

Prepared for Accident Victims

Three Trained For Emergencies

The call goes into the fire station that a man downtown is having a heart attack. The firemen rush to the scene and apply cardio-pulmonary resuscitation until the ambulance arrives and carries the man to the hospital.

The opening sequence of a new television series? Maybe. But it could be happening in Hereford with new training two Hereford Fire Department members and an ambulance attendant have just finished. Keith Munnerlyn and David Spain of the Hereford Fire Department and John Gilliland of the Gilliland-Watson Funeral Home have just completed 82 hours of training as EMT's, or Emergency Medical Technicians.

The program was a full semester long at Amarillo College, although most of the training was done in Panhandle hospitals under the supervision of doctors.

The object of the EMT program is "to get emergency personnel in the field to give as good a medical service as what would be given at the hospital, immediately," said David Spain. "We learned to handle almost any type of medical emergency that might arise, from accident-related injuries to unexpected serious illnesses."

The training covered everything from treatment of cuts and abrasions, to treatment of heart attack victims, and delivering babies. Fire Marshal Jay Spain said, "They're just other types of emergencies we need to know how to handle."

Everyone is still praying for rain around Hereford, but it's not as dry all over the county as it seems here in town. The rains have skipped around us, but moisture has been recorded south and northeast. There's nothing wrong with our community that some rain and higher cattle prices wouldn't cure!

IDON'T suppose any newspaper ever put out an issue without having a few type errors, although all strive for perfection. Most papers are resigned to the fact that errors will crop up, and the hope is that there are no big "goofs."

One of the classics I was involved with a number of years ago concerned an article on a contest. A list of merchants and the prizes they were donating was included. One was a drive-in theater which was offering a free pass and a box lunch from the snack bar.

The papers were all printed and distributed before someone noticed that the letter "p" was omitted from the word "pass"! Fortunately, the theater manager was understanding, as well as enterprising. He bought a donkey and tied it up at the drive-in to display as one of the prizes he was giving.

ALL OF THIS brings me around to commenting on what has to be the biggest typo error in recent years. A recent Chevrolet ad running in several national magazines was for their special car series called "Spirit of America." The ad agency built a beautiful ad and it ran in millions of copies of magazines before some discovered that "America" was spelled "Amerca."

Like the incident with the donkey, however, the agency probably got more publicity than they could have bought with a million extra dollars.

Swim Class Will Push Water Safety

WATER SAFETY classes for children and adults will be conducted at the municipal pool under the supervision of the Hereford Red Cross Chapter beginning June 3, Mrs. Richard Zinser, chairman, has announced.

The classes are free to the public.

PRECEDING classes the County Red Cross chapter will offer two training classes for instructors, as a number of new instructors will be needed for a larger number of classes this summer. Several hundred pupils, mostly children, learn to swim in these classes each year. The first senior life saving course will begin May 13 and continue through May 18. Classes will be held from 4 to 7 p.m. each day of that week at the city pool.

TO QUALIFY for that course the

J.T. (Jim) Belew, a Texas Tech journalism teaching assistant and a graduate student of Tech's Mass Communications Department, has been named by Hereford Brand publisher O.G. "Speedy" Nieman as the managing editor of the Brand.

Belew, 36, replaced former Brand Managing Editor Don Richards, who resigned to become publisher of the Clarendon Press.

BEFORE COMING to the Panhandle area, Belew resided in Killeen, where he served as bureau chief for the Temple Daily Telegram of Temple. Prior to his Killeen assignment, he was a reporter for the San Angelo Standard Times.

A native of West Texas, he is a graduate of Odessa High School and Angelo State University in San Angelo. He is married to the former Loretta J. King, also of Odessa. They have no children.

THE NEW EDITOR lists among his hobbies golf, photography and community theater.

"Loretta and I are both impressed with the progressive attitude Hereford people have, not to mention their friendliness," Belew said. "We're happy to move here."

swimmer must be at least 15 years of age and must have completed the swimmers' course or be able to pass preliminary swimming tests, Mrs. Zinser said.

Immediately following, the Red Cross will hold a water safety instructor's course starting Monday, May 20, to be completed by May 31 in time to prepare instructors for the summer swimming program.

REQUIREMENTS for the water safety instruction course are: age limit 17 years, and enrollee must hold a current, unexpired senior life saving card. The class will be taught in two parts, with three local Red Cross instructors conducting the first part and Marilyn Williams, Red Cross instructor trainer, teaching the second part.

Instruction by the Red Cross is always given free, but there is a charge of $2.25 by the city for use of the pool. This charge will be in effect for the senior life saving course but Mrs. Zinser emphasizes that there is no charge of any kind for the water safety instruction course.

She asks that anyone who will serve as a volunteer in the summer program or who is interested in the two courses this month, contact her or Chris White.

"WE DO NEED your help this summer," the chairman said. "If you have the swimming ability please come out and help pass on your knowledge and skills to the children of Hereford."

VOE-DE-ICT Banquet Held

Students of Distributive Education, Industrial Cooperative Training, and Vocational Office Education honored their bosses Tuesday night during the sixth annual Employer-Employee Banquet in the high school cafeteria.

Highlights of the three departments were outlined by club presidents; employers were introduced along with their students, and one award presentation was made during the fast-moving banquet.

KPAN Radio was presented a plaque for its cooperation in sponsoring a "radio day" project for the DE program. Roy Faubion accepted the award for the radio station, and mistress of ceremonies Debbie Sorrells made the presentation.

Handling the introduction of employers was Sandra Stallings for DE, Albert Cardenas for ICT and Sylvia Betzen for VOE. Highlights of the year for the three clubs were outlined by Tommy Talamantez, VICA; Karen Gresham, OEA, and

Demo Primary Draws 2,965 Voters Here

A total of 2,965 voters turned out for the Deaf Smith County Democratic primary Saturday, endorsing the nomination of seven county and district candidates who were unopposed and sending all three contested county races into a runoff election.

THE DEMO executive committee met Tuesday morning to approve a canvass of the votes and okay election expenses. Several precinct convention reports were also on hand along with the names of delegates elected to the county convention—scheduled at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Community Center.

The closely-contested county judge's race saw challenger Sam Morgan draw 46.6 per cent of the votes and go into a runoff against incumbent H.C. (Hank) Williams, who garnered 42.3 per cent of the ballots in the three-man race. J. Mike Ransport rounded out the race with just 11.1 per cent of the votes. Vote totals were: Morgan 1,361; Williams 1,233; Ransport 324.

AUSTIN ROSE Jr. and Clinton Jackson emerged as runoff opponents in the Precinct 2 commissioner's race, while James Voyles and M.W. (Webb) Blankenship will be in the runoff in Precinct 4.

Rose drew 41.3 per cent of the votes in the five-man race in Precinct 2, and Jackson made the runoff with 19.2 per cent. Grant Hanna polled 16.6 per cent, Joe Zinser 12.0, and Bill Griffin 10.9. Vote totals were: Rose 273, Jackson 127, Hanna 110, Zinser 79, and Griffin 72.

Voyles had 44.7 per cent of the ballots cast in Precinct 4, and Blankenship followed with 33.2. Luther Lesly rounded out the three-man race with 22.1 per cent of the votes. Totals were Voyles 283, Blankenship 210, and Lesly 140.

ELECTED by the Demos without opposition were Archie McDonald, district 69 judge (2,400 votes); Criminal D.A. Andy Shuval (2,191); Dist. Clerk Lola Faye Veazey (2,461); Co. Surveyor A.J. Schroeter (2,456); and JP Glen Nelson (2,457).

Leo Witkowski was also reelected as Demo county chairman. Elected on the ballot as precinct chairmen were: J.F. Martin (1), Tony Hoffman (2), Frank Zinser (3), Clyde Russell (5), Robert Strain (7), and Raymond Higginbotham (11).

PRECINCT convention reports were filed in the clerk's office from precincts 1, 2, 8 and 11. Lewis Woodford and Polly

County Follows State Balloting

Deaf Smith Democrats followed along with statewide trends on the nomination of state candidates Saturday, including an overwhelming endorsement of Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

The local count showed Briscoe drawing 2,147 votes to only 467 for "Sissy" Farenthold, 82 for Bill Posey, and 53 for Steve Alexander. State Treasurer Jesse James also had almost a 2-1 margin over Don Yarbrough—1,827 to 926.

BOB BULLOCK drew 1,939 for the state comptroller's post, while Hugh Edburg had 547. Ag Commissioner John White won reelection as the Demo candidate, drawing 1,919 votes here to 732 for Herbert (Peanut) Schroeder.

State Rep. Bill Clayton was an easy winner over the area and he tabbed 2,013 votes here to only 658 for challenger Harvey Floyd of Vega.

A BIG SURPRISE, locally, was the closeness of the referendum on pari-mutuel wagering on horse races—defeated in the county by a margin of only 4 votes. The count was 1,384 for the proposition, and 1,388 against. The proposal was defeated statewide. Voting boxes 1, 2, 4 and 6 went for the proposal here. The boxes are at the D.A.'s office, commissioner courtroom, Simms and Ford. Bippus split with a 6-6 vote at that box.

With only one candidate on the local level, county Republicans had a small turnout of about 30 voters, Jim Granbury of Lubbock was the statewide winner for the gubernatorial nomination, but local voters favored Odell McBryer by 19-10. LeRoy Williamson, GOP candidate for commissioner, precinct 2, drew 28 votes here.

DEAF SMITH also had a turnout of American Party voters, who were registering in an attempt to gain a position on the November general election ballot. Wes Owen, chairman, reported that 37 persons participated in precinct conventions.

Bullard were elected chairman and secretary, respectively, precinct 1. No resolutions were passed. Attending were Woodford, Mrs. Bullard, Charlie Bell, James Higgins, Helen Higgins, Trini Gomez, Virginia Woodford, Margaret Bell, Tom Kendrick and Wesley Gulley.

In precinct 2, Clinton Jackson was named chairman and Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr. was chosen as secretary. Elected as delegates to the county convention were Andy Shuval, Betty Shuval, Andrew Kershen, Mrs. Clinton Jackson, Clinton Jackson, Tony Hoffman, Mrs. O.G. Hill Sr., Grant Hanna.

