

Aikman's D. C. Martin named top school administrator

By MARSHALL DAY
News Editor

"If ever there was a great teacher of young people, it was my father. He taught school for 50 years and I admired him up to the point of envying the opportunity he had."

Those were the words of D. C. Martin, principal of Aikman Elementary School, who will be honored Dec. 13 as the local system's "Outstanding Administrator of the Year."

Martin's father, who passed away just last week, was a teacher for 50 years and Martin's mother also was a teacher. These things, he said, played a major role in his choosing the teaching profession — a profession he has been in for 43 years.

In the 43 years he has been associated with the Hereford system for 24 years. He has been with only one other system and that was in Oklahoma.

He came to Hereford in 1947 as a history teacher at the high school level. Before coming to Hereford he was superintendent of an Oklahoma school but wanted to get away from the administrator's position back into the teaching profession.

"It didn't work out that way, though," he recalled. "The principal at Central school moved to Lubbock and they asked me to take over that position until they could find someone else. Well, they never did find anyone else, I guess, because I've been a principal since then."

Born in Swain, Ark., Martin, who is 62, moved with his parents to Oklahoma when he was only 7 years old. He came to this area in 1929 with his brother-in-law where they set up a tent on a quarter of a section land his relative had bought.

After a short time in farming he entered East Central State Teachers College in Ada, Okla. Later he did graduate work at Oklahoma University and Eastern New Mexico then finished work on his masters degree at West Texas State University.

He started teaching in the Strother Consolidated system near Seminole, Okla., in the grade school level with his wife. He transferred to junior high school there for two years and then spent two years in the high school level before going on to administration work.

It was then he came to Hereford as an elementary teacher when Central was the only elementary school here.

His wife, Delia, also is teaching in the local system at Bluebonnet and both will retire in two years.

Martin's philosophy of teaching is somewhat simple, but the results he gets from his faculty and the students are evident that the impact of the man is there.

He refers to his teaching staff as "one big family" and it is apparent the faculty respects him as much as he respects the faculty.

"I just pursue the welfare of the boys and girls, whatever age. I feel schools should be like homes as much as possible.

"Elementary schools are the most important place where time, attention and careful guidance must exist.

"Life is a series of preparations and there is no doubt in my mind that the elementary schools are the places to prepare these young students."

His praise of his teachers is unlimited. He never seems to be able to give them enough of the credit, and he never stops trying to do just that.

"The classroom teachers carry the ball. The administrators may call a few signals, but the classroom teachers are the ones who really carry the ball.

"I love a good classroom teacher beyond any description," he said.

He is never too busy to discuss a problem with either a teacher or a student and, in fact, he urges teachers to bring their problems to him that he might help in trying to solve the problem.

He often becomes the mediator between teacher and parent and, if possible, he works out the problem with the parent, leaving the teacher free to continue with his teaching.

A self-disciplined man, Martin assumes the responsibility of both administrator and principal and provides the leadership for his school, giving most of the credit to his faculty.

He expects and demands courtesy, respect, obedience and the best from students and loyalty, confidence, and respect from his staff. At the same time he considers himself a co-worker and a friend and is often called upon to be a counselor or advisor.

Changes in school policies over the past 43 years are numerous, Martin said, but most have been for the betterment of teaching. "The school outlook has changed from 'reading, writing and arithmetic,' to that of the individualized, non-graded system.

"Non-graded teaching has great potential because it allows the teacher to do a job of individualized teaching. The situation used to be more factual where you actually learned facts. But today you encourage students to research the whys of things."

Retirement is two years away for Martin and his wife, and he is just going to sit back and "let it take care of itself."

"I plan to do some traveling and some of the things I have always wanted to do without being governed by something else."

D. C. Martin, top administrator

Narcotics:

Five persons charged with possession of marijuana

Three local residents and two Seattle, Wash. residents were arrested by city and county law officials early Tuesday morning and charged with possession of narcotics.

Arrested were Linda Reynolds, 27, and her husband, William J., 25, of Seattle, and Becky Holland, 19, and her husband, Ralph R. 24, and David Stanford Larsen. The Hollands and Larsen all gave addresses at 807

North Main St.

Officers arrested the five persons at the Holland home and seized six "lids" of marijuana, over an ounce of "hashish" about 50 white tablets and one container of a clear liquid.

The tablets and the clear liquid was taken to Amarillo for tests to determine what they were.

Officers estimated the haul at about $500.

The "hashish" is a pure derivative of resin from marijuana and is more potent than regular marijuana, officers said.

Officers arrested the persons about 1:30 a.m. Tuesday after they had spent about nine days and nights watching the home. Officers had received information that a big haul of narcotics was to arrive at the home within 10 days. A watch was set up and for nine days nothing happened.

On Tuesday night, however, the car with Washington license plates showed up and officers got a warrant and went to the home.

They busted down the front door and said all five persons were sitting in the living room of the home and a heavy cloud of smoke hung over the room.

Several water pipes, used in smoking marijuana, were also in the living room, according to officers and an incense burner was going. One officer said the smell of the incense was wiped out by the smell of the marijuana.

Officers found all of the narcotics hidden in the house, some in the kitchen, some in the bathroom and some in plain sight in the living room.

Whitefaces will meet No. 1 ranked Coyotes

The Hereford Whitefaces get the chance this Saturday to find out just how tough the No. 1 ranked Wichita Falls Coyotes really are when the two teams clash at 2 p.m. in Dick Bivins Stadium at Amarillo in the Class AAAA quarter-finals match-up. The Coyotes of Coach Donnell Crosslin bring a perfect record into the quarter-finals game against a 7-5 record for the Whitefaces of Hereford. The No. 1 ranked Coyotes are a solid 13-point favorite over the Whitefaces of coach Larry Dippel. "We look for it to be another real tough ball game," Crosslin said. "We know there are only eight teams left and we know all eight of them are real tough or they wouldn't be there."

Hereford's coach echoed the same feelings about the upcoming ball game.

"Wichita Falls has a lot of tradition which makes them pretty tough," he said. "They have a good defensive ball club and are sound fundamentally. They block and tackle extremely well."

The Hereford defense is expected to get its biggest test of the year when it goes up against the ground-consuming attack of the Coyotes. The Wichita Falls team has put 442 points on the board in 12 games.

Led by senior quarterback-halfback Ronnie Littleton, the Coyotes have romped in playoff games, scoring a total of 62 points against two opponents. They scored 34 points against Abilene Cooper, the No. 14 ranked team, and 28 points against Arlington, the No. 5 ranked team.

The Whiteface offense, which put a season high of 29 points on the board in the regional game against El Paso Coronado also will be tested Saturday. The Wichita Falls team has given up only 100 points in 12 games and only 62 of those points through 10 games.

"We have scouted Hereford in both the playoff games and they have been real impressive," Crosslin said. "They just look like a real fine football team — well coached and

Chamber names officers

Melvin Jayroe was named the new president of the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce Wednesday by the board of directors.

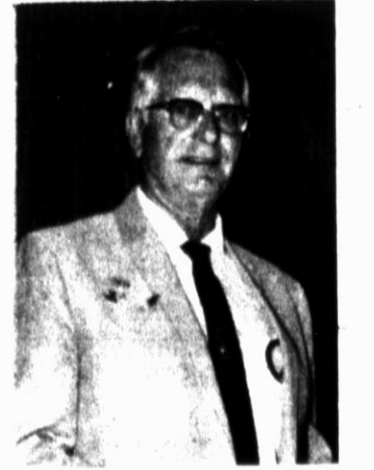

Also named officers in the organization were A.J. Schroeter as vice president and Earl Stagner as treasurer. Outgoing officers in the chamber are Charles Hoover, president; Rex Lee, vice president; and Harold Close, treasurer. Hoover will remain on the board for one year, as is the tradition with outgoing presidents.

The new officers will take office on Jan. 1 and will serve through the coming year. The three were submitted by the nominating committee to the board of directors and all were approved during a morning meeting Wednesday.

Melvin Jayroe

A. J. Schroeter

Earl Stagner

Jayroe has lived in Hereford for the past eight years, having moved here as district manager for Southwestern Public Service.

He became associated with Lone Star Insurance and Real Estate about three years ago.

He has been active in chamber work, having served as chairman of the Industrial Committee, chairman of the Membership committee and a member of the Hereford Hustlers.

He has been chairman of the board of the Red Cross and a president of the United Fund.

Schroeter is the county surveyor and has lived in Deaf Smith County since 1933.

He served as county judge for four years and is active in the Lions Club in which he has served as president.

He also is a past president of the local Red Cross organization and a past president of the school board.

He and his wife are members of the Presbyterian Church. Schroeter was elected to the Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce board of directors last year.

Stagner also was named to the Deaf Smith Chamber of Commerce board in November of last year.

A car salesman with John Orsborn Buick-Pontiac, Stagner has lived all of his life in and around Hereford.

He is a member of the VFW and American Legion, the Masonic Lodge and is a past president of the Kiwanis Breakfast Club. He currently holds a directors position with that civic club.

He is past president of the Whiteface Booster Club.

Building permits falter; drop seen in yearly total

Hereford's 1971 building surge, which was keeping pace with last year's near-record ending, fell off during the month of November.

Construction in the city totaled only $209,300 for November of this year as compared to the November, 1970 total of $327,000.

The decline over the same period last year dropped the yearly total to $3,211,550. This is well below the November total of last year of $3,615,500.

