

Congress expediting measure to end rail strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is working swiftly to complete legislation that would order locomotive engineers to end a strike that officials say is costing the already-battered U.S. economy up to $1 billion a day.

After a day of testimony by government, union and management officials, the measure was rushed to the Senate floor, where it was approved by voice vote Tuesday evening with fewer than a dozen senators on the floor.

The return-to-work order was moving through the House today under an expedited procedure that could have it on President Reagan's desk by day's end.

The measure will take effect immediately upon Reagan's signature. Meanwhile, the strike by 26,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers continued into its fourth day today.

The walkout has idled another 400,000 railroad workers and Transportation Secretary Drew Lewis told Congress Tuesday that unless it ends, up to 500,000 other people in rail-dependent industries could be laid off within two weeks.

Rep. John D. Dingell, D-Mich., called a meeting of his House Energy and Commerce Committee today to consider the strike legislation, drafted on Reagan's orders Monday when negotiations broke down.

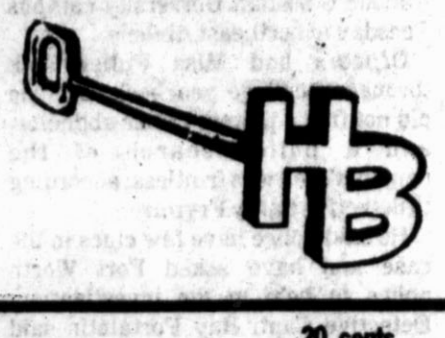

The bill's approval by the Senate Tuesday night was urged by leaders of both parties, including Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, chairman of the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee and the panel's ranking Democrat, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

The only dissent in the less than half-hour of Senate debate was voiced by Sen. Howard Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, who said he thought Congress should never impose a labor settlement.

Israeli government struggling for survival

By The Associated Press
Prime Minister Menachem Begin's government fought for survival today in a stormy parliamentary debate over its rejection of an official inquiry into the massacre of refugees in west Beirut.

U.S. presidential envoy Philip C. Habib was due to arrive in Beirut to supervise the redeployment of a multinational peacekeeping force, which Israel agreed to under heavy U.S. pressure and demands that Israeli forces withdraw.

The Lebanese army, which entered west Beirut for the first time in seven years when PLO guerrillas were evacuated last month, expanded the area of its deployment, taking over parts of the port and the bomb-ravaged commercial center from Israeli forces.

The Israelis, who moved into west Beirut after the assassination Tuesday of president-elect Bashir Gemayel, withdrew troops from the port, the commercial district, the bombed ocean-side hotel area and the old Jewish quarter.

Lebanon's state radio reported. The radio said this was part of a five-part plan worked out by Lebanese and Israeli commanders to turn over all of west Beirut to the Lebanese army by Sunday.

In Jerusalem, Israel radio said Energy Minister Yitzhak Berman would resign after voting against his government in the parliamentary debate over opposition demands for an investigation into the slaughter of more than 200 refugees at two camps in west Beirut last week by Israel's allies, Lebanese Christian militiamen.

Ronnie Milo, head of the ruling Likud faction in the Knesset, or Parliament, said today the future of the government coalition will be at stake when the Knesset votes on the issue. The debate was expected to last several hours.

Labor Party chairman Shimon Peres had called for the entire government to resign but said he did not expect that to happen. Begin reportedly opposed the inquiry on grounds it would imply Israeli involvement in the massacre.

Kiwanians install Nieman; Brock honored for service

Steve Nieman, local insurance agent, accepted the president's gavel when the Hereford Kiwanis Club installed new officers at a ladies - night banquet at Hereford Country Club Tuesday night.

In another banquet highlight, Gene Brock was named Kiwanian of the Year by a vote of fellow members of the club. Jim Simon, retiring president, made the presentation and also paid special tribute to a number of project chairmen for their work the past year.

Brock, a school administrator, was especially cited for his work with the Key Club - a high school organization sponsored by the Kiwanians. He has also been active in other projects of the club.

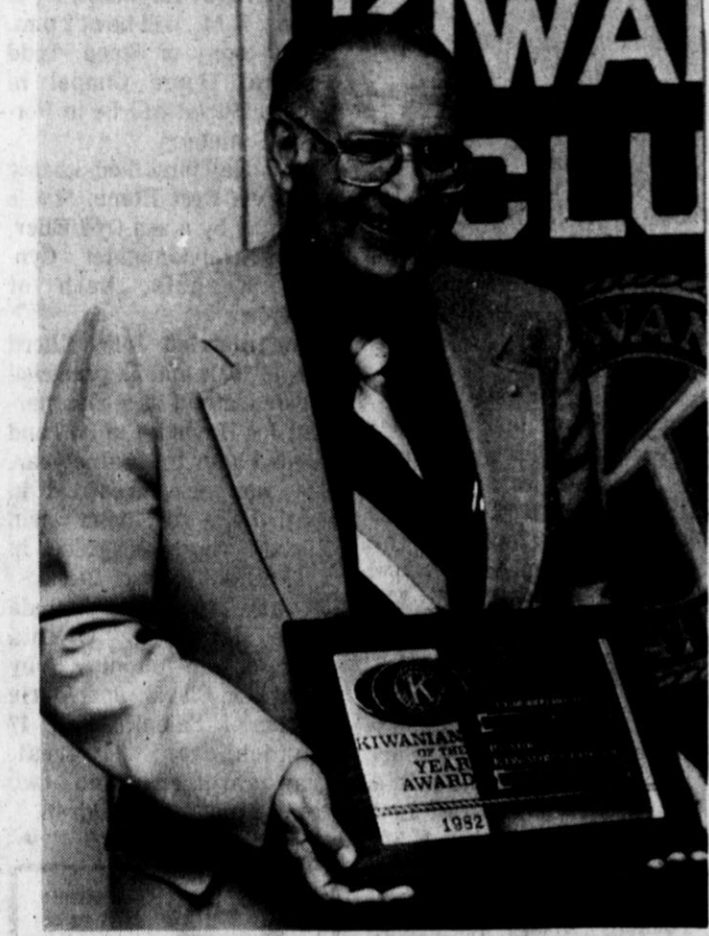

The new slate of officers, installed by Lt. Gov. Frank Dillard of Canyon, include Nieman; John Stagner, president-elect; Lloyd Ames, vice president; Truman Hazelrigg, vice president; Danny Boyer, secretary; Bartley Dowell, treasurer; and Stephanie Foster, sweetheart.

