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court 69th Judicial District of Deaf Smith County at the Court House thereof, in Hereford, Texas, at or before 10 o'clock A.M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 9th day of July
A.D. 1973, then and there to answer Petitioners' Petition filed in said Court, on the 25th day of May A.D. 1973, in this cause, numbered 8905 on the docket of said court and styled
'IN RE: ELDON RAY CASEY,
A MINOR'.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit: Malcolm B. Manchee
and his wife, Patsy A. Manchee, Petitioners, seek by said suit to adopt Eldon Ford Casey, a minor, alleging therein that the natural mother of said child is dead and that no consent of,
Eldon Ford Casey, the natural father of said child, is required by reason of the exceptions contained in Article 46a, Section 6(a), of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as is more fully shown by Petitioners'
Petition on file in this suit.
The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.
Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Hereford, Texas this 25th day of May A.D. 1973.

District Court, Deaf Smith County, Texas
By Virginia Easley Deputy.

NOTICE OF ENACTMENT OF ORDINANCE
IMPOSING A PENALTY

All persons will please take notice that on the 21st day of May, 1973, the City Commission of the City of Hereford, Texas, duly enacted an ordinance
imposing a penalty, the caption of said ordinance reading as follows:

ORDINANCE NO. 974
AN ORDINANCE OF THE
CITY OF HEREFORD,
TEXAS, PROHIBITING
"RIGHT TURN ON RED"
PRACTICE, AND REQUIRING
FULL STOPS OF ALL
VEHICLES FACING RED
TRAFFIC SIGNAL.

Said ordinance provides that it shall be unlawful for any person
the practice of making a "Right Turn On Red", as that term is commonly used, as may be permitted by State Law where not prohibited locally as defined by the Statutes of the State of Texas; and said ordinance
further provides for a definition of such practices, and provides for a fine of not more than $200.00 for conviction of a violation of said ordinance.

Said ordinance shall become effective from and after its publication as required by the Charter of the City of Hereford, which date shall be the 3rd day of June, 1973.

(City Seal)

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources Of The Texas Department of Agriculture
John C. White, Commissioner

June is Dairy Month... Hay Baling In Full Swing... Herbicide Warning... Keep Those Samples Coming.

Among other things, June is Dairy Month. It's a time when dairy producers are hoping everyone remembers to drink an extra glass of milk each day, not just through June, but throughout the year.

Dairy producers in Texas continue to be caught in the middle of a tightening cost-price squeeze. Even though their prices have shown some increase, their production costs have been soaring. Feed costs now are double from that of a year ago.

Dairy association spokesmen are worried about a reduction in production of milk. Reports from the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service note that there has been a reduction of almost two per cent during the first four months of this year. Dairymen are faced with rising production costs and a good market for dairy cows at their local auction markets.

The dairy industry is an important part of Texas agriculture picture. Texas ranks among the top 10 states in the nation in total production of milk; almost 3.5 billion pounds of milk were produced in Texas during 1972. Texas also is in the top 10 states in the nation in milk cow numbers with 360,000 head as of January 1.

Texas dairy producers now total about 4,000.

Top counties in milk production in Texas are Hopkins, Erath, Wise, Grimes, Johnson, Tarrant, El Paso, Parker, Bexar, and McLennan.

Milk, any dairyman will tell you, is Nature's most perfect food. So, now is the time to enjoy summer with extra helpings of dairy products.

HAY baling is now in full swing throughout the state. Baling was off to a slow start due to the weather, but a good hay crop is expected in most sections of Texas.

Range and pasture conditions are good to excellent but moisture is needed to maintain present levels of grazing.

REMINDERS are being issued to users of 2,4-D and other hormone-type herbicides about their use during this time of year. Cotton is growing throughout the state, and that crop as well as many other is highly susceptible to herbicide drift.

If you're using 2,4-D or other such type herbicides, be sure not to use it if the wind velocity is above 10 miles per hour. The herbicide can drift several miles.

Herbicides such as 2,4-D are valuable production tools for agricultural producers but they must also be used with care and concern.

About a third of the state's counties are regulated under the Texas herbicide law.

Better Communications Urged Between Farmer And Cutter

Emphasis will be on better communications between the wheat farmer and the custom cutter.

The Field Crops Subcommittee of the Oldham County Program Building Committee has planned to help the farmer by setting up a centralized system of pooling the farmers who need custom cutters in the area.

Custom operators can also leave information as to how they can be reached. If persons are interested, call or come by the Oldham County Extension Office and leave name and phone number. This information will be placed on the bulletin board on the first floor of the courthouse in Vega, on State Highway 385.

Oldham County Extension Agent, Jimmie Walker, said there would be about 57,400 acres of wheat to be cut in Oldham County. He said the dryland wheat crop looks very good.

Interested custom cutters should go by the county courthouse at Vega or call the county extension office at 267-3586 or 267-3071.

Hereford Man Elected To Board

The first biennial election of the Texas Wheat Producers Board which was conducted by mail throughout the month of May among the organization's 16,000 producers ended with the canvassing of ballots today (June 5), according to Bill Nelson, Vice President.

Re-elected to serve full six-year terms after having drawn two short terms on the initial board formed in 1971, were Leo Witkowski of Hereford and Delbert Timmons of Perryton.

Winston Wilson, a 29-year-old wheat producer — community leader from Quanah, was elected to begin serving a full six year term when installed at the next meeting of the Board in August.

4-H's Place In Round-Up

Sandra Stwllings, daughter of Mrs. Norene Stallings, and Kim Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Simpson, placed 5th in the poultry marketing demonstration at State 4-H Round-up this week.

Britt Hicks placed 6th in the farm and ranch management. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hicks.

Results are not available at this time on the range and forage crop demonstration given by Ricky Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Coleman and Sam Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Finley.

Celebration Belles

Make Debut

HELP IN ADJUSTING her bonnet is given Mrs. J.C. McCracken, pianist for the fashion parade, by Mrs. Bob Josserand, who with Mrs. Richard Ottesen, right, planned the luncheon. Other hostesses were wives of Jubilee executive committee members, Mmes. Earnest Langley, R.W. Eades, Dale Young, Lynton Allred and Jim Conkwright, and Mrs. Claude McDougal.

WOMEN'S PART in the celebration of Hereford's 75th anniversary was begun with enthusiasm at a luncheon Thursday at the Country Club, and chapters of the Celebration Belles are to be organized under leadership of those who attended.

FASHIONS OF EARLY DAYS in Hereford, and even earlier days, were paraded in a style show of costumes which may be purchased and worn by the Belles as they take part in the pre-celebration activities to publicize the week of Diamond Jubilee programs scheduled Aug. 25-Sept. 1.

REPRESENTATIVES OF women's organizations in the county and wives of men on Diamond Jubilee committees were invited to the lunch and asked to act as leaders in forming groups to promote the celebration both in this city and over the mid-plains area.

I WAS STROLLING In The Park One Day, warbles Dale Young, Jubilee chairman, as he escorts a parasol-twirling Belle, Mrs. Jim Arney, on a promenade around the room. His was one of the popular songs of the turn of the century heard during the entertainment.

GIBSON GIRLS in trim shirtwaists and long black skirts were in high style when Hereford was new. Mrs. Harlan VanderZee and Mrs. Bobby Viegel model these, with pompadour and ringleted hairstyles to fit.

BATHING BEAUTIES in 1898 were not like those today, but Mrs. Mack Cansler and Mrs. John Hays, standing, and Mrs. Lewis Block manage to put a bit of glamour into the clumsy "bathing dresses" of those days.

THREE DIFFERENT styles of costumes which the Belles may wear are modeled, complete with fans and parasols, by Mrs. Bill Griffin, Mrs. Claude McDougal and Mrs. Shepard Townsend in the photo at right.

Nuptial Mass Conducted Saturday For Couple

A Saturday afternoon ceremony in a church setting was the marriage of Miss Virginia Downey to Edward Artho of White Deer. The Rev. Thomas Irlbeck of St. Michael's Catholic Church of Ralls, officiated for the nuptial mass at St. Anthony's Church.

Miss Downey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Downey, Route 5, and Artho is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Artho, Wildorado.

Miss Debbie Connelly served the bride as maid of honor and Sam Haschke was best man. The bride's sister, Miss Cindy Downey, was the bridesmaid and the bridegroom's brother, Arnold Artho, was groomsman. Ushers were Walter Vogler and relatives of the couple, Dennis Downey of Lubbock, Raymond Artho and Dennis Hartman.

Paula and Mike Irlbeck, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Irlbeck of Tulla, were flower girl and ring bearer. Altar boys were Harold and Dewayne Artho, brothers of the bridegroom.

Miss Leslie Euler sang Twelfth of Never, Lord's Prayer, and theme airs from motion pictures, Love Story and Romeo and Juliet. Miss Margaret Schilling, organist, accompanied Miss Euler. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over bridal taffeta designed with a fitted empire bodice trimmed with Venice lace. The scooped neckline was also edged in lace.

Full sleeves were gathered at the cuff and ruffled over her hands. Rows of Venice lace traced a pattern over the skirt and around the hemline. She wore a matching chapel length veil edged in lace.

The bride carried a nosegay of yellow sweetheart roses surrounded with daisies, white bows and streamers.

Her attendants wore yellow dresses with raised waistlines, scooped necks and sashes tied at center back. Sleeves were gathered at the short cuffs and each carried a single yellow rose with yellow streamers.

Miss Yvonne Duggan served the three-tier cake with Miss Bridget Mazurek serving punch at the wedding reception. The table was decorated with a floral arrangement of orange, yellow and white flowers.

