County Buys Vehicles, Airst Bull Barn Use

By IIM BELEV
News Editor

Purchases of three new vehicles, discussion of Bull Barn use and routine payment of bills filled the agenda of the Monday meeting of the Deaf Smith County Commissioners.

COMMISSIONERS approved the purchase of two 1974 Plymouth Furies for the Sheriff's Department and a 1974 Ford pickup for Precinct 2 use at a regularly scheduled Monday meeting.

The commissioners awarded the contract for the Plymouths to Jones Motor of Hereford, for its low bid of $6,402 total price, with trade-in of two cars. Delivery date for the new cars was set for three weeks.

Orval Watson Ford Co. submitted a low bid of $2,904.17 for the pickup, a Ford F100.

THE ROTARY Club's big Variety Show is scheduled Friday night at the high school auditorium and, judging from past performances, it should be a great evening of entertainment. The event serves as a showcase for local talent, and Hereford is blessed with some fine performers in various musical areas. Enjoy an evening out and support a good cause by attending the show Friday night!

HEREFORD schools will observe Memorial Day as a legal holiday, and the end of school comes May 28 instead of May 27. Supt. Roy Hartman explains that the school calendar was prepared last year and no one thought about Memorial Day being changed to Monday.

SPEAKING of the schools, the administration and school board Tuesday night called on patrons to help prevent vandalism to school property. Recent problems at tennis courts and the track brought the situation to the attention of trustees.

The school had locked up the tennis courts at times recently, due to motorcyclists causing damage to the courts and youngsters tearing up the nets. It was also noted that some youngsters were caught painting obscene words on the track surface, and a "bike" rider had also zoomed down the track on one occasion. Just remember it's your tax money that's being wasted in these cases.

WITH CONSTRUCTION getting underway soon on the new elementary school, the board will soon consider future disposition of the Central properties. A request was made Tuesday night for trustees to consider giving the property for a community recreational facility, including the possibility of future expansion for a civic center or other uses.

The school board invites citizens to attend the next meeting if they want to comment on the plans for the property, or make other suggestions. Interested persons can also contact the Chamber office for suggestions to be passed along.

WE regret to report that Janis Lockhart, feature writer for The Brand, is leaving us after a short but interesting stint as a member of the staff. Janis was a newcomer to the profession, but had established a quick rapport with many readers through her informative articles on a number of subjects. The family is moving to Austin where husband Ted was promoted to equipment chief with Ma Bell's phone company.

Feed Sales Dip With Cattle Prices

Friona Industries, Inc. reported revenues of $39.7 million and net income of $1.43 million or $1.26 per share, for the first nine months of its current fiscal year.

This compared with $31.6 million in sales and net income of $1.55 million, or $1.56 per share, in the same nine months of the prior year.

Third quarter revenues ending March 31 were $14.2 million and net income of $66,000, or eight cents per share.

compared with sales of $10.7 million and net income of $588,916, or 59 cents per share, in the same quarter of 1973. Friona Industries had 25 per cent more average shares outstanding in this year's third quarter as the result of its initial offering of common stock in October, 1973.

"Profitability during the third quarter was adversely affected by depressed cattle prices throughout the entire feeding industry," said Jack Carrothers, president.

The Company took a write-down of about $467,000 on its current cattle inventory during the third quarter. Also during the quarter, the Company marketed approximately 7,400 head of Company-owned cattle, on which a loss was also sustained.

"The Company has not been and is not now involved in public cattle feeding funds and, therefore, has no obligations to be met because of such funds," said Carrothers.

"Operations of our Hi-Pro manufactured cattle feed supplements showed considerable improvement, both for the third quarter and first nine months," Carrothers said.

"Manufactured feed tonnage is about 25 per cent higher than in the prior year, and accounted for a majority of the increase in total Company revenues," he stated.

"Revenues from our eight veterinary supply stores are more than 30 per cent ahead for the year to date," said Carrothers.

"However, because of the start-up expenses of two new stores, net income from this area of our operations is below the prior-year level."

Occupancy at the Company's feed yards, which have a capacity of 67,000 head, was at about 36 per cent in the third quarter. However, this percentage is expected to decline during the fourth quarter.

"We feel that in recent months the cattle feeding industry as a whole has been involved in the worst cost price squeeze in its history," stated Carrothers.

"Agri-business firms nationwide have been placed in a difficult position for a number of months because of government controls, trucking strikes, low cattle prices and generally unfavorable economic conditions," he explained.

"The number of cattle in the nation's feed yards is declining steadily, even though consumer demand for beef remains relatively high. Judging from historical trends in the industry, these factors should bring about stronger support for cattle prices."

AC To Host Price Controls Warp Rush Forum Holly Sales Record

All high school senior girls and their mothers from this area are invited to attend the annual Panhellenic Rush Forum scheduled at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 25, in the College Union Building at Amarillo College.

The forum is co-sponsored by the local sororities at AC and the Amarillo City Panhellenic, which is composed of representatives from the 16 national Greek sororities.

The seniors and their mothers, as well as college girls interested in pledging a sorority, will hear general information on rush, costs, and the benefits of being in a sorority. Group sessions will also be held for individual schools.

The forum will also feature coeds from Texas Tech., West Texas State University, Amarillo College, the University of Texas and other schools in a style show of campus and rush fashions.

Refreshments will be served, and the girls may visit tables displayed by each sorority, and ask questions.

If a girl wishes to register with the Amarillo City Panhellenic, she should bring information about her grade average, activities, honors, and names of personal references. All girls except those going to Texas Tech (who must send pictures directly to the Tech Panhellenic) are also asked to bring pictures of themselves - five pictures if they are going to WTSU and 16 (one for each sorority) for any other college. This information and the pictures assist sorority alumnae in filling out recommendations on individual girls.

The forum will be beneficial to all girls who are considering rush.

ENERGY PANEL
Senator John S. Pastore (D-RI) has introduced legislation to create a new joint committee on energy to direct the development of all potentially usable sources of clean energy.

Holly Sugar Corporation reported higher earnings and sales over the prior year for its fiscal year ended March 31, 1974.

Earnings were $5,299,000 or $3.41 per share compared with $2,638,000 or $1.70 per share in 1973.

Consolidated net sales were $111,657,000 compared with $100,789,000 in the prior year. Provision for federal and state income taxes was $4,134,000 for the year ended March 31, 1974 compared with $1,906,000 for the previous year.

"Improved selling prices for sugar, especially during the last quarter of the fiscal year, produced higher revenues despite some reduction in unit volume and an increase in sugar inventories by year-end," President John B. Bunker explained.

He said that the price controls in effect during the fiscal year were disruptive to orderly marketing of sugar because they distorted the role of supply and demand in the marketplace.

Bunker said that total acreage planted to sugarbeets by Holly growers during the 1973-74 crop year was slightly lower than in the prior year, primarily due to record prices for competitive crops.

"The disparity between those crops and sugarbeets has been less pronounced in the last quarter. Consequently, we do not anticipate a significant decline in planted acreage from present levels," Bunker said.

Teachers Offered Bilingual Course

A unique course to help initiate public school involvement in bilingual education on the elementary level will be given at West Texas State University the first summer term, June 3-June 21.

Bilingual mathematics 490-1 is a course in first and second grade arithmetic utilizing Spanish vocabulary to be taught by WT mathematics professor Miguel Tarrab.

"Mathematics is the subject that in-service and prospective teachers find most difficult to understand," noted Tarrab. This course is to help "anyone interested in becoming a more effective bilingual teacher," since the Texas Legislature has made bilingual education compulsory this fall.

The numeration system and simple computations will be discussed and solved both in English and Spanish with oral drilling. No mathematics or Spanish will be required or assumed.

