DUE TO HIKED RATES

City General Fund Gains $1,102.92

A gain of $1,102.92 was entered in the city's general fund for the month of August. C. R. McClenny, city secretary, reported to city commissioners Tuesday at regular meeting.

Cash balance in the general fund stood at $12,476.11 at the end of August, McClenny said. Balance at the beginning of the month was $11,373.19.

Most of the increase was due to increased sewage and garbage collection rates. McClenny reported. Water and sewage service billed to customers during August were $465.19 higher than in July. Garbage collection charges increased $623.35.

HCJC Classes Are Started Today; 400 Registration Seen

Classes started at Howard County Junior college today with a registration total of 400 students.

Wednesday morning 375 students for day and evening classes had been enrolled fully. There were enough pending registrations to push the figure to 400. Registrations may be accepted, with a late fee, until Oct. 1, when the deadline falls.

Although there had been no breakdowns at between day and evening sessions, the latter was definitely in the lead.

Similarly, there had been no tabulation on towns represented in the enrollment, but students were listed from several points including Lamesa, Colorado City, Monahans, Grand Falls and Stanton.

Several classes were jammed. A striking example was enrollment of approximately 85 in two sections of leathercraft, a new course being offered in the terminal field. The day section was about filled but the evening section has 65 enrolled. This means one or two additional sections for the evening. Typing enrollments were up sharply.

First assembly of the year is set for 9:50 a. m. Friday.

Cotton Pickers In Area Getting $1.50, $2 Per 100 Pounds

Prevailing quotations for cotton pickers is stabilized here now at around $1.50 and $2 per hundred pounds.

This is the figure quoted by the Texas Employment Service and the Howard county farm bureau chapter in contacts to supply the labor market here.

The $1.50 is for picking, which applies to the bulk of the crop, while the $2 is for picking.

Contracts which the Farm Bureau is drawing up in effort to secure migratory labor supplies, including brackets, call for that wage level. The bracketer would be assured of three-fourths of their contract for time worked by a clause pegged minimum hourly rates for work other than cotton gathering at 40 cents.

Some confusion resulted from an editorial counting out the level to which harvest costs has mounted in central and northern areas of the state together with Arkansas. These are not applicable here. There did show, however, in what extent crucial shortages can inflate costs for the producer.

At the present time, according to farmers the supply of harvest labor is in good balance here. The demand for pickers is expected to mount sharply within about two weeks when the crop begins to mature. The TEC and Farm Bureau are both working toward securing more hands by the time the demand arrives.

Secretary Says He Hopes Russia Will Cooperate

British-American Anti-Red Policies Declared Similar

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson said today he and British Foreign Minister Bevin are agreed that the need for a Japanese peace treaty is urgent.

Acheson indicated to a news conference that he still hopes Russia will co-operate in making the treaty.

The secretary of state met with reporters just before going into his second session of political talks with Bevin.

The first session was held yesterday and concerned the Pacific area. It produced a joint statement indicating that British and American anti-Communist policies would develop along largely parallel lines.

Acheson said that their review today would be concerned with European questions, particularly those involving Germany and Austria.

He also said in response to inquiries that he expects to go to New York next Sunday or Monday to participate in the opening of the United Nations General Assembly. He will address the assembly.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14. (AP)—Barring a play-off, the 1949 World Series will start on Wednesday, Oct. 5, in the park of the winning American League team.

Tickets will cost $1.00 for bleacher seats, $4.00 for general admission or standing room, $6.00 for grandstand reserved seats, and $8.00 for box seats.

Before today's games, the New York Yankees led Boston in the American League by two and a half games, and St. Louis led Brooklyn in the National League by one and a half games. These clubs together with Cleveland and Detroit were invited to the meeting, but Detroit did not send anyone.

Chandler said the schedule calls for games in the American League city Oct. 5 and 6 with Friday, Oct. 7, an open date in the event St. Louis is the National League winner.

Three games will be played in the National League park, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, with Tuesday, Oct. 11, an open date, followed by the concluding games, if necessary, in the American League park on Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 12 and 13.

The series is decided on a best four out of seven basis. If Brooklyn wins in the National League the open dates will be eliminated and the whole schedule will move forward.

GARDEN CITY, Sept. 14 (Sp)—Searching parties here today were hunting a 10-year-old Latin American boy who disappeared Tuesday.

Luisito Molina, one of a group of children here with cotton harvest laborers working on the Glenn Bronson farm failed to return Tuesday when he went in a pasture to get wood.

Adjournment Of Congress In October Seen

Sen. Wherry Makes Forecast As Demos Try For Speed-Up

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. (AP)—A late October adjournment of Congress was predicted today by Sen. Wherry of Nebraska, the Republican floor leader.

Barring the raising of new issues by President Truman, Democratic leaders meanwhile mapped a program that might bring the Senate abreast of its 1949 work in six weeks.

The House, in recess until Sept. 21, has completed most major legislation and seems willing to call it a legislative day as soon as the Senate can catch up.

Wherry told a reporter that so far as he is concerned the Republicans are willing to help end the session as quickly as possible. He predicted it would be shortly before Nov. 1.

Sen. Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic leader, has been blaming the Republicans for delaying important bills.

After a Democratic policy meeting yesterday, Lucas outlined a list of measures on which he said action will be sought before Congress quits.

The list put the administration's $1,314,000,000 foreign arms bill up next, after the Senate completes action on the pending, House-approved reciprocal trade agreements measure.

"There's not a thing on Lucas' list that couldn't go over until next January, and that includes the arms bill," Wherry said. "But we are willing to co-operate to expedite action on the measures he has listed."

A Centennial Jamboree will be held on Main street each Saturday evening prior to the Big Spring Centennial celebration, Oct. 2-8.

Music will be furnished by the combined orchestras from Top Hat and Casino night clubs. H. W. Smith will be master of ceremonies for the Jamboree.

Main street will be roped off for the pre-Centennial celebration. Taylor said Exhibition square dances will be given by a group of youngsters led by Harry King, and an adult team directed by Charlie Stagg.

A session of the Court of Oyer Terminer will be held during the program to be staged between 6:30 and 8:15 p. m. Platform for the Jamboree is to be erected by the Suggs Construction company. Taylor said Sound equipment will be furnished by Taylor Electric.

A letter of commendation for the Big Spring firemen and electrician who supervised the transfer of D. D. Douglass, local polio victim, from Big Spring to a hospital in Abilene was submitted to city commission Tuesday.

City Manager H. W. Whitney read the letter praising the work of the firemen and congratulating the City of Big Spring on their accomplishment. Dr. M. H. Bennett, Douglass' physician, was author.

Firemen H. A. Moore and A. D. Meador assistant in moving Douglass to Abilene Monday in an iron lung aboard a T&P baggage coach. Elton Taylor, Roy Rogan, city electrician, and Mrs. Pat Owens, nurse, helped in the transfer.

Taylor, appearing at the commission meeting, urged city officials to provide an emergency power plant. The portable unit used in the Douglass transfer threatened to quit several times during the critical trip to Abilene, he stated.

Taylor pointed out that an emergency unit could be maintained by the fire department and be transferred by truck to the scenes of future emergency operations.

AREA SOAKED TUESDAY

Cotton Harvest Is Blocked By Rains

General rains kept the cotton harvest bogged down but gave range lands a good soaking Tuesday.

