Building Permits Reach $664,250

Church Addition, Residences Highlight February Construction

By DON RICHARDS
Brand News Editor

Construction in Hereford continued its steady climb upward on the charts as city building permits reached two-thirds of a million dollars for the first two months of the year.

A total of $257,150 in 20 permits was issued during the month of February to send the two-month total for 1974 to $664,250. The two-month total is the highest two-month total in the past four years.

The first two months total is more than $200,000 above the first two months last year which were $448,170. The same figure for 1973 was $621,950 and for 1971 it was $659,730.

HIGHLIGHTING construction during February were permits issued for an addition to a local church, new shop buildings and several quality residences. The church addition, taken out by the First Christian Church, was for $91,000 and was the high permit issued during the month. Two new planned residences added another $87,500 to the total. The total for January of this year, $407,100, was one of the highest totals ever for the first month of the year. That total, plus the $257,150 for February put the year well on the way to a possible record year. Highest year for building permits in Hereford's history came in 1965 when $5,313,010 in permits were issued. The total for 1970 was the only other $5 million year.

THE YEAR'S total for last year was more than $4 million and was the best year since 1970.

The $257,150 for February compares well with the $105,170 issued for the same month last year. However, the total was not as high as the February of 1972 which had $512,950, but this past month was well ahead of the $48,930 issued in February, 1971.

The local building boom also is expected to continue through March as more than $100,000 in permits have been issued within the past week and were not included in February's total.

THE BUILDING permits issued during the month of February, according to records of H.N. Benson, building inspector, are:

Construction Moving Fast

Construction on the new Deaf Smith County Library is moving along fast as workers have near completed the outside and have begun advanced work on the inside structure. The County plans a May completion date with a grand opening planned in June.

City Extinguishes Fire Coverage To Parmer

The Hereford City Commission Monday night stopped local fire department coverage of fires into Parmer County after the Parmer County Commissioners Court turned down a request from Hereford for a "hold-harmless" contract.

The local Commission had given two weeks notice to all four counties surrounding Deaf Smith County that fire coverage would be stopped unless the Hereford Fire Department was relieved of liability by the signing of a "hold-harmless" contract. Randall, Castro and Oldham Counties all agreed, but Parmer County mailed back a letter denying the request.

"I really can't understand why Parmer County would turn us down," said Dudley Bayne, Hereford city manager. "This causes them no additional liability or anything, it just relieves us of the liability when we enter their county to help them fight a fire."

IN THE letter from Parmer County which turned down Hereford request, Parmer County commissioners stated they did not wish to "subsidize" the Hereford Fire Department.

"They must not understand what we are asking for," said Mayor Jim Sears. "We are not at all concerned about the money. We just can not take the chance of a law suit in which we would be liable if we were to go down to fight a fire in Parmer County."

"If Parmer County decides to sign the contract and relieves us of responsibility, then we will be glad to restore fire coverage," Sears added.

The Hereford Fire Department has made several fire runs into Parmer County to help extinguish fires. The fire department has aided Parmer County in the past, mainly with fires at feedyards just inside Parmer County from Deaf Smith County.

"What it all amounts to is that we would like Parmer County to authorize us for making fire runs into their county," said Sears. "Without that official authorization, then it leaves us open for liability. We really hate to cut off fire coverage to that area just inside Parmer County, but we just don't have any other choice. All other counties agreed to it without much problem."

IN OTHER action at the regular commission meeting part of the city was rezoned and a bid was approved for street improvement work.

The Commissioners accepted a low bid of $106,617.97 from Milligan of Amarillo for major street improvements and a seal coating. The major street improvements will include the widening of the 100-block of Avenue A and the 100-300 blocks of Avenue B.

Bayne also told commissioners that the widening improvements to the intersection of U.S. 385 and Park Avenue will be done by the Texas Highway Department and will be started about June or July. Bayne also added that the removal of the center median on U.S. 60 between Big Daddy's Truck Stop and U.S. 385 would be started about June or July.

Other bids for the street improvements came from Jake Drel for $122,003.50 and from High Plains for $130,871.90.

BAYNE TOLD commissioners the city would be employing a person to run the animal control vehicle and then attempt to control the parking problem in time limit parking spaces in the city.

The city manager also said he would attempt to work out a schedule whereby the city dump grounds could be open Sunday afternoons for the convenience of city residents.

IN OTHER action Bayne passed out reports on the sewer lines in the city and also the pumping and storage capabilities of the water department. He said several area towns are experiencing problems because of lack of water storage facilities and that Hereford might have to improve the storage and pumping capacity here.

However, he emphasized that at present the city is in good shape for water unless there is a big demand this summer.

Only commissioners Dub Boyd and Frank Barrett were in attendance at the meeting along with Sears and Bayne. Commissioners absent were H.A. Cavness and Paul Abalos along with Earnest Langley, city attorney.

White Cane Drive

As you read this article, think about those eyes you're using... would you mind someone else seeing with them after your lifetime?

March is Eye Bank Month in the Panhandle, and Hereford Lions are joining other clubs in the area in promoting the Hi-Plains Eye Bank and signing up eye donors.

Joe Don Cummings, a director of the Hi-Plains Eye Bank and a member of the Evening Club, announced that the "White Cane Drive" will be conducted here Friday and Saturday. Tables will be located in the two banks Friday, and at Sugarland Mall on Saturday.

THE EYE bank is operated by Lions Clubs of the Panhandle as a free service, to collect and deliver the eye tissue that can give or restore sight to others. Donations to the White Cane Drive are used to pay one parttime employee and for printing and postage costs at the Eye Bank.

Cummings reported that Lions have secured 5,814 donor cards which are on file at the Eye Bank in Amarillo. He pointed out that 241 transplants have been made in the Panhandle since the program started, with 24 being accomplished the past year.

EYE DONATIONS are welcome anytime, but the clubs push the campaign each March, conducting their annual Donor Card Campaign. Dyal Garner is chairman of the campaign for the Hereford Lions Club, and Cummings leads the Evening Lions' drive. Dr. H.A. Cavness is also a director of the Hi-Plains board.

Cummings pointed out that you can will your eyes, just as you can will other worldly possessions. Eye tissue will easily last two lifetimes, and can be transplanted to help blind people see.

ANYONE—regardless of race, color, creed, eye condition, or quality of vision—can get or give eye tissue. No cross-matching of blood types or tissues is required with eyes. Only a malignancy in the eye itself usually will bar the use of the eye.

Lions Club members in the Panhandle have been the main donors to the Hi-Plains Eye Bank, but more donors are needed to take care of the waiting lists and research requirements. Lions have found that many persons are willing to donate their eyes, but have simply not been contacted.

ALL A person has to do is sign a donor card in the presence of two witnesses. Any Lion can provide you with a card. You will then receive a donor's identification card to carry in your billfold or purse, and a small red donor's tab to stick to the corner of your driver's license.

Upon a donor's death, the eye bank's directors will check back with the family before authorizing eye extraction. Although the donor card is a legal will, the family can rescind the authority after a person's death—although few families do so.

CUMMINGS explained that eye extraction does not disfigure the face. The socket is refilled by the surgeon with jello. The donated eye is usable for 36 to 72 hours for transplant purposes. The main use of the donated eye is for corneal transplants, but they are also used for eye fluid replacement, scleral tissue repair with the white part of the eyeball, and ocular research.

People in the Hi Plains Eye Bank's service area get first consideration on eyes donated in this area. The most recent report showed six persons waiting for transplants. When the donated eyes are not needed in this area, the eye bank notifies a nationwide "eyeball network". This is a network of "Ham" radio operators—set up in the 1950's by an Iowa optometrist.

If the donated eyes are not used within the 72-hour time limit, they go to the eye research hospital in Tennessee. But because of the "network" and the need for donated eyes across the nation, the research hospital gets very few eyes.

Huge Debts Listed In Cattle Deals

Financial details in what may become one of the area's largest bankruptcy cases were beginning to unfold this week, with Hereford area feed yards and individuals figuring prominently in the list of claims.

James Louie Heller, cattle dealer and commodity market investor, last week consented to being declared bankrupt, telling bankruptcy court Judge Frank R. Murray of Lubbock that he was unable to pay his debts.