"This course will be offered in a workshop format," Tarrab said. "This means that all work will be done during class, and that there will be no homework."

"We think that we are serving the needs of teachers in the region and also its taxpayers by offering this course," Tarrab concluded.

For more information write or call Dr. H.L. Cook, Mathematics Department, West Texas State University, Canyon, Texas 79016 or (806) 656-2267

Felons Regain Right To Vote

Among the shortest of the Articles tentatively approved thus far for inclusion in the 1974-model Constitution—Voter Qualifications and Elections—is perhaps the most important. The article, as approved, would give automatic voting rights to ex-felons who have served their sentences—with the Legislature given authority to deny those automatic voting rights.

The Constitution of 1876 provides that convicted felons lose their right to vote, though the Legislature may make exceptions. The Legislature has delegated authority by statute to the Board of Pardons and Paroles to make recommendations to the Governor to restore an ex-felon's civil rights, including the right to vote.

And, in the 1974 Convention, Delegate A.R. (Babe) Schwartz of Galveston once again stumped for restoration of ex-felon voting rights.

Schwartz served as Chairman of the Rights and Suffrage Committee in the 1974 Convention. Urging Delegate support of his proposal to place the restoration of rights in the new Constitution, Schwartz claimed "a vote for this amendment is a vote for all mankind."

"A vote for this amendment is a vote for the hope of human beings, that they can do better in the future than from what they have done wrong in the past. Man was given this right by the first Constitution of the United States", Schwartz said.

Another provision in the 1974 Voter Qualifications and Elections Article would permit the Legislature to require property ownership in elections held by political subdivisions and special districts for the issuance of bonds payable from property taxes and for authorizing the levying of property taxes.

The delegates made the use of secret ballots clear since the 1876 Constitution does not use the word secret. At issue during debate was the question whether to constitutionally prohibit any law which would require a ballot stub to be signed.

Convention Delegates at first supported unsigned ballots, but backed away from the issue after considerable argument that "purity" of the ballot box against voter and election official abuse is best served by a signed ballot stub.

Ultimately the secret ballot without mention of its being signed or unsigned was adopted 95-68.

Mrs. Hutchins Recalls 21 Years

Retires From Dorm Life

Lucille Hutchins, right, feels at home with freshman student, Gwen Wolfe, at West Texas State University. Mrs. Hutchins has served as a dormitory supervisor for college women on the WTSU campus for the past 21 years and will soon be retiring. Miss Wolfe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wolfe of Hereford and is a 1973 graduate of Hereford High School.

In September of 1953, Lucille Hutchins entered Cousins Hall, a female student residence on the West Texas State University campus, as its assistant dormitory supervisor. Today Mrs. Hutchins, mother of David Hutchins of Hereford, is the director of Brown Hall, a dormitory which houses freshman women.

After almost 21 years of service, Mrs. Hutchins has decided to retire from her position "so I can travel and see some of the United States," she said.

Since a variety of rules change everyday, there was no doubt that the rules of a college dorm would change with the times. According to Mrs. Hutchins, upon her arrival to the WT campus in 1953, freshman women had an 8 p.m. curfew each day except Wednesday, which was 9:30 p.m. and weekends at 11 p.m. All upperclassmen had a 10 p.m. daily curfew and 12 p.m. weekends.

Now there is no curfew at WT for any student because of administrative changes and student support. Combination locks have been installed on the women's residence halls so they may come and go as they wish.

"I LIKE THE combination lock very much," Mrs. Hutchins said, "because the girls feel more free and that they are not in jail, locked in and can't get out."

"Some don't stay out as much as they used to think they would like to. It's just the idea that they couldn't get out that they disliked."

Supporting no curfew further, the director said "There is no discipline for coming in late. Disciplinary actions are part of the work I never liked anyway; however, it seems like everyone wants to cooperate with us and follow the rules."

When asked about the advantages and disadvantages of supervising as many as 200 young women, Mrs. Hutchins said "I think there are a lot of advantages. You have a younger or broader point of view on things, and more of an open mind to what's going on in the world."

"It keeps me from being alone, also, because sometimes I feel blue and kind of depressed; and then some of the girls will come along and talk to me and I feel like a different person," she said.

The soon to be great-grandmother said that she thinks any of the girls should and do "feel free to come to me and discuss problems of any kind."

"I'VE SEEN A lot of frightened little girls who are very unsure of themselves when they come to Brown. Now they have developed into secure professional young ladies," Mrs. Hutchins explained.

The mother of three children, Mrs. Hutchins plans to live in Canyon "because I want to be near my friends and so some of the girls can come to see me."

"I've enjoyed my work and I wouldn't trade anything with anyone for my experiences with the girls."

The Hutchins children are Barbara Mantooth of Lubbock; John Ed Hutchins, Yuma, Ariz.; and David Hutchins, Hereford. There are nine grandchildren.

Mrs. Hutchins will be replaced by Mrs. L. Knowles, former assistant at McCaslin Hall, June 1.

Mrs. Hutchins' hobbies include needlepoint, knitting, experimenting with new recipes and growing house plants. "I feel I'll be busy after I get settled in my new home," Mrs. Hutchins said.

WT Ex-Students Start Fund Drive

West Texas Ex-Students, Inc., in cooperation with West Texas State University and the Friends of Fine Arts, has launched a fund drive to raise money for a new fine arts building. The drive was announced by Mrs. Thea Evans of Tulla, president of the former student group.

Former West Texas State students, whose names and addresses are on file in the Ex-Student Offices, have been mailed a pamphlet outlining the need for a new building and letters of appeal. Over 18,000 former students are being asked to assist in the project.

The need for more space in the School of Fine Arts at West Texas State has become acute. During the last nine years the average number of students majoring in Fine Arts has increased 105 per cent. The School of Fine Arts at WTSU consists of the Department of Art, the Department of Music and the Department of Speech and Theatre.

The new Fine Arts Building will relieve the crowded conditions in the present building, provide facilities for expanding existing programs and make possible the addition of a Department of Dance sometime in the future. The new building will house the Department of Art in its entirety and will provide a recital hall and certain other facilities for the Department of Music. The vacated space in the older building will provide the necessary additional space for the Department of Speech and Theatre.

The WTSU Board of Regents has set aside $1 million from state buildings funds for the construction of the new building, provided matching private funds can be found. Contact has been made with several foundations and trusts which indicate they will be more responsive to requests for grants when the former students and other local supporters of the University demonstrate a financial interest in the project. Mrs. Evans said that any contribution made to the drive will be multiplied several times from the other sources.

Every contributor's name will be recorded in a leather-bound "Builder's Book" to be kept on permanent display in the foyer of the new building. Larger contributors, those giving $250 or more, will be recognized further with name plates in appropriate public areas in the new building. Gifts to the Fine Arts Building Funds are tax deductible and should be mailed to Fine Arts Building Fund, P.O. Box 2833, WTSU Station, Canyon, Texas 79016.

If you can't get PIONEER Brand 8311 here are some excellent alternative hybrids for High Plains farmers.

Pioneer Brand 8311, the "Golden Bronze Yield Leader," has been our most popular hybrid this year — so popular, in fact, that it may be in short supply in some areas. One reason is that the demand has been so great downstate where 8311's disease tolerance is so important. Fortunately, there are several other Pioneer Brand hybrids that are proven top performers on the High Plains. If you can't get 8311, ask your dealer about these.

PIONEER Brand 8417

This versatile yellow endosperm sorghum is a champion yielder in the medium-late maturity class, for irrigated or non-irrigated land. It has large open heads, uniform head height, strong stalks for easy threshing, good tolerance to smut and anthracnose.