Reports this morning indicated that rainfall, ranging from three quarters of an inch to an inch and a half covered most of Howard and neighboring counties.

Heavier falls were reported in some localized areas. One such spot was Moss Creek lake where two and a half inches were gauged at the dam. Moss lake's level was raised by about one foot, and Powell lake had a similar increase. City officials reported.

The rainfall in that area continued south below St. Lawrence, where one inch of moisture fell.

All of the northern part of Glasscock county had from one inch to an inch and a half.

LAZINESS DENIED

Dejobbed Native Beggars For Mercy

LONDON, Sept. 14. (AP)—A British colonial officer of Nigeria reported receiving the following plaintive plea from a West African who unexpectedly found himself disemployed.

"Dear sir—on opening this epistle you will behold the work of a dejobbed person and a very bewildered and much childrized gentleman, who was violently dejobbed in a twinkling by your good self.

"For heaven's sake, sir, consider this catastrophe as falling on your own head, and remind your self on walking home at the moon's end to five wailing wives and six-teen voracious children, with your pocket filled with non-existent pounds, shillings and pence and solitary six pence, pity my horrible state.

"As to the reason given by yourself require for my dejobment the incrimination was laziness. No sir it were impossible that myself who pitched 16 children into this vale of tears can have a lazy atom in his mortal frame and a sudden departure of 11 pounds has left me on the verge of destitution and despair.

"I hope this vision of horror will enrich your dreams this night and the good angel will melt and pulverize your heart of nether milestone so that you will awaken with such alacrity to rejobbate your servant. So mote it be, amen."

Officials in London did not know whether the native was reassocinated with his job.

Arms Aid Okay By Senate Seen

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. (AP)—Democratic leaders held high hopes today of getting Senate approval next week for a $1,314,000,000 foreign arms aid program.

20 to 3 victory they won in getting the bill through the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees.

Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois said the arms debate should take no more than a week at the most.

"We should get the bill approved without too much trouble," he told a reporter.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee agreed with Lucas' view. Connally said he thought the hardest fight had been won in getting such overwhelming committee approval.

The only three who voted against the bill were Sens. George of Georgia, Byrd of Virginia and Russell of Georgia. Republicans sided with the Democrats in the final committee voting.

Demos Holding Edge In Senate Battle Over Trade Agreements

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. (AP)—The administration appeared today to hold a slight edge just now in the Senate trade agreements battle over whether to include the "peril point" restriction.

Democratic Leader Lucas (Ill.) while conceding the loss of three or four Democrats, said the administration would defeat the restriction in a close vote. A Republican chieftain, who asked not to be named, said he thought so, too.

Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.), author of the controversial amendment, still contended that he had a fighting chance to come out on top.

The Senate yesterday reached an agreement to vote on all of the amendments and the reciprocal trade extension act beginning at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The administration bill would extend the trade program to July 12, 1951.

Millikin's amendment would require that the President report to Congress whenever he cut a tariff below a rate set by the tariff commission as a peril point for American business. The trade agreements system permits the President to adjust tariffs rates by mutual agreement with other countries.

The Senate dispute, which both Republicans and Democrats have made a strictly party issue, centers on the Millikin amendment. A similar provision was in the one-year extension voted by the GOP-controlled 80th Congress. That act expired last June 12.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) told a reporter, however, that he thought the administration had "set up a straw man" on the peril point fight.

"They say the world is going to pieces if peril points are put in," he said. "And if they win, they will say they saved the world from going to pieces."

U. S. Will Request Changes In Mexican Bracero Agreement

HOUSTON, Sept. 14. (AP)—An official of the U. S. Employment Service said here yesterday that Mexico will be asked to make several changes in the international agreement on contracting Mexican laborers.

W. C. Crawford, Dallas acting regional director, was an uninvited speaker at the annual convention of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers Association.

Crawford said the proposed changes would speed the availability of Mexican labor to harvest U. S. crops.

He said the Mexican government will be asked to:

1. Relieve United States employers of financial responsibilities for Mexican nationals who have completed work here and are scheduled to return to their homes.
2. Permit Mexican nationals to remain in the United States as long as one year.

Permitting the Mexican nationals to remain in the United States a year, Crawford said, would enable them to pick cotton in Texas, Arkansas and Mississippi and then return to the fine Grapes Valley for the fall vegetable crops.

The Snipe is making a friendly tour of American waters that began a month ago at Key West, Fla.

Russia Casts Seven UN Vetoes Tuesday

LAKE SUCCESS, Sept. 14 — Russia staff cast a record one-day string of seven big power vetoes yesterday in the UN.

This ran Russia's total of one-punch knockouts against majority decisions to a new high of 38.

Argentine Delegate Dr. Jose Arce forced the issue as an object lesson to give added basis to Argentina's move. In the 56-nation General Assembly opening Tuesday, to cut the big powers down to the voting size of the little powers in the council.

Other countries on the 11-nation council, including the United States, knew what the outcome would be if Russia was forced to vote again on seven countries whose bids for UN membership had already been vetoed as many as three times by Russia in the past four years.

But Argentina was insistent and after much preliminary tactical debate, Soviet Delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin knocked out the membership applications of Ireland, Portugal, Hashemite Jordan, Italy, Austria, Finland and Ceylon.

Some of these squabbles over applicants supported by all but the Soviet bloc have been going on since 1946. Russia has used 22 of its 38 vetoes to exclude smaller countries wanting to join.

Since the outcome was a foregone conclusion, there was little argument over the vetoes. And there is no likelihood that the basic veto provision will be changed by a continuing campaign of smaller and middle size powers to eliminate it.

The United States, Britain and China have never used the veto; France has used it on two occasions in the council.

The debate grew angry after the veto flurry. Russia proposed that the seven countries vetoed yesterday and Nepal, previously vetoed by Russia, should be taken up and voted in wholesale with five Soviet-supported applicants. The latter—Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary, have failed in the past to get the minimum majority of seven of the 11 council votes for approval.

The council adjourned until Thursday morning.

Inquiry Widens In Jim Wells Demo Primary

ALICE, Sept. 14. (AP) — Seven more witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear before the Jim Wells County grand jury in a widening inquiry into the Aug. 28, 1949 Democratic primary.

The jury recessed late yesterday until 10 o'clock Thursday morning after J. C. McGill, foreman, signed subpoenas for appearance of seven witnesses — three of them prominently identified with the primary.

Kelvis Dibrrell of San Antonio, former FBI agent and special investigator for Coke Stevenson in a vote investigation here last September, spent almost four hours with the grand jury yesterday.

Stevenson lost the primary election to Lyndon Johnson by a statewide majority of 87 votes. Later he charged that 200 "fraudulent votes" were added in Precinct 13 at Alice after the polls closed.

Before going into the grand jury room, Dibrrell told newsmen that he had "new evidence" in the 1948 primary that had not been presented to any investigating body.

Also appearing before the jury yesterday was C. W. Price of Alice, son of the late sheriff of Jim Wells County.

Among those to appear Thursday are:

B. F. (Tom) Donald, secretary of the county executive committee during the August primary and cashier of the Texas State Bank of Alice; George B. Parr of San Diego, Tex., is president of the bank; Clarence Martens, chairman of the county executive committee during the election; and Luce Kalas, president of Precinct 13.

