City Wins Top Safety Award

Hereford has been named the safest city of its population group for the state by the Texas Safety Association.

Announcement was made last week in a letter to Mayor Ray Cowser from the Texas Safety Association.

The letter said, in part: "Texas Safety Association is proud to announce that your city has won an award as the 'Best in Texas' for no traffic deaths and progressive accident prevention program activities among cities from 5,000 to 10,000 population in the 1960 Annual Inventory of Traffic Safety Activities."

The letter was from W. C. Rhodes, regional director for public relations and information of the TSA.

It is expected that the actual award presentation will be made during the Lions Club meeting at noon Wednesday by Henry Wilson, regional director for traffic safety. This is the first time that Hereford has been named the safest city in the state in its population group. However, the city has been cited a number of times for having no traffic fatalities during a yearly period.

Police Chief Henry Aycock said that Hereford has not had a traffic fatality since 1955 and that the city's accident rate had been reduced for the past four years.

He said that the award was a tribute to the entire town for its cooperation in all phases of accident prevention. Aycock stated that better engineering, better streets and better - lighted streets were primary factors in reducing accidents here.

Improved traffic control lights, installation of more "yield", "caution" and "stop" signs also were important, he said.

Enforcement of traffic regulations has improved because a higher pay scale has permitted hiring better officers for the city police department, he added.

Also listed as contributing factors were the use of radar, constantly patrolling with readily-distinguishable police cars, driver education courses, traffic safety calendars and four school crossing guards at marked crossings.

The police department also uses spot maps and selective enforcement to determine the cause of accidents at certain points in the city. Second step is eliminating as many as possible of the hazards which are causing accidents in certain areas.

Percentage of turn-out was 28.70. Ward Gin wrapped the bale in an experimental cotton bag, rather than the traditional jute wrapping. If the cotton cover proved satisfactory, it would increase the demand for cotton. Ward Gin paid a premium for the first bale.

Jackie Andrews Is Named FFA Wheat Champ

Jackie Andrews of Frio, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Andrews, a member of the Hereford FFA, was named State FFA Wheat King Saturday morning at the Tri-State Fair in Amarillo.

This is the second year in a row that a member of the FFA has taken this honor. Last year Charles Vasek of Hereford took the honor, and this year he took second place.

Jackie, a sophomore at Hereford High School, won the award for five acres of certified Tascosa wheat, and Charles, a 1961 graduate of Hereford High School, took the second place honors this year, for his ten acres of certified Tascosa wheat.

Steve Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Robbins, of Frio, won second place in the 4-H Wheat Improvement contest, with his Tascosa wheat. Taking sixth place in this division was Jim Shearhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shearhart of Daws, with Tascosa wheat. Jim was last year's 4-H Wheat King.

Chamber Drive Is Progressing

The Chamber of Commerce carrot is "ripening" slowly as more reports come from members and directors working on the new budget. Total income as of Saturday morning stood at just over $19,000, an increase of more than $2,000 since the start of the drive.

Members accepting their share of the new budget since the last report are: Dr. M. C. Adams, Alfred Oil Co., Bryan Bros. Construction Co., B. F. Cain, O. L. Clink, The Colonial Motel, Dearing Wrecking Co., Gilliland Funeral Home, The Hereford State Bank, Glenn's Footwear, Hereford Radiator Service, The Ink Spot, JoIne's Texaco Service, Lone Star Insurance Agency, Orsborn-Norwood Chevrolet, Plains Motel, Red-Service, The Ink Spot, Jon's dell Water Well Service, Robert's Appliance, Ed Skypala, Witherspoon, Aiking, Thom's and Langley law office.

New members are Kemp Auto Repair, Hereford Veterinary Clinic, and the insurance and real estate office of Justice - Streu and Bell.

This represents reports on less than 10 per cent of the total membership. Every indication is that the $3,500 budget goal will be topped if the present pace is continued.

Potter County Indicts Herefordite On Check

J. R. Watson Jr. of Hereford was charged in a felony indictment returned Wednesday by the Potter County grand jury in Amarillo.

Watson was indicted on a charge of swindling by worthless check.

Get $80,000 Farm Road Job Approval

The Texas Highway Commission today approved the expenditure of $80,000 for construction of new Farm to Market Road mileage in Deaf Smith County as part of the 1961 FM Road Program, announced District Highway Engineer Charles W. Smith of Amarillo.

The District Engineer said 5.8 miles in this county will be involved. The work will be under the supervision of W. V. York, Senior resident engineer, Canyon.

Smith said a total of 37.7 miles in this highway district would be involved in the program at a total cost of $715,000. The project in this county will include paving from FM Road 1058, 6.0 miles East of State Highway 214, South to the Farmer County line. The work authorized for this county is part of the $15 million FM Road Construction Program which will involve 133 counties throughout the state. Some 600 miles of new farm roads will be built under the program.

Cattlemen From Argentina Arrive For Tour Of County

Eight prominent Argentine cattlemen will arrive here Sunday afternoon to begin a three-day tour of the Hereford cattle industry in this area, highlighted by visits to purebred cattle ranches.

Arriving here Sunday afternoon, the cattlemen will be honored at a dinner sponsored by the Texas Certified Seed Producers. Following the dinner, which will be at the Hereford Country Club, the visitors will stay at the Hotel Jim Hill. Bright and early Monday morning the visitors will be feted at a breakfast at the hotel before leaving on their tour of the area cattle ranches. The tour is being arranged by the Registered Hereford Cattle Raisers.