PIONEER Brand 820

This top-notch full-season hybrid, is a consistently high yielder. Excellent drought resistance and standability plus good roots and stalks make it a good choice for irrigated or non-irrigated farming on the plains.

PIONEER Brand 828

One of the highest yielding sorghums you can plant, this full-season hybrid responds well to good management on good land with plenty of water. Plains growers like it because it holds its quality and threshes well even after an early freeze. It produces sturdy stalks with semi-compact heads of dark red grain.

PIONEER Brand 846

Famous for its versatility and adaptability, this medium maturity hybrid yields along with the full-season varieties. Resistant to smut, rust and MDM, its outstanding hybrid vigor and excellent drought resistance help it turn in consistently high yields even under stress.

By The Garden Gate With Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

OUR GARDENS are a good way of expressing ourselves.

Our gardens also show our personalities. Let us be kind to our plants by giving them good treatment. We select new avenues to develop our personalities so let us select new plants for our gardens.

A new one I would like to suggest is crocosmias better known as montretia. It is a plant that is grown from bulbs, which should be planted 4 to 6 inches deep.

Its growth pattern is similar to the gladioli. The foliage is very much like that of the day lily, having wiry stems which make it a good keeper. Florets are more erect than the gladioli and good material for arranging.

For fragrance grow lily of the valley (Europe). These are recommended for growth on the north side of the house, and are grown from rizons. They do well in our soil. They are good plants to grow in pots. Fragrance is very sweet.

Lily of the valley is the official flower for May. It makes a charming compliment for a birthday package. It is a plant which has been grown for many years. The foliage is beautiful, both in texture and color. The birthstones for May, the emerald.

PLANNING and planting are very important to the gardener. Here are some figures which I hope will be helpful to you as you plan and plant.

Fifty plants set out 6 inches apart cover approximately 12 sq. ft.; at 10 inches apart they will cover 35 sq. ft.; 12 inches apart, 50 sq. ft.; 18 inches apart, 110 sq. ft.

This table should be helpful in planting both in the flower and the vegetable garden. Many plants too close, therefore do not get the benefit of the soil and plant. For example plants which vine require much more space than those which bush. Also ground covers require more space than those which grow erect, such as the gladioli.

Gladioli corms have the following scale: 100 equal up to 2 1/2 inches across (they are the miniatures), 200 equal 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 inches across (small glads), 300 equal 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 inches across (medium glads), 400 equal 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 inches across (large glads) and 500 equal over 5 1/2 inches across (giant glad).

Converting fertilizer Amounts: For each ton of organic material such as compost, manure, etc., figure 50 pounds for 1,000 square feet or 5 pounds for 100 square feet.

For individual plants 1 lb. of fertilizer is recommended for 100 square feet. This would mean using 1 ounce per plant when spaced about 30 inches apart in rows the same distance apart, or when plants are 24 by 18 inches apart.

A packed bushel of manure weighs approximately 30 pounds. Dry straw or leaves, tightly packed, come to 15 pounds in a bushel. (This information is quoted from Organic Gardening Magazine and refers to organic materials only) I recommend this magazine for any who are interested in gardening. Also it is a good practice to hold membership in one of the horticultural clubs. This year I have joined the Mass. Horticulture Club.

Another practice which gardeners should develop is that of having a compost heap. Plan now to start yours. In the meantime, instead of putting your peels, foliage discards, etc. through the disposal, chop them into small pieces and bury at the base of shrubs, trees or other plants.

Also in dressing chickens or other fowls, bury the waste at the base of your favorite tree or shrub. Waste from fish, after cleaning them is an excellent material to use as a fertilizer. Try this practice, and you will have good results. Tuberoses begonias thrive on fish emulsion.

POTTED PLANTS. The time has come to take our potted plants outside. Do not take them directly outside without first keeping them in the garage, an open shed or a slatted protection. Leave them in this location for 10 days to two showing in any of our yards. However it is advised that we study how the rainfall falls from the foliage of the tree. The fall should be gentle.

Remember they will continue to need tender loving care, systematic watering and feeding, grooming and turning to aid in the growth pattern.

Clean and groom plants before starting to put them outside. If they need repotting this should be done before they are placed at their first stop. This is a shock which they need to overcome along with the change of environment.

If an Easter lily was received cut the bloom off, prepare soil for planting, lift bulb and place in the outside location which has been selected. They will multiply and in a few years make a nice showing.

If you received an azalea, when it has completed its bloom prune carefully and plant in a protected place or leave in the pot to take in for winter. They require a sour soil having a large percentage of peat moss, and feedings of nitrogen to promote foliage growth.

The money bag or pocketbook plant (Calceolaria) needs bright light, humidity of 40 to 50 percent and temperature at night approximately 40 to 50 degrees. Foliage will wilt if soil becomes dry, so water is important for correct maintenance.

It is a difficult plant to keep, so do not become discouraged if it does not respond as you wish it to. Ceneria is another plant which is beautiful but requires humidity and regular watering.

Plants which you leave in the house should be repotted if needed, also groomed and kept clean so that the foliage pores are open for breathing. If dusty or dirty they should be cleaned well with soft cotton balls dipped in tepid water or a mixture of sweet milk and warm water. It is important that both sides of the foliage is cleaned.

A well kept plant which has good growth, is well groomed, all dried or bruised leaves, broken stems etc. should be removed. Later we will give hints relative to care and growth of poinsettias.

The Garden Clubs of Virginia had a very successful Garden Week. I was glad to share in four tours. Lloyd Sr. and I joined the tour of plantations on the James River. All interesting and inspiring.

I especially enjoyed observing the fields and farm methods used as well as the gardening practices. I did some research before making the tours, which made them much more interesting.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Interesting people are people who are interested.

Spokes To Spin For Cancer Drive

Dale Jones stated that response has been good "but there's still lots of room for more entrants" in the Deaf Smith County Bike-A-Thon for Cancer.

Jones, chairman of the benefit, urges all persons, young and old alike, to sign up to ride in the event Saturday. Any vehicle which is not motor-powered will be eligible.

Each entrant must have at least one sponsor who will pledge 15 cents or more for each mile the cyclist completes on the 20-mile course across Hereford. Entrants must obtain official pledge forms, which includes a waiver for parents to sign if the cyclist is under 18 years old, in order to ride Saturday. Forms are available at Radio KPAN; First National Bank, Hereford State Bank, the principal's office at any local school and at Jones Motor Company.

A TEN-SPEED bicycle retailing for $110 will be awarded to the rider obtaining the largest contribution through pledges. Other prizes, including various pieces of bike equipment, will be given to the youngest entrant, to the one with the most sponsors and to the largest member participation of one family.

The ride will commence at 9 a.m. Saturday from the parking area at Sugarland Mall, proceeding through Downtown to La Plata Junior High (checkpoint #1), south along city streets to Park Plaza parking area (checkpoint #2), along city streets returning to Park Plaza (checkpoint #3), south toward Holly Sugar and returning to Park Plaza (finish).

JONES SAID, "We want people to relax and enjoy themselves. This is not a race so we urge entrants to pace themselves.

"The local Police Department will provide a safety escort and medical services, if needed." He continued, "We want to stress that the cyclists obey the police and all traffic regulations. This includes respecting properties of others and of course, no littering."

Following the ride, the total number of miles completed by each participant will be tallied. A recuperation period will be given before entrants return to sponsors to collect pledge money.

All pledges should be in check form payable to the American Cancer Society. Money must be turned in before May 25 in order to be eligible for prizes.

Winners will be announced on May 30 in the newspaper.

JONES ADDED, "Proceeds of Saturday's Bike-A-Thon will go to the county chapter of the American Cancer Society. Only five cents out of each dollar is used for administration of fund-raising activities such as this one.

