V-J DAY

(Saturday, August 14th)

THREE YEARS LATER...

TIME DULLS UNPLEASANT RECOLLECTIONS BUT NOBODY EVER FORGETS A WAR

Someday, seemingly far off, our children will read as text in history books, the events of the war which we have recently lived. The Battles of Bataan and Corregidor will be revealed to them in black and white, rather than blood and tears; the names of MacArthur and Halsey will stir them to adventure, rather than command them to battle stations; and this anniversary of V-J Day will be a memory rather than a release from all the tribulations of war on the fighting front, work and waiting on the home front—World War II will soon be "history," and it is for us to assume the responsibility of seeing to it that the actuality of war will never be suffered by our children.

SEES POLITICAL BIAS HINDERING ASIA

MADRAS, India — (AP) — Political bias of big powers is hindering Asia's economic recovery, says H. Sitarama, India's alternate delegate to the recent U. N. economic session at Ootacamund.
 Reddi, who also is industries minister of Madras presidency, made the charge in an address here. He declared that at Ootacamund, "we found that the metropolitan countries were the real stumbling blocks to the evolution of any plan or program of economic recovery of Asia."
 Reddi said that the United States was interested in helping Japan's trade because she viewed the country as a potential buffer state. Referring to the white Australia policy, he predicted that in time Australia would absorb a huge Asian population to work her undeveloped hinterland.

West Texas Still Hiring Under Age Minors, Declares Federal Official

ALBUQUERQUE, — Employment of under age minors, with its attending dangers and perils, is still prevalent in West Texas, according to John R. Cartwright, who represents the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, U. S. Department of Labor, in this section of the State and in New Mexico.
 Cartwright said the fiscal year report shows violations of the child labor sections of the Fair Labor Standards Act (Federal wage and hour law) and the Walsh-Healey (public contracts) Act were uncovered in more than 4 percent of the plants inspected in this state during the year ending July 1.
 "A total of 1204 establishments were inspected in all parts of Texas during that period, and child labor violations were found in 51," he said at his headquarters, 413 Federal Building, Albuquerque.
 "The wage and hour law prohibits employment of children under 16 years old in manufacturing and processing occupations, or in workrooms where manufacturing or processing is being carried on. It also bans employment of children under 18 years old in occupations declared to be dangerous or hazardous. The Walsh-Healey Act, which applies to firms supplying goods or material to the government on contracts exceeding $10,000, prohibits a boy under 16 or a girl under 18 years old from working on such contract goods.

 "Department reports show many children have been injured, permanently crippled or killed working around machinery or in rooms where machinery is being operated. Among the occupations held to be hazardous for children under 18 years old are: Driver or helper on motor vehicles, logging or sawmilling, coal-mining, operating power-driven woodworking machinery and operating power-driven hoisting apparatus, including elevators."

Speed up Baling with the New OLIVER "88" and Automatic-Hydraulic Thresher

Here's a great time-saving combination!

The remarkable direct drive power take-off of the big new 3-4 plover Oliver "88" tractor is one of the greatest boons to baling. To "ease" the baler's load or clear the machine, just step on the clutch of your "88"—the Oliver power take-off keeps on running! Let out the clutch and you're on your way again. No time wasted by declutching, gear shifting, and re-clutching!

Come in and check the high-tonnage features of the Oliver-Ann Arbor Automatic-Hydraulic Thresher Pick-up Baler, too. Neat, firm, sliced bales that come apart in good-sized sections are produced.

You can get almost any combination of ground speed and draw-bar pull you want. With its 6-forward-speed transmission, 6-cylinder engine and Fuel Miser governor, you can fit the tractor to the load—and use only the fuel that's needed to do the work.

There are many other valuable, money-saving farm features, plus a choice of three great engines for the fuel you prefer, including a farm-engineered diesel that will be available later... interchangeable cast and stamped steel wheels and basic interchangeability of mounted tools with other Row Crop models.