Miss Karen Gresham invited guests to the registry at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The bride wore a white pantsuit as her traveling costume. The couple will be at home after June 14 in White Deer.

Mrs. Artho is a junior at Hereford High School and is a candidate for graduation this summer. Artho is a 1972 graduate from HHS and is presently engaged in farming.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Irlbeck of Canyon, the bridegroom's grandparents.

Shower Honors Holly Young

Holly Young was honored at a miscellaneous shower Saturday morning in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas building. Miss Young and Ronnie Etheridge plan to marry June 23.

Receiving guests with Miss Young was her mother, Mrs. Melvin Young, her grandmother, Mrs. Nora Williams and Mrs. A. E. Etheridge. They were presented corsages by the hostesses as were the servers.

Miss Young wore a pastel blue and pink empire dress with long puffed sleeves with cuffs. Buttons decorated the front of the spring dress.

Refreshments of coffee, punch, coffee rolls and fruit were served at the morning brunch. Serving were Connie Matthews, Elizabeth Phillips and Jeanne Coffin.

Rainbow colors of yellow, pink and green were carried out in the flower arrangement of daisies and carnations. The floral centerpiece was placed in a silver epergne. A yellow satin cloth covered the table.

Approximately 50 guests were present.

Hosting the shower were Mes. Alvin Smith, Dale Young, Don Baird, Bob Guinn, T. L. Bryant, Tom Draper, Jimmy Gillentine, Elmer Patterson, J. R. Oglesby, Wayne Phillips and Bruce Miller.

ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION

On May 14, 1913, John D. Rockefeller donated $100 million to establish the Rockefeller Foundation for the "well-being of mankind."

Parish To Celebrate Saint's Feast Day

St. Anthony's Parish celebrates the feast day of its patron saint, St. Anthony of Padua, today.

A basket dinner will follow the 12-noon Mass with games throughout the afternoon.

Father J.A. Campbell, the founder of St. Anthony's in Hereford, came to Umbarger in 1908 and ministered to the scattered Catholics from Canyon to Farwell with a bicycle as his means of transportation.

In 1910, he purchased the old Deaf Smith County Court House that had been moved across the street to Fourth and Sampson to make room for the present courthouse.

He established a chapel in the building in 1911 and named it in honor of St. Anthony of Padua, the miracle worker.

In 1913, Father Campbell settled permanently in Hereford using some rooms of the courthouse as his residence. In 1922, the first St. Anthony's church was remodeled from the old court house.

Russian Jews fear reprisals

The text of a letter to leaders of American Jewish communities was released by a group of 100 Russian Jews recently, appealing to them not to accept at face value the Soviet government's assurances that Jews will be allowed to emigrate freely.

"Our fate has not improved. We fear reprisals. For many of us Israel may be replaced by jails," the letter said.

Celebration Belles Organize At Lunch

Celebration Belles who will aid in promoting and staging the Diamond Jubilee in Hereford this summer had their sendoff at a luncheon in Hereford Country club Thursday, with approximately 150 present.

Invited for the lunch were representatives of women's organizations in the county, and wives of men on the Jubilee committee.

Each was asked to take the lead in forming a chapter of the Celebration Belles, either in her club or church group, or an unsponsored chapter of 10 or more members.

Purpose of these chapters, Mrs. Bob Joserand explained, will be to assist in the weeklong events marking the city's 75th anniversary, beginning with a parade Aug. 25; to stage such events as a tasting spree, July promenades, a Ladies Day in Jubilee week and a home tour; to conduct caravans, appear on radio and television programs and otherwise publicize the Jubilee over this area.

Chapters are to be formed by June 20, and the organization sheets returned to celebration headquarters by that time. Each member is to receive a bonnet, badge and certificate as she pays her fee of $2. Individuals may become members for the same fee.

Costumes suggestive of pioneer days are also available and the Belles will be encouraged to wear them in public appearances heralding the Jubilee.

These range in style from the "wagon train" dresses with hoopskirts, which antedated the beginning of Hereford, to dancehall girl costumes, turn-of-the-century bathing suits, and the long skirts and sunbonnets which were typical of earlyday women in this county.

Different costumes to be on sale, were modeled in an amusingly nostalgic style show at the lunch, with Mrs. Clint Formby as narrator and Mrs. J. C. McCracken playing appropriate oldtime tunes on the piano.

Mrs. O. G. Hill Jr. and Mrs. Steve Clements are in charge of dress orders; Mrs. R. C. Hoelscher and Mrs. Terry Schoenhard of the Celebration Belles supplies. Susan Wartes and Sherry Hughes sold these supplies after the lunch Thursday.

Hostesses in the Country Club rooms were Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr., general chairman of women's activities; Mrs. Richard Ottesen and Mrs. Joserand, who planned the lunch; Mrs. Claude McDougal, committee secretary, and women whose husbands are on the Jubilee executive committee.

In the latter group are Mes. Dale Young, Jim Conkwright, Lynton Allred, R. W. Eades and Earnest Langley.

Mrs. Keith Simmer and Mrs.

Reinauer made the luncheon invitations, decorated with sunbonnet cutouts; Mrs. Jack Wilcox headed the committee which made cornhusk dolls and flower arrangements for the tables.

First of the women's events is scheduled for July 17, a tasting spree at the County Bull Barn, Mrs. Joe Frank Huckert announced. She and Mrs. Glenn Watts are co-chairmen of arrangements.

Women are invited to submit a recipe for a collection being made for publication, and to bring a dish made from the recipe to the tasting spree.

Plans are underway for the first caravan trip also, with Mrs. Jimmie Gillentine as chairman. It will go to Amarillo, Canyon, and to Palo Duro Canyon for a performance of the musical, Texas, to advertise the Jubilee.

Polaroid Guarantees Every Picture You Take With These Cameras
If you don't like a picture, you can take another one free

If you buy one of Polaroid's Focused Flash cameras during this special offer, every picture you take until next July will be guaranteed. It's true. Polaroid guarantees you'll be delighted with all the pictures you take—or you'll get free film to take them over again. Here's how it works: You'll receive a booklet of coupons when you purchase your camera. Each one entitles you to return to Polaroid any color pictures you take and judge to be unsatisfactory for any photographic reason for free replacement Colorpack film before July 1, 1973.

Polaroid can offer this unusual guarantee because they feel the Focused Flash Land camera and Colorpack Land film make an almost foolproof combination. Focused Flash keeps your flash shots from coming out too light or too dark. An electric eye and electronic shutter automatically control your other shots. Indoors or OUT, there's never an exposure calculation to be concerned with.

Bride-Elect Is Honoree

Billee Goetsch, bride-elect of Mark Landrum, was honored recently with a shower in Canyon, where she has been a WTSU student. Miss Goetsch and her fiancé plan to marry August 4.

Receiving guests with Miss Goetsch were her mother, Mrs. W. H. Goetsch, and Mrs. Harold Landrum of Canyon.

The serving table was covered with a pale green cloth and the centerpiece of daisies was flanked by apricot candles in silver holders.

Hostesses were Susan Coleman of Portales, WTSU roommate of Miss Goetsch's, Mrs. Bynum Sparks of Boy's Ranch and Mrs. Clint Hurst of Canyon.

Guests were Mrs. Terry Landrum and Mrs. Jerry Landrum of Canyon, Mrs. W. J. Sparks and Sharon Williams of Amarillo; Winnie Stewart of Boy's Ranch, Mrs. Elmer Johnson and Mrs. Robert Ezel of Canyon, and Dianne Broadway of Panhandle.

Member Of Hereford Families Is Bride

The marriage of Miss Kara Sue Galley and Stephen Mac Thomas, both of Amarillo, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at Paramount Baptist Church in that city with the Rev. C.N. Rue officiating. The bride, formerly of Hereford, has close relatives here.

Miss Galley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harold Galley of Amarillo. Grandparents are Walter R. Galley of Center, Colorado, and the late Mrs. Galley, former residents of Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Roberson of Hereford.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lofton Leo Thomas of Amarillo.

Mrs. Joe McKay was matron of honor and best man was the bridegroom's brother, Ron Thomas of Dallas. Mrs. Allen Garrett and Jackie Smith were bridesmatron and groomsmen.

Ushers for the ceremony were Joe McKay and Allen Garrett. Diane Fletcher was flower girl.

Nelson Rue presented solo selections, accompanied by Mrs. Orval Galley of Hereford, organist.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the church foyer. Mrs. Ron Thomas registered guests. Serving punch and cake were Mrs. Jackie Smith and Miss Janice Galley.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Tascosa High School, has attended Amarillo College and is presently employed by the Cloth World office in Amarillo.

Thomas also graduated from THS in 1972 and is employed by Connelly Implement Co.

Mrs. Carson K. Diggs
... nee Anne Prichard

Anne Prichard Is Bride In Wedding In Virginia

Miss Patricia Anne Prichard, faculty member at La Plata Junior High, and Carson K. Diggs of Roanoke, Virginia were married in a Saturday evening ceremony in Andrews Chapel of the Methodist Church at Cashville, Virginia. The Rev. Darrell Bays of the church officiated.

Miss Prichard is the daughter of Col. (USAF Ret.) and Mrs. Artist Hudson Prichard Jr. of Ft. Worth and Diggs is the son of Mrs. J. Drummond Parker and the late A. Linwood Diggs Sr. of Onancock, Va.

Baskets of mixed white flowers and magnolia leaves decorated the chapel.

Mrs. Paul K. Carlton, Jr. of San Antonio sister of the bride, was matron of honor and best man was Linwood Diggs of Virginia Beach, brother of the bridegroom.