The remaining 95 cents goes directly into the battle against cancer through research, education and service to cancer patients."

Jones stated, "This is a very worthy cause and an excellent opportunity for the family to get out together and just enjoy themselves."

"We would like to see all of Hereford respond and give its support to this vital cause."

Tennis; The Sport of the Seventies

By DAN WELTY Sports Editor

Hereford and the Texas Panhandle, like the rest of the nation, is enjoying a tennis boom. Weekend afternoons, and late evenings you'll find netters on the courts volleying back and forth. Housewives sometimes take advantage of the morning cool, before the mosquitoes get out, and that's usually the time school kids enjoy the sport during the summer.

Tennis is the sport of the seventies. If you don't believe it, look at this year's World Championship of Tennis Match held this last weekend in Dallas. The "old man" in the match was 29-year-old John Newcombe of Australia, holder of three Wimbledon and two U.S. titles. His opponent was a 17-year-old Swede named Bjorn Borg, whose quick, flashy style on the courts has swept the hearts of all who watch tennis.

Newcombe won the match and prizes — $50,000, a diamond ring, and the use of a Cadillac for a year. But that's fine, because Borg couldn't have used the Cadillac. He won't be old enough to get his driver's license for another month. But the 17-year-old did win $20,000. And that could only happen in the seventies.

Tennis got its beginning way back in the Middle Ages (no one's quite sure when), and the game has undergone a few changes through the years. Court tennis it was called, and the players bounced the ball off of walls as well as volleying across the net.

A recent film remake of the old tale, "The Three Musketeers," included a buffoonish tennis match in which the three daring Frenchmen competed and wagered heavily.

The oldest tennis court in existence is still in Versailles, built in 1686, but not in use today. Gradually tennis moved from indoors, where the players used the walls, to the outdoors and lawn tennis, the forerunner of the game most people recognize today as tennis.

Tennis used to be a country club-only sport, much like golf, but now tennis courts are popping up everywhere, even to replacing the ever-famous backyard swimming pool. Now, with public courts and mass-production techniques bringing the cost of equipment down, most everyone in the country has played or will play tennis sometime soon.

Tennis can be learned and enjoyed by just about everyone whether they be a youngster starting out, or people in later years looking for an exercise program that has some fun in it.

All you need to play tennis is a racket, a can of tennis balls and a pair of sneakers. The racket sells from $4 for a beginners "cheapie" all the way up to a $75 pro-type racket. But for the most part, beginning players should start out with a racket in the $7 to $15 range. Balls cost anywhere from about $1 for a can of three up to $6 for a can of

Comment On Sports AAU Summer Track For Youngsters

BASKETBALL * * *
BY PETE PRITCHIE

WASHINGTON, D.C.—One has to marvel at the Boston Celtics' running game, even though a team like Milwaukee's Bucks have overwhelmingly shooting talent. In the NBA championship games this month the Celtics often looked like the old pros of years ago.

Especially in the second game, in Milwaukee, the Celtics came back after being down sixteen points in the second half, and hard-pressed by fouls, to give the Bucks a bad case of jitters. The Bucks went on to win in overtime, but watching the show one got the feeling the Bucks had the natural talent and the Celtics the better trained team.

Of course, the Celtics don't have all that history and tradition going for them. The NBA series was something like North Carolina State and UCLA in the college finals. UCLA played a poised game, and at times State looked bushed.

In the end, however, State won in overtime. (Playing at home was an advantage for State perhaps.) The Celtics, pros that they are, have that cool at home or away. It has won many a ball game for them over the years.

A summer track program aimed at youngsters in grade school has been organized and practices each evening at the Whiteface Stadium track. In the program, youngsters will compete in three track meets under AAU sanctioning.

Dr. Joe Whitley is the director of the program, and supervises the practices at the moment. A search is underway for a track coach, and volunteer help as well will be relied on during the season.

Youngsters will compete in the AAU age divisions; nine and under; 10-11; 12-13; 14-15; 16-17. There will be a boys and girls team in each age division. The program now is mostly for grade school kids, but should the 14-17 youngsters compete, they can qualify for the regional AAU meet to be held in Borger July 20.

The first two weeks of the program is being used as a conditioning time for the youngsters. A one-mile run each afternoon will help the kids get in shape for the events they'll compete in.

Dr. Whitley has three track meets scheduled for the season. The team will travel to Amarillo June 15th, to Brownfield June 22, and will compete in their own meet here in Hereford June 29. From those three meets, qualifiers will be allowed to compete in the AAU district meet in Borger July 6.

Persons interested in joining the program, volunteering coaching help, or needing further information should contact Dr. Joe Whitley.

Summer Track Conditioning

Several age group youngsters round the turn at the track in Whiteface Stadium conditioning for the upcoming track season. An AAU track team is being formed, with both boys and girls competing in track and field events.

The zaniest baseball holdout probably was George "Rube" Ellis, crack St. Louis outfielder, back in 1908. Ellis refused to sign his contract until he got what he was holding out for — $2.50 — to buy a new fielder's glove!

VanderZee Signs Southwest Tex

Dan VanderZee, six-foot eight-inch center for Hereford Whitefaces in the 73-74 season, has signed a national letter of intent with Southwest Texas State University (SWTSU) in San Marcos. Coach Barry Arnwine made the announcement Monday afternoon.

VanderZee will have a chance to make the varsity squad as a freshman, but may be redshirted his first year. That would give him freshman eligibility as a sophomore, and three more years of eligibility after that. SWTSU is in the Lone Star Conference, and VanderZee will go against opponents from Howard Payne, McMurray, Texas A&I, and other schools.

The basketball team at SWTSU is coached by Vernon McDonald.

The SWTSU cagers last year were in a three way tie for the conference, but lost in the playoffs.

"I have a couple of friends who went down there last year," said VanderZee. "There are a lot of kids going down there. I've heard a lot of good things about the school, and my grandmother lives nearby. Besides, it will be down in the hill country out of the dirt and dust."

VanderZee carried a 4.8 scholastic average (on a five point scale) and set a new one-season scoring mark of 585 in his senior year at HHS.

The last one-season scoring record was set in 1959 by Bobby Shelton with 528 points.

Besides averaging 17.7 points per game last year, Dan also grabbed 14 rebounds per game, a distinctive number for a high school player.

With Dan at the high-post, the herd was 22-11 on the season, and went into a three way tie for district, but lost in the playoffs.

Dan hasn't decided what his major will be at college, but he said it wouldn't be in the physical education field. He said it probably will be in business.

Another familiar name in the All-Stars lineup will be Cheri Rapp, three-time All-American.

Radio Station Voiced By College Students

"Who knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men? The SHADOW knows!" Those of us who remember "The Shadow" radio serial of the forties close our eyes for the famous, chilling opening lines.

We enter the time-machine of our imaginations and are transported back to the years when families huddled nightly around the tombstone-shaped radios of yesteryear.

Abruptly, the spell is broken by a youthful female voice. "You are listening to WUTS, broadcasting voice of the University of the South in Sewanee, Tennessee."

And as if that were not enough, the program to follow features the hard rock of the "Led Zeppelin." No doubt about it, we are in the seventies.

OWNED BY THE university and run entirely by student volunteers, WUTS-Radio observed its second birthday in April. The non-commercial 10-watt F.M. station has a broadcast range of nearly 12 miles and operates 18 hours a day, from 7:30 a.m. until two in the morning.

In addition to much recorded music, both popular and classical, the station handles wire-fed and local news in addition to educational features from outside, such as William Buckley's "Firing Line."