Some 24 permits were issued during November for construction purposes and nine of those were for the building of homes in the $15,000 to $25,000 range. The permit for the $25,000 home was the largest single permit issued during the month.

The 24 permits of November compare with the 30 issued a year ago which included 17 for construction of new homes.

Over the past several years a home-start surge has continued in Hereford and last year 169 permits for the construction of new homes were issued through the latter part of November. At that time Hereford was one of the top home-building cities in West Texas, easily surpassing some of the larger cities in the area.

The only city last year to begin construction of more new homes than Hereford was Ama-riilo. This surge in new homes seems to have slacked off considerably over the past 11 months and this is reflected in the total in building permits for the year.

Last year the city had its second largest year in construction with $5,137,800 in permits issued. That year was topped only by the 1965 total which zoomed to $5,313,100.

However, last year was helped considerably by a $1.3 million permit issued for the construction of a housing complex in northeast Hereford.

"Their size is not awesome, but their linemen are big."

Wichita Falls, though it does not have "awesome" size either, does have formidable offensive and defensive lines. Both lines average about 185 pounds per man, Crosslin said.

The Coyotes go with eight players both ways, including Littleton, the player the team is built around.

"They are sound offensively because they are a full-width type club," Dippel said.

"The difference in Wichita Falls and any other team we have faced this year is, in addition to being a sound team, they have this one great athlete in Littleton."

Littleton scored all four touchdowns in the regional game against Arlington and has about 26 TDs on the season.

He is referred to as "Houdini" because of his ability to get out of tight situations. Because of the power he and his backs afford the team, the Coyotes do not go to the air much.

When Littleton is not at the quarterback position he goes in at halfback while Winston Fouts does the directing. Because of his tremendous speed, the defense tends to key on Littleton when he is in the backfield and this allows Fouts to keep the ball occasionally and make good yardage.

It was Fouts who made the longest run of the game against Arlington on such a situation. The Arlington defense was keying on Littleton and Fouts kept the ball and picked up good yardage.

"Littleton makes them dangerous," Dippel said in summing it up.

The largest amount scored against the Coyotes in one game was the 24 scored last week by the Arlington team in the regional contest.

The Coyotes defeated Lubbock Coronado, 34-18; Amarillo High, 26-0; Abilene Cooper, 46-7; Wichita Falls Hersh, 40-0; Highland Park, 36-6; Haltom, 21-0 Mineral Wells, 55-0; Casleberry, 27-3; Richland, 34-14; Wichita Falls Rider, 41-14; Abilene Cooper, 34-14; and Arlington 28-24.

A cartoonist who won his first Pulitzer Prize when he was barely adult, and became the youngest person to have his biography in Who's Who, Bill Mauldin writes of his own youthful life in The Brass Ring, a new autobiography now on the shelves of Deaf Smith County Library.

His irreverent attitude toward high brass in his army days and high officials in the political cartoons he draws now, is reflected in the vivid word pictures of his life as a "cheerful delinquent."

The library is open daily except Sunday on the first floor of

Dippel will have on offense, Rudy Gonzales and Bruce Barrett at ends, Jay Henderson and Mike Dawson or Jim Marsh at tackles, Alan Hare and Richard Sierra at guards, Dale Hollingsworth at center, Keith Kitchens at quarterback, Wesley High at tailback, Danny Harris at fullback and Terry Champ at wingback.

Defensively it will be Ralph Waits and Ike Graves at ends, Alberto Garza and Sierra at tackles, John Page at nose-guard, Winston Short and Rosie Gonzales at linebackers, Danny Charest at corner-back, Eugene Suttle and Barry McNutt or Charles Allison at half-backs and Kitchens at safety.

the war and the men who had fought it got under his skin. Wounded once and scared often, he prowled the foxholes with his pencil, learning new values and maturing from a gag cartoonist to a satirist of such depth and stature that he is still considered the best of all war cartoonists.

His career was summed up by an army historian who recently remarked: "There will never be another Mauldin. The Pentagon will never let him happen again."

In the quarter century since this chronicle's end, Mauldin, still irreverent in attitude and fresh in outlook, has won another Pulitzer Prize and a closetful of other professional awards.

He has covered two more wars—Korea and Vietnam—as a correspondent; appears daily in almost 300 newspapers around the world; has fathered six sons; authored 10 previous volumes, two of which were Book-of-the-Month Club selections; and has become a skilled airplane pilot and photographer.

A high-school-non-graduate, he has two honorary doctorates and is an honorary master of arts. He lives with his second wife, Natalie, in Santa Fe, and in Chicago, where his base paper is the Sun-Times.

Feeder cattle futures off to successful start

Trading in feeder cattle futures began successfully Tuesday on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange with a turnover of 114 contracts, 90 of which were in the March 1972 option which closed at the low point of a trading range from $37 to $36.47 per hundredweight.

Traders in the floor agreed it was a good start for the new commodity.

Volume of contracts traded and closing prices of the feeder cattle options are as follows:

Option	Price	Volume
March	36.47	90
April	35.25	Bid None
May	35.65	3
August	34.19	4
September	33.60	7
October	33.35	7
November	33.50	3

Contract specifications are for live feeder cattle of choice (80 per cent) or good (20 per cent) grades as defined by the USDA, with each unit to consist of 42,000 pounds, averaging 650 pounds per steer. Average weight of the delivered animals can range from 500 to 800 pounds with a premium or discount of 1/4 cents per hundredweight for each pound the average weight exceeds or is under 650 pounds.

Par delivery will be from approved livestock yards at Omaha, Nebraska, and Sioux City, Iowa, with delivery permitted at various other locations including Amarillo at a 50 cent per hundred discount. The delivery point is the seller's option. This new feeder cattle contract will enable stocker cattle operators to lock in their normal operating profits by contracting their feeder cattle on the futures market. Until now the stocker cattle operator could lose all his operating profit in an adverse market swing. Now he has the feeder cattle futures to use as profit insurance.

NOMINATED BY ONE of his neighbors as the Proud Grandpa of the Week is Lloyd Pool, who with Mrs. Pool rushed right down to Dallas Tuesday after their daughter Kathy became the mother of a boy that morning.

This is only incidental, apparently, in Pool's opinion, but the baby's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Mark Yarborough. The baby was named Jacob Marcus.

IT WAS AN unusual family trip the Ronald Zimmermans took over the Thanksgiving holidays, and it was one of their best, Dorothy says. They rented a motor home (I'd never heard before that you could rent one, but it sounds like a good idea) and made quite a tour.

They saw Six Flags and the World of Animals in the Fort Worth-Dallas area, then drove over to Lake Texhoma and to a less-known lake, Arbuckle, in Oklahoma.

Trees in their autumn foliage were "simply gorgeous" and the weather was fine for cooking outside and altogether the description of the vacation sounds like it was ideal.

COLLEGIANS AT home over Thanksgiving spent the time in many different ways, but Cathy Miller spent some of hers helping her mama buy groceries; I had a very brief visit with them in the checking counter line Saturday. The Hereford coed is a student in Eastern New Mexico University at Portales.

THOSE OF US who especially like live entertainment have a chance at some on Hereford Stages soon. Everyone who would like to see the program is invited to the Community Players meeting Monday evening in Community Center, where the readers theater group from WTSU will appear.

Although readers' performances are not common, they have found favor in many places and a few years ago a group of famous actors headed by Charles Laughton gave what they called quartet readings and drew big audiences in New York and over the country.

Many good plays depend for their interest on the words rather than the action, and can be presented effectively without action.

If that sounds too strange to be true, come to the program

Monday and see how it turns out. Dr. Zell So Belle of the WTSU speech faculty directs. It's probably the first time this type of performance has been given in Hereford.

Then the annual fall musical show at Hereford High School will be staged Dec. 19 and there will be another "first," so far as I can find out. The students are building a turntable stage to rotate and change scenes quickly.

The show will be Oliver, and the actors are members of the school's music and speech classes.

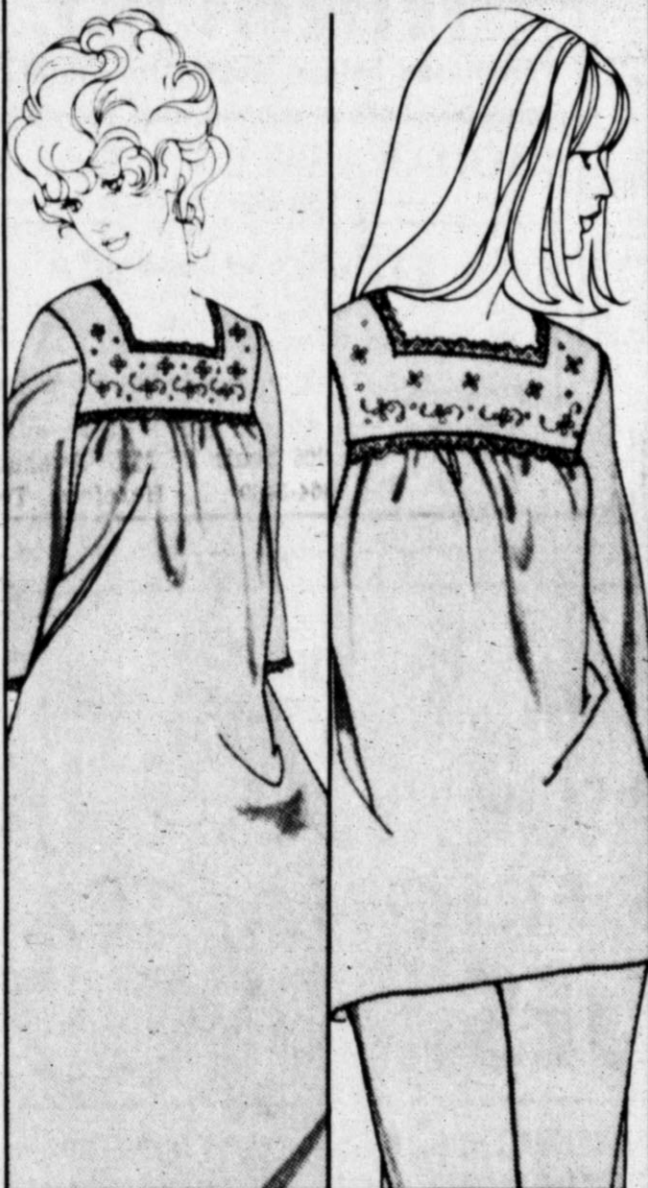

EVERYTHING IS giving way to the football fever now that the Whitefaces, bless 'em! have got all the way to the quarterfinals. So it's no surprise to hear that the Women of St. Thomas Church have put off their annual Christmas gift boutique a week.