Eldred Brown was named chairman in precinct 8 and Mrs. Ernest Brown was secretary. Elected as delegates were Ernest Brown and S.N. Thweatt.

Raymond Higginbotham and Roland Saul served as chairman and secretary in precinct 11. Named as delegates were James Witherspoon, Higginbotham, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Witkowski, Mr. and Mrs. Mal Manchec, Roland Saul, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Easterwood, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox, Pat Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Tubb.

THIS PRECINCT passed a resolution calling for a "Democratic Unity Petition" to be presented at the county convention. The petition states: "Whereas, Gov. Dolph Briscoe has provided strong, impartial, and unifying leadership as head of the Texas Democratic Party, we, the undersigned, hereby urge Gov. Dolph Briscoe to continue this role by heading the Texas Delegation to the 1974 Conference on Democratic Party Organization and Policy, and hereby request a caucus to select delegates to the County or Senatorial District Convention from Precinct 11 in Deaf Smith County."

Commission Grants Annex, Contracts

The Hereford City Commission gave final approval to a two-block annexation ordinance and awarded contracts for community aerial spraying and workmen's compensation insurance at a Monday meeting.

ANNEXED was a two-block area from the center of a four block plot between South Main and Jackson Streets, bordered on the south by James Street.

Marion Air Spray of Savannah, Ga. was awarded the contract for aerial spraying of Hereford for insect control. City Manager Dudley Bayne said Malathion would be used if a request to use the more effective Dibromo is denied by the Food and Drug Administration. Bayne said four spray applications were required last year to control insects in the city.

THE COMMISSIONERS awarded a workmen's compensation insurance coverage contract to Texas Employer's Insurance through the Texas Municipal League Fund of Austin. Bayne said by going through the League, the city could obtain a 25 per cent discount on the cost of the coverage. Term of the contract will be for three years, he said.

Workmen's compensation for employees of all Texas cities was made mandatory at the last session of the Texas Legislature. All state cities were given until July 1 to adopt a compensation plan.

Commissioners briefly discussed the cost of replacing the recently damaged city incinerator with the type incinerator now preferred by the Texas Air Control Board (TACB), a dual-chamber starved air model. Bayne said estimates for the new incinerator, complete with building and other necessary equipment, run in excess of $300,000. A decision by the TACB on the city's request to utilize present incinerator facilities with modifications to meet TACB requirements is due sometime next week, Bayne said.

ALSO discussed at the meeting was the cost adjustment on gas rates granted February by the commissioners to Pioneer Natural Gas. Bayne said the monthly cost adjustment allows the gas company to increase its rates at its discretion, even though a necessity for such an increase might not exist.

Old Library Steps Aside For The New

(By Whitson Staff)

The new library at HHS is presently being equipped for the next school year.

The present facilities are closed to students so that books can be moved into the new building.

Completion of transfer of library materials is scheduled for late May, after which inventory will begin.

The new library, which is 2 and one-half times larger than the former structure will have individual carrels, a professional room, a workroom, an audio-visual room, a periodical room and a conference room.

The individual carrels will be set up with record players and recorders for individual study and preparation. The professional room will be a reference room for teachers only. It will contain educational materials for teachers.

The workroom will serve as a place to process and repair books. Tape recorders, projectors and screens among other media are to be contained in the audio-visual room. In the periodical room, magazines dating back to five years before will be stored for reference.

The conference room is an isolated room to be used by different class groups for discussions regarding research projects.

When asked how she felt about the new library Mrs. Geraldene Hodges, librarian, replied, "I would personally like to thank the community, the school board and the school administration for looking into the future and providing a library that will serve the student's needs."

Both Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. Elizabeth Wills, assistant librarian, enjoy helping students find reference or reading material when it is needed.

The new library will be ready for use at the beginning of the school year when it will be open from 7:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. for students' use.

Some Experts In Doubt About Possibility of Drought

(Reprinted from The Cross Section)

While many forecasters of gloom are predicting deepening drought on the High Plains of West Texas, by drawing attention to the possible existence of a 20-year drought cycle, experts who actually live and work on the High Plains seem less pessimistic about the blowing dust and high winds.

Oliver Newton, Advisory Agricultural Meteorologist with the National Weather Service for Agriculture, says you first must define the word "drought." "We are in a drought condition, rather than a true drought," explained Newton. "And I certainly don't think there are enough years on record to actually determine the existence of a drought cycle."

Noting that a drought is only effective as it affects living things, Newton pointed out the lack of a substantial amount of planted crops in the field because of the time of year and the coolness of the soil.

Effect of Drought Condition
"The only effect of the 'drought condition,'" says the weather specialist, "is that the soil is made to blow and this condition is physically uncomfortable to the city dweller and farmer alike."

According to Newton, this year "the farmer cannot afford to depend on rainfall." More water has been pumped for pre-plant irrigation during the last month than during any year lately.

However, Newton stressed that, when you talk about drought, you talk about non-irrigated farm land. The area of the Southern High Plains of Texas is six to eight inches deficient in the top five feet of soil. This fact, and the below-normal rainfall record for the year, certainly has caused the dryland farmer to be a bit concerned about this year's crop.

The probability of rain and the need for rain are two variables of important consequence to the High Plains farmer. "In this area, a farmer can plant as late as the first of June. And the probability of rainfall is going up because we are approaching the highest rainfall month—May."

Newton went on to explain that there is no reason to say we are in a critical stage now because "we don't need the rain now."

Other Problems To Be Considered
However, there are a few problems other than the immediate need for rainfall that must be considered. The meteorologist emphasized that, in order to produce a cotton crop, the soil must receive eight to 12 inches of moisture.

"This means that, in the coming months, we must add 15 or 16 inches of rain before the crop will finish." He explains this is due to the 35- to 40-percent evaporation of the rainfall before it actually enters the soil.

"This means we will need more-than-normal rainfall in order to get a good dryland cotton crop," he explained.

Newton noted two other minor problems with receiving the necessary rainfall in May—wet fields at planting time and the difficulty of coping with weeds.

Young T. Sloan, Meteorologist in Charge, Weather Forecast Office at Lubbock, when asked about the high winds and lack of rainfall characteristic of West Texas, explained that the highest wind speed is traditionally during the month of April (15.7 mph) and the lowest mean wind speed (10.3) is during August, with 13.1 mph being the average yearly mean wind speed.

He also noted that, in some cases, the month with the lowest wind speed has been the month with the highest rainfall, "but this is certainly not always the case." Wind speed for May, considered the high rainfall month, averages 14.8 mph; therefore, the higher-than-normal wind speed for the month of May contradicts any error-free correlation.

Basics Stressed In Herd's Spring Drills

By DAN WELTY
Sports Editor

Football fundamentals will be stressed for the next three weeks as the Hereford Whitefaces go through spring drills that began Monday.

Coach Larry Dippel and his staff have been knocking around football ideas since the Herd fell to El Paso in the regionals last year, and they may do some experimenting in spring training.

But, the reason for spring training is to sharpen the basic skills of the game. "We're going to work on the basics in spring training," Dippel said, "blocking, tackling, and running. Basics are what is so important about spring training. We can concentrate on the kids getting better in the skills of football. All we do is emphasize the football skills and fundamentals."

One vital reason Dippel and the Herd will be working on the basics is to determine who can fill what spot. Twenty-eight seniors will graduate this spring, leaving a few spots on the team with no experienced personnel to fill in.

Two areas of question will concern the offensive line and the defensive front. Whereas some positions were played by juniors that will be seniors this fall, these two areas were filled with seniors and consequently there will be no experienced people to fill the spots.

"That's one reason we'll be working more on tackling and blocking. We'll be looking for the boys who can get out there and hit without quitting," said Dippel.

"I'll say this about spring training so far, though—the thing that we're pleased about is the enthusiasm of the players. In the first day or practice they were very willing and tried real hard."

Hereford's Whiteface baseball team closed out its season Saturday with a make-up doubleheader against Lubbock High, losing both games, 2-1 and 13-0.

Dave Loerwald pitched the first game for the Herd, giving up only three hits, but the Westerners turned two of those hits into runs for the victory. Albert Gonzales got the only hit of the game in the sixth inning off the Westerner's winning pitcher, Martin. The score was the Herd hitting was as cold in the second game as in the first, with Albert Gonzales getting the only hit in that contest. The Lubbock High bats were warm, though, and they struck Lubbock pitcher Lynn Tarr for 13 runs.

Hereford ended the season with a 5-26 record, with only two district wins.

HHS Record Broken By Harris At State

Hereford High School didn't score any first places at the state track meet in Austin last Friday and Saturday, but James Harris, a senior, broke an HHS school record.

Harris broke the record for the 330-yard intermediate hurdles when he ran a 38.3 at the meet in Austin. The previous Hereford record was 38.4. Harris' time was only good enough for fifth place in the state meet, though, with Bill Blessing of Dallas Hillcrest taking first with a new state record of 36.9.

Blessing also beat Hereford's Charles High in the 120-yard high hurdles. High was seventh in the event with a 14.3 timing.

Staub of Mets is again fit and optimistic.

Mexican orphans make John Wayne weep

By NANCY ANDERSON
Copley News Service
HOLLYWOOD—It takes no more than love to make a strong man cry.
John Wayne openly wept then apologized for his tears as he talked about the loving children from a Mexican orphanage whom he introduced at a reception at The Los Angeles Press Club.
Nuestros Pequenos Hermanos (Our Little Brothers and Sisters) is the name of a trio of orphanages in Mexico the Duke has unreservedly supported since he first visited the first of the three several years ago.

"I didn't want to go down there," the big guy said, "because I was afraid the children would need love, and I'd feel guilty, because they didn't have it."
"But when I got to the home, I found the reverse to be true. Those children were giving so much love to each other and to everybody else that I could only be glad they were part of such a wonderful family."
"Back then there was only one orphanage with about 500 children in it. Now there are three with three times that many children."
The Rev. William B. Wasson, the priest who launched Nuestros Pequenos Hermanos in 1954 by giving a home to one boy, joined Wayne in answering questions during the reception explaining that his work is carried on entirely through donations.

After the formal question and answer session, a group of pretty children from the institutions danced, with the Duke rather clumsily joining in.
"I don't know this step," he explained to his little dancing partner who didn't seem to mind in the least.

