

Index of Texas Business Activity

June business in Texas was still at the peak of the postwar boom, although the composite index of business activity, compiled by the University of Texas Research Bureau of Business Research, edged slightly below its May level. The Bureau's seasonally-adjusted index of Texas business was 216 per cent of the prewar (1935-39) level, 217 in May 1948, and 190 in June 1947. —(AP Photo Chart).

Girls Forming Club For Flower Study, Their Planting, Culture And Care

Something new in the way of clubs has this summer been added to Hereford's long list of study groups. It is still in the embryo stage and is not officially organized but will be before long according to Mrs. W. S. Flutt.

A group of girls of eight to ten years of age, have met under the direction of Mrs. Flutt through the summer months in a series of eight sessions to study flowers, their planting, culture and care.

They have now reached the arranging stage of their work which is the goal of all flower growers. The girls will have a part in the fall flower show which will be staged here by the garden clubs of Hereford.

Growing out of her hobby and love of flowers Mrs. Flutt has worked with the amateur gardeners. The class is independent of any club. She is encouraging originality, and individuality in her followers.

In the beginning they copied pictures an ideas appealing to them but in their last meeting they used Mrs. Flutt's house as the stage, her vases, glasses, shells, ash trays and any container that might appeal to them. The flowers in the class arranging period were from Mrs. Flutt's garden.

Tuesday is the meeting day and those taking part are Misses Linda Lee West, Grace Bell Brunson, Kay Ruth and Denise Barnard.

New Home Demonstration Club Is Organized

Argen Draper, County Home Demonstration Agent, Tuesday announced the organization of a new club in the northwest part of the county to serve the rural communities of Westway Walcott and Ward. This brings the total to 15 HD clubs in this territory.

The club was formed Saturday at the County Court Room at the Court House and members will meet regularly on the second and fourth Fridays.

Officers of the new Cultural Home Demonstration Club are Mrs. R. M. Cook, president; Mrs. J. I. Finley, vice-president; Mrs. R. C. Childers, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Foster Duckworth, reporter; Mrs. J. T. Richardson, parliamentarian; Mrs. Earl Dehart and Mrs. Grady Parsons, council delegates; and Mrs. R. M. Carson, asst. secretary.

This club was formed to answer a demand among members for available instruction in farm home practices since the other HD clubs were quite some distance from these areas. There are now 350 farm women on the club rolls in these groups.

First meeting of the Cultural

Frio Club Entertained

Frio Home Demonstration Club was entertained in the home of Mrs. Dayton Chisholm on Wednesday afternoon last week. Roll call was on ways and means of making sewing easier. Mrs. H. D. Robbins, legislative leader, read a letter from the legislative district officer.

During the business meeting Mrs. Robbins and Mrs. E. B. Berryman were named to serve on the nominating committee, and a report was given by Mrs. Chisholm.

Mrs. Owen Andrews led a round-table discussion on how to take care of furniture and other polished surfaces. The penny gift was won by Mrs. Chisholm.

Others present were Mesdames; Glenn Gripp, Leona Andrews, W. C. Lowery, Ruth Robbins, T. L. Sparkman Sr., Henry Dobbs and the hostess. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Travis White September 1.

The steppes, broad, level tracts of land without forests, are usually associated with Russia but they actually begin near the border of Holland and extend across northern Germany, Russia and Siberia, almost to the Pacific ocean.

Siberia's Taiga, one of the world's greatest areas, extends about 4,000 miles in length and from 1,000 to 2,000 miles in width.

HD Club will feature a demonstration by members on First Aid to Upholstery. The meeting will be held in Mrs. Carson's home.

Human ears can seldom hear the incessant clamor of the bat as he flits about overhead because the bat's signaling voice lies in the wave band of about 50,000 cycles or vibrations per second. Human ears can only detect sound in the band from 20 to 20,000 cycles.

Draft Board

talls and instructions were presented.

Members to represent Farmer and Castro County are to be chosen by State Draft Board Director Dean today. Wilson represents this county and S. H. Condon is the member from Randall. These four counties make up the local district.

Registration in Hallway

Location of the office is in the ground-floor of the Court House, second door to the right from the south entrance. Registration, however, will be held in the hallway between the County Home Demonstration's agent's office and the Credit Association office.

Wilson has asked the co-operation of civic groups in town to enlist volunteers as registrars for draftees. Four people will be needed each day from August 30 to September 18. About the only qualification he made was the ability to write a legible handwriting or use of typewriter.

Typewriters will also be needed, so anyone who has an available machine to lend the Board, or who can volunteer time for the registering should contact S. O. Wilson by card, addressed to Hereford or by phone at 238-W.

To Supply Information
"Any draftee in the 18-36 year old age group, who needs information can contact the draft board before registration day and we will be glad to help him," said Wilson.

"All men eligible for the draft should watch the newspapers and radio stations as much will be said regarding this military training program within the next few days. Men who are not in town when their scheduled day for registration occurs may register any time after August 30," he declared.

Single non veteran draft registrants will start receiving their draft questionnaires by Sept. 7 according to an order issued by President Truman last week. From these forms, the board will determine whether a registrant will be inducted or referred.

These questionnaires must be returned within 10 days, and will be sent out in the order of birth dates, with the oldest first. Beginning Sept. 30, the board will begin mailing forms to other registrants in same order. After that, a man will receive them as soon as he reaches the age of 19.

BROILED FLOUNDER
Froth broiling compartment and pan (without rack) at 500 F. for 10 minutes or follow directions given by range manufacturer. Wipe fish with a damp cloth and dry. Dust lightly with flour and place on preheated broiling pan. Brush or spread fillets with butter, margarine, shortening, bacon fat or salad oil. Place pan about 2 inches from source of heat and broil filets that are 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick for 5 to 8 minutes without turning. Baste twice during broiling. Sprinkle lightly with salt, pepper and paprika and send to table accompanied by lemon wedges, parsley or watercress. Allow about 1/4 of 1-3 pound filets for each person.