More than 40 students are involved in the station. Broadcasters must have at least the provisional license which is issued by the Federal Communications Commission, good for one year only.

After that they are required to have a third-class license, necessitating a trip to Atlanta where they must pass a written test covering knowledge of radio equipment operation and federal broadcast regulations. Nearly half the WUTS broadcasters have gotten their third-class licenses.

Most of the present equipment was donated by Station WNOK in Columbia, S.C., through its general manager, H. Moody McElveen, Jr., father of a former student. Ongoing costs are met primarily through funding by the student activities fee, administration by a committee of college and seminary student activities fee, administered by a committee of college and seminary students.

"We've come a long way in just two years," says WUTS general manager D. Woodbery, a senior from Tallahassee, Florida. "In the brief time we've been on the air we have tripled the number of hours we broadcast daily and nearly quadruple our staff."

WHAT BEGINS AS an interesting and enjoyable extracurricular activity often leads these students to consider careers in the field of radio.

Both Woodbery and the station's assistant manager, Pam Miller of Hereford, see radio work on the horizon after graduation. The station's two previous managers have also gone on into radio jobs.

"I began with WUTS as an administrative assistant — a secretary, really," Pam says. "It was a work assignment as part of my scholarship help from the university."

"The station just happened to need a secretary, so the student aid office sent me over. Now I'm absolutely hooked," she confesses, "and I'm looking for a radio job after I graduate in June."

The station itself is tiny. WUTS broadcasts from a suite of three small dormitory rooms on the top floor of St. Luke's School of Theology.

A large poster of Sen. Sam Ervin dominates the walls of the front office, surrounded by psychedelic drawings and old covers of Rolling Stone magazine. At the small desk a student secretary is taking telephone requests.

The lighted "On the Air" sign switches off and the inner door swings open, revealing a closet-sized room lined with perforated soundproof tiles and jam-packed with impressive-looking equipment.

The pretty blonde co-ed sitting at the microphone does not stop to look up. Her attention is fixed on the control board in front of her where a needle indicator sways across the gauge in time with the music coming over the air.

Behind her sits a second student, equally oblivious to the presence of intruders, who is getting a lesson in radio broadcasting.

There is no time for idle chatter between the two. The student announcer swivels in her chair to put another record on the turntable, then turns back to the controls, turning switches and pressing buttons with the expertise of a telephone switchboard operator.

MUSIC CURRENTLY constitutes most of the station's programming. A mixture of rock, folk, jazz, country and "top 40" is broadcast in addition to a daily two-hour program of classical music and a weekly opera.

On Tuesday night the only non-student announcer — Bud Sutherland, a Sewanee policeman — takes over as anchor man to broadcast two hours of country-bluegrass.

"Issues on the Mountain," produced weekly by the news staff, features interviews with guest lecturers, university administrators and student leaders.

Outside educational features include programs from National Public Radio and Radio Canada.

Another popular feature is "Sexual Re-education," a series designed to answer questions and clarify misunderstandings regarding human sexuality. It is moderated by a physician associated with the Human Sexuality Institute in California.

Radio classics are broadcast two nights a week. Besides "The Shadow," Sewanee listeners have an opportunity to follow the Lux Radio Theater's Production of "The African Queen," the original Lone Ranger serial and a 1941 series starring Humphrey Bogart.

Local residents are getting into the act too. Writer Cynthia Keyworth, wife of one of the college's political science instructors, tried her hand at writing a serialized radio play for WUTS.

Her product, "The Secret Life of Margaret Painter," used student and faculty actors to tell the story of the heroine detective's investigation of a mysterious disappearance in the "Hidden Creek" commune.

Sewanee junior Janet Leach, who played the part of the heroine, has found it difficult to get out of the habit of radio dialogue.

"I find myself pointing out the obvious to people around me as if they were listening to the radio," she laughs. "I say things to my roommate like, 'Look! It's sunny outside, when of course she can see that for herself.'"

THE WUTS STAFF also found the play to be a valuable learning experience in recording, tape editing and sound effects. They hope to do more of this kind of thing in the future.

This summer WUTS will move to more spacious quarters in Sewanee's new student union, the Bishop's Common, which is still under construction.

"The extra space will allow us a lot more latitude in our programming," manager Woodbery predicts. "For example, we've always wanted to do a talk show a long the lines of NBC's 'Today show.'"

He goes on, "The show we have in mind would highlight the day's news and feature in-depth reporting on stories of special interest to students and members of the community."

"There's barely enough room for two chairs in our present studio," he grins, "so we're understandably excited about the new facility."

"Panel discussions, distinguished guests, and even out-of-class instruction by some of the professors will be possible in the new space," he says.

County Buys New Vehicles

Compared with people in other areas of the country, how much are Deaf Smith County residents paying per year for health care?

How large are their personal out-of-pocket expenditures for medical, dental, hospital and other health services, over and above the portion of their bills covered by insurance?

Because the cost of medical care is a matter of major concern, a special study was conducted by the National Center for Health Statistics to determine how big a burden it represents for families in various sections of the nation.

THE ONLY OTHER full scale study of this kind that has been made was in 1962. Since that time, it finds, an increasing proportion of these expenses are being paid through insurance benefits, through medicare and through other government programs.

Despite this, however, because medical costs have zoomed in recent years, the consumer is left with bigger bills to pay than ever before.

In Deaf Smith County's regional area, the figures show, some 13.4 per cent of the population incurred no medical expenses at all in the year. Of the others, 38.0 per cent had no more than $100 to pay.

The out-of-pocket costs for the area as a whole came to $182 per capita. Included in this amount were insurance premiums paid.

ELSEWHERE IN the United States, the expenditures were a little higher, $183 per capita. It broke down to $47 for doctors, $29 for dentists, $27 for prescription medicines, $21 for hospital care, $10 for optical expenses and the rest for miscellaneous health services, equipment and premiums.

The cost per individual ranged from considerably less than the average to considerably more. It varied from area to area and from family to family.

Age was an important factor. In the local area, for example, the cost was only $113 for those under 17 but rose to $300 for people over 65.

The total out-of-pocket outlay, for every man, woman and child in Deaf Smith County, came to approximately $3,731,000 in the year, it is estimated.

Accidents on our highways occur every day, not just during holiday week-ends.

Nation To Observe Armed Forces Day

Saturday is the official day for observance of Armed Forces Day states the proclamation issued by President Richard M. Nixon.

The day was established for citizens to gain a more extensive knowledge of the different capacities of the United States defensive units.

The main sectors to be recognized are the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

President Nixon stated in the proclamation, "The responsibility of the more than two million fine men and women in the Armed Forces of the United States is an awesome one and, in doing their duty, they exemplify the spirit, courage and patriotism that has made America a great Nation."

"It is particularly fitting that we should recognize their sacrifices today at a time when the prospect for a future, free of war, is the brightest in years. We must never forget that it is those who wear our country's uniform who have made this prospect possible," the document said.

"Having defended us in time of war they stand today as guardian of an honorable peace. Honor and gratitude are their due from this generation of Americans and from generations yet unborn."

April is community month for the Army Reserve all over the country. We're ready to help out at home.

Disgusted With Trash

Dear Editor,
I would like to know why the city commissioners are not enforcing the law on keeping the city of Hereford clean? Everyday the yards are full of all kinds of trash and all the school children's papers that they are supposed to take home to their parents to check over—just the minute they leave the school grounds they throw their papers on the street then into the yards they wind up.
I am making this clear and plain: this is the trashiest town I have ever lived in and I have lived in Gliddem and Columbus in south Texas, and McKinney and Greenville and Garland and Dallas in north central Texas and not one time was there any trash such as a lot of papers blowing into people's yards; the city commission did not allow such.