U. S. SUPREME COURT HIT

Negro Gets Death For Raping Girl

GREENWOOD, S. C., Sept. 14. (AP) — A 24-year-old Negro was sentenced to death last night after an all-white jury deliberated 10 minutes and convicted him of raping a white girl.

The sentence closed a two-day trial that was marked by a court order to add Negro names to the jury boxes and by the judge's denunciation of the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Henry J. Johnson sentenced Willie Tolbert of Greenwood County to die in the electric chair on Oct. 8. Defense lawyers filed notice of an appeal to the South Carolina Supreme Court.

The defense offered no testimony before the circuit court jury of white men.

When the trial opened, Judge Johnson quashed the original rape indictment and ordered a new grand jury and trial jury list, including names of qualified Negroes.

The judge said he was doing that in accordance with a defense motion based on a U. S. Supreme Court ruling. But that didn't mean he respected the court, Johnson commented. He said "I can't have any respect for any court that announces decisions in advance." The Supreme Court did that in a Georgia elections case, he added.

Johnson continued in the same vein yesterday while addressing the new grand jury which had indicted Tolbert on a rape charge.

He said he could tell in advance nine times in ten what the decision of the Supreme Court would be. He declared that in a Louisiana case where a man was put in the electric chair without current, four dissenting Supreme Court judges ruled in his favor because he was a Negro.

"I am beginning to think nobody has any rights in the United States any longer unless he belongs to a minority group," Johnson said.

Tolbert was charged with raping the 16-year-old daughter of a prominent Greenwood County family after threatening her boyfriend with death.

Addison Negroes Hit School Inequality

DALLAS, Sept. 14. (AP) — A group of Negro parents from the Addison Independent School District in northeastern Dallas County have asked for a federal court order to prohibit "separate and unequal schools."

The petition, filed here yesterday, alleges that the school district maintains a Negro grade school which is an "old, worn, ill-conditioned, 30-year-old, three room frame building is a fire hazard; had 'grossly unclean' outside toilets, no library or adequate furniture."

The petition was filed by five Negro fathers in the names of their 12 children.

Miner Killed In Cave-In

MCALISTER, Okla., Sept. 14. (AP) — A coal mine cave-in killed one man and injured three others last night but 135 miners miraculously escaped unhurt.

Rock and coal crashed down from the mine ceiling, killing Buster Nail, Leroy Holt and Tom Emberton were seriously injured and Skeets Shores suffered minor burts.

The accident happened at the Lone Star Steel Company's carbon mine Number Five east of McAlester in the heart of Oklahoma's coal fields. McAlester is about 130 miles southeast of Oklahoma City.

Mine company officials said a water slip caused the cave-in.

The mine entrance was not blocked and workers freed the buried men by the time ambulances arrived from McAlester.

The mine supplies coke for the Lone Star Steel Co. blast furnaces at Daingerfield, Tex.

Complaints Filed Against Gambling

GALVESTON, Sept. 14. (AP) — Four complaints of gambling filed against four Galveston clubs by a former police news reporter are set for hearing in a justice of peace court here today.

Ira Taylor, former Galveston Tribune reporter, filed the charges as a "private citizen." He said he visited the establishment Friday and then decided to file complaints.

Temporary Layoffs Announced By T&P

DALLAS, Sept. 14. (AP) — Temporary layoffs notices were sent yesterday to Texas & Pacific Railroad shop and yard forces in Fort Worth, Texarkana, Marshall and Longview.

The layoffs will be effective at the end of work tomorrow.

T&P mechanical department officials said the layoffs were caused by reduced operations resulting from the tie-up of Missouri-Pacific lines.

Johnson To Speak

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 14. (AP) — The Independent Petroleum Assn. of America announced here yesterday that Defense Secretary Louis Johnson will head a panel of speakers at the IPAA 20th anniversary meeting in Fort Worth, Oct. 3-4.

Gainesville Couple Killed In Collision

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 14. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. John P. Mosser of Gainesville were killed last night when their automobile crashed head-on with another car.

The accident occurred at Valley View, 10 miles south of here on Highway 77.

Mrs. Ora Husby and Alice King, both of Gainesville, who were in the other car, were injured slightly.

Shaky Trigger Fingers Pay Off

NEW YORK, Sept. 14. (AP) — Being jittery helped two gunmen yesterday to get away with a $3,100 payroll of a Brooklyn textile printing plant.

Leon Reeder, the firm's treasurer, said that when the pair asked where the cash was, "they started shaking so much I was afraid their guns would go off by accident."

"So I told them," he said.

Jury Trial For The Mentally Ill Has No Place On Statute Books

One of the ten constitutional amendments to be voted on November 12 is designed to end a medieval custom prevalent in Texas almost alone among the 48 states. It would authorize the legislature to provide laws under which a mentally ill person may be committed to a hospital for treatment without going through the formality of a jury trial.

There is no more reason why a person should be put on trial for being mentally ill than for having pneumonia or some other type of illness. Insanity is not a crime, and insane persons are not necessarily criminals; yet Texas, under its archaic laws, persists in hauling them into court and placing them before a jury like common criminals.

We suppose this old custom of the Middle Ages was designed to protect people against being railroaded to the asylum by schemers anxious to get rid of them, or seize their property; but the law has no flexibility whereby mentally unbalanced persons can avoid jury trial.

The proposed amendment provides adequate protection against false accusations of insanity. As we understand it, the person under inquiry, or his next of kin, could still demand a jury trial, if they saw fit. What it does provide is a method of procedure that would permit a person to be committed for treatment without going through the agony and the stigma of trial by jury. This would be in line with laws now in effect in most, if not all, of the other states, and permit early treatment of mental disorders without delay. Early detection and treatment of this type of illness is imperative; the longer it is neglected, the less chance there is of recovery.

Governor Shivers has come out strongly for approval of this amendment, known as House Joint Resolution No. 32. It is by Rep. John Crosthwait, who also authored the amendment changing the legislative sessions to an annual status, and setting legislative salaries at $3,600 per annum.

By all means, the amendment providing for trials without a jury for persons mentally ill should be adopted.

Inadequate Social Security Affects Labor And Industry

Whatever else may come of it eventually, it seems likely that the report of the President's steel dispute board has ended any general effort for a fourth round of wage increases.

The board came out flatly against any wage boost now in steel or any other industry, and this appears to have scotched the general demand for wage increases.

But in doing so the board gave voice to a new gimmick that may prove quite as troublesome as wage demands, to-wit: employer-paid pension and insurance plans. This is now the sole point of dispute between the steelworkers and the companies, and will undoubtedly become the main bone of contention between workers and employers in other industries, in many of which it is already a live issue.

It can be said of any further wage increase that it would stifle the gradual descent of high prices, and touch off a fresh wave of inflation. The pension-insurance plan moves in this same direction, but with less pressure. For instance, the steel workers asked for an over-all "package" deal that would have cost the companies about 30 cents an hour extra, whereas the pension-insurance plan would cost only about ten cents.

The principal argument advanced by labor in support of the pension-insurance deal is that Congress has failed to broaden the social security laws, and it is now up to employers to make good the failure.

It is true that Congress has been dilatory in doing anything about broadening the coverage and the compensations of social security. Social security pensions long since lost any relation to reality, thanks to the postwar rise of living costs, and old-age and retirement pensions provide scarcely more than a token benefit.