Locale Of Movie In Etex Draws City's Ire

KERMIT — (AP) — Kermit discovered last week that it was the theme city of a moving picture now being made on the opposite side of the state. And the citizens were indignant.
 Kermit is on the barren, rolling sand dunes of West Texas. It has plenty of oil wells, so does Lindale — the East Texas town where the movie "Strike It Rich" is being made. Lindale is called Kermit in the picture.
 The Kermit Chamber of Commerce, backed by the Winkler County News, wired producer Jack Wraether they doubted even the motion picture industry could make an East Texas pine tree look anything like one of Kermit's scrub mesquite bushes.
 "Everything you needed in the way of 'props' would have been right handy," the telegram said, except the model A's and T's from East Texas.
 "They don't let our oil wells gush any more, but some driller could have been persuaded, for such a special occasion, to let one 'get loose' and you could have set the day and hour for this scene.
 "The picture is probably almost finished, so all we can do now is extend an invitation for the premiere showing of "Strike It Rich" to be held in Kermit. It would draw much larger crowds than in Dallas, and besides, we're all agog to see the movie's picture of Kermit in the 30's as it was filmed in East Texas."

The United States uses about 80 per cent of the world's production of 35 million pounds of vegetable waxes.
 Ontario, Canada, has a lake and river area estimated at 80,000 square miles.

MORE TELEPHONE CABLE GOING IN to serve those waiting

It takes more than a telephone and switchboard to provide service for people who are waiting. It also takes wire and cable to connect each telephone with the switchboard.

Factories are turning out twice as much cable as before the war. And we are placing and splicing it into service as fast as we can get this cable.

We're working hard, but the demand for new telephones is so great we can't put in new cable fast enough to provide service for everyone as quickly as we or they would like.

If you are waiting for service, you may be sure we will connect your new telephone just as soon as we possibly can.

the game. Mathes walked, Earl Stagner walked, Harold Loerwald who smacked the horsehide from the wrong side of the plate, busted one into right center for a double and won a $10 hat for a prize. Incidentally, the son-of-a-gun brought in two runs and won the first ball game ever played under the lights in Hereford. Besides this hit, he played a jam up game in the field.

It was in and out until the seventh inning, when the VFW started a rally that fell short one score of a tie. After one out, Burdine, singled, Lueb singled, L. J. Clark struck out, and Carmichael advanced to third on Lueb's single. The latter stole second with two out and two on, while Anderson slammed a single over the infield, scoring both runners. He tried to make second on the throw in to home plate and was out.

And that was all brother! Anderson struck out three in the last two frames and Mathes whiffed five of the last six batters to face him.

It was the first time to play base ball under the lights for most of these players and the first time to see a game under the lights for a lot of the fans and everybody really enjoyed every bit of it.

There will be another battle royal proper next Wednesday and Thursday nights between the same two teams.

Because of the lack of storage space at country and sub-terminal warehouse filled mostly with 1948 crop wheat, this office estimates that on the grain sorghums crop Texas farmers have already received $5,200,000.00 less than the loan and purchase agreement rates. It would appear sound counsel for the farmer to buy material to remodel or build new storage on the farm to house this crop of grain sorghums. The loan and purchase rates on the average are 50 to 60 cents a hundred above the present market price. Even with the present high cost of materials, OUTRIGHT NEW GRANARIES OR REPAIRS ON OTHER FARM STRUCTURES COULD BE BUILT FOR THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE MARKET PRICE AND THE SUPPORT PRICE WITH SOME MONEY LEFT OVER, AND THESE STRUCTURES WILL BE USEFUL FOR YEARS TO COME.

Livestock Brings Lower Prices At Markets Wheat, Corn And Barley Advances In S. W.

Livestock, cotton and some other farm products brought lower prices than a week ago at southwest markets, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration.