It is about time the city of Hereford was getting down to business and keeping Hereford clean instead of letting individuals having to do that every day.
If they had to get out every day and pick up some one else's trash every day I believe they would soon get tired of that.
I have other things to do besides pick up other people's trash every day that blows into my yard.
Yours truly,
Mrs. Ole Larson

Thomas Tells Grads, 'Country Needs Unity'

Hereford attorney Wayne E. Thomas, guest speaker Tuesday at commencement exercises for North Texas State University in Denton, urged graduates to examine humanity's common problems with a "new dimension of honesty."

"I hope that you leave here with a determination to continue to learn—and to discover not only what works, but what is right, what will enhance human understanding," Thomas told the class of 1,371 seniors.

Thomas, a member of the Coordinating Board of the Texas College and University System, told the class changes in general society have "resulted in fragmentations at the very time that our common problems cry out for unity. I believe that the majority of the citizens of this United States...are included in the term, 'We, the People...'"

"We the people," Thomas said, "do face tasks which will call for the highest ability and dedication to solve."

Listing the problems of inflation, energy shortages and world unrest, Thomas said what concerned him most was the evident "loss of faith in our ability, as a people, to meet the problems of our age."

"Our fellow observers would present to us the conclusion that America is in a state of anomie—that normative standards by which we measure ourselves and our society are weak or non-existent and, as a result, we as individuals are disoriented," he said. "I disagree with this conclusion."

The response to Watergate by the general public, Thomas said, is a recognition that "no institution, no agency, no organization can exempt itself or its policies from evaluation based on moral judgments."

Businesses and institutions are beginning to recognize their responsibilities in regards to both the general public and employees, Thomas said, and would continue to change. "There is still much to be done to broaden access for those who have been denied access and upward mobility because of race, sex, religion or other reasons."

He concluded by saying he had faith that America could address the problem it faces and that his faith was affirmed by the presence of the graduates. "You are liberals, conservatives, protestant, Catholic, Jewish, agnostics; you are—or will be—this country's businessmen, teachers, engineers, chemists, social workers, physicists, technicians; mothers and fathers...and voting citizens."

"You are all these things, but all of us are 'we' and we... we, are the people."

You can meet a lot of monthly expenses with money you earn learning a skill like this.

Friona Industry Issues Report

The third quarter report of Friona Industries released last week showed revenues of $39.7 million and net income of $1.43 million or $1.26 per share for the first nine months of the company's fiscal year.

The figures compared with $31.6 million in sales and $1.55 million net income or $1.56 per share for the same nine months of last year.

Third quarter revenues ending March 31 were $14.2 million and $96,695 or eight cents per share, compared with sales of $10.7 million and net income of $588,916, or 59 cents per share, in the same 1973 quarter. Friona Industries had 25 per cent more average shares outstanding in this year's third quarter as the result of its initial offering of common stock in October of 1973.

Operation of Hi-Pro Feeds, the report stated, showed a considerable improvement for both the third quarter and first nine months.

John G. Carrothers, chairman of the board for Friona Industries, stated in the report, "We feel that in recent months the cattle feeding industry as a whole has been involved in the worst cost-price squeeze in its history."

Carrothers said despite the squeeze, the declining number of cattle in the nation's feed yards and the high consumer demand for beef should bring about stronger support for cattle prices.

Lettuce was once classified as a sterile plant and believed to be conducive to sterility in those who ate it. Oh those poor bunnies—nobody told them!

Mrs. Solomon Saves Egg Shells To Make Vases

By SANDY INMAN
Brand Staff Writer

DON'T crack that egg shell in the morning when you're preparing scrambled eggs. Instead take a little extra time the night before and blow the egg yolk out of the shell and make a vase.

Mrs. Stan Solomon loves making craft articles and says that making attractive, inexpensive vases from egg shells is simple.

First, punch a hole the size of a pin head in one end of the shell and cut a small hole with cuticle scissors at the other end. Blow gently until the contents come out easily.

NEXT pour wax in the bottom of each shell to make the structure stronger and heavier; use colored marks-a-lot to paint wanted designs on the shell; paint the shell with clear fingernail polish to produce a marble effect.

The last steps include gluing large beads at the base of the shell to make legs and then trimming the top edge of the shell with braid.

Mrs. Solomon exhibited one vase in which she had used an orange marks-a-lot, white pearl beads and gold braid and arranged orange colored dried flowers in it. The flowers are available in many colors and can be found in any flower shop or variety store.

THE PRETTY, petite brunette is the mother of two pre-school children. Her son, Kyle, is three years old and her daughter, Rebecca, 10 months old.

Karen Tolbert before her marriage in 1970, met her husband while attending West Texas State University where she was majoring in physical education.

"I hope to continue my studies when the children start to school," says Karen. "It's impossible to be a full-time mother and housewife and go to school."

THE SOLOMONS' spacious country home is located on Harrison Highway. The huge front and backyard is kept up with continuous effort by the homemaker.

Their home, which was previously occupied by the Gariand Solomons, was built by the T.E. Seigers. Characteristic of older homes, the rooms are large and the livingroom has a lovely working fireplace.

The three bedrooms are located upstairs and the den, living-dining area and kitchen are downstairs. They have covered the stairway and downstairs area with fern green hi-low carpet which is so popular in newer homes.

The Solomons are members of First Christian Church and Karen is secretary-treasurer of the Christian Women's Fellowship Organization.

SHE HAS also served as historian in Young Mothers Study Club in which she is an active member. She enjoys sewing, cooking and caring for the lovely pieces of furniture that belonged to her mother-in-law.

Solid oak table, six chairs, mirror and a matching China cabinet can be seen in the dining area. These antique pieces, which were restored after being smoke damaged, were found at a fire sale by her husband's mother.

"We are really proud of these pieces," states Karen. "We also have an old upright piano which belonged to Stan's mother that she had when she was a small child."

An easy, tasty dish that she prepares is Lasagne. This particular recipe was given to her by a close friend when she was first married. Karen emphasizes that this dish is more flavorful after it has been frozen and reheated.

LASAGNE

Brown: 1 1/2 lbs. ground beef and drain off excess fat
Brown in butter:

1 chopped onion
1 chopped bell pepper
1 small can mushrooms (chopped)
Add brown meat to mixture.

Boil: 1 lb. lasagne noodles
Brown meat mixture and add one package spaghetti sauce and mix with 1 can (15 oz.) tomato sauce. Simmer until thick.

Drain cooked noodles and run cold water over them. Place layer of noodles, meat sauce, cottage cheese (med. size container), mozzarella cheese, (1 pkg. of 8 oz.) in long pan which has been lightly greased. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Cover with foil until ready to be served.

Blood Bank Is Program Topic

Folly Bullard, Deaf Smith General Hospital lab technician, led a discussion on the blood bank program when Hospital Auxiliary officers and committees met recently in the conference room of the hospital. In her program, Mrs. Bullard stated that the Coffee Memorial Blood Bank is vital to this community. She also said that all blood received comes from this service.

During the business meeting, members ordered uniforms and made plans to help with services at the hospital beginning June 1.

They also discussed a benefit bridge party for new volunteers to be scheduled soon.

Ron Welty, Deaf Smith County General Hospital director, was recognized as special guest.

Legates Earns Army Promotion

Wilmer L. Legates, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey A. Nolen of Hereford, was promoted to Army Specialist four at Ft. Sill, Okla.

He is a Cannonier in Battery C of the 18th field artillery's 1st battalion.

His wife, Tennie Louise, lives at 1111 Arlington, Lawton, Okla.

Calliopian Club Ends Season

A dinner in the home of Mrs. Keith Simmer, who ended her term as president, closed a season for Calliopian Study Club and inducted new officers into duties for the 1974-75 club year.