If you want more information about Father Wasson's work, don't write Wayne. Instead address the priest in care of Nuestros Pequenos Hermanos, Apdo. 333, Cuernavaca, Morelos, Mexico.

Banquet Commends Key Club

Outgoing leaders drew special praise and new officers were installed when the Key Club held its annual Parent Appreciation—Leadership Installation Banquet here Monday night in Civic Club Center.
Guest speaker for the occasion was Roy Faubion, C of C president and KPAN Radio executive. "Pride" was the topic of his address, as he urged members to have pride in themselves, their club and their community.
Franklin Higgins, outgoing president, and David Loerwald, Texas-Oklahoma district treasurer, were recipients of special plaques presented by the club. The pair presented farewell remarks, as did Steve Loerwald, lieutenant governor for Division 33 of Key Club International.

New officers, installed by Steve Loerwald, for the 1974-75 year were: Tommy Loerwald, president; Craig Nieman, vice president; Pete Hale, secretary; Dirk VanderZee, treasurer; and directors Doug Charest, Kevin Malone, Steve Cornelius, and Mike Hull.
Loerwald praised the club for attaining objectives that ranked them among the top 20 clubs in the Texas-Oklahoma district, and cited Chip Guseman for being named among the top 20 secretaries in the district.
Other retiring officers include Bucky Payne, vice president; Gerald Shipley, treasurer; and directors Mauri Montgomery, John Stoy and O.H. Semands. Also recognized was Deirda Dault, club sweetheart the past school year. The Key Club, a high school organization, is sponsored by Kiwanians.

Higgins and other officers gave frequent words of thanks and appreciation to club chairman Bobby Owen of the Noon Kiwanis and Tommy Rossen of Whiteface Kiwanis clubs, as well as faculty advisors Don Hooper and Gene Brock. Owen also serves as the Division 33 Key Club chairman.
Higgins served as master of ceremonies for the event, with dinner catered by Dickie's Restaurant. Payne introduced guests, and Dan VanderZee introduced the guest speaker.

Since the season of thunder storms is approaching, it's appropriate to look into the behavior of the cumulonimbus cloud, or thunderhead. It's the most active and most dangerous, of all the clouds.
In the temperate zones thunderheads, which often feature a large anvil-like top, and which tower up to 30,000 to 40,000 feet, or higher, usually move from west to east. They bring with them heavy rain, and strong winds.
The leading edge of the cumulonimbus, far up above, can sometimes be seen spreading out (the anvil part) as it moves toward the viewer. The lower edge is only minutes away when this stage is reached. Dangerous up and down drafts are known to exist in thunderheads.
Beware of lightning to the west or northwest in the warm months; if seen in the east, the thunderhead producing it will usually pass you by.

Pets Easy Prey To Rabies

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article is the second in a series concerning the presence and influence of rabies in the local vicinity. This episode dwells on the family pet which can be helpless victims of the vicious disease.)

By JANIS LOCKHART
Brand Staff Writer

Those that look upon the household pet as part of the family should care for the pet in that manner. If that pet is to be expected to protect the family against intruders, or just be a companion to love, then that pet deserves proper care.

Neglect endangers not only the pet, but more important the children and adults are exposed if the pet becomes ill. There are signs indicating illness in a pet, and one should be educated enough to recognize these signs.

THE AMERICAN Veterinary Medical Association clearly points out, "There are two types of rabies, 'dumb' and 'furious'. Furious rabies in a dog, for example, can be recognized by certain specific signs.

"At first, the dog infected with the virus will act strangely. There will be a departure from normal habits — either the animal will be unnaturally withdrawn or abnormally affectionate.

"Following this stage, which lasts about two days, the dog usually wanders far afield. And it is then, that the most damage is done, for it is during this period of roving that he is 'mad' or 'rabid' dog.

"Actually, this is caused by drooling of the saliva due to difficulty in swallowing. When the roving is over, the animal may come home to die. Returning to his familiar haunts, he finds an isolated place to suffer his final paroxysms, lapse into a paralytic state, and die," says the association.

"Dumb" rabies differs in that there is no roving or 'mad' period. Paralysis, usually of the lower jaw, is the first recognizable symptom. This soon spreads to the limbs and vital organs, resulting very shortly in death.

"The signs of dumb rabies may be confused with the signs indicating an obstruction in the throat, or choke or colic. Such misjudgment can lead to needless human exposure to rabies."

UNLIKE THE city pets that must be in a fenced area or on a leash, country dogs are not as confined. These dogs are in need of the Rabies Vaccine.

"Due to the number of animals that are running loose," year, the owner will be notified, but the owner will be fined before the dog is released, for violating city ordinance (#970 Sect. 1-1 (The Leash Law)," Mrs. Hagar of the Animal Control Authority has announced.

"We urge people to contact animal control when they wish to get rid of unwanted pets.

"Do not take them out into the rural areas and turn them loose. Do not abandon daily feeding and needed affection in hopes that they may wander off and find new homes.

"A hungry dog soon depends on instinct for food. If he has to, he will kill for his dinner, no matter how domesticated he may have once been.

"Dogs that form in packs are a definite danger to people and to other animals," Mrs. Hagar said.

the Animal Control Authorities have issued the following warning:

"After May 18, any dog found loose without Rabies tags, valid for 1974 will be destroyed.

"Any dog found running loose with valid tags for the

"ON MAY 18, take each pet to the Hereford Fire Department between 2 and 6 p.m. for their Rabies shot. This $3 shot not only protects the pet, but protects each family."

"Don't let your pet be one that is picked up and destroyed! Let him proudly wear his new necklace of safety and well-being." Mrs. Hagar urged.

Teens Lobby For Activity Program

A teenage Board of Directors for Hereford's Community Center was chosen Tuesday night by 60 teens who want a voice in the running of the Community Center.

The meeting was presided over by Dave Loerwald, who took open suggestions from the floor as to what the teens wanted the Community Center to be and what kind of activities they wanted in the Center. Most of the 60 in attendance agreed they would like to see a summer youth program set up in the Center with various activities for the youth during the summer months.

After dividing into groups and discussing the issue, the teens voiced their opinions on how they thought the Center should be run during the summer. A teen Board of directors would be set up to lay out the groundwork of writing a constitution and by-laws, and set up various committees to get work done.

The group then discussed some ideas on what they would like in the Center. Among the suggestions included were a less strict dress code for the center, an age limit on those participating in Center activities, proper sponsorship, a variety of music during Center dances, activities at least every two weeks, tournaments in pool, ping-pong, football, and other indoor sports, different themes for dances, such as a "Fifties" dance and sock hops, movies to be shown outdoors, and scheduling activities so as not to conflict with other functions.

The group pledged to let City Hall know they were eager to start the program by attending the next City Commission meeting, as well as contacting the city commissioners personally.

At the end of the meeting, the teen board of directors was voted on with these persons elected to the board; Cindy Crider, Ernestine High, Linda Mendez, Melinda Watts, Gene Ann Shipley, Michelle Moore.

Sara Ricketts, Allen Ward, Hank Stringer, Melissa Henry, Doug Charest, Kevin Fox, Sharon Dearing, Mike Munnerlyn, Twanaha Kendrick, Sandra Stallings and Beverly High.

Tact Essential For Job

By JANIS LOCKHART
Brand Staff Writer

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the eighth article in a nine-part series relating to the problems involved in moving a family from one town to another. This article deals mainly with the hunting for another job.)

In a new town or city, looking for a job can be very difficult. But the task can be a pleasant one if gone about in the right way.

At the time of making application possibly new friends are being met. An interview with a prospective employer could mean becoming acquainted with one that shares the same interests or same civic work that the family enjoys. He or she can sometimes provide information as to how one can become involved in these interests.

USUALLY IT IS more difficult to obtain the job of one's choice in a smaller town, and yet, if one looks around, it is possible that a new field of working will be opened up that offers more interest than realized.

If the length of stay in each new place seems to be a problem and draw-back in obtaining a job, it is always best to explain at the very beginning that the family hopes to be situated for several years. However, it is wise to mention that there is always a chance of being moved, not by choice, but through the advancement of the husband.

It is equally difficult for the working woman and her employer to begin a job and then learn that she will be moving soon. This is always hard, especially if she is enjoying her job. But for the most part, employers understand and make this situation as pleasant as he or she can for the one leaving, due to their understanding that this move was not by her choice.

IF THE WOMAN has been honest and not taken the job with the idea that there is no chance of being moved, an employer will usually be willing to send a letter of good recommendation for the next job, providing she did her work well.

One word of advice, on any job make it a habit to keep all gossip to oneself. In a small town especially, one may find that it seems that everyone is kin to everyone else in that community and you just may be talking about their closest relative.

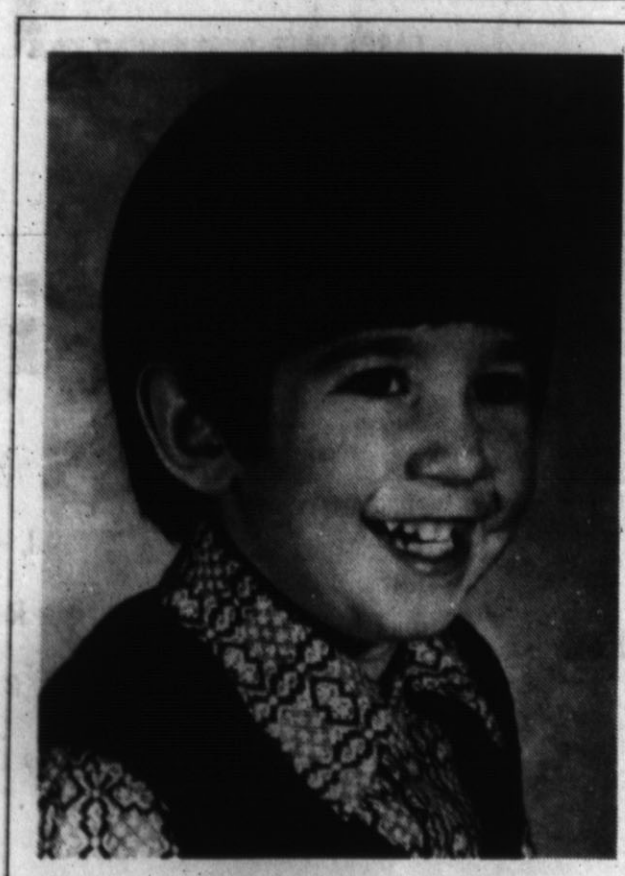

Dew does not fall. However dew is an interesting weather element and close observation of it can tell you something about the weather to follow during the day.

