Commissioners balk at request for investigator

The county commissioners balked at a request by District Attorney Andy Shuval Thursday for a criminal investigator to replace Harold Wheeler who recently was named adult probation officer for Deaf Smith County.

Rain deposits are big help

A long, loud line of thunderstorms swept into the area late Tuesday night from the north, depositing up to half an inch of rain in different sections of the county.

The western portion of the county reaped the greatest benefit from the moisture with reports as high as .58 during the storm's brief stay. The report of .58 came from the Scott Russell place near the Walcott School.

Mrs. Russell said the rain came "hard and fast", beginning about 9:30 p.m. and quickly subsiding.

Bruce Coleman, who also farms in that portion of the county, reported between four-tenths and half an inch of rain on his farm.

"It'll help," he said.

The moisture from Tuesday night's storm brought the total amount of moisture in that area to about three inches since last Thursday, Coleman said. At the New Mexico state line, he said, reports "were a good bit more" from the rain last week.

"Most of the land is in good shape for the wheat and the feed we have is growing real fast along with the weeds," Coleman said.

"There are very, very few who have any maize," Coleman said things had just about come to a stand-still on his place until the rain and it "kind of saved my neck."

South of town at Community Grain in the Easter Community, about two-tenths of an inch fell during the night.

Crops in that area were "looking pretty good but they are looking better now" since the moisture.

The brief storm swept into the city about 10 p.m. and was out of the area by midnight. Bright flashes of lightning, and loud bursts of thunder accompanied the storm although no reports of damage were received.

Reports from west of Dawn showed about half an inch.

The city received .31 of an inch from the storm.

Hull elected head of Texas co-ops

James Hull, manager of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative, was elected president of the board of the Texas Electric Cooperative state-wide organization during the annual meeting Wednesday in Dallas.

Hull served the past year as a member of the board of directors of the organization and also as chairman of "Group Five," a region representing 14 cooperatives in this region.

As president of the organization, Hull will represent all 79 cooperatives in the state which serve approximately 300,000 families.

Hull is a native of Dawson (Navarro County), a graduate of Sam Houston State University, Huntsville.

He served four years in the U. S. Air Force, including one year in the Korean War.

He has been in rural electrification since 1957 when he became power use advisor for the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative in Colorado City. He later was elevated to manager of the cooperative there and served in that capacity until he came to Hereford as manager in April of 1969.

He is active in Boy Scouts, Lions Club, Toastmasters and Shriners and he and his family are members of the First Baptist Church. He also has served as secretary-treasurer of the Deaf Smith County Water Association.

He and his wife, Mary Sue, live at 630 Westhaven. They have a son, Mike.

The manager of the American Legion Redbird baseball team this week expressed dissatisfaction with the lack of local baseball facilities and blamed the situation for the team's showing in the district tournament in Borger last week.

Benny Womble said the lack of lighted baseball field and the conflict in scheduling with the Amarillo field caused this year's district tournament to be played in Borger. This, he said, created a situation where the Redbirds were forced to drive back and forth to Borger each of the four nights of the tournament.

The team finished with the runner-up trophy in the tournament after having to play Borger in "their own back yard."

"We feel the main reason we didn't win this tournament was because we were just physically worn out after traveling the three previous nights to Borger, while Borger could play us without any travel at all," Womble said.

"Our boys all had to work and when they were getting in bed about 2 o'clock in the morning after a game, and having to get up early to go to work in the morning and then going back the next evening to play, they just finally ran out of gas on the last trip."

Womble said the only real solution to the problem would be the construction of a field with lights that would allow the boys to work during the day and play games at night. Also, he said, the district tournament could have been played here this year had there been a lighted field.

Hereford is the only town in the 18th American Legion District playing American Legion baseball without a lighted field. Smaller towns such as Groom, Spearman, Dimmitt and Friona all have lighted fields, the manager said.

"What I am talking about and around is securing a lighted full-sized field for American Legion and Colt League to use," Womble said. "We have been offered some lights from the school that were used for football several years ago, and we have five acres reserved from our sale to the City of Hereford of the park acreage, for baseball use."

There is a lighted field in Veterans Park now, but it is not full-sized and is used by the Pony League. The field cannot be enlarged because the Rider's Club arena is too close.

Officials of the Colt League made an attempt at getting a lighted field this spring, but did not have enough time to organize, Womble said.

"I don't think you can wait until early summer to try and do any such project, but I think we need to start right now while it is still on our minds and before the fall sports program begins," he said.

Several years ago a move was started to get a playing field lighted for American Legion use through a car raffle. More than half of the money needed had been raised, Womble said, when officials were asked by the Ministerial Association of Hereford to stop the raffle and return the money.

"It is going to take a concerted effort by everyone who would like to see good night baseball on a full-sized field in Hereford. The Hereford American Legion cannot afford to spend any more than they are now doing (about $600 a year) for baseball, so help is going to have to come from elsewhere."

"We are not asking anyone for just advice as we have plenty of that, but for real help, with money and/or muscles to achieve this goal. This field could be used by other adult teams also, but we are not proposing to build such a field and then let someone use it free later on," Womble said.

Anyone interested in helping with the situation can contact Womble or Rex Lee of the American Legion or Art McQuary or Reese Dawson of the Colt League.

NEARLY READY — The Blue Water Gardens Apartments, located at Irving and Forrest Streets, are near completion and the manager is taking applications. Approximately 30 or 40 of the two-bedroom apartments should be completed by mid-August with the others to be finished soon afterwards. —Photo by Betty Koelzer

Apartments open soon

Between 30 and 40 two-bedroom apartments are expected to be ready for occupancy by Aug. 30 at Blue Water Gardens Apartments, the new 132-unit complex now under construction.

Danny Cates, 25, has been named manager of the complex and he now is taking applications for tenants.

"Anyone who wants an apartment needs to come down, fill out an application and then we will give them a form to take to their employer to verify their salary," Cates said.

"But, we want everyone to know that the apartments are available to anyone, regardless of their income."

He said he has had a lot of comments from people saying they would like to live in the apartments, but because of their higher income they didn't think they could.

"It doesn't matter what your income is, you can rent an apartment. However, if anyone is in the low income bracket we will adjust their rent to what their income is," he said.

The office for the apartments is on the corner of Irving and Forrest Streets and Cates is usually there from 12 noon until 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday.

Two of the buildings are expected to be ready for occupancy by Aug. 6, Cates said, and according to the construction foreman, the work is going along schedule.

The apartments are one, two, three and four bedrooms and unfurnished although they do contain a stove, refrigerator and garbage disposal and the manager pays the utilities.

A recreation area is available for apartment occupants as well as a laundry room with 18 washers and driers and a playground for the tenant's children.

