New chamber officials named through ballots

Four new members were named Wednesday to the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce board of directors following the counting of the ballots submitted by members of the organization.

Elected to the board were Tom Burdett, Roy Faubion, Carroll McDonald and Dr. Hugh McCrary.

They will replace out-going directors Jeff Carille, G.W. Robinson, Rex Lee and James McDowell.

Others nominated, besides the four who were elected, were Dick Montgomery, Phil Guerrero, Dick Norwood and Ed Rein-sauer Jr.

McDonald came to Hereford in May of last year after serving as district manager for Southwestern Public Service at Slaton since 1965. He is a native of Temple, Okla. and began his career with Southwestern Public Service in Clovis in 1962.

He has been active in civic affairs at both Earth and Slaton, having served as chamber of commerce president at both cities. He also was president of the Lions Club and twice was honored as the "Outstanding Manager" of his company.

He and his wife, Romona have three children, Robert, Brenda Kaye and Roxanne.

Faubion, 37, assistant manager of radio station KPAN, was born in Lampasas and went to Lorenzo High School. He attended Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

He worked with a radio and television station in Lubbock prior to coming to Hereford in October of 1961. He was at the Andrews radio station for over two years before returning to Hereford in 1969.

He is active in Hereford Hustlers and the First Christian Church and served on the board of the Camp Fire Girls. He was active in district Boy Scout work and the Hereford Community Players and is a Past Rotarian.

He and his wife, La Juanda, have two children, Sherry and Clayton.

Burdett, 28, has been associated with Witherspoon-Aikin-Thomas and Langley law firm since he moved here in 1967. He came here after graduation from the University of Texas law school.

Burdett went to high school in Alpine and attended college at See CHAMBER Page Two

Roadblock nets armed robber

A 41-year-old Sudan man was arrested by local law enforcement authorities Monday night and jailed without bond in connection with the armed robbery of an Amarillo toy shop on Western Street earlier that night.

Herman Clayton Forguson was arrested about 10 p.m. Monday at a road block east of Hereford on U.S. Highway 60. Bond was denied when he was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Glen Nelson that same night.

Forguson, a salesman for an automobile company in Lubbock, was accused of the armed robbery of Kiddie City and was believed headed toward Hereford in a late model Ford belonging to the company he worked for.

Local sheriff's deputy Gary Gillespie was monitoring the Amarillo radio when he heard of the robbery. He headed east to join a roadblock at Umberger, but on the way there, he observed a car fitting the description of the one they were looking for.

He was one mile west of Dawn when he saw Forguson coming west. He turned a spotlight on the car and Forguson slowed down then Gillespie turned around and began following him.

Gillespie radioed ahead to the sheriff's office and asked for a road block to be set up near the Hereford air port. Members of the sheriff's office, police department and the highway patrol all joined in on the road block and Forguson was arrested without any struggle.

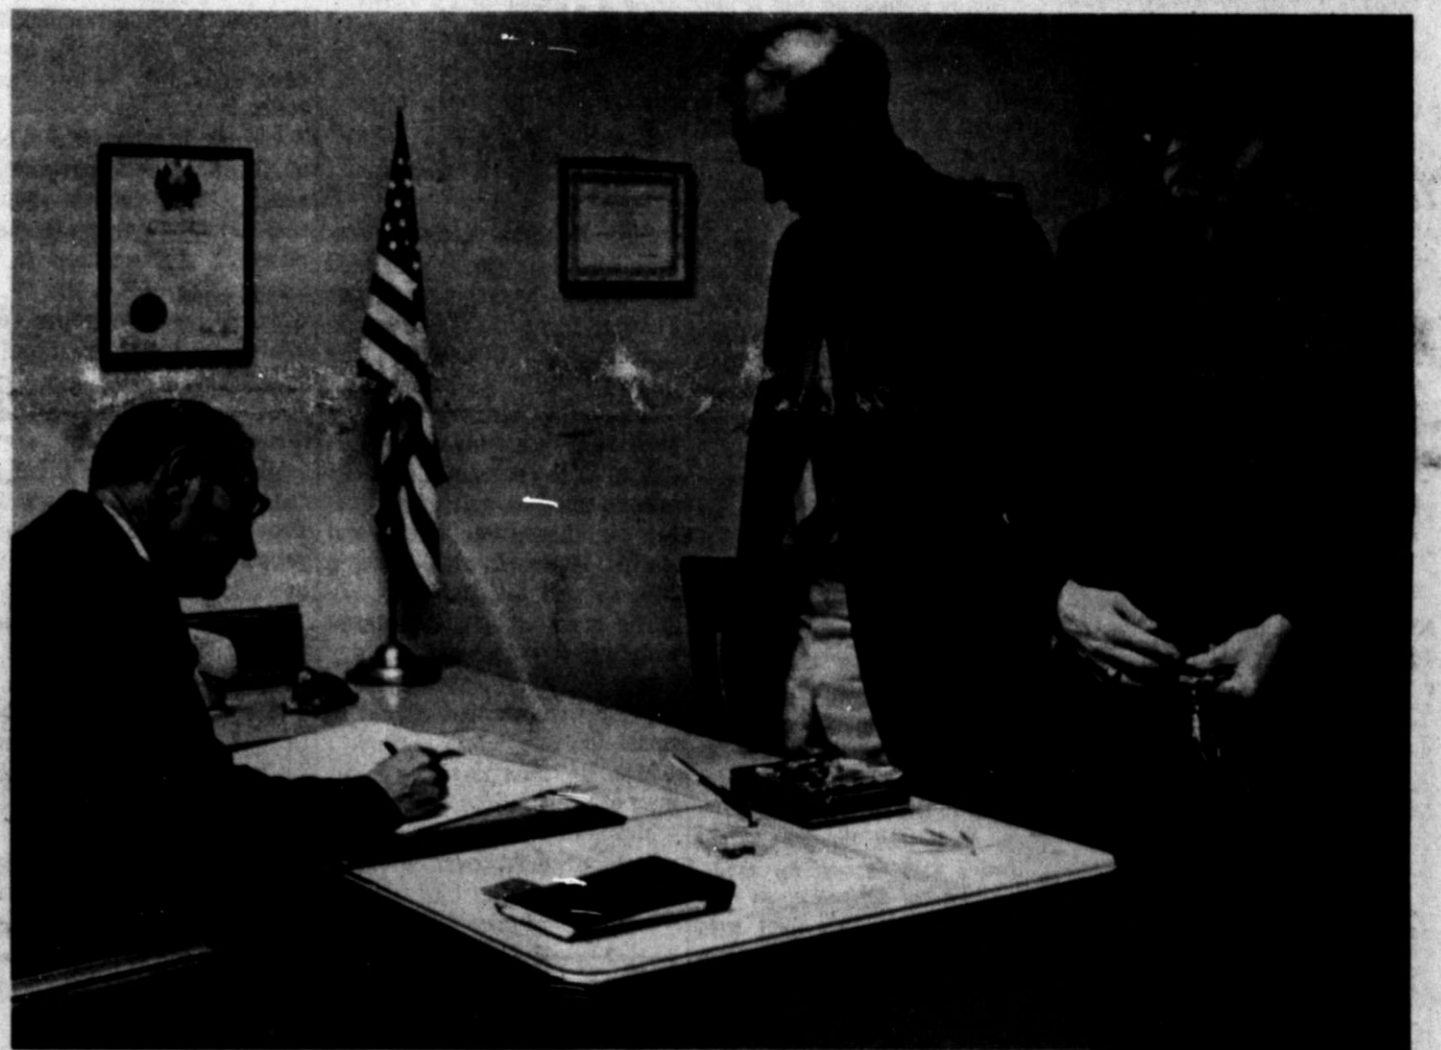

When officers got him to the sheriff's office where he was booked, they searched the car and found two sets of license plates. Also, some clothing and a blue steel revolver were found in a red flight bag which Forguson had thrown out of the car when Gillespie began following him.

Amarillo law enforcement authorities requested Hereford authorities to deny bond, which they did, and Forguson was placed in jail until about 1 a.m. Tuesday when Amarillo authorities picked him up.

In questioning Forguson, he said he could not afford an attorney and chose to make no statements.

Found in his possession was $531 in cash and one check for $13.38. Officials did not examine the contents of the bag because of possible fingerprints.

DENIED BOND — Deputy sheriff Gary Gillespie removes the handcuffs from Herman Forguson as Justice of the Peace Glen Nelson denies bond. Forguson was accused of the armed robbery of an Amarillo toy store and was apprehended by local authorities at a roadblock east of Hereford.

Hospital gets tough on admission policy

BY MARSHALL DAY
News Editor

The Deaf Smith County Hospital District board of directors took a hard stand Tuesday and set forth a new admissions policy in an effort to cut down on the large number of bad accounts the institution receives each month.

The board voted unanimously on a three-fold policy that will be applied to each and every person who comes to Deaf Smith General Hospital for medical care.

The terms of the new admissions policy will be:

—The person seeking admission shall satisfy the admitting officer as to his residency in this county and as to whether he or she is an indigent.

—An exception will be permitted only in case of emergency, and —The prospective patient shall be requested to provide information of hospital insurance or make a deposit of $100 or make credit arrangements to satisfy the admitting officer.

In discussing the need for a new admissions policy, hospital administrator T.E. Seigler told the board a change was needed because of the tremendous charity load the hospital is experiencing. He said much of this could be alleviated if a deposit is required when the patient is admitted.

"It is true we get a lot of charity work from the surrounding counties, but it also is true that a lot of our people become charity work to other counties such as Potter," Seigler said.

"We get charity work from Friona quite a bit and it is for the same reason a lot of our people go to Potter county—they don't have the proper facilities.

"We could have a policy saying we will admit emergency cases but no non-emergency cases, but who in this room will be responsible for doing this?" the administrator said.

Seigler said more and more suits are being filed than ever before against hospitals on the grounds the institutions denied care to patients. He said doctors no longer have immunity from a law suit, but hospitals are becoming more and more a target for suits for failure to provide care.

He gave one possible example if a woman from Friona were to come to Hereford when she began having labor pains. If the local hospital admitting officer refused to admit her because she was not a resident of this county, and the woman had the baby on the way back to Friona, the local hospital could possibly be held responsible if something happened to the woman or child.

Ed Line, chairman of the board, who did a rough draft of the upcoming new admissions policy, said a definite policy should be established as to the classification of patients as to whether they are residents or non-residents of the hospital district.