Dew collects on surface objects like blades of grass and its moisture taken from passing, warmer air. The earth objects which collect it from the air must be colder than the air—so as to condense some of the moisture out of the surrounding air.

Seeing dew, either at night or early morning, is a clear weather indication—though not a foolproof one. The absence of dew tells you that chances are good that rainfall is ahead—sometime in the next twenty-four hours.

Mother's Day AGAIN

... and time for us to tell our Mothers all the things we didn't tell her during the past year. Things like "Thank you," "I love you," and "Here, mom, let me help you." For those of us who are blessed with a close Mother-Child relationship, this day will give us a chance to say, in a very special way, the things we should have said by our words and actions all year long.

Those who are not blessed with this close relationship, should try to accomplish, in this one brief day, all the things they didn't do in the other 364. Sometimes we try so hard that we may seem insincere. But on this Mother's Day, make a conscious effort to repair all the neglect and broken relationship that may exist.

Certainly, you may not be able to erase all bitterness and alienation in one day, but you can make a start. And once you start, continue to mend the fences on a daily basis. Then next year, when it's Mother's Day again, you can both celebrate the joy of having each other. You can both honestly say, "I love you."

Figures Depict '73 Cotton Crop

Preliminary statistics on cotton ginnings from the U.S. Bureau of Census show the 25 High Plains counties represented by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., of Lubbock, accounted for 2,779,865 gin-run bales or 15.5 per cent of the 12,994,379-bale national crop. High Plains ginnings come to 61.7 per cent of the 4,500,544-bale Texas total, according to PCG figures.

The national average net weight per bale ginned from the 1973 crop was 493.8 pounds, so the U.S. running bale total converts to 12,956,458 bales of 480 pounds net weight. In Texas average net bale weights were 501.9 pounds, highest in the nation, bringing the net weight bale total for this state to 4,705,881.

Although official figures are not compiled, indications are that the average weight of gin-run bales on the High Plains was higher than both state and national averages. The average net bale weight from three area compresses checked by PCG came to 503 pounds. If this figure is applied to all High Plains cotton, the area ginnings in net weight bales comes to just over 2.9 million, well above the 2,725,000-net weight bales estimated earlier by the joint PCG-Lubbock Cotton Exchange Estimating Committee.

The Bureau of Census ginning figures are broken down by counties but are not an accurate indication of county-by-county production because of significant amounts of cotton produced in one county and ginned in another. Actual county production figures in net weight bales will be released later by the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, and these will be used as the "official" High Plains production figures.

The trend to heavier bale weights, begun in 1971 as the natural result of the change to net weight trading and more expensive bagging and ties, is expected to end in 1974 because of new Texas Cotton Association trade rules which impose stiff penalties on both heavy and light weight bales. TCA members handle some 80 percent of the Texas crop each year, and its trade rules for 1974 call for a penalty of $5 on bales weighing from 300 to 379 pounds and from 551 to 575 pounds. Below 330 pounds and above 575 pounds the penalty will be $10 per bale, plus the "right to reject." Only bales weighing between 360 and 550 pounds will escape penalty and this will force a deliberate reduction in bale sizes, PCG reasons.

The penalties, according to TCA, were adopted as a result of loading problems caused by odd sizes and broken bands at Texas ports.

Soybeans To Relieve Fertilizer Squeeze

Soybeans might partially plug the fertilizer pinch facing farmers this spring according to Dr. Douglas Owen, High Plains Research Foundation, Agronomist and soybean breeder.

Dr. Owen pointed out that although soybeans produce highest yields on soils having high fertility levels, research at the Foundation has never shown any appreciable yield increase to nitrogen fertilizer applied directly to the crop. Estimates indicate that a 50 bushel soybean crop may require 200 pounds of nitrogen but the soybean plant, if properly inoculated, can obtain most of its nitrogen fertilizer may want to look at soybeans as a partial solution to the problem," he said.

The High Plains Research Foundation soybean program this year will continue much as in the past with some modifications. The U.S.D.A. Regional Soybean Variety tests with maturity groups IV-S, V and VI containing 11 released varieties and 25 experimental lines will be planted in the usual small plot pattern.

Varieties that are available locally will be planted in much larger plots using standard planting equipment and harvested by combine. This will enable us to plant the early maturing varieties in a double row pattern and to time our irrigations to coincide with each maturity group's individual moisture requirements. It should make our results more applicable to actual farming conditions," Dr. Owen stated.

Looking ahead to soybean production on the High Plains this season Dr. Owen thought that the amount of irrigation water available will be a limiting factor as to the number of acres of soybeans planted in the area. Many farmers will plant as much grain sorghum as they have water and fertilizer to cover and thus not have as many acres left for soybeans.

Reviewing soybean variety tests from last year Dr. Owen said that in general the early maturing varieties produced higher yields but this could have been due to hail damage on the later maturing varieties after the early varieties were harvested. New varieties have shown good potential for this area are Columbus in the early group and Essex in the medium maturing group. Older recommended varieties are Patterson, Clark 63, and HP-963 in the early maturing group and York, Hill, Hinn, Davis and Hood in the later maturing varieties.

Additional information and details of the soybean research is available in the 1973 Annual Research Report of the High Plains Research Foundation.

Band Rated Excellent

After receiving a superior rating of 1 at the Buccaneer Music Festival in Corpus Christi, the high school band provided the entertainment as they were invited to the Athletics in Action Flag Football game 7:30 p.m. at Frank Kimbrille Memorial Stadium Saturday.

Professional football players from the National Football League and World Football League played the 1974 West Texas State football team. The final score was 20-14 in favor of the AIA.

The Athletics in Action week is a week when professional athletes tour the country sharing their thoughts of the relationship between them and God.

The band played some of their contest marching music as a change from the concert music.

To complement the band for providing the entertainment the West Texas State University paid the expense of the supper for the band that night.

The results of this year's contest showed the band to have six superior ratings and three excellent ratings in UIL competition.

The final performances of the band for the school year are the Baccalaureate Service May 19 and Graduation Commencement on May 23 where the senior number will be Sinfonia Nobilissima.

Christian Group Performs At HHS

On April 29, an assembly was presented in the HHS auditorium by an "inspirational" group, called "Morning Star."

"Morning Star" is a new group at McMurtry College in Abilene, which seeks to proclaim the message of Christ and His love through music.

Their name is scriptural and is taken from the reference of Christ being the "morning star."

Their director, Dr. David Blackburn, chairman of Fine Arts and Music Departments, arranges many of the numbers for the group. His wife accompanies the group with Derven Rodgers lead guitarist and Jamie Hargus, bass guitarist.

The group also has the latest equipment to produce sounds compatible for today's popular and Christian folk music.

"Morning Star" not only has a unique witness, but an outstanding sound, which is appealing to all who hear.

The Athlete's in Action also brought a short assembly program following "Morning Star."

Ed Mooney of the Washington Redskins and AIA gymnast Daryl Charles spoke shortly of related incidents that have happened to the Athletes in Action on their tours. The organization has eight teams that tour the United States and foreign countries, competing against teams in flag football, wrestling, basketball, weightlifting, track and gymnastics.

The Athletes use their talents as a platform to share their faith in Jesus Christ with others.

Gymnast, Daryl Charles, shared his testimony, telling how Christ had influenced his life.

Students To Taste European Cultures

Approximately 41 students are preparing to make a trip to Europe beginning the middle part of June of 1975. These students are primarily from La Plata and six or seven from HHS.

Preparations are being made

KESTER'S JEWELRY

In Downtown Hereford

in advance and at the present time the quota of 41 students has already been met with a waiting list of those wishing to go in case a vacancy becomes available.

Some of the students will be out working this summer and next year to raise funds for their expenses, as they will be gone about 30 days.

Modes of travel will be by motor coaches, boat, subways, double decker buses and air plane.

Orientation will begin about six months before departure to enlighten the students concerning points of interest they will be seeing, exchange of currency, food, and general hints as to making travel easier.

The purpose of the trip is to make it a living classroom where the students will have contact with what they have learned about in the history books. The cultural experiences such as religion, methods of every day living, architectural differences and art will be pointed out to the students.

Places that have been outlined for the trip are: Paris, Switzerland, Amsterdam, Boppard and London. In each of the countries and cities, museums and other typical points of interest will be brought to the attention of the students.

"The teachers hope that the trip will be an academic enrichment to each student," said Bruce Logan, teacher at La Plata.

It's surprising what a compliment will do.

1930-31 HHS Grads Plan For Reunion

An informal period of visiting and a dinner are being arranged following the pattern of the class reunion last year.

Members who live in the Hereford area are asked to notify Mrs. Deward Roberson or Mrs. J.O. Newell that they plan to attend.

Defensive Driving Saves Lives, Money

More Texans than ever before are learning to save their necks and their money with the Defensive Driving Course, an eight-hour classroom course which teaches crash avoidance techniques used by professional drivers.

DDC, a joint venture of the Texas Safety Association and the National Safety Council, is a statewide campaign to reduce highway deaths, injuries and property damage through driver improvement training. The program works, as evidenced by a National Safety Council study showing that DDC graduates have fewer accidents after completion of the course.

As an added bonus DDC graduates receive a ten percent discount on their automobile insurance premiums. This discount, good for a period of three years, applies to auto liability, collision and medical payment coverages written by insurance companies who are rate-regulated by the State Board of Insurance. With the average insurance savings amounting to about $14.16 per policy per year, DDC graduates are building a potential savings of $1,995,000.00 annually.

This unique insurance incentive plan has resulted in Texas leading the nation in the training of defensive drivers. In 1973 DDC training agencies trained 145,000 persons, a record in any state in any single year.

There are currently over 500 training agencies located across the state. To enroll in a Defensive Driving Course in Your area, contact your local authorized training agency or write the Texas Safety Association, P.O. Box 9345, Austin, Texas 78766.