Ogan accepted for exchange program

Sammy Ogan, 17, will leave Hereford Aug. 18 for an 11-month stay in Modena, Italy, and his parents don't know about it. As a matter of fact, Ogan didn't even know he was going until Monday.

Ogan a senior at Hereford High School, was notified Monday that he has been accepted as a foreign exchange student under the American Field Service program.

His parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Sam Ogan, will be in Washington state until Sunday, and they are unaware of their son's acceptance for the program.

"I guess I'll have to call them tonight (Tuesday) and let them know," he said.

The opportunity to be a foreign exchange student came as a complete surprise, Ogan said, because he felt he was "out of the running" after it had been so long since he had heard anything about the program.

"Actually I applied for just a summer program because I was told I probably couldn't get a full school year. When I didn't hear from the summer program by mid-June I had just about given up," he said.

Margie Mims, who is a representative of the local AFS chapter, received the notification Saturday that Ogan had been accepted for the school program in Italy. She tried to contact Ogan that day, but was unable.

Ogan contacted her Monday about the program and she told him he had been selected for a full year.

"I was shocked," he said. "I had just called her to find out if she had heard anything and she told me yes, but she didn't know when I was going to leave."

Ogan will leave Hereford and fly to New York then from there he will go to Brussels, France and on to Italy.

He will attend the Istituto Tecnico Statale Commerciale e per Geometri "A. Baggi" which is a commercial school that gives diplomas in bookkeeping. Also, the school teaches courses in Italian, mathematics, bookkeeping, law, economics, banking, economic geography, English and French.

Both of the boys, in his foster family, one 25 and the other 17, speak English, Ogan said.

The school has 1,100 pupils and Ogan will be enrolled in the fourth class. The school is located in a city which has had an increase from 16,000 to 35,000 population in the past 10 years due to a large immigration from the south of the country.

Classes begin at 8 a.m. and continue until 1 p.m.

Ogan will be the first foreign exchange student ever accepted by the school in Modena and he is the first in a number of years who have gone abroad from Hereford.

The American Field Service pays the enrollment fee, which is about $300 and Ogan must pay for his trip to New York.

"I have been looking forward to it. The only problem I can see as far as adjusting will be that I don't know Italian. I have never even heard it," Ogan said.

Young to appear on TV 'Hotline'

Melvin Young, general manager of the Hereford Brand, will be one of three area newsmen who will interview Charles Barden, executive director, Texas Air Control Board, on KVII-TV's Monday "Hotline to Austin" show.

Young will be accompanied by Dick Reavis of the Moore County News and Bill Zortman with KVII's news department.

The newsmen will discuss with Barden the meeting in Austin of the Texas Air Control Board regarding the American Smelting and Refining Company.

The program is a weekly report of "goings on" in Austin. It is televised each Monday at 7:30 p.m. on Channel 7.

New brand law to go into effect soon

All brands and marks on Texas livestock must be recorded with the County Clerk after Aug. 30 according to a new law passed during the last session of the state legislature.

The new law is a result of efforts by state county clerks and farm organizations as well as the locally-organized High Plains Association of County Sheriffs and Cattlemen.

The organization, formed early this year, applied pressure to state legislators to get better and more uniform brand laws passed. Several were considered by the last legislature, including the County Clerk's bill.

Producers will be given a six-month period (Aug. 30, 1971 through Feb. 29, 1972) on which to register these brands and marks and the location on the animal which they are currently using. After this time, any unrecorded brand will be available for use on a "first come, first served" basis.

The law further states that all such brands and marks must be rerecorded every 10 years. Each County Clerk records for his given county only, so many producers may need to record their brands in additional counties if their operations are extensive.

The owner shall have the right during this six-month period to file the mark and brand now recorded in his name. In the event it cannot be determined from the records who first recorded the brand and mark in the county, then the person who has been using such mark and brand the longest shall have the right to have it recorded in his name.

It will be illegal to brand livestock without first properly recording the brand with the County Clerk in the county in which the livestock are held.

When the brand or brands are recorded, the location on the animal on which the brand is to be applied must be designated. If the brand is to be applied to more than one location on the animal, it must be recorded and each additional location for the brand on the animal shall constitute a separate recording of that brand.

There is no limit to the number of brands and/or marks which may be recorded in a county by a single person as long as requirements of this law governing the recording and rerecording of livestock brands are met. Minors may have marks or brands separate from that of the father or guardian, which must be recorded or rerecorded as provided by the new law.

The County Clerk must assure that no more than one brand of a kind is recorded on the same location of the animal in each county. Therefore no two persons in a county may record the same brand in the same location. Also, it is the responsibility of the County Clerk to make certain that in recording any brand for a person, that the part of the animal on which the brand is to be placed be designated. Failure to do so is punishable by a fineable offense of not less than $10 or more than $50.

It's just his job

Don't be angry with the paper boy, he is just doing his job. If you are going to be mad at anyone, try the government when the paperboy comes collecting next time and wants an extra 5 cents for your subscription to the Hereford and Sundry Brands.

The state sales tax placed the increase on newspapers last month and as a result, the prices of the papers have gone up 5 cents per month from what they were in the past.

Newspapers purchased from the news stand have gone up from 10 cents to 11 cents if purchased one at a time. This would mean an increase of about 3 cents a month when a bought this way.

A subscription to the Sunday and Thursday Brands was only $1 a month but the tax has increased it to $1.05 per month.

Stabbing occurs Sunday

A 21-year-old Hereford man was treated and released at Deaf Smith County Hospital over the weekend following a stabbing at a dance in the Labor Camp.

Jesse Ramirez of the Laredo Hotel, received a number of stitches from the middle of his back around to his stomach, according to investigating sheriffs officers.

Officers received a call at 12:45 a.m. Sunday of a fight in progress at a dance hall in the Labor Camp. When they arrived they discovered Ramirez bleeding and in the process of being taken to the hospital, the report said.

A 22-year-old man was picked up at the dance hall and taken to the county jail for questioning about the incident, according to deputy Leon Gorrell. The man was released a short time later for lack of a complaint being filed.

Gorrell said no charges have been filed in the incident, but the investigation is still under way.

(Continued From Page One) next five months in district court to be a lot of work, and to do a good job, he feels he needs a special investigator.

Commissioner Donald Hicks told Shuval he could see no advantage in hiring a special investigator to work only with the district attorney's office and maintain an office area with the district attorney. Wheeler has, since his appointment as special investigator, maintained an office area with Shuval.

The original request for Wheeler as an investigator for the DAs office was rejected because the county budget could not absorb the cost of hiring him as an investigator then replacing him on the sheriff's force.

The county agreed to hire Wheeler as the investigator, but also to keep him as a deputy sheriff.