Mrs. Dale Furr took office as president and named committees for the term. Mrs. John Gilliland is the new vice president, Mrs. Clyde Cave secretary and Mrs. Emil Dettman treasurer. Mrs. Simmer, who is of Greek ancestry, based the installation ceremony on the ancient Greek myths of goddesses, and presented each new officer a golden apple.

Assignments were made for hostess duties at Deaf Smith County Museum this month, and for transportation of Kings Manor residents in August.

Dinner hostesses were Mrs. Simmer and Mmes. George Warner, Emmitt Milburn, Irving Alexander, Paul Conaway, Dettman and Cave. They decorated with spring flowers.

Army Saves Paper

Customers at Army PX's and Commissaries in Europe are being asked to save their paper bags for reuse.

Due to the paper shortage, The Theater Area Support Command in Europe has requested people to return clean, usable bags to the post exchanges. The Army operates exchanges and commissaries at each of its seven posts in Germany.

If money grow on trees, the big corporations would probably own all of the trees.

We all need God. And He is very timely. He is everywhere, every hour of every day. And of course He waits patiently for us to summon His help. We do not have any time to waste. Helping others is what life is all about, and if we know to do, good and fail to do it, we commit sin. (James 4.17.) Every hour registered on the big clock above, is God's gift. Then don't waste time. For time is God's bounty and if we keep on killing it, it will kill us. Why not use some of your time being a better father, mother, police officer, banker, community leader . . . be a better church member. There are openings for good workers everywhere. You won't make it friend, running from duty and it would be well to remember that God won't compromise. He demands our best.

Every kindness that is shown you was not meant for you alone. And since Romans 14:12 says that everyone of us must give an account of ourselves to God, we'd better confess, We Need Him Every Hour.

You In The Church
The Church is You — form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker and attend services regularly.

JC's Cite Outstanding Members

Top award in Hereford Jaycees, the title of Jaycee of the Year, went to Steve Carroll while Mrs. John Bunch was introduced as the Outstanding Jaycee-Ette at the installation banquet for both organizations Saturday evening in Civic Club Center.

Others Jaycee awards went to Larry Bean as key man, Bill Johnson as outstanding project chairman of the year for his work in setting up the Crisis Intervention and Suicide Prevention program here. Carroll was chosen for his title by vote of directors. A special community award to the Hereford Fire Department was accepted by Jay Spain, marshal.

In the Jaycee-Ettes, awards were presented to Mrs. Dan Warrick for guidance of a first-year member; Mrs. Carroll as outstanding first-year member, Mrs. Lonnie Coffey as top speaker and Mrs. Johnson for her record of travel to visit other Jaycee-Ette groups.

Officers installed in the Jaycees for the next year are John Bunch, president; Garre Lowrence, vice president; Carroll, secretary; Wayne Taylor, treasurer. James Braly, Bill Bankston and Robert Medina took up duties as directors.

For the women's organization Mrs. Johnson became president with Mrs. Carroll as vice president, Mrs. Bankston secretary and Mrs. Bunch treasurer. Mrs. Ronnie Collier is the new state director, Mmes. Braly, Coffey and Warrick local directors.

Bill Blackburn of Childress,

Retiring presidents of the two groups, Mrs. Bunch and Harvey

Milton, reviewed accomplishments of the past year including cooperation in the city's Diamond Jubilee celebration last August. Coffey was master of ceremonies of the dinner.

Introduced as guests were Roy Faubion, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce president, and Bill Albright, manager, with their wives; Mrs. Ruby Bunch, mother of the new Jaycee president; Mr. and Mrs. Bill McKinney of Tucumcari, former active members who moved from Hereford this year, and visitors from Perryton, Happy and Amarillo clubs.

A dance followed the dinner.

Briscoe Announces Friendly Texan Week

Texans are known far and wide for their friendliness. In fact our Texas motto is "The Friendship State." Of our many "attractions" offered visitors to our state, friendliness is one of the most important.

To bring to the attention of all Texans the importance of this commodity, Governor Briscoe has proclaimed May 20-26 as Friendly Texan Week. The Texas Tourist Council wants this message to be brought to the attention of all Texans prior to the big influx of the 23 million visitors we expect to host this year.

Robert W. Kneebone, president of the Council, has announced that 22.7 million out-of-state visitors came to Texas last year and they spent $2.1 billion! There are only three states which attract more - Florida, New York and California.

Governor Briscoe said, "An important part of the heritage of Texas includes hospitality and friendliness. This friendliness has been a major influence in attracting many visitors to Texas and bringing them back for further visits. I urge all citizens of Texas to show sincere friendliness and helpfulness to our visitors and I hereby designate the week of May 20-26 as Friendly Texan Week."

Art Lessons For Summer Planned

Summer art lessons and workshops conducted by Jon Birdsong at Community Center will be sponsored by Hereford Art Guild, members voted at a dinner Tuesday evening in Dickie's Restaurant, the final meeting of the 1974-75 season. Birdsong is art teacher at Stanton Junior High and a frequent award winner with paintings in area exhibits.

Dinner hostesses were Mmes. O. Wertenberger, Cardease Wilson, H.J. Wilhelm and Jack Wilcox. Places were laid for 19 members at tables brightened with May flowers.

MINIMUM WAGE

The minimum wage law went into effect May 1, but the Labor Department says the increase may not show up in pay-checks for several weeks because they are behind schedule in mailing employers the required papers explaining the changes.

Memory-Filled History Presented

The Girl On The Beach by Anne Holden and Since You Went Away by Donald I Rogers are the two books being featured this week at the Deaf Smith County Library.

The Girl On The Beach is an exciting novel of suspense. The main character of the book, Christina, finds her life is dramatically changed when a stranger comes bringing terror and uncertainty.

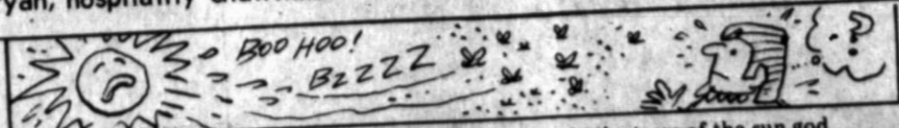

Since You Went Away deals with the civilian's history during the time of 1941-45. This was a time when America, much younger in spirit than we realized then, grew out of adolescence.

mandy Invasion, V-mail, Ike, Lt. John F. Kennedy, Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard, "Mairzy Doots", DDT, Tokyo Rose, Doctor I-Q penicillin, National Velvet, the Empire State Building airplane crash, the death of FDR, one-armed Pete Gray of the Browns, the disappearance of Glen Miller, the A-bomb, the Story of G.I. Joe and V-J Day!

World War II at home was more than a shortage of nylons, or a little flag hanging in a window. It was a time when America, much younger in spirit than we realized then, grew out of adolescence. This book shows why, and catches the mood with effect.

LEARN OF DUTIES — Some of the committee chairmen in the new Hospital Auxiliary here discuss one of the duties they will assume, staffing an information desk in the hospital lobby, with Amalia Mireles, the receptionist who now answers visitors' questions. From left are Mrs. Larry Walterscheid, treasurer of the new organization; Roberta Martin, book donor chairman; Mrs. Arthur Dettmann, head of the committee on uniforms, and Mrs. Gaylon Bryan, hospitality chairman.

Ancient Egyptians believed that bees were born in the tears of the sun god.

Hospital Week Emphasis This Year Is On New Auxiliary

Better acquaintance of area residents with the services, activities and future goals of Deaf Smith General Hospital is the objective of National Hospital Week, being observed here and over the nation this week with the theme, Get to Know Us Before You Need Us.