Sheep and lambs declined largely $1 to $2 for the week, though Wichita and Kansas City showed little change. Spring feeder lambs held their own fairly well at Texas markets. Common to good kinds brought $19 to $22.25 at San Antonio while Fort Worth paid $20 to $23.50. Goats lost $1.25 to $1.50 at San Antonio, but kids held steady.

Cattle sold generally 50 cents to $1.50 lower than a week earlier. Stocker cows ranged from $16 to $18 at Houston and Fort Worth. San Antonio handled medium and good yearlings at $25.50 to $26.50. Oklahoma City moved good steers, yearlings and calves at $26 to $28. Wichita sent medium and good light stocker steers and yearlings back to the country at $23 to $27. Good and choice stocker and feeder steers changed hands at $26.50 to $31 at Kansas City. Denver paid $24 to $26 for medium and good.

Hogs closed Monday 50 cents to $1 lower than a week ago. Bulk sales of good and choice medium weights went at $27.50 at San Antonio, $28 to $28.50 at Fort Worth and Oklahoma City, and $28.25 to $29 at Kansas City and Wichita. Denver paid $29 to $30. Medium weight sows reached $23 to $24 at most markets. Texas pigs brought $26 down.

Markets improved for some Colorado vegetables during the past week. Demand for San Luis Valley peas exceeded the supply. U. S. No. 1's sold over the week-end at $2.75 per bushel basket. Potatoes enjoyed better inquiry in the Gilcrest section. U. S. No.

1, Size A, washed Bliss Triumphs loaded at $2.40 to $2.50 per 100 pound sack. San Luis Valley cauliflower weakened, and many items eased at Denver.

Eggs and poultry found mainly steady to firm markets during the week. Eggs strengthened slightly at Denver, where poultry weakened some. Ordinary current egg receipts brought 37 to 38½ cents a dozen at Denver and 38 at Dallas. Fort Worth paid 38 cents with loss off. Most fryers sold from 35 to 41 cents a pound. Heavy hens moved at 24 to 26 at Fort Worth and 28 to 30 at Dallas.

Wheat, corn and barley advanced three to four cents a bushel for the week, oats about 2 cents, and sorghums 6 to 11 cents a hundred pounds. No. 1 wheat closed Monday around $2.31, with No. 2 yellow corn $2.19½ to $2.22, and milo $2.38 to $2.48.

fit, and in such communities as will require the facilities. He pointed out it within the jurisdiction of the local board members to locate registration places in each and every community to which prospective registrants normally vote or go to school.

After the period of initial registration (Aug. 30 through Sept. 18) is over, General Berry advised, arrangements should be made to have boys registered in each community as they become 18 years old. A suggested arrangement was to have it done by school authorities or postmasters.

Jester Issues Proclamation

Gov. Beauford H. Jester at Austin Tuesday issued a proclamation naming 17 days on which Texans 18 to 25 years of age will register for the selective service, according to the Associated Press.

The days are:

1. Persons born in 1922 after Aug. 30, 1922, will register on Monday, Aug. 30.
2. Persons born in 1923 will register on Tuesday, Aug. 31, or Wednesday, Sept. 1.
3. Persons born in 1924 will register on Thursday, Sept. 2, or Friday, Sept. 3.
4. Persons born in 1925 will register on Saturday, Sept. 4, or Tuesday, Sept. 7.
5. Persons born in 1926 will register on Wednesday, Sept. 8, or Thursday, Sept. 9.
6. Persons born in 1927 will register on Friday, Sept. 10, or Saturday, Sept. 11.
7. Persons born in 1928 will register on Monday, Sept. 13, or Tuesday, Sept. 14.
8. Persons born in 1929 will register on Wednesday, Sept. 15, or Thursday, Sept. 16.

visitors of the country rose and stood at attention.

Mrs. G. W. Brumley: "I liked the subways in New York. Mr. Brumley and I took a ride on one of them."