Orval Watson Ford submitted the low bid of $4,974.76 for two 1971 Mercurys with the trade in of one Mercury and one Chevrolet. The only other bid of $5,534 was submitted by Dick Norwood Chevrolet-Olds for one 1971 Oldsmobile and one 1971 Chevrolet.

BY MELVIN YOUNG

There have been many efforts made in the past few years by some of our muddle-headed Senators and Congressmen to dump the director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, J. Edgar Hoover. Hoover has been the only director of the FBI since it was initiated in the 1930s and although he is over 70 years old, both President Johnson and President Nixon waved the mandatory retirement rule and have retained the director at his post. And in the face of all the clamoring by such fine public servants as J. William What's-his-name over in Arkansas, and a few others of his ilk for the "firing" of Mr. Hoover, it is interesting now to read what one former Mafia member has had to say about the organization this man has headed for nearly 40 years.

Vincent Charles "Big Vin" Teresa, 42, testifying under congressional immunity while serving a five-year prison sentence for interstate transportation of stolen securities, tells us that the FBI is "the only outfit the mob is scared of," and says that in 28 years on the street, he has never heard of a crooked FBI agent—not one you could get to with bribe money.

He also made another statement that should surprise no one... that local and state officials "by the ton" are crooked. The convicted mobster told the congressional investigators how the politicians had been bought off—as well as local law enforcement officials—so that the numbers racket and other illegal gambling operations could be run without fear of molestation by the police. "Only the FBI," he said, "can eliminate organized crime."

Yet, we still have those so-called public servants pushing for the firing of the director of the FBI, and a few have even suggested that the organization itself be eliminated.

Makes you wonder, doesn't it, which side the legislators are on? Or more appropriately put, on which side their bread is buttered?

Glenn's Footwear has recently moved to a new location at 4th and Main where the Gunn Bros. stamp store was. The building is being remodeled for the shoe store and although not entirely completed, Glenn has moved in and is doing business in the new location. The Gunn Bros. store has moved down to the 2nd block of Main on the east side.

We understand also, that Kenneth "Doc" Cowan, plans to take the space that Glenn vacated to expand his jewelry store.

We're always happy to see our local merchants improving and expanding, and we're particularly happy when all the buildings are occupied. There's nothing that makes a town look worse, than a bunch of empty buildings in its central business area.

And the farmers out in the north and northwest part of the county are about to get caught up on rainfall. A torrential rain falling last Thursday evening left 3 to 4 inches of rain in the upper county area, and it appears that they had another fine shower Tuesday evening.

Virgil Marsh, who lives some 20 miles north of the city, said the water was over the road at his home last Thursday and he estimated from 3 to 4 inches fell, and Robert Veigel, who farms in the Milo Center community, got 3 inches Thursday. The rains Tuesday evening should have added substantially

Year's schedule of CFWC listed

Meetings of Deaf Smith County Federation of Women's Clubs for the 1971-72 season, beginning with a silver tea Sept. 30, have been scheduled by the program committee, Mrs. H.E. Miller, chairman, announces.

The annual Fine Arts program, usually given in the spring, will open the season this year with Dr. John A. English as guest speaker. His subject will be Painting for Fun. An enthusiastic hobby painter, Dr. English came to Hereford this year as executive director of Kings Manor, the United Methodist retirement home. An exhibit of work by Hereford painters is planned as a part of the tea program, to be held at Community Center. Hostess clubs will be Lone Star Study, Pioneer Study and Garden Beautiful.

The Federation, which includes nine women's clubs of the county and is open for other club and individual memberships, has three general meetings each year. The remaining two for the coming season, both at Community Center, will be luncheons on Jan. 29 and April 29.

For the January meeting, Bud to Blossom, Music Study and LAE Clubs will be hostesses for the final meeting, Summerfield Study, Hereford Garden and Hereford Ceramic Clubs. Mrs. C. D. Kelton is Federation president.

Plan on Dying

Some years ago a clerk in a bookstore, unpacking a shipment of new books, found one on the subject of "estate planning." Thinking it must be about the landscaping of large homes, he placed it in the gardening section. He would hardly make that mistake today. Estate planning has come into its own, used by thoughtful people everywhere to preserve assets during their lifetime and to pass them on wisely—and economically—at death.

One reason for the growth of estate planning is the growth of estates. Nowadays even the ordinary citizen is likely to have an estate of substance. It may well include not only a home and a savings account but also personal life insurance, group insurance, stocks, pension plan benefits, profit-sharing options, and social security rights.

Another reason is that estate planning has become far more sophisticated. Its techniques have gone well beyond the traditional "testamentary trust" for a rich old lady and "spendthrift trust" for a rich young man.

Unfortunately, there are pitfalls aplenty for the amateur planner. For example: many people think avoiding probate is the same as avoiding taxes. But the federal estate tax is based on the entire estate, whether it passes through probate or not.

Likewise, many people think life insurance is not taxable. But life insurance proceeds are included in determining a person's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes unless he has retained none of the incidents of ownership of that policy.

True, it may be sensible in certain circumstances to avoid probate. And it may be possible in certain circumstances to avoid taxes on life insurance. But clearly this is a field in which the layman needs expert help.

Much information is available from trust departments, accountants, insurance men, and investment counselors. The ultimate adviser, however, should usually be an attorney, since he alone is fully qualified to give the personal legal guidance a program should have.

Some people shrink from the thought of estate planning. But, like it or not, some plan is going to govern the care and distribution of your possessions. The plan could be yours, if you make one. If you don't, state and federal laws—oblivious of your wishes—will do it for you.

Small talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

WHILE THE Ulys Pierce family was visiting lately in the home of their daughter, Shirley Bubany, in Lakewood, Colo., a Denver suburb, they had an experience which at the time puzzled, and later sort of horrified them.

A barking pack of dogs and squeals of some animal woke the household in the night, and Shirley's husband, Johnnie Bubany, got up to investigate the ruckus.

He described what he saw in the moonlight as a growing animal, almost white in color and as large as a Shetland pony, on its haunches in the center of a circle of dogs.

Possible light on the puzzle was shed by a Monday news-cast which said that a girl in Denver with binoculars saw more than she bargained for when she was viewing the city. There was a roving mount a lion, she said.

NOW WILMA NELL Pierce is wondering whether her grandchildren are safe as they play in their yard.

With their younger daughter, Laura, Wilma Nell and Ulys had been to Estes Park before their visit in Lakewood. They attended a reunion of the 11 children of the N. P. Sikes, former residents of Westway.

There were 46 persons present and they all had a great time sightseeing, eating, talking and laughing, the Hereford family reported on their recent return home. Oh yes, and singing — sometimes far into the night.