Miss Patsy Giles, Mrs. Linwood Diggs, Miss Susan Ann Bentley of Dallas, cousin of the bride, and Miss Kimberley Lyme Prichard of Ft. Worth, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Groomsmen and ushers were Stephan Starkey of Onancock, Alec Nuttal of Gloucester, Va., Charles Ratcliff of Chesapeake, Va., Marion Holston of Canyon, Jeffrey Diggs of Virginia Beach, Capt. Paul Carleton and the bride's brother, Lt. Michael Prichard of Minot, N.D.

Janine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Diggs, was train bearer. C. Brooks Russell, vocal soloist was accompanied by Charles Seidig, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore the gown her mother and then her sister had worn in their weddings.

The floor length gown was of antique ivory satin with a basque bodice and long fitted sleeves. Lace appliques accented the sweetheart neckline and the full skirt swept into a chapel train.

Her full length mantilla veil of ivory illusion was trimmed with lace edging and scattered appliques of reembodyered Alencon lace. She carried white roses and baby breath.

Mrs. Carlton wore a floor length green satin sleeveless dress with rhinestone buttons at the shoulder. Bridesmaids were dressed in jonquil yellow chiffon with yellow satin cuffs on the long full sleeves, and satin trim at the jeweled neckline. Floor length satin panels attached at the neckline accented the back of each gown. They carried nosegays of green pompons.

Among members of the houseparty assisting with the reception was Mrs. Raymond Barber of Hereford.

The couple will be at home after June 15 at Roanoke.

The bride is a graduate of West Texas State University and is a member of Chi Omega, Delta Kappa Gamma and AAUW. Diggs graduated from Virginia Wesleyan College, Norfolk. He was twice elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. He is currently a rehabilitation teacher for the Virginia Commission for the Visually Handicapped in Roanoke.

Mrs. Diggs is the granddaughter of Mrs. Hud Prichard and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harter of Canyon.

Pre-nuptial courtesies included a personal shower at the home of Mrs. Norman Kerr, a recipe shower at the home of Mrs. Jon Birdsong and a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Bob Word.

Discovery may lead to pharaoh's tomb

Cairo University archaeologists have discovered the tomb of the priest who embalmed the body of Chefnen, the pharaoh who ruled Egypt from 2680 B.C. to 2563 and was buried in one of the great pyramids at Giza.

The discovery is considered to be important as it may throw light on the whereabouts of the pharaoh's tomb, which has never been located.

Melodrama To Be Staged

Hissing the villain and cheering the hero will be quite apropos at a summer melodrama to be presented Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the Music Stand, by a group of actors who call themselves the Music Stand Players.

Opening performances were staged Thursday and Friday, to an audience of Music Stand Club members. The showings this week will be open to the public.

The two-act "mellodrammer" with its traditional spotless heroine, stalwart hero and dastardly villain, is titled The Chips Are Down, or Virtue Triumphs O'er The Laws of Chance.

It has a western flavor, with a setting on the Wyoming ranch of Ben Blueberry.

Cast members are from the Hereford Community Players, although this summer show is not a Community Players production. They are headed by David Emerick as Stainless Steele, the fearless hero; Paula Haug as Lilac Valentine, our heroine, and John Claypool as Dirty Dan, the sneaky villain.

Amy and John Gilliland have the roles of the ranch owners, Ben, who is addicted to gambling and strong drink, and Martha, an upright supporter of the temperance movement. Joyce Haug will appear as Bertha Finch, another temperance supporter, and Kay Claypool as her too-sweet daughter, Prudence.

Joyce Johnson is directing and Elston Clark is the pianist, who performs in music hall style and accompanies an audience sing-along which Sylvia Emerick directs.

PIONEER

You are invited ... to good times, good food

... in your own backyard with an outdoor gas grill and gas light. You can cook up a party at a moment's notice, because a gas grill is ready to cook in minutes. And it's so easy to cook on because you can control the heat. With a gas grill there's no charcoal mess, and you still get that delicious, outdoor char-broiled flavor that comes from the smoke of meat juices dripping on permanent ceramic briquets.

Besides the good times you'll have cooking out, you enjoy the convenience of having a gas grill. You'll probably find yourself cooking on it just because you wanted to get out of the kitchen or didn't want to mess up the broiler of your kitchen range.

All prices include normal post-type installation (up to 50 feet of line) and 5% sales tax.
*Budget terms are available at 12.75% annual interest on declining balance.

Debra Bowers Weds In Chapel At AF Academy

A traditional military wedding was conducted for the marriage of Miss Debra Ann Bowers and Lt. James R. Kalkman, Jr. of Canton, Ohio, Thursday evening.

The service was held in the U.S. Air Force Academy chapel in Colorado Springs, with Chaplain Rice of the academy officiating. Lt. Kalkman had received his commission as an Air Force officer in academy graduation exercises earlier in the week.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Joe D. Bowers, 207 Grand Ave., and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kalkman of Canton.

Decorating the chapel were baskets of white gladiolas and greenery and on either side of the altar were white tapers in spiral candelsticks.

Sisters of the couple served as matrons of honor to the bride, Mrs. Albert Cupell of Friona and Mrs. Horace T. Hall of Alto, California.

Bridesmaids were Misses Mary Keyes of Amarillo, Charlene Weaver and Janene Suttle. Fellow students served Lt. Kalkman as groomsmen, Lts. David Harmon, John McDevitt, Mike Laney and Genaro Cuomo.

In the tradition of military ceremonies the couple walked under sabres borne by Patrick Pondrom, Jay Jolly, Gerry Garner, Randy VanScoyk, Donald Fick and Michael Balse.

The bride's niece, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cupell, Tonya Cupell was the flower girl and ring bearer was Jason Van Sweden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Sweden of Raton, New Mexico.

The chapel organist played customary marches and other selections.

Mr. Bowers gave his daughter in marriage. She wore an old fashioned floor length gown of organdy and filet lace. It was designed with a high neck with a lace panel down the bodice and wide ruffle around the bottom. The full sheer sleeves were trimmed with lace ruffles.

Her tiered net veil was edged matching lace and attached to a satin caplet. She carried a cascade of yellow cymbidiums. Her bouquet covered a Bible given to her by her grandmother, which her sister also carried in her wedding.

Attendants to the bride wore long yellow dresses, the side draped bodices with buttons on the shoulders. Headpieces matched the dresses. The flower girl wore a long full yellow dress with short puffed sleeves. They carried nosegays of white carnations and lavender stephenotis with yellow streamers.

Miss Suttle served the three-tier cake which was topped with flowers to match the bride's colors. Miss Weaver served punch from a table centered with a large wedding candle surrounded by the attendants' bouquets.

Miss Keyes invited guests to the registry at the Mess Hall on the campus.

The bride wore a pantsuit of yellow trimmed in lavender and a corsage from her bridal bouquet for her traveling costume. The couple will be at home after August 15 in Boloxi, Miss.

Mrs. Kalkman graduated from Hereford High School and has just completed her junior year at West Texas State University.

Out-of-town guests in addition to the bride's parents included Mr. and Mrs. Deri Lovells of Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. E.F. Reif Snyders of Canton, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kalkman.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner in the Satalite Banquet room at the Air Force Academy.

Mrs. F.R. Pickens had as guests last weekend her great-granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Myerson of Chicago. Mrs. Jewell Malone of Quanah, Mrs. Winnie Wiseman of Hereford and Rev. and Mrs. Jim T. Pickens, Larisa Ann and James Mac of Dimmitt. Rev. Pickens is pastor of First United Methodist Church in Dimmitt and the son of Mrs. F.R. Pickens. He is being transferred to Forest Heights Methodist Church in Lubbock.

On a spring bright Sunday, the home of Joe Davis and his sister, Mrs. J.E. Shirkey, 420 Sunset Drive, proved a delightful place for an open house party for the residents of Kings Manor, Westgate, Cottagers and some townspeople. The hosts received from 2 p.m. through the afternoon. Guests made a tour of the home.

Davis' son Robert, and his wife, Rose Ann, were house guests. She was at the serving table along with Mmes. W.D. hale, E.O. Stewart, L.N. Cox, and S.O. Wilson. Mmes. Henry Vaughn and H.C. Kendrick registered guests.

Robert Davis sang with Mrs. J.C. McCracken accompanying. He chose the ever popular Danny Boy, Moon River and Were You There?

Punch, coffee and cookies were served to about 75 guests.

Deaf Smith County Receives Golden Achievement Award

Deaf Smith County was presented the Golden Achievement award at the Texas Division meeting of the American Cancer Society held recently in Lubbock.

The award is presented annually to counties who reach an all time high in collecting funds for the cancer crusade. Deaf Smith County reached $12,100 this year.

Representing Deaf Smith County at the meeting were Mrs. Lois Gilliland, Mrs. Peggy Higgins and Jake Webb.

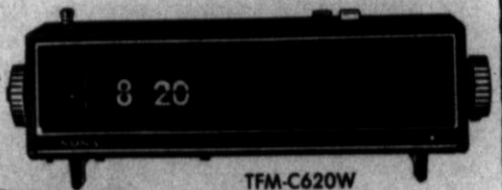

Keynote speaker was Dr. Gerald L. Woolam, associate clinical professor surgeon at Texas Tech University School of Medicine. Woolam spoke on human values and cancer with a new medical concept in the treatment of cancer patients. He enlarged on this by saying no longer could physicians tell a cancer patient how long he had to live, but that it now depends on the patient's will and tolerance of drugs and cancer treatment.