"The burden should be on the one coming into the hospital to satisfy the hospital that he or she is a resident to whatever satisfaction the admission officer wants or needs," he said. "This should be left up to the admitting officer, but there should be some guidelines for that officer."

Whitefaces meet Harvesters Saturday in AAAA state play offs at Amarillo

The Hereford Whitefaces take their hopes of a bi-district win to Amarillo Saturday when they go up against the awesome "Wishbone" attack of the Pampa Harvesters.

The Whitefaces come off a disappointing 10-4 loss to Lubbock High School while Pampa won its district race by half a game over Tascosa. Hereford already had the play off spot in the bag prior to the loss to Lubbock, but Pampa had to have its win in order to advance into the state play offs.

The Harvesters of Swede Lee bring a 7-3-1 record into the bi-district play offs as compared to the 5-5 mark of the Whitefaces.

One of the main reasons for Pampa's success this season has been senior quarterback Dale Ammons who operates the heralded "Wishbone" offense with superb talent. It was his running in the season opener against the Whitefaces that meant the difference in the 20-7 loss suffered by the "Faces."

Because of the precision with which Ammons executed that first game, and because of the experience of the past 10 games, Hereford coach Larry Dippel feels the Harvesters are an improved ball club.

"They have a great quarterback who makes the offense go, they have good speed in their backs and they all do a good job of getting outside," Dippel said.

"They are about the same team as they were the very first ball game. They have the same offense and the same defense and they have changed very little in that respect.

"They execute their offense extremely well, but of course, if you run the "Wishbone" like they do and you can't execute it, you don't have a very good offense."

Because of the "Wishbone" which is the same as is run by the University of Texas Longhorns, the Harvesters don't have to go to the air much in order to pick up yardage. They throw between five and 10 times a game, Dippel said, but they do come away from the line looking like they are going to throw and Ammons ends up keeping the ball and running with it.

With the "Wishbone" a quarterback has several options. That of handing the ball off to one of his backs, keeping the ball and running himself, or pitching out of a back at the POWER FAILURE — A Southwestern Public Service employee is barely recognizable as he climbs a pole in the background following Sunday night's power failure in the northern sections of Hereford.

Substation damaged

Power failure darkens city

For unknown reasons a Southwestern Public Service distribution breaker cabinet on Centre Street burned out Sunday and left a major portion of Hereford in darkness for about half an hour.

Carroll McDonald, manager of Southwestern Public Service, said some $8,000 in damages was caused when a fire broke out in the breaker cabinet. The initial damage was caused when a lightning arrester exploded. The cause of the arrester exploding still was not determined.

The lights in areas north of Park Avenue went out at 9:05 p.m. Sunday but Southwestern Public Service officials had electricity restored in less than half an hour. The area north of Park Avenue and east of 25 Mile Avenue was out of service only 20 minutes and the area north of Park Avenue and west of 25 Mile Avenue was without electricity for 33 minutes.

"We felt like we could have cut our outage time down quite a bit," McDonald said, "if it hadn't have been for the traffic."

Someone apparently called the fire department and interested citizens followed the fire trucks to the substation where Southwestern Public Service employees had a hard time getting around because of the traffic. The large number of vehicles on the road also prevented some other workers from getting to other parts of town in order to transfer the load from that substation to another.

Some 10 Southwestern Public Service employees were summoned to assist with the problem. The workmen isolated the substation and transferred the electrical load to another substation. Persons living in the areas blacked out used the power from the second substation until Tuesday when damages were repaired and the load placed back on the burned out station.

Art show-sale rules outlined

Time of the annual art show and sale of Hereford Art Guild will be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Dec. 4, it was decided at the Guild's November meeting Tuesday evening in Community Center.

The show will be staged again in Sugarland Mall, with Guild members acting as hostesses. It is open to all artists of the area, who may exhibit paintings in any media and also any type of sculpture.

A fee is charged non-members; it was set at $2 for three paintings and 50 cents for each painting above that number. A commission of five percent on all sales was also set. Entries may be designated for sale or exhibit only.

The public is invited to the show to view the entries and to purchase paintings.

Bonnie Brandt of Friona gave the program at the Tuesday meeting on tote painting. She traced the history of this type of painting, which she said is suitable for decoration of glass, plastic, wood and pottery as well as metal, its original use.

She demonstrated use of the brush to achieve shaded effects, and told how material is prepared.

Mmes. Urlin Streu, Ray Gerk, Dale Tinnin, Johnny Pool and Otto McCutcheon were welcomed as guests by Dr. John English as he presided for business. Mrs. Billy Hutson and Nollie Herrington were hostesses for the refreshment hour.

Other members present were Mmes. Joel Newman, Bruce Brown, Robert Veigel, O.H. Culpepper, Ben Childers, Si Darling, John Hickman, Jim Higgins, Jim Lipscomb, Charles Newell, Hilrey Aven, John Gilliland, A.E. Guinn, Cordie Wilson, Leota Moore, H.J. Wilhelm and E.E. Doak.

CLUB DONATES TRIKES AND WAGONS TO CENTER — Mrs. Don Robinson, chairman of Hereford Study Club welfare committee, delivered three tricycles and two wagons to

Karen Jesko is honored at tea

Karen Jesko, Nov. 27 bride-elect of Dale L. Reinart, was honored Tuesday evening at a tea-shower in Pioneer Natural Gas Flame Room.

Hostesses were Mmes. Tony Hoffman, George Turrentine, Clarence Betzen, Walter Kuper, Ira Ott, Frank Zinser Jr.,

Charles Schlabs, Ewald Berend, Gilbert Yosten, A.H. Husmann, Ray Berend, Larry Alley, Joe Reinauer, Carl Last, Joe Schulte, Ronny Paget, Edward Paetzold, V.H. Poarch, Andy Keyes and A.C. Stengel.

Approximately 40 guests were received by the honoree with her mother, Mrs. Jimmie Jesko, her fiancée's mother, Mrs. E.N. Reinart, and Mrs. Doug Sanderson and Mrs. George Bulard, sisters of the bride-elect.

Bernadette Jesko, another sister, registered guests at the door. Mmes. Sanderson and Bulard served small cake squares decorated with yellow sugar roses.

A sheer overlay of soft beige on avocado green covered the serving table which held a scale with gold mums on each plate for a Happiness In the Balance theme.

Green harvest grapes were intermingled with the floral arrangement at the base, with avocado candeliers in gold holders flanking either side.

Miss Jesko, attired in an avocado dress featuring long sleeves and scoop neck, wore a yellow rose corsage tied with avocado ribbon.

Members of the houseparty wore yellow gold mums.

"I think this game Saturday will be just about like it was before the first game," Dippel said. "I don't know whether you can call it a toss up, but the situation is the same—we really don't know what to expect from them and they really don't know what to expect from us, just like at the first of the season."

"I do feel that the game probably will be won by the team that makes the fewest mistakes and gets the best field position." When the Harvesters do go to the air it is to Bobby Reddell, their split end. Reddell, according to Dippel, "is capable of making the big play," as evidenced during the past two weeks when he caught two touchdown passes on third down and long yardage situations.

The Whitefaces will be without the services of two key starters in the bi-district clash with Pampa.

Steve Clark definitely will be out with an injured knee and Charles Allison's playing condition is questionable because of a shoulder injury. Both were injured in the Lubbock High game last week.

Mike Dawson will sub for Clark on offense and John Page will go in for Clark on defense.

Because of action by the state legislature, a city, hospital, county or other agency is not permitted to have a residency requirement that says a person must have lived in a certain city for a certain period of time.

Seigler presented a small stack of letters that were returned to the hospital in one day with various postal markings on them indicating the persons to whom they were sent no longer lives or never lived at the given address. The stack included four birth certificates.

"This is something that is getting to be a big thing," Seigler said. "It always has been a big thing. These people come in, give us a phony address and employer and are given treatment and gone before we have time to check on them."

"This is where a deposit would come in handy. Most of the cases like this, about 90 percent of them, we never even get anything out of them. If we had a deposit requirement we would be sure to get something out of them."

Board member Lawrence Straffuss said if word got out that a deposit was being required at Deaf Smith General Hospital "and people don't have the money, they aren't going to be so anxious to come in if they're not just real sick."

The present admissions policy does contain a section about deposits, but it is administered according to the individual and the case. As it was, the policy required a $100 deposit for medical cases, a $250 deposit for major surgical cases and $175 for obstetrics. This, however, is varied, depending on the individual, Seigler said.

"When people come in here sick they're not in the best of humor," Seigler said. "And if we make someone mad when they first come in here by asking for a deposit when they are sick, you are going to have problems with them from now on."

But, he said, if a person is admitted and then receives care without making a deposit the hospital will be right back in the same position it was before—without any guaranty the person will ever pay any on his bill.

Rebekah dinner is given

Fifty Rebekah Lodge members and their guests attended the annual Thanksgiving Supper Tuesday night in the Odd Fellows Temple. Invocation was given by Mrs. Ross Lomenick.

This Is My Country, sung by Mrs. R.E. Curtsinger, opened the musical program. She was accompanied on guitar and banjo by Lewis McCristian and Harold Manning who followed with several selections.

The main table was centered with an arrangement of dry flowers. Autumn leaves and turkey figurines were scattered around individual tables.

Mrs. Roy Manning was chairman of preparations.

Mrs. George Green, noble grand, presided over a brief business session.

BSP conducts autumn rituals

Three new members were pledged to Kappa Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in fall rituals held Tuesday evening in Community Center, and two members were welcomed by transfer from chapters in other cities.

City Council of Beta Sigma Phi was hostess for the ceremonies, attended by members of all three local chapters.

The Ritual of Jewels was conducted to receive five Kappa Iota pledges to full membership in the sorority.

Yellow roses, the Beta Sigma

Phi flower, filled a bowl set between rows of black candles on the table appointed in black and gold, sorority colors, where the rituals were conducted.

Pledges this fall are Mmes. Joe Reinauer Jr., Tim Gearn and David Block. Mrs. Fred Mulkey was received by transfer from a Stratford chapter and Mrs. Archie Dwyer from Dallas. Spring pledges who became members of Kappa Iota, were JaLee Mote and Mmes. Edward Allison, Terry Caviness, Joe Pat Cassels and Davie Sorrels.

On the hostess committee for this formal event were Mmes. John Schneider, Cliff Jones, Jim Cramer, Fred Ruland and Nolan Grady.