If social security is to be made to work at all, it is up to Congress to bring it into focus. Otherwise, the burden must inevitably fall on industry in the form of pensions and insurance plans.

Russia, Yugoslavia Under Two Different Types Of Communism

CZECHOSLOVAKIA'S OFFICIAL Communism newspaper charges Marshal Tito Yugoslavia's Red dictator, with plotting to entice Russia's eastern European satellites into an anti-Soviet alliance.

Whether this be true, the fact remains that Tito's defiance of Moscow's domination is being followed by conspiracies and disturbances among other satellites. The Czechoslovak and Hungarian Communist governments claim to "have uncovered plans for actual rebellion by force."

Supposing disaffection among the satellites is growing—as the evidence indicates—what is its real significance? How would the Democratic world be affected if Tito did succeed in forming an anti-Russian bloc? Could the western nations work satisfactorily with such a Tito bloc?

IN SEEKING AN ANSWER TO THESE vital questions we must note first that Moscow and Yugoslavia are working under two different types of communism.

The Russian brand is Bolshevism, which calls for world revolution in order to bring all nations into the Soviet Bloc under direction of Moscow. This creed, which works by strong-arm methods, holds that the sovereignty of any Red nation rests in Moscow.

The Tito communism stands for absolute nationalism of the state and the retention of sovereignty.

One naturally would choose the Tito communism as the lesser of two evils because it professes to honor the sanctity of national sovereignty.

Of course, any form of communism is totalitarian and subjects the individual to regimentation. However, reports on the Yugoslav set-up indicate that it is more liberal to the individual than is Bolshevism.

WE KNOW THAT DEMOCRACY AND Bolshevism can't work side by side peacefully because that has been amply demonstrated. How about democracy and Tito communism?

The answer to that, it seems to me, must be that nations having different political faiths can work together—so long as they make no effort to interfere with one another.

So on the basis of Tito's attitude of non-interference, the democracies could work with him, or with a bloc of nations holding the same beliefs. However, it would have to be complete non-interference.

That being the case the western powers naturally will watch developments in eastern Europe with tense interest. If Tito is out to establish an anti-Soviet Bloc among the Russian satellites, we may be witnessing the break which will hasten the end of the Cold War and put a crimp in the Bolshevist world revolution.

McGrath As New Justice Would Not Affect Liberal Balance

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12—In Justice Wiley Rutledge the Supreme Court and the nation have lost a salt-of-the-earth American and one of the old-fashioned liberals who find it increasingly hard to survive the bitter contest of the left and right.

In personality, Justice Rutledge closely resembled the late Chief Justice Stone. He had not in his writing the Stone gift of phrase which stood out so strikingly in the latter's famous dissent when the Republican liberal rebuked his conservative colleagues for deciding the law according to their "personal economic predilections." But both had plain, homely, friendly ways. Both had impressive integrity—and great simplicity.

Justice Rutledge's distinction on the court was that he was its only graduate from the lower federal courts. Unlike other Roosevelt appointees he had not worked in the new deal and he did not have the complex, subtle intelligence that Roosevelt preferred in his palace guard. He came to Roosevelt's attention accidentally.

The late President in 1941 had just appointed a personal favorite for the fourth time to Supreme Court vacancy—Justice Frankfurter, Douglas, Murphy and Jackson following one another within two years. The result was a flurry of criticism over his neglect of career judges in the lower courts. In a conversation with Irving Brant, author and newspaperman, Roosevelt complained that the criticism was unfounded, the lower courts did not have suitable judges. Brant told him about Rutledge.

Justice Rutledge formed his closest ties in the court with the late Justice Murphy, the introverted bachelor who was the perfect foil for the sunny family man. Rutledge, Justice Murphy's death was a sad blow to him. In their decisions the two justices were equally close and always on the liberal side.

Attorney General McGrath is known to feel that he has a prior lien on the next court vacancy.

A McGrath for a Rutledge would leave the liberal balance of the court substantially unchanged. Throughout his very successful public career, McGrath has stood firmly for the new deal.

British Officials Resent Being Given Buck Private Treatment By Sec. Snyder

WASHINGTON — British Roll — The British are mulling mad at Secretary of the Treasury Snyder for the treatment he is giving them in the Washington financial conference. One British delegate has complained privately that Snyder is treating them as if they were privates of the Missouri National Guard and he is a colonel in Battery D.

Wallgren of Harriman—"President Truman is thinking of naming Averell Harriman as chairman of the National Security Resources Board—a vitally important post which has been vacant for nearly a year because the Senate vetoed Truman's old friend Ex-Governor Mum Wallgren of Washington. The President was all set to name Wallgren last week, but was persuaded to wait because the Democratic National Committee is toying with the idea of appointing Wallgren to the job after Congress leaves town.

Japanese in U. S. Senate? Sen. Butler of Nebraska was discussing Hawaiian statehood with Adm. D. C. Eberhart, navy commander-in-chief in the Pacific.

"Senator," said Ramsey, "how would you like to have Sen. Kominami sitting next to you in the U. S. Senate?"

"I wouldn't like it," said Butler.

"But that's what might happen if we give statehood to Hawaii," continued the Republican gentleman from Nebraska. "The Japs are so numerous there already, and so closely knit and so politically ambitious that they would soon get control of the high political posts."

Unhappy French: The French government is not at all happy at the way France was exploited from the American-British financial talks. France is the most powerful friendly nation on the European continent, and her money and economy is just as tied up with Britain's as is ours—possibly more so.

String 'em Tight: Although the State Department has announced that it is sending a steel mill to Marshal Tito in Yugoslavia, inside fact is that Secretary of State Acheson agreed in writing to review this "deal" with the year-end just before the mill is shipped. This is just in case it appears the steel mill may fall into Stalin's hands because Tito can't stand up to the Russians.

MORE AIR JUNKETS: The more you examine air junkets by high public officials and favored businessmen, the more it seems right that all such junkets should be open to public scrutiny. If an airplane trip is secret then a lot of peculiar things may happen at the taxpayers' expense. If the junket is justified then no one should object to a public listing of the trip.

A lot of interesting flights that no one knew anything about are now coming to light.

Flying in the Air: The late Gen. Harry Vaughan was interviewed with the Air Force for special air-priority transportation for John Marston and his perfume company officials; another general was going the same thing for Wall Street.

Big Gen. William H. Draper, a high executive of the Dillon, Read investment bankers, arranged special priority transportation to Europe and back for Clarence Dillon, the head of Dillon, Read and one of the leading investors in Germany before the war.

Gen. Draper even took his boys to Nuremberg and back in a super-duper Air Force plane in which they were almost the only passengers. Coming back to Tempelhof Airport in Berlin, Draper had the plane circle Berlin for 20 minutes while he pointed out former factory sites that Dillon, Read had been interested in, and which had been ruined by the war.

Later Gen. Draper was promoted to be Undersecretary of the Army by James Forrestal, also from Dillon, Read & Co.

Much To Be Done About Tourists In Texas, This Student Reports

"How many bales of cotton have you got? How many oil wells or bushels of wheat?"

"I don't know, and what's more I don't care—as a tourist."