SHE WILL ACCEPT the invitation she has received to commencement exercises of the University of Oklahoma next Sunday evening, Ada Hollabaugh says. In fact she "wouldn't miss it."

Her granddaughter, Lois Hollabaugh, who was born in Hereford, will be one of the summer graduates, receiving a degree in physical therapy. Lois is the daughter of the William T. Hollabaugh, who lately moved to Odessa. She graduated from high school in Tascosa of Amarillo.

ONE OF THOSE statistical stories which newspapers use occasionally about the size of its various population groups, which can be interesting and plumb enlightening, appeared in the Brand lately and I hope some store managers here read it.

It said the one-person household is becoming more numerous in Deaf Smith County as well as over the nation and now 12.3 percent of our homes have only one resident. That's a total of 634, an increase of 233 in the last decade so you can see it's

BAG AND BONES
OLYMPIA, Wash. — Police feared the worst when a bulldozer unearthed a deteriorated women's purse and what appeared to be human bones near here.

The "victim" was found alive and well a few minutes later. The burned handbag contained a driver's license and social security card with the name of Susan Patricia Weeks.

She told police her purse was stolen in a downtown Olympia bank six years ago.

size, and have got the manufacturers brainwashed to the point where they are afraid to be accused of cheating the customer if they make a small size.
NOBODY SEEMS to be hollering yet that there are a lot of us who find it costlier by the dozen because we are buying eight or ten that will go to waste. Don't say "Put the surplus in the freezer and use it later" because many of us would find it quite uneconomical to buy a freezer, besides having no room for one in our small apartment.

And there are some foods which just aren't good after a short stay in the freezer. For instance, milk products can't be kept indefinitely, and that half-gallon of ice cream isn't really appetizing when you get down to the bottom.
But pints are getting harder to come by all the time, and it can't be for lack of demand because when my store has some and I buy one, it's out in case I return in a couple of days.
That's only one small example and I can supply a lot more in case Mr. Nadar is interested in a new crusade.

Growth pattern tops in Texas

Although a stingy national economy has stifled many industrial programs across the nation, Texas' expansion efforts have met growing success, according to a report to the Texas Industrial Commission.

The report, which spans the first six months of 1971, lists 161 new Texas industries, an increase of eight over last year's comparative figures. More than 100 plants already located in the state also expanded during the period.

Jim Harwell, executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission, attributed Texas' consistent industrial growth to a combination of natural attractiveness and an aggressive plant-recruiting program.

"The state already offers attractive tax structures, labor conditions, sites and markets," he said. "And the commission's prospect development division has done an admirable job of contacting potential industries." In addition to a highly successful computerized site-location service, the commission is developing an individualized contact program which links local agencies with industries interested in relocating, Harwell said.

"When a company expresses interest in a Texas site, we initiate a continued contact which furnishes information and encouragement for more than a year," he said.

The number of companies utilizing the agency's site-location services also increased from 87 in the first half of 1970 to 94 this year, and many have lauded the programs.

"It's gratifying to achieve such results in an unstable economic climate," Harwell said. "Texas will no doubt become a greater industrial power in better times."

August irrigations key to grain yields

Timely irrigations during the first few weeks of August can be a big factor in producing a top grain sorghum crop this year, says Leon New, area irrigation specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. "It's often a real struggle to maintain adequate soil moisture in grain fields during this time of the season," points out New. "But timely irrigations at the flowering and grain filling stages of growth can boost yields considerably." According to the specialist, an irrigation at the flowering stage normally increases yields from 1,000 to 1,400 pounds per acre. In addition, irrigating at the ing and flowering," explains the specialist. "Plants have normally reached mature size by grain filling so the water is used primarily to produce grain. Water requirements for the crop will normally decline to about two inches every 10 days during early grain filling and will continue to decrease as the crop matures."

Therefore, an irrigation as late as grain hardening or the hard dough stage provides for only limited, if any, yield increase, adds New. The only benefit from late irrigations may be to minimize lodging. In most area soils adequate moisture can be stored from an irrigation at the soft dough stage to supply the remaining moisture requirements for grain production. An additional application prior to the hard dough stage is more likely to be productive on sandy soils where the soil water holding capacity is less.

"The time required to get over the crop is especially important in minimizing moisture stress," emphasizes New. "One way to stretch water is to irrigate alternate furrows. More frequent irrigations often using less water can keep the soil moisture level up on more acres and thus help to keep the crop out of stress."

Irrigation tests on loam soil in Parmer County show that comparable yields can be produced by irrigating every other furrow in double rowed grain sorghum every 9 to 12 days. This method requires more water in each irrigated furrow to maintain a desirable water advance, but it will normally increase the irrigating rate 50 to 60 percent.

On the tighter pullman soil, studies show that yield potential can also be maintained by irrigating alternate furrows where the crop is planted in 30 inch rows, adds the specialist. However, yields are often less toward the lower end of 40-inch rows when alternate furrows are irrigated unless tailwater runoff is excessive.

Policy changed for immunizing

Texas Tech University officials announced Friday that new legislation requiring specific immunizations for students will mean a change in policy at the University.

It has been the policy at Texas Tech to require immunization against polio, tetanus, and small pox. The new legislation adds diphtheria to the list for students enrolling in institutions of higher learning.

Students enrolling for the fall semester will be allowed to enter with the provision that immunizations are begun before Jan. 1, 1972, and all are completed as soon after that date as medically feasible.

Effective with the spring 1972 semester, and continuing thereafter, new enrollees (those not previously enrolled in the summer or fall 1971 semesters) who have not completed the required immunizations at time of enrollment, must complete them as soon as is medically feasible.

Students in institutions of higher education must have had a minimum of three injections of diphtheria and tetanus with the last dose within 10 years and one smallpox vaccination within the past 10 years. At least three doses of oral polio vaccine are required for students who have not reached their nineteenth birthday.

Recommended implementation procedures and an outline of current regulations were recently provided to the State's colleges and universities by the Texas State Department of Health and the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System.

Greenbugs return for second time

BY MARKIE McBRIDE
Staff Writer

Greenbug infestation is slowly striking the grain sorghum of Deaf Smith County for the second time this summer, according to Ray Frye of the American Dusting Company.

"In the last 30 days about 95 per cent of the fields in this county have been treated for greenbugs. At that time there was a 50-50 chance of reinfestation, so the two or three calls we have been getting in the past several weeks concerning the reinfestation did not surprise us," Frye said.

"There are still many fields that are clean, but it looks like they might have to be treated again."

The greenbug is a sucking insect that attaches itself to the underneath side of the bottom leaves of grain sorghum. It injects a toxic into the plant and if not treated early will eventually kill the plant.