The generous rain Monday night and Tuesday night has put the brakes to harvesting operations in the county and could cause another shut-down at the sugar beet mill. According to Bob Ginn, Agricultural Manager, the company has about a five day supply of beets on hand. Harvesting of course, has come to a halt due to the rain but if there is no more moisture this week, there is a good chance they can get back in the fields early next week. Bob also said the sugar content had been rising and was up to 14.00 when the rains came. The rain will probably hold it at that point however.

There are still many acres of carrots that haven't been harvested, and again, harvesting has been halted by the rains. But according to estimates of some elevator operators, the milo harvest is in pretty good shape. Probably 85 to 90 per cent in the barn. And that's good. Three or four days of dry weather will about wrap it up for the year, and that's going to make a lot of people happy. Inclement weather has delayed the milo harvest long past the normal completion date.

By the way, we've had over 26 inches of rain this year. And that's really something considering we had had less than 8 inches by August 1. If we have any snow in December, we could go over the 30 inch mark for the year.

And while those who have crops in the fields have been concerned about the generous amount of rainfall, the dry land wheat farmer has been all smiles. It's the first time in years that he's had such good prospects for a bumper crop. Besides, he's getting a lot of mileage from the grazing.

In each other's eyes until the power returned.

And a couple of people, including our News Editor, found that electric garage doors don't work when the power is off. But he was smart. He went back to bed.

By the way, Southwestern Public Service Company will probably replace the equipment which caused the trouble at the sub-station. It has been repaired temporarily, but according to Carroll McDonald, it will be replaced just as soon as possible. Also according to Carroll, the temporary repairs cost the company about $8,000 and the replacement of the equipment will run in the neighborhood of $30,000. We thought that information might be of interest.

Bazaar, carnival planned Sunday

An event to bring people together for an afternoon of old fashioned style fun will take place Sunday at St. Anthony's School, and the public is invited.

The Fourth Annual Carnival and Bazaar, sponsored by the school's PTO organization, will feature games for all ages, food, a "Country Auction" and a "Country Store," selling handicrafts and home-baked foods.

Proceeds from the event each year are applied to the needs within the parochial school, which is supported by members of St. Anthony's and St. Joseph's churches.

Already designated for this year for the 200 students of the school are library books, world globes and maps, and sports equipment and uniforms.

Since its origin in 1968, the Carnival has brought more than $4,000 each year into the school's financial setup.

Werner Koelzer, president of the PTO, is serving as general chairman of the carnival, with Alvin "Swede" Schmucker as co-chairman.

Arvell Williams, local auctioneer, will conduct the mid-afternoon auction of donated items farm machinery, tools, animals, household furnishings, feed, seed, etc.

The school's Student Council will be selling buttonpins proclaiming support for the "Rebels," (the school's team name.) The design for this pin resulted from a contest held among the students earlier this year. Eighth grader Elaine Albracht created the winning design.

Chairmen selected for the afternoon's activities are: door prize, Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Benner; fish pond, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Cloud; bingo, Larry Walterscheid and Ronny Pagett; penny pitch, Morris Hacker; milk bottle throw, Butch Connolly; country store, Mrs. Paul Torres and Mrs. Leonel Gonzalez; cake walk, Mrs. Robert Diller; nickel throw, Joe Schumacher; food, Mrs. Walt Warren and Mrs. Vincent Garcia; coffee and cokes, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Artho; country auction, Jerome Friemel; Student Council, Elaine Albracht; number dart throw, Norbert Skypala and Duane Albracht; jail, Gary Kreighauser; pool table game, Ed Schilling; pie baking, Mrs. W.J. Albracht; publicity, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Last; booth building, Raynold Herr; change making, Mrs. Leonard Walterscheid; and money counting, Mrs. Gary Kreighauser.

DDD goes to rural homes

West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative this week provided Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) equipment to its customers in three exchanges.

The actual "turn up" of the system was completed Monday for the Frio exchange, Wednesday for the Dawn exchange, and will be completed Friday for the Westway exchange.

"This will enable West Texas' customers to dial without going through an operator," a representative of the company said. "This is another step in providing its customers with one-party service and improving existing services of the cooperative."

Persons who are members of the West Texas Rural Telephone Cooperative can find out how to use DDD through an advertisement elsewhere in this issue of the Brand.

LOVE RANKS FOURTH DALLAS (AP) — Love Field has become the nation's fourth busiest airport, outranked only by O'Hare in Chicago, Los Angeles International and Atlanta, according to the Federal Aviation Administration.

Love Field handled 407,622 regular air carrier and general aviation operations during 1970, said Howard Megredy, aviation director for the city.

This means its volume is now larger than that of John F. Kennedy in New York, San Francisco International or Miami.

And according to Floy Driver, Hereford has its own ConEd. But unlike Continental Edison which serves the populous New York City area, our electric company servicemen had the lights back on in about 30 minutes Sunday night. However, considering the fact that the lights went out right in the middle of "The Longest Day," we weren't too happy about it. We're sure that we missed the best part of the movie during that 30 minute power outage.

Incidentally, the local firemen and the police are concerned over the number of people who were "on the streets" during that power failure. Apparently many thought we were having another tornado, or something worse. However, as one fireman put it, the best place to be if that had been the case would have been at home—not out driving around. And that's good advice.

We were prepared out our way. We had two flash lights with good batteries, and we sat around shining the lights

GAS

Cooking helps your kitchen stay clean

a GAS Flame consumes smoke and grease vapors

So, on a gas range, you broil with the broiler door closed. Smoke and grease vapors do not escape into your kitchen because they are consumed inside the broiler by the gas flames.

And with clean gas cooking, you have fast, accurate temperature control, instant on-off heat, and the Burner-with-a-Brain to guard against the mess of cook-top burning and boilover.

Gas ranges also feature self-cleaning ovens.

See your gas appliance dealer and find out about all the other wonderful features of a MODERN GAS RANGE.

Adrian news

The Fortenberry clan had an early Thanksgiving dinner Sunday at Hugh Fortenberry's home. There were around 35 relatives attending.

Some of the out-of-towners were Mrs. Ida B. Fortenberry and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brooks and children of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higgins and Mr. and Mrs. Inman Larson of Hereford, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Bohannon of North Ridge, California, Mrs. Mary Dorris of Texico, Mr. Alford Seay of Clovis, Mrs. Albert Seay and Mrs. Norabell Davis of Carrizo, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Woodward of Amarillo visited Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Doherty and then all of them visited in the John Heiselman home Sunday.

Mrs. Millie Maupin, Mrs. Imogene Parker enjoyed playing 42 with Mrs. Hazel Fincher and Mrs. Julia Fincher Sunday evening in the Hazel Fincher home.

Mr. William Sifford, 86, passed away Tuesday in St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo. The funeral was held Thursday in the First Baptist Church in Hammon, Okla. under the direction of Martin Funeral Home of Elk City and burial was in Red Hill Cemetery. He was the father of Herman Sifford of Adrian. Among those attending the funeral besides the Herman Siffords were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sifford, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sifford, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Sifford of Friona and Mrs. Jerry Rodgers of Lubbock.

A wedding shower for Miss Lynn Widmer of Friona, bride-elect of Junior Clark, also of Friona and formerly of Adrian, was held Nov. 11 at 7 p.m. in the Union Congregational Church in Friona. Mrs. Calvin of Adrian attended.

Scoutmaster Grady Skaggs took the Boy Scouts swimming at the Maverick Club in Amarillo Saturday. Those going were Dennis Brown, Peter Brown, Stephen Kromer, Pat Blankenship, Paul Jacobson, Stephen Skaggs, Ray Skaggs, Richard Harris and Tom Skaggs.

Mrs. Bud Roark of Vega and Mrs. Don Morgan were Monday afternoon tea guests of Mrs. Allyne Worsham.

Keith Kromer was in Hale Center Friday on business.

The vocational agriculture department held a meeting Thursday night at Tommy's Cafe. They planned on having their turkey shoot Sunday and they did and made about $60. It was held behind Tommy's.

They also made plans to take their F. F. A. Sweetheart, Teddi Hale and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hale to the F.F.A. Banquet, Nov. 29 in Dalhart. The F. F. A. boys and ag teacher, Bob Wood are now in the process of buying club calves for next year. Have bought some and are looking for more.

Also the F. F. A. boys are selling boxes of fruit and will sell them up to Monday, Nov. 29.

Mrs. Ed Jacobson, Mrs. P.H. Gruhkey and Mrs. Keith Kromer were Thursday guests of Mrs. Earl Kromer of Amarillo at the Atheneum Club Guest Day program.

'Recruiter' here for short stay

Doug Tatom, 18, a 1971 graduate of Hereford High School, will be in Hereford for the next two to three weeks serving as the U.S. Army's "home town recruiter."

Tatom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tatom, formerly of Hereford, recently completed his basic and airborne training and will be here at local Board 18 to assist with young people in discussing the Army. Anyone who would like information can contact the Selective Service Board here and either talk to Tatom or leave word for him to call back.

Tatom entered the service in May of this year, just after graduation, and went through basic training at Ft. Polk, La. He then went through his airborne training at Ft. Benning, Ga. Following his brief stay here he will return to the 82nd Airborne Replacement Detachment at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Tatom is making a career of the Army because of the "opportunities, the chances for advancement, the schooling and the security it has to offer."

Coach pleased with players

Cagers open season against Bulldogs

BY MARSHALL DAY
News Editor

Hereford basketball fans will get a pleasant surprise Friday when the high school cagers open their season at Borger with one of the most impressive teams ever to come out of Hereford.

Coach Ron Mayberry, in his third year as head coach of the Whitefaces, has only one returning starter from last year's "Mob" that went 21-12 on the year, but he has inherited an ample supply of underclassmen. This season marks one of the first times that Hereford will floor a team comprised mainly of boys over six feet.

"I'm thrilled to death with this kind of situation," Mayberry said this week. "We've got some big kids and I really think we will be a pretty good ball club."

"Really, usually I always have a feeling about how we will do during a season, but this year it is something different. I really don't know. We have the potential to do well but, I have yet to make up my mind just how much potential," the head coach said.

There are 12 "things" that are "tickling Mayberry to death." They are seniors David Hicks, 6-4; Larry Roberts, 6-5; Dennis Goheen, 6-4; Steve Leasure, 5-11; juniors Mike Mayberry, 5-7; Luther Mays, 5-11; Terry Scott, 6-2; Gary Hicks, 6-6; David Duval, 6-5; Dan VanderZee, 6-7; Keith Kitchens, 6-2; and possibly two other players.