ATTORNEYS handling his case have been given until Monday, according to an Amarillo news report, to file a complete list of assets, debts and a statement of the financial affairs of Heller's estate. A preliminary listing of debts has revealed more than $3 million owed to feed yards and individuals in the Panhandle and South Plains areas.

A local source said the list of debts included about 40 feed yards and individuals, with claims ranging from $19,000 to $350,000. It was reported that two individuals had claims of more than $300,000. Claims from the Hereford area, alone, may be around the $2 million mark.

THE BANKRUPTCY case could also lead to extensive litigation between some feed yards and their customers, it was indicated this week by some of the people involved in the claims. This revolves around the question of whether the feed yard or the customer takes the loss which could result from the case.

The situation apparently differs between feed yards, with some taking the position that the customer is liable for such losses. Some feed yards have already paid their customers, however.

The debts come at a time when cattle investors are already faced with losses on marketing the cattle. The impact of the case may not be known for some time.

Special Action Council Studies Initial Survey

The Special Action Council on Civic Facilities held its first study session Tuesday afternoon, with chairman Jim Conkright reporting on the results of a community survey.

If the committee is to pursue the idea on the basis of the questionnaires, they will be working toward an indoor recreational facility that would include a swimming pool, gym, handball courts, craft rooms, game rooms, and a stage with seating.

THE SURVEY also reveals that most citizens think such a project should be financed by municipal bond, and that the facility should be operated on a membership basis. Opinions were divided on whether to move full speed ahead and use existing facilities insofar as possible, or plan for a new building on a long-range scale.

A proposal to seek facilities for conventions and sports events was viewed as a long-range goal and as a project of questionable value. Conkright said the council would first look at the feasibility of using existing facilities.

THE COUNCIL read the results of 139 questionnaires returned on the proposal. Of this total, 132 agreed there was a need for an indoor recreational facility. Top vote-getters on the features to be included were a swimming pool, gym and handball courts.

Asking to rate the urgency they felt should be applied to such a project, 62 thought immediate work should begin, making use of existing facilities if possible. Another 52 felt high priority should be given for a new building, taking more time and money.

IN A THIRD category, 18 questionnaires felt there was no hurry—that a long-range plan was more suitable.

Conkright reported that 11 members of the council attended the session Tuesday. Another meeting is expected to be called within two weeks to discuss the possibilities of using any existing facilities in such a project.

Deadline Today

Deadline for filing for the Hereford School Board of Trustees Election has been set for 5 p.m. today in the school tax office.

The tax office is on Sampson Street across the street west of the Deaf Smith County courthouse.

Five candidates have filed their names for the two open positions in the race, but all filed early and no new candidates have announced in recent weeks. The five already announced are Lynton Allred, Jim Clark, Jim Conkright, Bill Johnson and Glenn Watts.

The election will be held April 6 in the Hereford Community Center. Deadline for filing for the Hereford City Commission passed Friday with no new candidates announcing for the race. Incumbents Dub Boyd and Frank Barrett both filed for re-election and Harvey Milton also has announced for Boyd's Place 3.

The city election is scheduled April 2.

Letters To The Editor

Suggests Push For All Economy

Dear Editor
In response to your headline story in last Sunday's Hereford Brand about the losses to cattle feeders over the last few weeks, I feel that it is time for a little understanding between some cattle feeders and some feedlot owners and managers and the farmers and ranchers of this area.

First let me say that I can sympathize with the cattle feeders that are losing money on the cattle that is coming out of the feedlots at present. But let's put the blame where the blame should be.

In the headline article some feedlot managers and some cattle brokers and feeders say that the price of feed is too high and needs to come down. I would like to show these people some figures on what it is costing at present for the farmers of this area to produce the milo, corn, silage etc. that we grow. Let them go down and price new farm equipment, fertilizer, seed, labor and all the other things that we have to buy just to start putting in a new crop, and just see if the price we get for our feed is too high.

In plain and simple fact it is not too high, the price of fat cattle is just too low.

LET'S GO back to the beef boycott and the price fixing that our President imposed a few months back, did it work? The beef boycott, led by a few simple-minded, do-gooder consumer interest advocates that can't run their own affairs much less other peoples. Then there is the lame-brained politicians that jump in and try to help things out for the consumer groups by putting a ceiling on beef as well as other products.

As of now these so-called political people planners have a batting average of exactly ZERO in helping anyone. In fact they only make matters worse.

NOW I realize that Hereford and the surrounding area needs the cattle feeding industry, it has been good for the economy of the whole area. But let's not forget the other segments of the economy as well and not fight one another.

I congratulate Don Richards on his article in the same edition of the Brand entitled "Cattle Cobweb" where he tried to inform the public of the situation, but instead of "It's time we all joined in and pushed cattle" as he stated in his last sentence, let's change that sentence to read "Let's all join in and push the whole area economy. Beef, Feed Grains, Cotton, Vegetables, Sugar Beets and all other related agribusinesses."

THE FARMERS and ranchers of this area struggled for many years with the same cost-price squeeze that the cattle feeders are experiencing now. We were trying to make ends meet, and I'm sorry to say some didn't quite make it, on $1.50 per cwt. Milo, 12c per lb. cotton, $1.50 per cwt. Potatoes, and the calves that the ranchers were raising and couldn't hardly give away, and I could go on and on, like $1.25 per bu. wheat.

Then along came 1973 and we finally made a little money for a change so we could pay off some old debts and buy a few new things we had been needing for years. I dare say there were more new tractors, combines, pickups, trucks and more new furniture for the house and in general more fixing the old place up than had been done in the last ten years, and more would have been spent if new machinery and materials had been available. Even the I.R.S. men should be smiling from ear to ear because I'm sure more taxes were also paid, even though it will probably be wasted by our government officials as usual.

JUST ASK the machinery dealers about how long their lists are getting for new machinery that the area farmers and ranchers want to purchase, and can't get. Ask the Banks about deposits on hand now as compared to a few years ago.

So let's not forget that we need each other and we all need a fair profit to stay in business. Respectfully yours, Roy Botkin, 100 Elm

Rotary Honors Chuck Cosper

Honored By Rotarians

The Chuck Cosper family was honored by the Hereford Rotary Club of the Month of March as the first in a series to recognize local law enforcement officers. Cosper is a Hereford game warden. Pictured with Cosper are his wife Sue and daughter Pam; with Vickie and Ken standing in front.

Chuck Cosper, Hereford game warden, was honored at noon Monday by the Hereford Rotary Club as the first in a series of projects to recognize local law enforcement officers. Cosper, who has been assigned to the Hereford area since 1968, is a native of Clarendon where he graduated from high school and attended Clarendon Junior College.

He was born in Paducah, but was raised and attended schools in Clarendon. He also attended West Texas State University before beginning work with the Parks and Wildlife Department in 1968.

He and his wife are members of the First Baptist Church and he currently is president of the Hereford Boys Baseball Program. He is past president (1971) of the Hereford Peace Officers Association; member of the United Peace Officers of America; Texas-South Plains and Eastern New Mexico Peace Officers Association and the Five States Peace Officers Association.

He also met his wife, Sue, in Clarendon, and the couple were married in 1957. The couple have three children, Pam, 15, Ken 10 and Vickie, 9. Mrs. Cosper presently is head teller at the First National Bank.

Cosper is part of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's enforcement division and is assigned to three counties, one of which is Deaf Smith. Cosper's wife, Sue, was honored as a guest of the club Monday along with Chuck, and was asked her views about being the wife of a law enforcement officer.

"Chuck's really busy some months of the year when hunting seasons are open and he is gone quite a lot," she said. "It's real bad around Christmas when most of the hunting is done. We usually go ahead and buy him a Christmas present just in case he can stop by the house to open it," she added jokingly.

"But he enjoys his work real well," she said. "And when he is happy then I really enjoy it and I'm happy with his job."

Mrs. Cosper said she isn't very familiar with the many phases of a game warden's job, but has learned a lot the past few years.

"Chuck makes me a chart of a lot of the hunting rules so I can answer questions when people call," she said. "But just about the time I begin to get familiar with the rules, they go and change them."