It's changed from this Saturday (game day) to Saturday of next week. But a horrible thought has struck me—what if the semi-final game starring the Whitefaces is scheduled for Saturday of next week?!

Our Merry Christmas prices will help you buy someone an extra gift.

County girl wins SCRA world title

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Muse, 812 Blevins, received a call from Chicago Sunday evening announcing their granddaughter, Judy Kay Northcutt of Broadview, N.M. had been crowned International Queen of Shorthorn Cattle Raisers Association.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Northcutt whose home is a ranch located just inside Deaf Smith County at the Texas-New Mexico line. Miss Northcutt was born in Hereford and is receiving her education in Curry County at Grady, N.M.

52 CROCODILE EGGS COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP)—A clutch of 52 crocodile eggs, believed to be the largest found in Ceylon, has been reported by the Game Ranger of Ruhunu National Park, the sprawling wild life reserve in the south of the island.

The nest was a 2 1/2-foot high mound of logs, sticks, dry leaves and grass.

The crocodile is not generally hunted in Ceylon, despite the value of its skin but authorities here believe it is not multiplying as fast as it might.

Competing against 19 other girls, Miss Northcutt answered 70 questions on the origin of shorthorn cattle in Scotland winning her a two weeks trip to that country. South Dakota was first runner-up.

Sponsored by the Southwest Shorthorn Association covering the Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico areas, Miss Northcutt has raised shorthorns since she was seven years old and owns her own quarterhorse.

Letters to be carried in Brand

Once again the Hereford youngsters are first delivered to the Hereford Brand where they are published for readers to see, and then forwarded onto Santa Claus, who will have the orders filled in time for delivery on Christmas.

After spending many hours over the current "wish books," little children who have completed their lists of wishes, are already mailing their letters to the jolly old fellow dressed in red.

Whiteface cagers enter tourney

The Hereford Whiteface basketballers, with a 2-3 record on the year, enter their first tournament of the season today when they travel to Brownfield for a scheduled three-day stand.

The Whitefaces of coach Ron Mayberry go into the tournament fresh from their second win of the season Tuesday over the Phillips Blackhawks.

The Herd smothered Phillips, 60-43 in La Plata gym Tuesday, behind the double-figure production of three players. Dan VanderZee and Larry Roberts were high pointers with 15 each, followed by Mike Mayberry who contributed 12 to the cause.

Levelland Lobos behind the host team's performance of Grant Dukes, an all-state candidate.

Dukes, a 6-6 giant, hit 33 points for the Lobos in a game where the Whitefaces had trouble finding the range in the first half. Levelland held a considerable bulge at intermission, but the Whitefaces came back in the second half behind the shooting of Terry Scott to close the gap.

Scott ended up with 20 points after being held to only six in the first two quarters of play. Roberts contributed 13 points in the losing effort.

The Whitefaces held a big edge over the Eagles in total rebounds, 69-27. In the Brownfield tournament, the Whitefaces will get a chance to avenge the earlier loss to the Levelland Lobos when they clash at 4 p.m. today in the Brownfield gym.

The cagers will be trying for another tournament win to go along with the Muleshoe Tournament title won last year. That tournament win was the first since 1959.

Relatives go to Tyler Funeral

Funeral services for W. D. Lawrence of Tyler, who died early Tuesday at his home there, are to be conducted today and burial will be in that East Texas city.

Mr. Lawrence was known to many Hereford residents; his wife is the former Elizabeth Oberthier, member of a pioneer family of the city and a sister of Mrs. V. O. Hennen of 703 N. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Hennen are in Tyler for the funeral. In addition to his wife, Mr. Lawrence is survived by two sons who were associated with him in a Tyler law firm, and five grandchildren.

The California Angels won 23 games in their last turn at bat.

HERE'S A WITCH TALE

ST. PETER PORT, Guernsey (AP)—Those stone blocks sticking out of the walls of some of the old houses in Guernsey are not evidence of faulty workmanship—they're witches' seats.

vide these handy seats were likely to incur the witches' anger. If they found nowhere to perch when they were weary, the witches would go into the houses and create havoc.

The old folk on this British Channel Island off the coast of France knew that witches got tired on their flights around the island and needed somewhere to rest.

Girlstown fund started by Lions

The Hereford Lions Club is joining other Lions Clubs of District 2-TI in asking for donations to finance an annual project for Girlstown.

The "Girlstown Christmas Fund" is being established by all Lions Clubs throughout the district to help buy a new coat and shoes for each girl at the home. There are 165 girls at Girlstown and the goal of the club is to raise $40 for each girl to buy the coat and shoes.

Contributions should be mailed to Girlstown, U.S.A., P. O. Box 2732, Amarillo, Texas, 79105.

This year's honorary co-chairmen of the "Girlstown Christmas Fund" are Lee Webb of KFDA-TV, Judy Davis of KVII-TV, and Royce Botterford of KGNC.

Texas wheat producers to gather in Amarillo Dec. 9

"Strengthening Wheat Producers Income" is the theme chosen for the 21st annual meeting of the Texas Wheat Producers Association Thursday, December 9, according to Leo Witkowski, association president of Hereford.

The one day session will be held in Amarillo at the Holiday Inn West with attendance expected from throughout the wheat producing areas of the state. The speakers roster resembles a "Who's Who" in national wheat leadership, with participants coming from Washington state to Washington, D.C. and from South Dakota to Texas.

After a 9 a.m. registration, a film, "Go Power" the story of wheat production, marketing and utilization will be shown at 9:45. The morning chairman, is Dwight Hamilton, TWPA vice president of Olney.

"Managing Resources on the Farm" for more producers income will be discussed by Ed Garnett, Texas A&M Extension farm management specialist. "Administration of Government Programs" for more producers income is the topic to be presented by Claude B. Freeman, acting director, Grain Division, ASCS, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. Dean Parsons a Wall, S.D. wheat producer who just returned from a wheat market expansion search in several Asian countries will discuss the potential for strengthening wheat producer income through "Foreign Market Expansion." Parsons is serving the first of a two year term as president of Great Plains Wheat, Inc. which is the foreign market development arm of wheat producers nationally and is supported through state wheat commissions. Joe Halow, executive vice president of GPW, headquartered in Washington, D.C. will assist Parsons in the foreign marketing discussion. Halow, earlier this month was a member of a five-man U.S. mission to study the potential for future wheat, corn, mlo, soybean sales to Eastern European countries. C. L. Edwards, secretary, treasurer of TWPA will chair the afternoon session, Edwards is a Carson county wheat producer from Panhandle. He will introduce Gene Moos of Edwall,

Washington and Jerry Rees, Washington, D.C. who will explain activities that are underway to strengthen wheat producers income through the National Association of Wheat Growers. Moos and Rees are president and executive vice president, respectively, of the Association which is the growers liaison in administrative and legislative matters in government policies affecting producers. The closing highlight of the convention, which is usually attended by about 250 wheat leaders is expected to be a series of organizational progress reports on strengthening producers income presented by officers of several farm organizations and commodity groups, including Farmers Union, Farm Bureau, The Grange, NFO, the Wheat Producers Board and TWPA. The convention will adjourn after a business session and administrative reports at 3 p.m. The fifteen-man Board of Directors will meet following the general session. All producers, grain elevator operators, and related agribusiness people are invited to attend all general sessions.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

No Questions Asked

Many a conscientious husband seeks peace of mind by buying life insurance to protect his family in case he dies.

But he may also have a nagging worry: will the insurance company really pay off when the time comes, or will it find some flaw making the policy null and void?

To cut this worry to a minimum, most policies now contain what is known as an "incontestable clause." Under this clause, after a stated period (usually two years), the insurance company can no longer raise technical objections about the validity of the policy. It must generally pay off "with no questions asked."

Suppose, for example, that a man applying for insurance fails to mention the fact that he has a drinking problem. And suppose, after his death, the insurance company finds out about it. Under the incontestable clause, the company could not raise this point to escape paying the insurance to the widow.

In fact, the incontestable clause applies in most states even if the applicant told a deliberate lie. Take this case:

A man filling out an insurance application was asked if he was in good health. He said he was—even though he knew he had serious heart trouble.