Yet this is the sort of information most cities put out in attempting to lure the traffic trade. Dr. Rex Z. Howard, Fort Worth, who has poked into every nook and cranny of Texas, thinks something ought to be done about it. He's taking the bull by the horns by organizing the Texas Tourist association.

"Why you've got some wonderful things here that you can sell to the tourist. That breeze through my hotel room—I never felt anything like it. It's great. And the spring. When you get water into it, it will be a natural. Tourists will love it. Nothing like it around here and it's got history beside."

"You've got something that plenty of tourists would take in if they really knew about Scenic Mountain. Believe me, they would remember Big Spring after getting the view from the mountain."

Dr. Howard probably sees high points of interest in other communities, too. He has written a book, "Texas Tourist Travel Guide," on sale in book stores. It's not a profit deal, however, for all proceeds go back into promotion of tourist traffic in Texas.

Texas is the only large state in the union which does not have an organization devoted to the promotion of tourist traffic.

Objectives of the association he is organizing are to collect and record according to pattern information on things in Texas that would attract tourists to the state; to interest Texans in seeing Texas; to stimulate chambers of commerce to providing better tourist information and cooperation with tourist units; and to advertise tourist attractions.

Dr. Howard has put in about 40 years travelling over Texas as a hobby. He feels he knows what a tourist knows because he's been one for quite a spell. He thinks it is time everyone awakens to the need for cultivating the golden harvest. It's not easy, even among those who ought to be concerned vitally. For instance, he says, the hotels have spurned tourists gimmicks like a plague. Clerks, waitresses, service station attendants are ill informed about tourist interests and show no enthusiasm for catering to the visitors.

Around five million tourists a year come into Texas. Dr. Howard thinks more can be induced to visit, and most all persuaded to stay longer. When that happens, they leave fresh money—a super-source of community revenue.

Now retired, he's all wrapped up in his work and bubbling over with enthusiasm. Perhaps he will be able to crack the dike of apathy. Big Spring, along with the rest of Texas, needs to "get hep" to its tourist asset, let alone its possibility.—JOE PICKLE

Ching Plays Stellar Role In Talks To End Steel Dispute

BY HAROLD W. WARD (For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12—PHILLIP MURRAY's prompt acceptance of the fact-finding board recommendations for ending the steel dispute was, in a way, a tribute to 73-year-old Cyrus S. Ching, head of the government's conciliation service.

It was Ching who argued leaders of the steel industry into co-operating with the board when it was named by President Truman last July 13. Ching assured the President that the union would call off its threatened strike for 60 days if the industry would agree to place the crucial wage-dispute before that board.

That truce expires Wednesday. Murray has agreed to another 11-day postponement of a walkout by his million-member steelworkers union.

ask for a shopping pension-welfare royalty and a shorter work week without loss of pay.

Similarly, Walker P. Reuther, head of the CIO Auto Workers, delayed any showdown with Ford and Chrysler while Murray steered his course through the rocky fact-finding hearings in New York.

IN THOSE HEARINGS, SOME INDUSTRY representatives said the government board would be biased in favor of the union. Some of that resentment was directed at Ching, six-foot-seven-inch former industrial relations boss of U. S. Rubber Co. He had suggested the fact-finding board in the first place.

But the board's recommendations, rejecting any wage boost at this time on the grounds that cost of living had leveled off, was a pleasant surprise to some of these industrialists.

When Murray yielded, Ching had won half his battle, at least, and he could only hope that industry would quickly follow.

Of course, Ching is not always successful. In the Hawaiian dock strike dispute, for instance, he had to announce Monday night that "the parties remain so hopelessly far apart in their thinking that further media" on at this time would be of no avail.

MURRAY WENT EVEN FURTHER and agreed to the board's terms—which knocked the props from under his bid for a fourth round postwar wage increase of 12½ cents an hour. In so doing, he knew that he was hurting the chances of other CIO unions to get wage boosts this year. Most unions were waiting to see how Murray came out of his tussle with the pace-setting steel industry.

Murray and the steel workers' policy committee, expressing "utmost regret" that the board refused to recommend a wage boost, said they would settle for the $100 monthly pension system and liberalized social insurance program proposed by the panel.

That left it up to the steel companies, and gave the union a head start in winning public acclaim for averting a strike that could throw the national economy out of gear.

TWO OTHER TROUBLESOME MATTERS are on his docket: The Goodrich rubber strike and the Bell Aircraft Co. dispute in Buffalo. He has stayed on the sidelines in the Buffalo strike, out of deference to the New York state mediators.

While all strikes may be difficult to end, those three are regarded by the conciliation service as among the toughest.

If Ching gets them out of the way, he can turn his attention to the other industry contract clouds peeking over the horizon, maritime and rubber industries.

Those are rugged assignments even for Ching—a towering pipe loving man who once drove a streetcar and shinned up telephone poles for a living (he was nearly electrocuted once).

But now—when the occasion requires it—he can pound the table, tell belly-shaking jokes, or sit puffing in clouds of smoke for hours at a time while others shrink at each other.

When they tire, he usually has an idea.

CHING WAS WELL-AWARE OF THE size of the stakes as he played for time and peace in steel. Just around the corner are almost equally vital wage-pension struggles in the auto and coal mining industries.

John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers resume talks with the bituminous coal operators this week in Bluefield and White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. Whether thinking of Murray or not, Lewis maneuvered his negotiations so that the steel bargaining came first. He'll probably know

Movie Stories Showing Big Hike In Quality

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 13 — "Everybody has two businesses—his own and the movies." I don't know who said that, but it was a mouthful.

Here's how it works: A friend of mine from Syracuse came to Hollywood this summer. He's a manufacturer. In the upper brackets, lives in a 10-room house, has two cars and a swimming pool.

I took him in a famous director's house for cocktails. This director, too, has a 10-room house, two cars and a swimming pool. And a gracious host he is too. When my pal and I left he remarked "Hmmm, these movie people live well."

My friend was so patronizing to the director's opinions that I mentioned this to him when our host left the room for a moment.

"But he's only a movie director," said Syracuse. "Why doesn't he stick to what he knows?"

The next day we had lunch with a writer whose name you've seen on many a screenplay. The subject of how to write movies came up naturally, and with that the other usual question that many non-Hollywood folk ask: Aren't all Hollywood writers Reds?

No, all Hollywood writers are not Reds. There are 1200 writers in the Screen Writers' Guild. Maybe one or two of them are Reds—but in his huge plant in Syracuse, perhaps our luncheon guest might find a higher percentage among 1200 of his workers.

"Well, all right," Syracuse allowed, "I've been misinformed. But certainly you won't deny that the stories that we get on the screen are pretty shoddy."

Then of course, I had to tell him about "The Snake Pit" and "Treasure of the Sierra Madre" and "Johnny Belinda" and "Sword in the Desert," and how the movie stories show a better percentage of excellence, a greater contribution to cultural advancement than the theater, the book publishing field, radio or television.

Hal Given Some Hot Judging Tips At Mrs. America Contest

NEW YORK, Sept. 12—THIRTY LOVELY women looked at me over the week end with provocative eyes.

And they all wanted me to say—"yes, you're the one."

Yes, one after the other they came up all 30 of them—all with that same look in their eyes. And I had to say, "no, not you"—to 29 of these beautiful dames.

No, this isn't a nightmare I didn't dream it. I merely acted as a judge in the Mrs. America contest at Asbury Park, the Jersey Shore resort.