Mrs. W. J. Reeves: "Rockefeller Center was the most outstanding sight seen on our trip. It was the cleanest building we saw on the whole trip."

Mrs. John McLean: "The closing program of the convention was the most impressive, inspirational and the biggest affair which we attended."

(The men are going to be surprised since they expected the women to say they enjoyed the breakfast and style show at the Waldorf-Astoria most.)

9. Persons born in 1930 before Sept. 19, 1930, will register on Friday, Sept. 17, or Saturday, Sept. 18.

10. Persons born on or after Sept. 19, 1930, will register on the day they are 18 years of age, or five days after.

Hours For Registration

Hours for registration on the days designated were proclaimed by the governor as name registration points in each county.

Groups exempted from registration are as follows:

1. Members of the armed forces on active duty, including members of the coast and geodetic survey and the public health service.
2. Cadets of the US Military Academy and Coast Guard Academy.
3. Midshipmen of the US Naval Academy.
4. Foreign diplomatic and consular representatives and members of their families who are not citizens of the US.

Others To Be Exempt

5. Other Persons in the United States to be specified by the President who have not declared their intention to become US citizens.

According to the proclamation, men may register late only when prevented by circumstances beyond their control. Men or registration age in foreign countries must present themselves for registration within five days after returning to the US or its possessions.

hotel called for a three-story building, 118 feet by 80 feet. The building faces south on the 118 foot side with the coffee shop on the west end; the kitchen is located on the north, just to the rear of the coffee shop. Along the north side of the 118 feet, just east of the kitchen, is the proposed banquet room, designed to accommodate 300 persons. Four shops and the lobby complete the remainder of the ground floor of the new hotel.

The preliminary sketches called for 39 rentable rooms, located on the two top stories of the hotel. Elevator service was also included in the sketches.

"The architects have completed several hotels of similar type," committee members said. "They also report that they believe we will be able to build the hotel with funds allotted for this purpose by the corporation."

The architects were retained without fees until the plans and specifications have been accepted, at which time they will be paid 20 percent of their fee, which is six percent of the building cost.

The hotel will be constructed of brick and concrete and will be as near fireproof as possible, committee members said. They anticipated securing final specifications, including outside views on Sept. 1, and said that will be sought from contractors as soon as the specifications are approved. The group also hoped that actual construction might begin on the building in October. They estimated 12 to 15 months as a construction period, depending upon weather conditions and availability of materials.

All Fun and No Play, How About A Hobby?

Collector Items, How To Do It, Games, Reading Among Hundreds of Hobby Books In Library

By Corinne Jennings
For fun and relaxation develop a hobby!

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy and Jill a dull girl" is a simple old adage which common sense tells us is true. We need no psychiatrist to tell us that the harder we work, the more we need to play.

Books, old and new, are to be found in the Deaf Smith County Library, which will guide you in finding a hobby or developing a hobby you already have.

Mrs. Clara McLean, Librarian, will be glad to help you find the books you need, or she will order special books on hobbies which you have or desire to work out.

"The Book of Hobbies, or a Guide to Happiness" in its introduction says, "Americans probably accomplish more in a given length of time than people of any other nation. But alas, it is also true that there is an overwhelming number of prematurely old, neurotic, Americans... too much work and too little play!"

Develop your hobby instinct.

Two Types of Hobbies

To some, a hobby means collection of things - and this does include the largest number of hobbies. But there are two other classes: acquiring knowledge is one, and the other is that of creating.

Examples of collecting as a hobby are, collecting prints; collecting stamps; collecting of books, china and porcelain, antiques, in furniture, dishes and many articles such as playing cards, autographs, and many others.

A creative hobby has many phases, but a good example is given in the names of books in the library, "Anyone Can Draw," which is a true statement. This book presents one of the best in creative hobbies as there are so many mediums with so little cost, and one which allows so much expression of individuality. "I Wish I Could Draw" and "I Wish I Could Paint" are other books on this subject which can be found on the library shelves.