New directors were also installed. They include Gerry Hollinger, Brock, Waldo Baxter, Ed Coplen and Larry Pagett. Retiring officers included Bill Bankston, Scott Holbert, Jimmy Rowton, Bud Eades, Hazelrigg and Lloyd Sharp.

Special entertainment for the banquet was provided by several members of the Chamber Singers. Singing solos were Bill Devers, Cyndi Kiker and David Balch.

Tom Simons served as master of ceremonies for the event; Boyer introduced guests, and Holbert presented perfect attendance pins. Guests included visiting Kiwanians and local Key Club officials.

Communist deputy Toufik Toubi, an Israeli Arab, shouted against what he called "the murder of innocents under the patronage of Israel" and was promptly ejected from the debate.

Liberals on verge of killing prayer in schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate liberals, their confidence buoyed by victories on two procedural votes, predict they're on the verge of killing for the year legislation designed to allow prayer in public schools.

"We have beaten them," said Sen. Patrick Daniel Moynihan, D-N.Y., Tuesday. "We have broken the radical right." Moynihan was optimistic because the Senate refused, 47-53, Tuesday to cut short a liberal filibuster against Sen. Jesse Helms' legislation that would strip the Supreme Court of authority to rule on school prayer cases.

The vote means the North Carolina Republican must find seven senators to change their minds when a third vote to limit debate, scheduled for today, takes place.

In Tuesday's vote, Helms picked up only three additional votes from the first vote to limit debate Monday. It appeared likely that Helms would get a few additional votes, but not enough to reach the 60 needed to limit debate to 100 hours.

Tom Ashcroft, a spokesman for Helms, declined to predict the outcome of today's vote, but said the prayer debate "is just one battle in a long war."

Majority Leader Howard Baker of Tennessee said that after today's vote he would call together the main figures in the month-long debate on the so-called social issues debate, and look for some way to resolve the fight.

Meanwhile, with a new fiscal year just eight days away, the House was hurrying to pass stopgap appropriations to keep the government running until Congress bills returns for a post-election session.

Stoppag action was needed because few if any of the 13 appropriations bills necessary for operating the government are expected to be passed by Congress and signed into law by the start of the fiscal year, Oct. 1.

Voter registration drive underway

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (AP) — Elmer Wayne Henley, convicted of participating in the worst mass murder plot in Texas history, has lost his appeal before a state court here.

The 13th Court of Appeals upheld Henley's conviction in the deaths of six Houston boys in 1972 and 1973.

Henley was found guilty in 1979, the second time he was tried on the charge, and was sentenced to six concurrent life prison terms.

Local Arab leaders in northern Israel today called a general strike to protest the slaughter. Israel radio reported the strike stopped Arab-run bus service in northern Israel, and that traffic was blocked on some roads by Arab youths burning tires

Court denies Henley appeal

Henley's appeal claimed 11 judicial errors in that second conviction, eight of them concerning jury selection and the rest regarding his right to legal counsel.

The appeals court said Henley was told of his right to counsel at least four times but continued to make incriminating statements.

His first trial, at San Antonio in 1974, also resulted in a guilty verdict but was overturned on a change of venue error and the case moved to Corpus Christi.

Frisco cable cars shut off

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Tourists and residents thronging for a last ride joined cable car workers going into exile in saying a temporary goodbye to the creaking cars that have been climbing halfway to the stars on crumbling tracks in recent years.

The city planned to shut the system down with the push of a button today, marking the end of festivities that began Tuesday and the start of a $58.2 million overhaul of the century-old system.

The cars were laden with hundreds of rainbow-colored balloons, bunches of streaming ribbons, Japanese lanterns and pots of flowers for a farewell party over Nob Hill.

"We rode one for the first time Monday night, and all the people on board were singing. When the ride was over, we all applauded. It was lovely," said Therese Kronenburg, who lives in Belgium. "It was lucky for us that we were here for the last day of the cable cars."

The project ends June 1984, 111 years after Andrew Smith Hallidie's first car rolled down a hill. Three of the eight lines restored after the Great Earthquake and Fire of 1906 survive today, the nation's only mobile National Historic Landmark.

Crooner Tony Bennett, riding a parade cable car carrying Fairmont Hotel personnel who tossed candy to the crowd, hopped up on a reviewing stand with Mayor Dianne Feinstein to sing a few lines from his signature song, "I Left My Heart In San Francisco."

"We shall return," said Richard Sklar, general manager of the city public Utilities Commission, which runs the city's transit system.

The renovation will replace the track, underground mechanisms, sewers and water mains, and motors which drive the cables that run under the streets throughout the 9½-mile system. The cars stop and go by gripping the cable.

Clues scant in abduction of teacher

ABILENE, Texas (AP) — A Fort Worth teacher abducted at knife-point and forced to drive her captor here in a school van could not help police discover a motive for the incident, investigators said.

Lisa Fuller, a teacher at a preschool academy in west Fort Worth, was interviewed by detectives after she dropped the man off near the Abilene Christian University campus Tuesday in northeast Abilene.

Officers had Miss Fuller look through a college yearbook, but she did not find a picture of her abductor, and a police search of the neighborhood was fruitless, according to detective Larry Frymire.

He said police have few clues in the case and have asked Fort Worth police to help in the investigation. Detective Capt. Ray Portalatin said campus security officers have also been asked to watch for the man.

Miss Fuller said she was driving to work Tuesday morning when the man entered the van while she was stopped at an intersection. The man pulled a knife and demanded she drive him to Abilene, she said.