A JUDGE NEXT TO ME WAS WORKING furiously at his chart.

"How are you judging them?" I asked. He looked at a girl in evening dress slouched against a spotlight.

"I'm voting for the one that didn't wear slips," he said.

"And you?" I asked another judge.

"Strictly legs," he said. "I've been a leg man for years."

As another judge seemed to be concentrating on bosoms and crosby suggested I find a specialty of my own. I began scoring on teeth, eyes, hair, and nostrils. There didn't seem to be much else in sight.

An official rushed over and said: "Here, you're not judging beauty. You're a homemaker judge."

My job wasn't to pick the pretties. It was to help judge the pretties the pretties had made with their own pretty hands—crocheted dolls, home-sewn baby dresses, and preserved fruits and vegetables. Four jars of pickles, carrots and peaches later our verdict was in.

MY CHOICE, MRS. CINCINNATI, A winsome brunette, was the audience favorite. The other entrants also voted her the most congenial girl in the contest. But she didn't win.

The crown went to Mrs. California, who got about $6,000 in prizes—if you include a year's supply of pretzels and diapers and a $500 scholarship to the Empire State School of Optics in Brooklyn.

RIBBON RAMBLINGS

By Mildred Young

We're inclined to agree with another writer's views on "the normal life." She states that people and things have no normal state. There are no two mountains, rock, streams, or cities alike. Every living person has a different personality. Though they may seem the same, they do not react to like situations in the same manner. Events, which bring happiness to some, are harmful to others. Only the crazy people repeat their actions. It is well for people to dare to be themselves, to think their own thoughts, to make their own codes. Of course, there are limits beyond which we must not travel. But common sense should keep us on the right paths. There is a great difference in being a "yes man" and being accepted by society.

H. M. Stanifer's "Think It Over" for today says: "Some people spend all their lives opposing any change." Reminds us of a sermon we heard recently entitled "Life Never Says Please." It contained the idea expressed in a familiar poem: Short and to the point the poem is a prayer that we will have the courage to change those things which we can change, faith enough to accept those things which we can not change, and the wisdom to know the difference. Most of us do our share of fussing about various conditions which are unfavorable to life as we would like to know it. But few of us ever attempt to change situations and fewer of us try to fit ourselves into circumstances which we find ourselves in and which we know we can not change. Instead of taking the time to figure out what might be done, we usually take the easier way out and do nothing at all.

North Ward P-TA Has First Regular Meet

"It should be a challenge to the parents to see that their children remain in school in order that they might avail themselves of one of the greatest free opportunities in America," said Mrs. Truett Thomas at the meeting of the North Ward Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday.

Mrs. Thomas further said that, "most parents believe that an educated child is the guarantee of democracy and as every child has access to the public schools in America, it would behoove the parents as loyal citizens to do their part in learning of the schools, their teachers and to co-operate in giving the child an educated mind."

"This cannot be accomplished by the school alone, said Mrs. Thomas. "The best way to learn of the schools and of the needs of the child is to join a Parent-Teacher Association."

Discussion was held by Mrs. Roy Tidwell concerning the possibility of entering a float in the Centennial parade.

Broncs, Colts Play Tonight

All the blue chips will be showing when the Big Spring Broncs, leaders from here to there in regular Longhorn baseball league play, take on the San Angelo Colts in the first game of the first round of the Shaughnessy playoffs at Steele park. Starting time is 8:15 p. m.

The teams will be opening the best four of a seven game set, the first two of which will be unrecruited here. The next three—if that many are needed—will be unrecruited in San Angelo. The contingent will clash in Angelo Saturday, Friday because the date conflicts with a football game there.

Vernon goes to Midland tonight in the other portion of the playoffs, the winner of which meets the Big Spring-Angelo survivor in the playoffs.

In regular play, Big Spring battered the Colts in 13 of 20 games. However, they had to play great ball in the closing weeks to do it.

Bert Garcia, dapper righthander with a 14-3 won-loss record, will probably toil on the pitching rubber for Big Spring. Best average record in Longhorn activity this year, permitting only 1.76 tallies per outing, Red Fahr of Vernon had the old mark, at 1.97.

His foe is apt to be crafty Lefty Shelton, a Bronc nemesis early in the year. The Hosses beat Shelton twice late in the campaign and batted him out on a third occasion.

Both teams will be at full strength, which means that Big Spring's starting lineup will be composed of Al Valdes behind the plate, Hector Bonet at first, George Lopez at second, Ray Vasquez at short, Carlos Pascual at third, and Felix Gomez, Ace Mendez and Manager Pat Stacey in the outfield.

Sam Harshbarger, Colt skipper, will receive Shelton's slants. Hal Jackson will be at bat. Jake McClain at second, Herman Cowley at short and either Miles Smithhart or Wayne Wallace at third, Chester Karger, Ken Cluley and Ted Squillante will be in the outfield for the visitors.

The two nines were lined up to have at it last night but the frigid temperatures forced them to call it off by mid-morning. Too, the field was too damp after a rain.

Felines Aiming For Bowl Bid

VILLANOVA, Pa., Sept. 14. (AP)—Famer Jim Leonard takes Villanova College's 1949 crop of football players west today, hopeful the season's inaugural against the Texas Aggies Saturday will be the first step toward a second straight bowl bid.

If Villanova's Wildcats are to repeat last year's triumph over the Aggies and go on to another bowl engagement, Leonard says his line and quarterback must come through.

The Wildcats last year won seven, lost two and tied one before beating Nevada in the Harbor Bowl.

Leonard hopped on Jack Kramer for three runs in the first, but the Sox came right back to tie on Al Zarilla's three-run double off Art Houtteman. After the Tigers got to Kramer for another run in the sixth, the Sox took the lead on Bill Goodman's single. Lou Stringer's double, Birdie Tebbets single and an outfield fly by Tom Wright, pinch hitting for Kramer, TROJAN PASSER—One of the big reasons the Southern California Trojans are getting a lot of backing in Coast league football circles this fall is the presence of Jim Powers (above) on the squad. Powers, as the picture would indicate, is a passer deluxe.

Rock, Fusari To Draw Big Gate Tonight

NEW YORK, Sept. 14. (AP)—Rocky Graziano, the biggest question mark and dollar mark in the boxing business, returns to the ring tonight, a solid choice to whip Charlie Fusari in the Polo Grounds.

The much-suspended Rock, making his first main stem start since he was flattened by Tony Zale 15 months ago, has been installed a 3 to 8 favorite to win. The price may go even higher by fight time, 9 p. m. (EST).

While there is a great deal of uncertainty about Graziano's ability, there is no doubt over his gate-pulling powers. The former middleweight king's first home town showing in three years is bringing in the customers. The promoting International Boxing Club anticipates a crowd of 35,000 and a gross of over $200,000 providing the weather is good for the scheduled 10-rounder.

The weather forecasters predict clear skies by afternoon. Rocky's explosive punch, his fine mental attitude and an expected 10-pound weight advantage—159 to 149—are the reasons he's favored.

The rough east rider has looked very good in training. He's happy to perform before the home folks and vows "I'll fight that salam in three rounds."

That's never been done before. The stolid, 24-year-old blond from Irvington, N. J., has been floored five times but got up each time. He won all of those tussles too.