TABLE FOR TWO
Cold Sliced Meat
Mashed Potatoes with Paprika
Creamed Green Celery
Salad Bowl for Two
Bread and Butter
Vanilla Ice Cream with Butter-scotch Sauce

(Recipe for Starred Dish Follows)
SALAD BOWL FOR TWO - Ingredients: 2 cups washed, dried and shredded salad greens (Boston lettuce and new green cabbage, if desired), 1 medium-sized tomato, 1/2 medium-sized cucumber, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 large clove garlic, 2 teaspoons wine vinegar.

Method: Arrange the shredded salad greens in a salad bowl, surround with wedges of tomato. Peel the cucumber and score by drawing the sharp lines of a fork down lengthwise; slice thinly and arrange in center of bowl on top of greens. Use a mortar and pestle to crush the salt and garlic together; or put them on two thicknesses of waxed paper and with the flat of a heavy bladed knife crush and chop them together until garlic is entirely disintegrated. Put the mixture in a small bowl, add several grindings of pepper, the basil, oil and vinegar; mix together thoroughly. Pour over the salad and toss just before serving. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

CHILDREN'S PARTY LUNCH

If you can manage it, it's a good idea to serve a party meal for preschool children at a regular mealtime. Since only the simple kinds of food usually served to these youngsters should be party fare, it doesn't have to be too hard on mother.

If the children live near they can come over about eleven o'clock in the morning and have an hour of fun and play before lunch. Then there can be a short period of play after lunch before going home. This gives the youngsters who still take naps time to have them.

A cream soup, such as tomato or pea, such as most children like, can start the meal. Then they'll enjoy simple sandwiches and perhaps a flavored milk drink. The dessert can be a fruit gelatin mold with sponge cake or sugar cookies or it can be ice cream. Here's a sample menu and a recipe for the dessert that my niece originated.

Cream of Spinach Soup with Crisp Crostons
Egg and Bacon Sandwiches
Red, White and Blue Fruit Cup
Flavored Milk Beverage
RED, WHITE AND BLUE FRUIT CUP - Turn a pint basket of blueberries into a strainer or colander and wash under cold running water; drain well. Portion into six attractive individual serving dishes, low-footed sherbet glasses or custard cups; top each with half a marshmallow wedged between two large red raspberries.

Irrigation wells again are busy. No rain last week and three days of hot, windy weather has dried the ground rapidly. Eugene Fangman suffered badly burned hands last Thursday noon when a spark from the tractor ignited a barrel of gasoline. Eugene was filling the tractor with gas and as soon as he saw the fire he immediately drove the tractor out of danger. The barrel from which he was using the gas soon exploded and set fire to a large gasoline tank and two drums which were nearby. The fire on these was extinguished with chemicals. Gene caught a ride to town for medical aid. Mrs. John Townsend and Mrs. Elmer Combs were hostesses last Thursday at a birthday party at the Townsend home. The occasion was the birthday of Patsy Townsend and Billy Don Combs. After games were played and the gifts opened, the hostesses served refreshments of ice cream and cake to Mozelle Young, Ross Joe Landers, G. C. Friday Is Deadline For Fallowed Summer Land Payment Application

Summer fallowed land leads the others in popularity because the "soil rest" which it provides for the year so obviously guarantees increased production on the unirrigated land; the farmers quickly accepted the practice.

Collier issued a warning to men employing this conservation method to apply for payment on their summer fallowed land by September 2. After Friday they are no longer eligible.

According to the PMA head, only about 10 per cent of the farm land in Deaf Smith County is irrigated. Irrigated farms have to rely on crop rotations and planting of legumes to restore the soil or else the productivity of the land is soon depleted.

Non-irrigated farms, whose owners are concerned with saving all the rain possible, are being contour chiseled and terraced, any moisture conserving methods, being readily incorporated by the farmer.

George Muse, head of the National Farm Loan Association, declared it was impossible to determine what per cent of today's increased land values were directly traceable to soil conservation, but he believes these restoration practices do play an important part.

"The value of soil conservation is not of so much importhen you write it up. Have you been visiting, been divorced, bought anything, sold something, had a party, been to one, got engaged, been jilted, joined a club or thrown out of one, had triplets, quadruplets, or even one baby? That's news, and we and your friends would like to know about it.

Rural Ford, principal of Central School, reminded parents of all first graders that these young students must present their birth certificates before they will be allowed to enroll in school this term.

Hereford, long known for its friendliest people, is getting a bit careless about its lawn sprinklers. Newcomers coming here are amazed but delighted by the friendly smiles and cheerful greetings given them by complete strangers. But they begin to wonder just how sincere all this is when they go for a stroll through the residential section. There they find lawn sprinklers either on the sidewalk itself and throwing a spray onto the walk, forcing the newcomer (and our own residents, for that matter) to either brave the elements of ruined shoes, wet stockings or trouser legs or walk out into the street to be covered by dust by passing motorists. Can this be our Hereford?

The Wyche Home Demonstration Club is not one to sit around and discuss the latest tid bits on cooking hints. It has engaged Glenn Boardman to paint 58 signs, each 20 inches in length, naming every section and cross road between Wyche and Hereford. Is the city of Hereford's face red!

Potato growers and shippers of this area are invited to attend a meeting at 8 p. m. Friday in the county court room. To be discussed is the freight rate structure on east and north bound shipments, which growers and shippers consider "out of line with other competitive districts," and the forthcoming meeting of the national potato industry in Washington.

The petition requested a "first class road" 60 feet wide. It is to begin at the northeast quarter of Section 20 and north-west quarter of Section 21 in township 3, north, range 1, east; thence south to southeast corner of Section 29 and southwest corner of Section 28, connecting with the Harrison highway.