Official predicts return to jobs

LONGVIEW, Texas (AP) — The president of an East Texas steel company that laid off more than 3,000 workers this year says the company plans to reopen its mill and put its employees back to work when economic conditions improve.

However, James Chenault, president and chief executive officer of Lone Star Steel, said his company's efforts are being stymied by the "cruel and unjust" price advantage foreign steelmakers enjoy over domestic mills.

"We are working day and night to return all our people to the production lines," Chenault said Tuesday. "We intend to remain a major force in the economic well-being of East Texas as we have been for some 35 years." Lone Star Steel laid off most of its employees last month when an oil-industry decline depressed orders for the company's tubular steel products. Chenault said he could not say when the mill might reopen, but said that day is being delayed by current regulations that give foreign steelmakers a price break.

"This is cruel and unjust. No, it's worse than that. It's outrageous," Chenault said. "U.S. Secretary of Commerce Malcolm Baldrige is making efforts to negotiate a voluntary restraint of imports from European mills. But there's been very little progress in recent weeks. Europeans are dragging their feet."

Chenault told a reporter that employee wage and benefit concessions to reduce labor costs would not change the realities of the steel market.

"If there is a healthy production rate, we'll be calling back pretty fast," he said.

Kansas couple files against Texas man

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — A couple has filed a federal court lawsuit seeking more than $100,000 from a Texas truck driver and the company for which he was working when he ran into their house after killing a sheriff's deputy.

A.J. and Karen Sue Thomas of Towanda filed the action Monday in U.S. District Court in Wichita against Johnny Lee Huddleston, James A. Hodges and the Hodges Grain Co.

Huddleston, 31, of Decatur, Texas, was convicted of involuntary manslaughter in the April 19 death of Butler County Sheriff's Sgt. Alvin Thomas Wolf.

The deputy was in his patrol car attempting to stop Huddleston's truck during a high-speed chase. The truck crushed the patrol cruiser and then bashed into the side of the Thomas house.

The suit seeks more than $2,000 from each defendant for actual damages to the house and more than $10,000 from each in punitive damages.

More than $40,000 in additional damages is sought from each defendant for alleged injuries, including emotional distress caused by the accident.

The couple contends Hodges was negligent because he employed Huddleston when he should have known Huddleston was an incompetent driver.

Company prohibited from selling E.T. goods

HOUSTON (AP) — E.T. is more than just a lovable creature from outer space — he's valuable property, a federal judge has ruled.

U.S. District Judge James DeAnda issued a preliminary injunction Tuesday prohibiting Kamar Industries Inc. of Houston from manufacturing or selling products bearing the letters E.T. or any likeness of the character in the box-office hit, "E.T.: The Extra-Terrestrial."

Universal City Studios Inc., which produced the movie, and Merchandising Corp. of America, its licensing arm, sued Kamar for alleged copyright and trademark infringement by taking orders for E.T. coffee mugs.

"The E.T. character has become a valuable property right and symbol distinctive of Universal and its motion picture," DeAnda said.

Andy Abernethy, president of Kamar, testified earlier this month he was "trying to capitalize on a fad" and estimated he could lose up to $2 million in potential retail orders if the injunction was granted.

Abernethy had planned to print E.T. slogans on porcelain mugs imported from China.

But DeAnda ruled that by promoting merchandise carrying "I love E.T." and "E.T. Phone Home," the company endeavored "to reap where it has not sown and to appropriate to itself the rewards of those who have."

Steve Adler, a Universal vice president, estimated total revenue from sales of E.T. toys, games, cups, T-shirts, pajamas and other items could be more than $1 billion.

'Egg man' spurned city life

Rural eggs popular in Houston

BURTON, Texas (AP) — Postmen in these parts don't have to look twice when they handle a piece of mail marked: Egg Man, Route 2, Burton, Texas.

That could only mean Daniel Kieke, owner and operator of Kieke Egg Farm, a smooth-running family operation in the far southwest corner of Washington County that is gaining a reputation even in the busy Houston area.

Kieke, who had a taste of that big city life back in the mid '50s, returned home to start his egg operation 22 years ago.

"I was working for Shell Chemical Co. in Houston and looking for a way to get back home," Kieke recalls. "Even then I would bring a few dozen eggs back with me after a weekend and sell them to the people I worked with. "In 1960 I gave it all up and came back; and I might add, with no regret."

He started his egg farm with 2,500 hens, a mere fragment of the 90,000-bird capacity he has today. And his market reaches into Houston to where he travels two or three times a week with refrigerated truckloads of eggs.

In the beginning the eggs were gathered by hand. Today, because rising costs created a need to get more hens per house, Kieke has gone to an operation with stair-stepped rows of birds sending the fruits of their labor via a modernized conveyor belt system.

Belts lead from eight 400-foot-long laying houses to the main belt which carries the eggs to the processing room where they are put through a washer, dryer, sterilizer and candler — which examines them for freshness — before being mechanically sized by weight and placed in one-dozen cartons or 2½-dozen trays to be placed in 30-dozen or 15-dozen cases.

"The eggs," Kieke explains, "are never touched by human hands."

But to see that things run smoothly, Kieke is joined by his wife Ila, son Rick, daughter-in-law Debra, daughter Karen and granddaughter Teresa.

"It's strictly family operated," Kieke says. Of course, it takes a lot of cooperation from the hens.

"And the secret is to keep the hens happy as possible," he says. "Since one hen lays only about 280 eggs in her lifetime, you try to make her as comfortable as possible during that time."

That includes insulated laying houses with 48-inch fans and sprinkler systems to combat the summer heat.

"We sprinkle their combs to cool them," he explains. "The comb works like the radiator in your car."

A laying hen's lifetime is considered 14 months; after that she's a "spent hen" and is sold to a dressing plant at Nixon in South Texas.

When their time is up, Kieke sells the entire laying house at once.

Demand has been down but Kieke expects the price of eggs to go up soon.