Kitchens is the only experienced veteran back from last year's squad that posted an enviable record. During the 1970-71 season, the Whitefaces had their first winning season since 1964, they had the best overall record in 11 years, they had the second most number of overall wins in the history of Hereford basketball, they had the second highest free throw percentage in the history of the school, they had the third highest field goal percentage in the history of the school, and had two of the top five scorers in district 4-AAAA.

Kitchens, though the only starter back from that team, was named "Sophomore of the Year" and was tabbed for honorable mention to the "All South Plains" team. He also was second team all-district and was the leading scorer and assist man for the Whitefaces.

The 1970-71 season also marked the first time since 1959 that a Hereford team ever won first place in a basketball tournament.

Most of the players coming to help Mayberry establish his "Mob" as a possible title contender were members of the junior varsity and sophomore teams of a year ago.

Robertson, though the only starter back from that team, was named "Sophomore of the Year" and was tabbed for honorable mention to the "All South Plains" team. He also was second team all-district and was the leading scorer and assist man for the Whitefaces.

Women get tickets, Adams gets money

Two Hereford women proved to be the best guessers in the annual Hereford Brand Football Contest and as a result will each receive two tickets to the annual Cotton Bowl classic at the end of this football season.

Jeanette Hill won the two first place tickets and Dorothy Mercer got the two for second place after beating out C.W. Covington. Mrs. Hill had 145 guesses right on the season and Mrs. Mercer and Covington tied at 144 for second place.

Mrs. Mercer, however, was the winner because she missed fewer games on the opening week of the contest. She missed only six games that first week and Covington missed seven.

In the final weekly contest, Bryan Adams came through again with his second win in as many weeks, missing only 19 games. He tied with five others in missing only one game but was the closest of the five to the tie-breaker. He guessed a total of 22 points in the Hereford-Lubbock game which ended in a 10-0 verdict for Lubbock.

Second place went to Terry Poindexter who guessed a total score of 27 and third went to Revella Skypala who guessed a total score of 28. Poindexter will get $10 and Mrs. Skypala $5.

Dallas Phillips came in fourth and Brent Glenn came in fifth. All five of the persons who missed only one game missed the Northwestern upset of Ohio State.

Some 32 persons missed only two games in the final week's contest.

This year's contest broke all previous contest marks for entries with some 2,902 persons submitting entries during the 10 weeks of the contest. That averaged about 290 entries per week as compared to an average of about 125 a year ago.

The heaviest week of the season was the seventh when some 343 persons entered the contest. The slowest week was the second week when only 224 persons submitted forms.

Other persons who finished high on the season but did not make it in a bid for the Cotton Bowl tickets were:

143—Kevin Young

141—Terry Poindexter, Bobbie Kitchens, Mrs. Cawthon Bryant, Marie Loerwald

140—Revella Skypala, Carey Black, Cawthon Bryant, Tom Conaway, Cuby Kitchens, Danny Loerwald

139—Jack Norman, Pat McDonald, Leon McCutchen, Keith Kitchens, Curtis Barton, W. C. Beene

138—Bob Adams, Greg Albracht, Leroy Berend, Donnie Crismon, Dave Hopper, Joan Hopper, Vance McGee, Duane Albracht

137—Mrs. Joe Williamson, Arthur Brock, B.F. Cain, Butch Casey, Darrell Dirks, Pete Flack, Ernest Gilmore, Lynn Lauderback, Jim Mercer

136—Lowell Rusher, Ed Schroeter, Billy Batterman, Jim Clark, Wayne Fuller, Marguerite McGee.

The Hereford Brand's panel of "experts" ended in a tie for first place when Larry Dippel slipped up on Marshall Day in the final week's contest. Day went into the final week with a one-game bulge over Dippel, but missed four games where Dippel missed only three.

Day and Dippel finished the season at 138-61, followed by Jay Spain at 132-66 and Lynn Brisendine at 121-77.

Results of last week's games were Arkansas 18, SMU 13; Texas A&M 18, Rice 13; Texas Tech 27, Baylor 0; Colorado State 36, West Texas State 14; Colorado 40, Oklahoma State 6; Notre Dame 21, Tulane 7; Auburn 35, Georgia 20; Oklahoma 56, Kansas 10; Northwestern 14, Ohio State 10; Michigan 20, Purdue 17; Penn State 35, North Carolina State 3; Caprock 30, Palo Duro 14; Tascosa 25, Borger 6; Pampa 23, Amarillo 14; Monterey 21, Coronado 14; Plainview 34, Kermit 14; Abilene Cooper 21, Abilene 10; Perryton 25, Dumas 22; Levelland 13, Tulla 0; and Canyon 24, Muleshoe 20.

Says Tom Draper

Managers are managers, but certainly not hunters

Tom Draper, a long time area agricultural producer and resident of Deaf Smith County, indulges in an almost forgotten sport—that of the coon hunt.

The coon, (short for raccoon) found in abundance in the southern United States, and particularly the wooded areas of the Southeastern States, is known for its mischievousness and tree climbing ability.

Through the years, many stories and tales have been told of the South and of the avid hunter who, with his trusty hounds, stalked the coon on moonlight nights in the "pinney" woods, and over a campfire, listened to the familiar baying of the hounds to tell when the coon was treed. The raccoon was hunted for the fur pelts and food in the early days more than for sport.

Draper, secretary of the Board of Directors at Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative for 20 years, got some results on one of his most recent hunts. He related that although the natural habitat of the coon might be somewhat different than in earlier years, the method of taking the coon is the same—that of a the trusted hunting hound.

Asked if James Hull was a good coon hunter, Draper pondered a moment, and said in his soft Texas drawl, "Now, James is sure a fine, outstanding young man and a good manager, but he sure won't ever be a coon hunter."

Harris system says Pampa should win by a touchdown

The Hereford Whitefaces go into Saturday's bi-district encounter with the Pampa Harvesters as a touchdown underdog according to the Harris Rating System.

The Whitefaces, with a 5-5 record as compared to the Harvesters' 7-2-1 mark, have a power rating of 126. Pampa, on the other hand, has a power rating

Walcott girls capture third in tournament

The Walcott girls basketball team finished third in the recent Bushland Tournament while the fate of the Walcott boys was somewhat less rewarding.

The girls, in taking third place, fell on the opening night to Adrian, 23-16 then bounced back on Friday to clip Bonham Christian, 21-20 and on Saturday win 22-11 over Amarillo Christian, 35-17.

The boys lost to Adrian, 49-15 the opening night then defeated Highland Park, 28-23 before finally falling to Amarillo Christian, 35-17.

Pampa and Hereford met in the season lid-lifter for both clubs earlier in the year and the Harvesters were 20-7 victors. But, the rating system has followed the Whitefaces through their comeback and now considers them a possible threat to the Harvesters.

In other AAAA games, El Paso Coronado is a six point favorite over El Paso Bowie; Wichita Falls is a 19 point favorite over Abilene Cooper; Arlington is a seven point favorite over North Mesquite; Forth Worth Eastern Hills is rated even with Fort Worth North Side; Dallas Carter and Dallas White are rated dead even; Nacodoches is a one point favorite over Richardson Lake Highlands; Houston Westchester is a point favorite over Killen; Houston Sam Houston is a point favorite over Houston Yates; Houston Lee is a six point favorite over Houston Boltaire; Port Arthur Lincoln is a point favorite over Beaumont Hebert; Baytown Sterling is a five point favorite over Houston Smiley; Austin Reagan is a 12 point favorite over El Campo; Alice is a 12 point favorite over Edinburg; Seguin is a one point favorite over San Antonio Sam Houston; and San Antonio Lee is a nine point favorite over San Antonio Edgewood.

Class turning out qualified workers

A paint and body repair class, sponsored by the Manpower Development Training Act (MDTA), is about half way through its scheduled 39 week run but already it has turned out two qualified workers and some 18 others are participating now in the class.

Under the instruction of C. E. Leasure, the class runs from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day, Monday through Friday. This is the first class of this type to be set up and offered in Hereford through the Texas Educational Agency and the Hereford School System.

The money for the class is supplied by the federal government under its program for training and retraining in areas where there is a shortage of skilled workers.

Lester Rape, manager of the Texas Employment Commission, does the recruiting and screening of the class applicants and also handles the work allowances given to the students.

Richard Robinson, vocational director for the school system, handles the schools involvement in the program.

The class started in June and will end in late February of next year. The two students who already have completed the course are working in area shops and meeting the shortage of qualified paint and body repairmen.

Students participating in the program are paid a training allowance of $42 a week plus $5, depending on the student's qualifications. The program has been allocated $59,000 by the federal government for allowances, salaries, parts and equipment used during the scheduled 39-week course.

PAINT, BODY CLASS—From right, C. E. Leasure, Jess Robinson and Lester Rape look over the work being done in the paint and body class being conducted through the Manpower Development Training Act. Leasure is the instructor, Robinson the head of the school system's involvement in the class, and Rape the manager of the Texas Employment Commission which handles much of the paper work.

Army announces major pay hikes

A major pay raise for members of the United States Army became effective today according to SFC Charles E. Barton, Army recruiter for Hereford and Deaf Smith county.

The pay raise, which was enacted into law on September 28, had been withheld temporarily as part of President Nixon's freeze on prices and wages.

Under the terms of the military pay bill, newly-enlisted soldiers will receive $268.50 per month. This compares with $134.40 under the previous law.

The pay raise will not only include substantial increases in basic pay, but will also raise quarters and ration allowances. The new pay scales are a giant step towards making military pay for lower ranking enlisted men and junior officers comparable with that offered by business and industry. According to U.S. government statistics, the average hourly wage in the manufacturing industry in 1970 was $3.36. Army pay for a sergeant, E-5, by comparison, will amount to $3.11 per hour if the sergeant is authorized and receiving quarters and ration allowances. If the same sergeant were married, his hourly pay rate would rise to $3.40.

Army officials state the average service time required to reach the rank of sergeant, E-5, is in the neighborhood of 22 months active service.

"When coupled with the traditional Army benefits such as free medical and dental care, clothing, room and board and retirement benefits, the new pay increase makes Army service truly competitive as a career choice," SFC Barton stated.