Clean-Up Drive

(Continued from Page 1) tions of filth were removed. "We have made inquiries regarding the purchase of our own spraying equipment, so that we might have it available when ever it is needed, but these machines are not available at this time," Mayor Dameron said.

Loud and Flashy

(Continued from page one) Ties are the one article of clothing cleaned less often than they should be according to the dry cleaners. Men spot a tie, hang it back and forget about it. Then when they think about having their ties cleaned, they swoop up practically the whole collection, and send them all. Dub Reeves, however, said men have their favorite ties cleaned about every third wearing.

Prefers Conservative Designs - As to what designs are the most popular, its strictly an individual. "I like conservative ties," said Francis Hardwick fingering his a la Bing Crosby cravat. Cattleman Bob Higgins, true to his profession, said his favorite was a birthday gift from Tucson. It is a blue tie with black boots and a rope design on it. However, even in a ranching center like Hereford western designs and cowboy regalia don't sell particularly well except for special occasions such as a big pioneer day celebration is S. L. Harman's belief.

This spring the fashion news in women's prints was small geometric designs, so called "tie prints." Now, according to Sam McLallen, when Mama tries to buy Papa these conservative patterned, all over design, small print ties, Papa rebels. "He says he's not that old," says McLallen. "He wants them loud and flashy."

From the evidence available that's true. When queried, Gas-ton Baer was wearing one of those English type, all over designs in a dull muted shade. "You see," he explained, "The store owner has to wear what the customer won't buy."

Wife Hides His Favorite - But Bob Thompson says his favorite tie was the one he was wearing, a maroon and gray narrow striped rayon number. And S. O. Wilson's pet tie for daily wear was a blue wool hand loomed four-in-hand with four Indian trail designs in yellow and orange scattered over it. Jim Lipscomb walked in wearing a grey and white background tie with huge red and gray dots bouncing over it. "It's the one I like best," he explained. "But sometimes Susie gets tired looking at it and hides it for a few weeks. She just got it out for me today."

Paul Harvey, sporting a fantastic blue and yellow mottled bow tie himself, said bows were gaining favor, particularly among the 20-30 year olds. These Sinatra specials are on the "can't-have" list for round faced men or short fat men. When asked why men bought such brilliant color combinations and neck wear designed with practically everything from autumn leaves to garbage cans, he divulged a trade secret.

"I think men wear ties like that just to cause some comment," he said. Probably so. When George Graham was asked what his favorite tie looked like, he replied without a moment's hesitation, "My favorite tie looks like the devil."

Tom Ivey

"And I have often pointed him out as the real cowman of the long ago with a friendliness expressed by his firm handclasp as he looked you straight in the eye."

4-H Club Boy

(Continued from Page 1) Tall, tow headed and tanned from a summer spent working on the farm, Bill is a good example of the young reared-on-the-farm boys who have faith in their dad's occupation. They believe it takes brains to be a good farmer or rancher and they are starting young to learn from experienced people. In 1946-47, when Bill was elected president of his Four-H club, his calf was named grand champion. Besides the blue ribbon, and an award watch, he received a return of $710.70 on the sale of a calf that cost him $177.87 to feed. Profits like that aren't to be sneezed at so the next year he invested in two club calves. This year he's repeating the duo.

Last spring Bill was graduated from Hereford Junior High school. He had been president of his class for the two preceding years, and was a member of the Freshman Football team and was already playing first chair cornet in the High School Band. Now the Kelly's have moved back to the country after spending last year living in town. Bill's trying a new experiment with corn, which he will use to feed his show calves and he's trying hard for a first place win. He is not only wants a blue ribbon. He wants a chance to win back that award watch someone stole last year!

Most birds in the temperate zones raise a new crop of feathers twice a year. The earliest known bird is believed to be a peculiar creature called an archaopteryx which lived 125,000,000 years ago. Europe has a total population of about 900 million.

Huge Farm Machines In Use

Project To Mean Big Savings For Farmers Of S. W.

TUCUMCARI, N. M.—The re-making of the J. C. White 40-acre irrigated farm near here, between dawn and dusk on Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 6, is an event that can mean thousands of dollars to farmers of the Southwest. L. C. Strawn, supervisor of the Canadian River Soil Conservation District, declared this week.

"Just about every soil and water conservation practice needed on irrigated land will be applied on the White farm during this spectacular demonstration, Strawn said. "In planning the remodeling of this farm, Soil Conservation Service technicians have analyzed the capability of every acre and have designed conservation practices that will put every acre to its best use. It is expected that this demonstration will lead many farmers to apply conservation practices on their own land." Strawn continued.

When the supervisors of the Canadian River Soil Conservation District decided to stage this demonstration, which will be the first complete remodeling of an irrigated farm in a day in this section of the country, they selected the White farm because it is subject to severe damage by erosion and is convenient to reach, being only five miles northwest of Tucumcari.

White, a 25-year old war veteran, plans to put most of his remodelled farm in irrigated pasture and hay for a dairy herd.

During the day, the spectators will see work done that would require years of labor on the part of an individual operating single-handed. All types of machinery, ranging from huge bulldozers to small farm-type equipment, will be used in order to give farmers an idea of what they can do to conserve soil and water and thereby increase crop yields on their own farms, according to Strawn.

J. C. White, right, signs approval of the plan which will be put into effect at a huge demonstration "Remaking A Farm in a Day" on White's farm on the Tucumcari irrigation project five miles northwest of Tucumcari, Sept. 6. Looking on is Wayne Miles, District Soil Conservationist.

Most of the equipment and labor will be donated for the remaking of the White farm, and the Tucumcari Police Department will serve an old-fashioned barbecue dinner at a nominal cost.

The demonstration is being sponsored by the Canadian River Soil Conservation District in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service, and Bureau of Reclamation.