Creative Hobbies
Most popular hobbies under the creative heading is that South Fork, Colorado, is the vacation spot this week of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hendrick, their daughter, Dorothy and her school friend, Dorthea Baek of McLean and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wear and son John.

Plan Tucumcari Irrigation Demonstration

Agricultural leaders go into huddle making preliminary plans for the Tucumcari irrigation project's huge demonstration "Re-making a Farm in a Day" Monday, Sept. 6, on the J. C. White farm five miles northwest of Tucumcari.

'Re-Making A Farm In A Day' Scheduled Near Tucumcari In Monster Demonstration Sept. 6

The Tucumcari irrigation project, one of New Mexico's greatest irrigation developments in more than a quarter of a century, will be the site for a monster demonstration "Re-making a Farm in a Day", Monday, September 6, at the J. C. White farm northwest of Tucumcari.

The undertaking is tremendous in scope. The farm will be surveyed, land leveled and irrigation ditches constructed; land will be tilled, irrigated and planted.

The operation will be done in a day and will permit those attending to observe the entire demonstration. Agricultural officials have announced that only the most modern methods and machinery will be employed at the White farm. Technically trained personnel will be on hand to discuss, over a loud speaker system, details and importance of each step in

Teachers Aid In Erection Of Windows

Work is being finished this week on the general interior and exterior face lifting at Central School. Refinishing work includes painting the interior, varnishing woodwork, refinishing floors and putting up new screens.

This is the first time the building has undergone a general face lifting since 1936. The job was started about three weeks ago and finished before schedule by the ten painters contracted for the job and some members of the faculty.

A pale green and white color scheme was chosen for classroom walls. In the original buildings the ceilings are white, graduated to a very pale green walls that blend into darker green dado. The wing rooms have the same color scheme except for unpainted ceilings.

These two tone greens were blended by the contractor to state specifications because they reflect light without glare. This color is supposed to retain the same amount of light even on cloudier days. It also is reputed to give rooms with both northern and southern exposure the same amount of light.

The hall ways were repainted white, and the brown dado was changed to grey to brighten the near-windowless corridors. Lounges, office and kitchen are now solid white.

High school underwent its annual hallway repainting and new screens were added to that building. The Davn school also was replastered and repainted. The

WHY A SALESMANSHIP CONTEST?
WHAT CAN YOU AND I CONTRIBUTE TO ITS SUCCESS?

One month has passed since we inaugurated our "Salesmanship Contest." Which brings to mind the real reasons we are sponsoring this program... and the value of salesmanship consciousness to business management, clerical workers, the commerce of our town, and to the general buying public. We are convinced that although any firm may owe its owners a living, it does not really belong to them; it belongs to the community. That being the case, it is up to the business to give all the service possible to its patrons and the community at large. This contest is in the interest of better service. So let's everyone do something to contribute to the continued success of this better salesmanship contest. Fill out a ballot in support of some clerk, station attendant, soda jerker, waitress, etc., whom you especially appreciate because that individual is putting forth some extra effort to make for better service in his or her particular job.

Hereford Lions Enjoyed Trip To New York City

More honors were won by the Texas delegation to the Lions Club International Convention in New York than any other state in the country, according to Hereford Lions Club representatives, who returned Monday.

Texas Lions Clubs sent not only the most members but the most colorful representatives and Wayne Evans; though Texas was not given this credit by the reports, he added.

Marlin Simmons Band won first place in the parade in the adult band class and the Glade-water Texas Band won first in Juvenile band.

The A Cappella Choir from lar, won high praise and appeared on the Convention program in Amarillo, which was very popular three times instead of one, as originally scheduled.

Outstanding speaker of the Convention was Jean-Paul Galland, president of the Lions Club of Geneva, Switzerland, who gave a response to the address of welcome, reports John McLean.