First stop of the day - long trip will be Howard Gault and Sons, where the Argentineans will view local cattle raising techniques. From there the group will go to the R. L. Coanougher Ranch.

Following visits at the Walter Graham and the Jack Renfro ranches, they will return to the Western Wheel Inn to be guests of the Area Purebred Cattle Raisers for lunch.

On the slate for the afternoon's activities will be stops at H. D. Robbins and Sons, Colby Conkright and Son, Dameron Hereford Ranch, and the Hill Stock Farm.

George Warner will host the guests at another dinner honoring them later Monday evening. Before leaving for other Texas cities at noon Tuesday, the cattlemen will tour some of grassland farms.

Following this trip, they will view the seed processing facilities at Miller Seed Co. in Hereford. After their tour here, the cattlemen will depart for Lubbock at noon Tuesday.

Prior to coming to Hereford, the Argentineans studied livestock industries and agricultural operations in Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

After leaving Hereford, the party will travel to Lubbock, the Spur Experiment Station, the Paymaster Feed Mill at Dallas, and the experiment station at McGregor. Also planned is a stay at the campus of Texas A & M., which is sponsoring the tour.

Hereford will be the first stop in Texas for the cattle ambassadors from the Santa Rosa region of Argentina. Included in the group making the tour of the United States are Miguel A. Torroba, Sr. (Continued on page 11)

Committeemen For ASC Named

Results of the ASC election of community committeemen for Deaf Smith County were released Friday by Faust Collier, office manager of the county ASCS office.

The election was held between Sept. 5-15 and ballots were tabulated Tuesday. Those elected from Community A included: Virgil P. Walker, chairman; Claude R. Damron, vice chairman; Melvin May, member; Earl Holt, first alternate; and Ira Ott, second alternate.

Community B: George Turrentine, chairman; Austin Rose Jr., vice chairman; Arnold Betzen, member; Frank Barrett, first alternate; and George Warner, second alternate.

Community C: Ira Scott, chairman; Frank Zinser Jr., vice chairman; George Ritter, member; Eldred Brown, first alternate; and J. E. McCathern Jr., second alternate.

Community D: Glenn Alred, chairman; Elmo K. Pinnell, vice chairman; Morris Blankenship, member; and G. V. Casserty, first alternate.

Collier explained that Bruce G. Richardson had been elected chairman of Community D, but that he was ineligible because he lived outside the community. Therefore, all those elected from this community were moved up one step.

The community committee chairmen and vice chairmen automatically become the delegates and alternate delegates, respectively, to the county convention, when the county ASC committee will be elected.

The county convention will be held at 9 a.m. Monday, Sept. 25, in the ASC office. The county and community committees are in charge of local administration of such national farm programs as the agricultural conservation program, feed grain program, conservation range program, national wool program, sugar program, acreage allotments and marketing quotas, commodity loans and storage facility loans.

THE HEREFORD WHITEFACES led 22-0 over Muleshoe, when Mack Cansler plunges over right tackle for two yards and the third Herd TD. Travis Creamer, 82, tries desperately to bring him down, and Bill Gilbreath, 10,

Whitefaces Gore Mules 39-8 For Fourth Straight

Hereford's entire ball club, offense and defense, combined for a victory over the outclassed Muleshoe Mules here Friday night. It was Hereford's fourth straight win and Muleshoe's third loss.

Even the 39-8 score doesn't tell the story of how completely the Mules were stymied. The Whiteface defense allowed them just 66 yards on the ground and picked off four Muleshoe passes, while the other four were batted away or fell incomplete.

And the scoring came almost in bunches as the Herd ticked off 11 39 points in three quarters. Not until the final 115 seconds of the game did the Mules manage to hit paydirt.

Touchdown twins, halfbacks Dennis Hodges and Mack Cansler, racked up 30 of Hereford's points between them as the Herd used speed and a little razzle-dazzle in going through and over the Mules. Cansler, an all-state candidate, tallied 20 points during the game, while Hodges added 10 more.

Hereford opened with a stubborn defense, holding the Mules to five yards in three plays. Tackle John Bob Drake hit Muleshoe for a two-yard loss on third down in a key play.

Hereford took over on its own 44 and moved down to the Muleshoe 36 in three big plays. Then Cansler found daylight as he burst through right tackle, cut to the sidelines and outran the secondary for Hereford's first score with 7:39 left in the first period.

Hodges then took a pitch-out and passed to Cansler for two extra points. Muleshoe was held for short yardage but recovered a fumble on their punts. Charles Kelly knocked away a pass and Drake recovered a fumble to put Hereford back in business on its own 37.

On the final play of the quarter, big Jim Haney leaped high to intercept a Mule aerial. He roared 53 yards down the sideline for Hereford's final touchdown. Halfback Charles Kelley circled right end for the last two Hereford points.

Muleshoe recovered a Hereford fumble just 12 yards from paydirt and used the opportunity. Fullback Gerry Pierce ripped off seven yards to score with 1:55 left in the game and then ran for two extra points.

Even with a lopsided score, Hereford's reserves kept the 3,500 fans in their seats with a display of razzle-dazzle. Charles Kelley gained just eight yards on one play, but re-

Plan Charter Bus To Roswell

A meeting of the Hereford Booster Club will be held Monday, Sept. 25, at 8 p.m. in the Community Center to find out if a bus can be chartered to the football game in Roswell next Friday, Sept. 29.