After his death, the insurance company tried to cancel the policy on grounds of fraud. But a court ruled that, despite the fraud, the company would still have to pay off—because more than two years had gone by. As one judge explained:

"Even though dishonest people are given advantages under incontestable clauses, still the sense of security given to the great majority of honest policyholders makes it worth the cost."

But not even an incontestable clause will help if the fraud involves the very existence of the policy. Thus:

A man suffering from tuberculosis managed to get life insurance by sending a healthy friend to take the medical examination for him. After the man died, the insurance company found out about the trick and denied liability.

The widow tried to rely on the incontestable clause, but a court ruled that there had never been an insurance contract in the first place. The court said that on one basic fact, the identity of the insured person, there was never a "meeting of the minds."

LOANS ARE COSTLY
BALTIMORE (AP)—Two of Maryland's largest banks have filed court briefs asking that they be allowed to charge three times the current interest on small loans.

The banks contend they cannot make a profit on loans under $300 at the 12 per cent limit imposed by law.

The banks claimed they should be entitled to charge 36 per cent interest on loans under $300—the same rate allowed for small loan companies.

BY MELVIN YOUNG

Normally, we could look at the window and watch the snow fall and be quite happy about the whole situation, but this year is a little different. First of all, we've had more rain than this part of the country needs at this time of the year, and a big snow storm will just get that old ground a little wetter. Secondly, there remains too many acres of both milo and sugar beets that have not been harvested. Thirdly, we're going to play the Wichita Falls Coyotes Saturday in Dick Bivins Stadium at Amarillo in the quarter-finals of the state playoffs and we'd like to see the sun shining brightly for that contest.

But as always, we'll take what comes.

Although the bulk of the milo has been harvested, it's surprising how many farmers have "just a few acres" left to cut and when you figure it all out, it amounts to lots of dollars. And this is a year when the farmers can use every extra dollar, just to make up for the losses of last year.

The sugar beet situation is something else however. There are thousands of acres yet to be harvested, and if this inclement weather continues, the only chance will be to dig the beets while the ground is frozen. But maybe the front will pass.

Hereford's "International" Air Terminal may not be the largest in the country, but it is without a doubt, the nicest facility we've ever viewed for a town this size. The City has gone "all out" to see that the new terminal is plush, and comfortable, not only for the local people, but for the visitors who come our way. There are a couple of spacious well-furnished waiting rooms, plus a special room where charter pilots may while away the hours if they have to wait for their passenger to return. This room will eventually contain a television set, but does not at this time. The terminal is well planned. It's functional and it's beautiful.

Airport manager Charles Frye gave us the $2 tour and also says that they will have an open house sometime after the first of the year so everyone can see it.

By the way, we refer to the new facility as "Hereford International" not because it rivals the business flow of O'Hara, Kennedy or Love Field, but because we have such a diverse group of visitors passing through each year. It would be interesting to know just how many corporate executives and other VIP's have landed here. Perhaps Charles can supply that information.

And now that the airport is fixed-up, do you suppose the City will move along with the park project?

Have you started that Christmas shopping yet? Hereford's stores are bulging at the seams with merchandise and selections are better right now than ever before. It's a good policy to shop early, and avoid the rush nearer Christmas time.

And best wishes to the Hereford Whitefaces in the game with Wichita Falls Saturday, and the two that follow! We're betting the stands will be filled with local fans.

Funeral slated for R. V. Davis

Funeral services for Robert Vernon Davis, 62, of 405 E. Third, will be conducted at 2 p.m. today in Rose Chapel of Gilliland Funeral Home by J.T. Marlin, pastor of Central Church of Christ. Burial will be in Rest Lawn Memorial Park.

Mr. Davis, a farm worker, died in a local nursing home Tuesday after a long illness. He had been a Deaf Smith County resident since 1955, when he came from Iml, N.M.

Born Feb. 15, 1909, at Rodney in Limestone County, he married Ophie Dean Budgett June 16, 1927 at Midland. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors in addition to his wife are a daughter, Juliet Webb of Hereford; four sons, James E. of Hereford, Otis H. of Amarillo, Donald of Dallas and Garland of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; two sisters, Mrs. Eileen Tabor of Midland and Mrs. Norma Sweeten of Barksdale; six brothers, Orval of Midland, J. V. of Big Spring, Kenneth and Howard of Houston, Eugene of Hamilton and Lloyd, in U.S. military service; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Shopping Cart Casualties

Myrtle picked out a shopping cart at the market, placed her baby son in the front seat, buckled the strap and made her way to the vegetable section. But as she was examining the lettuce, the child burst through the strap and fell to the floor.

In short order, Myrtle sued the store for damages. She said the strap was so badly worn that it should have been replaced.

"That is possible," countered the company, "but it is also possible that the child put excessive strain on the strap. She admits she was not looking at him at the moment he fell, so she just does not know how hard he was squirming."

Nevertheless, the court held the store liable. The judge said the strap should have been sturdy enough to withstand all the pressure a baby was likely to exert.

In supplying shopping carts to its customers, a store must live up to basic standards of safety. Furthermore, it must keep a reasonably watchful eye on the way the carts are handled.

In another case, a small boy began trundling a cart briskly through the aisles, even though he could hardly see where he was going. Finally, coming around a corner, he slammed into a startled woman shopper.

Here, too, the management was held liable. The court pointed out that the boy had been circulating for more than 10 minutes, time enough for employees to bring him to a halt.

Still, a store is not liable if the accident cannot be traced in some way to its negligence. Take this case:

A woman suffered a sprained finger when the shopping cart she was pushing came to a sudden stop. It seems that a stray piece of string had somehow gotten tangled around a wheel, locking it tight.

But when she filed suit for damages, a court could find no grounds for blaming the management. The court said this was the kind of an accident that would simply have to be chalked up to bad luck. As one judge put it: "The shopper bears some of the hazards of life inside a supermarket as well as outside."

Adrian news

BY ANN BEAVERS

The Stuckey Pecan Shoppe No. 310 at Adrian has been named a "Stuckey's Star Store" it was announced today by Stuckey's Inc., the nation's leading network of family highway travel centers.

The honor, awarded in connection with the company's recently announced employee incentive program, was earned by the store's exceptional performance in the areas of courtesy, cleanliness and compliance with company procedures.

Singled out for personal recognition were the store managers, Gordon and Wanda Moore, who were awarded a cash prize of $150 for their extra efforts, and qualified them for additional awards up to $2,500.

"Star Store" status is the first step up the ladder to ultimate "Super Star" status which will be conferred upon the outstanding Stuckey's Store in the nation.

Highlights and sidelights from your state capital

BY BILL BOYKIN
AUSTIN, Tex.—Gov. Preston Smith's decision to run for a third term drew sharp new attention to an increasingly crowded and complex 1972 political scene.

Smith said he would seek vindication in stock-loan scandals. He plans to tell "over and over" that he killed (by veto) the bank deposit legislation urged by Houston banker Frank Sharp which the Legislature passed in 1969.

Meanwhile, former U. S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough said odds are now 10-to-one he will be a candidate—either for governor or the senate—next year. But he declined to indicate which race is most likely to attract him.

State Sen. Wayne Connally, youngest brother of U.S. Secretary of Treasury (and former Governor) John B. Connally, jumped into the lieutenant governor's race. Connally is a conservative Democrat.

Harold (Barefoot) Sanders of Dallas reportedly is getting set to run for the U.S. Senate as a Democrat.

Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso indicated he will reveal at a dinner in his home town December 7 whether he will enter the lieutenant governor's race or stand for re-election.

Republicans, calling for a "top to bottom cleanup" in state government, began recruiting preliminaries, concentrating on the governor's race. (They already have a U.S. Senate candidate, incumbent John Tower).

The Republicans, in an informal statewide poll of gubernatorial preferences, came up with S. Ross Perot, wealthy Dallas businessman, who is a political independent, as their favorite. Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Dolph Briscoe, Uvalde rancher-banker, continued full-fledged campaigns for governor. Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall and Houston newspaper executive William P. Hobby Jr. have been in the lieutenant governor's race for months.

COURTS SPEAK—Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a new law which allows those accused of crimes to waive rights to a grand jury indictment before trial in cases where the death penalty is not applicable.

In other recent cases the Court of Criminal Appeals held: "That photographs of a bloody death scene are not automatically prohibited from consideration in murder trials."

"That a court is not to look beyond a bill as passed by the Legislature to consider if the act creating a new trial court was duly submitted to a special legislative session by the governor."

COURT COST "SUTRAX" PROFITABLE—Some 716 cities and the 254 counties collected $335,487.70 during September from a new "surtax" on court costs earmarked for improving criminal justice.

Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported on first collections under the law. Money will meet state and local matching fund needs for federal grants under the Omnibus Crime Control Act.

The new law provides an additional court cost assessment of $2.50 for a misdemeanor case conviction in a court where jurisdiction is limited to a $200 maximum fine and specifically includes traffic violations. It also directs a $5 additional charge on other misdemeanor convictions and $10 for felony convictions, to be collected as other fines or costs in cases.

AUTO LICENSE OBJECTION WITHDRAWN—A new Texas Motor Vehicle Commission member withdrew his protest to licensing of a competitive auto dealer in Corpus Christi.

Jack McKenzie pulled down his objection to TMVC's granting a regular license to Barton-Grubbs Volkswagen, which began operations in Corpus Christi three months ago. McKenzie, who operates a VW dealership, said he remains convinced he proved that a competitor in the city was not needed for several years. But he conceded, "reasonable men may differ on the facts presented."