McLean confirmed other reports by those attending, of the beauty and inspirational flag presentation in the first session.

All sessions and entertainments for the convention, as a whole, were held at Madison Square Garden.

New York was again chosen for the meeting place of the International Convention for 1949.

Three special trains from Texas joined others in St. Louis before going on to Washington, D. C. and then to New York. The Panhandle train carried representatives from Amarillo, Plainview, Pampa, Panhandle, Whiteoak, Petersburg, and Hereford. The A Cappella Choir of Amarillo also traveled with this group.

The Hereford group included Mr. and Mrs. John McLean, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brumley and Pete Buske of Friona.

Oklahoma 4-H Girl Gets Screen Test

Patsy Ann Meyer, 11, Canton, Oklahoma, 4-H Club girl, is Hollywood bound for a screen test.

Patsy Ann was selected as one of four girls, out of more than 4,000 entered, to try for a part in "The Green Promise," film story to be produced in Hollywood. She is shown above as she was interviewed recently in Oklahoma City by Robert Paige, co-producer of the film, who will play the role of a county agent.

Mrs. Pete Meyer, Patsy Ann's mother, and Miss Maudie Thompson, home demonstration leader from Wautonga, Oklahoma, will accompany the 4-H girl to Hollywood. She will vie with Judy Stewart and Marian Freed, both from Wisconsin, and Jeanne LaDuke from Indiana, for the part in the film.

"The Green Promise" relates the story of a farm family which by adopting measures recommended by the county agent and through examples set by 4-H Club members, is able to raise itself to higher living standards. It will be produced by McCarthy Productions, independent film company formed by Glenn McCarthy, Houston businessman, Paige and Monty Collins, well-known screen writers. Paige and Collins are co-producers and Collins wrote the original screen story.

Production of the film is scheduled to start in mid-August.

TUBERCULOSIS WEAKENED BUT STILL DANGEROUS

NEW YORK —(AP)— Tuberculosis was given a setback in 1947, with a new low for deaths in the United States. Provisional figures show 47,636 deaths. Miss Mary Dempsey, statistician of the National Tuberculosis Association, writes in the NTA's Bulletin.

This, she says, is the first time the country's TB death toll has been below 50,000. There were 50,911 deaths in 1946. Wrong ideas about tuberculosis are one reason the white plague hasn't been eradicated, says Dr. R. H. Runde, medical director of the Peoria County (Ill.) Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

One false idea is that you can't get TB unless someone in your family had it. Another, he writes, is that a change of climate is the most important thing in treatment. Still another is that one x-ray examination is good for a lifetime.

Dr. Runde lists five other reasons TB hasn't been licked:

1. Complacency on the part of the public;
2. Until recently, there weren't enough facilities for early diagnosis;
3. Many localities still lack facilities for treatment; 4. There is no generally accepted method of immunization although BCG vaccine has been widely used abroad with encouraging results; 5. There never has been a specific remedy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Higgins and family accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Davis to Hillsboro Thursday to attend funeral services of Mrs. Davis' aunt, Mrs. C. F. Blissett.

Showing The Flag

By James J. Strehig

WASHINGTON — For the first time in history the United States is "showing the flag" with warplanes instead of warships. Ninety B-29 superfortresses are in England, ready to show Europe mass formations they didn't see during the war. Two more have just swung around the globe, making a test of landing facilities which conceivably could be called upon to handle much larger numbers. (Three started the flight, but one crashed into the Gulf of Aden.) A squadron of jet fighters also is in England after crossing the Atlantic under its own power, with 75 more being sent by carrier to be based overseas.

America has been sending planes on goodwill missions for many years. One of the most famous was a circuit of South America in 1927. But the recent quick trip of 60 Superforts to England was hardly a "goodwill" mission. The Air Force let it be known that the planes flew with loaded guns.