"Opportunities and challenges in the Army for the young man who applies himself have never been better, -- in short, Today's Army Wants to Join You -- and we're proving it," he concluded.

For more information on the new pay scales and additional information on enlistment opportunities, see SFC Barton at his office located at 317 East Third Avenue in Amarillo. Or, call him collect at 376-5151, ext. 2181.

TOO MANY LOSE DOGS
DALLAS (AP)—Dogs are killed by cars on streets here at a rate of 70 a day, according to J. D. Whitton, assistant superintendent of the city's sanitation department, whose responsibility is to pick up the mutilated corpses.

Highway driving laws see change

New highway driving laws recently passed by the U.S. Legislature were explained Thursday morning by Jim Freeman, highway patrolman from Amarillo when members of Mon Amis Study Club met in Easter Community Building.

Freeman gave members a written driving test to see how their scores would vary following the new changes. He said "It is now law that upon license renewal you must have your eyes checked and take both a driving and written test."

Mrs. Dan Easley and Mrs. Don Tindal were hostesses. A visitor and guest of Mrs. Easley was Mrs. Odell Newton of Friona.

Discussion was held on the Dec. 10 Christmas party for husbands and members. The covered dish supper will begin at 7 p.m. in Easter Community Building.

The girl at Gristown the club sponsors, will visit the club at the Christmas party and be presented a gift.

WELFARE DECLINES
FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky reports its welfare rolls down by 4,300 persons from April 1970 to March 1971. Spokesmen said part of the decline is due to a program under which private citizens help find work for qualified welfare clients.

Army offers new enlistment option

The United States Army has just announced a new enlistment option which offers young men the opportunity to get in on the ground floor of a 20th century communications operation.

According to Sgt. Charles Barton, Army recruiter for the Hereford and Dimmitt area, the Army is accepting a limited number of highly-qualified applicants for enlistment in the Strategic Communications Command.

For those eligible, training in microwave systems, satellite communications, radar, computers and several other highly technical fields.

An added feature of the enlistment option allows an enlistee to choose service in Europe if the Army makes the decision on which of some nine schools he will attend. Or, he can select his own school from the list and leave his assignment to the Army's discretion.

In either respect, he is guaranteed attendance at a highly technical school. The schools include those for strategic microwave systems repairman, satellite communications ground station equipment repairman, fixed station technical controller, fixed ciphony repairman or automatic data processing systems repairman. Also offered are courses for dial central office repairmen, communications center specialists and data communications switching center specialists.

For further information on how to become a member of the Army's Strategic Communications Command, see Barton at his office at Local Board 18 in Hereford or City Hall in Dimmitt on Mondays. Or call him collect at 366-376-5151 Ext. 2182.

 THIS SATURDAY

The Hereford Whitefaces, in the bi-district play offs for the second time in three years, go against the powerful Pampa Harvesters at 2 p.m. Saturday in Dick Bivins Stadium in Amarillo.

Pampa, led by Dale Ammons at quarterback, defeated the Whitefaces, 20-7, in the first game of the season, but the Whitefaces will be looking to avenge that earlier loss.

Pampa stands 7-2-1 on the season and Hereford is 5-5. That 5-5 record for the Whitefaces is the same as the one carried into the bi-district play offs in 1969 against AAA Kermit.

A taboo subject

State experiencing epidemic

Texas is in the midst of an epidemic, say State Health officials.

Polio?
Rubella?
Diphtheria?

No, it's an epidemic about which little is said because the public holds the disease itself to be taboo—a silent epidemic called "venereal disease."

Nationwide, more than two million Americans had VD last year—either gonorrhea or syphilis. Gonorrhea is the nation's number one reportable communicable disease. Syphilis trails not far behind as number three. More Americans are affected by gonorrhea than by measles, whooping cough, encephalitis, and tuberculosis combined. Only the common cold occurs more frequently.

Texas last year reported 6,527 cases of syphilis. That's 7.2 percent of the 90,495 cases reported in the United States. Yet, Texas actually showed a decrease in syphilis this year, compared to the 18 states that had increases.

There were 43,601 cases of gonorrhea in Texas in 1970, or 7.2 percent of the 600,072 cases officially reported nationwide.

Texas' high ranking in the occurrence of both diseases is due primarily to the State Health Department's intensive case-finding efforts.

These figures do not represent the extent of the epidemic nationwide, for public health officials say less than one-half—some authorities say no more than one in ten—of all VD cases are reported. In many instances, the social taboo of the disease keeps individuals from mentioning suspicious symptoms to their doctor.

The overt symptoms eventually clear up, but the disease never goes away without treatment. It continues to wreak its damage on the body's vital centers—the heart and central nervous system, as well as the reproductive tract.

Syphilis, if untreated, can cause mental illness, paralysis, blindness, deafness, heart disease and death. Untreated, gonorrhea leads to the development of scar tissue in the fallopian tube of the woman and in the seminal ducts of the male, leading to damage of the sex organs, and if severe enough, even sterility. Gonorrhea, too, can cause paralysis, blindness, and death.

Discovered early, syphilis and gonorrhea can be cured or controlled by antibiotics. There already exists a positive blood test to detect syphilis. Research scientists believe they are close to the development of a more effective diagnostic test for gonorrhea in females.

Cleveland Noyes completes course in U.S. Army

Army Specialist Four, Cleveland D. Noyes, 18-year-old son of Benjamin B. Noyes Jr., 222 Avenue C, and Mrs. Dorothy A. Sellers, Eunice, N.M. recently completed the annual combat engineer vehicle qualification course at the seventh U.S. Army Training Center in Grafenwohr, Germany.

Purpose of the course is to determine combat readiness of an engineer unit.

Spec. Noyes, regularly stationed near New Ulm as driver in Company D of the 1st Infantry Division, 1st Engineer Battalion, helped his Company win a distinguished rating by his excellent performance of duty.

Social security

BY TRAVIS C. BRIGGS

Q. I read in the paper about social security "teleservice." What is the advantage?

A. The intent is to save time and give better service to people who have business with the social security office. Frequently, after an application for benefits is filed, it is found that some additional information is needed, and a telephone call will serve as well as a trip to the office. That is why we always like to have a telephone number.

Q. I understand that I should apply for Medicare three months before age 65. I applied for early retirement and now receive social security payments. Should I go to the social security office again to apply for Medicare?

A. No, you do not have to go to the social security office again to apply for Medicare. An enrollment card will be mailed to you about two months before you are 65 for you to complete and return. A Medicare card will then be mailed to you. People who have not applied for social security before 65 should apply for Medicare during the three month period before age 65.

Q. I receive monthly social security survivors' benefits for my son who is 17. He is mentally retarded and probably will never be able to work. Will his benefits stop when he reaches 18?

A. Probably not. You should get in touch with your social security office at least three months before he reaches 18 to see about continuing the benefits past 18 on the basis of his disability.

Prelude given on TGC presidents

Introductions of Garden Club presidents on national, state and district levels were given by four members of Hereford Garden Club Friday to tell other members who their leaders are and what themes they will use during their terms in office.

Presenting the introductions were Mmes. Alfred Smith, S.S. Williams, R.L. Wilson and Margaret Shawn.

They opened with information on Mrs. Maxwell W. Steel, national president, who chose as her theme, "Make Our Country a Cleaner and Greener Place." Mrs. Robert H. Dooley, state president, will stress her theme "Act, Beautify and Communicate." Mrs. James Malone, district director, says "Go, Grow and Glow As You Work Hand in Hand with Our Master Gardener."

Mrs. Wilson, in addition, reported on the wide range of world gardening projects for clubs and took up a club offering of $10 to send to project CARE.

Mrs. R.L. Laymon, president of the local club, discussed a new idea for a garden club here designed to help new homeowners and newbyweds in landscaping their yards.

A 20-minute report on the recent State Board Meeting in Ft. Worth was given by Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. who attended the meet as state treasurer of Texas Garden Clubs.

Mrs. R.W. Mitchell, hostess in her home, was assisted by Mrs. R.L. Ethridge.

Seventeen members attended with Christmas gifts for the Wichita Falls State Mental Hospital, part of still another project undertaken this year.

The group will meet at 2:30

AARP to hear reports on past club activity

Reports on a recent Area VII American Association for Retired Persons Officers Training Workshop in Amarillo will be given by Virgil Dodson and Ed Dziuk at the Thursday night meeting in Hereford Community Center.

Twenty-three persons attended the meeting from Hereford, p.m. Dec. 10 at Kings Manor to prepare Christmas decorations for the doors of resident's rooms.

Lubbock, Dumas and Amarillo.

A 12-minute taped speech given by President Nixon at an October AARP convention in Chicago, Ill. will be brought by Dodson.

Mr. and Mrs. Dodson will follow with slides and comments on arches and coral red sands of Mohab and Konab, Utah taken during their trip there in June.

Persons over 55 years of age are invited to attend the 7 p.m. meeting.

POLITE POLICE
AUCKLAND (AP)—New Zealand police now leave calling cards with people they visit.

Each card names three constables who make up each patrol.

"It's much better for the public to be able to ask for a police officer by name if they need to ring the central police station, rather than get the impression they are dealing with a vast impersonal organization," Chief Inspector K. O. Thompson said.

A Miracle

The miracle of the loaves and fishes. Such a familiar Bible story and it is definitely true. After all, who would doubt that Christ could turn five loaves and two fishes into more than enough for five thousand people. Who would doubt that four thousand were fed by seven loaves and a few minnows, again with a surplus.

Yes, who amongst us would doubt that miracles did occur, that events did happen for which there was no scientific explanation? But that was two thousand years ago. But what about today? Do miracles still occur? Who would question this divine intervention? Who would bellow at these extraordinary? It was God making wonderful.

One can best understand if he considers the words of Christ: "Ask, and it shall be given you..." (Matt. 7:7). If we have only to ask in order to receive, then miracles could surely still occur. And they do still occur, as millions will testify.

When we petition God, what should we ask for? Ask only for that which you need. Ask no more. Expect no less. For God can and will provide, as He did long ago with a few sardines and sandwiches. And when He does provide, then our miracle has occurred.

Dinner honors couple

A dinner party honoring Miss Linda McEachern and her fiancé, Lee Cranmer of Canyon, was given Saturday evening in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Dimmitt Highway. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith served as co-hosts.

The couple, students at West Texas State University, plan a December 31 wedding.

Special guests attending were Mrs. William T. McEachern of Plainview, the bride-elect's mother; Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Cranmer of Vega, parents of the prospective bridegroom; and Mrs. Lola Cranmer of Amarillo, his grandmother.