The minimum number of people a bus will be chartered for is 30. If this many go, the cost per person will be about $7. If the bus is filled to capacity, 40 people, the cost per person will go down.

The meeting Monday night is open to anyone who might be interested in making the trip. Films of the Hereford-Muleshoe game also will be shown. If the bus is chartered it will have to leave Hereford about 4 p.m. Friday.

Indicted were: William Adams on a charge of fondling. Milton Trotter on a charge of swindling by worthless check. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and District Judge Harry Schultz returned a sentence of three years probation.

Jose Robles on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense. Jose Cantu on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense.

Indicted were: William Adams on a charge of fondling. Milton Trotter on a charge of swindling by worthless check. He pleaded guilty to the charge, and District Judge Harry Schultz returned a sentence of three years probation.

Jose Robles on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense. Jose Cantu on a charge of driving while intoxicated, second offense.

The District Engineer said 5.8 miles in this county will be involved. The work will be under the supervision of W. V. York, Senior resident engineer, Canyon.

Around Town

Fall officially arrived Saturday, but the temperature isn't quite ready to take a plunge. Of all the seasons, fall is probably the nicest in the Panhandle if you can ignore the chills and shivers of the hayfever and sinus sufferers. They have it roughest during September and October.

Ann Line, director of the Bluebird and Campfire Choir, will have voice try-outs for new members who wish to sing in the choir this year. They will be held on Oct. 5 and 6 in the Hereford Community Center from 3-5 p.m.

Bea Hutson, who works at Rutherford's, found a ring the other day and would like the owner to pick it up.

Winners of the Brand football contest who live in Hereford are asked to drop by the office and pick up their winnings. Prizes will be mailed to the out-of-town winners.

Bob Wear, minister of the Canyon Church of Christ, will be guest speaker when the Hereford Kiwanis Club has its installation and Ladies' Night. It will be on Tuesday, Sept. 26, at 7:30 p.m. (Continued on page 11)

25 Attend Farm Tour On Maize, Grasses, Sorgo

Approximately 25 people from this area went on a Farm Tour on Sept. 22. They met at the Deaf Smith County Courthouse and drove to the Lester English farm seven miles out on Highway 60 East, two miles North and one-half mile west.

SOUND THE ALARM
BUFFALO, N. Y. AP — Parks officials said at a budget hearing that a siren alarm system at an east side playground has been an effective weapon against vandalism. Damage at the playground has "dropped almost to nothing," the officials reported.

In contrast, a recent weekend of vandalism at another playground resulted in $2,500 damage. The alarms, which cost about $2,000 installed, are planned for all 93 buildings in the city's parks and playgrounds.

WIVES LACK UNDERSTANDING
ROCHESTER, N. Y. — The alcoholic who says his wife doesn't understand him is absolutely right, a study has found.

The study showed that only 2 per cent of 263 wives believed their husbands were sick men who needed treatment. Harold Aikens, associate director of research for the National Council on Alcoholism, said most of them thought their husbands had no one to blame but themselves, and "Could cut down if he really wanted to."

MOM ACTS AS SPY
ATHENS, Ohio — Food and other services at student dormitories on the Ohio University campus may not be exactly like home, but mothers are having a chance to see just how good they are.

Monks at St. Bernard, Switzerland, say their rescue dogs never carried brandy kegs about their necks. They believe the little barrel was an artist's invention.

Six mothers of students were invited for a two-day visit. They ate and chatted with students living in the dorms, and even their own children did not know the true purpose of their visit. Neither did residence hall staff members.

University officials say the mothers' visit provided an unbiased check on university services and will be made an annual event.

ROCKIN' CHAIRS GOT HER
MACOMB, Ill. — Rocking chair lore is as old as the hills, but for Trudi Alessi it's a new and interesting hobby.

"America's tremendous might was built by men who rocked gently on their front porches," she said.

She backs up her theory by citing the rocker in Abraham Lincoln's Springfield, Ill., house (which doesn't have a front porch).

Assignment editor for the Western Illinois University campus paper, she has corresponded with rocking chair owners over the state in an effort to find the oldest.

One owned by Mrs. Paul Lambert of LaSalle, Ill., is wrought with iron fittings and dates to about 1776. Her grandmother brought it to Illinois from Pennsylvania.

Residents Attend Funeral Services For Self Infant

BY MRS. OWEN ANDREWS

A good number of persons from this community attended funeral services on Monday for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Self. The baby, Jimmy Mark, was still-born at the Deaf Smith County hospital on Sunday. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cox of Lubbock, and formerly of this community, and Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Self of Hereford.

Mrs. Self was able to come home on Wednesday morning. Several women of the community have visited her and also her mother, Mrs. Cox, has visited the Selfs some this week.

Mrs. Annie Springer attended a singing at the L. E. Star community building near Lockney Sunday and returned with the word that Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Terrell of that community are parents of a son about three weeks old. The Terrells are former residents of this community. They also have three daughters.

Quite a number of persons have attended the Tri State Fair in Amarillo this week.

Lloyd Shultz and Olin Parris had cattle at the auction Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Shultz and Mr. and Mrs. Parris spent Sunday night until Tuesday in Amarillo to see to the cattle and attend the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Tip-ton of Dallas visited Tuesday night in the home of his sister, Mrs. Leo Hall. They were enroute to Albuquerque, where he will spend several weeks doing construction work.