"When it gets cooler, people eat more eggs and when school starts there are more breakfasts being fixed," Kieke said. "But eggs are always your best buy at the grocery store."

Kieke is of the belief that eggs should be sold by the pound rather than by the dozen.

"Take your large eggs which are bringing about 60 cents a dozen right now. A dozen large eggs weigh about a pound and a half.

"So figure how much they cost a pound; you can't get a better buy."

Kieke Egg Farm eggs make their way into Houston stores and supermarkets but much of his sales is right here in Washington County.

"Brenham is a good market," he said. "I supply several of the grocery stores, restaurants, motels, driv-ins, both hospitals and the two nursing homes."

He makes about two trips a week into Brenham and makes weekly deliveries in Giddings, LaGrange and Weimar.

Grain farmers will feel pinch of railroad strike

HOUSTON (AP) — Panhandle farmers, harvesting corn and preparing to cut milo, could be desperately hurt by the nationwide railroad strike, industry officials say.

"Many farmers are encountering tremendous difficulties in moving their crops from rural areas to market," said Dean Rea, owner of Rea Commodities in Amarillo.

Rea said Tuesday he doubted the trucking industry would be able to absorb the added volume because "there're just not that many trucks."

Texas annually produces about 5 percent of the nation's corn crop — 94 million bushels in 1981 — and about 40 percent, or 153 million hundredweight, of the grain sorghum, said Frank Petr, Panhandle region agronomist for the Texas A&M agricultural extension service.

The railroad strike, however, probably will scarcely make a dent in work at Texas ports, where business already has dropped because of the recession, officials said Tuesday.

"Business has been so slow that there probably won't be much effect," Ed Horn, spokesman for the Port of Houston, said of the strike. "So far it's not being felt at all."

Les Sanderfer, manager of the Port of Houston's bulk materials handling plant, said the walkout's effects would be more keenly felt as time passed.

"For the next couple of shifts, we will be all right," Sanderfer said. "But once the rail cars don't come in from main lines, and we don't get all the cars for a shipment, we'll have some problems."

Negotiations between the union and National Railway Bargaining Council, which represents 110 railroads, collapsed Monday after the two sides failed to resolve the question of a wage differential for engineers over those earned by other members of a train crew.

The engineers want assurances before agreeing to a contract that their differential would be maintained.

The industry insists the matter should be resolved in separate negotiations later and wants a prohibition against the union striking if no agreement is reached on a differential during the life of the new contract. Union negotiators have balked at such a "no strike" clause.

A special presidential commission, established during the 60-day cooling off period, had recommended that the differential issue be left to separate negotiations and endorsed the "no strike" clause. The Reagan administration asked Congress to make those recommendations mandatory.

Robert Blanchette, head of the Federal Railroad Administration said engineers earn an average of $36,000 a year, while other members of the train crew earn an average between $27,000 to $32,000 a year.

Hearings held on dust exposure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Albert Gore Jr., whose House committee is holding hearings on the cotton dust standard in textile plants, says it's "inconceivable" that the Reagan administration would seek to relax the level.

"There are tens of thousands of workers in the cotton textile industry who have been injured by exposure to cotton dust," said

Gore, a Tennessee Democrat who is chairman of the House Science and Technology oversight subcommittee.

"It is inconceivable to me that OSHA — the agency charged with protection of worker health — would want to relax the cotton dust exposure standard," Gore said.

Earlier this year, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, citing new evidence, announced its intention to review the federal cotton dust standard.

The committee's hearing today was to explore the quality of this evidence.

Thorne Auchter, assistant labor secretary for occupational safety and health, was to testify as well as several medical experts.

Broken windows reported

Hereford police say that they have a suspect in a criminal mischief case reported by Carthel Real Estate in which several windows in a rental house at 121 Avenue A were broken.

Two theft reports were taken by police Tuesday. A bike was stolen from the 1500 block of Brevard and a battery was taken from a vehicle at the city sewer plant.

Officers are looking for a black 1975 Chevrolet Nova reported stolen from Eldorado Arms sometime between Saturday and Tuesday.

One person was arrested for driving while license suspended and another person taken into custody for felony violation of probation. Seventeen traffic tickets were issued.

The bride is the daughter of Marvin Welty of Hereford and Linda Oliver of Corpus Christi. The bridegroom's parents are Betty and Buddy Pickens of Hereford.

Mr. Welty gave his daughter in marriage.

Christi Smith served her sister as matron of honor and Larry Wade was best man. The bridegroom's sister,

Jan Pickens, invited guests to register at the reception held in the church parlor. The bride's sister, Cherri Welty and the groom's sister, Jill Pickens, served cake and punch. The bride, who is a 1979 graduate of Hereford High School is employed at St Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo.

Her husband also attended HHS and is presently employed with Law Construction Co. in Amarillo.

Herd offense faces first real test Friday

By Les Giles
SPORTS EDITOR

Statistically speaking, it's easy to see why Friday night's Hereford - Monterey game, set for 7:30 p.m. in Lowrey Field, shapes up as a tight one.

While Hereford has averaged 415 yards a game offensively, the strength of its first three opponents (Pampa, Canyon and Lubbock High) certainly is suspect. Between the three, they are still seeking their first win of the season.

Monterey's strength appears to be, as it has in the past, defense. The Plainsmen, who've beaten Midland High, Amarillo High and Coronado, have given up 162 yards a game.

Against the rush, and that has been the Herd's strong suit thus far (rolling up 977 yards in three games), Monterey has yielded 265 yards (an average of just over 88 per outing).

Monterey has given up the fewest points (16) among District 3-5A teams, while the Herd has scored the most (107).

But, while the game shapes up as Hereford's offense vs. Monterey's defense, it's not as if Hereford ranked second in the league in total defense (allowing 158 yards a game), and has allowed the second-fewest points (22).

"I don't think there's any doubt Monterey's defense will be the best we've faced so far this season," Herd boss Don Cumpton said.

"They have a swarming, pursuing kind of defense. They like to get as many people to the football as possible.