Rotarian Mike Patrick introduced Cosper to the club and said he will be an honorary Rotarian during the month of March. A different officer from local law enforcement agencies will be selected each month and be the guest of the club.

In other major action at the meeting Patrick announced a list of new officers and directors for the club from the nominating committee, and Mrs. JoAnn Dwyer, executive director of Big Brothers-Big Sisters spoke to the club.

Patrick said additional nominations will be taken from the floor at the next meeting and then the new officers will be selected. Nominated for president was Buddy Peeler, Johnnie Price for president-elect; Stanley Simmons for secretary and Lynn Jones for treasurer. Nominated for director positions were Buff Benson, Charles Wagner, Larry Dippel, Don Richards, Roger Ruland, Alex Schroeter and Marc Hoelscher, present president will automatically serve as a director.

Mrs. Dwyer, introduced by Rotarian Myron Morgan, said she felt Big Brothers-Big Sisters was a community service to provide adult guidance to many young kids in the city.

"Big Brothers-Big Sisters started in 1904," she said. "We are funded entirely through the United Way."

Mrs. Dwyer said each Big Brothers selected must be over 18 years old and must be "consistent."

"We need you to spend time weekly with the young kid you have been assigned to," she said. "Just get together and do things together to give this young boy or girl another adult friend whom they can talk to. The kids don't need a disciplinarian, they just need a good friend they can talk with."

"I am coming up with some interesting kids and it will take some pretty strong Big Brothers to help them," she said. "I would appreciate hearing about people — both for Big and Little Brothers — whom you feel digible. My office is in the Civic Club Center."

The idea of Big Brothers-Big Sisters is to provide adult guidance to either a young girl or boy who has only one or neither parent living with him. However, parents who are unable to spend what they feel is enough time with their children can also have their children eligible for Big Brothers-Big Sisters.

Time Nips At Convention Heels

AUSTIN, Tex. — Many delegates to the Constitutional Convention think it is now virtually impossible to wind up their revision job by April 7.

President Price Daniel Jr.'s 90-day timetable for the historic task went out the window when debate on the education article dragged over 11 half-day sessions.

Even Daniel conceded as the education article debate dragged toward a close that the convention is off schedule. He said he still feels, however, that there is a chance to make it for last time by speedily action on relatively non-controversial (if any) sections.

NIXON POLL NOTED — An informal poll on the question of impeachment of President Richard Nixon at the January Texas Press Association convention drew the attention of the White House.

According to Margaret Mayer, Dallas Times Herald Washington correspondent: "A call from the White House communications office recently directed the attention of the Times Herald Washington Bureau to a story that, in the opinion of the White House, merited more attention than it had received.

"Publishers of Texas daily and weekly newspapers attending a January meeting of TPA in Austin were asked how they would vote on impeachment of President Nixon if they were members of the House," Mayer added.

"Eighty-nine would have voted against impeachment, one, for," Mayer's story pointed out.

GASOLINE ALLOCATED — The Rio Grande Valley and the Midland-Odessa area, which reported severe gasoline shortages, have received additional supplies through the State Emergency Fuel Allocation Office.

SFAC ordered 200,000 more gallons sent to the Valley and 869,000 gallons to Midland-Odessa.

The total emergency allocation routed to the Valley now comes to about 925,000 gallons.

Shipments are made from the state's set-aside for emergencies and hardships. SFAC operates in conjunction with the Federal Energy Office to administer the federal fuel allocation program.

The state's set-aside amounts to three per cent of all fuel marketable in Texas on a month-to-month basis. SFAC determines where it is to be delivered based on need.

Other emergency allocations include 120,000 gallons to Laredo, 195,000 to Corpus Christi, 8,000 gallons to San Antonio, 90,000 to Longview and 60,000 to Dallas.

INSURANCE COMPANY "SUPERVISED" — The state's second largest insurance company has been placed under supervision by the state insurance commissioner pending an April 29 hearing.

Commissioner Don Odum said it appeared Republic National Life Insurance Company of Dallas had exceeded its powers and "failed to comply with the law in regard to the acquisition of certain investments."

Republic National has been in business since 1928 and has more than $10 billion in policies in force. Odum said there is no change in the company's obligation to pay claims.

AG OPINIONS — Meetings of governing boards of special districts (including hospital districts) and their committees must comply with the open meetings law, John Hill held.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded: Constitutional Convention delegates under common law have legislative immunities from arrest and freedom from being held accountable for remarks during debate.

Filing a complete list of a lobbying group's membership does not satisfy the legal requirement that a lobby registrant identify all those contributing $500 or more to his work.

A written recommendation by a regional supervisor of the Texas Air Control Board to a permit engineer regarding a construction permit is a public record.

Veterans returning to positions with school districts have re-employment rights.

Venue in Texas Water Safety Act prosecutions rests exclusively in appropriate justice or county courts and in some cases municipal courts have concurrent subject matter jurisdiction.

Files of a licensing agency containing routine information concerning status of a licensee, including whether or not his license is current, are disclosable under the open records act.

COURTS SPEAK — A 1973 act permitting cities to issue revenue bonds to promote new industries has been, in effect, held unconstitutional by the Texas Supreme Court in a McAllen case.

High Court held Tyler's Peoples National Bank and its officers not at fault in jailing of a man who guarded his property from foreclosure sale with a shotgun.

Representation of a Dallas detective that a confession by a murder trial defendant might benefit the man on trial resulted in reversal by the Court of Criminal Appeals of a death penalty.

A Jefferson County boy with low intelligence won a new trial on robbery charges after appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

APPOINTMENTS — Ken Clapp, formerly of Killen and Uvalde, resigned his job as special assistant to the governor to serve as Governor Dolph Briscoe's campaign manager.

Mike Willatt of Houston will head Attorney General Hill's environmental protection division, succeeding Robert Davis.

Agriculture Commissioner John C. White will serve as chairman of the Democratic party's Affirmative Action Committee to stimulate voter participation.

George Baker of Fort Stockton is acting director of Legislative Property Tax Committee. William B. Blakemore of Midland is new chairman of the Texas Public Safety Commission and Capt. Bill Wilson of Austin will succeed Capt. Clint Peoples as senior captain of the Texas Rangers.

Dr. Nym L. Barker of Paris, Dr. Robert D. Moreton of Houston and Royce E. Wisebaker of Tyler were reappointed to the State Board of Health.

John L. McCraw Jr. of McKinney was named to the Civil Judicial Council. James D. Dannenbaum and Johnnie Glenn Jennings of Baytown were reappointed to the Coastal Industrial Water Authority.

Rep. Leroy Wieting of Portland was reappointed to the Gulf State Marine Fisheries Commission.

Sparked by the addition of basketballers James Harris and Dave Charest, the Hereford Whiteface track team took runner-up honors in the Top O'Texas Track Meet at Pampa Saturday, scoring 113 points to winning Borger's 121.

Harris captured two blue ribbons, while Chuck High and David Varner also had firsts for the Herd. Harris established a meet record in the long jump with a leap of 21 feet, 11 inches, and High cracked the meet record in the 120-yard high hurdles with a 14.4 second clocking.

HARRIS notched 32 points to capture individual honors, adding a first in the high jump, a third place in the high hurdles and running on both relay teams. Hereford scored only 32 team points in its first meet last week.

High tallied 24 points by winning the high hurdles, placing second in the 330 hurdles, fourth in the high jump, and running on the 440-relay team. Charest, in his first appearance, accounted for 14 points with a third-place in the 220, fifth in the long jump, and running on both relay teams.

The Whiteface mile relay team picked up a second place with a 3:34.7 time—almost 15 seconds better than the first effort last week. Steve Jones, Kent Hollingsworth, Charest and Harris made up the foursome, with Harris anchoring the team with a 51.6 quarter.

THE SPRINT relay team finished fourth with Barry Allen, Charest, High and Harris making up the 440-yard distance team.

Varner's winning effort in the shot put was 53 feet, 6 inches. Jones also netted 10 points for Hereford with a third in the 440 and a leg on the mile relay team.

OTHER third-places went to Franklin Higgins in the 880 and Marvin Harris in the shot. Jay Williams and Hollingsworth were fifth and sixth in the 440; Eljio Garcia was sixth in the half mile, and Bobby Fields was sixth in the mile.