"The greenbugs start on the bottom leaves because it is cooler near the ground, but if there is a population increase the insect will move upward towards the top of the plant. A way to denote greenbug infestation is to look underneath the leaf and if it has been infested it will be red," Frye said.

Frye said that the grain sorghum greenbug was believed to be a mutation from the wheat greenbug. The difference is that the grain sorghum greenbug can withstand high temperatures when the wheat greenbug cannot. After the wheat has been harvested the insect mutates to the conditions that involves grain sorghum.

HO CHI MINH TRAIL IS VITAL TO COMMUNISTS

DISRUPTING IS A "MUST" IN WINDING DOWN WAR

By HENRY CATHCART
 Central Press Washington Correspondent
 WASHINGTON—"If Hanoi lost the Ho Chi Minh Trail, they would lose the war in a few weeks."
 The words of an overzealous Pentagon spokesman? Hardly. That is the view of Loatian Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma into whose kingdom President Nixon unleashed allied forces last month.

And those words by the Laotian chief of state best explain why it was necessary to attempt to curb the constant flow of men and supplies down this ingenious network of jungle arteries that has served as one of history's foremost roadways to invasion.
 Few people here, least of all Pentagon experts, expect the invasion to be a total military success. Cutting off the Ho Chi Minh Trail cannot be accomplished in a matter of days or weeks or even months, for this invasion route is hardly a trail at all.<

Party precedes recent wedding

Preceding her Sunday afternoon marriage at Dimmitt to James Head of Hereford, Poppy Byrnes was honored Saturday with a shower-tee in the home of Mrs. Merlin Kaul, 128 Ave. J.

Guests who were greeted by Mrs. Kaul were introduced to the pretty bride-to-be and her mother, Mrs. Don DuLaney of Dimmitt, who stood with the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Harold Head, in a receiving line.

Joy McCathern was at the Paula Birdwell served cake while Glenda Nahr-gang ladled punch at a table covered with white satin and a net overlay. Daisies and a large white candle made the centerpiece.

Hostesses with Mrs. Kaul were Mmes. Ralph Mitchell, Joe Zinser, Dean Watson, Frank Sinsler, J.E. McCathern Jr., Gerald McCathern, J.D. Whitaker, Olin Feird, Cecil McArthur, Tom Johnson, Joe Landers, N.E. Tyler and H.E. Owens.

Crume-Tolleson vows announced

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Crume announce the marriage of their daughter, Prissy Jean, to Thomas Wayne Tolleson, Radarman 3rd Class with the U.S. Navy and son of Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Tolleson.

The couple exchanged vows Monday, July 19, before Justice of the Peace John M. Forbes in Arlington. After August 1 they will be at home at 9602-B 19th Bay, Norfolk, Virginia.

For the wedding the bride wore a street-length summer knit in mint green trimmed with lace daisies about the neckline and bodice. Her costume accessories were white.

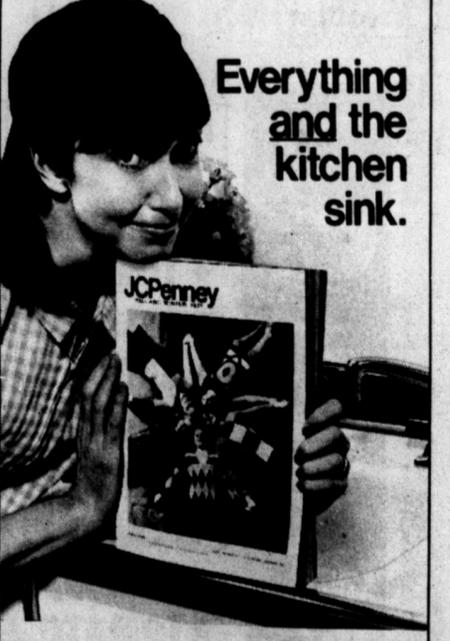

She is a 1970 graduate of Hereford High School and was graduated this year as a veterinary technician from Howe College, Oklahoma City. She has been employed at Casa Linda Animal Clinic at Dallas.

A graduate of Clarendon High School, Tolleson is presently stationed with Inshore Undersea Warfare Group 2 in Little Creek, Virginia.

Wedding rings are placed on the third finger of the left hand because of an old Egyptian belief that a nerve ran from that finger to the heart.

The word salary comes from "salarium" meaning salt money, since Roman soldiers received part of their pay in salt.

For God So Loved The World

They Believe in Each Other

You get a wonderfully warm feeling when you see kids stop scrapping, patch up their differences and start sharing for a change. Often they become friends for life.

Doubtless you get the same warm feeling when you see old friends greet each other after a long separation. They hang on by hand as they slap backs and maybe brush away a tear or two.

There is nothing quite like a good friend; someone to trust and believe in. True friendship evolves from mutual belief in and respect for each other. It is a silent answer to the unspoken question. A being there without really having to be.

A doing without being asked to do. A giving without questioning why, how much will it cost, or what will I get out of it.

True friendship means automatically becoming God's Good Samaritan without pondering the consequences.

Try sharing laughter with your friend.
Share an ice cream cone. Better yet, share God.

TO MARRY TODAY — Wedding vows uniting Sandra K. Stotts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Stotts, 107 Fuller, and Jerry Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lee of Littlefield, will be read this afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willie R. Johnson by the Rev. C. W. Allen, pastor of St. John's Baptist Church. The bride-to-be is a 1971 Hereford High School graduate. Her fiancé graduated from Littlefield High in 1967. The couple will make their summer home in Plainview where Lee is employed at Central Plains Hospital. They will reside in Houston this fall when they enroll in college.

County cotton crop is lowest in area

Deaf Smith is the lowest cotton producing county in the Texas High Plains, it was revealed this week in a report by

Father of Mrs. Frank Barrett buried Tuesday

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon in First Baptist Church of Claude for G.D. Caldwell, 70, father of Mrs. Frank Barrett. The Rev. Charles Davenport, pastor, officiated. Burial was in Claude Cemetery by Smith Funeral Home of Panhandle.

Mr. Caldwell died Sunday night at Groom Memorial Hospital.

He is a native of Wise County and served 34 years as Claude city secretary. Following his retirement he operated a workshop.

Mr. Caldwell married Delma Lackey in December, 1921 in Amarillo. He was a member of the First Baptist Church and was a Mason.

Other survivors include his wife; another daughter, Mrs. Keith Vierson of La Palma, Calif.; a son, Joe of Albuquerque; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

The county, one of 25 represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., showed only 6,800 acres of cotton planted this year and only 5,600 harvested.

Some 18 per cent of the planted cotton was abandoned. The yield per harvested acre in Deaf Smith County was 420 for irrigated, 170 for dryland for an average of 402. The production of 500-pound bales reached only 4,700.