December 1 was the deadline set by the new Motor Vehicle Commission act for new car dealers, distributors, manufacturers and factory representatives to get required state licenses. McKenzie said the hearing before the Commission November 4 was "vital" and served a purpose in "forcing the factory to justify its actions."

HOSPITAL PLAN AVAILABLE—A draft of the 1972 Texas state plan for construction and modernization of hospitals and related medical facilities is available for public review at the State Health Department here.

The plan is the basic document on which the State Board of Health will make recommendations for federal Hill-Burton grants and subsidized loans.

Fifty applicants are requesting $44.5 million in Hill-Burton grant funds and $58.5 million in mortgage insurance. The requests are aimed at providing financing for construction in excess of $215 million. Hill-Burton provides both grant and loan programs to build and modernize general hospitals and long-term care facilities, outpatient centers, tuberculosis hospitals and public health centers.

The Texas plan also contains a complete inventory of most health facilities in the state, a delineation of 134 service areas, determination of area needs and priorities and methods of administration.

BOULWORM WARNING ISSUED—Unless the pink bollworm is controlled within the next few weeks, heavy losses, if not complete ruin can be expected for the cotton crop in North and North Central Texas, the state agriculture department warns.

Commissioner John C. White said farmers must take immediate steps to destroy cotton stalks and plow under debris as quickly as rains will permit. End of November was the plow-up date for more than 40 counties in the North-North Central area.

VETS PROTEST NEW SCHOOL—Creation of a new veterinary medical school at Texas Tech in Lubbock will contribute to an oversupply of veterinarians in the state, Texas Veterinary Medical Association stated.

TVMA said the money could be spent better in aiding medical professions which have a shortage of doctors. Vets educated in Texas are already having to go out of state to get jobs, the association argued.

Short Snorts
 A Democratic fund-raising reception here December 8 will cost $1,000 per-to hob-nob with Sen. Hubert Humphrey and Congressman Wilbur Mills. A $25-a-plate dinner follows.

State Republican leaders demanded removal of Secretary of State Bob Bullock. Bullock said he intends to stay.

Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation delayed site selection for a new school for the mentally-retarded in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Fort Worth, Hillsboro, Cleburne, Waxahachie, Ennis and Mineral Wells offered locations.

Texas Water Quality Board and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency announced agreement on a program to settle differences over water quality management in Clear Lake.

A new attorney general's opinion says court clerks must record defendant's birth dates, drivers license numbers were "reasonably available" in abstracts of judgement and so note where date is not available.

A typical Thanksgiving dinner with all the trimmings costs an average family of six just a little more than $9, according to

REFUNDING A FAVOR
ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Gov. Marvin Mandel says his son, Gary, a Baltimore attorney, plans to refund a state scholarship granted him when he attended a private military school in 1959.

The scholarship was awarded while the elder Mandel was serving as speaker of the Maryland House of Delegates. The governor said it was based on financial need.

The Department of Public Safety has coded for computer storage 68,979 individual criminal records. Records will be retained by Project SEARCH (System for Electronic Analysis and Retrieval of Criminal Histories).

Four seminars were scheduled this week in Lubbock, Dallas, Houston and San Antonio to review laws governing the new state vending commission and the industry it regulates. The commission staff, attorney general's office and consumer credit commissioner provided personnel to get the discussions going.

SALES MANAGER TRAINEE

I need a man to service my company's clients. This man will be working in Deaf Smith and surrounding counties.

He can also start at $875.00 per month. If you are willing to work long, dedicated hours, follow my instructions to the letter, and render my clients conscientiously, provide service, furnish five character references, be bondable, and show past successful achievements, and I will do the following:

BIG LEAGUE FIGURES
SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—New Mexico's state government has moved into the financial big league.
 In his budget request for 1972-73, State Treasurer Jesse Kornegay has asked for purchase of a new calculator.
 Kornegay explained his office needs a calculator to handle sums exceeding $1 billion.

By the Garden Gate with Glad

By Mrs. Art Manjeot

The Amarillo airport was certainly in a "buzz" on a recent Sunday morn when the happy travelers from towns on the high plains boarded the plane for the first lap of the KPAN-KTEM Hawaiian Tour.

The following towns of our area were represented: Friona, Dimmitt, Dumas, Levelland, Hereford, Ruidosa, N.M., and several from Summerfield, too.

A real foretaste of "The Islands" was enjoyed by the group in the Aloha Room at Love Field, Dallas. Decor of the room was done in Hawaiian style. Center of interest was a huge arrangement of dark red Anthuriums on the refreshment table. To further emphasize the charm and hospitality, Vanda orchids were on display. Tasty fruit drinks were served by a pretty young lady, who was most gracious and pretty. As we sipped our punch, Mrs. Ray of Levelland shared some yummy delicious Vanilla Nut Cake with us. News "Press" papers from Hawaii were distributed from a miniature grass hut.

Excitement really pervaded when the people from KTEM started arriving.

Bea Hutson, in a pretty lavender suit, was at her height of happiness when her son Keith, Mrs. Hutson, James Hutson and the two pretty granddaughters arrived. Miss Leslie Hutson, a nine-year-old, joined the party and added pleasure and "pep" to the tour.

Another highlight was the Clint Formby family. They too added that extra "spark" of interest and happiness to the party. Scott was very good looking in his striking red, white and blue shirt, with star accent.

Really an interesting feature was the various travel styles in dress. Mrs. Ruth Womble was very charming in her floral (Island flower motive) top coat and suit of pleasing yellow and green combination. A twosome which was attractive was Mrs. Cecil Guseman and Mrs. Earline Phillips, (former Mrs. Ross) in their pantsuits. Mrs. Guseman's was in white and tan and brown, with long fitted top coat and her beautiful brown eyes and hair really created a high note of fashion. Mrs. Phillips also wore white, and her ensemble was beautifully applied in multicolors.

Mrs. W.S. Fluit wore a striking blue, white and red suit with matching red luggage.

Glad had fun meeting and talking with the people.

I visited with travelers from over 20 cities, towns, etc. Also had an interesting and informative visit with two sisters from Portugal.

Enroute to board the plane I talked with a young man who was returning home (Hawaii) for the first time in 14 years. His countenance reflected happiness and expectancy as he talked to me about HOME.

In my visiting, I never failed to plug Hereford, MY home town. A most pleasant and alert young couple from Temple plan to come to Hereford to visit and SEE.

A delay in departure brought a note of disappointment. Soon, though, it was overcome by reading, games, visiting and the delightful lunch which was served Island Style.

The Herbert Friemels, Mr. E. Dettman and I played 42. The Friemels were the winners. But, they really should have won, as the trip was a 40th anniversary gift and celebration for them.

Mrs. Ritchie, the tour manager, had her daughter, Robin, with her. The 21st was her 11th birthday. We sang Happy Birthday to her 39,000 feet over the mighty Pacific, as two lovely hostesses presented her with a miniature birthday cake. She is a "cutie"; her dark hair and eyes made a lovely contrast to Leslie Hutson's golden blonde hair, as they played and had fun on the Walkiki beach.

One of my favorite traveling pals was young Terry Knight from Hewitt, Texas. Was his first flight, and believe me, he filled each minute with ecstasy and questions. A ten-year-old boy is good entertainment.

A real surprise to us came when the pilot gave information on the flight (747B) and announced we would fly over Amarillo or near there. We left the mainland at Oakland, Calif.

My little friend showed me a beautiful picture of a 747 over flaming drifting clouds—twas beautiful. He looked out the window where the sight could have is us, eh?"

Nothing comparative to a golden sunset over the ocean. Magnificent and inspiring, and a perfect ending for a Sunday.

I'll stop and enjoy the beauty of ed the Heavens and the Earth," flashed through my mind,—so I, stop and enjoy the beauty of His creation.

Ahloa!—Glad.

Jack Braley, Air Force defensive backfield coach, played end for Nebraska in the 1955 Orange Bowl football game.

Eric Allen, 172-pound senior tallback, gained 811 yards from scrimmage on 186 carries for Michigan State last fall.

Whitefaces are 13-point underdog to Coyotes

According to the Harris Rating System, the Hereford Whitefaces go into Saturday's quarter-finals game as a 13 point underdog to the No. 1 rated Wichita Falls Coyotes when the two square off at 2 p.m. in Dick Bivins Stadium in Amarillo. But, Harris isn't taking the Whitefaces lightly in the play off game. "Hereford must still be classed as the Cinderella team in Texas High School football this year. She is still very much alive and the most dangerous team in the playoffs. This week Hereford takes on No. 1, and she still has nothing to lose. Better take heed Coyotes!" Only eight teams remain in the state's Class AAAA playoffs and after this weekend that number will be cut in half for the semi-finals the following weekend. Wichita Falls has a power rating of 152 as compared to the Whitefaces' 139 so they are a solid 13 point favorite. The Coyotes are undefeated on the year and sport a 12-0 record. Hereford has the worst record of any team in the state playoffs.

Dippel is top coach

Three make 'Dream team'

The Hereford Whitefaces, co-champions of district 4-AAAA, placed three players and the coach on the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal's All-South Plains team.

Named to the first unit for the Whitefaces were Keith Kitchens, Richard Sierra and Winston Short. Larry Dippel, coach of the Whitefaces, beat out Pampa's Swede Lee and Caprock's Ray Basinger for the top coach honor.