Fusari is proud of his own punching and hints he may be the one to pull the trigger. Charlie's record shows 37 knockouts in 81 fights, including his sensational one-round kayo of the ill-starred Vince Foster last May.

Gross gates for Rocky's last 10 fights totalled nearly $2,000,000. This one will move the golden boy over the mark.

The fight will be broadcast but there will be no television.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Big Spring players set four of the six new Longhorn league records which went by the boards this season.

The Broncs, of course, established a new mark in total wins with 84, ten more than the old standard, and, along with it, bettered their won-loss percentage standard. They moved the latter from .628 to .676. Both of those records could stand for a long time to come.

Julio Ramos, the Big Spring leftie, struck out 262 men, bettering the old mark set by LeRoy Jones of Sweetwater in 1947 by 13.

In addition, Bert Garcia of Our Town set up a new earned-run-average mark by limiting the foe to 3.76 in each nine innings. The old standard of 4.97 was established by Red Fahr of Vernon in 1948.

Les Palmer crashed out 21 triples, beating George Caloia's mark set last year by three. Palmer played for Odessa, Caloia was with Del Rio. Vernon's Duster apparently set a new record for sacrifices. They had 116 on Aug. 28, which pulled them within six of Del Rio's record set in 1948.

The Bronc pitchers set another kind of record that won't merit enough attention. In 126 games, their starting hurler succeeded in going the route 95 times. In other words, in only 44 games did Manager Pat Stacey have to call on other members of the staff for relief duty.

In but ten of those 44 did more than two Big Spring hurlers see action.

Only 22 of the team's 45 reversals could be charged to the eight hurlers with the club at season's end.

Pancho Perez was saddled with seven of the defeats. Ramos lost four, Ernie Mayorquin and Bert Garcia three each, Louis Gonzalez two and Bert Baez, Eddie Noriega and Carlos Pascual one each.

Seven Texans on Oklahoma University squad
Seven Texans are members of the Oklahoma university gridiron variety squad this fall.

That would be George Brewer, Lubbock, and Ken Parker, Wichita Falls, backs; Sam Carnahan, Kilgore, center; Harry Pace, Odessa, guard; Joe Lequene, Tyler, and Ed Rowland, Odessa, tackles; and Cliff Bradley, Amarillo, end.

Four other members of the team are from places other than Oklahoma.

EAST TEXANS HAVE HAD ENOUGH OF WT-NM LEAGUE
The East Texas baseball league winner will take on the Evangeline league champ this year, the fathers of the former circuit having decided it was bad for prestige for the tilist to take defeats from the WT-NM kingly year in and year out.

Now that relations between the WT-NM and East Texas circuits have been severed, WT-NM officials are looking around for some post-season conflict for its crown wearer. They could meet either the Western Association or Arizona-Texas league leader.

Dr. Eddie Anderson, the University of Iowa's head football coach, is starting his 24th season as a grid mentor this fall.

His all-time coaching record is 115 victories, 73 losses and 11 ties for a .505 record. Anderson's Iowa teams have won 31 games, lost 28 and been tied twice.

Matty Laments Loss Of Johnson And Page; SMU Line Is Better

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
AP Sports Editor
DALLAS, Sept. 13.—Some of the powder of Southern Methodist University's explosive qualities has been taken away but there are enough guns left on the Hilltop to blast out at a third straight Southwest Conference football championship.

Undoubtedly the departure of Gil Johnson, that mighty bomber of 1947 and 1948, will make SMU's touchdowns come harder this fall. The boys may have to play 30 minutes of each game instead of two or three as has been the case but apparently the results will be the same.

Coach Matty Bell, as usual, plays up the strength of the opposition and plays down the possibilities of his team. He puts it like this: "We will have more reserve strength than last year because we are weaker. The boys are nearer equal ability."

Bell thinks the loss of Paul Page, through graduation, is about as important as the loss of Gil Johnson to the pros. Page was his star defensive halfback and also a strong runner.

Southern Methodist, however, may have a stronger line than last season. This despite the fact that it lost both regular tackles, Joe Ethridge and John Hamberger. The nucleus of the 1948 forward wall, naturally improved over last year, will be augmented by some very good new material.

Foremost in calculations of Methodist strength is the fact that a young man named Doak Walker still is playing on the Hilltop. It's Walker's last season and he'll find his multiple Juries more multiple. The Doaker is due to do most of the passing with Johnson around. His record at throwing the ball is mighty good. Some also take the view that Walker doing more passing will only add to his threat as a runner.

Kyle Rote, the great sophomore of 1948; Dick McKissack all-conference fullback and Frank Payne, seeking his fourth varsity letter, give the Methodist backfield about everything necessary. Payne will play some at quarterback behind Walker but he also will work at right halfback—in the spot that Page handled so well.

Gene Ioberts and Bill Weatherford are others who have been playing with the championship SMU team and from the freshmen comes Pat Knight, a lad who will be a valuable understudy to McKissack. Sophomore Henry Stoltenwerck, son of an illustrious Methodist quarterback of more than a quarter of a century ago; Sophomore Val Jo Walker, a strong runner and other newcomers will keep the SMU backfield play at high caliber. Stoltenwerck is almost as bright a prospect as Knight—the young man who has caught everyone's eye lately runs, blocks and passes well.

End play will be no worry at Southern Methodist. Bobb, Nelson and Raleigh Blakely, the 1948 starters, are back. They are aided and abetted by Carl Wallace and John Milam, who also are lettermen, and Charles Russell, 1948 squadman who is greatly improved. Stepping into the tackle holes

Transcontinental Will Issue Stock

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. (AP)—Transcontinental Bus System, Dallas, has been authorized to issue $6,450,500 of five and one-half percent cumulative preferred stock.

The Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday authorized the issue. It will consist of 64,505 of $100 par value each.

Hawk 11 'Ragged' In Long Workout

Coch Johnny Dibrell sent his Howard County Junior college Jayhawks through a rough-and-tumble 90 minutes scrimmage Tuesday afternoon and was anything but optimistic when he called a halt.

Dibrell said they looked "ragged" but qualified that statement by adding that could be expected this early in the campaign.

No more rugged work is in prospect between now and Saturday, when the collegians open their first grid campaign in history in a night game with Odessa Junior college in Odessa. Instead, the Hawks will brush up on their plays and try to smooth out the kinks in their passing attack.

In Tuesday's drills, Dibrell was running a backfield composed of B. B. Lee, Horace Rankin, Droyce Stevenson and Gordon (Boo) Madison against a quartet which included Charlie Dwyler, Hunka Stewart, Jackie Tweedie and Nino Lujan.

With the Lees combine was running a line composed of Delmar Turner at center, Neel Hull and Chop Van Pelt at guards, Jack Gaines and Sam Thurman at tackles and four alternating ends—Donnie Carter, Ariess Davis, Esner Puckett and Cuts Grigsby.

Facing that group across the way were Kinshel Guthrie at center, A. J. Cain and Don Williams at guards, Jim Black and Don Burman at tackles and the brace of ends which weren't busied with the first club.

Gerard Harris and Eldon Prater were seeing action with the backfield from time to time while Harold Baker, Blaine Mitchell, Eddie Hickson and Hood Parker, Jr., were linemen who were busy from time to time.

Gene Rush, mammoth lineman, hasn't been out for practice the past several days and Dibrell expressed fear that he would not be available.