During this week, Deaf Smith General Hospital administrator Ron Welty speaks for the board and staff in encouraging interested residents to join the newly formed auxiliary of the hospital.

With 35 enrolled, the volunteer organization was formed last week to provide complementary services for the hospital's patients and their families. Membership is open to anyone willing to give some time to any of the varied duties volunteers will assume.

"As the public gets to know us this week, we hope they will better understand that we need their involvement and support in order to meet our obligation to the community," Welty said in explaining the purpose of annual Hospital Week observance.

"The objective of this week is to encourage people of this community, as well as those closely involved with the institution, to better know our hospital and its needs."

The Hospital Auxiliary has plans to begin work June 1. Members will man an information desk in the hospital lobby, operate a cart to take books and other items to patients' rooms, offer assistance to families of patients who are in the emergency room or in surgery, and perform other services assigned as the need arises.

Mrs. Earl Lewis has been elected president of the Auxiliary and Mrs. Danny Martin vice president. Chairmen have been appointed for the various service committees and emphasis now is on enrollment of new members in order to carry out a full program. Mrs. John Gilliland is membership chairman.

Public Welcome At Youth Rally

The Rev. Warren McKibben invites local youth to attend a youth rally Friday night at 7:30 p.m. at the new United Pentecostal Church on the corner of Ave. H and Lafayette.

The rally will include presentations from young people from several Hereford churches and from a guest speaker of Midland.

THE GIRL ON THE BEACH

By Anne Holden
They had stayed so long at the beach that Christina Boyd thought they were the last to leave, but one of the children spotted the girl—she was sitting very still on a rock, looking out to sea. But when the Boys got to the parking lot, the girl was right behind them.

She asked for a ride to town, and before the ride was over, Christina surprised herself by inviting Val home for the night: the girl had no friends, no place to stay. Val was totally uncommunicative about herself: Christina never even knew her last name.

The girl stays only four days but she leaves behind her enough to change Christina's life. Long after she is gone, the peril continues for Christina.

Here is an exciting new novel of suspense—a novel as filled with atmosphere as it is with tension.

SINCE YOU WENT AWAY

By Donald I Rogers
It now seems so long ago and far away: ration coupons, "They're Either too young or too Old", Air raid drills at school and work, Betty Grable pin-ups, zoot suits. It was World War II on the home front. While our boys were fighting on Guadalcanal, we were missing them at home—but still having more fun than we realized at the time.

In this memory-rich social history, Donald Rogers recalls the civilian's 1941-1945, when the watchwords were "Closed for the Duration" and "Meatless Tuesday" and America came of age.

We all played our part, sharing happy moments and terrible ones too: Joe Louis wiping Buddy Baer, skinny Frankie, Lend Lease, "The Hut Sut Song", the Coconut Grove fire, Eddie Rickenbacker's rescue, "Remember Pearl Harbor", How Green was My Valley, the OPA, the USO, Joe DiMaggio's 56-game streak, Henry J. Kaiser, Jeeps, Barney Ross, hoarders, the Nisei, Wendell Wilkie One World, "Oklahoma!" the Detroit riot, Stage Door Canteen, Sid Luckman, the Hartford circus fire, "White Christmas", the Nor-

Mrs. Walden heads the yearbook committee, with Mmes. Richard Ottesen, Birdwell and Poindexter named to work with her. On the membership committee are Mmes. Hugh Clearman, Gid Brown and Rutherford.

Mmes. Zinser, George Ritter and Birdwell comprise the service committee; Mmes. George Olson, Billy W. Sisson, Floyd Crume and Glenn Watts the telephone committee.

Tentative plans were made for a summer party at Mrs. Gilbert's home for members and their families.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

THERE was this rattle in the car, you see, that I kept hearing. Not all time, but pretty often, usually in making a right turn or sometimes just in slowing: it was kind of hard to describe, sort of a metallic scraping but with vibrations, like a tin can being dragged on a string on the sidewalk, but not so loud.

Mechanics looked at me strangely when I told them about it and of course there wasn't a sound when a mechanic was in the car. There never is; it's like the faucet leak that stops completely when the plumber walks in the door.

But two or three of them looked at possible causes of rattles or scrapes, and fixed a lot of things that needed fixing. The noise was still there. Finally a friend who knows something about cars heard it and made me feel better. At least it wasn't a rattle in my head.

SHE SAID it sounded like a pebble in a hubcap, maybe, so the hubcaps came off, were shaken thoroughly; no pebble. And oh, yes, I'd already thought of something rattling in the trunk, and checked it.

Finally, after about a month and my nerves were fraying fast, the noise did occur so a mechanic could hear it. He figured he knew what it was, and sure enough something was loose in the hubcap. Not plumb loose, just enough to rattle sometimes.

It's been great to be free of the noise and know besides that some things in the car were fixed that might not have otherwise been discovered until they caused real trouble. But you know what? This morning when I made a left turn I heard that rattle . . .

A FISH story came along with Mothers Day phone call Mrs. John L. Sossaman had from her daughter Brenda, Mrs. Jimmie Brewer of El Paso, who was vacationing with her family in Corpus Christi.

The caller told her mother she had captured a 51-pound shark while fishing off the coast in that section of the Texas Gulf. The Brewers are former Hereford residents; their family includes a daughter, Suzette.

ONE MORE Hereford student at West Texas was elected to the student senate in recent elections, besides the two already reported to us. Nancy Newsom was chosen from the school of business.

She is a business management major, a sophomore, the daughter of the C.F. Newsoms. Her sorority is Zeta Tau Alpha.

BEAUTIFUL decorations for the Jaycee and Jaycee-Ette installation dinner and dance Saturday night were made and put in place by members of the latter group, who are wives of Jaycees. Rainbow colors in pastel were used in the Civic Club Center ballroom.

There were streamers around posts and down the length of the tables, with hurricane lamps at intervals. Each lamp had a candle of a different color and paper flowers around the base to match. Real flowers in a big bouquet at the speakers' place were in the same colors.

The Jaycees did appreciate the girls' efforts and told them so, with a big placard behind head table pasted with heart- and flowers and words. Special Thanks.

'Texas' Opening To Feature Old Trains

"Railroads" will be the topic for the celebration at the Gala Opening of the ninth season of "Texas" on June 19. To feature the trains, which were such a vital part of the early life of the Panhandle, and which play an important force in the "Texas" story, there will be several special activities. There will be the second annual historical art competition featuring paintings, drawings or photographs of any aspect of railroading. (Last year the subject was windmills.) Preliminary judging will be June 5. Entries must be in the "Texas" office on that day.

2019 Fourth Avenue, Canyon, Texas 79015 or P.O. Box 268, in Canyon. There will be the story of the railroads in the Panhandle printed in the program. Special guests will be officials of the railroads in the Panhandle. As a special feature of the art competition, the awards will include the showing for five weeks of the winning pictures in the galleries of the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum in Canyon. This very valuable opportunity has been made possible through the generosity of the Board of Directors of the Museum and has been arranged by the curator of Art, Olive Vandruff Bugbee.

In previous years at Gala Openings, there have been salutes to the founders of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation, to the designers of the county plaques which adorn the walls of the theatre, to Dr. and Mrs. Warner of Claude whose family gave the map of which produces "Texas" will take place on Wednesday noon, April 10, 1974 at the Big Texan Restaurant in Amarillo. Paul Green, the author of "Texas" will speak about a possible light and sound production in the Canyon for times when "Texas" is not playing, and there will be a seven minute film of the production. Officers will be elected. For luncheon reservations, write or call the "Texas" office. If you must travel by automobile, along our modern highways, drive carefully.