Scouts Due To Return From Camp Saturday

The Boy Scouts of Troop 1 will return Saturday from their annual camping trip to Ceta Glen. The 17 boys left Monday to spend the week at the Christian Camp, accompanied by Scoutmaster Bill Phillips and two assistants, Edward Roberson and Paul Dishman.

Activity planned for the boys includes swimming, hikes, games and passing such tests as mapping, signaling and camping first aid. Study courses in compass reading and first aid are being conducted.

The four patrols, Eagle, Lynx, Cobra and Lone Pine are divided into separate tents, each presided over by the patrol leader. The boys do all their cooking. (Continued on Page 8)

Lost Anything In The Theatre? See Display At The Brand

Have you lost a red patent leather purse, a bill fold or a yellow wool cap?

Did you leave one of your black suede shoes in the theater one evening?

Have you misplaced a paper mache helmet or an aviator's leather cap and goggles?

Or if you've lost any other miscellaneous articles stop by the Brand office window and look in. The theatre has been fall house cleaning in preparation for the remodeling job they are planning and the lost and found articles have been placed in the window for owners to claim.

Today's the last day for the claim-up. Friday the clothing will be given to the county welfare office.

Next Monday Is Registration Day For Selective Service

You may have to register for the draft next Monday, August 30. How do you tell? Very simple: If you were born in 1922, after August 30, then you have to register on August 30. Why? Because you won't yet be 28 years old.

If you go to your nearest registration center (this will not necessarily be located at a draft board office). You don't have to take anything special with you, like a birth certificate.

All you do is fill out a simple form, giving eight or nine facts about yourself. . . height, weight, color of eyes, full name, address, veterans' status, etc. If your registration center is as efficient as it should be this will take you only 10 or 15 minutes.

What if you can't get to your registration center? M a y b e you'll be sick or far away from home.

If you are away from home, just go to any registration center, and fill out your card. It will be sent to your own local draft board. That's important to remember—you do not have to register at your local registration center but can do it anywhere in the country—or in Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico or the Virgin Islands.

If you are sick and physically unable to register don't worry. That will only make you sicker. Just let your draft board know the facts and explain you'll register as soon as it's physically possible for you to.

But at the same time don't get the idea you can avoid registering indefinitely. Try that and Justice Department agents, meaning the FBI, will make it hot for you.

If you're out of the country, get in touch with the nearest U. S. consulate when your registration day comes.

What happens after registration? You go back home and wait for a letter from your draft board. It will arrive in a week or ten days, but don't be alarmed. It won't be a presidential greet-

LOW COST SWITCHES
 NEW YORK — (AP) — A new wiring system, designed to reduce the amount of expensive electrical work in homes by putting all switches on a low voltage bell-cord hook up, has been developed by the General Electric Company. It is claimed to minimize fire hazards and reduce the amount of heavy conductors to those leading only directly to lighting fixtures and outlets. Wall switches merely operate magnetic master switches at each outlet, so that the wiring to and from all switches can be as light as ordinary battery-operated doorbell systems.

RADIO TAX CONFUSES BELGIAN
 BRUSSELS — (AP) — The Belgian Ministry of Communications has launched a campaign against motorists who have not paid the tax on their car radio. Under Belgian law each radio owner must pay a yearly tax of about $3.20 for the radio in his home. It doesn't matter how many sets he has around the house, because the law says a man has only one pair of ears so can only be listening in one place at a time. This goes for his car radio too, and as long as the car is in the garage the radio is held to be "at home".

To make sure yours will be a carefree holiday, let your Conoco Mileage Merchant check and service your car. Above all, be sure he drains out contaminated old oil and refills with fresh, clean Conoco N4 Motor Oil.

That's the surest way we know to leave worry behind. Because the moment N4 Oil (Patented) enters your engine, an extra, added

Because OIL-PLATING stays up... won't all drain down, even overnight, you're extra-protected against destructive "dry" friction, against metal-eating combustion acids, against power-choking sludge and carbon due to wear.

WRESTLING STIRS RR FAIR
CHICAGO — (AP) — A gentleman was taking in the sights of the Chicago Railroad Fair. He saw a big crowd around a booth. This, the fellow figured, must be the most marvellous of all the mechanical marvels on display. He wormed his way through to a television set. The folks were watching the telecast of a wrestling match.

Texans in Washington

By TEX EABLEY

AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Departure of Senator W. Lee O'Daniel from the Washington scene affects very personally several individuals besides his own immediate family.
When a senator goes out of office it's a little like a business folding up.
One of those affected in this case is Happy Knox, 47, chief secretary to O'Daniel. He grew up in the wholesale grocery business in Brownwood and got to know O'Daniel on a business basis when the latter was selling flour in the early 1930s.
When O'Daniel was elected governor in 1938 he named Knox adjutant general. In 1940 Knox was appointed head of the State Board of Control. In 1941 O'Daniel was elected to the Senate, and when Knox's term on the Control Board expired in 1946 he joined O'Daniel's staff in Washington.
Knox will remain in charge of O'Daniel's office here until next Jan. 3 when the senator's term officially expires.

Boys Small Apartment
What he will do then, says Knox, is uncertain except that he plans to stay in Washington at least for a time. A lot depends on what kind of a job he can connect with here or elsewhere.
Not long ago Knox bought a small apartment house here. He lives in one of its units with his wife and daughter, Annie, 13.
He has two other daughters, both married.
The apartment house formerly was a private residence. He remodeled it into a half dozen apartments. It is next door to the four-story, former 40-room apartment building which O'Daniel purchased and remodeled into a private home.

Incidentally, the O'Daniels now apparently have disposed of all their Washington real estate. Their large home has been remodeled again into apartments. These have been sold on a cooperative purchase arrangement. The W. Lee O'Daniel News building, which formerly was occupied by a bank, was sold a year or more ago.