WTSU Museum Adds Display

A new exhibit at the Panhandle-Plains Museum on the West Texas State University campus features "Los Comancheros"—Spanish, New Mexico and Pueblo Indian traders whose traffic in buffalo robes bolstered both Mexican and New Mexican economy.

The Comancheros, named after the Comanche Indians, introduced horses, saddles, bits, bridles, wool blankets, iron weapons and tools and metal jewelry to the Indians. Their trade with the Indians developed in the 17th century and reached major proportions by the 1800s. In exchange for their Eastern goods, the Comancheros were given buffalo robes, deer skins, buckskin cloth and dried meat.

The Museum has exhibited a woolen blanket, a bit, a small piston and other articles commemorating their presence here in the Panhandle.

HOBBIES VARY — Mrs. Buck Parsons of 327 Star, a schoolbus driver, has a variety of hobbies including working in her yard and collecting coffee mugs. In photo at left, she displays a water well, relocated in their backyard, which she and her husband brought to town from their farm. The pulley, found in an antique store, actually works. In photo at right, Mrs. Parsons proudly displays some of her many coffee mugs which were bought in various states and some which were given to her by friends and relatives.

Let's Cook Housewife Enjoys Job As School Bus Driver

By SANDY INMAN
Brand Staff Writer

LEAVING the house before seven in the morning and driving a school bus for an hour and a half and then climbing into it again in the afternoon doesn't seem to bother Mrs. Buck Parsons.

"I had to get used to the children, but that didn't take long. Actually, I thoroughly enjoy driving the bus," says Mrs. Parsons. "Operating it was easy since I had driven a grain truck for my husband for over 30 years."

The Parsons, who have been engaged in farming since they married over 32 years ago, have recently moved to town and live at 327 Star. The couple came to the Hereford area in 1939 from Armstrong County near Claude.

THEY HAVE four children,

Lloyd, who is a teacher in Lubbock; Don, employed as an insurance salesman in Garland; Nancy Evans, a music teacher at Clifton; and Doris Cory, working as a nurse in Houston.

The housewife-mother has been very active in the Progressive Extension Club and has held every club office and also every county council office.

She served four years as district director of District I Texas Home Demonstration Association, which entitled her to be on the state board for four years.

Other honors include being chosen for County HD Woman of the Year in 1954 and winning the Tierra Blanca Soil Conservation, District 143, Contest several years ago.

SHE HAS been a substitute Sunday School teacher at the First United Methodist Church and played the piano for Sunday School classes at the church.

Hobbies of Mrs. Parsons include embroidering, making quilts, sewing, cooking and yard work. One of her keepsake treasures is a beautiful quilt which belonged to her husband's grandmother.

Never being able to sit idly watching television, Mrs. Parsons has several projects started.

She has almost completed a cross-stitch tablecloth and a patchwork double knit quilt. She is currently working on a blouse, on which she is embroidering designs, for her daughter.

UNLIKE THE embroidered blue-colored work shirts which are so popular today, she is using parrot, palm tree, and island sketches on the blouse.

"I suppose it's odd that I enjoy these things now because when I was younger all I was interested in was playing basketball," laughs Mrs. Parsons.

Apparently quite an accomplished basketball player at an early age, Mrs. Parsons recalls making the high school basketball team when she was in the seventh grade.

She remained on the team until she graduated and later played on her hometown basketball team for a year.

"I love watching the games on television but like most athletic events years ago, the rules and regulations have changed and they are a little more difficult to understand."

she says.

RAISING our teenagers provides never-ending entertainment and sometimes minor problems arise, and the Parsons found no exception except they had two extra teenage girls from Finland.

During the 1959-60 school year, Mari Niinisto came to live with her new family through the American Field Service Organization. Her cousin, Tuula Lehti, came to live with the Parsons in 1963 during her senior year.

"Both girls were very interesting and typical teenagers. Tuula has been back once for a visit and we correspond with Mari often," states Mrs. Parsons.

A favorite recipe of the Parsons is Corn Pudding.

CORN PUDDING

- ¼ cup margarine
- ¼ cup chopped onion
- ¼ cup chopped green pepper
- 2 tbs. chopped pimento
- 2 eggs
- 1 can (1 lb. 1 oz.) cream style corn
- ½ cup fine dry bread crumbs
- 1 tsp. salt
- ¼ tsp. pepper
- Melt margarine in a skillet. Add onion, green pepper and pimento. Saute until tender. Beat eggs, add corn, bread crumbs, salt, pepper and saute with vegetables.
- Four into 1 qt. greased casserole. Set in hot water and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes or until firm.

New Pastor Welcomed At Sunday Reception

Open house at the newly-remodeled parsonage of Avenue Baptist Church gave members an opportunity to become better acquainted with their new pastor, the Rev. John H. Johns, and Mrs. Johns. The couple received visitors at the parsonage through the afternoon Sunday.

Callers were shown through the home 146 Northwest, which has lately been redecorated and repaired.

Refreshments were served by wives of the church deacons, Mmes. Billy Wall, Marti Mason, Homer Thomas, Herman Hendrix, Dick Mason, Gerald Townsend and Johnie Townsend.

The Rev. and Mrs. Johns came to Hereford last month from Lubbock, where he has been pastor of Trinity Baptist Church.

Mrs. Dunning Is Honoree

Decorations were in pink and blue for a layette shower honoring Mrs. Alan Dunning Sunday afternoon in Mrs. Gerald Nunley's home. Other hostesses were Mmes. Steve Larkin, Ralph Hill, Michael Brisendine, Dale Hallows, and Rodger Ruland.

Gifts were presented the mother-to-be by 25 friends. Packages were opened during the informal party; cake and punch were served. Mrs. Dunning was given a corsage of pink chrysanthemums tied with blue ribbon.

CUTEST KIDS— First place winners in four age divisions of the Cutest Kids Contest sponsored by Hereford Newcomers Club Saturday hold their trophies as they stand in front of the Maypole which decorated St. Anthony's School auditorium Stage where they were presented after judging. With no boys entering for five-year-olds, Darlene Howard placed first for girls. In other ages, Leslie Conkwright and Glenn Zimmerman were tops for four-year-olds, Tricia Snyder and Billy Seiver three-year-olds, Dina Cooper and Jim Dee Gibson of Adrian, two-year-olds.

Poultry Peaks Shopping Lists

Vegetable and poultry counters will offer "shopper savings" this week, one expert predicts.

Economical vegetables in good supply include cabbage, carrots, celery and new crop yellow onions, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, reported.

Also, asparagus, radishes, green onions, lettuce, mustard, collard and turnip greens.

Turning to poultry counters, the specialist cited whole turkey, turkey parts and fryer chickens "among the most economical, high-quality protein foods available."

"Fresh fruit items in good supply at economical prices are apples, oranges, bananas and grapefruit. Raisin supplies are moderate, and dried prunes should be ample."

At pork counters, values include hams, picnics, Boston butt roasts, shoulder roasts and steaks, end-cut loin roasts and chops.

"Beef cuts on special are the ones in less demand, because preparation time is a bit longer—chuck cuts, round steaks and stew meat."

CONSUMER WATCH-WORDS: A chuck cut in labeling language means the cut comes from the shoulder. Blade cuts from the shoulder blade area are slightly more tender than arm chuck cuts, which come from below the blade area-nearer the front leg. Chuck cuts require moist heat cookery.

Ties and bows are popular with suits and for dresses.

Wicker baskets have come back in style this year. They are used in a variety of ways—flower arrangements, needlework, hot rolls and for many other things.

Jacket dresses continue their popularity. Some of the new designs feature square necklines on the dresses.

Wedge sport shoes and sandals are colorful and comfortable for summer wear.

WTSU Awards Scholarship To HHS Girl

Donna Walterscheid, Hereford High School senior, has been named to receive a $500 West Texas State University Residence Hall Scholarship for academic year 1974-75.

Selected for her notable scholarship and leadership, Miss Walterscheid is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Walterscheid of 222 Elm.

"The Residence Hall Scholarships were established in order to attract outstanding students such as Donna to West Texas State University," WTSU President Lloyd I. Watkins said. "They are substantial scholarships, and will be of great benefit not only to the recipient, but to WTSU. This scholarship program is another element in our continuing quest for excellence."

Miss Walterscheid's achievements include National Honor Society and Student Council memberships, serving both as president and as sweetheart of the Future

Homemakers of America, and placing first at the Tri-Plains Science Fair. She plans to major in medical technology at West Texas State University.

Boaters Need To Heed Law

Many boaters across the nation had better change their ways after July 1, 1974.

This is the date a new U.S. Coast Guard regulation goes into effect outlawing bilge pump discharge leaving a visible film or oily sheen on the water.

Law enforcement officials say there is some confusion among boat owners about the new regulation because most think it applies only to oil tankers and industrial vessels.

Pleasure boats 26 feet and longer will be required after July 1 to have a fixed or portable means of preventing discharge of oil bilge spots over the side.

According to law enforcement officials, the installation of drip trays under the boat's engine is one answer to the problem, and scrubbing the bilges before launching is another.

Further, the new regulation requires that a 5-by 8-inch placard be posted in the machinery spaces warning against pumping bilges containing oil or oily waste overboard.

The placard may be placed under the top of the engine box, under the engine hatch cover or under the floorboards if they are the cover for the engine areas.

Although violations of the new regulation carry fines of up to $5,000, law enforcement officials say they doubt if pleasure boat operators will be fined this much for a violation.

USDA Outlines Property Tax

Thirty-one states use some form of differential assessment in their tax programs to help preserve open space land or to help reduce property taxes levied on farmland.

A U.S. Department of Agriculture Economic Research Service (ERS) study issued reports wide differences in property tax programs among states. The study defines and compares three main types of differential assessment:

A preferential assessment law is one where land is valued according to its current use. Further, no penalty is exacted if the land is later converted to another use.

A deferred tax law is also one in which land is taxed according to its current use value. But, when land use changes, an additional tax is levied against the land or its owner.

A restrictive agreement occurs when the landowner and the local government agree to restrict use of the land in return for differential assessment.

An appendix provides detailed descriptions of differential assessment programs in each of the 31 states.

A copy of the report, "State Programs for the Differential Assessment of Farm and Open Space Land," AER 256, is available on request by telephone: (202) 447-7255. Or send a postcard to Office of Communications, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 20250. Include zip code with full address.