Cyclist Tells Tales Of Spain

By Argen Aragon

Home Demonstration Agent

RAY FARMER CAME TO the office while he was visiting in Hereford. We are always glad to see Ray and are proud of his record as a career Navy man. Ray has been in Japan, Vietnam, Laos, Thailand, Australia, bases in the United States and is now stationed in Spain.

Ray has always liked motorcycles and had a real story about motorcycle racing in Spain. He has raced in all the places he's been stationed but it seems Spain has different regulations from other countries.

Japanese bike and to his surprise, he was told by the race officials to take that bike home and park it, as it wasn't Spanish made.

It goes without saying that Ray now is breezing around on a Bulto motorcycle from the Spanish factory. Too, in six months, Ray has won high point rider for the Naval Base's Cuatro - Caminos Motorcycle Club.

Ray says he has almost 20 years service with the Navy. Sometime soon, we'll see Ray and family back in Hereford and Ray will probably be buzzing around on a motorcycle, which seems to be a very pleasant hobby for him.

Before he went to Spain, he requested racing permission through his commanding officer. The request is for the people-to-people program—that is racing with the host nation. This permission has to come by executive order of the President of the United States.

After a year's time, a Spanish license was granted and Ray is proud of his first racing season—he came in fifth in 19 races. This was junior class which means initial race season.

In this series of races, evidently a composite score is kept on the 19 races; Ray rode a JULY WEDDING PLANNED—Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Beaver of Clovis, New Mexico, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jo Sondra, to Dr. Cliff A. Skiles, DVM, of Hereford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Skiles of Plano. July 14 is the date set for the wedding to be held in Lovis. Miss Beaver is a senior at West Texas State University and is a member of Chi Omega social sorority. Dr. Skiles is a consulting veterinarian. He is a graduate of Texas A&M and is practicing in Hereford.

Silver Anniversary Reception Slated

Married here 25 years ago and Hereford residents ever since, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Higgins will be honored at a Silver Anniversary reception from 2 to 5 p.m. today in the REC Medallion Room.

Friends of the couple are invited to call during reception hours. Hosts at the party will be the Higgins' son, Clifford, and his wife who reside in Fort Worth, and Mrs. Higgins' sisters.

They include Mrs. Inman Larson and Jimmie Bradley, Mrs. E.J. Dorris of Texico and Stella Sevier of El Paso. A niece, Beverly Bradley, will also assist.

Mrs. Higgins is the former Alta Mae Fortenberry, daughter of Mrs. Jack Fortenberry of the Bippus community and the late Mr. Fortenberry.

The marriage was solemnized June 12, 1948.

Small Talk

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

BEARD-GROWING MEN IN Hereford are hearing all sorts of comments about the whiskers they are sprouting in the good cause of Diamond Jubilee promotion, and maybe the most unkindest was addressed to Bill Brady Thursday.

He was the only man in a mass of women crowding into the Country Club for the kickoff luncheon for women's Jubilee activity, so he drew plenty of comment on his luxuriant full beard.

As a born-and-bred Deaf Smith County cowman, he sort of flinched when Louella Cowser commented, "You look like an old sheep herder!"

Maybe he appreciated Teddy Alexander's more tactful remark, "You look like a real pioneer!" Nobody said anything about a prospector just in from the hills, but he could have posed for that picture.

A CENTRAL TEXAS vacation was enjoyed by the Roy Faubions last week, LaWanda says, just ahead of the hot summer weather. They were in Kingsland, and at Temple they visited the Don Chanays, former Hereford folks.

A new boat is a recent addition to the Chaney family, they said, so lots of time was spent at the lake.

A PROFUSION OF ROSES that enhanced the flowery look at W. T. Carmichael house when Ruby Carmichael and Bessie Story gave their party Thursday, were the gift of Susie Lipscomb.

It surely is nice to have friends who grow pretty roses, especially when they are generous with the blossoms at an appropriate time!

PROGRAM CHAIRMEN for clubs who are seeking ideas this month for next year's programs, might like the suggestion from the Satellite Center board of directors that material and speakers are available to tell about the work of that community agency.

There are film strips and people to show and comment on the films, which should make an interesting presentation for any group interested in the Satellite School and its work with retarded children and adults.

In fact, a whole year of club programs might be based on the agencies which serve this community, and most members would find out a lot they don't know about all of them, I suspect.

A ceremony in First Church of the Nazarene is planned. Miss Crist and her fiancé are both 1973 graduates of Hereford High School. Thompson is employed at the Firestone Store and the couple will make a home here. (Brady photo)

Hawaiian Color Features Party

Greeted by "aloha" from hostesses who wore leis of orchid blossoms, approximately a hundred guests enjoyed an early summer party in Hawaiian motif, given by Mrs. W.T. Carmichael and Mrs. Joe Story Thursday.

The two women entertained with both morning and afternoon parties in Mrs. Carmichael's home, where tropical blooms flown from Hawaii blended their color with that of roses from Hereford yards in a luxuriant floral setting.

Fruits as exotic as the flowers — papaya, coconut and pineapple, were among the tidbits served with coffee from a table which had in its central bouquet the blooms of antherium, bird-of-paradise and red ginger.

Hawaiian music, recorded, played as a background to the informal conversation of guests.

Corsages of orchids were worn by houseparty members: Mrs. A.J. Schroeter and Mrs. Lois Carmichael of worn by houseparty members: Mrs. A.J. Schroeter and Mrs. Lois Carmichael of Friona, who poured coffee for the morning callers; Mmes. R.G. Peeler and G.S. Wheeler, serving at the first afternoon hour; Mmes. James Hudgens and Glenn Bilbrey, at the final hour.

GIRLS STATE DELEGATES—Babette Stengel, left, will leave Tuesday with others from over the Panhandle to attend the 10-day Bluebonnet Girls State at Seguin. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Stengel, she was chosen to represent the American Legion Auxiliary here; alternate is Margaret Schillings, daughter of the Edward Schillings. Girls State is an annual event sponsored by the Auxiliary to give Texas girls a firsthand view of the workings of government in America.

Cultural Club Meeting Is Held In Kings Manor

Two members of Cultural Extension Club who live in Kings Manor Retirement home were hostesses Friday afternoon in the Garden Room of the Manor. Mrs. J. D. Love and Novella Stallings entertained the group.

The Art of Quilting was the topic which members discussed informally, as they reviewed a proposal for a quilt display and a demonstration of quilting as a part of the city's Diamond Jubilee late in August.

This was the final program of a club year, but a luncheon was scheduled for June 22 in the home of Mrs. M. H. Wiseman as a post-season social occasion.

New officers to begin terms in September were elected at a recent meeting. They include Mrs. Grady Parsons as president, Mrs. M. W. Summer vice president, Mrs. Ira Scott secretary-treasurer with Mrs. John Hunter assistant, Mrs. Hilrey Aven and Mrs. J. G. Gandy Council delegates, Mrs. Paul Corbett reporter and Mrs. Wiseman assistant.

Kings Manor residents, were Mrs. Lee Curry, Ruby McLaughlin, Gladys Lair, Thelma Chisum and Mrs. Hewitt.

Teachers Attend WTSU Workshop

Three Hereford school teachers are currently attending a conservation workshop through June 22 at West Texas State University in Canyon.

They are Mrs. Wanda Verschelde (232 Greenwood), Mrs. Bera Boyd (118 Centre) and Mrs. Carolyn Waters (224 Ave. E). All teach elementary classes in the Hereford public schools.

Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Waters are attending the workshop by scholarships given by the Tierra Blanca District of the Texas Soil & Water Conservation Districts.

The workshop is a survey and study of all types of conservation ranging from water, forest, soil and energy resource conservation to aspects of pollution, open space and growth problems.

Several outstanding men in the conservation field will be guest lecturers during the workshop. Some of these specialists include John Wright, range specialist, U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Service; Gerald Hudson, engineer, Air Pollution Control Service, Texas State Department of Health; and John Haislet, Texas Forest Service, Texas A & M University.

A day-long field trip to observe land, water and environmental conservation problems will conclude the workshop. This trip will be followed by the final session of summary and evaluation.

By the Garden Gate

With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

Have just finished having breakfast on the patio. It was such a wonderful morning. The sun was warm and bright, birds singing in the tree tops and the world all washed clean and bright with the recent rain, that I could not refuse the inviting beauty of the garden.

Quickly I arranged the table with a colorful mat, an arrangement of fruit and driftwood, and took a tray of food consisting of fresh strawberries on grape-nuts with rich cream, hot coffee fresh from the urn and a tasty sandwich of sail free bread, peanut-butter and jelly.

Hard to tell which I enjoyed most, the food or the myriad colors of iris, roses, sweet peas, heliotrope falling water of the fountain, the verdant grass or the lush foliage of the stately trees? Truthfully, I would vote for the created beauty.

Like all good things this had to come to an end, and the dishes had to be done as well as other Saturday chores, some of which included do's and don'ts of gardening.

WHAT TO DO IN JUNE in the garden: The basic work has been done or at least is well on its way to completion but June is the time to keep the garden growing and free from pests and diseases.

It is very important to keep plants growing without check. Vegetables, cutting garden, flower beds and borders will be in need of frequent cultivation of the soil to stimulate the proper growth.

After cultivation ground around the plants should be mulched, unless they are growing among grass or other ground covers. I have learned that it is a very good garden practice to grow ground covers, and to mulch where the soil is bare at the base of the growing plants.

It cuts down on maintenance and promotes steady growth. A word of caution: in cultivating vegetables, trees, shrubs and flowers use care where the roots grow near the top of the soil. They can be harmed by cultivation if it is done too deep. Many of our plants do have roots near the surface.

Another factor in proper maintenance is systematic watering. Transplanted plants and any plants which have recently been set should be kept well watered.