Following Borger (121) and Hereford (113) in the team standings were Amarillo Tascosa (108), Pampa (79), Plainview (50), Perryton (29) and Dumas (5).

The Whiteface track team travels to Andrews this Saturday to participate in the tough Mustang Relays. The annual C of C Invitational is slated for Hereford on March 16.

HEREFORD'S junior varsity also placed well in the JV Division of the Pampa meet, tying for third with Plainview with 83 points. Tascosa was first with 98, and Borger was second with 91.

Gary Schumacher took the only individual first for Hereford, winning the 330 hurdles. The mile relay team took a blue ribbon with Ronny Ohlig, Kirk Spain, Mario Gamez and Fernando Garcia clocking a 3:49.1. Schumacher was also second in the high hurdles.

GILBERT Mendoza won second in the 220, and Mario Gamez took second in the 880. Mendoza also finished third in the 100-yard dash. John Mays was fourth in the 880, and the sprint relay team of Mendoza, Spain, Mike Turner and Ohlig was fourth.

The versatile Ohlig was also fifth in the high hurdles and sixth in the long jump. Turner-Attendance Awards went to sixth in the 100, and Bill Ramon Gamboa and Ernest Tjerina; Den 2.

Faces Pull Rare 'Triple Play'

Herd Nine Drills Palo Duro 6-2

The Hereford Whitefaces pulled off one of baseball's rare triple plays Tuesday and upped their season record 2-2 with a 6-2 win over Amarillo Palo Duro.

Herd bats sounded off throughout the game as the home team pounded out 10 hits in the non-conference game.

Dave Loerwald went the stretch for the Herd and was credited with the win as he allowed only five hits and also hit two doubles. Loerwald also started a play in the top of the fourth inning which resulted in a triple out play.

The pitcher had stayed out of serious trouble early in the game but allowed two men on with no outs. A Palo Duro player then laid a bunt down the third base line. Loerwald scooped it up but the connection to third baseman Mike Crim was bobbled and the bases were loaded with none out.

It was then that the infield pulled off the triple, rarely seen in high school baseball. The next Palo Duro batter bounced a hit back to Dave Loerwald who fired the ball to catcher David Artho to force out the runner coming from third base. Artho then rifled the ball to Steve Loerwald at first base to force out the batter for the double play.

The Palo Duro runner who had been on first base, retreated on the play and had gone back to first base. In the confusion, Steve Loerwald tagged him with the ball only seconds after forcing out the batter.

The Herd players at first didn't appear to realize just what they had done because reflex had acted fast for them. It was deadly quiet for a few seconds until the infield umpire signaled that three outs had been made and the fans and Hereford players alike let out cheers of delight.

The Herd rally started in the third inning when the score had been deadlocked 0-0. Steve Loerwald got on and Dave Loerwald singled. Then Mike Crim and Albert Gonzales scored to bring in Loerwald and leave the bases loaded.

Vance Hennington then slammed a single to right field and a Palo Duro player let the ball get through his legs. As the Amarillo player chased down the loose ball, all three base runners scored and Hennington stopped at third. Hennington then later scored when a pitch got by the Palo Duro catcher.

Palo Duro scattered their five hits and had four costly errors. Their two runs came separately in the sixth and seventh innings. IN GAMES played here Saturday, the Herd made a tremendous late-game rally to top the Amarillo Tascosa Rebels 9-8 in the first game of a double header.

Down 8-1, the Whitefaces rallied for eight runs in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings for the dramatic win.

However, playing against a stiff wind, Tascosa ran past the Herd 17-11 in a five-inning second game.

IN THE opening game Steve Loerwald opened at the mound for the Herd, but was relieved by Harvey Torres in the third inning. Torres was credited with the win.

Mike Crim led off the 2nd inning with a walk and moved to second when Doug Charest grounded out to first base.

Albert Gonzales then slammed out a double to bring in Crim for Hereford's only score in the first three innings.

IN THE two-run fourth inning, Crim again started off with a walk and advanced to 2nd on a passed ball. Doug Charest this time cracked out a triple to bring in Crim and Albert Gonzales followed with a sacrifice fly to centerfield to bring in Charest.

The Herd inched up on Tascosa a little more in the fifth inning with two more runs. Harvey Torres reached first on an error by the Tascosa second baseman and then moved to second base on a passed ball.

Steve Loerwald then reached first on an error by the Rebel first baseman and Dave Loerwald slammed out a single to left field to score Torres. Crim then sacrificed a fly to right to bring in Steve Loerwald.

IN THE big four-run sixth inning which put the Herd on top, Pete Hale got on base when he was hit by a pitch. He then moved to second on a passed ball and was followed when Vance Hennington walked.

David Artho and Torres then both singled to bring in Hale and Hennington and then moved to third and second base respectively on a passed ball.

Steve Loerwald then singled to bring in the tying run and David Loerwald singled in Torres with the winning score.

"I WAS really well pleased with the team during the first game," said Aaron Bourland, coach. "They were down 8-1 and came back strong to win. However, we couldn't do anything in the second game. Tascosa scored 10 runs in the first inning and never hit the ball out of the infield."

Crim was starting pitcher for the Herd in the second game, but was relieved in the initial inning by Albert Gonzales. However, Crim was credited with the loss.

Hereford scored its only run in the bottom of the first inning when Torres reached first on an error by the Rebel third baseman. He moved to second on a passed ball and then scored when Steve Loerwald cracked out a single through the middle of the infield.

THE TEAM travels to Borger Friday for a single 4 p.m. game. However, Hereford will play in a four-team tournament Saturday in Pampa. Pampa and Dumas play at 2 p.m. followed by the Hereford-Canyon game at 4 p.m.

The losers of the two games then play at 6 p.m. with the winners of the first two games playing in the final at 8 p.m. The junior varsity baseball team will host the Canyon JV in a game at 4 p.m. today.

OSHA Spurs Seminar

Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce will sponsor an Occupational Safety and Health Act Seminar 9 a.m.-4 p.m. Friday at Community Center.

Many business operators are in serious violation of the OSH Act without even realizing it. Under this act, passed in 1970, employers must assure safe and healthful working conditions for their employees. Violations of the law may result in fines up to $10,000 or imprisonment up to six months. Inspections are being made and the law being enforced by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration of the U.S. Dept. of Labor.

Friday's forum is designed to provide information on (1) the scope and general requirements of the law; (2) specific standards which apply to their operations; (3) proper records-keeping and how to comply with the Act; and (4) employee's and employer's rights and responsibilities.

Attendees will receive a copy of the Williams-Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 which includes major data concerning OSHA.

The one day seminar will include 12 subjects: introduction, OSHA, implementation of the Act, inspection, standards, citations, penalties, state programs, special programs, record-keeping, rights and responsibilities and voluntary compliance.

Enrollment will be on a first-come, first-served basis. The course will be taught by a staff which is familiar with both the letter and the spirit of OSHA. The public is urged to attend.

Drive Continuing

Pickup of waste paper in a drive sponsored by the Teens Against Dystrophy will continue through March 30, Bridget Mazurek of the TAD group announces, requesting that local residents give all types of paper and cardboard except slick magazines.

Sale of the collected paper will add to a fund for the national MD Association.

Telephone calls for paper pickup may be made to the Sam Mazurek, W.A. Harris or Grady Swindell residences until the end of this month. After that time, paper will still be collected at 109 Aspen.

Mary Shipp Vies For Cowgirl Of Year

Mary Shipp is presently in the lead for the title of 1974 All Around Cowgirl. In second place for this title is Tammy Cleveland from Dumas and in third place, Barbara Halford from Quanah.

The girls were selected according to the number of points which they have received since the first rodeo of the season in June 1973. These points are given to each rider for the best time and performance. The points are given as follows: first place—6 points; second place—

5 points; third place—4 points; fourth place—3 points; fifth place—2 points; and sixth place—1 point.

A time keeper records each rider's time and from this record the name of the person with the best time is announced for each event of a rodeo.

Miss Shipp attributes her winning points to the time she has spent in training and keeping her horse in shape, as well as the time she herself, has spent in practicing.