Witnesses Plan To Attend Convention

Delegates from Hereford will be among the more than 1800 expected at a convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in Portales Saturday and Sunday. The meeting will be held in Portales High School gymnasium with the public invited.

A Mayo, spokesman for the local group, said this is a semi-annual assembly and has the purpose of training Jehovah's Witnesses in their ministry. Hereford delegates will participate in the programs of discussions, Bible talks and dramatizations.

Principal speaker will be Paul Moske of New York, district overseer. His subject is Be Confident of Divine Victory.

Club Announces Winners

Hereford Riders Club hosted Range II Playday Sunday afternoon in the Hereford Riders Club Arena.

High point winners from Hereford include peewee girl, Cindy Guerrero; peewee boy, Joel Smith; intermediate girl, Pam Kerr; senior boy, Vincent Guerrero.

June 9 is the date set for the next playday at the Riders Club Arena.

When the dollar outranks honor and integrity the loss isn't felt by those who have honor and integrity.

MOTHER'S WEEK

Small Talk

By SUE COLEMAN
Women's Editor

SOMEBODY is always telling the City Commission what it should do, whether or not the idea is feasible, so a remark or two from this direction probably won't bother them any.

Headlines and photos from Amarillo after that city's two-inch rain, detailing the plight of people whose homes were flooded, reminds me of an apparent threat of that nature for Hereford. It looks to me like somebody ought to do something now before we get floods from a two-inch rain.

If you think I'm crazy, people in Amarillo would probably have thought such talk crazy a few years ago, and Hereford is growing fast. I've lived in another West Texas city that developed the same problem before anyone realized what was happening.

TROUBLE is that in dry weather nobody thinks a Plains town could possibly be in danger from a flood. Then real estate developers sell lots and build houses in a dry playa lake bed, people move in, and then it rains. That's where they get those news photos of Odessa residents being evacuated from their homes by boat.

That old lake bed, very dry, just south of the new elementary school location looks to me like possible trouble. Building is moving in that direction and it is not improbable that it might be considered a choice residential area before too long.

Whoever owns it and whatever plans there are for it, city planners maybe should take a look at it. My idea for the ideal solution (offered absolutely free of charge) is for a city park on the lowest part of the lake bed, with the positively lowest part dug deeper to make a real lake.

SOME cities have done that with playa lakes in the city limits so mine isn't an original idea, but it would provide a park which is needed in that part of town and make the surrounding land into desirable home sites with dry cellars.

And while I'm suggesting, traffic in that part of town, with the new shopping center out there, is bad enough before the school opens and will likely get worse.

One through Street, Park Avenue, just isn't enough and Bradley is awfully narrow. Could it be widened before the jam starts? Or some other arrangement made? It's scary to drive out there now and bound to get more so.

AFTER a three-week visit with their daughter, Peggy, and her family at Lake Arrowhead near Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. George Bumpass are back home with tales of genuine rain, about seven inches of it in the North Texas area.

Peggy, who is Mrs. Grady McDaniel, had surgery on her ankle just after Easter and it turned out to be more serious than expected so the Hereford couple stayed longer than they had planned, to keep house for her two school-age children and play chauffeur between school and home.

ELECTED president of Ko Sari, men's social club at McMurry College, Charles Allison of Hereford will serve for the 1974-75 school year. He is the son of Daisy Allison of 107 Beach.

A sophomore at the Abilene college, where he majors in political science and has a minor in biology, Allison is a 1973 graduate of Hereford High.

AT THE annual Student Activities Recognition Banquet last week at South Plains College in Levelland, David Hicks of Hereford was presented certificates designating his selection to Who's Who in American Junior Colleges and Who's Who at SPC.

He is a Hereford High graduate, son of Dr. and Mrs. C.E. Hicks.

It's good to know what a man says but it's better to understand what he does.

Offices Filled At Spring Lunch

Committees to work in La Afflatus Estudio Club through the coming year were named by Mrs. Martin Gilliland, the new president, after officers were installed at the annual Spring luncheon Tuesday in Mrs. Emmitt Hale's home. Mrs. George Suggs and Mrs. T.W. Roberson were hostesses with Mrs. Hale.

Della Stagner was chosen vice president in a special election held after Mrs. Lottie Clark, who had been given that office, resigned from the club.

Others who took office were Mrs. A.B. Higgins, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Cecil Braly, reporter; Mrs. Sam Morgan, parliamentarian; Mrs. B.F. Markham, liaison to the Women's Forum.

A guest, Gladys Setliff, conducted the installation with the theme, A Word Fly Spoken. Each new officer placed a tiny golden apple on the branches of a silver tree to carry out the idea of the quotation from the Old Testament book of Proverbs. Mrs. Morgan, retiring president, handed the gavel to Mrs. Gilliland.

Appointed to the yearbook committee were Mrs. A.N. Hopson, Madeline Bell and Mrs. W.F. Johnson; social committee, Mmes. Braly, Ira Ott, Morgan and Markham; finance committee, Miss Stagner, Mmes. Hale, Higgins and A.H. Cook; courtesy committee, Mmes. Suggs, Roberson and S.C. Ramey.

The project committee will comprise members of finance and courtesy committees with the president.

A salad luncheon was served to 12 members at tables decorated with May flowers.

Bicentennial And Other Plans Talked By Board

Advance plans for local observance of National Bicentennial year, 1976, in conjunction with the centennial of Deaf Smith County which was formed in 1876, were among items considered by the executive council of the Chamber of Commerce Women's Division at lunch in Hereford Country Club Tuesday.

Program subject for the next quarterly membership meeting in July will be the Bicentennial. Women's Division members will work with chamber committees set up to map the community observance in three phases, Heritage, Festival and Horizon, it was reported by Bill Albright, chamber manager. Mrs. Joe Reinauer Sr. and Mrs. Clint Formby are Women's Division co-chairmen.

In his report Albright asked cooperation from the division in another chamber project, a campaign to put emphasis on shopping in Hereford and developing the city as an area shopping center.

He thanked the women for pushing the recent cleanup campaign, and reported that entrance signs to the city are being repainted or replaced in keeping with suggestions from the beautification committee.

Membership in the division continues to climb and now totals 165, Mrs. Joe Henry said in her membership committee report.

Mrs. O.G. Nieman, president, reported from a Tuesday morning meeting of the Miss Hereford Pageant steering committee. Members voted to send Mrs. Dwight McGee and Mrs. Terry Caviness, co-directors of this year's pageant, as chaperones for Miss Hereford, Susie Hickman, at the Miss Texas pageant in Fort Worth.

A folding screen, for use each year at the pageant here, was bought by the committee, Mrs. Nieman said, and the executive council voted to buy another to match it.

A recent area meeting of Chamber of Commerce women at Amarillo was reported by Mrs. Melvin Hoover, who with Mmes. Lynn Kester, J.W. Robinson, Joel Newman, Caviness and Henry attended from Hereford.

She outlined some ideas gained from other cities represented and some were discussed for possible adoption here. Women from Berger, Dumas, Stratford, Plainview and Tulla were at the meeting, she said.

Need for volunteers to conduct a summer youth program based at Community Center was stressed by Mrs. W.E. Sparks, public affairs chairman, speaking of plans by the education and youth subcommittee.

Mrs. Joel Newman, fine arts chairman, told of a recent meeting she attended in Odessa of the Texas Association of Fine Arts Councils. She explained a grant available for an art-in-schools program, and was authorized to present the plan to Hereford school officials. It would require matching funds from the school system.

Smelly Socks Conquered

What great age of miracles we live in. First, there was television. Then, we landed men on the moon. And, today, one of the most dramatic breakthroughs of the decade: "no smell" socks with their built-in deodorant.

Think of all the embarrassing moments in the past when wrinkled noses and wry comments were made when someone took off his or her shoes and the pungent odor of sweated socks filled the room. Now, that will all be a thing of the past as the "deodorant sock" starts appearing on the feet of hundreds of thousands of Americans, from athletes to housewives, from salesmen to school teachers.

Who knows, the new cry may be, "Your feet smell, put your socks back on!"

The "deodorant sock" is a merchandising outlet which has just started to advertise them in its current catalog and display them on counters in its retail stores throughout the country. A wide selection of "deodorant socks" will be offered starting with the heavy tube socks popularly used in sports, and several dress and business styles.

Each of these socks bear a distinctive mint leaf-shaped label in two-tone green and white with the identification: "Sanitized Treated . . . the deodorant sock . . . resists perspiration odors."

The secret behind these amazing socks is contained in the first two words of the label, "Sanitized Treated". The idea of "the deodorant sock" was first conceived by Sanitized Sales Co. of America, Inc., which for many years has marketed Sanitized brand bacteriostats and fungistats used by many industries, particularly textiles, to provide hygienic finishes for various products. Socks are an ideal product to be treated with a Sanitized bacteriostatic deodorant.

SMELLY FEET AND matching smelly socks have been a problem for ages, the cause being twofold. First, the soles of your feet are one of the three major body areas which contains major concentration of large sweat glands; the others being your armpits and the palms of your hands. Second, the problem is compounded because during almost your entire waking hours, your feet are doubly encased within closed-fitting socks and shoes which increase the temperature of the soles.

Now, how does the Sanitized treated socks become a "deodorant sock"? Perspiration in itself is odorless and 99 per cent water. It is when bacteria begins growing in warm, moist conditions (such as the soles of your feet) that it attacks the traces of urea in the perspiration, causing the release of ammonia and the creation of the annoying odor. The Sanitized brand bacteriostat is applied during the finishing of the socks, inhibiting the formation of perspiration odor in the socks.

Since the bacteriostat is retained by the fibres themselves, the resulting "deodorant" is locked into the socks and will remain effective after repeated launderings.

Use of the Sanitized deodorant has no effect on the feel of the fabric, or the shade or fastness of the dyestuff.

Students Rank At Math Finals

Ginger Newton and Joe Fuhrmann represented Hereford High School's math team in UIL Literary state finals last weekend in Austin.

Miss Newton, capping three years of math contests, ranked 8th in number sense competition. She qualified for the state meet by earning 2nd place honors at regional finals in Lubbock.

Fuhrmann, in his junior year at HHS, garnered 5th place in state slide rule tests after being named Best Regional Math Competitor in Lubbock.