While watering and cultivating, a cautious gardener will keep close watch for insects and diseases. Some of the most common insects are aphids. They are a small, soft bodied green insect which sucks juices from plants. They are found feeding on new growth and buds.

Tender new growth on roses (note especially on the young buds) chrysanthemums, and many other plants are their favorites. They can be controlled by consistent spraying of malathion. They also often appear on the tender growth of iris.

If not controlled they will be very detrimental to your choice plants. Another remedy for them is to dust plants with nicotine sulfate solution, however I prefer spraying.

Thrips are common on many plants and have been particularly harmful to gladiolas and roses. They can be detected by the presence of whitish spots on leaves and stems, and with roses they are often within the folds of the petals, having started their destruction by imbedding themselves in the bud as it is being formed.

This can be detected by the development of the opening of the blossom. If it is slow and does not reach full maturity then it would be well to take one of the buds which has an appearance of wilt or discoloration on tip of petals. Ants can be detected by checking flowerbeds, shrubby borders and lawn. They are real pests. To control spray with chlordane.

Whiteflies are small sucking insects that fly out in clouds from undersides of the leaves when an infested plant is disturbed. They are especially bad on asters, calendulas, coleus, columbine, golden glow and lantana. Malathion is a recommended control. Whiteflies secrete a honeydew on which black sooty mold feeds and grows.

Mealybugs, small oval sucking insects, are covered with white powdery wax that resembles meal. They cluster in leaf axils and on undersides of leaves. They also infest roses, crotons, cactus, coleus and other plants. To control apply diazinon.

Spider mites are microscopic insects, difficult to see without a magnifying glass. They are enemies to many of our favorite plants. Verbenas, chrysanthemums, and jumpers are some that they attack. They are real pests, and there are various kinds. Kelthane usually is recommended to control them.

These which I have mentioned are juice-sucking insects; they do not eat foliage but suck out the plant juices and if left will kill the plant.

There are other garden enemies which are tissue-eating insects which feed on leaf, stem, stalk or root. Some of the most common are caterpillars, larvae of moths, butterflies. Eat holes in leaves, and can be very harmful to plants. They are usually with us through the summer. Isotox is recommended for spray.

Cankerworms (known probably to most of us as measuring worms) crawl along on leaves, stems etc., and in motion they form a hump with the body, as if measuring from one point to another.

They are enemies of fruit trees in spring, and other foliage plants or shrubs. They can strip trees completely. Isotox or malathion are recommended, also a spray of nicotine. (Use care in using the latter as it is very poison.)

Grasshoppers chew leaves and tender stems. They often attack in swarms (perhaps better classified as invading armies). Chlordane spray is effective when used generously after first hatch.

Also the use of bran or meal moistened with nicotine or other recommended poisons. Caution: do not use the latter if there are small children or pets.

Leaf hoppers feed on underside of leaves, hop away quickly when disturbed. Foliage shows where they have attacked by becoming stippled with white dots. This garden pest some times carries viruses. Dust with rotenone or one of the other named sprays.

Beetles (spotted cucumber beetle) emerge in mid-summer to chew flowers and leaves. They especially prey on light colored blooms. If dry and hot, dusting powder is recommended or a spray of malathion or isotox.

Red spider mites are most common unseen attackers. Leaves turn yellow, gray or burned brown. Should be checked immediately. A preventative is to spray with a dormant spray in late winter on evergreens.

Another method for controlling red spider mites is to use the water hose in the late evening. Attach spray attachment which will have the most force. Turn water on full strength, and spray evergreens and other plants with the water steam (be sure it is strong).

With up and down motion spray thoroughly, follow this procedure for several times, then rest several days and use again. The Witherspoons used to have the loveliest evergreens in town and this was the method that Mr. W. used for years.

There are many other garden enemies and we will continue discussion next week. Have had a very pleasant week. Visited in the Frank Ball garden. They have two of the loveliest honey locust trees in town. They are almost perfect twin trees.

Lawns are beautifully kept, and there was an abundance of bloom, with promise of more when the annuals start blooming. Mrs. B. was having trouble with one of her climbing roses . . . it had thrips. It is an

Social Security

Q. I dropped my eye glasses and broke them. I am far-sighted and have to have glasses in order to drive my auto. Will Medicare pay for a new pair?

A. No. Medicare pays only for the glasses that people wear after a cataract operation. All other kind of eye glasses are excluded from coverage.

Q. Is there a maximum Social Security benefit amount that can be paid to a family? I've been told that some families have received several thousand dollars.

A. It is not unusual to pay a young father and his dependents between $1000,000 and $150,000 in social security benefits during his lifetime. Disability benefits are paid every month, as long as a person remains disabled. There is no limit on the length of time a person may receive social security disability or retirement benefits.

APPROACHING MARRIAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Pablo Liscano, 804 Irving, announce the engagement of their daughter, Eva, to Johnny J. Castillo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Castillo, 511 W. Fourth. The couple plans to marry August 25 in St. Anthony's Church. Miss Liscano graduated from Hereford High School in 1970 and is presently employed as a bookkeeper at PK Auto Supply. Castillo is appliance serviceman for Jim's Plumbing. (Bradly photo)

Tea Date Set To Honor Miss Caison

Date for a tea to honor Sandy Caison, Miss Hereford of 1973, before she leaves to compete in the Miss Texas pageant, was set for 2:30 p.m. July 8, when the steering committee met Friday in the Chamber of Commerce office.

The Women's Division of the Chamber will be hostess for the tea, inviting all Hereford residents to wish Miss Caison good luck as she enters the state contest as this city's representative.

At the planning session Friday were Mmes. Rex Lee, Pete Caviness, S. G. Townsend, Lynton Allred, Dwight McGee and Andy Shuval.

Wallpaper Moved With Family?

With Roots In Texas, Family Had Many Homes

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

MOVING IS A WAY OF life for Mrs. Tom Hamlett, who has lived in half a dozen different states and moved on the average of every two years since her marriage 23 years ago.

"Putting a house together might be called my hobby," she smiles. And she has put together the Hamlett's Hereford home at 301 Westhaven, making changes so the furniture fits and the background is familiar, even to the wallpaper.

That wallpaper has been the subject of family teasing as her children accuse Mrs. Hamlett of moving it from their former home. She didn't, actually, but she had a dealer make a wide search to find paper identical to some she liked.

ITS PATTERN, IN LIVELY orange with soft green and blue tones, is just the accent she wanted for furniture stressing shades of green. It is used in the entrance hall, matching touches of orange in accessories that brighten the tranquilly cool room colors.

Her husband is plant manager here for Armour and Co., and his work with that firm has taken them to New Orleans, St. Paul, the Chicago area, Nebraska, Missouri and Idaho. They moved here late last summer from Nampa, Ida.

But roots are in Texas for both Mr. and Mrs. Hamlett, who both were born and grew up in Fort Worth. Their families still live there so the Hamletts have frequently visited in Texas through the years.

MRS. HAMLETT, A brunette whose expressive face conveys her moods as she talks, went to business school in her home city after she graduated from high school and was an office employee of Armour when she met her husband, then a cattle buyer.

The family comprises a daughter and three sons, plus the beagle, Charlie, "who is a Texan," Mrs. Hamlett explains, acquired since they came to Hereford.

The daughter, Sue, is a junior in high school and plans a career as a decorator because she enjoys creative crafts—making things with her hands and placing them attractively.

Tim, the youngest son, is 11 years old, currently interested mostly in swimming or jumping on the trampoline, and a pupil in Northwest School.

THE OLDER BOYS are students in the University of Idaho. Tom Jr. remained on campus this summer as a counselor but Brian is at home with a part-time job during vacation.

Her longtime duty as a chauffeur, with children of various ages needing transportation to various activities, is growing less heavy, Mrs. Hamlett says, and she has enough leisure that she has started lessons in tile painting this summer.

Like her daughter she enjoys making beautiful things and plans to spend more time in that activity as her children need less of her time. Golf is a favorite pastime also, but she has not played much since she came here.

She accepted an invitation to join El Llano Study Club this year, and has been elected publicity chairman for the coming season.

Coffee hostesses with Mrs. Metz were Mmes. Alton Fraser, Roy Smith, Howard Johnson, Keith Simmer and V. O. Henne.

Mrs. Smith poured coffee at a table centered with a summertime bouquet of yellow daisies. Guests spent the hour in informal conversation.

Sylvia and Gene Parsley have been residents of Hereford almost a decade; he came with the Holly company when its plant here was opened. She has operated her own shop, the Knitting Botique, the past few years.

Active in St. Thomas Episcopal Church, she has been a member of Calliopean Study Club and was one of the founding members of Hereford Community Players, participating in its first production, Blithe Spirit.

Golden Wedding Party Planned

A reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sullivan Tice on their Golden Wedding anniversary will be hosted by their children today from 3 to 5 p.m. at 602 Star in the home of Mrs. P. E. Hooser, daughter of the couple.

Mrs. Tice was Bessie Lea Fletcher before the marriage June 11, 1923, at Wapanucka, Okla. The couple moved to Hereford in 1957. Their friends in this area are invited to the reception.

The Tices have nine children, Miss Coy Tice, Bobby Tice, Donald Tice, Mrs. J. W. Hamersley of Englewood, Colo., Mrs. F. D. Dewbre of Shallowater, J. T. Tice, Mrs. John Kovacs, Mrs. Hooser and O. T. Tice. They also have 19 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Workshop-Lunch Ends Club Year For Wyche Unit

An all-day crafts workshop and a luncheon closed a year for Wyche Extension Club Thursday; officers were elected for the season to begin Sept. 6 after a summer recess.