"It'll be the first real test our offense has had this season."

And, thus far, Hereford has had the offensive weapons with which to exploit a defense.

Tailback Alfred Ball is the league's leading rusher with 307 yards on 39 carries. Fullback Raymond Martinez ranks third with 220 yards on 26 carries, and quarterback Charles McDowell is fifth with 200 yards on 13 carries.

The three have averaged 9.3 yards per attempt.

Offensively, Monterey has averaged 260 yards a game. The Plainsmen have been paced by tailback Jay Douglas, who ranks fourth in the league with 217 yards on 36 carries.

Trying to figure out the Harris Rating System, from week to week, is about as difficult as trying to guess the outcome of football games, and believe me that's no easy task.

Before Hereford played its first game this season, it was ranked 56th. After the 34-6 win over Pampa, the Herd jumped 27 places to 29th.

They remained 29th after beating Canyon, 31-8, but dropped three notches (to 32nd) following last week's 42-8 win over Lubbock.

I'm sure Mr. Harris ranks the teams according to their opponent that week, and how much they beat them by.

Monterey's case has been more puzzling. The Plainsmen began the season ranked 101st. After beating Midland, 17-2, they jumped to 82nd. Then, after a 24-0 triumph over AHS, they moved up to 20th, but after outlasting Coronado, 17-14, dropped all the way to 40th. This week, the Harris poll rates the game as EVEN.

Congratulations are in order to the Herd for their 10th place ranking in this week's Associated Press Top 10 Schoolboy Poll.

I mentioned in the story Tuesday that it was Hereford's first-ever ranking in the top 10.

But, I feel that is an error. The 1972 team was ranked in the state's top 10, before losing to Monterey, 7-0, the sixth week of the season.

The 1971 Hereford team gained recognition by reaching the Class 4A quarterfinals, before bowing to eventual state finalist Wichita Falls, 28-8.

Then in '72, the Herd began season with victories over Pampa (20-0), Palo Duro (31-22), Borger (33-0), Canyon (35-8) and Amarillo (32-3).

A season-ending loss to Lubbock High left that club with a 8-2 mark.

West Texas State's Victor McGee continues his climb toward the top of the school's all-time passing yardage list.

After three games, McGee has moved within 160 yards of fifth place Gene Mayfield. The Longview senior has completed 66 of 118 passes for 920 yards. Nationally he ranks fourth in total offense (287.3 yards per game) and 24th in passing efficiency (124.2 rating).

Buff receiver Mark Manley is 14th nationally with 17 catches for 229 yards. He's also 16th in punting with a 40.9 average.

WT, as a team, is currently second in the country in passing offense. They average 330.7 yards a game, trailing only William & Mary, who has averaged 342 yards a game.

However, the Buffs are still looking for their first win of the season.

They'll get a chance to break into the win column this Saturday when they host McNeese State, currently 1-2 on the year, at 7:30 p.m. in Kimbrough Stadium.

And, while the Buffs are looking for their first win this season, Texas Tech will try to make it two in a row Saturday when the Red Raiders host Baylor at 7:30 p.m.

Both teams are 1-1 this season. Tech came from behind to nip Air Force, 31-30, last week, after being shut out by New Mexico the week before.

Baylor was idle last week, after losing to Ohio State (21-14) two weeks ago.

Saturday's meeting will be the 42nd between the two schools. Baylor leads the overall series, 24-16-1, but Tech enjoys the upper hand in SWC play, 12-11. In games played at Lubbock, Tech stands 13-10-1 vs. the Bears, while in conference openers the Red Raiders are 5-16-1.

Turner plans pro football telecasts

By BARRY WILNER AP Sports Writer

Ted Turner has established a new television network and he has a product to show on it — professional football.

The Turner Broadcasting System, whose flagship station is WTBS in Atlanta — a station which reaches all 50 states via satellite — announced Tuesday that it would televise games involving All-Star teams made up of striking National Football League players.

The first two games will be aired Oct. 10 and 11. The first game was expected to be played at RFK Stadium in Washington with Philadelphia and Dallas also probable sites for games.

Meanwhile, CBS, NBC and ABC were scrambling for alternate programming for as long as the strike lasts.

This Sunday, CBS will present an expanded version of the NFL Today, followed by a rebroadcast of last January's Super Bowl between the San Francisco 49ers and Cincinnati Bengals. And NBC has opted for a Canadian Football League doubleheader, with the British Columbia Lions at Toronto to play the Argonauts and the defending champion Edmonton Eskimos hosting the Calgary Stampeders.

ABC will replace its Monday Night Football with entertainment programming, beginning with a Cint Eastwood movie, "The Outlaw Josey Wales." That network also was to show Thursday night's Atlanta-Kansas City contest but, if it isn't played, will air "The Cheap Detective," a film starring Peter Falk, and its news magazine show, 20-20.

The NFL has promised legal action to stop the players from participating in the All-Star games — 18 of them involving six teams, one from each division.

"We will take legal action against all appropriate parties" to prevent the games from being staged, said Jack Donlan, executive director of the NFL Management Council, the owners' bargaining unit. "We will seek an injunction."

TNT has lined up 33 affiliates, including stations in most NFL cities. The two teams with the best records will play for the championship in Honolulu.

TBS President Robert Wussler said the NFL Players Association "will do their level best to fight any court action that might prevent them from playing." TBS also said that the names of participating players and coaches will be announced next Tuesday in Washington.

Turkey shoot Saturday

A turkey shoot, sponsored by the Simms Lions Club, will be held Saturday, beginning at 2 p.m. at the Simms Community Center, located 15 miles north of Hereford on Highway 385 and 15 miles west on 1412.

Hereford CowBelles gift certificates will be awarded. A community garage sale also will be held at the same location, sponsored by the Simms Study Club.

The general public is invited to attend. Coffee and donuts will be provided.

Faust knows Irish lore

Parseghian's emotional outpourings, Leahy's fanatical obsession to win, win, win.