The local math squad is sponsored by Don Hooper and has competed in several UIL contests in conjunction with the HHS forensics team.

Lube Oil Gets

Top Priority

The Southern Legislative Conference, recently meeting in executive session in Atlanta, passed a resolution calling for the allocation priority for lubricating oils to be changed to 100 per cent of that needed by agriculture.

The resolution, sponsored by Texas State Rep. Bill Clayton (D-Springlake), and Tennessee State Senator Carl Gainer, was designed to aid two different sectors of the economy currently suffering from shortages of lubricating oils. These two sectors, irrigation wells and pumps for agricultural production, and those companies conducting exploratory work for coal and petroleum supplies, have both been severely hampered by the low priority given them for the allocation of petroleum products, Rep. Clayton reported.

The Southern Legislative Conference, an organization of state legislators from across the southern part of the nation, is just one of several major organizations that have taken stands to change the fuel allocation priority for the lube oil products.

Marian Betzen Is Honored At Shower

A courtesy for a bride-elect, Marian Betzen, was a tea-shower Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. G.C. Merritt Jr. Miss Betzen and Dan Hardy are to be married June 8 in a ceremony at St. Anthony's Catholic Church.

She greeted shower guests with her mother, Agnes Betzen; her sister, Linda; and Hardy's mother, Mrs. Hilton Jones. A younger sister, Robin, invited callers to register. Micki Merritt and Nina Gilleland served refreshments from a table centered with a candelabra arrangement of blue tapers and yellow chrysanthemums. The cloth repeated the colors, which Miss Betzen has chosen for her wedding.

Hostesses with Mrs. Merritt were Mmes. Leroy Williamson, W.J. Albracht, Tommy Albracht, Buster Miller, Jack Gray, Buddy Black, Bill Gilleland, Charlie Berend, Frances Head, Maurice Means and Merlin Kaul.

Earth Program Revealed

Return To Earth by Col. Edwin Aldrin, Jr. and Dutch Uncle by Marilyn Durham are the two books being featured at the Deaf Smith County Library this week.

Return To Earth is a most fascinating view the American public has ever seen of the space U.S. program. This book is the unique and honest story of a man who journeyed to another planet to begin the most highly personal journey a man can undertake.

The Dutch Uncle is the story of a man who is fleeing from the wives of a San Francisco woman in the 1880's only to find he is arriving in a New Mexico mining town as the incredulous and outraged custodian of a pair of Mexican orphans.

The library is open to the public on weekdays from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. and on Saturdays until noon. The public is invited to use the facilities free of charge.

RETURN TO EARTH
By Col. Edwin E.
"Buzz" Aldrin, Jr.

Return to Earth is the first candid "inside" look at the human side of the space program. It is the story of Buzz Aldrin, who returned to Earth from the historic first landing on the moon to begin a long and troubled odyssey—an ordeal that involved a secret mental depression and the near dissolution of his marriage.

It is the revelation, in Aldrin's own words, of one of the most daring exploits in history and of what happened afterward: The intense training. The celebrated first touch-down on the moon. The instant and unexpected fame and notoriety, and the difficult adjustment of becoming a public personality. The demanding world-wide public relations tour for NASA for which his rigid training, from West Point through the astronaut corps, had never prepared him. The near impossibility of reconciling his public image as a hero to the realities of being a husband, father and pilot-academician. The adulation from women everywhere. The serious love affair that nearly tore his home apart. The continuing emotional and mental pressure which led him to seek psychiatric help and enter a hospital for treatment. And, finally, the long and deep look inside himself and the road back to health.

Besides being a moving personal confession, Return to Earth is the most fascinating view we have had of the space program: an unusually candid and often humorous and occasionally controversial view of the politicking behind the scenes; the rivalry among the astronauts, both within the space program and for the public's attention; the deprecating after the flights. Return to Earth is the unique and honest story of a man who journeyed to another planet to begin the most highly personal journey a man can undertake: the attempt to find himself.

DUTCH UNCLE
By Marilyn Durham

Fleeing the wives of a San Francisco woman in March 1880, Jake Hollander arrives in a New Mexico mining town as the incredulous and outraged custodian of a pair of Mexican orphans.

He's a hard, mean man of forty five, former gunslinger, present card sharp, whose plan is to dump Paco and Urraca and keep right on going into El Paso and a new career as saloonkeeper. But out of Jake's strenuous past step the publisher of the Arredondo newspaper and his sister, Carrie. And even Jake has second thoughts about entrusting two small children to the ladies of the Golden Moon. What with one thing and another, then, he settles down for a spell in Arredondo, takes up his old calling of marshall, and finds his hands full with a whole lot more than just gun butts.

There's the proprietress of the Golden Moon, voluptuous and possibly willing, and there's Carrie Hand, a spinster of unexpected spirit. There's a complicated matter of some mailorder brides, long overdue. There is at large a desperado named Frank Becker, escaped from the Territorial Prison at Yuma. And there are always those two Mexican orphans....

Dutch Uncle proves that The Man Who Loved Cat Dancing, a notable success of 1972, was no accident. Marilyn Durham displays again her brilliant gift for swift, taut storytelling, and this time the wit that enlivened her first novel has blossomed into comedy.

Dutch Uncle has its share of menace, violence, and sudden death, but it is wryly, rather than tragically, romantic, it is sometimes deeply touching, and after the high suspense of its climax it comes to an undeniably happy ending. An altogether splendid entertainment, it will delight the thousands who discovered The Man Who Loved Cat Dancing, and win Marilyn Durham a host of new readers.

Spa Attempts To Rejuvenate

Sugarland Health Spa has recently opened its doors to the public, with new equipment, added facilities and under new management.

Owner Roger Barrett said, "If the public will come out and visit, just to see what we have to offer, that will help their health, I think they will be interested in getting into a supervised program."

"The Whirlpool is good for those suffering from arthritis and pulled muscles. The steam room which has been improved is good for opening the pores enabling the impurities to be removed from the body," added Barrett.

"If overweight is the problem, the Sauna Bath is great and also helps in taking off inches," said Barrett.

"The equipment will be available to all and it is really up to them to put it to good use. I can help get them started, but they will have to use will power and keep up with it themselves.

"There is not going to be any contracts. Everything will be based upon what the individual agrees to do," Barrett emphasized.

"I sure hope everyone will come out and get acquainted, try out any of the equipment and then go tell their friends to come with them the next time," said Barrett.

Hours for women are: Monday through Friday-9 a.m. to 12 noon, and 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., Wednesday and Friday 6 p.m. to 9 p.m., and Saturday 9 a.m. to 12 noon to 2 p.m. and Saturday 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

"Shorts or slacks for work-out and swimsuits are to be worn at all times. Proper attire will be enforced", said Barrett.

Golden Wedding Reception Held

Guests from half a dozen states, relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCullough, were here for a reception in Hereford Country Club Sunday afternoon honoring the couple on their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosts were their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. James Killian and daughter, Julia, of Clovis, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McCullough and sons, Clay and Don, of Wichita, Kan.

The Killians and the Pat McCulloughs received guests with the couple, while the grandchildren presided in turn at the registry table.

Refreshments were served by houseparty members, who included Mrs. McCullough's sisters, Mrs. William Dauer of Lincoln, Neb., Mrs. Maurice Sloan of Enid, Okla., and Miss Olive Halek of Fairbury, Neb.; McCullough's sisters-in-law, Mrs. Ray McCullough and Mrs. Don McCullough of Amarillo; also Joan Thompson of Clovis.

In the houseparty also were Hereford friends, Mmes. Ted Panciera, Herman Ford, Ray Johnson, Lloyd Lookingbill, W.E. Dameron, O.G. Hill Sr., Delmar Sigle and S.O. Wilson, and from Amarillo, Mrs. George Grogan.

Mrs. McCullough was dressed for the party in a Hawaiian silk print of rose design on beige, with gold-hued roses in a corsage.

More of the roses appeared in table decor, with daisies and babybreath in epergne arrangements on either side of the tiered cake which was set on four heart-shaped layers. Gold sugar roses ornamented the white icing and on top was a cluster of wedding bells. Nosegays tied with gold ribbon caught the cloth in drapes across the front.

Mrs. Ellis Coombes, Mrs. J.C. McCracken and Julia Killian played piano selections as a background for conversation during the reception. Yellow chrysanthemums filled a bowl on the piano.

Among out-of-town guests were McCullough's brothers, Lawrence of Oklahoma City and Ray of Amarillo; a former schoolmate of Mrs. McCullough, Mrs. Russell Sandels of Loveland, Colo.

Also Mrs. Dorwin Chiles of El Reno, Okla., Mrs. Jack McCullough and Patty Blaylock of Clovis, Mrs. Leonard Waldrop of Borger, the Harold Brothers and Thomas Armstrong families of Dumas, Burl McCullough of Springfield, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Burton Towne of Oklahoma City.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Sabin Hendrickson and daughter Susan of Lubbock, Mrs. Len Tillerson of Marlow, Okla., Mr. and Mrs. Doug Rittenberry and daughters of Canyon, Jay and Mike McCracken of Portales, Messrs. and Mmes. Clement Birmeyer, Ralph O'Keefe and Darrel Dean of Amarillo.

For cleaner soybeans, without incorporation, tank-mix Lorox with Lasso.

You'll control almost any annual grass or broadleaf weed that's in your soybeans... a broader spectrum of control than either could provide by itself.

With Lasso plus Lorox, you can count on controlling carelessnessweed, crabgrass and watergrass (barnyardgrass). You'll even reduce competition from seedling Johnsongrass. A real headache in Texas.

And you don't incorporate Lasso plus Lorox. You can save yourself a trip over your fields. Pretty important these days.

So start making your plans now to harvest cleaner beans.

Editorial

Meals-On-Wheels Thanks Supporters

Dear Editor,

I am happy to repeat that Hereford's Meals-On-Wheels program has completed another year of service to our community with plans to continue into a new year of service to our fellow man.

It is a joy and a privilege to share our love in this manner and to pray that we will be more able to serve more people in the future.

From the beginning of our 2nd fiscal year, May 3, 1973 to the same date of this year, with 258 serving days, we have served 2,624 meals to some 37 people. The most we have served in one day was 17 people; and are presently serving 11 people daily, five days a week, Monday through Friday, the noon meal.