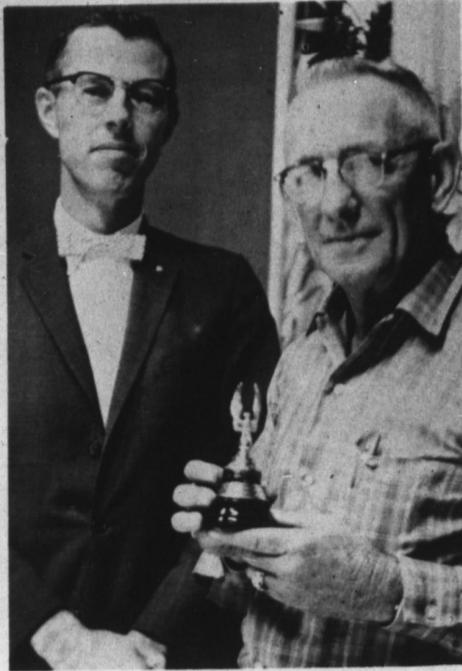

Mrs. H. M. Mobley and the D. C. Millers ate Sunday dinner with the Floyd Coles.

Spending the weekend with the Carlton Dobbins were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Balew of Winters. She is Mrs. Dobbins' sister. A brother, J. Dow Scott, his wife and their daughter, also visited them on Sunday. They and the Robert Dobbins' and Edgar Vinsons had Sunday dinner with the Joe Scotts. Their father, G. W. Scott, who has spent several weeks visiting his children here, returned to his home with the J. Dow Scotts.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Dobbins and their daughter, Mrs. Young, all of Winters, spent Sunday night here in the home of his brother, Carlton Dobbins. They were on their way home from a visit with another daughter in Illinois.

BATAVIA, N. Y. P — Retired Grocer Myron E. Betts figures he must have run one of the world's first self-service markets. It was back in 1917 and Betts called it his "basketeria."

"We just placed two dozen halfbushel baskets by the front door," he says. "The idea went over big from the start."

Betts, now 83, says the idea was to make things easier for his wife, who was running the store.

Kappa Iotas Conduct Fall Rush On Tuesday Evening

Kappa Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Tuesday evening at the Community Center for a business meeting and style show and their fall rush night party. Members of the membership and social committee were hostesses.

Theme for the evening was "Winging Into Space." The room was decorated with a large yellow butterfly surrounded by numerous small butterflies. The table was laid with a white cloth and centered with a crystal bowl holding a single yellow rose and completely encircled with small yellow candles. Tea sandwiches and cookies were formed in the shapes of moons, crescents and stars. Bridgeway was played by the group following the style show.

For the first part of the style show, the models wore new fall fashions. Mrs. Delbert Banium modeled a yellow and white dress featuring the new criss-cross front. Mrs. Van Nichols wore a high-style black sheath. Mrs. Robert Hickman chose a black blouse and Mrs. Robert Tyler showed a magenta sweater and skirt set. Mrs. Bruce Fink modeled a simple dress with new high fashion brown-toned jewelry.

During the second part of the show the same models went from the "sublime to the ridiculous" modeling comedy versions of daytime and evening wear.

Hereford Garden Club Has Meet

Members of the Hereford Garden Club met recently for a morning coffee. Mrs. S. S. Williams and Mrs. O. G. Hill Sr. were co-hostesses for the introduction of study and presentation of objectives.

Mrs. Hugh Clearman spoke on "What I Hope to Receive From and Contribute To My Garden Club This Year." She said that a good club is made up of good members and all should be good members by learning and sharing.

Mrs. Emmett Hale talked about the flowers in our national capitol. She told club members there are 95 varieties of trees in the landscape design and 18 acres of garden. President Truman was the most conscientious president about Whitehouse landscaping; Mrs. Coolidge was the best horticulturalist and had an indoor garden. The rose garden was the favorite spot of President Eisenhower. In the spring of the year some 8000 bulbs are in bloom.

Mrs. M. T. Rutter, Mrs. John Jacobsen Jr. and Mrs. R. W. Mitchell were chosen to judge the flower show at the fair in Clovis.

The club will have copies of the National Council Calendar and anyone interested in securing a copy can do so by contacting one of the club members. Mrs. Rutter and Mrs. Jacobsen were to attend the National Judges meet in Lubbock this week and Mrs. A. L. Manjeot was to represent the club at the District 1 conference in Lubbock.

Exhibit for the day was a coffee table arrangement prepared by Mrs. S. S. Williams.

few weeks my observations on each of the different departments or projects as I see them. This week my report is on the Agriculture department because it is not only first in the program but it is first in the minds of the people in my county.

As I have commented to you before, the whole economy of my county is based on agriculture. Outside of the tourist dollars left here there is hardly any capital created that does not come directly or indirectly from agriculture. There are just two broad statements of objectives under the Agriculture Department in the new Chamber of Commerce program of work. The first one says "Assist County 4-H and FFA Chapters in their projects and trips" and budgeted for that is $500. Our County Agricultural Agent, Lefty Thomas, and our vocational agriculture instructor, Jess Robinson, have done a tremendous job working with the youth of the area. Our 4-H and FFA Clubs have received state wide recognition for their achievements. The boys earn much of the money for the trips they must take, but a journey, for example, to the Houston Fat Stock Show is an expensive undertaking.