Mrs. J.H. Holden was returned to the presidency and other 1973-74 officers are Mrs. Leo Hellman, vice president; Mrs. Wayne Jones, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Frank Duncan, reporter; Mrs. Ira Ott, parliamentarian; Mrs. E.C. Hewitt and Mrs. C.F. Newsom Council delegates.

The meeting was in Pioneer Gas Flame Room. Guests, Mrs. John A. Smith and Lois Clinard, taught the process of making Indian jewelry. Other crafts were also practiced.

Lunch was served to the guest instructor, the officers-elect and Mmes. Tom Draper, Sammy Brakebill and Larry Moore, guests; Mmes. H.L. Ward, L.B. Worthan, G.W. Duncan, Charles Packard, Cecil Hart and W.P. Axe.

Lions Sale To Benefit Local Opportunity Plan

The Hereford Opportunity Plan will receive a boost when the Hereford Lions conduct their annual auction sale on June 14-15, reports club president Nolan Grady.

The club has designated proceeds of the sale for the Opportunity Plan, an agency to provide loans for college students. A total of 96 Hereford students have furthered their education with aid from the plan, and 12 students are currently using the plan — 9 at West Texas State and 3 at other schools.

The auction will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. on June 14-15 at the Bull Barn, with John D. Bryant and Jake Webb as project chairmen.

The Lions Club helped form the local division of the Opportunity Plan, which has been in operation for more than a year. A local board of directors supervises the loan program for students.

Organizational Meeting Planned For Hereford NARFE Chapter

The possibility of forming a chapter of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) will be discussed at a meeting here Monday, June 18, it was announced this week.

The meeting will be held in the Flame Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Co. at 2:30 p.m. on June 18. All retired Federal employees are invited to attend the meeting.

Vernon Bell of Lubbock, third vice president of the Texas Federation of NARFE, will be the speaker and preside over the discussion meeting.

NARFE was founded more than 50 years ago, and the non-profit organization now has more than 167,000 Civil Service annuitants and survivors. The national membership is organized into some 1,200 chapters and 47 state federations.

Three Presented Degrees At Tech

Three students from Hereford received bachelor's degrees in commencement exercises at Texas Tech University recently.

Receiving degrees were Stephen Hoffman of Route 4 in architecture; Janice Turrentine of Route 4 special education; and Dan C. Lewis, 400 Westhaven, park administration.

The university presented degrees to approximately 1,900 students.

Vacation Bible School was held at Frio Baptist Church this week. Mrs. Floyd Cole was principal with Mrs. Weldon Stephen in charge of music. Lynette Andrews was pianist and Mrs. Robert Dobbins and Mrs. Gerry Hathoway were in charge of refreshments. Eighty six persons were enrolled Monday. The school ended with a commencement program Friday evening. The children had a picnic in Hereford Park Friday at noon.

Mrs. H. M. Mobley, Nelle Miller and Austin Mobley went to Farmington, N.M. to attend graduation exercises of Farmington High School. The Mobley grandson, Kirk, son of the Raymond Mobleys, was a member of the class.

Here for graduation in Dimmitt High School May 27 and 28 were Mr. and Mrs. Darrall Culp and sons of Wilcox, Ariz. and Mrs. Don Weems and Michael of Tucson. Their brother, Ronnie Hall, was a member of the graduating class. Mrs. Culp and Mrs. Weems and children remained for a weeklong visit with their mother, Mrs. J. E. Warrick, Mr. Warrick and Ronnie. Ronnie was one of the honor students of the class.

Rhonda and Jill Stephen and Pam Garrison flew to Hawaii, leaving Amarillo Monday. They expect to visit Rhonda and Jill's aunt, the Leon-Martin family and Pam with Danny and Sharon Harvey, her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shultz and two grandsons attended a gathering of Mrs. Shultz's relatives, the Smith family, at Lamesa Sunday.

Lynette Bivins, a student at WTSU, who is from Groom, plans to be with Frio Baptist church during the summer month weekends to work with the young people — planning church activities for them and with them. Her friend, Barbara Strange, also WTSU student, came with her last Sunday.

Mrs. E. H. Little of Textline and her daughter, Mrs. Victor Bacter of Amarillo visited their relatives here part of last week.

Mrs. Earl Harkins, Sandra and Terri attended the community reunion of Floydade during the Memorial weekend.

Biloxi, Miss., arrived last week to visit their aunt, Mrs. Clark Andrews and family and their grandmother, Mrs. E. B. Berryman of Hereford. Mike plans to spend the summer here working.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer West went to Oklahoma City last week to be with his mother, Mrs. Bill Maddox, who underwent major surgery. She was doing well by the last of the week.

Visiting Mrs. B. H. Baldwin and others of the family on Sunday were her brother, Draper Keene and Mrs. Keene and a sister, Viola Keene, all from Levelland.

Mrs. Glen Andrews and son, Hal, of Carthage, Mo. came the last of the week to visit the Andrews here and Mrs. Andrews' relatives, the Burrus families of Canyon. They were accompanied by Mrs. Owen Andrews and Harlan Bruns who had spent last week visiting the Glen Andrews at Carthage. Another of the Andrews sons, Clint, had visited here after accompanying the Herbert Bruns when they returned home after a weekend visit. Glen and Lynn remained at home to take care of things while the rest of the family was here. Mrs. Andrews (Juanelle), Clint and Hal returned home Thursday.

Recent visitors of the Lloyd Shultzs were her sister, Mrs. Lester Bearden, and Mr. Bearden of Austin.

Young Gabe Pitman was the center of attention Tuesday afternoon, as he was honored at a shower. He is the three week-old son of the Marsh Pittmans, and the family has moved back to Hereford for the summer. Pitman is a student at Oklahoma University in Norman.

Hostesses for the shower were Mmes. Floyd Cole, Earl Harkins, Andy Axe and Clark Andrews. A yellow covered refreshment table, with a toy centerpiece was the serving center.

Others attending the party were Mrs. Pitman, Mrs. John Pitman, Mrs. Sam Ogan, Mrs. Jack Andrews.

Also Mmes. T. L. Sparkman Jr., Carlton Dobbins, Al Johnson, Eugene Baldwin, J. E. Warrick, Jeri Stallings, Frank Robbins, Harlan Barber, D. F. Yandell, Garry Hathoway, Tommy Sparkman, Jack Rogers, Richard Price, Brad Johnson, John Walden, Kenneth Frye, Robert Dobbins, Owen Andrews.

Mearle Findley has been in an Amarillo hospital following an operation on his leg. This was an infection due to a serious injury several years ago. He went home Saturday after several days stay in the hospital.

Mrs. Findley was with him and the children were here with her sister, Mrs. Chesley Johnston and parents, the Elmer Jones. The Findleys live now at Adams, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Stringer of Ojai, Calif., visited friends in the community, Thursday. They had spent Wednesday night with the Charles Selfs. The Stringers had visited her brother, Arthur Betts and family at Keys, Okla. and other relatives on the South Plains. Their son, Mike, is employed in California and daughter, Debbie, is completing work at Ventura Junior College this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brooks visited relatives at Comanche, Okla. during the weekend. On Saturday evening they attended the wedding of a nephew, Craig

Why So Sad?

You've heard the one about the physician who — determined to look at the brighter side — reported: "The patient died in the best of health."

Well, I'm beginning to wonder if that can happen to a national economy.

Consider the evidence: Business is booming. Profits are up. Manufacturers are operating at capacity, selling everything they can make. Retail sales are at record highs, with consumers buying everything they can get their hands on.

There are shortages of skilled labor, leading some experts to speculate that the definition of "full employment" should be changed to reflect what we have now (about 5 per cent unemployed), instead of the traditional four per cent figure, which is beginning to look rather arbitrary.

THANKS TO the high corporate profits, federal tax revenues from business will be up enough next fiscal year that the government will probably show a much lower deficit than expected earlier, and may actually show a surplus.

The foreign trade balance — registering sharp deficits in recent years — shows signs of improving after the last dollar devaluation.

Many economists believe the inflationary spurt in prices early this year was caused by temporary influences. They expect things to cool off later in the year (assuming no new spending binge by the federal government).

And the society is cooler, too. Our campuses are ending a calm academic year. Our big cities are free of riots. Many former "revolutionaries" have quietly faded away; others are making names for themselves working within the system they tried — and failed — to destroy. You hear little talk these days that America is "coming apart at the seams."

ON TOP OF all that, we have disentangled ourselves from the longest and most frustrating war in our history.

If all of the foregoing sounds to you like a picture of a nation "in the best of health," that's the way it sounds to me, too.

So why is the stock market so low? And why are foreigners showing their lack of confidence in the dollar by demanding more dollars for gold?

Do you speculators know something we don't?

I doubt it. I suspect the answer lies more in the realm of psychology than economics.

BOTH THE stock market and the international money markets are highly sensitive to mood-swings. And moods are contagious. Let a few big speculators start buying optimistically and soon they are imitated by others.

Prices go up quickly and the expectation of a rising market becomes a self-fulfilling prophecy. Conversely, a little pessimism in the wrong places can produce exactly the reverse effect.

The moods that produce these waves of buying and selling are not always related to economic events. Right now, for example, the Watergate scandal is making many people feel uneasy.

Watergate has absolutely nothing to do with the national economy, unless we want to go to the extreme of imagining an impeachment attempt that ends in civil turmoil (and what reasonable man would go to that extreme?). Nevertheless, something like Watergate can trigger one of these mood-swings and that, eventually, may have an effect on the economy.

ALL OF which leads me to conclude that in many ways, big speculators are a lot less sophisticated than the average citizen.