Others Also Affect
Another of the top men on the O'Daniel staff is Garfield Crawford, veteran Texas newspaper and public relations man. He handled publicity for the senator during political campaigns and edited his weekly newspaper.
Crawford went back to Texas recently to run O'Daniel's office in Fort Worth. He expects to go back into the public relations field Jan. 3.
Fred Donohoo, one time acting Texas State auditor, is another on the O'Daniel staff whose name is scheduled to go off the federal pay-

8,000 Expected To Participate In 'World's Largest Square Dance'

DALLAS — Approximately 8,000 people are expected to participate in the "world's largest square dance" to be staged at State Fair Park on Labor Day, Sept. 6, in the new $800,000 Automobile, Aviation, and Recreation Building.

Mounting enthusiasm has been shown in the event by hundreds of inquiries and entries which have flooded the office of Mrs. Marcella Clifton, secretary-director of the event. They have come from all over Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana.

Entries as guest callers have come from Ray Watson of Hobbs, N. M. and Bert Lowry of Wichita Falls. Guest callers in Amarillo, Shreveport, El Paso, Houston, and Oklahoma City, cities in which square dancing holds more than usual interest, have also been invited to attend. Mrs. Clifton said, Raymond Smith will be master of ceremonies for the square dance.

The Southwest's best old fiddlers have been invited to enter the Old Fiddler's Contest, which will be held in the State Fair Park Picnic Pavilion as a warm-up for the square dance. E. O. Rogers, who is well-known in Old Fiddler circles, will be in charge of the contest.

This square dancing on a mammoth order will be the first event ever held in the new Automobile, Aviation, and Recreation Building. It has 84,000 square feet of space which will be ample room for the 8,000 dancers and a considerable number of spectators.

Advance mail orders are now being filled at Square Dance Headquarters, 1223 Second Ave., Dallas. Tickets are 75 cents each.

roll. Originally from Stamford, he plans to enter business in San Diego, Calif.

Carl H. Miller, one time publisher of a small newspaper in Texas, is another member of the O'Daniel force. His plans are uncertain, but he says he hopes to land on the staff of some other member of Congress. He came here originally as an aide to Rep. Wright Patman of Texas.

The lesser secretarial positions on O'Daniel's staff are held by girls, whose stenographic services make them equally qualified for jobs in other congressional offices. Individuals holding these jobs often switch from one legislator to another.

T Probe Racketeering
Texas two members of the House Education and Labor Committee, have been appointed to serve on subcommittees investigating racketeering in large cities.

Rep. Wingate Lucas of Fort Worth recently participated in a hearing in Brooklyn involving a truck drivers union.

Rep. Clark Fisher of San Angelo was appointed to a group studying complaints of the American Guild of Variety Artists, Philadelphia Local No. 6, that they had been deprived of a voice in their own affairs.

Would Honor Goats
Rep. Fisher proposes issuance of a postage stamp next year commemorating the 100th anniversary of the introduction of Angora goats into this country.

He is taking the matter up with postal officials.

It was in 1849 that the first Angora were brought into the United States, says Fisher, himself a mohair producer.

They came from Turkey, nine of them, as a personal gift from the Sultan to the then President James K. Polk. Prior to that time Turkey had barred the export of the goats to the U. S., but the gesture of the Sultan was in appreciation for cotton experiments carried on by American scientists in that country.

Burleson Addresses Legion
Rep. Omar Burleson of Anson made the principal address at the recent dedication of an American Legion home in Luray, Va., in the beautiful Shenandoah mountains.

At a colorful ceremony where army and navy might was displayed, he appealed for clear thinking and patriotic devotion to American ideals. He began his speech with this observation:

"It is good to be in Virginia—Texans and Virginians are very much alike and have many characteristics in common. Texas enjoys many of the traditions brought her from this noble old state and when we brag about our state and her people, we are necessarily including a lot of Virginians."

Statistics Prove Youngsters Really Dangerous Drivers

CHICAGO — Are teen-age drivers as reckless as older folks say they are? The National Safety Council says the answer is "yes."

The 1948 edition of "Accident Facts," the Council's statistical yearbook includes studies made of accident rates of drivers in various age groups. These studies show that the fatal accident rate in terms of miles driven by youngsters under 20 was 89 per cent higher than the average rate for all drivers.

The Council believes driver training courses in high schools and colleges are a big part of the answer to the problem. Better examples by parents and other older drivers would help a lot too, it says.

SIGNS OF LAUGHTER

MOSCOW — (AP) — A writer in the newspaper "Soviet Moldavia" called on restaurant managers and other commercial officials to be more careful in their wording of signs — some of which, he added, are causing a lot of laughter. He told of a case where an amused citizen called on a doctor and asked him to fill out a certificate that he had a "normal neck". The doctor could not understand until the friend led him to a kerosene store which exhibited a sign saying: "Kerosene will not be sold to citizens with narrow necks." The sign referred, of course, to citizens with cans with narrow necks which caused spilling.

The male killer whale has a scimitar-shaped dorsal fin six feet high and as the beast swims, just at the surface, the waving fin looks like the neck of a serpent. This is responsible for most of the sensational sea-serpent stories.

GETS CAR IN JAM
COPENHAGEN — (AP) — A car hit a tree near the road outside the island of Pines. The front part of the car was smashed, but all members of the family inside escaped injuries. The cause of the accident was a dish with jelly. The dish had been placed in back of the car together with other foods, and when the driver drove comparatively slow, through a village, several hundred bees, were attracted by the smell. They swarmed through the open car window and dive-bombed into the juice.