Caring for the animals, as well as the boys, in addition to the transportation costs has necessitated calls upon the business community for financial assistance, assistance that has been always readily available. It would help both organizations and the businessmen called upon if the Chamber of Commerce were able to underwrite a good share of this expense.

The Directors considered this a most worthy appropriation Chamber of Commerce funds and a direct contribution to the welfare of agriculture in my County.

The second project in the Agriculture Department is "Advertise and promote markets for Deaf Smith County grains and produce." While various organizations to which farmers belong carry on similar programs, the Grain Sorghum Producers Association is just one, the objectives of those organizations are much broader than just Deaf Smith County.

A real need has been felt for advertising and promoting the particular virtues of vegetable and grain produce in this area. The research on bone and teeth health being carried on by the Deaf Smith Research Laboratory ry gives my Chamber of Commerce scientific grounds for extolling produce from my county. Outside of the health food angle there is also much to be gained from long range institutional type advertising and promotion in establishing in the minds of the public everywhere the name of my County as a leading producer of food stuffs.

As an indication of the Chamber's interest in assisting the farmers of my county to find premium markets for his products there has been budgeted $1,500 for this project alone. This makes a total of $2,000 for direct appropriation to agricultural development in my county. Added to the $2,000 appropriated for the Livestock Department, these two appropriations are the largest in the whole budget.

Next week I'll report to you on the projects in the Livestock Department, another very important phase of my County's economy and an important part of my Chamber of Commerce activity and budget.

Freshmen Beat Boys Ranch In First Victory

Winning their first game of the season, the Stanton Freshmen won 22-6 over Boys Ranch there Thursday. Finally prepared to win, the Freshmen Dogies had little troubles in downing the Boys Ranchers.

Stanton travels to take on the strong Canyon Frosh Thursday. Canyon dished out one of the Dogies' few defeats last season, and is expected to be just as hard to beat this year.

Freshman quarterback Frank Cain launched two scoring passes to ends Lynn Cook and Gary Roberson, and then scored one on a short romp himself.

According to Dogie coach Alex Glass, the Frosh have improved considerably over their first two performances, with the defensive line until holding up the bigger boys from Boys Ranch.

Back Johnny Dowd moved the ball well for the Dogies in his first game as fullback. Stanton's Dick Rogers put a prompt stop to most of the Boys Ranch offensive ideas.

Not telling the whole story, the 22-6 score doesn't mention three straight Stanton touchdowns runs that were recalled because of technicalities.

In their first play from scrimmage, the Dogies scored to get things off to a good start. Cain passed to end Lynn Cook who promptly placed the Dogies six points ahead 45 yards later. Cain broke through the line for the two extra.

Stanton went to the air quite frequently during the tilt, completing a vast majority of the aeriels, according to Coach Glass.

Shortly thereafter in the first quarter, Cain scored on a six-yard spree to climax a 60-yard drive. Passing again highlighted the effort. Stanton's try for two more failed, and the score remained 14-0 at the half.

Boys Ranch took advantage of their only scoring chance with a 25-yard pass. Stanton's defense held up throughout the game, allowing them to get within the 30 only this once.

Later in the third quarter, Stanton worked the ball down to the 20 for the first and ten. In three consecutive plays, Stanton crossed the goal unhampered, only to have their score nullified because of penalties. Boys Ranch held on the fourth attempt, and Stanton lost possession.

Late in the fourth quarter the Dogies racked up their third touchdown on another toss from Cain to Cook. Cain passed again the two extra points, this time to end Gary Roberson.

This Year's United Fund Drive Puts Charity At The Crossroads

Recent announcement that Hereford's United Fund drive has been scheduled from Oct. 16-31 brings this community face to face with a necessary decision. Either we will support the drive on a united basis, or we will go back to the old method of individual collections by each of the eight agencies which now come under the annual campaign.

Charity and donations are never popular, but without them needed projects and many individuals would suffer along with the community. Charity has been with us down through the ages, and no doubt will continue to be with us for many years to come.

The question is not whether we will continue to have charity and donations. Instead, it centers around how we find it best to meet a necessary obligation.

United Fund was originated with the idea of concentrating the small drives into one large collection spree. Chiefly, its sponsors felt that much time and effort could be saved in sponsoring one drive instead of eight small ones. In addition, each of the organizations was forced into preparing a budget and presenting a method of disbursement for money collected. Each of the agencies further agreed not to conduct additional drives.

Where Do We Go If Bombs Fall?

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following "fiction" was penned by Mrs. Maurice Belew, with assistance from Mrs. Robert Becknell and Mrs. Durwood Scott, members of the Civil Defense committee of the Hardeman County PTA. Of course this is just a story. It couldn't happen in Hardeman County—or could it?

It's a beautiful fall morning, things are going just as they should, children off to school, Dad at work, the babies settled and being so good!

After four years of United Fund operation, the community is faced with increasing the united effort, or of dropping back to the private solicitation method.

Leaders tell us that business firms, organizations and service establishments have held up their quotas in fairly good fashion. On the other hand, individuals have shown a tendency to gradually decline in their donations to the charitable causes. Frequently, we also hear complaints concerning other drives for causes which refuse to come under the United Fund drive.