Other girls competing for this title are of high school age, grades 9-12 and from the Panhandle area and cities in Eastern New Mexico.

The All Around Cowgirl of 1974 will be named at the last rodeo of the season to be held in May. A formal announcement of the All Around Cowgirl and Cowboy of the year, as well as the people placing first, second and third in finals, will be made at a banquet to be held in Amarillo June 6 and 7.

Mary Shipp competed in the Amarillo Rodeo March 1-3 in which she entered in barrel racing, pole racing, goat tying and steer riding. In barrel racing, a clover-leaf pattern must be formed around the barrels. Pole racing is an event in which a weaved pattern must be made around the poles. In the goat tying event, three of its legs must be tied. A steer is ridden in the last event with only a bull rope to hold on to.

She has also helped win six trophies for the HHS girls team along with Pam Kerr and Rene Poarch.

When asked about future plans Miss Shipp told of her plans to enter rodeo events next year and to prepare for Clarendon Junior College where she hopes to attend. She feels that it is not only a good college but one that has a good rodeo team as well, one in which she would like to be a member.

The students placing in the finals will receive sterling silver belt buckles and the one placing first will receive a saddle in addition to the belt buckle. The All Around Cowgirl and Cowboy will each receive a high-quality saddle.

Band Students Compete

The annual band solo and ensemble contest will be conducted Saturday at the Fine Arts building on the campus of West Texas State University in Canyon.

The solos at the contest must be memorized and the solo must have an accompanist. The ensembles can be duos - sextets. Those entered in solos are Rene King, Jane Ellis, Beverly Willis and Debra Cornelius on flute; Helen Lesly on clarinet; Teresa Rhonon, Randy Golden and Kenneth Lang on tenor saxophone; Donnie Fortenberry, Randy Hoelscher and Marshall Breeding on trumpet; Lajuana Matchett on French horn and Tommy Varner on bass horn.

There is a total of 12 different ensemble groups in the competition including the large brass and woodwind choirs.

Prepares For Contest

Directing the large woodwind section, Randy Vaughn, HHS band director, rehearses the group in preparation for this year's solo and ensemble contest Saturday.

Ulibarri Goes To State Competition

Members of the Hereford High School Orchestra participated in the UIL solo and ensemble contest in Amarillo, Saturday, Feb. 23.

Eight students from HHS walked away with a superior or excellent rating. These students were Hilda Garcia, playing the viola, Brenda King, the viola, Sandra Kreuger, the violin, Martha Nash, the violin, Diana McCarley, the violin, Dwayne Waters, the cello, and Delfine Ulibarri, the violin. Delfine Ulibarri will be attending the state meet in Austin during June. She played a solo from the composer Hadyn and the title of her music piece was "Hadyn".

In the contest, judging for the violin and cello solos were Ben Smith and Virginia Kellog. Each player had to memorize his piece of music. If a rating 1 was given by both judges, the students are eligible for state.

Delfine Ulibarri, a student from Hereford High School orchestra, goes to state competition as a result of her rendition of "Hadyn" on the violin.

Editorial

By ROB LOMAS

Several years ago candy and coke machines were installed throughout the lower floors of Hereford High. The students began to use these machines every day. However during this year the administration allowed a little more leniency toward the candy scene. Gum chewing was allowed in the classrooms if the teacher permitted and also in the halls; candy was permitted between classes.

This did prove that there were some students not mature enough for responsibilities such as throwing trash in waste paper baskets and not chewing gum and candy where it wasn't permitted. A great number of empty candy sacks began polluting the classroom floors and halls, and even the parking lots.

Many students respect the privilege of being allowed to "crunch on munchies" and do their best not to violate its laws. Mr. George and Mr. Barkowsky both have tried to explain the consequences the students will suffer if candy wrappers keep appearing where they're not supposed to be.

Remember: you have the key to the problem at the end of your hand. "Point it out."

A note from the administration: The administration would like students to discipline themselves - privileges are removed when regulations are broken.

VICA Holds Meeting Baseball Opens On Wrong Foot

A short meeting of the HHS cosmetology students in VICA was held Feb. 25 in the home of Mrs. Charles Cabbiness.

The monthly meeting was held in order to discuss old business as well as possible projects to help other people in the community. The project discussed at this meeting was that of going to King's Manor to domiciles on residents in the home. Approval from the Manor is necessary before further arrangements can be made.

Other subjects under discussion were other ways to make money. The money raised will be used to pay the expenses for going to the state meeting, May 3-5.

The state meeting is a contest where notebooks will be entered. Delegates from Area 6, West Texas and the Panhandle area, will be elected to office. After the meeting a buffet salad supper began. Members who attended the meeting and supper were: Karen McPherson, Lane Rowan, Mary Shipp, Sue Smith, Kathy Scott, Ruth Fowler, Donna Woodle, Paula Reyna and Carmen Alejandre. Pam Lee was a guest.

The Hereford Whiteface baseball team came out on the wrong end Friday, losing their first game of the year. The outcome of the contest was 6-4 with Caprock winning. Tascosa High School from Amarillo came to the Hereford High School baseball field for a double-header on a windy Saturday afternoon.

The Herd won the first game which was very close - 9-8, and the second game was won by Tascosa 17-1.

Coach Aaron Bourland added that, "The teams they played were very good."

Caprock is picked to win District 3-AAAA and Tascosa is picked to finish 2nd.

The sluggers' weekly schedule includes: HHS vs. Palo Duro, March 5, here; HHS vs. Borger March 8, there; HHS vs. Canyon, March 9, Pampa tournament.

Sports aren't everything but they provide good competitive training for boys and girls.

Leads Area Girls

Hereford's Mary Shipp is competing for the title of All Around Cowgirl of the Year, an honor chosen from point grading of rodeo events.

Spanish Cookbook To Be Sold At HHS

Mrs. Bonnie Masten's Spanish II classes and Mel Witte's printing classes are presently working on a Spanish cookbook which will be sold at the end of April.

The cookbook will be in bilingual form and will be divided into different sections: meats, desserts, breads, and casseroles.

The classes started their work on the cookbook approximately a month ago. The recipes which go into the book will come from other recipe books and also from students who obtain their recipes from home.

Those which were in English had to be translated to Spanish.

The recipes will be relatively simple to prepare.

The cookbook will have a soft cover with a plastic binding. Each will be sold for about $1.

Work on the cookbook is done during the students' class period. When the book is completed the students will sell them on an individual basis to raise funds where the money will go to the Printing Club Treasury.

Science Search

Finds Miss Strange

Every year the Westinghouse Science Talent Search selects 300 seniors throughout the country for scholarships and awards on the basis of physical sciences, engineering, mathematics, biological sciences, or behavioral sciences.

This year among one of the 300 seniors chosen was Denise Strange, a student of Hereford High School. Denise was first contacted by mail on her project on inhibition of seed germination by plant extract.

The Science Talent Search is administered by Science Service, and is sponsored by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation, an organization endowed by the Westinghouse Electric Corporation for the purpose of promoting education and science.

Eligibility requires any boy or girl who is in the last year of secondary school in the United States, (excluding U.S. possessions), who is expected by the certifying school official to complete college entrance qualifications before Oct. 1, 1974 and who has not competed in any previous Science Talent Search, is eligible to enter this competition.

Out of those 300 students 40 winners will then be chosen to attend the five-day, all-expenses-paid visit to the Nation's Capital. While there, ten will be selected to receive four-year Westinghouse Science Scholarships consisting of one $10,000, two $8,000, three $6,000, and four $4,000, and each of the remaining 30 winners will receive $250 Westinghouse Science Awards.

The students could compete only when teachers or other school officials should request materials for the outstanding science students of the school.

The time and conditions of payment of scholarships shall be determined by the Scholarship Committee. In the event that the holder withdraws from collegiate work, or if continued use of the scholarship is disapproved by the Scholarship Committee upon report from the college. The right of the scholarship holder to receive any further payment shall be forthwith terminated.

The decision of the Scholarship Committee is final.

Some of the activities Denise is involved in at Hereford High School are band, learn and live, twirling and forensics.

Denise plans to attend North Texas State University and major in Biology.