The totals for the county were well below those reported by other counties. Lubbock County had the highest number of 500-pound bales with 213,200.

The 1970 total is up from 1,418,000 bales produced in 1969, constitutes just over 55 percent of the 3,198,000 bales grown in Texas, and about 17 percent of the 10.1 million bales harvested across the entire cotton belt.

The TCLRS report for 1970 shows an average yield per harvested acre on the Plains of 389 pounds, up from 349 pounds in 1969. Irrigated cotton in the area, of which there was 1,448,200 acres, yielded an average 458 pounds of lint per acre, while the 828,600 acres of non-irrigated cotton produced only 284 pounds per acre.

Adverse weather conditions caused abandonment of 4.5 percent of the area's 2,277,200 planted acres, leaving 2,174,700 acres for harvest.

The U. S. Bureau of Census earlier reported the High Plains total production in "running" bales, as opposed to 500 pound bales, at 1,734,767 bales, and the State running bale total at 3,144,192 bales.

The ten top cotton producing counties in Texas were found on the High Plains in 1970. In the order of production volume, they were Lubbock, Dawson, Hockley, Hale, Lynn, Lamb, Crosby, Terry, Gaines and Floyd counties.

SHOT A TORNADO
AUSTIN, Tex. — Ernest Baker, 79, remembers the day, May 20, 1920, when a tornado hovered over the city and then split in half to damage surrounding areas.

"I was on the third floor of the then Land Office Building at Brazos and 11th," said Baker. "Since my desk faced the north, I just picked up my camera and took the picture."

"I sent the picture to The New York Times and they published it on their front page."

Mrs. Arthur Rogers and Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. were in charge of dinner arrangements. They decorated the room in the state president's colors, purple, gold and white, and her flower, the pink rose, featuring her motto, Service Above Self. Mrs. Frank Snyder of Muleshoe, area president, introduced Mrs. Tolbert, who conducted the special meeting.

Mrs. Harold Hamby and son were guests. Members, designated in the lodge as chevellers and ladies, present from the host group were Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, E. E. Bishop, Mmes. C. E. Beauford, J. L. Davis, Guy

Mrs. Tolbert was accompanied on her visit by Gladys Irving of Tyler. Coming from over the area were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bishop of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Turner, Eula Findelsen and Maxie Clark of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Snyder of Muleshoe.

Postal service means more expenses locally

Hereford residents will have to fork up an additional $60,100 in the next 12 months to pay for postal services according to estimates based on expenditure in prior years.

The added cost, which comes to about 21 percent, will result from rate increases put into effect recently by the newly-constituted U. S. Postal Service.

The service, created last year under the Postal Reorganization Act, replaces the former Post Office Department. It is now a semi-autonomous body in the form of a government corporation, removed from Congressional control.

The purpose is to improve mail service and to put it on a self-sustaining basis, financially.

The increase in rates, which became effective on May 16th, was intended to reduce the annual operating deficit and to permit a start on ambitious modernization program.

Under the new rates, the Postal Service expects its total revenue will be $1.45 billion more than in 1970, with the great bulk of the rise coming from first class letter mail, which has gone from 6 cents to 8 cents.

What this amounts to, for the Hereford resident who mails an average of one letter a day, is $7.30 more per year.

For commercial ailers who use second class, chiefly newspapers, the rate hike is also huge — about 20 percent.

Much of the additional $1.45 billion will be needed, it is stated, for pay increases for the 750,000 postal workers.

The latest figures released by the government show a total of $286,200 spent in Hereford per year for postal services.

During the current fiscal year, it is estimated, it will rise to $346,300.

Despite the $1.45 billion hike that the Postal Service will be getting this year, it will suffice only for part of its needs, leaving little leeway for modernization. More money will be needed in the future for that purpose, it states.

Glenn's moves to new store

Glenn's Footwear began business in their new location, on the corner of Main Street and Fourth Street, Tuesday morning, featuring a one-third increase in stock and space.

Glenn Williams, store manager, said that more convenient parking space, selling area, and a larger space were the main factors in moving the store from the former location, next door to Cowan Jewelers. The store has been there for ten years, Williams said.

Done in green and gold decor, the store carries women and men's shoes, women's purses and hosiery.

Softball tourney planned Aug. 7-8

A softball tournament featuring teams from Amarillo and Hereford, will be held Aug. 7-8 at the Pony league Baseball Field in Veterans Park.

The tournament will consist of about 14 teams of which four will represent Hereford. The tournament will be single elimination with trophies going to first and second place teams.

Although a definite schedule has not been worked out for the tournament, games are expected to start about 3 p.m. Aug. 7 and continue to late that night. The remaining games will be played Sunday, probably beginning early that day and continuing through the night.

Only 13 muscles are required to smile—fifty to frown.

By BILL BOYKIN
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, Tex. — Investigations of stock-loan scandals which have rocked the state for nearly seven months moved forward on three fronts during the past week.

"Travis County District Attorney Robert O. Smith announced plans to present to the grand jury here evidence compiled by Texas Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin's staff.

Martin said evidence includes material pertaining to federal Securities and Exchange Commission allegations that large bank loans were extended to high state officials by the Sharpstown State Bank in 1969. Money went to stock purchases by officials at the time Sharpstown bank head Frank Sharp was trying to get deposit insurance legislation passed.

"Sharp was invited to testify within the next three weeks before a House General Investigating Committee.

Committee asked Sharp to talk about bills in which he was interested in 1969 "and other matters that may be pertinent concerning Sharpstown State Bank, the National Bankers Life Insurance company and any relationship with public officials."

"Meanwhile, State Insurance Commissioner Clay Cotten turned over to district attorneys in Houston, Dallas and Austin results of his investigation of NBL.

Cotten said he feels insurance, embezzlement and conspiracy laws may have been overstepped but preferred to leave it up to prosecuting attorneys to decide if violations occurred. He offered names of five one-time NBL officers and directors prominently involved in his report.

Federal court at Houston set hearing this week to determine if a June 14 immunity order protecting Sharp from further prosecution or summons should be modified. Martin and Smith want to force him to testify before the Travis County grand jury hearing.

COURTS SPEAK — An Austin federal district judge upheld the local school district's desegregation plan calling for a minimum of crosstown pupil busing, holding against a federal government proposal for massive busing. Judge scored the federal government for its uncooperative attitude toward a compromise.

State Supreme Court rejected an appeal of A&M University employees who had paychecks stopped when it was discovered they were serving on the College Station city council.

In other decisions, High Court:

"Stuck by its original decision holding former president of Sharpstown State Bank was not negligent in failing to investigate bonds offered as security on a $470,000 loan.