The United States must solve some tough problems if it is to "show the flag" with armed bombers on a large scale. The flight to England was simple. It is a friendly country with ample airfields, largely built at our expense during the war and equipped to handle American planes. But airplanes cannot hope to duplicate the reach of the warship for such demonstration unless based on a carrier. The reasons are simple: Aircraft must land, refuel and be serviced after a relatively short distance. Accepted international law requires permission of a country before flying into its airspace, particularly with government-owned planes. By contrast, warships can steam almost indefinitely without dependence upon local land facilities. They require permission to enter a foreign harbor, but tradition calls for granting permission even when relations are strained.

Some military observers, noting the continuous use of naval forces in European waters in the past year or two, say that such showing of American might has been an important contribution to political stabilization in western Europe and countries bordering the Mediterranean. Naval men feel that the warship is a more effective display of strength than aircraft, pointing out that the airplane is either a rather small object sitting on the ground, or a distinct swifly moving object without emphasis on nationality.

But to millions in Europe who saw the slow and relatively small B-17s and B-24s during the war, the slender winged beauty of the B-29, with deep and distinctive roar, is certain to be impressive. The small flight around the world is not unlikely to reveal a situation such as that encountered by the fleet of 16 battleships which circled the globe as a power demonstration in 1908. That fleet demonstrated a serious lack of auxiliary vessels and of facilities overseas. Naval officers decided that it showed a lack also of merchant vessels. The American ships had to buy British coal during the cruise.

The Navy has remedied that. Now it is able to cruise for months without touching shore, receiving every type of supply from its "train". The system was thoroughly proved in the war against Japan.

PLANES CALLED ART WINDOW MENACE

PARIS — (AP) — Lovers of French art are agitating for removal of the Chartres airdrome, whose landing strips are less than 450 yards from the towers of the world-famous Chartres cathedral. They were supported in a recent letter from Education Minister Edouard Depreux to Air Minister Andre Maroselli.

It said that the mere passage of a big bomber at low altitude would endanger treasured stained-glass windows by the vibration of its motors. The windows, removed to safety during the war, have now been replaced in large part.

PETREL MAKES LONG AIR TRIP

PERTH, Australia — (AP) — Robert Beattie, a railway worker, went fishing here and hooked a bird — a giant petrel. A band on its leg showed it had been released by British scientists at Signy Island in the South Orkneys.

Local scientists calculated that if it flew over the South Pole it flew 5,900 miles. And if it took a route via Kerguelen Island it flew twice that distance. The petrel ended its travels in the South Perth zoo.

LIVESTOCK FOR WORKERS

MOSCOW — (AP) — Soviet workers are being encouraged to acquire and maintain cows, goats and other livestock as an additional source of cheap food. "Ogonek" reported recently that at the large Ural Machinery Works in Sverdlovsk alone workers and employees now have over 1500 horned cattle and goats and are receiving 7000 metric centners (one centner equals 220 pounds) of milk yearly. They have set up two livestock cooperative societies in addition.

ENGLISH IS PHILIPPINE'S WORKING LANGUAGE

MANILA — (AP) — This is the country where the President, Elpidio Quirino, makes his speeches in English and has to have them translated into the local dialects, unless he is in his native northern Luzon.

Luis Taruc, leader of the Huk-balahap peasant army and a congressman, makes his most effective speeches in his native Tagalog, the language of central Luzon. But he whitts his speech outlines in English. This, he says, is because he thinks better in English, having been educated in that language.

European and American eels spawn in the deep Atlantic waters north and northeast of the West Indies.

One central breeding place for eels is in the Indian Ocean.

Texans in Washington

AP Special Washington Service Washington, Aug. 11 — (AP)— Both of Texas' candidates in the run-off race for U. S. Senator were in Washington last week and gave Texas newsmen here a taste of the political campaign reporting they used to do in the Lone Star State.

Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson was attending the special session of Congress. Former Governor Coke Stevenson came up to "observe" things in the capital.