And now it is there for all to see in a 50-minute film produced by Steve Sabol of NFL Films and narrated by the dulcet-voiced John Facenda.

The film is entitled "Wake Up the Echoes," a line taken from the Notre Dame Victory March, and the legends are all there — Rockne, Leahy, Parseghian, the Gipper, the Four Horsemen. Faust made sure his players saw it before they took the field and defeated Michigan 23-17 Saturday night.

"It's the most unbelievable thing I've ever seen," Faust gushed. "I cried through the whole thing. After we saw it, my wife said, 'Now I really know what Notre Dame stands for.'"

Indeed, it is something to see Adam Walsh, center for the famed Seven Mules, his eyes glistening, relating that when he has a problem, he still looks skyward to his old coach and pleads, "Rock, what do I do?"

It would be perfect if someone had told Facenda how to pronounce Parseghian's name. Seven times in the film he pronounces it "Par-see-yen." Ara pronounces it "Par-seeg-yen."

Speaking of legends, how about Eddie Robinson? He has been the head coach at Grambling since the start of the century, or so it seems. Actually, it has been a lifetime of 39 years and Robinson ranks as the fourth winningest coach of all time.

His record is 299-98-13 and the classy veteran goes for magic No. 300 Saturday night when Grambling visits Florida A&M in Tallahassee.

The only coaches ahead of Robinson are Bear Bryant (317-81-17) and counting in his 38th season as a head coach), Amos Alonzo Stagg (314-199-35 in 57 years) and Glenn "Pop" Warner (313-106-32 in 44 years). Robinson has sent more than 200 players to the pro ranks.

Angels widen lead

By BEN WALKER AP Sports Writer

California Angels Manager Gene Mauch, in the midst of perhaps the most important game of the American League West pennant race this season, said he just had a feeling about rookie Daryl Sconiers.

"I had my mind made up before the game that if there was a pinch-hit situation against (Kansas City reliever Dan) Quisenberry, unless it was a bunt situation, it was going to be Daryl Sconiers."

Sconiers, 0-for-8 this year, drilled a one-out single in the bottom of the ninth inning to drive in the winning run as the Angels downed the Royals 2-1 Tuesday before 52,415 roaring fans in Anaheim Stadium.

The victory, California's fourth straight, increased its AL West lead to two games over Kansas City, which lost for the sixth straight time. The Angels beat the Royals 3-2 on Monday night.

In other AL games, Boston downed Milwaukee 4-3 in 10 innings, Detroit routed

Baltimore 11-1, Toronto topped Minnesota 5-1, Oakland beat Texas 6-1, Seattle nipped Chicago 5-4, while Cleveland and New York split a twin-night doubleheader, the Indians winning the opener 9-8 and the Yankees taking the nightcap 6-2. "It was an indescribable feeling," said an elated Sconiers. "The only thing in my mind was getting a hit. I didn't care how I got it."

Carlton wins 21st

By KEN RAPPOPORT AP Sports Writer

It's been 10 years since they sent Steve Carlton to the Philadelphia Phillies, but the St. Louis Cardinals are still paying for the deal.

Carlton personally pitches better against the Cardinals than any other team in the National League, holding a remarkable 35-10 career record against his former club.

That includes Tuesday night's must-win 5-2 triumph that kept the Phillies still breathing in the NL East race.

"He can pitch several more years if he wants to because of his strength," Philadelphia pitching coach Claude Osteen said in respect for the 38-year-old Carlton, who improved his record to 21-10 with a 14-strikeout performance. "He's also as mentally strong as anybody in the game."

The East-leading Cardinals currently lead the runner-up Phillies by 4 1/2 games, but Philadelphia would be out of sight without Carlton. He has a 5-1 record this year against the Cardinals, who hold an 11-7 edge over the Phillies in the season series.

In other NL action, San Diego bested Los Angeles 3-0, Houston stopped Atlanta 5-3, New York took a 2-1, 10-inning decision over Montreal in the first game of a doubleheader before the Expos won the second game 5-1. Chicago tripped Pittsburgh 1-0 and Cincinnati edged San Francisco 6-5.

Errors by St. Louis in the third and fifth innings accounted for four Philadelphia runs off Cardinal starter Eric Rasmussen, 0-1, including all three in the decisive fifth.

Tied at 2-2, Philadelphia capitalized on third baseman Kelly Paris' error on Ivan DeJesus' leadoff groundout. After Carlton sacrificed and Bob Dernier lined out, Pete Rose singled home DeJesus, and Garry Maddox singled home two more runs after Gary Matthews singled and Mike Schmidt walked to load the bases.

Overall, Carlton scattered nine hits and walked two.

HAS GOD ABANDONED ISRAEL?

"But tell the exiles that the Lord God says: Although I have scattered you in the countries of the world, yet I will be a sanctuary to you for the time that you are there, and I will gather you back from the nations where you are scattered and give you the land of Israel again. And when you return you will remove every trace of all this idol worship. I will give you one heart and a new spirit; I will take from you your hearts of stone and give you tender hearts of love for God, so that you can obey my laws and be my people, and I will be your God." (Ezekiel 11:16-20) harvests from your fruit trees and fields, and never again will the surrounding nations be able to scoff at your land for its famines. Then you will remember your past sins and loathe yourselves for all the evils you did. But always remember this: It is not for your own sakes that I will do this, but for mine. O my people Israel, be utterly ashamed of all that you have done!

"The Lord God says: When I cleanse you from your sins, I will bring you home again to Israel, and rebuild the ruins." (Ezekiel 36:28-33)

Kant the philosopher, meditated while staring out of his window at a stone tower. When trees grew up to obscure the tower he chopped them down.

"When fools have nothing to talk about they talk about the weather."

Flower Show Planned

Members of Hereford Garden Club have scheduled their 46th annual Flower Show from 2-4 p.m. Friday at the Community Center. This event, the theme of which is "Autumn Beauty", will be open to the public and will have artistic and horticultural divisions. Pictured from left are Mrs. Jack Wilcox, Mrs. R.L. Wilson and Mrs. O.G. Hill, Sr.