You've finished the last cup of breakfast coffee and had such a good visit over the phone with Susan—she's such a sweet thing—only seven more weeks until she'll have the "new one." You even feel the excitement she has. Must go change the girls' bed—Oh! listen, there's the song we used to call ours. Still the best one, they just don't play music like that any more—then—

This year will tell the story. Either United Fund will once again meet its quotas, or we may see a resumption of former methods. It is possible that many of us have forgotten "how things used to be" and, on the other hand, many people may actually prefer the old method.

"We interrupt this program to bring you this important announcement. At 9 this a.m. the Air Defense Command announced that radar has picked up several hundred unidentified objects heading for the United States. Forty-five minutes is all the warning you have, take cover. This station will go off the air immediately, switch to 640 or 1240 megacycles for further information."

To us, United Fund seems just as necessary, just as practical and just as logical as the day it was started. We still believe that it saves time, allocates funds to better use and ultimately saves money for all concerned. Charity is a personal obligation, however, and we will be happy to go along with the majority.

Oh, Dear Lord! Get the babies into the house—must get Joe on the phone—Hello—the line is dead—the girls—forty five minutes—no shelter—the phone, still dead. The car—Grab the babies and run for the car. Find the girls, surely Joe will be hunting for them, too. One last look at the electric clock—time—it's stopped. Power gone! Car running—the gas tank half full. You drive toward town, the girls, please, Dear God, take care of them. Panic everywhere—people have gone crazy. You are getting panicky, you try to remember the Civil Defense meeting last fall—SHELTER—

While most of us are familiar with the driver accident statistics on highways on holidays, it may come as a shock to learn that the first eight months of 1961 have resulted in 46 accidents, four dead and 20 injured on rural highways in this county. Property damage was reported to $27,129 for the period.

TWO WEEKS SUPPLY OF FOOD, WATER AND MEDICINE FOR EACH MEMBER OF THE FAMILY—but it just can't be happening here—this is a nightmare—it can't be—can't be—this traffic here in Quanah, there can't be this many people living in the town of Quanah. Traffic is snarled now, 287 is a whirling, continuous line of cars, such speed. Look, those two just collided, isn't anyone going to stop and help? Time, NO, twenty-five minutes now, the girls, Joe—Please God. Only five more blocks to school, hurry, please hurry. Why can't they move faster? Look at the people running, must get closer, time, there isn't enough time, stop, yes, park and run to find the girls, the babies, can't leave them in the car, have to. Mother will be right back, don't be afraid sweetheart, everything will be OK.

The roads were in good shape for the most part, and every known method is used to prevent these accidents, most of which occur through negligence. Some occur, no doubt, through a feeling of security which leads the driver to feel that he has the road all to himself; others result from unnecessary high speeds.

It is impossible to patrol all of the roads in Deaf Smith or any other county at all times, which pretty well leaves the final problem in the lap of the individual operator. School buses, by their very existence, may well help solve the problem by keeping rural road drivers more alert. At least, it is a possibility.

Look at the children, everywhere children, screaming, crying. Mother, Mother, where are you? The girls, where, where—you begin to call—Terry, Linda—you try to ask someone if they have seen them, they don't even see you—Terry, Linda, Dear God, where are they? Terry, Linda—you see them. Thank You, Dear God, oh, Thank you, Joe, Joe—here I am, over here. Joe I'm afraid, hurry—hurry just ten minutes, don't cry darling, Daddy is here, everything will be all right, Joe, where do we go? what do we do?

Many people, although they may not consider themselves fully, are prone to help safeguard the lives of their children and the children of their neighbors. In addition, it would help measurably if the school bus drivers would take down license numbers and report flagrant violations.

WHERE WILL YOU GO AND WHAT WILL YOU DO?

Four Days Of Rain At Cow Camp As Hurricane Struck

BY MRS. R. L. CRISWELL

It was early evening but the darkness was closing in and the hoodlum and I were hurrying to get the dishes finished, the fire banked and the wagon sheet tied down tightly for the clouds were heavy with rain and we knew we would be cooking breakfast in the rain. The hood (cooks helper and driver of the hoodlum wagon) even had placed wood in the wagon to have it dry for building the fire in the morning.

It's a temper - flaring job to build a fire with wet wood at any time, but more so in the early morning. What we did not know was that we weren't going to be building fire for four days, handrunning, and that those four days were going to be very miserable and much more trying on a man's temper than building a fire with wet wood.

"It began raining in gusts and before the night was over it was pouring and it kept it up. We were camped on Irby's flat in the west part of the Swenson Ranch. There were two windmills for water and the cowboys were doing a bit of branding but mostly gathering shipping stuff that would be driven into Haskell (Texas) within a few days.

"There were no shipping or holding pens on the flat as this was in the fall of 1900. The herd was held together by nightriders in shifts and as the boys came in for their evening meal, each dug his slicker out of his bedroll and groaned that we were in for a miserable night as it was sure to rain.

"Everyone went to bed early, snug in the tents, but with an uneasy feeling. Some sourly predicted that the herd might stampede, and if it did, several days work was erased and it would take more time to get it done over.

"The tents were staked down hard and a trench dug around it to catch and run off the water that fell upon it. But before the storm was over those trenches would not only be full and overflow into the tents, but they would be washed out and be a wet soggy mess, for it was the fourth day before the rain stopped.

"The cowboys tried to build up their beds with mesquite branches, placing them on the floor of the tent and spreading their saggans over them, but nothing they did was much help against the storm, as it rained harder and harder and longer and longer until we thought we might have another flood and it seemed almost 40 days and nights, but being only four. The sun peeked out late on the fourth day and by late evening I had located a high prairie dog mound and had crossed wet sticks upon the mound and built a fire there.