Expecting a pot of gold at the end of every rainbow is not very realistic. But neither is it realistic to fear every bird in the sky is a threat to your new hat.

The Bootleg Philosopher

Dear editor:
A lot of people are asking, how do you tell who's lying and who's telling the truth in the Watergate hearings?

About 90 per cent of the time I can't tell you, but occasionally you can figure out, or at least estimate, when two witnesses are telling the truth.

FOR EXAMPLE, one says the other is a liar, the other says the former is a liar. It's possible both are telling the truth on that point.

At any rate, the hearings are certainly teaching me some things I didn't know before.

For example, one Senator, in raking a witness over the coals after he'd admitted he'd been caught inside the Democratic Headquarters at 2 o'clock in the morning with the burglar tools on him, said, "Look, here you are a man with two college degrees, didn't you have better sense than to pull a stunt like that?"

THIS PUTS an entirely new light on college degrees, one I'd never heard of before. I had always thought that a college degree was a report on how many courses you had passed, not how much sense you've got.

If colleges are paying any attention to the hearings they'll take immediate steps to stop the spread of the notion that a degree implies the holder is a sensible man. He can or he can't be, but the diploma is no index. That ain't what it's for, and it's wrong for the Watergate hearings to be giving out such a notion.

While it looks like nearly everybody touched by Watergate has been damaged, I'd figured at least the colleges would escape.

WHO KNOWS, it may spread even to farming before it's over.

If I can remember where I was on the night of the burglary, I'm going to get some friends to swear I was with them, makes no difference how many different places it comes to.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

Letter To The Editor Applauds Rescue Teams

Dear Editor:
The people of Hereford and Deaf Smith county probably do realize how fortunate they are to have highly trained rescue people available. But I would like to bring this again to everyone's attention since a great many of these people offer their services without any thought of financial reward.
Recently we have needed to call upon the rescue services of our community. The response of these dedicated and highly trained people has been outstanding. The speed and professional approach shown by the Hereford Fire Department, the law enforcement officials, and all others who respond to such requests for assistance is truly great.

Might we suggest that the people of our community take the time once again to say thank you to these dedicated people who do so much for all of us. It truly makes one have great faith in his fellow man.

Sincerely,
Bob Josseland

GRASSROOTS OPINION

"I believe it was Ann Landers who has remarked often that a courteous and thoughtful guest has the ability to know when the visit is over... This same thing applies in public service. A good public servant is sensitive to the people's feelings and can read their thoughts like the back of his hand. There is an intangible relationship there that tells all concerned that it is still okay. When that 'feeling' is no longer, then perhaps it is time to disengage the 'visit'."
STILLWATER, OKLA., REPORTER

"Many of the day-to-day activities and practically all of the fund-raising of America's charitable organizations are performed by volunteers. A... report shows that 245 million hours a week are donated by over 60 million volunteers of all ages and all walks of life. The person who believes in an institution gives of his time—and the more time he gives, the more he contributes. Furthermore, his commitment tends to stimulate greater giving by those he knows and asks... Who are the recipients of this giving? We all are whether it's to United Fund organizations, or to churches, hospitals, schools, conservation units or cultural institutions. It's truly the merican way of life!"

"Property ownership rights are a great bulwark against destruction of American society. They are, as more than one eminent jurist has noted, the most fundamental of all civil rights. We need only to look about us to note what pride in ownership accomplishes. We know government of itself creates no wealth... Every other human right rests on the foundation stone of the right to own property and be undisturbed in its possession... Without it, no man is a free man."
NATCHEZ, MISS., DEMOCRAT

"Jack and Jill went up the hill to get a pail of water. Jack, stubbing his toe, fell down and Jill, forgetting that they, too, are human, went running to the government for succor." The parody of the old nursery rhyme pretty well describes the reaction of too many people today who, trained to duck the consequences of their own actions, tend to look everywhere except to themselves for the solutions of their own problems."
ODESSA, TEXAS, AMERICAN

A Tiger By The Tail

Trying to explain today why price controls don't work is a lot like trying to carry on a conversation in the middle of a hurricane — you are overwhelmed with a sense of the utter hopelessness of ever making yourself heard.

People want to believe that controls work, because they don't see any other way to escape an avalanche of rising prices, and it sounds so easy and so effective for the government simply to pass a law against the problem.

Unfortunately, that "solution" is equivalent to repealing the law of gravity or legislating a new schedule for the tides. But it's dangerous — or at least unpopular — to be the bearer of bad news.

AND THERE'S another, even bigger, difficulty in getting the message across. The effects of controls on prices and wages are immediate and easy to see. The damage that the controls do to the economy takes a while to show up, and when it does, the connection to the controls is not obvious.

Rising prices in a free market economy perform two functions: They ration available supplies and they provide an incentive to increase production. When prices cannot rise to reflect increasing demand, businessmen (and farmers) have no incentive to increase production, and shortages are guaranteed. If there are shortages, and prices are not allowed to perform a rationing function, then something else must do the rationing.

FIRST-COME first-served is one alternative to price rationing. This situation prevails in many of the socialist-bloc countries, where consumers often have to wait in line for hours to have a chance at limited quantities of whatever is in short supply (in the case of automobiles, the waiting list is years — not hours — long).

Price rationing is, of course, harder on the poor man than it is on the rich man. But under formal rationing schemes, the rich are usually served by black markets anyway. On the whole, the poor are much better off in an economy where the incentives promote adequate supplies of the goods people want and need.

About the only respectable argument for controls is that they can dampen "inflationary psychology." That is, when we fear that prices will be higher tomorrow than they are today, we tend to buy today rather than waiting. This rush to purchase creates "artificial" shortages and bids up prices unnecessarily. Thus, our attempts to avoid the effects of inflation can actually worsen it.

HOWEVER, once controls are imposed, economic planners face a painful dilemma. The longer the lid stays on, the more the pressure builds up under it. So it becomes progressively harder to end controls, because with the end will come price (and wage) changes of a size roughly proportional to the length of time the controls were in force.

But, the longer the controls are in force, the more damage they do to the economy. And if they stay on long enough, critical shortages will inevitably show up. (In fact, we were already faced with a serious lumber shortage when Phase II ended.)

So the economic controller is a man grasping the tail of a tiger — he cannot hold forever, and he dares not let go.

What 100 New Workers Mean

Here's what 100 new factory workers would mean to Hereford: 351 more people; 79 more school children; $1,036,000 more personal income per year; 97 more families; $490,000 more bank deposits; one more retail establishment; 68 more persons employed in nonmanufacturing; and $565,000 more retail sales per year.

Also look into the nation's metropolitan areas. Here's what 100 new workers (manufacturing and nonmanufacturing) mean to them: 245 more people; 80 more school children; $872,000 more personal income per year; $481,000 more bank deposits; $395,000 more retail sales per year; two more retail establishments; and 69 more families.

Of course, individual communities have to decide for themselves whether to attract new business to their areas, but economic growth will still be needed in the future, if only to provide the means of improving the quality of life; and growth can occur as a result of technological progress and more efficient use of resources even if population growth tapers off.

"The real issue is not growth or no growth, but rather the nature of economic growth, especially its qualitative aspects."

Palo Duro Canyon -- Setting Of 'Texas'

An Evening At 'Texas' Is Not Forgotten

"Now we know how it was."
 This remark is often heard each evening after "Texas", the awesome spectacle of Panhandle history in drama and dance and song which plays summer evenings in the Palo Duro Canyon near Canyon and Amarillo, Texas.
 The eighth season will run from June 21 through August 25 in 1973, nightly except Sundays.

AT THE END of each show, as the man-made storms have subsided and the fires are tamped down, when the dancers and singers have left the stage in a burst of exuberance and the horsemen have galloped off, when the actors have told their story of trial and triumph as Paul Green wrote it . . . and the last long notes of the bugle have died away, the audiences begin to comment.

The grizzled plainsmen say "That's the way it was, like that prairie fire. You would just think you had it out, and it would burst out again somewhere else."

The children say, "It's interesting when you can see what it was like."

THE TRAVELERS from abroad (from 62 countries in 1972) often remark, "Now we understand you better." "This shows us how and why America grew." "After tonight we can see why you people in the States are as you are."

"Texas" is superb entertainment, fast moving, musically exciting, a kaleidoscope of color as the 80 cast members move in dances and action against the great cliff behind the stage.

THIS IS one of Paul Green's great statements of faith in America. It is one of nine windows which he has opened on nine regions of this country, revealing through each one the music and customs and struggles and philosophies of the land he is describing.

"Texas" is the look into the frontier west, the vast land, the dry land, the harsh land where people were thrown on their own resources and where those who stayed had great strength and endurance. They had humor and love of life as well, and in "Texas", their story, the audience feels this.

ABOVE ALL, the early settlers in the Texas Panhandle were sheltered by a magnificent canyon, a 1,000 feet deep and a 100 miles long, carved from the flat plains by 250 million years of wind and water. Protected by these walls, the amphitheatre lays on the floor of this great abyss.

The audience watches the mysterious shadows of the cliffs and watches the changes in the coloring of the Canyon walls at twilight.

To visit the Palo Duro Canyon is an awesome experience.

To share the gay and grim lives of the early settlers is a revelation.

An evening at "Texas" is not forgotten.

Overture to "TEXAS", the musical drama of Panhandle history by Paul Green. This play is in the Palo Duro Canyon State Park in the summers. For tickets and information please write "TEXAS", Box 268, Canyon, Texas 79015 or call 806-653-2152. Bill Rhea picture.