CANCER ANSWER LINE American Cancer Society
M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute

Question: Does a black skin make one more susceptible to cancer?

ANSWERline: There have been sharp increases among black Americans of cancers of the lung, esophagus, larynx, oral cavity and bladder. But this is most likely because these cancers are strongly associated with cigarette smoking, or with cigarette smoking combined with alcohol intake. Other differences might be partly explained by dietary, occupational, genetic or other factors. These however are speculative and may take many years to determine scientifically. Most cancers occur because of something we do, eat, drink or smoke, and to some extent where we live. Of practical significance too, is the fact that fewer black Americans than whites have their cancers diagnosed and treated in the earliest and most curable stage. Moreover, regardless of stage at diagnosis the survival rate for blacks is lower than that for whites. This may well have more to do with health care delivery than with biology. A national study by the American Cancer Society showed that black Americans are less aware of cancer's warning signals than whites; are much less likely to get cancer information than whites; and lower income blacks are less apt to see a doctor when they experience cancer's symptoms. Thus, these are areas in which improvements in education, early detection, and treatment can have a swift and important impact.

Farr speaks to DAR members during Constitution Week

Commemorating the 195th anniversary of the drafting of the Constitution of the United States of America, Constitution Week, Sept. 17-23, was the theme of the first meeting for the 1982-83 club year of Los Ciboleros Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, Thursday afternoon in the Heritage Room, Deaf Smith County Library.

Mrs. LeRoy Williamson, chapter regent, called the meeting to order and led in the Chapter's Opening Rituals. Mrs. Charles Vasek introduced Randy Farr, 1981-82 DAR Outstanding History Teacher, of LaPlata Junior High School, as guest speaker.

Farr presented a very informative program on the Constitution and the amendments. He discussed the conditions and problems in the American colonies before the drafting of the U.S. Constitution.

In his discussion of the proposed amendment to put voluntary prayer back into public schools, an excellent background study of the role of the church and state in education, both public and private schools, the situations and conditions, the different court cases, the early religious leaders for freedom of assembly and worship, the tax exempt status of church as a non-profit organization, and the release time situation were covered.

The 1952 Engel case in New York with the famed 22-word prayer, Bible readings cases in Pennsylvania up to the May 6 1982, Presidential Rose garden statement for voluntary and spontaneous prayer to be allowed in public schools were studied.

He discussed the issues, both pro and con, for a better understanding of the problems that legislative representatives are now encountering. He concluded his excellent program with this thought: we must pray for our Congressmen for guidance as they undertake to resolve these difficult issues that are more complex than they appear on the surface.

Mrs. Austin Rose, Jr., National Defense leader, proposed that the ideals upon which our Constitution are based cannot be worked out without an enlightened public.

She asked: "Do you know your rights, freedoms and duties under the supreme law of the land?" and urged all members to reread this valuable document to strengthen their faith in the sound principles which have sustained this nation for almost 200 years.

She also discussed "STATISTICS - Understand what you Read!" Figures lie, and Liars Figure.. a clever play on words.. and a warning to look beyond the casually tossed out statistics we see and hear constantly.

Some are very meaningful and help put a problem into perspective, while other figures obscure the real problem in a "smoke screen" of numbers that really do not relate. Our problem is to pick and choose, mentally as we read or hear the daily barrage of "facts."

The message: we need and must use figures and statistics and we need to understand them; but we should not be misled by getting only part of the story and be abused by their misuse.

Members of Chapter accepted the recommendation of the Executive Board for contribution to the candidacy of Mrs. Ernest S. Brainard, chapter member, to the national office of recording secretary general. The Chapter's endorsement of Mrs. Brainard for this office was made at the May 15 luncheon meeting.

Yearbooks were distributed for the 1982-83 club year, and a resume of the year's activities was discussed.

Mrs. Vasek, chairman of Constitution Week committee, reported that proclamations had been signed by Mayors of Hereford and Dimmitt, and study material had been given to libraries, radio stations and newspapers.

Guests for the meeting included Randy Farr, Mrs. Glen Reeve and Mrs. Willo Ellison of Friona. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Vasek, Mrs. Jess Robinson, and Mrs. Williamson.

Members present included Mmes. V.O. Hennen, Rose, Merlin Kaul, J.J. Durham, Sue James, T.J. Carter, Jack Gilliland, A.L. Jordan, Joe Reinauer, Jr., Garth Thomas, Herman Drake, Carroll Newsom and Miss Mildred Elliott.

The next monthly meeting will be an evening meeting held Oct. 21 at 7 p.m. in the new banquet room, Hereford Community Center.

New Officers Installed

Los Ciboleros chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution installed new officers recently in the Heritage Room of Deaf Smith County Library. From left are chapter regent, Mrs. L.K. Williamson; recording secretary, Mrs. Jess Robinson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Vasek; treasurer, Mrs. Joe Reinauer, Sr., historian, Mrs. Merlin Kaul; and curator Mrs. Jack Gilliland.

Tulia 'kitchen band' to perform Thursday

The Senior Citizen's September birthday social will include a performance by the Rhythm Racket-teers from Tulia, a group of 48 young-at-heart members who range in age from 64 to 90.

The social begins at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Hereford Senior Citizens Center. As approximately 50 guests are expected, local members are asked to bring extra food.

The Rhythm Racket-teers formed in June of 1981 under the direction of Mrs. Sam (Mary Etta) Bryan, play instruments such as sand blocks, rub boards, harmonicas, sticks, bells, shakers, kazoos, tambourines, and other "kitchen utensils" in addition to piano, guitar, and violin.

They have added skits to some of the songs, designing and making their own costumes for the skits. They perform such numbers as "She'll Be Coming Round the Mountain," "Daisy," and "In the Good Old Summer Time."

El Llano members meet for opening day brunch

A Saturday morning brunch began the new club year for members of El Llano Study Club this week. The club met at the Cowgirl Hall of Fame.