"In those four days we had no coffee and our food was canned tomatoes and corn, uncooked. The herd had scattered in the rain and when the sun came out there wasn't a cow to be seen. That meal of fried bacon and water - gravy and cup after cup of hot coffee was one that we in that camp never forgot.

"It took days for the bedding to dry. The heavy saggans which weighed six or seven pounds when dry were heavy with water and it was impos-

Farmer Claims Irrigation Will Make Land Collapse

A brand new objection was raised to irrigation this week when a good farmer came forward to remark that if everybody should put down wells and have one on each 160 acres that all the water would soon be pumped out and that there would be great danger in the surface of the earth sinking or that possibly great chunks of earth would fall in and leave yawning holes in the fields into which a whole crop of maize or alfalfa would be engulfed. The conclusion is that if the surface sinks in account of removing the underground water, our houses will be careened out of line, some leaning one way and others just the opposite. Our fine court house might be split in two and the grade of the Santa Fe road changed to such an extent that new fills and cuts would have to be made. Thus another danger is pending. Let's not put down too many wells as we might (?) exhaust the water and the world fall in. . . E. B. Black is supposed to be the first to pick cotton in this neighborhood. Last Monday he picked his patch over and while he would not give the exact number of pounds he gathered, he says that he picked an average of 1020 pounds of seed cotton per acre and that he expects to get 2,000 pounds per acre. It will be remembered that Mr. Black's cotton was planted in fertilized soil, using at the rate of 300 pounds of commercial fertilizer to the acre. The patch was planted on April 28, and the first picking was done Sept. 18.

25 YEARS AGO

Additions to Central School are expected to get above ground next week. The pouring of concrete on the east wing was completed yesterday and work on the west wing is going on. The laying of brick was expected to be started this week end or the first of next week. Work will go forward rapidly until the walls are completed, and then inside work will be started, along with other remodeling and repair work to be done on the building proper. . . Parading the historical steps in the development of this section before hundreds of Centennial Day visitors, the greatest parade ever prepared here will march down Main Street at 11:30 o'clock Friday morning. The parade will form at Mother's Park, march down Main Street to First, thence east to Sampson and north to the court house, where it will disband, parade manager Ray Conaway announced definitely Wednesday. The parade will not go to the City Park because of the necessity of crossing the railroad.

SCHOOLS OFFER INSURANCE

Superintendent of Schools Neal Dillman said this week that the schools are offering student accident insurance in Muleshoe Schools this year.

This program is a public service of the schools, for the convenience of students and parents. The insurance gives lower rate insurance for school children.

Two plans were offered in a fact sheet sent home with students Wednesday. The first plan is for 24-hour protection for one calendar year, at a cost of $10 per student per year.

Plan two provides accident insurance while students are participating in or attending school sponsored and supervised activities, and while traveling to or from school for classes.

Protection is also offered the student who is going to or from any school-sponsored and supervised activity, provided he is traveling as a member of a group under the supervision of the school. This plan also includes accidents occurring away from school premises when the student is participating in or attending any activity sponsored and supervised by the school.

Football players in the seventh, eighth, or nine grades are covered by either of the two plans. High school football players are covered by a school-paid policy which covers football only.

SALES TAX IS IMPORTANT

Future of West Texas State College will be affected a great deal by the recently passed sales tax, WT President Dr. James P. Cornette told members of Canyon Lions Club Wednesday.

Dr. Cornette said Texas Revenue had come principally from natural resources and special sales taxes on certain designated "vices."

The college president said that under the old tax structure the state simply was running out of financial means to carry on state services. He said the state was faced either with passing a state income tax law or a general sales tax law and the legislature chose the latter.

RECEIVE HOUSING NOTE

The $2,400 note to be used for planning funds for 12 new low-rent housing units to be built in Olton in the near future was received here recently, according to Dick Whiteley, manager of Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

The United States Government authorized the money for the project about three weeks ago.

Whiteley said the note would be signed by members of the housing committee and Olton State Bank will sign an agreement to be the depository bank. The note probably will be returned this week.

This money will be used in locating building sites and preliminary work. The rest of the money for the building project, or the full loan, will be paid by the government after construction starts.

THE BOOTLEG

Editor's note: The Bootleg Philosopher on his blind-weed farm seems to be standing up for his rights this week, part of the way, at least.

Dear editor:

One thing about newspapers, you can be reading along on one, not taxing your mind much and enjoying the fact so many people went to so much trouble to round up news from all over for you and deliver it to you in one handy package, without you even stirring off your farm and then something will jump out of an article at you.

Like what happened to me yesterday. I was reading about an interview some reporters had with Ex-President Harry Truman, and along in the middle of it this jumped at me:

"Mr. Truman declined to make specific comment on the conduct of American foreign affairs, saying, "No retired farmer from Missouri, like myself, has any business telling the President what to do."

Undenation. Maybe ex-Presidents haven't got any right to tell the President what to do, but if a farmer, retired or active, hasn't got that right, there sure are a lot of them subject to arrest.

Telling the President what he ought to do, and especially telling him what he should have done after it's happened and you've got the advantage of hind-sight, is a fundamental right that ought to be written into the Constitution if it's not already there.