Leisure Can Be Useful

By REV. W. LEE TRUMAN
 Copley News Service

I do not know the origin of the widespread fear of enjoying periods of complete leisure.

It may have its roots in childhood, when a parent condemned a child as lazy whenever it relaxed. It could come from hearing too many gossips saying harsh things about people they have observed who are freeloading. It could also spring from that mechanism that some people have that keeps them pushing every minute of the day, even when they are resting.

My father-in-law, The Rev. Rex Dixon, tells of working for a farmer who told him that while he was resting from pitching hay he could jump over the fence and stack the wood!

One thing I am convinced of is that constructive leisure is a valuable but almost lost art. It is not something you turn to when you are exhausted and must get a rest to avoid a collapse. It is something you approach with joy and expectation as an important and essential part of the rhythm of effective living. To feel guilty about it is to rob it of its chance to work its particular brand of miracle.

In 1891 at a banquet honoring his 70th birthday, Helmholtz, the German physicist, testified to the importance of the role of leisure in his life. He said the research he did which led to his significant discoveries were important.

But he added this comment: "After investigating a problem in all directions, half the ideas came unexpectedly, without effort, like an inspiration. So far as I am concerned, they never came to me when my mind was fatigued or when I was at a working table. They came particularly readily on the slow ascent of wooded hills on a sunny day."

James Watt, who invented the steam engine, began his description of how that particular idea came to him in these words: "On a fine Sabbath afternoon I took a walk. I had entered the green and passed the old washing house. I was thinking of the engine at the time. I had gone as far as the Hurd's house when the idea stepped into my mind."

Elizabeth Taylor, eat your heart out.

Ann-Margret's new ring is a dazzler!

Ann has had the 30-carat diamond Roger gave her last fall reset in a mounting which surrounds it with dozens of smaller stones (and none of them so small at that).

If a spotlight hits it while she's on stage, the reflection may blind half her audience.

Ann's had the heart-shaped diamond earrings Roger gave her converted into a pendant as radiant as the girl herself.

I saw Annie yesterday at her favorite diamond merchant's where she was picking up her ring, and she's never looked more beautiful. She's completely recovered from the effects of that terrible fall.

Our Story: PRINCE ARN TAKES LYDIA'S HANDS IN A FIRM GRIP: "NOW, LYDIA," HE DEMANDS, "TELL ME WHY YOU AVOID ME WHEN I HAVE DONE NOTHING TO CAUSE OFFENSE?"

"YOU ARE THE SWEETEST BOY I EVER MET, BUT YOU ARE A PRINCE AND CAN ONLY MARRY ROYALTY, AND I AM ONLY THE DAUGHTER OF A JARL."
"I'LL MARRY WHOM I DARN WELL PLEASE!" HE SHOUTS.

GENTLY SHE WITHDRAWS HER HANDS: "NO, YOU WILL MARRY IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF YOUR ROYAL FAMILY AND THE LAND THEY SERVE. SO LEAVE ME NOW WHILE MY LOVE IS JUST A BEAUTIFUL DREAM."

ARN SITS DOWN, SUDDENLY, BEWILDERED. "LOVE! MARRIAGE! TEARS! AND I ONLY DANCED WITH HER ONCE. WHY DID NOT MOTHER TEACH ME MORE ABOUT GIRLS?"

"YET IT WAS I WHO PURSUED HER!" HE LIES BACK ON THE GRASS REMEMBERING THE MIDSUMMER FESTIVAL. HOW CHARMING SHE HAD BEEN WITH HER BRIGHT SMILE AND READY LAUGHTER. HE HAD WISHED THE DAY WOULD NEVER END.

"MAYBE I WILL WANT TO MARRY HER SOME DAY, AND WHEN THAT DAY COMES SHE MUST BE A PRINCESS." WITH THE OVERCONFIDENCE OF YOUTH HE GOES STRAIGHT TO JARL HAAKON: "THE KINGDOM OF HOLVIK LIES ON YOUR BORDER. HAS THERE BEEN ANY CHANGE IN RELATIONS SINCE GRIMMER BECAME KING?"

"YES," GRUMBLES THE JARL, "HE HAS CEASED TO TRADE WITH US AND WE HEAR RUMORS THAT HE WELCOMES THE SAVAGE RAIDERS OF THE INNER LANDS."

HELP FOR HOMEMAKERS

hints from Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:
I have read and enjoyed your interesting and informative column for a long time, but never felt I had any hints of enough interest to submit. As I was preparing my breakfast this morning I thought of an idea that might be of interest to some of your readers.

I will title it "Sunday Morning Breakfast Binge."

For those on a low-calorie diet who must restrain themselves from some of their favorite foods, I feel that an occasional splurge - still adhering rather loosely to their diet - is a pleasure they should allow themselves once in a while!

I enjoyed the following menu last Sunday morning - Orange juice (instead of grape juice).

3 slices of thin, very crisp bacon, well drained.

One scrambled egg, cooked in low-cholesterol margarine.

One half pear or peach instead of jelly or preserves.

One slice of Rusk or 2 slices melba toast.

Coffee - with a little cream or sugar if you insist.

I found this small breakfast satisfied my longing for an appetizing meal. I don't think it matters too much, just once in a while, do you?

Pat Banner

Pat, I don't know if you are on a diet from choice to lose and keep off some weight, or because of doctor's orders. If it is the second reason, I would suggest you ask your doctor what he thinks, as he is the boss.

With so many folks being weight-conscious these days, it should not be too hard to have appetizing meals with quite a variety of foods. Seems there isn't a magazine now that doesn't have some lists of nourishing diet menus with recipes.

Even those on a very restricted diet by doctor's orders, with a little initiative have much more of a choice now than they formerly did.

So mind the doctor and watch the will power - which is really the whole kit and kaboodle of dieting!

Happy dieting to you... and a beeeeee-utiful "figger."

HAIR TOWEL

The damp towel keeps the hair in one neat pile and makes clean-up a lot easier.

SIMPLE 'N SWEET

DEAR HELOISE:
For a gay, festive touch all year long, put about a teaspoon of coarse multicolored sugar crystals in your sugar bowl right along with the regular white sugar.

Looks great on cooked cereals. And you can be sure everyone will comment.

Mrs. Don Brown

FILE THIS ONE!

DEAR HELOISE:
In our office we use those manila file folders by the boxful.

I came up with the idea of turning a folder inside out when I was finished with it instead of just throwing it away.

The writing is on the inside of the folder, leaving the outside clean and ready for use on a new subject.

Saves a few pennies, anyway.

Secretary

That's what I'd call efficient! Sounds like your boss picked a winner. Great!

Heloise

A GOOD LICKING!

DEAR HELOISE:
I have a hint on making frozen fudge bars.

All you do is put chocolate milk in the ice cube trays. When they are almost hard, put a wooden stick in each cube.

It's a great idea for an 8-year-old!

LETTER OF THOUGHT

DEAR HELOISE:
I feel we should tell our children "thanks" for things they have done that please us.

Maybe if we do, they will try even harder to please the people around us and the world won't be in as bad a mess as it seems to be today.

Anyway, it's worth a try. And that little bit of recognition will brighten any child.

DON'T WAIST IT

DEAR HELOISE:
I've got a good hint that would save money for expectant mothers, as far as buying maternity clothes is concerned.

All you need to do is slit the sides of your slacks or skirt along the seam line about two or three inches. Then put in some elastic. (The elastic would have to be in strips sewn in crosswise as it doesn't come wide enough). This would make a V-shaped insert.

After the baby comes, just take the elastic out and sew the sides back up.

Mrs. J. E.

If you don't happen to have elastic handy, use an old girdle or pieces of hubby's old T-shirt... soft, stretchy, and inexpensive!

MOMMIE'S SMART!

DEAR HELOISE:
My mom found a way to keep little fingers out from under the sink which is where we keep our cleaners.

Put an old dog choke chain through the handles and fasten.

SPREAD IT THIN!

DEAR HELOISE:
I recently made a discovery I think will be of help to others.

There is a strip along the edge of a box of waxed paper. This is what to do with it:

Remove it from the edge of the carton when all the foil or waxed paper is used up. Cut it off in sizes you need. You can use it folded over if you need extra firmness.

Now you can use it to spread glue or paste in your hobby shop at home.

There are so many uses for this to keep your hands from getting gooey.

Edward F. Sadoaki

We tried it and it works! This little big hint is a lulu... so quick and easy and it left us with nice clean hands.

Thanks a bushel...

LITTLE IODINE

NOPE! ACE OF HEARTS HA HA...

HEY! GOOD! COVER THE HEART AND IT LOOKS LIKE A DIAMOND!

SHOW MOTHER, BUT DON'T SAY YOU SHOWED IT TO ME... HEH-HEH

WRONG! IT'S THE ACE OF HEARTS

SO IT IS...

SHH! MOTHER THINKS SHE KNOWS THE TRICK SO I'LL USE THE REAL ACE OF DIAMONDS... HEH, HEH!

PARDON, MOTHER, DO YOU THINK YOU COULD IDENTIFY THE MIDDLE CARD...

WHY YES- I'LL BET I COULD...

OH? AND WHAT WILL YOU BET?

IF I'M RIGHT YOU HAVE TO DO DISHES ALL WEEK, OKAY?

IT'S A BET! AND NOW IF YOU'LL NAME THE CARD...

ACE OF DIAMONDS HERE'S THE APRON...

YOU'RE DEVIOUS! I'VE BEEN FRAMED! HOW DID YOU OUT-FOX ME?

I KNOW THE WAY YOUR MIND WORKS... MORE DEVIOUS!

I KNOW THE WAY YOUR MIND WORKS... MORE DEVIOUS!