A gift of handpainted china was presented to the couple.

Tables, appointed in silver and crystal, brought out the bride's chosen colors of green and white with centerpieces of white pompons and green tapers.

DO NOT DISTURB — Little LaTonya Cupell, 14-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cupell, was "caught napping" during Friday night's football game. Moments earlier, however, the tyke was busy watching activities on the field, especially those of the team's costumed mascot, Rojean Block, who joins the cheerleaders throughout the games. Photo by Betty Koelzer

Veteran's affairs

J—I have a loan on my G. I. insurance policy. May I repay it through deductions from my VA compensation?

A—Yes. Get a VA Form 29-288 from the nearest VA office, complete it, and mail it to the office to which you pay your insurance premiums.

Q—I have a loan on my G.I. ability to attend graduate school. What is considered full time for VA benefits?

A—The VA generally will accept whatever the school considers full time graduate work. Suggest you check with the registrar of the school you plan to attend.

Q—Am I eligible for benefits under the current G. I. Bill if I served in the regular Army from 1930 to 1935?

A—No. The current G. I. Bill provides G. I. loans, education and other benefits for eligible veterans who served after January 31, 1955.

County residents spending large amounts on property

Homeowners in Deaf Smith County are spending a record amount these days on the maintenance and improvement of their property.

In the past year alone, their expenditure for alterations, additions, repairs and general upkeep came to approximately $1,420,000, the figures indicate. This is distinct from their normal week-to-week operating expenses.

The estimate is based upon a sampling survey of dwellings in all sections of the county, made by the Department of Commerce, and upon data from other sources.

The finding is that the average expenditure for residential upkeep and improvement in Deaf Smith County's regional area was about $222 per housing unit. Throughout the United States as a whole it was $287.

Most homeowners, it is noted, spend considerably more than the annual average in certain years, when major repairs or improvements are called for. In the other years they get along with smaller outlays.

The scope of the home improvement trend is to be seen in the government's overall figures. They show that some $14.8 billion was spent in that direction in the past year. This was $1.2 billion more than in the prior year.

As for homeowners in Deaf Smith County, how did they spend their $1,420,000 portion of this total?

In general, it is shown, about 60 percent of their expenditures were for additions, alterations and improvements.

The other 40 percent went for repairs and upkeep. Nearly half of this amount was for painting and decorating. The rest was for plumbing, roofing, heating and miscellaneous.

Local merchants selling lumber, hardware and other building supplies have been profiting by this upsurge in home refurbishing.

The turn in that direction is attributed to the fact that many families who would, ordinarily, have been moving into newer houses at this stage, have been unable to do so.

They have been hampered by the shortage of houses on the market, by the high cost of those that are available and by the prevailing interest rates on mortgages.

Solution to 'shipping fever' may lie in transfusions

Low-cost blood transfusions for cattle may soon help solve the problem of Shipping Fever.

Texas Tech University Veterinarian W.H. Wohler Jr. foresees the use of blood transfusions and infusions to combat the problem, one which has been estimated to cost West Texas cattlemen more than $27 million a year.

Experiments at Tech have found that stress, in the physiological sense, among other things, produces a blood protein deficit. Such a deficit causes an animal to be vulnerable to infections like Shipping Fever. He suggests that in the case of Shipping Fever, cattlemen might improve their batting average if they treated the underlying cause as well as attempting to combat the infectious organisms (some of which are not susceptible to antibiotics or sulfa drugs).

Once the animal's proper protein level is restored the animal Dr. Wohler and his Texas Tech associates are working toward improved instruments and processes which will lead to economic collection, treatment, storage and use of the whole blood and blood plasma. This, in turn, could result in transfusions costing as little as one dollar per head. "Considerable progress" has already been made.

"It's one of the most exciting things I have been involved with in a 20-year career in veterinary medicine and livestock production," Dr. Wohler said.

"Shipping Fever is a problem to some degree with nearly all groups of cattle that are transported and at nearly all places where cattle are received. Numerous vaccines have been developed to prevent Shipping Fever and some, if used properly and at the proper time, are of great value. Antibiotics and sulfa drugs are of inestimable value in reducing loss, but none of these has completely eliminated or controlled the problem at the packing plant from cattle which have been through the feedlot and are immune to common feedlot diseases. This blood is of particular value because of its chemical and antibody content.

The degree of sickness and amount of loss are related to the amount of stress to which the cattle are subjected. On that basis, Dr. Wohler has directed efforts to attempt to scientifically relate the amount of stress as measured by biologic methods to sickness and loss and further to study all the facets of stress in cattle in order to determine how to compensate the animal for the "physiologic derangement" induced.

Work in this area has been supported by Texas Tech University and by private sources and it has been conducted on the Tech campus, at origin locations, and at local area feedlots. Dr. Wohler and his research has a much better chance of combating the disease itself.

The veterinarian believes that among the most effective and most economical preventive procedures and treatments now available are blood injections and blood transfusions.

"Transfusions for livestock are not new," he said. "They have been used in veterinary medicine almost as long as in human medicine."

In the case of feeder cattle the cost of collecting, processing and administering the blood has been prohibitive in the past; but a new simple technique devised by Dr. Wohler allows for economical, sanitary collection of the "Furthermore, since the protein is denatured in the serum commercially available by processing techniques, it lacks the utility of whole blood," he said. The advantage would be that the economy would allow the use of doses large enough to be of value as replacement therapy for the depressed serum proteins as well as providing needed antibodies to fight disease producing viruses and bacteria.

The treatment will not replace other lines of treatment, but rather support and augment them to increase efficiency and reduce costs of production. He said whole blood can be placed cumulated and there are definite signs of progress. Texas Tech is very proud to be moving ahead in this area of much needed re-veterinary medicine degree in search."

Dr. Wohler, who received his 1951 from the University of Missouri, joined the Texas Tech faculty in 1970 after 13 years of Work is currently in progress to devise methods of treating cattle at a rate upwards of 100 head per hour. The one dollar cost would compare with about $5 per half-pint for serum now used against Shipping Fever. Into the veins of cattle or injected under the skin with good results.

Shipping Fever, by any standard, is the most troublesome health factor that cattlemen face. It occurs year-round, but is especially hard to handle in the fall.

Dr. Wohler stated other areas of care of newly arrived cattle are also being studied at Texas Tech. "While there is much to be done yet, it is encouraging that information is being practicing veterinary medicine, ranching and cattle feeding in the Fort Worth area. He was resident veterinarian for three years for a large Angus herd in Missouri.

He is an associate professor of animal science and university veterinarian at Texas Tech.

SCHOOLS PARTICIPATE IN YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERT — More than 200 students from Hereford's Aikman, Shirley and Central Elementary schools participated in a Young People's Concert sponsored Saturday by the Amarillo Symphony Guild at the Civic Center. Ben Bruckner, Jr.,

guild chairman expressed appreciation for the children's efforts and enthusiasm. In top photo are students from Central, Aikman in center, and Shirley bottom. Two local young men sent by Paul Abalos played Spanish songs in the lobby preceding the concert.

Atchley, Ginn receive 4-H Gold Star Awards

Kay Atchley and Mickey Ginn received honors this year as Deaf Smith County 4-H Club Gold Star Girl and Boy at the annual awards banquet Saturday night in Hereford Civic Club Center.

Gold Star presentations were made by Joyce Shipp, assistant home demonstration agent, and Juston McBride, county agricultural agent.

Ginn was master of ceremonies for the evening with Chris Marnell giving invocation. Wesley Strain welcomed those present as Jean Barber recognized leaders.

Noted for their five years service as leaders were Mmes. Hugh Clearman, Thurman Atchley and Floyd Cole. Juston McBride introduced his new agricultural assistant, Robert Devin of Dumas.

Dr. Aaron Hutto, a local veterinarian and former 4-H member, spoke on Steps To Success.

Hutto said "Success is seen in even the smallest award such as a ribbon for cake or steer. The first thing you need is a goal, followed by the three basic steps to success: technique of dealing with people, showing responsibility toward others, and learning from failures and mistakes."

Hutto was introduced by Sue Shirley with other special guests being recognized by Shelly Scott.

The 4-H Leaders Association presented the following local awards earned through members' work on project records: Tommy Marnell, aerospace, Monica Herring and Lynette Clearman, safety, and Annette and Denise Cotton, Ricky, Randy and Rudy Coleman and Kim Rose, sheep.

By method demonstration Bill Martin, Patricia Johnson, Shelly Scott, Laurie Close, David Nowatny, Melissa Johnson and Steve Lyons were county winners in quarter horse judging. Donor representatives were present to make all county awards presentations.

Other county awards went to Twig Rose, Jim McNey, Rodney Coleman and Edd Stallings in the beef category; Sue Shirley, Chris Marnell, Joann Wagner and Laurie Young in clothing Beverly Cole, Lee Ann Umsted, dress revue; and Mickey Ginn and Kay Atchley, electric.

Also Sandra Stallings, Glenda Dodson, Paula Terry and Lana Porter, food and nutrition division; Mary Kay Wagner, Dana Brinkley and Sharlene Powell, home improvement; Robert and Donna Meyer, public speaking; Robin Coleman, rabbit; and Kim Rose, sheep.

Others were Gerald Brinkley, Kevin Sanders and Charles Berryman in swine competition; and Sue Shirley and Mickey Ginn, Texas Plains Key Award. The 4-H club motto is To Make The Best Better. Their pledge is: I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, and my health to better living, for my club, my community and my country.

Members of the banquet committee for this year were Mmes. Bruce Terry, Jim McCabe, B. G. Cotton and Pat Smith, and Misses Chris Marnell, Kathy Vogel and Sue Shirley.

Young Homemaker of Year named Saturday

Mrs. Jim Culpepper was named Young Homemaker of the Year at the Hereford Chapter Young Homemakers of Texas Annual Awards Banquet Saturday night at K-Bob's Steak House.

Making the presentation was David Pruitt, award-sponsor-representative from Deaf Smith County Rural Electric Cooperative.

Mrs. Floyd Neill was awarded the Distinguished Service Award by Bill Wilshire, sales representative from Southwest Public Service Company in Amarillo.

Mrs. Culpepper joined YHT in 1968 having served as president, parliamentarian and chairman of cheer and recreation committees.