"Turned down the appeal of a Dallas oilman's widow in a law suit over his estate brought by the man's five daughters by an earlier marriage.

"Upheld the will of multi-millionaire Robert A. Welch's sister leaving $300,000 in Texas oil and gas property to the Welch Foundation.

"Held against an Alice woman seeking damages from drug companies which manufactured the anesthetic she claims partially paralyzed her following 1963 surgery.

"Reversed a lower court judgment and concluded the foreclosure of mortgage on the home of a Dallas couple who had paid $420 more than their schedule called for was void.

"Rejected disputed evidence of a remarriage in Mexico and backed a Nueces County trial court finding that a Corpus Christi man owes nearly $24,000 in alimony to his former wife in Nevada.

LIVESTOCK DISEASES SPREAD — As sleeping-sickness-like Venezuelan Equine Encephalomyelitis continued to strike horses and some humans, threat of a new livestock malady loomed.

Outbreak of African hog fever in Cuba alarmed swine owners. Litter is almost invariably fatal, and there is no known vaccine. Allment does not affect people, as does VEE (which is usually mild in humans).

More than 1,100 Texas horses are believed to have been killed by VEE and 1,500 others stricken. More than 66 million acres have been sprayed to kill disease-carrying mosquitoes.

AG OPINIONS — Texans under 21 may not serve on juries in Texas despite recently lowered voting age to 18, Attorney General Martin held.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded: "Texas Industrial Commission can open an extension office in Mexico City and pay salaries of employees there.

"Governor is without authority to negotiate open-end contracts for computer supplies for state agencies.

"County attorney of Cooke County will serve as 16th district attorney when 16th district court sits in Cooke County. District attorney of 235th district will serve that court in all counties where it functions.

"Law passed last May 26 sets maximum compensation for assistant county school superintendents in all counties.

"Renewal license issued by State Board of Hairdressers and Cosmetologists June 2-Aug. 29, 1971, expires Aug. 31, 1972. Applicant for Sept. 7, 1971, board examination must pay $15 filing fee with application and additional $5 license fee.

"B 194 of last legislature repeals other acts on commercial drivers' license exemptions.

MEDICINE AID SYSTEM CHANGED — On September 1 State Department of Public Welfare will begin making payments directly to pharmacists for drugs prescribed to Texas welfare recipients.

Under current system, allowance for drugs is included in monthly-assistance checks. Legislature this year appropriated $11.9 million for new vendor drug program.

Welfare authorities believe the new system will provide improved prescribed medicine coverage and delay a cut in overall welfare payments for food, clothing and shelter.

However, some complained of welfare check cuts, since drug allotments no longer will go to recipients, and a few who get only payments for drugs will be taken off welfare rolls. Latter will be interviewed by Welfare Department to determine if they should still get cash aid.

APPOINTMENTS — Gov. Preston Smith appointed Dr. Max C. Butler of Houston to State Board of Medical Examiners and reappointed Dr. Albert B. Spires Jr. of Taylor, Dr. L. G. Ballard of Granbury and Dr. Howard O. Smith of Marlin.

Smith also announced these recent appointments:

"James D. Abrams of El Paso to State Air Control Board.

"Joe B. Burnett of Dallas as 44th district judge.

"J. Chrys Dougherty of Austin and Dr. Robert R. Lankford of Houston to the Submerged Lands Advisory Committee.

"Dr. Theodore Andreychuk of Lubbock and Dr. Ernest Barratt of Galveston and reappointments of Dr. John I. Wheeler of Houston, Dr. Alvin John North of Dallas, Dr. George H. Kramer of Corpus Christi and Dr. Carl Finley Hereford of Austin to Texas Board of Examiners of Psychologists.

"Guy Cowser of Center, C.C. Rice of Hemphill and Eugene A. Meek of Newton to Sabine River Authority of Texas.

"Paul K. Herder of San Antonio to San Antonio River Authority.

"William D. Cox Jr. and Thomas J. Murphy of Dallas to John F. Kennedy Memorial Commission.

"Jesse Giler of El Paso (reappointed) to Rio Grande Compact Commission.

"Francis Flynn of Austin, Land Wall of Lubbock, Wilfred Millington of Nixon, Carroll Curry of Hillsboro, Virgil Maxwell of Houston and James Baker of Lufkin to Board of License Nursing Home Administrators.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS WARNED — At least 50 Texas school districts have been warned not to accept transfer students where the act would be interpreted as designed to impede desegregation or continue discrimination.

Dr. J. W. Edgar said districts were reminded of the April 20 Tyler federal court order forbidding transfers between districts where effect would be to interfere with integration or promote discriminatory treatment.

La Pryor, Uvalde and Carrizo Springs Independent School Districts were advised not to accept students from Crystal City (where Anglo parents apparently sought to move pupils out of Mexican-American dominated schools). Del Rio school district was warned not to accept 729 transferees from San Felipe ISD which serves Laughlin Air Force Base. San Antonio ISD was notified it may be in violation of court order if it takes 316 transfer students from Edgewood ISD.

Edgar said state aid for transferees would have to be withheld, and accreditation of receiving districts would be in danger.

SHORT SNORTS

Driver safety responsibility act still applies under some circumstances regardless of federal court decisions against license suspensions where no fault is shown, says Department of Public Safety.

Parks and Wildlife Department moved up game management officer training schedule four months (to August 29).

Tony Korioth will step down from Industrial Accident Board August 31.

Governor announced creation of a committee to assist in sel-

TAX MAN SAM SEZ: Unfortunately the drought has forced many livestock owners to sell a part or all of their herd.

The Internal Revenue Service provides a modified form of tax relief on the sale of livestock due to drought. You are not required to pay taxes on any profit that you make on the sale of your herd (provided your sales for the year are in excess of normal sales) if you reinvest within two years with the same type of herd.

An extension of this period beyond two years may be granted by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue Service in exceptional cases.

Publication 225, the Farmers Tax Guide, spells out all the requirements on drought sales of livestock on pages 36 through 40. Local county agents and Internal Revenue Service offices have free copies of the Farmers Tax Guide available for you. IRS advises farmers considering a drought sale to obtain a Farmers Tax Guide and carefully check the rules in advance.

Thomas presents UN trip report

The Hereford Odd Fellows hosted an open house Monday night at the IOOF lodge honoring David Thomas who represented the local chapter on a recent trip to the United Nations.

Thomas presented a program telling of his visits to Washington D. C., New York City, Philadelphia, and Nashville. He then gave the speech that won first place honors in his tour group at the U. N.

"What the United Nations Means to Me" was the speech that made Thomas one out of seven candidates eligible to attend the Sovereign Grand Lodge, the international convention of the Odd Fellows.