Selected to the honorable mention unit were Hereford's Eugene Suttle, Ike Graves and Steve Clark. Hereford, Plainview and Monterey each had three players on the "Dream Team," which is made up of the best players from each of the area's class AAAA schools. This district, 4-AAAA, boasted 10 of the 23 players named to the group. Plainview's selections were split end Roger Jones, tackle Tommy Lusk, and guard Danny Rushing. Monterey had split end Tom Ellis, quarterback Glen Yarborough and safety Curtis Jordan.

Short and Kitchens were two of only five players who made the team who were not seniors. Dippel, whose team lost the first four games of the year then came back to tie for the district crown and win bi-district and regional, beat out last year's Coach of the Year, Basinger of Caprock.

Dippel's team has won the last seven of eight games on the way to the state quarterfinals match-up with Wichita Falls this weekend.

Basinger's Longhorns finished the season with a 7-3-1 mark which was the best ever in the school's history. Lee led his Harvesters to their first district championship in 21 years with an 8-3 record, which also was the best in more than 10 years.

- In other Class AAAA games, Dallas Carter (12-0) is favored by one over Killeen (12-0), Houston Smiley (11-1) is favored by four over Houston Lee (11-0-), and Austin Reagan (9-2) is favored by three over San Antonio Lee (11-0-1).

Olen Nelsons to make home in Los Angeles

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Olen Nelson are at home in Los Angeles after their marriage November 7 in a high noon ceremony. Mrs. Nelson is the former Miss Constance Eileen Greenseid of Los Angeles.

The marriage was read by Judge David Mohr in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vinetz, with only family members present. The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nelson of 511 Avenue J, were among the guests.

Bill Nelson of Ralls acted as his brother's best man; other attendants were the bride's sisters, Miss Gail Greenseid of San Francisco and Miss Diane Greenseid of Santa Monica, and her brother, Dr. Bob Vinetz. The bride wore a dress in charming peasant style, of unbleached muslin. Trim was of cotton lace in the same off-white shade ruffled at the wrists and around the low oval neckline and in bands above the hemline of the skirt.

A matching peasant scarf bound her hair and she wore a velvet ribbon choker with cameo ornament.

After the wedding, a number of friends were invited for a reception in the home.

A former Hereford resident, the bridegroom was graduated from high school here and attended West Texas State University.

Shorn wool payments to continue unchanged

The U.S. Department of Agriculture today announced that the incentive price of 72 cents a pound for marketings of shorn wool will continue unchanged in 1972 from 1971 levels.

These prices are in accordance with the National Wool Act as amended by the Agricultural Act of 1970 which requires that the support shall be at the above levels for each of the three marketing years through the end of 1973.

Pulled wool will continue to be supported at a level comparable to the incentive price for shorn wool through payments on unshorn lambs.

Shorn wool payments will be based on each producer's returns from sales. The percentage will be that required to raise the national average price received by all producers from shorn wool up to the announced incentive price of 72 cents a pound. For example, payments on 1976 marketings, which began in April, were made at the rate of 102.8 per cent of the dollar return each producer received from the sale of shorn wool. This percentage was based on the difference between the incentive price of 72 cents and the national average grower price of 35.5 cents a pound.

Payments to producers on the 1972 calendar year marketings will be made beginning in April 1973. Applications for such payments must be filed not later than January 31, 1973.

Parties precede recent wedding

Final party in a series preceding the Saturday evening wedding of Virginia Sue Holt and Steve McWhorter was the bridesmaids luncheon in Hereford Country Club at noon that day. Mrs. Jay Boston was hostess.

Tables were decorated in champions and apricot shades, the colors stressed in wedding flowers.

Guests with Miss Holt were her sisters, Mrs. Dale Johnson of Aberdeen, S.D., and Charita Holt of Oklahoma City, who were her honor attendants; Mrs. Troy Don Moore of Austin and Sally Akers of Woodward, Okla., bridesmaids.

Also Mrs. Ron Sistrunk, wedding soloist; Kay Seamands of Denver, Mrs. Jim Westbrook of Lubbock and Mrs. Terry Caviness, who assisted in the reception houseparty; the bride's mother, Mrs. Earl Holt and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. D.C. McWhorter.

Mr. and Mrs. D.C. McWhorter were hosts for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening in the Country Club, where approximately 60 guests were seated at tables displaying the wedding colors.

In addition to the bridal party relatives of the couple and close friends were included for the dinner.

A fondue party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Caviness Nov. 19 honored McWhorter and his fiancée. Other hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Terry Caviness, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Gearn, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Gearn.

Parents of the couple were among the guests.

After dinner, the bridegroom-elect was presented a collection of gadget gifts and advice written in verse.

Compliments to Miss Holt included a coffee and lingerie shower in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Story, with Mrs. Jim Hudgens, Mrs. Bill Dirks and Mrs. Joe Carthal as hostesses.

Former classmates and close friends of the bride were guests for this morning party.

Social security

Q. My 22 year old son was involved in an automobile accident which left him totally disabled. During the summers when he was home from the university he worked as a service station attendant. Would he be eligible for disability benefits?

A. Your son's work could qualify him for a monthly benefit. He only needs credit for 1 1/2 years of work in the 3 year period ending when he became disabled. Have him call or visit your social security office to find out for sure.

Q. I became disabled at 27 and recently heard that I need less credit of work than those 31 or older to be eligible for monthly disability benefits. Is this correct?

A. Yes. You only need credit for having worked half the time between 21 and the time you became disabled.

Q. My husband is 66 and enrolled under Medicare. The social security office advised him that he was not eligible for monthly benefits because he is working and earning too much. Can I file on his record and receive my wife's benefit? I am 62 and unemployed.

A. No. If your husband is not receiving his monthly benefits due to work activity, there would be no advantage in your filing on his record, since no benefits would be payable to you. However, if you have not already checked, you may be eligible for benefits on your own social security record if you have sufficient work credits as a result of past employment in a job covered under social security.

Greetings ,

Be it known to all Whiteface fans, members and coaches of the Hereford Whitefaces that we are behind you all the way. In your quest for a Class AAAA quarter-finals championship, we know, whether you win or lose, you have given your all and done your best.

You, the coaches, have given of your time in helping these young men become not only champions on the field, but off the field as well. You have helped build these young men into winners. You have done your job and done it well.

You, the players, never faltered. You always fought back when the going got tough. You never gave up and you never really lost because you displayed the character of a winner at all times.

In the performances of professionals, you proved yourself through your abilities and often went beyond your abilities.

Never before has a Whiteface team accomplished what you have done. Things were tough from the beginning, but as true winners like you are, you came through when the chips were down. You overcame insurmountable odds in taking the banner of your school, your team and your city into the state play-offs.

Your accomplishments with 39 players cannot be praised enough. With only a handful you accomplished what hundreds failed to do. You humbled the mighty but remained humble yourselves.

For these things we commend you and again we say, regardless of what happens this Saturday, you will be winners and we will remain behind you-always.

Regardless of what others may say, to us you are the greatest Hereford Whiteface Football team in Hereford's History.

Let's cook something

Variation on meatballs

BY SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor
EASY WAYS TO prepare family meals and all sorts of kitchen short-cuts appeal to Mrs. Kenneth Ruland, a young wife and mother who says, "I simply don't have time to spend all day cooking something!"

With a couple of small sons to care for and a part-time job that takes two days of each week, she is serving this year as president of the City Council of Beta Sigma Phi, which calls for a considerable amount of her time.

The council is the unifying organization for the three Beta Sigma Phi chapters in Hereford; made up of elected representatives from each chapter, it is responsible for activities in which all the members have a part including ritual ceremonies twice a year, the annual Founders Day observance and the principal social event of the year, the Valentine ball.

AN ADDED ACTIVITY for Mrs. Ruland's administration is assistance in entertaining the sorority's state convention next June. Amarillo is the host city, but members in other nearby cities will help and Hereford's part is planning the closing ritual.

Although Mrs. Ruland's term as president ends in May, plans and preparation must be completed under her leadership.

Karen Ruland has been a Beta Sigma Phi member for three years and has served on numerous committees in her chapter, Kappa Iota. The council presidency is her first actual office, however. SHE HAS LIVED in Hereford since her marriage in 1966. The former Karen Morrow, she was born and went through public schools in Amherst, then was completing studies in a beauty school at Lubbock when she married.

In school she played basketball and was in the pep squad, but now she is not so much interested in spectator sports as in taking part with her husband in his favorite sports, riding motorcycles and dune buggies.

She doesn't ride now as much as she did before the Rulands' younger son, Klint, was born. He is a year old now and his big brother, Kody, is four.

"I like to ride a motorcycle, too," Kody observes, adding that he rides with his daddy, and catches fish with him sometimes.

WHILE HER HUSBAND fishes Mrs. Ruland prefers water skiing, she explains. And she has not turned spectator completely when it comes to operating the motorcycle and the dune buggy; it's just that the boys take more of her attention at present.

She enjoys a job arrangement so that she still has plenty of time for her family but can keep in practice as a beauty operator.

"On the days I work, the housework has to be hurried through," she says, "and the meals—well, I just sling things together!"

One of the main dishes that her men enjoy is easy to prepare and cooks quickly in a pressure pan. It is an unusual variation of the general favorite, meatballs.