Odessa may outweigh the locals, according to reports from that city.

Tribe Defeats Oilers, 5-4

By The Associated Press
The Oklahoma City Indians, who were sick Redmen indeed when the season started but caught fire and rushed in with third place, held a one-game lead over Tulsa today in the Texas League play-off.

They licked the club that had beaten them 15 times during the regular campaign by a 5-4 count last night in the opening game of the first round.

Meanwhile, Fort Worth's league-leading Cats, and the fourth-place Shreveport Sports, were idle because of rain in the scheduled opening of the other half of the first round play-off. They'll start tonight at Fort Worth.

The Cats' Bob Milliken (12-5) will oppose Andy Burd (8-3) in the Fort Worth-Shreveport opener.

Oklahoma City will use either George Zuvernik (10-7) or George Anderson (5-3) while Tulsa will send either Frank Smith (17-11) or John Rehder (8-5) to the firing line.

A crowd of 4,743 turned out at Tulsa to see Oklahoma City get all its runs in the second and third innings then hang on Lefty Al Olson was in trouble frequently in the later innings but managed to weather the storm. In the ninth the Oilers had the tying run on third when pinch hitter Walt Wrona grounded out to end the game. Twice Indian double plays cut out Tulsa scoring chances.

Outfielder Steve Filipowicz of Tulsa was indefinitely suspended for jumping the club. Filipowicz reportedly had an argument with Manager Al Vincent and wasn't on hand for last night's game.

The Sugar Bowl sports carnival will offer a ten's tourney, Dec. 26-30 with 16 top amateurs competing.

Open Gas Stove V. S. Vented Controlled Heat

TIME—Winter, 1949-50. PLACE—An Average Home JUDGES—People in Homes

Open gas stove speaking: I burn the oxygen out of the air, this makes your walls and windows sweat, and you gasp for breath. I throw off monoxide gas and smoke, poison people and smoke walls and ceilings. You have to turn me up and down, manually in order to keep an even temperature or I will be too hot or too cold.

Vented controlled heat speaking: 1. Floor furnaces, gravity or forced air furnaces are vented to outside, taking off smoke and monoxide. 2. I do not burn oxygen out of air. 3. I heat automatically; controlling the temperature within one or two degrees. All safety devices are used. No sweating, no smoke, no monoxide and an even temperature.

MURDER ATTEMPT CHARGED

Sex, Violence Figure In Trial Of Judge

ATLANTA, Sept. 14 (AP)—A tale of sex and violence—with vivid details reaching into New York and Florida—is unfolding in the trial of an Atlanta judge on charges of attempted murder.

GOP Rejoicing Over Victory In Pennsylvania

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14 (AP)—Republicans crowded today that a "GOP victory in a Pennsylvania congressional race was a stinging rebuke" to President Truman's domestic policies.

Hailing the triumph of Republican John P. Saylor over Mrs. Robert L. Coffey, Democrat, in special election in the 28th Pennsylvania District yesterday, GOP leaders showed clearly they think they have found a major issue for their 1950 efforts to regain control of Congress.

Gus George Gabrielson, national Republican chairman, put it this way in a statement:

"The election of the Republican candidate constitutes a stinging rebuke to the Truman administration effort to lead this nation down the road to statism."

Saylor defeated Mrs. Coffey handily in a race that was pitched primarily on Republican attacks on—and Democratic defense of—President Truman's domestic legislative proposals.

Like the President, Mrs. Coffey called for repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act, Lake Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), Saylor said some changes in the act were necessary.

Although Democrats too had regarded the special election in advance as a test of Mr. Truman's policies, they generally discounted the long-range effect of the outcome. They said that vigorous campaigning by Saylor, which Mrs. Coffey couldn't match, had a lot to do with the results.

New Church Ruling

HALIFAX, Sept. 14 (AP)—The lower house of the Church of England in Canada today voted 92-76 to allow the innocent party in divorce to remarry and retain the services and sacraments of the church.

Sandra's Mate To Aid Her In Murder Trial

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Sept. 14 (AP)—Sandra Peterson's husband says he will go to Texas to help her fight a murder charge — as soon as he gets out of jail himself.

Mauritz Peterson, Jr., 27, will end his jail sentence here Oct. 31. His wife Sandra, faces a murder charge in Brady, Tex., for the admitted shooting of a real estate man Lewis Patterson.

Last night, Peterson said Patterson must have tried to molest Sandra.

"That's the only reason she would have killed him," her husband said. Brady police say she shot Patterson after he gave her a ride in his car.

"I'm going to do everything I can to help her," Peterson said. His help is barred now, however, by his jail sentence for hit and run driving and failure to provide for a child by a former marriage.

"Patterson must have made a pass at her," Peterson said. "I don't think she tried to rob him. She hasn't guts enough to do anything like that."

Sandra claims she is only 17. Under Texas law she can't be prosecuted for murder until she is 18. District Attorney Ralston P. Huan said, however, that he won't accept "a purported birth certificate" showing she is 17.

"I know she's 17 now," Peterson said. "She was only 15 when I married her."

He said his young wife was not the type of girl to do anything wrong.

"She's a good kid," he said. "That's why I left her — she's too good. She's strictly on the side of the law. She wanted a home."

"She didn't like my way of life — I wouldn't get a job and give her the kind of life she wanted."

'Record' Turtle Shrinks Greatly

SEOUL, Sept. 14 (AP)—Maybe that turtle caught off the South Korean coast is going to set a record after all — for shrinkage.

First reports said the turtle was seven feet long — six inches longer than the record turtle in the British museum.

President Syngman Rhee happily told a news conference that the turtle's appearance in Korean waters was a good omen and ordered the turtle moved to the Seoul zoo. But it was too cold here so it was ordered sent to the warmer climate of Cheju Island.

Later it was reported the turtle was only about five feet long — still a whopper and still a good omen to the turtle loving Koreans.

But today a Korean Pacific Press correspondent said he measured the turtle and actually it is only three feet and two inches long.

Korean Pacific Press, saving face all around, refused to distribute the story to Korean newspapers.

Weismuller Slims For Tarzan Role

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 14 (AP)—Johnny Weismuller who ate himself out of his Tarzan role has died himself back into jungles movies.

He weighed in yesterday at Columbia Studio at 199 1/2 and will begin work as "Jungle Jim" a sort of Tarzan-with-clothes-on role. A clause in his contract stipulates that he must pay producer Sam Katzman $1,000 for each pound of weight over 200.

The swimming star lost his Tarzan role when he zoomed up to a paunchy 238.

Pittsburgh Demo Mayor Renominated

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 14 (AP)—Mayor David L. Lawrence, a national Democratic committeeman and a power in Pennsylvania Democratic politics, today fought off a rebel's attack to win Democratic renomination as chief executive of this steel capital.

Lawrence, now winding up his first term in his first elective office, had to fight off an insurgent councilman's bid for power.

His chief opponent was Edward J. Leonard who long has sought to unseat the regular Democratic organization Lawrence was ahead by more than 20,000 votes with returns in from 387 of the city's 427 districts. The vote was 6,638 for Lawrence to 45,297 for Leonard.

Lawrence made a strong campaign based on improvements he has made or planned for Pittsburgh with support of the Republican administration in the late capital Leonard made a strong bid for support from "the little guy."