"People today tend to worry about the youth of today leading our country tomorrow. Well, if David is an example of today's youth, let them lead now," Bill Austin, master of ceremonies said after Thomas had presented his speech.

Thomas was presented a pin commemorating his trip, prior to the refreshments served at the end of the meeting. A special meeting was held before the open house activities where the members discussed the Initiatory Degree which will be conferred at 8:30 p. m. next Monday night at the IOOF lodge. Jerry Johnson, club president, urges all members to attend.

taken from the street corner shows flower beds at the curb and a glimpse of the driveway which is separated from them by a green plot of grass. Behind the driveway are rows of vegetables. Mrs. Carter, lower left, is harvesting squash from the big-leaved vines in foreground. At lower right, Carter inspects ears on the tall cornstalks and Mrs. Carter is near the laden tomato vines.

Let's cook something

Eye-catching garden supplies food, bloom

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor
GREEN THUMBS are not too plentiful, but Alma and Ellis Carter both seem to be blessed with them, judging by the appearance of yard and garden at their home, 201 Union, and the fact that they give each other credit for the lush growth.

"He's the gardener around here; I pick the vegetables and flowers," says Mrs. Carter but her husband grins and insists, "She does the work and I do the bossing."

Whichever is right, the result makes that corner lot a summer beauty spot, the backyard covered with a succession of truck crops and the green front lawn bordered with blooms.

CARTER ESPECIALLY likes the riot of color which petunias make, so those generously-flowering plants predominate, along with zinnias, verbenas, gladiolas, roses and geraniums in all shades of red, pink and lavender, accented with the yellow of marigolds, a sprinkle of heavenly blue morning glories and white daisies.

A dozen varieties of garden plants are in production now in the backyard, where Carter aims at a supply of fresh vegetables all season rather than a big crop at any one time.

So there is a row where corn was lately harvested, another where the roasting ears are ready to eat, still others to be ready next month and some where the corn is just coming up. Beans and peas are in various stages also.

THERE IS squash, both summer and winter varieties; okra, cucumbers, tomatoes, cantaloupes, and for later harvest, turnips, watermelons and peanuts. Growing beside the back door are a few stalks of dill for flavoring and for the pickles which Mrs. Carter makes.

She fills the freezer and cans vegetables from the garden during the summer while the Carters use all they want for their table and give away the fresh produce to relatives and neighbors.

Pickling is in progress now while cucumbers are in season. The pickles Mrs. Carter is currently making are not dills, but sweet pickles by the old-fashioned method which she thinks can't be equalled by any short-cuts. Time taken for these is worth it, she says. Here is her recipe:

14-DAY SWEET PICKLES
INTO A CLEAN stone jar put 2 gallons cucumbers, washed and sliced. (Since many modern housewives don't even know what is meant by a stone jar, Alma Carter adds that she finds a deep plastic or pottery container just as satisfactory). Dissolve 2 cups salt in 1 gallon boiling water and pour over the cucumbers while hot. Weight down to keep cucumbers under the liquid by setting a bowl or heavy saucer down in the jar. Cover and let stand 1 week.

On the eighth day drain; pour 1 gallon boiling water over cucumbers and let stand 24 hours. On the ninth day drain this off and pour in 1 gal. boiling water with 1 lb. powdered alum dissolved in it, and let stand another 24 hours.

Drain again and pour in this mixture: combine 5 pts. vinegar, 6 cups sugar, 1/2 oz. celery seed, 1 oz. stick cinnamon. Heat to boiling and pour over the cucumbers. More sugar may be used for a sweeter pickle, and a few drops of green food color will give a brighter tone.

Drain off the liquid each morning for three mornings, re-heat it and add 1 cup sugar, then pour back over cucumbers. With the final heating on the third morning, pack the cucumbers in jars, pour the hot liquid over them and seal while hot.

MR. AND MRS. Carter both grew up on farms and acquired a taste for dirt gardening while young. Carter says he has lived or worked on farms most of his life.

Mrs. Carter, who was a widow for a number of years before their marriage about three years ago, enjoys "getting back to growing things" after a long period of employment in stores and for a time operating her own baby-wear shop.

Besides their mutual liking for gardening, both enjoy the fishing trips which they take often in various directions from Hereford.

Another hobby for Mrs. Carter is painting. She does landscapes and still lifes, and lately has begun painting animals and human figures in western scenes. That has been an interest since she was 10 years old, but she has had few lessons.

"I'D LIKE TO study painting, but in the past there hasn't been time, and now I don't want to tie myself down for classes—hurry on a fishing trip!"

The Carters say it takes less water than might be expected for their garden, although it has been necessary to keep water running much of the time this dry summer.

Carter has been raising gardens and flowers on the same intensively cultivated plot about 15 years and has usually used commercial fertilizer, but experimented with feedlot fertilizer this summer and is pleased with the result. Insects are controlled by hand dusting.

Just enough work is required to make an interesting hobby the couple agrees, and it isn't too hard "because we don't let it get ahead of us." For instance, both are usually in the yard early in the morning and they get rid of the few weeds and pick whatever crop is ready each day, thus simplifying two of the gardener's most-dreaded summer chores.

Annual Westway reunion is held

Farthest travelers to the annual reunion of Westway residents and former residents Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wilson of Sturgis, S.D., and the Wilson family was also recognized for having the most members present.

A carry-in dinner at noon featured the reunion, held in Westway Community House. The group planned to meet again next year on the fourth Sunday in July.

Ulysses Pierce was reelected president and Mrs. Bill Simpson secretary. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Flora Bryant, now a resident of Westgate Unit of Kings Manor retirement home, and G.C. Hartman, of the Manor, as the oldest persons present.

Kirby Lynn Kaul, three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Kaul, was the youngest. Those present in the Wilson family, in addition to the South Dakota couple, were Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Wilson of Friona, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Frank of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Wilson and Helen Wilson McGonagill of Carlsbad, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hopson, Rodney and Grady Lee of Hereford.

The historian reported the birth of 13 babies to Westway residents and ex-residents the past year, 25 weddings, 25 high school graduations, 12 deaths, a golden wedding and two silver wedding anniversaries and the 74th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilson of Hereford.

There were 13 feature stories in the Hereford Brand during the year about Westway and its residents, she added.

Joe Landers gave the dinner invocation. In a short program afterward, John Harvey of Crosbyton, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McBrayer of Midland each spoke briefly.

From outside the community, those at the reunion included Jim Hartman of Albuquerque; Mrs. Nanette McMurray, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cunningham of Amarillo; Mrs. Orion Carter of Plainview, who was a teacher at Westway in 1926-27; Betsy Hawk and Jeremy of Wyche, Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hartman of Walcott, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Houser of Friona.