The menu included quiche, apple bars, sausage rolls, bacon crisp, fresh fruit, iced apple juice, and coffee.

Following the meal, Mike Moon of the Family Services Center, gave a short program on personality quizzing. He will return to visit the club for a continuation of the program.

Yearbooks were distributed which carried out the theme of the morning, "Chicken Soup With Rice." Members of the yearbook committee served as hostesses at the morning brunch. They include Karen Abney, Kathy Johnson, Diane Hoelscher, and Roberta Caviness.

Members were entertained with music by Kristin Abney, Mrs. Abney's daughter. Secret Pals were revealed by a gift exchange. A new member, Billie Farr, was welcomed by President Jane Coplen.

Other members attending were Ursalee Jacobsen, Delores Foster, Avis White, Jeane Dowell, Elizabeth Cesar, Jean Ballard, Leona Kimball, Opal Bookout, Donna Jones, and Donna Warwick.

Ann Landers
Don't ask that question

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Many people write and say, "I know you'll never print my letter," but you do. I hope it works for me.

My problem is of a strange nature. I have been seeing a married man for several years. I am married also. We really do love each other, but divorce is out for both him and me - so we have decided to settle for whatever we can get.

I am eaten up by anger whenever I think of him making love to his wife. He has told me she is a good sex partner (not as good as I), but when she wants him she insists on having him and there's nothing he can do about it.

It drives me crazy when I am with him and he tells me that he had sexual relations with her that very morning. I realize I shouldn't ask but I always do, and he tells me the truth. I make it a rule never to have sex with my husband on the day I know I will be meeting my lover. I think he owes it to me to save himself for me the way I save myself for me.

Am I being unfair? Am I nutty? Am I too demanding? Please give your honest opinion. - A Crazy Lady In Chicago

DEAR CRAZY LADY: You aren't nutty, but you are stupid (and maybe a bit masochistic) to ask a question for which the answer drives you mahoola. My advice is to stay off that subject or resign yourself to continued torture.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is my second marriage and I want it to work. My husband has two sisters in town. Neither one is very swift.

Last week I knocked myself out cooking a gourmet meal for these slobs. When the first couple arrived, they said, "We hope you didn't fuss. We're not hungry. We just had a hotdog. That place down the road has the best in town."

We waited 40 minutes for the second couple, and I finally called them on the phone. They said they forgot and would be right over. When they arrived they said they had already eaten. My husband is very fond of these kooks. What should I do? - Overstocked In Stockton

DEAR O: Invite them over to please your husband, but not for meals. Cheese and crackers will do it.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I have been reading your column since I was 11. I am 25 now and need your help.

My girl friend and I have been roommates for seven months. We rented a large apartment so we could have out-of-town guests. The problem is her parents. They are retired and have nothing to do except come down and "help Joan." They've been here every month and stayed here from five days to two weeks.

They camp out in the living room on the sleep sofa. (Her mother says the bed in the second bedroom is too high.) This means I cannot talk privately on the phone or relax downstairs. I also can't have any visitors.

I love this apartment and don't want to move. I'm sure Joan doesn't realize I think her mother is a pain.

Shall I tell her how I feel? What about insisting that her parents either use the other bedroom or stay in a motel? - Cramped In The District

DEAR C: Have a heart-to-heart with Joan at once. You have a right to insist that her parents use the upstairs bedroom, even if it means THEY buy a lower bed. You should also agree on how often and how long any guest should stay - hers or yours. I'd say one weekend per month is plenty.

British arms dealer arrested

DALLAS (AP) - A British subject licensed to conduct international arms sales has been ordered to appear in Dallas federal court Oct. 1 on a firearms violation charge.

Ian Smalley, 41, was released on $100,000 bond Tuesday by federal Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms agents, on a charge he lied on an application to buy a shotgun at a Dallas store Sept. 1.

Meanwhile, a Dallas television station said Smalley was the subject of a 15-month investigation by U.S. Customs officials. WFAA-TV said the agency suspects Smalley of allegedly trying to arrange $1 billion worth of illegal arms sales to Iran, Iraq and other Mideast countries.

Federal agents said Smalley has been registered with the U.S. State Department to negotiate arms sales to U.S. allies.

Smalley denied he was involved in any illegal activity and said he was only in Texas to oversee some ranchland.

"I just raise a little beef in Texas," he told the Dallas Morning News late Tuesday, after a television report said Smalley was suspected of illegal international arms dealings. "I sound like Bluebeard, but really, I'm just a good old boy like everybody else."

Federal agents said Smalley owns a 2,000-acre ranch in Bosque and Hamilton counties in Central Texas.

Smalley declined to comment about a report on WFAA-TV that he negotiated the sale of 8,300 missiles to Iraq and several hundred tanks to Iran.

A U.S. Customs Service agent, who asked not to be named, told the newspaper Smalley is a large-scale international arms dealer. Smalley was the subject of a firearms investigation in Dallas last year but no charges were filed, said ATF agent Joe Shaw. And U.S. Atty. James Rolfe said Smalley "has been under numerous investigations in this area and elsewhere."

During his bond hearing, Smalley testified he had more than $1 million worth of cashier's checks when he was arrested.

Smalley's attorney, Craig Jett, said the engines were for automobiles.

Storewide Appliance Sale

Every major appliance is on sale. And you get merchandise certificates worth $10 to $30 when you buy select items in this section.

Save now at Montgomery Ward. Charge it three ways.

How Montgomery Ward Storewide Appliance Sale Merchandise Certificate works:

When you purchase a major appliance, a Merchandise Certificate in the amount specified will be given on application. The certificate is valid for one year. The certificate is redeemable at any Montgomery Ward catalog store or Sales Agency. The sales unit will notify the customer when the certificate arrives from the nearest catalog distribution center, upon verification of sale and customer receipt of qualifying merchandise. The Special Appliance Sale Merchandise Certificate is valid on any subsequent catalog purchase made before January 27, 1983 at any Montgomery Ward catalog store or Sales Agency.