Elected Area I secretary for 1971-72, Mrs. Culpepper has participated in state and area conventions for two years. She was presented the distinguished service award last year.

Employed by Shur-Gro Liquid Feed, Mrs. Culpepper is the mother of one small son. A resident of Hereford and Lubbock, she attended one year of college at West Texas State University.

Mrs. Neill, a relatively new YHT member, is first vice president and coordinator of the club's pecan sale project this year. She has served on the yearbook and cheer committees and was active in the recently completed Community Club Awards project.

Mrs. Charles Weatherford, president of the local chapter, introduced special guests including Dorothy Barkley, speaker, Donita McDermitt, Little Sister, her escort Jay Henson, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Turner of Lubbock, guests of the Culpeppers.

Mrs. Barkley, a former Hereford resident, now resides in Friona where she is a literacy teacher on voluntary basis. Her speech on "Literacy" explained the use of the Laubach Method of Teaching.

Advisor of the local YHT chapter also recognized was Mrs. M.T. Bursmith, Invocation was given by Dorman Duggan.

Mmes. Culpepper, James Paetzold, Larry Alley, Duggan and Jim McDowell decorated the banquet room in a patriotic theme using red, white and blue flowers with streamers and miniature flags scattered on the tables.

Mavericks defeat Stanton, 24-14

The La Plata Maverick ninth graders pulled out a 28-14 win over the Stanton ninth graders in the two schools' final football games of the season last week and La Plata took the edge in the three-team battle for the city title.

La Plata won the seventh grade game a week ago and the two eighth grade teams tied.

Stanton got on the board first in last week's game when Darrell Williams went across from seven yards out in the opening quarter. Robert Lomas latched on to a Hank Stringer pass for the two-point conversion and Stanton led, 8-0.

La Plata came back and tied it up in the first period on an eight-yard gallop by Marvin Harris, who also ran across the two-point conversion.

La Plata went out in front to stay on the final play before the half when Harris scored again on a two yard plunge. The try for the extra point was no good, but La Plata led, 14-8.

Mike Munnerlyn rambled 23 yards in the third quarter for another Maverick score and Doug Charest caught a pass from Munnerlyn for the two-point conversion to make the score 22-8.

Stanton threatened to pull within striking distance in the final quarter when Williams again went in for the score from two yards out. The try for the extra points failed.

La Plata put the game away with about four minutes left in the game when Munnerlyn scored on a 18-yard scamper for the game's final score.

BY BILL BOYKIN

AUSTIN, Tex.—Hearings of major interest to insurance policy holders are scheduled here December 8.

The State Board of Insurance slated for that date public airing of new regulations to prevent insurance companies from arbitrarily cancelling coverage and a proposal to lower auto policy rates through "shock-absorbing" bumpers.

Allstate Insurance Company of Illinois recommends a 10 per cent premium discount for new cars equipped with the tough bumpers beginning next year. Rates would be reduced to 15 per cent if cars can be demonstrated to take a five-miles-per-hour front-end crash and a two-and-a-half-miles-per-hour rear end wallop. Rates would drop 20 per cent if the bumpers can absorb a five-miles-per-hour blow fore and aft.

New federal regulations call for the shock-absorb bumpers with five mph (front) and two-and-a-half mph (rear) capacity by 1973 models.

Proposed regulations would prohibit cancellation of hazard and liability insurance which has been in effect 60 days or more unless holders fail to pay premiums or lose a driver's license (auto coverage).

Under the rules to be examined at the early December hearing, companies would have to give at least 30 days' written notice if they do not intend to renew a policy at the end of a year. Unless the notice is given, renewal would be required for another year. Firms which violate the rules could lose their licenses to operate in Texas.

The latter regulations resulted from special legislation passed this year following repeated complaints of motorists who claimed policies were cancelled without advance notice.

A hearing was scheduled earlier for December 7 to consider all aspects of problems in operating the new catastrophe property insurance pool in 14 coastal counties.

JUKE BOX HEARINGS SET—The new Texas Vending Commission decided to air its problems in a series of seminars over the state after being hit with criticism over the regulations it must enforce.

Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin suggested a Commission-led seminar discussion of the con-operated amusements machine industry and pertinent laws.

Meanwhile, State Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena called on Gov. Preston Smith to remove Raymond B. Williams of Dallas, a vending machine tycoon, as chairman of the Commission. Smith noted the law provides for three industry representatives to serve on the Commission, and said it is too late to remove Williams. Williams said he has no intention of resigning.

The House General Investigating Committee is gathering material concerning the vending controversy and Chairman Rep. Menton Murray of Hartlingen has indicated a probe may be directed at a later meeting.

Commissioner Williams and the other two industry representatives vowed publicly they will not use their official positions to get information about their 2,800 competitors from Commission files.

PAY RAISES ORDERED—The state proposed to begin the last half of this month granting state employees and school teachers pay raises approved by the Legislature unless stopped by the Federal Pay Board.

Governor Smith said an application has been sent to the Pay Board requesting permission to make retroactive raise payments to September 1 when the new state budget took effect.

The Pay Board set a 5.5 per cent salary increase guidepost on expiration of the wage-price freeze. The Legislature approved a 6.8 per cent pay raise for state employees. Texas was the only state government in the country blocked by the freeze from employee pay raises this year. Hikes in other states took effect before the president's order.

AG OPINIONS—"Surge" brakes for small trailers (such as those used in hauling boats) will meet the new requirement of central braking systems for trailers, Attorney General Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded: Counties are responsible for damages inflicted by reserve deputy sheriffs or constables to persons or property, but they are not liable for injuries to the reserve officers.

A local option election to legalize liquor sale cannot be conducted in a new Randall County precinct because it has not been in existence 18 months.

The State Comptroller must transfer to the Texas Vending Commission all records and memoranda needed in enforcing coin-machine license fee requirements.

Counties are not authorized to contract with cities for the municipal tax assessor-collector to assess all property for tax purposes, but can contract for appraisal or assessment recommendations that do not abrogate the county tax assessor-collector's constitutional duties.

School districts may purchase liability insurance for employees who are exposed to individual liability in their duties, but may not buy policies protecting others against tort claims for bodily injury and property damage.

No certificate of authority can be issued to an automobile club whose services constitute an insurance business.

APPOINTMENTS—Hugo H. Lowenstern Sr. of Amarillo, John McKee of Dallas and Hulien Marshall of Houston were appointed by Governor Smith to the Committee on State and Local Tax Policy.

Smith named William M. Streckert of Brownwood and Morris E. Bailey of Amarillo to the Texas State Technical Institute Board of Regents.

He appointed Robert J. Long of Austin to the Lower Colorado River Authority.

First Court of Civil Appeals Associate Justice Phil Peden of Houston and Austin attorney Robert C. McGinnis were named to the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, and District Judge R. C. Vaughan of Sherman was reappointed.

Governor Smith made official his 18 appointments to a Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.

Dr. James H. Granberry of Lubbock and Mrs. Holt Atherton of San Antonio are co-chairmen of the Texas delegation to the Southern Republican Conference. Earl Luna of Dallas is new State Democratic Executive Committee counsel.

COURTS SPEAK—A state law declaring desecration of the flag a felony was upheld by the Court of Criminal Appeals in a Dallas case where a 20-year-old flag burner got a four-year prison sentence.

The Court's opinion called such acts "an invitation to violence" and said they are not protected by constitutional guarantees of free speech.

The State Supreme Court said it had no jurisdiction on a damage case involving a contractor's suit for damages over failure of metal rods used to raise the "top house" of the famous Tower of the Americas in San Antonio to its lofty place.

VACCINATION OUT—Compulsory vaccination for smallpox has been lifted by the State Board of Health as a requirement for entering school.

Required immunizations effective next January 1 include for grade school pupils diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, rubella and measles (if the child hasn't had measles). The U.S. Public Health Service recently held compulsory smallpox immunization is no longer necessary in the U.S. since risk of the disease is so small here. Last known cases were in 1949 in the Rio Grande Valley.

The 26th amendment to the U.S. Constitution lowering the voting age will have enfranchised 864,646 new Texas voters by November, 1972, according to the University of Texas population research center. Projections see a total of more than 1.4 million young Texas voters who were not old enough to vote in the 1968 general election.

A $23.3 million textbook order, largest in history, was placed last week.

Governor Smith is calling for a "take crime out of Christmas" campaign to curb the crime wave which frequently accompanies the Yule season.

Health assembly scheduled Nov. 22

The Texas Health Careers Program will present a Health Careers Assembly for Hereford High School on Monday, at 1 p.m. The unique presentation by John Haddad, director of field services, Texas Health Careers Program, is designed to introduce exciting career opportunities in health care to all students.

With over 300 different careers available, the health-care field offers employment to people with a wide variety of education and training. The health-care field is projected to employ more than any other industry in the United States by 1975. Texas alone has needs for over 20,000 trained personnel today.

Christmas gifts needed for GT

Viola Williams, volunteer representative for Girstown, asks local clubs and individuals to contribute Christmas gifts to be given residents of Girstown at their Dec. 20 Christmas party.

Gifts, for girls ages 13 months to 18 years, should be brought to her home at 404 Western before Dec. 10 or persons may call for pickup at 364-3530.

There are currently 71 girls at Girstown.

A project of the Texas Hospital Education and Research Foundation, the Texas Health Careers Program was begun in 1964 by the Texas Hospital Association to overcome health manpower shortages. During the past four years the Texas Health Careers Program has presented Health Careers Assemblies to 500,000 students in Texas secondary schools.