HHS Orchestra To Compete In Interscholastic League Contest

The Hereford High School orchestra, along with the two junior high bands, will compete today at the University Interscholastic League Orchestra Concert and Sightreading Contest in the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum.

Playing at 3 p.m., the high school will be playing "Casi Fon Tuttle" an overture by Mozart, "Festique" by Damiak and "Sonata da Camera" by Corelli. Both the concert and sight reading contest have similar judging as the Band Contest.

In the sight reading contest the director has a limited amount of time to explain the tune to the students of the orchestra.

After the time is over, the director cannot talk. He must signal the orchestra to commence playing and at no time can the piece be interrupted.

Three judges will rule on these priorities: style, rhythm and tone.

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

BY THE time a certain stage in any project is reached, confusion reigns and everybody wonders if anything is going to work out.

Each member knew what she was doing, according to reports at the Miss Hereford steering committee meeting Tuesday morning, but the time had come to fit the various subcommittee pieces together and a good deal of figuring was required. Especially when school activities of each entrant had to be considered, and there is certainly activity in school this time of year.

Janette Caviness and Susie McGee, who as co-directors are responsible for pulling it all together, were jotting down suggestions and schedules and questions and whatnot, both listening to several people at the same time.

Listing the names of boys who helped with stage setting last year, Janette inquired, "What's Frank's last name?"

Susie looked up brightly from her own list of something else, and responded, "Frank who?"

NAMES can get mixed in a lot of ways. So Lavon Nieman had a telephone call a while back, when committees were being made up in the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division of which she is the new president.

The caller identified herself and said, "I just want to tell you I'll take that committee job you asked me to."

With a large assortment of committee jobs on her mind, Lavon stuttered a bit and finally had to confess she wasn't sure which had been offered to the caller. It took a few questions and answers before the matter was solved. Wanda Newman had asked the caller to serve on her fine arts committee.

Now Mrs. Nieman and Mrs. Newman are being especially careful to identify themselves in phone calls.

BUT IN the Music Study Club there are two members with the same last name, sisters-in-law in fact, both fairly new members, both quite active in the club and both bothered by name mix-ups.

Mrs. Mack Canlier is Ruth Ann, the blonde, and Mrs. Allen Canlier is Jo Ella, brunette.

Not only do they get called by the wrong husband's name, they say, but sometimes have to adjust to being called Ruth Ella and Jo Ann.

Hubbles Celebrate

25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Hubble of 425 Ave. J celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with friends and relatives Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Hubble's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williamson.

Cake, punch, coffee and mints were served from the refreshment table centered with white and pale yellow carnations and mums. As an anniversary gift, their daughters, Renette and Alicia of Dallas, who were unable to attend, sent silver numerals which topped the cake.

Mrs. Hubble wore a long yellow gown of polyester crepe trimmed with rhinestones. She was presented a corsage of pale yellow and white carnations by the hostesses.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Asher of Plainview. Hostesses included Mmes. Roy Rogers, Gerald Townsend, Ken Rogers, Williamson and Jolene Williamson.

Also, during the meeting, Mrs. Davison opened a floating prize which was a cream and pitcher set and received a white elephant gift of earrings.

Net weight loss for the club this week was 12½ pounds.

Mills Are In Club Program

A tour of Arrowhead Mills was made Tuesday morning by members and guests of Young Homemakers Extension Club, who saw the processing and packaging of numerous foods grown in this area and marketed over the United States.

They were given information about the use of natural foods in family diet, and about special food values found in products of soil in the Hereford area.

Mrs. Donnell Kruger was welcomed as a new member, Mrs. Bill Carathers and Mrs. Earl Daugherty as guests.

Garage Sale Will Begin

4-H Club Fund For Trip

A projected trip to Washington, D.C. in June is the goal of money-raising plans in a 4-H Citizenship project group, starting with a garage sale today, Friday and Saturday at 708 Ave. F. The Public is invited to patronize the sale from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day.

Eight senior members have made application for the Texas and National Citizenship Shortcourse and Heritage Tour which will leave Dallas June 25 by chartered bus. Approximately 70 4-H members and five adults from over the state will be selected in April.

Deaf Smith County members participating are Terry Barrier, group chairman; Ricky Coleman, Sam Finley, Britt Hicks, Tom McCabe, Kandy Newman and Sandra Stallings. Diane Ward and Mrs. Jim Ward are co-chairmen of the garage sale.

This sale and other projects will raise money to pay part of the expenses of local delegates selected to attend.

The tour group will stay at the National 4-H Center in the nation's capital. Each delegate will take part in tours of Washington, meet congressmen, discuss citizenship topics through assemblies and will share and receive ideas for delegates from other states.

The 4-H Shortcourse program is designed to supplement citizenship education and leadership training young people receive through home, school, church and clubs.

Fashion

Make-up for this season is not the pale washed-out look or that with artificial looking eyes. The make-up, which is popular today, is a subtle blush including moisturizer. Eye shadow is used but with restraint.

The favorite hemline is one just below the knee.

Jewish Girl Escapes Prison

Adventure and often terror seem to lurk behind everyone's face to Sylva. She and her family are taken by the Russians out of their home and placed in Siberia. Miraculously she escapes to a better life only to find she is once again on the train to Siberia.

This book entitled A Sparrow in the Snow by Sylva Darel is being featured at the Deaf Smith County Library this week. The library is open to the public free of charge on weekdays from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Saturdays until noon.

A SPARROW IN THE SNOW
By Sylva Darel

A Sparrow in the Snow will be received by readers as a Russian Diary of Anne Frank without the tragic ending.

Along with her mother, father and sister, eight-year-old Sylva was taken by the Russians out of her home in Riga and packed with other families into boxcars headed for Siberian exile. Her father's sin? He was bourgeois.

But Siberia seen through the eyes of an eight-year-old girl wasn't all that bad. There were no governesses to tell her not to get dirty, no irregular verbs to memorize, no piano lessons. She seldom had to take a bath. She got to pick wild berries and mushrooms in the summer. The only trouble was, she was often hungry.

Her father was taken away from the family, the mother and daughters left to fend for themselves. From their days in Riga, they still had lace nightgowns to trade for food.

Finally, at 14, Sylva manages a daring escape. She makes it all the way to Moscow, then Leningrad, walking a tightrope between freedom and despair. Unable to attend the university of her choice because she is Jewish, she enrolls in a technical institute and makes her home in a student hostel.

If she ever admits to anyone, even her closest friends, that she is an exile whose father is in prison, the consequences would be intolerable. Even Oleg, who comes to love her, does not know her terrible secret.

For years Sylva lives with the nightmare of being discovered until it is no longer a dream: the authorities catch her and she is once more aboard a boxcar headed for Siberia.

A Sparrow in the Snow is a child's eye view of life in the Stalinist era, seen by a talented girl who did not realize that life could be otherwise. As Sylva becomes older, politically aware, we witness the development of the extraordinary woman who could write this book.

WEDS THIS WEEK — Patricia Ann Foreman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.J. Foreman, 416 Ave. G, and James Arlyn Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Green of Guthrie, are to be married in a simple ceremony Friday afternoon in the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Clarence Powell, Baptist pastor, will officiate. The couple will be at home in Guthrie where the bride, a senior now in Hereford High School, plans to graduate from Guthrie High. The bridegroom, a 1973 graduate there, has just completed a course in welding at the technical institute at Amarillo.

Pop Music Scheduled For Club, Guests

Contemporary music by southwestern composers will make up an unusual program for guest day in the Music Study Club Monday afternoon, when a rock trio, The Windmill, will be presented in the Community Center at 2 p.m.

The public is invited for the concert and a reception afterward. Young rock fans are especially invited, as are husbands of members. Dawn Music Club members and their husbands have been sent special invitations also. Observing Texas Composers

Day, the program is planned as a salute to pop composers of this and neighboring states. Works of Mack Davis, Chris Christofferson, Jimmy Webb, John Denver and David Gates will be featured, as well as original compositions by the trio of performers, Greg Jackson, David Quisenberry and Randy Brown.

Mrs. Allen Canlier will act as program chairman. On the hostess committee for the afternoon are Mmes. J.C. McCracken, W.T. Carmichael, Dale Young, D.W. Palmer and Ellis Coombes.