This is Our Policy... on
DELIVERIES, TRADE-INS, FINANCING, ACCESSORIES

OUR PLEDGE TO THE PUBLIC
DELIVERIES—We will deliver all new Oldsmobiles at the earliest possible date consistent with production.
TRADE-INS—We will take your order and deliver your car without requiring a trade-in. However, we have many valued used car customers we would like to supply, and we will give you a fair and reasonable allowance on your present car.
FINANCING—You may pay cash for your new Oldsmobile or finance it wherever you wish. We will be glad to furnish low cost finance and insurance terms if you so desire.
ACCESSORIES—All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered, and prices are figured to cover them. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" except those each customer orders.
When an automobile manufacturer produces a car so obviously ahead of the times as the Futuramic Oldsmobile, it's only natural that demand for that product should reach record-breaking proportions. Add to this today's pent-up need for automotive transportation—plus continuing shortages of steel and other critical materials—and you'll see why we, as Oldsmobile dealers, have a real problem on our hands. We value the good will of all our customers. We would like to provide all our customers with new Oldsmobile cars. But unfortunately, this can't be done overnight. That is why we are taking this opportunity to reaffirm publicly our policies on NEW CAR DELIVERIES, as listed in the box at right. We believe that under present circumstances these policies constitute a sound basis for "fair play" to everybody. And we hope that, on this basis, we may continue to serve you and merit your patronage for Oldsmobile and for ourselves.

'Old' Sailors Swap Yarns

Tales of sailing days are swapped by an old salt, Capt. Tom Malloy, and three young salts, Albert Haupt, 6, left, Corrine Schreiner, 3, and Norman Schreiner, 7, all of Chicago. These lovers of sea and sail got together at the annual race of Chicago Model Yacht Club.

Football Yanks Eat Like Lions; Camp Meat Bill Is $5,000

By FRANK ECK
AP News Features Sports Editor
CHESHIRE, Conn.—So you think the price of meat has gone sky high? Have you ever tried feeding a squad of professional football players? They eat like lions.

It is costing the New York Yankees, Eastern champions of the all-American Conference, a cool $5,000 in steaks and chops to feed a squad that at one time reached 71 candidates but is now down to 35.

During four weeks of training at the Cheshire Academy the Yankee chef, Roger Sardine, was one of the most popular men in camp.

After Coach Flaherty and his aides ran the players ragged of excess weight, Sardine—the chef—was a welcome sight to the gridmen. They would greet him on the run on the way to the showers and every once in a while you could hear him about "steak tonight."

It was after one of these steaks that Flaherty sat back to relax and began talking about the Yankees, the football Yanks of 1948.

"We're going to have the same razzle dazzle club we had last year," said the former Washington Redskins coach. "We will have a much better passing attack."

"We got Bud Schwenk, who led the league with 186 pass completions with Baltimore last year, and Allen Dekdebrum of Cornell and the Chicago Rockets. They'll do the passing. That's going to help Spec Sanders a lot. He's a great ball carrier. There will be no passing for Buddy Young."

"We'll be much stronger at ends with Paul Cleary of Southern California and Bill Hoyt of UCLA to help Bruce Alford and Jack Russell. But at the guard and tackle spots we'll be weaker."

"Bruiser Kinard retired to coach the Mississippi line. Tackle Nate Johnson went to the Rockets and Guard Dick Baraban went to Baltimore. Chicago also got Eddis Prokop, a good back."

"These deals were made to balance the league. They were made last winter when I wasn't around and if I had known about them I certainly wouldn't have approved of them. Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns (Conference playoff champions) gave up nothing but we gave up some of our best linemen."

"We'll play more of an open game with our new passers. The team has shown tremendous speed in early exhibition games against Buffalo and the Rockets but we'll know more on August 27, when we open the league in Brooklyn against the Dodgers."

"We sent six players to the Chicago All-Star game—Nick Ognowich of Wake Forest, Roland Nabors of Texas Tech, Joe Signaigo of Notre Dame, Dick Werdler of Georgetown, Arnold Weinmeister of Washington and Cleary."

"Another end to watch is Otto Schnellbacher. He was the fellow who caught all those passes last year for Ray Evans at Kansas."

They call Schnellbacher "The Claw" not because of the way he puts away those steaks but the way he pulls in passes, Sanders, the brilliant running back, is one of the steak-eating champions. It's nothing for him to mangle two and a half steaks and four plates of ice cream. He hasn't 27 "boarding house" meals, which is all right with Flaherty as long as Sanders remains the sensation he's been the last two seasons.

Lee Johnson of Snyder visited friends in Hereford over the weekend and was a guest in the G. H. Whitaker home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Burgin and family returned last week from a vacation trip to South Dakota and Wyoming.

Cotton, Wheat, Corn Showed Lower Trends At Markets In Southwest Over The Week-end

Cotton grains and livestock showed lower trends this week at southwest markets, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Wheat and corn dropped sharply over the weekend after showing some strength last week. Yellow corn closed Monday 25 cents a bushel lower than a week earlier at $1.75 to $1.80 at Kansas common points. White corn lost 12 cents, barley 6 to 7, oats around 3 and wheat 4 for the week. Milo fell 10 to 15 cents a hundred pounds.

Most foodstuffs sold unchanged to lower, although wheat futures showed further strength. Top grades of hay were in good demand, but wet weather lowered quality in many areas.

Cotton netted losses of around $3 a bale for the seven day period. Spot middling 15-16 inch closed Monday at 30.30 cents a pound at Dallas, 30.50 at New Orleans, and 30.55 at Houston.

Cattle sold around 50 cents to $1 lower for the week at most southwest markets. Common and medium cows ranged from $20 down at Houston, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Oklahoma City and Wichita Monday and up to $21 at Kansas City. Denver paid as high as $24 for good cows, which spread from $21 to $23 at Kansas City, Wichita, and Fort Worth, and $20.50 to $21 at San Antonio.

Hog prices broke all records at many markets last week but declined later to net only slight changes up or down. Top butcher hogs reached $23 at San Antonio at the high time, and $30 at Fort Worth, Oklahoma City and Wichita, paid as high as $31, Kansas City $31.75, and Denver $32.25. Sows and pigs showed

Catholic Information

Do Catholic medals keep off lightning?

"Keep off lightning? Why, medals, being made of metal, would more likely attract lightning, wouldn't they?"