Meals are now being prepared at Deaf Smith General Hospital by a very efficient staff of people under the supervision of Mr. John Dolan, dietician. (with special care in special diets)

Our cost of each meal is $1.25 plus 12 cents for containers. Customers in turn pay only for the food at a cost of $1.25 per meal. Some pay 25 cents or 50 cents per meal and some have been unable to pay anything. Charge is based on income and expenses of customers. No one is refused meals—regardless of circumstances, if they are in need of the service, but those who are able to do so are expected to pay.

Meals-On-Wheels is not a welfare program or a catering service, but strictly a Christian service—non-profit organization to serve mankind to the best of our ability with all volunteer help.

This year Meals-On-Wheels has paid $3,590.49 for meals including packaging. Customers in turn have paid $1,698.75, while contributions for the year were only $1,807.00.

Other than food and containers our only expenses were approximately $60 for stamps, stationary supplies, paper bags, paper towels, aluminum foil and other supplies used in the packaging of meals. Also a Post Office box rent.

All credit for the success of our Meals-On-Wheels program goes to our Lord and the faithful people who give so generously of their time to deliver meals—and our great people of this fine community who give their contributions faithfully. To each of these people I am deeply grateful. However our contributions for the year would not have been adequate were it not for the initial fund drive and the fund-raising style show sponsored by Church Women United in April of 1973. (Church Women United are sponsors for Meals-On-Wheels.)

We have a few individuals who make monthly contributions: Kiwanis and Lions Club contribute monthly; several church groups and Sunday School classes contribute monthly; only one church makes a monthly contribution; two other churches make annual contributions; Chamber of Commerce ladies give annually and several ladies clubs have made contributions.

For all of these we are thankful and we want you all to know that without you there could be no Meals-On-Wheels for Hereford.

Thank you all sincerely and God bless you and keep you in His care and love.

Mrs. Lola Curtsinger
Coordinator of Hereford's Meals-On-Wheels

If you can't get PIONEER Brand 8311 here are some excellent alternative hybrids for High Plains farmers.

Pioneer Brand 8311, the "Golden Bronze Yield Leader," has been our most popular hybrid this year — so popular, in fact, that it may be in short supply in some areas. One reason is that the demand has been so great downstate where 8311's disease tolerance is so important. Fortunately, there are several other Pioneer Brand hybrids that are proven top performers on the High Plains. If you can't get 8311, ask your dealer about these.

PIONEER Brand 8417
This versatile yellow endosperm sorghum is a champion yielder in the medium-late maturity class, for irrigated or non-irrigated land. It has large open heads, uniform head height, strong stalks for easy threshing, good tolerance to smut and anthracnose.

PIONEER Brand 820
This top-notch full-season hybrid, is a consistently high yielder. Excellent drought resistance and standability plus good roots and stalks make it a good choice for irrigated or non-irrigated farming on the plains.

PIONEER Brand 828
One of the highest yielding sorghums you can plant, this full-season hybrid responds well to good management on good land with plenty of water. Plains growers like it because it holds its quality and threshes well even after an early freeze. It produces sturdy stalks with semi-compact heads of dark red grain.

PIONEER Brand 846
Famous for its versatility and adaptability, this medium maturity hybrid yields along with the full-season varieties. Resistant to smut, rust and MDM, its outstanding hybrid vigor and excellent drought resistance help it turn in consistently high yields even under stress.

Circus Is Coming Monday Under Lions Sponsorship

Tickets for King Brothers Three-Ring Circus, to give two performances here Monday on the Bull Barn parking lot, are on sale at Hereford business places and also by members of Simms Lions Club which will sponsor the appearance in Hereford. Final plans were made at the recent club meeting, a barbecue dinner served by Simms Study-Craft Club. Tickets are available now at Harold Close Drug, Spangler Jewelers, TG&V, and both bands. The club is providing tickets for kindergarten pupils in Hereford, all pupils at Walcott School and workers at the Mental Health Mental Retardation Center. These tickets were purchased by merchants of the area and given back to the club for use of the children. Plans were made for installation of officers at a Ladies Night dinner in Hereford June 6. For the next club meeting, May 16, Layton Sawyer is in charge of the program. Dean Stallings, manager of Pitman Industries, was the speaker at the barbecue. A birthday cake was served for dessert honoring the club's sweetheart, Yvonne Duggan. She attended the recent District 211 Lions convention at Dumas, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Duggan. Boss Lion Terry Creitz and Mrs. Creitz also went from Simms Club. Ed Hartley and Jim Bob Perrin were named a committee to nominate a club sweetheart for next year. Jim Cavin was winner of the Tall Twister's pot for the day. ABC Sports will provide extensive, exclusive coverage of the Indianapolis '500—the most prestigious and most popular event in auto racing—including the important time trials on Saturday, May 11 and Saturday, May 10, and the Sunday, May 12, running of the race itself.

ABC Sports' broadcast team for the Indianapolis '500 will include Jim McKay, series host of "ABC's Wide World of Sports," Chris Schenkel, Bill Flemming and automotive authority Chris Economaki.

On race day itself, the first time this traditional event has ever been scheduled for a Sunday, ABC Sports will telecast the racing action during the prime time viewing hours, 8:00-10:00 p.m. on the ABC Television Network.

The Indianapolis '500, in addition to being an American institution, is the world's only million dollar plus auto race, and the field is expected to include the premier names in the sport, among them defending champion Gordon Johncock, former winners A. J. Foyt, the Unser Brothers, Bobby and Al, and Mario Andretti, along with 1973 United States Auto Club driving champion Roger McCluskey, Lloyd Ruby, Johnny Rutherford, Joe Leonard and Gary Bettenhausen.

Adding a European flavor to the competition will be David Hobbs, former champion of the "500," and a top Can-Am and Formula 1 driver, who will be seeking a berth at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Ann Rutherford (right) guest stars as Emily's (Susanne Presti) mother, on "The Bob Neuhart Show," to be re-aired Saturday, May 11 (8:30-9:00 p.m.) on the CBS Television Network.

Jam, just like mother made

"California Jam," the record-breaking concert which featured a 12-hour performance by eight top rock acts will be presented in four "In Concert" programs on the ABC Television Network's "ABC Wide World of Entertainment" series on Friday nights (10:30 p.m.-12:00 midnight), May 18, May 24, June 7 and June 11. The announcement was made by Martin Stanger, President of ABC Entertainment.

Rare Earth, Earth, Wind & Fire, Eagles, Seals & Crofts, Black Oak Arkansas, Black Sabbath, Deep Purple, and Emerson, Lake & Palmer were the outstanding acts assembled by ABC Entertainment in its first venture into live concert. The event, taped at Ontario, California, on April 6, set new records in live entertainment, attracting an estimated 170,000 to 200,000 people, the largest paying crowd ever recorded, encountering the least trouble for a rock concert, and establishing the greatest financial success.

"We are very pleased with 'California Jam,' ABC Entertainment's first venture into the live musical presentation field," said Mr. Stanger. "From every point of view—the audience's, the performers', the community's, and certainly from the producers', this was a most successful event."

"Poetry to See, Poetry to Hear"

The imaginative new art form of combining language with graphics or musical elements—often with startling effect—is demonstrated in "Poetry to See, Poetry to Hear" on the "Camera Three" Sunday, May 12 (10:00-10:30 a.m.) on the CBS Television Network. On this program, writer-critic Richard Kachelanz, who has been active in this field as creator, editor and critic, traces the development of the different branches of this art form.

Wholly diverse examples of the form seen on the broad stage, "Poetry to See, Poetry to Hear" was produced and

A Race to the Poles

Rock Hudson, Ernest Borgnine, Patrick McGovern, Jim Brown and Tony Bill star in "Ice Station Zebra," the adventure-drama about the perilous Arctic voyage and mission of a U.S. nuclear submarine, which will be telecast in two parts, on successive nights, beginning on the "ABC Sunday Night Movie," May 12 (8:00-9:30 p.m.).

The crew of the USS Nuclear Submarine "Tigerfish" under the command of Cmdr. James Ferrady (Rock Hudson), is sent on a perilous voyage under the Arctic ice cap to the North Pole. Their mission is to rescue survivors at a weather station which is under an explosion and fire and enveloped by a winter storm.

David Jones (Patrick McGovern), a close-mouthed British intelligence agent is aboard and Ferrady is instructed to assist him in every way. Halfway to the Pole, they rendezvous with a helicopter and pick up Boris Vastov (Ernest Borgnine), a mysterious Russian working for British Intelligence, and Marine Capt. Leslie Anders (Jim Brown), who is to lead a contingent of heavily-armed U.S. Marines already on the sub.

Sabotage almost causes the destruction of the sub, but after several other close brushes with disaster, the craft and crew arrive at the weather station... to find everyone dead and the entire station wrecked.

Only then does Ferrady learn that agents Jones and Vastov are after a downed space capsule containing the key to the balance of power in event of a nuclear war, and that the Russians are sending paratroops to capture the capsule.

Thirteen days in October

In October, 1962, the world stood on the brink of destruction, precipitated by a confrontation between the United States and the U.S.S.R. over the Soviet placement of nuclear offensive weapons in Cuba. The dramatic, nerve-shattering story of "The Missiles of October" will be presented on the "ABC Theatre" series of specials on the ABC Television Network during the fourth quarter of 1974, it was announced recently by Martin Stanger, President of ABC Entertainment.

Stanley R. Greenberg has written the unique three-hour script, which will be produced by Herbert Brodtkin for the Viacom Enterprises. Greenberg and Brodtkin last joined forces for the Peabody Award-winning "ABC Theatre" production of "Pueblo," which first aired on the ABC Television Network in March, 1973.

"The Missiles of October" deals with the 13 days during which the world, unknowingly, stood only moments away from a nuclear holocaust. The script is based upon all available historical records, such as reports, academic studies, accounts by the participants, United Nations reports and records and documents of the U.S.S.R., Cuba and the United States.

"The Missiles of October" tells a story we should all know, and tells it in powerful, dramatic terms," said Mr. Stanger. "Mr. Greenberg's compelling script, combined with the production skill of Mr. Brodtkin, will make 'The Missiles of October' a major television event, and an important addition to the 'ABC Theatre' series."