Joe Cummings Gives Program To YHT

A film and program concerning the Hi-Plains Eye Bank was presented by Joe Don Cummings, Hereford Lions Club member, to the Young Homemakers of Texas Chapter Tuesday evening in SWPS Reddy Room.

Members had a question and answer period before the business meeting regarding eye donations.

A hoedown was scheduled for 7:30 p.m. March 23 in the Community Center with husbands as guests. It was also announced that the chapter has collected 47 mattress covers to be given to Girlstown at Whiteface.

The Little Sister tea was scheduled April 3 in which time members will choose the little sister for the coming year.

Mrs. Jackie Stallings was appointed as treasurer to replace Mrs. Connie Urbanczyk who is moving.

Mrs. David Hill gave the devotional at the close of the meeting to members present. They included Mmes. Larry Alley, Jim Culpepper, Alan Dunning, Joe Don Edelman, Ralph Hill and Bud Kelly.

Also Mmes. Lewis Montano, Gerald Nunley, Ronald Rayburn, Jerry Russell, Urbanczyk, Charles Weatherford and Tommy Betzen.

ON VETERANS DAY

Representative William Bryan Dorn (D-SC) chairman of the House Veterans Affairs Committee has introduced a bill to restore Veterans Day to Nov. 11.

Women's Division Fills Calendar For Two Months

Multiple spring activities of the Women's Division, Deaf Smith County Chamber of Commerce, were previewed in a series of committee meetings Tuesday and Wednesday, including the March board luncheon.

The Miss Hereford Pageant March 23 will be followed by the annual Fine Arts Festival March 30 and 31, the spring membership meeting April 2 and a city-wide cleanup week beginning April 20.

New members are being enrolled in connection with a Chamber of Commerce membership campaign, with 33 added since the first of this year. The total now has reached 153, highest in the division's history. Mrs. Joe Henry reported for the membership committee.

Entry deadline for the Miss Hereford pageant was Wednesday and the official list of entrants seeking Miss Hereford and Miss Teenage Hereford titles for 1974 will be announced by Mrs. J.W. Robinson, chairman.

A mockup of the stage setting was shown by Mrs. Calvin Goodin, decorations chairman, when the pageant steering committee met Tuesday morning in the Chamber assembly room. Gold trees and fringe against a white and blue backdrop will form a setting to present the pageant theme, This Is It!

Time of the pageant will be 7:30 p.m. in Hereford High School auditorium. The committee decided to hold the informal Coke party at which entrants will meet the judges, at 5 p.m. March 22.

Appearance of entrants in bathing suits will follow at 7 p.m., preceding dress rehearsal for the formal dress and talent competition the next evening.

Mrs. Joel Newman, fine arts chairman, announced developing plans for the arts festival at the board lunch in Hereford Country Club. Mrs. W.T. Carmichael will be music chairman. Bill Devers will direct a school choir and Whiteface Band members will play solos and ensemble programs.

Lou Clark of El Paso will give an art demonstration during the festival and also on the program of the spring membership meeting. Hereford Community Players will present a dramatic skit.

The yearly spring cleanup is being planned by the beautification committee headed by Mrs. W.C. Russell, in cooperation with a C of C committee. A litter parade led by the high school band is planned for April 20, and an Arbor Day tree planting program to climax the week on April 26.

Mrs. W.E. Sparks, public affairs chairman, said plans are complete for serving lunch to out-of-town coaches and officials here for a track meet March 16 sponsored by the Chamber's sports committee.

Tips Honored With Anniversary Dinner

A dinner party was given for Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Tipps of 505 S. 25 Mile Ave. to help celebrate their 25th anniversary Sunday evening in the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Coleman of 603 Ave. J.

Mrs. Tipps was Martha Hamilton before her marriage Feb. 21, 1949; the couple married in Pasadena.

The dinner table was covered with a white cloth trimmed in silver bells. Candles with white bells were used as the centerpiece.

Out-of-town guests included

Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Hamilton of Lubbock. Hostesses were the couple's daughters, Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Terry Albracht.

FUEL & POOR

President Nixon has ordered administration aides to investigate reports that oil company policies were preventing poor families from getting fuel oil deliveries, a spokesman said.

CEILINGS ON METALS

The government has imposed a two-month ceiling on domestically produced copper and aluminum prices, claiming that price increases permitted last month were more than enough to make U.S. metals companies competitive on the world market.

Mrs. Dale Tinnin displays art work

Let's Cook Multi-Talented Woman Has Variety Of Hobbies

By SANDY INMAN
Brand Staff Writer

SOME PEOPLE use some of their talent some of the time, but few use all their talent all the time. Mrs. Dale Tinnin of 217 Star is one exception to the rule.

A very versatile woman, she is an active member of the Lone Star Study Club and is vice-president of Friendship Sunday School Class in First United Methodist Church.

She spends leisure hours, sewing, crocheting, painting, cooking, making art transfer plaques and creating bottle sculptures.

using her old jewelry and that of her daughters. Treasured cufflinks of her late husband are also encased in the glass.

USING her imagination and skills, she has produced two unusual undersea pictures from upholstery material. She glued glitter in various places and put each in a gold frame. When her two daughters, Sharon and Daleine, were at home, she prepared many different dishes. Now she cooks for her six grandchildren.

Two recipes which are easy and quick to prepare and are particularly nice to serve to guests are Sausage Miniatures and Strawberry Salad.

SAUSAGE MINIATURES
Cook 1 pound sausage, stirring until it crumbles. Drain all fat. Mix 2 cups biscuit mix according to the directions and work into crumbled sausage. Add 1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese. Shape into miniature biscuits and bake at 450 degrees for 12 minutes.

STRAWBERRY SALAD
Dissolve 1 package strawberry flavored gelatin in 1 cup boiling water. Put one package frozen strawberries into the mixture while it is still hot and stir until thawed.

Add 1 small can crushed pineapple and two mashed bananas. Let set until firm, then spread with cream cheese or sour cream. Sprinkle the top with chopped nuts before serving.

USING the simple method of cutting, any size or shape glass bottle may be used to create lovely art work. She has made a candleholder from an old beer bottle and then glued it to a ceramic vase.

She has also cut the necks of large soft drink bottles and trimmed the wide part of each with gold braid making very attractive vases.

One of the current projects of the energetic homemaker is crocheting a bright red afghan. She is making this particular throw blanket by sewing granny squares together. She has made a Mexican-afghan using multi-colored yarn, and a pillow to match.

HER HOME is filled with art objects she has designed and made herself. Each reflects her love for art. A clever and original idea of Mrs. Tinnin's is painting small pictures of houses and framing them to give to friends and relatives.

She has other landscape oil paintings hanging in her home, done when she first started painting over a year ago.

An old oval frame which Mrs. Tinnin found in Denver, houses a beautiful jewelry tree and hangs in her living room. This picture was made by

Mrs. Langley Has Campfire Office

Mrs. Earnest Langley was elected zone chairman and named as one of two zone representatives to the National Campfire Girls Council, at a meeting in Carlsbad, N.M. last weekend which she attended as voting alternate for Ted Panciera, president of Hereford Campfire Council.

Kiska Hodges of Hereford was selected as Horizon Club advisor from the zone to the national council. She and D'Lynn Davison were the Horizon Club representatives to the meeting in Carlsbad.

Others who went from Hereford were Nita Lea, secretary-registrar for the Hereford Campfire program, and Lois Turpen, council treasurer.

Hereford is a part of Zone 36 of the South-Southwest Region, which includes Albuquerque, El Paso, Lubbock and Amarillo. Mrs. Langley expects to represent the zone at a National Council meeting in New York in May, then at the fall convention in Anaheim, Calif., next November.

She has been active in leadership of the Campfire Girl program in Hereford for a number of years, serving as chairman of the Leaders Association and on the local council as well as actual work with the girls as leader of various age groups.

Queen Named By Junior Riders Club

Queen of Hereford Junior Riders Club for the coming year is Toni Blackwell, who was elected at a meeting Monday when captains were also chosen.

Sam Finley is the junior captain with Denise Cotten as co-captain. Adult sponsors of the club are Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith.