"But an old Catholic woman I know wouldn't think of leaving off her medals for fear of being struck or drowned or something."

"Yes, and I don't doubt that that same old woman has her own ideas about Relativity, Epiphany, and the causes of the World War; yet you'd hardly quote her as an authority on those subjects would you?"

"But, after all, in a way she may be right about her medals. They, of course, have absolutely no power in themselves. They are lifeless matter. But if, knowing the medal to be blessed and inspire trust in God's loving care, your old Catholic woman, in simple faith (which amounts to a prayer for protection), wears the medal with a sense of security, who can say that our all-understanding God will not answer and preserve her from harm?"

"And isn't it likely, too, that the wearing of a reminder of Christ or a saint will allay her fear and thus perhaps, as a by-product, result in a better-cooked dinner, despite flashes and crashes from the skies? Who knows?"

A fear-shaken soldier, before the battle, brings forth a picture of his wife, his child, or his sweetheart. He looks at it fondly, he kisses it fervently.

Mere paper, mounted on cardboard—yet it inspires him to go forth valiantly to victory or to death.

You, fellow-citizens, who doff your hat to the American flag, who stand with reverence before the picture of Washington or Lincoln, who lovingly preserve the wedding-gown of your great-great-grandmother—you who have sentiment, imagination, and loyalty—surely you must see the Catholic viewpoint on medals, pictures, statues, and relics—mementoes of Christ, our God, and of the beloved heroes of Christianity.

There is a vast difference between the supernatural and the superstitious. All wisdom subscribes to the first. Ignorance alone subscribes to the second. Ignorant, superstitious Catholics, of course, there are, but taken as a whole, Catholics do not fear black cats, walking under ladders, and Friday the 13th, and are less prone to this silly weakness than lots of other people.

Deaf Smith Young Men Prefer Peace Time Draft Than Marriage: 3 Licenses Issued

Draft exemption for married men last weekend apparently speeded a lot of wedding plans—but business at the county clerk's office here was a little on the dull side.

Associated Press reports from a number of cities indicated an upswing in the number of marriage licenses issued to young persons.

The trend, however, was not nationwide, on the basis of scattered reports. In Hereford, for instance, records of County Clerk Robert L. Thompson showed only three licenses to wed were issued over the Friday-Saturday weekend.

But the rush in Brooklyn grew so heavy the marriage license bureau called in the police to help control the flood of applicants.

Four hundred licenses were issued there in a half-day, about four times as many as on a similar Saturday last year.

"Sure I'm getting married to beat the draft. I'm not yellow but I don't want to serve in any peacetime Army."

Married men were officially deferred from the draft by President Truman on Friday, and Selective Service officials said that as regulations now stand, men married between now and the time they have to register for service will be exempt.

In Chicago nearly 500 couples applied for licenses Saturday, topping any August figures this year.

A flood of applicants for marriage licenses kept the St. Louis license bureau open an hour overtime Saturday. Most of the applicants were in the draft age group.

Asked whether the rush to get married might affect the draft program, Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, said he had no official reports on the situation.

"If they want to get married," said Hershey, "that's their business."

In a light vein he added: "It's a peculiar way to avoid service, but it's a matter of opinion."

There was no noticeable rise in marriage license applications at Kansas City during the month but a number of licenses have been taken out where the prospective bridegroom had already enlisted in the Armed Forces.

Although there was a definite increase in applications at Cleveland, William L. Kenks, the license clerk, was unable to say whether the draft was caus-

More Faculty Homes At Texas Tech Is Planned

LUBBOCK — Advisability of constructing 50 or more faculty homes on the Texas Technological college campus is being investigated by a committee of the Texas Tech board of directors, working with the Council of Deans.

Directors O. B. Ratliff of Lubbock, A. G. Pat Mayes of Paris, Leon Ince of Houston and Charles Woolridge of Dallas have been authorized to study possible issuance of $500,000 in bonds to finance the project in order that faculty needs may be met. Directors say they believe 50 cottages can be built for the sum.

Under the proposal rentals would retire the bonds, and families would be required to move as soon as suitable quarters could be found off the campus.

ing the rush. He thought the forthcoming Labor Day holiday, with the chance for longer wedding trips, might have something to do with the increase.

At Los Angeles there was no indication of an upswing in young couples seeking to get married.

A record for one day was set at Detroit Saturday when 300 couples lined up for licenses.

Clerks worked overtime at Minneapolis Saturday, when 64 licenses were issued, double that of the two previous days. Thirty-four of the 64 licenses went to men in the 18 to 28 bracket.

There was no indication of an increase in license in Boston and no figures are available from the south.

In Washington the license bureau is closed all day Saturday, so there was no check on any speed-up there.

What It Means:

Fewer Veterans In Colleges

BY VERN HAUGLAND

WASHINGTON — The Veterans Administration (VA) says the number of war veterans in college this fall may drop 10 percent below last winter's peak.

"It is logical to expect most of this decline among the junior colleges, teachers colleges and other small colleges and universities," Harold V. Stirling, VA education director, said in an interview. "Many veterans who enrolled in junior colleges are completing the two-year courses offered by these schools. Some may continue undergraduate study in other colleges."

"Others enrolled in the smaller schools while waiting for openings in the larger institutions of their choice. They will transfer to these larger schools as soon as openings are available. As a result of these transfers, total war-veteran enrollments in the larger colleges and universities are expected to hold fairly constant during the next academic year, while marked decreases will be noted in the enrollments of smaller colleges."

Peak enrollment in the veterans education and job-training program was 2,602,000 last December. Enrollment of veterans in colleges alone reached 1,345,000. Enrollments declined steadily and toward the end of the academic year last May had decreased to 1,703,000 in all programs and 1,141,000 at the college level.