Stevenson called his trip "non-political" — but obviously his very presence here and any utterance was news, and news with a bearing on the Aug. 28 Democratic run-off primary election.

Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson of the Austin-District, Stevenson's opponent in the contest for the seat now held by Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, has as good a news sense as most any reporter. So, he left no stone unturned in digging up news to keep himself on the front pages alongside the amiable ex-governor.

After the initial stories of his return for the special session on, along with predictions of run-off victory, Johnson arranged a conference with Defense Secretary James Forrestal.

At the meeting they discussed the preparedness program in general, with emphasis on Texas angles such as the assembly of flying-wing jet bombers at Fort Worth.

Stevenson, not by outdone, was meeting at almost the same moment with State Department officials, and the next day held his own confab with Forrestal. Interspersed with news, Johnson would take a few pot shots at his pipe-smoking opponent. They were subtle, but with a little barb. Coke usually had a comeback. For example:

At one press-conference Johnson observed that a check of records show that since the turn of the century Texans had sent only one man to the senate, for his initial term in that body, who was 60 years of age or older.

He called attention to the fact that the exception, the late Senator Andrew Houston, had died 24 days after taking office. (A son of the original Sam Houston, the senator was appointed by the then Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, and died a week after his 87th birthday. That was in 1841.)

Johnson is 39, and throughout his campaign he has emphasized his youth, contending he has ample vigor for the job along with an opportunity to build up much seniority in the years ahead. He also emphasized his 11 years experience in the house.

Stevenson replied: "Well, I can't help my age. Everybody knows my age."

"I think that in these critical times the country needs men of mature judgement and experience in office, especially mature judgement."

"As far as experience is concerned, I think holding the Governor's office is qualification recognized by both parties."

Reporters told Stevenson that Johnson announced his intentions to concentrate during the run-off campaign in the spots where he (Johnson) had been weakest on the first vote, principally: the big cities.

"I'll just concentrate all over Texas," jibed the former governor.

Stevenson picked up a moral supporter promptly after arriving here, a taxicab driver in this voteless city.

The cabbie heard questions of reporters who rode with Stevenson from the depot to the hotel. As they neared the hotel, the driver whipped out a notebook and got Stevenson's autograph.

Texas' members of Congress carefully avoided getting in a position of appearing to favor either Stevenson or Johnson, their colleague.

Only Rep. Clark Fisher of San Angelo was in a position to be particularly cordial to the visiting ex-governor without any undue political significance being attached to it. He is Stevenson's congressman, since junction is in the San Angelo's district.

Fisher had Stevenson to lunch in the House restaurant seated at a table near them incidently, were two Longview business men who were guests of Rep. Lindley Beckworth of Gladewater. They were Earl J. Calk and G. P. Cragin.

East Texas District Judge Clyde Smith of Woodville, a friend and supporter of Stevenson, sat beside the West Texan in the Senate spectator's gallery. They sat in the section reserved for friends and relatives of senators, having been escorted in by Senator Tom Connally.

A recent report of the Bureau of Internal Revenue showed that Texans paid $1,283,059,480 (B) in federal taxes in the fiscal year ended June 30. Personal income taxes accounted for $768,745,307 (M) of the total, corporation taxes amounted to $282,000,000. Payroll taxes amounted to $73,000,000 and excise taxes on such items as train tickets, telephone calls and luxuries totaled $156,000,000.

Congressman J. M. Combs of Beaumont won't go along with bolters.

"I'm not trying to suggest what all other Democrats should do," he says.

"But as far as I'm concerned, I'm not supporting any third or fourth party. I'm not in favor of walking out and turning our party completely over to people I don't agree with."

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Collier spent last week end in Spur visiting his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moreman of Burkburnett visited with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Y. Moreman and family last week.

Little Suzanne Spratt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spratt of Lubbock, is visiting this week with her grandmother, Mrs. I. R. Spratt and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rose.