Summer activities for the junior riders were discussed as well as dress to be adopted for parade riding.

Junior Riders comprise the younger members of Hereford Riders Club.

Club Speaker Is From Group

One of Hereford's youth organizations, the Key Club in the high school, was the program subject for La Affiliatus Estudio Club Tuesday afternoon at a meeting in Mrs. Ira Ott's home.

Key Club was the guest speaker, introduced by Mrs. Emmitt Hale, program chairman. He told of the aims and projects of the club, which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and has 53 members enrolled this year.

Community service by club members the past year included putting out flags at business houses on all holidays, buying a marquee sign for the high school grounds and washing windows at Kings Manor retirement home, Higgins explained.

Mrs. Hale also spoke briefly, giving information about a firm here which makes packaging materials for the area's vegetable industry. Mrs. George Suggs prefaced the program with a thought for the day, "Be careful of your tongue because it is in a very slippery place."

Members present included Mrs. Sam Morgan, Lottie Clark, B.F. Markham, S.C. Ramey, T.W. Roberson, A.B. Higgins, W.F. Johnson, Cecil Braly, A.H. Cook, Marlin Gilliland; Misses Madeline Bell and Della Stagner.

Art Exhibit Scheduled

A showing of recent work by Jon Birdsang, Hereford artist, will be presented Sunday afternoon in a reception at the Medallion Room of the REC Building on East Highway 60. Mrs. Pete Caviness and Mrs. Dale Furr will be hostesses for the afternoon art display from 1 to 6 p.m.

Watercolors and work in enamel on copper will be included in the exhibit, to which the public is invited. Birdsang has been a teacher of art in Hereford public schools and in private classes for several years.

Q. IS A LARGE DIAMOND ALWAYS MORE VALUABLE?

A. Not always. A smaller stone of finer color and more precise cutting—to show the fire—can be considerably more valuable than a larger gem of less quality. For God So Loved The World

Your Telephone

... is a marvelous invention. It makes communication so easy. It allows us to cross the miles and visit those we cannot be with in person. We are brought closer together to share both the good and the bad. Unfortunately, some people use the 'phone' to avoid seeing others. They hide behind it to mask their true feelings, secure in the fact that no one can read 'just how it is' over the telephone.

How sad that people have such a low opinion of themselves. If they only knew the love of God they would see both themselves and others differently.

They would no longer be afraid to reach out and experience true and honest communication. They would know that in times of uncertainty, the Great God would provide the words they need.

In order to share God's message we certainly must be able to communicate. We can get the message both by telephone and in person. Use your telephone today. Call a friend and invite him to worship with you this week.

HHS Rackets In Full Swing

As the weather starts getting warmer and warmer, the phrase "I was wondering if you would like to play some tennis" is pronounced more and more. However, the HHS Tennis team has been practicing and playing during the cold weather as well. Coach Steve Thomas, stated, "Some outstanding performances have been given by several players in recent matches by the tennis team. Coach Thomas also commented, "The top eight boys this year are David Zinser (sr.), Chris White (sr.), Rocky Rodriguez (soph.), Dwayne Waters (jr.), and Mark Immon (soph.). The girls' top eight players are Leesa Rose (jr.), Monica Herring (jr.), Dee Ann Miller (jr.), Karen Anstey (jr.), Ellen Jorde (soph.), Susan Grimsley (soph.), Jane Hoffman (soph.), and Debbie Klechak (jr.)." Recently in a Feb. 23 match, Hereford had a triangular meet with Borger and Pampa at Hereford. Some of the results are as follows: Against Borger, Waters won over Knowles of Borger, 6-3; 4-6; 6-1, while Zinser and White won over Johnston and Gonzales in Doubles competition, 6-3; 6-2. Also in doubles action, Rodriguez and Rudder topped Stuller and Shipman, 8-6, and Del Toro with Waters defeated Harvey and Knowles, 8-3.

For the girls' division against Borger, Miss Grimsley beat White, 6-3, 4-6, 6-1. Against Pampa, Zinser outplayed Branham 4-6, 6-3, 6-3 for the only singles win while del Toro and Formby combined to produce the only win in doubles competition, (8-5), their opponents, Scott and Scoog.

For the girls', Misses Jorde, Grimsley and Hoffman won over their competition 6-1, 6-2, 6-0, 6-1, and 6-2, 6-1, respectively. Misses Jorde and Grimsley won over McCauslano and Hampton, 8-7 in doubles.

A dual meet between Hereford and Pampa (at Pampa) will be held Saturday. After that, the remainder of play will be tournaments until the district tournament at Plainview during the first weekend in April.

Coach Thomas suggested that, "Due to the fact that Hereford does not have junior high tennis, the HHS tennis team has never been in contention for the district crown." He reflected, "Coronado looks like the team to beat."

Two Students Go To Dallas

Rodney O'Rand and Simon Mendoza will leave for Dallas today after school to compete in the state Distributive Education (DE) contest. Rodney came in first place in business speaking and Simon was first in advertising at the area meeting in Wichita Falls. The competition will be today, Friday, and Saturday.

The boys will enter the same projects entered in the Wichita meeting. The winners of the state competition will travel to Chicago for the National DE Meeting.

They will travel by plane from Amarillo to Dallas Thursday and return home Sunday.

This week is also Distributive Education Week and it included a radio day which took place yesterday. Radio day is a day that the DE students broadcasted advertisements over radio station KPAN. The students took several days selling these ads to local businesses.

The DE program is under the direction of G.C. Graves.

Takes HHS

The junior varsity took to the courts first with a score of 16-14, 1-15 with Palo Duro taking both games. The varsity played three games with the score of 15-8 Hereford 15-4, 6-15, Palo Duro winning the last two matches.

The junior varsity starters are Cheryl Arney, Lisa Patterson, Vickie Mummerlyn, Sofia Pena, Diana Valdez, and Diana Griego. Substitutions for the junior varsity are Wilma Knight and Marta Mendiaz.

The varsity starters are Irma Aguilar, Nancy Griego, Anita Pinn, Janette Schlabs, Rene Self and Evelyn Urbanczyk.

There are five more games slated in the 1974 volleyball season.

Faculty Learns Sports Lesson

The HHS Student Council boys and the male teachers of the HHS faculty played a basketball game Feb. 27 in HHS gym at 11:15 a.m. to raise money for the Student Council (SC).

From tip-off to the final buzzer, the SC had full control of the game.

The faculty was very aggressive in their attempts to upset the SC but all efforts failed.

Steve Thomas, A.B. Lyles, Don Hooper, and Joe Tubb were scoring standouts for the faculty.

Making their mark on the rebounding charts for the faculty were Coach Don Cumpston, Aaron Bourland and Bill Gentzel.

Sparked by the dribbling talents of SC president Dave Loerwald, the fine outside shooting of Wayne Schumacher and Franklin Higgins, the determined rebounding of Lynn Lauderback and all-around hustle of Lee Line took the SC to a 30-26 victory over the HHS Faculty.

Officials for the game were Coach Fred Upshaw and Andrew Wingert.

Speech Students Place Well

"The most outstanding showing the squad had made this year," Wayne Hodgson, forensics director at HHS, remarked after the Hereford High School Forensics Squad returned Saturday night from the First Annual Dumas Forensics Tournament.

"I am extremely proud of the squad as a whole, and especially of the nine students who made finals."

The students brought home a second place in sweepstakes, the only second place they have had after Panhandle's tourney earlier in the year.

The students participated in three different categories; extemporaneous, interpretation, and debate. Extemporaneous consists of impromptu speaking where the students inform the judge on a selected topic, and persuasive is where the student convinces the audience to take a certain stand.

Interpretation consists of the students understanding chosen poetry pieces and prose is competition in reading short stories.

Debate consists of pairs of students who debate over a presented topic.

The students who made finals were Donna Stroup-prose, Rhea

Anne Wesson-poetry, and Cameron Clements-persuasive speaking.

Students placing were: Russ Odom-third in prose, Gayle Gripp-third in informative, Cindy Crider-first in poetry, Denise Strange-second in persuasive, and Gene Ann Shipley-first in informative.

The squad travels to Hardin-Simmons Friday morning for a contest in Abilene.