PORCUPINE MEATBALLS
8 large cabbage leaves
1 lb. ground beef
½ cup uncooked rice
1 tb. minced onion
1 tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1-10½ oz. can tomato soup
¾ cup water

1. Combine meat, rice, onion, salt and pepper. Form into balls.
2. Heat cabbage leaves in water until limp.
3. Wrap cabbage leaves around meat balls and fasten with toothpicks.
4. Mix soup and water in pressure cooker.
5. Drop meatballs in pan. Cover; set control at 10 and pressure for 12 minutes.

Couple at home in city

The marriage of Mrs. Winnie K. Malone of Quanah and M.H. Wiseman of Hereford was solemnized on Thanksgiving day in the home of the Rev. D.C. Read, pastor of the Goodlett Methodist Church near Quanah, who officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiseman are at home at 207 Beach.

Mrs. Wiseman, a longtime resident of Quanah was an active member of the Goodlett Church, also of the Quanah Rebekah Lodge, the Century Study Club and a Home Demonstration Club.

Mr. Wiseman retired a few years ago after long employment with Southwestern Public Service Company, many years with the Hereford division.

Changes forecast in blood research

New properties of human blood have been discovered by researchers working at the University of Texas in Austin and Galveston which may have profound influence on the diagnosis of certain disease conditions.

Dr. George B. Thurston, a professor of mechanical engineering and physics at UT found that blood possesses an elastic structure that must be disrupted before normal flow can take place.

"It is already known that a close relationship exists between the viscosity (thickness) of blood and coronary heart disease and peripheral arterial diseases," said Thurston. "An exact measurement of the blood elasticity may provide a more precise index to this thickening condition."

Such information is needed to understand the behavior of the distribution of the blood in the circulatory system. It is also necessary for the design of devices used in cardiovascular surgery, including artificial heart valves, circulatory assist pumps and artificial hearts.

"In the artificial pumping of blood, it is well known that the blood becomes damaged," said Thurston. "It is possible that one origin of this damage rests with the sticking between the red blood cells, which form the elastic structures."

The blood studies are being continued to explore further the influence of commonly used additives, such as aspirin, upon the elastic property of the blood. In other research in Texas scientists at the UT Medical Branch in Galveston have discovered that snake venom causes, among other reactions, abnormal-looking red blood cells. The cells become spherical and grow spiny projections, or burrs all over them. No one yet knows why.

Ted Bond and Dr. M. Mason Guest of UT Galveston undertook the venom-blood research after receiving requests from clinicians across the state for information. It seems some snake-bite patients bleed and continue to bleed, and others don't.

The researchers discovered that some venoms cause clotting. Others completely defibrinate, or destroy all the fibrinogen—the plasma protein necessary for coagulation of normal blood. The cause has not yet been found due to the complex chemistry of snake venom, which contains enzymes and non-enzymic proteins.

MAN'S SURVIVAL

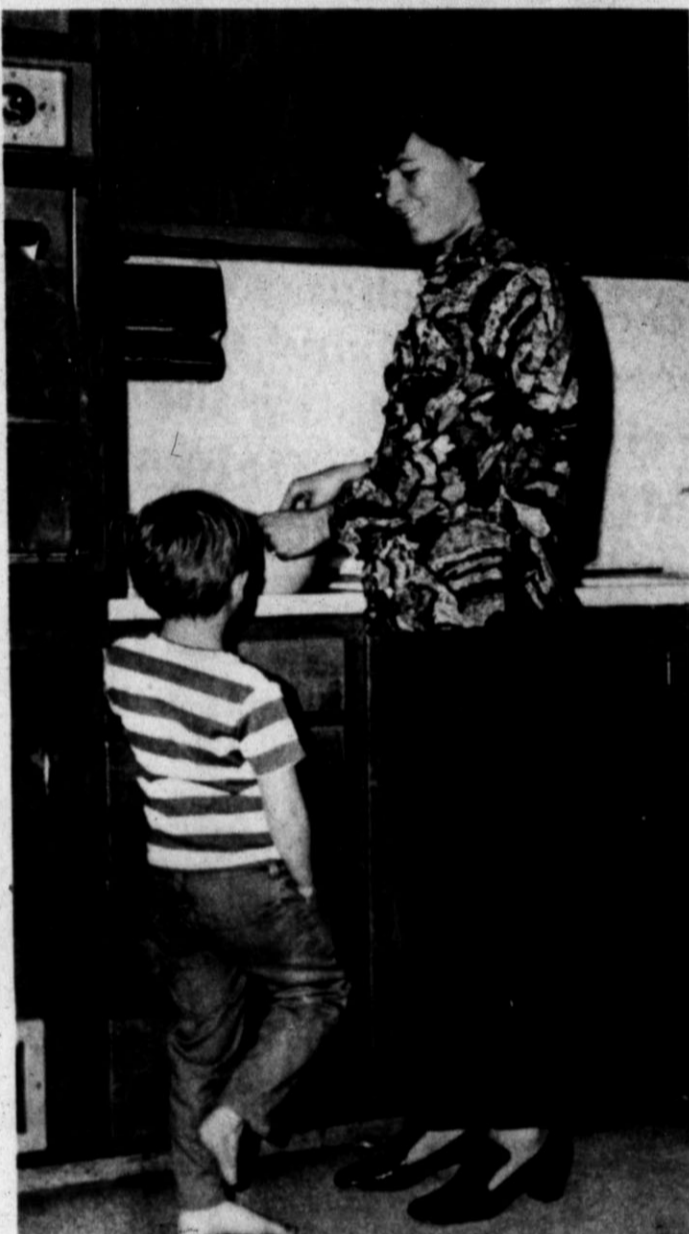

HALIFAX, N.S. (AP) — Dr. Michael Wiles, British-born scientist who heads St. Mary's University biology department here, warns that man is beyond the stage of living on a healthy and stable planet.

"The majority of the human population is starving or coming close to it," says Dr. Wiles. "Sixty per cent of all people are undernourished or starving."

WICHITA FALLS COYOTES

"Herds You Can Win It"!

LET'S ALL GO
TO AMARILLO
& SUPPORT OUR TEAM!

The Hereford Whitefaces take on the undefeated Wichita Falls Coyotes at 2 p.m. Saturday in Dick Bivins Stadium in Amarillo in a game that marks a first for the Fighting Herd. Never before has a Whiteface team advanced as far as this year's team, but, never before have they faced a team as potent as the Coyotes.

The Coyotes of coach Donnell Crosslin have lost only one game in the past two years and currently boast a 12-0 record. Last year they were 10-1.

At the library Ranch in Montana sets novel scene

Various settings are seen in novels available this week at Deaf Smith County Library, from a ranch in Montana to deserted island north of the Arctic Circle and finally a metropolitan hospital. Check out the one that best suits your taste.

THE LAST CENTENNIAL By Patricia Kilian

This novel is set in a ranching area of Montana and the time is the present. The occasion is the centennial of the town of Cottonwood. A fair, a rodeo, and a pageant have been organized for the celebration, which is revealed through three different points of view.

The first is that of Johnny Chance, a full-blooded Cheyenne Indian who was raised as part of white rancher's family. Johnny became a champion rodeo calf roper, but he lost interest in roping when his favorite horse died and now is undergoing a crisis because the Indians have rejected him and the white world

Dozing Driver

Too little sleep, like too much liquor, can turn even the mildest motorist into a deadly menace. If a driver dozes off and has an accident, is he legally liable for the consequences?

The law starts with the proposition that no one should be blamed for what he does while unconscious. Blame rests on free will misused—and the sleeping person is not using free will at all.

But one court after another has nonetheless imposed liability on the dozing driver. They find him negligent not for what he does while asleep but for disregarding, while still awake, the telltale signs that sleep was coming.

"It is true," said one court, "that (the driver) can not ordinarily fix the precise moment when he lapses into unconsciousness. But it is not true that ordinarily sleep comes unheralded. It lies within his own control to keep awake or cease driving."

Background factors, contributing to the danger, are also taken into account. One driver had been at the wheel continuously for 18 hours; another was exhausted from overwork; a third had kept going after twice almost "fading out." In each case, when the driver dozed off, he was held liable for the results.

Suppose it is the passenger, not the driver, who falls asleep. Does the law frown on that too?

Occasionally the passenger does have a duty to stay awake—when he has some special reason to think that the driver needs watching. But as a rule he may nap at will, putting his trust in the driver to take care.

In one case a woman in the back seat dozed off and slumped against the driver's seat, pushing it forward and knocking his hands off the steering wheel. In the crash that followed, the driver was injured.

Could he collect damages from the woman on the theory that her falling asleep was an act of negligence? A court said no, because a passenger could scarcely be expected to anticipate such a freakish accident just from falling asleep.

"(She) was required to exercise foresight," said the court, "not clairvoyance."

long and what course she should pursue. Pinter Brodie, the third character, is absolutely sure of who he is and of what the world is coming to. He is an old man on an old horse bringing his cattle down from their summer range and the past has a firm grip on all his attitudes.

These three very different people see the centennial at the same time in the same place, but in very different ways.

BEAR ISLAND
By Alistair MacLean
Alistair MacLean's newest novel is a story of a movie crew's journey to a deserted island north of the Arctic Circle and the strange events that take place there. What starts out as a routine trip turns into a whirlpool of murderous intrigue.

Bear Island is lonely, desolate, and bathed in Arctic darkness most of the year—an eerie and uncanny setting for a group of men and women who become caught in a web of violence.