Stirling said the rate of decline among college enrollments probably will be slower than originally expected because of increased subsistence allowances granted by Congress this year. "These increases will enable many veterans — particularly those with dependents — to complete their college courses rather than abandon them for economic reasons," Stirling said. "Nevertheless, college enrollments may decline as much as 10 percent below last December's peak."

Stirling said the veterans enrollment peak in schools below the college level has not yet been reached. The number of veterans, particularly in business and vocational schools and high schools, has increased during the past year. Stirling said they can be expected to increase again this fall in spite of the restraining effect ban on avocational or recreational courses. Higher ceilings on earned income plus subsistence allowance will account for a part of the increase.

742 At Annual Barbecue Of Ex-Hereford Resident

A total of 742 persons last weekend attended the annual barbecue staged near Dumas by Lu Halle, Moore County commissioner, and former resident of Hereford.

Numerous old-timers and citizens of Halle's home precinct, No. 2, were included among the signatures in the guest book signed during the barbecue.

Halle moved from Hereford to Dumas in 1903. He was born in Grayson County in 1878, moving to Hereford in 1899.

The barbecue, at Lu's North Camp, 16 miles southeast of Dumas, has been an annual event for 20 years.

Halle was re-elected commissioner of his precinct in the primary last month to bring his total service in the same office to 40 years, believed to be a Texas, if not a national record. He also is manager of the Joe Sneed estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Halle have five daughters, Mary Lou McCormick, Irene Smith, Lorene Brown, Annabelle Whipple, and Dora Lee Halle.

DOG AIDS ARCHEOLOGISTS
ROME — (AP) — A howling dog led diggers to an archeological find in Sardinia. Health Department workers oiling mosquito-breeding pools near Su Arbaraghine were attracted by the dog, Cagliari, dispatches say. They dug where the animal scratched. In a short time, they broke through to a cavern containing eight skulls and other human bones. The dispatch said the bones apparently dated from prehistoric times.

Next Monday

That's a rough, broad outline.

It'll be just a questionnaire, but a very curious questionnaire. It will ask more questions of what to expect. There can always be changes. Now back to registration. If you were born in 1923 you know when to register.

If you were born in 1923, register Aug. 31 or Sept. 1.

If born in 1924, register Sept. 2 or 3.

If born in 1925, register Sept. 4 or 7; if 1926, register Sept. 8 or 9; in 1927, register Sept. 10 or 11; if 1928, register Sept. 13 or 14; if 1929, Sept. 15 or 16.

If born in 1930, before Sept. 19, register Sept. 17 or 18. That will be for the boys who have just turned 18.

If you aren't 18 by Sept. 19 then you must register the day of your birthday—or within five days thereafter. But you won't be drafted till you get to be 19. And you can't be drafted once you hit 20.

Index of Texas Retail Sales

The index of total retail sales, based on 1935-39 and adjusted for seasonal variation, slipped to 321 in June from 325 in May and 340 in April. The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported. The non-durable goods index likewise slipped to 294 in June from 304 of May and the April high of 311. However, the durable goods index recovered to 373 in June after falling to 363 in May from the high point of 395 in April.—(AP Photo Chart).

Health Officer Asks Public To Insist Proper Sanitation Of Eating Places

AUSTIN—The Texas State Department of Health cannot maintain daily inspection of all eating places and the public is urged by Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer to insist on the proper sanitation of the establishment where they eat. If the public is careless in this respect the incentive to maintain clean food service will be lessened and operators will only maintain the level the public is willing to accept. He urged that the public patronize "testing establishments which measure up to a high standard of cleanliness."

The State Health Department is making every effort to improve sanitation of eating places. Dr. Cox said, and there is "no excuse for cafe owners not taking advantage of the food handlers schools which are being offered all over the state." He added that there are laws, rules and regulations which require the use of approved equipment and methods in such establishments.

"The public should be aware of these sanitary rules and regulations and insist that restaurants observe them. Patrons should realize that tables and counters will be many times cleaner than the kitchen and other places out of sight," he warned.

He urged milk appraisal by the patrons also. Texas law requires that a milk bottle cap state the grade of milk, and whether it is raw or pasteurized. "Insist on having the milk served in its original container, with a covered cap and a legal label," Dr. Cox advised.

"Obviously," he said, "the best in sanitation can be had only by close co-operation between the public and the investigators of the State Health Department."

New Pre-Trial Procedure To Be Put To Test Today

Judge Luther Gribble, presiding judge of the Ninth Administrative Judicial District, will put to test the new pre-trial procedure in a hearing to be held in Clarendon today.

The pre-trial procedure is coming into wide use throughout the entire United States and is hailed one of the greatest advances in expediting trial of lawsuits. The attorneys representing the parties to a lawsuit have an opportunity to agree on the undisputed facts to be presented in the trial of the case and have the court rule on the law involved.

Judge Gribble said, "The pre-trial conference is a notable improvement in court procedure and I hope that in the future it will be more consistently used throughout this area."

BLIND PHONE GIRL WORKS BY TOUCH

BALTIMORE — (AP) — You'd think a telephone operator would need fairly sharp eyes to keep up with the little flashing lights on the switchboard. But Miss Audrey Berch, who has been blind since infancy, has been a telephone operator at the Church Home and Hospital in Baltimore for the last 25 years.

A "braille gadget" is the secret. This device — about a foot square — is attached to the side of the switchboard. It has rows of small metal discs, each one about the size of a dime. Each metal disc corresponds to a socket on the switchboard, and above each disc is a braille sign, with its duplicate over the socket that goes with it.

When a call comes in, a buzzer sounds a small peg shoots up from the center of one of the discs. Miss Berch slides her finger over the discs, finds the one with the protruding peg, feels the braille sign above it, and puts a switch on the socket which has the same braille sign. It takes her three seconds at least. To Miss Berch's knowledge, there are very few of these Braille aids in the country. The only two others in Baltimore are at the Maryland School for the Blind and the Maryland Workshop for the Blind.