If a farmer can't tell a President what he did wrong, this leaves a farmer staring at himself in the mirror when he has another bad year on his hands, and such a situation is worse than a drought or a plague of insects.

You might as well tell a football fan he hasn't got the right to tell a coach what he ought to do, might as well tell a tax payer he hasn't got the right to tell a mayor how to run the city, might as well tell a parent he hasn't got the right to tell a teacher how to teach, might as well tell a man he hasn't got the right to tell his wife what to do, might as well . . . wait a minute, let's back up a little, just rub that last one out. No use going hog-wild.

Yours faithfully,
 J. A.

(Continued from page 4) ble to wring much water out of them. The water had to drip from them slowly, but blankets and lighter things could be wrung out and dried very well the first day or so.

"We were almost dried out when several days later the big boss came to see if we had drowned and told us the hurricane that had struck the coast and had all but wiped Galveston off the map with 6,000 or more people lost in the storm. We were awe-struck; 6000 people, men, women and children.

"With one accord, every man in that crowd - outfit took off his hat, and I am sure in his heart thanked God that he had been on the plains of Texas and not on the coast, and I am sure that each one of them contributed money from his meager wages to help those in the stricken area. For once there was no humor any where. Silence prevailed for several minutes.

"We talked about it for days and the boss brought us old newspapers to read, but they were new to us and each one would read and comment on some story of heroism that had ended tragically.

"It was a couple of weeks or so before the cattle were again gathered and ready to ship out, but our camp was quiet and no one complained of the work or that the cooking was bad.

"There was no complaining of the work on water - gaps and fences that had been washed out, but we did know that we were to be out in the cold weather of November getting the work done that had been slowed by the rainstorm."

This story was told to me by a man that had cooked on the Swenson ranches for so many years that he was unsure of the number, Dudlow Kincheloe. He lost his sight in his later years but was active for many years and was always happiest in telling stories of the old chuck-wagon days or of helping with the dishes, where he stayed at one of the camps until the illness that caused his death.

HANDLE WITH CARE CORNING, N. Y. — "Women, knowing they are able to withstand long hours, cold, heat or most anything else, unthinkingly demand their husbands do the same," says psychologist Dr. Cleo Dawson.

"As a result, women are living longer than at any other time in history, and men are dying faster."

She told a group of business and professional women that they must ease emotional and tension-building burdens and must not ask their men to do more than is necessary.

BY CHARLIE SEEDS

The name of Walt Davis is inscribed in the record books for his extraordinary track and field achievements. But the really remarkable thing about Walt Davis is the story behind his records.

At the age of 8 Walt was stricken with polio... paralyzed in one arm and both legs. There was doubt that he would ever walk again... much less jump. But Walt Davis wouldn't believe what the doctors said... and he wouldn't give up. Long years of training and struggle began, forcing his muscles to work, strengthening them... finally bringing them to the point where he could realize his dream of becoming a track star.

Walt became a high jumper... and he won a gold medal at the Olympic Games. Then came his greatest day, at Dayton, Ohio, in the annual A. A. U. Track and Field Championships. On his third try over the high jump bar the legs that had once been crippled pushed him higher than any man in history... 6 feet, 11 1/2 inches... for a new world record!

Remember the year? It was a buyer's market in new cars that year, and new records were being set in the sale of cars... and the kind of deal a wise buyer could get. Cars were better than ever... and so were the deals.

The year was 1953. You'll find a terrific buyer's market in our showroom today... and a car that's bigger, better, more beautiful than ever... the new 1961 Ford. You'll find our trade-in allowances are setting new highs now, too, so don't wait! Drive a new Ford today, at CHARLIE SEEDS MOTOR Co. Inc., W. Hwy. 60 at Miles. Phone EM 4-2721.

Mrs. Davis Never Too Busy To Help With Cub Scouts

Mrs. Leonard Davis, pictured on Page 1, Section 2, with some of Hereford's other Den Mothers, says "If you want to stay young at heart, be a Den Mother." And Mrs. Davis is beginning her seventh year in this capacity, serving as den mother for Pack 50, Den 4.

Two of Mrs. Davis' boys have attained the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank in scouting. Her son, George, is Scoutmaster for troop 151.

Mrs. Davis is the only mother in this district to have received her Den Mother's Key. In order to receive the key, a den mother must take a full training course, serve at least two years as a den mother and attend a pow-wow in Amarillo.

Besides her work with the boys, Mrs. Davis was recently elected president of the VFW Auxiliary for a second term. She is active in the American Legion Auxiliary, having held many of its offices. For four years, she served as chairman for Poppy sales.

Alta, as her friends call her, has served as president of her Sunday School Class and worked two years with the cradle roll extension service for the First Baptist Church. She has collected for the Red Cross and helped out at the Labor Camp.

At the present time Alta is on the advisory board for the Theta Rho girls and has served as an advisor for them. She is a past Noble Grand of the Rebekah Lodge and has served 192 hours with the Ground Observers' Corps.

Mrs. Davis has spent many hours working at the Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo, helping with parties for the veterans and assisting in the gift shop. Besides all these outside activities, she keeps her own home and yard and makes all of her own clothes and sews for her friends.

In this day when many mothers find themselves too busy to help with the Cub or Scouts, attend P. T. A. meetings and the like, it is refreshing to find a woman who is interested enough in the civic welfare of our town to fill in where and when she is needed. One of our pack leaders was heard to say, "We've never found Mrs. Davis too busy to say 'yes'."