While making their way to the island aboard a converted trawler in a stormy sea, the passengers and crew become witnesses to what may be maniacal mass murders. The three deaths at sea trigger a nameless fear that is all too readily reinforced by two more very sudden, very violent and very inexplicable deaths on Bear Island.

Does the most isolated island in the Arctic guard a secret more valuable than lives? Are some or all of the company marked for death? Is there a pathological killer in their midst? Or have their imaginations run wild because of an unusual number of deaths?

Set in an exotic locale, Bear Island is a hard-hitting tale of intrigue which builds to a bristling climax with international repercussions. CODE FIVE

By Frank G. Slaughter
"Code Five! Code Five!" the man at the head of the stretcher shouted and his words signalled the gravest of all emergency conditions—cardiac arrest.

But the words might well have been sounded for St. Luke's Hospital itself—overcrowded, understaffed run-down, a veritable dumping ground for all the city's charity cases—for her heart also seems to have stopped. Only one man had any hope for her future, and that hope was centered on a bitter, war-wounded, unhappy surgeon with crippled hands.

Once again Frank Slaughter has combined real people, serious contemporary problems (slums, slumlords, racial tensions, sexual inadequacy) and medical technology in this fast-paced tale of a decaying metropolitan hospital and the surgeon who sets out to save it—and himself.

Letter to the editor

Dear Editor:
I am sending some thoughts on Happiness.
The whole world is looking for Happiness, but few know how to find it. It is my sincere wish that these suggestions will assist many in finding happiness:

Ten Commandments For Happiness
Thou shalt cultivate a sense of humor, and remember that too much gloom has been created by those who take life too seriously.

Thou shalt not despise thy body, but develop it for strength and for beauty. Eat wholesome food, exercise regularly and take plenty of sleep.
Thou shalt have a dominating purpose in life, and allow nothing to turn you from its fulfillment.
Thou shalt look upon thy job as the most important thing in the world, and strive to do it perfectly.
Thou shalt be thyself. Never seek to imitate another.
Thou shalt live within thy means, thine own desires, thy neighbor's appearances and high-pressure salesmen notwithstanding.

Thou shalt not worry; neither shalt thou be nervous or fearful of the future, for worry is the death of happiness.
Thou shalt do well to get acquainted with nature, for many have thereby discovered beauty, melody and fragrance in life.
Thou shalt take care never to seek for happiness, for it is one thing which seeking cannot find.
Thou shalt above all, strive ever to contribute to the happiness of others, for in so doing, thou shalt discover happiness in

Clayton named for conference

State Rep. Bill Clayton of Springlake has been designated by Texas House Speaker Gus F. Mutscher as one of seven House members to attend the Foreign Policy Briefing for Young Political Leaders being conducted by the U.S. State Department in Washington, D.C. Dec. 2 and 3. Also attending the meeting will be Rep. Ben Bynum of Amarillo, Rep. Joe C. Hama of Breckenridge, Rep. Dick McKissack of Dallas, Rep. Dan Kubak of Rockdale, Rep. Carl A. Parker of Port Arthur, and Rep. Henry Sanchez of Brownsville.

Invited to the briefing are elected state officials from the 50 states, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Dominican Republic. The delegates will receive briefings from top State Department officials concerning the nation's foreign policies in the Middle East and Southeast Asia, in addition to an up-dating of new policies toward Red China and Taiwan. Secretary of State William P. Rogers will discuss environmental and population problems, and the ways which the states and the Federal governments may coordinate their efforts in these areas.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Fine Print
"The large print giveth, and the small print taketh away."
That old joke about insurance policies has often had a good deal of truth in it. Many a crucial clause has been tucked away in typographical obscurity.

But in recent years, the size (sometimes even the color) of the print in insurance policies has been widely regulated by statute.

For example, a common requirement in the field of health insurance is that the exceptions must be printed at least as plainly as the benefits. Take this case:

A man disabled by rheumatism tried to collect on an insurance policy that promised, in large lettering, to pay benefits for six months. But down in the fine print, the policy cut the payments to only one month for certain diseases — including rheumatism.

Was the man bound by the one-month limitation? A court decided that he was not. Because of the substandard size of the print, said the court, that part of the policy simply had no legal effect.

Even if the print is large enough, it will ordinarily not carry as much weight as language that is typewritten or handwritten into the policy.

Another case involved a life insurance policy in which the words "Double Indemnity For Fatal Accidents" had been inserted by typewriter.

Later, double indemnity was held to be payable, even though there was conflicting language in the printed portion of the policy. The court said that words specially inserted were more likely to be correct than words buried in a standard form.

Of course, anything that clarifies an insurance policy also puts a greater responsibility upon you as the policyholder. The clearer the policy, the less grounds you have for arguing that you did not understand what kind of protection you were getting.

Accordingly, it makes good sense to examine a policy at the time you buy it, rather than waiting until you have suffered a loss. Not even large print, not even a special notation, can tell you anything unless you read it.

DIVERSION TERRACE — This diversion terrace, constructed through the Great Plains Conservation program, helped divert water from a county bar ditch onto empty range-land. The gully was formed by runoff rainwater and irrigation tailwater coming across a paved county road through a culvert near the telephone pole.

Diversion terraces 'hold their own'

The large amount of rainfall that farmers have received here in Deaf Smith County this fall has caused gullies to form in some of their fields, according to Ed Blackwell of the Soil Conservation Service.

"These gullies will probably get larger unless they are stopped by the construction of diversion terraces, by grass cover or by some other means," he said.

During the winter months is a good time to construct diversions that will handle the runoff water. The diversions are usually constructed at the upper end of a gully and carry it to a safe outlet such as a grassed waterway to rangeland.

Assistance is available from the Soil Conservation Service on laying out these diversions. Cost-share assistance is available through the Rural Environmental Assistance Program.

"A small amount of money spent now could save a $400 per acre field from being damaged badly," he said. "It pays the farmer to do all he can to hold the soil on his land."

Some Deaf Smith County farmers who have constructed diversion terraces on their land recently are W.D. Buske, Billy Wayne Sisson, William R. Hare, Mrs. N.A. Brown and Sons and A.C. Hays Jr.

Stamp vending machines first appeared in post offices in 1908.

Vending machines around the world served an estimated $8.5 billion worth of food items in 1970.

Episcopal women postpone sale to favor game

Football fortunes of the Hereford High Whitefaces caused the postponement of the annual Christmas sale by Women of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, which will be held Dec. 11 instead of Dec. 4.

Change of dates was announced after the state quarter-final game, in which Hereford's team will meet Wichita Falls, was set for Saturday afternoon.

"Not only will many potential buyers be in Amarillo Saturday for the game, but most of our members want to go, too!" explains Mrs. Robert Stewart,

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Deadly Dust

When bugs invaded his field of honeydew melons, a farmer enlisted the services of a crop dusting company. The company promptly sent out a pilot to spray the field. But because of prevailing breezes, the deadly dust drifted to the beehives on a neighbor's farm.

Bees languished and died by the thousands. Result: a damage suit filed against the crop dusting company by the farmer who owned the bees.

In court, the company protested that it could not be held responsible for the vagaries of the weather. Nevertheless, the court granted the farmer's claim. The court pointed out that the pilot, if he had been reasonably careful, would have foreseen the danger and delayed his spraying until the wind died down.

Crop dusting zoomed in popularity after World War II. Surplus airplanes were available. So were surplus pilots. And so were new and potent insecticides.

But, like many technological advances, this one has brought legal complications in its wake. Repeatedly, courts have held crop dusters responsible for failing to take reasonable precautions in their work.

One pilot underestimated the carrying power of his spray equipment. Another pilot failed to give fair warning to a neighboring landowner. A third pilot disregarded the special characteristics of the chemical he was using. In each case, a court found enough evidence of negligence to impose legal liability on the company.

In fact, some courts have imposed liability even if the pilot took all the usual safety precautions before spraying. They say that, simply by using such dangerous stuff, the company automatically takes full responsibility for the consequences.

Occasionally the plane itself, rather than the chemical, will cause harm. In one case, the sudden gunning of a crop duster's motor threw a flock of turkeys into panic. They hurled themselves against a fence, with many of them perishing.

Was this also the company's fault? A court decided that it was indeed. The judge said the timidity of turkeys was so well known that the pilot should have known what to expect.

Recent wedding is announced

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brownlee of Adrian announce the marriage of their daughter, Sue Conner of Amarillo, to Gene Stephens of that city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stephens of Tulia.

The single ring ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Cliff Roberts Nov. 24 in the Potter County courthouse. The couple will be at home at 4120 S. Bowie, Amarillo.

Miss Suzette Sisk of Canyon and Norman Rexroad were the couple's attendants. Among the few guests at the simple ceremony were the bride's parents, also Mrs. Larry Travis, Shana and David Brownlee of Adrian.

It Looks Easy! In no time at all, the solid log is cut clean through. Of course, those who handle this type of saw know the reason for its effectiveness. Behind it is sufficient power and guidance to make it work well. When the power supply is great, and the connection secure, it is easy to get any job done well.

Have you ever stopped to consider the amount of inexhaustible power that could be loosed in your life? If properly channeled, it could transform you. All we need do is tap the power source: God. All we need do is ask Him. He is anxious to rejoin hands with us and turn us into powerful, directed tools for His service.

With Him on our side, the impossible becomes possible. And as long as we rely on Him and earnestly seek to do His will, He will give us the strength and compassion we need to accomplish the job before us. The task is great but the power is ample. Like that saw, all we have to do is be connected to the supply.