Washington report--from Cong. Bob Price

As a result of my concern about certain provisions of the water pollution control bill recently passed by the Senate, I have introduced legislation in the House which, in my opinion, will remedy these deficiencies. Among the major provisions of my proposal are sections, which would maintain a full partnership between the Federal and State governments in the area of water pollution control; which would more carefully life as we know it on this planet may one day face extinction. Ultimately, clean water is a matter of life or death. In the House Agriculture Committee last week I moved that the Committee adopt the Senate approved version of a bill I had previously introduced to permit Farmers Home Administration to make guaranteed emergency other nations to do the same. An amendment I proposed was adopted by the Committee which willow the emergency loan program to operate free of the present $100 million ceiling on uninsured loans that FHA may have on hand at one time. These emergency loans have saved many farm families from financial disaster. Therefore, I am hopeful that the Senate will accept my amendment and this bill can be signed by the President at an early date. Rhodesian Chrome Early this year I introduced legislation to allow the resumption of United States purchases of strategic chrome ore from Rhodesia. I was pleased last week when the House voted to add the provisions contained in my bill as an amendment to the military procurement bill. Years ago the U.S. was duped into joining a United Nations-sponsored boycott of trade with Rhodesia, a country which like our own had declared its independence from Great Britain. To show disapproval of Rhodesia's government we were forced to buy chromium ore from Russia... the only other available source. Russia has now raised its prices by over 200 percent. I could not support a policy which made the United States dependent upon this Communist nation for a material vital to our national security especially since the Rhodesian chrome mines are American-owned. It is my hope that this action by the Congress will lead to a resumption of the traditionally close relations we have enjoyed with the people of Rhodesia. National Cemetery With burial in Arlington National Cemetery now limited to career military personnel, I have introduced legislation to establish one or more military cemeteries in Northwest Texas. The national pledge that every veteran should have the right to be buried in a military cemetery reasonably close to his home has not been fulfilled as far as Texas veterans are concerned. With only two national cemeteries in Texas, at El Paso and San Antonio, I believe that Congress has ample reason to adopt my legislation authorizing additional national cemeteries for Texas.

al, Kansas; Wayne Griffin of Arlington; Mrs. C. D. Swaffler of Iowa; and Mrs. R. E. Bayless of Australia. The latter two members of the family are unable to attend. Griffin married Carmel Carmichael Nov. 14, 1921. He has been associated with the welding business his entire life.

Riders Club to have play day

The Hereford Riders Club will sponsor an open play day, Sunday, beginning at 8:30 a.m. when the books open at the Riders Club arena in Veterans Park.

The books will open at 8:30 a.m. and the games will begin at 10 a.m. There will be five, place ribbons given in each of the eight divisions, and the charge is 50 cents per game.

The eight divisions are Pee-wee girls, Pee-wee boys, Junior boys, Junior girls, Intermediate girls, Intermediate boys, Senior women and Senior men. These are based on the age of the participant.

Events will include rescue race, baton relay race, flag race, potato ribbon race, poles, barrel race, keyhole and ring race.

NAVAJOS RANGE WIDE WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. (AP)

The elevation on the Navajo Reservation in Arizona, New Mexico and Utah ranges from 4,500 feet to 10,416 feet.

The reservation consists of nearly 16 million acres of land, or about 25,000 square miles, an area almost the size of Vermont, New Hampshire and Massachusetts combined.

The reservation comprises 1,503,693 acres of wildlands, such as canyons and mesas. An estimated 135,000 Navajos reside on or near the reservation.

Thailand has agreed to supply an additional 120,000 tons of rice to the Philippines on a 12-year deferred payment basis.

To show disapproval of Rhodesia's government we were forced to buy chromium ore from Russia... the only other available source. Russia has now raised its prices by over 200 percent.

I could not support a policy which made the United States dependent upon this Communist nation for a material vital to our national security especially since the Rhodesian chrome mines are American-owned. It is my hope that this action by the Congress will lead to a resumption of the traditionally close relations we have enjoyed with the people of Rhodesia.

With only two national cemeteries in Texas, at El Paso and San Antonio, I believe that Congress has ample reason to adopt my legislation authorizing additional national cemeteries for Texas.

Pair to observe 50th anniversary

An open house will be held Saturday from 3-5 p.m. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griffin, 508 Union, in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary. Friends and relatives are invited to attend the event hosted by the couples' children.

Hosts are Medford Griffin of Friona; Mrs. D. W. Douglas of Midland; Merle Griffin of Liberal, Kansas; Wayne Griffin of Arlington; Mrs. C. D. Swaffler of Iowa; and Mrs. R. E. Bayless of Australia.

The latter two members of the family are unable to attend.

Griffin married Carmel Carmichael Nov. 14, 1921. He has been associated with the welding business his entire life.

Virginia Holt shower honoree

Her marriage to Steven Perin McWhorter planned Nov. 27 in First United Methodist Church, Miss Virginia Sue Holt was bridal shower honoree Saturday afternoon in Hereford Country Club.

Hostesses for the courtesy were Mmes. Carl McCaslin, Earnest Langley, Edgar Skypala, Palmer Norton, Joe Reinauer Sr., Allen Brown, Les Combs, Ansel McDowell, Millard Nobles, J.T. Gilbreath.

Also Mmes. Troy Moore, Roy Grubbs, Paul Coneway, E.W. Dettman, Spicer Grupp, Elmer Kimball, Kenny Gearm, C. J. Crump, Pete Caviness, John Channer and Howard Gault.

Guests were received by the honoree with her mother, Mrs. Earl Holt, her fiance's mother, Mrs. D.C. McWhorter, and Miss Charita Ann Holt, the bride-elect's sister and maid-of-honor-to-be. Mrs. Jim Hudgens invited guests to register with Mmes. Jonny Cloud, Terry Caviness, Bill Dirks and Ted McWhorter alternating to serve refreshments.

Coffee colored cloth overlaid by sheer champagne covered the main table appointed in crystal and silver. A five-branched epergne featuring crystal prisms and tangerine carnations with maiden hair fern and babybreath made up the centerpiece.

Individual tables held nosegays of assorted tangerine flowers at the base of wine glasses holding coffee tapers on gold dollies.

The bride-to-be wore an ensemble of champagne and coffee tones and rose corsage tied with gold ribbon. Other members of the receiving line wore tangerine flowers tied with coffee ribbon.

Career secrets related by star

In My Way of Life, Joan Crawford writes of her ways of being successful, staying lively and a variety of accomplishments every woman should have. Joan tells how to hold a job, build a loving home and make the most of life.

Found in the county library on the first floor of the Deaf Smith County Courthouse, this is a book every woman should read.

MY WAY OF LIFE
By Joan Crawford

Written for every woman who wants to live beautifully and successfully, by a woman who triumphantly does both, this fascinating and wonderfully revealing book by our greatest star is both an autobiography and much more than an autobiography.

In My Way of Life, Joan Crawford presents her own Script for a Complete Woman, showing women everywhere how to keep vital, young, interested, interesting; how to keep a man, how to hold a job, build a loving and beautiful home; how to organize time and energy to make the most out of the pleasures of life; above all, how to understand that true success comes from making the most of themselves so they can give the most to others.

Miss Crawford shares with the reader her own recipes for entertaining, her decorating secrets, the preparations, big and small, that make it possible for her to appear anywhere, any time, looking her best and perfectly dressed.

In such chapters as Dressing for Your Role, A program for a Lovely Figure, A Program for Glowing Face and Lovely Hair, she gives sound, no-nonsense advice on the kind of lifetime beauty program every woman can follow to make the least of her flaws and the best of her assets.

Always a working woman herself, Joan Crawford shows how she has integrated her career and family life through principles applicable to everyone who wants what we all want, the best of both possible worlds.

Her book - lavishly illustrated - is both her way of life and a means to change yours!

THE CALIFORNIAN

Gold in California: Its glittering yellow promise of instant wealth brought men by the thousands to pan the streams and dig the hills in an often vain search for the precious metal.

But Mitchell Randolph, and a few others like him, found easier, surer ways to make their fortunes.

Gifted with a handsome face, and a quick eye for profit, and a friendly yet unmistakably commanding air, he relied on charm, foresight, and imagination in founding an express service that soon became one of the most successful enterprises in the West.

In this novel, Todhunter Ballard captures all the adventure, heartbreak, and triumph of Randolph's career, his unlikely arrival, his meteoric rise, his marriage to a beautiful and tempestuous woman, his partnership with a bright young orphan he had met on the boat, and the climactic confrontation between his company and the mighty giant, Wells Fargo.

This is a vibrant, dramatic saga of an era when bold, adventurous men built their empires in the rich lands of California.

Marriage of 50 years observed

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jackson, 105 Avenue E, will observe their golden wedding anniversary Sunday with an open house celebration in the home of a son, J. E. Jackson, 202 Douglas. Friends of the couple are invited to call between 2 and 5 p.m.

The couples' other children assisting with the reception are Mrs. Henry Bryan and John E. Jackson, both of Hereford. Mrs. Bill Bashaw of Elk City, Okla., and W. L. Jackson of Lefors. Jackson married Miss Hettie Coley Nov. 21, 1921 at Erick, Okla. The couples' other four children include H. G., W. C., and J. A. Jackson, all of California, and Mrs. Bill Meeks of Winnemucca, Nev.

They have 41 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Jackson has been employed with Big T Pump Company for a number of years.

SEWERS GO ON TV

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP)—The sewers of South Africa's administrative capital are to go on television. Authorities hope to avoid unnecessary digging by using a TV camera designed to be pulled through the sewers to show cracks and other faults.

REAL—LIFE VILLAINS

BROCKVILLE, Ont. (AP)—Recent night-time visitors to the Never-Never Land young people tourist attraction were not exactly nursery rhyme characters. The gift shop was broken into and $952 worth of transistor radios, toys, costume jewelry, Eskimo figures and other articles were stolen.

JVs win, coach gives up smokes

Someone remembered last week and Junior Varsity football coach Don Cumpton gave up smoking.

The members of the junior varsity football squad deftly relieved Cumpton of his smokes following the 14-12 win over the Lubbock Monterey Junior Varsity.

That was all part of a bargain Cumpton made with his charges about six weeks ago after the team's third straight victory. He told his players he would quit smoking if they went through the season undefeated. Thursday was the last game of the year for the Longhorns and they went into the game with an 8-0 record. They won and Cumpton lost—his bet that is.

"I made the bet after the third game and I thought, what the heck, we got six more games left," Cumpton laughingly said Friday.

James Harris, along with Terry Poindexter's kicking, insured the win for the Longhorns with Harris picking up 148 yards on 33 carries and scoring both touchdowns and Poindexter kicking both point after.

Duane Davison picked up 47 yards rushing, James Higgins, 4 and Micki Ward 4. In receiving Davison caught one for 21 yards, Danny Paetzold one for 20, Poindexter one for 11, Harris one for 11 and Jim Marsh 1 for 7.

Joe Sheffy, Davison, Twig Rose and Tony Ohlig were big guns on defense. Sheffy and Davison both picked off a Monterey aerial and Rose and Ohlig each recovered a fumble.

Sheffy was the leading tackler with 19, followed by Rose with 13, Marsh with 12 and Alfred Sanders with 11.

Both Monterey attempts to run for the two-point conversion following their touchdowns were stopped by the Longhorn defense.
